1Samuel het vir die hele Israel gesê: Kyk, ek het aan julle versoek toegegee; soos julle vir my gevra het, het ek 'n koning oor julle aangestel. 2Hier is die koning dan nou. Hy sal julle lei. Maar ek het oud en grys geword en my seuns is hier saam met julle. Ek het julle van my jeug af tot nou toe gelei. 3Lê dan nou getuienis teen my af in die teenwoordigheid van die Here en sy gesalfde. Van wie het ek 'n os gevat? Van wie het ek 'n donkie gevat? Wie het ek benadeel of wie het ek verdruk? Uit wie se hand het ek omkoopgeld aangeneem om 'n onreg oor te sien? Ek sal dit terugbetaal. 4Toe antwoord hulle: U het ons nie benadeel en ons ook nie verdruk nie. U het van niemand iets gevat nie. 5Verder sê Samuel vir hulle: Die Here is hier by julle getuie, en sy gesalfde is vandag ook getuie dat julle niks teen my gevind het nie. En hulle sê: Hy is getuie. 6Samuel sê toe vir die volk: Die Here deur wie Moses en Aäron gemaak is wat hulle was, en deur wie julle voorgeslag uit Egipte gebring is, is getuie. 7Kom staan nou hier dat ek julle voor die Here kan onderrig op grond van al die reddingsdade van die Here wat Hy vir julle en julle voorgeslag gedoen het. 8Nadat Jakob in Egipte gekom het, het julle voorvaders na die Here geroep om hulp. Die Here het toe vir Moses en Aäron gestuur, en hulle het julle voorvaders uit Egipte uit gelei en in hierdie land laat woon. 9Maar julle voorvaders het die Here hulle God vergeet. Hy het hulle oorgegee in die mag van Sisera, die leëraanvoerder van Hasor, en in die mag van die Filistyne en van die koning van Moab, wat almal teen julle voorvaders oorlog gemaak het. 10Hulle het na die Here geroep om hulp en het bely: Ons het gesondig, want ons het die Here verlaat en ons het die Baäls en die Astartes gedien. Red ons tog nou uit die mag van ons vyande, en ons sal U dien.' 11Toe het die Here vir Jerubbaäl, Barak, Jefta en Samuel gestuur en julle bevry uit die mag van julle vyande rondom julle sodat julle rustig kon woon. 12Toe julle sien dat koning Nagas van die Ammoniete teen julle optrek, het julle vir my gesê: Nee, daar moet 'n koning oor ons heers,' hoewel die Here julle God tog julle koning is. 13Hier is dan nou die koning vir wie julle verkies het, op wie julle aangedring het. Kyk, die Here het 'n koning oor julle aangestel. 14As julle eerbied aan die Here betoon, Hom dien en na sy stem luister en julle ook nie verset teen die bevel van die Here nie, julle sowel as die koning wat oor julle regeer, sal die Here julle God by julle wees. 15As julle nie na die stem van die Here luister nie en ongehoorsaam is aan die bevel van die Here, sal die Here teen julle wees, soos teen julle voorvaders. 16Staan nog net 'n rukkie en let op hierdie groot ding wat die Here voor julle oë gaan doen. 17Hoewel dit nou nie reëntyd is nie, gaan ek die Here aanroep sodat Hy

donderslae en 'n stortreën gee. Kyk daarna en besef dan dat julle in die oë van die Here 'n baie verkeerde ding gedoen het deur vir julle 'n koning te vra. 18Samuel het die Here aangeroep, en die Here het op dieselfde dag donderslae en 'n stortreën gegee, en die hele volk het groot ontsag gekry vir die Here, en ook vir Samuel. 19Die hele volk het vir Samuel gesê: Bid tot die Here u God vir ons sodat ons nie sterwe nie, want by al ons sondes het ons nog boonop 'n verkeerde ding gedoen deur vir ons 'n koning te vra. 20Samuel sê toe vir die volk: Moenie bang wees nie, julle het nou wel hierdie verkeerde dinge gedoen, maar moet nou net nie van die Here af wegdraai nie. Dien die Here met julle hele hart. 21Moenie agter afgode aan wegdraai nie. Hulle kan nie help of red nie, want hulle is niks. 22Ter wille van sy groot Naam sal die Here nie sy volk prysgee nie. Die Here het besluit om julle sy volk te maak. 23Ook ek sal nie teen die Here sondig deur op te hou om vir julle te bid nie. Ek sal julle aanhou onderrig in die goeie en reguit pad. 24Wees net gehoorsaam aan die Here en dien Hom opreg en met julle hele hart. Let op die groot dinge wat Hy vir julle gedoen het. 25Maar as julle opsetlik verkeerd doen, sal julle sowel as julle koning uitgewis word.

Saul Fights the Philistines

1Sa 13:1 Saul was thirty years old when he became king, and he was king of Israel forty-two years.

1Sa 13:3 Jonathan killed the Philistine commander in Geba, and all the Philistines heard about it. Then Saul sent messengers to call the Hebrews to war by blowing a trumpet throughout the whole country.

1Sa 13:4 All the Israelites were told that Saul had killed the Philistine commander and that the Philistines hated them. So the people answered the call to join Saul at Gilgal.

1Sa 13:5 The Philistines assembled to fight the Israelites; they had thirty thousand war chariots, six thousand cavalry troops, and as many soldiers as there are grains of sand on the seashore. They went to Michmash, east of Bethaven, and camped there.

1Sa 13:6 Then they launched a strong attack against the Israelites, putting them in a desperate situation. Some of the Israelites hid in caves and holes or among the rocks or in pits and wells;

1Sa 13:7 others crossed the Jordan River into the territories of Gad and Gilead. Saul was still at Gilgal, and the people with him were trembling with fear.

Saul's Unlawful Sacrifice

1Sa 13:8 He waited seven days for Samuel, as Samuel had instructed him to do, but Samuel still had not come to Gilgal. The people began to desert Saul,

1Sa 13:9 so he said to them, "Bring me the burnt sacrifices and the fellowship sacrifices." He offered a burnt sacrifice,

1Sa 13:10 and just as he was finishing, Samuel arrived. Saul went out to meet him and welcome him, 1Sa 13:11 but Samuel said, "What have you done?" Saul answered, "The people were deserting me, and you had not come when you said you would; besides that, the Philistines are gathering at Michmash.

1Sa 13:12 So I thought, 'The Philistines are going to attack me here in Gilgal, and I have not tried to win the LORD's favor.' So I felt I had to offer a sacrifice."

1Sa 13:13 "That was a foolish thing to do," Samuel answered. "You have not obeyed the command the LORD your God gave you. If you had obeyed, he would have let you and your descendants rule over Israel forever.

1Sa 13:14 But now your rule will not continue. Because you have disobeyed him, the LORD will find the kind of man he wants and make him ruler of his people."

1Sa 13:15 Samuel left Gilgal and went on his way. The rest of the people followed Saul as he went to join his soldiers. They went from Gilgal to Gibeah in the territory of Benjamin. Saul inspected his troops, about six hundred men.

1Sa 13:16 Saul, his son Jonathan, and their men camped in Geba in the territory of Benjamin; the Philistine camp was at Michmash.

1Sa 13:17 The Philistine soldiers went out on raids from their camp in three groups: one group went toward Ophrah in the territory of Shual, 1Sa 13:18 another went toward Beth Horon, and the other one went to the border overlooking Zeboim Valley and the wilderness.

1Sa 13:19 There were no blacksmiths in Israel because the Philistines were determined to keep the Hebrews from making swords and spears.

1Sa 13:20 (The Israelites had to go to the Philistines to get their plows, hoes, axes, and sickles sharpened; 1Sa 13:21 the charge was one small coin for sharpening axes and for fixing goads, and two coins for sharpening plows or hoes.)

1Sa 13:22 And so on the day of battle none of the Israelite soldiers except Saul and his son Jonathan had swords or spears.

1Sa 13:23 The Philistines sent a group of soldiers to defend Michmash Pass.

I SAMUEL 13

1Saul het al 'n jaar of twee as koning oor Israel geregeer, 2toe kies hy vir hom drie afdelings uit Israel uit. Twee afdelings was by hom in Mikmas en in die bergwêreld van Bet-El. Een afdeling was by Jonatan in Gibea in Benjamin. Saul het die res van die manskappe huis toe gestuur. 3Toe Jonatan die Filistynse wagpos wat in Gibea was, oorrompel het, het die Filistyne daarvan gehoor. Saul het oor die hele land die ramshoring laat blaas om die Hebreërs op te roep. 4Die hele Israel het gehoor dat Saul die wagpos van die Filistyne oorrompel het en dat Israel in onguns gebring was by die Filistyne. Die manskappe is bymekaargeroep by Saul in Gilgal. 5Die Filistyne het bymekaargekom om teen Israel te veg: dertig afdelings strydwaens en ses afdelings perderuiters en manskappe so baie soos die sand van die see. Hulle het opgetrek en kamp opgeslaan by Mikmas oos van Bet-Awen. 6Israel het gemerk dat hy in die moeilikheid is, want die volk was in 'n hoek vasgekeer. Die volk het in spelonke, grotte, hol kranse, gate en droë putte gaan wegkruip. 7En sommige Hebreërs het deur die Jordaan gegaan na Gad en na Gilead toe. Saul was egter nog in Gilgal en al die manskappe by hom was doodbang. 8Hy het sewe dae gewag, die tyd soos afgespreek met Samuel, maar Samuel het nie by Gilgal opgedaag nie. Toe die manskappe wat by Saul was, begin dros het, 9het hy gesê: Bring die brandoffer en die maaltydoffers na my toe. Hy het toe self die brandoffer geoffer. 10En toe gebeur dit! Net toe hy die brandoffer klaar verbrand het, kom Samuel daar aan. Saul het na hom toe uitgegaan om hom te groet. 11Samuel vra hom toe: Wat het jy aangevang? En Saul het gesê: Ek het gesien die manskappe loop van my af weg, en u het nie opgedaag op die tyd wat ons afgespreek het nie. Die Filistyne het bymekaargekom by Mikmas, 12en toe dink ek: die Filistyne sal nou-nou teen my afkom na Gilgal toe en ek het nog nie aan die Here 'n offer gebring nie. Toe het ek dit gewaag om self die brandoffer te bring. 13Maar Samuel sê vir Saul: Jy het dwaas gehandel. As jy maar die bevel van die Here jou God wat Hy jou gegee het, nagekom het! Waarlik, dan sou die Here nou jou koningskap oor Israel vir altyd bevestig het. 14Maar nou sal jou koningskap nie bestendig word nie. Die Here sal vir Hom 'n man na sy hart soek. Die Here sal hóm aanstel as regeerder oor sy volk, want jy het nie gedoen wat die Here jou beveel het nie. 15Samuel het daarna opgestaan en van Gilgal af na Gibea in Benjamin toe vertrek. Saul het toe die manskappe wat nog by hom was, getel: omtrent ses honderd man. 16En terwyl Saul en sy seun Jonatan en die manskappe by hulle in Gibea in Benjamin was, was die Filistynse kamp nog steeds by Mikmas. 17Daar het toe 'n roofbende in drie afdelings uit die kamp van die Filistyne uitgegaan. Die een afdeling het in die rigting van Ofra na die Sualstreek toe gedraai. [18]Die tweede het in die rigting van Bet-Goron gedraai, en nog 'n afdeling het gedraai in die rigting van die gebied wat afkyk op die Seboïmdal na die woestyn se kant toe. [19]Daar was geen smid in die hele Israel nie, want die Filistyne het gesê die Hebreërs sal swaarde of spiese maak. [20]Daarom moes elke Israeliet na die Filistyne toe gaan om sy ploegskaar of skoffelpik of byl of ander gereedskap te laat slyp. [21]Dit was die geval met die skerpmaak van ploegskare, skoffelpikke, drietandvurke en byle en ook met die regmaak van osprikkels. [22]So het dit dan gebeur dat in die oorlogstyd nie een van die manskappe by Saul en Jonatan 'n swaard of 'n spies gehad het nie; net Saul en sy seun Jonatan het wapens gehad. [23]In daardie tyd het 'n patrollie van die Filistyne die pas by Mikmas beset.

Jonathan Defeats the Philistines

1Sa 14:1 One day Jonathan said to the young man who carried his weapons, "Let's go across to the Philistine camp." But Jonathan did not tell his father Saul, 1Sa 14:2 who was camping under a pomegranate tree in Migron, not far from Gibeah; he had about six hundred men with him.

1Sa 14:3 (The priest carrying the ephod was Ahijah, the son of Ichabod's brother Ahitub, who was the son of Phinehas and grandson of Eli, the priest of the LORD in Shiloh.) The men did not know that Jonathan had left.

1Sa 14:4 In Michmash Pass, which Jonathan had to go through to get over to the Philistine camp, there were two large jagged rocks, one on each side of the pass: one was called Bozez and the other Seneh.

1Sa 14:5 One was on the north side of the pass, facing Michmash, and the other was on the south side, facing Geba.

1Sa 14:6 Jonathan said to the young man, "Let's cross over to the camp of those heathen Philistines. Maybe the LORD will help us; if he does, nothing can keep him from giving us the victory, no matter how few of us there are."

1Sa 14:7 The young man answered, "Whatever you want to do, I'm with you."

1Sa 14:8 "All right," Jonathan said. "We will go across and let the Philistines see us.

1Sa 14:9 If they tell us to wait for them to come to us, then we will stay where we are.

1Sa 14:10 But if they tell us to go to them, then we will, because that will be the sign that the LORD has given us victory over them."

1Sa 14:11 So they let the Philistines see them, and the Philistines said, "Look! Some Hebrews are coming out of the holes they have been hiding in!"

1Sa 14:12 Then they called out to Jonathan and the young man, "Come on up here! We have something to tell you!" Jonathan said to the young man, "Follow me. The LORD has given Israel victory over them."

1Sa 14:13 Jonathan climbed up out of the pass on his hands and knees, and the young man followed him. Jonathan attacked the Philistines and knocked them down, and the young man killed them.

1Sa 14:14 In that first slaughter Jonathan and the young man killed about twenty men in an area of about half an acre.

1Sa 14:15 All the Philistines in the countryside were terrified; the raiders and the soldiers in the camp trembled with fear; the earth shook, and there was great panic.

1Sa 14:16 Saul's men on watch at Gibeah in the territory of Benjamin saw the Philistines running in confusion.

1Sa 14:17 So Saul said to his men, "Count the soldiers and find out who is missing." They did so and found that Jonathan and the young man who carried his weapons were missing.

1Sa 14:18 "Bring the ephod here," Saul said to Ahijah the priest. (On that day Ahijah was carrying it in front of the people of Israel.)

1Sa 14:19 As Saul was speaking to the priest, the confusion in the Philistine camp kept getting worse, so Saul said to him, "There's no time to consult the LORD!"

1Sa 14:20 Then he and his men marched into battle against the Philistines, who were fighting each other in complete confusion.

1Sa 14:21 Some Hebrews, who had been on the Philistine side and had gone with them to the camp, changed sides again and joined Saul and Jonathan.

1Sa 14:22 Others, who had been hiding in the hills of Ephraim, heard that the Philistines were running away, so they also joined in and attacked the Philistines, 1Sa 14:23 fighting all the way beyond Bethaven. The LORD saved Israel that day.

Saul's Rash Vow

1Sa 14:24 The Israelites were weak with hunger that day, because Saul, with a solemn oath, had given the order: "A curse be on anyone who eats any food today before I take revenge on my enemies." So nobody had eaten anything all day.

1Sa 14:25 They all came into a wooded area and found honey everywhere.

1Sa 14:26 The woods were full of honey, but no one ate any of it because they were all afraid of Saul's curse.

1Sa 14:27 But Jonathan had not heard his father threaten the people with a curse; so he reached out with the stick he was carrying, dipped it in a honeycomb, and ate some honey. At once he felt much better.

1Sa 14:28 But one of the men told him, "We are all weak from hunger, but your father threatened us and said, 'A curse be on anyone who eats any food today.' "

1Sa 14:29 Jonathan answered, "What a terrible thing my father has done to our people! See how much better I feel because I ate some honey!

1Sa 14:30 How much better it would have been today if our people had eaten the food they took when they defeated the enemy. Just think how many more Philistines they would have killed!"

1Sa 14:31 That day the Israelites defeated the Philistines, fighting all the way from Michmash to Aijalon. By this time the Israelites were very weak from hunger, 1Sa 14:32 and so they rushed over to what they had captured from the enemy, took sheep and cattle, slaughtered them on the spot, and ate the meat with the blood still in it.

1Sa 14:33 Saul was told, "Look, the people are sinning against the LORD by eating meat with the blood in it." "You are traitors!" Saul cried out. "Roll a big stone over here to me."

1Sa 14:34 Then he gave another order: "Go among the people and tell them all to bring their cattle and sheep here. They are to slaughter them and eat them here; they must not sin against the LORD by eating meat with blood in it." So that night they all brought their cattle and slaughtered them there.

1Sa 14:35 Saul built an altar to the LORD, the first one that he built.

1Sa 14:36 Saul said to his men, "Let's go down and attack the Philistines in the night, plunder them until dawn, and kill them all." "Do whatever you think best," they answered. But the priest said, "Let's consult God first."

1Sa 14:37 So Saul asked God, "Shall I attack the Philistines? Will you give us victory?" But God did not answer that day.

1Sa 14:38 Then Saul said to the leaders of the people, "Come here and find out what sin was committed today.

1Sa 14:39 I promise by the living LORD, who gives Israel victory, that the guilty one will be put to death, even if he is my son Jonathan." But no one said anything.

1Sa 14:40 Then Saul said to them, "All of you stand over there, and Jonathan and I will stand over here." "Do whatever you think best," they answered.

1Sa 14:41 Saul said to the LORD, the God of Israel, " LORD, why have you not answered me today? LORD, God of Israel, answer me by the sacred stones. If the guilt is Jonathan's or mine, answer by the Urim; but if it belongs to your people Israel, answer by the Thummim." The answer indicated Jonathan and Saul; and the people were cleared.

1Sa 14:42 Then Saul said, "Decide between my son Jonathan and me." And Jonathan was indicated.

1Sa 14:43 Then Saul asked Jonathan, "What have you done?" Jonathan answered, "I ate a little honey with the stick I was holding. Here I am—I am ready to die."

1Sa 14:44 Saul said to him, "May God strike me dead if you are not put to death!"

1Sa 14:45 But the people said to Saul, "Will Jonathan, who won this great victory for Israel, be put to death? No! We promise by the living LORD that he will not lose even a hair from his head. What he did today was done with God's help." So the people saved Jonathan from being put to death.

1Sa 14:46 After that, Saul stopped pursuing the Philistines, and they went back to their own territory.

Saul Fights Israel's Enemies

1Sa 14:47 After Saul became king of Israel, he fought all his enemies everywhere: the people of Moab, of Ammon, and of Edom, the kings of Zobah, and the Philistines. Wherever he fought he was victorious.

1Sa 14:48 He fought heroically and defeated even the people of Amalek. He saved the Israelites from all attacks.

1Sa 14:49 Saul's sons were Jonathan, Ishvi, and Malchishua. His older daughter was named Merab, and the younger one Michal.

1Sa 14:50 His wife was Ahinoam, the daughter of Ahimaaz; his army commander was his cousin Abner, the son of his uncle Ner.

1Sa 14:51 Saul's father Kish and Abner's father Ner were sons of Abiel.

1Sa 14:52 As long as he lived, Saul had to fight fiercely against the Philistines. So whenever he found a man who was strong or brave, he would enlist him in his army.

I SAMUEL 14

1Op 'n dag sê Jonatan seun van Saul toe vir sy wapendraer: Kom ons gaan oor na die patrollie van die Filistyne toe daar oorkant. Hy het dit egter nie vir sy pa vertel nie. 2Saul was toe onder 'n granaatboom by die dorsvloer net buite Gibea met omtrent ses honderd man by hom. 3Die priester Agija seun van Agitub, broer van Ikabod seun van Pinehas, seun van Eli wat priester van die Here in Silo was, het die skouerkleed gedra. Maar die manskappe het nie geweet dat Jonatan weggegaan het nie. 4Weerskante van die pas waar Jonatan probeer deurgaan het na die patrollie van die Filistyne toe, was daar 'n spits rots. Die naam van die een rots was Boses en dié van die ander Senne. 5Die een spits het soos 'n pilaar aan die noordekant teenoor Mikmas gestaan, en die ander aan die suidekant teenoor Gibea. 6Jonatan het vir sy wapendraer gesê: Kom ons gaan oor na die patrollie van hierdie heidene toe. Miskien sal die Here ons help. Hy kan red, deur baie of deur min. 7En sy wapendraer sê vir hom: Net soos u wil. Ek is tot u diens. 8Jonatan sê toe vir hom: Nou toe, kom ons gaan in hulle rigting sodat hulle ons kan sien. 9As hulle vir ons sê: Staan stil totdat ons by julle kom,' bly ons hier onder staan. Ons gaan dan nie op na hulle toe nie. 10Maar as hulle vir ons sê: Kom op na ons toe,' gaan ons na hulle toe, want dan sal dit vir ons die teken wees dat die Here hulle in ons mag gee. 11Toe die Filistynse patrollie die twee sien, het die Filistyne gesê: Kyk daar! Party Hebreërs het uitgekom uit die gate waarin hulle weggekruip het. 12En die manne van die patrollie het vir Jonatan en sy wapendraer uitgedaag: Kom op na ons toe dat ons julle 'n les kan leer. Jonatan het vir sy wapendraer gesê: Klim agter my aan! Die Here het hulle in die mag van Israel oorgegee. 13Jonatan het hande-viervoet opgeklouter met sy wapendraer op sy hakke. Die vyand het voor Jonatan geval, en agter hom het sy wapendraer hulle doodgemaak. 14In hierdie eerste slagting deur Jonatan en sy wapendraer het omtrent twintig man geval, en dit op 'n klein stukkie grond. 15Toe het die hele leër van die vyand paniekbevange geword, in die laer en in die veld; die patrollie en die roofbende het ook paniekbevange geword: daar was 'n aardbewing en God het hulle paniekbevange gemaak. 16Toe die wagte van Saul by Gibea in Benjamin sien dat die menigte in beroering is en in die rondte maal, 17het Saul vir die manskappe by hom gesê: Stel dadelik vas wie van ons is weg. Hulle het vasgestel Jonatan en sy wapendraer is nie daar nie. 18Saul sê toe vir Agija: Bring die ark van God nader. Die ark van God was in dié tyd by die Israeliete. 19Terwyl Saul nog met die priester aan die praat was, het die rumoer in die laer van die Filistyne steeds groter geword. Toe sê Saul vir die priester: Laat staan maar!

[20]Saul en die manskappe by hom het bymekaargekom en toe hulle by die geveg kom, was die Filistyne besig om onder mekaar te veg. Daar was baie groot verwarring. [21]Boonop het die Hebreërs wat voorheen saam met die Filistyne se leër opgetrek het, oorgeloop na die Israeliete toe wat by Saul en Jonatan was. [22]Al die Israeliete wat in die Efraimsberge weggekruip het, het gehoor dat die Filistyne vlug en het hulle agterna gesit. [23]Die Here het Israel daardie dag gered. Hulle het veg-veg by Bet-Awen verbygegaan. [24]Elke Israeliet het daardie dag kom veg. Saul het die manskappe 'n eed opgelê en gesê: 'n Ramp tref dié een wat voor vanaand iets eet. Ek wil my op my vyande wreek. Nie een van die manskappe het aan iets geproe nie. [25]Die gebied was bosagtig en daar was veldheuning. [26]Toe die manskappe in die bos kom, het dit sommerso gedrup van die heuning en tog het niemand sy mond aan iets gesit nie, want die manskappe was bang vir die eed wat hulle opgelê is. [27]Jonatan het egter nie gehoor toe sy pa die leër die eed opgelê het nie. Hy het die punt van sy kierie in 'n heuningkoek gesteek en daarvan geëet. Dit het hom nuwe krag gegee. [28]Een van die manskappe sê toe vir hom: Jou pa het die manskappe 'n streng eed opgelê en gesê: 'n Ramp tref dié een wat vandag iets eet.' Daarom is die manskappe nou uitgeput. [29]Maar Jonatan sê: My pa het 'n ramp oor die land gebring. Kyk net, ek het nuwe krag gekry omdat ek hierdie bietjie heuning geproe het. [30]As die manskappe vandag maar net ongehinderd kon geëet het van die buit wat van die vyand afgevat is, sou die slagting onder die Filistyne nou sommer baie groot gewees het. [31]Daardie dag het hulle die Filistyne verslaan van Mikmas af tot by Ajalon, maar toe was die manskappe heeltemal gedaan. [32]Hulle het op die buit toegesak en kleinvee, beeste en kalwers gevat en op die grond geslag en sommerso by die bloed geëet. [33]Daar is toe aan Saul gesê: Die manskappe sondig teen die Here deur by die bloed te eet. Toe sê hy: Julle doen verkeerd. Rol dadelik 'n groot klip na my toe! [34]Verder het Saul gesê: Loop tussen die manskappe deur en sê vir hulle: Elkeen moet sy bees of stuk kleinvee na my toe bring en op die klip slag en dan gaan eet, sodat hulle nie teen die Here sondig deur by die bloed te eet nie. Daardie nag het al die manskappe elkeen self sy bees gebring en daar by Saul geslag. [35]Saul het 'n altaar vir die Here gebou: hy het die klip gebruik om 'n altaar vir die Here te bou. [36]Daarna het Saul gesê: Laat ons die Filistyne vannag agtervolg. Laat ons hulle plunder tot môre ligdag. Ons moenie een van hulle laat oorbly nie. Die manskappe sê toe: Maak soos u goedvind. Maar die priester antwoord: Laat ons God hier raadpleeg! [37]Toe het Saul vir God gevra: Moet ek die Filistyne agtervolg? Sal U hulle in Israel se mag oorgee? Maar God het hom nie toe geantwoord nie. [38]Saul sê toe vir al die offisiere: Kom hiernatoe dat julle kan uitvind en self sien wie vandag gesondig het. [39]Al is dit ook my seun Jonatan moet hy sekerlik sterwe, so seker as wat die Here leef, Hy wat vir Israel red. Maar geen enkele manskap het vir Saul geantwoord nie. 40Toe sê hy vir die hele Israel: Julle moet eenkant toe staan. Ek en my seun Jonatan sal anderkant toe staan. En die manskappe sê vir Saul: Maak soos u goedvind. 41Saul het vir die Here gevra: God van Israel, gee tog 'n beslissing. Jonatan en Saul is aangewys, en die manskappe is van blaam onthef. 42Toe sê Saul: Julle moet loot tussen my en my seun Jonatan. Jonatan is aangewys, 43en Saul het vir hom gesê: Vertel my tog wat jy gedoen het. Jonatan het vir hom vertel. Hy het gesê: Ek het net met die punt van my kierie 'n bietjie heuning geproe. Maar ek is bereid om te sterf. 44Saul sê toe: Dit was 'n eed, Jonatan, jy moet beslis sterf! 45Maar die manskappe sê vir Saul: Moet Jonatan wat hierdie groot uitkoms vir Israel bewerk het, sterf? Beslis nie! So seker as die Here leef, daar sal vandag geen haar van Jonatan se kop op die grond val nie, want met God se hulp het hy die Filistyne verslaan. So het die manskappe vir Jonatan los gekry, en hy het nie gesterf nie. 46Saul het die agtervolging van die Filistyne gestaak, en die Filistyne het na hulle gebied toe teruggegaan. 47Nadat Saul seker was van die koningskap oor Israel, het hy oorlog gemaak teen al sy vyande in die omgewing: teen Moab en die Ammoniete; teen Edom en die konings van Soba; teen die Filistyne en teen almal wat teen hom gedraai het en gerebelleer het. 48Saul het dapper opgetree en die Amalekiete verslaan. Sodoende het hy Israel gered uit die mag van dié wat hom geplunder het. 49Die seuns van Saul was Jonatan, Jiswi en Malkisua; die name van sy twee dogters was Merab, die oudste, en Mikal, die jongste. 50Die naam van Saul se vrou was Aginoam dogter van Agimaäs, en die hoof van Saul se leër was Abner seun van Ner, 'n oom van Saul. 51Kis, Saul se pa, en Ner, Abner se pa, was seuns van Abiël. 52Gedurende die hele bewind van Saul was daar gedurig oorlog teen die Filistyne, en Saul het elke sterk of dapper man van wie hy gehoor het, by hom laat aansluit.

The Lord Rejects Saul

1Sa 15:1 Samuel said to Saul, "I am the one whom the LORD sent to anoint you king of his people Israel. Now listen to what the LORD Almighty says.

1Sa 15:2 He is going to punish the people of Amalek because their ancestors opposed the Israelites when they were coming from Egypt.

1Sa 15:3 Go and attack the Amalekites and completely destroy everything they have. Don't leave a thing; kill all the men, women, children, and babies; the cattle, sheep, camels, and donkeys."

1Sa 15:4 Saul called his forces together and inspected them at Telem: there were 200,000 soldiers from Israel and 10,000 from Judah.

1Sa 15:5 Then he and his men went to the city of Amalek and waited in ambush in a dry riverbed.

1Sa 15:6 He sent a warning to the Kenites, a people whose ancestors had been kind to the Israelites when they came from Egypt: "Go away and leave the Amalekites, so that I won't kill you along with them." So the Kenites left.

1Sa 15:7 Saul defeated the Amalekites, fighting all the way from Havilah to Shur, east of Egypt;

1Sa 15:8 he captured King Agag of Amalek alive and killed all the people.

1Sa 15:9 But Saul and his men spared Agag's life and did not kill the best sheep and cattle, the best calves and lambs, or anything else that was good; they destroyed only what was useless or worthless.

1Sa 15:10 The LORD said to Samuel,

1Sa 15:11 "I am sorry that I made Saul king; he has turned away from me and disobeyed my commands." Samuel was angry, and all night long he pleaded with the LORD.

1Sa 15:12 Early the following morning he went off to find Saul. He heard that Saul had gone to the town of Carmel, where he had built a monument to himself, and then had gone on to Gilgal.

1Sa 15:13 Samuel went up to Saul, who greeted him, saying, "The LORD bless you, Samuel! I have obeyed the LORD's command."

1Sa 15:14 Samuel asked, "Why, then, do I hear cattle mooing and sheep bleating?"

1Sa 15:15 Saul answered, "My men took them from the Amalekites.

They kept the best sheep and cattle to offer as a sacrifice to the LORD your God, and the rest we have destroyed completely."

1Sa 15:16 "Stop," Samuel ordered, "and I will tell you what the LORD said to me last night." "Tell me," Saul said.

1Sa 15:17 Samuel answered, "Even though you consider yourself of no importance, you are the leader of the tribes of Israel. The LORD anointed you king of Israel, 1Sa 15:18 and he sent you out with orders to destroy those wicked people of Amalek. He told you to fight until you had killed them all.

1Sa 15:19 Why, then, did you not obey him? Why did you rush to grab the loot, and so do what displeases the LORD?"

1Sa 15:20 "I did obey the LORD," Saul replied. "I went out as he told me to, brought back King Agag, and killed all the Amalekites.

1Sa 15:21 But my men did not kill the best sheep and cattle that they captured; instead, they brought them here to Gilgal to offer as a sacrifice to the LORD your God."

1Sa 15:22 Samuel said, "Which does the LORD prefer: obedience or offerings and sacrifices? It is better to obey him than to sacrifice the best sheep to him.

1Sa 15:23 Rebellion against him is as bad as witchcraft, and arrogance is as sinful as idolatry. Because you rejected the LORD's command, he has rejected you as king."

1Sa 15:24 "Yes, I have sinned," Saul replied. "I disobeyed the LORD's command and your instructions. I was afraid of my men and did what they wanted.

1Sa 15:25 But now I beg you, forgive my sin and go back with me, so that I can worship the LORD."

1Sa 15:26 "I will not go back with you," Samuel answered. "You rejected the LORD's command, and he has rejected you as king of Israel."

1Sa 15:27 Then Samuel turned to leave, but Saul caught hold of his cloak, and it tore.

1Sa 15:28 Samuel said to him, "The LORD has torn the kingdom of Israel away from you today and given it to someone who is a better man than you.

1Sa 15:29 Israel's majestic God does not lie or change his mind. He is not a human being—he does not change his mind."

1Sa 15:30 "I have sinned," Saul replied. "But at least show me respect in front of the leaders of my people and all of Israel. Go back with me so that I can worship the LORD your God."

1Sa 15:31 So Samuel went back with him, and Saul worshiped the LORD.

1Sa 15:32 "Bring King Agag here to me," Samuel ordered. Agag came to him, trembling with fear, thinking to himself, "What a bitter thing it is to die!"

1Sa 15:33 Samuel said, "As your sword has made many mothers childless, so now your mother will become childless." And he cut Agag to pieces in front of the altar in Gilgal.

1Sa 15:34 Then Samuel went to Ramah, and King Saul went home to Gibeah.

1Sa 15:35 As long as Samuel lived, he never again saw the king; but he grieved over him. The LORD was sorry that he had made Saul king of Israel.

1Samuel het vir Saul gesê: Dit is vir my wat die Here gestuur het om jou tot koning oor sy volk Israel te salf. Luister nou na die woorde van die Here. 2So het die Here die Almagtige gesê: Ek het nie vergeet wat Amalek Israel aangedoen het nie, hoe hy Israel teengestaan het toe hulle uit Egipte getrek het. 3Gaan verslaan nou vir Amalek. Jy moet alles wat hy het, om die lewe bring. Jy mag jou oor hom nie ontferm nie. Jy moet man en vrou doodmaak, kind en suigling, bees en skaap, kameel en donkie. 4Saul het die manskappe opgeroep. Hy het hulle by Telaim getel: twee honderd afdelings voetsoldate en tien afdelings uit Juda. 5Saul het by die woonplek van die Amalekiete aangekom en sy manskappe laat stelling inneem by 'n spruit. 6Toe het Saul die Keniete laat weet: Gee gou pad tussen die Amalekiete uit sodat ek julle nie saam met hulle uit die weg ruim nie, want julle het die Israeliete goed behandel toe hulle uit Egipte getrek het. Die Keniete het toe tussen die Amalekiete uit padgegee. 7Saul het daarna die Amalekiete verslaan van Gawila af tot waar 'n mens kom by Sur teenoor Egipte. 8Hy het koning Agag van Amalek lewend gevang, maar die hele volk om die lewe gebring. 9Saul en die manskappe het Agag gespaar en ook die mooiste kleinvee en beeste, die vetstes, en die lammers en alles wat mooi was. Saul-hulle wou dit alles nie om die lewe bring nie. Al die vee wat swak en waardeloos was, het hulle wel van kant gemaak. 10Toe het die woord van die Here tot Samuel gekom: 11Ek is bedroef daaroor dat Ek Saul koning gemaak het, want hy het van My af weggedraai en nie my opdragte uitgevoer nie. Samuel was ontsteld en hy het die Here die hele nag om uitkoms gesmeek. 12Die oggend het Samuel hom vroeg klaargemaak om Saul te ontmoet. Iemand het vir Samuel vertel: Saul het by Karmel gekom en nogal vir homself 'n gedenkteken opgerig. Daarna het hy omgedraai en is hy verby na Gilgal toe. 13Samuel het toe by Saul gekom, en Saul het vir hom gesê: Mag die Here u seën! Ek het die opdrag van die Here uitgevoer. 14Samuel vra toe: Wat vir 'n geblêr van kleinvee is daar dan in my ore? En wat van die gebulk van beeste wat ek hoor? 15Hulle het dit van die Amalekiete af gebring, antwoord Saul. Dit is die goed wat deur die manskappe gespaar is, die mooiste kleinvee en grootvee om aan die Here u God te offer. Die res het ons van kant gemaak. 16En Samuel sê vir Saul: Bly stil! Laat ek jou vertel wat die Here vannag vir my gesê het. Saul sê toe vir hom: Praat maar. 17Toe sê Samuel: Al is jy klein in jou eie oë, is jy tog die hoof van die stamme van Israel. Die Here het jou gesalf tot koning oor Israel. 18Die Here het jou met 'n doel uitgestuur en Hy het jou beveel: Trek op, bring die sondaars, die Amalekiete, om die lewe. Jy moet teen hulle veg totdat jy hulle uitgeroei het.' [19]Waarom het jy nie na die bevel van die Here geluister nie? En waarom het jy jou aan die buit vergryp en hierdie ding gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here? [20]Saul antwoord toe vir Samuel: Maar ek hét na die bevel van die Here geluister! Ek het gegaan om te doen waarvoor die Here my gestuur het, ek het vir koning Agag van Amalek hierheen gebring, maar die Amalekiete het ek om die lewe gebring. [21]Die manskappe het egter uit die buit kleinvee en beeste gevat, die beste van dié wat van kant gemaak moes word, om aan die Here u God in Gilgal te offer. [22]Maar Samuel antwoord: Is brandoffers en ander diereoffers net so aanneemlik vir die Here as gehoorsaamheid aan sy bevel? Nee, gehoorsaamheid is beter as offerande, om te luister is beter as die vet van ramme. [23]Weerspannigheid is net so erg as die sonde van waarsêery; eiesinnigheid net so erg as die bedrog van afgodery. Omdat jy die woord van die Here verwerp het, het Hy jou as koning verwerp. [24]Saul sê toe vir Samuel: Ek het gesondig, want ek het die bevel van die Here en u opdrag oortree omdat ek vir die manskappe bang was en na hulle versoek geluister het. [25]Vergewe tog nou my sonde en kom saam met my sodat ek tot die Here kan bid. [26]Maar Samuel sê vir Saul: Ek sal nie saam met jou gaan nie, want jy het die woord van die Here verwerp en die Here het jou verwerp as koning oor Israel. [27]Samuel het weggedraai om te loop, maar Saul het die punt van sy mantel gegryp, en dit het geskeur. [28]Toe sê Samuel vir hom: Die Here het die koningskap van Israel nou van jou afgeskeur en dit gegee aan jou naaste wat beter is as jy. [29]Die Ewige van Israel lieg nie en Hy verander nie van gedagte nie, want Hy is nie 'n mens dat Hy van gedagte sou verander nie. [30]Ek het gesondig, sê Saul toe. Eer my tog net voor die leiers van die volk en voor Israel deur saam met my te kom sodat ek die Here u God kan aanbid. [31]Samuel het met Saul saamgegaan, en Saul het die Here aanbid. [32]Toe beveel Samuel: Bring vir koning Agag van Amalek na my toe. Agag het opgeruimd na hom toe geloop en gesê: Nou is ek nie meer bang dat hulle my sal doodmaak nie. [33]Samuel het vir hom gesê: Soos jou swaard vrouens kinderloos gemaak het, so sal jou ma onder die vrouens kinderloos wees. En Samuel het vir Agag in stukke gekap voor die Here in Gilgal. [34]Samuel het na Rama toe gegaan, terwyl Saul na sy huis toe in Gibea gegaan het. [35]Tot die dag van sy dood het Samuel nie weer vir Saul gesien nie. Samuel het oor Saul getreur, en die Here was bedroef daaroor dat Hy vir Saul koning oor Israel gemaak het.

David Anointed King

1Sa 16:1 The LORD said to Samuel, "How long will you go on grieving over Saul? I have rejected him as king of Israel. But now get some olive oil and go to Bethlehem, to a man named Jesse, because I have chosen one of his sons to be king."

1Sa 16:2 "How can I do that?" Samuel asked. "If Saul hears about it, he will kill me!" The LORD answered, "Take a calf with you and say that you are there to offer a sacrifice to the LORD.

1Sa 16:3 Invite Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will tell you what to do. You will anoint as king the man I tell you to."

1Sa 16:4 Samuel did what the LORD told him to do and went to Bethlehem, where the city leaders came trembling to meet him and asked, "Is this a peaceful visit, seer?"

1Sa 16:5 "Yes," he answered. "I have come to offer a sacrifice to the LORD. Purify yourselves and come with me." He also told Jesse and his sons to purify themselves, and he invited them to the sacrifice.

1Sa 16:6 When they arrived, Samuel saw Jesse's son Eliab and said to himself, "This man standing here in the LORD's presence is surely the one he has chosen."

1Sa 16:7 But the LORD said to him, "Pay no attention to how tall and handsome he is. I have rejected him, because I do not judge as people judge. They look at the outward appearance, but I look at the heart."

1Sa 16:8 Then Jesse called his son Abinadab and brought him to Samuel. But Samuel said, "No, the LORD hasn't chosen him either."

1Sa 16:9 Jesse then brought Shammah. "No, the LORD hasn't chosen him either," Samuel said.

1Sa 16:10 In this way Jesse brought seven of his sons to Samuel. And Samuel said to him, "No, the LORD hasn't chosen any of these."

1Sa 16:11 Then he asked him, "Do you have any more sons?" Jesse answered, "There is still the youngest, but he is out taking care of the sheep." "Tell him to come here," Samuel said. "We won't offer the sacrifice until he comes."

1Sa 16:12 So Jesse sent for him. He was a handsome, healthy young man, and his eyes sparkled. The LORD said to Samuel, "This is the one —anoint him!"

1Sa 16:13 Samuel took the olive oil and anointed David in front of his brothers. Immediately the spirit of the LORD took control of David and was with him from that day on. Then Samuel returned to Ramah.

David in Saul's Service

1Sa 16:14 The LORD's spirit left Saul, and an evil spirit sent by the LORD tormented him.

1Sa 16:15 His servants said to him, "We know that an evil spirit sent by God is tormenting you.

1Sa 16:16 So give us the order, sir, and we will look for a man who knows how to play the harp. Then when the evil spirit comes on you, the man can play his harp, and you will be all right again."

1Sa 16:17 Saul ordered them, "Find me a man who plays well and bring him to me."

1Sa 16:18 One of his attendants said, "Jesse of the town of Bethlehem has a son who is a good musician. He is also a brave and handsome man, a good soldier, and an able speaker. The LORD is with him."

1Sa 16:19 So Saul sent messengers to Jesse to say, "Send me your son David, the one who takes care of the sheep."

1Sa 16:20 Jesse sent David to Saul with a young goat, a donkey loaded with bread, and a leather bag full of wine.

1Sa 16:21 David came to Saul and entered his service. Saul liked him very much and chose him as the man to carry his weapons.

1Sa 16:22 Then Saul sent a message to Jesse: "I like David. Let him stay here in my service."

1Sa 16:23 From then on, whenever the evil spirit sent by God came on Saul, David would get his harp and play it. The evil spirit would leave, and Saul would feel better and be all right again.

1Die Here het vir Samuel gesê: Hoe lank gaan jy nog oor Saul treur nadat Ek hom as koning oor Israel verwerp het? Maak 'n horing vol olie en gaan na Betlehem toe! Ek stuur jou na Isai toe, want onder sy seuns sien Ek vir My 'n koning. 2Samuel vra toe: Hoe kan ek gaan? As Saul dit hoor, sal hy my doodmaak. En die Here sê vir hom: Neem 'n vers saam en sê: Ek het gekom om vir die Here 'n offer te bring.' 3Nooi dan vir Isai na die offer toe. Ek sal jou meedeel wat jy moet doen. Salf vir My dié een wat Ek jou sal beveel. 4Samuel het gedoen wat die Here gesê het. By sy aankoms in Betlehem het die leiers van die stad hom ontsteld tegemoet gekom en gesê: Kom u in vrede? 5En hy het gesê: Ja. Ek het gekom om vir die Here 'n offer te bring. Reinig julle en kom saam met my na die offer toe. Hyself het vir Isai en sy seuns gereinig en hulle na die offer toe genooi. 6Toe hulle inkom, het Samuel vir Eliab gesien en gedink: die gesalfde van die Here staan hier voor die Here. 7Maar Hy sê vir Samuel: Moenie na sy voorkoms of sy buitengewone lengte kyk nie, want Ek het hom nie gekies nie. Die Here kyk nie na dieselfde dinge as die mens nie. Die mens kyk na die uiterlike, maar die Here na die innerlike. 8Toe roep Isai vir Abinadab en laat hom voor Samuel verbygaan en hy dink: die Here het ook hierdie een nie gekies nie. 9Daarna het Isai vir Samma laat verbygaan, maar Samuel het gedink: die Here het ook hierdie een nie gekies nie. 10Nadat Isai sewe van sy seuns voor Samuel laat verbygaan het, sê Samuel vir Isai: Die Here het nie een van hulle gekies nie. 11Daarop het Samuel vir Isai gevra: Is dit al jou seuns dié? En hy het geantwoord: Die jongste is nog oor, maar hy pas nou skape op. Toe sê Samuel vir Isai: Laat haal hom, want ons eet nie voordat hy hier is nie. 12Isai het hom laat haal. Hy het 'n rooi gelaatskleur gehad, mooi oë en 'n goeie voorkoms. Toe sê die Here: Staan op, salf hom, want dis hý. 13Samuel het die horing met olie gevat en hom voor sy broers gesalf. Die Gees van die Here het van daardie dag af kragtig in Dawid gewerk. Daarna het Samuel klaargemaak en na Rama toe teruggegaan. 14Maar die Gees van die Here het van Saul gewyk, en 'n bose gees wat deur die Here gestuur is, het hom voortdurend ontstel. 15Die amptenare van Saul het vir hom gesê: U word ontstel deur 'n boosaardige gees wat deur God gestuur is. 16Die koning moet maar net praat, dan soek ons iemand wat die lier kan speel. As die boosaardige gees u pla, kan die man speel, en u sal beter voel. 17Saul sê toe vir sy amptenare: Kyk maar vir my uit na 'n man wat goed kan speel en bring hom na my toe. 18Een van die amptenare antwoord hom: Ek het 'n seun van Isai die Betlehemmer hoor speel. Hy is 'n dapper man en 'n goeie vegter. Hy kan sy woord goed doen en het 'n goeie voorkoms. Die Here is by hom. 19Saul het boodskappers na Isai toe gestuur met die versoek: Stuur jou seun Dawid wat by die kleinvee is, na my toe. 20Isai het toe brood, 'n sak wyn en 'n klein bokkie gevat en dit op 'n donkie met sy seun Dawid na Saul toe gestuur. 21So het Dawid dan by Saul gekom en vir hom gewerk. Saul het baie van Dawid gehou, sodat hy Saul se wapendraer geword het. 22Saul het ook na Isai toe gestuur en laat vra: Laat Dawid tog vir my werk, ek hou van hom. 23Telkens wanneer die boosaardige gees in Saul was, het Dawid die lier gevat en daarop gespeel. Dan het Saul bedaar, en die boosaardige gees het van hom af padgegee.

David and Goliath

1Sa 17:1 The Philistines gathered for battle in Socoh, a town in Judah; they camped at a place called Ephes Dammim, between Socoh and Azekah.

1Sa 17:2 Saul and the Israelites assembled and camped in Elah Valley, where they got ready to fight the Philistines.

1Sa 17:3 The Philistines lined up on one hill and the Israelites on another, with a valley between them.

1Sa 17:4 A man named Goliath, from the city of Gath, came out from the Philistine camp to challenge the Israelites. He was over nine feet tall 1Sa 17:5 and wore bronze armor that weighed about 125 pounds and a bronze helmet.

1Sa 17:6 His legs were also protected by bronze armor, and he carried a bronze javelin slung over his shoulder.

1Sa 17:7 His spear was as thick as the bar on a weaver's loom, and its iron head weighed about fifteen pounds. A soldier walked in front of him carrying his shield.

1Sa 17:8 Goliath stood and shouted at the Israelites, "What are you doing there, lined up for battle? I am a Philistine, you slaves of Saul! Choose one of your men to fight me.

1Sa 17:9 If he wins and kills me, we will be your slaves; but if I win and kill him, you will be our slaves.

1Sa 17:10 Here and now I challenge the Israelite army. I dare you to pick someone to fight me!"

1Sa 17:11 When Saul and his men heard this, they were terrified.

1Sa 17:12 David was the son of Jesse, who was an Ephrathite from Bethlehem in Judah. Jesse had eight sons, and at the time Saul was king, he was already a very old man.

1Sa 17:13 His three oldest sons had gone with Saul to war. The oldest was Eliab, the next was Abinadab, and the third was Shammah.

1Sa 17:14 David was the youngest son, and while the three oldest brothers stayed with Saul, 1Sa 17:15 David would go back to Bethlehem from time to time, to take care of his father's sheep.

1Sa 17:16 Goliath challenged the Israelites every morning and evening for forty days.

1Sa 17:17 One day Jesse said to David, "Take a half-bushel of this roasted grain and these ten loaves of bread, and hurry with them to your brothers in the camp.

1Sa 17:18 And take these ten cheeses to the commanding officer. Find out how your brothers are getting along and bring back something to show that you saw them and that they are well.

1Sa 17:19 King Saul, your brothers, and all the other Israelites are in Elah Valley fighting the Philistines."

1Sa 17:21 The Philistine and the Israelite armies took positions for battle, facing each other.

1Sa 17:22 David left the food with the officer in charge of the supplies, ran to the battle line, went to his brothers, and asked how they were getting along.

1Sa 17:23 As he was talking with them, Goliath came forward and challenged the Israelites as he had done before. And David heard him.

1Sa 17:24 When the Israelites saw Goliath, they ran away in terror.

1Sa 17:25 "Look at him!" they said to each other. "Listen to his challenge! King Saul has promised to give a big reward to the man who kills him; the king will also give him his daughter to marry and will not require his father's family to pay taxes."

1Sa 17:26 David asked the men who were near him, "What will the man get who kills this Philistine and frees Israel from this disgrace? After all, who is this heathen Philistine to defy the army of the living God?"

1Sa 17:27 They told him what would be done for the man who killed Goliath.

1Sa 17:28 Eliab, David's oldest brother, heard David talking to the men. He became angry with David and said, "What are you doing here? Who is taking care of those sheep of yours out there in the wilderness? You smart aleck, you! You just came to watch the fighting!"

1Sa 17:29 "Now what have I done?" David asked. "Can't I even ask a question?"

1Sa 17:30 He turned to another man and asked him the same question, and every time he asked, he got the same answer.

1Sa 17:31 Some men heard what David had said, and they told Saul, who sent for him.

1Sa 17:32 David said to Saul, "Your Majesty, no one should be afraid of this Philistine! I will go and fight him."

1Sa 17:33 "No," answered Saul. "How could you fight him? You're just a boy, and he has been a soldier all his life!"

1Sa 17:34 "Your Majesty," David said, "I take care of my father's sheep. Any time a lion or a bear carries off a lamb, 1Sa 17:35 I go after it, attack it, and rescue the lamb. And if the lion or bear turns on me, I grab it by the throat and beat it to death.

1Sa 17:36 I have killed lions and bears, and I will do the same to this heathen Philistine, who has defied the army of the living God.

1Sa 17:37 The LORD has saved me from lions and bears; he will save me from this Philistine." "All right," Saul answered. "Go, and the LORD be with you."

1Sa 17:38 He gave his own armor to David for him to wear: a bronze helmet, which he put on David's head, and a coat of armor.

1Sa 17:39 David strapped Saul's sword over the armor and tried to walk, but he couldn't, because he wasn't used to wearing them. "I can't fight with all this," he said to Saul. "I'm not used to it." So he took it all off.

1Sa 17:40 He took his shepherd's stick and then picked up five smooth stones from the stream and put them in his bag. With his sling ready, he went out to meet Goliath.

1Sa 17:41 The Philistine started walking toward David, with his shield bearer walking in front of him. He kept coming closer, 1Sa 17:42 and when he got a good look at David, he was filled with scorn for him because he was just a nice, good-looking boy.

1Sa 17:43 He said to David, "What's that stick for? Do you think I'm a dog?" And he called down curses from his god on David.

1Sa 17:44 "Come on," he challenged David, "and I will give your body to the birds and animals to eat."

1Sa 17:45 David answered, "You are coming against me with sword, spear, and javelin, but I come against you in the name of the LORD Almighty, the God of the Israelite armies, which you have defied.

1Sa 17:46 This very day the LORD will put you in my power; I will defeat you and cut off your head. And I will give the bodies of the Philistine soldiers to the birds and animals to eat. Then the whole world will know that Israel has a God,

1Sa 17:47 and everyone here will see that the LORD does not need swords or spears to save his people. He is victorious in battle, and he will put all of you in our power."

1Sa 17:48 Goliath started walking toward David again, and David ran quickly toward the Philistine battle line to fight him.

1Sa 17:49 He reached into his bag and took out a stone, which he slung at Goliath. It hit him on the forehead and broke his skull, and Goliath fell face downward on the ground.

1Sa 17:50 And so, without a sword, David defeated and killed Goliath with a sling and a stone!

1Sa 17:51 He ran to him, stood over him, took Goliath's sword out of its sheath, and cut off his head and killed him. When the Philistines saw that their hero was dead, they ran away.

1Sa 17:52 The men of Israel and Judah shouted and ran after them, pursuing them all the way to Gath and to the gates of Ekron. The Philistines fell wounded all along the road that leads to Shaaraim, as far as Gath and Ekron.

1Sa 17:53 When the Israelites came back from pursuing the Philistines, they looted their camp.

1Sa 17:54 David got Goliath's head and took it to Jerusalem, but he kept Goliath's weapons in his own tent.

1Sa 17:55 When Saul saw David going out to fight Goliath, he asked Abner, the commander of his army, "Abner, whose son is he?" "I have no idea, Your Majesty," Abner answered.

1Sa 17:56 "Then go and find out," Saul ordered.

1Sa 17:57 So when David returned to camp after killing Goliath, Abner took him to Saul. David was still carrying Goliath's head.

1Sa 17:58 Saul asked him, "Young man, whose son are you?" "I am the son of your servant Jesse from Bethlehem," David answered.

I SAMUEL 17

1Die Filistyne het hulle krygsmag opgeroep. Hulle het bymekaargekom in Soko wat aan Juda behoort, en het kamp opgeslaan in Efes-Dammim tussen Soko en Aseka. 2Saul en die manskappe van Israel het bymekaargekom en kamp opgeslaan in die laagte by die groot boom en teenoor die Filistyne stelling ingeneem om te veg. 3Die Filistyne het teen die een rant gestaan, en die Israeliete teen die ander, met 'n smal vallei tussen hulle. 4Toe kom daar 'n baasvegter uit die laer van die Filistyne uit. Sy naam was Goliat en hy was afkomstig uit Gat. Hy was drie meter lank. 5Daar was 'n bronshelm op sy kop, en hy het 'n harnas met skubbe aangehad. Die gewig van die harnas was sewe en vyftig kilogram. 6Daar was bronsskerms voor sy bene en tussen sy wapens was daar 'n bronsswaard. 7Die steel van sy spies was so dik soos die dwarsbalk van 'n weefstoel, en die ysterlem daarvan was sewe kilogram. Sy skilddraer het voor hom uit geloop. 8Goliat het gaan staan en na die linies van Israel geroep. Hy het vir hulle gesê: Waarom het julle uitgekom om gevegslinies op te stel? Is ek nie 'n Filistyn en julle almal Saul se slawe nie? Kies vir julle iemand om na my toe uit te kom. 9As hy teen my kan veg en my verslaan, sal ons julle slawe wees. As ek hom baasraak en verslaan, sal julle ons slawe wees en vir ons werk. 10Verder het die Filistyn nog gesê: Ek staan die linies van Israel al heeldag en verkleineer! Gee my tog iemand dat ons teen mekaar kan veg. 11Toe Saul en die hele Israel hoor wat die Filistyn sê, het hulle geskrik en baie bang geword. 12Dawid was die seun van 'n Efratiet, iemand uit Betlehem in Juda met die naam Isai. Hy het ag seuns gehad. In die tyd van Saul was hierdie man al oud en afgeleef. 13Die drie oudste seuns van Isai het Saul na die oorlog toe gevolg. Die name van die drie seuns wat gaan veg het, was Eliab die oudste, Abinadab die tweede, en Samma die derde. 14Dawid was die jongste. Die drie oudstes het pal met Saul saamgegaan, 15maar Dawid het om die beurt na Saul toe gegaan en dan weer sy pa se kleinvee in Betlehem gaan oppas. 16Die Filistyn het veertig dae lank vroeg in die môre en teen die aand nader gekom en regoor die Israeliete gaan staan. 17Isai het vir sy seun Dawid gesê: Vat tog vir jou broers sestien kilogram gebraaide koring en tien brode en bring dit gou vir hulle in die kamp. 18Die tien kase moet jy na die aanvoerder van die afdeling toe vat. Dan moet jy sommer kyk of dit nog goed gaan met jou broers, en 'n bewys daarvan saambring. 19Saul en jou broers en die hele Israel is in die laagte by die groot boom aan die veg teen die Filistyne. 20Dawid het die môre vroeg opgestaan, die kleinvee aan die wagter afgegee, die goed opgetel en gegaan soos Isai hom beveel het. Net toe hy by die kamp aankom, het die leër wat na die gevegslinie toe uitgaan, die oorlogskreet aangehef. 21Israel en die Filistyne het naamlik in linies teenoor mekaar stelling ingeneem. 22Dawid het die pak wat hy gedra het, onder die sorg gelaat van die man wat die goed oppas, en na die linies toe gehardloop. Toe hy daar aankom, vra hy sy broers hoe dit gaan, 23en terwyl hy nog met hulle praat, kom die baasvegter Goliat die Filistyn uit Gat juis uit die linies van die Filistyne vorentoe en hy praat weer so. Dawid het dit gehoor. 24Toe die Israeliete die man sien, het hulle almal vir hom gevlug en hulle was baie bang. 25'n Israeliet sê toe: Julle sien hierdie man wat vorentoe kom? Hy kom net om Israel te verkleineer. Die man wat hom verslaan die koning sal daardie man baie ryk maak en sy dogter aan hom gee, en die man se familie sal in Israel van alle verpligtinge vrygestel wees. 26Dawid het vir die manskappe wat by hom staan, gevra: Wat sal gebeur met die man wat die skande van Israel wegneem en die Filistyn daar anderkant verslaan? Wie is hierdie heiden, hierdie Filistyn, nogal dat hy die linies van die lewende God verkleineer? 27Die manskappe het dieselfde vir hom gesê: So sal gedoen word aan die man deur wie die Filistyn verslaan word. 28Dawid se oudste broer Eliab het gehoor wat hy met die manskappe praat en Eliab het hom vir Dawid vererg en gesê: Waarom het jy hierheen gekom en aan wie het jy daardie klompie kleinvee in die droëveld afgegee? Ek ken jou vermetelheid en kwaadwilligheid. Het jy net hierheen gekom om na die geveg te kyk? 29Toe sê Dawid: Wat het ek nou gedoen? Is dit dan nie 'n belangrike saak nie? 30Dawid het van hom af weggedraai na 'n ander een toe en dieselfde gevra, en die manskap het geantwoord soos die eerste. 31Die woorde wat Dawid gesê het, het rugbaar geword. Die manskappe het dit vir Saul vertel, en hy het hom laat haal. 32'n Mens moenie oor hóm moedeloos word nie, sê Dawid toe vir Saul. Ek sal gaan en teen hierdie Filistyn veg. 33Maar Saul sê vir Dawid: Jy kan nie teen hierdie Filistyn gaan veg nie, want jy is jonk en hy 'n vegter van kindsbeen af. 34Toe sê Dawid vir Saul: As ek die kleinvee vir my pa oppas, en daar kom 'n leeu of 'n beer en dra 'n lam weg uit die kudde, 35gaan ek agter hom aan en slaan hom dood en red die lam uit sy bek; as hy op my afstorm, gryp ek hom aan sy baard en slaan hom dood. 36Ek het die leeu en ook die beer doodgeslaan, en hierdie heiden, hierdie Filistyn, sal soos hulle word, want hy het die linies van die lewende God verkleineer. 37Verder het Dawid gesê: Die Here, wat my gered het uit die kloue van die leeu en uit die kloue van die beer, Hý sal my red uit die mag van hierdie Filistyn. Toe sê Saul vir Dawid: Gaan, en mag die Here by jou wees. 38Saul het sy eie uitrusting vir Dawid laat aantrek: hy het 'n bronshelm op sy kop gesit en hom 'n harnas laat aantrek, 39en Dawid het Saul se swaard bo-oor sy uitrusting vasgegord. Maar hy kon nie loop nie, want hy was dit nie gewoond

nie. Dawid sê toe vir Saul: Ek kan nie hiermee loop nie, want ek is dit nie gewoond nie. En Dawid het dit uitgetrek. 40Hy het sy kierie in sy hand gevat, vyf gladde klippies in die spruit uitgesoek en dit by sy skaapwagtersgoed in sy slingersak gesit. En met sy slingervel in die hand het hy op die Filistyn af geloop. 41Die Filistyn het al hoe nader gekom na Dawid toe, terwyl sy skilddraer voor hom was. 42Toe hy vir Dawid sien, het die Filistyn hom met minagting aangekyk omdat hy jonk was, met 'n rooi gelaatskleur en 'n mooi voorkoms. 43Die Filistyn het vir Dawid gesê: Is ek 'n hond dat jy met kieries na my toe kom? Hy het Dawid toe in die naam van die Filistynse gode vervloek. 44Verder het die Filistyn vir Dawid gesê: Kom 'n bietjie hier dat ek jou vleis vir die roofvoëls en vir die wilde diere kan gee. 45Maar Dawid sê vir die Filistyn: Jý kom na my toe met 'n dolk en 'n spies en 'n swaard, maar ék kom na jou toe in die Naam van die Here die Almagtige, die God van die linies van Israel, wat jy verkleineer het. 46Vandag sal die Here jou in my mag oorgee sodat ek jou kan verslaan en jou kop van jou lyf afkap. Dan sal ek vandag nog die lyke van die Filistynse laer vir die roofvoëls en vir die wilde diere gee, sodat die hele wêreld kan besef dat Israel 'n God het. 47Dan sal hierdie hele skare besef dat die Here nie deur swaard of spies verlos nie, maar dat die oorlog aan die Here behoort en dat Hy julle in ons mag oorgee. 48Toe die Filistyn regmaak en nader kom om Dawid te ontmoet, het Dawid die Filistyn vinnig op die vegterrein tegemoet gehardloop. 49Toe steek Dawid sy hand in die sak, vat 'n klip daaruit, gooi met die slingervel, en tref die Filistyn teen die voorkop. Die klip het in sy voorkop ingedring, en hy het vooroor geval op die grond. 50Met die slingervel en klip was Dawid sterker as die Filistyn en het hy hom verslaan en doodgemaak. Dawid het nie eens 'n swaard by hom gehad nie! 51Toe het Dawid gehardloop, by die Filistyn gaan staan, sy swaard gevat, dit uit die skede getrek en hom van kant gemaak: hy het sy kop daarmee afgekap. Die Filistyne het gesien dat hulle held dood is, en het gevlug. 52Die manskappe van Israel en Juda het opgestaan, die aanvalskreet uitgeskreeu en die Filistyne agtervolg tot by die ingang van Gat en die poorte van Ekron, sodat die gesneuweldes van die Filistyne op die pad van Saärajim af tot by Gat en Ekron gelê het. 53Daarna het die Israeliete teruggekom van die strawwe agtervolging van die Filistyne af en hulle kamp geplunder. 54Dawid het die kop van die Filistyn gevat en dit na Jerusalem toe gebring, maar die Filistyn se wapens het hy in sy eie tent gaan sit. 55Toe Saul vir Dawid sien uitgaan om die Filistyn te ontmoet, het hy vir Abner die hoof van die leër gevra: Abner, wie se kind is dié jong man tog? Abner het geantwoord: So seker as u leef, U Majesteit, ek weet nie. 56Die koning sê toe: Vra jy tog wie se kind die jong man is. 57Toe Dawid terugkom nadat hy die Filistyn verslaan het, het Abner hom gevat en voor Saul gebring met die kop van die

Filistyn nog in sy hand. 58Saul het vir hom gevra: Seun, wie se kind is jy? Die kind van u onderdaan Isai, uit Betlehem, het Dawid geantwoord.

1Samuel 18

David and Jonathan's Friendship

1Sa 18:1 Saul and David finished their conversation. After that, Saul's son Jonathan was deeply attracted to David and came to love him as much as he loved himself.

1Sa 18:2 Saul kept David with him from that day on and did not let him go back home.

1Sa 18:3 Jonathan swore eternal friendship with David because of his deep affection for him.

1Sa 18:4 He took off the robe he was wearing and gave it to David, together with his armor and also his sword, bow, and belt.

1Sa 18:5 David was successful in all the missions on which Saul sent him, and so Saul made him an officer in his army. This pleased all of Saul's officers and men.

Saul's Jealousy of David

1Sa 18:6 As David was returning after killing Goliath and as the soldiers were coming back home, women from every town in Israel came out to meet King Saul. They were singing joyful songs, dancing, and playing tambourines and lyres.

1Sa 18:7 In their celebration the women sang, "Saul has killed thousands, but David tens of thousands."

1Sa 18:8 Saul did not like this, and he became very angry. He said, "For David they claim tens of thousands, but only thousands for me. They will be making him king next!"

1Sa 18:9 And so he was jealous and suspicious of David from that day on.

1Sa 18:10 The next day an evil spirit from God suddenly took control of Saul, and he raved in his house like a madman. David was playing the harp, as he did every day, and Saul was holding a spear.

1Sa 18:11 "I'll pin him to the wall," Saul said to himself, and he threw the spear at him twice; but David dodged each time.

1Sa 18:12 Saul was afraid of David because the LORD was with David but had abandoned him.

1Sa 18:13 So Saul sent him away and put him in command of a thousand men. David led his men in battle 1Sa 18:14 and was successful in all he did, because the LORD was with him.

1Sa 18:15 Saul noticed David's success and became even more afraid of him.

1Sa 18:16 But everyone in Israel and Judah loved David because he was such a successful leader.

David Marries Michal

1Sa 18:17 Then Saul said to David, "Here is my older daughter Merab. I will give her to you as your wife on condition that you serve me as a brave and loyal soldier, and fight the LORD's battles." (Saul was thinking that in this way the Philistines would kill David, and he would not have to do it himself.)

1Sa 18:18 David answered, "Who am I and what is my family that I should become the king's son-in-law?"

1Sa 18:19 But when the time came for Merab to be given to David, she was given instead to a man named Adriel from Meholah.

1Sa 18:20 Saul's daughter Michal, however, fell in love with David, and when Saul heard of this, he was pleased.

1Sa 18:21 He said to himself, "I'll give Michal to David; I will use her to trap him, and he will be killed by the Philistines." So for the second time Saul said to David, "You will be my son-in-law."

1Sa 18:23 So they told this to David, and he answered, "It's a great honor to become the king's son-in-law, too great for someone poor and insignificant like me."

1Sa 18:24 The officials told Saul what David had said,

1Sa 18:25 and Saul ordered them to tell David: "All the king wants from you as payment for the bride are the foreskins of a hundred dead Philistines, as revenge on his enemies." (This was how Saul planned to have David killed by the Philistines.)

1Sa 18:26 Saul's officials reported to David what Saul had said, and David was delighted with the thought of becoming the king's son-in-law. Before the day set for the wedding, 1Sa 18:27 David and his men went and killed two hundred Philistines. He took their foreskins to the king and counted them all out to him, so that he might become his son-in-law. So Saul had to give his daughter Michal in marriage to David.

1Sa 18:28 Saul realized clearly that the LORD was with David and also that his daughter Michal loved him.

1Sa 18:29 So he became even more afraid of David and was his enemy as long as he lived.

1Sa 18:30 The Philistine armies would come and fight, but in every battle David was more successful than any of Saul's other officers. As a result David became very famous.

1Nadat Dawid klaar met Saul gepraat het, het Jonatan baie geheg geraak aan Dawid en hom liefgekry soos homself. 2Dieselfde dag nog het Saul vir Dawid saamgevat huis toe en hom nie toegelaat om na sy pa se huis toe terug te gaan nie. 3Jonatan en Dawid het 'n verbond gesluit omdat Jonatan hom liefgekry het soos homself. 4Jonatan het die mantel wat hy aangehad het, uitgetrek en dit vir Dawid gegee, ook sy uitrusting, sy swaard, sy boog en sy gordel. 5Dawid het toe opgetrek teen elkeen teen wie Saul hom uitgestuur het. Hy was suksesvol, en Saul het hom oor die soldate aangestel. Die hele volk en Saul se amptenare het dit goedgevind. 6Toe Dawid teruggekom het nadat hy die Filistyn verslaan het en Saul-hulle op pad was huis toe, het die vroue van al die dorpe van Israel uitgegaan om te sing, en die danseresse het koning Saul tegemoet gegaan met tamboeryne en driesnarige musiekinstrumente en met gejubel. 7Die vroue het gedans en gesing: Saul het sy duisende verslaan, maar Dawid sy tienduisende! 8Daaroor het Saul hom vererg. Dit het hom nie geval nie en hy het gesê: Aan Dawid het hulle tienduisende gegee en aan my duisende. Die koningskap sal ook nog syne word! 9Van toe af het Saul vir Dawid gewantrou. 10Die volgende dag het 'n boosaardige gees wat deur God gestuur is, vir Saul beetgepak, sodat hy in sy huis te kere gegaan het soos 'n waansinnige. Soos gewoonlik het Dawid op die lier gespeel. In die hand van Saul was daar 'n spies. 11Toe lig Saul die spies op en dink: ek gaan vir Dawid teen die muur vaspen. Maar Dawid het weggekoes, selfs twee maal. 12Saul het bang geword vir Dawid omdat die Here by hom was, maar die Here het vir Saul verlaat. 13Saul het daarna nie meer vir Dawid by hom laat bly nie en hom aangestel as hoof van 'n leërafdeling. Hy het in die oorlog as aanvoerder van die manskappe opgetree 14en in alles sukses behaal omdat die Here by hom was. 15Saul het opgemerk dat Dawid baie suksesvol was, en Saul was bang vir hom. 16Maar die hele Israel en Juda was lief vir Dawid, en hy het in die oorlog as hulle aanvoerder opgetree. 17Later het Saul vir Dawid gesê: Hier is my oudste dogter Merab. Ek gee haar aan jou as vrou. Jy moet net vir my 'n dapper man wees en die oorloë van die Here voer. Saul het naamlik gedink: ek moenie teen hom wees nie. Laat die Filistyne teen hom wees. 18Dawid sê toe vir Saul: Wie is ek en wie is my broers en my familie in Israel dat ek die koning se skoonseun mag word? 19Maar teen die tyd dat Saul se dogter Merab aan Dawid gegee moes word, is sy aan Adriël die Megolatiet as vrou gegee. 20Saul se ander dogter, Mikal, was verlief op Dawid, en toe dit aan Saul vertel is, was hy in sy skik daarmee. 21Saul het naamlik gedink: ek sal haar aan hom gee dat sy vir hom 'n vangstrik word en die Filistyne teen hom kan wees. So het Saul dan twee keer vir Dawid gesê: Jy kan vandag my skoonseun word. 22Saul het sy amptenare beveel: Sê so ongemerk vir Dawid: Jy weet, die koning hou van jou en al sy amptenare is lief vir jou. Word nou maar die koning se skoonseun. 23Saul se amptenare het hierdie boodskap vir Dawid in die oor gefluister en Dawid het gesê: Dink julle dis 'n kleinigheid om die koning se skoonseun te word? Ek is maar 'n arm man sonder aansien. 24Saul se amptenare het hom meegedeel wat Dawid gesê het. 25Maar Saul het gesê: So moet julle vir Dawid sê: Die koning wil niks anders as honderd voorhuide van die Filistyne as huweliksvergoeding hê nie, om so wraak te neem teen sy vyande. Saul se gedagte was om Dawid deur die Filistyne te laat omkom. 26Saul se amptenare het hierdie woorde aan Dawid meegedeel, en Dawid het ingestem om die koning se skoonseun te word. Dawid het nie tyd verspeel nie, 27maar klaargemaak, en hy en sy manskappe het twee honderd Filistyne gaan doodmaak. Dawid het hulle voorhuide gebring, en dié is almal aan die koning oorhandig sodat Dawid die koning se skoonseun kon word. Saul het sy dogter Mikal aan hom gegee as vrou. 28Dit het vir Saul duidelik geword dat die Here by Dawid is. Boonop het Saul se dogter Mikal vir Dawid liefgehad. 29Toe het Saul nog banger geword vir Dawid, Saul was vir goed vyandig teenoor hom. 30Die regeerders van die Filistyne het herhaaldelik opgetrek om oorlog te maak, maar elke keer as hulle optrek, het Dawid meer sukses gehad as die offisiere van Saul, sodat hy groot aansien verkry het.

Saul Tries to Kill David

1Sa 19:1 Saul told his son Jonathan and all his officials that he planned to kill David. But Jonathan was very fond of David, 1Sa 19:2 and so he told him, "My father is trying to kill you. Please be careful tomorrow morning; hide in some secret place and stay there.

1Sa 19:3 I will go and stand by my father in the field where you are hiding, and I will speak to him about you. If I find out anything, I will let you know."

1Sa 19:4 Jonathan praised David to Saul and said, "Sir, don't do wrong to your servant David. He has never done you any wrong; on the contrary, everything he has done has been a great help to you.

1Sa 19:5 He risked his life when he killed Goliath, and the LORD won a great victory for Israel. When you saw it, you were glad. Why, then, do you now want to do wrong to an innocent man and kill David for no reason at all?"

1Sa 19:6 Saul was convinced by what Jonathan said and made a vow in the LORD's name that he would not kill David.

1Sa 19:7 So Jonathan called David and told him everything; then he took him to Saul, and David served the king as he had before.

1Sa 19:8 War with the Philistines broke out again. David attacked them and defeated them so thoroughly that they fled.

1Sa 19:9 One day an evil spirit from the LORD took control of Saul. He was sitting in his house with his spear in his hand, and David was there, playing his harp.

1Sa 19:10 Saul tried to pin David to the wall with his spear, but David dodged, and the spear stuck in the wall. David ran away and escaped.

1Sa 19:11 That same night Saul sent some men to watch David's house and kill him the next morning. Michal, David's wife, warned him, "If you don't get away tonight, tomorrow you will be dead."

1Sa 19:12 She let him down from a window, and he ran away and escaped.

1Sa 19:13 Then she took the household idol, laid it on the bed, put a pillow made of goats' hair at its head, and put a cover over it.

1Sa 19:14 When Saul's men came to get David, Michal told them that he was sick.

1Sa 19:15 But Saul sent them back to see David for themselves. He ordered them, "Carry him here in his bed, and I will kill him."

1Sa 19:16 They went inside and found the household idol in the bed and the goats' hair pillow at its head.

1Sa 19:17 Saul asked Michal, "Why have you tricked me like this and let my enemy escape?" She answered, "He said he would kill me if I didn't help him escape."

1Sa 19:18 David escaped and went to Samuel in Ramah and told him everything that Saul had done to him. Then he and Samuel went to Naioth and stayed there.

1Sa 19:19 Saul was told that David was in Naioth in Ramah, 1Sa 19:20 so he sent some men to arrest him. They saw the group of prophets dancing and shouting, with Samuel as their leader. Then the spirit of God took control of Saul's men, and they also began to dance and shout.

1Sa 19:21 When Saul heard of this, he sent more messengers, and they also began to dance and shout. He sent messengers the third time, and the same thing happened to them.

1Sa 19:22 Then he himself started out to Ramah. When he came to the large well in Secu, he asked where Samuel and David were and was told that they were at Naioth.

1Sa 19:23 As he was going there, the spirit of God took control of him also, and he danced and shouted all the way to Naioth.

1Saul het naderhand selfs met sy seun Jonatan en met al sy offisiere gepraat om Dawid dood te maak. Maar Saul se seun Jonatan het baie van Dawid gehou. 2Toe het Jonatan vir Dawid vertel: My pa wil jou doodmaak. Jy moet tog môreoggend versigtig wees. Gaan sit op 'n beskutte plek en kruip weg. 3Dan sal ek in die veld waar jy is, langs my pa gaan staan en met hom oor jou praat. As ek agterkom hoe dit gesteld is, sal ek jou dit vertel. 4Jonatan het toe vir Dawid voorspraak gedoen by Saul en vir hom gesê: Die koning moet hom tog nie aan sy onderdaan Dawid besondig nie, want hy het u geen kwaad aangedoen nie, sy dade was baie voordelig vir u. 5Hy het sy lewe gewaag en die Filistyn verslaan dié keer toe die Here die groot uitkoms vir die hele Israel bewerk het. U het dit gesien en u was self bly. Waarom sal u sonde doen oor 'n onskuldige man en vir Dawid sonder rede doodmaak? 6Saul het na Jonatan geluister en 'n eed afgelê: So seker as die Here leef, hy sal nie doodgemaak word nie. 7Hierná het Jonatan vir Dawid gaan roep, en Jonatan het hom die hele gesprek meegedeel. Jonatan het vir Dawid na Saul toe gebring, en Dawid het vir Saul gedien soos voorheen. 8Daar het weer 'n keer oorlog gekom, en Dawid het opgetrek om teen die Filistyne te veg. Hy het hulle in 'n bloedige veldslag verslaan, en hulle het voor hom gevlug. 9Saul het in sy huis gesit met sy spies in sy hand, en Dawid het op die lier gespeel. Toe 'n boosaardige gees wat deur die Here gestuur is, oor Saul kom, 10het hy geprobeer om Dawid teen die muur vas te pen met die spies. Maar Dawid het weggekoes, en Saul het die spies teen die muur vasgegooi. Dawid het gevlug en daardie nag ontsnap. 11Toe stuur Saul mense na Dawid se huis toe om hom dop te hou en hom in die môre dood te maak. Maar sy vrou Mikal het hom gewaarsku: As jy nie vannag vlug nie, word jy môre doodgemaak. 12Mikal het Dawid toe deur die venster laat afsak. Hy het weggegaan, gevlug en ontsnap. 13Maar Mikal het die afgodsbeeld gevat en op die bed neergesit. Sy het 'n bokhaarnet om die beeld se kop gedraai en dit met 'n kombers toegemaak. 14Toe Saul se mense daar kom om vir Dawid te vang, sê sy: Hy is siek. 15Daarna het Saul sy manne gestuur om na Dawid te gaan kyk en beveel: Bring hom na my toe met bed en al dat ek hom kan laat doodmaak. 16Die manne het ingekom, en toe lê die afgodsbeeld op die bed, met die bokhaarnet aan die koppenent. 17Saul sê toe vir Mikal: Waarom het jy my so bedrieg en my vyand vrygelaat om te ontsnap? Maar Mikal het vir Saul geantwoord: Hy het vir my gesê: Laat my gaan, anders maak ek jou dood. 18Ondertussen het Dawid gevlug en ontsnap en by Samuel in Rama gekom en hom alles vertel wat Saul hom aangedoen het. Hy en Samuel het in die woonkwartiere van die profete gaan woon. [19]Daarna is aan Saul berig: Weet u, Dawid is in die profetekwartiere in Rama. [20]Daarop stuur Saul boodskappers om Dawid gevange te neem. Toe hulle die groep profete sien wat besig was om as profete op te tree onderwyl Samuel hulle voorgaan, het die Gees van God oor die boodskappers van Saul gekom, en hulle het self ook begin om as profete op te tree. [21]Dit is aan Saul vertel, en hy het ander boodskappers gestuur. Ook húlle het self begin om as profete op te tree. Hy het 'n derde groep boodskappers gestuur, en hulle het óók begin om as profete op te tree. [22]Daarop het hy self na Rama toe gegaan en toe hy by die groot opgaardam in Seku kom, vra hy: Waar is Samuel en Dawid? Iemand het geantwoord: Daar in die profetekwartiere in Rama. [23]Hy het na die profetekwartiere toe gegaan in Rama, en die Gees van God het ook oor hom gekom en hy het so in die loop begin om as profeet op te tree totdat hy by die kwartiere in Rama gekom het. [24]Ook hý het sy klere uitgetrek en self as profeet opgetree in die teenwoordigheid van Samuel. Daardie hele dag en nag het Saul sonder klere op die grond gelê, sodat die mense gevra het: Is Saul ook onder die profete?

Jonathan Warns David

1Sa 20:1 Then David fled from Naioth in Ramah and went to Jonathan. "What have I done?" he asked. "What crime have I committed? What wrong have I done to your father to make him want to kill me?"

1Sa 20:2 Jonathan answered, "God forbid that you should die! My father tells me everything he does, important or not, and he would not hide this from me. It just isn't so!"

1Sa 20:3 But David answered, "Your father knows very well how much you like me, and he has decided not to let you know what he plans to do, because you would be deeply hurt. I swear to you by the living LORD that I am only a step away from death!"

1Sa 20:4 Jonathan said, "I'll do anything you want."

1Sa 20:5 "Tomorrow is the New Moon Festival," David replied, "and I am supposed to eat with the king. But if it's all right with you, I will go and hide in the fields until the evening of the day after tomorrow.

1Sa 20:6 If your father notices that I am not at the table, tell him that I begged your permission to hurry home to Bethlehem, since it's the time for the annual sacrifice there for my whole family.

1Sa 20:7 If he says, 'All right,' I will be safe; but if he becomes angry, you will know that he is determined to harm me.

1Sa 20:8 Please do me this favor, and keep the sacred promise you made to me. But if I'm guilty, kill me yourself ! Why take me to your father to be killed?"

1Sa 20:9 "Don't even think such a thing!" Jonathan answered. "If I knew for sure that my father was determined to harm you, wouldn't I tell you?"

1Sa 20:10 David then asked, "Who will let me know if your father answers you angrily?"

1Sa 20:11 "Let's go out to the fields," Jonathan answered. So they went,

1Sa 20:12 and Jonathan said to David, "May the LORD God of Israel be our witness! At this time tomorrow and on the following day I will question my father. If his attitude toward you is good, I will send you word.

1Sa 20:13 If he intends to harm you, may the LORD strike me dead if

I don't let you know about it and get you safely away. May the LORD be with you as he was with my father!

1Sa 20:14 And if I remain alive, please keep your sacred promise and be loyal to me; but if I die,

1Sa 20:15 show the same kind of loyalty to my family forever. And when the LORD has completely destroyed all your enemies,

1Sa 20:16 may our promise to each other still be unbroken. If it is broken, the LORD will punish you."

1Sa 20:17 Once again Jonathan made David promise to love him, for Jonathan loved David as much as he loved himself.

1Sa 20:18 Then Jonathan said to him, "Since tomorrow is the New Moon Festival, your absence will be noticed if you aren't at the meal.

1Sa 20:19 The day after tomorrow your absence will be noticed even more; so go to the place where you hid yourself the other time, and hide behind the pile of stones there.

1Sa 20:20 I will then shoot three arrows at it, as though it were a target.

1Sa 20:21 Then I will tell my servant to go and find them. And if I tell him, 'Look, the arrows are on this side of you; get them,' that means that you are safe and can come out. I swear by the living LORD that you will be in no danger.

1Sa 20:22 But if I tell him, 'The arrows are on the other side of you,' then leave, because the LORD is sending you away.

1Sa 20:23 As for the promise we have made to each other, the LORD will make sure that we will keep it forever."

1Sa 20:24 So David hid in the fields. At the New Moon Festival, King Saul came to the meal

1Sa 20:25 and sat in his usual place by the wall. Abner sat next to him, and Jonathan sat across the table from him. David's place was empty,

1Sa 20:26 but Saul said nothing that day, because he thought, "Something has happened to him, and he is not ritually pure."

1Sa 20:27 On the following day, the day after the New Moon Festival, David's place was still empty, and Saul asked Jonathan, "Why didn't David come to the meal either yesterday or today?"

1Sa 20:28 Jonathan answered, "He begged me to let him go to Bethlehem.

1Sa 20:29 'Please let me go,' he said, 'because our family is celebrating the sacrificial feast in town, and my brother ordered me to be there. So then, if you are my friend, let me go and see my relatives.' That is why he isn't in his place at your table."

1Sa 20:30 Saul became furious with Jonathan and said to him, "How rebellious and faithless your mother was! Now I know you are taking sides with David and are disgracing yourself and that mother of yours!

1Sa 20:31 Don't you realize that as long as David is alive, you will never be king of this country? Now go and bring him here—he must die!"

1Sa 20:32 "Why should he die?" Jonathan replied. "What has he done?"

1Sa 20:33 At that, Saul threw his spear at Jonathan to kill him, and Jonathan realized that his father was really determined to kill David.

1Sa 20:34 Jonathan got up from the table in a rage and ate nothing that day—the second day of the New Moon Festival. He was deeply distressed about David, because Saul had insulted him.

1Sa 20:35 The following morning Jonathan went to the fields to meet David, as they had agreed. He took a young boy with him

1Sa 20:36 and said to him, "Run and find the arrows I'm going to shoot." The boy ran, and Jonathan shot an arrow beyond him.

1Sa 20:37 When the boy reached the place where the arrow had fallen, Jonathan shouted to him, "The arrow is farther on!

1Sa 20:38 Don't just stand there! Hurry up!" The boy picked up the arrow and returned to his master, 1Sa 20:39 not knowing what it all meant; only Jonathan and David knew.

1Sa 20:40 Jonathan gave his weapons to the boy and told him to take them back to town.

1Sa 20:41 After the boy had left, David got up from behind the pile of stones, fell on his knees and bowed with his face to the ground three times. Both he and Jonathan were crying as they kissed each other; David's grief was even greater than Jonathan's.

1Sa 20:42 Then Jonathan said to David, "God be with you. The LORD will make sure that you and I, and your descendants and mine, will forever keep the sacred promise we have made to each other." Then David left, and Jonathan went back to the town.

1Daarna het Dawid uit die profetekwartiere in Rama padgegee en by Jonatan gekom en vir hom gevra: Wat het ek gedoen? Wat is my oortreding of wat het ek verkeerd gedoen teenoor jou pa dat hy my lewe soek? 2Jonatan het hom geantwoord: Nee, wag. Jy sal nie sterwe nie. Jy weet goed my pa doen niks, groot of klein, sonder om dit vertroulik vir my te vertel nie. Waarom sou my pa dan hierdie ding vir my wegsteek? Dit is nie soos jy dink nie. 3Dawid het toe vir Jonatan met 'n eed verseker: Jou pa weet baie goed dat jy van my hou en hy het gedink: Jonatan mag dit nie weet nie sodat hy nie sleg voel nie. Maar so seker as die Here leef en so seker as jy leef, daar is maar net een tree tussen my en die dood. 4En Jonatan sê vir Dawid: Ek sal vir jou doen net wat jy wil hê. 5Dawid sê toe vir Jonatan: Môre is dit nuwemaan, en ek móét saam met die koning aansit om te eet. Maar laat my gaan dat ek in die veld kan wegkruip tot die derde aand. 6As jou pa uitdruklik na my vra, moet jy sê: Dawid het my dringend verlof gevra om gou na sy stad Betlehem toe te gaan, want die hele familie se jaarlikse offer vind daar plaas.' 7As hy sou sê: Goed!' dan is ek veilig, maar as hy baie kwaad word, weet dan beslis dat hy klaar besluit het om my dood te maak. 8Jy het my met 'n verbond van die Here aan jou verbind. Toon jou trou aan my, en as ek skuldig is, maak jý my dan dood. Waarom moet jy my nog na jou pa toe bring? 9Toe antwoord Jonatan: Nee, as ek seker weet dat my pa klaar besluit het om jou dood te maak, sal ek jou dit beslis laat weet. 10Dawid sê toe vir Jonatan: Wie sal vir my kom sê of jou pa jou 'n harde antwoord gegee het? 11Jonatan het daarna vir Dawid gesê: Kom ons gaan uit veld toe. Hulle twee het veld toe gegaan, 12en Jonatan het vir Dawid gesê: So seker as die Here die God van Israel leef, ek sal my pa môre of oormôre pols. Hy sal gunstig gestem wees teenoor jou. So nie, sal ek na jou toe stuur en dit in die geheim aan jou bekend maak. 13Mag die Here my om die lewe bring as my pa besluit het om jou dood te maak en ek jou dit nie in die oor fluister nie en jou nie kans gee om veilig weg te kom nie. Mag die Here by jou wees soos Hy by my pa was. 14En as ek dan nog lewe, moet jy die trou van die Here aan my betoon, sodat ek nie sterwe nie, 15en jy moet jou trou nooit aan my familie onttrek nie. Selfs wanneer die Here die vyande van Dawid een vir een van die aarde af wegvee, 16mag Jonatan nie deur die familie van Dawid uitgeroei word nie, want dan sal die Here dit vergeld deur Dawid se vyande. 17Jonatan het Dawid dit met 'n eed vir hom laat belowe vanweë sy liefde vir hom, want hy het hom liefgehad soos homself. 18Jonatan het ook nog vir hom gesê: Môre is nuwemaan, en jy sal gemis word omdat jou leë sitplek opgemerk sal word. 19Op die derde dag moet jy beslis na die plek toe kom waar jy die vorige keer op die werkdag weggekruip het. Jy moet langs die hoop klippe gaan sit. 20Ek sal drie pyle aan die kant daarvan verby skiet, asof ek na 'n teiken skiet. 21Dan sal ek my slaaf stuur: Gaan soek die pyle.' As ek uitdruklik vir hom sê: Kyk, die pyle is duskant jou; tel hulle op en kom!' is jy veilig en so seker as die Here leef, daar is dan geen gevaar nie. 22Maar as ek vir hom sê: Kyk, die pyle is anderkant jou!' moet jy weggaan. Dan stuur die Here jou weg. 23En wat die saak betref waaroor ek en jy gepraat het: onthou, die Here is vir altyd getuie daarvan. 24Dawid het toe in die veld weggekruip. Met nuwemaan het die koning by die maaltyd aangesit, 25en hy het soos gewoonlik op sy plek teen die muur gaan sit. Jonatan het regoor hom gesit en Abner langs Saul. Dawid se leë plek is opgemerk, 26maar op daardie dag het Saul niks gesê nie, want hy het gedink: daar moes iets gebeur het, en hy is dalk nie rein nie, hy mag dalk nie aan tafel kom nie. 27Die volgende dag van die nuwemaan, die tweede dag, is Dawid se leë plek weer opgemerk. Saul vra toe vir sy seun Jonatan: Waarom het die seun van Isai gister en vandag nie na die maaltyd toe gekom nie? 28Maar Jonatan het vir Saul geantwoord: Dawid het my dringend verlof gevra om na Betlehem toe te gaan. 29Hy het gesê: Laat my tog gaan, want ons het 'n familie-offer in die stad. My broer self het my laat roep. As u dit goedvind, laat my dan tog gaan sodat ek my broers kan gaan besoek.' Daarom het hy nie aan die koning se tafel verskyn nie. 30Toe het Saul hom bloedig vererg vir Jonatan en gesê: Jou rebelse ellendeling! Jy verkies mos die seun van Isai tot jou eie skande en tot skande van jou ma wat jou in die wêreld gebring het. 31Solank die seun van Isai op hierdie aarde leef, sal daar nie plek wees vir jou en jou koningskap nie. Stuur en bring hom na my toe, hy moet dood! 32Daarop het Jonatan sy pa geantwoord en gevra: Waarom moet hy doodgemaak word? Wat het hy gedoen? 33Toe Saul die spies na Jonatan mik om hom dood te maak, het Jonatan geweet sy pa is vasbeslote om vir Dawid om die lewe te bring. 34Woedend het Jonatan van die tafel af opgestaan en op die tweede dag van die nuwemaan niks geëet nie omdat hy bekommerd was oor Dawid en omdat Saul vir Dawid so sleg behandel. 35In die môre het Jonatan volgens sy afspraak met Dawid uitgegaan na die veld toe, en daar was 'n jong slaaf by hom. 36Hy het vir sy slaaf gesê: Hardloop, gaan haal die pyle wat ek afskiet. Die slaaf het gehardloop en Jonatan het die pyl by hom verby geskiet. 37Toe die slaaf by die plek kom waarheen Jonatan die pyl geskiet het, het Jonatan agter hom aan geroep en gesê: Die pyl lê verder. 38Jonatan het weer agter hom aan geroep: Maak gou! Vinnig! Moenie tyd mors nie! Die slaaf het toe die pyl opgetel en na Jonatan toe gekom. 39Hy het van niks geweet nie. Net Jonatan en Dawid het daarvan geweet. 40Jonatan het sy wapens aan die slaaf wat by hom was, gegee en vir hom gesê: Loop! Vat dit stad toe. 41Toe die slaaf weg was, het Dawid opgestaan langs die kliphoop en op sy knieë geval en drie maal vooroor gebuig. Hulle het mekaar gesoen en saam gehuil totdat Dawid baie ontroerd geword het. 42Jonatan het vir Dawid gesê: Gaan in vrede omdat ons twee in die Naam van die Here trou gesweer het en gesê het: Die Here is vir altyd daarvan getuie tussen ons en tussen ons twee se nageslagte. 43Dawid het toe klaargemaak en weggegaan, maar Jonatan is terug stad toe.

David and the Holy Bread

1Sa 21:1 David went to the priest Ahimelech in Nob. Ahimelech came out trembling to meet him and asked, "Why did you come here all by yourself ?"

1Sa 21:2 "I am here on the king's business," David answered. "He told me not to let anyone know what he sent me to do. As for my men, I have told them to meet me at a certain place.

1Sa 21:3 Now, then, what supplies do you have? Give me five loaves of bread or anything else you have."

1Sa 21:4 The priest said, "I don't have any ordinary bread, only sacred bread; you can have it if your men haven't had sexual relations recently."

1Sa 21:5 "Of course they haven't," answered David. "My men always keep themselves ritually pure even when we go out on an ordinary mission; how much more this time when we are on a special mission!"

1Sa 21:6 So the priest gave David the sacred bread, because the only bread he had was the loaves offered to God, which had been removed from the sacred table and replaced by fresh bread.

1Sa 21:7 (Saul's chief herdsman, Doeg, who was from Edom, happened to be there that day, because he had to fulfill a religious obligation.)

1Sa 21:8 David said to Ahimelech, "Do you have a spear or a sword you can give me? The king's orders made me leave in such a hurry that I didn't have time to get my sword or any other weapon."

1Sa 21:9 Ahimelech answered, "I have the sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you killed in Elah Valley; it is behind the ephod, wrapped in a cloth. If you want it, take it—it's the only weapon here." "Give it to me," David said. "There is not a better sword anywhere!"

David Flees to Gath

1Sa 21:10 So David left, fleeing from Saul, and went to King Achish of Gath.

1Sa 21:11 The king's officials said to Achish, "Isn't this David, the king of his country? This is the man about whom the women sang, as they danced, 'Saul has killed thousands, but David has killed tens of thousands.' "

1Sa 21:12 Their words made a deep impression on David, and he became very much afraid of King Achish.

1Sa 21:13 So whenever David was around them, he pretended to be insane and acted like a madman when they tried to restrain him; he would scribble on the city gates and let spit drool down his beard.

1Sa 21:14 So Achish said to his officials, "Look! The man is crazy! Why did you bring him to me?

1Sa 21:15 Don't I have enough madmen already? Why bring another one to bother me with his crazy actions right here in my own house?"

I SAMUEL 21

1Dawid het in Nob by die priester Agimelek gekom. Agimelek het Dawid ontsteld tegemoet gegaan en gevra: Waarom is u alleen? Waarom is daar niemand by u nie? 2Dawid het vir die priester Agimelek gesê: Die koning het my 'n opdrag gegee en gesê: Niemand mag iets weet van die saak waarvoor ek jou stuur en wat ek jou beveel nie.' Ek het my manskappe op 'n sekere plek bestel. 3Maar nou iets anders: wat het u byderhand? Gee my tog vyf brode of net wat u beskikbaar het. 4Die priester het Dawid geantwoord: Ek het nie gewone brood byderhand nie, hier is net gewyde brood. As die manskappe hulle tog maar van vrouens weerhou het. 5Toe sê Dawid vir die priester: Soos altyd wanneer ek gaan oorlog maak, is vrouens vir ons verbode en daarom is die liggame van die manskappe rein. Al is dit ook 'n gewone onderneming, is die liggame vandag tog rein. 6Die priester het toe aan hom gewyde brood gegee, want daar was nie gewone brood nie, net die offerbrood wat op 'n bepaalde tyd uit die tempel verwyder word om dit deur vars brood te vervang. 7Een van Saul se slawe moes daardie dag in die tempel deurbring. Sy naam was Doëg. Hy was 'n Edomiet, die hoof van Saul se veewagters. 8Dawid het ook vir Agimelek gesê: Is hier nie miskien 'n spies of 'n swaard byderhand nie? Ek kon selfs nie eens my swaard of my ander wapens vat nie, want die saak van die koning was dringend. 9Die priester het hom geantwoord: Die swaard van Goliat die Filistyn, vir wie u in die dal by die groot boom verslaan het, is hier, toegedraai in 'n mantel agter die skouerkleed. Vat dit vir u as u wil, want in hierdie plek is daar niks behalwe hierdie een nie. En Dawid sê: Daar is nie nog so een nie. Gee dit vir my. 10Hierná het Dawid klaargemaak en dieselfde dag nog van Saul af weggevlug na koning Akis van Gat toe. 11Akis se amptenare het vir hom gesê: Is dit nie Dawid, die koning van die land nie? Sing hulle nie vir hom in koordanse nie: Saul het sy duisende verslaan, maar Dawid sy tienduisende! 12Toe Dawid besef wat hulle sê, het hy baie bang geword vir koning Akis van Gat. 13Daarom het Dawid hom voor die Filistyne waansinnig gehou, en terwyl hy by hulle was, het hy hom soos 'n mal mens gedra. Hy het teen die deure van die poort gekrap en sy spoeg in sy baard laat afloop. 14Akis het vir sy amptenare gesê: Julle kan mos sien die man is mal. Waarom bring julle hom na my toe? 15Het ek behoefte aan mal mense dat julle hierdie een na my toe bring om by my mal te wees? Moet hý in my huis inkom?

David at the Cave of Adullam

1Sa 22:1 David fled from the city of Gath and went to a cave near the town of Adullam. When his brothers and the rest of the family heard that he was there, they joined him.

1Sa 22:2 People who were oppressed or in debt or dissatisfied went to him, about four hundred men in all, and he became their leader.

1Sa 22:3 David went on from there to Mizpah in Moab and said to the king of Moab, "Please let my father and mother come and stay with you until I find out what God is going to do for me."

1Sa 22:4 So David left his parents with the king of Moab, and they stayed there as long as David was hiding out in the cave.

1Sa 22:5 Then the prophet Gad came to David and said, "Don't stay here; go at once to the land of Judah." So David left and went to the forest of Hereth.

Saul Kills the Priests at Nob

1Sa 22:6 One day Saul was in Gibeah, sitting under a tamarisk tree on a hill, with his spear in his hand, and all his officers were standing around him. He was told that David and his men had been located,

1Sa 22:7 and he said to his officers, "Listen, men of Benjamin! Do you think that David will give fields and vineyards to all of you, and make you officers in his army?

1Sa 22:8 Is that why you are plotting against me? Not one of you told me that my own son had made an alliance with David. No one is concerned about me or tells me that David, one of my own men, is right now looking for a chance to kill me, and that my son has encouraged him!"

1Sa 22:9 Doeg was standing there with Saul's officers, and he said, "I saw David when he went to Ahimelech son of Ahitub in Nob.

1Sa 22:10 Ahimelech asked the LORD what David should do, and then he gave David some food and the sword of Goliath the Philistine."

1Sa 22:11 So King Saul sent for the priest Ahimelech and all his relatives, who were also priests in Nob, and they came to him.

1Sa 22:12 Saul said to Ahimelech, "Listen, Ahimelech!" "At your service, sir," he answered.

1Sa 22:13 Saul asked him, "Why are you and David plotting against me? Why did you give him some food and a sword, and consult God for him? Now he has turned against me and is waiting for a chance to kill me!"

1Sa 22:14 Ahimelech answered, "David is the most faithful officer you have! He is your own son-in-law, captain of your bodyguard, and highly respected by everyone in the royal court.

1Sa 22:15 Yes, I consulted God for him, and it wasn't the first time. As for plotting against you, Your Majesty must not accuse me or anyone else in my family. I don't know anything about this matter!"

1Sa 22:16 The king said, "Ahimelech, you and all your relatives must die."

1Sa 22:17 Then he said to the guards standing near him, "Kill the LORD's priests! They conspired with David and did not tell me that he had run away, even though they knew it all along." But the guards refused to lift a hand to kill the LORD's priests.

1Sa 22:18 So Saul said to Doeg, "You kill them!"—and Doeg killed them all. On that day he killed eighty-five priests who were qualified to carry the ephod.

1Sa 22:19 Saul also had all the other inhabitants of Nob, the city of priests, put to death: men and women, children and babies, cattle, donkeys, and sheep—they were all killed.

1Sa 22:20 But Abiathar, one of Ahimelech's sons, escaped, and went and joined David.

1Sa 22:21 He told him how Saul had slaughtered the priests of the LORD.

1Sa 22:22 David said to him, "When I saw Doeg there that day, I knew that he would be sure to tell Saul. So I am responsible for the death of all your relatives.

1Sa 22:23 Stay with me and don't be afraid. Saul wants to kill both you and me, but you will be safe with me."

I SAMUEL 22

1Dawid het daarvandaan weggegaan en ontsnap na die Adullamgrot toe. Sy broers en sy hele familie het dit gehoor en daarheen gegaan na hom toe. 2Verder het elkeen wat in die moeilikheid was, en elkeen wat 'n skuldeiser gehad het, en elkeen wat verbitterd was, by hom aangesluit, en hy het hulle leier geword. Daar was ongeveer vier honderd man by hom. 3Daarvandaan het Dawid na Mispe in Moab toe gegaan en vir die koning van Moab gevra: Laat my ouers tog uitkom na u toe totdat ek weet wat God aan my sal doen. 4Dawid het hulle toe in die sorg van die koning van Moab gelaat. Hulle het by hom gebly so lank as Dawid in die bergskuiling was. 5Maar die profeet Gad het vir Dawid gesê: Jy mag nie in die skuiling bly nie. Trek weg en gaan na Juda toe. Dawid het toe na die Geretbos toe gegaan. 6Terwyl Saul in Gibea op 'n hoogte onder 'n tamarisk gesit het met sy spies in sy hand, en al sy amptenare by hom gestaan het, het hy verneem dat die mense weet waar Dawid en sy manne is. 7Saul het vir sy amptenare wat by hom staan, gesê: Luister tog, Benjaminiete! Sal die seun van Isai miskien ook vir julle almal velde en wingerde gee en julle almal aanstel as leiers van duisende en leiers van honderde? 8Julle almal het saamgesweer teen my. Niemand het my vertel dat my seun 'n verbond met die seun van Isai gesluit het nie; niemand van julle het medelye met my nie; niemand het my vertel dat my seun 'n amptenaar van my teen my opmaak, sodat hy vandag vir my 'n bedreiging is nie. 9Doëg die Edomiet het tussen die amptenare van Saul gestaan en hy het gesê: Ek het die seun van Isai gesien toe hy in Nob by Agimelek seun van Agitub gekom het. 10Agimelek het die Here vir Dawid geraadpleeg en vir hom padkos gegee. Agimelek het ook die swaard van die Filistyn Goliat vir hom gegee. 11Daarop het die koning gestuur om die priester Agimelek, seun van Agitub, en sy hele familie, die priesters in Nob, te ontbied, en hulle het almal na die koning toe gekom. 12Saul het toe gesê: Luister, seun van Agitub. En hy het geantwoord: Ek luister, U Majesteit. 13En Saul het vir hom gevra: Waarom het jy en die seun van Isai teen my saamgesweer toe jy vir hom brood en 'n swaard gegee en God vir hom geraadpleeg het, sodat hy teen my in opstand kon kom en vandag vir my 'n bedreiging is? 14Agimelek het die koning geantwoord: Maar wie van al u amptenare is so betroubaar soos Dawid, die skoonseun van die koning? Hy is die hoof van u lyfwag en geniet hoë aansien in u huis. 15Dit is in elk geval nie die eerste keer dat ek God vir hom geraadpleeg het nie. Die koning moet my en my hele familie nie van iets beskuldig nie, want ek het beslis niks van die hele saak af geweet nie. 16Maar die koning het gesê: Agimelek, jy moet sterwe, jy en jou hele familie. [17]Toe beveel die koning die hardlopers wat by hom staan: Pak hulle en maak dood die priesters van die Here, want hulle is aan Dawid se kant. Hulle het baie goed geweet dat hy vlug en hulle het my dit nie vertel nie. Maar die amptenare van die koning wou nie 'n vinger verroer om die priesters van die Here aan te val nie. [18]Toe sê die koning vir Doëg: Spring onder hulle in en val die priesters aan. Doëg die Edomiet het onder hulle ingespring, die priesters aangeval en daardie dag vyf en tagtig man wat die linneskouerkleed dra, doodgemaak. [19]Nob, die dorp van die priesters, is met die swaard uitgewis: man en vrou, kind en suigling, bees en donkie en kleinvee. [20]Maar een seun van Agimelek seun van Agitub het ontkom. Sy naam was Abjatar en hy het agter Dawid aan gevlug. [21]Abjatar het aan Dawid vertel dat Saul die priesters van die Here doodgemaak het. [22]Dawid het vir Abjatar gesê: Ek het daardie dag toe Doëg die Edomiet daar was, geweet dat hy beslis alles vir Saul sou vertel. Ek het die lewe van jou hele familie in gevaar gestel. [23]Bly by my en moenie bang wees nie, want hy wat my lewe soek, soek ook jou lewe. Maar jy is veilig by my.

David Saves the City of Keilah

1Sa 23:1 David heard that the Philistines were attacking the town of Keilah and were stealing the newly harvested grain.

1Sa 23:2 So he asked the LORD, "Shall I go and attack the Philistines?" "Yes," the LORD answered. "Attack them and save Keilah."

1Sa 23:3 But David's men said to him, "We have enough to be afraid of here in Judah; it will be much worse if we go to Keilah and attack the Philistine forces!"

1Sa 23:4 So David consulted the LORD again, and the LORD said to him, "Go and attack Keilah, because I will give you victory over the Philistines."

1Sa 23:5 So David and his men went to Keilah and attacked the Philistines; they killed many of them and took their livestock. And so it was that David saved the town.

1Sa 23:6 When Abiathar son of Ahimelech escaped and joined David in Keilah, he took the ephod with him.

1Sa 23:7 Saul was told that David had gone to Keilah, and he said, "God has put him in my power. David has trapped himself by going into a walled town with fortified gates."

1Sa 23:8 So Saul called his troops to war, to march against Keilah and besiege David and his men.

1Sa 23:9 When David heard that Saul was planning to attack him, he said to the priest Abiathar, "Bring the ephod here."

1Sa 23:10 Then David said, " LORD, God of Israel, I have heard that Saul is planning to come to Keilah and destroy it on account of me, your servant.

1Sa 23:11 Will the citizens of Keilah hand me over to Saul? Will Saul really come, as I have heard? LORD, God of Israel, I beg you to answer me!" The LORD answered, "Saul will come."

1Sa 23:12 "And will the citizens of Keilah hand my men and me over to Saul?" David asked again. "They will," the LORD answered.

1Sa 23:13 So David and his men—about six hundred in all—left Keilah at once and kept on the move. When Saul heard that David had escaped from Keilah, he gave up his plan.

1Sa 23:14 David stayed in hiding in the hill country, in the wilderness near Ziph. Saul was always trying to find him, but God did not turn David over to him.

Saul Pursues David

1Sa 23:15 David saw that Saul was out to kill him. David was at Horesh, in the wilderness near Ziph.

1Sa 23:16 Jonathan went to him there and encouraged him with assurances of God's protection,

1Sa 23:17 saying to him, "Don't be afraid. My father Saul won't be able to harm you. He knows very well that you are the one who will be the king of Israel and that I will be next in rank to you."

1Sa 23:18 The two of them made a sacred promise of friendship to each other. David stayed at Horesh, and Jonathan went home.

1Sa 23:19 Some people from Ziph went to Saul at Gibeah and said, "David is hiding out in our territory at Horesh on Mount Hachilah, in the southern part of the Judean wilderness.

1Sa 23:20 We know, Your Majesty, how much you want to capture him; so come to our territory, and we will make sure that you catch him."

1Sa 23:21 Saul answered, "May the LORD bless you for being so kind to me!

1Sa 23:22 Go and make sure once more; find out for certain where he is and who has seen him there. I hear that he is very cunning.

1Sa 23:23 Find out exactly the places where he hides, and be sure to bring back a report to me right away. Then I will go with you, and if he is still in the region, I will hunt him down, even if I have to search the whole land of Judah."

1Sa 23:24 So they left and returned to Ziph ahead of Saul. David and his men were in the wilderness of Maon, in a desolate valley in the southern part of the Judean wilderness.

1Sa 23:25 Saul and his men set out to look for David, but he heard about it and went to a rocky hill in the wilderness of Maon and stayed there. When Saul heard about this, he went after David.

1Sa 23:26 Saul and his men were on one side of the hill, separated from David and his men, who were on the other side. They were hurrying to get away from Saul and his men, who were closing in on them and were about to capture them.

1Sa 23:27 Just then a messenger arrived and said to Saul, "Come back at once! The Philistines are invading the country!"

1Sa 23:28 So Saul stopped pursuing David and went to fight the Philistines. That is why that place is called Separation Hill.

1Sa 23:29 David left and went to the region of Engedi, where he stayed in hiding.

1Op 'n keer is aan Dawid vertel: Die Filistyne veg teen Keïla en plunder die dorsvloere. 2Dawid het die Here geraadpleeg: Sal ek optrek en hierdie klomp Filistyne verslaan? Die Here het vir Dawid geantwoord: Trek op en verslaan die Filistyne en bevry Keïla. 3Maar die manne van Dawid sê: O nee, ons verkeer hier in Juda alreeds in gevaar, hoeveel te meer as ons na die skanse van die Filistyne toe gaan by Keïla? 4Dawid het weer die Here geraadpleeg, en die Here het geantwoord: Maak klaar, trek op na Keïla toe, want Ek lewer die Filistyne aan jou oor. 5Dawid en sy manne het toe opgetrek na Keïla toe en teen die Filistyne oorlog gemaak. Hy het hulle vee as buit saamgevat nadat hy hulle in 'n groot veldslag verslaan het. So het Dawid die inwoners van Keïla bevry. 6Toe Abjatar seun van Agimelek na Dawid toe in Keïla gevlug het, het hy die skouerkleed saamgevat. 7Daar is toe aan Saul berig dat Dawid in Keïla gekom het, en hy het gesê: God het Hom aan Dawid onttrek. Hy is nou in my hand, want deur in 'n stad met grendeldeure in te gaan, het hy homself toegesluit. 8Saul het al die manskappe opgekommandeer vir die oorlog, om op te trek na Keïla toe en Dawid en sy manne te beleër. 9Maar Dawid het te wete gekom dat Saul hom wil aanval en hy het vir die priester Abjatar gesê: Bring die skouerkleed hier. 10Dawid het gesê: Here, God van Israel, ek is u dienaar. Ek het verneem dat Saul na Keïla toe wil kom om die stad te verwoes omdat ek hier is. 11Sal die regeerders van Keïla my aan hom uitlewer? Sal Saul optrek soos ek verneem het? Here, God van Israel, lig my tog in. En die Here antwoord: Ja, hy sal optrek. 12Toe vra Dawid: Sal die regeerders van Keïla my en my manne aan Saul uitlewer? Die Here het hom geantwoord: Ja. 13Dawid en sy manne, ongeveer ses honderd man, het klaargemaak, uit Keïla uitgegaan en heen en weer rondgetrek. Daar is ook aan Saul vertel dat Dawid uit Keïla ontsnap het en Saul het sy agtervolging gestaak. 14Daarna het Dawid in die woestyn in bergskuilings gaan woon. Hy het in die berge in die Sifwoestyn gewoon. Saul het hom die hele tyd gesoek, maar God het hom nie in Saul se mag oorgegee nie. 15Toe Dawid besef dat Saul steeds daarop uit is om hom dood te maak, is hy na Goresa toe in die Sifwoestyn. 16Jonatan seun van Saul het toe klaargemaak en na Dawid toe in Goresa gegaan en hom bemoedig in sy vertroue op God. 17Hy het vir hom gesê: Moenie bang wees nie, want my pa sal jou nie in die hande kry nie. Jy sal koning word oor Israel, en ek sal onder jou staan. Selfs my pa weet dat dit so is. 18Hulle twee het toe 'n verbond voor die Here gesluit. Dawid het in Goresa gebly, en Jonatan het huis toe gegaan. 19Daarna het Siffiete na Saul in Gibea toe gegaan en gesê: Dawid kruip by ons weg in die skuilplekke in Goresa, op die Gakilarant suid van die onherbergsame gebied. [20]U Majesteit, as dit dan nou u begeerte is om op te trek, trek op en ons sal sorg dat hy aan u uitgelewer word. [21]Toe antwoord Saul: Mag die Here julle seën omdat julle saam met my voel. [22]Gaan dan nou, stel weer vas waar Dawid is, kyk goed en verken die plek: waar sy spore is en wie hom daar gesien het, want iemand het vir my gesê hy is baie uitgeslape. [23]Gaan kyk en stel haarfyn vas waar hy oral skuil. Bring vir my sekerheid terug. Dan sal ek saamgaan. Indien hy nog in die land is, sal ek hom opspoor met al die afdelings van Juda. [24]Die Siffiete het klaargemaak en voor Saul uit na Sif toe gegaan. Dawid en sy manne was in die Maonwoestyn in die vlakte suid van die onherbergsame streek. [25]Toe Saul en sy manskappe hom gaan soek, is dit aan Dawid vertel, en hy het na die kliprant toe gegaan, nog in die Maonwoestyn. Saul het dit verneem en Dawid in die Maonwoestyn agtervolg. [26]Saul het aan die een kant van die berg langs gegaan, en Dawid en sy manne net aan die ander kant. En toe Dawid bang voor Saul wegvlug, terwyl Saul en sy manskappe al vir Dawid en sy manne begin omsingel om hulle te vang, [27]kom daar 'n boodskapper by Saul en sê: Maak gou en kom, want die Filistyne het die land ingeval. [28]Saul het opgehou om Dawid te agtervolg en het die Filistyne tegemoet gegaan. Daarom noem hulle die plek Skeidingsrant.

David Spares Saul's Life

1Sa 24:1 When Saul came back from fighting the Philistines, he was told that David was in the wilderness near Engedi.

1Sa 24:2 Saul took three thousand of the best soldiers in Israel and went looking for David and his men east of Wild Goat Rocks.

1Sa 24:3 He came to a cave close to some sheep pens by the road and went in to relieve himself. It happened to be the very cave in which David and his men were hiding far back in the cave.

1Sa 24:4 They said to him, "This is your chance! The LORD has told you that he would put your enemy in your power and you could do to him whatever you wanted to." David crept over and cut off a piece of Saul's robe without Saul's knowing it.

1Sa 24:5 But then David's conscience began to hurt,

1Sa 24:6 and he said to his men, "May the LORD keep me from doing any harm to my master, whom the LORD chose as king! I must not harm him in the least, because he is the king chosen by the LORD!"

1Sa 24:7 So David convinced his men that they should not attack Saul. Saul got up, left the cave, and started away.

1Sa 24:8 Then David went out after him and called to him, "Your Majesty!" Saul turned around, and David bowed down to the ground in respect 1Sa 24:9 and said, "Why do you listen to people who say that I am trying to harm you?

1Sa 24:10 You can see for yourself that just now in the cave the LORD put you in my power. Some of my men told me to kill you, but I felt sorry for you and said that I would not harm you in the least, because you are the one whom the LORD chose to be king.

1Sa 24:11 Look, my father, look at the piece of your robe I am holding! I could have killed you, but instead I only cut this off. This should convince you that I have no thought of rebelling against you or of harming you. You are hunting me down to kill me, even though I have not done you any wrong.

1Sa 24:12 May the LORD judge which one of us is wrong! May he punish you for your action against me, for I will not harm you in the least.

1Sa 24:13 You know the old saying, 'Evil is done only by evil people.'

And so I will not harm you.

1Sa 24:14 Look at what the king of Israel is trying to kill! Look at what he is chasing! A dead dog, a flea!

1Sa 24:15 The LORD will judge, and he will decide which one of us is wrong. May he look into the matter, defend me, and save me from you."

1Sa 24:16 When David had finished speaking, Saul said, "Is that really you, David my son?" And he started crying.

1Sa 24:17 Then he said to David, "You are right, and I am wrong. You have been so good to me, while I have done such wrong to you!

1Sa 24:18 Today you have shown how good you are to me, because you did not kill me, even though the LORD put me in your power.

1Sa 24:19 How often does someone catch an enemy and then let him get away unharmed? The LORD bless you for what you have done to me today!

1Sa 24:20 Now I am sure that you will be king of Israel and that the kingdom will continue under your rule.

1Sa 24:21 But promise me in the LORD's name that you will spare my descendants, so that my name and my family's name will not be completely forgotten."

1Sa 24:22 David promised that he would. Then Saul went back home, and David and his men went back to their hiding place.

I SAMUEL 24

1Daarvandaan het Dawid in die skuilplekke by En-Gedi gaan bly. 2Net toe Saul van die veldtog teen die Filistyne af terugkom, is aan hom vertel: Dawid is in die En-Gediwoestyn. 3Saul het drie afdelings manskappe wat uitgesoek is uit die hele Israel, gevat en gegaan om Dawid en sy manne op te spoor in die omgewing van Klipbokrotse. 4Onderweg het Saul afgekom op skaapkrale met 'n grot daarby. Hy het daar ingegaan om homself te ontlas, terwyl Dawid en sy manne agter in die grot sit. 5Dawid se manne sê toe vir hom: Kyk daar, vandag sê die Here vir jou: Ek gee jou vyand in jou hand en jy moet met hom maak soos jy dit goedvind. Dawid het opgestaan en ongemerk die punt van Saul se mantel afgesny. 6Maar agterna het Dawid se gewete hom gepla omdat hy Saul se mantelpunt afgesny het. 7Hy het vir die manne gesê: Mag die Here my daarvan bewaar dat ek my hand teen my koning, die gesalfde van die Here, oplig, want hy is die gesalfde van die Here. 8So het Dawid sy manne met sy woorde gekeer en hulle nie toegelaat om teen Saul op te tree nie. En Saul het opgestaan en sy koers gegaan uit die grot uit. 9Dawid het ook klaargemaak en uit die grot uitgegaan. Hy het agter Saul aan geroep: U Majesteit, die Koning! Toe Saul omkyk, het Dawid gekniel en diep gebuig. 10Dawid sê toe vir Saul: Waarom luister u na die praatjies van mense wat sê Dawid soek u ondergang? 11U sien vandag met u eie oë dat die Here u nou in die grot in my hand gegee het en as 't ware vir my gesê het om u dood te maak. Maar ek het u gespaar en gesê: Ek sal my hand nie teen my koning oplig nie, want hy is die gesalfde van die Here.' 12My vader, kyk tog, kyk na die punt van u mantel in my hand. Deurdat ek die punt van u mantel afgesny het, maar u nie doodgemaak het nie, kan u weet en sien dat daar geen kwaadwilligheid of opstandigheid by my is nie. Ek het nie teen u in opstand gekom nie, selfs al agtervolg u my om my lewe te neem. 13Die Here sal regspreek tussen my en u en die Here sal my wreek op u, maar ek sal nie teen u wees nie. 14Soos die spreekwoord van die voorgeslag lui: Boosheid gaan uit van die boosdoeners,' maar ek sal nie teen u wees nie. 15Agter wie aan het die koning van Israel opgetrek? Agter wie kom u aan? Agter 'n dooie hond aan; agter een enkele vlooi aan! 16Die Here sal regter wees en Hy sal regspreek tussen ons. Hy sal sorg en my saak behartig en aan my reg verskaf teenoor u. 17Nadat Dawid dit alles vir Saul gesê het, het Saul gevra: Is dit jy wat praat, my seun, Dawid? Toe begin Saul hard huil 18en hy sê vir Dawid: Jy is 'n beter man as ek, want jy het aan my goed gedoen en ek het jou kwaad aangedoen. 19Jy het so pas duidelik getoon watter weldaad jy my bewys het deurdat jy my nie doodgemaak het toe die Here my in jou hand oorgegee het nie. [20]Sal iemand sy vyand ongedeerd sy koers laat gaan as hy hom raakloop? Mag die Here jou met weldade beloon vir wat jy vandag aan my gedoen het. [21]En nou, ek weet jy sal koning word, en die koningskap oor Israel sal in jou hand bestendig wees. [22]Lê dan nou in die Naam van die Here 'n eed af dat jy nie my nageslag sal uitroei nie en so in my familie aan my naam 'n einde sal maak nie. [23]Nadat Dawid vir Saul 'n eed afgelê het, het Saul huis toe gegaan, maar Dawid en sy manne het opgegaan na die bergskuiling toe.

The Death of Samuel

1Sa 25:1 Samuel died, and all the Israelites came together and mourned for him. Then they buried him at his home in Ramah. After this, David went to the wilderness of Paran.

1Sa 25:2 (2-3) There was a man of the clan of Caleb named Nabal, who was from the town of Maon, and who owned land near the town of Carmel. He was a very rich man, the owner of three thousand sheep and one thousand goats. His wife Abigail was beautiful and intelligent, but he was a mean, bad-tempered man. Nabal was shearing his sheep in Carmel,

1Sa 25:4 and David, who was in the wilderness, heard about it,

1Sa 25:5 so he sent ten young men with orders to go to Carmel, find Nabal, and give him his greetings.

1Sa 25:6 He instructed them to say to Nabal: "David sends you greetings, my friend, with his best wishes for you, your family, and all that is yours.

1Sa 25:7 He heard that you were shearing your sheep, and he wants you to know that your shepherds have been with us and we did not harm them. Nothing that belonged to them was stolen all the time they were at Carmel.

1Sa 25:8 Just ask them, and they will tell you. We have come on a feast day, and David asks you to receive us kindly. Please give what you can to us your servants and to your dear friend David."

1Sa 25:9 David's men delivered this message to Nabal in David's name. Then they waited there, 1Sa 25:10 and Nabal finally answered, "David? Who is he? I've never heard of him! The country is full of runaway slaves nowadays!

1Sa 25:11 I'm not going to take my bread and water, and the animals I have butchered for my sheepshearers, and give them to people who come from I don't know where!"

1Sa 25:12 David's men went back to him and told him what Nabal had said.

1Sa 25:13 "Buckle on your swords!" he ordered, and they all did. David also buckled on his sword and left with about four hundred of his men, leaving two hundred behind with the supplies.

1Sa 25:14 One of Nabal's servants said to Nabal's wife Abigail, "Have you heard? David sent some messengers from the wilderness with greetings for our master, but he insulted them.

1Sa 25:15 Yet they were very good to us; they never bothered us, and all the time we were with them in the fields, nothing that belonged to us was stolen.

1Sa 25:16 They protected us day and night the whole time we were with them looking after our flocks.

1Sa 25:17 Please think this over and decide what to do. This could be disastrous for our master and all his family. He is so mean that he won't listen to anybody!"

1Sa 25:18 Abigail quickly gathered two hundred loaves of bread, two leather bags full of wine, five roasted sheep, two bushels of roasted grain, a hundred bunches of raisins, and two hundred cakes of dried figs, and loaded them on donkeys.

1Sa 25:19 Then she said to the servants, "You go on ahead and I will follow you." But she said nothing to her husband.

1Sa 25:20 She was riding her donkey around a bend on a hillside when suddenly she met David and his men coming toward her.

1Sa 25:21 David had been thinking, "Why did I ever protect that fellow's property out here in the wilderness? Not a thing that belonged to him was stolen, and this is how he pays me back for the help I gave him!

1Sa 25:22 May God strike me dead if I don't kill every last one of those men before morning!"

1Sa 25:23 When Abigail saw David, she quickly dismounted and threw herself on the ground

1Sa 25:24 at David's feet, and said to him, "Please, sir, listen to me! Let me take the blame.

1Sa 25:25 Please, don't pay any attention to Nabal, that good-for-nothing! He is exactly what his name means—a fool! I wasn't there when your servants arrived, sir.

1Sa 25:26 It is the LORD who has kept you from taking revenge and killing your enemies. And now I swear to you by the living LORD that your enemies and all who want to harm you will be punished like Nabal.

1Sa 25:27 Please, sir, accept this present I have brought you, and give it to your men.

1Sa 25:28 Please forgive me, sir, for any wrong I have done. The LORD will make you king, and your descendants also, because you are fighting his battles; and you will not do anything evil as long as you live.

1Sa 25:29 If anyone should attack you and try to kill you, the LORD your God will keep you safe, as someone guards a precious treasure. As for your enemies, however, he will throw them away, as someone hurls stones with a sling.

1Sa 25:30 And when the LORD has done all the good things he has promised you and has made you king of Israel,

1Sa 25:31 then you will not have to feel regret or remorse, sir, for having killed without cause or for having taken your own revenge. And when the LORD has blessed you, sir, please do not forget me."

1Sa 25:32 David said to her, "Praise the LORD, the God of Israel, who sent you today to meet me!

1Sa 25:33 Thank God for your good sense and for what you have done today in keeping me from the crime of murder and from taking my own revenge.

1Sa 25:34 The LORD has kept me from harming you. But I swear by the living God of Israel that if you had not hurried to meet me, all of Nabal's men would have been dead by morning!"

1Sa 25:35 Then David accepted what she had brought him and said to her, "Go back home and don't worry. I will do what you want."

1Sa 25:36 Abigail went back to Nabal, who was at home having a feast fit for a king. He was drunk and in a good mood, so she did not tell him anything until the next morning.

1Sa 25:37 Then, after he had sobered up, she told him everything. He suffered a stroke and was completely paralyzed.

1Sa 25:38 Some ten days later the LORD struck Nabal and he died.

1Sa 25:39 When David heard that Nabal had died, he said, "Praise the LORD! He has taken revenge on Nabal for insulting me and has kept me his servant from doing wrong. The LORD has punished Nabal for his evil." Then David sent a proposal of marriage to Abigail.

1Sa 25:40 His servants went to her at Carmel and said to her, "David sent us to take you to him to be his wife."

1Sa 25:41 Abigail bowed down to the ground and said, "I am his servant, ready to wash the feet of his servants."

1Sa 25:42 She rose quickly and mounted her donkey. Accompanied by her five maids, she went with David's servants and became his wife.

1Sa 25:43 David had married Ahinoam from Jezreel, and now Abigail also became his wife.

1Sa 25:44 Meanwhile, Saul had given his daughter Michal, who had been David's wife, to Palti son of Laish, who was from the town of Gallim.

I SAMUEL 25

[1]Samuel is oorlede, en die hele Israel het bymekaargekom en oor hom gerou. Hulle het hom begrawe by sy huis in Rama. Dawid het klaargemaak en na die Paranwoestyn toe getrek. [2]Daar was 'n man in Maon wat sy boerdery in Karmel gehad het, 'n baie ryk man. Hy het drie duisend skape en duisend bokke gehad. Hy was besig om sy skape in Karmel te skeer. [3]Die naam van die man was Nabal en die naam van sy vrou Abigajil. Die vrou het 'n goeie verstand gehad en sy was mooi, maar die man was 'n regte korrelkop en onbeskof. Hy was 'n Kalebiet. [4]Toe Dawid in die woestyn verneem dat Nabal skape skeer, [5]het hy tien jong manne gestuur en vir hulle gesê: Gaan na Karmel toe, en as julle by Nabal kom, moet julle hom namens my vra hoe dit gaan. [6]En sê vir hom: Gesondheid en voorspoed vir u en u familie en alles wat u besit! [7]Ek het verneem dat hulle besig is om by u te skeer. U skaapwagters was by ons en ons het hulle nie kwaad aangedoen nie. Hulle het niks vermis solank hulle in Karmel was nie. [8]Vra maar u veewagters sodat hulle dit kan vertel. Wees dan tog my mense goedgesind. Ons het op die regte tyd gekom. Gee asseblief wat u kan afstaan aan u seun Dawid en sy manne. [9]Die jong manne van Dawid het gekom en Dawid se hele boodskap aan Nabal oorgedra en gewag. [10]Maar Nabal het die manne van Dawid geantwoord: Wie is Dawid, wie is die seun van Isai? Daar is deesdae baie slawe wat wegloop van hulle eienaars af. [11]Moet ek nou my brood en water vat en die vleis wat ek vir my skeerders geslag het, en dit vir mense gee van wie ek nie weet waar hulle vandaan is nie? [12]Die jong manne van Dawid het net daar in hulle spore omgedraai en teruggegaan. Hulle het alles wat Nabal gesê het, vir Dawid gaan vertel. [13]Dawid het toe aan sy manne gesê: Gord aan julle swaarde! En elkeen het sy swaard aangegord, Dawid ook. Omtrent vier honderd man het saam met Dawid opgetrek, terwyl twee honderd by hulle goed gebly het. [14]Een van die veewagters het vir Abigajil, die vrou van Nabal, vertel: Dawid het boodskappers uit die woestyn gestuur om vir Meneer te groet, maar hy het teen hulle uitgevaar. [15]Tog was die manne baie goed vir ons. Solank ons saam met hulle in die veld rondgetrek het, is ons nie kwaad aangedoen nie, en het ons niks vermis nie. [16]Hulle het ons dag en nag beskerm so lank as ons die kleinvee naby hulle opgepas het. [17]Nou kan u gerus gou kyk wat u kan doen, want daar is klaar besluit om vir Meneer en sy hele huis te straf; en hy is so 'n verkeerde man dat 'n mens nie met hom daaroor kan praat nie. [18]Abigajil het gou twee honderd brode, twee kruike wyn, vyf gaargemaakte skape, vyf emmer gebraaide koring, honderd trosse rosyntjies en twee honderd koeke gedroogde vye gevat en op donkies gelaai. [19]Sy het vir haar slawe gesê: Gaan vooruit. Ek kom sommer nou agter julle aan. Aan haar man Nabal het sy niks hiervan vertel nie. [20]Terwyl sy nog op die donkie ry en in 'n kloof teen die berg afgaan, kom Dawid en sy manne juis na haar kant toe aan, sodat sy hulle teëkom. [21]Dawid het juis net gedink: ek het verniet alles wat aan daardie man behoort in die woestyn opgepas, sodat daar niks van sy goed vermis is nie. Hy vergeld my kwaad vir goed. [22]Mag God my deur my vyande om die lewe bring as ek teen môreoggend nog enige manspersoon van Nabal laat oorbly. [23]Toe Abigajil vir Dawid sien, het sy gou van die donkie af afgespring en vir Dawid eerbiedig gegroet. Sy het diep gebuig voor hom [24]en gesê: Verskoon tog die onreg, Meneer! Mag ek vertroulik met u praat? Luister tog na my woorde. [25]Meneer moet hom tog nie steur aan daardie verkeerde mens, aan Nabal nie, want hy is net soos sy naam. Sy naam beteken dwaas, en dwaas is hy. Maar ek, ek het nie die manne van Meneer vir wie Meneer gestuur het, gesien nie. [26]Meneer, so seker as die Here leef en so seker as wat u self leef, dit is die Here wat gekeer het dat u bloed vergiet en die reg in u eie hande neem. Mag dit met u vyande gaan soos dit met Nabal sal gaan en met almal wat u ondergang soek. [27]Neem tog nou hierdie blyk van goeie wense wat ek vir Meneer gebring het, en laat dit gegee word aan die manne wat altyd vir Meneer volg. [28]Vergewe tog my oortreding, want die Here sal beslis vir u 'n bestendige huis besorg, omdat Meneer die oorloë van die Here voer, en mag 'n ramp u nooit tref nie. [29]En sou daar iemand opstaan om u te agtervolg en u te probeer doodmaak, mag die lewe van Meneer dan by die Here, u God, veilig wees saam met die lewendes. Maar mag die lewe van u vyande weggeslinger word soos 'n klip uit 'n slingervel. [30]Wanneer die Here al die goeie dinge wat Hy oor u gesê het, aan Meneer volbring het, en Hy u as regeerder van Israel aangestel het, [31]mag hierdie voorval dan nie vir u tot kwelling en gewetenswroeging wees omdat u onskuldige bloed vergiet het deur die reg in eie hande te neem nie. En wanneer die Here aan Meneer goed gedoen het, mag u my dan in gedagte hou. [32]Dawid het vir Abigajil gesê: Geloof sy die Here die God van Israel wat jou vandag gestuur het om my te ontmoet. [33]Mag jy geseën word vanweë jou insig en ook omdat jy my vandag verhinder het om bloed te vergiet en die reg in my eie hand te neem. [34]Maar, so seker as die Here die God van Israel leef, Hy wat my gekeer het om jou kwaad aan te doen, as jy my nie gou tegemoet gekom het nie, sou daar beslis geen enkele manspersoon van Nabal tot die môrelig oorgebly het nie. [35]Daarna het Dawid die goed wat sy gebring het, aanvaar en vir haar gesê: Wees gerus en gaan maar huis toe. Kyk, ek het jou versoek gehoor en ek staan dit toe. [36]Toe Abigajil by Nabal kom, het hy in sy huis 'n feesmaal gehad soos 'n koning. Nabal was opgeruimd en baie dronk. Voor die oggend met ligdag het sy hom hoegenaamd niks vertel nie. 37Die oggend het Nabal nugter geword, en toe sy vrou hom al hierdie dinge vertel, het hy 'n beroerteaanval gekry en is hy heeltemal verlam. 38Omtrent tien dae later het die Here hom weer met 'n aanval getref, en het hy gesterf. 39Toe Dawid hoor dat Nabal dood is, het hy gesê: Geloof sy die Here wat my regsaak behartig het oor die onreg wat Nabal my aangedoen het, en my van kwaad weerhou het. Die Here het Nabal se kwaad op sy eie kop laat afkom. Daarna het Dawid gestuur en met Abigajil laat praat om haar as vrou vir hom te neem. 40Die manne van Dawid het by Abigajil die Karmeliet gekom en vir haar gesê: Dawid het ons na u toe gestuur om u as vrou vir hom te neem. 41Sy het opgestaan en gebuig en gesê: Ag nee, ek wil net 'n slavin wees om die voete van Meneer se manne te was. 42Abigajil het toe gou klaargemaak en op 'n donkie gery terwyl haar vyf slavinne te voet gevolg het. Sy het die boodskappers van Dawid gevolg en sy vrou geword. 43Dawid was reeds met Aginoam uit Jisreël getroud. Hy het nou twee vrouens gehad. 44Saul het sy dogter Mikal, die vrou van Dawid, aan Palti die seun van Lajis uit Gallim gegee.

David Spares Saul Again

1Sa 26:1 Some men from Ziph came to Saul at Gibeah and told him that David was hiding on Mount Hachilah at the edge of the Judean wilderness.

1Sa 26:2 Saul went at once with three thousand of the best soldiers in Israel to the wilderness of Ziph to look for David,

1Sa 26:3 and camped by the road on Mount Hachilah. David was still in the wilderness, and when he learned that Saul had come to look for him, 1Sa 26:4 he sent spies and found out that Saul was indeed there.

1Sa 26:5 He went at once and located the exact place where Saul and Abner son of Ner, commander of Saul's army, slept. Saul slept inside the camp, and his men camped around him.

1Sa 26:6 Then David asked Ahimelech the Hittite, and Abishai the brother of Joab (their mother was Zeruiah), "Which of you two will go to Saul's camp with me?" "I will," Abishai answered.

1Sa 26:7 So that night David and Abishai entered Saul's camp and found Saul sleeping in the center of the camp with his spear stuck in the ground near his head. Abner and the troops were sleeping around him.

1Sa 26:8 Abishai said to David, "God has put your enemy in your power tonight. Now let me plunge his own spear through him and pin him to the ground with just one blow—I won't have to strike twice!"

1Sa 26:9 But David said, "You must not harm him! The LORD will certainly punish whoever harms his chosen king.

1Sa 26:10 By the living LORD," David continued, "I know that the LORD himself will kill Saul, either when his time comes to die a natural death or when he dies in battle.

1Sa 26:11 The LORD forbid that I should try to harm the one whom the LORD has made king! Let's take his spear and his water jar, and go."

1Sa 26:12 So David took the spear and the water jar from right beside Saul's head, and he and Abishai left. No one saw it or knew what had happened or even woke up—they were all sound asleep, because the LORD had sent a heavy sleep on them all.

1Sa 26:13 Then David crossed over to the other side of the valley to the top of the hill, a safe distance away,

1Sa 26:14 and shouted to Saul's troops and to Abner, "Abner! Can you hear me?" "Who is that shouting and waking up the king?" Abner asked.

1Sa 26:15 David answered, "Abner, aren't you the greatest man in Israel? So why aren't you protecting your master, the king? Just now someone entered the camp to kill your master.

1Sa 26:16 You failed in your duty, Abner! I swear by the living LORD that all of you deserve to die, because you have not protected your master, whom the LORD made king. Look! Where is the king's spear? Where is the water jar that was right by his head?"

1Sa 26:17 Saul recognized David's voice and asked, "David, is that you, my son?" "Yes, Your Majesty," David answered.

1Sa 26:18 And he added, "Why, sir, are you still pursuing me, your servant? What have I done? What crime have I committed?

1Sa 26:19 Your Majesty, listen to what I have to say. If it is the LORD who has turned you against me, an offering to him will make him change his mind; but if some people have done it, may the LORD's curse fall on them. For they have driven me out from the LORD's land to a country where I can only worship foreign gods.

1Sa 26:20 Don't let me be killed on foreign soil, away from the LORD. Why should the king of Israel come to kill a flea like me? Why should he hunt me down like a wild bird?"

1Sa 26:21 Saul answered, "I have done wrong. Come back, David, my son! I will never harm you again, because you have spared my life tonight. I have been a fool! I have done a terrible thing!"

1Sa 26:22 David replied, "Here is your spear, Your Majesty. Let one of your men come over and get it.

1Sa 26:23 The LORD rewards those who are faithful and righteous. Today he put you in my power, but I did not harm you, whom the LORD made king.

1Sa 26:24 Just as I have spared your life today, may the LORD do the same to me and free me from all troubles!"

1Sa 26:25 Saul said to David, "God bless you, my son! You will succeed in everything you do!" So David went on his way, and Saul returned home.

1Daarna het Siffiete by Saul in Gibea gekom en gesê: Dawid kruip weg op die Gakilarant teenoor die onherbergsame streek. 2Saul het toe klaargemaak en na die Sifwoestyn toe gegaan. Saam met hom was daar drie afdelings, uitgesoektes uit Israel, om Dawid in die Sifwoestyn op te spoor. 3Saul het kamp opgeslaan langs die pad op die Gakilarant, wat teenoor die onherbergsame gebied is. Dawid het in die woestyn gebly. Toe hy hoor dat Saul tot in die woestyn agter hom aankom, 4het Dawid spioene uitgestuur en so het hy sekerheid gekry dat Saul na hom toe op pad was. 5Toe het Dawid klaargemaak en by die plek gekom waar Saul kamp opgeslaan het. Dawid het die plek gesien waar Saul en Abner seun van Ner, die hoof van Saul se leër, gelê en slaap het. Saul het op die wa gelê en die manskappe rondom hom. 6En Dawid het vir Agimelek die Hetiet, en vir Abisai, broer van Joab en seun van Seruja, gevra: Wie wil saam met my na Saul toe in die kamp gaan? Abisai het geantwoord: Ek sal saam met jou gaan. 7Dawid en Abisai het daardie nag by die manskappe van Saul gekom, en Saul was vas aan die slaap op die wa terwyl sy spies aan die koppenent in die grond steek en Abner en die manskappe rondom hom lê en slaap. 8Abisai het vir Dawid gesê: God het jou vyand nou in jou mag oorgegee. Laat ek hom nou sommer hier met die spies in die grond vassteek. Ek sal hom nie 'n tweede keer hoef te steek nie. 9Maar Dawid het vir Abisai gesê: Jy moet hom nie om die lewe bring nie, want wie sal sy hand oplig teen die gesalfde van die Here en nog onskuldig wees? 10Dawid het ook gesê: So seker as die Here leef, die Here sal hom met 'n vroeë dood tref, of sy tyd sal aanbreek en hy sal sterwe, of hy sal gaan oorlog maak en hy sal omkom. 11Mag die Here my verhinder dat ek my hand oplig teen die gesalfde van die Here. Vat net die spies by sy koppenent en die waterkruik en laat ons hier wegkom. 12Dawid het die spies en die waterkruik by Saul se koppenent gevat en weggegaan sonder dat iemand iets gesien of gehoor het of wakker geword het, want almal het geslaap. Die Here het hulle vas laat slaap. 13Daarna het Dawid na die oorkant toe gegaan en op die top van die berg gaan staan, ver weg met 'n groot afstand tussen hulle. 14Dawid het na die manskappe van Saul en na Abner seun van Ner geroep: Abner, antwoord jy dan nie? En Abner het geantwoord: Wie is jy wat na die koning roep? 15Toe sê Dawid vir Abner: Is jy nie 'n man nie? Wie is soos jy in Israel? Waarom het jy nie wag gestaan by jou koning nie? Daar het een van die volk gekom om die koning dood te maak. 16Wat jy gedoen het, is nie goed nie. So seker as die Here leef, julle moet eintlik dood wees omdat julle nie by julle koning, die gesalfde van die Here, wag gestaan het nie. Kyk net 'n bietjie! Waar is die koning se spies en die waterkruik wat by sy koppenent was? 17Saul het Dawid se stem herken en gesê: Is dit jy wat praat, my seun, Dawid? Dawid het gesê: Dit is, U Majesteit! 18Hy het verder gevra: Waarom agtervolg die koning tog sy onderdaan? Wat het ek gedoen wat verkeerd is? 19Maar nou moet die koning tog na my luister. As dit die Here is wat u teen my aanhits, bring dan vir Hom 'n offer. Maar as dit mense is, vervloek is hulle voor die Here, want hulle het my nou uitgedryf sodat ek voel asof ek nie meer aan die volk van die Here behoort nie. Hulle het gesê: Gaan dien vreemde gode.' 20Laat my bloed tog nie ver van die heiligdom af op die grond val nie. Waarlik, die koning van Israel het uitgetrek om een enkele vlooi te soek soos 'n mens 'n patrys in die berge agtervolg. 21Maar Saul het gesê: Ek het 'n fout gemaak. Kom terug, my seun, Dawid, want ek sal nie meer verkeerd teenoor jou optree nie omdat jy vandag my lewe gespaar het. Ja regtig, ek het dwaas opgetree en 'n growwe fout gemaak. 22Toe sê Dawid: Hier is die koning se spies. Laat een van u manskappe tog oorkom en dit kom haal. 23Mag die Here elkeen volgens sy geregtigheid en trou beloon, want die Here het u vandag in my mag gegee. Maar ek was nie bereid om my hand te lig teen die gesalfde van die Here nie. 24En kyk, mag die Here my lewe net so spaar soos ek vandag u lewe gespaar het, en mag Hy my uit elke benoudheid red. 25Saul het vir Dawid gesê: Mag dit goed gaan met jou, my seun, Dawid. Jy sal van krag tot krag gaan en beslis ook die oorhand kry. Daarna het Dawid sy koers ingeslaan, en Saul het omgedraai huis toe.

David Flees to the Philistines

1Sa 27:1 David said to himself, "One of these days Saul will kill me. The best thing for me to do is to escape to Philistia. Then Saul will give up looking for me in Israel, and I will be safe."

1Sa 27:2 So David and his six hundred men went over at once to Achish son of Maoch, king of Gath.

1Sa 27:3 David and his men settled there in Gath with their families. David had his two wives with him, Ahinoam from Jezreel, and Abigail, Nabal's widow, from Carmel.

1Sa 27:4 When Saul heard that David had fled to Gath, he gave up trying to find him.

1Sa 27:5 David said to Achish, "If you are my friend, let me have a small town to live in. There is no need, sir, for me to live with you in the capital city."

1Sa 27:6 So Achish gave him the town of Ziklag, and for this reason Ziklag has belonged to the kings of Judah ever since.

1Sa 27:7 David lived in Philistia for sixteen months.

1Sa 27:8 During that time David and his men would attack the people of Geshur, Girzi, and Amalek, who had been living in the region a very long time. He would raid their land as far as Shur, all the way down to Egypt,

1Sa 27:9 killing all the men and women and taking the sheep, cattle, donkeys, camels, and even the clothes. Then he would come back to Achish, 1Sa 27:10 who would ask him, "Where did you go on a raid this time?" and David would tell him that he had gone to the southern part of Judah or to the territory of the clan of Jerahmeel or to the territory where the Kenites lived.

1Sa 27:11 David would kill everyone, men and women, so that no one could go back to Gath and report what he and his men had really done. This is what David did the whole time he lived in Philistia.

1Sa 27:12 But Achish trusted David and said to himself, "He is hated so much by his own people the Israelites that he will have to serve me all his life."

I SAMUEL 27

1Dawid het by homself gedink: ek sal nog eendag deur Saul omkom. Daar bly vir my niks anders oor nie as om uit te wyk na die land van die Filistyne toe. Dan sal Saul ophou om langer oral in die gebied van Israel na my te soek. So sal ek van hom af wegkom. 2Dawid het klaargemaak en hy en ses honderd man wat by hom was, het oorgetrek na koning Akis van Gat, seun van Maok toe. 3Dawid het by Akis in Gat gewoon, hy en sy manne met hulle gesinne, en ook sy twee vrouens Aginoam uit Jisreël, en Abigajil die weduwee van Nabal die Karmeliet. 4Daar is toe aan Saul vertel dat Dawid na Gat toe gevlug het, en Saul het hom nie langer gesoek nie. 5Dawid het vir Akis gesê: As u my goedgesind is, gee my dan 'n plek in een van u buitedorpe sodat ek daar kan woon. Waarom moet ek saam met u in die koninklike stad woon? 6Op daardie dag het Akis toe vir Siklag aan hom gegee, en daarom behoort Siklag nou nog aan die konings van Juda. 7Dawid het 'n jaar en vier maande op die platteland by die Filistyne gewoon. 8Dawid en sy manne het van tyd tot tyd opgetrek en dan het hulle die Gesureërs of die Geseriete of die Amalekiete aangeval. Dit is die mense wat die gebied bewoon van Olam af waar jy ingaan na Sur toe tot by Egipte. 9Wanneer Dawid 'n gebied verower het, het hy geen man of vrou laat lewe nie. Hy het skape en beeste, donkies en kamele en klere buitgemaak. Dan het hy omgedraai en na Akis toe gegaan. 10En as Akis vra: Vir wie het julle nou weer oorval? antwoord Dawid: Die Suidland van Juda of die Suidland van die Jeragmeëliete of die Suidland van die Keniete. 11Dawid het geen man of vrou laat lewe om na Gat toe te bring nie, want hy het gedink: anders verklik hulle ons en sê: Dit is wat Dawid gedoen het. Dit het hy gedoen so lank hy op die platteland by die Filistyne gewoon het. 12Akis het vir Dawid vertrou, want hy het gedink: hy het vir goed by sy volk Israel in onguns geraak. Hy sal altyd my onderdaan wees.

1Samuel 28

Saul and the Medium of En-dor

1Sa 28:1 Some time later the Philistines gathered their troops to fight Israel, and Achish said to David, "Of course you understand that you and your men are to fight on my side."

1Sa 28:2 "Of course," David answered. "I am your servant, and you will see for yourself what I can do." Achish said, "Good! I will make you my permanent bodyguard."

1Sa 28:3 Now Samuel had died, and all the Israelites had mourned for him and had buried him in his hometown of Ramah. Saul had forced all the fortunetellers and mediums to leave Israel.

1Sa 28:4 The Philistine troops assembled and camped near the town of Shunem; Saul gathered the Israelites and camped at Mount Gilboa.

1Sa 28:5 When Saul saw the Philistine army, he was terrified,

1Sa 28:6 and so he asked the LORD what to do. But the LORD did not answer him at all, either by dreams or by the use of Urim and Thummim or by prophets.

1Sa 28:7 Then Saul ordered his officials, "Find me a woman who is a medium, and I will go and consult her." "There is one in Endor," they answered.

1Sa 28:8 So Saul disguised himself; he put on different clothes, and after dark he went with two of his men to see the woman. "Consult the spirits for me and tell me what is going to happen," he said to her. "Call up the spirit of the man I name."

1Sa 28:9 The woman answered, "Surely you know what King Saul has done, how he forced the fortunetellers and mediums to leave Israel. Why, then, are you trying to trap me and get me killed?"

1Sa 28:10 Then Saul made a sacred vow. "By the living LORD I promise that you will not be punished for doing this," he told her.

1Sa 28:11 "Whom shall I call up for you?" the woman asked. "Samuel," he answered.

1Sa 28:12 When the woman saw Samuel, she screamed and said to Saul, "Why have you tricked me? You are King Saul!"

1Sa 28:13 "Don't be afraid!" the king said to her. "What do you see?" "I see a spirit coming up from the earth," she answered.

1Sa 28:14 "What does it look like?" he asked. "It's an old man coming up," she answered. "He is wearing a cloak." Then Saul knew that it was Samuel, and he bowed to the ground in respect.

1Sa 28:15 Samuel said to Saul, "Why have you disturbed me? Why did you make me come back?" Saul answered, "I am in great trouble! The Philistines are at war with me, and God has abandoned me. He doesn't answer me any more, either by prophets or by dreams. And so I have called you, for you to tell me what I must do."

1Sa 28:16 Samuel said, "Why do you call me when the LORD has abandoned you and become your enemy?

1Sa 28:17 The LORD has done to you what he told you through me: he has taken the kingdom away from you and given it to David instead.

1Sa 28:18 You disobeyed the LORD's command and did not completely destroy the Amalekites and all they had. That is why the LORD is doing this to you now.

1Sa 28:19 He will give you and Israel over to the Philistines. Tomorrow you and your sons will join me, and the LORD will also give the army of Israel over to the Philistines."

1Sa 28:20 At once Saul fell down and lay stretched out on the ground, terrified by what Samuel had said. He was weak, because he had not eaten anything all day and all night.

1Sa 28:21 The woman went over to him and saw that he was terrified, so she said to him, "Please, sir, I risked my life by doing what you asked.

1Sa 28:22 Now please do what I ask. Let me fix you some food. You must eat so that you will be strong enough to travel."

1Sa 28:23 Saul refused and said he would not eat anything. But his officers also urged him to eat. He finally gave in, got up from the ground, and sat on the bed.

1Sa 28:24 The woman quickly killed a calf which she had been fattening. Then she took some flour, prepared it, and baked some bread without yeast.

1Sa 28:25 She set the food before Saul and his officers, and they ate it. And they left that same night.

I SAMUEL 28

[1]In daardie tyd het die Filistyne hulle leërs vir die stryd begin oproep om teen Israel oorlog te maak. Akis het vir Dawid gesê: Jy weet natuurlik dat jy en jou manne saam met my in die leër moet optrek. [2]En Dawid het vir Akis gesê: Maar u weet tog wat ek nog altyd doen. Toe sê Akis vir Dawid: Daarom stel ek jou vir goed aan as my lyfwag. [3]Samuel het te sterwe gekom, en die hele Israel het oor hom gerou en hulle het hom in sy stad Rama begrawe. Saul het ook die dodebesweersters en die waarsêers uit die land verban. [4]Die Filistyne het bymekaargekom en kamp gaan opslaan by Sunem. Saul het die hele Israel bymekaargemaak en kamp opgeslaan by Gilboa. [5]Saul het die kamp van die Filistyne gesien; hy was bang en sy hart het benoud geklop. [6]Hy het die Here geraadpleeg, maar die Here het hom nie geantwoord nie, nóg deur drome, nóg deur die urim, nóg deur profete. [7]Saul het toe vir sy amptenare gesê: Soek vir my 'n dodebesweerster sodat ek haar kan gaan raadpleeg. Sy amptenare het vir hom gesê: Daar is 'n dodebesweerster in En-Dor. [8]Saul het hom vermom en ander klere aangetrek, en hy en twee manne het gegaan en in die nag by die vrou aangekom en gesê: Tree vir my as waarsegster op deur die gees van 'n afgestorwene, en laat vir my die een opkom wat ek vir jou sê. [9]Maar die vrou het vir hom gesê: Jy weet baie goed wat Saul gedoen het en dat hy die dodebesweersters en waarsêers in die land uitgeroei het. Waarom stel jy vir my 'n lokval om my dood te maak? [10]Maar Saul het vir haar 'n eed afgelê in die Naam van die Here: So seker as die Here leef, jy sal nie oor hierdie saak gestraf word nie. [11]Toe vra die vrou: Wie moet ek vir jou laat opkom? En hy antwoord: Laat Samuel vir my opkom. [12]Toe die vrou vir Samuel sien, het sy hard geskreeu en vir Saul gesê: Waarom het u my bedrieg? U is dan self Saul. [13]Maar die koning het vir haar gesê: Moenie bang wees nie. Wat sien jy? en die vrou sê vir Saul: Ek sien 'n wese uit 'n ander wêreld opkom uit die aarde. [14]Hy sê toe vir haar: Hoe lyk hy? en sy sê: 'n Ou man kom op en hy het 'n mantel aan. Saul het toe geweet dat dit Samuel is en Saul het diep gebuig en eer aan hom betoon. [15]Samuel het vir Saul gevra: Waarom steur jy my deur my te laat opkom? En Saul antwoord: Ek is baie bang, want die Filistyne veg teen my, en God het my verlaat. Hy antwoord my nie meer nie, nie deur profete nie en ook nie deur drome nie. Daarom het ek u opgeroep om my in te lig oor wat ek moet doen. [16]Maar Samuel sê: Waarom raadpleeg jy mý dan as die Here jou verlaat en jou teëstander geword het? [17]Die Here het gedoen soos Hy deur my gesê het. Die Here het die koningskap van jou afgeskeur en dit aan jou naaste, aan Dawid, gegee, [18]want jy het nie die bevel van die Here gehoorsaam nie en sy gloeiende toorn nie op Amalek gewreek nie. Daarom het die Here jou nou hierdie ding aangedoen. 19Die Here sal Israel saam met jou in die mag van die Filistyne oorgee, en môre sal jy en jou seuns by my wees. Die Here sal ook die leër van Israel oorgee in die mag van die Filistyne. 20Saul het meteens in sy volle lengte op die grond neergeslaan en hy het baie bang geword vanweë die woorde van Samuel. Hy het geen krag gehad nie, want hy het die hele dag en nag nie geëet nie. 21Toe het die vrou na Saul toe gekom en gesien dat hy baie bewe en sy het vir hom gesê: Ek het aan u versoek toegegee en ek het my lewe op die spel geplaas toe ek na u geluister het. 22Gee dan tog nou toe aan my versoek, en laat ek vir u 'n stukkie kos voorsit. Eet dan, sodat daar weer krag in u kom en u verder kan gaan. 23Maar hy het geweier en gesê: Ek wil nie eet nie. Sy manne en ook die vrou het by hom aangedring totdat hy hulle hulle sin gegee het. Hy het van die grond af opgestaan en op die bed gaan sit. 24Die vrou het 'n kalf by die huis op stal gehad, en sy het dit gou gaan slag. Sy het ook meel gevat, dit geknie en ongesuurde brood gebak. 25Sy het dit vir Saul en sy manne voorgesit en hulle het geëet. Daarna het hulle opgestaan en dieselfde nag nog weggegaan.

The Philistines Reject David

1Sa 29:1 The Philistines brought all their troops together at Aphek, while the Israelites camped at the spring in Jezreel Valley.

1Sa 29:2 The five Philistine kings marched out with their units of a hundred and of a thousand men; David and his men marched in the rear with King Achish.

1Sa 29:3 The Philistine commanders saw them and asked, "What are these Hebrews doing here?" Achish answered, "This is David, an official of King Saul of Israel. He has been with me for quite some time now. He has done nothing I can find fault with since the day he came over to me."

1Sa 29:4 But the Philistine commanders were angry with Achish and said to him, "Send that fellow back to the town you gave him. Don't let him go into battle with us; he might turn against us during the fighting. What better way is there for him to win back his master's favor than by the death of our men?

1Sa 29:5 After all, this is David, the one about whom the women sang, as they danced, 'Saul has killed thousands, but David has killed tens of thousands.' "

1Sa 29:6 Achish called David and said to him, "I swear by the living God of Israel that you have been loyal to me; and I would be pleased to have you go with me and fight in this battle. I have not found any fault in you from the day you came over to me. But the other kings don't approve of you.

1Sa 29:7 So go back home in peace, and don't do anything that would displease them."

1Sa 29:8 David answered, "What have I done wrong, sir? If, as you say, you haven't found any fault in me since the day I started serving you, why shouldn't I go with you, my master and king, and fight your enemies?"

1Sa 29:9 "I agree," Achish replied. "I consider you as loyal as an angel of God. But the other kings have said that you can't go with us into battle.

1Sa 29:10 So then, David, tomorrow morning all of you who left Saul and came over to me will have to get up early and leave as soon as it's light."

1Sa 29:11 So David and his men started out early the following morning to go back to Philistia, and the Philistines went on to Jezreel.

I SAMUEL 29

[1]Die Filistyne het hulle hele leër bymekaargemaak by Afek, en Israel het kamp opgeslaan by die fontein in Jisreël. [2]Terwyl die regeerders van die Filistyne met honderde en duisende verby trek en Dawid en sy manne heel laaste saam met Akis verby gaan, [3]het die leiers van die Filistyne gesê: Wat maak hierdie Hebreërs hier? Akis het vir die leiers van die Filistyne gesê: Dit is maar net Dawid, die onderdaan van koning Saul van Israel, wat al geruime tyd by my is. Vandat hy afvallig geword het tot nou toe het ek niks teen hom gevind nie. [4]Maar die leiers van die Filistyne het hulle vererg en vir Akis gesê: Laat die man omdraai en laat hy teruggaan na sy plek toe wat jy vir hom aangewys het. Hy mag nie saam met ons in die oorlog optrek nie. Dalk draai hy in die geveg teen ons. Hoe sal hy weer by sy koning in die guns kom? Is dit nie met die koppe van ons soldate nie? [5]Dit is mos die Dawid van wie hulle in koordanse sing: Saul het sy duisende verslaan, maar Dawid sy tienduisende! [6]Akis het toe vir Dawid geroep en vir hom gesê: So seker as die Here leef, jy is opreg. Ek vind dit goed dat jy saam met my gaan veg, want vandat jy by my gekom het tot nou toe, het ek niks verkeerds by jou gevind nie, maar jy is nie aanvaarbaar vir die regeerders nie. [7]Draai nou maar om en gaan in vrede sodat jy jou nie die onguns van die Filistynse regeerders op die hals haal nie. [8]Maar Dawid het vir Akis gesê: Wat het ek gedoen, en wat het u by my gevind vandat ek in u diens gekom het tot vandag toe dat ek nie kan kom en teen u vyande veg nie? [9]Akis het geantwoord en Dawid verseker: Ek is oortuig dat jy so opreg is as 'n boodskapper van die gode. Dis net dat die leiers van die Filistyne gesê het: Hy mag nie saam met ons in die oorlog optrek nie.' [10]Maak dan nou môreoggend klaar, ook jou koning se onderdane wat saam met jou gekom het; julle moet môre voordag klaarmaak en as dit lig word, moet julle vertrek. [11]Toe het Dawid en sy manne klaargemaak om vroeg die môre te vertrek en terug te gaan na die land van die Filistyne toe. Maar die Filistyne het na Jisreël toe opgetrek.

1Samuel 30

David's Wives Are Captured

1Sa 30:1 Two days later David and his men arrived back at Ziklag. The Amalekites had raided southern Judah and attacked Ziklag. They had burned down the town 1Sa 30:2 and captured all the women; they had not killed anyone, but had taken everyone with them when they left.

1Sa 30:3 When David and his men arrived, they found that the town had been burned down and that their wives, sons, and daughters had been carried away.

1Sa 30:4 David and his men started crying and did not stop until they were completely exhausted.

1Sa 30:5 Even David's two wives, Ahinoam and Abigail, had been taken away.

1Sa 30:6 David was now in great trouble, because his men were all very bitter about losing their children, and they were threatening to stone him; but the LORD his God gave him courage.

1Sa 30:7 David said to the priest Abiathar son of Ahimelech, "Bring me the ephod," and Abiathar brought it to him.

1Sa 30:8 David asked the LORD, "Shall I go after those raiders? And will I catch them?" He answered, "Go after them; you will catch them and rescue the captives."

1Sa 30:9 So David and his six hundred men started out, and when they arrived at Besor Brook, some of them stayed there.

1Sa 30:10 David continued on his way with four hundred men; the other two hundred men were too tired to cross the brook and so stayed behind.

1Sa 30:11 The men with David found a young Egyptian out in the country and brought him to David. They gave him some food and water, 1Sa 30:12 some dried figs, and two bunches of raisins. After he had eaten, his strength returned; he had not had anything to eat or drink for three full days.

1Sa 30:13 David asked him, "Who is your master, and where are you from?" "I am an Egyptian, the slave of an Amalekite," he answered. "My master left me behind three days ago because I got sick.

1Sa 30:14 We had raided the territory of the Cherethites in the southern part of Judah and the territory of the clan of Caleb, and we burned down Ziklag."

1Sa 30:15 "Will you lead me to those raiders?" David asked him. He answered, "I will if you promise me in God's name that you will not kill me or hand me over to my master."

David Defeats the Amalekites

1Sa 30:16 And he led David to them. The raiders were scattered all over the place, eating, drinking, and celebrating because of the enormous amount of loot they had captured from Philistia and Judah.

1Sa 30:17 At dawn the next day David attacked them and fought until evening. Except for four hundred young men who mounted camels and got away, none of them escaped.

1Sa 30:18 David rescued everyone and everything the Amalekites had taken, including his two wives;

1Sa 30:19 nothing at all was missing. David got back all his men's sons and daughters, and all the loot the Amalekites had taken.

1Sa 30:20 He also recovered all the flocks and herds; his men drove all the livestock in front of them and said, "This belongs to David!"

1Sa 30:21 Then David went back to the two hundred men who had been too weak to go with him and had stayed behind at Besor Brook. They came forward to meet David and his men, and David went up to them and greeted them warmly.

1Sa 30:22 But some mean and worthless men who had gone with David said, "They didn't go with us, and so we won't give them any of the loot. They can take their wives and children and go away."

1Sa 30:23 But David answered, "My brothers, you can't do this with what the LORD has given us! He kept us safe and gave us victory over the raiders.

1Sa 30:24 No one can agree with what you say! All must share alike: whoever stays behind with the supplies gets the same share as the one who goes into battle."

1Sa 30:25 David made this a rule, and it has been followed in Israel ever since.

1Sa 30:26 When David returned to Ziklag, he sent part of the loot to his friends, the leaders of Judah, with the message, "Here is a present for you from the loot we took from the LORD's enemies."

1Sa 30:27 He sent it to the people in Bethel, to the people in Ramah in the southern part of Judah, and to the people in the towns of Jattir,

1Sa 30:28 Aroer, Siphmoth, Eshtemoa,

1Sa 30:29 and Racal; to the clan of Jerahmeel, to the Kenites,

1Sa 30:30 and to the people in the towns of Hormah, Borashan, Athach, 1Sa 30:31 and Hebron. He sent it to all the places where he and his men had roamed.

I SAMUEL 30

1Toe Dawid en sy manne op die derde dag in Siklag aankom, het die Amalekiete al klaar 'n strooptog onderneem teen die Suidland en teen Siklag. Hulle het Siklag verower en afgebrand. 2Hulle het die vrouens en almal daarin, groot en klein, as krygsgevangenes weggevoer. Hulle het niemand doodgemaak nie, maar almal gedwing om saam met hulle te gaan. 3Toe Dawid en sy manne in die dorp kom, was dit afgebrand en hulle vrouens, seuns en dogters was as gevangenes weggevoer. 4Dawid en sy manne het hard gehuil totdat hulle nie meer kon huil nie. 5Die twee vrouens van Dawid, Aginoam uit Jisreël, en Abigajil die weduwee van Nabal die Karmeliet, was ook as gevangenes weggevoer. 6Dawid was in die nood, want die manne het daaraan gedink om hom met klippe dood te gooi. Almal was verbitterd, elkeen oor sy seuns en dogters, en toe het Dawid hulp gevra by die Here sy God. 7Dawid het vir die priester Abjatar seun van Agimelek gesê: Bring tog vir my die skouerkleed nader. Abjatar het die skouerkleed vir Dawid nader gebring. 8Dawid het die Here geraadpleeg: Moet ek hierdie bende agtervolg? Sal ek hulle inhaal? Die Here het hom geantwoord: Ja, want jy sál hulle inhaal en jou mense red. 9Dawid en sy ses honderd man het gegaan en by Besorspruit gekom, waar party agtergebly het. 10Dawid self en vier honderd man het die agtervolging voortgesit, en twee honderd man wat te moeg was om Besorspruit deur te gaan, het agtergebly. 11Hulle het 'n Egiptenaar in die veld gekry en hom na Dawid toe gebring. Hulle het hom kos gegee, en nadat hy geëet het, het hulle hom water laat drink. 12Toe gee hulle hom 'n stukkie gedroogde vye en twee trossies rosyntjies en nadat hy dit geëet het, het hy weer reggekom, want hy het drie dae en nagte nie kos geëet of water gedrink nie. 13Dawid het hom gevra: By wie is jy en waar kom jy vandaan? En hy antwoord: Ek is 'n Egiptenaar, 'n slaaf van 'n Amalekiet, en my eienaar het my drie dae gelede agtergelaat, want ek het te swak geword. 14Ons het 'n strooptog onderneem in die Filistynse Suidland wat aan Juda behoort, en in die Suidland van Kaleb en ons het Siklag afgebrand. 15Dawid vra toe vir hom: Sal jy ons na hierdie bende toe lei? Maar hy sê: Lê tog vir my 'n eed af in die Naam van God dat u my nie sal doodmaak of sal uitlewer in die hand van my eienaar nie, en ek sal u na hierdie bende toe lei. 16Hy het hulle gelei, en toe hulle weer sien, lê die bende oor die hele gebied versprei, en hulle eet en drink en vier fees met die hele groot buit wat hulle uit die gebied van die Filistyne en van Juda gebring het. 17Dawid het van die laat middag af tot die aand toe en dwarsdeur tot in die vroeë oggend teen hulle geveg en hulle verslaan. Nie een het ontsnap nie, behalwe vier honderd jong manne wat op kamele gery en gevlug het. 18Dawid het almal wat deur Amalek gevat is, gered; hy het ook sy twee vrouens gered. 19Daar is niemand, groot of klein, seun of dogter, vermis nie, en ook niks van alles wat deur die Amalekiete gebuit is nie. Dawid het alles teruggebring. 20Hy het ook al die skape en beeste teruggevat. Sy mense het die goed voor hom uitgedrywe en hulle het gesê: Dis Dawid se buit. 21Toe Dawid aankom na die twee honderd man toe wat te moeg was om agter hom aan te gaan en wat hy by Besorspruit laat bly het, het hulle vir Dawid en sy manne tegemoet gegaan. Dawid het nader gekom na die manne toe en gevra hoe dit met hulle gaan. 22Al die slegte en nikswerd manne uit die groep wat saam met Dawid gegaan het, het opgemerk: Omdat hulle nie saam gegaan het nie, gee ons nie vir hulle van die buit wat deur ons gered is nie. Elkeen kan net sy vrou en kinders vat en loop. 23Maar Dawid het gesê: My broers, julle mag nie so maak nie. Wat het die Here nie alles vir ons gegee nie? Hy het ons bewaar en die bende wat teen ons gekom het, in ons mag oorgegee. 24Wie sal na julle en na hierdie voorstel luister? Nee, soos die aandeel van dié wat gaan veg, is die aandeel van dié wat by die goed agterbly: hulle deel gelykop. 25So het dit van toe af gebeur. Hy het dit as voorskrif en bepaling vir Israel vasgestel tot nou toe. 26Toe Dawid in Siklag aangekom het, het hy van die buit na sy vriende, die leiers van Juda, toe gestuur met die boodskap: Dit is vir julle 'n geskenk uit die buit van die vyande van die Here. 27Dit was vir die leiers van Bet-El en Ramot in die Suidland, Jattir, 28Aroër, Sifmot, Estemoa, 29Rakal, die dorpe van die Jeragmeëliete, die dorpe van die Keniete, 30Gorma, Bor-Asan, Atak, 31Hebron en oral waar Dawid en sy manne heen en weer getrek het.

The Death of Saul

1Sa 31:1 The Philistines fought a battle against the Israelites on Mount Gilboa. Many Israelites were killed there, and the rest of them, including King Saul and his sons, fled.

1Sa 31:2 But the Philistines caught up with them and killed three of Saul's sons, Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malchishua.

1Sa 31:3 The fighting was heavy around Saul, and he himself was hit by enemy arrows and badly wounded.

1Sa 31:4 He said to the young man carrying his weapons, "Draw your sword and kill me, so that these godless Philistines won't gloat over me and kill me." But the young man was too terrified to do it. So Saul took his own sword and threw himself on it.

1Sa 31:5 The young man saw that Saul was dead, so he too threw himself on his own sword and died with Saul.

1Sa 31:6 And that is how Saul, his three sons, and the young man died; all of Saul's men died that day.

1Sa 31:7 When the Israelites on the other side of Jezreel Valley and east of the Jordan River heard that the Israelite army had fled and that Saul and his sons had been killed, they abandoned their towns and fled. Then the Philistines came and occupied the towns.

1Sa 31:8 The day after the battle the Philistines went to plunder the corpses, and they found the bodies of Saul and his three sons lying on Mount Gilboa.

1Sa 31:9 They cut off Saul's head, stripped off his armor, and sent messengers with them throughout Philistia to tell the good news to their idols and to their people.

1Sa 31:10 Then they put his weapons in the temple of the goddess Astarte, and they nailed his body to the wall of the city of Beth Shan.

1Sa 31:11 When the people of Jabesh in Gilead heard what the Philistines had done to Saul, 1Sa 31:12 the bravest men started out and marched all night to Beth Shan. They took down the bodies of Saul and his sons from the wall, brought them back to Jabesh, and burned them there.

1Sa 31:13 Then they took the bones and buried them under the tamarisk tree in town, and fasted for seven days.

I SAMUEL 31

1Die Filistyne het vir Israel aangeval. Die Israeliete het vir hulle gevlug, en van die manskappe het op Gilboaberg gesneuwel. 2Toe het die Filistyne op Saul en sy seuns toegesak. Hulle het Saul se seuns Jonatan, Abinadab en Malkisua neergevel 3en toe die aanval op Saul toegespits. Die boogskutters het hom in die oog gekry, en hy het baie bang vir hulle geword, 4en vir sy wapendraer gesê: Trek jou swaard en steek my daarmee dood dat daardie heidene nie kom en my doodsteek en in oneer laat sterf nie. Maar sy wapendraer wou nie, want hy was baie bang. Saul vat toe self die swaard en val daarin. 5Toe sy wapendraer sien Saul is dood, val hy ook in sy swaard en sterf saam met hom. 6So is Saul en sy drie seuns en sy wapendraer en al die manskappe by hom op daardie dag saam dood. 7Die Israeliete wat oorkant die laagte en oorkant die Jordaan gewoon het, het gesien dat die manskappe gevlug het en dat Saul en sy seuns dood is. Hulle het toe die stede verlaat en ook gevlug, en die Filistyne het die stede beset en daar gaan woon. 8Toe die Filistyne die dag na die geveg die lyke kom stroop, kry hulle Saul en sy drie seuns daar waar hulle op Gilboaberg geval het. 9Hulle het sy kop afgesny en sy wapens afgeruk en dié in die land van die Filistyne rondgestuur om die goeie nuus in hulle tempels en aan hulle mense bekend te maak. 10Daarna het hulle sy wapenrusting in die tempel van Astarte gesit en sy lyk het hulle teen die muur van Bet-San vasgespyker. 11Toe die mense van Jabes in Gilead hoor wat die Filistyne met Saul gedoen het, 12het al die weerbare manne klaargemaak en hulle het die hele nag deur getrek en die lyk van Saul en dié van sy seuns van die muur van Bet-San afgehaal. Hulle het dit na Jabes toe gebring en daar verbrand. 13Hulle het toe die bene gevat en onder die tamarisk in Jabes begrawe en daarna het hulle sewe dae lank gevas.

David Hears of Saul's Death

2Sa 1:1 After Saul's death David came back from his victory over the Amalekites and stayed in Ziklag for two days.

2Sa 1:2 The next day a young man arrived from Saul's camp. To show his grief, he had torn his clothes and put dirt on his head. He went to David and bowed to the ground in respect.

2Sa 1:3 David asked him, "Where have you come from?" "I have escaped from the Israelite camp," he answered.

2Sa 1:4 "Tell me what happened," David said. "Our army ran away from the battle," he replied, "and many of our men were killed. Saul and his son Jonathan were also killed."

2Sa 1:5 "How do you know that Saul and Jonathan are dead?" David asked him.

2Sa 1:6 He answered, "I happened to be on Mount Gilboa, and I saw that Saul was leaning on his spear and that the chariots and cavalry of the enemy were closing in on him.

2Sa 1:7 Then he turned around, saw me, and called to me. I answered, 'Yes, sir!'

2Sa 1:8 He asked who I was, and I told him that I was an Amalekite.

2Sa 1:9 Then he said, 'Come here and kill me! I have been badly wounded, and I'm about to die.'

2Sa 1:10 So I went up to him and killed him, because I knew that he would die anyway as soon as he fell. Then I took the crown from his head and the bracelet from his arm, and I have brought them to you, sir."

2Sa 1:11 David tore his clothes in sorrow, and all his men did the same.

2Sa 1:12 They grieved and mourned and fasted until evening for Saul and Jonathan and for Israel, the people of the LORD, because so many had been killed in battle.

2Sa 1:13 David asked the young man who had brought him the news, "Where are you from?" He answered, "I'm an Amalekite, but I live in your country."

2Sa 1:14 David asked him, "How is it that you dared kill the LORD's chosen king?"

2Sa 1:15 Then David called one of his men and said, "Kill him!" The man struck the Amalekite and mortally wounded him,

2Sa 1:16 and David said to the Amalekite, "You brought this on yourself. You condemned yourself when you confessed that you killed the one whom the LORD chose to be king."

David's Lament for Saul and Jonathan

2Sa 1:17 David sang this lament for Saul and his son Jonathan,

2Sa 1:18 and ordered it to be taught to the people of Judah. (It is recorded in The Book of Jashar.)

2Sa 1:19 "On the hills of Israel our leaders are dead! The bravest of our soldiers have fallen!

2Sa 1:20 Do not announce it in Gath or in the streets of Ashkelon. Do not make the women of Philistia glad; do not let the daughters of pagans rejoice.

2Sa 1:21 "May no rain or dew fall on Gilboa's hills; may its fields be always barren! For the shields of the brave lie there in disgrace; the shield of Saul is no longer polished with oil.

2Sa 1:22 Jonathan's bow was deadly, the sword of Saul was merciless, striking down the mighty, killing the enemy.

2Sa 1:23 "Saul and Jonathan, so wonderful and dear; together in life, together in death; swifter than eagles, stronger than lions.

2Sa 1:24 "Women of Israel, mourn for Saul! He clothed you in rich scarlet dresses and adorned you with jewels and gold.

2Sa 1:25 "The brave soldiers have fallen, they were killed in battle. Jonathan lies dead in the hills.

2Sa 1:26 "I grieve for you, my brother Jonathan; how dear you were to me! How wonderful was your love for me, better even than the love of women.

2Sa 1:27 "The brave soldiers have fallen, their weapons abandoned and useless."

1Na die dood van Saul, op die derde dag daarna, het daar onverwags iemand uit Saul se kamp by Dawid aangekom. Dawid was toe al twee dae terug in Siklag na sy oorwinning oor die Amalekiete. Die man se klere was geskeur en daar was grond op sy kop. Toe hy by Dawid aankom, het die man voor hom op sy knieë geval en gebuig. 2Waar kom jy vandaan? het Dawid hom gevra. Ek het uit die Israelitiese kamp ontvlug, was sy antwoord. 3Wat is aan die gang? Vertel my! het Dawid aangedring. Hy het toe vertel dat die leër uit die geveg weggevlug het, dat 'n groot deel van die leër gesneuwel het, en dat Saul en sy seun Jonatan ook dood is. 4Hoe weet jy dat Saul en sy seun Jonatan dood is? vra Dawid vir die jongman wat hom dit vertel het. 5Hy het geantwoord: Ek was heel toevallig op Gilboaberg. Daar merk ek toe dat Saul hom met sy spies om die lewe probeer bring, terwyl die Filistyne se strydwaens en hulle drywers kort op sy hakke was. 6Saul het omgekyk en my gesien. Hy het my nader geroep en ek het gevra: Wat kan ek vir u doen?' 7Hy vra my toe: Wie is jy?' en ek antwoord: 'n Amalekiet.' 8Kom staan hier langs my en maak my dood,' beveel hy, want ek leef wel nog, maar my toestand is kritiek.' 9Ek het toe nader gestaan en hom doodgemaak, want ek het besef dat hy, nadat hy homself probeer doodmaak het, nie sou bly lewe nie. Ek het die kroon van sy kop af gegryp, ook die armband van sy arm af, en dit vir u gebring. 10Hieroor was Dawid so ontsteld dat hy sy klere geskeur het, en al sy manskappe ook. 11Hulle het tot die aand gerou en getreur en gevas oor Saul en sy seun Jonatan en oor die volk van die Here, die Israeliete, omdat hulle gesneuwel het. 12Dawid het toe vir die jongman wat hom die berig gebring het, gevra: Van waar is jy nou weer? Hy het geantwoord: Ek is nie 'n landsburger nie. Ek is 'n Amalekiet. 13Dawid het vir hom gesê: Dus was jy nie bang om jou hand uit te steek en die gesalfde van die Here om die lewe te bring nie? 14Toe roep hy een van die manskappe en sê vir hom: Kom hier! Maak hom dood! Die manskap het hom toe doodgemaak. 15Dawid het hom toegevoeg: Jy het jou dood gesóék, want jy het jouself veroordeel toe jy gesê het: Dit is ek wat die gesalfde van die Here doodgemaak het! 16Dawid het toe die volgende klaaglied oor Saul en sy seun Jonatan gesing. 17Hy het opdrag gegee dat hierdie booglied aan die inwoners van Juda geleer moet word. Die lied is ook opgeteken in die Boek van die Opregte. 18Jou trots, Israel op jou hoogtes lê dit verslaan. Hoe het die helde geval! 19Moet dit nie in Gat vertel nie; moet dit ook nie bekend maak in Askelon se strate nie, anders sal die Filistynse meisies bly wees en die dogters van die heidene jubel. 20Gilboaberge! Offerland! Nóg dou, nóg reën vir julle! Waarlik, dáár is die heldeskild besoedel. Saul se skild dit is nie met olie ingesmeer nie [21]maar met bloed van gesneuweldes, met vet van helde! Jonatan se boog dit het pal gestaan. Saul se swaard dit het sy werk goed gedoen. [22]Saul en Jonatan, geliefde en beminde mense in lewe en sterwe nie geskei nie. Hulle was vinniger as arende, sterker as leeus. [23]Israelitiese dogters, julle moet huil oor Saul! Hy het julle beklee met sierlike klere, goue sierade het hy daarop laat aanbring. [24]Hoe het die helde geval? In die hitte van die stryd! Jonatan lê verslaan op die hoogtes. [25]Ek is bedroef oor jou, my broer Jonatan. Jy was baie na aan my hart. Jou liefde was vir my wonderliker as die liefde van enige vrou. [26]Hoe het die helde geval? Met die wapen in die hand het hulle omgekom!

David Anointed King of Judah

2Sa 2:1 After this, David asked the LORD, "Shall I go and take control of one of the towns of Judah?" "Yes," the LORD answered. "Which one?" David asked. "Hebron," the LORD said.

2Sa 2:2 So David went to Hebron, taking with him his two wives: Ahinoam, who was from Jezreel, and Abigail, Nabal's widow, who was from Carmel.

2Sa 2:3 He also took his men and their families, and they settled in the towns around Hebron.

2Sa 2:4 Then the men of Judah came to Hebron and anointed David as king of Judah. When David heard that the people of Jabesh in Gilead had buried Saul, 2Sa 2:5 he sent some men there with the message: "May the LORD bless you for showing your loyalty to your king by burying him.

2Sa 2:6 And now may the LORD be kind and faithful to you. I too will treat you well because of what you have done.

2Sa 2:7 Be strong and brave! Saul your king is dead, and the people of Judah have anointed me as their king."

Ish-bosheth Made King of Israel

2Sa 2:8 The commander of Saul's army, Abner son of Ner, had fled with Saul's son Ishbosheth across the Jordan to Mahanaim.

2Sa 2:9 There Abner made Ishbosheth king of the territories of Gilead, Asher, Jezreel, Ephraim, and Benjamin, and indeed over all Israel.

2Sa 2:10 He was forty years old when he was made king of Israel, and he ruled for two years. But the tribe of Judah was loyal to David, 2Sa 2:11 and he ruled in Hebron over Judah for seven and a half years.

The Battle of Gibeon

2Sa 2:12 Abner and the officials of Ishbosheth went from Mahanaim to the city of Gibeon.

2Sa 2:13 Joab, whose mother was Zeruiah, and David's other officials met them at the pool, where they all sat down, one group on one side of the pool and the other group on the opposite side.

2Sa 2:14 Abner said to Joab, "Let's have some of the young men from each side fight an armed contest." "All right," Joab answered.

2Sa 2:15 So twelve men, representing Ishbosheth and the tribe of Benjamin, fought twelve of David's men.

2Sa 2:16 Each man caught his opponent by the head and plunged his sword into his opponent's side, so that all twenty-four of them fell down dead together. And so that place in Gibeon is called "Field of Swords."

2Sa 2:17 Then a furious battle broke out, and Abner and the Israelites were defeated by David's men.

2Sa 2:18 The three sons of Zeruiah were there: Joab, Abishai, and Asahel. Asahel, who could run as fast as a wild deer, 2Sa 2:19 started chasing Abner, running straight for him.

2Sa 2:20 Abner looked back and said, "Is that you, Asahel?" "Yes," he answered.

2Sa 2:21 "Stop chasing me!" Abner said. "Run after one of the soldiers and take what he has." But Asahel kept on chasing him.

2Sa 2:22 Once more Abner said to him, "Stop chasing me! Why force me to kill you? How could I face your brother Joab?"

2Sa 2:23 But Asahel would not quit; so Abner, with a backward thrust of his spear, struck him through the stomach so that the spear came out at his back. Asahel dropped to the ground dead, and everyone who came to the place where he was lying stopped and stood there.

2Sa 2:24 But Joab and Abishai started out after Abner, and at sunset they came to the hill of Ammah, which is to the east of Giah on the road to the wilderness of Gibeon.

2Sa 2:25 The men from the tribe of Benjamin gathered around Abner again and took their stand on the top of a hill.

2Sa 2:26 Abner called out to Joab, "Do we have to go on fighting forever? Can't you see that in the end there will be nothing but bitterness? We are your relatives. How long will it be before you order your men to stop chasing us?"

2Sa 2:27 "I swear by the living God," Joab answered, "that if you had not spoken, my men would have kept on chasing you until tomorrow morning."

2Sa 2:28 Then Joab blew the trumpet as a signal for his men to stop pursuing the Israelites; and so the fighting stopped.

2Sa 2:29 Abner and his men marched through the Jordan Valley all that night; they crossed the Jordan River, and after marching all the next morning, they arrived back at Mahanaim.

2Sa 2:30 When Joab gave up the chase, he gathered all his men and found that nineteen of them were missing, in addition to Asahel.

2Sa 2:31 David's men had killed 360 of Abner's men from the tribe of Benjamin.

2Sa 2:32 Joab and his men took Asahel's body and buried it in the family tomb at Bethlehem. Then they marched all night and at dawn arrived back at Hebron.

1Hierna het Dawid die Here geraadpleeg: Moet ek na 'n stad in Juda toe gaan? Die Here het geantwoord: Ja, gaan! Dawid het gevra: Na watter plek toe moet ek gaan? Toe antwoord die Here: Na Hebron toe. 2Dawid het toe gegaan, vergesel van sy twee vrouens, Aginoam van Jisreël, en Abigajil die weduwee van Nabal die Karmeliet. 3Hy het ook sy manskappe met hulle gesinne laat saamgaan, en hulle het almal in die gebied van Hebron gaan woon. 4Daar het die burgers van Juda vir Dawid tot hulle koning kom salf. Toe daar aan Dawid vertel is dat die inwoners van Jabes in Gilead vir Saul begrawe het, 5het hy boodskappers na hulle toe gestuur om vir hulle te sê: Mag die Here julle seën omdat julle hierdie liefdesdaad aan julle koning Saul bewys het deur hom te begrawe. 6Mag die Here ook aan julle liefde en trou betoon. Ek self sal ook nog 'n weldaad aan julle bewys omdat julle dit gedoen het. 7Tree nou net moedig op en wees dapper, want julle koning Saul is wel dood, maar Juda het my tot hulle koning gesalf. 8Maar die hoof van Saul se leër, Abner seun van Ner, het vir Is-Boset seun van Saul gevat, hom laat deurtrek na Maganajim toe 9en hom koning gemaak oor Gilead, Aser, Jisreël, Efraim en Benjamin, ja, oor die hele Israel. 10Saul se seun Is-Boset was veertig jaar oud toe hy koning van Israel geword het en hy het twee jaar geregeer. Net die Judastam het vir Dawid ondersteun. 11Dawid was sewe en 'n half jaar in Hebron koning oor Juda. 12Abner seun van Ner het met Is-Boset se soldate van Maganajim af na Gibeon toe opgeruk. 13Joab seun van Seruja het hulle met Dawid se soldate tegemoet getrek en hulle by die Gibeondam gekry. Joab-hulle het aan die een kant van die dam gaan sit, en die ander aan die oorkant. 14Abner skreeu toe vir Joab: Laat die jong manne eers hier voor ons 'n oorlogspel kom speel! Hulle kan dit maar doen, was Joab se antwoord. 15Twaalf man het toe namens Benjamin en Is-Boset na vore gekom, en so ook twaalf van Dawid se soldate. 16Maar elkeen het sy opponent aan die hare beetgekry en met die swaard onder die ribbes gesteek, en hulle het gelyk omgekom. Daarom word dié plek in Gibeon die Ribbebeensdeel genoem. 17Daardie dag het daar toe 'n hewige geveg ontwikkel, en Abner en die manskappe van Israel is deur Dawid se soldate verslaan. 18Seruja se drie seuns, Joab, Abisai en Asael, was ook daar. Asael was vinnig soos 'n wildsbok. 19Hy het Abner agternagesit en knaend op sy spoor gebly. 20Abner het vir hom oor sy skouer gevra: Is dit jy, Asael? Ja, dis ek, was die antwoord. 21Abner sê toe vir hom: As jy agter 'n uitrusting aan is, draai weg in enige rigting, oorrompel enige jong soldaat en vat syne. Maar hy wou nie wegdraai nie. 22Abner het weer vir hom gesê: Gee pad agter my! Waarom moet ek jou doodmaak? Hoe sal ek jou broer Joab in die oë kan kyk? 23Maar hy het bly weier om weg te draai. Toe steek Abner hom sommer na agter toe met die spies in die maag, sodat dit by sy rug uitkom. Asael het net daar in sy spore dood neergesak. Elkeen wat op die plek gekom het waar hy geval het, het 'n oomblik gaan staan. 24Daarna het Joab en Abisai vir Abner agternagesit. Sononder het hulle by die Elmboogrant aangekom, regoor die fontein langs die pad na Gibeon se weiveld toe. 25Die Benjaminiete het almal bo-op die rant gestaan en in 'n bondel agter Abner saamgedrom. 26Toe skreeu Abner vir Joab: Moet die swaard aanhou verteer? Besef jy nie dat die uiteinde net bitterheid is nie? Wanneer gaan jy eendag die manskappe beveel om nie meer hulle broers te agtervolg nie? 27Joab het geantwoord: Waarlik, God weet dit, as jy nie nou gepraat het nie, sou ons die volk tot môreoggend laat veg het, en dit nogal broer teen broer. 28Toe het Joab die ramshoring geblaas. Al die manskappe het gaan staan en Israel nie meer agtervolg nie en hulle het nie verder geveg nie. 29Abner en sy manskappe het die nag deur met die Jordaanvallei langs getrek. Hulle het die Jordaan oorgesteek en Maganajim al met die Bitronloop langs bereik. 30Joab het die agtervolging van Abner gestaak en die manskappe bymekaargeroep. Toe hulle Dawid se soldate tel, was daar behalwe Asael nog negentien man kort. 31Dawid se vegters het egter baie Benjaminiete verslaan. Onder Abner se soldate alleen was drie honderd en sestig dood. 32Joab-hulle het vir Asael opgetel en in die familiegraf in Betlehem gaan begrawe. Hierna het Joab en sy soldate die hele nag deur getrek en ligdag was hulle in Hebron.

Abner Joins David

2Sa 3:1 The fighting between the forces supporting Saul's family and those supporting David went on for a long time. As David became stronger and stronger, his opponents became weaker and weaker.

2Sa 3:2 The following six sons, in order of their birth, were born to David at Hebron: Amnon, whose mother was Ahinoam, from Jezreel;

2Sa 3:3 Chileab, whose mother was Abigail, Nabal's widow, from Carmel; Absalom, whose mother was Maacah, the daughter of King Talmai of Geshur;

2Sa 3:4 Adonijah, whose mother was Haggith; Shephatiah, whose mother was Abital; 2Sa 3:5 Ithream, whose mother was Eglah. All of these sons were born in Hebron.

2Sa 3:6 As the fighting continued between David's forces and the forces loyal to Saul's family, Abner became more and more powerful among Saul's followers.

2Sa 3:7 One day Ishbosheth son of Saul accused Abner of sleeping with Saul's concubine Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah.

2Sa 3:8 This made Abner furious. "Do you think that I would betray Saul? Do you really think I'm serving Judah?" he exclaimed. "From the very first I have been loyal to the cause of your father Saul, his brothers, and his friends, and I have kept you from being defeated by David; yet today you find fault with me about a woman!

2Sa 3:9 (9-10) The LORD promised David that he would take the kingdom away from Saul and his descendants and would make David king of both Israel and Judah, from one end of the country to the other. Now may God strike me dead if I don't make this come true!"

2Sa 3:11 Ishbosheth was so afraid of Abner that he could not say a word.

2Sa 3:12 Abner sent messengers to David, who at that time was at Hebron, to say, "Who is going to rule this land? Make an agreement with me, and I will help you win all Israel over to your side."

2Sa 3:13 "Good!" David answered. "I will make an agreement with you on one condition: you must bring Saul's daughter Michal to me when you come to see me."

2Sa 3:14 And David also sent messengers to Ishbosheth to say, "Give me back my wife Michal. I paid a hundred Philistine foreskins in order to marry her."

2Sa 3:15 So Ishbosheth had her taken from her husband Paltiel son of Laish.

2Sa 3:16 Paltiel followed her all the way to the town of Bahurim, crying as he went. But when Abner said, "Go back home," he did.

2Sa 3:17 Abner went to the leaders of Israel and said to them, "For a long time you have wanted David to be your king.

2Sa 3:18 Now here is your chance. Remember that the LORD has said, 'I will use my servant David to rescue my people Israel from the Philistines and from all their other enemies.' "

2Sa 3:19 Abner spoke also to the people of the tribe of Benjamin and then went to Hebron to tell David what the people of Benjamin and of Israel had agreed to do.

2Sa 3:20 When Abner came to David at Hebron with twenty men, David gave a feast for them.

2Sa 3:21 Abner told David, "I will go now and win all Israel over to Your Majesty. They will accept you as king, and then you will get what you have wanted and will rule over the whole land." David gave Abner a guarantee of safety and sent him on his way.

2Sa 3:22 Later on Joab and David's other officials returned from a raid, bringing a large amount of loot with them. Abner, however, was no longer there at Hebron with David, because David had sent him away with a guarantee of safety.

2Sa 3:23 When Joab and his men arrived, he was told that Abner had come to King David and had been sent away with a guarantee of safety.

2Sa 3:24 So Joab went to the king and said to him, "What have you done? Abner came to you—why did you let him go like that?

2Sa 3:25 He came here to deceive you and to find out everything you do and everywhere you go. Surely you know that!"

Joab Murders Abner

2Sa 3:26 After leaving David, Joab sent messengers to get Abner, and they brought him back from Sirah Well; but David knew nothing about it.

2Sa 3:27 When Abner arrived in Hebron, Joab took him aside at the gate, as though he wanted to speak privately with him, and there he stabbed him in the stomach. And so Abner was murdered because he had killed Joab's brother Asahel.

2Sa 3:28 When David heard the news, he said, "The LORD knows that my subjects and I are completely innocent of the murder of Abner.

2Sa 3:29 May the punishment for it fall on Joab and all his family! In every generation may there be some man in his family who has gonorrhea or a dreaded skin disease or is fit only to do a woman's work or is killed in battle or doesn't have enough to eat!"

2Sa 3:30 So Joab and his brother Abishai took revenge on Abner for killing their brother Asahel in the battle at Gibeon.

David Mourns Abner

2Sa 3:31 Then David ordered Joab and his men to tear their clothes, wear sackcloth, and mourn for Abner. And at the funeral King David himself walked behind the coffin.

2Sa 3:32 Abner was buried at Hebron, and the king wept aloud at the grave, and so did all the people.

2Sa 3:33 David sang this lament for Abner: "Why did Abner have to die like a fool?

2Sa 3:34 His hands were not tied, And his feet were not bound; He died like someone killed by criminals!" And the people wept for him again.

2Sa 3:35 All day long the people tried to get David to eat something, but he made a solemn promise, "May God strike me dead if I eat anything before the day is over!"

2Sa 3:36 They took note of this and were pleased. Indeed, everything the king did pleased the people.

2Sa 3:37 All of David's people and all the people in Israel understood that the king had no part in the murder of Abner.

2Sa 3:38 The king said to his officials, "Don't you realize that this day a great leader in Israel has died?

2Sa 3:39 Even though I am the king chosen by God, I feel weak today. These sons of Zeruiah are too violent for me. May the LORD punish these criminals as they deserve!"

1Daar was 'n langdurige oorlog tussen die nageslag van Saul en Dawid, maar Dawid het gaandeweg al hoe sterker geword en die nageslag van Saul al hoe swakker. 2Die volgende seuns van Dawid is in Hebron gebore: Amnon, seun van Aginoam sy Jisreëlitiese vrou, was die oudste. 3Sy tweede was Kilab seun van Abigajil, die weduwee van Nabal die Karmeliet. Absalom seun van Maäka, 'n dogter van koning Talmai van Gesur, was die derde, 4en die vierde was Adonia seun van Gaggit. Die vyfde was Sefatja seun van Abital 5en die sesde Jitream seun van Dawid se vrou Egla. Hulle is vir hom in Hebron gebore. 6Onderwyl die oorlog tussen Saul se huis en dié van Dawid aan die gang was, het Abner geprobeer om sy posisie in Saul se huis te verstewig deur 'n verbintenis met 'n byvrou van Saul. 7Haar naam was Rispa dogter van Aja. Toe Is-Boset hom vra: Waarom het jy my pa se byvrou gevat? 8het Abner hom gruwelik oor dié woorde vererg en gesê: Dink jy dan ek is 'n lae hond wat Juda se saak wil aanhelp? Tot nou toe was ek getrou aan die huis van Saul en aan sy broers én sy vriende. Ek het verhoed dat jy in Dawid se mag val, en nou spreek jy my aan oor 'n vergryp met hierdie vrou! 9Mag God my om die lewe bring as ek nie nou vir Dawid gaan help om te doen wat die Here hom met 'n eed beloof het nie, 10naamlik om die koningskap van die nageslag van Saul weg te vat en die heerskappy van Dawid oor Israel en Juda te bevestig, van noord tot suid. 11So bang was Is-Boset vir Abner dat hy nie 'n woord kon terugsê nie. 12Hierna het Abner boodskappers na Dawid toe gestuur om te sê: Behoort die land nie aan u nie? Sluit tog 'n ooreenkoms met my en u sal sien dat ek by u staan deur die hele Israel na u kant toe oor te haal. 13Dawid het geantwoord: Goed, ek sal 'n ooreenkoms met jou sluit. Ek verwag net een ding van jou, en dit is dat jy nie met my moet kom onderhandel sonder om Saul se dogter Mikal saam te bring nie. 14Dawid het ook boodskappers na Saul se seun Is-Boset toe gestuur om te sê: Gee my vrou Mikal terug wat ek as vrou verkry het in ruil vir honderd Filistynse voorhuide. 15Is-Boset het gestuur en haar laat wegvat van haar man, Palti seun van Lajis. 16Hy het saam met sy vrou geloop, huil-huil agter haar aan tot by Bagurim. Toe sê Abner vir hom: Gee pad! Loop terug! Hy het toe maar omgedraai. 17Daarna het Abner met die leiers van Israel gepraat: Julle probeer mos lankal om vir Dawid koning te maak. 18Doen dit nou, want die Here het vir Dawid gesê: Deur my dienaar Dawid sal Ek my volk Israel red uit die mag van die Filistyne en van al sy vyande. 19Abner het self ook vertroulik met die Benjaminiete gaan onderhandel. Dit was ook hy wat vertroulik aan Dawid in Hebron gaan vertel het watter voorwaardes vir Israel en die

Benjaminstam aanneemlik sou wees. [20]Vervolgens het Abner saam met twintig man na Dawid toe gegaan in Hebron, en Dawid het vir hulle 'n eetmaal aangebied. [21]Abner sê toe vir Dawid: Met u verlof gaan ek nou die hele Israel by u, die koning, bymekaarbring sodat hulle met u 'n verdrag kan sluit; dan sal u koning wees volgens u hartsbegeerte. Dawid het daartoe ingestem en Abner het ongehinderd vertrek. [22]En toe gebeur die onvoorsiene! Joab en die soldate van Dawid het net van 'n strooftog af teruggekom en 'n groot buit saamgebring. Abner was toe nie meer by Dawid in Hebron nie: Abner het met die instemming van die koning ongehinderd vertrek. [23]Dit was toe dat Joab en al sy soldate tuis gekom het en daar vir hom gesê is: Abner seun van Ner het by die koning gekom, en hy het hom ongehinderd laat vertrek. [24]Joab het na die koning toe gegaan en gesê: Wat het u nou aangevang? Hier kom Abner na u toe, en u laat hom weer loop? [25]U ken tog vir Abner seun van Ner! Hy het net gekom om u vir die gek te hou, ja, om uit te vind wat u bewegings en u doen en late is. [26]Joab is toe van Dawid af weg en het boodskappers agter Abner aangestuur. Hulle het hom by die watergat langs die doringboom laat omdraai sonder dat Dawid dit geweet het. [27]Abner het teruggekom na Hebron toe, en Joab het hom na die poort se kant toe weggelei asof hy vertroulik met hom wou praat. Uit weerwraak oor die dood van sy broer Asael het Joab hom toe net daar in die maag gesteek, sodat hy gesterf het. [28]Dawid het dit agterna eers verneem en gesê: Ek is vir altyd voor die Here onskuldig aan die moord op Abner seun van Ner, ek en my koningshuis. [29]Mag die straf daarvoor op Joab se kop afkom en op sy hele familie. Mag daar altyd in sy familie een wees wat bloei of melaats is of op krukke loop of deur die swaard omkom of broodsgebrek ly. [30]Joab en sy broer Abisai het vir Abner doodgemaak omdat hy hulle broer Asael tydens die oorlog in Gibeon doodgemaak het. [31]Aan Joab en die hele leër by hom het Dawid gesê: Skeur julle klere; trek rouklere aan en rou oor Abner. Koning Dawid het self agter die draagbaar gestap. [32]Toe hulle Abner in Hebron begrawe het, het die koning hardop gehuil by die graf, en die hele leër het ook gehuil. [33]Die koning het 'n klaaglied oor Abner gesing: Moes Abner dan so 'n eerlose dood sterwe? [34]Jou hande was nie geboei nie, jou voete nie met kettings gebind nie. Jy het omgekom soos een wat deur misdadigers omkom. Toe het die leër se gehuil oor hom eens so erg geword. [35]Die hele leër het Dawid probeer oorreed om iets te eet terwyl dit nog dag was, maar hy het 'n eed afgelê: Mag God my om die lewe bring as ek voor sononder brood of ander kos eet! [36]Almal het opgemerk dat hy nie eet nie en hulle het dit goedgevind. Hulle was tevrede met alles wat die koning gedoen het. [37]Die hele leër en die ganse Israel was toe oortuig dat die koning niks met Abner seun van Ner se dood te doen gehad het nie. [38]Die koning het aan die onderdane by hom gesê: Besef julle nie dat daar vandag 'n leier, ja, 'n groot man, in Israel om die lewe gebring is nie? 39Ek is wel tot koning gesalf, maar my posisie is nog nie sterk genoeg teenoor hierdie manne, die seuns van Seruja, nie. Hulle is vir my te hard. Mag die Here daarom self die saak regstel deur die moordenaar vir sy misdaad te straf.

Ish-bosheth Murdered

2Sa 4:1 When Saul's son Ishbosheth heard that Abner had been killed in Hebron, he was afraid, and all the people of Israel were alarmed.

2Sa 4:2 Ishbosheth had two officers who were leaders of raiding parties, Baanah and Rechab, sons of Rimmon, from Beeroth in the tribe of Benjamin. (Beeroth is counted as part of Benjamin.

2Sa 4:3 Its original inhabitants had fled to Gittaim, where they have lived ever since.)

2Sa 4:4 Another descendant of Saul was Jonathan's son Mephibosheth, who was five years old when Saul and Jonathan were killed. When the news about their death came from the city of Jezreel, his nurse picked him up and fled; but she was in such a hurry that she dropped him, and he became crippled.

2Sa 4:5 Rechab and Baanah set out for Ishbosheth's house and arrived there about noon, while he was taking his midday rest.

2Sa 4:6 The woman at the door had become drowsy while she was sifting wheat and had fallen asleep, so Rechab and Baanah slipped in.

2Sa 4:7 Once inside, they went to Ishbosheth's bedroom, where he was sound asleep, and killed him. Then they cut off his head, took it with them, and walked all night through the Jordan Valley.

2Sa 4:8 They presented the head to King David at Hebron and said to him, "Here is the head of Ishbosheth, the son of your enemy Saul, who tried to kill you. Today the LORD has allowed Your Majesty to take revenge on Saul and his descendants."

2Sa 4:9 David answered them, "I take a vow by the living LORD, who has saved me from all dangers!

2Sa 4:10 The messenger who came to me at Ziklag and told me of Saul's death thought he was bringing good news. I seized him and had him put to death. That was the reward I gave him for his good news!

2Sa 4:11 How much worse it will be for evil men who murder an innocent man asleep in his own house! I will now take revenge on you for murdering him and will wipe you off the face of the earth!"

2Sa 4:12 David gave the order, and his soldiers killed Rechab and Baanah and cut off their hands and feet, which they hung up near the pool in Hebron. They took Ishbosheth's head and buried it in Abner's tomb there at Hebron.

II SAMUEL 4

1Toe Is-Boset seun van Saul verneem dat Abner in Hebron dood is, was hy tot niks in staat nie, en die hele Israel was skrikbevange. 2Daar was twee bendeleiers by Is-Boset. Die een se naam was Baäna en die ander s'n Rekab. Hulle was kinders van Rimmon die Beërotiet, uit die geledere van Benjamin. Beërot is vroeër by Benjamin gereken, 3maar die Beërotiete het na Gittajim toe gevlug, waar hulle nou nog asiel het. 4Saul se seun Jonatan het 'n seun gehad met gebreklike voete. Hy was vyf jaar oud toe die tyding oor Saul en Jonatan uit Jisreël gekom het, en die vrou wat hom versorg het, het hom opgetel en gevlug, maar in haar haas het hy geval en so kreupel geword. Sy naam was Mefiboset. 5Rekab en Baäna, seuns van Rimmon die Beërotiet, het op die warmte van die dag, terwyl Is-Boset besig was om sy middagslapie te geniet, by sy huis aangekom. 6Hulle het tot binne in die huis gegaan onder die voorwendsel dat hulle koring kom aflewer, en hom in die maag gesteek. Daarna het hulle gevlug. 7Hulle het in die huis gekom en hom doodgesteek terwyl hy op sy bed in die slaapkamer aan die slaap was. Hulle het selfs sy kop afgekap en dit saamgevat. Die hele nag deur het hulle met die Jordaanvalleipad langs gestap 8en Is-Boset se kop na Dawid toe in Hebron gebring. Hulle het vir die koning gesê: Hier is die kop van Is-Boset Saul se seun. Saul was u vyand en wou u doodmaak, maar vandag het die Here vir die koning wraak geneem oor Saul en sy nasate. 9Toe sê Dawid vir Rekab en sy broer Baäna, seuns van Rimmon die Beërotiet: Ek verklaar voor die Here, my bevryder uit elke lewensgevaar: 10Die man wat my in Siklag vertel het: Saul is dood!' het ek laat gryp en doodslaan as beloning vir so 'n boodskap, en hy het nogal gedink hy is iemand wat 'n goeie tyding bring. 11Hoeveel te meer sal ek nie, noudat skurke 'n onskuldige man op sy bed in sy huis doodgemaak het, sy moord op hulle wreek en hulle van die aarde af wegvee nie! 12Toe het Dawid sy lyfwag beveel om hulle dood te maak. Hulle het hulle hande en voete afgesny en hulle by die dam van Hebron opgehang. Maar Is-Boset se kop het hulle gevat en in Abner se graf in Hebron gaan begrawe.

David Anointed King of Israel

2Sa 5:1 Then all the tribes of Israel went to David at Hebron and said to him, "We are your own flesh and blood.

2Sa 5:2 In the past, even when Saul was still our king, you led the people of Israel in battle, and the LORD promised you that you would lead his people and be their ruler."

2Sa 5:3 So all the leaders of Israel came to King David at Hebron. He made a sacred alliance with them, they anointed him, and he became king of Israel.

2Sa 5:4 David was thirty years old when he became king, and he ruled for forty years.

2Sa 5:5 He ruled in Hebron over Judah for seven and a half years, and in Jerusalem over all Israel and Judah for thirty-three years.

2Sa 5:6 The time came when King David and his men set out to attack Jerusalem. The Jebusites, who lived there, thought that David would not be able to conquer the city, and so they said to him, "You will never get in here; even the blind and the crippled could keep you out."

2Sa 5:7 (But David did capture their fortress of Zion, and it became known as "David's City.")

2Sa 5:8 That day David said to his men, "Does anybody here hate the Jebusites as much as I do? Enough to kill them? Then go up through the water tunnel and attack those poor blind cripples." (That is why it is said, "The blind and the crippled cannot enter the LORD's house.")

2Sa 5:9 After capturing the fortress, David lived in it and named it "David's City." He built the city around it, starting at the place where land was filled in on the east side of the hill.

2Sa 5:10 He grew stronger all the time, because the LORD God Almighty was with him.

2Sa 5:11 King Hiram of Tyre sent a trade mission to David; he provided him with cedar logs and with carpenters and stone masons to build a palace.

2Sa 5:12 And so David realized that the LORD had established him as king of Israel and was making his kingdom prosperous for the sake of his people.

2Sa 5:13 After moving from Hebron to Jerusalem, David took more concubines and wives, and had more sons and daughters.

2Sa 5:14 The following children were born to him in Jerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon,

2Sa 5:15 Ibhar, Elishua, Nepheg, Japhia,

2Sa 5:16 Elishama, Eliada, and Eliphelet.

David Defeats the Philistines

2Sa 5:17 The Philistines were told that David had been made king of Israel, so their army set out to capture him. When David heard of it, he went down to a fortified place.

2Sa 5:18 The Philistines arrived at Rephaim Valley and occupied it.

2Sa 5:19 David asked the LORD, "Shall I attack the Philistines? Will you give me the victory?" "Yes, attack!" the LORD answered. "I will give you the victory!"

2Sa 5:20 So David went to Baal Perazim and there he defeated the Philistines. He said, "The LORD has broken through my enemies like a flood." And so that place is called Baal Perazim.

2Sa 5:21 When the Philistines fled, they left their idols behind, and David and his men carried them away.

2Sa 5:22 Then the Philistines went back to Rephaim Valley and occupied it again.

2Sa 5:23 Once more David consulted the LORD, who answered, "Don't attack them from here, but go around and get ready to attack them from the other side, near the balsam trees.

2Sa 5:24 When you hear the sound of marching in the treetops, then attack because I will be marching ahead of you to defeat the Philistine army."

2Sa 5:25 David did what the LORD had commanded, and was able to drive the Philistines back from Geba all the way to Gezer.

1Hierna het al die Israelitiese stamme na Dawid toe in Hebron gegaan en gesê: Ons is tog almal u eie mense! 2In die tyd toe Saul koning was, was u tog maar die een wat Israel in die oorlog aangevoer het. Die Here het vir u gesê: Jy moet vir my volk Israel 'n herder wees; ja, jy moet heerser oor Israel wees! 3So het al die leiers van Israel by die koning in Hebron gekom. Toe het koning Dawid in Hebron in teenwoordigheid van die Here 'n verdrag met hulle gesluit. Op hulle beurt het hulle vir Dawid daar tot koning oor Israel gesalf. 4Dawid was dertig toe hy koning geword het, en hy het veertig jaar geregeer. 5In Hebron was hy sewe en 'n half jaar koning oor Juda, en in Jerusalem drie en dertig jaar oor die hele Israel en Juda. 6Die koning en sy manskappe het teen Jerusalem opgetrek. Die Jebusiete het hierdie gebied bewoon. Daar is aan Dawid gesê: Hier sal jy nie inkom nie. Blindes en kreupeles sal jou hier uithou. Ja, daar is beweer: Dawid sal hier nie inkom nie! 7En tog het Dawid die Sionsvesting ingeneem. Dit is nou die Dawidstad. 8Op daardie dag het Dawid gesê: Elkeen wat 'n Jebusiet wil verslaan, moet eers die watertonnel, en die blindes en kreupeles in die hande kry. Dawid het hulle blywend gehaat. Dit is waarom gesê word 'n blinde of 'n kreupele mag nie in die tempel inkom nie. 9Dawid het in die vesting gaan woon en dit Dawidstad genoem. Sy bouwerke het gestrek van die terras af in die rigting van die paleis. 10Hy het al hoe sterker geword en die Here die Almagtige was by hom. 11Koning Hiram van Tirus het 'n afvaardiging na hom toe gestuur en ook sederhout en skrynwerkers en messelaars. Hulle het vir Dawid 'n paleis gebou. 12Dawid het toe besef dat die Here hom as koning oor Israel bevestig het en dat die Here Dawid se koningskap in hoë aansien gebring het ter wille van die volk Israel. 13Nadat Dawid uit Hebron verhuis het, het hy vir hom uit Jerusalem meer byvrouens en vrouens geneem. Daar is toe vir hom nog seuns en dogters gebore. 14Dit is die name van sy kinders wat in Jerusalem gebore is: Sima, Sobab, Natan, Salomo, 15Jibgar, Elisua, Nefeg, Jafia, 16Elisama, Eljada en Elifelet. 17Toe die Filistyne verneem dat Dawid tot koning oor Israel gesalf is, het hulle almal teen hom opgetrek. Dawid het dit te hore gekom en op 'n strategiese plek gaan stelling inneem. 18Die Filistyne het gekom en die Spooklaagte binnegeval. 19Dawid het die Here geraadpleeg en gevra: Moet ek teen die Filistyne opruk? Sal U hulle in my mag oorgee? Die Here het hom geantwoord: Ja, trek op, want Ek gee hulle beslis aan jou oor. 20Dawid het toe deur 'n groot kloof getrek en hulle daar verslaan. Hy het gesê: Die Here het my vyand voor my gekloof soos water 'n wal kloof. Daarom het hy die plek Grootkloof genoem. 21Die Filistyne het selfs hulle afgodsbeelde net daar gelos, en Dawid en sy manskappe het dit opgetel. 22Toe die Filistyne weer opruk en die Spooklaagte binneval, 23het Dawid die Here geraadpleeg. Die Here het gesê: Moenie optrek nie. Draai na hulle agterhoede toe en val hulle aan regoor die melkbosse. 24Wanneer jy 'n geritsel in die toppe van die melkbosse hoor, moet jy blitsvinnig aanval, want dan trek die Here voor jou uit om die kamp van die Filistyne te tref. 25Dawid het gemaak soos die Here gesê het en die Filistyne van Geba af tot by die ingang na Geser verslaan.

The Ark Brought to Jerusalem

2Sa 6:1 Once more David called together the best soldiers in Israel, a total of thirty thousand men,

2Sa 6:2 and led them to Baalah in Judah, in order to bring from there God's Covenant Box, bearing the name of the LORD Almighty, whose throne is above the winged creatures.

2Sa 6:3 They took it from Abinadab's home on the hill and placed it on a new cart. Uzzah and Ahio, sons of Abinadab, were guiding the cart, 2Sa 6:4 with Ahio walking in front.

Uzzah and the Ark

2Sa 6:5 David and all the Israelites were dancing and singing with all their might to honor the LORD. They were playing harps, lyres, drums, rattles, and cymbals.

2Sa 6:6 As they came to the threshing place of Nacon, the oxen stumbled, and Uzzah reached out and took hold of the Covenant Box.

2Sa 6:7 At once the LORD God became angry with Uzzah and killed him because of his irreverence. Uzzah died there beside the Covenant Box, 2Sa 6:8 and so that place has been called Perez Uzzah ever since. David was furious because the LORD had punished Uzzah in anger.

2Sa 6:9 Then David was afraid of the LORD and said, "How can I take the Covenant Box with me now?"

2Sa 6:10 So he decided not to take it with him to Jerusalem; instead, he turned off the road and took it to the house of Obed Edom, a native of the city of Gath.

2Sa 6:11 It stayed there three months, and the LORD blessed Obed Edom and his family.

2Sa 6:12 King David heard that because of the Covenant Box the LORD had blessed Obed Edom's family and all that he had; so he got the Covenant Box from Obed's house to take it to Jerusalem with a great celebration.

2Sa 6:13 After the men carrying the Covenant Box had gone six steps, David had them stop while he offered the LORD a sacrifice of a bull and a fattened calf.

2Sa 6:14 David, wearing only a linen cloth around his waist, danced with all his might to honor the LORD.

2Sa 6:15 And so he and all the Israelites took the Covenant Box up to Jerusalem with shouts of joy and the sound of trumpets.

David and Michal

2Sa 6:16 As the Box was being brought into the city, Michal, Saul's daughter, looked out of the window and saw King David dancing and jumping around in the sacred dance, and she was disgusted with him.

2Sa 6:17 They brought the Box and put it in its place in the Tent that David had set up for it. Then he offered sacrifices and fellowship offerings to the LORD.

2Sa 6:18 When he had finished offering the sacrifices, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD Almighty

2Sa 6:19 and distributed food to them all. He gave each man and woman in Israel a loaf of bread, a piece of roasted meat, and some raisins. Then everyone went home.

2Sa 6:20 Afterward, when David went home to greet his family, Michal came out to meet him. "The king of Israel made a big name for himself today!" she said. "He exposed himself like a fool in the sight of the servant women of his officials!"

2Sa 6:21 David answered, "I was dancing to honor the LORD, who chose me instead of your father and his family to make me the leader of his people Israel. And I will go on dancing to honor the LORD, 2Sa 6:22 and will disgrace myself even more. You may think I am nothing, but those women will think highly of me!"

2Sa 6:23 Michal, Saul's daughter, never had any children.

1Dawid het al die uitgesoekte manne in Israel bymekaargemaak, dertig afdelings. 2Hy het klaargemaak en saam met die hele leër na Baäla in Juda toe gegaan om die ark van God te gaan haal. Dit is die ark waaroor die Naam: die Here die Almagtige wat oor die gerubs troon, uitgeroep is. 3Hulle het die ark van God op 'n nuwe wa gelaai en dit weggevat uit die huis van Abinadab op die heuwel. Ussa en Agjo, seuns van Abinadab, het die wa 4waarop die ark van God was, gedrywe. Agjo het voor die ark geloop. 5Dawid en die hele Israel het uitbundig voor die ark van die Here gedans, begelei deur liedere, liere, harpe, tamboeryne, ratels en simbale. 6Toe hulle by die dorsvloer van Nakon kom, gryp Ussa na die ark van God om dit teë te hou, want die osse het gestruikel. 7Die toorn van die Here het teen Ussa ontvlam en God het hom net daar, by die daad van heiligskennis, getref. Hy het op die plek gesterf, langs die ark van God. 8Dawid was diep ontsteld omdat die Here vir Ussa so weggeskeur het, en hy het daardie plek genoem Ussa-se-Skeur. Dit is nou nog die naam. 9Dawid het daardie dag bang geword vir die Here en gesê: Hoe kan die ark van die Here nou na my toe kom? 10Hy het nie kans gesien om die ark van die Here by die Dawidstad te laat inkom nie en het dit laat wegdraai na die huis van Obed-Edom toe wat uit Gat afkomstig was. 11Die ark van die Here het drie maande in Obed-Edom se huis gestaan, en die Here het hom en sy hele gesin voorspoedig gemaak. 12Daar is toe aan Dawid vertel: Die Here het die gesin van Obed-Edom voorspoedig gemaak en al sy besittings vermeerder ter wille van die ark van God. Dawid het toe gegaan en die ark van God met feesvreugde uit die huis van Obed-Edom na die Dawidstad toe laat bring. 13Elke keer wanneer die draers van die ark van die Here ses tree gestap het, het hy 'n bul en 'n vetgemaakte kalf geoffer. 14Met volle oorgawe het Dawid voor die Here gedans met net 'n linneskouerkleed aan. 15Hy en die hele Israel het die ark van die Here met gejuig en onder die geklank van die ramshoring ingebring. 16Terwyl die ark die Dawidstad ingekom het, het Saul se dogter Mikal deur die venster afgekyk. Sy het koning Dawid gesien terwyl hy spring en dans voor die Here en sy het hom in stilte verag. 17Hulle het die ark van die Here ingebring en dit op sy bestemde plek neergesit in die tent wat Dawid daarvoor opgeslaan het. Dawid het brandoffers en maaltydoffers vir die Here geoffer. 18Toe hy klaar geoffer het, het hy die volk geseën in die Naam van die Here die Almagtige. 19Hy het aan die hele volk, die ganse menigte van Israel, man en vrou, elkeen 'n ringbrood, 'n bietjie dadels en 'n handvol rosyntjies laat uitdeel. Hierna is almal huis toe, 20en Dawid het teruggegaan om sy gesin te seën. Saul se dogter Mikal het hom tegemoet gegaan en smalend gesê: Hoe waardig het die koning van Israel hom vandag gedra! Hy het hom die heeldag voor die slavinne van sy onderdane ontbloot soos 'n onbeskaamde mens wat hom sommer ontbloot. 21Hy het vir Mikal geantwoord: Voor die Here wat my verkies het bo jou pa en sy familie deur my aan te stel as heerser oor Israel, die volk van die Here, ja, voor die Here sal ek dans. 22Ek sal myself nog geringer ag as dit en nederig wees in my eie oë deur my by die slavinne van wie jy praat, waardig te gaan gedra. 23En tot die dag van haar dood het Saul se dogter Mikal nie 'n kind gehad nie.

The Lord's Covenant with David

2Sa 7:1 King David was settled in his palace, and the LORD kept him safe from all his enemies.

2Sa 7:2 Then the king said to the prophet Nathan, "Here I am living in a house built of cedar, but God's Covenant Box is kept in a tent!"

2Sa 7:3 Nathan answered, "Do whatever you have in mind, because the LORD is with you."

2Sa 7:4 But that night the LORD said to Nathan,

2Sa 7:5 "Go and tell my servant David that I say to him, 'You are not the one to build a temple for me to live in.

2Sa 7:6 From the time I rescued the people of Israel from Egypt until now, I have never lived in a temple; I have traveled around living in a tent.

2Sa 7:7 In all my traveling with the people of Israel I never asked any of the leaders that I appointed why they had not built me a temple made of cedar.'

2Sa 7:8 "So tell my servant David that I, the LORD Almighty, say to him, 'I took you from looking after sheep in the fields and made you the ruler of my people Israel.

2Sa 7:9 I have been with you wherever you have gone, and I have defeated all your enemies as you advanced. I will make you as famous as the greatest leaders in the world.

2Sa 7:10 (10-11) I have chosen a place for my people Israel and have settled them there, where they will live without being oppressed any more. Ever since they entered this land, they have been attacked by violent people, but this will not happen again. I promise to keep you safe from all your enemies and to give you descendants.

2Sa 7:12 When you die and are buried with your ancestors, I will make one of your sons king and will keep his kingdom strong.

2Sa 7:13 He will be the one to build a temple for me, and I will make sure that his dynasty continues forever.

2Sa 7:14 I will be his father, and he will be my son. When he does wrong, I will punish him as a father punishes his son.

2Sa 7:15 But I will not withdraw my support from him as I did from Saul, whom I removed so that you could be king.

2Sa 7:16 You will always have descendants, and I will make your kingdom last forever. Your dynasty will never end.' "

2Sa 7:17 Nathan told David everything that God had revealed to him.

David's Prayer of Gratitude

2Sa 7:18 Then King David went into the Tent of the LORD's presence, sat down and prayed, "Sovereign LORD, I am not worthy of what you have already done for me, nor is my family.

2Sa 7:19 Yet now you are doing even more, Sovereign LORD; you have made promises about my descendants in the years to come. And you let a man see this, Sovereign LORD!

2Sa 7:20 What more can I say to you! You know me, your servant.

2Sa 7:21 It was your will and purpose to do this; you have done all these great things in order to instruct me.

2Sa 7:22 How great you are, Sovereign LORD! There is none like you; we have always known that you alone are God.

2Sa 7:23 There is no other nation on earth like Israel, whom you rescued from slavery to make them your own people. The great and wonderful things you did for them have spread your fame throughout the world. You drove out other nations and their gods as your people advanced, the people whom you set free from Egypt to be your own.

2Sa 7:24 You have made Israel your own people forever, and you, LORD, have become their God.

2Sa 7:25 "And now, LORD God, fulfill for all time the promise you made about me and my descendants, and do what you said you would.

2Sa 7:26 Your fame will be great, and people will forever say, 'The LORD Almighty is God over Israel.' And you will preserve my dynasty for all time.

2Sa 7:27 LORD Almighty, God of Israel! I have the courage to pray this prayer to you, because you have revealed all this to me, your servant, and have told me that you will make my descendants kings.

2Sa 7:28 "And now, Sovereign LORD, you are God; you always keep your promises, and you have made this wonderful promise to me.

2Sa 7:29 I ask you to bless my descendants so that they will continue to enjoy your favor. You, Sovereign LORD, have promised this, and your blessing will rest on my descendants forever."

II SAMUEL 7

[1]Toe koning Dawid in sy eie huis woon, nadat die Here hom rus gegee het van al sy vyande in die omgewing, [2]sê hy vir die profeet Natan: Kyk, ek woon in 'n huis wat met sederhout versier is, maar die ark van God staan in 'n tent. [3]Natan het die koning geantwoord: Doen gerus alles wat u in gedagte het. Die Here is by u. [4]Dieselfde nag het daar egter iets gebeur: die woord van die Here het tot Natan gekom en vir hom gesê: [5]Gaan sê vir my dienaar Dawid: So sê die Here: Wil jy vir My 'n huis bou om in te woon? [6]Vandat Ek die Israeliete uit Egipte laat trek het tot nou toe het Ek nog nooit in 'n huis gewoon nie. Ek het in tent en tabernakel rondgeswerf [7]saam met al die Israeliete. Het Ek ooit vir een van die stamme wat Ek beveel het om die leiding van my volk Israel op hom te neem, gesê: Waarom bou julle nie vir My 'n huis wat met sederhout versier is nie?' [8]Nou moet jy vir my dienaar Dawid sê: So sê die Here die Almagtige: Ek het jou uit die weiveld agter die kleinvee weggevat om oor my volk Israel te heers. [9]Oral waar jy gegaan het, was Ek by jou; al jou vyande het Ek voor jou oë uitgedelg. Ek het jou so beroemd gemaak soos die grotes op die aarde. [10]Ek het 'n woonplek aan my volk Israel gegee en hom gevestig, sodat hy sonder vrees in sy plek kan woon. Slegte mense sal hom nie meer verdruk soos voorheen [11]toe Ek leiers oor my volk Israel aangestel het nie. Ek sal jou rus gee van al jou vyande. Ek maak aan jou bekend dat Ek vir jou 'n koningshuis gaan vestig. [12]Wanneer jy te sterwe kom en jy by jou voorvaders rus, sal Ek een van jou nageslag, jou eie seun, koning maak en aan hom 'n bestendige koningskap gee. [13]Hy sal vir my Naam 'n huis bou, en Ek sal sy koningskap vir altyd laat voortbestaan. [14]Ek sal vir hom 'n vader wees en hy sal vir My 'n seun wees. As hy ontrou is, sal Ek mense gebruik om hom te straf, hom te kasty. [15]Maar my trou sal Ek nie aan hom onttrek soos Ek dit aan Saul onttrek het om vir jou plek te maak nie. [16]Jou koningshuis en jou koningskap sal vir altyd vas staan; jou troon sal altyd voortbestaan. [17]Volgens hierdie openbaring het Natan die hele boodskap aan Dawid oorgedra. [18]Daarna het koning Dawid ingegaan en voor die Here gaan sit en gesê: Wie is ek, Here my God, en wie is my nageslag dat U my só ver gebring het? [19]Selfs dít was vir U nog nie genoeg nie, Here: U het ook nog vir die nageslag van u dienaar tot in die verre toekoms beloftes gemaak. Wat 'n toesegging aan 'n mens, Here my God! [20]Wat sou ek, Dawid, nog verder vir U kon sê? U ken immers u dienaar, Here. [21]U het hierdie groot ding gedoen omdat dit u besluit en wil was en boonop het U dit nog aan u dienaar bekend gemaak. [22]Daarom, groot is U, Here my God! Daar is niemand soos U nie. Buiten U is daar geen God nie, van hoeveel gode ons ook al gehoor het. [23]Watter volk is soos u volk Israel? Hulle is die een nasie op die aarde wat U vir U as volk vry gemaak het. U het u Naam bekend gemaak en in hierdie land aan nasies en hulle gode groot en vreeslike dinge gedoen ter wille van u volk wat U vir U uit Egipte vry gemaak het. [24]U het u volk Israel vir U gevestig as 'n volk wat vir altyd aan U behoort. En U, Here, U het hulle God geword. [25]En nou, Here God, bevestig tog vir altyd wat U oor u dienaar en sy nageslag gesê het. Doen tog soos U belowe het, [26]sodat u Naam vir altyd groot kan wees as daar gesê word: Die Here, die Almagtige, is God van Israel.' Laat die nageslag van u dienaar Dawid voor U voortbestaan. [27]Here, Almagtige, God van Israel, U het nadruklik vir u dienaar gesê: Ek sal vir jou 'n koningshuis vestig,' en daarom het u dienaar die vrymoedigheid gehad om hierdie gebed tot U te rig. [28]En nou, Here, U is God. U woorde sal bewaarheid word. U het hierdie goeie belofte aan u dienaar gemaak. [29]Begin tog nou en seën die huis van u dienaar om vir altyd in u diens te wees! Here my God, U het gepraat en omdat U seën, is die koningshuis van u dienaar vir altyd geseën.

David's Victories

2Sa 8:1 Some time later King David attacked the Philistines again, defeated them, and ended their control over the land.

2Sa 8:2 Then he defeated the Moabites. He made the prisoners lie down on the ground and put two out of every three of them to death. So the Moabites became his subjects and paid taxes to him.

2Sa 8:3 Then he defeated the king of the Syrian state of Zobah, Hadadezer son of Rehob, as Hadadezer was on his way to restore his control over the territory by the upper Euphrates River.

2Sa 8:4 David captured seventeen hundred of his cavalry and twenty thousand of his foot soldiers. He kept enough horses for a hundred chariots and crippled all the rest.

2Sa 8:5 When the Syrians of Damascus sent an army to help King Hadadezer, David attacked it and killed twenty-two thousand men.

2Sa 8:6 Then he set up military camps in their territory, and they became his subjects and paid taxes to him. The LORD made David victorious everywhere.

2Sa 8:7 David captured the gold shields carried by Hadadezer's officials and took them to Jerusalem.

2Sa 8:8 He also took a great quantity of bronze from Betah and Berothai, cities ruled by Hadadezer.

2Sa 8:9 King Toi of Hamath heard that David had defeated all of Hadadezer's army.

2Sa 8:10 So he sent his son Joram to greet King David and congratulate him for his victory over Hadadezer, against whom Toi had fought many times. Joram took David presents made of gold, silver, and bronze.

2Sa 8:11 King David dedicated them for use in worship, along with the silver and gold he took from the nations he had conquered—

2Sa 8:12 Edom, Moab, Ammon, Philistia, and Amalek—as well as part of the loot he had taken from Hadadezer.

2Sa 8:13 David became even more famous when he returned from killing eighteen thousand Edomites in Salt Valley.

2Sa 8:14 He set up military camps throughout Edom, and the people there became his subjects. The LORD made David victorious everywhere.

David's Officials

2Sa 8:15 David ruled over all of Israel and made sure that his people were always treated fairly and justly.

2Sa 8:16 Joab, whose mother was Zeruiah, was the commander of the army; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was in charge of the records;

2Sa 8:17 Zadok son of Ahitub and Ahimelech son of Abiathar were priests; Seraiah was the court secretary;

2Sa 8:18 Benaiah son of Jehoiada was in charge of David's bodyguards; and David's sons were priests.

II SAMUEL 8

1Hierna het Dawid die Filistyne verslaan. Hy het hulle onderwerp en die mag uit hulle hande geneem. 2Hy het ook die Moabiete verslaan. Hy het hulle groep-groep op die grond laat lê: twee groepe om te laat doodmaak vir elke volle groep wat toegelaat is om te lewe. Moab het onderhorig geword aan Dawid en moes aan hom belasting betaal. 3Toe Dawid sy mag aan die Eufraat gaan herstel het, het hy vir koning Hadad-Eser van Soba, seun van Regob, verslaan. 4Van hom het Dawid sewentien honderd oorlogsperde en twintig duisend voetsoldate afgevat. Hy het perde vir honderd strydwaens uitgehou en al die ander se hakskeensenings afgesny. 5Die Arameërs van Damaskus het vir koning Hadad-Eser van Soba te hulp gekom, maar Dawid het twee en twintig duisend man van Aram verslaan. 6Hy het militêre poste in die gebied Aram-Damaskus ingerig, en die Arameërs het aan hom onderhorig geword en moes aan hom belasting betaal. Die Here het Dawid die oorwinning laat behaal net waar hy gegaan het. 7Hy het die goue skilde van Hadad-Eser se offisiere afgevat en dit na Jerusalem toe gebring. 8In Tebag en Berotai, twee stede van Hadad-Eser, het hy op 'n groot klomp brons beslag gelê. 9Toe koning Toï van Hamat hoor dat Dawid die hele leër van Hadad-Eser verslaan het, 10het hy sy seun Joram na koning Dawid toe gestuur. Hy moes hom sy groete oorbring en hom gelukwens met sy oorwinning oor Hadad-Eser, want Hadad-Eser het kort-kort vir Toï aangeval. Joram het vir Dawid allerlei artikels van silwer en goud en brons gebring. 11Koning Dawid het dit alles aan die Here gewy, en so ook die silwer en goud van al die nasies wat hy onderwerp het, 12naamlik Aram, Moab, Ammon, die Filistyne en Amalek. Hy het dieselfde gedoen met sy buit van koning Hadad-Eser van Soba, seun van Regob. 13Na sy oorwinning oor Aram het Dawid vir hom naam gemaak toe hy agtien duisend man van Edom in die Soutvlakte verslaan het. 14Hy het oral in Edom militêre poste ingerig, en die hele Edom het aan hom onderhorig geword. Die Here het Dawid die oorwinning laat behaal net waar hy gegaan het. 15Dawid was koning oor die hele Israel en hy het sy hele volk met reg en billikheid geregeer. 16Joab seun van Seruja is aangestel oor die weermag, en Josafat seun van Agilud was hoof uitvoerende beampte. 17Sadok seun van Agitub, en Agimelek seun van Abjatar was priesters, en Seraja was staatsekretaris. 18Jojada se seun Benaja is aangestel oor die koning se Filistynse lyfwag. Dawid se seuns was priesters.

2Samuel 9

David's Kindness to Mephibosheth

2Sa 9:1 One day David asked, "Is there anyone left of Saul's family? If there is, I would like to show him kindness for Jonathan's sake."

2Sa 9:2 There was a servant of Saul's family named Ziba, and he was told to go to David. "Are you Ziba?" the king asked. "At your service, sir," he answered.

2Sa 9:3 The king asked him, "Is there anyone left of Saul's family to whom I can show loyalty and kindness, as I promised God I would?" Ziba answered, "There is still one of Jonathan's sons. He is crippled."

2Sa 9:4 "Where is he?" the king asked. "At the home of Machir son of Ammiel in Lodebar," Ziba answered.

2Sa 9:5 So King David sent for him.

2Sa 9:6 When Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan and grandson of Saul, arrived, he bowed down before David in respect. David said, "Mephibosheth," and he answered, "At your service, sir."

2Sa 9:7 "Don't be afraid," David replied. "I will be kind to you for the sake of your father Jonathan. I will give you back all the land that belonged to your grandfather Saul, and you will always be welcome at my table."

2Sa 9:8 Mephibosheth bowed again and said, "I am no better than a dead dog, sir! Why should you be so good to me?"

2Sa 9:9 Then the king called Ziba, Saul's servant, and said, "I am giving Mephibosheth, your master's grandson, everything that belonged to Saul and his family.

2Sa 9:10 You, your sons, and your servants will farm the land for your master Saul's family and bring in the harvest, to provide food for them. But Mephibosheth himself will always be a guest at my table." (Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.)

2Sa 9:11 Ziba answered, "I will do everything Your Majesty commands." So Mephibosheth ate at the king's table, just like one of the king's sons.

2Sa 9:12 Mephibosheth had a young son named Mica. All the members of Ziba's family became servants of Mephibosheth.

2Sa 9:13 So Mephibosheth, who was crippled in both feet, lived in Jerusalem, eating all his meals at the king's table.

II SAMUEL 9

1Op 'n dag het Dawid gevra: Het daar nie miskien iemand uit Saul se familie oorgebly nie? Ek sou hom graag onder my sorg wil neem ter wille van Jonatan. 2Hulle het toe vir Siba, 'n amptenaar van Saul se hofhouding, na hom toe laat roep. Is jy Siba? vra die koning hom. Hy antwoord: Ek is u onderdaan. 3Is daar nie miskien iemand uit Saul se familie oor nie? wou die koning weet. Ek wil hom 'n besondere guns bewys. Daar is nog 'n kreupel seun van Jonatan, was Siba se antwoord aan die koning. 4Waar is hy? vra die koning hom toe, en hy het geantwoord: Hy is in die huis van Ammiël se seun Makir in Lo-Dabar. 5Koning Dawid het hom toe laat haal uit Makir se huis in Lo-Dabar. 6Toe Mefiboset seun van Saul se seun Jonatan by Dawid kom, het hy op sy knieë geval voor Dawid en gebuig. Mefiboset? vra Dawid. Ek is u onderdaan, antwoord hy. 7Dawid sê vir hom: Moenie bekommerd wees nie, want ek het besluit om jou onder my sorg te neem ter wille van Jonatan jou pa. Ek gaan al die grond van jou oupa Saul aan jou teruggee, en boonop sal jy van nou af by my aan huis eet. 8Hy het weer voor Dawid gebuig en gesê: Wat is ek tog dat u aandag gee aan 'n dooie hond soos ek? 9Dawid het vir Siba die amptenaar van Saul geroep en hom beveel: Alles wat aan Saul en sy familie behoort het, gee ek aan sy kleinseun. 10Jy en jou seuns en jou slawe moet vir hom die lande bewerk en die oes insamel sodat daar kos kan wees vir sy huishouding, en sodat hulle kan eet. Maar Mefiboset die kleinseun van Saul sal van nou af by my aan huis eet. Siba het vyftien seuns en twintig slawe gehad. 11Hy het die koning geantwoord: Ek is u onderdaan, ek sal doen net soos die koning my beveel het, en Mefiboset sal by u aan huis eet soos u eie kind. 12Mefiboset het 'n klein seuntjie gehad wie se naam Miga was. Die hele huishouding van Siba moes vir Mefiboset bedien. 13Mefiboset, wie se voete gebreklik was, het in Jerusalem gebly, want hy het van toe af by die koning aan huis geëet.

David Defeats Ammon and Syria

2Sa 10:1 Some time later King Nahash of Ammon died, and his son Hanun became king.

2Sa 10:2 King David said, "I must show loyal friendship to Hanun, as his father Nahash did to me." So David sent messengers to express his sympathy. When they arrived in Ammon,

2Sa 10:3 the Ammonite leaders said to the king, "Do you think that it is in your father's honor that David has sent these men to express sympathy to you? Of course not! He has sent them here as spies to explore the city, so that he can conquer us!"

2Sa 10:4 Hanun seized David's messengers, shaved off one side of their beards, cut off their clothes at the hips, and sent them away.

2Sa 10:5 They were too ashamed to return home. When David heard about what had happened, he sent word for them to stay in Jericho and not return until their beards had grown again.

2Sa 10:6 The Ammonites realized that they had made David their enemy, so they hired twenty thousand Syrian soldiers from Bethrehob and Zobah, twelve thousand men from Tob, and the king of Maacah with a thousand men.

2Sa 10:7 David heard of it and sent Joab against them with the whole army.

2Sa 10:8 The Ammonites marched out and took up their position at the entrance to Rabbah, their capital city, while the others, both the Syrians and the men from Tob and Maacah, took up their position in the open countryside.

2Sa 10:9 Joab saw that the enemy troops would attack him in front and from the rear, so he chose the best of Israel's soldiers and put them in position facing the Syrians.

2Sa 10:10 He placed the rest of his troops under the command of his brother Abishai, who put them in position facing the Ammonites.

2Sa 10:11 Joab said to him, "If you see that the Syrians are defeating me, come and help me, and if the Ammonites are defeating you, I will go and help you.

2Sa 10:12 Be strong and courageous! Let's fight hard for our people and for the cities of our God. And may the LORD's will be done!"

2Sa 10:13 Joab and his men advanced to attack, and the Syrians fled.

2Sa 10:14 When the Ammonites saw the Syrians running away, they fled from Abishai and retreated into the city. Then Joab turned back from fighting the Ammonites and went back to Jerusalem.

2Sa 10:15 The Syrians realized that they had been defeated by the Israelites, and so they called all their troops together.

2Sa 10:16 King Hadadezer sent for the Syrians who were on the east side of the Euphrates River, and they came to Helam under the command of Shobach, commander of the army of King Hadadezer of Zobah.

2Sa 10:17 When David heard of it, he gathered the Israelite troops, crossed the Jordan River, and marched to Helam, where the Syrians took up their position facing him. The fighting began, 2Sa 10:18 and the Israelites drove the Syrian army back. David and his men killed seven hundred Syrian chariot drivers and forty thousand cavalry, and they wounded Shobach, the enemy commander, who died on the battlefield.

2Sa 10:19 When the kings who were subject to Hadadezer realized that they had been defeated by the Israelites, they made peace with them and became their subjects. And the Syrians were afraid to help the Ammonites any more.

II SAMUEL 10

[1]Na hierdie gebeure is die koning van die Ammoniete oorlede. Sy seun Ganun het hom opgevolg, [2]en Dawid het gedink: Ek wil met Nagas se seun Ganun op goeie voet bly, want sy pa was my goedgesind. Dawid het toe gesante na hom toe gestuur om deelneming te betuig met die dood van sy pa. Toe die gesante van Dawid in die land van die Ammoniete kom, [3]het die leiers van die Ammoniete vir hulle koning Ganun gesê: Dink u werklik Dawid vereer u vader deur gesante te stuur om met u te simpatiseer? Het hy nie eerder gesante na u toe gestuur om die stad deur te kyk en te verken sodat hy dit kan oorweldig nie? [4]Ganun het toe Dawid se gesante gevat en die een kant van hulle baard afgeskeer, hulle klere net onderkant die heupe afgesny en hulle gelos. [5]Dit is aan Dawid meegedeel. Hy het toe boodskappers na hulle toe gestuur, want die manne was baie skaam. Die koning het laat weet: Bly voorlopig in Jerigo totdat julle baard gegroei het en kom dan huis toe. [6]Die Ammoniete het geweet dat hulle hulle by Dawid in onguns gebring het. Hulle het toe 'n afvaardiging gestuur en by die Arameërs van Bet-Regob en by dié van Soba twintig duisend voetsoldate gehuur; by koning Maäka het hulle duisend gehuur en by Is-Tob twaalf duisend. [7]Toe Dawid dit verneem, het hy Joab met die hele leër gestuur, almal dapper manne. [8]Die Ammoniete het uitgegaan en voor die stadspoort stelling ingeneem, en die Arameërs van Soba, Regob, Is-Tob en Maäka was op hulle eie in die oop veld. [9]Joab het opgemerk dat hy aan twee kante sou moes veg, voor en agter. Hy het toe 'n aantal van die beste manne uit Israel gekies en teenoor die Arameërs laat stelling inneem. [10]Die res van die leër het hy onder aanvoering van sy broer Abisai teenoor die Ammoniete laat stelling inneem. [11]Hy het gesê: As die Arameërs vir my te sterk is, moet jy my kom help, en as die Ammoniete vir jou te sterk is, sal ek jou kom help. [12]Wees dapper en ons sal ook dapper wees ter wille van ons volk en die stede van ons God. Mag die Here doen soos Hy dit goedvind! [13]Joab en sy manne het opgeruk om teen die Arameërs te veg, maar hulle het vir hom gevlug. [14]Toe die Ammoniete gewaar dat die Arameërs vlug, het hulle ook vir Abisai gevlug en die stad ingegaan. Joab is toe van die Ammoniete af weg na Jerusalem toe. [15]Toe die Aramese state sien dat hulle deur die Israeliete verslaan is, het hulle 'n bondgenootskap gesluit. [16]Hadad-Eser het naamlik afvaardigings gestuur en die Arameërs van oorkant die Eufraat af laat kom. Hulle leër het gekom, en Sobak, die hoof van Hadad-Eser se leër, het die leiding geneem. [17]Toe Dawid die berig kry, het hy die hele Israel bymekaargemaak, die Jordaan oorgesteek en by Gelam gekom. Die Arameërs het teenoor hom stelling ingeneem en die stryd aangeknoop.

[18]Aram het egter vir Israel gevlug. Dawid het sewe honderd man op strydwaens en veertig duisend oorlogsperde van Aram om die lewe gebring. Hy het verder ook vir Sobak, die hoof van hulle leër, so ernstig gewond dat hy daar gesterf het. [19]Toe al die konings wat onderhorig was aan Hadad-Eser, besef dat hulle deur Israel verslaan is, het hulle vrede gesluit met Israel en aan hom onderhorig geword. Die Arameërs was bang om weer die Ammoniete te help.

David and Bathsheba

2Sa 11:1 The following spring, at the time of the year when kings usually go to war, David sent out Joab with his officers and the Israelite army; they defeated the Ammonites and besieged the city of Rabbah. But David himself stayed in Jerusalem.

2Sa 11:2 One day, late in the afternoon, David got up from his nap and went to the palace roof. As he walked around up there, he saw a woman taking a bath in her house. She was very beautiful.

2Sa 11:3 So he sent a messenger to find out who she was, and learned that she was Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliam and the wife of Uriah the Hittite.

2Sa 11:4 David sent messengers to get her; they brought her to him and he made love to her. (She had just finished her monthly ritual of purification.) Then she went back home.

2Sa 11:5 Afterward she discovered that she was pregnant and sent a message to David to tell him.

2Sa 11:6 David then sent a message to Joab: "Send me Uriah the Hittite." So Joab sent him to David.

2Sa 11:7 When Uriah arrived, David asked him if Joab and the troops were well, and how the fighting was going.

2Sa 11:8 Then he said to Uriah, "Go on home and rest a while." Uriah left, and David had a present sent to his home.

2Sa 11:9 But Uriah did not go home; instead he slept at the palace gate with the king's guards.

2Sa 11:10 When David heard that Uriah had not gone home, he asked him, "You have just returned after a long absence; why didn't you go home?"

2Sa 11:11 Uriah answered, "The men of Israel and Judah are away in battle, and the Covenant Box is with them; my commander Joab and his officers are camping out in the open. How could I go home, eat and drink, and sleep with my wife? By all that's sacred, I swear that I could never do such a thing!"

2Sa 11:12 So David said, "Then stay here the rest of the day, and tomorrow I'll send you back." So Uriah stayed in Jerusalem that day and the next.

2Sa 11:13 David invited him to supper and got him drunk. But again that night Uriah did not go home; instead he slept on his blanket in the palace guardroom.

2Sa 11:14 The next morning David wrote a letter to Joab and sent it by Uriah.

2Sa 11:15 He wrote: "Put Uriah in the front line, where the fighting is heaviest, then retreat and let him be killed."

2Sa 11:16 So while Joab was besieging the city, he sent Uriah to a place where he knew the enemy was strong.

2Sa 11:17 The enemy troops came out of the city and fought Joab's forces; some of David's officers were killed, and so was Uriah.

2Sa 11:18 Then Joab sent a report to David telling him about the battle,

2Sa 11:19 and he instructed the messenger, "After you have told the king all about the battle,

2Sa 11:20 he may get angry and ask you, 'Why did you go so near the city to fight them? Didn't you realize that they would shoot arrows from the walls?

2Sa 11:21 Don't you remember how Abimelech son of Gideon was killed? It was at Thebez, where a woman threw a millstone down from the wall and killed him. Why, then, did you go so near the wall?' If the king asks you this, tell him, 'Your officer Uriah was also killed.' "

2Sa 11:22 So the messenger went to David and told him what Joab had commanded him to say.

2Sa 11:23 He said, "Our enemies were stronger than we were and came out of the city to fight us in the open, but we drove them back to the city gate.

2Sa 11:24 Then they shot arrows at us from the wall, and some of Your Majesty's officers were killed; your officer Uriah was also killed."

2Sa 11:25 David said to the messenger, "Encourage Joab and tell him not to be upset, since you never can tell who will die in battle. Tell him to launch a stronger attack on the city and capture it."

2Sa 11:26 When Bathsheba heard that her husband had been killed, she mourned for him.

2Sa 11:27 When the time of mourning was over, David had her brought to the palace; she became his wife and bore him a son. But the LORD was not pleased with what David had done.

1In die lente, die tyd waarin die konings gewoonlik optrek om oorlog te maak, het Dawid op 'n keer vir Joab en sy soldate en die hele Israel uitgestuur. Hulle het die Ammoniete verslaan en Rabba beleër, maar Dawid het in Jerusalem agtergebly. 2Eendag het hy na sy middagslapie opgestaan en op die dak van die paleis gaan rondstap. Van die dak af het hy 'n vrou sien bad. Sy was 'n baie mooi vrou. 3Dawid het oor haar laat navraag doen, en iemand het gesê: Dit is Batseba dogter van Eliam, die vrou van Urija die Hetiet. 4Dawid het toe amptenare gestuur en haar laat haal. Dit was nadat sy haar reinigingsbad geneem het na haar maandstonde. Sy het na hom toe gekom, en hy het by haar geslaap. Daarna is sy terug huis toe. 5Die vrou het swanger geword en vir Dawid laat weet: Ek is swanger. 6Dawid het op sy beurt 'n boodskap na Joab toe gestuur: Stuur vir Urija die Hetiet hiernatoe. Joab het hom na Dawid toe gestuur. 7Urija het by hom gekom, en Dawid het hom gevra hoe gaan dit met Joab en die leër, en hoe vorder die oorlog. 8Hierna het Dawid vir Urija gesê: Gaan nou maar huis toe en rus 'n bietjie. Toe Urija uit die paleis gaan, het die koning ook nog 'n geskenk agter hom aangestuur. 9Maar Urija wou nie huis toe gaan nie en het by die paleisdeur gaan slaap saam met die slawe van die koning. 10Hulle het vir Dawid gaan sê: Urija was nie huis toe nie. Dawid vra toe vir Urija: Jy was mos lank weg, waarom gaan jy nie huis toe nie? 11Sy antwoord was: Sou ek huis toe gaan om te eet en fees te vier en by my vrou te slaap, terwyl die ark en Israel saam met Juda in hutte woon en my aanvoerder Joab sowel as u soldate in die oop veld kamp opslaan? Dit sal ek beslis nooit doen nie! 12Dawid het Urija toe beveel: Bly vandag nog hier! Môre stuur ek jou terug. Urija het daardie dag en die dag daarna in Jerusalem vertoef. 13Toe het Dawid hom geroep en saam met hom geëet en gedrink. Hy het hom selfs dronk gemaak. Maar die aand het Urija uitgegaan om op sy gewone plek saam met die slawe van die koning te gaan slaap. Hy het nie huis toe gegaan nie. 14Die volgende oggend het Dawid 'n brief aan Joab geskryf en saam met Urija gestuur. 15In dié brief het hy geskryf: Gee tog aan Urija 'n plek op die voorpunt waar die geveg kwaai is. Val dan terug sodat hy in die slag kan bly en sneuwel. 16Terwyl Joab die stad beleër, het hy Urija op 'n plek gesit waar hy geweet het daar is dapper teenstanders. 17Die burgers van die stad het uitgekom en teen Joab geveg. Daar het van Dawid se soldate gesneuwel, en Urija die Hetiet het ook omgekom. 18Joab het Dawid laat inlig oor die verloop van die geveg. 19Hy het die boodskapper beveel: As jy vir die koning die verloop van die geveg klaar vertel het 20en net as hy begin kwaad word en jou vra: Waarom het julle so naby die stad gaan veg? Het julle nie gedink aan die mense wat bo van die muur af skiet nie? [21]Wie het vir Abimelek seun van Jerubbeset doodgemaak? Is dit nie 'n vrou wat 'n maalklip bo van die muur af op hom gegooi het, sodat hy in Tebes gesterf het nie? Waarom het julle so naby die muur gekom?' dan moet jy sê: Ook u manskap Urija die Hetiet het gesneuwel. [22]Die boodskapper het vir Dawid alles gaan vertel wat Joab hom beveel het. [23]Hy het vir Dawid gesê: Die vyand het dapper teen ons geveg. Hulle het tot in die oop veld na ons toe uitgekom en toe ons hulle tot by die stadspoort terugdruk, [24]het die boogskutters bo van die muur af u manskappe begin raakskiet. So het party van die koning se soldate gesneuwel, en ook Urija die Hetiet het so gesterf. [25]Dawid het die boodskapper beveel: Sê vir Joab: Jy moet jou dit nie te veel aantrek nie. Dit gebeur nou maar eenmaal so dat mense sneuwel. Veg dapper in jou stryd teen die stad en verwoes dit.' En praat hom moed in. [26]Urija se vrou het gehoor dat haar man dood is en sy het oor hom getreur. [27]Toe die routyd oor was, het Dawid haar na sy huis toe laat haal. Sy het sy vrou geword en vir hom 'n seun in die wêreld gebring. Maar wat Dawid gedoen het, was verkeerd in die oë van die Here.

Nathan Rebukes David

2Sa 12:1 The LORD sent the prophet Nathan to David. Nathan went to him and said, "There were two men who lived in the same town; one was rich and the other poor.

2Sa 12:2 The rich man had many cattle and sheep,

2Sa 12:3 while the poor man had only one lamb, which he had bought. He took care of it, and it grew up in his home with his children. He would feed it some of his own food, let it drink from his cup, and hold it in his lap. The lamb was like a daughter to him.

2Sa 12:4 One day a visitor arrived at the rich man's home. The rich man didn't want to kill one of his own animals to fix a meal for him; instead, he took the poor man's lamb and prepared a meal for his guest."

2Sa 12:5 David became very angry at the rich man and said, "I swear by the living LORD that the man who did this ought to die!

2Sa 12:6 For having done such a cruel thing, he must pay back four times as much as he took."

2Sa 12:7 "You are that man," Nathan said to David. "And this is what the LORD God of Israel says: 'I made you king of Israel and rescued you from Saul.

2Sa 12:8 I gave you his kingdom and his wives; I made you king over Israel and Judah. If this had not been enough, I would have given you twice as much.

2Sa 12:9 Why, then, have you disobeyed my commands? Why did you do this evil thing? You had Uriah killed in battle; you let the Ammonites kill him, and then you took his wife!

2Sa 12:10 Now, in every generation some of your descendants will die a violent death because you have disobeyed me and have taken Uriah's wife.

2Sa 12:11 I swear to you that I will cause someone from your own family to bring trouble on you. You will see it when I take your wives from you and give them to another man; and he will have intercourse with them in broad daylight.

2Sa 12:12 You sinned in secret, but I will make this happen in broad daylight for all Israel to see.' "

2Sa 12:13 "I have sinned against the LORD," David said. Nathan replied, "The LORD forgives you; you will not die.

2Sa 12:14 But because you have shown such contempt for the LORD in doing this, your child will die."

David's Child Dies

2Sa 12:15 Then Nathan went home. The LORD caused the child that Uriah's wife had borne to David to become very sick.

2Sa 12:16 David prayed to God that the child would get well. He refused to eat anything, and every night he went into his room and spent the night lying on the floor.

2Sa 12:17 His court officials went to him and tried to make him get up, but he refused and would not eat anything with them.

2Sa 12:18 A week later the child died, and David's officials were afraid to tell him the news. They said, "While the child was living, David wouldn't answer us when we spoke to him. How can we tell him that his child is dead? He might do himself some harm!"

2Sa 12:19 When David noticed them whispering to each other, he realized that the child had died. So he asked them, "Is the child dead?" "Yes, he is," they answered.

2Sa 12:20 David got up from the floor, took a bath, combed his hair, and changed his clothes. Then he went and worshiped in the house of the LORD. When he returned to the palace, he asked for food and ate it as soon as it was served.

2Sa 12:21 "We don't understand this," his officials said to him. "While the child was alive, you wept for him and would not eat; but as soon as he died, you got up and ate!"

2Sa 12:22 "Yes," David answered, "I did fast and weep while he was still alive. I thought that the LORD might be merciful to me and not let the child die.

2Sa 12:23 But now that he is dead, why should I fast? Could I bring the child back to life? I will some day go to where he is, but he can never come back to me."

Solomon's Birth

2Sa 12:24 Then David comforted his wife Bathsheba. He had intercourse with her, and she bore a son, whom David named Solomon. The LORD loved the boy 2Sa 12:25 and commanded the prophet Nathan to name the boy Jedidiah, because the LORD loved him.

Rabbah Is Captured

2Sa 12:26 Meanwhile Joab continued his campaign against Rabbah, the capital city of Ammon, and was about to capture it.

2Sa 12:27 He sent messengers to David to report: "I have attacked Rabbah and have captured its water supply.

2Sa 12:28 Now gather the rest of your forces, attack the city and take it yourself. I don't want to get the credit for capturing it."

2Sa 12:29 So David gathered his forces, went to Rabbah, attacked it, and conquered it.

2Sa 12:30 From the head of the idol of the Ammonite god Molech David took a gold crown which weighed about seventy-five pounds and had a jewel in it. David took the jewel and put it in his own crown. He also took a large amount of loot from the city

2Sa 12:31 and put its people to work with saws, iron hoes, and iron axes, and forced them to work at making bricks. He did the same to the people of all the other towns of Ammon. Then he and his men returned to Jerusalem.

II SAMUEL 12

1Daarna het die Here vir Natan na Dawid toe gestuur. Natan het by hom gekom en gesê: Daar was twee mans in dieselfde plek. Die een was ryk en die ander arm. 2Die ryke het groot troppe kleinvee en beeste gehad. 3Behalwe een ou ooilammetjie het die arm man niks besit nie. Hy het haar aan die lewe gehou, en sy het saam met sy kinders grootgeword. Sy het van sy krummeltjies geëet, uit sy beker gedrink en op sy skoot geslaap. Ja, sy was vir hom soos 'n eie dogter. 4Daar het 'n besoeker by die ryk man gekom en hy kon dit nie oor sy hart kry om van sy eie kleinvee of beeste te vat en vir die reisiger te slag nie. Toe vat hy die ooilam van die arm man en slag haar vir sy gas. 5Dawid het hom bloedig vererg oor die man en vir Natan gesê: So seker as die Here leef, 'n man wat dit oor sy hart kon kry om so iets te doen, moet doodgemaak word, en hy moet viervoudig vir die ooilam vergoed. 6Jy is die man! sê Natan toe vir Dawid. So sê die Here die God van Israel: Ek het jou tot koning van Israel gesalf. Ek het jou teen Saul beskerm. 7Ek het aan jou die koningskap van Saul gegee en boonop nog sy vrouens ook. Ek het die koningskap oor Israel en Juda aan jou gegee. En as dit nog te min was, sou Ek enigiets daar wou bygee. 8Waarom het jy nou die woord van die Here geminag deur so 'n verkeerde ding te doen? Jy het Urija die Hetiet met die swaard doodgemaak en toe sy vrou vir jou gevat. Ja, jy het hom vermoor met die swaard van die Ammoniete. 9Daarom sal die swaard nou nooit meer uit jou huis weggaan nie, want jy het My geminag toe jy Urija die Hetiet se vrou vir jou gevat het. 10So sê die Here: Van nou af gaan Ek uit jou eie huis ellende oor jou bring. Ek sal jou vrouens voor jou oë vat en aan iemand anders gee. Hy sal by jou vrouens slaap oop en bloot, 11want jy het 'n ding in die geheim gedoen, maar Ek sal alles oop en bloot voor die hele Israel doen. 12Toe sê Dawid vir Natan: Ek het gesondig teen die Here. En Natan sê vir hom: Die Here het jou sonde vergewe: jy sal nie nou sterwe nie. 13Maar omdat jy deur hierdie daad die vyande van die Here aanleiding gegee het om Hom te laster, sal hierdie selfde kind wat vir jou gebore is, sterwe. 14Natan het huis toe gegaan, en die Here het die kind wat Urija se vrou vir Dawid in die wêreld gebring het, getref. Die kind het ernstig siek geword. 15Dawid het tot God gebid vir die kind. Hy het hom verootmoedig deur aanhoudend te vas, hom terug te trek en op die grond te lê. 16Die hoofde van sy huishouding het hom probeer oorreed om van die grond af op te staan, maar hy wou nie. Hy het nie saam met hulle aan tafel verskyn nie. 17Op die sewende dag het die kind gesterwe, en Dawid se amptenare was bang om hom te vertel dat die kind dood is. Hulle het gesê: En nou? Toe die kind nog gelewe het, het ons met die koning gepraat, en hy het nie na ons geluister nie. Hoe kan ons nou vir hom sê die kind is dood? Hy sal 'n onbesonne ding aanvang. 18Dawid het agtergekom dat sy amptenare onder mekaar fluister en hy het afgelei dat die kind dood is. Is die kind dood? het hy gevra. Hy is dood, was hulle antwoord. 19Toe het Dawid van die grond af opgestaan. Hy het gaan was, reukolie aangesmeer, aangetrek en na die heiligdom toe gegaan om te aanbid. Hierna is hy huis toe en het hy kos gevra. Hulle het hom 'n ete voorgesit en hy het geëet. 20Sy amptenare vra hom toe: Wat doen u nou? Toe die kind nog gelewe het, het u gevas en gehuil. Nou dat die kind dood is, staan u op en u eet? 21Sy antwoord was: Terwyl die kind nog gelewe het, het ek gevas en gehuil, want ek het gedink: wie weet, dalk is die Here my genadig, en dan sal die kind lewe. 22Maar nou is hy dood. Waarom moet ek nog vas? Kan ek hom na my toe laat terugkom? Ek gaan na hom toe; hy kan nie na my toe terugkom nie. 23Daarna het Dawid sy vrou Batseba getroos. Hy het by haar slaapkamer ingegaan en by haar geslaap. Sy het 'n seun in die wêreld gebring, en Dawid het hom Salomo genoem. Die Here het hom liefgehad 24en het hom deur die profeet Natan Jedidja laat noem, wat beteken: die Here het hom lief. 25Joab het Rabba, die hoofstad van die Ammoniete, aangeval. Nadat hy die koninklike woonbuurt beset het, 26het hy 'n boodskap na Dawid toe gestuur: Ek het Rabba aangeval en ek het reeds die ommuurde waterbron verower. 27Roep tog nou die res van die burgers op en kom beleër die stad. Neem ú dit in sodat ek nie self die stad verower en dit dus my eiendom word nie. 28Dawid het al die burgers opgeroep en teen Rabba gaan veg en dit ingeneem. 29Hy het die kroon van hulle koning se kop afgehaal. Die kroon was van goud, sowat vier en dertig kilogram, en het 'n kosbare steen bevat. Dit het nou op Dawid se kop gekom, en hy het ook 'n groot buit uit Rabba saamgevat. 30Hy het die burgers van Rabba weggevoer en hulle aan die werk gesit met saag, ysterbeitel en byl; party het hy by die steenoonde laat werk. So het hy teenoor al die Ammonitiese stede opgetree. Daarna het hy en al die burgers na Jerusalem toe teruggegaan.

Amnon and Tamar

2Sa 13:1 David's son Absalom had a beautiful unmarried sister named Tamar. Amnon, another of David's sons, fell in love with her.

2Sa 13:2 He was so much in love with her that he became sick, because it seemed impossible for him to have her; as a virgin, she was kept from meeting men.

2Sa 13:3 But he had a friend, a very shrewd man named Jonadab, the son of David's brother Shammah.

2Sa 13:4 Jonadab said to Amnon, "You are the king's son, yet day after day I see you looking sad. What's the matter?" "I'm in love with Tamar, the sister of my half brother Absalom," he answered.

2Sa 13:5 Jonadab said to him, "Pretend that you are sick and go to bed. When your father comes to see you, say to him, 'Please ask my sister Tamar to come and feed me. I want her to fix the food here where I can see her, and then serve it to me herself.' "

2Sa 13:6 So Amnon pretended that he was sick and went to bed. King David went to see him, and Amnon said to him, "Please let Tamar come and make a few cakes here where I can see her, and then serve them to me herself."

2Sa 13:7 So David sent word to Tamar in the palace: "Go to Amnon's house and fix him some food."

2Sa 13:8 She went there and found him in bed. She took some dough, prepared it, and made some cakes there where he could see her. Then she baked the cakes

2Sa 13:9 and emptied them out of the pan for him to eat, but he wouldn't. He said, "Send everyone away"—and they all left.

2Sa 13:10 Then he said to her, "Bring the cakes here to my bed and serve them to me yourself." She took the cakes and went over to him.

2Sa 13:11 As she offered them to him, he grabbed her and said, "Come to bed with me!"

2Sa 13:12 "No," she said. "Don't force me to do such a degrading thing! That's awful!

2Sa 13:13 How could I ever hold up my head in public again? And you—you would be completely disgraced in Israel. Please, speak to the king, and I'm sure that he will give me to you."

2Sa 13:14 But he would not listen to her; and since he was stronger than she was, he overpowered her and raped her.

2Sa 13:15 Then Amnon was filled with a deep hatred for her; he hated her now even more than he had loved her before. He said to her, "Get out!"

2Sa 13:16 "No," she answered. "To send me away like this is a greater crime than what you just did!" But Amnon would not listen to her;

2Sa 13:17 he called in his personal servant and said, "Get this woman out of my sight! Throw her out and lock the door!"

2Sa 13:18 The servant put her out and locked the door. Tamar was wearing a long robe with full sleeves, the usual clothing for an unmarried princess in those days.

2Sa 13:19 She sprinkled ashes on her head, tore her robe, and with her face buried in her hands went away crying.

2Sa 13:20 When her brother Absalom saw her, he asked, "Has Amnon molested you? Please, sister, don't let it upset you so much. He is your half brother, so don't tell anyone about it." So Tamar lived in Absalom's house, sad and lonely.

2Sa 13:21 When King David heard what had happened, he was furious.

2Sa 13:22 And Absalom hated Amnon so much for having raped his sister Tamar that he would no longer even speak to him.

Absalom Murders Amnon

2Sa 13:23 Two years later Absalom was having his sheep sheared at Baal Hazor, near the town of Ephraim, and he invited all the king's sons to be there.

2Sa 13:24 He went to King David and said, "Your Majesty, I am having my sheep sheared. Will you and your officials come and take part in the festivities?"

2Sa 13:25 "No, my son," the king answered. "It would be too much trouble for you if we all went." Absalom insisted, but the king would not give in, and he asked Absalom to leave.

2Sa 13:26 But Absalom said, "Well, then, will you at least let my brother Amnon come?" "Why should he?" the king asked.

2Sa 13:27 But Absalom kept on insisting until David finally let Amnon and all his other sons go with Absalom. Absalom prepared a banquet fit for a king

2Sa 13:28 and instructed his servants: "Notice when Amnon has had too much to drink, and then when I give the order, kill him. Don't be afraid. I will take the responsibility myself. Be brave and don't hesitate!"

2Sa 13:29 So the servants followed Absalom's instructions and killed Amnon. All the rest of David's sons mounted their mules and fled.

2Sa 13:30 While they were on their way home, David was told: "Absalom has killed all your sons—not one of them is left!"

2Sa 13:31 The king stood up, tore his clothes in sorrow, and threw himself to the ground. The servants who were there with him tore their clothes also.

2Sa 13:32 But Jonadab, the son of David's brother Shammah, said, "Your Majesty, they haven't killed all your sons. Only Amnon is dead. You could tell by looking at Absalom that he had made up his mind to do this from the time that Amnon raped his sister Tamar.

2Sa 13:33 So don't believe the news that all your sons are dead; only Amnon was killed."

Absalom Flees to Geshur

2Sa 13:34 In the meantime Absalom had fled. Just then the soldier on sentry duty saw a large crowd coming down the hill on the road from Horonaim. He went to the king and reported what he had seen.

2Sa 13:35 Jonadab said to David, "Those are your sons coming, just as I said they would."

2Sa 13:36 As soon as he finished saying this, David's sons came in; they started crying, and David and his officials also cried bitterly.

2Sa 13:37 (37-38) Absalom fled and went to the king of Geshur, Talmai son of Ammihud, and stayed there three years. David mourned a long time for his son Amnon;

2Sa 13:39 but when he got over Amnon's death, he was filled with longing for his son Absalom.

II SAMUEL 13

1Toe het daar 'n ding gebeur. Dawid se seun Absalom het 'n mooi suster gehad met die naam Tamar. Amnon, 'n ander seun van Dawid, het op haar verlief geraak. 2Hy was siek van begeerte na sy suster Tamar, want sy was nog 'n maagd en dit was vir hom onmoontlik om by haar te kom en iets aan haar te doen. 3Amnon het 'n vriend gehad. Sy naam was Jonadab, 'n seun van Dawid se broer Samma, en hy was 'n vindingryke man. 4Waarom lyk jy wat 'n koningskind is, dag vir dag so bedruk? het hy vir Amnon gevra. Vertel my! Dis Tamar, my broer Absalom se suster, was sy antwoord. Ek is verlief op haar. 5Jonadab het hom toe aangeraai: Gaan lê op jou bed en maak of jy siek is. As jou pa dan kom kyk hoe dit gaan, moet jy vir hom sê: Laat my suster Tamar tog vir my iets te ete bring. Laat sy die ete hier by my kom voorberei dat ek dit kan sien, want ek wil uit haar eie hande eet. 6Amnon het gaan lê en hom siek gehou. Toe die koning kom kyk hoe dit gaan, het Amnon vir hom gevra: Laat my suster Tamar tog asseblief vir my twee hartvormige broodjies hier voor my kom bak sodat ek dit uit haar hande kan eet. 7Dawid het 'n boodskap na Tamar by haar woonplek gestuur: Kom tog na jou broer Amnon se woonplek toe en berei vir hom 'n ete voor. 8Tamar het na haar broer se huis toe gekom terwyl hy op sy bed gelê het. Sy het deeg gevat en geknie en die broodjies voorberei en gebak waar hy dit kon sien. 9Maar toe sy die pan neem en dit vir hom neersit, het Amnon geweier om te eet. Hy het beveel: Gaan julle ander almal weg hier van my af. Toe hulle weg is, 10het Amnon vir Tamar gesê: Bring jy die kos hier na die kamer toe sodat ek dit uit jou hand kan eet. Tamar het die broodjies wat sy gereed gemaak het, na haar broer in die kamer gebring. 11Net toe sy naby hom kom om hom te laat eet, gryp hy haar vas en sê vir haar: My suster, kom lê hier by my. 12Nee, my broer, sê sy vir hom, moet my nie onteer nie, want so iets word nie in Israel gedoen nie. Moet nou nie 'n dwaas ding doen nie. 13Hoe sal ek my skande kan wegsteek? En jý sal in die oë van Israel 'n dwaas wees. Praat liewer met die koning, want hy sal ons toelaat om te trou. 14Amnon wou nie na haar luister nie. Hy het haar gepak en verkrag. 15Maar daarna het hy haar verag; hy het 'n groot afsku in haar gekry, en sy afsku was baie groter as sy verliefdheid. Hy het toe vir haar gesê: Loop! 16Maar sy sê vir hom: Moenie die skande wat jy my aangedoen het, vererger deur my weg te jaag nie. Hy wou nie na haar luister nie 17en beveel toe sy slaaf wat hom bedien: Smyt hierdie vroumens uit en sluit die deur agter haar! 18Volgens die gebruik van koningsdogters wat nog maagde was, het sy 'n lang mantel met moue aangehad. Nadat die slaaf haar uitgesit en die deur gesluit het, 19het Tamar stof op haar kop gegooi. Sy het haar lang mantel geskeur, haar hand op haar kop gesit en sover sy loop, het sy geskreeu. 20Haar broer Absalom het toe vir haar gesê: Was jou broer Amnon by jou? Toe maar, my suster, bly nou maar stil. Hy is jou broer. Moet jou nie hieroor verknies nie. Tamar het toe in haar broer Absalom se huis gaan bly en sy was 'n wrak. 21Koning Dawid het van alles gehoor en hy was woedend. 22Absalom het nie 'n enkele woord met Amnon gepraat nie, maar hy het hom gehaat omdat hy sy suster Tamar onteer het. 23Twee jaar later was Absalom besig om sy skape te laat skeer in Baäl-Gasor in Efraim. Hy het al die seuns van die koning uitgenooi. 24Hy het naamlik na die koning toe gegaan en gesê: Ekskuus tog, ek gaan my skape skeer. Wil die koning en sy paleispersoneel nie miskien na my toe kom nie? 25Nee, my seun, beslis nie, was die koning se antwoord. Ons kan nie almal gaan en vir jou 'n oorlas wees nie. Ten spyte van sy aandrang wou die koning nie gaan nie, maar tog het hy hom voorspoed toegewens. 26Absalom vra hom toe: Kan my broer Amnon dan nie maar saamgaan nie? Waarom juis hy? vra die koning. 27Absalom het by hom daarop aangedring, en die koning het Amnon en al die koningseuns laat gaan. 28Absalom het sy lyfwagte beveel: Julle moet oplet: net as Amnon lekker jolig raak van die wyn, sal ek vir julle die teken gee. Slaan hom dood. Moenie bang wees nie: ek gee mos self die bevel. Pak hom. Moenie weifel nie. 29Die lyfwagte van Absalom het met Amnon gemaak soos hulle beveel is. Toe het al die ander koningseuns elkeen op sy muil gespring en gevlug. 30Terwyl hulle nog op pad terug was, het die volgende gerug Dawid bereik: Absalom het al die koningseuns doodgemaak. Daar het nie 'n enkele oorgebly nie. 31Die koning het van sy troon afgeklim, sy klere geskeur en op die grond gaan lê. Al sy onderdane het ook hulle klere geskeur en by hom kom staan. 32Maar Jonadab seun van Dawid se broer Samma het gesê: U moet tog nie dink hulle het al die jongmanne, die koning se seuns, doodgemaak nie. Net Amnon is dood. Waarlik, daar was moord in Absalom se oë vandat Amnon sy suster Tamar onteer het. 33Die koning moet nou nie die gerug dat al sy seuns dood is, ernstig opneem nie: net Amnon is dood. 34Absalom het weggevlug. Terwyl 'n paleiswag uitkyk, sien hy meteens 'n groot klomp mense uit die rigting van die bergskuiling aankom. 35Kyk daar kom die koning se seuns, het Jonadab vir die koning gesê. Dit is net soos ek gesê het. 36Net na hierdie woorde het die koningseuns ingekom. Hulle het hardop begin huil, en die koning en al sy dienaars het bitterlik saamgehuil. 37Absalom het na koning Talmai van Gesur, seun van Ammigur toe gevlug, maar koning Dawid het die hele tyd net oor sy seun Amnon getreur. 38Absalom het na sy vlug drie jaar in Gesur gebly. 39Omdat koning Dawid hom met die dood van Amnon versoen het, het hy nie teen Absalom gaan oorlog maak nie.

Absalom Returns to Jerusalem

2Sa 14:1 Joab knew that King David missed Absalom very much,

2Sa 14:2 so he sent for a clever woman who lived in Tekoa. When she arrived, he said to her, "Pretend that you are in mourning; put on your mourning clothes, and don't comb your hair. Act like a woman who has been in mourning for a long time.

2Sa 14:3 Then go to the king and say to him what I tell you to say." Then Joab told her what to say.

2Sa 14:4 The woman went to the king, bowed down to the ground in respect, and said, "Help me, Your Majesty!"

2Sa 14:5 "What do you want?" he asked her. "I am a poor widow, sir," she answered. "My husband is dead.

2Sa 14:6 Sir, I had two sons, and one day they got into a quarrel out in the fields, where there was no one to separate them, and one of them killed the other.

2Sa 14:7 And now, sir, all my relatives have turned against me and are demanding that I hand my son over to them, so that they can kill him for murdering his brother. If they do this, I will be left without a son. They will destroy my last hope and leave my husband without a son to keep his name alive."

2Sa 14:8 "Go back home," the king answered, "and I will take care of the matter."

2Sa 14:9 "Your Majesty," she said, "whatever you do, my family and I will take the blame; you and the royal family are innocent."

2Sa 14:10 The king replied, "If anyone threatens you, bring him to me, and he will never bother you again."

2Sa 14:11 She said, "Your Majesty, please pray to the LORD your God, so that my relative who is responsible for avenging the death of my son will not commit a greater crime by killing my other son." "I promise by the living LORD," David replied, "that your son will not be harmed in the least."

2Sa 14:12 "Please, Your Majesty, let me say just one more thing," the woman said. "All right," he answered.

2Sa 14:13 She said to him, "Why have you done such a wrong to God's people? You have not allowed your own son to return from exile, and so you have condemned yourself by what you have just said.

2Sa 14:14 We will all die; we are like water spilled on the ground, which can't be gathered again. Even God does not bring the dead back to life, but the king can at least find a way to bring a man back from exile.

2Sa 14:15 Now, Your Majesty, the reason I have come to speak to you is that the people threatened me, and so I said to myself that I would speak to you in the hope that you would do what I ask.

2Sa 14:16 I thought you would listen to me and save me from the one who is trying to kill my son and me and so remove us from the land God gave his people.

2Sa 14:17 I said to myself that your promise, sir, would make me safe, because the king is like God's angel and can distinguish good from evil. May the LORD your God be with you!"

2Sa 14:18 The king answered, "I'm going to ask you a question, and you must tell me the whole truth." "Ask me anything, Your Majesty," she answered.

2Sa 14:19 "Did Joab put you up to this?" he asked her. She answered, "I swear by all that is sacred, Your Majesty, that there is no way to avoid answering your question. It was indeed your officer Joab who told me what to do and what to say.

2Sa 14:20 But he did it in order to straighten out this whole matter. Your Majesty is as wise as the angel of God and knows everything that happens."

2Sa 14:21 Later on the king said to Joab, "I have decided to do what you want. Go and get the young man Absalom and bring him back here."

2Sa 14:22 Joab threw himself to the ground in front of David in respect, and said, "God bless you, Your Majesty! Now I know that you are pleased with me, because you have granted my request."

2Sa 14:23 Then he got up and went to Geshur and brought Absalom back to Jerusalem.

2Sa 14:24 The king, however, gave orders that Absalom should not live in the palace. "I don't want to see him," the king said. So Absalom lived in his own house and did not appear before the king.

2Sa 14:25 There was no one in Israel as famous for his good looks as Absalom; he had no defect from head to toe.

2Sa 14:26 His hair was very thick, and he had to cut it once a year, when it grew too long and heavy. It would weigh about five pounds according to the royal standard of weights.

2Sa 14:27 Absalom had three sons and one daughter named Tamar, a very beautiful woman.

2Sa 14:28 Absalom lived two years in Jerusalem without seeing the king.

2Sa 14:29 Then he sent for Joab, to ask him to go to the king for him; but Joab would not come. Again Absalom sent for him, and again Joab refused to come.

2Sa 14:30 So Absalom said to his servants, "Look, Joab's field is next to mine, and it has barley growing in it. Go and set fire to it." So they went and set the field on fire.

2Sa 14:31 Joab went to Absalom's house and demanded, "Why did your servants set fire to my field?"

2Sa 14:32 Absalom answered, "Because you wouldn't come when I sent for you. I wanted you to go to the king and ask for me: 'Why did I leave Geshur and come here? It would have been better for me to have stayed there.' " And Absalom went on, "I want you to arrange for me to see the king, and if I'm guilty, then let him put me to death."

2Sa 14:33 So Joab went to King David and told him what Absalom had said. The king sent for Absalom, who went to him and bowed down to the ground in front of him. The king welcomed him with a kiss.

1Joab seun van Seruja het agtergekom dat die koning na Absalom verlang. 2Toe ontbied hy 'n slim vrou van Tekoa af en sê vir haar: Jy moet baie hartseer lyk. Trek rouklere aan en moenie skoonheidsmiddels gebruik nie. Gedra jou soos 'n vrou wat al lank rou oor iemand wat dood is. 3Gaan na die koning toe en praat met hom soos ek vir jou sê. Hy het haar toe voorgesê wat om te sê. 4Die vrou van Tekoa het toe 'n onderhoud met die koning gehad. Sy het voor hom op haar knieë geval en gebuig. Help my tog, U Majesteit, het sy gesmeek. 5Wat makeer? wou die koning weet. Ag, ek is 'n arme weduwee; my man is dood, het sy gesug. 6Ek het twee seuns. Die twee het in die veld gebaklei, en daar was niemand om hulle uitmekaar te maak nie. Toe slaan die een die ander dood. 7En om dit nog erger te maak, is die hele familie nou teen my. Hulle eis: Gee die kind wat sy broer doodgeslaan het. Ons wil hom doodmaak omdat hy sy broer doodgeslaan het. Al is hy die enigste erfgenaam, wil ons hom om die lewe bring.' Hulle wil die enigste hoop wat vir my oor is, uitwis. Hy sal dus nie die familienaam kan voortsit nie, en daar sal niks van my man op die aarde oorbly nie. 8Gaan maar huis toe, sê die koning vir haar. Ek sal self jou saak behartig. 9Maar die vrou sê: U Majesteit, dit is ek en my gesin wat by hierdie saak betrokke is, nie u en u troon nie. 10Toe antwoord die koning: As iemand net weer hieroor met jou praat, moet jy hom na my toe bring, en hy sal jou nie weer lastig val nie. 11Maar die vrou sê: Sal die koning tog nie in die Naam van die Here u God onder eed verklaar dat die mense wat my seun moet straf, nie te ver sal gaan en hom doodmaak nie? Hulle moet hom tog nie om die lewe bring nie. Toe sê die koning: Ek verklaar voor die Here: Daar sal nie 'n haar van jou seun op die grond val nie. 12Mag ek miskien net nog 'n enkele woord tot die koning rig? vra die vrou. Praat maar, het die koning geantwoord. 13Toe sê die vrou: Waarom pleeg u dan 'n onreg teen die volk van God? Terwyl u hierdie uitspraak gelewer het, het u uself skuldig verklaar, omdat u weier om u verjaagde seun te laat terugkom. 14Ons sal almal sterf en soos water wees wat op die grond uitgegooi is en nie weer bymekaargemaak kan word nie. God wil geen lewe neem nie, Hy berei 'n weg om die voortvlugtige nie te verstoot nie. 15Ek het nou hierdie saak met die koning kom bespreek omdat die mense my bang gemaak het. Ek het gedink ek wil met die koning praat. Miskien doen die koning iets aan my saak. 16Die koning sal beslis luister en my red uit die hand van dié mense wat my en my seun wil uitroei uit die volk van God. 17Verder het ek gedink miskien sal die uitspraak van die koning 'n gerusstelling wees, want u is soos 'n engel van God wat na alles luister. Mag die Here u God met u wees.

[18]Die koning het vir die vrou gesê: Jy moet asseblief niks vir my wegsteek van wat ek jou nou gaan vra nie. Sy antwoord toe: Die koning kan maar praat. [19]Toe vra die koning: Sit Joab nie agter hierdie ding nie? Die vrou antwoord: Ja-nee, U Majesteit, niemand kan u om die bos lei nie. Dit ís so Joab wat in u diens staan, het my dié opdrag gegee. Hy het my haarfyn vertel wat om te sê. [20]Joab het dit gedoen om 'n verandering in die loop van sake te bring. Maar u praat byna met die wysheid van 'n engel van God: u weet werklik alles. [21]Daarna het die koning vir Joab gesê: Ek het nou eenmaal in die strik getrap. Gaan haal nou maar my seun Absalom. [22]Joab het voor die koning op sy knieë geval en gebuig. Hy het die koning geprys met die woorde: Vandag weet ek dat u my goedgesind is, want u het gedoen wat ek gevra het. [23]Hy het toe opgestaan, na Gesur toe gegaan en vir Absalom na Jerusalem toe gebring. [24]Maar die koning het beveel: Laat hom na sy eie huis toe gaan. Vir my mag hy nie sien nie. Daarom is Absalom huis toe sonder om die koning te sien. [25]In die hele Israel was daar niemand so mooi soos Absalom nie. Die mense het oral daaroor gepraat. Van kop tot tone het hy nie 'n enkele gebrek gehad nie. [26]Teen die einde van die jaar het hy gewoonlik sy hare geskeer, want dit het te swaar geword. Volgens koninklike skaal het sy afgeskeerde hare meer as twee kilogram geweeg. [27]Absalom het drie seuns en 'n dogter gehad. Die dogter se naam was Tamar, en sy was 'n baie mooi meisie. [28]Hy was al twee jaar in Jerusalem terug sonder dat hy die koning gesien het. [29]Toe laat Absalom vir Joab roep om hom na die koning toe te stuur, maar Joab wou nie kom nie. Hy het hom 'n tweede keer laat roep, maar hy het weer geweier om te kom. [30]Absalom sê toe vir sy slawe: Kyk, Joab het 'n stuk land net hier langs my. Hy het gars daarop. Gaan steek dit aan die brand. Die slawe van Absalom het toe so gemaak. [31]Toe het Joab gou na Absalom se huis toe gekom. En waarom steek jou slawe my stuk land aan die brand? vra Joab vir hom. [32]Hy het geantwoord: Man, kyk, ek het jou laat weet: Kom hiernatoe; ek wil jou na die koning toe stuur om te vra waarom ek uit Gesur gekom het.' Dit sou vir my beter gewees het as ek nog daar was. Ek wil nou met die koning praat. As ek skuldig is, laat hy my dan doodmaak. [33]Joab het dit aan die koning gaan meedeel. Toe laat roep die koning vir Absalom, en hy het gekom. Hy het diep voor die koning gebuig, en die koning het hom gesoen.

Absalom's Conspiracy

2Sa 15:1 After this, Absalom provided a chariot and horses for himself, and an escort of fifty men.

2Sa 15:2 He would get up early and go and stand by the road at the city gate. Whenever someone came there with a dispute that he wanted the king to settle, Absalom would call him over and ask him where he was from. And after the man had told him what tribe he was from,

2Sa 15:3 Absalom would say, "Look, the law is on your side, but there is no representative of the king to hear your case."

2Sa 15:4 And he would add, "How I wish I were a judge! Then anyone who had a dispute or a claim could come to me, and I would give him justice."

2Sa 15:5 When the man would approach Absalom to bow down before him, Absalom would reach out, take hold of him, and kiss him.

2Sa 15:6 Absalom did this with every Israelite who came to the king for judgment, and so he won their loyalty.

2Sa 15:7 After four years Absalom said to King David, "Sir, let me go to Hebron and keep a promise I made to the LORD.

2Sa 15:8 While I was living in Geshur in Syria, I promised the LORD that if he would take me back to Jerusalem, I would worship him in Hebron."

2Sa 15:9 "Go in peace," the king said. So Absalom went to Hebron.

2Sa 15:10 But he sent messengers to all the tribes of Israel to say, "When you hear the sound of trumpets, shout, 'Absalom has become king at Hebron!' "

2Sa 15:11 There were two hundred men who at Absalom's invitation had gone from Jerusalem with him; they knew nothing of the plot and went in all good faith.

2Sa 15:12 And while he was offering sacrifices, Absalom also sent to the town of Gilo for Ahithophel, who was one of King David's advisers. The plot against the king gained strength, and Absalom's followers grew in number.

David Flees Jerusalem

2Sa 15:13 A messenger reported to David, "The Israelites are pledging their loyalty to Absalom."

2Sa 15:14 So David said to all his officials who were with him in Jerusalem, "We must get away at once if we want to escape from Absalom! Hurry! Or else he will soon be here and defeat us and kill everyone in the city!"

2Sa 15:15 "Yes, Your Majesty," they answered. "We are ready to do whatever you say."

2Sa 15:16 So the king left, accompanied by all his family and officials, except for ten concubines, whom he left behind to take care of the palace.

2Sa 15:17 As the king and all his men were leaving the city, they stopped at the last house.

2Sa 15:18 All his officials stood next to him as the royal bodyguards passed by in front of him. The six hundred soldiers who had followed him from Gath also passed by,

2Sa 15:19 and the king said to Ittai, their leader, "Why are you going with us? Go back and stay with the new king. You are a foreigner, a refugee away from your own country.

2Sa 15:20 You have lived here only a short time, so why should I make you wander around with me? I don't even know where I'm going. Go back and take all your people with you—and may the LORD be kind and faithful to you."

2Sa 15:21 But Ittai answered, "Your Majesty, I swear to you in the LORD's name that I will always go with you wherever you go, even if it means death."

2Sa 15:22 "Fine!" David answered. "March on!" So Ittai went on with all his men and their dependents.

2Sa 15:23 The people cried loudly as David's followers left. The king crossed Kidron Brook, followed by his men, and together they went out toward the wilderness.

2Sa 15:24 Zadok the priest was there, and with him were the Levites, carrying the sacred Covenant Box. They set it down and didn't pick it up again until all the people had left the city. The priest Abiathar was there too.

2Sa 15:25 Then the king said to Zadok, "Take the Covenant Box back to the city. If the LORD is pleased with me, some day he will let me come back to see it and the place where it stays.

2Sa 15:26 But if he isn't pleased with me—well, then, let him do to me what he wishes."

2Sa 15:27 And he went on to say to Zadok, "Look, take your son Ahimaaz and Abiathar's son Jonathan and go back to the city in peace.

2Sa 15:28 Meanwhile, I will wait at the river crossings in the wilderness until I receive news from you."

2Sa 15:29 So Zadok and Abiathar took the Covenant Box back into Jerusalem and stayed there.

2Sa 15:30 David went on up the Mount of Olives crying; he was barefoot and had his head covered as a sign of grief. All who followed him covered their heads and cried also.

2Sa 15:31 When David was told that Ahithophel had joined Absalom's rebellion, he prayed, "Please, LORD, turn Ahithophel's advice into nonsense!"

2Sa 15:32 When David reached the top of the hill, where there was a place of worship, his trusted friend Hushai the Archite met him with his clothes torn and with dirt on his head.

2Sa 15:33 David said to him, "You will be of no help to me if you come with me, 2Sa 15:34 but you can help me by returning to the city and telling Absalom that you will now serve him as faithfully as you served his father. And do all you can to oppose any advice that Ahithophel gives.

2Sa 15:35 The priests Zadok and Abiathar will be there; tell them everything you hear in the king's palace.

2Sa 15:36 They have their sons Ahimaaz and Jonathan with them, and you can send them to me with all the information you gather."

2Sa 15:37 So Hushai, David's friend, returned to the city just as Absalom was arriving.

II SAMUEL 15

[1]Daarna het Absalom vir hom 'n kar en perde aangeskaf. Vyftig man het gewoonlik voor hom uit gehardloop. [2]Hy het soggens vroeg opgestaan en langs die pad by die stadspoort gaan staan. Hy het elkeen wat met sy saak vir 'n beslissing na die koning toe gekom het, na hom toe geroep. Uit watter stad is jy? vra hy dan. As die man antwoord: Ek is 'n Israeliet, [3]sê Absalom vir hom: Kyk, jy het 'n sterk, regverdige saak, maar by die koning sal niemand na jou luister nie. [4]Dan voeg Absalom by: As ék maar net as regter in hierdie land aangestel word, sou ek 'n regverdige uitspraak lewer vir elkeen wat met 'n geding of saak na my toe kom. [5]As so iemand nader kom om voor hom te buig, slaan Absalom sy arms om hom en soen hom. [6]So het hy gemaak met al die Israeliete wat vir regspraak na die koning toe gekom het, en op hierdie manier het hy die burgers se harte gesteel. [7]Na vier jaar het Absalom vir die koning gesê: Ek wil graag my gelofte wat ek teenoor die Here afgelê het, in Hebron gaan betaal, [8]want terwyl ek op Gesur in Aram gebly het, het ek beloof: As die Here my veilig na Jerusalem toe laat terugkom, sal ek Hom met 'n offer vereer. [9]Die koning het geantwoord: Gaan gerus maar. Hy het toe klaargemaak en na Hebron toe gegaan. [10]Absalom het ook boodskappers na al die Israelitiese stamme toe gestuur om te sê: As julle die ramshoring hoor, moet julle sê: Absalom het koning geword in Hebron. [11]Saam met Absalom was daar twee honderd genooides wat te goeder trou uit Jerusalem saamgegaan het. Van die hele sameswering het hulle niks geweet nie. [12]Absalom het ook Dawid se adviseur Agitofel die Giloniet laat kom uit die stad Gilo waar hy besig was om offers te bring. So het die sameswering ernstige afmetings aangeneem, en die volk het al hoe meer na Absalom toe oorgeloop. [13]Toe kom daar iemand by Dawid met die berig: Die hele Israel is aan Absalom se kant. [14]Dawid het toe sy hele hofhouding wat by hom in Jerusalem was, beveel: Maak klaar. Laat ons vlug, want Absalom sal geen genade vir ons hê nie. Maak gou voordat hy ons dalk inhaal en 'n groot ramp ons tref deurdat hy 'n bloedbad in die stad aanrig. [15]Hulle het die koning geantwoord: Net soos die koning verkies. Ons is gereed. [16]Nadat hy tien byvrouens agtergelaat het om die paleis op te pas, het die koning en sy hele hofhouding te voet gevlug. [17]Hy en al die inwoners het die stad te voet verlaat. By die laaste huis het hulle gaan staan. [18]Daar het hy al sy amptenare by hom laat verbygaan; so ook sy hele lyfwag en al ses honderd man wat hom uit Gat gevolg het. Terwyl die mense voor die koning verbytrek, [19]vra hy vir Ittai die man uit Gat: Waarom gaan jý ook saam met ons? Draai om en bly by die nuwe koning. Jy is 'n uitlander en uit jou eie gebied verban. [20]Jy het maar onlangs hier aangekom, en nou maak ek jou dakloos as ek jou saam met ons laat gaan. Ek weet nie waar ek sal beland nie. Draai om en laat jou volksgenote ook omdraai. Dit is immers aan jou dat hulle trou en lojaliteit verskuldig is. [21]Ittai sê toe vir die koning: Ek verklaar voor die Here en voor u: Ek bly by u, my koning in lewe en in dood. [22]Toe sê die koning: Kom dan maar saam. Ittai die Gattiet en al die manne by hom is toe saam, en so ook al die afhanklikes wat by hom was. [23]Al die mense, al die inwoners van die stad, het hardop geloop en huil. Die hele volk en die koning het deur Kedronspruit getrek en toe het die volk in die rigting van die woestyn koers gekies. [24]Sadok en al die Leviete wat die verbondsark van God gedra het, was by die koning Abjatar het ook saamgekom. Hulle het die ark van God neergesit totdat die volk uit die stad was. [25]Toe het die koning vir Sadok beveel: Vat die ark van God terug stad toe. As die Here my dit vergun en my terugbring, sal Hy my die ark en sy heiligdom weer laat sien. [26]Maar as die Here sou te kenne gee: Ek is nie meer tevrede met jou nie,' sal ek dit aanvaar. Dan kan Hy met my maak soos Hy dit goedvind. [27]Verder het die koning vir die priester Sadok gesê: Sien jy hoe staan sake? Gaan gerus terug stad toe; ook jou seun Agimaäs en Jonatan seun van Abjatar. Die twee seuns moet saam met julle teruggaan. [28]En onthou, ek sal by die woestynpas wag totdat ek van julle hoor. [29]Daarna het Sadok en Abjatar die ark van God na Jerusalem toe teruggevat en daar gebly. [30]Dawid het die Olyfberg huil-huil uitgeklim en as teken van sy droefheid was sy kop toegemaak en het hy kaalvoet geloop. Almal wat by hom was, het ook hulle koppe toegemaak en huil-huil die helling uitgeklim. [31]Toe aan Dawid gesê is: Agitofel is tussen die samesweerders by Absalom, het hy gebid: Here, laat daar tog niks kom van Agitofel se raad nie. [32]Toe Dawid op die kruin kniel in die rigting van die ark van God het Gusai die Erekiet onverwags by hom aangekom. Sy klere was geskeur en daar was grond op sy kop. [33]Dawid het vir hom gesê: As jy saamgaan, sal jy vir my 'n oorlas wees. [34]Maar as jy teruggaan stad toe en vir Absalom sê: U Majesteit, ek is u onderdaan; ek was in u vader se diens, maar van hierdie oomblik af is ek u onderdaan,' kan jy vir my Agitofel se raad tot niet maak. [35]Kyk, die priesters Sadok en Abjatar sal daar by jou wees. Alles wat jy uit die paleis hoor, moet jy hulle vertel. [36]Hulle twee seuns Agimaäs en Jonatan is saam met hulle daar, en wat julle ook al hoor, kan julle vir my met hulle laat weet. [37]Gusai die vriend van Dawid het toe die stad ingegaan, en Absalom was op pad na Jerusalem toe.

David and Ziba

2Sa 16:1 When David had gone a little beyond the top of the hill, he was suddenly met by Ziba, the servant of Mephibosheth, who had with him a couple of donkeys loaded with two hundred loaves of bread, a hundred bunches of raisins, a hundred bunches of fresh fruit, and a leather bag full of wine.

2Sa 16:2 King David asked him, "What are you going to do with all that?" Ziba answered, "The donkeys are for Your Majesty's family to ride, the bread and the fruit are for the men to eat, and the wine is for them to drink when they get tired in the wilderness."

2Sa 16:3 "Where is Mephibosheth, the grandson of your master Saul?" the king asked him. "He is staying in Jerusalem," Ziba answered, "because he is convinced that the Israelites will now restore to him the kingdom of his grandfather Saul."

2Sa 16:4 The king said to Ziba, "Everything that belonged to Mephibosheth is yours." "I am your servant," Ziba replied. "May I always please Your Majesty!"

Shimei Curses David

2Sa 16:5 When King David arrived at Bahurim, one of Saul's relatives, Shimei son of Gera, came out to meet him, cursing him as he came.

2Sa 16:6 Shimei started throwing stones at David and his officials, even though David was surrounded by his men and his bodyguards.

2Sa 16:7 Shimei cursed him and said, "Get out! Get out! Murderer! Criminal!

2Sa 16:8 You took Saul's kingdom, and now the LORD is punishing you for murdering so many of Saul's family. The LORD has given the kingdom to your son Absalom, and you are ruined, you murderer!"

2Sa 16:9 Abishai, whose mother was Zeruiah, said to the king, "Your Majesty, why do you let this dog curse you? Let me go over there and cut off his head!"

2Sa 16:10 "This is none of your business," the king said to Abishai and his brother Joab. "If he curses me because the LORD told him to, who has the right to ask why he does it?"

2Sa 16:11 And David said to Abishai and to all his officials, "My own son is trying to kill me; so why should you be surprised at this Benjaminite? The LORD told him to curse; so leave him alone and let him do it.

2Sa 16:12 Perhaps the LORD will notice my misery and give me some blessings to take the place of his curse."

2Sa 16:13 So David and his men continued along the road. Shimei kept up with them, walking on the hillside; he was cursing and throwing stones and dirt at them as he went.

2Sa 16:14 The king and all his men were worn out when they reached the Jordan, and there they rested.

Absalom Enters Jerusalem

2Sa 16:15 Absalom and all the Israelites with him entered Jerusalem, and Ahithophel was with them.

2Sa 16:16 When Hushai, David's trusted friend, met Absalom, he shouted, "Long live the king! Long live the king!"

2Sa 16:17 "What has happened to your loyalty to your friend David?" Absalom asked him. "Why didn't you go with him?"

2Sa 16:18 Hushai answered, "How could I? I am for the one chosen by the LORD, by these people, and by all the Israelites. I will stay with you.

2Sa 16:19 After all, whom should I serve, if not my master's son? As I served your father, so now I will serve you."

2Sa 16:20 Then Absalom turned to Ahithophel and said, "Now that we are here, what do you advise us to do?"

2Sa 16:21 Ahithophel answered, "Go and have intercourse with your father's concubines whom he left behind to take care of the palace. Then everyone in Israel will know that your father regards you as his enemy, and your followers will be greatly encouraged."

2Sa 16:22 So they set up a tent for Absalom on the palace roof, and in the sight of everyone Absalom went in and had intercourse with his father's concubines.

2Sa 16:23 Any advice that Ahithophel gave in those days was accepted as though it were the very word of God; both David and Absalom followed it.

1Toe Dawid 'n entjie van die kruin af weg was, het Mefiboset se amptenaar Siba hom onverwags teëgekom. Op twee opgesaalde donkies het hy twee honderd brode, honderd pakkies rosyntjies en honderd pakkies voorvye en 'n kruik wyn gehad. 2Wat het jy hier? vra die koning vir hom, en Siba antwoord: Die donkies is vir die koninghulle om op te ry, en die brood en vye is kos vir u lyfwag; dié wat in die woestyn moeg word, kan die wyn drink. 3En waar is Saul se seun? vra die koning. Nee, hy sit in Jerusalem. Hy dink mos: vandag sal Israel die koningskap van my pa aan my teruggee, antwoord Siba. 4Toe sê die koning: Nou kyk, alles wat aan Mefiboset behoort, is nou joune. Ek sal altyd dankbaar bly, sê Siba, en ek hoop ek sal U Majesteit altyd tevrede stel. 5Toe die koning by Bagurim kom, storm daar ewe skielik een van Saul se familielede op hom af. Sy naam was Simeï seun van Gera. So ver as hy gaan, het hy geloop en vloek. 6Hy het Dawid en al sy amptenare en die hele volk, ja, selfs al die dapper krygsmanne, links en regs onder die klippe gesteek. 7Terwyl hy loop en vloek, het Simeï uitgeroep: Trap, trap hier uit, jou moordenaar en jou skurk! 8Nou straf die Here jou vir al die moorde op Saul se geslag toe jy in sy plek koning geword het. Nou het die Here die koningskap aan jou seun Absalom gegee. Nou sit jy self in die ellende omdat jy 'n moordenaar is. 9Toe vra Seruja se seun Abisai vir die koning: Waarom vloek hierdie lae hond die koning? Laat ek sy kop vir hom gaan afkap. 10Seun van Seruja, dit het niks met my of met jou te doen nie, was die koning se antwoord. Hy vloek so omdat die Here hom beveel het om vir Dawid te vloek! Niemand moet nou vra waarom hy dit doen nie. 11Verder het die koning vir al sy amptenare en vir Abisai gesê: My eie bloedkind soek my lewe. Daarom moet julle hierdie Benjaminiet met rus laat dat hy maar vloek, want die Here het hom die opdrag gegee. 12Miskien let die Here op my ellende en beloon Hy my met iets goeds vir vandag se vervloeking. 13Dawid en sy mense het toe pad langs verder getrek. Simeï het ál teen die berghang langs geloop en vloek en klippe gooi en stof opskop. 14Moeg het die koning en sy geselskap by die Jordaan aangekom en daar 'n bietjie gerus. 15Maar Absalom en die hele Israel het in Jerusalem aangekom. Agitofel was ook by. 16Toe Dawid se vriend Gusai die Erekiet by Absalom kom, sê Gusai vir hom: Lank lewe die koning! Lank lewe die koning! 17Toe vra Absalom vir hom: Is dit hoe jy jou lojaliteit teenoor jou vriend wys? Waarom het jy nie saam met hom gegaan nie? 18Gusai het geantwoord: O nee! Ek skaar my by dié een vir wie die Here en hierdie manskappe en elke Israeliet gekies het. By hom staan ek. 19Per slot van rekening: wie sal ek dien? Is dit nie sy seun nie? Net soos ek u vader gedien het, sal ek u dien. [20]Daarna sê Absalom vir Agitofel: Kom, julle moet altwee raad gee oor wat ons nou te doen staan. [21]Agitofel se raad was: Gaan slaap by u vader se byvrouens wat hy hier laat bly het om die paleis op te pas. Dan sal die hele Israel besef dat u teen u vader in opstand gekom het en dit sal al u volgelinge se hande sterk. [22]Daar is toe vir Absalom 'n tent op die dak opgeslaan, sodat hy voor die oë van die hele Israel by sy pa se byvrouens kon gaan slaap. [23]In daardie tyd was Agitofel se raad asof hy dit van God gekry het. So was sy raad altyd, of dit nou al vir Dawid of vir Absalom was.

Hushai Saves David

2Sa 17:1 Not long after that, Ahithophel said to Absalom, "Let me choose twelve thousand men, and tonight I will set out after David.

2Sa 17:2 I will attack him while he is tired and discouraged. He will be frightened, and all his men will run away. I will kill only the king

2Sa 17:3 and then bring back all his men to you, like a bride returning to her husband. You want to kill only one man; the rest of the people will be safe."

2Sa 17:4 This seemed like good advice to Absalom and all the Israelite leaders.

2Sa 17:5 Absalom said, "Now call Hushai, and let us hear what he has to say."

2Sa 17:6 When Hushai arrived, Absalom said to him, "This is the advice that Ahithophel has given us; shall we follow it? If not, you tell us what to do."

2Sa 17:7 Hushai answered, "The advice Ahithophel gave you this time is no good.

2Sa 17:8 You know that your father David and his men are hard fighters and that they are as fierce as a mother bear robbed of her cubs. Your father is an experienced soldier and does not stay with his men at night.

2Sa 17:9 Right now he is probably hiding in a cave or some other place. As soon as David attacks your men, whoever hears about it will say that your men have been defeated.

2Sa 17:10 Then even the bravest men, as fearless as lions, will be afraid because everyone in Israel knows that your father is a great soldier and that his men are hard fighters.

2Sa 17:11 My advice is that you bring all the Israelites together from one end of the country to the other, as many as the grains of sand on the seashore, and that you lead them personally in battle.

2Sa 17:12 We will find David wherever he is, and attack him before he knows what's happening. Neither he nor any of his men will survive.

2Sa 17:13 If he retreats into a city, our people will all bring ropes and just pull the city into the valley below. Not a single stone will be left there on top of the hill."

2Sa 17:14 Absalom and all the Israelites said, "Hushai's advice is better than Ahithophel's." The LORD had decided that Ahithophel's good advice would not be followed, so that disaster would come on Absalom.

2Sa 17:15 Then Hushai told the priests Zadok and Abiathar what advice he had given to Absalom and the Israelite leaders and what advice Ahithophel had given.

2Sa 17:16 Hushai added, "Quick, now! Send a message to David not to spend the night at the river crossings in the wilderness, but to cross the Jordan at once, so that he and his men won't all be caught and killed."

2Sa 17:17 Abiathar's son Jonathan and Zadok's son Ahimaaz were waiting at the spring of Enrogel, on the outskirts of Jerusalem, because they did not dare be seen entering the city. A servant woman would regularly go and tell them what was happening, and then they would go and tell King David.

2Sa 17:18 But one day a boy happened to see them, and he told Absalom; so they hurried off to hide in the house of a certain man in Bahurim. He had a well near his house, and they got down in it.

2Sa 17:19 The man's wife took a covering, spread it over the opening of the well and scattered grain over it, so that no one would notice anything.

2Sa 17:20 Absalom's officials came to the house and asked the woman, "Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?" "They crossed the river," she answered. The men looked for them but could not find them, and so they returned to Jerusalem.

2Sa 17:21 After they left, Ahimaaz and Jonathan came up out of the well and went and reported to King David. They told him what Ahithophel had planned against him and said, "Hurry up and cross the river."

2Sa 17:22 So David and his men started crossing the Jordan, and by daybreak they had all gone across.

2Sa 17:23 When Ahithophel saw that his advice had not been followed, he saddled his donkey and went back to his hometown. After putting his affairs in order, he hanged himself. He was buried in the family grave.

2Sa 17:24 David had reached the town of Mahanaim by the time Absalom and the Israelites had crossed the Jordan.

2Sa 17:25 (Absalom had put Amasa in command of the army in the place of Joab. Amasa was the son of Jether the Ishmaelite; his mother was Abigail, the daughter of Nahash and the sister of Joab's mother

2Sa 17:26 Absalom and his men camped in the land of Gilead.

2Sa 17:27 When David arrived at Mahanaim, he was met by Shobi son of Nahash, from the city of Rabbah in Ammon, and by Machir son of Ammiel, from Lodebar, and by Barzillai, from Rogelim in Gilead.

2Sa 17:28 (28-29) They brought bowls, clay pots, and bedding, and also food for David and his men: wheat, barley, meal, roasted grain, beans, peas, honey, cheese, cream, and some sheep. They knew that David and his men would get hungry, thirsty, and tired in the wilderness.

1Agitofel het verder vir Absalom gesê: Laat ek tog twaalf afdelings uitsoek en klaarmaak om Dawid vannag nog agterna te sit. 2Ek sal hom oorval terwyl hy moeg en moedeloos is. Ek sal verwarring in sy geledere skep, sodat die hele volk wat by hom is, sal vlug en ek die koning kan doodmaak waar hy alleen is. 3Dan sal ek die hele volk na u toe laat swaai. Nadat almal oorgeloop het, sal u die gunsteling wees en die hele volk sal eensgesind wees. 4Die voorstel het aanneemlik gelyk vir Absalom en die leiers van Israel. 5Maar Absalom het gesê: Roep eers vir Gusai die Erekiet. Laat ons ook hoor wat hý te sê het. 6Gusai het ingekom, en Absalom het vir hom gesê: Dit is die voorstel van Agitofel. Moet ons dit aanvaar of nie? Hoe dink jy? 7Gusai het geantwoord: Hierdie keer het Agitofel nie goeie raad gegee nie. 8U ken tog u vader en sy manskappe. Hulle is dapper vegters en hulle is boonop verbitter soos 'n beer wat in die veld van haar kleintjies beroof is. Daarby is u vader 'n uitgeslape krygsman. Hy sal nie by die volk oornag nie. 9Ek is seker hy kruip nou weg in 'n sloot of op een of ander plek. As daar aan die begin al van u manskappe omkom en dit rugbaar word, sal daar gesê word: Daar was 'n slagting onder die manne wat vir Absalom volg.' 10Dan sal selfs die dapperste man, die man met leeuemoed, bang word, want die hele Israel weet u vader is 'n vegter en hy het dapper manne by hom. 11Nee, ek raai aan dat die hele volk oor die lengte en breedte van die land eers by u bymekaargeroep word: 'n menigte soos die sand van die see. Dan kan u persoonlik teen hom opruk. 12Waar hy ook al is, as ons by hom kom in een van die plekke, sak ons op hom toe soos mistige weer. Daar sal niks van hom oorbly nie, ook nie eers een van die manne by hom nie. 13As hy hom dalk in 'n stad terugtrek, moet die hele Israel toue oor die mure van daardie stad gooi en dit na die laagte toe wegsleep totdat daar nie meer 'n enkele klip oorbly nie. 14Toe het Absalom en al die manskappe van Israel gesê: Die raad van Gusai die Erekiet is beter as dié van Agitofel. Maar eintlik was dit die Here wat die goeie raad van Agitofel verydel het, omdat die Here onheil oor Absalom wou bring. 15Daarna het Gusai die priesters Sadok en Abjatar ingelig: Só het Agitofel vir Absalom en die volksleiers aangeraai, maar só was my raad. 16Stuur nou gou en laat weet vir Dawid hy moenie vannag in die woestynpas slaap nie. Hy moet beslis verder trek, anders word hy en sy hele leër uitgewis. 17Omdat hulle nie in die stad gesien moes word nie, het Jonatan en Agimaäs ondertussen by Rogelfontein gewag. 'n Slavin het hulle gaan inlig, en hulle moes weer vir koning Dawid gaan inlig. 18'n Jong seun het hulle egter gesien en Absalom daarvan vertel. Maar dié twee het weggeglip en by 'n man in Bagurim gaan wegkruip. In sy agterplaas was daar 'n put en hulle het daarin geklim. [19]Sy vrou het 'n doek oor die put gespan en graan daar oor gegooi sodat niemand onraad kon merk nie. [20]Absalom se manne het by die huis aangekom en vir die vrou gevra: Waar is Agimaäs en Jonatan? Sy het hulle geantwoord: Hulle is hiervandaan rivier se kant toe. Nadat die manne tevergeefs gesoek het, is hulle terug Jerusalem toe. [21]Toe hulle weg is, het Agimaäs en Jonatan uit die put geklim en vir Dawid gaan sê: Trek gou deur die rivier, want Agitofel se raad is gevaarlik vir u. [22]Die koning en die hele volk by hom het klaargemaak en deur die Jordaan getrek tot ligdag, totdat almal deur die Jordaan was. [23]Toe Agitofel sien sy raad word nie gevolg nie, het hy sy donkie opgesaal en na sy huis toe in sy tuisdorp gery. Daar het hy sy sake gereël en homself opgehang en gesterf. Hy is in die familiegraf begrawe. [24]Dawid het na Maganajim toe gegaan onderwyl Absalom en die hele Israel deur die Jordaan getrek het. [25]Absalom het vir Amasa in Joab se plek oor die leër aangestel. Amasa was die seun van 'n sekere Ismaeliet Jeter wat gemeenskap gehad het met Abigal dogter van Nagas. Sy was 'n suster van Seruja, Joab se ma. [26]Israel en Absalom het laer opgeslaan in Gilead. [27]Toe Dawid in Maganajim aankom, is daar vir hom beddegoed gebring deur Sobi seun van Nagas van die Ammonitiese stad Rabba, en Makir seun van Ammiël van die stad Lo-Dabar, en Barsillai die Gileadiet van Rogelim. [28]Hulle het toe die slaapplek reggemaak. Daar was ook nog erdebakke, koring, gars, meel, gebraaide koring, boontjies en lensies. [29]Hulle het ook heuning, bokmelk en beesmelkkaas gebring sodat Dawid en sy mense kon eet en drink, want hulle het geweet die mense het moeg en honger en dors geword in die woestyn.

Absalom Killed

2Sa 18:1 King David brought all his men together, divided them into units of a thousand and of a hundred, and placed officers in command of them.

2Sa 18:2 Then he sent them out in three groups, with Joab and Joab's brother Abishai and Ittai from Gath, each in command of a group. And the king said to his men, "I will go with you myself."

2Sa 18:3 "You mustn't go with us," they answered. "It won't make any difference to the enemy if the rest of us turn and run, or even if half of us are killed; but you are worth ten thousand of us. It will be better if you stay here in the city and send us help."

2Sa 18:4 "I will do whatever you think best," the king answered. Then he stood by the side of the gate as his men marched out in units of a thousand and of a hundred.

2Sa 18:5 He gave orders to Joab, Abishai, and Ittai: "For my sake don't harm the young man Absalom." And all the troops heard David give this command to his officers.

2Sa 18:6 David's army went out into the countryside and fought the Israelites in Ephraim Forest.

2Sa 18:7 The Israelites were defeated by David's men; it was a terrible defeat, with twenty thousand men killed that day.

2Sa 18:8 The fighting spread over the countryside, and more men died in the forest than were killed in battle.

2Sa 18:9 Suddenly Absalom met some of David's men. Absalom was riding a mule, and as it went under a large oak tree, Absalom's head got caught in the branches. The mule ran on and Absalom was left hanging in midair.

2Sa 18:10 One of David's men saw him and reported to Joab, "Sir, I saw Absalom hanging in an oak tree!"

2Sa 18:11 Joab answered, "If you saw him, why didn't you kill him on the spot? I myself would have given you ten pieces of silver and a belt."

2Sa 18:12 But the man answered, "Even if you gave me a thousand pieces of silver, I wouldn't lift a finger against the king's son. We all heard the king command you and Abishai and Ittai, 'For my sake don't harm the young man Absalom.'

2Sa 18:13 But if I had disobeyed the king and killed Absalom, the king would have heard about it—he hears about everything—and you would not have defended me."

2Sa 18:14 "I'm not going to waste any more time with you," Joab said. He took three spears and plunged them into Absalom's chest while he was still alive, hanging in the oak tree.

2Sa 18:15 Then ten of Joab's soldiers closed in on Absalom and finished killing him.

2Sa 18:16 Joab had the trumpet blown to stop the fighting, and his troops came back from pursuing the Israelites.

2Sa 18:17 They took Absalom's body, threw it into a deep pit in the forest, and covered it with a huge pile of stones. All the Israelites fled to their own hometowns.

2Sa 18:18 During his lifetime Absalom had built a monument for himself in King's Valley, because he had no son to keep his name alive. So he named it after himself, and to this day it is known as Absalom's Monument.

David Hears of Absalom's Death

2Sa 18:19 Then Ahimaaz son of Zadok said to Joab, "Let me run to the king with the good news that the LORD has saved him from his enemies."

2Sa 18:20 "No," Joab said, "today you will not take any good news. Some other day you may do so, but not today, for the king's son is dead."

2Sa 18:21 Then he said to his Ethiopian slave, "Go and tell the king what you have seen." The slave bowed and ran off.

2Sa 18:22 Ahimaaz insisted, "I don't care what happens; please let me take the news also." "Why do you want to do it, my son?" Joab asked. "You will get no reward for it."

2Sa 18:23 "Whatever happens," Ahimaaz said again, "I want to go." "Then go," Joab said. So Ahimaaz ran off down the road through the Jordan Valley, and soon he passed the slave.

2Sa 18:24 David was sitting in the space between the inner and outer gates of the city. The lookout went up to the top of the wall and stood on the roof of the gateway; he looked out and saw a man running alone.

2Sa 18:25 He called down and told the king, and the king said, "If he is alone, he is bringing good news." The runner kept coming closer.

2Sa 18:26 Then the lookout saw another man running alone, and he called down to the gatekeeper, "Look! There's another man running!" The king answered, "This one also is bringing good news."

2Sa 18:27 The lookout said, "I can see that the first man runs like Ahimaaz." "He's a good man," the king said, "and he is bringing good news."

2Sa 18:28 Ahimaaz called out a greeting to the king, threw himself down to the ground before him, and said, "Praise the LORD your God, who has given you victory over the men who rebelled against Your Majesty!"

2Sa 18:29 "Is the young man Absalom all right?" the king asked. Ahimaaz answered, "Sir, when your officer Joab sent me, I saw a great commotion, but I couldn't tell what it was."

2Sa 18:30 "Stand over there," the king told him; and he went over and stood there.

David's Grief

2Sa 18:31 Then the Ethiopian slave arrived and said to the king, "I have good news for Your Majesty! Today the LORD has given you victory over all who rebelled against you!"

2Sa 18:32 "Is the young man Absalom all right?" the king asked. The slave answered, "I wish that what has happened to him would happen to all your enemies, sir, and to all who rebel against you."

2Sa 18:33 The king was overcome with grief. He went up to the room over the gateway and wept. As he went, he cried, "O my son! My son Absalom! Absalom, my son! If only I had died in your place, my son! Absalom, my son!"

1Dawid het die manskappe wat by hom was, in gelid opgestel: hy het hoofde oor afdelings van duisend en honderd aangestel en die leër in drie verdeel: 2'n derde onder leiding van Joab; 'n derde onder Joab se broer Abisai seun van Seruja, en die ander derde onder leiding van Ittai die Gattiet. Toe het die koning vir die leër gesê: Ek gaan self saam met julle veg. 3Die leër het egter geantwoord: Nee, u moenie saamgaan nie, want as óns dalk moet vlug, kan ons maar vlug en niemand sal van ons notisie neem nie; of as die helfte van ons dalk sterf, sal dit nie saak maak nie. Maar u is soos tien duisend van ons. Dit sal beter wees as u ons van die stad af kom help. 4Die koning sê toe: Ek sal doen soos julle sê. Toe gaan staan hy langs die stadspoort terwyl die hele leër in afdelings van honderd en duisend uittrek om te gaan veg. 5Die koning het vir Joab, Abisai en Ittai beveel: Werk om my ontwil tog saggies met my kind Absalom. Al die manskappe het die bevel oor Absalom gehoor toe die koning dit aan die offisiere gegee het. 6Die manskappe het toe in die oop veld teen Israel opgetrek. Daar het 'n geveg in die Efraimbos ontstaan, 7en Israel is deur Dawid se manskappe verslaan. Dit was 'n groot slagting. Daar het dié dag nie minder nie as twintig duisend man geval. 8Die geveg het oor die hele landstreek versprei, en op daardie dag het die bos meer lewens geëis as die swaard. 9Dawid se manskappe het op Absalom afgekom waar hy op 'n muil gery het. Die muil het onder die digte takke van 'n groot akkerboom deurgegaan, en Absalom se kop het in die boom vasgehaak. Die muil waarop hy gery het, het aangehou hardloop en Absalom het tussen hemel en aarde bly hang. 10Iemand het dit gesien en aan Joab vertel: Weet u, ek het Absalom aan 'n akkerboom sien hang. 11Toe sê Joab aan die man wat dit vir hom vertel het: Wat? Het jy hom gesien? Waarom het jy hom dan nie net daar doodgeslaan nie? Ek sou jou dan tien silwerstukke en 'n eregordel moes gegee het. 12Maar die man antwoord vir Joab: Al sou ek ook vir my duisend silwerstukke met my eie hand kon aftel, sou ek nog nie my hand teen die koning se seun opgetel het nie. Ons het immers almal gehoor hoe die koning u en Abisai en Ittai beveel: Werk tog saggies met my kind Absalom.' 13As ek verkeerd opgetree het, sou dit by die koning bekend geword het en dan sou ú my nie gehelp het nie. 14Toe sê Joab: Ek kan nie so staan en tyd mors hier by jou nie. Hy het drie spiese gegryp en dit deur Absalom se hart gaan steek waar hy nog lewendig in die boom gehang het. 15Toe het tien wapendraers van Joab nader gestorm en Absalom heeltemal dood geslaan. 16Hierna het Joab die ramshoring geblaas en die leër het opgehou om Israel te agtervolg. So het Joab die leër laat terugtrek, 17maar die hele Israel het huis toe gevlug. Absalom se lyk is in 'n diep gat in die bos gegooi, en hulle het 'n groot hoop klippe op hom gepak. [18]Dit was dieselfde Absalom wat die gedenkteken in die koningslaagte opgerig het om homself te vereer, omdat hy gesê het hy het nie meer 'n seun om sy naam in gedagtenis te hou nie. Daarom het hy die gedenkteken na homself vernoem en dit word nou nog genoem: Absalom se Gedenkteken. [19]Agimaäs seun van Sadok het gesê: Laat ek tog hardloop en aan die koning die goeie tyding bring dat die Here hom van sy vyand verlos het. [20]Maar Joab het vir hom gesê: Jy is vandag nie die regte man om 'n tyding te bring nie. Jy kan op 'n ander dag boodskappe dra. Vandag doen jy dit nie, want dit is die koning se seun wat dood is. [21]Toe beveel Joab 'n Kussiet: Gaan vertel vir die koning wat jy gesien het. Nadat die Kussiet voor Joab gebuig het, het hy begin hardloop. [22]Agimaäs seun van Sadok het weer vir Joab gesê: Kom wat wil, laat ek tog net agter die Kussiet aan hardloop. My seun, waarom wil jy tog hardloop? Daar sal nie vir jou ook 'n boodskappersloon wees nie, antwoord Joab. [23]Dit maak nie saak nie; ek hardloop, sê hy. Nou hardloop dan, sê Joab vir hom. Agimaäs het toe met die pad deur die Jordaanstreek gehardloop en die Kussiet verbygegaan. [24]Terwyl Dawid in die stadspoort sit, klim die wag na die uitkykpos op die poort se dak en kyk rond of hy nie dalk iets sien nie. En juis toe kom daar iemand alleen aangehardloop. [25]Die wag roep toe en sê dit vir die koning. As hy alleen is, bring hy nuus, sê die koning. Terwyl hy nader kom, [26]sien die wag nog iemand hardloop en hy roep na die poortwagter: Daar kom nog iemand alleen aangehardloop. En die koning sê: Ook hý bring nuus. [27]Dit lyk my die voorste een hardloop soos Agimaäs seun van Sadok, merk die wag op. Hy is 'n goeie man, hy kom met 'n goeie boodskap, voeg die koning toe by. [28]Alles is reg, roep Agimaäs en buig voor die koning en sê: Geloof sy die Here u God, omdat Hy die mense wat in opstand gekom het teen die koning, verslaan het. [29]Gaan dit goed met my kind Absalom? vra die koning. Hierop antwoord Agimaäs: Ek het 'n groot samedromming opgemerk net toe u offisier Joab my gestuur het. Verder weet ek niks. [30]Die koning het hom beveel: Wag 'n bietjie. Kom staan hier eenkant. Hy het dit gedoen [31]en toe kom die Kussiet juis net daar aan en sê: Daar is nuus vir die koning, want die Here het u vandag verlos van almal wat teen u in opstand gekom het. [32]Gaan dit goed met my kind Absalom? vra die koning, en die Kussiet antwoord: Mag dit met die vyande van die koning en almal wat teen u in opstand kom en u ondergang wil bewerk, gaan soos met daardie kind. [33]Die koning het ontroerd geraak en in trane na die kamer bokant die poort opgeklim. Daar het hy heen en weer geloop en gesê: My seun, Absalom, my seun, my seun. Absalom, ag, as ek maar in jou plek kon gesterwe het. Absalom, my seun, my seun.

Joab Rebukes David

2Sa 19:1 Joab was told that King David was weeping and mourning for Absalom.

2Sa 19:2 And so the joy of victory was turned into sadness for all of David's troops that day, because they heard that the king was mourning for his son.

2Sa 19:3 They went back into the city quietly, like soldiers who are ashamed because they are running away from battle.

2Sa 19:4 The king covered his face and cried loudly, "O my son! My son Absalom! Absalom, my son!"

2Sa 19:5 Joab went to the king's house and said to him, "Today you have humiliated your men—the men who saved your life and the lives of your sons and daughters and of your wives and concubines.

2Sa 19:6 You oppose those who love you and support those who hate you! You have made it clear that your officers and men mean nothing to you. I can see that you would be quite happy if Absalom were alive today and all of us were dead.

2Sa 19:7 Now go and reassure your men. I swear by the LORD's name that if you don't, not one of them will be with you by tomorrow morning. That would be the worst disaster you have suffered in all your life."

David Returns to Jerusalem

2Sa 19:8 Then the king got up, and went and sat near the city gate. His men heard that he was there, and they all gathered around him. Meanwhile all the Israelites had fled to their own hometowns.

2Sa 19:9 All over the country they started quarreling among themselves. "King David saved us from our enemies," they said to one another. "He rescued us from the Philistines, but now he has fled from Absalom and left the country.

2Sa 19:10 We anointed Absalom as our king, but he has been killed in battle. So why doesn't somebody try to bring King David back?"

2Sa 19:11 The news of what the Israelites were saying reached King David. So he sent the priests Zadok and Abiathar to ask the leaders of Judah, "Why should you be the last to help bring the king back to his palace?

2Sa 19:12 You are my relatives, my own flesh and blood; why should you be the last to bring me back?"

2Sa 19:13 David also told them to say to Amasa, "You are my relative. From now on I am putting you in charge of the army in place of Joab. May God strike me dead if I don't!"

2Sa 19:14 David's words won the complete loyalty of all the men of Judah, and they sent him word to return with all his officials.

2Sa 19:15 On his way back the king was met at the Jordan River by the men of Judah, who had come to Gilgal to escort him across the river.

David Pardons His Enemies

2Sa 19:16 At the same time the Benjaminite Shimei son of Gera from Bahurim hurried to the Jordan to meet King David.

2Sa 19:17 He had with him a thousand men from the tribe of Benjamin. And Ziba, the servant of Saul's family, also came with his fifteen sons and twenty servants, and they arrived at the Jordan before the king.

2Sa 19:18 They crossed the river to escort the royal party across and to do whatever the king wanted. As the king was getting ready to cross, Shimei threw himself down in front of him 2Sa 19:19 and said, "Your Majesty, please forget the wrong I did that day you left Jerusalem. Don't hold it against me or think about it any more.

2Sa 19:20 I know, sir, that I have sinned, and this is why I am the first one from the northern tribes to come and meet Your Majesty today."

2Sa 19:21 Abishai son of Zeruiah spoke up: "Shimei should be put to death because he cursed the one whom the LORD chose as king."

2Sa 19:22 But David said to Abishai and his brother Joab, "Who asked your opinion? Are you going to give me trouble? I am the one who is king of Israel now, and no Israelite will be put to death today."

2Sa 19:23 And he said to Shimei, "I give you my word that you will not be put to death."

2Sa 19:24 Then Mephibosheth, Saul's grandson, came down to meet the king. He had not washed his feet, trimmed his beard, or washed his clothes from the time the king left Jerusalem until he returned victorious.

2Sa 19:25 When Mephibosheth arrived from Jerusalem to meet the king, the king said to him, "Mephibosheth, you didn't go with me. Why not?"

2Sa 19:26 He answered, "As you know, Your Majesty, I am crippled. I told my servant to saddle my donkey so that I could ride along with you, but he betrayed me.

2Sa 19:27 He lied about me to Your Majesty, but you are like God's angel, so do what seems right to you.

2Sa 19:28 All of my father's family deserved to be put to death by Your Majesty, but you gave me the right to eat at your table. I have no right to ask for any more favors from Your Majesty."

2Sa 19:29 The king answered, "You don't have to say anything more.

I have decided that you and Ziba will share Saul's property."

2Sa 19:30 "Let Ziba have it all," Mephibosheth answered. "It's enough for me that Your Majesty has come home safely."

2Sa 19:31 Barzillai, from Gilead, had also come down from Rogelim to escort the king across the Jordan.

2Sa 19:32 Barzillai was a very old man, eighty years old. He was very rich and had supplied the king with food while he was staying at Mahanaim.

2Sa 19:33 The king said to him, "Come with me to Jerusalem, and I will take care of you."

2Sa 19:34 But Barzillai answered, "I don't have long to live; why should I go with Your Majesty to Jerusalem?

2Sa 19:35 I am already eighty years old, and nothing gives me pleasure any more. I can't taste what I eat and drink, and I can't hear the voices of singers. I would only be a burden to Your Majesty.

2Sa 19:36 I don't deserve such a great reward. So I will go just a little way with you beyond the Jordan.

2Sa 19:37 Then let me go back home and die near my parents' grave. Here is my son Chimham, who will serve you; take him with you, Your Majesty, and do for him as you think best."

2Sa 19:38 The king answered, "I will take him with me and do for him whatever you want. And I will do for you anything you ask."

2Sa 19:39 Then David and all of his men crossed the Jordan. He kissed Barzillai and gave him his blessing, and Barzillai went back home.

2Sa 19:40 When the king had crossed, escorted by all the people of Judah and half the people of Israel, he went on to Gilgal, and Chimham went with him.

2Sa 19:41 Then all the Israelites went to the king and said to him, "Your Majesty, why did our brothers, the men of Judah, think they had the right to take you away and escort you, your family, and your men across the Jordan?"

2Sa 19:42 The men of Judah answered, "We did it because the king is one of us. So why should this make you angry? He hasn't paid for our food nor has he given us anything."

2Sa 19:43 The Israelites replied, "We have ten times as many claims on King David as you have, even if he is one of you. Why do you look down on us? Don't forget that we were the first to talk about bringing the king back!" But the men of Judah were more violent in making their claims than the men of Israel.

1Daar is aan Joab vertel: Kan jy dit glo? Die koning huil en treur oor Absalom! 2So het die oorwinningsdag 'n dag van trane geword vir al die manskappe, want hulle het gehoor dat die koning bedroef is oor sy seun. 3Op dié dag het die manskappe die stad binnegesluip, soos wanneer hulle beskaamd insluip as hulle uit 'n geveg weggehardloop het. 4Die koning het sy gesig toegehou en hardop uitgeroep: My seun Absalom; Absalom, my seun, my seun! 5Joab het by die koning in die kamer ingegaan en gesê: U het vandag al die manskappe laat skaam kry, hulle wat so pas u lewe en ook dié van u seuns en dogters, u vrouens en byvrouens gered het. 6U het mos nou u haters lief en u haat die mense wat vir u liefhet. Ja waarlik, u gee vandag te kenne dat u nie vir aanvoerders en manskappe omgee nie. Vandag weet ek beslis: as Absalom maar net kon gelewe het, kon ons vandag net sowel almal dood gewees het; u sou dan in u skik gewees het! 7Kom nou, gaan stel u manskappe tevrede. Ek verklaar voor die Here: As u nie buitetoe gaan nie, sal daar vannag nie 'n enkele man by u oorbly nie. Dit sal vir u 'n groter ramp wees as enige ramp wat u in u hele lewe getref het. 8Die koning het toe buitetoe gegaan en in die stadspoort gaan sit. Daar is toe aan al die manskappe vertel: Kom kyk, die koning sit in die stadspoort. Toe het al die manskappe van die koning voor hom verskyn. Israel het intussen huis toe gevlug. 9Daarna het die manne van die Israelitiese stamme onder mekaar begin praat: Dit is die kóning deur wie ons gered is uit die mag van ons vyande; hý het ons bevry uit die greep van die Filistyne, en nou moes hy die land uit vlug voor Absalom. 10Buitendien is Absalom vir wie ons tot koning gesalf het, in die geveg dood. Waarom talm julle nog om die koning te laat terugkom? 11Hierdie gevoel onder Israel het by Dawid en sy mense uitgekom. Daarna het die koning vir die priesters, Sadok en Abjatar, laat weet: Praat met die leiers van Juda en vra: Waarom moet julle nou die laaste wees om die koning na sy paleis toe te laat terugkom? 12Julle is my broers, ja, julle is my mense. Waarom moet julle nou die laaste wees om die koning te laat terugkom? 13Sê vir Amasa ek sê: Is jy nie my eie bloedfamilie nie? Mag God my om die lewe bring as jy nie vir altyd die hoof van my leër word in die plek van Joab nie. 14So het hy die hele Juda soos een man na sy kant toe oorgehaal, en hulle het die koning laat weet: Kom terug! U en al u manskappe! 15Die koning is toe terug, en terwyl hy op pad was na die Jordaan toe, het Juda by Gilgal bymekaargekom om hom te ontmoet en oor die Jordaan te help. 16Simeï seun van Gera, die Benjaminiet van die stad Bagurim, het haastig saam met Juda afgegaan om koning Dawid te ontmoet. 17By hom was 'n afdeling soldate uit Benjamin, en

verder ook Siba, die bestuurder van Saul se huishouding, met sy vyftien seuns en twintig slawe. Hulle het voor die koning by die Jordaan aangekom. 18Hulle het deur die drif gegaan om die geselskap van die koning deur te bring en om te doen wat die koning wou hê. Net toe die koning die Jordaan wou deurtrek, kniel Simeï seun van Gera voor hom 19en sê: U Majesteit moet my die verkeerde daad tog nie toereken nie en moenie wat ek verkeerd gedoen het op die dag toe die koning uit Jerusalem uit gegaan het, ernstig opneem nie. 20Ek weet baie goed dat ek sleg opgetree het, maar let tog op dat ek vandag die heel eerste uit die huis van Josef is wat die koning kom ontmoet. 21Hierop het Abisai seun van Seruja gevra: Moet Simeï nie doodgemaak word nie? Hy het immers die gesalfde van die Here gevloek. 22Maar Dawid het geantwoord: Wat het dit met julle te doen, seuns van Seruja? As julle so praat, is julle my teenstanders. Moet daar dan vandag iemand in Israel doodgemaak word? Ek weet mos tog dat ek vandag koning oor Israel is. 23Verder het die koning vir Simeï gesê: Jy sal nie doodgemaak word nie. Die koning het dit vir hom selfs met 'n eed bevestig. 24Toe Saul se seun Mefiboset die koning kom ontmoet het, was sy voete en baard nie versorg nie; en sy klere was vandat die koning vertrek het tot op die dag dat hy in vrede teruggekom het, nie gewas nie. 25Toe hy in Jerusalem die koning kom ontmoet, vra die koning hom: Waarom het jy nie saam met my gegaan nie, Mefiboset? 26U Majesteit, antwoord hy, my helper het my in die steek gelaat, want ek het gesê: Ek wil 'n donkie opgesaal hê om op te ry en saam met die koning te gaan; ek is mos kreupel. 27Hy het my by u gaan beskinder, maar U Majesteit is soos 'n engel van God. U sal dus met my doen soos dit vir u die beste lyk. 28My hele familie het by u niks anders as die dood verdien nie, en tog het u my 'n plek gegee by dié wat by u aan huis eet. Ek het niks waarop ek my by die koning kan beroep nie. 29Toe antwoord die koning hom: Die saak is afgehandel. Ek beveel hiermee dat jy en Siba die grond moet deel. 30Mefiboset het geantwoord: Nou dat die koning behoue tuis gekom het, kan Siba maar alles vat. 31Barsillai die Gileadiet het van Rogelim af gekom vir die koning se oortog oor die Jordaan. 32Hy was al baie oud, tagtig jaar, en hy het die koning onderhou tydens sy verblyf in Maganajim, want hy was welgesteld. Hy wou daar by die Jordaan van die koning afskeid neem. 33Toe sê die koning vir hom: Kom saam met my, dan sal ek jou in Jerusalem by my onderhou. 34Maar hy het vir die koning gesê: Hoeveel langer het ek nog om te leef dat ek saam met die koning na Jerusalem toe moet optrek? 35Ek is nou tagtig. Kan ek nog iets geniet? Of kan ek nog proe wat ek eet en drink? Kan ek nog die stem van sangers en sangeresse waardeer? Waarom moet ek van my 'n oorlas maak by die koning? 36Waarvoor wil die koning my nou eintlik beloon? Ek wou maar net 'n klein entjie van die Jordaan af saam met u trek. 37Laat my nou maar omdraai en in my eie stad sterf, by die graf van my pa en ma. Maar kyk, hier is u onderdaan Kimham. Hy kan saam met u gaan, en u kan aan hom doen soos u dit goedvind. 38Toe sê die koning: Kimham kan maar saamgaan. Ek sal vir hom doen wat jy sê. Wat jy ook al van my verwag, sál ek vir hom doen. 39Daarna het die hele volk die Jordaan oorgesteek, en die koning het gevolg. Nadat die koning vir Barsillai gesoen en hom voorspoed toegewens het, het hy na sy stad toe teruggegaan. 40Die koning het by Gilgal verbygetrek, en Kimham saam met hom. Die hele Juda en ook die helfte van Israel het saam met die koning getrek. 41Toe het al die mense van Israel na die koning toe gekom en gesê: Waarom het ons broer Juda u gesteel en die koning met sy huisgesin en al die manskappe van Dawid saam met hom oor die Jordaan laat trek? 42Die hele Juda het Israel toe geantwoord: Maar die koning is mos familie van my. Waarom neem jy aanstoot hieraan? Het ons dalk iets van die koning geëet, of is ons op enige manier bevoordeel? 43Maar Israel antwoord vir Juda: Ek het tien keer meer aanspraak op die koningskap; selfs aan Dawid het ek meer as jy. Waarom het jy my nie in die saak geken nie? Was my uitnodiging nie eerste om my koning na my toe te laat terugkom nie? Maar Juda het 'n beter saak gehad as Israel.

The Rebellion of Sheba

2Sa 20:1 There happened to be in Gilgal a worthless character named Sheba son of Bikri, of the tribe of Benjamin. He blew the trumpet and called out, "Down with David! We won't follow him! Men of Israel, let's go home!"

2Sa 20:2 So the Israelites deserted David and went with Sheba, but the men of Judah remained loyal and followed David from the Jordan to Jerusalem.

2Sa 20:3 When David arrived at his palace in Jerusalem, he took the ten concubines he had left to take care of the palace, and put them under guard. He provided for their needs, but did not have intercourse with them. They were kept confined for the rest of their lives, living like widows.

2Sa 20:4 The king said to Amasa, "Call the men of Judah together and be back here with them by the day after tomorrow."

2Sa 20:5 Amasa went to call them, but he did not get back by the time the king had told him to.

2Sa 20:6 So the king said to Abishai, "Sheba will give us more trouble than Absalom. Take my men and go after him, or else he may occupy some fortified towns and escape from us."

2Sa 20:7 So Joab's men, the royal bodyguards, and all the other soldiers left Jerusalem with Abishai to go after Sheba.

2Sa 20:8 When they reached the large rock at Gibeon, Amasa met them. Joab was dressed for battle, with a sword in its sheath fastened to his belt. As he came forward, the sword fell out.

2Sa 20:9 Joab said to Amasa, "How are you, my friend?" and took hold of his beard with his right hand in order to kiss him.

2Sa 20:10 Amasa was not on guard against the sword that Joab was holding in his other hand, and Joab stabbed him in the belly, and his insides spilled out on the ground. He died immediately, and Joab did not have to strike again. Then Joab and his brother Abishai went on after Sheba.

2Sa 20:11 One of Joab's men stood by Amasa's body and called out, "Everyone who is for Joab and David follow Joab!"

2Sa 20:12 Amasa's body, covered with blood, was lying in the middle of the road. Joab's man saw that everybody was stopping, so he dragged the body from the road out into the field and threw a blanket over it.

2Sa 20:13 After the body had been removed from the road, everyone followed Joab in pursuit of Sheba.

2Sa 20:14 Sheba passed through the territory of all the tribes of Israel and came to the city of Abel Beth Maacah, and all the members of the clan of Bikri assembled and followed him into the city.

2Sa 20:15 Joab's men heard that Sheba was there, and so they went and besieged the city. They built ramps of earth against the outer wall and also began to dig under the wall to make it fall down.

2Sa 20:16 There was a wise woman in the city who shouted from the wall, "Listen! Listen! Tell Joab to come here; I want to speak with him."

2Sa 20:17 Joab went, and she asked, "Are you Joab?" "Yes, I am," he answered. "Listen to me, sir," she said. "I'm listening," he answered.

2Sa 20:18 She said, "Long ago they used to say, 'Go and get your answer in the city of Abel'—and that's just what they did.

2Sa 20:19 Ours is a great city, one of the most peaceful and loyal in Israel. Why are you trying to destroy it? Do you want to ruin what belongs to the LORD?"

2Sa 20:20 "Never!" Joab answered. "I will never ruin or destroy your city!

2Sa 20:21 That is not our plan. A man named Sheba son of Bikri, who is from the hill country of Ephraim, started a rebellion against King David. Hand over this one man, and I will withdraw from the city." "We will throw his head over the wall to you," she said.

2Sa 20:22 Then she went to the people of the city with her plan, and they cut off Sheba's head and threw it over the wall to Joab. He blew the trumpet as a signal for his men to leave the city, and they went back home. And Joab returned to Jerusalem to the king.

2Sa 20:23 Joab was in command of the army of Israel; Benaiah son of Jehoiada was in charge of David's bodyguards;

2Sa 20:24 Adoniram was in charge of the forced labor; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was in charge of the records;

2Sa 20:25 Sheva was the court secretary; Zadok and Abiathar were the priests, 2Sa 20:26 and Ira from the town of Jair was also one of David's priests.

1Daar was 'n opruier met die naam Seba seun van Bikri, 'n Benjaminiet. Hy het die ramshoring geblaas en gesê: Dawid is nie deel van ons nie; ons het niks aan Isai se seun nie. Elkeen terug na sy woonplek toe, Israel! 2Toe het die hele Israel weggetrek van Dawid af agter Seba seun van Bikri aan. Maar Juda het hulle koning van die Jordaan af Jerusalem toe gevolg. 3Toe koning Dawid in Jerusalem in sy paleis kom, het hy die tien vrouens, die byvrouens, wat hy agtergelaat het om die paleis op te pas, in 'n bewaakte huis gesit. Hy het hulle onderhou, maar nie by hulle geslaap nie, en hulle was tot met hulle dood afgesonder en lewenslank feitlik weduwees. 4Die koning het vir Amasa beveel: Roep die burgers van Juda vir my binne drie dae op. Kom meld jou dan weer aan. 5Amasa het Juda toe gaan oproep, maar hy het die tyd wat Dawid vasgestel het, oorskry. 6Toe sê die koning vir Abisai: Nou sal Seba seun van Bikri ons meer moeilikheid gee as Absalom. Vat jy my manskappe en haal hom in voordat hy dalk die een of ander sterk stad bereik waar ons hom nie kan bykom nie. 7Joab en sy afdeling het ook agter hom aan uitgetrek. Die koninklike lyfwag en al die vegters het uit Jerusalem getrek om Seba seun van Bikri te agtervolg. 8Terwyl hulle by die groot klip in Gibeon was, het Amasa by hulle gekom. Joab het nog sy mantel aangehad waaroor sy swaard in die skede vasgegespe was. Hy het op Amasa afgestap, en toe val die swaard uit. 9Joab het vir hom gevra: Gaan dit goed met jou, my broer? en hom met sy regterhand aan die baard gegryp asof hy hom wou soen. 10Amasa was nie op sy hoede vir die swaard in Joab se ander hand nie, en Joab het hom daarmee in die onderlyf gesteek, sodat sy ingewande op die grond uitgeval het. 'n Tweede steek was onnodig; hy sou sterf. Joab en sy broer Abisai het toe vir Seba seun van Bikri agtervolg. 11Een van Joab se volgelinge het by Amasa bly staan en gesê: Wie vir Joab verkies en wie vir Dawid is, volg Joab. 12Maar Amasa het in die middel van die pad in sy bloed gelê en gekrul van die pyn. Toe die man sien dat al die manskappe gaan staan, het hy vir Amasa uit die pad uit die veld in gesleep en 'n kledingstuk oor hom gegooi, want elkeen wat hom gesien het, het gaan staan. 13Toe hy uit die pad verwyder is, het almal Joab gevolg om Seba seun van Bikri agterna te sit. 14Seba het met al die stamme van Israel getrek na Abel toe, dit is Bet-Maäka. Al die Beriete het bymekaargekom en hom ook gevolg. 15Joab-hulle het toe gekom en vir Seba beleër in Abel-Bet-Maäka. Hulle het 'n beleëringswal teen die stad gegooi. Toe dit al vas teen die voorskans staan, en die hele leër wat by Joab was, besig was om die muur te ondergrawe en dit so te laat val, 16het 'n wyse vrou vanuit die stad geroep: Luister! Luister! Sê tog vir Joab hy moet hierheen kom, ek wil met hom praat. 17Hy het nader gegaan en die vrou het gevra: Is u Joab? Hy het geantwoord: Ja, en sy sê vir hom: Luister tog na my woorde. Ek luister, was sy antwoord. 18Sy sê toe: Vanmelewe het die mense altyd gesê: Hulle kan gerus maar by Abel kom raad vra,' en dan het hulle daarvolgens gehandel. 19Ons is van die heel getroustes in Israel. U wil nou 'n stad uitroei wat in Israel in aansien is. Waarom wil u 'n stad wat aan die Here behoort, uitroei? 20Toe antwoord Joab: Dit wil ek glad nie doen nie. Ek wil nie uitroei of uitwis nie. 21Dit gaan maar net oor 'n man uit die Efraimsberge. Sy naam is Seba seun van Bikri. Hy het teen koning Dawid in opstand gekom. Lewer hom net uit, dan trek ek van die stad af weg. Hierop het die vrou geantwoord: Goed! Sy kop sal vir jou oor die muur gegooi word. 22Die vrou is toe met haar plan na die stadsburgers toe, en hulle het Seba seun van Bikri se kop afgesny en dit na Joab toe oorgegooi. Hy het die ramshoring geblaas, en die manskappe het van die stad af uitmekaargegaan, elkeen na sy woonplek toe. Maar Joab het na die koning toe teruggegaan in Jerusalem. 23Joab was die bevelvoerder oor die hele Israelitiese leër. Benaja seun van Jojada het die beheer gehad oor die koninklike lyfwag. 24Adoniram was in bevel van die dwangarbeiders. Josafat seun van Agilud was hoof uitvoerende beampte; 25Sewa was staatsekretaris, en Sadok en Abjatar was priesters. 26En verder was Ira, uit Jaïr, ook priester onder Dawid.

David Avenges the Gibeonites

2Sa 21:1 During David's reign there was a severe famine which lasted for three full years. So David consulted the LORD about it, and the LORD said, "Saul and his family are guilty of murder; he put the people of Gibeon to death."

2Sa 21:2 (The people of Gibeon were not Israelites; they were a small group of Amorites whom the Israelites had promised to protect, but Saul had tried to destroy them because of his zeal for the people of Israel and Judah.)

2Sa 21:3 So David summoned the people of Gibeon and said to them, "What can I do for you? I want to make up for the wrong that was done to you, so that you will bless the LORD's people."

2Sa 21:4 They answered, "Our quarrel with Saul and his family can't be settled with silver or gold, nor do we want to kill any Israelite." "What, then, do you think I should do for you?" David asked.

2Sa 21:5 They answered, "Saul wanted to destroy us and leave none of us alive anywhere in Israel.

2Sa 21:6 So hand over seven of his male descendants, and we will hang them before the LORD at Gibeah, the hometown of Saul, the LORD's chosen king." "I will hand them over," the king answered.

2Sa 21:7 But because of the sacred promise that he and Jonathan had made to each other, David spared Jonathan's son Mephibosheth, the grandson of Saul.

2Sa 21:8 However, he took Armoni and Mephibosheth, the two sons that Rizpah the daughter of Aiah had borne to Saul; he also took the five sons of Saul's daughter Merab, whom she had borne to Adriel son of Barzillai, who was from Meholah.

2Sa 21:9 David handed them over to the people of Gibeon, who hanged them on the mountain before the LORD—and all seven of them died together. It was late in the spring, at the beginning of the barley harvest, when they were put to death.

2Sa 21:10 Then Saul's concubine Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah, used sackcloth to make a shelter for herself on the rock where the corpses were, and she stayed there from the beginning of harvest until the autumn rains came. During the day she would keep the birds away from the corpses, and at night she would protect them from wild animals.

2Sa 21:11 When David heard what Rizpah had done,

2Sa 21:12 he went and got the bones of Saul and of his son Jonathan from the people of Jabesh in Gilead. (They had stolen them from the public square in Beth Shan, where the Philistines had hanged the bodies on the day they killed Saul on Mount Gilboa.)

2Sa 21:13 David took the bones of Saul and Jonathan and also gathered up the bones of the seven men who had been hanged.

2Sa 21:14 Then they buried the bones of Saul and Jonathan in the grave of Saul's father Kish, in Zela in the territory of Benjamin, doing all that the king had commanded. And after that, God answered their prayers for the country.

War with the Philistines

2Sa 21:15 There was another war between the Philistines and Israel, and David and his men went and fought the Philistines. During one of the battles David grew tired.

2Sa 21:16 A giant named Ishbibenob, who was carrying a bronze spear that weighed about seven and a half pounds and who was wearing a new sword, thought he could kill David.

2Sa 21:17 But Abishai son of Zeruiah came to David's help, attacked the giant, and killed him. Then David's men made David promise that he would never again go out with them to battle. "You are the hope of Israel, and we don't want to lose you," they said.

2Sa 21:18 After this there was a battle with the Philistines at Gob, during which Sibbecai from Hushah killed a giant named Saph.

2Sa 21:19 There was another battle with the Philistines at Gob, and Elhanan son of Jair from Bethlehem killed Goliath from Gath, whose spear had a shaft as thick as the bar on a weaver's loom.

2Sa 21:20 Then there was another battle at Gath, where there was a giant who loved to fight. He had six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot.

2Sa 21:21 He defied the Israelites, and Jonathan, the son of David's brother Shammah, killed him.

2Sa 21:22 These four were descendants of the giants of Gath, and they were killed by David and his men.

II SAMUEL 21

1In Dawid se tyd was daar 'n keer hongersnood wat drie jaar aanmekaar geduur het. Dawid het toe die Here geraadpleeg, en die Here het geantwoord: Dit is te wyte aan Saul en sy moordenaarshuis, want hy het van die Gibeoniete laat doodmaak. 2Die koning het toe die Gibeoniete laat roep. Hulle was natuurlik nie Israeliete nie, maar 'n oorblyfsel van die Amoriete. Die Israeliete het 'n verdrag met hulle gesluit gehad, maar later het Saul hulle probeer uitroei in sy geesdrif vir die saak van Israel en Juda. 3Dawid het vir die Gibeoniete gesê: Wat moet ek vir julle doen en hoe moet ek julle vergoed sodat die land van die Here weer sy oeste kan lewer? 4Die Gibeoniete het hierop geantwoord: Ons verwag nie silwer of goud van Saul en sy familie nie en ook nie dat iemand in Israel doodgemaak moet word nie. Dawid vra toe: Wat wil julle dan hê moet ek vir julle doen? 5Hulle antwoord die koning: Daar was 'n man wat ons wou uitroei en wat beplan het om ons te verdelg sodat ons nie in die grondgebied van Israel kon voortbestaan nie. 6Daar moet nou sewe mans uit sy familie aan ons gegee word, sodat ons hulle kan doodmaak en voor die Here kan ophang by Gibea van Saul, die man wat deur die Here uitgekies was. Dawid het geantwoord: Goed, ek sal dit doen. 7Die koning het Mefiboset, seun van Jonatan seun van Saul, gespaar vanweë die verbond wat in die Naam van die Here tussen Dawid en Saul se seun Jonatan bestaan het. 8Maar die koning het vir Armoni en Mefiboset, die twee seuns wat Rispa dogter van Aja by Saul gehad het, gevat asook die vyf seuns van Saul se dogter Merab wat sy gehad het by Adriël seun van Barsillai die Megolatiet. 9Hy het hulle almal uitgelewer aan die Gibeoniete wat hulle doodgemaak en voor die Here op die berg opgehang het. Die sewetal het saam omgekom. Hulle is gedood teen die tyd dat daar gewoonlik begin word met die garsoes. 10Rispa dogter van Aja het toe rouklere gevat en dit vir haar op 'n rots oopgegooi. Van die begin van die oestyd af totdat die reëntyd aangebreek het, het sy bedags die roofvoëls en snags die roofdiere nie aan die lyke laat vreet nie. 11Toe daar aan Dawid meegedeel is wat Aja se dogter Rispa, 'n byvrou van Saul, gedoen het, 12het hy die bene van Saul en sy seun Jonatan laat haal by die burgers van Jabes in Gilead. Hulle het dit destyds op die stadsplein van Bet-San gaan steel waar die Filistyne dit opgehang het toe Saul op Gilboa verslaan is. 13Hy het Saul en sy seun Jonatan se bene daarvandaan laat bring en ook dié van die manne wat op die berg opgehang is 14en almal by Sela in Benjamin laat begrawe in die graf van Kis, Saul se pa. Alles is gedoen net soos die koning beveel het. Daarna het God weer gebede vir die land verhoor. 15Daar het oorlog uitgebreek tussen die Filistyne en die Israeliete. Dawid en sy manskappe het teen die Filistyne gaan veg en Dawid het moeg geword. [16]Jisbi van Nob, uit die geslag van die Refaïete, het toe gedink hy kan Dawid sonder moeite doodmaak. Jisbi se bronsspies het byna vier kilogram geweeg, en hy het 'n nuwe uitrusting gehad. [17]Seruja se seun Abisai het Dawid egter gehelp en die Filistyn platgeslaan en doodgemaak. Toe het die manne van Dawid vir hom gesê: U wat die lamp van Israel is, mag nie meer saam met ons na die oorlog toe uittrek nie, sodat die lamp nie doodgeblaas sal word nie. [18]Daarna was daar weer oorlog teen die Filistyne in Gob. Daar het Sibbekai uit Gusa vir Sippai uit die geslag van die Refaïete verslaan. [19]In 'n ander geveg teen die Filistyne in Gob het Elganan seun van Jaäre-Oregim van Betlehem vir Goliat die Gattiet doodgemaak. Sy spiessteel was so dik soos die dwarsbalk van 'n weefstoel. [20]Op 'n ander keer was daar oorlog in Gat. Daar was 'n lang man met ses vingers aan elke hand en ses tone aan elke voet; saam was dit vier en twintig. Hy was ook 'n Refaïet van geboorte. [21]Hy het die Israeliete getart en toe het Jonatan, seun van Dawid se broer Samma, hom doodgemaak. [22]Hierdie vier was Refaïete wat in Gat gebore is. Dawid en sy manskappe het hulle laat sneuwel.

David's Song of Deliverance

2Sa 22:1 When the LORD saved David from Saul and his other enemies, David sang this song to the LORD:

2Sa 22:2 The LORD is my protector; he is my strong fortress.

2Sa 22:3 My God is my protection, and with him I am safe. He protects me like a shield; he defends me and keeps me safe. He is my savior; he protects me and saves me from violence.

2Sa 22:4 I call to the LORD, and he saves me from my enemies. Praise the LORD!

2Sa 22:5 The waves of death were all around me; the waves of destruction rolled over me.

2Sa 22:6 The danger of death was around me, and the grave set its trap for me.

2Sa 22:7 In my trouble I called to the LORD; I called to my God for help. In his temple he heard my voice; he listened to my cry for help.

2Sa 22:8 Then the earth trembled and shook; the foundations of the sky rocked and quivered because God was angry!

2Sa 22:9 Smoke poured out of his nostrils, a consuming flame and burning coals from his mouth.

2Sa 22:10 He tore the sky open and came down, with a dark cloud under his feet.

2Sa 22:11 He flew swiftly on his winged creature; he traveled on the wings of the wind.

2Sa 22:12 He covered himself with darkness; thick clouds, full of water, surrounded him;

2Sa 22:13 burning coals flamed up from the lightning before him.

2Sa 22:14 Then the LORD thundered from the sky, and the voice of Almighty God was heard.

2Sa 22:15 He shot his arrows and scattered his enemies; with flashes of lightning he sent them running.

2Sa 22:16 The floor of the ocean was laid bare, and the foundations of the earth were uncovered when the LORD rebuked his enemies and roared at them in anger.

2Sa 22:17 The LORD reached down from above and took hold of me; he pulled me out of the deep waters.

2Sa 22:18 He rescued me from my powerful enemies and from all those who hate me—they were too strong for me.

2Sa 22:19 When I was in trouble, they attacked me, but the LORD protected me.

2Sa 22:20 He helped me out of danger; he saved me because he was pleased with me.

2Sa 22:21 The LORD rewards me because I do what is right; he blesses me because I am innocent.

2Sa 22:22 I have obeyed the law of the LORD; I have not turned away from my God.

2Sa 22:23 I have observed all his laws; I have not disobeyed his commands.

2Sa 22:24 He knows that I am faultless, that I have kept myself from doing wrong.

2Sa 22:25 And so he rewards me because I do what is right, because he knows that I am innocent.

2Sa 22:26 O LORD, you are faithful to those who are faithful to you, and completely good to those who are perfect.

2Sa 22:27 You are pure to those who are pure, but hostile to those who are wicked.

2Sa 22:28 You save those who are humble, but you humble those who are proud.

2Sa 22:29 You, LORD, are my light; you dispel my darkness.

2Sa 22:30 You give me strength to attack my enemies and power to overcome their defenses.

2Sa 22:31 This God—how perfect are his deeds, how dependable his words! He is like a shield for all who seek his protection.

2Sa 22:32 The LORD alone is God; God alone is our defense.

2Sa 22:33 This God is my strong refuge; he makes my pathway safe.

2Sa 22:34 He makes me sure-footed as a deer; he keeps me safe on the mountains.

2Sa 22:35 He trains me for battle, so that I can use the strongest bow.

2Sa 22:36 O LORD, you protect me and save me; your help has made me great.

2Sa 22:37 You have kept me from being captured, and I have never fallen.

2Sa 22:38 I pursue my enemies and defeat them; I do not stop until I destroy them.

2Sa 22:39 I strike them down, and they cannot rise; they lie defeated before me.

2Sa 22:40 You give me strength for the battle and victory over my enemies.

2Sa 22:41 You make my enemies run from me; I destroy those who hate me.

2Sa 22:42 They look for help, but no one saves them; they call to the LORD, but he does not answer.

2Sa 22:43 I crush them, and they become like dust; I trample on them like mud in the streets.

2Sa 22:44 You saved me from my rebellious people and maintained my rule over the nations; people I did not know have now become my subjects.

2Sa 22:45 Foreigners bow before me; when they hear me, they obey.

2Sa 22:46 They lose their courage and come trembling from their fortresses.

2Sa 22:47 The LORD lives! Praise my defender! Proclaim the greatness of the strong God who saves me!

2Sa 22:48 He gives me victory over my enemies; he subdues the nations under me

2Sa 22:49 and saves me from my foes. O LORD, you give me victory over my enemies and protect me from violent men.

2Sa 22:50 And so I praise you among the nations; I sing praises to you.

2Sa 22:51 God gives great victories to his king; he shows constant love to the one he has chosen, to David and his descendants forever.

II SAMUEL 22

1Dawid het die woorde van hierdie lied tot die Here gerig op die dag toe die Here hom gered het uit die mag van al sy vyande en uit die mag van Saul. 2Die Here is my rots, my skuilplek en my redder, 3my God, my rots, by wie ek skuil, my skild en sterk verlosser, my veilige vesting, my toevlug en bevryder. Van geweld het U my verlos. 4Onder bespotting roep ek na die Here, dan word ek van my vyande gered. 5Waarlik, golwe van die dood het my omsluit, strome van onheil het my verskrik. 6Bande van die doderyk het my vasgetrek, strikke van die dood het my bedreig. 7In my nood roep ek na die Here, ja, ek roep om hulp na my God. In sy paleis hoor Hy my geroep. Ek roep na Hom om hulp, en Hy luister na my. 8Die aarde het geskud en gebewe, die fondamente van die hemel het getril en geskud, want Hy was vertoorn. 9Rook het uit sy neus getrek, vuur uit sy mond het alles verteer, gloeiende kole uit sy binneste. 10Hy het die hemel afgebuig en afgekom, onder sy voete was duisternis. 11Hy het op 'n gerub geklim en gevlieg; op die vleuels van die wind het Hy verskyn. 12Hy het Hom in donkerte gehul, donker waters en wolkemassas was sy bedekking. 13Uit die gloed voor Hom het weerligstrale geblits. 14Die Here het dit uit die hemel laat dreun, die Allerhoogste het sy stem laat hoor. 15Hy het sy pyle afgeskiet en die vyand uitmekaar gejaag, hulle met weerligstrale op loop gejaag. 16Die seebodem het sigbaar geword, die fondamente van die aarde is blootgelê deurdat U, Here, op hulle gebulder het met die orkaan van u toorn. 17Van bo af het Hy sy hand uitgestrek en my gegryp, my uit geweldige waters uitgelig. 18Hy het my gered van my vyand wat sterk was, van my haters toe hulle vir my te magtig was. 19Die dag toe hulle my aangeval het, was my ondergang naby, maar die Here het my daarvan bewaar. 20Hy het my in vryheid laat uitgaan, my gered omdat Hy my liefhet. 21Die Here het aan my reg laat geskied, Hy het my onskuld aanvaar, 22want ek het my aan sy voorskrifte gehou en my nie teenoor my God skuldig gemaak nie; 23ek het my deur al sy bepalings laat lei en nie van sy voorskrifte afgewyk nie. 24Ek was opreg voor Hom, ek was op my hoede teen enige ongeregtigheid. 25Die Here het aan my reg laat geskied want ek was onskuldig in sy oë. 26U betoon U getrou teenoor die getroue, opreg teenoor die opregte, 27rein teenoor die reine, maar U verwerp die huigelaar. 28U red die verdrukte volk, U verneder die trotses. 29U, Here, laat my lamp helder skyn; my God gee lig as dit donker is om my. 30Met u hulp loop ek 'n oormag storm, met my God by my is geen stadsmuur vir my te hoog nie. 31Wat God doen, is volmaak; wat die Here sê, is suiwer. Elkeen wat by Hom skuiling soek, beskerm Hy. 32Waarlik, wie anders as die Here is God? Ja, wie anders as ons God is 'n rots? 33God omgord my met krag; Hy maak my pad voorspoedig. 34Hy maak my voete soos dié van 'n ribbok; op hoë plekke laat Hy my stewig staan. 35Hy leer my hande om oorlog te maak, my arms om selfs die stramste boog te span. 36Die redding wat U gebring het, was vir my 'n beskerming, deur u hulp het ek sterk geword. 37U het my ruim vastrapplek gegee, my enkels het nie geswik nie. 38Ek het my vyande agtervolg en ingehaal, ek het nie omgedraai voordat hulle uitgewis was nie. 39Ja, ek het hulle verpletter, sodat hulle nie weer kon opstaan nie. Hulle het voor my voete gesneuwel. 40U het my met krag omgord vir die stryd, U het my teëstanders voor my laat swig. 41U het my vyande voor my laat vlug en ek kon my haters uitwis. 42Hulle roep om hulp, en daar is niemand wat help nie; hulle roep selfs na die Here, maar Hy antwoord hulle nie. 43Ek maak hulle fyn soos stof, ek laat hulle wegspat soos modder in die strate, ja, ek vermorsel hulle. 44U het my gered van opstandige mense, my as hoof van vreemde nasies aangestel. 'n Volk wat ek nie geken het nie, is my onderdane. 45Wie ook al van my verneem, gehoorsaam my. Vreemde volke kruip voor my. 46Hulle skrik en kom bewend uit hulle forte uit. 47Die Here leef! Ek loof Hom wat my rots is. Ek prys my God wat my verlos het. 48Dit is God wat my die oorwinning gee, wat volke aan my onderwerp. 49Hy red my van my vyande. Ja, U stel my buite bereik van my teëstanders, U bevry my van geweldenaars. 50Daarvoor sal ek U loof voor die nasies, Here, tot eer van u Naam 'n lofpsalm sing! 51Dit is Hy wat aan sy koning groot oorwinnings gee en trou aan sy gesalfde betoon, aan Dawid en sy nageslag vir altyd!

The Last Words of David

2Sa 23:1 David son of Jesse was the man whom God made great, whom the God of Jacob chose to be king, and who was the composer of beautiful songs for Israel. These are David's last words:

2Sa 23:2 The spirit of the LORD speaks through me; his message is on my lips.

2Sa 23:3 The God of Israel has spoken; the protector of Israel said to me: "The king who rules with justice, who rules in obedience to God, 2Sa 23:4 is like the sun shining on a cloudless dawn, the sun that makes the grass sparkle after rain."

2Sa 23:5 And that is how God will bless my descendants, because he has made an eternal covenant with me, an agreement that will not be broken, a promise that will not be changed. That is all I desire; that will be my victory, and God will surely bring it about.

2Sa 23:6 But godless people are like thorns that are thrown away; no one can touch them barehanded.

2Sa 23:7 You must use an iron tool or a spear; they will be burned completely.

David's Mighty Men

2Sa 23:8 These are the names of David's famous soldiers: the first was Josheb Basshebeth from Tachemon, who was the leader of "The Three"; he fought with his spear against eight hundred men and killed them all in one battle.

2Sa 23:9 The second of the famous three was Eleazar son of Dodo, of the clan of Ahoh. One day he and David challenged the Philistines who had gathered for battle. The Israelites fell back, 2Sa 23:10 but he stood his ground and fought the Philistines until his hand was so cramped that he could not let go of his sword. The LORD won a great victory that day. After it was over, the Israelites returned to where Eleazar was and stripped the armor from the dead.

2Sa 23:11 The third of the famous three was Shammah son of Agee from Harar. The Philistines had gathered at Lehi, where there was a field of peas. The Israelites fled from the Philistines, 2Sa 23:12 but Shammah stood his ground in the field, defended it, and killed the Philistines. The LORD won a great victory that day.

2Sa 23:13 Near the beginning of harvest time three of "The Thirty" went down to Adullam Cave, where David was, while a band of Philistines was camping in Rephaim Valley.

2Sa 23:14 At that time David was on a fortified hill, and a group of Philistines had occupied Bethlehem.

2Sa 23:15 David grew homesick and said, "How I wish someone would bring me a drink of water from the well by the gate at Bethlehem!"

2Sa 23:16 The three famous soldiers forced their way through the Philistine camp, drew some water from the well, and brought it back to David. But he would not drink it; instead he poured it out as an offering to the LORD

2Sa 23:17 and said, " LORD, I could never drink this! It would be like drinking the blood of these men who risked their lives!" So he refused to drink it. Those were the brave deeds of the three famous soldiers.

2Sa 23:18 Joab's brother Abishai (their mother was Zeruiah) was the leader of "The Famous Thirty." He fought with his spear against three hundred men and killed them, and became famous among "The Thirty."

2Sa 23:19 He was the most famous of "The Thirty" and became their leader, but he was not as famous as "The Three."

2Sa 23:20 Benaiah son of Jehoiada from Kabzeel was another famous soldier; he did many brave deeds, including killing two great Moabite warriors. He once went down into a pit on a snowy day and killed a lion.

2Sa 23:21 He also killed an Egyptian, a huge man who was armed with a spear. Benaiah attacked him with his club, snatched the spear from the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with it.

2Sa 23:22 Those were the brave deeds of Benaiah, who was one of "The Thirty."

2Sa 23:23 He was outstanding among them, but was not as famous as "The Three." David put him in charge of his bodyguard.

2Sa 23:24 (24-39) Other members of "The Thirty" included: Asahel, Joab's brother Elhanan son of Dodo from Bethlehem Shammah and Elika from Harod Helez from Pelet Ira son of Ikkesh from Tekoa Abiezer from Anathoth Mebunnai from Hushah Zalmon from Ahoh Maharai from Netophah Heleb son of Baanah from Netophah Ittai son of Ribai from Gibeah in Benjamin Benaiah from Pirathon Hiddai from the valleys near Gaash Abialbon from Arabah Azmaveth from Bahurim Eliahba from Shaalbon The sons of Jashen Jonathan Shammah from Harar Ahiam son of Sharar from Harar Eliphelet son of Ahasbai from Maacah Eliam son of Ahithophel from Gilo Hezro from Carmel Paarai from Arab Igal son of Nathan from Zobah Bani from Gad Zelek from Ammon Naharai from Beeroth, Joab's armorbearer Ira and Gareb from Jattir Uriah the Hittite. There were thirty-seven famous soldiers in all.

1Hier volg die laaste woorde van Dawid: Dit is Dawid seun van Isai wat praat. Dit is 'n man wat praat, een wat hoog geplaas is, die gesalfde van die God van Jakob, die gevierde in die liedere van Israel: 2Die Gees van die Here het deur my gepraat, ja, sy woord was op my lippe. 3Die God van Israel het gepraat, die Rots van Israel het vir my gesê: Hy wat regverdig oor mense heers, wat regeer in eerbied teenoor God, 4is soos die môrelig as die son opkom op 'n oggend sonder wolke; dit skitter na die reën; die gras skiet op uit die grond.' 5God het my koningskap goed gevestig, Hy het aan my 'n verbond vir altyd gegee, behoorlik opgestel en goed bewaar. Al my hulp, al my vreugde, dit kom van Hom af. 6Maar die goddelose is soos doringtakke wat alles weggegooi word; niemand vat met die hand daaraan nie. 7Wie daarmee werk, doen dit met yster of hout. In 'n vuur brand hulle heeltemal uit. 8Die volgende dapper manne was by Dawid: Joseb-Bassebet die Tagkemoner was hoof van die driemanskap. Hy het met sy spies ag honderd man in een veldslag laat sneuwel. 9Eleasar seun van Dodo uit Agoag was onder hom. Hy was een van die drie helde by Dawid toe die Filistyne by Garpam bymekaargekom het om te veg. Toe die Israeliete teen die hange uit vlug, 10het hy bly staan en Filistyne afgemaai totdat hy later nie meer sy hand kon oopmaak om sy swaard te los nie. Daardie dag het die Here groot uitkoms gegee. En toe eers het die manskappe vir Eleasar gevolg, net om te plunder. 11Onder hom was Agee se seun Samma, uit Harar. Die Filistyne het bymekaargekom by Legi waar 'n land vol lensies was. Toe die leër vir die Filistyne vlug, 12het hy by daardie akker gaan stelling inneem en dit beskerm. Hy het die Filistyne verslaan, en die Here het groot uitkoms gegee. 13Op 'n keer het drie van die dertig leiers afgetrek en in die oestyd by die Adullamgrot by Dawid aangekom. Die kamp van die Filistyne was in die Spooklaagte. 14Dawid was toe in 'n bergskuiling, en die Filistyne het Betlehem beset. 15Dawid het baie dors geword en gesug: Ag, as iemand my tog net water uit die put in Betlehem se poort kon laat drink! 16Die drie helde het toe deur die Filistynse kamp geglip en water uit die put in Betlehem se poort vir Dawid gebring, maar hy wou dit nie drink nie. Hy het dit as 'n offer vir die Here uitgegiet 17en gesê: Mag die Here my daarvan bewaar dat ek dit sou drink. Is dit nie so goed as die bloed van die manne wat met lewensgevaar gegaan het nie? Daarom wou hy dit nie drink nie. Dit het die drie helde gedoen. 18Seruja se seun Abisai, die broer van Joab, was die leier van die dertigtal. Hy het met sy spies drie honderd man laat sneuwel. Hy was beroemd onder die dertigtal. 19Ja, onder die dertig was hy hoog geëer, sodat hy hulle aanvoerder geword het. Maar een van die driemanskap het hy nie geword nie. [20]Benaja seun van Jojada, seun van Isgai, was afkomstig uit Kabseël. Hy was 'n man van baie dade en het twee sterk manne in Moab doodgemaak. Op 'n sneeudag het hy in 'n droë put afgeklim en 'n leeu daar doodgemaak. [21]Hy het ook 'n frisgeboude Egiptenaar doodgeslaan. Die Egiptenaar het nogal 'n spies in sy hand gehad, terwyl Benaja hom net met 'n stok gepak het. Hy het die spies uit die Egiptenaar se hand geruk en hom met sy eie spies van kant gemaak. [22]Dit het Benaja seun van Jojada gedoen. Hy was beroemd onder die dertig helde. [23]Hy het 'n hoër rang gehad as die res van die dertig, maar een van die driemanskap het hy nie geword nie. Dawid het hom oor sy lyfwag aangestel. [24]Asael, Joab se broer, was onder die dertigtal. So ook Elganan seun van Dodo uit Betlehem, [25]Samma uit Garod, Elika uit Garod, [26]Geles uit Pelet, Ira seun van Ikkes uit Tekoa, [27]Abiëser uit Anatot, Sibbekai uit Gusa, [28]Salmon uit Agoag, Marai uit Netofa, [29]Geled seun van Baäna uit Netofa, Ittai seun van Ribai uit Gibea in Benjamin, [30]Benaja uit Piraton, Hiddai uit Nagale-Gaäs, [31]Abi-Albon uit Bet-Araba, Asmawet uit Bagurim, [32]Eljagba uit Saälbon, die seuns van Jasen, Jonatan, [33]Samma uit Harar, Agiam seun van Sarar uit Arar, [34]Elifelet seun van Agasbai, seun van iemand uit Maäka, Eliam seun van Agitofel uit Gilo, [35]Gesro uit Karmel, Paärai uit Arab, [36]Jigal seun van Natan uit Soba, Bani uit Gad, [37]Selek die Ammoniet, Nagrai uit Beërot, wapendraer van Joab seun van Seruja, [38]Ira uit Jeter, Gareb uit Jeter, [39]Urija die Hetiet. Daar was altesaam sewe en dertig.

David's Census

2Sa 24:1 On another occasion the LORD was angry with Israel, and he made David bring trouble on them. The LORD said to him, "Go and count the people of Israel and Judah."

2Sa 24:2 So David gave orders to Joab, the commander of his army: "Go with your officers through all the tribes of Israel from one end of the country to the other, and count the people. I want to know how many there are."

2Sa 24:3 But Joab answered the king, "Your Majesty, may the LORD your God make the people of Israel a hundred times more numerous than they are now, and may you live to see him do it. But why does Your Majesty want to do this?"

2Sa 24:4 But the king made Joab and his officers obey his order; they left his presence and went out to count the people of Israel.

2Sa 24:5 They crossed the Jordan and camped south of Aroer, the city in the middle of the valley, in the territory of Gad. From there they went north to Jazer, 2Sa 24:6 and on to Gilead and to Kadesh, in Hittite territory. Then they went to Dan, and from Dan they went west to Sidon.

2Sa 24:7 Then they went south to the fortified city of Tyre, on to all the cities of the Hivites and the Canaanites, and finally to Beersheba, in the southern part of Judah.

2Sa 24:8 So after nine months and twenty days they returned to Jerusalem, having traveled through the whole country.

2Sa 24:9 They reported to the king the total number of men capable of military service: 800,000 in Israel and 500,000 in Judah.

The Lord's Judgment of David's Sin

2Sa 24:10 But after David had taken the census, his conscience began to hurt, and he said to the LORD, "I have committed a terrible sin in doing this! Please forgive me. I have acted foolishly."

2Sa 24:11 (11-12) The LORD said to Gad, David's prophet, "Go and tell David that I am giving him three choices. I will do whichever he chooses." The next morning, after David had gotten up,

2Sa 24:13 Gad went to him, told him what the LORD had said, and asked, "Which is it to be? Three years of famine in your land or three months of running away from your enemies or three days of an epidemic in your land? Now think it over, and tell me what answer to take back to the LORD."

2Sa 24:14 David answered, "I am in a desperate situation! But I don't want to be punished by people. Let the LORD himself be the one to punish us, for he is merciful."

2Sa 24:15 So the LORD sent an epidemic on Israel, which lasted from that morning until the time that he had chosen. From one end of the country to the other seventy thousand Israelites died.

2Sa 24:16 When the LORD's angel was about to destroy Jerusalem, the LORD changed his mind about punishing the people and said to the angel who was killing them, "Stop! That's enough!" The angel was by the threshing place of Araunah, a Jebusite.

2Sa 24:17 David saw the angel who was killing the people, and said to the LORD, "I am the guilty one. I am the one who did wrong. What have these poor people done? You should punish me and my family."

David Builds an Altar

2Sa 24:18 That same day Gad went to David and said to him, "Go up to Araunah's threshing place and build an altar to the LORD."

2Sa 24:19 David obeyed the LORD's command and went as Gad had told him to.

2Sa 24:20 Araunah looked down and saw the king and his officials coming up to him. He threw himself on the ground in front of David

2Sa 24:21 and asked, "Your Majesty, why are you here?" David answered, "To buy your threshing place and build an altar for the LORD, in order to stop the epidemic."

2Sa 24:22 "Take it, Your Majesty," Araunah said, "and offer to the LORD whatever you wish. Here are these oxen to burn as an offering on the altar; here are their yokes and the threshing boards to use as fuel."

2Sa 24:23 Araunah gave it all to the king and said to him, "May the LORD your God accept your offering."

2Sa 24:24 But the king answered, "No, I will pay you for it. I will not offer to the LORD my God sacrifices that have cost me nothing." And he bought the threshing place and the oxen for fifty pieces of silver.

2Sa 24:25 Then he built an altar to the LORD and offered burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. The LORD answered his prayer, and the epidemic in Israel was stopped.

II SAMUEL 24

1Op 'n keer was die Here vertoorn op Israel. Hy het Dawid teen hulle aangehits en gesê: Gaan tel die Israeliete en die Judeërs. 2Die koning het vir Joab, die hoof van die leër, wat by hom was, gesê: Trek rond deur al die Israelitiese stamme van die noorde tot die suide en tel die volk. Ek wil weet hoeveel hulle is. 3Joab het die koning geantwoord: Selfs al sou die Here u God die volk honderd maal laat vermeerder en die koning sien dit self, watter genot sou dit u verskaf? 4Toe die koning egter vir Joab en die leëroffisiere nadruklik so beveel, is hulle van hom af weg om die volk te tel. 5Hulle het deur die Jordaan gegaan en by Aroër suid van die stad by die spruit begin. Daarvandaan is hulle na Gad en Jaeser toe 6en het hulle Gilead deurgegaan tot by die land onderkant Kades. Toe het hulle by Dan gekom en daarvandaan is hulle oor Sidon, 7waarna hulle by die vesting Tirus en al die stede van die Hewiete en Kanaäniete gekom het. Toe is hulle af na Berseba toe in die suide van Juda. 8Hulle het die hele land deurreis en na nege maande en twintig dae weer in Jerusalem teruggekom, 9en Joab het die uitslag van die telling aan die koning gegee. Israel was ag honderd duisend weerbare man wat kon oorlog maak en Juda vyf honderd duisend. 10Nadat hy die volk laat tel het, het Dawid se gewete hom gekwel. Hy het teenoor die Here bely: Ek het swaar gesondig met wat ek gedoen het. Vergewe tog nou my oortreding, Here! Waarlik, ek het baie dwaas opgetree. 11Nadat Dawid die oggend opgestaan het, het die profeet Gad, die siener van Dawid, na hom toe gekom. Die woord van die Here het tot Gad gekom en gesê: 12Gaan sê vir Dawid: So het die Here gesê: Ek lê drie dinge aan jou voor. Kies vir jou een daarvan, dan sal Ek dit laat gebeur. 13Gad het toe vir Dawid die boodskap gebring: Wat wil jy liewer hê? Sewe jaar hongersnood in jou land, of drie maande waarin jy voor jou teenstanders vlug en hulle jou agtervolg, of drie dae lank pes in jou land? Oorweeg nou goed hoe ek Hom wat my gestuur het, moet antwoord. 14Dawid het vir Gad geantwoord: Ek is in 'n hoek gedryf. Laat my liewer in die hand van die Here val, want sy genade is groot. Ek wil nie in die hand van 'n mens val nie. 15Daarna het die Here 'n pes van die oggend af tot die aand onder Israel ingestuur. Van die noorde tot die suide het daar sewentig duisend gesterf. 16Net toe die engel sy hand na Jerusalem toe uitsteek om dit te verdelg, het die Here besluit om die straf nie verder te voer nie. Hy het vir die engel wat die verderf onder die volk aanrig, gesê: Dis nou genoeg. Trek jou hand terug. Die engel van die Here was toe net by die dorsvloer van Arauna die Jebusiet. 17Terwyl Dawid die engel sien wat die volk tref, sê hy vir die Here: Dit is ék wat gesondig het. Ja, ék het oortree. Wat het hierdie arme mense gedoen? Tree liewer op teen my en my familie. 18Gad het daardie dag na Dawid toe gekom en vir hom gesê: Gaan op en bou vir die Here 'n altaar op die dorsvloer van Arauna die Jebusiet. 19Dawid het toe opgegaan soos die Here hom deur die woord van Gad beveel het. 20Toe Arauna afkyk en die koning en sy amptenare na hom toe sien aankom, gaan hy uit en buig diep voor die koning. 21Waarom kom die koning na sy dienaar toe? vra Arauna. Om die dorsvloer van jou te koop en 'n altaar vir die Here daarop te bou, sodat die plaag van die volk af weggeneem kan word, antwoord Dawid. 22Arauna het vir Dawid gesê: U kan dit gerus maar vat, U Majesteit, en offer net wat u wil. Kyk, die beeste vir die offer is hier, en die dorsslee en die jukke is beskikbaar as brandhout. 23U Majesteit, Arauna gee dit alles aan die koning. Mag die Here u God u offer aanneem. 24Hierop het die koning vir Arauna gesê: Nee, ek koop dit beslis van jou teen die volle prys. Ek bring nie aan die Here my God offerandes wat my niks kos nie. Dawid het toe die dorsvloer en die beeste vir sowat ses honderd gram silwer gekoop. 25Hy het net daar 'n altaar vir die Here gebou en brandoffers en maaltydoffers gebring. Hierna het die Here weer die gebede vir die land verhoor, en die plaag is uit Israel weggeneem.

David in His Old Age

1Ki 1:1 King David was now a very old man, and although his servants covered him with blankets, he could not keep warm.

1Ki 1:2 So his officials said to him, "Your Majesty, let us find a young woman to stay with you and take care of you. She will lie close to you and keep you warm."

1Ki 1:3 A search was made all over Israel for a beautiful young woman, and in Shunem they found such a woman named Abishag, and brought her to the king.

1Ki 1:4 She was very beautiful, and waited on the king and took care of him, but he did not have intercourse with her.

Adonijah Sets Himself Up as King

1Ki 1:5 (5-6) Now that Absalom was dead, Adonijah, the son of David and Haggith, was the oldest surviving son. He was a very handsome man. David had never reprimanded him about anything, and he was ambitious to be king. He provided for himself chariots, horses, and an escort of fifty men.

1Ki 1:7 He talked with Joab (whose mother was Zeruiah) and with Abiathar the priest, and they agreed to support his cause.

1Ki 1:8 But Zadok the priest, Benaiah son of Jehoiada, Nathan the prophet, Shimei, Rei, and David's bodyguards were not on Adonijah's side.

1Ki 1:9 One day Adonijah offered a sacrifice of sheep, bulls, and fattened calves at Snake Rock, near the spring of Enrogel. He invited the other sons of King David and the king's officials who were from Judah to come to this sacrificial feast, 1Ki 1:10 but he did not invite his half brother Solomon or Nathan the prophet or Benaiah or the king's bodyguards.

Nathan and Bathsheba Before David

1Ki 1:11 Then Nathan went to Bathsheba, Solomon's mother, and asked her, "Haven't you heard that Haggith's son Adonijah has made himself king? And King David doesn't know anything about it!

1Ki 1:12 If you want to save your life and the life of your son Solomon, I would advise you to 1Ki 1:13 go at once to King David and ask him, 'Your Majesty, didn't you solemnly promise me that my son Solomon would succeed you as king? How is it, then, that Adonijah has become king?' "

1Ki 1:14 And Nathan added, "Then, while you are still talking with King David, I will come in and confirm your story."

1Ki 1:15 So Bathsheba went to see the king in his bedroom. He was very old, and Abishag, the young woman from Shunem, was taking care of him.

1Ki 1:16 Bathsheba bowed low before the king, and he asked, "What do you want?"

1Ki 1:17 She answered, "Your Majesty, you made me a solemn promise in the name of the LORD your God that my son Solomon would be king after you.

1Ki 1:18 But Adonijah has already become king, and you don't know anything about it.

1Ki 1:19 He has offered a sacrifice of many bulls, sheep, and fattened calves, and he invited your sons, and Abiathar the priest, and Joab the commander of your army to the feast, but he did not invite your son Solomon.

1Ki 1:20 Your Majesty, all the people of Israel are looking to you to tell them who is to succeed you as king.

1Ki 1:21 If you don't, as soon as you are dead, my son Solomon and I will be treated as traitors."

1Ki 1:22 She was still speaking, when Nathan arrived at the palace.

1Ki 1:23 The king was told that the prophet was there, and Nathan went in and bowed low before the king.

1Ki 1:24 Then he said, "Your Majesty, have you announced that Adonijah would succeed you as king?

1Ki 1:25 This very day he has gone and offered a sacrifice of many bulls, sheep, and fattened calves. He invited all your sons, Joab the commander of your army, and Abiathar the priest, and right now they are feasting with him and shouting, 'Long live King Adonijah!'

1Ki 1:26 But he did not invite me, sir, or Zadok the priest or Benaiah or Solomon.

1Ki 1:27 Did Your Majesty approve all this and not even tell your officials who is to succeed you as king?"

Solomon Anointed King

1Ki 1:28 King David said, "Ask Bathsheba to come back in"—and she came and stood before him.

1Ki 1:29 Then he said to her, "I promise you by the living LORD, who has rescued me from all my troubles, 1Ki 1:30 that today I will keep the promise I made to you in the name of the LORD, the God of Israel, that your son Solomon would succeed me as king."

1Ki 1:31 Bathsheba bowed low and said, "May my lord the king live forever!"

1Ki 1:32 Then King David sent for Zadok, Nathan, and Benaiah. When they came in,

1Ki 1:33 he said to them, "Take my court officials with you; have my son Solomon ride my own mule, and escort him down to Gihon Spring,

1Ki 1:34 where Zadok and Nathan are to anoint him as king of Israel. Then blow the trumpet and shout, 'Long live King Solomon!'

1Ki 1:35 Follow him back here when he comes to sit on my throne. He will succeed me as king, because he is the one I have chosen to be the ruler of Israel and Judah."

1Ki 1:36 "It shall be done," answered Benaiah, "and may the LORD your God confirm it!

1Ki 1:37 As the LORD has been with Your Majesty, may he also be with Solomon and make his reign even more prosperous than yours."

1Ki 1:38 So Zadok, Nathan, Benaiah, and the royal bodyguards put Solomon on King David's mule and escorted him to Gihon Spring.

1Ki 1:39 Zadok took the container of olive oil which he had brought from the Tent of the LORD's presence, and anointed Solomon. They blew the trumpet, and all the people shouted, "Long live King Solomon!"

1Ki 1:40 Then they all followed him back, shouting for joy and playing flutes, making enough noise to shake the ground.

1Ki 1:41 As Adonijah and all his guests were finishing the feast, they heard the noise. And when Joab heard the trumpet, he asked, "What's the meaning of all that noise in the city?"

1Ki 1:42 Before he finished speaking, Jonathan, the son of the priest Abiathar, arrived. "Come on in," Adonijah said. "You're a good man—you must be bringing good news."

1Ki 1:43 "I'm afraid not," Jonathan answered. "His Majesty King David has made Solomon king.

1Ki 1:44 He sent Zadok, Nathan, Benaiah, and the royal bodyguards to escort him. They had him ride on the king's mule, 1Ki 1:45 and Zadok and Nathan anointed him as king at Gihon Spring. Then they went into the city, shouting for joy, and the people are now in an uproar. That's the noise you just heard.

1Ki 1:46 Solomon is now the king.

1Ki 1:47 What is more, the court officials went in to pay their respects to His Majesty King David and said, 'May your God make Solomon even more famous than you, and may Solomon's reign be even more prosperous than yours.' Then King David bowed in worship on his bed

1Ki 1:48 and prayed, 'Let us praise the LORD, the God of Israel, who has today made one of my descendants succeed me as king, and has let me live to see it!' "

1Ki 1:49 Then Adonijah's guests were afraid, and they all got up and left, each going his own way.

1Ki 1:50 Adonijah, in great fear of Solomon, went to the Tent of the LORD's presence and took hold of the corners of the altar.

1Ki 1:51 King Solomon was told that Adonijah was afraid of him and that he was holding on to the corners of the altar and had said, "First, I want King Solomon to swear to me that he will not have me put to death."

1Ki 1:52 Solomon replied, "If he is loyal, not even a hair on his head will be touched; but if he is not, he will die."

1Ki 1:53 King Solomon then sent for Adonijah and had him brought down from the altar. Adonijah went to the king and bowed low before him, and the king said to him, "You may go home."

I KONINGS 1

1Koning Dawid was al baie oud en selfs as hulle hom goed toegemaak het, het hy nie warm geword nie. 2Sy amptenare sê toe vir hom: Laat hulle vir U Majesteit 'n jongmeisie soek wat u kan bedien en oppas. Sy kan by u slaap, sodat u weer warm kan word. 3Nadat hulle deur die hele gebied van Israel gaan soek het na 'n mooi meisie, het hulle vir Abisag, 'n meisie uit Sunem, gekry en haar na die koning toe gebring. 4Hierdie meisie was baie mooi en sy het die koning opgepas en versorg, maar die koning het nooit geslagsgemeenskap met haar gehad nie. 5Intussen het Adonia, seun van Dawid en sy vrou Gaggit, ewe hoogmoedig by homself gedink: ek gaan binnekort koning wees. Hy skaf toe vir hom 'n strydwa met ruiters aan, en vyftig man om voor hom uit te hardloop. 6Sy vader het hom van kleins af nooit berispe of vir hom gevra: Hoekom maak jy so? nie. Adonia, die jonger broer van Absalom, was 'n baie mooi man. 7Hy het met Joab seun van Seruja en met die priester Abjatar onderhandel, en hulle het hom ondersteun. 8Maar die priester Sadok, Benaja seun van Jojada, die profeet Natan, Simeï, Reï en Dawid se lyfwagte was nie aan Adonia se kant nie. 9Adonia het skape, beeste en vetgemaakte kalwers geslag by Sogeletrots langs Rogelfontein en toe al die koning se seuns, sy broers, daarheen genooi, en ook al die manne van Juda wat in die koning se diens was. 10Maar hy het die profeet Natan, Benaja, die lyfwagte en sy broer Salomo nie genooi nie. 11Natan sê toe vir Batseba, Salomo se moeder: Het jy gehoor Adonia seun van Gaggit het koning geword, en koning Dawid weet daar niks van nie! 12Laat ek jou nou goeie raad gee sodat jy jou eie lewe en jou seun Salomo s'n kan red. 13Gaan na koning Dawid toe en sê vir hom: U Majesteit, u het mos vir my met 'n eed beloof my seun Salomo sal na u koning word en dit is hy wat op u troon sal sit. Hoe is dit dan dat Adonia nou koning geword het?' 14En terwyl jy nog met die koning praat, sal ek agter jou inkom en die saak verder voer. 15Toe het Batseba by die koning in sy kamer ingegaan. Die koning was baie oud, en Abisag die Sunemmitiese meisie was besig om die koning te versorg. 16Batseba het ingekom en voor die koning gebuig. Die koning sê toe: Wat kan ek vir jou doen? 17Sy sê vir hom: U Majesteit, u het mos tog voor die Here u God vir my met 'n eed beloof dat my seun Salomo na u koning sal word, en dat dit hy is wat op u troon sal sit. 18Maar nou het Adonia koning geword sonder dat u iets daarvan weet. 19Hy het 'n klomp beeste en kalwers en skape geslag en hy het al die prinse en die priester Abjatar en vir Joab, die hoof van die leër, daarheen genooi. Maar vir Salomo het hy nie genooi nie. 20U Majesteit, die hele Israel kyk nou op na u om vir hulle aan te wys wie u troon ná u sal bestyg. 21Moet ek en my seun Salomo dan, nadat u in u graf gelê is, as misdadigers behandel word? 22Terwyl sy nog met die koning praat, kom die profeet Natan daar aan. 23Iemand sê toe vir die koning: Hier is die profeet Natan. Natan kom toe nader en buig diep voor die koning 24en sê: U Majesteit, het u ooit gesê Adonia moet ná u koning wees en dit is hy wat op u troon moet sit? 25Hy het vandag gegaan en 'n klomp beeste en kalwers en skape geslag, en hy het al die prinse en die leërhoofde en die priester Abjatar genooi. Hulle eet en drink daar saam met hom en hulle roep: Lank lewe koning Adonia!' 26Maar vir my en die priester Sadok en Benaja seun van Jojada, en Salomo het hulle nie genooi nie. 27As hierdie optrede met u toestemming plaasvind, dan het u ons nie ingelig oor wie ná u op u troon moet sit nie. 28Toe sê koning Dawid: Roep vir Batseba hier na my toe. Sy het nader gekom en voor die koning gaan staan. 29Toe lê die koning 'n eed af en sê: So seker as die Here leef wat my uit alle benoudheid verlos het: 30soos ek vir jou met 'n eed voor die Here die God van Israel bevestig het dat jou seun Salomo ná my koning sal word, en dat hy in my plek op die troon sal sit, so doen ek dit nou weer. 31Batseba het voor die koning gekniel en gebuig en sy het gesê: Mag koning Dawid baie lank lewe. 32Toe gee koning Dawid opdrag: Gaan roep vir my die priester Sadok en die profeet Natan en Benaja seun van Jojada. Toe hulle by die koning kom, 33sê hy vir hulle: Vat my lyfwagte saam met julle en laat my seun Salomo op my eie muil ry. Vat vir Salomo na die Gihonfontein toe 34en laat die priester Sadok en die profeet Natan hom daar tot koning oor Israel salf. Dan moet julle die ramshoring blaas en roep: Lank lewe koning Salomo!' 35Julle moet agter hom aangaan, en hy moet binnegaan en op my troon gaan sit, want dit is hy wat my as koning opvolg. Ek gee opdrag dat hý heerser moet wees van Israel en Juda. 36Benaja seun van Jojada sê toe: So is dit, en mag die Here u God ook so sê. 37Mag Hy by Salomo wees soos Hy by u was. Mag Hy die heerskappy van Salomo nog groter maak as koning Dawid s'n. 38Die priester Sadok, die profeet Natan en Benaja seun van Jojada en die koninklike lyfwag het toe so gemaak. Hulle het Salomo op koning Dawid se muil laat ry en hom by Gihonfontein gebring. 39Die priester Sadok het 'n horing vol olie uit die heiligdom saamgebring en hy het vir Salomo gesalf. Toe blaas hulle die ramshoring, en die mense roep: Lank lewe koning Salomo! 40Hulle gaan toe almal agter hom aan terwyl hulle op fluite blaas en juig dat die aarde daarvan dreun. 41Adonia en sy gaste was net klaar met eet toe hulle dit hoor. Toe Joab die ramshoring hoor, vra hy: Wat is die stad so rumoerig? 42Hy het nog gepraat toe Jonatan seun van die priester Abjatar daar aankom. Adonia sê toe vir hom: Kom nader. Jy is mos 'n wakker man. Jy bring seker goeie nuus. 43Jonatan het vir Adonia geantwoord: Inteendeel! Koning Dawid het vir Salomo koning gemaak! 44Die koning het die priester Sadok, die profeet Natan, Benaja seun van Jojada, en die koninklike lyfwag saam met hom gestuur. Hulle het hom op die koning se muil laat ry, [45]en die priester Sadok en die profeet Natan het hom by Gihonfontein tot koning gesalf. Daarvandaan het hulle met 'n gejuig teruggegaan. Dit is die rumoer wat julle in die stad gehoor het. [46]Salomo sit nou op die troon. [47]Die amptenare van die koning het ook gekom om koning Dawid geluk te wens. Hulle het gesê: Mag u God vir Salomo nog beroemder maak as vir u en sy regering nog roemryker as dié van u.' Die koning het op sy bed gekniel [48]en gesê: Aan die Here die God van Israel kom die lof toe, Hy wat gegee het dat daar vandag iemand op my troon sit en dat my eie oë dit kan sien. [49]Toe het die gaste van Adonia almal verskrik opgespring en gemaak dat hulle wegkom. [50]Omdat Adonia bang was vir Salomo, het hy aan die horings van die altaar gaan vashou. [51]Iemand het vir Salomo kom vertel: Adonia is bang vir u, koning Salomo. Hy klou aan die horings van die altaar vas en hy sê: Koning Salomo moet eers vir my met 'n eed bevestig dat hy my nie sal doodmaak nie. [52]As hy hom goed gedra, sê Salomo toe, sal daar nie aan 'n haar op sy kop geraak word nie. Maar as hy kwaad doen, moet hy dood. [53]Koning Salomo het beveel dat hulle hom by die altaar moet gaan haal. Toe hy by koning Salomo kom, het Adonia voor hom gebuig. En Salomo sê vir hom: Gaan bly by jou huis!

David's Instructions to Solomon

1Ki 2:1 When David was about to die, he called his son Solomon and gave him his last instructions:

1Ki 2:2 "My time to die has come. Be confident and determined,

1Ki 2:3 and do what the LORD your God orders you to do. Obey all his laws and commands, as written in the Law of Moses, so that wherever you go you may prosper in everything you do.

1Ki 2:4 If you obey him, the LORD will keep the promise he made when he told me that my descendants would rule Israel as long as they were careful to obey his commands faithfully with all their heart and soul.

1Ki 2:5 "There is something else. You remember what Joab did to me by killing the two commanders of Israel's armies, Abner son of Ner and Amasa son of Jether. You remember how he murdered them in time of peace as revenge for deaths they had caused in time of war. He killed innocent men, and now I bear the responsibility for what he did, and I suffer the consequences.

1Ki 2:6 You know what to do; you must not let him die a natural death.

1Ki 2:7 "But show kindness to the sons of Barzillai from Gilead and take care of them, because they were kind to me when I was fleeing from your brother Absalom.

1Ki 2:8 "There is also Shimei son of Gera, from the town of Bahurim in Benjamin. He cursed me bitterly the day I went to Mahanaim, but when he met me at the Jordan River, I gave him my solemn promise in the name of the LORD that I would not have him killed.

1Ki 2:9 But you must not let him go unpunished. You know what to do, and you must see to it that he is put to death."

The Death of David

1Ki 2:10 David died and was buried in David's City.

1Ki 2:11 He had been king of Israel for forty years, ruling seven years in Hebron and thirty-three years in Jerusalem.

1Ki 2:12 Solomon succeeded his father David as king, and his royal power was firmly established.

Solomon's Reign Established

1Ki 2:13 Then Adonijah, whose mother was Haggith, went to Bathsheba, who was Solomon's mother. "Is this a friendly visit?" she asked. "It is," he answered, 1Ki 2:14 and then he added, "I have something to ask of you." "What is it?" she asked.

1Ki 2:15 He answered, "You know that I should have become king and that everyone in Israel expected it. But it happened differently, and my brother became king because it was the LORD's will.

1Ki 2:16 And now I have one request to make; please do not refuse me." "What is it?" Bathsheba asked.

1Ki 2:17 He answered, "Please ask King Solomon—I know he won't refuse you—to let me have Abishag, the young woman from Shunem, as my wife."

1Ki 2:18 "Very well," she answered. "I will speak to the king for you."

1Ki 2:19 So Bathsheba went to the king to speak to him on behalf of Adonijah. The king stood up to greet his mother and bowed to her. Then he sat on his throne and had another one brought in on which she sat at his right.

1Ki 2:20 She said, "I have a small favor to ask of you; please do not refuse me." "What is it, mother?" he asked. "I will not refuse you."

1Ki 2:21 She answered, "Let your brother Adonijah have Abishag as his wife."

1Ki 2:22 "Why do you ask me to give Abishag to him?" the king asked. "You might as well ask me to give him the throne too. After all, he is my older brother, and Abiathar the priest and Joab are on his side!"

1Ki 2:23 Then Solomon made a solemn promise in the LORD's name, "May God strike me dead if I don't make Adonijah pay with his life for asking this!

1Ki 2:24 The LORD has firmly established me on the throne of my father David; he has kept his promise and given the kingdom to me and my descendants. I swear by the living LORD that Adonijah will die this very day!"

1Ki 2:25 So King Solomon gave orders to Benaiah, who went out and killed Adonijah.

1Ki 2:26 Then King Solomon said to Abiathar the priest, "Go to your country home in Anathoth. You deserve to die, but I will not have you put to death now, for you were in charge of the LORD's Covenant Box while you were with my father David, and you shared in all his troubles."

1Ki 2:27 Then Solomon dismissed Abiathar from serving as a priest of the LORD, and so made come true what the LORD had said in Shiloh about the priest Eli and his descendants.

1Ki 2:28 Joab heard what had happened. (He had supported Adonijah, but not Absalom.) So he fled to the Tent of the LORD's presence and took hold of the corners of the altar.

1Ki 2:29 When the news reached King Solomon that Joab had fled to the Tent and was by the altar, Solomon sent a messenger to Joab to ask him why he had fled to the altar. Joab answered that he had fled to the LORD because he was afraid of Solomon. So King Solomon sent Benaiah to kill Joab.

1Ki 2:30 He went to the Tent of the LORD's presence and said to Joab, "The king orders you to come out." "No," Joab answered. "I will die here." Benaiah went back to the king and told him what Joab had said.

1Ki 2:31 "Do what Joab says," Solomon answered. "Kill him and bury him. Then neither I nor any other of David's descendants will any longer be held responsible for what Joab did when he killed innocent men.

1Ki 2:32 The LORD will punish Joab for those murders, which he committed without my father David's knowledge. Joab killed two innocent men who were better men than he: Abner, commander of the army of Israel, and Amasa, commander of the army of Judah.

1Ki 2:33 The punishment for their murders will fall on Joab and on his descendants forever. But the LORD will always give success to David's descendants who sit on his throne."

1Ki 2:34 So Benaiah went to the Tent of the LORD's presence and killed Joab, and he was buried at his home in the open country.

1Ki 2:35 The king made Benaiah commander of the army in Joab's place and put Zadok the priest in Abiathar's place.

1Ki 2:36 Then the king sent for Shimei and said to him, "Build a house for yourself here in Jerusalem. Live in it and don't leave the city.

1Ki 2:37 If you ever leave and go beyond Kidron Brook, you will certainly die—and you yourself will be to blame."

1Ki 2:38 "Very well, Your Majesty," Shimei answered. "I will do what you say." So he lived in Jerusalem a long time.

1Ki 2:39 Three years later, however, two of Shimei's slaves ran away to the king of Gath, Achish son of Maacah. When Shimei heard that they were in Gath, 1Ki 2:40 he saddled his donkey and went to King Achish in Gath, to find his slaves. He found them and brought them back home.

1Ki 2:41 When Solomon heard what Shimei had done,

1Ki 2:42 he sent for him and said, "I made you promise in the LORD's name not to leave Jerusalem. And I warned you that if you ever did, you would certainly die. Did you not agree to it and say that you would obey me?

1Ki 2:43 Why, then, have you broken your promise and disobeyed my command?

1Ki 2:44 You know very well all the wrong that you did to my father David. The LORD will punish you for it.

1Ki 2:45 But he will bless me, and he will make David's kingdom secure forever."

1Ki 2:46 Then the king gave orders to Benaiah, who went out and killed Shimei. Solomon was now in complete control.

I KONINGS 2

1Toe Dawid se einde nader, het hy sy seun Salomo beveel: 2Noudat ek die pad van alle mense moet gaan, moet jy sterk wees en soos 'n man optree. 3Hou jou aan wat die Here jou God jou voorskryf en lewe daarvolgens. Gehoorsaam sy voorskrifte, sy gebooie, sy bepalings en sy verordenings soos dit opgeskryf is in die wet van Moses. Dan sal jy voorspoedig wees in alles wat jy doen en oral waar jy gaan. 4Dan sal die Here sy beloftes vervul. Hy het vir my gesê: As jou nakomelinge nougeset leef en met hart en siel aan My getrou bly, sal daar altyd een uit jou nageslag as koning oor Israel regeer!' 5Jy weet self wat Joab seun van Seruja my aangedoen het, wat hy gedoen het met die twee leërhoofde van Israel, met Abner seun van Ner en met Amasa seun van Jitra: hy het hulle vermoor, hy het hulle in vredestyd doodgemaak asof daar oorlog was. Hy het hulle onskuldige bloed op die gordel om sy lyf en op die skoene aan sy voete laat spat. 6Doen met hom soos jy dit goedvind. Moenie sy lewe spaar net omdat hy oud is nie. 7Jy moet goed wees vir die seuns van Barsillai van Gilead. Laat hulle van jou tafel af eet, want hulle het vir mý kos gebring toe ek vir jou broer Absalom gevlug het. 8Daar is ook nog Simeï seun van Gera die Benjaminiet, uit Bagurim. Hy het my vreeslik gevloek toe ek die dag na Maganajim toe gegaan het en ons mekaar by die Jordaan teëgekom het. Ek het vir hom voor die Here met 'n eed bevestig dat ek hom nie om die lewe sal bring nie, 9maar jy moet hom nou nie verskoon nie. Jy is 'n wyse man en jy sal weet wat om met hom te maak dat hy met die dood gestraf word al is hy al oud. 10Dawid is oorlede, en hy is begrawe in die Dawidstad. 11Die duur van sy regering oor Israel was veertig jaar. In Hebron was hy sewe jaar lank koning, en in Jerusalem drie en dertig jaar. 12Salomo het sy pa se troon bestyg en 'n stewige houvas op sy koningskap gekry. 13Adonia seun van Gaggit het na Batseba, Salomo se ma, toe gegaan. Sy het vir hom gevra: Kom jy in vrede? Ja, sê hy, 14ek kom net met u praat. Praat maar, sê sy. 15Hy sê toe: U weet self dat die koningskap myne sou word, en dat die hele Israel na my opgesien het om te regeer. Maar dit het anders verloop, die Here het dit so bestem dat my broer koning geword het. 16Ek wil u nou net een guns vra, en u moet my dit nie weier nie. Vra maar, sê sy. 17Koning Salomo sal mos na u luister, sê hy toe. Vra hom asseblief dat hy vir my die Sunemmitiese meisie Abisag as vrou gee. 18Goed, sê Batseba, ek sal jou versoek aan die koning oordra. 19Toe Batseba by koning Salomo binnekom om Adonia se versoek te gaan stel, het Salomo opgestaan en voor haar gebuig. Hy gaan toe weer op sy troon sit en laat vir die koninginmoeder 'n stoel aan sy regterkant naderbring om op te sit. 20Sy sê: Ek wil 'n klein gunsie van jou vra.

Moet my dit nie weier nie. My ma kan maar vra, ek sal nie vir haar nee sê nie, het hy geantwoord. 21Sy sê toe: Laat jou broer Adonia tog vir Abisag die Sunemmitiese meisie as vrou kry. 22Toe sê koning Salomo vir sy ma: Hoekom vra u dat hy vir Abisag moet kry? U kan dan net sowel die hele koningskap vir hom vra, want hy is my ouer broer, en die priester Abjatar en Joab seun van Seruja steun hom! 23Toe het koning Salomo 'n eed voor die Here afgelê: Mag God my met die dood straf as Adonia nie met sy lewe hiervoor boet nie! 24So seker as die Here leef, Hy wat my koning laat word het en my die troon van my pa laat bestyg het, en vir my 'n koningshuis gevestig het soos Hy beloof het, net so seker moet Adonia vandag nog dood! 25Koning Salomo het vir Benaja seun van Jojada gestuur en dié het vir Adonia om die lewe gebring. 26Vir die priester Abjatar het die koning gesê: Gaan na jou grond toe by Anatot! Jy moes eintlik ook doodgemaak gewees het, maar ek sal jou nie nou doodmaak nie, omdat jy die ark van die Here voor my pa uit gedra het, en omdat jy soveel saam met hom deurgemaak het. 27Salomo het vir Abjatar ontslaan, sodat hy nie meer priester van die Here was nie. So het die oordeel wat die Here by Silo oor Eli se nageslag uitgespreek het, in vervulling gegaan. 28Joab, wat 'n ondersteuner van Adonia was maar nie destyds vir Absalom gesteun het nie, het hiervan te hore gekom. Hy het na die heiligdom van die Here toe gevlug en daar die horings van die altaar vasgegryp. 29Toe koning Salomo verneem dat Joab na die heiligdom toe gevlug het en daar by die altaar is, het hy vir Benaja seun van Jojada beveel: Gaan maak hom dood! 30Benaja het na die heiligdom toe gegaan en vir hom gesê: Die koning sê jy moet uitkom! Maar hy sê: Nee, ek wil hiér sterf. Benaja het toe eers aan die koning gaan rapporteer wat Joab gesê het. 31Die koning sê toe vir Benaja: Nes hy wil. Maak hom dood en begrawe hom. So sal jy my en my familie onthef van die blaam vir die moorde wat Joab gepleeg het. 32Die Here laat hom nou sy verdiende straf kry. Hy het twee manne doodgemaak sonder die medewete van my pa: Abner, seun van Ner en hoof van die leër van Israel, en Amasa, seun van Jitra en hoof van die leër van Juda, albei onskuldiger en beter mense as hy. 33Laat die skuld vir hulle dood vir altyd op Joab en sy nageslag rus, en mag die Here vir altyd vrede gee aan Dawid en sy nageslag en aan sy hele familie en aan sy troon. 34Toe het Benaja seun van Jojada teruggegaan en vir Joab daar aangeval en hom doodgemaak. Hy is begrawe by sy huis in die veld. 35Koning Salomo het vir Benaja seun van Jojada in Joab se plek aangestel oor die leër, en in die plek van Abjatar het hy vir Sadok as priester aangestel. 36Die koning het vir Simeï laat haal en vir hom gesê: Jy mag vir jou 'n huis in Jerusalem bou en hier woon, maar jy mag nie uit die stad gaan nie, dit maak nie saak waarheen nie. 37Die dag as jy hier uitgaan en jou voete oor Kedronspruit sit, is jy dood. Dit moet jy beslis weet. Dit sal jou eie skuld wees. 38Simeï sê toe vir die koning: Dit is goed so. Ek sal die bevel van die koning eerbiedig. Simeï het toe 'n hele tyd lank net in Jerusalem gebly, 39maar na drie jaar het twee van sy slawe weggeloop na koning Akis van Gat, seun van Maok, toe. Toe Simeï hoor dat sy slawe in Gat is, 40het hy sy donkie opgesaal en na Gat toe gegaan om sy slawe daar by Akis te soek. Simeï het net gegaan en sy slawe uit Gat uit teruggebring, 41maar toe Salomo hoor dat Simeï uit Jerusalem na Gat toe was en terug is, 42het hy hom laat kom en vir hom gesê: Ek het jou dan 'n eed voor die Here laat aflê en jou gewaarsku: Die dag as jy hier uitgaan, dit maak nie saak waarheen nie, is jy dood; dit moet jy beslis weet.' Jy het nog vir my gesê: Dit is goed so. Ek het gehoor.' 43Waarom het jy jou dan nie aan hierdie eed voor die Here en die bevel wat ek jou gegee het, gehou nie? 44Die koning het verder vir Simeï gesê: Jy weet in jou hart watter leed jy my pa aangedoen het. Mag die Here daardie leed op jou eie kop laat afkom, 45maar mag dit met my voorspoedig gaan en mag die troon van Dawid vir altyd bestendig wees voor die Here. 46Die koning het vir Benaja seun van Jojada gestuur, en dié het vir Simeï doodgemaak. 47So het Salomo 'n stewige houvas op die koningskap gekry.

Solomon's Prayer for Wisdom

1Ki 3:1 Solomon made an alliance with the king of Egypt by marrying his daughter. He brought her to live in David's City until he had finished building his palace, the Temple, and the wall around Jerusalem.

1Ki 3:2 A temple had not yet been built for the LORD, and so the people were still offering sacrifices at many different altars.

1Ki 3:3 Solomon loved the LORD and followed the instructions of his father David, but he also slaughtered animals and offered them as sacrifices on various altars.

1Ki 3:4 On one occasion he went to Gibeon to offer sacrifices because that was where the most famous altar was. He had offered hundreds of burnt offerings there in the past.

1Ki 3:5 That night the LORD appeared to him in a dream and asked him, "What would you like me to give you?"

1Ki 3:6 Solomon answered, "You always showed great love for my father David, your servant, and he was good, loyal, and honest in his relation with you. And you have continued to show him your great and constant love by giving him a son who today rules in his place.

1Ki 3:7 O LORD God, you have let me succeed my father as king, even though I am very young and don't know how to rule.

1Ki 3:8 Here I am among the people you have chosen to be your own, a people who are so many that they cannot be counted.

1Ki 3:9 So give me the wisdom I need to rule your people with justice and to know the difference between good and evil. Otherwise, how would I ever be able to rule this great people of yours?"

1Ki 3:10 The Lord was pleased that Solomon had asked for this,

1Ki 3:11 and so he said to him, "Because you have asked for the wisdom to rule justly, instead of long life for yourself or riches or the death of your enemies,

1Ki 3:12 I will do what you have asked. I will give you more wisdom and understanding than anyone has ever had before or will ever have again.

1Ki 3:13 I will also give you what you have not asked for: all your life you will have wealth and honor, more than that of any other king.

1Ki 3:14 And if you obey me and keep my laws and commands, as your father David did, I will give you a long life."

1Ki 3:15 Solomon woke up and realized that God had spoken to him in the dream. Then he went to Jerusalem and stood in front of the LORD's Covenant Box and offered burnt offerings and fellowship offerings to the LORD. After that he gave a feast for all his officials.

Solomon's Wisdom

1Ki 3:16 One day two prostitutes came and presented themselves before King Solomon.

1Ki 3:17 One of them said, "Your Majesty, this woman and I live in the same house, and I gave birth to a baby boy at home while she was there.

1Ki 3:18 Two days after my child was born, she also gave birth to a baby boy. Only the two of us were there in the house—no one else was present.

1Ki 3:19 Then one night she accidentally rolled over on her baby and smothered it.

1Ki 3:20 She got up during the night, took my son from my side while I was asleep, and carried him to her bed; then she put the dead child in my bed.

1Ki 3:21 The next morning, when I woke up and was going to nurse my baby, I saw that it was dead. I looked at it more closely and saw that it was not my child."

1Ki 3:22 But the other woman said, "No! The living child is mine, and the dead one is yours!" The first woman answered back, "No! The dead child is yours, and the living one is mine!" And so they argued before the king.

1Ki 3:23 Then King Solomon said, "Each of you claims that the living child is hers and that the dead child belongs to the other one."

1Ki 3:24 He sent for a sword, and when it was brought,

1Ki 3:25 he said, "Cut the living child in two and give each woman half of it."

1Ki 3:26 The real mother, her heart full of love for her son, said to the king, "Please, Your Majesty, don't kill the child! Give it to her!" But the other woman said, "Don't give it to either of us; go on and cut it in two."

1Ki 3:27 Then Solomon said, "Don't kill the child! Give it to the first woman—she is its real mother."

1Ki 3:28 When the people of Israel heard of Solomon's decision, they were all filled with deep respect for him, because they knew then that God had given him the wisdom to settle disputes fairly.

I KONINGS 3

1Salomo het hom verbind aan die familie van die farao, die koning van Egipte. Hy het getrou met die dogter van die farao en haar in die Dawidstad laat woon totdat hy sy paleis en die tempel van die Here en die muur rondom die stad klaar gebou het. 2In daardie dae het die volk nog altyddeur op die hoogtes geoffer, omdat daar nog nie 'n tempel vir die Naam van die Here opgerig was nie. 3Salomo het sy liefde vir die Here betoon deur alles te doen wat Dawid, sy pa, hom voorgeskryf het. Hy het egter nog op die hoogtes offers gebring. 4Koning Salomo het na Gibeon toe gegaan om daar te offer, omdat die vernaamste hoogte daar was. Salomo het op daardie altaar duisend brandoffers gebring. 5Daar in Gibeon het die Here die nag in 'n droom aan Salomo verskyn en vir hom gevra: Wat wil jy hê moet Ek vir jou gee? 6Toe sê Salomo: U het groot trou aan my vader Dawid bewys. Hy was in sy lewe getrou en gehoorsaam en opreg teenoor U. U het hierdie groot trou aan hom bewys en vir hom 'n seun gegee wat vandag op sy troon sit. 7Here my God, U het my koning gemaak in my vader Dawid se plek, maar ek is nog jonk en onervare 8en ek moet regeer oor die volk wat deur U uitgekies is, 'n groot volk, te veel om te tel. 9Gee my die gehoorsaamheid aan U dat ek u volk reg sal regeer en in alles insig sal hê, want wie kan uit homself hierdie groot volk van U regeer! 10Die Here het dit goedgevind dat Salomo dít gevra het. 11Hy het vir hom gesê: Omdat dít jou versoek is en jy nie vir jou 'n lang lewe, of rykdom, of die dood van jou vyande gevra het nie, maar insig in wat reg is, 12sal Ek aan jou versoek voldoen. Ek gee aan jou wysheid en insig soos niemand vóór jou gehad het of ná jou sal hê nie. 13Ook wat jy nie gevra het nie, gee Ek aan jou: rykdom en aansien, sodat daar onder die konings niemand soos jy sal wees solank jy leef nie. 14As jy jou in jou optrede hou aan my voorskrifte en gebooie soos jou vader Dawid gedoen het, sal Ek jou ook nog 'n lang lewe gee. 15Toe Salomo wakker word, het hy besef dat die Here in 'n droom aan hom verskyn het. Hy is toe terug na Jerusalem toe, en daar het hy voor die verbondsark van die Here gaan staan en brandoffers en maaltydoffers gebring. Hy het ook 'n feesmaal vir al sy amptenare gegee. 16Op 'n keer het twee prostitute met 'n saak na die koning toe gekom. 17U Majesteit, sê die een vrou, ek en hierdie vrou woon in dieselfde huis, en sy was by toe ek 'n kind in die wêreld gebring het. 18Drie dae daarna het sy ook 'n kind gekry. Ons was saam in die huis en daar was niemand anders nie; net ons twee was daar. 19Een nag is hierdie vrou se seuntjie dood; sy het hom doodgelê. 20Sy staan toe in die middel van die nag op en vat my seuntjie langs my weg terwyl ek slaap, en lê hom by haar neer, en haar seuntjie wat dood is, lê sy by my neer. 21Toe ek die môre opstaan om die kind te laat drink, toe is hy dood! Maar toe ek hom later in die môre goed bekyk, is dit nie my baba nie. 22Toe sê die ander vrou: Nee, die een wat lewe, is myne. Dis jou seuntjie wat dood is! En die eerste vrou sê: Dis jou seuntjie wat dood is! Die een wat lewe, is myne! So het hulle voor die koning gestaan en stry. 23Die koning redeneer toe by homself: die een sê: Die seuntjie wat lewe, is myne, joune is dood, en die ander sê: Nee, jou seuntjie is dood; die een wat lewe, is myne. 24Toe beveel die koning: Bring vir my 'n swaard! Hulle het die swaard gebring, 25en die koning het gesê: Sny die kind wat lewe in twee stukke en gee vir elkeen van hulle 'n helfte! 26Maar die ma van die kind wat lewe, begin toe by die koning smeek, want haar hart het inmekaar gekrimp oor die lot van haar baba, en sy sê: Asseblief, U Majesteit, gee die seuntjie wat lewe vir haar, moet hom tog net nie doodmaak nie. Maar die ander vrou sê: As ek hom nie kry nie, kry jy hom ook nie. Sny hom deur! 27Toe sê die koning: Moenie die kind doodmaak nie, maar gee hom vir die een dáár, sý is die ma! 28Die hele Israel het gehoor van die uitspraak wat die koning gelewer het, en hulle het hoë agting vir die koning gekry, want dit het vir hulle duidelik geword dat hy van God self wysheid ontvang het om regsake uit te wys.

Solomon's Wealth and Wisdom

1Ki 4:20 The people of Judah and Israel were as numerous as the grains of sand on the seashore; they ate and drank, and were happy.

1Ki 4:21 Solomon's kingdom included all the nations from the Euphrates River to Philistia and the Egyptian border. They paid him taxes and were subject to him all his life.

1Ki 4:22 The supplies Solomon needed each day were 150 bushels of fine flour and 300 bushels of meal;

1Ki 4:23 10 stall-fed cattle, 20 pasture-fed cattle, and 100 sheep, besides deer, gazelles, roebucks, and poultry.

1Ki 4:24 Solomon ruled over all the land west of the Euphrates River, from Tiphsah on the Euphrates as far west as the city of Gaza. All the kings west of the Euphrates were subject to him, and he was at peace with all the neighboring countries.

1Ki 4:25 As long as he lived, the people throughout Judah and Israel lived in safety, each family with its own grapevines and fig trees.

1Ki 4:26 Solomon had forty thousand stalls for his chariot horses and twelve thousand cavalry horses.

1Ki 4:27 His twelve governors, each one in the month assigned to him, supplied the food King Solomon needed for himself and for all who ate in the palace; they always supplied everything needed.

1Ki 4:28 Each governor also supplied his share of barley and straw, where it was needed, for the chariot horses and the work animals.

1Ki 4:29 God gave Solomon unusual wisdom and insight, and knowledge too great to be measured.

1Ki 4:30 Solomon was wiser than the wise men of the East or the wise men of Egypt.

1Ki 4:31 He was the wisest of all men: wiser than Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman, Calcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol, and his fame spread throughout all the neighboring countries.

1Ki 4:32 He composed three thousand proverbs and more than a thousand songs.

1Ki 4:33 He spoke of trees and plants, from the Lebanon cedars to the hyssop that grows on walls; he talked about animals, birds, reptiles, and fish.

1Ki 4:34 Kings all over the world heard of his wisdom and sent people to listen to him.

I KONINGS 4

1Salomo was koning oor die hele Israel. 2Sy hoofamptenare was die volgende: Asarja seun van Sadok was hoëpriester; 3Eligoref en Agija, seuns van Sisa, was administratiewe beamptes; Josafat seun van Agilud was die hoof uitvoerende beampte; 4Benaja seun van Jojada was hoof van die leër. Sadok en Abjatar was priesters. 5Asarja seun van Natan was hoof van die streekbestuurders; Sabud seun van Natan was 'n priester en persoonlike raadgewer van die koning. 6Agisar was paleisopsigter; Adoniram seun van Abda was in beheer van die dwangarbeid. 7Salomo het twaalf streekbestuurders in die hele Israel aangestel met die oog op die onderhoud van die koning en sy hof. Elkeen was verantwoordelik vir een maand per jaar se onderhoud. 8Hulle name was: Ben-Gur in die Efraimsberge; 9Ben-Deker in Makas, Saälbim, Bet-Semes en Elon-Bet-Ganan; 10Ben-Gesed in Arubbot, dit het Soko en die hele Geferstreek ingesluit; 11Ben-Abinadab in die hele berggebied van Dor; sy vrou was Tafat 'n dogter van Salomo; 12Baäna seun van Agilud in Taänak en Megiddo en ook in Bet-San wat grens aan Saretan onderkant Jisreël; dit is dus van Bet-San af tot by Abel-Megola en tot anderkant Jokmoam; 13Ben-Geber in Ramot in Gilead; hierby was ingereken die tentdorpe van Jaïr seun van Manasse in Gilead, en ook die Argobgebied in Basan, sestig groot stede met mure rondom en poortgrendels van brons; 14Aginadab seun van Iddo in Maganajim; 15Agimaäs in Naftali; hy was getroud met Basemat, ook 'n dogter van Salomo; 16Baäna seun van Gusai in Aser en Alot; 17Josafat seun van Paruag in Issaskar; 18Simeï seun van Ela in Benjamin; 19Geber seun van Uri in die Gileadstreek, dit is die vroeëre gebied van die Amoritiese koning Sihon, en van koning Og van Basan; in hierdie hele streek was daar net die een bestuurder. 20Juda en Israel was so baie soos die sand aan die see. Hulle het volop te eet en te drink gehad, en hulle was gelukkig. 21Salomo het geheers oor al die koninkryke van die Eufraatrivier af tot by die gebied van die Filistyne, dit wil sê tot by die grens van Egipte. Hulle het belasting betaal en was onderhorig aan Salomo solank hy geleef het. 22Salomo se daaglikse kosvoorrade was vyf ton fynmeel en tien ton broodmeel, 23tien vetgevoerde beeste, twintig veldbeeste en honderd stuks kleinvee, behalwe nog takbokke, gemsbokke, ribbokke en vetgemaakte pluimvee. 24Salomo het geheers oor alles wes van die Eufraatrivier, van Tifsag af tot by Gasa, oor al die konings wes van die Eufraat. Na alle kante toe was daar vrede, 25en solank Salomo geleef het, het die Judeërs en die Israeliete van Dan af tot by Berseba veilig gewoon, elkeen met sy eie wingerdstok en sy eie vyeboom om onder te sit. 26Salomo het veertig duisend trekperde op stal gehad vir sy strydwaens en ook twaalf duisend ryperde. [27]Die streekbestuurders het elkeen een maand per jaar vir koning Salomo en almal wat van sy tafel af geëet het, van kos voorsien. Hulle het gesorg dat niks ontbreek nie. [28]Hulle het ook die gars en die hooi vir die ryperde en die trekperde gebring op die plekke wat met elkeen gereël was. [29]God het aan Salomo baie groot wysheid en verstand gegee en insig in soveel sake as wat daar sand aan die see is. [30]Salomo het meer wysheid gehad as al die ander mense, van die ooste af tot in Egipte. [31]Hy het meer wysheid gehad as enigiemand anders, meer as Etan die Esragiet, en meer as Heman, Kalkol en Darda, seuns van Magol. Sy naam het bekend geraak onder al die nasies in die omtrek. [32]Hy het drie duisend spreuke gemaak en duisend en vyf liedere gedig. [33]Hy het verse gemaak oor bome en plante, van die seders op die Libanon tot die hisop wat uit die mure groei; hy het gedig oor diere, voëls, reptiele en visse. [34]Van oral af het daar mense gekom om na Salomo se wysheid te luister, afgesante van al die konings wat gehoor het dat hy so 'n wyse man is.

Preparations for Building the Temple

1Ki 5:1 King Hiram of Tyre had always been a friend of David's, and when he heard that Solomon had succeeded his father David as king, he sent ambassadors to him.

1Ki 5:2 Solomon sent back this message to Hiram:

1Ki 5:3 "You know that because of the constant wars my father David had to fight against the enemy countries all around him, he could not build a temple for the worship of the LORD his God until the LORD had given him victory over all his enemies.

1Ki 5:4 But now the LORD my God has given me peace on all my borders. I have no enemies, and there is no danger of attack.

1Ki 5:5 The LORD promised my father David, 'Your son, whom I will make king after you, will build a temple for me.' And I have now decided to build that temple for the worship of the LORD my God.

1Ki 5:6 So send your men to Lebanon to cut down cedars for me. My men will work with them, and I will pay your men whatever you decide. As you well know, my men don't know how to cut down trees as well as yours do."

1Ki 5:7 Hiram was extremely pleased when he received Solomon's message, and he said, "Praise the LORD today for giving David such a wise son to succeed him as king of that great nation!"

1Ki 5:8 Then Hiram sent Solomon the following message: "I have received your message, and I am ready to do what you ask. I will provide the cedars and the pine trees.

1Ki 5:9 My men will bring the logs down from Lebanon to the sea and will tie them together in rafts to float them down the coast to the place you choose. There my men will untie them, and your men will take charge of them. On your part, I would like you to supply the food for my men."

1Ki 5:10 So Hiram supplied Solomon with all the cedar and pine logs that he wanted, 1Ki 5:11 and Solomon provided Hiram with 100,000 bushels of wheat and 110,000 gallons of pure olive oil every year to feed his men.

1Ki 5:12 The LORD kept his promise and gave Solomon wisdom. There was peace between Hiram and Solomon, and they made a treaty with each other.

1Ki 5:13 King Solomon drafted 30,000 men as forced labor from all over Israel, 1Ki 5:14 and put Adoniram in charge of them. He divided them into three groups of 10,000 men, and each group spent one month in Lebanon and two months back home.

1Ki 5:15 Solomon also had 80,000 stone cutters in the hill country, with 70,000 men to carry the stones, 1Ki 5:16 and he placed 3,300 foremen in charge of them to supervise their work.

1Ki 5:17 At King Solomon's command they cut fine large stones for the foundation of the Temple.

1Ki 5:18 Solomon's and Hiram's workers and men from the city of Byblos prepared the stones and the timber to build the Temple.

I KONINGS 5

1Koning Hiram van Tirus het ook gesante na Salomo toe gestuur toe hy hoor dat hulle hom tot koning gesalf het in die plek van sy pa, want Hiram was altyd baie geheg aan Dawid. 2Toe rig Salomo die volgende versoek aan Hiram: 3Dit is aan u bekend dat Dawid, my pa, nie 'n tempel vir die Naam van die Here sy God kon bou nie, omdat hy so dikwels in oorlog betrokke was. Die Here het hom die oorwinning oor al sy vyande gegee 4en nou het die Here ook vir my aan alle kante rus gegee. Daar is nêrens enige teëstander of gevaar wat my bedreig nie. 5Daarom het ek nou besluit om 'n tempel vir die Naam van die Here my God te bou. Dit sal die vervulling wees van die Here se belofte aan my pa toe die Here gesê het: Jou seun wat Ek in jou plek sal laat regeer, hý sal 'n tempel vir my Naam bou.' 6My versoek is nou dat u vir my sederhout op die Libanon laat kap. My eie arbeiders sal saam met u arbeiders werk. Ek sal ook aan u die loon betaal wat u vir u arbeiders vasstel, want soos u weet, het ons nie mense wat die houtkappery ken soos die Sidoniërs nie. 7Hiram was baie bly toe hy hierdie versoek van Salomo ontvang. Hy het uitgeroep: Geloof sy die Here vandag, omdat Hy vir Dawid 'n wyse seun gegee het om koning te wees oor hierdie groot volk! 8Hiram het toe vir Salomo geantwoord: Ek het u bestelling ontvang. Ek sal al die seder- en sipreshout lewer wat u wil hê. 9My werkers sal dit van die Libanon af see toe bring. Daar sal ek dit in vlotte bind en na die afgesproke plek toe laat bring en weer losmaak. U kan dit daarvandaan verder vervoer. U moet dan aan my kos voorsien vir my huishouding soos ek dit nodig kry. 10So het Hiram aan Salomo seder- en sipreshout gelewer, soveel as wat hy nodig gehad het, 11en Salomo het jaar vir jaar aan Hiram drie duisend drie honderd ton koring gelewer vir die onderhoud van sy huishouding, en ook vier duisend vier honderd liter van die suiwerste olyfolie. 12Die Here het aan Salomo wysheid gegee soos Hy belowe het. Daar was 'n goeie verhouding tussen Hiram en Salomo, en hulle het 'n verdrag gesluit. 13Koning Salomo het vir die hele Israel dwangarbeid ingestel en so 'n arbeidsmag van dertig duisend man bymekaargebring. 14Hy het om die beurt elke maand tien duisend na die Libanon toe gestuur, sodat hulle elkeen een maand op die Libanon was en twee maande tuis. Adoniram het beheer gehad oor die dwangarbeid. 15Salomo het sewentig duisend draers en tagtig duisend klipkappers in die berge aan die werk gehad, 16behalwe nog die drie duisend drie honderd opsigters oor die werk, wat moes toesien dat die arbeiders die werk doen. 17Die koning het beveel dat hulle groot klip van goeie gehalte moes uitkap, sodat die fondamente van die tempel met gekapte klip gelê kon word. 18Die bouers van Salomo en van Hiram en die mense van Gebal het dit verder reggekap en dan die hout en die klippe reg gesit vir die bou van die tempel.

1Kings 6

Solomon Builds the Temple

1Ki 6:1 Four hundred and eighty years after the people of Israel left Egypt, during the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the second month, the month of Ziv, Solomon began work on the Temple.

1Ki 6:2 Inside it was 90 feet long, 30 feet wide, and 45 feet high.

1Ki 6:3 The entrance room was 15 feet deep and 30 feet wide, as wide as the sanctuary itself.

1Ki 6:4 The walls of the Temple had openings in them, narrower on the outside than on the inside.

1Ki 6:5 Against the outside walls, on the sides and the back of the Temple, a three-storied annex was built, each story 71/2 feet high.

1Ki 6:6 Each room in the lowest story was 71/2 feet wide, in the middle story 9 feet wide, and in the top story 101/2 feet wide. The Temple wall on each floor was thinner than on the floor below, so that the rooms could rest on the wall without having their beams built into it.

1Ki 6:7 The stones with which the Temple was built had been prepared at the quarry, so that there was no noise made by hammers, axes, or any other iron tools as the Temple was being built.

1Ki 6:8 The entrance to the lowest story of the annex was on the south side of the Temple, with stairs leading up to the second and third stories.

1Ki 6:9 So King Solomon finished building the Temple. He put in a ceiling made of beams and boards of cedar.

1Ki 6:10 The three-storied annex, each story 71/2 feet high, was built against the outside walls of the Temple, and was joined to them by cedar beams.

1Ki 6:11 The LORD said to Solomon,

1Ki 6:12 "If you obey all my laws and commands, I will do for you what I promised your father David.

1Ki 6:13 I will live among my people Israel in this Temple that you are building, and I will never abandon them."

1Ki 6:14 So Solomon finished building the Temple.

1Ki 6:15 The inside walls were covered with cedar panels from the floor to the ceiling, and the floor was made of pine.

1Ki 6:17 The room in front of the Most Holy Place was 60 feet long.

1Ki 6:18 The cedar panels were decorated with carvings of gourds and flowers; the whole interior was covered with cedar, so that the stones of the walls could not be seen.

1Ki 6:19 In the rear of the Temple an inner room was built, where the LORD's Covenant Box was to be placed.

1Ki 6:20 This inner room was 30 feet long, 30 feet wide, and 30 feet high, all covered with pure gold. The altar was covered with cedar panels.

1Ki 6:21 The inside of the Temple was covered with gold, and gold chains were placed across the entrance of the inner room, which was also covered with gold.

1Ki 6:22 The whole interior of the Temple was covered with gold, as well as the altar in the Most Holy Place.

1Ki 6:23 Two winged creatures were made of olive wood and placed in the Most Holy Place, each one 15 feet tall.

1Ki 6:24 (24-26) Both were of the same size and shape. Each had two wings, each wing 71/2 feet long, so that the distance from one wing tip to the other was 15 feet.

1Ki 6:27 They were placed side by side in the Most Holy Place, so that two of their outstretched wings touched each other in the middle of the room, and the other two wings touched the walls.

1Ki 6:28 The two winged creatures were covered with gold.

1Ki 6:29 The walls of the main room and of the inner room were all decorated with carved figures of winged creatures, palm trees, and flowers.

1Ki 6:30 Even the floor was covered with gold.

1Ki 6:31 A double door made of olive wood was set in place at the entrance of the Most Holy Place; the top of the doorway was a pointed arch.

1Ki 6:32 The doors were decorated with carved figures of winged creatures, palm trees, and flowers. The doors, the winged creatures, and the palm trees were covered with gold.

1Ki 6:33 For the entrance to the main room a rectangular doorframe of olive wood was made.

1Ki 6:34 There were two folding doors made of pine

1Ki 6:35 and decorated with carved figures of winged creatures, palm trees, and flowers, which were evenly covered with gold.

1Ki 6:36 An inner court was built in front of the Temple, enclosed with walls which had one layer of cedar beams for every three layers of stone.

1Ki 6:37 The foundation of the Temple was laid in the second month, the month of Ziv, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign.

1Ki 6:38 In the eighth month, the month of Bul, in the eleventh year of Solomon's reign, the Temple was completely finished exactly as it had been planned. It had taken Solomon seven years to build it.

I KONINGS 6

1Vier honderd en tagtig jaar nadat die Israeliete uit Egipte getrek het, vier jaar nadat Salomo koning van Israel geword het, het hy begin bou aan die tempel van die Here. Dit was in die maand Sif, die tweede maand. 2Die tempel wat koning Salomo vir die Here gebou het, was dertig meter lank, tien meter breed en vyftien meter hoog. 3Die voorportaal aan die voorkant van die tempel was tien meter lank, net so lank as wat die tempel breed was. Die breedte daarvan was vyf meter. 4Salomo het in die tempel vensters aangebring met kosyne en met traliewerk voor. 5Rondom teen die muur van die tempel het hy 'n platform gebou. Dit het om die mure van die voorste en die binneste heiligdom gestrek, en daarop het hy verdiepings gebou. 6Die onderste verdieping was twee en 'n half meter breed, die middelste drie meter en die derde drie en 'n half meter. Hy het die tempelmuur so gebou dat dit aan die buitekant regoor elke verdieping nouer was as regoor die vorige, sodat hy nie nodig sou hê om die verdiepings in die tempelmuur self vas te bou nie. 7Vir die bou van die tempel is klaar gekapte klip uit die groewe gebruik. Daar was geen geraas van hamers, beitels of enige ander ystergereedskap by die tempel toe dit gebou is nie. 8Die ingang na die middelste verdieping was aan die suidekant van die tempel. 'n Mens kon ook deur 'n luik opgaan na die middelste verdieping toe en daarvandaan na die derde toe. 9Nadat Salomo die tempel klaar gebou het, het hy 'n dak van oorkruis gelegde sederbalke opgesit. 10Die platform wat hy buite om die hele tempel gebou het, was twee en 'n half meter hoog, en hy het dit met sederbalke aan die tempelmuur vasgesit. 11Die woord van die Here het tot Salomo gekom en gesê: 12Jy bou nou die tempel. As jy volgens my voorskrifte leef en my bepalings uitvoer en jou aan al my gebooie hou en volgens hulle leef, sal Ek my beloftes wat Ek aan jou vader Dawid gemaak het, nakom teenoor jou. 13Ek sal tussen die Israeliete woon, Ek sal my volk Israel nie verlaat nie. 14Nadat Salomo die tempel klaar gebou het, 15het hy die mure van die tempel aan die binnekant met sederplanke bedek; van die vloer af tot teen die dakbalke het hy dit met hout oorgetrek. Die vloer self het hy van sipresplanke gemaak. 16Hy het agter in die tempel tien meter afgeskort met sederplanke, van die vloer af tot teen die dak, en so aan die binnekant 'n binneste heiligdom ingerig, die Allerheiligste. 17Die groot vertrek, die voorste heiligdom, was twintig meter lank. 18Dit was aan die binnekant uitgevoer met sederhout, waarop kalbasse en blomknoppe uitgesny is. Alles was sederhout, daar was nie klip sigbaar nie. 19Hy het die binneste heiligdom binne in die tempel ingerig om die verbondsark van die Here daar te sit. 20Die binneste heiligdom was tien meter lank, tien meter breed en tien meter hoog. Salomo het dit oorgetrek met geslae goud, en die altaar voor die binneste heiligdom het hy met sederhout oorgetrek. 21Hy het ook die groot vertrek met geslae goud oorgetrek aan die binnekant, en hy het goue kettings gespan voor die binneste heiligdom, wat hy ook met goud oorgetrek het. 22Die hele vertrek, so groot soos hy was, is met goud oorgetrek, en ook die hele altaar by die binneste heiligdom. 23In die binneste heiligdom het hy twee gerubs van olyfhout aangebring, vyf meter hoog. 24Elke vlerk van die gerubs was twee en 'n half meter lank. Van punt tot punt was die vlerke van die een gerub dus vyf meter 25en net so ook die ander een s'n. Die twee gerubs was ewe groot en het eenders gelyk. 26Die een was vyf meter hoog, en die ander een ook. 27Salomo het die gerubs in die binneste vertrek gesit. Hulle vlerke was uitgestrek; die een se een vlerk het aan die een muur geraak en die ander se een vlerk aan die ander muur. Presies in die middel van die vertrek het hulle ander vlerke aan mekaar geraak. 28Salomo het die gerubs met goud oorgetrek. 29Rondom teen al die mure van die tempel het Salomo gerubs, palms en blomknoppe in houtsneewerk aangebring, in die binneste en in die buitenste vertrekke. 30Hy het ook altwee vertrekke se vloere met goud oorgetrek. 31Vir die binneste heiligdom het hy 'n dubbeldeur van olyfhout gemaak. Die kosyn het 'n vyfhoek gevorm. 32Op die twee deure van olyfhout het hy gerubs, palms en blomknoppe laat uitsny en dit met goud oorgetrek. Hy het die goud oor die gerubs en die palms aangebring. 33Dieselfde het hy gedoen by die ingang van die voorste heiligdom. Die kosyn was ook van olyfhout, maar daar het dit 'n vierhoek gevorm. 34Die twee dubbeldeure was van sipreshout. Op die twee vleuels van elke deur was sirkels uitgesny. 35Salomo het ook gerubs, palms en blomknoppe op die deure uitgesny en dit met goud oorgetrek. Die goud is in die uitgesnyde dele vasgeslaan. 36Hy het die binneste voorhof gebou van drie lae gekapte klip en een laag sederhout. 37Die fondament van die huis van die Here is gelê in die vierde jaar, in die maand Sif, 38en die tempel met al sy toebehore en sy hele inrigting is voltooi in die elfde jaar, in die maand Bul, die agste maand. Hulle het sewe jaar aan die tempel gebou.

Solomon Builds His Palace

1Ki 7:1 Solomon also built a palace for himself, and it took him thirteen years.

1Ki 7:2 (2-3) The Hall of the Forest of Lebanon was 150 feet long, 75 feet wide, and 45 feet high. It had three rows of cedar pillars, 15 in each row, with cedar beams resting on them. The ceiling was of cedar, extending over storerooms, which were supported by the pillars.

1Ki 7:4 On each of the two side walls there were three rows of windows.

1Ki 7:5 The doorways and the windows had rectangular frames, and the three rows of windows in each wall faced the opposite rows.

1Ki 7:6 The Hall of Columns was 75 feet long and 45 feet wide. It had a covered porch, supported by columns.

1Ki 7:7 The Throne Room, also called the Hall of Judgment, where Solomon decided cases, had cedar panels from the floor to the rafters.

1Ki 7:8 Solomon's own quarters, in another court behind the Hall of Judgment, were made like the other buildings. He also built the same kind of house for his wife, the daughter of the king of Egypt.

1Ki 7:9 All these buildings and the great court were made of fine stones from the foundations to the eaves. The stones were prepared at the quarry and cut to measure, with their inner and outer sides trimmed with saws.

1Ki 7:10 The foundations were made of large stones prepared at the quarry, some of them twelve feet long and others fifteen feet long.

1Ki 7:11 On top of them were other stones, cut to measure, and cedar beams.

1Ki 7:12 The palace court, the inner court of the Temple, and the entrance room of the Temple had walls with one layer of cedar beams for every three layers of cut stones.

The Temple Furnishings

1Ki 7:13 King Solomon sent for a man named Huram, a craftsman living in the city of Tyre, who was skilled in bronze work.

1Ki 7:14 His father, who was no longer living, was from Tyre, and had also been a skilled bronze craftsman; his mother was from the tribe of Naphtali. Huram was an intelligent and experienced craftsman. He accepted King Solomon's invitation to be in charge of all the bronze work.

1Ki 7:15 Huram cast two bronze columns, each one 27 feet tall and 18 feet in circumference, and placed them at the entrance of the Temple.

1Ki 7:16 He also made two bronze capitals, each one 71/2 feet tall, to be placed on top of the columns.

1Ki 7:17 The top of each column was decorated with a design of interwoven chains

1Ki 7:18 and two rows of bronze pomegranates.

1Ki 7:19 The capitals were shaped like lilies, 6 feet tall, 1Ki 7:20 and were placed on a rounded section which was above the chain design. There were 200 pomegranates in two rows around each capital.

1Ki 7:21 Huram placed these two bronze columns in front of the entrance of the Temple: the one on the south side was named Jachin and the one on the north was named Boaz.

1Ki 7:22 The lily-shaped bronze capitals were on top of the columns. And so the work on the columns was completed.

1Ki 7:23 Huram made a round tank of bronze, 71/2 feet deep, 15 feet in diameter, and 45 feet in circumference.

1Ki 7:24 All around the outer edge of the rim of the tank were two rows of bronze gourds, which had been cast all in one piece with the rest of the tank.

1Ki 7:25 The tank rested on the backs of twelve bronze bulls that faced outward, three facing in each direction.

1Ki 7:26 The sides of the tank were 3 inches thick. Its rim was like the rim of a cup, curving outward like the petals of a lily. The tank held about 10,000 gallons.

1Ki 7:27 Huram also made ten bronze carts; each was 6 feet long, 6 feet wide, and 41/2 feet high.

1Ki 7:28 They were made of square panels which were set in frames, 1Ki 7:29 with the figures of lions, bulls, and winged creatures on the panels; and on the frames, above and underneath the lions and bulls, there were spiral figures in relief.

1Ki 7:30 Each cart had four bronze wheels with bronze axles. At the four corners were bronze supports for a basin; the supports were decorated with spiral figures in relief.

1Ki 7:31 There was a circular frame on top for the basin. It projected upward 18 inches from the top of the cart and 7 inches down into it. It had carvings around it.

1Ki 7:32 The wheels were 25 inches high; they were under the panels, and the axles were of one piece with the carts.

1Ki 7:33 The wheels were like chariot wheels; their axles, rims, spokes, and hubs were all of bronze.

1Ki 7:34 There were four supports at the bottom corners of each cart, which were of one piece with the cart.

1Ki 7:35 There was a 9-inch band around the top of each cart; its supports and the panels were of one piece with the cart.

1Ki 7:36 The supports and panels were decorated with figures of winged creatures, lions, and palm trees, wherever there was space for them, with spiral figures all around.

1Ki 7:37 This, then, is how the carts were made; they were all alike, having the same size and shape.

1Ki 7:38 Huram also made ten basins, one for each cart. Each basin was 6 feet in diameter and held 200 gallons.

1Ki 7:39 He placed five of the carts on the south side of the Temple, and the other five on the north side; the tank he placed at the southeast corner.

1Ki 7:46 The king had it all made in the foundry between Sukkoth and Zarethan, in the Jordan Valley.

1Ki 7:47 Solomon did not have these bronze objects weighed, because there were too many of them, and so their weight was never determined.

1Ki 7:48 Solomon also had gold furnishings made for the Temple: the altar, the table for the bread offered to God,

1Ki 7:49 the ten lampstands that stood in front of the Most Holy Place, five on the south side and five on the north; the flowers, lamps, and tongs;

1Ki 7:50 the cups, lamp snuffers, bowls, dishes for incense, and the pans used for carrying live coals; and the hinges for the doors of the Most Holy Place and of the outer doors of the Temple. All these furnishings were made of gold.

1Ki 7:51 When King Solomon finished all the work on the Temple, he placed in the Temple storerooms all the things that his father David had dedicated to the LORD—the silver, gold, and other articles.

I KONINGS 7

1Aan sy paleis het Salomo dertien jaar gebou voor hy heeltemal klaar was daarmee. 2Hy het ook die Libanonsbosgebou opgetrek, vyftig meter lank, vyf en twintig meter breed en vyftien meter hoog, op vier rye sederhoutpilare en met sederhoutbalke op die pilare. 3Bo-oor die verdiepings was daar 'n dak wat gerus het op vyf en veertig pilare, vyftien in 'n ry. 4Daar was drie rye vensters met kosyne, telkens drie vensters regoor mekaar. 5Al die deurkosyne was reghoekig en het lateie gehad. Daar was telkens drie deure regoor mekaar. 6Salomo het ook 'n pilaargang gebou, vyf en twintig meter lank en vyftien meter breed. Dit het 'n voorportaal aan die voorkant gehad, met pilare en 'n afdak voor. 7Salomo het ook 'n troonsaal ingerig, die regsaal, waar hy hofsake verhoor het. Dit was van die vloer af tot teen die dak met sederhout uitgevoer. 8Die gebou waar hy self gewoon het, was aan die binneplein agter die troonsaal en is op dieselfde manier gebou. Verder het hy 'n woonplek net soos die troonsaal gebou vir die farao se dogter met wie hy getroud was. 9Al die geboue van die fondament af tot teen die dak is opgerig van duursame klip wat volgens maat gekap en aan weerskante met die saag afgewerk is. Ook die gedeelte buitekant tot teen die groot voorhof is so gebou. 10Die fondamente was van groot, duursame klippe, klippe van vyf meter en vier meter. 11Bo-op was duursame klip, volgens maat gekap, en sederhout. 12Die mure van die groot voorhof rondom is gebou van drie lae gekapte klip en een ry sederhoutbalke, net soos die binneste voorhof van die huis van die Here en die voorportaal van die paleis. 13Koning Salomo het die dienste bekom van Hiram van Tirus. 14Hiram was die seun van 'n weduwee uit die Naftalistam en sy pa was 'n Tiriër, 'n vakman in bronswerk. Hiram kon enige bronswerk met vaardigheid, insig en vernuf uitvoer. Hy het in diens van koning Salomo getree en alles gedoen wat dié hom opgedra het. 15Hiram het die twee bronspilare gegiet, nege meter hoog en ses meter in die omtrek. 16Hy het twee kapitele gemaak, in brons gegiet, om bo-op die pilare te sit. Elke kapiteel was twee en 'n half meter hoog. 17Daar was roosters met gevlegte kettingwerk aan die kapitele bo-op die pilare, sewe kettings aan elke kapiteel. 18Dit is hoe hy die pilare gemaak het. Op elke rooster teen die kapitele het hy rondom twee rye granate aangebring. 19Die kapitele bo-op die pilare by die voorportaal was in die vorm van blomkelke, twee meter hoog. 20Aan die bokant van die kapitele op die pilare net waar die kelke dikker word, teen die kante van die roosters, was rondom twee honderd granate in rye. 21Hiram het die pilare by die voorportaal van die tempel opgestel. Die een wat hy regs opgestel het, het hy Jakin genoem, en die een links Boas. 22Bo-op die pilare was die kapitele in die vorm van blomkelke. Daarmee was die werk aan die pilare afgehandel. 23Hy het ook die gegote waterbak gemaak, heeltemal rond, vyf meter in deursnee, twee en 'n half meter hoog, en met 'n omtrek van vyftien meter. 24Rondom onder die rand van die waterbak was twee rye kalbasse in reliëf, tien op elke halwe meter. Die kalbasse is saam met die waterbak in een stuk gegiet. 25Die waterbak het gerus op twaalf gegote beeste, drie na die noorde gerig, drie na die weste, drie na die suide en drie na die ooste. Die waterbak was bo-op hulle, en almal se agterkante was onder die bak in. 26Die wande van die waterbak was sowat nege sentimeter dik en sy rand was soos 'n beker se rand in die vorm van die kelk van 'n lelie. Dit kon vier en veertig kiloliter bevat. 27Hiram het tien waentjies van brons gemaak. Elke waentjie was twee meter lank, twee meter breed en een en 'n half meter hoog. 28Die waentjies is soos volg gemaak: Hulle het sypanele gehad tussen die rame, 29en op die sypanele en die rame was daar leeus, beeste en gerubs. Bokant en onderkant die leeus en die beeste was kransies in reliëf. 30Elke waentjie het vier bronswiele gehad met brons-asse aan die vier voetstukke. Die waskom het gerus op staanders, gegiet met kransies aan die kante. 31Die opening aan die binnekant van die bostuk was 'n halwe meter diep. Die opening was rond en was saam met die raamwerk daarvan 'n driekwart meter in deursnee. Daar was ook graveerwerk rondom die opening. Die sypanele van die waentjies was vierkantig, nie rond nie. 32Die vier wiele was onder die sypanele, en die wiele se asse was aan die waentjie vas. Elke wiel was 'n driekwart meter in deursnee. 33Die wiele was gemaak soos strydwawiele, hulle asse en vellings en speke en nawe was alles van gietwerk. 34Die vier staanders aan die vier hoeke van elke waentjie het 'n geheel gevorm met die waentjie. 35Bo-op elke waentjie was daar 'n ronde staander, 'n kwart meter hoog, met plate aan die kante toegemaak. 36Hiram het op die plate van die staander en op die sypanele, oral waar daar plek was, gerubs, leeus en palms uitgesny, asook kransies rondom. 37So het hy die tien waentjies gemaak, gegiet in dieselfde vorm, almal eenders en ewe groot. 38Hy het tien waskomme van brons gemaak. Elkeen kon ag honderd en tagtig liter hou en was twee meter in deursnee. Daar was 'n waskom vir elkeen van die tien waentjies. 39Hy het vyf waentjies regs van die tempel gesit en vyf links. Die waterbak het hy regs van die tempel gesit, aan die suidoostekant. 40Hiram het die waskomme, die skoppe en die komme vir besprinkeling gemaak. So het hy al die werk afgehandel wat hy vir koning Salomo aan die huis van die Here moes doen: 41die twee pilare met die komvormige skywe, die kapitele bo-aan die twee pilare, en ook die roosters waarmee die skywe van die kapitele bo-aan die pilare toegemaak is; 42die vier honderd granate vir die twee roosters, 'n dubbele ry granate vir elke rooster waarmee die skywe van die kapitele bo-aan die pilare toegemaak is. 43Hy het ook die tien waentjies met die tien waskomme daarop gemaak, 44die waterbak met die twaalf beeste daaronder, 45die potte, die skoppe, die komme vir besprinkeling en al die toebehore van die heiligdom. Hiram het dit vir koning Salomo vir die huis van die Here gemaak van gepoleerde brons. 46Die koning het dit in die omgewing van die Jordaan, tussen Sukkot en Saretan, in kleivorms laat giet. 47Salomo het al die goed op hulle plekke laat sit. Daar is so baie brons gebruik dat dit nie geweeg kon word nie. 48Salomo het ook al die toerusting vir die huis van die Here laat maak: die goue altaar, die goue tafel vir die offerbrood; 49die kandelaars van suiwer goud, vyf regs en vyf links voor die binneste heiligdom; die blomkelke, die lampe en die goue pithouers; 50die bakke, die skêre, die komme vir besprinkeling, die panne en die vuurbakke, alles van suiwer goud. Ook die skarniere aan die deure van die binneste vertrek, die Allerheiligste, en dié aan die deure van die voorste heiligdom was van goud. 51Nadat al die werk wat koning Salomo aan die huis van die Here gedoen het, afgehandel was, het hy die gewyde gawes van Dawid, sy pa, ingebring. Die silwer en die goud en die toebehore het hy in die voorraadkamers van die huis van die Here gesit.

The Ark Brought into the Temple

1Ki 8:1 Then King Solomon summoned all the leaders of the tribes and clans of Israel to come to him in Jerusalem in order to take the LORD's Covenant Box from Zion, David's City, to the Temple.

1Ki 8:2 They all assembled during the Festival of Shelters in the seventh month, in the month of Ethanim.

1Ki 8:3 When all the leaders had gathered, the priests lifted the Covenant Box

1Ki 8:4 and carried it to the Temple. The Levites and the priests also moved the Tent of the LORD's presence and all its equipment to the Temple.

1Ki 8:5 King Solomon and all the people of Israel assembled in front of the Covenant Box and sacrificed a large number of sheep and cattle —too many to count.

1Ki 8:6 Then the priests carried the Covenant Box into the Temple and put it in the Most Holy Place, beneath the winged creatures.

1Ki 8:7 Their outstretched wings covered the box and the poles it was carried by.

1Ki 8:8 The ends of the poles could be seen by anyone standing directly in front of the Most Holy Place, but from nowhere else. (The poles are still there today.)

1Ki 8:9 There was nothing inside the Covenant Box except the two stone tablets which Moses had placed there at Mount Sinai, when the LORD made a covenant with the people of Israel as they were coming from Egypt.

1Ki 8:10 As the priests were leaving the Temple, it was suddenly filled with a cloud 1Ki 8:11 shining with the dazzling light of the LORD's presence, and they could not go back in to perform their duties.

Solomon Blesses the Lord

1Ki 8:12 Then Solomon prayed: "You, LORD, have placed the sun in the sky, yet you have chosen to live in clouds and darkness.

1Ki 8:13 Now I have built a majestic temple for you, a place for you to live in forever."

1Ki 8:14 As the people stood there, King Solomon turned to face them, and he asked God's blessing on them.

1Ki 8:15 He said, "Praise the LORD God of Israel! He has kept the promise he made to my father David, when he told him, 1Ki 8:16 'From the time I brought my people out of Egypt, I have not chosen any city in all the land of Israel in which a temple should be built where I would be worshiped. But I chose you, David, to rule my people.' "

1Ki 8:17 And Solomon continued, "My father David planned to build a temple for the worship of the LORD God of Israel,

1Ki 8:18 but the LORD said to him, 'You were right in wanting to build a temple for me,

1Ki 8:19 but you will never build it. It is your son, your own son, who will build my temple.'

1Ki 8:20 "And now the LORD has kept his promise. I have succeeded my father as king of Israel, and I have built the Temple for the worship of the LORD God of Israel.

1Ki 8:21 I have also provided a place in the Temple for the Covenant Box containing the stone tablets of the covenant which the LORD made with our ancestors when he brought them out of Egypt."

Solomon's Prayer of Dedication

1Ki 8:22 Then in the presence of the people Solomon went and stood in front of the altar, where he raised his arms

1Ki 8:23 and prayed, " LORD God of Israel, there is no god like you in heaven above or on earth below! You keep your covenant with your people and show them your love when they live in wholehearted obedience to you.

1Ki 8:24 You have kept the promise you made to my father David; today every word has been fulfilled.

1Ki 8:25 And now, LORD God of Israel, I pray that you will also keep the other promise you made to my father when you told him that there would always be one of his descendants ruling as king of Israel, provided they obeyed you as carefully as he did.

1Ki 8:26 So now, O God of Israel, let everything come true that you promised to my father David, your servant.

1Ki 8:27 "But can you, O God, really live on earth? Not even all of heaven is large enough to hold you, so how can this Temple that I have built be large enough?

1Ki 8:28 LORD my God, I am your servant. Listen to my prayer, and grant the requests I make to you today.

1Ki 8:29 Watch over this Temple day and night, this place where you have chosen to be worshiped. Hear me when I face this Temple and pray.

1Ki 8:30 Hear my prayers and the prayers of your people when they face this place and pray. In your home in heaven hear us and forgive us.

1Ki 8:31 "When a person is accused of wronging another and is brought to your altar in this Temple to take an oath that he is innocent, 1Ki 8:32 O LORD, listen in heaven and judge your servants. Punish the guilty one as he deserves, and acquit the one who is innocent.

1Ki 8:33 "When your people Israel are defeated by their enemies because they have sinned against you, and then when they turn to you and come to this Temple, humbly praying to you for forgiveness, 1Ki 8:34 listen to them in heaven. Forgive the sins of your people and bring them back to the land which you gave to their ancestors.

1Ki 8:35 "When you hold back the rain because your people have sinned against you, and then when they repent and face this Temple, humbly praying to you,

1Ki 8:36 listen to them in heaven. Forgive the sins of the king and of the people of Israel, and teach them to do what is right. Then, O LORD, send rain on this land of yours, which you gave to your people as a permanent possession.

1Ki 8:37 "When there is famine in the land or an epidemic or the crops are destroyed by scorching winds or swarms of locusts, or when your people are attacked by their enemies, or when there is disease or sickness among them,

1Ki 8:38 listen to their prayers. If any of your people Israel, out of heartfelt sorrow, stretch out their hands in prayer toward this Temple,

1Ki 8:39 hear their prayer. Listen to them in your home in heaven, forgive them, and help them. You alone know the thoughts of the human heart. Deal with each person as he deserves, 1Ki 8:40 so that your people may obey you all the time they live in the land which you gave to our ancestors.

1Ki 8:41 (41-42) "When a foreigner who lives in a distant land hears of your fame and of the great things you have done for your people and comes to worship you and to pray at this Temple,

1Ki 8:43 listen to his prayer. In heaven, where you live, hear him and do what he asks you to do, so that all the peoples of the world may know you and obey you, as your people Israel do. Then they will know that this Temple I have built is the place where you are to be worshiped.

1Ki 8:44 "When you command your people to go into battle against their enemies and they pray to you, wherever they are, facing this city which you have chosen and this Temple which I have built for you,

1Ki 8:45 listen to their prayers. Hear them in heaven and give them victory.

1Ki 8:46 "When your people sin against you—and there is no one who does not sin—and in your anger you let their enemies defeat them and take them as prisoners to some other land, even if that land is far away,

1Ki 8:47 listen to your people's prayers. If there in that land they repent and pray to you, confessing how sinful and wicked they have been, hear their prayers, O LORD.

1Ki 8:48 If in that land they truly and sincerely repent and pray to you as they face toward this land which you gave to our ancestors, this city which you have chosen, and this Temple which I have built for you,

1Ki 8:49 then listen to their prayers. In your home in heaven hear them and be merciful to them.

1Ki 8:50 Forgive all their sins and their rebellion against you, and make their enemies treat them with kindness.

1Ki 8:51 They are your own people, whom you brought out of Egypt, that blazing furnace.

1Ki 8:52 "Sovereign LORD, may you always look with favor on your people Israel and their king, and hear their prayer whenever they call to you for help.

1Ki 8:53 You chose them from all the peoples to be your own people, as you told them through your servant Moses when you brought our ancestors out of Egypt."

Solomon's Benediction

1Ki 8:54 After Solomon had finished praying to the LORD, he stood up in front of the altar, where he had been kneeling with uplifted hands.

1Ki 8:55 In a loud voice he asked God's blessings on all the people assembled there. He said, 1Ki 8:56 "Praise the LORD who has given his people peace, as he promised he would. He has kept all the generous promises he made through his servant Moses.

1Ki 8:57 May the LORD our God be with us as he was with our ancestors; may he never leave us or abandon us;

1Ki 8:58 may he make us obedient to him, so that we will always live as he wants us to live, keeping all the laws and commands he gave our ancestors.

1Ki 8:59 May the LORD our God remember at all times this prayer and these petitions I have made to him. May he always be merciful to the people of Israel and to their king, according to their daily needs.

1Ki 8:60 And so all the nations of the world will know that the LORD alone is God—there is no other.

1Ki 8:61 May you, his people, always be faithful to the LORD our God, obeying all his laws and commands as you do today."

Solomon's Sacrifices

1Ki 8:62 Then King Solomon and all the people there offered sacrifices to the LORD.

1Ki 8:63 He sacrificed 22,000 head of cattle and 120,000 sheep as fellowship offerings. And so the king and all the people dedicated the Temple.

1Ki 8:64 That same day he also consecrated the central part of the courtyard, the area in front of the Temple, and then he offered there the sacrifices burned whole, the grain offerings, and the fat of the animals for the fellowship offerings. He did this because the bronze altar was too small for all these offerings.

1Ki 8:65 There at the Temple, Solomon and all the people of Israel celebrated the Festival of Shelters for seven days. There was a huge crowd of people from as far away as Hamath Pass in the north and the Egyptian border in the south.

1Ki 8:66 On the eighth day Solomon sent the people home. They all praised him and went home happy because of all the blessings that the LORD had given his servant David and his people Israel.

1Daarna het Salomo die leiers van Israel, al die stamhoofde en die Israelitiese familiehoofde, by hom in Jerusalem bymekaargeroep om die verbondsark van die Here uit die Dawidstad, Sion, te laat uitbring. 2Al die manne van Israel het op die feesdag in die maand Etanim, die sewende maand, by koning Salomo vergader. 3Nadat al die leiers van Israel gekom het, het die priesters die ark opgetel 4en die ark, die tent van ontmoeting en al die toebehore van die heiligdom wat in die tent was, gedra. Die priesters en die Leviete het dit gedra. 5Koning Salomo en die hele gemeente van Israel wat saam met hom voor die ark was, het soveel kleinvee en beeste geoffer dat dit nie getel of bereken kon word nie. 6Toe het die priesters die verbondsark van die Here na sy plek toe gebring onder die vlerke van die gerubs in die binneste heiligdom van die tempel, dit is die Allerheiligste. 7Die gerubs se vlerke was oopgesprei oor die staanplek van die ark. Hulle het die ark en sy draaghoute aan die bokant bedek. 8Die draaghoute was so lank dat hulle punte gesien kon word van die voorkant van die binneste heiligdom af, maar hulle kon nie van buite af gesien word nie. Hulle is vandag nog daar. 9Daar was niks in die ark nie behalwe die twee plat klippe wat Moses by Horeb daarin gesit het toe die Here by die uittog van die Israeliete uit Egipte met hulle 'n verbond gesluit het. 10Toe die priesters uit die heiligdom kom, het 'n wolk die huis van die Here gevul. 11Daarom kon die priesters nie vir diens aantree nie. Dit was die magtige teenwoordigheid van die Here wat die huis van die Here gevul het. 12Toe het Salomo gesê: Die Here het gesê Hy wil in duisternis woon. 13Daarom, Here, het ek vir U 'n waardige huis gebou, 'n verblyf waar U altyd kan woon. 14Daarna het die koning sy gesig na die hele gemeente van Israel toe gedraai en die hele gemeente van Israel geseën terwyl hulle daar staan. 15Hy het gesê: Geloof sy die Here die God van Israel wat aan my vader Dawid 'n belofte gedoen het en dit deur sy mag vervul het. Die woorde van die Here was: 16Van die dag af dat Ek my volk Israel uit Egipte gebring het, het Ek uit al die stamgebiede van Israel nie 'n stad gekies waar 'n tempel gebou kan word sodat my Naam daar kan wees nie, maar Ek het vir Dawid gekies sodat hy oor my volk Israel kon regeer.' 17My vader Dawid wou 'n tempel bou vir die Naam van die Here die God van Israel, 18maar die Here het vir my vader Dawid gesê: Dat dit jou voorneme is om 'n tempel vir my Naam te bou dit is goed dat jy die voorneme het. 19Maar nie jý sal die tempel bou nie; jou seun wat uit jou voortgekom het, hý sal die tempel vir my Naam bou.' 20Die Here het die belofte nagekom wat Hy gemaak het. Ek het my vader Dawid se plek geneem en op die troon van Israel gekom soos die Here beloof

het. Die tempel vir die Naam van die Here die God van Israel het ek gebou 21en die ark waarin die verbond van die Here is wat Hy met ons voorvaders gesluit het toe Hy hulle uit Egipte gebring het, het ek daar gesit. 22Toe gaan staan Salomo regoor die altaar van die Here, voor die hele gemeente van Israel, en strek sy hande uit na die hemel toe 23en sê: Here, God van Israel, in die hemel of op die aarde is daar nie nog 'n God soos U nie. U hou U aan die verbond en U bly getrou teenoor u dienaars wat met volle oorgawe voor U lewe. 24U het U gehou aan wat U u dienaar, my vader Dawid, beloof het. U het die belofte gemaak en dit so soos dit vandag is, deur u woord en u mag vervul. 25Here, God van Israel, bly dan nou by wat U u dienaar, my vader Dawid, beloof het toe U gesê het: Ek sal sorg dat daar altyd iemand uit jou nageslag op die troon van Israel sal wees, mits jou nakomelinge let op hulle optrede en volgens my woord lewe, soos jy gemaak het.' 26God van Israel, laat die belofte wat U aan u dienaar, my vader Dawid, gemaak het, ook verder vas staan. 27Sou God werklik op die aarde woon? Die hemel, selfs die hoogste hemel, kan U nie bevat nie, hoe dan nog hierdie tempel wat ek gebou het! 28Hoor tog, Here my God, die gebed van u dienaar, hoor sy smeking, luister na die hulpgeroep, die gebed wat u dienaar vandag tot U rig. 29Hou hierdie tempel dag en nag onder u sorg, die plek waarvan U gesê het dat U u Naam daar wil vestig, sodat U die gebed kan hoor wat 'n dienaar van U na hierdie plek toe bid. 30Hoor tog die smeekbedes van u dienaar en u volk Israel wat hulle na hierdie plek toe bid, hoor dit tog uit u hemelse woonplek, en wanneer U dit hoor, vergewe tog! 31As iemand sy naaste kwaad aandoen en dié hom 'n eedverpligting oplê om hom onder 'n vloek te plaas, en hy kom en spreek die eed uit voor u altaar in hierdie tempel, 32luister tog uit die hemel en gryp in en vel die beslissing oor u dienaars sodat die skuldige die straf vir sy dade dra en die onskuldige gelyk gegee word soos dit by sy onskuld pas. 33As u volk Israel deur 'n vyand verslaan word omdat hulle teen U gesondig het en hulle kom tot inkeer en bely u Naam en bid tot U in hierdie huis en smeek U, 34luister tog uit die hemel en vergeef u volk Israel se sonde en laat hulle terugkom na die land wat U aan hulle voorvaders gegee het. 35Wanneer die hemele toegesluit bly en daar nie reën is nie omdat hulle teen U sondig, en hulle bid na hierdie plek toe en bely u Naam terwyl hulle hulle van hulle sonde bekeer en vra dat U hulle gebed sal verhoor, 36luister tog uit die hemel en vergeef u dienaars en u volk Israel se sonde en gee reën op u land wat U aan u volk as besitting gegee het. So leer U hulle die goeie weg wat hulle moet bewandel. 37Sou daar hongersnood in die land kom, sou daar pes uitbreek, brandkoring of roes, swerms sprinkane en voetgangers, sou dit gebeur dat die volk se vyande hom in sy stede hier in die land beleër, watter plaag of siekte hom ook al tref, 38luister tog na elke gebed, elke smeking wat van enige mens of van u hele volk Israel mag kom soos elkeen sy plaag te kenne gee en sy hande na hierdie tempel toe uitstrek; 39luister tog uit die hemel, u woonplek, vergeef en gryp in en gee aan elkeen wat hy verdien soos U sy hart ken, want net U ken elke mens se hart, 40sodat hulle aan U gehoorsaam sal wees die hele tyd dat hulle in die land leef wat U aan ons voorvaders gegee het. 41Luister ook na die vreemdeling wat nie uit u volk Israel is nie en, omdat hy gehoor het van u groot Naam, u mag en krag, selfs uit 'n ver land kom en na hierdie tempel toe bid. 42Luister tog uit die hemel, u woonplek, en doen alles wat die vreemdeling U in sy gebed vra, sodat al die volke van die aarde u Naam kan ken en ook aan U gehoorsaam kan wees net soos u volk Israel, en dat hulle kan weet u Naam is uitgeroep oor hierdie tempel wat ek gebou het. 43Sou u volk teen sy vyande uittrek in 'n oorlog wat deur U beveel is, en hulle bid tot U, die Here, in die rigting van hierdie stad wat U gekies het en die huis wat ek vir u Naam gebou het, 44luister tog uit die hemel na hulle gebed en hulle smeking en gee hulle die oorwinning. 45Sou hulle teen U sondig, want daar is nie 'n mens wat nie sondig nie, en U in u verontwaardiging hulle aan 'n vyand oorgee, sodat hulle as gevangenes weggevoer word na die vyand se land toe, ver of naby, 46en hulle daar in dié land waar hulle gevangenes is, tot inkeer kom en hulle weer tot U wend en U daar in die land van hulle gevangenskap smekend aanroep: Ons het gesondig, ons het verkeerd gedoen, ons is skuldig,' 47en hulle tot U wend met hart en siel in die land van hulle vyande wat hulle gevange hou, en hulle bid tot U in die rigting van hulle land wat U aan hulle voorvaders gegee het en van die stad wat deur U gekies is en die tempel wat ek vir u Naam gebou het, 48luister tog uit die hemel, uit u woonplek, na hulle gebed en smeking en neem hulle straf weg 49en vergeef u volk wat teen U gesondig het, vergeef hulle al hulle opstandigheid teen U en laat dié wat hulle gevange hou, met hulle medelye hê, 50want hulle is u eie volk, U het hulle uitgelei uit Egipte, uit die smeltoond uit. 51Wees tog ontvanklik vir die smeking van u dienaar en u volk Israel, verhoor tog elke gebed wat hulle tot U rig. 52U het hulle onder al die volke van die wêreld afgesonder as 'n volk vir U, Here. Dit het gebeur soos U, Here, deur u dienaar Moses gesê het toe U ons voorvaders uit Egipte gebring het. 53Nadat Salomo klaar hierdie gebed en smeking tot die Here gerig het, het hy opgestaan van waar hy voor die altaar van die Here gekniel het met sy hande uitgestrek na die hemel toe. 54Hy het gaan staan en die hele gemeente van Israel hardop geseën: 55Geloof sy die Here wat aan sy volk Israel 'n vaste woonplek gegee het soos Hy beloof het. Nie een van die goeie beloftes wat Hy deur sy dienaar Moses gemaak het, het onvervul gebly nie. 56Mag die Here ons God by ons wees soos Hy by ons voorvaders was. Mag Hy ons nooit verlaat of laat vaar nie. [57]Mag Hy ons gewillig maak om altyd volgens sy wil te leef en ons te hou aan sy gebooie, sy voorskrifte en sy bepalings wat Hy ons voorvaders opgelê het. [58]Mag hierdie woorde van my wat ek in my smeking voor die Here uitgespreek het, dag en nag by Hom, die Here ons God, wees, sodat Hy die reg van sy dienaar en van sy volk Israel sal handhaaf soos dit van dag tot dag nodig mag wees. [59]Dan sal al die volke van die wêreld besef die Here is God; daar is nie 'n ander nie. [60]Mag julle met volle oorgawe voor die Here ons God leef volgens sy voorskrifte en julle hou aan sy gebooie, so soos dit vandag is. [61]Die koning en die hele Israel het vir die Here offerandes gebring. [62]Salomo het twee en twintig duisend beeste en honderd en twintig duisend stuks kleinvee as maaltydoffer geoffer. So het die koning en al die Israeliete die huis van die Here ingewy. [63]Daardie dag het die koning die middelgedeelte van die voorhof wat reg voor die huis van die Here is, gewy, want daar het hy die brandoffer en die graanoffer en die vetgedeeltes van die maaltydoffers verbrand. Die bronsaltaar wat voor die tempel van die Here gestaan het, was te klein vir die brandoffer en die graanoffer en die vetgedeeltes. [64]Salomo, en die hele Israel saam met hom wat gekom het van Lebo-Hamat af tot by Egiptespruit, 'n groot gemeente, het destyds sewe dae lank fees gehou ter ere van die Here ons God, en daarna weer sewe dae, veertien dae altesaam. [65]Die dag daarna het Salomo die volk laat gaan. Hulle het hom gegroet en is terug huis toe, bly en gelukkig oor die goeie dinge wat die Here gedoen het aan sy dienaar Dawid en sy volk Israel.

The Lord Appears to Solomon

1Ki 9:1 After King Solomon had finished building the Temple and the palace and everything else he wanted to build,

1Ki 9:2 the LORD appeared to him again, as he had in Gibeon.

1Ki 9:3 The LORD said to him, "I have heard your prayer. I consecrate this Temple which you have built as the place where I shall be worshiped forever. I will watch over it and protect it for all time.

1Ki 9:4 If you will serve me in honesty and integrity, as your father David did, and if you obey my laws and do everything I have commanded you, 1Ki 9:5 I will keep the promise I made to your father David when I told him that Israel would always be ruled by his descendants.

1Ki 9:6 But if you or your descendants stop following me, disobey the laws and commands I have given you, and worship other gods, 1Ki 9:7 then I will remove my people Israel from the land that I have given them. I will also abandon this Temple which I have consecrated as the place where I am to be worshiped. People everywhere will ridicule Israel and treat her with contempt.

1Ki 9:8 This Temple will become a pile of ruins, and everyone who passes by will be shocked and amazed. 'Why did the LORD do this to this land and this Temple?' they will ask.

1Ki 9:9 People will answer, 'It is because they abandoned the LORD their God, who brought their ancestors out of Egypt. They gave their allegiance to other gods and worshiped them. That is why the LORD has brought this disaster on them.' "

Solomon's Other Acts

1Ki 9:10 It took Solomon twenty years to build the Temple and his palace.

1Ki 9:11 King Hiram of Tyre had provided him with all the cedar and pine and with all the gold he wanted for this work. After it was finished, King Solomon gave Hiram twenty towns in the region of Galilee.

1Ki 9:12 Hiram went to see them, and he did not like them.

1Ki 9:13 So he said to Solomon, "So these, my brother, are the towns you have given me!" For this reason the area is still called Cabul.

1Ki 9:14 Hiram had sent Solomon almost five tons of gold.

1Ki 9:15 King Solomon used forced labor to build the Temple and the palace, to fill in land on the east side of the city, and to build the city wall. He also used it to rebuild the cities of Hazor, Megiddo, and Gezer.

1Ki 9:16 (The king of Egypt had attacked Gezer and captured it, killing its inhabitants and setting fire to the city. Then he gave it as a wedding present to his daughter when she married Solomon, 1Ki 9:17 and Solomon rebuilt it.) Using his forced labor, Solomon also rebuilt Lower Beth Horon, 1Ki 9:18 Baalath, Tamar in the wilderness of Judah,

1Ki 9:19 the cities where his supplies were kept, the cities for his horses and chariots, and everything else he wanted to build in Jerusalem, in Lebanon, and elsewhere in his kingdom.

1Ki 9:20 (20-21) For his forced labor Solomon used the descendants of the people of Canaan whom the Israelites had not killed when they took possession of their land. These included Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, whose descendants continue to be slaves down to the present time.

1Ki 9:22 Solomon did not make slaves of Israelites; they served as his soldiers, officers, commanders, chariot captains, and cavalry.

1Ki 9:23 There were 550 officials in charge of the forced labor working on Solomon's various building projects.

1Ki 9:24 Solomon filled in the land on the east side of the city, after his wife, the daughter of the king of Egypt, had moved from David's City to the palace Solomon built for her.

1Ki 9:25 Three times a year Solomon offered burnt offerings and fellowship offerings on the altar he had built to the LORD. He also burned incense to the LORD. And so he finished building the Temple.

1Ki 9:26 King Solomon also built a fleet of ships at Eziongeber, which is near Elath on the shore of the Gulf of Aqaba, in the land of Edom.

1Ki 9:27 King Hiram sent some experienced sailors from his fleet to serve with Solomon's men.

1Ki 9:28 They sailed to the land of Ophir and brought back to Solomon about sixteen tons of gold.

1Nadat Salomo die tempel van die Here en die koninklike paleis klaar gebou en alles wat hy wou doen, voorspoedig afgehandel het, 2het die Here 'n tweede keer aan hom verskyn soos Hy by Gibeon aan hom verskyn het, 3en vir hom gesê: Ek het jou gebed en jou smeking wat jy tot My gerig het, verhoor. Ek heilig hierdie tempel wat jy gebou het, sodat my Naam altyd daar sal wees. Ek sal altyd daarvoor sorg en daaraan dink. 4En jy, as jy soos jou vader Dawid opreg en met oorgawe voor My leef en alles doen wat Ek jou beveel en my voorskrifte en bepalings nakom, 5sal Ek jou heerskappy oor Israel bestendig. So het Ek jou vader Dawid belowe: Daar sal altyd iemand uit jou nageslag wees om oor Israel te regeer. 6Maar as julle en julle nageslag van My af wegdraai en my gebooie en my voorskrifte wat Ek julle gegee het, nie nakom nie en julle gaan dien ander gode en buig voor hulle, 7sal Ek Israel wegdryf uit die land wat Ek hulle gegee het, en sal Ek hierdie tempel wat Ek vir my Naam geheilig het, voor My wegvee. Ek sal Israel 'n spot en 'n skimp maak onder al die volke. 8Ja, hoe uitsonderlik hierdie tempel ook al was, elke verbyganger sal dan van verbasing sy asem intrek en fluit en vra: Waarom het die Here dit gedoen aan dié land en dié tempel?' 9En dan sal die mense antwoord: Omdat daardie volk die Here hulle God verlaat het, Hy wat hulle voorvaders uit Egipte gebring het. Hulle het hulle aan ander gode verbind en voor hulle gebuig en hulle gedien. Daarom het die Here al hierdie groot rampe oor sy volk gebring. 10Na afloop van die twintig jaar waarin Salomo die twee geboue opgerig het, die huis van die Here en die koninklike paleis, 11waarvoor koning Hiram van Tirus aan Salomo soveel sederhout, sipreshout en ook goud gelewer het as wat hy wou hê, het koning Salomo twintig stede in Galilea aan Hiram oorgedra. 12Toe Hiram hierdie stede wat Salomo aan hom oorgedra het, uit Tirus gaan besigtig, was hy teleurgestel 13en het hy gesê: Wat se stede is dit wat jy vir my gee, my broer! Daarom dra dit tot vandag nog die naam Kabulstreek . 14Hiram het aan Salomo meer as vier ton goud gelewer. 15Vir die bou van die huis van die Here en die paleis, die terras en die muur van Jerusalem, en vir die herbou van die stede Hasor, Megiddo en Geser het koning Salomo van dwangarbeid gebruik gemaak. 16Die farao, die koning van Egipte, het Geser met sy leër ingeneem, dit aan die brand gesteek en die Kanaäniete wat die stad bewoon het, om die lewe gebring. Daarna het hy dit as bruidskat gegee vir sy dogter wat met Salomo getrou het. 17Salomo het Geser weer opgebou, en ook Bet-Goron-Onder, 18Baälat en Tamar in die woestyn, in die gebied van Juda; 19verder ook al die voorraadstede wat hy besit het, die stede vir die strydwamagte en die berede magte.

Hy het ook al die bouwerk wat hy hom voorgeneem het, voltooi: dié in Jerusalem en ook dié op die Libanon en dwarsdeur die hele land waaroor hy geregeer het. [20]Salomo het al die nie-Israeliete, die mense wat nog oor was van die Amoriete, Hetiete, Feresiete, Hewiete en Jebusiete, [21]afstammelinge van dié wat nie deur die Israeliete uitgeroei is nie en nog oor was in die land, opgeroep om dwangarbeid te doen. Dit is vandag nog so. [22]Salomo het nie die Israeliete as arbeiders gebruik nie; hulle was sy soldate, sy lyfwag, sy amptenare, die aanvoerders van sy strydwabemannings, sy strydwamag en sy berede mag. [23]Daar was ook nog die volgende getal uitvoerende beamptes oor wie koning Salomo beskik het: vyf honderd en vyftig wat gesag uitgeoefen het oor die werksmense. [24]Nadat die dogter van die farao oorgetrek het van die Dawidstad af na die huis wat Salomo vir haar gebou het, het hy die terras gebou. [25]Salomo het drie maal per jaar brandoffers en maaltydoffers gebring op die altaar wat hy vir die Here gebou het, en daarmee saam wierookoffers vir die Here gebrand. So het hy sy verantwoordelikheid in die tempel nagekom. [26]Koning Salomo het ook skepe gebou in Esjon-Geber by Elat aan die kus van die Rietsee in Edom. [27]Hiram het vir hom skepe gestuur en ervare seemanne. Hulle het saam met Salomo se manne [28]na Ofir toe gevaar en daar vir koning Salomo meer as veertien ton goud gaan haal.

The Queen of Sheba

1Ki 10:1 The queen of Sheba heard of Solomon's fame, and she traveled to Jerusalem to test him with difficult questions.

1Ki 10:2 She brought with her a large group of attendants, as well as camels loaded with spices, jewels, and a large amount of gold. When she and Solomon met, she asked him all the questions that she could think of.

1Ki 10:3 He answered them all; there was nothing too difficult for him to explain.

1Ki 10:4 The queen of Sheba heard Solomon's wisdom and saw the palace he had built.

1Ki 10:5 She saw the food that was served at his table, the living quarters for his officials, the organization of his palace staff and the uniforms they wore, the servants who waited on him at feasts, and the sacrifices he offered in the Temple. It left her breathless and amazed.

1Ki 10:6 She said to King Solomon, "What I heard in my own country about you and your wisdom is true!

1Ki 10:7 But I couldn't believe it until I had come and seen it all for myself. But I didn't hear even half of it; your wisdom and wealth are much greater than what I was told.

1Ki 10:8 How fortunate are your wives! And how fortunate your servants, who are always in your presence and are privileged to hear your wise sayings!

1Ki 10:9 Praise the LORD your God! He has shown how pleased he is with you by making you king of Israel. Because his love for Israel is eternal, he has made you their king so that you can maintain law and justice."

1Ki 10:10 She presented to King Solomon the gifts she had brought: almost five tons of gold and a very large amount of spices and jewels. The amount of spices she gave him was by far the greatest that he ever received at any time.

1Ki 10:11 (Hiram's fleet, which had brought gold from Ophir, also brought from there a large amount of juniper wood and jewels.

1Ki 10:12 Solomon used the wood to build railings in the Temple and the palace, and also to make harps and lyres for the musicians. It was the finest juniper wood ever imported into Israel; none like it has ever been seen again.)

1Ki 10:13 King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba everything she asked for, besides all the other customary gifts that he had generously given her. Then she and her attendants returned to the land of Sheba.

Solomon's Great Wealth

1Ki 10:14 Every year King Solomon received over twenty-five tons of gold, 1Ki 10:15 in addition to the taxes paid by merchants, the profits from trade, and tribute paid by the Arabian kings and the governors of the Israelite districts.

1Ki 10:16 Solomon made two hundred large shields and had each one overlaid with almost fifteen pounds of gold.

1Ki 10:17 He also made three hundred smaller shields, overlaying each one of them with nearly four pounds of gold. He had all these shields placed in the Hall of the Forest of Lebanon.

1Ki 10:18 He also had a large throne made. Part of it was covered with ivory and the rest of it was covered with the finest gold.

1Ki 10:21 All of Solomon's drinking cups were made of gold, and all the utensils in the Hall of the Forest of Lebanon were of pure gold. No silver was used, since it was not considered valuable in Solomon's day.

1Ki 10:22 He had a fleet of ocean-going ships sailing with Hiram's fleet. Every three years his fleet would return, bringing gold, silver, ivory, apes, and monkeys.

1Ki 10:23 King Solomon was richer and wiser than any other king, 1Ki 10:24 and the whole world wanted to come and listen to the wisdom that God had given him.

1Ki 10:25 Everyone who came brought him a gift—articles of silver and gold, robes, weapons, spices, horses, and mules. This continued year after year.

1Ki 10:26 Solomon built up a force of fourteen hundred chariots and twelve thousand cavalry horses. Some of them he kept in Jerusalem and the rest he stationed in various other cities.

1Ki 10:27 During his reign silver was as common in Jerusalem as stone, and cedar was as plentiful as ordinary sycamore in the foothills of Judah.

1Ki 10:28 The king's agents controlled the export of horses from Musri and Cilicia, 1Ki 10:29 and the export of chariots from Egypt. They supplied the Hittite and Syrian kings with horses and chariots, selling chariots for 600 pieces of silver each and horses for 150 each.

I KONINGS 10

1Die koningin van Skeba het gehoor wat van Salomo en die Naam van die Here vertel word en sy het toe self gekom om Salomo met moeilike vrae te toets. 2Sy het na Jerusalem toe gekom met 'n baie groot gevolg en ook kamele wat belaai was met kosbare kruie en 'n groot hoeveelheid goud en edelstene. Toe sy by Salomo kom, het sy met hom oor alles gepraat waaraan sy kon dink, 3en Salomo het vir haar 'n antwoord gehad op al haar vrae. Niks was vir die koning onverklaarbaar nie: hy kon haar op alles antwoord. 4Die koningin van Skeba het onder die indruk gekom van Salomo se wysheid, die tempel wat hy gebou het, 5die geregte op sy tafel, die manier waarop sy amptenare aangesit het, die bediening deur sy tafelbediendes, hulle monderings, sy skinkers en van die optog wanneer hy na die huis van die Here toe opgegaan het. Haar asem het daarvan weggeslaan. 6Sy het vir die koning gesê: Wat ek in my land oor u en u wysheid gehoor het, is waar. 7Ek het nie geglo wat hulle vir my gesê het nie totdat ek gekom en myself oortuig het. Nou weet ek dat nie eers die helfte vir my vertel is nie. U het alles wat ek oor u wysheid en voortreflikheid gehoor het, ver oortref. 8Hoe bevoorreg is u mense en hoe bevoorreg is hierdie amptenare van u dat hulle gedurig in u diens staan en u wysheid aanhoor! 9Geloof sy u God, die Here, wat aan u soveel liefde bewys dat Hy u op die troon van Israel gesit het! Dit is omdat die Here Israel vir altyd liefhet dat Hy u as koning oor hulle aangestel het om die orde en die reg te handhaaf. 10Sy het vir die koning meer as vier ton goud en 'n groot hoeveelheid kosbare kruie en edelstene gegee. Die kruie wat die koningin van Skeba vir koning Salomo gegee het, was meer as wat ooit die land ingekom het. 11Bowendien het die skepe van Hiram wat die goud uit Ofir gebring het, ook nog 'n groot hoeveelheid jenewerhout en edelstene gebring. 12Die koning het die jenewerhout gebruik vir relings by die huis van die Here en by die koninklike paleis, en vir die liere en harpe van die musikante. Daar is tot vandag toe nie sulke jenewerhout gesien nie. 13Vir die koningin van Skeba het koning Salomo alles gegee wat sy begeer en gevra het, buiten nog wat hy uit sy eie vir haar gegee het. Sy is toe terug na haar land toe, sy en haar gevolg. 14Salomo se jaarlikse inkomste aan goud het sowat drie en twintig ton beloop, 15behalwe nog wat die reisigers en handelaars en al die konings van Arabië en die Israelitiese goewerneurs ingebring het. 16Koning Salomo het twee honderd groot skilde van goud gemaak; hy het vir elke skild byna sewe kilogram goud gebruik. 17Hy het ook nog drie honderd klein skilde van goud gemaak; hier het hy sowat twee kilogram vir elke skild gebruik. Die koning het hulle opgestel in die Libanonsbosgebou. 18Verder het die koning 'n groot ivoortroon gemaak en dit met suiwer goud oorgetrek. 19Die troon het ses trappe gehad en die kopstuk agter was rond. Weerskante van die sitplek was daar armleunings, met 'n leeu langs elkeen. 20Twaalf leeus het op die ses trappe gestaan, ses aan elke kant. Daar is in geen ander koninkryk so iets gemaak nie. 21Al koning Salomo se drinkgerei was van goud. Alles wat in die Libanonsbosgebou gebruik is, was van fyngoud. Silwer was in Salomo se dae so volop dat dit nie as iets besonders beskou is nie. 22Die koning het 'n vloot gehad wat saam met dié van Hiram na Tarsis toe gevaar het. Om die drie jaar het die Tarsisvloot teruggekom, vol goud en silwer, ivoor, ape en bobbejane. 23Koning Salomo het al die konings van die aarde oortref in rykdom en wysheid. 24Die hele wêreld het geprobeer om hom te sien te kry en die wysheid wat God hom gegee het, aan te hoor. 25Elkeen het sy geskenk saamgebring: silwer- en goudware, mantels, wapenrusting, kosbare kruie, perde en muile. So het dit jaar vir jaar gegaan. 26Salomo het 'n mag van strydwaens en ruiters bymekaargebring. Hy het veertien honderd strydwaens en twaalf duisend ruiters gehad. Hy het hulle gestasioneer in die strydwaposte en by die paleis in Jerusalem. 27Silwer het hy in Jerusalem so alledaags soos klippe gemaak en seders soos die wildevyebome in die Laeveld. 28Perde is vir Salomo uit Egipte en Kewé ingevoer. Die handelaars wat deur die koning aangestel is, het hulle daar gaan koop vir die prys waarop ooreengekom is. 29Om 'n wa uit Egipte in te voer, het net minder as sewe kilogram silwer gekos, en 'n perd ongeveer een en 'n driekwart kilogram. Dieselfde pryse is aan die Hetitiese en die Aramese konings betaal. Die invoer het deur bemiddeling van die handelaars geskied.

Solomon Turns from the Lord

1Ki 11:1 Solomon loved many foreign women. Besides the daughter of the king of Egypt he married Hittite women and women from Moab, Ammon, Edom, and Sidon.

1Ki 11:2 He married them even though the LORD had commanded the Israelites not to intermarry with these people, because they would cause the Israelites to give their loyalty to other gods.

1Ki 11:3 Solomon married seven hundred princesses and also had three hundred concubines. They made him turn away from God, 1Ki 11:4 and by the time he was old they had led him into the worship of foreign gods. He was not faithful to the LORD his God, as his father David had been.

1Ki 11:5 He worshiped Astarte, the goddess of Sidon, and Molech, the disgusting god of Ammon.

1Ki 11:6 He sinned against the LORD and was not true to him as his father David had been.

1Ki 11:7 On the mountain east of Jerusalem he built a place to worship Chemosh, the disgusting god of Moab, and a place to worship Molech, the disgusting god of Ammon.

1Ki 11:8 He also built places of worship where all his foreign wives could burn incense and offer sacrifices to their own gods.

The Lord Raises Adversaries

1Ki 11:9 (9-10) Even though the LORD, the God of Israel, had appeared to Solomon twice and had commanded him not to worship foreign gods, Solomon did not obey the LORD but turned away from him. So the LORD was angry with Solomon

1Ki 11:11 and said to him, "Because you have deliberately broken your covenant with me and disobeyed my commands, I promise that I will take the kingdom away from you and give it to one of your officials.

1Ki 11:12 However, for the sake of your father David I will not do this in your lifetime, but during the reign of your son.

1Ki 11:13 And I will not take the whole kingdom away from him; instead, I will leave him one tribe for the sake of my servant David and for the sake of Jerusalem, the city I have made my own."

1Ki 11:14 So the LORD caused Hadad, of the royal family of Edom, to turn against Solomon.

1Ki 11:15 (15-16) Long before this, when David had conquered Edom, Joab the commander of his army had gone there to bury the dead. He and his men remained in Edom six months, and during that time they killed every male in Edom

1Ki 11:17 except Hadad and some of his father's Edomite servants, who escaped to Egypt. (At that time Hadad was just a child.)

1Ki 11:18 They left Midian and went to Paran, where some other men joined them. Then they traveled to Egypt and went to the king, who gave Hadad some land and a house and provided him with food.

1Ki 11:19 Hadad won the friendship of the king, and the king gave his sister-in-law, the sister of Queen Tahpenes, to Hadad in marriage.

1Ki 11:20 She bore him a son, Genubath, who was raised by the queen in the palace, where he lived with the king's sons.

1Ki 11:21 When the news reached Hadad in Egypt that David had died and that Joab the commander of the army was dead, Hadad said to the king, "Let me go back to my own country."

1Ki 11:22 "Why?" the king asked. "Have I failed to give you something? Is that why you want to go back home?" "Just let me go," Hadad answered the king. And he went back to his country. As king of Edom, Hadad was an evil, bitter enemy of Israel.

1Ki 11:23 God also caused Rezon son of Eliada to turn against Solomon. Rezon had fled from his master, King Hadadezer of Zobah, 1Ki 11:24 and had become the leader of a gang of outlaws. (This happened after David had defeated Hadadezer and had slaughtered his Syrian allies.) Rezon and his gang went and lived in Damascus, where his followers made him king of Syria.

1Ki 11:25 He was an enemy of Israel during the lifetime of Solomon.

1Ki 11:26 Another man who turned against King Solomon was one of his officials, Jeroboam son of Nebat, from Zeredah in Ephraim. His mother was a widow named Zeruah.

1Ki 11:27 This is the story of the revolt. Solomon was filling in the land on the east side of Jerusalem and repairing the city walls.

1Ki 11:28 Jeroboam was an able young man, and when Solomon noticed how hard he worked, he put him in charge of all the forced labor in the territory of the tribes of Manasseh and Ephraim.

1Ki 11:29 One day, as Jeroboam was traveling from Jerusalem, the prophet Ahijah from Shiloh met him alone on the road in the open country.

1Ki 11:30 Ahijah took off the new robe he was wearing, tore it into twelve pieces, 1Ki 11:31 and said to Jeroboam, "Take ten pieces for yourself, because the LORD, the God of Israel, says to you, 'I am going to take the kingdom away from Solomon, and I will give you ten tribes.

1Ki 11:32 Solomon will keep one tribe for the sake of my servant David and for the sake of Jerusalem, the city I have chosen to be my own from the whole land of Israel.

1Ki 11:33 I am going to do this because Solomon has rejected me and has worshiped foreign gods: Astarte, the goddess of Sidon; Chemosh, the god of Moab; and Molech, the god of Ammon. Solomon has disobeyed me; he has done wrong and has not kept my laws and commands as his father David did.

1Ki 11:34 But I will not take the whole kingdom away from Solomon, and I will keep him in power as long as he lives. This I will do for the sake of my servant David, whom I chose and who obeyed my laws and commands.

1Ki 11:35 I will take the kingdom away from Solomon's son and will give you ten tribes, 1Ki 11:36 but I will let Solomon's son keep one tribe, so that I will always have a descendant of my servant David ruling in Jerusalem, the city I have chosen as the place where I am worshiped.

1Ki 11:37 Jeroboam, I will make you king of Israel, and you will rule over all the territory that you want.

1Ki 11:38 If you obey me completely, live by my laws, and win my approval by doing what I command, as my servant David did, I will always be with you. I will make you king of Israel and will make sure that your descendants rule after you, just as I have done for David.

1Ki 11:39 Because of Solomon's sin I will punish the descendants of David, but not for all time.' "

1Ki 11:40 And so Solomon tried to kill Jeroboam, but he escaped to King Shishak of Egypt and stayed there until Solomon's death.

1Ki 11:41 Everything else that Solomon did, his career, and his wisdom, are all recorded in The History of Solomon.

1Ki 11:42 He was king in Jerusalem over all Israel for forty years.

1Ki 11:43 He died and was buried in David's City, and his son Rehoboam succeeded him as king.

I KONINGS 11

1Koning Salomo was lief vir baie uitlandse vrouens. Behalwe die dogter van die farao het hy ook vrouens uit die Moabiete, Ammoniete, Edomiete, Sidoniërs en Hetiete gehad. 2Dit was die nasies waarvan die Here vir die Israeliete gesê het: Julle mag nie met hulle omgaan nie, en julle mag nie toelaat dat hulle met julle omgaan nie, want hulle sal julle net verlei om hulle gode te aanbid. Salomo het egter juis op hierdie vrouens verlief geraak. 3Hy het sewe honderd vrouens uit vorstelike families gehad, en ook nog drie honderd byvroue. Dit was sy vrouens wat hom verlei het. 4Veral in sy ouderdom het Salomo se vrouens hom verlei om ander gode te dien. Toe het hy die Here sy God nie meer met soveel toewyding gedien soos sy pa nie. 5Hy het Astarte, die godin van die Sidoniërs, en Milkom, die afskuwelike god van die Ammoniete, gedien. 6Salomo het gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here. Hy het nie aan die Here getrou gebly soos Dawid, sy pa, nie. 7Salomo het selfs op die berg teenoor Jerusalem 'n hoogte gebou vir die diens van Kemos, die afskuwelike god van Moab, en vir Molek, die afskuwelike god van die Ammoniete. 8Dieselfde ding het hy gedoen vir al sy uitlandse vrouens, sodat hulle wierook kon brand en offers kon bring vir hulle gode. 9Die toorn van die Here het teen Salomo ontvlam omdat hy nie meer die Here die God van Israel gedien het nie. Tevore het God twee keer aan hom verskyn 10en hom uitdruklik beveel dat hy nie ander gode mag dien nie. Salomo het hom egter nie gehou aan die opdrag van die Here nie. 11Daarom het die Here nou vir hom gesê: Omdat dit so is dat jy jou nie hou aan my verbond en aan die voorskrifte wat Ek jou gegee het nie, sal Ek die koningskap van jou afskeur en vir 'n onderdaan van jou gee. 12Ter wille van jou vader Dawid sal Ek dit wel nie tydens jou lewe doen nie, maar Ek gaan dit tydens jou seun se lewe doen. 13Ek sal ook nie die hele koninkryk wegneem nie, maar ter wille van my dienaar Dawid en ter wille van Jerusalem wat Ék uitverkies het, gaan Ek een stam vir jou seun laat oorbly. 14Die Here het iemand beskik wat teen Salomo in opstand gekom het. Hy was Hadad die Edomiet uit die koninklike familie van Edom. 15Toe Dawid vroeër teen Edom geveg het, het Joab, die hoof van die leër, die gesneuweldes gaan begrawe nadat hy al die mans in Edom doodgemaak het. 16Dit het Joab en die hele Israel ses maande gekos om al die mans in Edom om die lewe te bring. 17Hadad en 'n aantal Edomitiese mans, almal uit die hofhouding van sy pa, het egter in die rigting van Egipte gevlug. Hadad was toe nog 'n jong seun. 18Hulle het deur Midian getrek tot in Paran. Van daar af het hulle 'n aantal mans met hulle saamgevat en verder getrek tot hulle in Egipte by die farao, die koning van Egipte, aangekom het. Dié het vir Hadad 'n huis gegee, hom van voedsel voorsien en aan hom 'n stuk grond toegeken. [19]Die farao het so baie van Hadad gehou dat hy hom laat trou het met sy skoonsuster, die suster van koningin Tagpenes. [20]Sy het vir Hadad 'n seun in die wêreld gebring met die naam Genubat. Tagpenes het die seun in die farao se paleis versorg, waar hy saam met die farao se kinders grootgeword het. [21]Toe Hadad in Egipte verneem dat Dawid te sterwe gekom het en dat Joab, die hoof van die leër, ook dood was, het hy vir die farao gesê: Laat my toe om na my land toe terug te gaan. [22]Die farao sê toe vir hom: Kom jy iets kort hier by my dat jy nou skielik na jou land toe wil teruggaan? Nee, sê hy, maar laat my asseblief maar gaan. [23]God het nog iemand teen Salomo in opstand laat kom: Reson seun van Eljada, 'n onderdaan van koning Hadad-Eser van Soba wat vir die koning gevlug het. [24]Reson het 'n groep mans om hom versamel, en hy was die leier van die bende. In die tyd toe Dawid die Arameërs uitgeroei het, het hulle na Damaskus toe gevlug. Hulle het in Damaskus gaan woon en Reson daar tot koning uitgeroep. [25]Hy was vyandig teen Israel solank Salomo geleef het. Dit was nog behalwe die kwaad wat Hadad gedoen het. Reson was koning van Aram en hy het Israel verafsku. [26]Daar was ook Jerobeam seun van Nebat, 'n Efratiet uit Sereda. Sy ma was Serua, 'n weduwee. Hy was 'n onderdaan van Salomo wat teen die koning in opstand gekom het. [27]Dit het so gebeur: Salomo was besig om die terras te bou waarmee hy die opening in die muur van die Dawidstad toegemaak het. [28]Jerobeam was 'n gesiene landsburger, en toe Salomo sien dat hy bekwaam is, het hy die toesig oor die dwangarbeid van die Josefstam aan hom opgedra. [29]Dit was in hierdie tyd dat Agija, 'n profeet uit Silo, vir Jerobeam op die pad buite Jerusalem teëgekom het. Agija het 'n nuwe mantel aangehad, en terwyl net hulle twee daar in die veld was, [30]vat Agija die nuwe mantel wat hy aangehad het, skeur dit in twaalf stukke [31]en sê vir Jerobeam: Vat vir jou tien stukke, want so sê die Here die God van Israel: So gaan Ek die koningskap afskeur van Salomo af. Ek gaan vir jou tien stamme gee; [32]die orige stam sal syne bly ter wille van my dienaar Dawid, en ter wille van Jerusalem, die stad wat Ek tussen al die stamme van Israel uitgekies het. [33]Maar Salomo het My verlaat en Astarte die godin van die Sidoniërs, Kemos die god van Moab, en Milkom die god van die Ammoniete, aanbid. Hy het nie meer geleef volgens my wil en gedoen wat reg is in my oë nie of my voorskrifte en bepalings nagekom soos sy vader Dawid gedoen het nie. [34]Ek sal nogtans nie die hele koningskap van hom wegvat nie. Ek sal hom sy lewe lank koning laat bly ter wille van my dienaar Dawid wat Ek uitverkies het en wat hom aan my gebooie en voorskrifte gehou het, [35]maar Ek gaan die koningskap van sy seun af wegvat. Ek gaan tien stamme vir jou gee [36]en vir sy seun gaan Ek net een gee, sodat die troon van my dienaar Dawid bestendig sal wees in Jerusalem, die stad wat Ek verkies het om my Naam daar te vestig. 37Ek gaan jou as koning aanstel, soos dit jou hartsbegeerte is. Jy sal oor Israel regeer. 38As jy gehoor gee aan alles wat Ek jou sal beveel, as jy jou lewe inrig volgens my wil, as jy doen wat reg is in my oë deurdat jy jou hou aan my voorskrifte en gebooie, soos my dienaar Dawid gedoen het, sal Ek by jou wees. Soos Ek Dawid se nageslag in stand hou, sal Ek joune ook in stand hou. Ek sal Israel aan jou gee 39en ter wille daarvan sal Ek die nageslag van Dawid verneder, maar nie vir altyd nie! 40Hierna wou Salomo vir Jerobeam om die lewe bring. Jerobeam het egter na Egipte toe gevlug waar hy onder beskerming van koning Sisak van Egipte gebly het tot Salomo se dood. 41Die ander verhale oor Salomo en alles wat hy gedoen het, en oor sy wysheid is opgeteken in die annale van Salomo. 42Salomo was veertig jaar koning in Jerusalem oor die hele Israel. 43Hy is oorlede, en hy is begrawe by sy pa in die Dawidstad. Sy seun Rehabeam het hom as koning opgevolg.

Rehoboam's Folly

1Ki 12:1 Rehoboam went to Shechem, where all the people of northern Israel had gathered to make him king.

1Ki 12:2 When Jeroboam son of Nebat, who had gone to Egypt to escape from King Solomon, heard this news, he returned from Egypt.

1Ki 12:3 The people of the northern tribes sent for him, and then they all went together to Rehoboam and said to him,

1Ki 12:4 "Your father Solomon treated us harshly and placed heavy burdens on us. If you make these burdens lighter and make life easier for us, we will be your loyal subjects."

1Ki 12:5 "Come back in three days and I will give you my answer," he replied. So they left.

1Ki 12:6 King Rehoboam consulted the older men who had served as his father Solomon's advisers. "What answer do you advise me to give these people?" he asked.

1Ki 12:7 They replied, "If you want to serve this people well, give a favorable answer to their request, and they will always serve you loyally."

1Ki 12:8 But he ignored the advice of the older men and went instead to the young men who had grown up with him and who were now his advisers.

1Ki 12:9 "What do you advise me to do?" he asked. "What shall I say to the people who are asking me to make their burdens lighter?"

1Ki 12:10 They replied, "This is what you should tell them: 'My little finger is thicker than my father's waist!'

1Ki 12:11 Tell them, 'My father placed heavy burdens on you; I will make them even heavier. He beat you with whips; I'll flog you with bullwhips!' "

1Ki 12:12 Three days later Jeroboam and all the people returned to King Rehoboam, as he had instructed them.

1Ki 12:13 The king ignored the advice of the older men and spoke harshly to the people,

1Ki 12:14 as the younger men had advised. He said, "My father placed heavy burdens on you; I will make them even heavier. He beat you with whips; I'll flog you with bullwhips!"

1Ki 12:15 It was the will of the LORD to bring about what he had spoken to Jeroboam son of Nebat through the prophet Ahijah from Shiloh. This is why the king did not pay any attention to the people.

The Kingdom Divided

1Ki 12:16 When the people saw that the king would not listen to them, they shouted, "Down with David and his family! What have they ever done for us? People of Israel, let's go home! Let Rehoboam look out for himself !" So the people of Israel rebelled, 1Ki 12:17 leaving Rehoboam as king only of the people who lived in the territory of Judah.

1Ki 12:18 Then King Rehoboam sent Adoniram, who was in charge of the forced labor, to go to the Israelites, but they stoned him to death. At this, Rehoboam hurriedly got in his chariot and escaped to Jerusalem.

1Ki 12:19 Ever since that time the people of the northern kingdom of Israel have been in rebellion against the dynasty of David.

1Ki 12:20 When the people of Israel heard that Jeroboam had returned from Egypt, they invited him to a meeting of the people and made him king of Israel. Only the tribe of Judah remained loyal to David's descendants.

1Ki 12:21 When Rehoboam arrived in Jerusalem, he called together 180,000 of the best soldiers from the tribes of Judah and Benjamin. He intended to go to war and restore his control over the northern tribes of Israel.

1Ki 12:22 But God told the prophet Shemaiah

1Ki 12:23 to give this message to Rehoboam and to all the people of the tribes of Judah and Benjamin:

1Ki 12:24 "Do not attack your own relatives, the people of Israel. Go home, all of you. What has happened is my will." They all obeyed the LORD's command and went back home.

Jeroboam's Golden Calves

1Ki 12:25 King Jeroboam of Israel fortified the town of Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim and lived there for a while. Then he left and fortified the town of Penuel.

1Ki 12:26 (26-27) He said to himself, "As things are now, if my people go to Jerusalem and offer sacrifices to the LORD in the Temple there, they will transfer their allegiance to King Rehoboam of Judah and will kill me."

1Ki 12:28 After thinking it over, he made two bull-calves of gold and said to his people, "You have been going long enough to Jerusalem to worship. People of Israel, here are your gods who brought you out of Egypt!"

1Ki 12:29 He placed one of the gold bull-calves in Bethel and the other in Dan.

1Ki 12:30 And so the people sinned, going to worship in Bethel and in Dan.

1Ki 12:31 Jeroboam also built places of worship on hilltops, and he chose priests from families who were not of the tribe of Levi.

1Ki 12:32 Jeroboam also instituted a religious festival on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, like the festival in Judah. On the altar in Bethel he offered sacrifices to the gold bull-calves he had made, and he placed there in Bethel the priests serving at the places of worship he had built.

1Ki 12:33 And on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, the day that he himself had set, he went to Bethel and offered a sacrifice on the altar in celebration of the festival he had instituted for the people of Israel.

1Rehabeam het na Sigem toe gegaan omdat die hele Israel daarheen gekom het om hom tot koning te kroon. 2Jerobeam seun van Nebat het die berig gekry toe hy nog in Egipte was waarheen hy vir koning Salomo gevlug het. Hy het daar gewoon, 3maar hulle het boodskappers gestuur en hom laat roep. Hy en die hele Israel kom toe na Rehabeam toe en sê vir hom: 4U vader het ons 'n swaar juk laat dra. As u nou die verpligtinge wat u vader ons opgelê het, minder maak en so die juk ligter maak wat hy ons laat dra het, sal ons u onderdane bly. 5Rehabeam het vir hulle gesê: Kom oor drie dae na my toe terug. Nadat die volk vertrek het, 6het koning Rehabeam die raad gevra van die ouer mense wat in diens van Salomo, sy pa, was tydens dié se lewe. Wat meen julle moet ek hierdie mense antwoord? het hy gevra. 7Hulle het vir hom gesê: As u dit goed bedoel met hierdie volk en hulle tevrede stel en hulle 'n gunstige antwoord gee, sal hulle altyd u onderdane bly. 8Maar hy het die raad wat die ouer mense hom gegee het, in die wind geslaan en die raad gevra van die jonger manne wat saam met hom grootgeword het en in sy diens was: 9Wat meen júlle moet ons hierdie mense antwoord? Hulle het gevra ek moet die juk wat my pa op hulle gelê het, ligter maak. 10Die jongmanne wat saam met hom grootgeword het, het vir hom gesê: U moet die volk soos volg antwoord. Hulle het vir u gesê: U vader het ons 'n swaar juk laat dra, maak u vir ons die juk ligter.' U moet vir hulle sê: My pinkie is dikker as my pa se middellyf. 11My pa het 'n swaar juk op julle laat druk, ek gaan die juk nog swaarder maak. My pa het julle met swepe geslaan, ek sal julle met gesels slaan. 12Toe Jerobeam en die hele volk die derde dag by koning Rehabeam kom volgens sy opdrag Kom oor drie dae na my toe terug, 13het hy die volk dié harde antwoord gegee. Koning Rehabeam het die raad van die ouer mense in die wind geslaan 14en die volk geantwoord volgens die raad van die jonger manne: My pa het 'n swaar juk op julle gelê, ek gaan die juk nog swaarder maak; my pa het julle met swepe geslaan, ek sal julle met gesels slaan. 15Die koning het nie aan die versoek van die volk voldoen nie. Dit was 'n beskikking van die Here sodat Hy sy belofte kon hou wat Hy deur Agija van Silo aan Jerobeam seun van Nebat gegee het. 16Toe die Israeliete hoor dat die koning nie aan hulle versoek voldoen het nie, het hulle vir hom gesê: Dawid is nie deel van ons nie; ons het niks aan Isai se seun nie! Elkeen terug na sy woonplek toe, Israel! Kyk nou maar na jou eie huis, Dawid! Israel is toe terug na sy eie woongebied toe. 17Rehabeam het net koning geword oor die Israeliete wat in die stede van Juda gewoon het. 18Koning Rehabeam het vir Adoniram wat in bevel van die dwangarbeid was, na Israel toe gestuur, maar die Israeliete het hom met klippe doodgegooi, en koning Rehabeam self het dit net-net reggekry om op sy strydwa te kom en na Jerusalem toe te vlug. [19]So het Israel in opstand gekom teen die koningshuis van Dawid, en dit is vandag nog so. [20]Toe die Israeliete verneem dat Jerobeam teruggekom het uit Egipte, het hulle hom na 'n volksvergadering toe laat kom en hom koning gemaak oor die hele Israel. Niemand behalwe die Judastam het die koningshuis van Dawid aangehang nie. [21]Dadelik nadat Rehabeam in Jerusalem terug was, het hy honderd en tagtig duisend uitgesoekte manne uit die stamme Juda en Benjamin opgeroep om teen Israel te veg en die koningskap vir hom terug te wen. [22]Maar die woord van God het tot Semaja, die man van God, gekom en gesê: [23]Sê vir koning Rehabeam van Juda, seun van Salomo, en vir die hele Juda en Benjamin, en vir die res van die volk: [24]So sê die Here: Moenie optrek en teen die Israeliete, julle broers, veg nie. Gaan terug elkeen na sy huis toe, want wat gebeur het, kom van My af! Hulle het geluister na die woorde van die Here en teruggegaan huis toe soos Hy beveel het. [25]Jerobeam het Sigem in die Efraimsberge herbou en daar gaan woon. Later het hy daar weggetrek en Pniël herbou. [26]Jerobeam het by homself gedink: netnou gaan die koningskap terug na die huis van Dawid; [27]as hierdie volk na Jerusalem toe gaan om daar by die tempel van die Here te gaan offer, sal hulle weer hulle koning Rehabeam, koning van Juda, aanhang; hulle sal my doodmaak en weer agter koning Rehabeam aangaan. [28]Koning Jerobeam het toe met sy raadgewers oorleg gepleeg en twee goue kalwerbeelde laat maak. Toe sê hy: Julle het lank genoeg Jerusalem toe gegaan, Israel; hier is nou die beelde van julle God wat julle uit Egipte laat wegtrek het. [29]Jerobeam het die een beeld in Bet-El opgestel en die ander in Dan. [30]Dit het die volk tot sonde verlei: hulle het selfs die een beeld na Dan toe begelei. [31]Jerobeam het heiligdomme op die hoogtes gebou en hy het mense uit die volk wat nie Leviete was nie, as priesters aangestel. [32]Verder het hy op die vyftiende dag van die agste maand 'n fees gehou net soos die fees in Juda. Hy het in Bet-El vir die kalwerbeelde wat hy gemaak het, offers gebring op die altaar, en hy het daar priesters aangestel vir die hoogtes wat hy ingerig het.

A Man of God Confronts Jeroboam

1Ki 13:1 At the LORD's command a prophet from Judah went to Bethel and arrived there as Jeroboam stood at the altar to offer the sacrifice.

1Ki 13:2 Following the LORD's command, the prophet denounced the altar: "O altar, altar, this is what the LORD says: A child, whose name will be Josiah, will be born to the family of David. He will slaughter on you the priests serving at the pagan altars who offer sacrifices on you, and he will burn human bones on you."

1Ki 13:3 And the prophet went on to say, "This altar will fall apart, and the ashes on it will be scattered. Then you will know that the LORD has spoken through me."

1Ki 13:4 When King Jeroboam heard this, he pointed at him and ordered, "Seize that man!" At once the king's arm became paralyzed so that he couldn't pull it back.

1Ki 13:5 The altar suddenly fell apart and the ashes spilled to the ground, as the prophet had predicted in the name of the LORD.

1Ki 13:6 King Jeroboam said to the prophet, "Please pray for me to the LORD your God, and ask him to heal my arm!" The prophet prayed to the LORD, and the king's arm was healed.

1Ki 13:7 Then the king said to the prophet, "Come home with me and have something to eat. I will reward you for what you have done."

1Ki 13:8 The prophet answered, "Even if you gave me half of your wealth, I would not go with you or eat or drink anything with you.

1Ki 13:9 The LORD has commanded me not to eat or drink a thing, and not to return home the same way I came."

1Ki 13:10 So he did not go back the same way he had come, but by another road.

The Prophet's Disobedience

1Ki 13:11 At that time there was an old prophet living in Bethel. His sons came and told him what the prophet from Judah had done in Bethel that day and what he had said to King Jeroboam.

1Ki 13:12 "Which way did he go when he left?" the old prophet asked them. They showed him the road

1Ki 13:13 and he told them to saddle his donkey for him. They did so, and he rode off

1Ki 13:14 down the road after the prophet from Judah and found him sitting under an oak tree. "Are you the prophet from Judah?" he asked. "I am," the man answered.

1Ki 13:15 "Come home and have a meal with me," he said.

1Ki 13:16 But the prophet from Judah answered, "I can't go home with you or accept your hospitality. And I won't eat or drink anything with you here, 1Ki 13:17 because the LORD has commanded me not to eat or drink a thing, and not to return home the same way I came."

1Ki 13:18 Then the old prophet from Bethel said to him, "I, too, am a prophet just like you, and at the LORD's command an angel told me to take you home with me and offer you my hospitality." But the old prophet was lying.

1Ki 13:19 So the prophet from Judah went home with the old prophet and had a meal with him.

1Ki 13:20 As they were sitting at the table, the word of the LORD came to the old prophet, 1Ki 13:21 and he cried out to the prophet from Judah, "The LORD says that you disobeyed him and did not do what he commanded.

1Ki 13:22 Instead, you returned and ate a meal in a place he had ordered you not to eat in. Because of this you will be killed, and your body will not be buried in your family grave."

1Ki 13:23 After they had finished eating, the old prophet saddled the donkey for the prophet from Judah, 1Ki 13:24 who rode off. On the way a lion met him and killed him. His body lay on the road, and the donkey and the lion stood beside it.

1Ki 13:25 Some men passed by and saw the body on the road, with the lion standing near by. They went on into Bethel and reported what they had seen.

1Ki 13:26 When the old prophet heard about it, he said, "That is the prophet who disobeyed the LORD's command! And so the LORD sent the lion to attack and kill him, just as the LORD said he would."

1Ki 13:27 Then he said to his sons, "Saddle my donkey for me." They did so, 1Ki 13:28 and he rode off and found the prophet's body lying on the road, with the donkey and the lion still standing by it. The lion had not eaten the body or attacked the donkey.

1Ki 13:29 The old prophet picked up the body, put it on the donkey, and brought it back to Bethel to mourn over it and bury it.

1Ki 13:30 He buried it in his own family grave, and he and his sons mourned over it, saying, "Oh my brother, my brother!"

1Ki 13:31 After the burial the prophet said to his sons, "When I die, bury me in this grave and lay my body next to his.

1Ki 13:32 The words that he spoke at the LORD's command against the altar in Bethel and against all the places of worship in the towns of Samaria will surely come true."

1Ki 13:33 King Jeroboam of Israel still did not turn from his evil ways but continued to choose priests from ordinary families to serve at the altars he had built. He ordained as priest anyone who wanted to be one.

1Ki 13:34 This sin on his part brought about the ruin and total destruction of his dynasty.

I KONINGS 13

iets. [16]Maar hy antwoord: Ek kan nie saam met jou teruggaan en in jou huis ingaan nie. Ek mag by jou in hierdie plek niks eet en geen water drink nie, [17]want die woord van die Here aan my was uitdruklik: Jy mag daar geen kos eet en geen water drink nie, en jy mag nie terugkom met dieselfde pad as dié waarmee jy gegaan het nie. [18]Die óú profeet sê toe vir hom: Ek is ook 'n profeet net soos jy, en 'n engel het op bevel van die Here vir my gesê: Bring hom terug na jou huis toe en laat hy iets eet en sy dors les! Maar die óú profeet het vir hom gelieg. [19]Toe gaan hy saam met die óú profeet terug huis toe en daar het die man van God iets geëet en water gedrink. [20]Terwyl hulle nog aan tafel sit, het die woord van die Here gekom tot die profeet op wie se versoek die man van God omgedraai het. [21]Die profeet het vir die man van God wat van Juda af gekom het, gesê: So sê die Here: Omdat jy jou teen die Here verset het en nie die bevel van die Here jou God gehoorsaam het nie, [22]maar teruggekom het en geëet en water gedrink het in dié plek waar die Here jou verbied het om te eet en water te drink, daarom sal jou liggaam nie in jou familiegraf begrawe word nie. [23]Nadat die man van God klaar geëet en gedrink het, het die profeet die man van God wat hy laat omdraai het, se donkie opgesaal. [24]Die man van God het vertrek en onderweg het 'n leeu op hom afgekom en hom doodgemaak. Sy liggaam het daar in die pad gelê, die donkie het daar langsaan gestaan, en die leeu het langs die liggaam bly staan. [25]Mense wat daarlangs gekom het, het die liggaam daar in die pad sien lê en die leeu wat langs die liggaam staan, en hulle het dit kom vertel in die stad waar die óú profeet gewoon het. [26]Toe die óú profeet wat hom van sy pad af teruggebring het, dit hoor, sê hy: Dit is die man van God wat die opdrag van die Here verontagsaam het. Nou het die Here beskik dat 'n leeu hom verskeur en doodmaak, soos Hy oor hom laat sê het. [27]Die profeet sê toe vir sy seuns: Saal vir my 'n donkie op. Nadat hulle dit gedoen het, [28]gaan hy en kry die liggaam daar in die pad, terwyl die donkie en die leeu daarby staan. Die leeu het nie die liggaam gevreet nie en hy het nie die donkie verskeur nie. [29]Die profeet het die liggaam van die man van God op die donkie getel en dit na Bet-El die stad van die óú profeet toe gebring om daar oor hom te treur en hom te begrawe. [30]Hy het die liggaam in sy eie graf begrawe, en hulle het oor hom getreur en gesê: Ag, my broer. [31]Na die begrafnis het hy vir sy seuns gesê: As ek te sterwe kom, moet julle my begrawe in dieselfde graf as dié waarin die man van God begrawe is. Sit my bene langs syne neer. [32]Wat hy op bevel van die Here oor die altaar in Bet-El en oor al die heiligdomme op die hoogtes by die stede van Samaria gesê het, sal beslis net so gebeur. [33]Jerobeam het hom hierna tog nie bekeer van sy verkeerde pad nie. Hy het aangehou om sommer uit die volk priesters vir die hoogtes aan te stel. Almal wat wou, het hy aangestel as priesters vir die hoogtes. [34]Dit was die sonde van die huis van Jerobeam en dit sou daartoe lei dat sy koningshuis vernietig en van die aarde af verdelg sou word.

1Kings 14

Prophecy Against Jeroboam

1Ki 14:1 At that time King Jeroboam's son Abijah got sick.

1Ki 14:2 Jeroboam said to his wife, "Disguise yourself so that no one will recognize you, and go to Shiloh, where the prophet Ahijah lives, the one who said I would be king of Israel.

1Ki 14:3 Take him ten loaves of bread, some cakes, and a jar of honey. Ask him what is going to happen to our son, and he will tell you."

1Ki 14:4 So she went to Ahijah's home in Shiloh. Old age had made Ahijah blind.

1Ki 14:5 The LORD had told him that Jeroboam's wife was coming to ask him about her son, who was sick. And the LORD told Ahijah what to say. When Jeroboam's wife arrived, she pretended to be someone else.

1Ki 14:6 But when Ahijah heard her coming in the door, he said, "Come in. I know you are Jeroboam's wife. Why are you pretending to be someone else? I have bad news for you.

1Ki 14:7 Go and tell Jeroboam that this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says to him: 'I chose you from among the people and made you the ruler of my people Israel.

1Ki 14:8 I took the kingdom away from David's descendants and gave it to you. But you have not been like my servant David, who was completely loyal to me, obeyed my commands, and did only what I approve of.

1Ki 14:9 You have committed far greater sins than those who ruled before you. You have rejected me and have aroused my anger by making idols and metal images to worship.

1Ki 14:10 Because of this I will bring disaster on your dynasty and will kill all your male descendants, young and old alike. I will get rid of your family; they will be swept away like dung.

1Ki 14:11 Any members of your family who die in the city will be eaten by dogs, and any who die in the open country will be eaten by vultures. I, the LORD, have spoken.' "

1Ki 14:12 And Ahijah went on to say to Jeroboam's wife, "Now go back home. As soon as you enter the town, your son will die.

1Ki 14:13 All the people of Israel will mourn for him and bury him.

He will be the only member of Jeroboam's family who will be properly buried, because he is the only one with whom the LORD, the God of Israel, is pleased.

1Ki 14:14 The LORD is going to place a king over Israel who will put an end to Jeroboam's dynasty.

1Ki 14:15 The LORD will punish Israel, and she will shake like a reed shaking in a stream. He will uproot the people of Israel from this good land which he gave to their ancestors, and he will scatter them beyond the Euphrates River, because they have aroused his anger by making idols of the goddess Asherah.

1Ki 14:16 The LORD will abandon Israel because Jeroboam sinned and led the people of Israel into sin."

1Ki 14:17 Jeroboam's wife went back to Tirzah. Just as she entered her home, the child died.

1Ki 14:18 The people of Israel mourned for him and buried him, as the LORD had said through his servant, the prophet Ahijah.

The Death of Jeroboam

1Ki 14:19 Everything else that King Jeroboam did, the wars he fought and how he ruled, are all recorded in The History of the Kings of Israel.

1Ki 14:20 Jeroboam ruled as king for twenty-two years. He died and was buried, and his son Nadab succeeded him as king.

Rehoboam Reigns in Judah

1Ki 14:21 Solomon's son Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he became king of Judah, and he ruled seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD had chosen from all the territory of Israel as the place where he was to be worshiped. Rehoboam's mother was Naamah from Ammon.

1Ki 14:22 The people of Judah sinned against the LORD and did more to arouse his anger against them than all their ancestors had done.

1Ki 14:23 They built places of worship for false gods and put up stone pillars and symbols of Asherah to worship on the hills and under shady trees.

1Ki 14:24 Worst of all, there were men and women who served as prostitutes at those pagan places of worship. The people of Judah practiced all the shameful things done by the people whom the LORD had driven out of the land as the Israelites advanced into the country.

1Ki 14:25 In the fifth year of Rehoboam's reign King Shishak of Egypt attacked Jerusalem.

1Ki 14:26 He took away all the treasures in the Temple and in the palace, including the gold shields Solomon had made.

1Ki 14:27 To replace them, King Rehoboam made bronze shields and entrusted them to the officers responsible for guarding the palace gates.

1Ki 14:28 Every time the king went to the Temple, the guards carried the shields and then returned them to the guardroom.

1Ki 14:29 Everything else that King Rehoboam did is recorded in The History of the Kings of Judah.

1Ki 14:30 During all this time Rehoboam and Jeroboam were constantly at war with each other.

1Ki 14:31 Rehoboam died and was buried in the royal tombs in David's City and his son Abijah succeeded him as king.

I KONINGS 14

1In dié tyd het Abia, 'n seun van Jerobeam, siek geword. 2Jerobeam sê toe vir sy vrou: Gaan vermom jou sodat die mense jou nie herken as Jerobeam se vrou nie. Gaan dan na Silo toe waar die profeet Agija is. Dit is hy wat gesê het dat ek koning sal word oor hierdie volk. 3Vat tien brode en koeke en 'n kruik heuning saam en gaan na hom toe. Hy sal vir jou sê wat met die kind gaan gebeur. 4Jerobeam se vrou het so gemaak. Sy het na Silo toe gegaan en by Agija se huis aangekom. Agija kon nie meer sien nie, hy was al blind van ouderdom. 5Maar die Here het vir hom gesê: Jerobeam se vrou kom jou raadpleeg oor haar seun wat siek is. Sê vir haar wat Ek vir jou sê. Toe sy inkom, wou sy nog maak asof sy iemand anders is, 6maar net toe Agija haar voetstappe hoor terwyl sy by die deur inkom, sê hy: Kom binne, jy is die vrou van Jerobeam! Waarom maak jy asof jy iemand anders is? Ek het slegte nuus vir jou. 7Gaan sê vir Jerobeam: So sê die Here die God van Israel: Ek het jou 'n vername man gemaak onder die mense en jou as heerser aangestel oor my volk Israel. 8Toe Ek die koningskap afgeskeur het van die huis van Dawid af, het Ek dit aan jou gegee. Maar jy was nie soos my dienaar Dawid wat hom aan my opdragte gehou het en wat sy hele lewe aan My toegewy het deur net te doen wat reg is in my oë nie. 9Jy het slegter opgetree as almal voor jou. Jy het vir jou ander gode gemaak, afgodsbeelde, om My uit te tart, en jy het jou rug vir My gedraai. 10Om dié rede bring Ek ellende oor die huis van Jerobeam. Ek sal al wat manlik is uit die nageslag van Jerobeam, wie ook al, uit Israel uitroei. Ek gaan heeltemal ontslae raak van die huis van Jerobeam, soos 'n mens van vuilgoed ontslae raak. 11Die een van Jerobeam wat in die stad omkom, die honde sal hom opvreet; en die een wat in die veld omkom, die roofvoëls sal hom vreet. Dit sal gebeur omdat die Here dit gesê het.' 12Gaan jy nou maar huis toe. Sodra jy in die stad inkom, sal die kind sterf. 13Die hele Israel sal oor hom rou en hom begrawe. Hy sal ook die enigste van die familie van Jerobeam wees wat in 'n graf kom, want in die huis van Jerobeam het die Here die God van Israel net in hom iets goeds gevind. 14Die Here sal self 'n koning oor Israel aanstel wat die geslag van Jerobeam dadelik, sonder versuim, sal uitroei. 15So sal die Here Israel tref soos vloedwater riet tref. Die Here sal Israel uitdryf uit hierdie goeie land wat Hy aan hulle voorvaders gegee het, en Hy sal hulle anderkant die Eufraat verstrooi omdat hulle gewyde pale gemaak het en die Here daarmee uitgetart het. 16Hy sal hulle prysgee oor die sonde wat Jerobeam gedoen het en wat hy Israel laat doen het. 17Toe het Jerobeam se vrou teruggegaan Tirsa toe. Net toe sy oor die drumpel van die paleis stap, het die kind gesterf. 18Hulle het hom begrawe, en die hele Israel het oor hom gerou. Dit was in ooreenstemming met wat die Here gesê het deur sy dienaar die profeet Agija. 19Die ander verhale oor Jerobeam, oor sy oorloë en sy regering, is opgeteken in die annale van die konings van Israel. 20Die duur van Jerobeam se koningskap was twee en twintig jaar. Hy is oorlede, en sy seun Nadab het hom as koning opgevolg. 21Rehabeam seun van Salomo was intussen koning van Juda. Rehabeam was een en veertig toe hy koning geword het en hy was sewentien jaar koning in Jerusalem, die stad wat deur die Here onder al die Israelitiese stamme gekies is om sy Naam daar te vestig. Rehabeam se ma was Naäma, 'n Ammonitiese vrou. 22Juda het gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here, en deur die sondes wat hulle gedoen het, het hulle die Here meer uitgetart as wat hulle voorvaders gedoen het. 23Hulle het vir hulle hoogtes gebou en klippilare en gewyde pale opgerig op elke hoë heuwel en onder elke groen boom. 24Daar was selfs manlike tempelprostitute in die land. Die hele Juda het dieselfde afskuwelike sondes gedoen as die nasies wat deur die Here verdryf is om vir die Israeliete plek te maak. 25In die vyfde jaar van Rehabeam se regering het koning Sisak van Egipte teen Jerusalem opgetrek. 26Hy het beslag gelê op die skatte in die huis van die Here en die paleis. Hy het alles gevat, ook die goue skilde wat Salomo laat maak het. 27Koning Rehabeam het toe bronsskilde in die ander se plek laat maak en dié oorhandig aan die offisiere van die wag wat by die ingang van die paleis diens gedoen het. 28Elke keer wanneer die koning na die huis van die Here toe gegaan het, het die wag die skilde gedra, en daarna het hulle die skilde teruggebring na die wagte se kamer toe. 29Die ander verhale oor Rehabeam en alles wat hy gedoen het, is opgeteken in die annale van die konings van Juda. 30Daar was deurentyd oorlog tussen Rehabeam en Jerobeam. 31Rehabeam is oorlede, en hy is begrawe in die familiegraf in die Dawidstad. Sy ma was Naäma, 'n Ammonitiese vrou. Sy seun Abia het hom as koning opgevolg.

Abijam Reigns in Judah

1Ki 15:1 In the eighteenth year of the reign of King Jeroboam of Israel, Abijah became king of Judah, 1Ki 15:2 and he ruled three years in Jerusalem. His mother was Maacah, the daughter of Absalom.

1Ki 15:3 He committed the same sins as his father and was not completely loyal to the LORD his God, as his great-grandfather David had been.

1Ki 15:4 But for David's sake the LORD his God gave Abijah a son to rule after him in Jerusalem and to keep Jerusalem secure.

1Ki 15:5 The LORD did this because David had done what pleased him and had never disobeyed any of his commands, except in the case of Uriah the Hittite.

1Ki 15:6 The war which had begun between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continued throughout Abijah's lifetime.

1Ki 15:7 And everything else that Abijah did is recorded in The History of the Kings of Judah.

1Ki 15:8 Abijah died and was buried in David's City, and his son Asa succeeded him as king.

Asa Reigns In Judah

1Ki 15:9 In the twentieth year of the reign of King Jeroboam of Israel, Asa became king of Judah, 1Ki 15:10 and he ruled forty-one years in Jerusalem. His grandmother was Maacah, the daughter of Absalom.

1Ki 15:11 Asa did what pleased the LORD, as his ancestor David had done.

1Ki 15:12 He expelled from the country all the male and female prostitutes serving at the pagan places of worship, and he removed all the idols his predecessors had made.

1Ki 15:13 He removed his grandmother Maacah from her position as queen mother, because she had made an obscene idol of the fertility goddess Asherah. Asa cut down the idol and burned it in Kidron Valley.

1Ki 15:14 Even though Asa did not destroy all the pagan places of worship, he remained faithful to the LORD all his life.

1Ki 15:15 He placed in the Temple all the objects his father had dedicated to God, as well as the gold and silver objects that he himself dedicated.

1Ki 15:16 King Asa of Judah and King Baasha of Israel were constantly at war with each other as long as they were in power.

1Ki 15:17 Baasha invaded Judah and started to fortify Ramah in order to cut off all traffic in and out of Judah.

1Ki 15:18 So King Asa took all the silver and gold that was left in the Temple and the palace, and sent it by some of his officials to Damascus, to King Benhadad of Syria, the son of Tabrimmon and grandson of Hezion, with this message:

1Ki 15:19 "Let us be allies, as our fathers were. This silver and gold is a present for you. Now break your alliance with King Baasha of Israel, so that he will have to pull his troops out of my territory."

1Ki 15:20 King Benhadad agreed to Asa's proposal and sent his commanding officers and their armies to attack the cities of Israel. They captured Ijon, Dan, Abel Beth Maacah, the area near Lake Galilee, and the whole territory of Naphtali.

1Ki 15:21 When King Baasha heard what had happened, he stopped fortifying Ramah and went to Tirzah.

1Ki 15:22 Then King Asa sent out an order throughout all of Judah requiring everyone, without exception, to help carry away from Ramah the stones and timber that Baasha had been using to fortify it.

With this material Asa fortified Mizpah and Geba, a city in the territory of Benjamin.

1Ki 15:23 Everything else that King Asa did, his brave deeds and the towns he fortified, are all recorded in The History of the Kings of Judah.But in his old age he was crippled by a foot disease.

1Ki 15:24 Asa died and was buried in the royal tombs in David's City, and his son Jehoshaphat succeeded him as king.

Nadab Reigns in Israel

1Ki 15:25 In the second year of the reign of King Asa of Judah, King Jeroboam's son Nadab became king of Israel, and he ruled for two years.

1Ki 15:26 Like his father before him, he sinned against the LORD and led Israel into sin.

1Ki 15:27 Baasha son of Ahijah, of the tribe of Issachar, plotted against Nadab and killed him as Nadab and his army were besieging the city of Gibbethon in Philistia.

1Ki 15:28 This happened during the third year of the reign of King Asa of Judah. And so Baasha succeeded Nadab as king of Israel.

1Ki 15:29 At once he began killing all the members of Jeroboam's family. In accordance with what the LORD had said through his servant, the prophet Ahijah from Shiloh, all of Jeroboam's family were killed; not one survived.

1Ki 15:30 This happened because Jeroboam aroused the anger of the LORD, the God of Israel, by the sins that he committed and that he caused Israel to commit.

1Ki 15:31 Everything else that Nadab did is recorded in The History of the Kings of Israel.

1Ki 15:32 King Asa of Judah and King Baasha of Israel were constantly at war with each other as long as they were in power.

Baasha Reigns in Israel

1Ki 15:33 In the third year of the reign of King Asa of Judah, Baasha son of Ahijah became king of all Israel, and he ruled in Tirzah for twenty-four years.

1Ki 15:34 Like King Jeroboam before him, he sinned against the LORD and led Israel into sin.

I KONINGS 15

1In die agtiende regeringsjaar van Jerobeam seun van Nebat het Abia koning oor Juda geword, 2en hy het drie jaar in Jerusalem geregeer. Sy ma was Maäka, 'n dogter van Abisalom. 3Abia het dieselfde sondes as sy pa gedoen, en hy was nie so getrou aan die Here as sy voorvader Dawid nie. 4Dit is ter wille van Dawid dat die Here sy God aan hom 'n nakomeling gegee het om in Jerusalem te regeer en die stad in stand te hou. 5Dit was omdat Dawid gedoen het wat reg is in die oë van die Here, en sy lewe lank nooit die opdragte van die Here verontagsaam het nie, behalwe in die geval van Urija die Hetiet. 6Gedurende Rehabeam se hele regering was daar oorlog tussen hom en Jerobeam. 7Die ander verhale oor Abia en alles wat hy gedoen het, is opgeteken in die annale van die konings van Juda. Daar was ook oorlog tussen Abia en Jerobeam. 8Abia is oorlede, en hy is begrawe in die Dawidstad. Sy seun Asa het hom as koning opgevolg. 9In die twintigste regeringsjaar van koning Jerobeam van Israel het Asa koning geword van Juda. 10Hy het een en veertig jaar in Jerusalem geregeer. Sy ouma was Maäka, 'n dogter van Abisalom. 11Asa het gedoen wat reg is in die oë van die Here, soos sy voorvader Dawid. 12Hy het die tempelprostitute uit die land verban en hy het al die afgodsbeelde verwoes wat sy voorgangers gemaak het. 13Hy het ook sy ouma Maäka as koninginmoeder afgesit omdat sy 'n Asjerabeeld, 'n walglike ding, laat maak het. Asa het die ding stukkend gekap en dit in die Kedrondal gaan verbrand. 14Die hoogtes het wel nie heeltemal verdwyn nie, maar Asa was sy lewe lank getrou aan die Here. 15Hy het die wydingsgeskenke van sy pa, en ook sy eie, in die huis van die Here gebring: silwer, goud en offergereedskap. 16Daar was deurentyd oorlog tussen Asa en koning Baesa van Israel. 17Tydens 'n veldtog teen Juda het Baesa die stad Rama in 'n vesting begin omskep om te verhoed dat mense die gebied van koning Asa van Juda kon binnekom of verlaat. 18Asa het toe al die silwer en goud gevat wat nog oor was in die skatkamers van die huis van die Here en die paleis, en koning Asa het dit met boodskappers vir Ben-Hadad gestuur. Ben-Hadad seun van Tabrimmon, seun van Gesjon, was koning van Aram in Damaskus. Asa het die volgende boodskap saamgestuur: 19Daar is 'n verdrag tussen u en my en daar was al een tussen ons ouers. Ek stuur vir u 'n geskenk van silwer en goud. Breek u verdrag met koning Baesa van Israel dat hy uit my land kan terugtrek. 20Ben-Hadad het gehoor gegee aan koning Asa se versoek. Hy het sy leëraanvoerders gestuur om die stede van Israel aan te val, en hy het Ijon, Dan, Abel-Bet-Maäka en die hele Gennesaret saam met die hele gebied van Naftali verower. 21Toe Baesa dit hoor, het hy die bouwerk by Rama gestaak en in Tirsa gaan woon. 22Koning Asa het al die Judeërs opgeroep, hy het niemand verskoon nie, en hulle het die klip en hout wat Baesa vir die bouwerk in Rama gebruik het, weggedra. Die koning het dit gebruik vir bouwerk by Geba in Benjamin en by Mispa. 23Al die ander verhale oor Asa, oor sy dapper dade en oor alles wat hy gedoen het, en oor die stede wat hy laat bou het, is opgeteken in die annale van die konings van Juda. Net dít kom nog by: in sy ouderdom het hy 'n kwaal aan sy voete opgedoen. 24Asa is oorlede, en hy is begrawe in die familiegraf in die Dawidstad. Sy seun Josafat het hom as koning opgevolg. 25In die tweede regeringsjaar van koning Asa van Juda het Nadab seun van Jerobeam koning geword oor Israel. Hy het twee jaar oor Israel geregeer. 26Hy het gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here. Hy het die pad van sy pa geloop en dieselfde sonde gedoen as dié waarmee sy pa vir Israel laat sondig het. 27Baesa seun van Agija uit die nageslag van Issaskar het 'n sameswering teen hom gesmee. Terwyl Nadab en die hele Israel die Filistynse stad Gibbeton beleër het, het Baesa hom daar om die lewe gebring. 28Baesa het hom vermoor in die derde regeringsjaar van koning Asa van Juda en het hom as koning opgevolg. 29Dadelik nadat Baesa koning geword het, het hy die hele familie van Jerobeam uitgeroei. Hy het nie een lewend laat oorbly nie, maar hulle almal omgebring. Dit was in ooreenstemming met wat die Here deur sy dienaar Agija van Silo gesê het. 30Dit was die gevolg van die sondes wat Jerobeam gedoen het en wat hy Israel laat doen het. Daardeur het hy die Here die God van Israel uitgetart. 31Die ander verhale oor Nadab en alles wat hy gedoen het, is opgeteken in die annale van die konings van Israel. 32Daar was deurentyd oorlog tussen Asa en koning Baesa van Israel. 33Baesa seun van Agija het koning geword oor die hele Israel in die derde regeringsjaar van koning Asa van Juda en vier en twintig jaar in Tirsa geregeer. 34Hy het gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here. Hy het die pad van Jerobeam geloop en dieselfde sonde gedoen as dié waarmee Jerobeam vir Israel laat sondig het.

1Ki 16:1 The LORD spoke to the prophet Jehu son of Hanani and gave him this message for Baasha:

1Ki 16:2 "You were a nobody, but I made you the leader of my people Israel. And now you have sinned like Jeroboam and have led my people into sin. Their sins have aroused my anger, 1Ki 16:3 and so I will do away with you and your family, just as I did with Jeroboam.

1Ki 16:4 Any members of your family who die in the city will be eaten by dogs, and any who die in the open country will be eaten by vultures."

1Ki 16:5 Everything else that Baasha did and all his brave deeds are recorded in The History of the Kings of Israel.

1Ki 16:6 Baasha died and was buried in Tirzah, and his son Elah succeeded him as king.

1Ki 16:7 That message from the LORD against Baasha and his family was given by the prophet Jehu because of the sins that Baasha committed against the LORD. He aroused the LORD's anger not only because of the evil he did, just as King Jeroboam had done before him, but also because he killed all of Jeroboam's family.

Elah Reigns in Israel

1Ki 16:8 In the twenty-sixth year of the reign of King Asa of Judah, Elah son of Baasha became king of Israel, and he ruled in Tirzah for two years.

1Ki 16:9 Zimri, one of his officers who was in charge of half of the king's chariots, plotted against him. One day in Tirzah, Elah was getting drunk in the home of Arza, who was in charge of the palace.

1Ki 16:10 Zimri entered the house, assassinated Elah, and succeeded him as king. This happened in the twenty-seventh year of the reign of King Asa of Judah.

1Ki 16:11 As soon as Zimri became king he killed off all the members of Baasha's family. Every male relative and friend was put to death.

1Ki 16:12 And so, in accordance with what the LORD had said against Baasha through the prophet Jehu, Zimri killed all the family of Baasha.

1Ki 16:13 Because of their idolatry and because they led Israel into sin, Baasha and his son Elah had aroused the anger of the LORD, the God of Israel.

1Ki 16:14 Everything else that Elah did is recorded in The History of the Kings of Israel.

Zimri Reigns in Israel

1Ki 16:15 In the twenty-seventh year of the reign of King Asa of Judah, Zimri ruled in Tirzah over Israel for seven days. The Israelite troops were besieging the city of Gibbethon in Philistia, 1Ki 16:16 and when they heard that Zimri had plotted against the king and assassinated him, then and there they all proclaimed their commander Omri king of Israel.

1Ki 16:17 Omri and his troops left Gibbethon and went and besieged Tirzah.

1Ki 16:18 When Zimri saw that the city had fallen, he went into the palace's inner fortress, set the palace on fire, and died in the flames.

1Ki 16:19 This happened because of his sins against the LORD. Like his predecessor Jeroboam, he displeased the LORD by his own sins and by leading Israel into sin.

1Ki 16:20 Everything else that Zimri did, including the account of his conspiracy, is recorded in The History of the Kings of Israel.

Omri Reigns in Israel

1Ki 16:21 The people of Israel were divided: some of them wanted to make Tibni son of Ginath king, and the others were in favor of Omri.

1Ki 16:22 In the end, those in favor of Omri won out; Tibni died and Omri became king.

1Ki 16:23 So in the thirty-first year of the reign of King Asa of Judah, Omri became king of Israel, and he ruled for twelve years. The first six years he ruled in Tirzah, 1Ki 16:24 and then he bought the hill of Samaria for six thousand pieces of silver from a man named Shemer. Omri fortified the hill, built a town there, and named it Samaria, after Shemer, the former owner of the hill.

1Ki 16:25 Omri sinned against the LORD more than any of his predecessors.

1Ki 16:26 Like Jeroboam before him, he aroused the anger of the LORD, the God of Israel, by his sins and by leading the people into sin and idolatry.

1Ki 16:27 Everything else that Omri did and all his accomplishments are recorded in The History of the Kings of Israel.

1Ki 16:28 Omri died and was buried in Samaria, and his son Ahab succeeded him as king.

Ahab Reigns in Israel

1Ki 16:29 In the thirty-eighth year of the reign of King Asa of Judah, Ahab son of Omri became king of Israel, and he ruled in Samaria for twenty-two years.

1Ki 16:30 He sinned against the LORD more than any of his predecessors.

1Ki 16:31 It was not enough for him to sin like King Jeroboam; he went further and married Jezebel, the daughter of King Ethbaal of Sidon, and worshiped Baal.

1Ki 16:32 He built a temple to Baal in Samaria, made an altar for him, and put it in the temple.

1Ki 16:33 He also put up an image of the goddess Asherah. He did more to arouse the anger of the LORD, the God of Israel, than all the kings of Israel before him.

1Ki 16:34 During his reign Hiel from Bethel rebuilt Jericho. As the LORD had foretold through Joshua son of Nun, Hiel lost his oldest son Abiram when he laid the foundation of Jericho, and his youngest son Segub when he built the gates.

I KONINGS 16

1Die woord van die Here teen Baesa het tot Jehu seun van Ganani gekom en gesê: 2Ek het jou uit die stof uit opgetel en jou as heerser oor my volk Israel aangestel, maar jy het die pad van Jerobeam geloop: jy het my volk Israel laat sondig sodat hulle My met hulle sondes uitgetart het. 3Daarom gaan Ek ontslae raak van jou en jou familie. Ek gaan met jóú hele huis maak soos met die huis van Jerobeam seun van Nebat. 4Die een van jou familie wat in die stad omkom, die honde sal hom opvreet; en dié een wat in die veld omkom, die roofvoëls sal hom vreet. 5Die ander verhale oor Baesa en wat hy gedoen het, ook sy dapperheid, is opgeteken in die annale van die konings van Israel. 6Baesa is oorlede, en hy is begrawe in Tirsa. Sy seun Ela het hom as koning opgevolg. 7Die profeet Jehu seun van Ganani moes die oordeel van die Here aankondig oor Baesa en sy nageslag, nie net omdat wat hy gedoen het, verkeerd was in die oë van die Here en hy die Here uitgetart het soos die geslag van Jerobeam nie, maar ook omdat hy vir Jerobeam vermoor het. 8In die ses en twintigste regeringsjaar van koning Asa van Juda het Ela seun van Baesa in Tirsa koning geword oor Israel. Hy het twee jaar geregeer. 9Een van sy onderdane, Simri, die aanvoerder van die helfte van die strydwamag het 'n sameswering teen hom gesmee. Toe Ela hom aan huis van Arsa, die opsigter van die paleis in Tirsa, dronk gedrink het, 10het Simri ingekom en hom doodgemaak. Simri het hom vermoor in die sewe en twintigste regeringsjaar van koning Asa van Juda. Simri self het hom as koning opgevolg. 11Dadelik nadat hy die koningskap oorgeneem het, het Simri die hele koningshuis van Baesa uitgeroei, selfs ook sy bloedverwante en raadgewers. Simri het al wat manlik is in Baesa se familie doodgemaak. 12Simri het die hele familie van Baesa uitgeroei, soos die Here gesê het deur die profeet Jehu. 13Dit was die gevolg van die sonde wat Baesa en sy seun Ela gedoen het en wat hulle Israel laat doen het. Hulle het die Here die God van Israel uitgetart met hulle afgodsbeelde. 14Die ander verhale oor Ela en alles wat hy gedoen het, is opgeteken in die annale van die konings van Israel. 15Tydens die sewe en twintigste regeringsjaar van koning Asa van Juda was Simri sewe dae koning in Tirsa. Die volk was toe net besig om die Filistynse stad Gibbeton te beleër. 16Toe die volk wat besig was met die beleg, die berig kry dat Simri 'n sameswering gesmee en die koning om die lewe gebring het, het die hele Israel nog dieselfde dag daar in die laer vir Omri, die hoof van die leër, tot koning uitgeroep. 17Omri en die hele Israel het toe van Gibbeton af opgetrek en Tirsa gaan beleër. 18Toe Simri bemerk dat die stad ingeneem word, het hy na die verskanste deel van die paleis toe gevlug en die paleis op hom afgebrand. So is hy dood. 19Dit was alles die gevolg van die sondes wat hy gedoen het. Hy het gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here. Hy het die pad van Jerobeam geloop en dieselfde sonde gedoen as dié waarmee Jerobeam Israel laat sondig het. 20Die ander verhale oor Simri en oor die sameswering wat hy gesmee het, is opgeteken in die annale van die konings van Israel. 21Die volk het egter nou verdeeld geraak. Een helfte wou vir Tibni seun van Ginat koning maak, en die ander helfte vir Omri. 22Omri se aanhang het gaandeweg sterker geword as Tibni s'n, en toe Tibni te sterwe kom, het Omri koning geword. 23In die een en dertigste regeringsjaar van koning Asa van Juda het Omri koning geword van Israel. Hy het twaalf jaar geregeer, ses daarvan uit Tirsa. 24Toe het hy Samariaberg van Semer gekoop vir ag en sestig kilogram silwer en bo-op die berg gebou. Hy het die stad wat hy daar gebou het, Samaria genoem na die naam van Semer, die vorige eienaar van die berg. 25Omri het gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here. Hy was slegter as al sy voorgangers. 26Hy het die pad van Jerobeam seun van Nebat geloop en dieselfde sonde gedoen as dié waarmee Jerobeam vir Israel laat sondig het, sodat hulle die Here die God van Israel met hulle afgodsbeelde uitgetart het. 27Die ander verhale oor Omri, oor wat hy gedoen het en oor sy dapperheid is opgeteken in die annale van die konings van Israel. 28Omri is oorlede, en hy is begrawe in Samaria. Sy seun Agab het hom as koning opgevolg. 29Agab seun van Omri het koning van Israel geword in die ag en dertigste regeringsjaar van koning Asa van Juda. Agab seun van Omri het Israel twee en twintig jaar uit Samaria geregeer. 30Agab seun van Omri het gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here, meer as al sy voorgangers. 31Dat hy voortgegaan het met die sondes van Jerobeam seun van Nebat was nog die minste; hy het ook met Isebel dogter van koning Etbaäl van die Sidoniërs getrou en die god Baäl begin dien en hom aanbid. 32Hy het 'n altaar vir Baäl opgerig by die Baälstempel wat hy gebou het in Samaria. 33Agab het ook 'n gewyde paal opgerig en hy het meer gedoen om die Here die God van Israel uit te tart as al die konings van Israel voor hom. 34In daardie tyd het Giël van Bet-El die stad Jerigo opgebou. Toe hy die fondamente daarvan gelê het, het sy oudste seun Abiram gesterf, en toe hy die poortdeure gehang het, het sy jongste, Segub, gesterf. Dit was in ooreenstemming met die vervloeking wat die Here deur Josua seun van Nun uitgespreek het.

Elijah Predicts a Drought

1Ki 17:1 A prophet named Elijah, from Tishbe in Gilead, said to King Ahab, "In the name of the LORD, the living God of Israel, whom I serve, I tell you that there will be no dew or rain for the next two or three years until I say so."

1Ki 17:2 Then the LORD said to Elijah,

1Ki 17:3 "Leave this place and go east and hide yourself near Cherith Brook, east of the Jordan.

1Ki 17:4 The brook will supply you with water to drink, and I have commanded ravens to bring you food there."

1Ki 17:5 Elijah obeyed the LORD's command, and went and stayed by Cherith Brook.

1Ki 17:6 He drank water from the brook, and ravens brought him bread and meat every morning and every evening.

1Ki 17:7 After a while the brook dried up because of the lack of rain.

The Widow of Zarephath

1Ki 17:8 Then the LORD said to Elijah,

1Ki 17:9 "Now go to the town of Zarephath, near Sidon, and stay there. I have commanded a widow who lives there to feed you."

1Ki 17:10 So Elijah went to Zarephath, and as he came to the town gate, he saw a widow gathering firewood. "Please bring me a drink of water," he said to her.

1Ki 17:11 And as she was going to get it, he called out, "And please bring me some bread, too."

1Ki 17:12 She answered, "By the living LORD your God I swear that I don't have any bread. All I have is a handful of flour in a bowl and a bit of olive oil in a jar. I came here to gather some firewood to take back home and prepare what little I have for my son and me. That will be our last meal, and then we will starve to death."

1Ki 17:13 "Don't worry," Elijah said to her. "Go on and prepare your meal. But first make a small loaf from what you have and bring it to me, and then prepare the rest for you and your son.

1Ki 17:14 For this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: 'The bowl will not run out of flour or the jar run out of oil before the day that I, the LORD, send rain.' "

1Ki 17:15 The widow went and did as Elijah had told her, and all of them had enough food for many days.

1Ki 17:16 As the LORD had promised through Elijah, the bowl did not run out of flour nor did the jar run out of oil.

Elijah Raises the Widow's Son

1Ki 17:17 Some time later the widow's son got sick; he got worse and worse, and finally he died.

1Ki 17:18 She said to Elijah, "Man of God, why did you do this to me? Did you come here to remind God of my sins and so cause my son's death?"

1Ki 17:19 "Give the boy to me," Elijah said. He took the boy from her arms, carried him upstairs to the room where he was staying, and laid him on the bed.

1Ki 17:20 Then he prayed aloud, "O LORD my God, why have you done such a terrible thing to this widow? She has been kind enough to take care of me, and now you kill her son!"

1Ki 17:21 Then Elijah stretched himself out on the boy three times and prayed, "O LORD my God, restore this child to life!"

1Ki 17:22 The LORD answered Elijah's prayer; the child started breathing again and revived.

1Ki 17:23 Elijah took the boy back downstairs to his mother and said to her, "Look, your son is alive!"

1Ki 17:24 She answered, "Now I know that you are a man of God and that the LORD really speaks through you!"

I KONINGS 17

1Elia die Tisbiet was 'n bywoner uit Gilead. Hy het vir Agab gesê: So seker as die Here leef, die God van Israel in wie se diens ek staan, daar sal die volgende paar jaar geen dou of reën val nie, behalwe as ek so sê. 2Die woord van die Here het tot Elia gekom en gesê: 3Gaan hiervandaan af ooswaarts en gaan versteek jou in Kritspruit, anderkant die Jordaan. 4Jy kan water uit die spruit drink, en Ek het die kraaie beveel om daar vir jou te sorg. 5Hy het gedoen soos die Here aan hom opgedra het. Hy het daar in Kritspruit gaan bly, anderkant die Jordaan. 6Die kraaie het vir hom soggens brood en vleis gebring en hulle het vir hom saans brood en vleis gebring, en hy het water uit die spruit gedrink. 7Uiteindelik het die spruit opgedroog omdat die land nie reën gekry het nie. 8Toe het die woord van die Here weer tot Elia gekom en gesê: 9Gaan na Sarfat toe by Sidon en gaan bly daar. Ek het 'n weduwee daar opdrag gegee om vir jou te sorg. 10Hy gaan toe na Sarfat toe, en toe hy by die poort van die stad kom, was daar 'n weduwee net besig om houtjies op te tel. Hy vra haar toe: Gee my asseblief 'n bekertjie water om te drink. 11Terwyl sy dit gaan haal, roep hy agter haar aan: Bring vir my asseblief 'n stukkie brood saam. 12Toe sê sy: So seker as die Here u God leef, ek het nie meer brood nie, net 'n handvol meel in die kruik en 'n bietjie olie in die erdekan. Ek maak nou maar 'n paar houtjies bymekaar en dan gaan ek vir my en my seuntjie iets klaarmaak om te eet. Daarna moet ons maar doodgaan. 13Elia sê toe vir haar: Moenie bekommerd wees nie. Gaan maak dit klaar net soos jy gesê het, maar maak eers vir my 'n roosterkoek en bring dit hier, daarna kan jy vir jou en jou seuntjie sorg. 14So sê die Here die God van Israel: Die meel in die kruik sal nie opraak nie, en die olie in die kan sal nie minder word nie, totdat die Here laat reën het op die land. 15Sy gaan maak toe soos Elia gevra het. Van toe af het hulle genoeg gehad om te eet, hy en sy en haar gesin. 16Die meel in die kruik het nie opgeraak nie, en die olie in die kan het nie minder geword nie, soos die Here deur Elia beloof het. 17In dié tyd het die vrou, die eienares van die huis, se seuntjie siek geword. Hy het al hoe sieker geword totdat hy die laaste asem uitgeblaas het. 18Toe sê sy vir Elia: Kyk wat het u my aangedoen, man van God! Het u na my toe gekom om my sonde aan die lig te bring en my seuntjie daarom te laat doodgaan? 19Hy sê vir haar: Gee jou kind hier, en hy tel hom van haar skoot af op. Toe dra hy hom na die bokamer toe waar hy tuis gegaan het en lê hom op die bed neer 20en bid tot die Here: Here my God, wil U nou oor hierdie weduwee by wie ek bly, 'n ramp bring deur haar kind te laat sterf? 21Toe gaan lê hy drie maal bo-oor die kind en smeek die Here: Here my God, laat die lewe tog terugkom in die kind. [22]Die Here het Elia se gebed verhoor: die lewe het teruggekom, die kind het gelewe. [23]Toe bring Elia die kind van die bokamer af ondertoe en gee hom vir sy ma en sê: Kyk! Jou seuntjie leef! [24]Die vrou sê toe vir Elia: Nou weet ek dat u 'n man van God is, en dat wat die Here deur u sê, die waarheid is.

Elijah Confronts Ahab

1Ki 18:1 After some time, in the third year of the drought, the LORD said to Elijah, "Go and present yourself to King Ahab, and I will send rain."

1Ki 18:2 So Elijah started out. The famine in Samaria was at its worst, 1Ki 18:3 so Ahab called in Obadiah, who was in charge of the palace. (Obadiah was a devout worshiper of the LORD, 1Ki 18:4 and when Jezebel was killing the LORD's prophets, Obadiah took a hundred of them, hid them in caves in two groups of fifty, and provided them with food and water.)

1Ki 18:5 Ahab said to Obadiah, "Let us go and look at every spring and every stream bed in the land to see if we can find enough grass to keep the horses and mules alive. Maybe we won't have to kill any of our animals."

1Ki 18:6 They agreed on which part of the land each one would explore, and set off in different directions.

1Ki 18:7 As Obadiah was on his way, he suddenly met Elijah. He recognized him, bowed low before him, and asked, "Is it really you, sir?"

1Ki 18:8 "Yes, I'm Elijah," he answered. "Go and tell your master the king that I am here."

1Ki 18:9 Obadiah answered, "What have I done that you want to put me in danger of being killed by King Ahab?

1Ki 18:10 By the living LORD, your God, I swear that the king has made a search for you in every country in the world. Whenever the ruler of a country reported that you were not in his country, Ahab would require that ruler to swear that you could not be found.

1Ki 18:11 And now you want me to go and tell him that you are here?

1Ki 18:12 What if the spirit of the LORD carries you off to some unknown place as soon as I leave? Then, when I tell Ahab that you are here and he can't find you, he will put me to death. Remember that I have been a devout worshiper of the LORD ever since I was a boy.

1Ki 18:13 Haven't you heard that when Jezebel was killing the prophets of the LORD I hid a hundred of them in caves, in two groups of fifty, and supplied them with food and water?

1Ki 18:14 So how can you order me to go and tell the king that you are here? He will kill me!"

1Ki 18:15 Elijah answered, "By the living LORD Almighty, whom I serve, I promise that I will present myself to the king today."

1Ki 18:16 So Obadiah went to King Ahab and told him, and Ahab set off to meet Elijah.

1Ki 18:17 When Ahab saw him, he said, "So there you are—the worst troublemaker in Israel!"

1Ki 18:18 "I'm not the troublemaker," Elijah answered. "You are—you and your father. You are disobeying the LORD's commands and worshiping the idols of Baal.

1Ki 18:19 Now order all the people of Israel to meet me at Mount Carmel. Bring along the 450 prophets of Baal and the 400 prophets of the goddess Asherah who are supported by Queen Jezebel."

The Prophets of Baal Defeated

1Ki 18:20 So Ahab summoned all the Israelites and the prophets of Baal to meet at Mount Carmel.

1Ki 18:21 Elijah went up to the people and said, "How much longer will it take you to make up your minds? If the LORD is God, worship him; but if Baal is God, worship him!" But the people didn't say a word.

1Ki 18:22 Then Elijah said, "I am the only prophet of the LORD still left, but there are 450 prophets of Baal.

1Ki 18:23 Bring two bulls; let the prophets of Baal take one, kill it, cut it in pieces, and put it on the wood—but don't light the fire. I will do the same with the other bull.

1Ki 18:24 Then let the prophets of Baal pray to their god, and I will pray to the LORD, and the one who answers by sending fire—he is God." The people shouted their approval.

1Ki 18:25 Then Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, "Since there are so many of you, you take a bull and prepare it first. Pray to your god, but don't set fire to the wood."

1Ki 18:26 They took the bull that was brought to them, prepared it, and prayed to Baal until noon. They shouted, "Answer us, Baal!" and kept dancing around the altar they had built. But no answer came.

1Ki 18:27 At noon Elijah started making fun of them: "Pray louder! He is a god! Maybe he is day-dreaming or relieving himself, or perhaps he's gone off on a trip! Or maybe he's sleeping, and you've got to wake him up!"

1Ki 18:28 So the prophets prayed louder and cut themselves with knives and daggers, according to their ritual, until blood flowed.

1Ki 18:29 They kept on ranting and raving until the middle of the afternoon; but no answer came, not a sound was heard.

1Ki 18:30 Then Elijah said to the people, "Come closer to me," and they all gathered around him. He set about repairing the altar of the LORD which had been torn down.

1Ki 18:31 He took twelve stones, one for each of the twelve tribes named for the sons of Jacob, the man to whom the LORD had given the name Israel.

1Ki 18:32 With these stones he rebuilt the altar for the worship of the LORD. He dug a trench around it, large enough to hold about four gallons of water.

1Ki 18:33 Then he placed the wood on the altar, cut the bull in pieces, and laid it on the wood. He said, "Fill four jars with water and pour it on the offering and the wood." They did so, 1Ki 18:34 and he said, "Do it again"—and they did. "Do it once more," he said—and they did.

1Ki 18:35 The water ran down around the altar and filled the trench.

1Ki 18:36 At the hour of the afternoon sacrifice the prophet Elijah approached the altar and prayed, "O LORD, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, prove now that you are the God of Israel and that I am your servant and have done all this at your command.

1Ki 18:37 Answer me, LORD, answer me, so that this people will know that you, the LORD, are God and that you are bringing them back to yourself."

1Ki 18:38 The LORD sent fire down, and it burned up the sacrifice, the wood, and the stones, scorched the earth and dried up the water in the trench.

1Ki 18:39 When the people saw this, they threw themselves on the ground and exclaimed, "The LORD is God; the LORD alone is God!"

1Ki 18:40 Elijah ordered, "Seize the prophets of Baal; don't let any of them get away!" The people seized them all, and Elijah led them down to Kishon Brook and killed them.

The Lord Sends Rain

1Ki 18:41 Then Elijah said to King Ahab, "Now, go and eat. I hear the roar of rain approaching."

1Ki 18:42 While Ahab went to eat, Elijah climbed to the top of Mount Carmel, where he bowed down to the ground, with his head between his knees.

1Ki 18:43 He said to his servant, "Go and look toward the sea." The servant went and returned, saying, "I didn't see a thing." Seven times in all Elijah told him to go and look.

1Ki 18:44 The seventh time he returned and said, "I saw a little cloud no bigger than a man's hand, coming up from the sea." Elijah ordered his servant, "Go to King Ahab and tell him to get in his chariot and go back home before the rain stops him."

1Ki 18:45 In a little while the sky was covered with dark clouds, the wind began to blow, and a heavy rain began to fall. Ahab got in his chariot and started back to Jezreel.

1Ki 18:46 The power of the LORD came on Elijah; he fastened his clothes tight around his waist and ran ahead of Ahab all the way to Jezreel.

1Na 'n lang tyd, dit was omtrent drie jaar, het die woord van die Here tot Elia gekom en gesê: Gaan na Agab toe. Moenie langer vir hom wegkruip nie. Ek wil dit weer in die land laat reën. 2Elia het na Agab toe gegaan. Die swaar hongersnood het nog voortgeduur in Samaria. 3Agab het vir Obadja, die paleisopsigter, na hom toe laat kom. Obadja het die Here pligsgetrou gedien. 4Toe Isebel die profete van die Here doodgemaak het, het Obadja honderd geneem en hulle vyftig-vyftig in grotte weggesteek en hulle van kos en water voorsien. 5Agab het vir Obadja gesê: Kom ons trek deur die land, na elke fontein en spruit toe. Dalk kry ons gras om die perde en muile aan die lewe te hou. Dan hoef ons nie van hulle dood te maak nie. 6Hulle het die land tussen hulle verdeel Agab het alleen in een rigting gegaan, en Obadja alleen in 'n ander rigting. 7Terwyl Obadja onderweg was, kom Elia hom meteens tegemoet. Obadja het hom herken en voor hom op sy knieë geval en gesê: Maar u is mos Elia! 8Elia sê toe vir hom: Ja, dit is ek! Gaan sê vir die koning: Elia is hier. 9Maar Obadja sê: Watter sonde het ek gedoen dat u my aan Agab uitlewer om my dood te maak? 10So seker as die Here u God leef, daar is geen nasie of koninkryk waar die koning u nie probeer opspoor het nie. As hulle sê: Elia is nie hier nie,' het die koning die koninkryk of die nasie met 'n eed laat bevestig dat hulle u nie kon kry nie. 11Nou sê u sommer: Gaan sê vir die koning Elia is hier!' 12As ek nou van u af sou weggaan, en die Gees van die Here neem u weg, sonder dat ek weet waarheen, en ek gaan vertel vir Agab ek het u gesien, maar hy kan u nie kry nie, dan maak hy my beslis dood. En dit terwyl ek die Here van my jeug af dien. 13Het hulle u nie vertel wat ek gedoen het toe Isebel die profete van die Here doodgemaak het nie, dat ek honderd profete van die Here vyftig-vyftig in grotte weggesteek het en hulle van kos en water voorsien het? 14Nou stuur u my sommer om vir koning Agab te gaan sê Elia is hier. Hy sal my mos doodmaak. 15Maar Elia sê vir Obadja: So seker as die Here leef, die Almagtige in wie se diens ek staan, ek sal sorg dat Agab my vandag nog te sien kry. 16Toe gaan Obadja na Agab toe en vertel hom, en Agab het na Elia toe gekom. 17Net toe Agab hom sien, sê Agab vir hom: Is dit jy, jy wat die dood oor Israel bring? 18Hy antwoord: Dis nie ek wat die dood oor Israel bring nie, maar jy en jou familie. Julle het die gebooie van die Here verontagsaam en die Baäls gedien. 19Roep vir my die hele Israel bymekaar op Karmelberg. Die vier honderd en vyftig profete van Baäl en die vier honderd van Asjera wat van Isebel se tafel af eet, moet ook daar wees. 20Toe stuur Agab die boodskap aan al die Israeliete; hy het ook die profete op Karmelberg laat bymekaarkom. 21Elia het voor die hele volk gaan staan en gesê: Hoe lank hou julle aan met hink op twee gedagtes? As die Here God is, volg Hóm; maar as dit Baäl is, volg hóm. Die volk het hom nie 'n woord geantwoord nie. [22]Toe sê Elia vir die volk: Ek alleen het oorgebly as profeet van die Here, maar daar is vier honderd en vyftig profete van Baäl. [23]Bring nou vir ons twee bulle. Hulle kan vir hulle een bul kies en hom opsny en op die hout uitlê. Maar hulle moet dit nie aan die brand steek nie. Ek sal dieselfde doen met die ander bul. Ek sal hom op die hout uitlê, maar dit ook nie aan die brand steek nie. [24]Dan moet julle tot julle god bid, en ek sal tot die Here bid. Hy wat met vuur antwoord, is God. Die hele volk het geantwoord: Dis goed so. [25]Toe sê Elia vir die profete van Baäl: Kies 'n bul en maak julle hom eerste gereed, want julle is die meeste. Bid dan tot julle god. Maar julle mag nie die vuur aansteek nie. [26]Hulle neem toe die bul wat hy hulle laat kies het en maak hom gereed. Hulle bid toe tot Baäl en roep van die môre af tot die middag toe: Baäl, antwoord ons! Daar was nie 'n geluid van hom af nie. Niemand het geantwoord nie, hoe hulle ook al vir Baäl gedans het by die altaar wat hulle gemaak het. [27]Teen die middag het Elia hulle begin spot: Roep harder! Hy is mos 'n god! Miskien is hy diep in gedagte of gou bietjie uit, of op reis, of dalk slaap hy en moet hy eers wakker word! [28]Toe roep hulle nog harder; en soos altyd kerf hulle hulle stukkend met swaarde en spiese dat die bloed oor hulle loop. [29]Tot die namiddag het hulle aangehou te kere gaan, en teen laatmiddag, die tyd vir die aandoffer, was daar nog geen geluid nie. Niemand het geantwoord nie, daar was geen reaksie nie. [30]Toe sê Elia vir die hele volk: Kom staan hier by my, en hulle het almal by hom gaan staan. Toe het hy die stukkende altaar van die Here weer reggemaak. [31]Hy het twaalf klippe gevat, net soveel as die stamme van die nageslag van Jakob vir wie die Here gesê het: Jou naam sal Israel wees. [32]Met die klippe het hy die altaar van die Here reggemaak en 'n behoorlike sloot daar rondom gegrawe. [33]Toe sit hy die hout reg, sny die bul stukkend en lê dit uit op die hout. [34]Toe beveel hy: Maak vier kruike vol water en gooi dit uit op die brandoffer en op die hout. Daarna sê hy: Doen dit weer, en hulle het dit nog 'n keer gedoen. Toe sê hy: Doen dit 'n derde keer, en hulle het weer so gemaak. [35]Toe stroom die water oor die hele altaar, en selfs die sloot rondom het vol geword. [36]Teen die tyd van die aandoffer het die profeet Elia vorentoe gekom en gebid: Here, God van Abraham, Isak en Israel, laat dit tog vandag bekend word dat U God is in Israel, en dat ek u dienaar is wat op u bevel al hierdie dinge doen. [37]Antwoord my, Here, antwoord my tog dat hierdie volk kan besef dat U, Here, God is, en dat dit U is wat hulle harte weer tot U bekeer. [38]Toe kom daar vuur van die Here af en dit verbrand die offer, die hout, die klippe en die grond. Dit het selfs die water in die sloot opgelek. [39]Toe die hele volk dit sien, het hulle op hulle knieë geval en uitgeroep: Die Here is God! Die Here is God! [40]Hierop sê Elia vir hulle: Gryp die profete van Baäl! Nie een van hulle mag wegkom nie. Toe die volk hulle gegryp het, het Elia die profete laat afbring na Kisonspruit toe en daar het hy hulle doodgemaak. [41]Daarna sê Elia vir Agab: Gaan eet eers, want ek hoor al die gedruis van die reën. [42]Agab het toe gaan eet, maar Elia het na die top van Karmelberg toe opgeklim en terwyl hy daar na die aarde toe buig met sy kop tussen sy knieë, [43]sê hy vir sy slaaf: Gaan kyk in die rigting van die see! Hy gaan kyk toe, en kom sê: Daar is niks. Elia het vir hom gesê: Gaan kyk weer. Dit het sewe keer gebeur. [44]Na die sewende keer het hy kom sê: 'n Wolkie so groot soos 'n man se hand kom uit die see uit op. Elia sê toe: Gaan sê gou vir Agab: Span in en gaan van die berg af, anders sal die reën jou vaskeer. [45]Toe hulle nog praat, het die lug donker geword van die onweerswolke; die wind het opgekom en groot reëns het uitgesak. Agab het op sy wa geklim en na Jisreël toe gery. [46]Die mag van die Here het vir Elia in besit geneem, en hy het sy mantel opgebind en voor Agab se wa uit gehardloop tot waar die pad uitdraai na Jisreël toe.

Elijah Flees Jezebel

1Ki 19:1 King Ahab told his wife Jezebel everything that Elijah had done and how he had put all the prophets of Baal to death.

1Ki 19:2 She sent a message to Elijah: "May the gods strike me dead if by this time tomorrow I don't do the same thing to you that you did to the prophets."

1Ki 19:3 Elijah was afraid and fled for his life; he took his servant and went to Beersheba in Judah. Leaving the servant there,

1Ki 19:4 Elijah walked a whole day into the wilderness. He stopped and sat down in the shade of a tree and wished he would die. "It's too much, LORD," he prayed. "Take away my life; I might as well be dead!"

1Ki 19:5 He lay down under the tree and fell asleep. Suddenly an angel touched him and said, "Wake up and eat."

1Ki 19:6 He looked around and saw a loaf of bread and a jar of water near his head. He ate and drank, and lay down again.

1Ki 19:7 The LORD's angel returned and woke him up a second time, saying, "Get up and eat, or the trip will be too much for you."

1Ki 19:8 Elijah got up, ate and drank, and the food gave him enough strength to walk forty days to Sinai, the holy mountain.

The Lord Speaks to Elijah

1Ki 19:9 There he went into a cave to spend the night. Suddenly the LORD spoke to him, "Elijah, what are you doing here?"

1Ki 19:10 He answered, " LORD God Almighty, I have always served you—you alone. But the people of Israel have broken their covenant with you, torn down your altars, and killed all your prophets. I am the only one left—and they are trying to kill me!"

1Ki 19:11 "Go out and stand before me on top of the mountain," the LORD said to him. Then the LORD passed by and sent a furious wind that split the hills and shattered the rocks—but the LORD was not in the wind. The wind stopped blowing, and then there was an earthquake—but the LORD was not in the earthquake.

1Ki 19:12 After the earthquake there was a fire—but the LORD was not in the fire. And after the fire there was the soft whisper of a voice.

1Ki 19:13 When Elijah heard it, he covered his face with his cloak and went out and stood at the entrance of the cave. A voice said to him, "Elijah, what are you doing here?"

1Ki 19:14 He answered, " LORD God Almighty, I have always served you—you alone. But the people of Israel have broken their covenant with you, torn down your altars, and killed all your prophets. I am the only one left—and they are trying to kill me."

1Ki 19:15 The LORD said, "Return to the wilderness near Damascus, then enter the city and anoint Hazael as king of Syria;

1Ki 19:16 anoint Jehu son of Nimshi as king of Israel, and anoint Elisha son of Shaphat from Abel Meholah to succeed you as prophet.

1Ki 19:17 Anyone who escapes being put to death by Hazael will be killed by Jehu, and anyone who escapes Jehu will be killed by Elisha.

1Ki 19:18 Yet I will leave seven thousand people alive in Israel—all those who are loyal to me and have not bowed to Baal or kissed his idol."

The Call of Elisha

1Ki 19:19 Elijah left and found Elisha plowing with a team of oxen; there were eleven teams ahead of him, and he was plowing with the last one. Elijah took off his cloak and put it on Elisha.

1Ki 19:20 Elisha then left his oxen, ran after Elijah, and said, "Let me kiss my father and mother good-bye, and then I will go with you." Elijah answered, "All right, go back. I'm not stopping you!"

1Ki 19:21 Then Elisha went to his team of oxen, killed them, and cooked the meat, using the yoke as fuel for the fire. He gave the meat to the people, and they ate it. Then he went and followed Elijah as his helper.

I KONINGS 19

1Agab het vir Isebel vertel wat Elia alles gedoen het, ook dat hy al die profete om die lewe gebring het. 2Toe het Isebel 'n boodskapper na Elia toe gestuur om vir hom te sê: Mag die gode my om die lewe bring as ek nie môre teen hierdie tyd met jou gemaak het soos jy met die profete nie. 3Elia het bang geword en ter wille van sy lewe gevlug. Toe hy by Berseba in Juda kom, het hy sy slaaf daar agtergelaat. 4Hy self het egter 'n dagreis ver die woestyn in gegaan. Daar het hy onder 'n besembos gaan sit en gewens hy gaan dood. Hy het gesê: Nou is dit genoeg, Here! Neem my lewe, want ek is niks beter as my voorvaders nie. 5Toe gaan hy lê en hy het daar onder die besembos aan die slaap geraak. Toe hy hom weer kom kry, skud 'n engel aan hom en sê: Word wakker! Eet! 6Toe hy opkyk, sien hy by sy kop roosterkoek wat op warm klippe gebak is, en 'n kruik water. Hy het geëet en gedrink en weer gaan lê. 7Die engel het 'n tweede keer aan hom geskud en gesê: Word wakker! Eet! Anders sal die pad vir jou te lank word. 8Toe staan hy op en hy eet, en deur die krag van die kos kon hy veertig dae en veertig nagte lank loop tot by Horeb, die berg van God. 9Hy het in 'n grot ingegaan en die nag daar deurgebring. Toe het die woord van die Here tot hom gekom en vir hom gesê: Wat maak jy hier, Elia? 10Hy antwoord toe: Ek het my met hart en siel gewy aan u saak, Here, Almagtige God. Die Israeliete het die verbond met U verbreek. Hulle het u altare afgebreek en u profete doodgemaak. Net ek alleen het oorgebly, en hulle soek my om my ook om die lewe te bring. 11Maar die Here sê vir hom: Kom uit, en gaan staan op die berg voor My, die Here, Ek wil verbygaan. Skielik was daar 'n baie sterk wind wat die berg stukkend geruk en die rotse gebreek het voor die Here. Maar in die wind was die Here nie. Na die wind was daar 'n aardbewing. Maar in die aardbewing was die Here nie. 12Na die aardbewing was daar 'n vuur. Maar in die vuur was die Here nie. En na die vuur was daar 'n fluistering in die windstilte. 13Toe Elia dit hoor, het hy sy gesig met sy mantel toegemaak en by die bek van die grot gaan staan. Toe hoor hy 'n stem wat vir hom sê: Wat maak jy hier, Elia? 14Hy het geantwoord: Ek het my met hart en siel gewy aan u saak, Here, Almagtige God. Die Israeliete het die verbond met U verbreek. Hulle het u altare afgebreek en u profete doodgemaak. Net ek het oorgebly, en hulle soek my om my ook om die lewe te bring. 15Maar die Here sê vir hom: Draai in jou spore om na die Damaskuswoestyn toe, en as jy daar aangekom het, moet jy vir Gasael salf tot koning van Aram. 16Jy moet ook vir Jehu seun van Nimsi salf tot koning van Israel, en vir Elisa seun van Safat uit Abel-Megola moet jy salf tot profeet om jou op te volg. 17Dan sal dit só wees: wie Gasael se swaard vryspring, Jehu sal hom doodmaak; wie Jehu se swaard vryspring, Elisa sal hom doodmaak. [18]Maar Ek sal in Israel die sewe duisend laat oorbly wat nie die Baälbeeld aanbid het nie. [19]Nadat hy daarvandaan af weggegaan het, kry hy vir Elisa seun van Safat besig om te ploeg met twaalf spanne van twee, terwyl hy self by die agterste span geloop het. Toe Elia by hom verbyloop, gooi Elia sy mantel op hom. [20]Hy het sy osse net so gelos en agter Elia aangehardloop en gesê: Laat ek tog net my pa en ma gaan groet. Dan sal ek saam met u gaan. Elia antwoord hom toe: Gaan as jy wil. Ek hou jou mos nie terug nie. [21]Toe draai Elisa om en gaan slag twee osse, en met die juk het hy die vleis gebraai en vir sy werksmense gegee om te eet. Daarna het hy saam met Elia gegaan en sy volgeling geword.

Ahab's Wars with Syria

1Ki 20:1 King Benhadad of Syria gathered all his troops, and supported by thirty-two other rulers with their horses and chariots, he marched up, laid siege to Samaria, and launched attacks against it.

1Ki 20:2 He sent messengers into the city to King Ahab of Israel to say, "King Benhadad demands that 1Ki 20:3 you surrender to him your silver and gold, your women and the strongest of your children."

1Ki 20:4 "Tell my lord, King Benhadad, that I agree; he can have me and everything I own," Ahab answered.

1Ki 20:5 Later the messengers came back to Ahab with another demand from Benhadad: "I sent you word that you were to hand over to me your silver and gold, your women and your children.

1Ki 20:6 Now, however, I will send my officers to search your palace and the homes of your officials, and to take everything they consider valuable. They will be there about this time tomorrow."

1Ki 20:7 King Ahab called in all the leaders of the country and said, "You see that this man wants to ruin us. He sent me a message demanding my wives and children, my silver and gold, and I agreed."

1Ki 20:8 The leaders and the people answered, "Don't pay any attention to him; don't give in."

1Ki 20:9 So Ahab replied to Benhadad's messengers, "Tell my lord the king that I agreed to his first demand, but I cannot agree to the second." The messengers left and then returned with another message

1Ki 20:10 from Benhadad: "I will bring enough men to destroy this city of yours and carry off the rubble in their hands. May the gods strike me dead if I don't!"

1Ki 20:11 King Ahab answered, "Tell King Benhadad that a real soldier does his bragging after a battle, not before it."

1Ki 20:12 Benhadad received Ahab's answer as he and his allies, the other rulers, were drinking in their tents. He ordered his men to get ready to attack the city, and so they moved into position.

Ahab Defeats Ben-hadad

1Ki 20:13 Meanwhile, a prophet went to King Ahab and said, "The LORD says, 'Don't be afraid of that huge army! I will give you victory over it today, and you will know that I am the LORD.' "

1Ki 20:14 "Who will lead the attack?" Ahab asked. The prophet answered, "The LORD says that the young soldiers under the command of the district governors are to do it." "Who will command the main force?" the king asked. "You," the prophet answered.

1Ki 20:15 So the king called out the young soldiers who were under the district commanders, 232 in all. Then he called out the Israelite army, a total of seven thousand men.

1Ki 20:16 The attack began at noon, as Benhadad and his thirty-two allies were getting drunk in their tents.

1Ki 20:17 The young soldiers advanced first. Scouts sent out by Benhadad reported to him that a group of soldiers was coming out of Samaria.

1Ki 20:18 He ordered, "Take them alive, no matter whether they are coming to fight or to ask for peace."

1Ki 20:19 The young soldiers led the attack, followed by the Israelite army, 1Ki 20:20 and each one killed the man he fought. The Syrians fled, with the Israelites in hot pursuit, but Benhadad escaped on horseback, accompanied by some of the cavalry.

1Ki 20:21 King Ahab took to the field, captured the horses and chariots, and inflicted a severe defeat on the Syrians.

1Ki 20:22 Then the prophet went to King Ahab and said, "Go back and build up your forces and make careful plans, because the king of Syria will attack again next spring."

1Ki 20:23 King Benhadad's officials said to him, "The gods of Israel are mountain gods, and that is why the Israelites defeated us. But we will certainly defeat them if we fight them in the plains.

1Ki 20:24 Now, remove the thirty-two rulers from their commands and replace them with field commanders.

1Ki 20:25 Then call up an army as large as the one that deserted you, with the same number of horses and chariots. We will fight the Israelites in the plains, and this time we will defeat them." King Benhadad agreed and followed their advice.

Ahab Defeats Ben-hadad Again

1Ki 20:26 The following spring he called up his men and marched with them to the city of Aphek to attack the Israelites.

1Ki 20:27 The Israelites were called up and equipped; they marched out and camped in two groups facing the Syrians. The Israelites looked like two small flocks of goats compared to the Syrians, who spread out over the countryside.

1Ki 20:28 A prophet went to King Ahab and said, "This is what the LORD says: 'Because the Syrians say that I am a god of the hills and not of the plains, I will give you victory over their huge army, and you and your people will know that I am the LORD.' "

1Ki 20:29 For seven days the Syrians and the Israelites stayed in their camps, facing each other. On the seventh day they started fighting, and the Israelites killed a hundred thousand Syrians.

1Ki 20:30 The survivors fled into the city of Aphek, where the city walls fell on twenty-seven thousand of them. Benhadad also escaped into the city and took refuge in the back room of a house.

1Ki 20:31 His officials went to him and said, "We have heard that the Israelite kings are merciful. Give us permission to go to the king of Israel with sackcloth around our waists and ropes around our necks, and maybe he will spare your life."

1Ki 20:32 So they wrapped sackcloth around their waists and ropes around their necks, went to Ahab and said, "Your servant Benhadad pleads with you for his life." Ahab answered, "Is he still alive? Good! He's like a brother to me!"

1Ki 20:33 Benhadad's officials were watching for a good sign, and when Ahab said "brother," they took it up at once, and said, "As you say, Benhadad is your brother!" "Bring him to me," Ahab ordered. When Benhadad arrived, Ahab invited him to get in the chariot with him.

1Ki 20:34 Benhadad said to him, "I will restore to you the towns my father took from your father, and you may set up a commercial center for yourself in Damascus, just as my father did in Samaria." Ahab replied, "On these terms, then, I will set you free." He made a treaty with him and let him go.

A Prophet Condemns Ben-hadad's Release

1Ki 20:35 At the LORD's command a member of a group of prophets ordered a fellow prophet to hit him. But he refused, 1Ki 20:36 so he said to him, "Because you have disobeyed the LORD's command, a lion will kill you as soon as you leave me." And as soon as he left, a lion came along and killed him.

1Ki 20:37 Then this same prophet went to another man and said, "Hit me!" This man did so; he hit him a hard blow and hurt him.

1Ki 20:38 The prophet bandaged his face with a cloth, to disguise himself, and went and stood by the road, waiting for the king of Israel to pass.

1Ki 20:39 As the king was passing by, the prophet called out to him and said, "Your Majesty, I was fighting in the battle when a soldier brought a captured enemy to me and said, 'Guard this man; if he escapes, you will pay for it with your life or else pay a fine of three thousand pieces of silver.'

1Ki 20:40 But I got busy with other things, and the man escaped." The king answered, "You have pronounced your own sentence, and you will have to pay the penalty."

1Ki 20:41 The prophet tore the cloth from his face, and at once the king recognized him as one of the prophets.

1Ki 20:42 The prophet then said to the king, "This is the word of the LORD: 'Because you allowed the man to escape whom I had ordered to be killed, you will pay for it with your life, and your army will be destroyed for letting his army escape.' "

1Ki 20:43 The king went back home to Samaria, worried and depressed.

1Koning Ben-Hadad van Aram het sy hele leër laat bymekaarkom. Daar was twee en dertig konings by hom met ruitery en strydwaens. Hy het opgetrek teen Samaria en dit beleër. Tydens die beleg 2het hy boodskappers die stad in gestuur na koning Agab van Israel toe 3en vir hom laat weet: So sê Ben-Hadad: Jou silwer en goud is myne. Jou mooiste vrouens en kinders is myne. 4Die koning van Israel het geantwoord: Dit is soos U Majesteit sê: Ek en alles wat myne is, behoort aan u. 5Die boodskappers het toe weer na Agab toe gekom en gesê: So sê Ben-Hadad: Ek het jou die boodskap gestuur dat jy jou silwer en goud, jou vrouens en kinders vir my moet gee. 6Nou ja, ek stuur môre my amptenare na jou toe. Hulle sal jou paleis en die huise van jou onderdane deursoek, en hulle sal beslag lê op alles wat hulle oë begeer en dit vir hulle vat. 7Die koning van Israel roep toe al die leiers van die land bymekaar, en sê: Kyk nou net! Hierdie man soek moeilikheid. Toe hy my vrouens en kinders en my silwer en goud geëis het, het ek nie geweier nie. 8Al die leiers en die hele volk het gesê: U moet nie nou gehoor gee nie. U mag nie inwillig nie! 9Toe sê Agab vir Ben-Hadad se boodskappers: Sê vir sy majesteit die koning: Alles wat u die eerste keer geëis het, sal ek gee, maar aan hierdie nuwe eis kan ek nie toegee nie. Die boodskappers het die antwoord vir Ben-Hadad gebring, 10en hy het terug laat weet: Mag my gode my om die lewe bring as ek nie soveel manskappe met my saambring dat die stof van Samaria nie genoeg sal wees om hulle hande mee te vul nie. 11Daarop het die koning van Israel opgemerk: Die spreekwoord lui: Hy wat hom klaarmaak om te veg, moenie roem soos een wat klaar die oorwinning behaal het nie. 12Toe Ben-Hadad dít hoor, was hy besig om saam met die ander konings in die tente te drink en hy sê vir sy offisiere: Val aan! en hulle het klaargemaak vir die aanval op die stad. 13'n Profeet het egter by koning Agab van Israel gekom en gesê: So sê die Here: Sien jy daardie groot menigte? Ek gee hulle vandag in jou mag oor. Dan sal jy besef dat Ek die Here is. 14Agab vra toe: Deur wie gaan die Here dit doen? en die profeet sê: So sê die Here: Deur die jong soldate van die distrikshoofde. Agab vra toe: Wie moet die geveg aanknoop? en die profeet antwoord: U. 15Toe ontplooi Agab die distrikshoofde se jong soldate, twee honderd twee en dertig. Agter hulle het hy die leër, al die Israeliete, ontplooi, sewe duisend man. 16Dit was middag toe hulle uit die stad uitgaan, en Ben-Hadad was aan die drink in die tent, hy en die twee en dertig konings wat hom kom help het. 17Die jong soldate van die distrikshoofde het aan die voorpunt opgeruk, en daar is vir Ben-Hadad gesê: Daar kom manskappe uit Samaria uit. 18Hy sê toe: Of hulle vrede soek of oorlog, vang hulle lewendig! [19]Intussen het die jong soldate van die distrikshoofde uit die stad getrek, en die leër agter hulle aan. [20]Elkeen het sy man verslaan. Die Arameërs het op die vlug geslaan, en die Israeliete het hulle agtervolg. Koning Ben-Hadad van Aram het te perd saam met 'n aantal ruiters weggekom. [21]Die koning van Israel het uit sy stad gekom en die ruitery en die strydwamag verslaan. So het hy vir Aram 'n groot slag toegedien. [22]Die profeet het weer by die koning van Israel gekom en vir hom gesê: Gaan versterk u leër! Vra raad en dink goed na oor wat u doen, want vroeg volgende jaar val die koning van Aram u weer aan. [23]Die raadgewers van die koning van Aram het intussen vir hom gesê: Hulle gode is berggode en daarom was hulle sterker as ons. Ons moet hulle in die vlakte pak. Dan sal ons sterker wees as hulle. [24]U moet só maak: onthef al die konings van hulle verantwoordelikhede en stel goewerneurs in hulle plek aan. [25]Bring vir u self 'n leër op die been, net so sterk soos dié een wat verslaan is, met ruitery soos daardie en 'n strydwamag soos daardie. Dan pak ons hulle in die vlakte, en ons sal sterker wees as hulle. Ben-Hadad het na hulle raad geluister en so gemaak. [26]Vroeg die volgende jaar het Ben-Hadad die Aramese leër laat bymekaarkom en na Afek toe opgetrek om teen Israel oorlog te maak. [27]Die Israeliete was goed toegerus en het die Arameërs tegemoet getrek. Die Israeliete het teenoor die Arameërs kamp opgeslaan. Hulle was soos twee troppe bokke, en die wêreld was vol Arameërs. [28]Die man van God het by die koning van Israel gekom en gesê: So sê die Here: Omdat die Arameërs gesê het: Die Here is 'n berggod, Hy is nie 'n god van die vlaktes nie,' gaan Ek hierdie hele groot menigte in jou mag oorgee. Dan sal julle besef dat Ek die Here is. [29]Sewe dae lank het die leërs so teenoor mekaar gelê. Op die sewende dag het die geveg losgebreek, en die Israeliete het honderd duisend voetsoldate van die Arameërs op dié een dag verslaan. [30]Die res het die stad Afek in gevlug en die stadsmuur het op hulle omgeval. Hulle was sewe en twintig duisend man. Ben-Hadad het ook die stad in gevlug en daar van kamer tot kamer weggekruip. [31]Sy soldate sê toe vir hom: Ons het gehoor die Israelitiese konings is genadig. Kom ons trek rouklere aan en bind toue om ons koppe en gee ons oor aan die koning van Israel. Miskien spaar hy u lewe. [32]Hulle trek toe rouklere aan en bind toue om hulle koppe en lewer hulleself uit aan die koning van Israel. Ben-Hadad onderwerp hom aan u, sê hulle, en hy vra dat u sy lewe moet spaar. Toe sê Agab: Lewe hy nog? Hy is my broer! [33]Die manne het dit as 'n gunstige teken opgevat en haastig by sy opmerking aangesluit deur te sê: Ben-Hadad ís u broer. Agab sê toe: Gaan haal hom! Toe Ben-Hadad by hom kom, het Agab hom by hom op die strydwa laat klim. [34]Daar het Ben-Hadad vir hom gesê: Die stede wat my pa van jou pa afgevat het, sal ek teruggee. Jy mag ook vir jou 'n handelsbuurt inrig in Damaskus soos my pa in Samaria gedoen het. En ek sal jou laat gaan, sê koning Agab, nadat jy 'n verdrag met my gesluit het. Ben-Hadad het toe 'n verdrag met hom gesluit, en Agab het hom laat gaan. 35'n Profeet het in opdrag van die Here vir 'n vriend gesê: Slaan my tog! Maar hy het geweier om hom te slaan. 36Toe sê die profeet vir hom: Jy was ongehoorsaam aan die opdrag van die Here, en daarom sal 'n leeu jou verskeur wanneer jy van my af weggaan. Toe hy van hom af weggegaan het, het 'n leeu op hom afgekom en hom verskeur. 37Die profeet kry toe iemand anders en sê: Slaan my tog. Hy het die profeet geslaan; hy het hom selfs stukkend geslaan. 38Die profeet het die koning by die pad gaan staan en inwag: die profeet was onherkenbaar, hy het 'n verband oor sy oë gehad. 39Toe die koning daarlangs kom, het hy na die koning geroep en gesê: Ek het oorlog toe gegaan. Daar het iemand 'n man na my toe gebring en gesê: Pas hierdie man op! As hy ontsnap, kom jy in sy plek, of anders moet jy vier en dertig kilogram silwer betaal.' 40Maar ek was met ander dinge besig en toe ek kyk, is hy nie meer daar nie! Die koning van Israel sê toe vir hom: Jy het jou eie vonnis gevel. 41Die profeet het die verband van sy oë afgeruk sodat die koning van Israel kon sien dat hy 'n profeet is. 42Hy sê toe vir die koning: So sê die Here: Omdat jy die man wie se lewe Ek geëis het, vry laat weggaan het, sal jou lewe in die plek van sy lewe kom, en jou volk in die plek van sy volk. 43Toe het die koning van Israel bedruk en kwaad huis toe vertrek en in Samaria aangekom.

Naboth's Vineyard

1Ki 21:1 Near King Ahab's palace in Jezreel there was a vineyard owned by a man named Naboth.

1Ki 21:2 One day Ahab said to Naboth, "Let me have your vineyard; it is close to my palace, and I want to use the land for a vegetable garden. I will give you a better vineyard for it or, if you prefer, I will pay you a fair price."

1Ki 21:3 "I inherited this vineyard from my ancestors," Naboth replied. "The LORD forbid that I should let you have it!"

1Ki 21:4 Ahab went home, depressed and angry over what Naboth had said to him. He lay down on his bed, facing the wall, and would not eat.

1Ki 21:5 His wife Jezebel went to him and asked, "Why are you so depressed? Why won't you eat?"

1Ki 21:6 He answered, "Because of what Naboth said to me. I offered to buy his vineyard or, if he preferred, to give him another one for it, but he told me that I couldn't have it!"

1Ki 21:7 "Well, are you the king or aren't you?" Jezebel replied. "Get out of bed, cheer up, and eat. I will get you Naboth's vineyard!"

1Ki 21:8 Then she wrote some letters, signed Ahab's name to them, sealed them with his seal, and sent them to the officials and leading citizens of Jezreel.

1Ki 21:9 The letters said: "Proclaim a day of fasting, call the people together, and give Naboth the place of honor.

1Ki 21:10 Get a couple of scoundrels to accuse him to his face of cursing God and the king. Then take him out of the city and stone him to death."

1Ki 21:11 The officials and leading citizens of Jezreel did what Jezebel had commanded.

1Ki 21:12 They proclaimed a day of fasting, called the people together, and gave Naboth the place of honor.

1Ki 21:13 The two scoundrels publicly accused him of cursing God and the king, and so he was taken outside the city and stoned to death.

1Ki 21:14 The message was sent to Jezebel: "Naboth has been put to death."

1Ki 21:15 As soon as Jezebel received the message, she said to Ahab, "Naboth is dead. Now go and take possession of the vineyard which he refused to sell to you."

1Ki 21:16 At once Ahab went to the vineyard to take possession of it.

The Lord Condemns Ahab

1Ki 21:17 Then the LORD said to Elijah, the prophet from Tishbe, 1Ki 21:18 "Go to King Ahab of Samaria. You will find him in Naboth's vineyard, about to take possession of it.

1Ki 21:19 Tell him that I, the LORD, say to him, 'After murdering the man, are you taking over his property as well?' Tell him that this is what I say: 'In the very place that the dogs licked up Naboth's blood they will lick up your blood!' "

1Ki 21:20 When Ahab saw Elijah, he said, "Have you caught up with me, my enemy?" "Yes, I have," Elijah answered. "You have devoted yourself completely to doing what is wrong in the LORD's sight.

1Ki 21:21 So the LORD says to you, 'I will bring disaster on you. I will do away with you and get rid of every male in your family, young and old alike.

1Ki 21:22 Your family will become like the family of King Jeroboam son of Nebat and like the family of King Baasha son of Ahijah, because you have stirred up my anger by leading Israel into sin.'

1Ki 21:23 And concerning Jezebel, the LORD says that dogs will eat her body in the city of Jezreel.

1Ki 21:24 Any of your relatives who die in the city will be eaten by dogs, and any who die in the open country will be eaten by vultures."

Ahab's Repentance

1Ki 21:25 (There was no one else who had devoted himself so completely to doing wrong in the LORD's sight as Ahab—all at the urging of his wife Jezebel.

1Ki 21:26 He committed the most shameful sins by worshiping idols, as the Amorites had done, whom the LORD had driven out of the land as the people of Israel advanced.)

1Ki 21:27 When Elijah finished speaking, Ahab tore his clothes, took them off, and put on sackcloth. He refused food, slept in the sackcloth, and went about gloomy and depressed.

1Ki 21:28 The LORD said to the prophet Elijah,

1Ki 21:29 "Have you noticed how Ahab has humbled himself before me? Since he has done this, I will not bring disaster on him during his lifetime; it will be during his son's lifetime that I will bring disaster on Ahab's family."

1Hierna het die volgende gebeur: Nabot die Jisreëliet het in Jisreël 'n wingerd gehad langs die paleis van koning Agab van Samaria. 2Agab het met Nabot gaan praat en vir hom gesê: Gee jou wingerd vir my vir 'n kruietuin, want dit lê net langs my huis; dan gee ek jou 'n beter wingerd in die plek daarvan. Of as jy wil, sal ek jou daarvoor betaal. 3Maar Nabot het vir Agab geantwoord: Mag die Here my daarvan bewaar dat ek die erfgrond van my voorouers ooit aan u sou afstaan! 4Hierop het Agab bedruk en kwaad huis toe gegaan omdat Nabot die Jisreëliet vir hom gesê het: Ek sal nooit die erfgrond van my familie aan u afstaan nie. Hy het op sy bed gaan lê met sy gesig na die muur toe en hy wou niks eet nie. 5Toe kom sy vrou Isebel na hom toe en vra vir hom: Wat is jy so bedruk dat jy niks wil eet nie? 6Hy vertel haar toe: Ek het met Nabot die Jisreëliet gepraat en vir hom gesê: Verkoop jou wingerd aan my, of as jy wil, sal ek jou 'n ander wingerd in die plek daarvan gee.' Maar hy het gesê: Ek sal nooit my wingerd aan jou afstaan nie. 7Toe sê sy vrou Isebel vir hom: Jy is mos die een wat oor Israel regeer! Gaan eet nou en moet jou nie bekommer nie. Ék sal die wingerd van Nabot die Jisreëliet vir jou gee. 8Sy skryf toe briewe in die naam van Agab en sit sy seëlafdruk daarop, en sy stuur die briewe aan die leiers en die ampsdraers van Nabot se stad. 9Sy het geskryf: Kondig 'n vasdag aan en laat Nabot heel voor in die vergadering sit. 10Laat twee gewetelose manne teenoor hom sit en laat hulle teen hom getuig: Jy het 'n vloek uitgespreek teen God en teen die koning.' Vat hom dan uit en gooi hom met klippe dood. 11Die leiers en die ampsdraers in Nabot se stad het toe gedoen soos Isebel hulle beveel het in die briewe wat sy aan hulle gestuur het. 12Hulle het 'n vasdag aangekondig en vir Nabot heel voor in die vergadering laat sit. 13Toe kom sit daar twee gewetelose manne teenoor hom en hulle getuig teen Nabot in die vergadering en sê: Nabot het 'n vloek uitgespreek teen God en teen die koning. Daarop vat hulle vir Nabot uit die stad uit en gooi hom met klippe dood. 14Hierna het hulle vir Isebel laat weet: Nabot is met klippe doodgegooi. 15Toe Isebel hoor Nabot is doodgegooi, sê sy vir Agab: Gaan vat nou die wingerd van Nabot die Jisreëliet, wat hy nie aan jou wou verkoop nie. Nabot leef nie meer nie, hy is dood. 16Toe Agab hoor Nabot is dood, het hy klaargemaak om Nabot die Jisreëliet se wingerd vir hom te vat. 17Die woord van die Here het toe tot Elia die Tisbiet gekom en vir hom gesê: 18Maak klaar en gaan ontmoet vir Agab wat in Samaria as koning oor Israel regeer. Hy is nou by die wingerd van Nabot, wat hy gaan vat het. 19Jy moet vir Agab sê: So sê die Here: Jy het gemoor en nou vat jy ook nog?' Sê verder vir hom: So sê die Here: Op dieselfde plek waar die honde die bloed van Nabot opgelek het, sal hulle jou bloed ook oplek. Ja, joune! [20]Toe Agab dit hoor, vra hy vir Elia: Het jy my gekry, my vyand? Elia het geantwoord: Ek het jou gekry. Die Here sê vir jou: Omdat jy jou daaraan oorgegee het om te doen wat verkeerd is in my oë, [21]gaan Ek 'n ramp oor jou bring en jou vernietig. Ek gaan al die manlikes in Agab se geslag sonder enige uitsondering uit Israel uitroei. [22]Omdat jy My uitgetart het en omdat jy Israel laat sondig het, sal Ek met jou huis maak soos met die huis van Jerobeam seun van Nebat en soos met die huis van Baesa seun van Agija.' [23]En oor Isebel het die Here gesê: Die honde sal Isebel opvreet by die voorste muur van Jisreël. [24]Wie uit Agab se familie in die stad sterf, die honde sal hom opvreet, en wie in die oop veld sterf, die roofvoëls sal hom vreet. [25]Daar was nooit iemand wat hom soos Agab daaraan oorgegee het om te doen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here nie. Sy vrou Isebel het hom daartoe aangehits. [26]Agab het afskuwelik opgetree deur die afgode te dien net soos die Amoriete wie se besittings die Here aan die Israeliete gegee het. [27]Toe Agab al hierdie woorde hoor, het hy sy klere geskeur en rouklere om sy lyf gehang en gevas. Hy het selfs met rouklere gaan slaap, en heeltyd bedruk rondgeloop. [28]Daarom het die woord van die Here tot Elia die Tisbiet gekom en gesê: [29]Het jy gesien Agab het hom voor My verootmoedig? Omdat hy hom voor My verootmoedig het, sal Ek die ramp nie tydens sý lewe laat plaasvind nie. Tydens die bewind van sy seun sal Ek die ramp oor sy familie bring.

1Kings 22

Ahab and the False Prophets

1Ki 22:1 There was peace between Israel and Syria for the next two years, 1Ki 22:2 but in the third year King Jehoshaphat of Judah went to see King Ahab of Israel.

1Ki 22:3 Ahab asked his officials, "Why is it that we have not done anything to get back Ramoth in Gilead from the king of Syria? It belongs to us!"

1Ki 22:4 And Ahab asked Jehoshaphat, "Will you go with me to attack Ramoth?" "I am ready when you are," Jehoshaphat answered, "and so are my soldiers and my cavalry.

1Ki 22:5 But first let's consult the LORD."

1Ki 22:6 So Ahab called in the prophets, about four hundred of them, and asked them, "Should I go and attack Ramoth, or not?" "Attack it," they answered. "The Lord will give you victory."

1Ki 22:7 But Jehoshaphat asked, "Isn't there another prophet through whom we can consult the LORD?"

1Ki 22:8 Ahab answered, "There is one more, Micaiah son of Imlah. But I hate him because he never prophesies anything good for me; it's always something bad." "You shouldn't say that!" Jehoshaphat replied.

1Ki 22:9 Then Ahab called in a court official and told him to go and get Micaiah at once.

1Ki 22:10 The two kings, dressed in their royal robes, were sitting on their thrones at the threshing place just outside the gate of Samaria, and all the prophets were prophesying in front of them.

1Ki 22:11 One of them, Zedekiah son of Chenaanah, made iron horns and said to Ahab, "This is what the LORD says: 'With these you will fight the Syrians and totally defeat them.' "

1Ki 22:12 All the other prophets said the same thing. "March against Ramoth and you will win," they said. "The LORD will give you victory."

Micaiah Prophesies Against Ahab

1Ki 22:13 Meanwhile, the official who had gone to get Micaiah said to him, "All the other prophets have prophesied success for the king, and you had better do the same."

1Ki 22:14 But Micaiah answered, "By the living LORD I promise that I will say what he tells me to!"

1Ki 22:15 When he appeared before King Ahab, the king asked him, "Micaiah, should King Jehoshaphat and I go and attack Ramoth, or not?" "Attack!" Micaiah answered. "Of course you'll win. The LORD will give you victory."

1Ki 22:16 But Ahab replied, "When you speak to me in the name of the LORD, tell the truth! How many times do I have to tell you that?"

1Ki 22:17 Micaiah answered, "I can see the army of Israel scattered over the hills like sheep without a shepherd. And the LORD said, 'These men have no leader; let them go home in peace.' "

1Ki 22:18 Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "Didn't I tell you that he never prophesies anything good for me? It's always something bad!"

1Ki 22:19 Micaiah went on: "Now listen to what the LORD says! I saw the LORD sitting on his throne in heaven, with all his angels standing beside him.

1Ki 22:20 The LORD asked, 'Who will deceive Ahab so that he will go and be killed at Ramoth?' Some of the angels said one thing, and others said something else,

1Ki 22:21 until a spirit stepped forward, approached the LORD, and said, 'I will deceive him.'

1Ki 22:22 'How?' the LORD asked. The spirit replied, 'I will go and make all of Ahab's prophets tell lies.' The LORD said, 'Go and deceive him. You will succeed.' "

1Ki 22:23 And Micaiah concluded: "This is what has happened. The LORD has made these prophets of yours lie to you. But he himself has decreed that you will meet with disaster!"

1Ki 22:24 Then the prophet Zedekiah went up to Micaiah, slapped his face, and asked, "Since when did the LORD's spirit leave me and speak to you?"

1Ki 22:25 "You will find out when you go into some back room to hide," Micaiah replied.

1Ki 22:26 Then King Ahab ordered one of his officers, "Arrest Micaiah and take him to Amon, the governor of the city, and to Prince Joash.

1Ki 22:27 Tell them to throw him in prison and to put him on bread and water until I return safely."

1Ki 22:28 "If you return safely," Micaiah exclaimed, "then the LORD has not spoken through me!" And he added, "Listen, everyone, to what I have said!"

Ahab Killed in Battle

1Ki 22:29 Then King Ahab of Israel and King Jehoshaphat of Judah went to attack the city of Ramoth in Gilead.

1Ki 22:30 Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "As we go into battle, I will disguise myself, but you wear your royal garments." So the king of Israel went into battle in disguise.

1Ki 22:31 The king of Syria had ordered his thirty-two chariot commanders to attack no one else except the king of Israel.

1Ki 22:32 So when they saw King Jehoshaphat, they all thought that he was the king of Israel, and they turned to attack him. But when he cried out, 1Ki 22:33 they realized that he was not the king of Israel, and they stopped their attack.

1Ki 22:34 By chance, however, a Syrian soldier shot an arrow which struck King Ahab between the joints of his armor. "I'm wounded!" he cried out to his chariot driver. "Turn around and pull out of the battle!"

1Ki 22:35 While the battle raged on, King Ahab remained propped up in his chariot, facing the Syrians. The blood from his wound ran down and covered the bottom of the chariot, and at evening he died.

1Ki 22:36 Near sunset the order went out through the Israelite ranks: "Each of you go back to your own country and city!"

1Ki 22:37 So died King Ahab. His body was taken to Samaria and buried.

1Ki 22:38 His chariot was cleaned up at the pool of Samaria, where dogs licked up his blood and prostitutes washed themselves, as the LORD had said would happen.

1Ki 22:39 Everything else that King Ahab did, including an account of his palace decorated with ivory and of all the cities he built, is recorded in The History of the Kings of Israel.

1Ki 22:40 At his death his son Ahaziah succeeded him as king.

Jehoshaphat Reigns in Judah

1Ki 22:41 In the fourth year of the reign of King Ahab of Israel, Jehoshaphat son of Asa became king of Judah

1Ki 22:42 at the age of thirty-five, and he ruled in Jerusalem for twenty-five years. His mother was Azubah, the daughter of Shilhi.

1Ki 22:43 Like his father Asa before him, he did what was right in the sight of the LORD; but the places of worship were not destroyed, and the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense there.

1Ki 22:44 Jehoshaphat made peace with the king of Israel.

1Ki 22:45 Everything else that Jehoshaphat did, all his bravery and his battles, are recorded in The History of the Kings of Judah.

1Ki 22:47 The land of Edom had no king; it was ruled by a deputy appointed by the king of Judah.

1Ki 22:48 King Jehoshaphat had ocean-going ships built to sail to the land of Ophir for gold; but they were wrecked at Eziongeber and never sailed.

1Ki 22:49 Then King Ahaziah of Israel offered to let his men sail with Jehoshaphat's men, but Jehoshaphat refused the offer.

1Ki 22:50 Jehoshaphat died and was buried in the royal tombs in David's City, and his son Jehoram succeeded him as king.

Ahaziah Reigns in Israel

1Ki 22:51 In the seventeenth year of the reign of King Jehoshaphat of Judah, Ahaziah son of Ahab became king of Israel, and he ruled in Samaria for two years.

1Ki 22:52 He sinned against the LORD, following the wicked example of his father Ahab, his mother Jezebel, and King Jeroboam, who had led Israel into sin.

1Ki 22:53 He worshiped and served Baal, and like his father before him, he aroused the anger of the LORD, the God of Israel.

I KONINGS 22

voorspel vir my nie iets wat goed is nie, net die slegste. [19]En Miga praat verder: Hoor die woord van die Here! Ek het die Here op sy troon sien sit met die hele hemelse leërmag wat weerskante van Hom staan. [20]En die Here het gesê: Wie sal vir Agab so ver kry dat hy na Ramot in Gilead toe gaan en daar sneuwel?' Die een het toe dit gesê en die ander dat, [21]totdat die gees vorentoe kom en voor die Here gaan staan en gesê het: Ek sal hom so ver kry.' En toe die Here vir hom vra: Hoe?' [22]sê die Gees: Ek sal uitgaan en 'n leuengees word in die mond van al sy profete.' Toe sê die Here: Jy sal hom so ver kry. Gaan doen dit, jy sal dit regkry.' [23]So het die Here 'n leuengees in die mond van al hierdie profete van u laat kom, maar die Here het in werklikheid vir u 'n ramp aangekondig. [24]Toe kom Sedekia seun van Kenaäna nader en hy slaan vir Miga op die kakebeen en sê: Met watter pad is die Gees van die Here van my af weg om met jou te praat? [25]En Miga antwoord: Dit sal jy sien die dag as jy in een donker kamer na die ander probeer wegkruip. [26]Die koning van Israel het toe beveel: Vat vir Miga weg en bring hom na Amon, die stadsbevelvoerder, en na prins Joas toe. [27]Sê vir hulle die koning sê hulle moet hierdie man in die tronk sit en hom 'n skraal rantsoen kos en water gee tot ek behoue terugkom. [28]Maar Miga het gesê: As u ooit behoue terugkom, het die Here nie deur my gepraat nie. Verder het hy gesê: Hoor dit, alle manskappe. [29]Die koning van Israel en koning Josafat van Juda is toe na Ramot in Gilead toe. [30]Die koning van Israel het vir Josafat gesê: Ek gaan my vermom voor ek in die geveg betrokke raak. Hou jy jou koninklike gewaad aan. Die koning van Israel het hom toe vermom en so die geveg ingegaan. [31]Die Aramese koning het die aanvoerders van sy twee en dertig strydwaens opdrag gegee: Spits die geveg toe op die koning van Israel, moenie aan die ander aandag gee nie, klein of groot. [32]Toe die aanvoerders van sy strydwaens vir Josafat sien, sê hulle: Daar is die koning van Israel! en hulle het op hom toegesak. Josafat het om hulp geroep. [33]Die aanvoerders van die strydwaens het gesien dit is nie die koning van Israel nie en het die agtervolging gestaak. [34]Iemand het egter losweg 'n pyl afgeskiet, en dié het die koning van Israel getref tussen die skubbe van sy harnas en die borsplaat. Hy sê toe vir sy drywer: Ruk die perde om en bring my uit die geveg uit. Ek is gewond. [35]Die geveg was dié dag egter so hewig dat die koning die hele tyd teenoor die Arameërs op sy strydwa moes bly staan. Teen laatmiddag is hy dood. Die bloed uit sy wond het in die bak van die strydwa ingeloop. [36]Net voor sononder is daar in die kamp geroep: Elkeen na sy stad toe, elkeen na sy land toe! [37]Die koning was al dood toe hy in Samaria aankom, en hulle het hom daar in Samaria begrawe. [38]Toe hulle die strydwa uitspoel by die dam van Samaria waar die prostitute hulle was, het die honde sy bloed opgelek. Dit het gebeur in ooreenstemming met die woord van die Here. 39Die ander verhale oor Agab en alles wat hy gedoen het, en oor die huis met ivoorinlegwerk wat hy gebou het en oor al die stede wat hy gebou het, is opgeteken in die annale van die konings van Israel. 40Toe Agab oorlede is, het sy seun Ahasia hom as koning opgevolg. 41Josafat seun van Asa het koning van Juda geword in die vierde regeringsjaar van koning Agab van Israel. 42Josafat was vyf en dertig toe hy koning geword het, en hy het vyf en twintig jaar in Jerusalem geregeer. Sy ma was Asuba 'n dogter van Silgi. 43Hy het die pad van Asa, sy pa, geloop en daar nie van afgewyk nie. Hy het gedoen wat reg is in die oë van die Here. 44Die hoogtes het egter nie verdwyn nie, en die volk het nog steeds daarop offers gebring en wierook gebrand. 45Josafat het die vrede bewaar met die koning van Israel. 46Die ander verhale oor Josafat se regering, oor die heldedade wat hy gedoen en die oorloë wat hy gevoer het, is opgeteken in die annale van die konings van Juda. 47Josafat het die tempelprostitute wat nog uit die dae van sy pa oorgebly het, uit die land verban. 48Daar was nie toe 'n koning in Edom nie; 'n goewerneur het as koning waargeneem. 49Josafat het skepe van Tarsis gekry waarmee hy goud wou gaan haal in Ofir. Dit het egter nie plaasgevind nie omdat die skepe skipbreuk gely het in Esjon-Geber. 50Ahasia seun van Agab het toe by Josafat aangedring: Laat my manne saam met joune met die skepe vaar, maar Josafat wou nie. 51Josafat is oorlede, en hy is begrawe in die familiegraf in die Dawidstad. Sy seun Joram het hom as koning opgevolg. 52Ahasia seun van Agab het in Samaria koning van Israel geword in die sewentiende regeringsjaar van koning Josafat van Juda. Hy het twee jaar oor Israel geregeer. 53Hy het gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here. Hy het die pad geloop van sy pa en sy ma, en van Jerobeam seun van Nebat wat vir Israel laat sondig het. 54Hy het Baäl gedien en aanbid. Hy het ook die Here die God van Israel uitgetart, net soos sy pa gedoen het.

Elijah Denounces Ahaziah

2Ki 1:1 After the death of King Ahab of Israel the country of Moab rebelled against Israel.

2Ki 1:2 King Ahaziah of Israel fell off the balcony on the roof of his palace in Samaria and was seriously injured. So he sent some messengers to consult Baalzebub, the god of the Philistine city of Ekron, in order to find out whether or not he would recover.

2Ki 1:3 But an angel of the LORD commanded Elijah, the prophet from Tishbe, to go and meet the messengers of King Ahaziah and ask them, "Why are you going to consult Baalzebub, the god of Ekron? Is it because you think there is no god in Israel?

2Ki 1:4 Tell the king that the LORD says, 'You will not recover from your injuries; you will die!' " Elijah did as the LORD commanded, 2Ki 1:5 and the messengers returned to the king. "Why have you come back?" he asked.

2Ki 1:6 They answered, "We were met by a man who told us to come back and tell you that the LORD says to you, 'Why are you sending messengers to consult Baalzebub, the god of Ekron? Is it because you think there is no god in Israel? You will not recover from your injuries; you will die!' "

2Ki 1:7 "What did the man look like?" the king asked.

2Ki 1:8 "He was wearing a cloak made of animal skins, tied with a leather belt," they answered. "It's Elijah!" the king exclaimed.

2Ki 1:9 Then he sent an officer with fifty men to get Elijah. The officer found him sitting on a hill and said to him, "Man of God, the king orders you to come down."

2Ki 1:10 "If I am a man of God," Elijah answered, "may fire come down from heaven and kill you and your men!" At once fire came down and killed the officer and his men.

2Ki 1:11 The king sent another officer with fifty men, who went up and said to Elijah, "Man of God, the king orders you to come down at once!"

2Ki 1:12 "If I am a man of God," Elijah answered, "may fire come down from heaven and kill you and your men!" At once the fire of God came down and killed the officer and his men.

2Ki 1:13 Once more the king sent an officer with fifty men. He went up the hill, fell on his knees in front of Elijah, and pleaded, "Man of God, be merciful to me and my men. Spare our lives!

2Ki 1:14 The two other officers and their men were killed by fire from heaven; but please be merciful to me!"

2Ki 1:15 The angel of the LORD said to Elijah, "Go down with him, and don't be afraid." So Elijah went with the officer to the king

2Ki 1:16 and said to him, "This is what the LORD says: 'Because you sent messengers to consult Baalzebub, the god of Ekron—as if there were no god in Israel to consult—you will not get well; you will die!' "

2Ki 1:17 Ahaziah died, as the LORD had said through Elijah. Ahaziah had no sons, so his brother Joram succeeded him as king in the second year of the reign of Jehoram son of Jehoshaphat, king of Judah.

2Ki 1:18 Everything else that King Ahaziah did is recorded in The History of the Kings of Israel.

II KONINGS 1

[1]Na die dood van Agab het Moab in opstand gekom teen Israel. [2]Ahasia het in Samaria deur sy bokamer se traliewerk geval en hom ernstig beseer. Hy het boodskappers gestuur met die opdrag: Gaan raadpleeg vir Baäl-Sebub die god van Ekron om te hoor of ek hierdie besering sal oorleef. [3]Maar die Engel van die Here het vir Elia die Tisbiet gesê: Loop gou die boodskappers van die koning van Samaria tegemoet en sê vir hulle: Is daar dan geen God in Israel nie dat julle vir Baäl-Sebub die god van Ekron gaan raadpleeg? [4]Daarom sê die Here vir die koning: Jy sal nie opstaan uit die bed waarin jy gaan lê het nie. Jy gaan sterf. Toe vertrek Elia, [5]en die boodskappers het omgedraai na die koning toe. Hy vra hulle toe: Waarom het julle omgedraai? [6]Hulle het hom geantwoord: 'n Man het ons tegemoet geloop en vir ons gesê: Gaan terug na die koning wat vir julle gestuur het en sê vir hom: So sê die Here: Is daar dan geen God in Israel nie dat jy boodskappers stuur om Baäl-Sebub die god van Ekron te raadpleeg? Daarom sal jy nie opstaan uit die bed waarin jy gaan lê het nie. Jy gaan sterf. [7]Die koning vra hulle toe: Hoe het die man gelyk wat vir julle tegemoet geloop en hierdie dinge vir julle gesê het? [8]Hulle het geantwoord: Dit was 'n man met velklere aan en met 'n velgordel om sy middel. Daarop sê die koning: Dit moet Elia die Tisbiet wees. [9]Hy stuur toe 'n offisier met vyftig manskappe na Elia toe. Die offisier het na Elia toe opgeklim waar hy op die top van 'n berg gesit het. Die offisier het vir hom gesê: Man van God, die koning het beveel jy moet afkom na hom toe. [10]Toe antwoord Elia die offisier: So seker as ek 'n man van God is, daar sal vuur uit die hemel uit afkom en jou en jou vyftig man verteer! Daar het toe vuur uit die hemel uit afgekom en die offisier en sy vyftig manskappe verteer. [11]Die koning stuur toe 'n ander offisier met vyftig man na Elia toe om hom te beveel: Man van God, die koning sê: jy moet vinnig na hom toe kom. [12]Elia het hom geantwoord: So seker as ek 'n man van God is, daar sal vuur uit die hemel uit afkom en jou en jou vyftig man verteer! Daar het toe 'n vuur van God uit die hemel uit afgekom en dit het die offisier en sy vyftig man verteer. [13]Die koning stuur toe 'n derde keer 'n offisier met sy vyftig man. Die derde offisier is die berg op. By Elia aangekom, het hy op sy knieë voor hom geval en hom om genade gesmeek: Man van God, spaar tog asseblief my lewe en die lewe van hierdie vyftig man. [14]Daar het vuur uit die hemel uit afgekom en dit het die twee offisiere wat vroeër gekom het, saam met hulle manskappe verteer. Spaar nou asseblief my lewe! [15]Die Engel van die Here het vir Elia gesê: Klim af saam met hom, moenie vir hom bang wees nie. Elia is toe saam met hom die berg af na die koning toe.

Elijah Taken to Heaven

2Ki 2:1 The time came for the LORD to take Elijah up to heaven in a whirlwind. Elijah and Elisha set out from Gilgal, 2Ki 2:2 and on the way Elijah said to Elisha, "Now stay here; the LORD has ordered me to go to Bethel." But Elisha answered, "I swear by my loyalty to the living LORD and to you that I will not leave you." So they went on to Bethel.

2Ki 2:3 A group of prophets who lived there went to Elisha and asked him, "Do you know that the LORD is going to take your master away from you today?" "Yes, I know," Elisha answered. "But let's not talk about it."

2Ki 2:4 Then Elijah said to Elisha, "Now stay here; the LORD has ordered me to go to Jericho." But Elisha answered, "I swear by my loyalty to the living LORD and to you that I will not leave you." So they went on to Jericho.

2Ki 2:5 A group of prophets who lived there went to Elisha and asked him, "Do you know that the LORD is going to take your master away from you today?" "Yes, I know," Elisha answered. "But let's not talk about it."

2Ki 2:6 Then Elijah said to Elisha, "Now stay here; the LORD has ordered me to go to the Jordan River." But Elisha answered, "I swear by my loyalty to the living LORD and to you that I will not leave you." So they went on, 2Ki 2:7 and fifty of the prophets followed them to the Jordan. Elijah and Elisha stopped by the river, and the fifty prophets stood a short distance away.

2Ki 2:8 Then Elijah took off his cloak, rolled it up, and struck the water with it; the water divided, and he and Elisha crossed to the other side on dry ground.

2Ki 2:9 There, Elijah said to Elisha, "Tell me what you want me to do for you before I am taken away." "Let me receive the share of your power that will make me your successor," Elisha answered.

2Ki 2:10 "That is a difficult request to grant," Elijah replied. "But you will receive it if you see me as I am being taken away from you; if you don't see me, you won't receive it."

2Ki 2:11 They kept talking as they walked on; then suddenly a chariot of fire pulled by horses of fire came between them, and Elijah was taken up to heaven by a whirlwind.

2Ki 2:12 Elisha saw it and cried out to Elijah, "My father, my father! Mighty defender of Israel! You are gone!" And he never saw Elijah again. In grief Elisha tore his cloak in two.

2Ki 2:13 Then he picked up Elijah's cloak that had fallen from him, and went back and stood on the bank of the Jordan.

2Ki 2:14 He struck the water with Elijah's cloak and said, "Where is the LORD, the God of Elijah?" Then he struck the water again, and it divided, and he walked over to the other side.

Elisha Succeeds Elijah

2Ki 2:15 The fifty prophets from Jericho saw him and said, "The power of Elijah is on Elisha!" They went to meet him, bowed down before him, 2Ki 2:16 and said, "There are fifty of us here, all strong men. Let us go and look for your master. Maybe the spirit of the LORD has carried him away and left him on some mountain or in some valley." "No, you must not go," Elisha answered.

2Ki 2:17 But they insisted until he gave in and let them go. The fifty of them went and looked high and low for Elijah for three days, but didn't find him.

2Ki 2:18 Then they returned to Elisha, who had waited at Jericho, and he said to them, "Didn't I tell you not to go?"

2Ki 2:19 Some men from Jericho went to Elisha and said, "As you know, sir, this is a fine city, but the water is bad and causes miscarriages."

2Ki 2:20 "Put some salt in a new bowl and bring it to me," he ordered. They brought it to him,

2Ki 2:21 and he went to the spring, threw the salt in the water, and said, "This is what the LORD says: 'I make this water pure, and it will not cause any more deaths or miscarriages.' "

2Ki 2:22 And that water has been pure ever since, just as Elisha said it would be.

2Ki 2:23 Elisha left Jericho to go to Bethel, and on the way some boys came out of a town and made fun of him. "Get out of here, baldy!" they shouted.

2Ki 2:24 Elisha turned around, glared at them, and cursed them in the name of the LORD. Then two she-bears came out of the woods and tore forty-two of the boys to pieces.

2Ki 2:25 Elisha went on to Mount Carmel and later returned to Samaria.

II KONINGS 2

1Die tyd het gekom dat die Here vir Elia in 'n stormwind in die hemel sou opneem. Elia en Elisa het uit Gilgal vertrek, 2en Elia het vir Elisa gesê: Bly hier, want die Here stuur my na Bet-El toe. Elisa se antwoord was: So seker as die Here leef en u leef, ek sal u nie alleen laat gaan nie. Hulle is toe na Bet-El toe. 3Die profete wat in Bet-El was, het na Elisa toe gegaan en hom gevra: Weet jy dat die Here vandag jou leermeester van jou af gaan wegvat? Hy het geantwoord: Ja, ek weet. Moenie daaroor praat nie. 4Elia sê toe vir Elisa: Bly hier, want die Here stuur my na Jerigo toe. Maar Elisa het geantwoord: So seker as die Here leef en u leef, ek sal u nie alleen laat gaan nie. Hulle het saam in Jerigo aangekom. 5Die profete van Jerigo het na Elisa toe gekom en hom gevra: Weet jy dat die Here vandag jou leermeester van jou af gaan wegvat? Hy het geantwoord: Ja, ek weet. Moenie daaroor praat nie. 6Elia sê toe vir hom: Bly hier, want die Here stuur my na die Jordaan toe. Maar Elisa het geantwoord: So seker as die Here leef en u leef, ek sal u nie alleen laat gaan nie. Hulle twee is toe saam verder. 7'n Vyftigtal van die profete is agterna en het op 'n afstand gaan staan regoor die plek waar Elia langs die Jordaan gestaan het. 8Elia het sy mantel gevat, dit opgerol en die water daarmee geslaan. Die water het na links en na regs verdeel, sodat hulle twee op droë grond daar deur is. 9Net toe hulle deur is, sê Elia vir Elisa: Wat wil jy hê moet ek vir jou doen voordat ek van jou af weggevat word? Elisa het geantwoord: Mag daar tog 'n dubbele deel van u gees op my kom! 10Toe sê Elia: Dis 'n moeilike ding wat jy vra. As jy my sien wanneer ek van jou af weggevat word, mag dit dan met jou gebeur; maar as jy my nie sien nie, sal dit nie gebeur nie. 11Terwyl hulle gesels-gesels verder gegaan het, was daar skielik 'n wa van vuur met perde van vuur wat hulle twee van mekaar geskei het, en Elia is in 'n stormwind op, die hemel in. 12Toe Elisa dit sien, het hy uitgeroep: My vader, my vader, u was vir Israel die strydwa met sy ruiters! Toe Elisa nie meer vir Elia kon sien nie, het hy sy eie klere gevat en in twee stukke geskeur. 13Hy het die mantel wat van Elia afgeval het, opgetel en weer op die wal van die Jordaan gaan staan. 14Hy het met hierdie mantel wat van Elia afgeval het, op die water geslaan en gesê: Waar is die Here die God van Elia? Waar is Hy? Toe Elisa die water slaan, het dit na links en na regs verdeel sodat hy kon deurgaan. 15Toe die profete van Jerigo wat 'n entjie daarvandaan gestaan het, hom sien, het hulle gesê: Die gees van Elia rus nou op Elisa. Hulle het hom tegemoet geloop en voor hom gebuig. 16Hulle sê toe vir hom: Daar is vyftig dapper manne onder ons; laat hulle tog u leermeester gaan soek: dalk het die Gees van die Here hom opgelig en êrens op 'n berg of in 'n vallei neergelaat. Elisa het geantwoord: Moet hulle nie stuur nie. [17]Maar hulle het by hom bly aandring totdat hy nie meer kon weier nie, en toe sê hy: Stuur hulle dan maar. Hulle het vyftig man gestuur, maar hoewel hulle drie dae lank gesoek het, kon hulle Elia nie kry nie. [18]Toe hulle terugkom in Jerigo waar Elisa oorgebly het, het hy vir hulle gesê: Het ek nie vir julle gesê julle moenie gaan nie? [19]Die inwoners van die stad het vir Elisa gesê: U sien self hoe mooi ons stad geleë is, maar die water is giftig en die oes uit die grond veroorsaak misgeboortes. [20]Elisa sê toe: Bring vir my 'n nuwe skottel en gooi sout daarin. Hulle het dit na hom toe gevat. [21]Hy het uitgegaan na die plek waar die water uitkom en die sout daar ingegooi, met die woorde: So sê die Here: Ek maak hierdie water bruikbaar sodat dit nie meer dood of onvrugbaarheid sal veroorsaak nie. [22]Die water is vandag nog bruikbaar, net soos Elisa gesê het. [23]Elisa is daarvandaan op na Bet-El toe. Terwyl hy op pad was daarnatoe, het 'n klomp klein seuntjies uit die stad gekom en hom gespot: Hoër op, kaalkop! Hoër op, kaalkop! [24]Hy het omgedraai, hulle aangekyk en hulle vervloek in die Naam van die Here. Twee bere het uit die bos gekom en twee en veertig van die kinders verskeur. [25]Van Bet-El af is Elisa na Karmelberg toe en daarvandaan na Samaria toe.

Moab Rebels Against Israel

2Ki 3:1 In the eighteenth year of the reign of King Jehoshaphat of Judah, Joram son of Ahab became king of Israel, and he ruled in Samaria for twelve years.

2Ki 3:2 He sinned against the LORD, but he was not as bad as his father or his mother Jezebel; he pulled down the image his father had made for the worship of Baal.

2Ki 3:3 Yet, like King Jeroboam son of Nebat before him, he led Israel into sin and would not stop.

2Ki 3:4 King Mesha of Moab raised sheep, and every year he gave as tribute to the king of Israel 100,000 lambs and the wool from 100,000 sheep.

2Ki 3:5 But when King Ahab of Israel died, Mesha rebelled against Israel.

2Ki 3:6 At once King Joram left Samaria and gathered all his troops.

2Ki 3:7 He sent word to King Jehoshaphat of Judah: "The king of Moab has rebelled against me; will you join me in war against him?" "I will," King Jehoshaphat replied. "I am at your disposal, and so are my men and my horses.

2Ki 3:8 What route shall we take for the attack?" "We will go the long way through the wilderness of Edom," Joram answered.

2Ki 3:9 So King Joram and the kings of Judah and Edom set out. After marching seven days, they ran out of water, and there was none left for the men or the pack animals.

2Ki 3:10 "We're done for!" King Joram exclaimed. "The LORD has put the three of us at the mercy of the king of Moab!"

2Ki 3:11 King Jehoshaphat asked, "Is there a prophet here through whom we can consult the LORD?" An officer of King Joram's forces answered, "Elisha son of Shaphat is here. He was Elijah's assistant."

2Ki 3:12 "He is a true prophet," King Jehoshaphat said. So the three kings went to Elisha.

2Ki 3:13 "Why should I help you?" Elisha said to the king of Israel. "Go and consult those prophets that your father and mother consulted." "No!" Joram replied. "It is the LORD who has put us three kings at the mercy of the king of Moab."

2Ki 3:14 Elisha answered, "By the living LORD, whom I serve, I swear that I would have nothing to do with you if I didn't respect your ally, King Jehoshaphat of Judah.

2Ki 3:15 Now get me a musician." As the musician played his harp, the power of the LORD came on Elisha, 2Ki 3:16 and he said, "This is what the LORD says: 'Dig ditches all over this dry stream bed.

2Ki 3:17 Even though you will not see any rain or wind, this stream bed will be filled with water, and you, your livestock, and your pack animals will have plenty to drink.' "

2Ki 3:18 And Elisha continued, "But this is an easy thing for the LORD to do; he will also give you victory over the Moabites.

2Ki 3:19 You will conquer all their beautiful fortified cities; you will cut down all their fruit trees, stop all their springs, and ruin all their fertile fields by covering them with stones."

2Ki 3:20 The next morning, at the time of the regular morning sacrifice, water came flowing from the direction of Edom and covered the ground.

2Ki 3:21 When the Moabites heard that the three kings had come to attack them, all the men who could bear arms, from the oldest to the youngest, were called out and stationed at the border.

2Ki 3:22 When they got up the following morning, the sun was shining on the water, making it look as red as blood.

2Ki 3:23 "It's blood!" they exclaimed. "The three enemy armies must have fought and killed each other! Let's go and loot their camp!"

2Ki 3:24 But when they reached the camp, the Israelites attacked them and drove them back. The Israelites kept up the pursuit, slaughtering the Moabites

2Ki 3:27 So he took his oldest son, who was to succeed him as king, and offered him on the city wall as a sacrifice to the god of Moab. The Israelites were terrified and so they drew back from the city and returned to their own country.

II KONINGS 3

1Joram seun van Agab het in Samaria koning oor Israel geword in die agtiende regeringsjaar van koning Josafat van Juda. Hy was twaalf jaar lank koning. 2Hy het gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here, maar nie so erg soos sy pa en ma nie: hy het darem die klippilaar van Baäl wat deur sy pa gemaak is, verwyder. 3Tog het hy volhard in die sondes wat Jerobeam seun van Nebat vir Israel laat doen het; hy het dit nie laat vaar nie. 4Koning Mesa van Moab was 'n skaapboer wat honderd duisend lammers en die wol van honderd duisend ramme aan die koning van Israel moes lewer. 5Toe Agab dood is, het die koning van Moab teen die koning van Israel gerebelleer. 6Koning Joram het onmiddellik uit Samaria vertrek en die hele Israel onder die wapen gebring. 7Hy het aan koning Josafat van Juda die volgende boodskap gestuur: Die koning van Moab het teen my gerebelleer. Gaan jy hom saam met my aanval? Josafat het geantwoord: Ek sal saam met jou opruk. Ek en jy is een. My manskappe is jou manskappe, en my perde is jou perde. 8Met watter pad sal ons opruk? het Joram gevra. Met die pad deur die Edomwoestyn, het Josafat geantwoord. 9Die koning van Israel, die koning van Juda en die koning van Edom het saam opgetrek. Nadat hulle sewe dae gevorder het, was daar nie meer water vir die manskappe en vir die diere by hulle nie. 10Toe sê die koning van Israel: Helaas, die Here het hierdie drie konings geroep net om hulle in die mag van Moab oor te gee. 11Maar Josafat het gevra: Is hier nie 'n profeet van die Here deur wie ons die Here kan raadpleeg nie? Een van die amptenare van die koning van Israel het geantwoord: Elisa seun van Safat is hier. Hy het sy opleiding by Elia gekry. 12Toe het Josafat gesê: Die woord van die Here is by Elisa. Daarna het Josafat en die konings van Israel en Edom na Elisa toe gegaan. 13Elisa het vir die koning van Israel gesê: Het ons nog iets vir mekaar te sê? Gaan na die profete van jou pa en jou ma toe. Maar die koning van Israel het vir hom gesê: Nee, dit is tog die Here wat hierdie drie konings geroep het net om hulle in die mag van Moab oor te gee. 14Elisa het geantwoord: So seker as die Here die Almagtige lewe, in wie se diens ek is, as dit nie was dat ek agting het vir die persoon van koning Josafat van Juda nie, sou ek my nie eens verwerdig het om na jou te kyk nie. 15Bring nou vir my 'n lierspeler. Terwyl die lierspeler gespeel het, het die mag van die Here vir Elisa in besit geneem, 16en hy het gesê: So sê die Here: Daar sal damme en damme water in hierdie vallei staan. 17Kyk, so sê die Here: Julle sal nie wind of reën sien nie, en tog sal hierdie vallei vol water word, sodat julle en julle slagvee en julle pakdiere kan drink. 18Vir die Here is dit maar iets gerings om te doen: Hy sal ook vir Moab in julle mag oorgee. 19Julle sal al hulle vestingstede, die uitsoekstede, inneem, al die mooi bome uitkap, al die fonteine toestop, en al die mooi lande vol klippe gooi. 20Die volgende môre, teen die tyd dat die offer gewoonlik gebring word, het daar onverwags water uit die rigting van Edom gekom, en die hele gebied het vol water geloop. 21Die Moabiete het verneem dat die konings opruk om teen hulle te veg. Almal wat bewapen kon word, jonk en oud, is opgekommandeer en het by die grens gaan stelling inneem. 22Toe hulle vroeg die volgende môre opstaan, net toe die son opkom oor die water, sien die Moabiete die water oorkant hulle, rooi soos bloed. 23Dis bloed! het hulle geskree. Die konings het met mekaar begin veg en mekaar doodgemaak. Storm op die buit af, Moabiete! 24Toe hulle by die kamp van die Israeliete kom, het die Israeliete hulle aangeval en verslaan. Die Israeliete het die Moabiete voor hulle uit op die vlug gedryf, Moab binnegedring en dit verwoes. 25Hulle het die stede in puin gelê en elke bewerkbare stuk grond met klippe besaai: elkeen het 'n klip gegooi om dit vol klippe te kry. Elke fontein het hulle toegestop en elke goeie boom afgekap. Uiteindelik het net Kir-Geres oorgebly. Die soldate met slingervelle het die stad omring en dit ingeneem. 26Toe die koning van Moab sien dat hy die geveg gaan verloor, het hy sewe honderd man wat met swaarde bewapen was, gevat in 'n poging om by die koning van Edom deur te breek, maar hulle kon nie. 27Toe vat die koning van Moab sy oudste seun wat in sy plek sou koning word en offer hom as brandoffer op die stadsmuur. Dit het die Israeliete so geskok dat hulle daarvandaan vertrek en na hulle land toe teruggegaan het.

Elisha and the Widow's Oil

2Ki 4:1 The widow of a member of a group of prophets went to Elisha and said, "Sir, my husband has died! As you know, he was a God-fearing man, but now a man he owed money to has come to take away my two sons as slaves in payment for my husband's debt."

2Ki 4:2 "What shall I do for you?" he asked. "Tell me, what do you have at home?" "Nothing at all, except a small jar of olive oil," she answered.

2Ki 4:3 "Go to your neighbors and borrow as many empty jars as you can," Elisha told her.

2Ki 4:4 "Then you and your sons go into the house, close the door, and start pouring oil into the jars. Set each one aside as soon as it is full."

2Ki 4:5 So the woman went into her house with her sons, closed the door, took the small jar of olive oil, and poured oil into the jars as her sons brought them to her.

2Ki 4:6 When they had filled all the jars, she asked if there were any more. "That was the last one," one of her sons answered. And the olive oil stopped flowing.

2Ki 4:7 She went back to Elisha, the prophet, who said to her, "Sell the olive oil and pay all your debts, and there will be enough money left over for you and your sons to live on."

Elisha and the Shunammite Woman

2Ki 4:8 One day Elisha went to Shunem, where a rich woman lived. She invited him to a meal, and from then on every time he went to Shunem he would have his meals at her house.

2Ki 4:9 She said to her husband, "I am sure that this man who comes here so often is a holy man.

2Ki 4:10 Let's build a small room on the roof, put a bed, a table, a chair, and a lamp in it, and he can stay there whenever he visits us."

2Ki 4:11 One day Elisha returned to Shunem and went up to his room to rest.

2Ki 4:12 He told his servant Gehazi to go and call the woman. When she came, 2Ki 4:13 he said to Gehazi, "Ask her what I can do for her in return for all the trouble she has had in providing for our needs. Maybe she would like me to go to the king or the army commander and put in a good word for her." "I have all I need here among my own people," she answered.

2Ki 4:14 Elisha asked Gehazi, "What can I do for her then?" He answered, "Well, she has no son, and her husband is an old man."

2Ki 4:15 "Tell her to come here," Elisha ordered. She came and stood in the doorway,

2Ki 4:16 and Elisha said to her, "By this time next year you will be holding a son in your arms." "Oh!" she exclaimed. "Please, sir, don't lie to me. You are a man of God!"

2Ki 4:17 But, as Elisha had said, at about that time the following year she gave birth to a son.

Elisha Raises the Shunammite's Son

2Ki 4:18 Some years later, at harvest time, the boy went out one morning to join his father, who was in the field with the harvest workers.

2Ki 4:19 Suddenly he cried out to his father, "My head hurts! My head hurts!" "Carry the boy to his mother," the father said to a servant.

2Ki 4:20 The servant carried the boy back to his mother, who held him in her lap until noon, at which time he died.

2Ki 4:21 She carried him up to Elisha's room, put him on the bed and left, closing the door behind her.

2Ki 4:22 Then she called her husband and said to him, "Send a servant here with a donkey. I need to go to the prophet Elisha. I'll be back as soon as I can."

2Ki 4:23 "Why do you have to go today?" her husband asked. "It's neither a Sabbath nor a New Moon Festival." "Never mind," she answered.

2Ki 4:24 Then she had the donkey saddled, and ordered the servant, "Make the donkey go as fast as it can, and don't slow down unless I tell you to."

2Ki 4:25 So she set out and went to Mount Carmel, where Elisha was. Elisha saw her coming while she was still some distance away, and he said to his servant Gehazi, "Look, there comes the woman from Shunem!

2Ki 4:26 Hurry to her and find out if everything is all right with her, her husband, and her son." She told Gehazi that everything was all right,

2Ki 4:27 but when she came to Elisha, she bowed down before him and took hold of his feet. Gehazi was about to push her away, but Elisha said, "Leave her alone. Can't you see she's deeply distressed? And the LORD has not told me a thing about it."

2Ki 4:28 The woman said to him, "Sir, did I ask you for a son? Didn't I tell you not to get my hopes up?"

2Ki 4:29 Elisha turned to Gehazi and said, "Hurry! Take my walking stick and go. Don't stop to greet anyone you meet, and if anyone greets you, don't take time to answer. Go straight to the house and hold my stick over the boy."

2Ki 4:30 The woman said to Elisha, "I swear by my loyalty to the living LORD and to you that I will not leave you!" So the two of them started back together.

2Ki 4:31 Gehazi went on ahead and held Elisha's stick over the child, but there was no sound or any other sign of life. So he went back to meet Elisha and said, "The boy didn't wake up."

2Ki 4:32 When Elisha arrived, he went alone into the room and saw the boy lying dead on the bed.

2Ki 4:33 He closed the door and prayed to the LORD.

2Ki 4:34 Then he lay down on the boy, placing his mouth, eyes, and hands on the boy's mouth, eyes, and hands. As he lay stretched out over the boy, the boy's body started to get warm.

2Ki 4:35 Elisha got up, walked around the room, and then went back and again stretched himself over the boy. The boy sneezed seven times and then opened his eyes.

2Ki 4:36 Elisha called Gehazi and told him to call the boy's mother. When she came in, he said to her, "Here's your son."

2Ki 4:37 She fell at Elisha's feet, with her face touching the ground; then she took her son and left.

Elisha Purifies the Deadly Stew

2Ki 4:38 Once, when there was a famine throughout the land, Elisha returned to Gilgal. While he was teaching a group of prophets, he told his servant to put a big pot on the fire and make some stew for them.

2Ki 4:39 One of them went out in the fields to get some herbs. He found a wild vine and picked as many gourds as he could carry. He brought them back and sliced them up into the stew, not knowing what they were.

2Ki 4:40 The stew was poured out for the men to eat, but as soon as they tasted it they exclaimed to Elisha, "It's poisoned!"—and wouldn't eat it.

2Ki 4:41 Elisha asked for some meal, threw it into the pot, and said, "Pour out some more stew for them." And then there was nothing wrong with it.

2Ki 4:42 Another time, a man came from Baal Shalishah, bringing Elisha twenty loaves of bread made from the first barley harvested that year, and some freshly-cut heads of grain. Elisha told his servant to feed the group of prophets with this,

2Ki 4:43 but he answered, "Do you think this is enough for a hundred men?" Elisha replied, "Give it to them to eat, because the LORD says that they will eat and still have some left over."

2Ki 4:44 So the servant set the food before them, and as the LORD had said, they all ate, and there was still some left over.

II KONINGS 4

1'n Vrou van 'n profeet het haar nood by Elisa kom kla: My man is dood. U weet self dat hy die Here gedien het. Nou het die skuldeiser gekom om my twee seuns te vat en hulle sy slawe te maak. 2Elisa het vir haar gesê: Ek sal jou help. Sê vir my: wat het jy in jou huis? Sy het geantwoord: Ek het niks in die huis nie behalwe 'n erdekannetjie olie. 3Hy het toe gesê: Gaan leen nou by al jou bure leë kruike, en sorg dat jy nie te min leen nie. 4Dan gaan jy in jou huis in, maak die deur agter jou en jou seuns toe, en gooi elkeen van hierdie kruike vol olie. Soos elkeen vol word, moet jy hom wegpak. 5Sy is van hom af weg. Sy het die deur agter haar en haar seuns toegemaak. Soos hulle die kruike na haar toe aangedra het, het sy hulle volgemaak. 6Toe die kruike vol was, sê sy vir een van haar seuns: Bring vir my nog 'n kruik. Maar hy het gesê: Daar is nie meer 'n kruik oor nie. Toe het daar nie 7meer olie uit die kannetjie gekom nie. Sy het by die man van God aangekom en dit vir hom vertel. Hy het gesê: Gaan verkoop die olie en betaal jou skuld. Jy en jou seuns kan dan leef van wat oorbly. 8Op 'n dag het Elisa na Sunem toe gegaan. Daar was 'n vooraanstaande vrou wat by hom daarop aangedring het om vir ete oor te bly. Elke keer as hy daar verbykom, het hy eers by haar aangegaan om te eet. 9Sy het vir haar man gesê: Ek weet dit is 'n heilige man van God wat gereeld hier by ons aankom. 10Kom ons bou 'n klein bovertrekkie en sit vir hom 'n bed, 'n tafel, 'n stoel en 'n lamp daarin. Wanneer hy by ons aankom, kan hy daar intrek. 11Op 'n dag toe Elisa weer daar aankom, het hy in die bovertrek ingetrek en gaan rus. 12Hy het vir Gehasi sy slaaf gesê: Roep bietjie die Sunemmitiese vrou. Gehasi het haar geroep, en toe sy voor Elisa se kamer staan, 13sê hy vir sy slaaf: Sê vir haar: Jy het al hierdie moeite vir ons gedoen. Wat kan ek vir jou doen? Sal ek vir jou 'n woordjie doen by die koning of by die hoof van die leër? Ek woon hier tussen my eie mense, was haar antwoord. 14Hy vra toe: Maar kan daar nie iets vir haar gedoen word nie? Waarop Gehasi antwoord: Ja tog, sy het nie 'n seun nie, en haar man is al oud. 15Roep haar hiernatoe, sê Elisa. Toe Gehasi haar nader roep, het sy in die deur kom staan. 16Toe sê Elisa: Hierdie tyd oor 'n jaar sal jy 'n seun in jou arms hou. Sy antwoord: Nee, Meneer, u is 'n man van God, u moet tog nie vir my iets sê wat nie so kan wees nie! 17Die vrou het swanger geword en 'n seun in die wêreld gebring, presies 'n jaar later, net soos Elisa vir haar gesê het. 18Toe die seun groter geword het, het hy op 'n dag na sy pa-hulle toe gegaan waar hulle besig was om te oes. 19Skielik het hy vir sy pa gesê: My kop, my kop! Sy pa het vir 'n slaaf gesê: Dra hom na sy ma toe. 20Die slaaf het hom na sy ma toe gedra. Hy het op haar skoot gelê tot die middag, en toe is hy dood. 21Sy het hom boontoe gedra en hom neergelê op die bed van die man van God, en toe sy uitgaan, het sy die deur agter haar toegetrek. 22Sy het haar man geroep en gesê: Stuur tog vir my 'n slaaf en 'n donkie. Ek wil na die man van God toe gaan en gou weer terug wees. 23Maar waarom gaan jy vandag na hom toe, het haar man gevra, dit is mos nie nuwemaan of sabbat nie? Maar sy het hom gerusgestel, 24die donkie opgesaal en vir haar slaaf gesê: Jaag die donkie aan. Moenie dat hy gaan staan nie, behalwe as ek vir jou so sê. 25Sy is toe vort en het by die man van God aangekom by Karmelberg. Toe die man van God haar op 'n afstand sien aankom, sê hy vir Gehasi sy slaaf: Dis mos die Sunemmitiese vrou daardie. 26Hardloop haar tegemoet en vra vir haar: Gaan dit goed met jou? Gaan dit goed met jou man? En met jou seun? Vir Gehasi het sy gesê: Dit gaan goed, 27maar toe sy by die man van God op die berg kom, het sy aan sy voete vasgeklou. Toe Gehasi nader staan om haar weg te stoot, sê die man van God: Los haar, sy is baie hartseer. Die Here het dit vir my verberg en vir my niks gesê nie. 28Sy sê toe vir hom: Meneer, het ek van u 'n seun gevra? Het ek nie gesê: Moenie by my 'n valse hoop wek nie? 29Toe sê hy vir Gehasi: Maak gou klaar, vat my kierie en vertrek. As jy iemand raakloop, moet hom nie groet nie. Gaan sit my kierie op die gesig van die seun. 30Toe sê die seun se ma: So seker as die Here leef en u leef, ek sal u nie toelaat om agter te bly nie. Hy het opgestaan en saam met haar gegaan. 31Gehasi was voor hulle daar en hy het die kierie op die seun se gesig gesit, maar daar was geen geluid of enige teken van lewe nie. Hy gaan toe terug na Elisa toe en sê vir hom dat die seun nie bygekom het nie. 32Toe Elisa in die huis kom, het die seun daar dood gelê net soos hy op die bed neergelê was. 33Elisa het die kamer binnegegaan en die deur toegemaak sodat hulle alleen was. Nadat hy tot die Here gebid het, 34het Elisa op die bed geklim en bo-op die seun gaan lê. Hy het vol op die seun gelê met sy mond op die seun se mond, sy oë op sý oë, sy hande op sý hande, sodat die seun se liggaam warm geword het. 35Nadat hy 'n keer heen en weer in die huis geloop het, het hy weer op hom gaan lê. Die seun het sewe keer genies en toe sy oë oopgemaak. 36Elisa het vir Gehasi geroep en hom beveel om die Sunemmitiese vrou te roep. Hy het dit gedoen en toe sy inkom, sê Elisa vir haar: Tel jou seun op. 37Sy het ingekom en by sy voete op haar knieë geval en gebuig. Toe tel sy haar kind op en gaan uit. 38Elisa is terug Gilgal toe. Daar was in dié tyd 'n hongersnood in die land. Terwyl die profete aan sy voete gesit het, sê hy vir sy slaaf: Sit 'n groot pot op die vuur en kook 'n bredie vir die profete. 39Een van hulle is veld toe om te gaan kruie pluk. Hy het op wilde ranke afgekom en wildekomkommers daarvan afgepluk tot sy sakke vol was. Hy het dit in die pot met bredie gaan insny sonder om te weet wat dit regtig was. 40Hulle het met ete vir die manne van die bredie opgeskep, maar net toe hulle dit proe, roep hulle uit: Man van God, daar is gif in die kos! Hulle kon dit nie eet nie. 41Elisa het gesê: Bring 'n bietjie meel. Hy het dit in die pot gegooi en gesê: Skep op vir die mense dat hulle kan eet. Die kos in die pot was toe nie meer giftig nie. 42Daar het 'n man uit Baäl-Salisa aangekom wat vir die man van God brood gebring het, twintig garsbrode gebak met meel van die nuwe oes, en ook vars koringare. Elisa het gesê: Gee dit vir die mense om te eet. 43Maar sy slaaf het beswaar gemaak: Hoe kan ek die bietjie kos aan 'n honderd man voorsit? Maar Elisa het weer gesê: Gee dit vir die mense om te eet, want so sê die Here: Hulle sal eet en nog oorhou. 44Die slaaf het dit vir hulle voorgesit. Hulle het geëet en oorgehou, net soos die Here gesê het.

Naaman Healed of Leprosy

2Ki 5:1 Naaman, the commander of the Syrian army, was highly respected and esteemed by the king of Syria, because through Naaman the LORD had given victory to the Syrian forces. He was a great soldier, but he suffered from a dreaded skin disease.

2Ki 5:2 In one of their raids against Israel, the Syrians had carried off a little Israelite girl, who became a servant of Naaman's wife.

2Ki 5:3 One day she said to her mistress, "I wish that my master could go to the prophet who lives in Samaria! He would cure him of his disease."

2Ki 5:4 When Naaman heard of this, he went to the king and told him what the girl had said.

2Ki 5:5 The king said, "Go to the king of Israel and take this letter to him." So Naaman set out, taking thirty thousand pieces of silver, six thousand pieces of gold, and ten changes of fine clothes.

2Ki 5:6 The letter that he took read: "This letter will introduce my officer Naaman. I want you to cure him of his disease."

2Ki 5:7 When the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his clothes in dismay and exclaimed, "How can the king of Syria expect me to cure this man? Does he think that I am God, with the power of life and death? It's plain that he is trying to start a quarrel with me!"

2Ki 5:8 When the prophet Elisha heard what had happened, he sent word to the king: "Why are you so upset? Send the man to me, and I'll show him that there is a prophet in Israel!"

2Ki 5:9 So Naaman went with his horses and chariot and stopped at the entrance to Elisha's house.

2Ki 5:10 Elisha sent a servant out to tell him to go and wash himself seven times in the Jordan River, and he would be completely cured of his disease.

2Ki 5:11 But Naaman left in a rage, saying, "I thought that he would at least come out to me, pray to the LORD his God, wave his hand over the diseased spot, and cure me!

2Ki 5:12 Besides, aren't the rivers Abana and Pharpar, back in Damascus, better than any river in Israel? I could have washed in them and been cured!"

2Ki 5:13 His servants went up to him and said, "Sir, if the prophet had told you to do something difficult, you would have done it. Now why can't you just wash yourself, as he said, and be cured?"

2Ki 5:14 So Naaman went down to the Jordan, dipped himself in it seven times, as Elisha had instructed, and he was completely cured. His flesh became firm and healthy like that of a child.

Gehazi's Greed and Punishment

2Ki 5:15 He returned to Elisha with all his men and said, "Now I know that there is no god but the God of Israel; so please, sir, accept a gift from me."

2Ki 5:16 Elisha answered, "By the living LORD, whom I serve, I swear that I will not accept a gift." Naaman insisted that he accept it, but he would not.

2Ki 5:17 So Naaman said, "If you won't accept my gift, then let me have two mule-loads of earth to take home with me, because from now on I will not offer sacrifices or burnt offerings to any god except the LORD.

2Ki 5:18 So I hope that the LORD will forgive me when I accompany my king to the temple of Rimmon, the god of Syria, and worship him. Surely the LORD will forgive me!"

2Ki 5:19 "Go in peace," Elisha said. And Naaman left. He had gone only a short distance,

2Ki 5:20 when Elisha's servant Gehazi said to himself, "My master has let Naaman get away without paying a thing! He should have accepted what that Syrian offered him. By the living LORD I will run after him and get something from him."

2Ki 5:21 So he set off after Naaman. When Naaman saw a man running after him, he got down from his chariot to meet him, and asked, "Is something wrong?"

2Ki 5:22 "No," Gehazi answered. "But my master sent me to tell you that just now two members of the group of prophets in the hill country of Ephraim arrived, and he would like you to give them three thousand pieces of silver and two changes of fine clothes."

2Ki 5:23 "Please take six thousand pieces of silver," Naaman replied. He insisted on it, tied up the silver in two bags, gave them and two changes of fine clothes to two of his servants, and sent them on ahead of Gehazi.

2Ki 5:24 When they reached the hill where Elisha lived, Gehazi took the two bags and carried them into the house. Then he sent Naaman's servants back.

2Ki 5:25 He went back into the house, and Elisha asked him, "Where have you been?" "Oh, nowhere, sir," he answered.

2Ki 5:26 But Elisha said, "Wasn't I there in spirit when the man got out of his chariot to meet you? This is no time to accept money and clothes, olive groves and vineyards, sheep and cattle, or servants!

2Ki 5:27 And now Naaman's disease will come upon you, and you and your descendants will have it forever!" When Gehazi left, he had the disease—his skin was as white as snow.

II KONINGS 5

[1]Naäman, die hoof van die leër van die koning van Aram, was 'n gesiene man wat die agting van die koning geniet het. Deur hom het die Here 'n oorwinning aan Aram besorg. Die man was 'n dapper soldaat, maar hy het melaats geword. [2]Op een van hulle strooptogte het die Arameërs 'n jong dogtertjie uit Israel ontvoer wat Naäman se vrou se bediende geword het. [3]Sy het vir die vrou gesê: Ag, as Meneer net by die profeet in Samaria kon uitkom, dan sal hy vir Meneer van sy melaatsheid gesond maak. [4]Naäman het by die koning gekom en hom meegedeel wat die dogtertjie uit Israel gesê het. [5]Gaan gerus, het die koning van Aram gesê, ek stuur jou met 'n brief na die koning van Israel toe. Hy het vertrek en drie honderd twee en veertig kilogram silwer, ag en sestig kilogram goud en tien stelle klere met hom saamgevat. [6]Hy het die brief na die koning van Israel toe gebring. Dit het só gelui: Ek het my dienaar Naäman met hierdie brief na jou toe gestuur. Wanneer hy by jou uitkom, moet jy hom van sy melaatsheid gesond maak. [7]Toe die koning die brief gelees het, het hy sy klere geskeur en gesê: Is ek dan God wat mense laat sterwe of aan hulle die lewe gee dat hierdie man iemand na my toe stuur om hom van sy melaatsheid gesond te maak? Dit moet vir julle duidelik wees hy soek net skoor met my. [8]Elisa die man van God het te hore gekom dat die koning van Israel sy klere geskeur het en het 'n boodskap aan die koning gestuur: Hoekom het u u klere geskeur? Laat Naäman na my toe kom, sodat hy kan besef dat daar 'n profeet in Israel is. [9]Toe Naäman met sy wa en perde daar aankom, het hy stilgehou voor die deur van Elisa se huis. [10]Elisa het 'n boodskap na hom toe gestuur: Gaan was jou sewe maal in die Jordaan, dan sal jy gesond word en rein wees. [11]Naäman het vererg weggery en gesê: Ek het darem gedink hy sou uitkom en gaan staan, die Naam van die Here sy God aanroep, dan sy hand heen en weer oor die plek beweeg en so die melaatsheid wegneem. [12]Is die riviere van Damaskus, die Abana en die Parpar, nie beter as al die waters van Israel nie? Kan ek my nie daarin was om rein te word nie? So het hy woedend daarvandaan teruggery. [13]Sy amptenare het by hom gekom en mooi met hom gepraat: Meneer, as die profeet iets moeiliks van u verwag het, sou u dit nie gedoen het nie? Hoeveel te meer nou dat hy eenvoudig vir u gesê het: Was jou en jy sal rein wees? [14]Hy het toe afgegaan na die Jordaan toe en hom sewe keer daarin gebad, soos die man van God gesê het, en sy vel het gesond geword soos dié van 'n klein seuntjie en hy was weer rein. [15]Hy en sy hele gevolg het teruggegaan na die man van God toe. Daar aangekom, het Naäman voor die man van God gaan staan en gesê: Ek weet nou, daar is geen God op die hele aarde nie behalwe in Israel. Aanvaar asseblief hierdie geskenk van my. [16]Maar Elisa het gesê: So seker as die Here leef in wie se diens ek is, ek sal dit nie aanvaar nie. Naäman het by Elisa daarop aangedring om dit te aanvaar, maar hy het bly weier. [17]Toe sê Naäman: As u dan nie iets wil hê nie, wil u nie asseblief vir my twee muilvragte grond laat kry nie? Daarop wil ek brandoffers en ander diereoffers bring, net aan die Here, nie langer aan enige ander god nie. [18]Daar is net een ding wat die Here my asseblief sal moet vergewe: as my koning na die tempel van Rimmon toe kom om te aanbid, en ek hom moet vergesel, en ek dan in die tempel van Rimmon aanbid wanneer hy daar aanbid, mag die Here my dit vergewe! [19]Elisa het van Naäman afskeid geneem, maar toe hy 'n ent weg was, [20]het Gehasi, die slaaf van Elisa die man van God, vir homself gesê: Meneer het hierdie Arameër Naäman laat wegkom sonder om iets te aanvaar van alles wat hy gebring het. So seker as die Here leef, ek gaan agter hom aan hardloop en ek sal iets van hom aanvaar. [21]Gehasi is agter Naäman aan. Toe Naäman hom agter hom aan sien hardloop, het hy van die wa af afgespring, hom tegemoet gegaan en gevra: Wat is verkeerd? [22]Niks nie, het hy geantwoord. Die profeet het my gestuur om te sê: Daar het nou net twee jongmanne van die profetegemeenskap hier aangekom van die Efraimsberge af, en sal u nie asseblief vir hulle vier en dertig kilogram silwer en twee stelle klere gee nie. [23]Naäman het gesê: Wees so vriendelik om ag en sestig kilogram te aanvaar. Hy het by hom daarop aangedring, die ag en sestig kilogram silwer in twee geldsakke toegebind en dit saam met die twee stelle klere aan twee van sy slawe gegee om dit voor Gehasi uit te dra. [24]Toe hy by Die Bult kom, het hy dit by hulle gevat en in sy kamer gaan wegsteek. Toe hy die manne laat gaan het en hulle daar weg is, [25]en hy inkom en by die profeet gaan staan, vra Elisa vir hom: Waar kom jy vandaan, Gehasi? Hy het geantwoord: Ek was nêrens heen nie. [26]Hy sê toe vir hom: Was ek nie in die gees by jou toe iemand van sy wa af omgedraai het om jou tegemoet te gaan nie? Moes jy dié geleentheid aangryp om silwer en klere in die hande te kry, of olyfboorde en wingerde, kleinvee en grootvee, slawe en slavinne? [27]Die melaatsheid waarmee Naäman aangetas was, sal vir altyd aan jou en jou nageslag sit. Toe hy van Elisa af weggaan, was hy klaar melaats, wit soos sneeu.

The Axe Head Recovered

2Ki 6:1 One day the group of prophets that Elisha was in charge of complained to him, "The place where we live is too small!

2Ki 6:2 Give us permission to go to the Jordan and cut down some trees, so that we can build a place to live." "All right," Elisha answered.

2Ki 6:3 One of them urged him to go with them; he agreed,

2Ki 6:4 and they set out together. When they arrived at the Jordan, they began to work.

2Ki 6:5 As one of them was cutting down a tree, suddenly his iron ax head fell in the water. "What shall I do, sir?" he exclaimed to Elisha. "It was a borrowed ax!"

2Ki 6:6 "Where did it fall?" Elisha asked. The man showed him the place, and Elisha cut off a stick, threw it in the water, and made the ax head float.

2Ki 6:7 "Take it out," he ordered, and the man reached down and picked it up.

Horses and Chariots of Fire

2Ki 6:8 The king of Syria was at war with Israel. He consulted his officers and chose a place to set up his camp.

2Ki 6:9 But Elisha sent word to the king of Israel, warning him not to go near that place, because the Syrians were waiting in ambush there.

2Ki 6:10 So the king of Israel warned the people who lived in that place, and they were on guard. This happened several times.

2Ki 6:11 The Syrian king became greatly upset over this; he called in his officers and asked them, "Which one of you is on the side of the king of Israel?"

2Ki 6:12 One of them answered, "No one is, Your Majesty. The prophet Elisha tells the king of Israel what you say even in the privacy of your own room."

2Ki 6:13 "Find out where he is," the king ordered, "and I will capture him." When he was told that Elisha was in Dothan, 2Ki 6:14 he sent a large force there with horses and chariots. They reached the town at night and surrounded it.

2Ki 6:15 Early the next morning Elisha's servant got up, went out of the house, and saw the Syrian troops with their horses and chariots surrounding the town. He went back to Elisha and exclaimed, "We are doomed, sir! What shall we do?"

2Ki 6:16 "Don't be afraid," Elisha answered. "We have more on our side than they have on theirs."

2Ki 6:17 Then he prayed, "O LORD, open his eyes and let him see!" The LORD answered his prayer, and Elisha's servant looked up and saw the hillside covered with horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha.

2Ki 6:18 When the Syrians attacked, Elisha prayed, "O LORD, strike these men blind!" The LORD answered his prayer and struck them blind.

2Ki 6:19 Then Elisha went to them and said, "You are on the wrong road; this is not the town you are looking for. Follow me, and I will lead you to the man you are after." And he led them to Samaria.

2Ki 6:20 As soon as they had entered the city, Elisha prayed, "Open their eyes, LORD, and let them see." The LORD answered his prayer; he restored their sight, and they saw that they were inside Samaria.

2Ki 6:21 When the king of Israel saw the Syrians, he asked Elisha, "Shall I kill them, sir? Shall I kill them?"

2Ki 6:22 "No," he answered. "Not even soldiers you had captured in combat would you put to death. Give them something to eat and drink, and let them return to their king."

2Ki 6:23 So the king of Israel provided a great feast for them; and after they had eaten and drunk, he sent them back to the king of Syria. From then on the Syrians stopped raiding the land of Israel.

Ben-hadad's Siege of Samaria

2Ki 6:24 Some time later King Benhadad of Syria led his entire army against Israel and laid siege to the city of Samaria.

2Ki 6:25 As a result of the siege the food shortage in the city was so severe that a donkey's head cost eighty pieces of silver, and half a pound of dove's dung cost five pieces of silver.

2Ki 6:26 The king of Israel was walking by on the city wall when a woman cried out, "Help me, Your Majesty!"

2Ki 6:27 He replied, "If the LORD won't help you, what help can I provide? Do I have any wheat or wine?

2Ki 6:28 What's your trouble?" She answered, "The other day this woman here suggested that we eat my child, and then eat her child the next day.

2Ki 6:29 So we cooked my son and ate him. The next day I told her that we would eat her son, but she had hidden him!"

2Ki 6:30 Hearing this, the king tore his clothes in dismay, and the people who were close to the wall could see that he was wearing sackcloth under his clothes.

2Ki 6:31 He exclaimed, "May God strike me dead if Elisha is not beheaded before the day is over!"

2Ki 6:32 And he sent a messenger to get Elisha. Meanwhile Elisha was at home with some elders who were visiting him. Before the king's messenger arrived, Elisha said to the elders, "That murderer is sending someone to kill me! Now, when he gets here, shut the door and don't let him come in. The king himself will be right behind him."

2Ki 6:33 He had hardly finished saying this, when the king arrived and said, "It's the LORD who has brought this trouble on us! Why should I wait any longer for him to do something?"

II KONINGS 6

1Die profete het vir Elisa gesê: Die plek waar ons van u onderrig ontvang, het te klein geword vir ons. 2Laat ons na die Jordaan toe gaan en balke kap om vir ons 'n bymekaarkomplek te bou. Gaan gerus, het hy geantwoord. 3Een het vir hom gevra: Wil u nie met ons saamgaan nie? Hy het geantwoord: Ek sal gaan, 4en hy het saam met hulle gegaan. Toe hulle by die Jordaan kom, het hulle bome afgekap. 5Terwyl een besig was om 'n boom af te kap, het sy byl in die water geval. Hy roep toe: Ag tog, Meneer, en dit was boonop 'n geleende byl! 6Die man van God het gevra waar die byl ingeval het. Toe die profeet vir hom die plek gewys het, het hy 'n stuk hout afgekap en dit daar ingegooi, en dit het die byl bo laat dryf. 7Hy sê toe vir hom: Haal dit uit. Die man het sy hand uitgesteek en dit gevat. 8Die koning van Aram was in oorlog met Israel gewikkel en het telkens met sy offisiere afgespreek dat hy op 'n sekere plek sou kamp opslaan. 9Die man van God het dan aan die koning van Israel die volgende boodskap gestuur: Pas op dat u nie na daardie plek toe optrek nie, want die Arameërs trek soontoe op. 10Gevolglik het die koning van Israel boodskappe deurgestuur na die plek toe wat die man van God aan hom genoem het en hom voor gewaarsku het. Die mense daar was dan keer op keer voorbereid. 11Die koning van Aram het baie onrustig geword hieroor. Hy het sy offisiere laat roep en vir hulle gesê: Ek wil van julle weet wie van ons dra nuus oor aan die koning van Israel. 12Een van sy offisiere het geantwoord: Nie een van ons nie, U Majesteit, maar die profeet Elisa daar in Israel kan vir die koning van Israel vertel selfs wat u in u slaapkamer sê. 13Die koning van Aram het gesê: Gaan vind uit waar hy is, dan stuur ek manne om hom te vang. Die koning is meegedeel: Hy is in Dotan. 14Die koning stuur toe perde, strydwaens en 'n sterk mag daarheen. Hulle het in die nag gekom en die stad omsingel. 15Die môre vroeg het die slaaf van die man van God opgestaan, en toe hy uitgaan, sien hy 'n leër rondom die stad, met perde en strydwaens. Ag, Meneer! sê die slaaf vir Elisa, wat gaan ons nou maak? 16Hy het geantwoord: Moenie bang wees nie, dié wat by ons is, is meer as wat hulle is. 17Elisa het gebid: Here, maak tog sy oë oop dat hy kan sien. Die Here het die oë van die slaaf oopgemaak, en hy het gesien: die berge rondom Elisa was vol perde en strydwaens van vuur. 18Toe die Arameërs op hom afstorm, het Elisa tot die Here gebid: Slaan tog hierdie mense met blindheid! Die Here het hulle met blindheid geslaan net soos Elisa gevra het. 19Elisa sê toe vir hulle: Dis nie die regte pad nie en dis nie die regte stad hierdie nie. Kom agter my aan, dan lei ek julle tot by die man vir wie julle soek. Hy het hulle na Samaria toe gelei. 20Toe hulle in Samaria kom, sê Elisa: Here, maak hierdie mense se oë oop dat hulle kan sien. Toe die Here hulle oë oopmaak en hulle kyk, toe is hulle binne-in Samaria! 21Toe die koning van Israel hulle sien, vra hy vir Elisa: Moet ek hulle doodmaak, Meneer, moet ek hulle doodmaak? 22Nee, moet hulle nie doodmaak nie, was sy antwoord. Sou jý mense doodmaak wat jy met jou eie swaard en jou pyl en boog krygsgevange geneem het? Sit vir hulle eet- en drinkgoed voor, dat hulle kan eet voordat hulle teruggaan na hulle koning toe. 23Die koning van Israel het vir hulle 'n groot feesmaal gegee. Nadat hulle geëet het, het hy hulle laat gaan, terug na hulle koning toe. Die bendes van die Arameërs het toe nie weer in die land Israel gekom nie. 24Later het koning Ben-Hadad van Aram sy hele leër opgeroep, na Samaria toe opgeruk en dit beleër. 25Daar het 'n groot hongersnood in Samaria ontstaan, en die beleg het voortgeduur totdat die kop van 'n donkie naderhand byna 'n kilogram silwer gekos het en 'n klein skeppie duiwemis sewe en vyftig gram. 26Toe die koning van Israel 'n keer op die stadsmuur langs verbyloop, het 'n vrou uitgeroep: Help my asseblief, U Majesteit! 27Hy het geantwoord: As die Here jou nie help nie, hoe sal ek jou kan help? Uit die dorsvloer of uit die parskuip? 28Toe die koning haar vra wat haar moeilikheid is, antwoord sy: Hierdie vrou het aan my voorgestel: Gee jou kind dat ons hom vandag eet, dan kan ons môre my kind eet.' 29Ons het toe my kind gekook en geëet, maar toe ek vir haar die volgende dag sê: Gee nou jou kind dat ons hom eet, het sy haar kind weggesteek! 30Toe die koning die vrou se verhaal hoor, het hy sy klere geskeur. Soos hy op die muur langs verbygeloop het, kon die bevolking sien dat hy 'n roukleed onder sy ander klere aanhet. 31Hy het uitgeroep: Mag die Here my om die lewe bring as ek vandag Elisa seun van Safat se kop op sy lyf laat bly. 32Elisa het in sy huis gesit saam met die leiers. Die koning het iemand met 'n opdrag gestuur, maar voordat die boodskapper nog by Elisa aangekom het, het hy al vir die leiers gesê: Weet julle, hierdie moordenaarskind het iemand gestuur om my kop af te kap. Hou dop wanneer die boodskapper kom. Sluit dan die deur en hou hom buite. Sy koning kom agter hom aan. 33Terwyl Elisa nog so met hulle sit en praat, het die koning self na hom toe gekom en gesê: Kyk watter ellende het die Here oor ons gebring. Hoe kan ek nog op die Here hoop!

Elisha Promises Food

2Ki 7:1 Elisha answered, "Listen to what the LORD says! By this time tomorrow you will be able to buy in Samaria ten pounds of the best wheat or twenty pounds of barley for one piece of silver."

2Ki 7:2 The personal attendant of the king said to Elisha, "That can't happen—not even if the LORD himself were to send grain at once!" "You will see it happen, but you won't get to eat any of the food," Elisha replied.

The Syrians Flee

2Ki 7:3 Four men who were suffering from a dreaded skin disease were outside the gates of Samaria, and they said to each other, "Why should we wait here until we die?

2Ki 7:4 It's no use going into the city, because we would starve to death in there; but if we stay here, we'll die also. So let's go to the Syrian camp; the worst they can do is kill us, but maybe they will spare our lives."

2Ki 7:5 So, as it began to get dark, they went to the Syrian camp, but when they reached it, no one was there.

2Ki 7:6 The Lord had made the Syrians hear what sounded like the advance of a large army with horses and chariots, and the Syrians thought that the king of Israel had hired Hittite and Egyptian kings and their armies to attack them.

2Ki 7:7 So that evening the Syrians had fled for their lives, abandoning their tents, horses, and donkeys, and leaving the camp just as it was.

2Ki 7:8 When the four men reached the edge of the camp, they went into a tent, ate and drank what was there, grabbed the silver, gold, and clothing they found, and went off and hid them; then they returned, entered another tent, and did the same thing.

2Ki 7:9 But then they said to each other, "We shouldn't be doing this! We have good news, and we shouldn't keep it to ourselves. If we wait until morning to tell it, we are sure to be punished. Let's go right now and tell the king's officers!"

2Ki 7:10 So they left the Syrian camp, went back to Samaria, and called out to the guards at the gates: "We went to the Syrian camp and didn't see or hear anybody; the horses and donkeys have not been untied, and the tents are just as the Syrians left them."

2Ki 7:11 The guards announced the news, and it was reported in the palace.

2Ki 7:12 It was still night, but the king got out of bed and said to his officials, "I'll tell you what the Syrians are planning! They know about the famine here, so they have left their camp to go and hide in the countryside. They think that we will leave the city to find food, and then they will take us alive and capture the city."

2Ki 7:13 One of his officials said, "The people here in the city are doomed anyway, like those that have already died. So let's send some men with five of the horses that are left, so that we can find out what has happened."

2Ki 7:14 They chose some men, and the king sent them in two chariots with instructions to go and find out what had happened to the Syrian army.

2Ki 7:15 The men went as far as the Jordan, and all along the road they saw the clothes and equipment that the Syrians had abandoned as they fled. Then they returned and reported to the king.

2Ki 7:16 The people of Samaria rushed out and looted the Syrian camp. And as the LORD had said, ten pounds of the best wheat or twenty pounds of barley were sold for one piece of silver.

2Ki 7:17 It so happened that the king of Israel had put the city gate under the command of the officer who was his personal attendant. The officer was trampled to death there by the people and died, as Elisha had predicted when the king went to see him.

2Ki 7:18 Elisha had told the king that by that time the following day ten pounds of the best wheat or twenty pounds of barley would be sold in Samaria for one piece of silver,

2Ki 7:19 to which the officer had answered, "That can't happen—not even if the LORD himself were to send grain at once!" And Elisha had replied, "You will see it happen, but you won't get to eat any of the food."

2Ki 7:20 And that is just what happened to him—he died, trampled to death by the people at the city gate.

II KONINGS 7

1Maar Elisa sê: Hoor die woord van die Here! So het die Here gesê: Môre hierdie tyd sal 'n mens vir elf gram silwer vyf kilogram meel of nege kilogram gars kom koop, hier in die poort van Samaria. 2Die adjudant, wat die vertroueling van die koning was, het vir die man van God gesê: Dit is onmoontlik selfs al maak die Here vensters in die hemel sodat dit nou reën. Elisa het geantwoord: Toe maar, jy sal dit met jou eie oë sien, maar jy sal nie daarvan eet nie. 3Daar was vier melaatses by die ingang van die stadspoort. Hulle het vir mekaar gesê: Hoekom bly ons hier tot ons doodgaan? 4As ons sou besluit ons wil in die stad ingaan, sal ons daar doodgaan, want daar is hongersnood in die stad. Bly ons hier, is ons ook dood. Kom ons loop oor na die kamp van die Arameërs toe! As hulle ons laat leef, leef ons; as hulle ons doodmaak, is ons dood! 5Skemeraand het hulle na die kamp van die Arameërs toe vertrek. Toe hulle by die kant van die kamp van die Arameërs kom, ontdek hulle dat daar niemand is nie! 6Die Here het die Arameërs in die kamp die geluid laat hoor van strydwaens, perde en 'n groot leër. Hulle het vir mekaar gesê: Die koning van Israel het die konings van die Hetiete en van Egipte gehuur om ons aan te val. 7In die skemer het hulle op die vlug geslaan. Hulle het die hele kamp net so gelos soos dit was, tente, perde en donkies, en vir hulle lewe gevlug. 8Toe hierdie melaatses by die kant van die kamp gekom het, het hulle in 'n tent ingegaan en geëet en gedrink. Hulle het ook silwer, goud en klere daaruit gevat en dit gaan begrawe. Daarna is hulle 'n tweede tent in waaruit hulle ook goed gevat en gaan begrawe het. 9Hulle sê toe vir mekaar: Ons maak nie reg nie. Vandag is 'n dag vir blydskap en ons bly stil! As ons wag tot ligdag, sal ons beslis gestraf word. Kom ons gaan vertel dit by die paleis van die koning. 10Hulle het by die stad aangekom en na die wagte geroep en vir hulle vertel: Toe ons by die kamp van die Arameërs gekom het, was daar niemand te sien of te hoor nie. Daar was net vasgemaakte perde en donkies, en die tente net soos hulle gelos is. 11Die wagte het die nuus verder oorgedra totdat dit binne in die paleis bekend geword het. 12Die koning het die nag opgestaan en vir sy amptenare gesê: Ek sal julle vertel wat die Arameërs met ons wil doen! Hulle weet ons is uitgehonger. Hulle het uit die kamp uit gegaan en in die veld gaan wegkruip met die gedagte: as die Israeliete uit die stad uitgaan, vang ons hulle lewendig en kom so self in die stad. 13Een van sy amptenare het hierop geantwoord: Laat van ons mense vyf van die perde vat wat nog oor is, dan stuur ons hulle met die perde en kyk wat gebeur. Hulle sal dit óf oorleef soos die menigte Israeliete wat nog in die stad oor is, óf hulle sal omkom soos die menigte Israeliete wat hier al aan hulle einde gekom het. [14]Hulle het twee strydwaens met perde gevat. Die koning het hulle agter die leër van die Arameërs aan gestuur met die opdrag: Gaan kyk. [15]Hulle is agter hulle aan tot by die Jordaan. Die hele pad het vol klere en goed gelê wat die Arameërs in hulle haas om weg te kom, weggegooi het. Die boodskappers het teruggekom en dit aan die koning meegedeel. [16]Toe het die volk uit die stad uit gegaan en die kamp van die Arameërs geplunder. Vyf kilogram meel of nege kilogram gars het net elf gram silwer gekos, soos die Here gesê het. [17]Die koning het die adjudant, wat sy vertroueling was, in bevel van die poort geplaas, maar hy is deur die volk in die poort doodgetrap, net soos die man van God dit vir die koning gesê het toe dié na hom toe gekom het. [18]Dit het gebeur net soos die man van God vir die koning gesê het: Nege kilogram gars of vyf kilogram meel sal môre hierdie tyd net elf gram silwer kos in die poort van Samaria. [19]Toe het die adjudant mos die man van God geantwoord: Dit is onmoontlik selfs al maak die Here vensters in die hemel dat dit nou reën, en Elisa het geantwoord: Toe maar, jy sal dit met jou eie oë sien, maar jy sal net nie daarvan eet nie. [20]Dit is presies wat met die adjudant gebeur het: die volk het hom in die poort doodgetrap.

The Shunammite's Land Restored

2Ki 8:1 Now Elisha had told the woman who lived in Shunem, whose son he had brought back to life, that the LORD was sending a famine on the land, which would last for seven years, and that she should leave with her family and go and live somewhere else.

2Ki 8:2 She had followed his instructions and had gone with her family to live in Philistia for the seven years.

2Ki 8:3 At the end of the seven years she returned to Israel and went to the king to ask that her house and her land be restored to her.

2Ki 8:4 She found the king talking with Gehazi, Elisha's servant; the king wanted to know about Elisha's miracles.

2Ki 8:5 While Gehazi was telling the king how Elisha had brought a dead person back to life, the woman made her appeal to the king. Gehazi said to him, "Your Majesty, here is the woman and here is her son whom Elisha brought back to life!"

2Ki 8:6 In answer to the king's question, she confirmed Gehazi's story, and so the king called an official and told him to give back to her everything that was hers, including the value of all the crops that her fields had produced during the seven years she had been away.

Hazael Murders Ben-hadad

2Ki 8:7 Elisha went to Damascus at a time when King Benhadad of Syria was sick. When the king was told that Elisha was there,

2Ki 8:8 he said to Hazael, one of his officials, "Take a gift to the prophet and ask him to consult the LORD to find out whether or not I am going to get well."

2Ki 8:9 So Hazael loaded forty camels with all kinds of the finest products of Damascus and went to Elisha. When Hazael met him, he said, "Your servant King Benhadad has sent me to ask you whether or not he will recover from his sickness."

2Ki 8:10 Elisha answered, "The LORD has revealed to me that he will die; but go to him and tell him that he will recover."

2Ki 8:11 Then Elisha stared at him with a horrified look on his face until Hazael became ill at ease. Suddenly Elisha burst into tears.

2Ki 8:12 "Why are you crying, sir?" Hazael asked. "Because I know the horrible things you will do against the people of Israel," Elisha answered. "You will set their fortresses on fire, slaughter their finest young men, batter their children to death, and rip open their pregnant women."

2Ki 8:13 "How could I ever be that powerful?" Hazael asked. "I'm a nobody!" "The LORD has shown me that you will be king of Syria," Elisha replied.

2Ki 8:14 Hazael went back to Benhadad, who asked him, "What did Elisha say?" "He told me that you would certainly get well," Hazael answered.

2Ki 8:15 But on the following day Hazael took a blanket, soaked it in water, and smothered the king. And Hazael succeeded Benhadad as king of Syria.

Jehoram Reigns in Judah

2Ki 8:16 In the fifth year of the reign of Joram son of Ahab as king of Israel, Jehoram son of Jehoshaphat became king of Judah

2Ki 8:17 at the age of thirty-two, and he ruled in Jerusalem for eight years.

2Ki 8:18 His wife was Ahab's daughter, and like the family of Ahab he followed the evil ways of the kings of Israel. He sinned against the LORD, 2Ki 8:19 but the LORD was not willing to destroy Judah, because he had promised his servant David that his descendants would always continue to rule.

2Ki 8:20 During Jehoram's reign Edom revolted against Judah and became an independent kingdom.

2Ki 8:21 So Jehoram set out with all his chariots to Zair, where the Edomite army surrounded them. During the night he and his chariot commanders managed to break out and escape, and his soldiers scattered to their homes.

2Ki 8:22 Edom has been independent of Judah ever since. During this same period the city of Libnah also revolted.

2Ki 8:23 Everything else that Jehoram did is recorded in The History of the Kings of Judah.

2Ki 8:24 Jehoram died and was buried in the royal tombs in David's City, and his son Ahaziah succeeded him as king.

Ahaziah Reigns in Judah

2Ki 8:25 In the twelfth year of the reign of Joram son of Ahab as king of Israel, Ahaziah son of Jehoram became king of Judah

2Ki 8:26 at the age of twenty-two, and he ruled in Jerusalem for one year. His mother was Athaliah, the daughter of King Ahab and granddaughter of King Omri of Israel.

2Ki 8:27 Since Ahaziah was related to King Ahab by marriage, he sinned against the LORD, just as Ahab's family did.

2Ki 8:28 King Ahaziah joined King Joram of Israel in a war against King Hazael of Syria. The armies clashed at Ramoth in Gilead, and Joram was wounded in battle.

2Ki 8:29 He returned to the city of Jezreel to recover from his wounds, and Ahaziah went there to visit him.

II KONINGS 8

1Elisa het vir die vrou wie se seun hy in die lewe teruggebring het, gesê: Maak klaar om te vertrek, jy en jou huisgesin. Gaan bly op enige plek in die buiteland waar jy blyplek kan kry, want die Here het 'n hongersnood van sewe jaar vir hierdie land bepaal, en dit het al klaar begin. 2Die vrou het klaargemaak soos die profeet gesê het, en met haar gesin vertrek en sewe jaar lank in die land van die Filistyne gaan bly. 3Aan die einde van die sewe jaar het sy uit die land van die Filistyne teruggekeer. Sy het na die koning toe gegaan om by hom te pleit vir haar huis en haar grond. 4Die koning was in gesprek met Gehasi, die slaaf van die man van God. Hy het gevra: Vertel 'n bietjie vir my van al die groot dinge wat Elisa gedoen het. 5Terwyl hy vir die koning vertel van die dooie vir wie Elisa in die lewe teruggebring het, kom die vrou wie se seun hy in die lewe teruggebring het, juis by die koning pleit vir haar huis en haar grond. Gehasi sê toe: U Majesteit, dit is die vrou hierdie, en dit is haar seun vir wie Elisa in die lewe teruggebring het. 6Die koning het die vrou uitgevra, en sy het hom alles vertel. Die koning het 'n paleisamptenaar tot haar beskikking gestel met die opdrag: Sorg dat sy alles terugkry wat aan haar behoort, ook die hele opbrengs van die grond van die dag af dat sy die land verlaat het tot nou toe. 7Toe Elisa in Damaskus kom, was koning Ben-Hadad van Aram juis siek. Toe hulle hom meedeel dat die man van God daar aangekom het, 8het die koning vir Gasael gesê: Neem geskenke saam met jou en gaan na die man van God toe. Gaan raadpleeg die Here deur hom of ek van hierdie siekte gesond sal word. 9Gasael het hom tegemoet gegaan met geskenke van allerhande pragtige Damaskusware, 'n vrag vir veertig kamele. Hy het by hom gekom, voor hom gaan staan en gesê: U dienswillige, koning Ben-Hadad van Aram, het my na u toe gestuur om te vra of hy van sy siekte gesond sal word. 10Elisa het vir Gasael gesê: Gaan sê vir jou koning hy sal nie gesond word nie, want die Here het aan my geopenbaar dat hy sal sterwe. 11Die man van God het vir Gasael met 'n strak gesig aangekyk totdat hy verleë geword het. Toe het Elisa in trane uitgebars. 12Waarom huil u? het Gasael gevra. Elisa het geantwoord: Omdat ek weet watter kwaad jy die Israeliete gaan aandoen. Jy sal hulle vestings in vlamme laat opgaan, hulle jongmanne doodmaak, hulle kindertjies verpletter en hulle swanger vrouens oopsny. 13Maar Gasael het gesê: Ek het nie enige mag nie, hoe sou ek so iets kon doen! Elisa het geantwoord: Die Here het aan my geopenbaar dat jy koning oor Aram sal word. 14Gasael het van Elisa af weggegaan en by sy koning gekom. Dié het hom gevra: Wat het Elisa vir jou gesê? Gasael antwoord toe: Hy het vir my gesê u sal lewe. 15Die volgende môre het Gasael 'n doek gevat, dit in water gesteek en oor die koning se gesig getrek, en die koning het gesterf. Gasael het hom as koning opgevolg. 16In die vyfde regeringsjaar van koning Joram van Israel, seun van Agab, het Joram seun van Josafat sy pa opgevolg as koning van Juda. 17Hy was twee en dertig toe hy koning geword het, en hy het ag jaar in Jerusalem geregeer. 18Hy het die pad van die konings van Israel geloop soos die koningshuis van Agab gedoen het, want hy was getroud met 'n dogter van Agab. Hy het gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here. 19Die Here wou Juda nie vernietig nie, ter wille van sy dienaar Dawid. Die Here het hom belowe om altyd iemand uit sy nageslag op sy troon te laat sit. 20In die tyd van Joram het die Edomiete teen Juda gerebelleer en 'n eie koning oor hulle aangestel. 21Joram het met sy hele strydwamag opgeruk na Saïr toe. Hy het in die nag die Edomiete aangeval wat hom en sy strydwaoffisiere wou omsingel, maar sy manskappe moes vlug, terug huis toe. 22Tot vandag toe is Edom in opstand teen die gesag van Juda. Destyds het Libna ook gerebelleer. 23Die ander verhale oor Joram en alles wat hy gedoen het, is opgeteken in die annale van die konings van Juda. 24Hy is oorlede, en hy is begrawe in die familiegraf in die Dawidstad. Sy seun Ahasia het hom as koning opgevolg. 25In die twaalfde regeringsjaar van koning Joram van Israel, seun van Agab, het Ahasia seun van Joram koning van Juda geword. 26Ahasia was twee en twintig toe hy koning geword het en hy het 'n jaar in Jerusalem geregeer. Sy ma was Atalia 'n kleindogter van koning Omri van Israel. 27Hy het die pad van die koningshuis van Agab geloop: hy het gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here net soos die koningshuis van Agab, want hy het ingetrou in die familie van Agab. 28Saam met Joram seun van Agab het hy opgeruk om te veg teen koning Gasael van Aram by Ramot in Gilead. Die Arameërs het vir Joram daar gewond. 29Koning Joram het teruggegaan om in Jisreël te gaan herstel van die wonde wat die Arameërs hom in Ramot toegedien het toe hy teen koning Gasael van Aram geveg het. Koning Ahasia van Juda, seun van Joram, het vir Joram seun van Agab in Jisreël gaan besoek waar hy siek gelê het.

Jehu Anointed King of Israel

2Ki 9:1 Meanwhile the prophet Elisha called one of the young prophets and said to him, "Get ready and go to Ramoth in Gilead. Take this jar of olive oil with you,

2Ki 9:2 and when you get there look for Jehu, the son of Jehoshaphat and grandson of Nimshi. Take him to a private room away from his companions,

2Ki 9:3 pour this olive oil on his head, and say, 'The LORD proclaims that he anoints you king of Israel.' Then leave there as fast as you can."

2Ki 9:4 So the young prophet went to Ramoth,

2Ki 9:5 where he found the army officers in a conference. He said, "Sir, I have a message for you." Jehu asked, "Which one of us are you speaking to?" "To you, sir," he replied.

2Ki 9:6 Then the two of them went indoors, and the young prophet poured the olive oil on Jehu's head and said to him, "The LORD, the God of Israel, proclaims: 'I anoint you king of my people Israel.

2Ki 9:7 You are to kill your master the king, that son of Ahab, so that I may punish Jezebel for murdering my prophets and my other servants.

2Ki 9:8 All of Ahab's family and descendants are to die; I will get rid of every male in his family, young and old alike.

2Ki 9:9 I will treat his family as I did the families of King Jeroboam of Israel and of King Baasha of Israel.

2Ki 9:10 Jezebel will not be buried; her body will be eaten by dogs in the territory of Jezreel.' " After saying this, the young prophet left the room and fled.

2Ki 9:11 Jehu went back to his fellow officers, who asked him, "Is everything all right? What did that crazy fellow want with you?" "You know what he wanted," Jehu answered.

2Ki 9:12 "No we don't!" they replied. "Tell us what he said!" "He told me that the LORD proclaims: 'I anoint you king of Israel.' "

2Ki 9:13 At once Jehu's fellow officers spread their cloaks at the top of the steps for Jehu to stand on, blew trumpets, and shouted, "Jehu is king!"

Jehu Assassinates Joram and Ahaziah

2Ki 9:14 (14-15) Then Jehu plotted against King Joram, who was in Jezreel, where he had gone to recover from the wounds which he had received in the battle at Ramoth against King Hazael of Syria. So Jehu said to his fellow officers, "If you are with me, make sure that no one slips out of Ramoth to go and warn the people in Jezreel."

2Ki 9:16 Then he got into his chariot and set off for Jezreel. Joram had still not recovered, and King Ahaziah of Judah was there, visiting him.

2Ki 9:17 A guard on duty in the watchtower at Jezreel saw Jehu and his men approaching. "I see some men riding up!" he called out. Joram replied, "Send a rider to find out if they are friends or enemies."

2Ki 9:18 The messenger rode out to Jehu and said to him, "The king wants to know if you come as a friend." "That's none of your business!" Jehu answered. "Fall in behind me." The guard on the watchtower reported that the messenger had reached the group but was not returning.

2Ki 9:19 Another messenger was sent out, who asked Jehu the same question. Again Jehu answered, "That's none of your business! Fall in behind me."

2Ki 9:20 Once more the guard reported that the messenger had reached the group but was not returning. And he added, "The leader of the group is driving his chariot like a madman, just like Jehu!"

2Ki 9:21 "Get my chariot ready," King Joram ordered. It was done, and he and King Ahaziah rode out, each in his own chariot, to meet Jehu. They met him at the field which had belonged to Naboth.

2Ki 9:22 "Are you coming in peace?" Joram asked him. "How can there be peace," Jehu answered, "when we still have all the witchcraft and idolatry that your mother Jezebel started?"

2Ki 9:23 "It's treason, Ahaziah!" Joram cried out, as he turned his chariot around and fled.

2Ki 9:24 Jehu drew his bow, and with all his strength shot an arrow that struck Joram in the back and pierced his heart. Joram fell dead in his chariot,

2Ki 9:25 and Jehu said to his aide Bidkar, "Get his body and throw it in the field that belonged to Naboth. Remember that when you and I were riding together behind King Joram's father Ahab, the LORD spoke these words against Ahab:

2Ki 9:26 'I saw the murder of Naboth and his sons yesterday. And I promise that I will punish you here in this same field.' So take Joram's body," Jehu ordered his aide, "and throw it in the field that belonged to Naboth, so as to fulfill the LORD's promise."

2Ki 9:27 King Ahaziah saw what happened, so he fled in his chariot toward the town of Beth Haggan, pursued by Jehu. "Kill him too!" Jehu ordered his men, and they wounded him as he drove his chariot on the road up to Gur, near the town of Ibleam. But he managed to keep on going until he reached the city of Megiddo, where he died.

2Ki 9:28 His officials took his body back to Jerusalem in a chariot and buried him in the royal tombs in David's City.

2Ki 9:29 Ahaziah had become king of Judah in the eleventh year that Joram son of Ahab was king of Israel.

Jehu Executes Jezebel

2Ki 9:30 Jehu arrived in Jezreel. Jezebel, having heard what had happened, put on eye shadow, arranged her hair, and stood looking down at the street from a window in the palace.

2Ki 9:31 As Jehu came through the gate, she called out, "You Zimri! You assassin! Why are you here?"

2Ki 9:32 Jehu looked up and shouted, "Who is on my side?" Two or three palace officials looked down at him from a window,

2Ki 9:33 and Jehu said to them, "Throw her down!" They threw her down, and her blood spattered on the wall and on the horses. Jehu drove his horses and chariot over her body,

2Ki 9:34 entered the palace, and had a meal. Only then did he say, "Take that cursed woman and bury her; after all, she is a king's daughter."

2Ki 9:35 But the men who went out to bury her found nothing except her skull and the bones of her hands and feet.

2Ki 9:36 When they reported this to Jehu, he said, "This is what the LORD said would happen, when he spoke through his servant Elijah: 'Dogs will eat Jezebel's body in the territory of Jezreel.

2Ki 9:37 Her remains will be scattered there like dung, so that no one will be able to identify them.' "

II KONINGS 9

1Die profeet Elisa het een van die profete geroep en vir hom gesê: Maak klaar en vat hierdie kruikie olie en gaan na Ramot in Gilead toe. 2As jy daar kom, gaan soek vir Jehu op, seun van Josafat seun van Nimsi. Gaan in, bring hom eenkant, weg van sy medeoffisiere af, in 'n binnekamer, 3vat die kruik olie en giet dit op sy kop uit. Sê dan vir hom: So sê die Here: Ek salf jou tot koning van Israel.' Maak dan die deur oop en vlug onmiddellik. 4Die jongman, die profeet, het na Ramot in Gilead toe gegaan. 5Toe hy daar aankom, was die generaals besig met 'n samespreking. Hy het gesê: Ek het 'n boodskap vir u, Generaal. Jehu het gevra: Vir wie van ons? Hy het geantwoord: Vir u, Generaal. 6Jehu het opgestaan en toe hy in die ander vertrek inkom, het die profeet die olie op Jehu se kop uitgegiet met die woorde: So sê die Here die God van Israel: Ek salf jou tot koning oor Israel, die volk van die Here. 7Jy sal die koningshuis van Agab vernietig. So sal Ek My wreek op Isebel oor die vergieting van die bloed van my dienaars die profete, oor die vergieting van die bloed van al die dienaars van die Here. 8Die hele koningshuis van Agab sal tot niet gaan. Ek sal elke manlike nakomeling van Agab in Israel sonder uitsondering uitroei. 9Ek sal met die huis van Agab maak soos met die huis van Jerobeam seun van Nebat, en soos met die huis van Baesa seun van Agija. 10Die honde sal vir Isebel opvreet op die oop stuk grond in Jisreël; sy sal nie begrawe word nie. Die profeet het toe die deur oopgemaak en gevlug. 11Toe Jehu uit die kamer uit terugkom by die amptenare van die koning, het hulle vir hom gevra: Is alles reg? Hoekom het hierdie mal man na jou toe gekom? Hy het hulle geantwoord: Julle ken tog self die man en sy praatjies. 12Hulle antwoord toe: Onsin! Toe, vertel ons. Hy het gesê: Dit is wat die man vir my gesê het: So sê die Here: Ek salf jou tot koning oor Israel. 13Onmiddellik het elkeen sy klere gevat en dit op die trappe voor Jehu oopgegooi. Hulle het die ramshoring geblaas en uitgeroep: Jehu is koning! 14Jehu seun van Josafat, seun van Nimsi, het met hulle saamgesweer teen koning Joram van Israel. Hy was toe in Jisreël waar hy gaan herstel het van die wonde wat die Arameërs hom toegedien het toe hy teen koning Gasael van Aram geveg het. Dit het gebeur terwyl Joram en die Israeliete besig was om Ramot in Gilead te verdedig teen koning Gasael van Aram. Jehu het gesê: As julle aan my kant is, sorg dat niemand wegkom uit Ramot uit om die nuus in Jisreël te gaan vertel nie. 15Daarna het Jehu op sy wa geklim en Jisreël toe gery waar Joram siek gelê het en koning Ahasia van Juda vir Joram gaan besoek het. 16Waar die wag op die toring in Jisreël gestaan het, het hy Jehu se aanhangers sien aankom. Hy het opgemerk: Ek sien 'n klomp mense. Toe sê Joram: Beveel 'n ruiter om hulle tegemoet te ry en te vra of hulle in vrede kom. 17Die perderuiter het Jehu tegemoet gegaan en gesê: Die koning vra of jy in vrede kom. Jehu het geantwoord: Wat maak dit saak of ek in vrede kom? Sluit by my aan. Die man het laat weet: Die boodskapper het tot by hulle gekom, maar hy kom nie terug nie. 18Koning Joram stuur toe 'n tweede perderuiter. Toe hy by hulle kom, sê hy: Die koning vra of jy in vrede kom? Jehu het geantwoord: Wat maak dit saak of ek in vrede kom? Sluit by my aan. 19Die wag het laat weet: Die boodskapper het tot by hulle gekom, maar hy kom nie terug nie. Die een wat die wa dryf, moet Jehu seun van Nimsi wees, want hy dryf soos 'n mal mens! 20Koning Joram van Israel het toe opdrag gegee: Span die wa in. Hulle het sy wa ingespan en hy het opgeklim. Koning Ahasia van Juda het op sy eie wa geklim. Hulle het na Jehu toe gery en by hom gekom by die stuk grond van Nabot die Jisreëliet. 21Toe Joram vir Jehu sien, vra hy: Kom jy in vrede, Jehu? Maar hy antwoord: Wat? Vrede? Met al hierdie hoerery en toordery van jou ma Isebel se afgodsdiens? 22Toe Joram die wa ompluk om te vlug, skree hy vir Ahasia: Verraad, Ahasia! 23Jehu het sy boog gespan en Joram tussen die blaaie getref. Die pyl is deur sy hart; daar op sy wa het hy inmekaargesak. 24Jehu het sy adjudant Bidkar beveel: Tel hom op en gooi hom op die stuk grond van Nabot die Jisreëliet. Onthou jy toe ek en jy langs mekaar agter sy pa Agab aangery het hoe die Here hierdie oordeel oor hom aangekondig het? 25Die Here het toe gesê: So seker as Ek die vergieting van die bloed van Nabot en van sy seuns gister gesien het, sal Ek jou daarvoor vergelding laat doen op hierdie selfde stuk grond.' Vat hom nou en gooi hom op dié stuk grond, net soos die Here gesê het. 26Toe koning Ahasia van Juda sien wat gebeur, het hy in die rigting van Bet-Gan gevlug. Jehu het hom agtervolg en opdrag gegee: Skiet hom ook! Op die hoogte van Gur, by Jibleam, het hulle hom op sy wa raakgeskiet. Hy het nog tot by Megiddo gevlug, maar daar het hy gesterf. 27Sy dienaars het hom op sy wa na Jerusalem toe vervoer en hom daar in die Dawidstad in die familiegraf begrawe. 28In die elfde regeringsjaar van Joram seun van Agab het Ahasia koning geword oor Juda. 29Isebel het gehoor dat Jehu na Jisreël toe op pad is. Sy het oogverf aangesmeer en haar hare mooi gemaak. Sy het by die venster gaan staan en uitkyk. 30Toe Jehu by die poort inkom, het sy vir hom gesê: Kom jy in vrede, Simri , koningsmoordenaar? 31Jehu het na die venster toe opgekyk en gevra: Wie is aan my kant? Wie? Twee, drie paleisamptenare het afgekyk na hom toe. 32Hy het beveel: Gooi haar af! Toe gooi hulle haar af. Van haar bloed het teen die muur en teen die perde gespat, en hulle het haar doodgetrap. 33Hy het in die paleis ingegaan en gaan eet en drink. Daarna het hy gesê: Sien tog maar om na hierdie vervloekte vrou. Begrawe haar, sy is darem 'n koning se dogter. 34Hulle is weg om haar te gaan begrawe, maar hulle kon net die kopbeen, die voete en die hande kry. [35]Toe hulle dit aan Jehu kom rapporteer, het hy gesê: Dit is die woord van die Here wat deur sy dienaar Elia die Tisbiet gekom het: Op die oop stuk grond in Jisreël sal die honde die vleis van Isebel opvreet.' [36]Op die oop stuk grond in Jisreël sal die lyk van Isebel wees soos mis in 'n land. Niemand sal kan sê dit is Isebel nie.

Jehu Slaughters Ahab's Descendants

2Ki 10:1 There were seventy descendants of King Ahab living in the city of Samaria. Jehu wrote a letter and sent copies to the rulers of the city, to the leading citizens, and to the guardians of Ahab's descendants. The letter read:

2Ki 10:2 "You are in charge of the king's descendants, and you have at your disposal chariots, horses, weapons, and fortified cities. So then, as soon as you receive this letter,

2Ki 10:3 you are to choose the best qualified of the king's descendants, make him king, and fight to defend him."

2Ki 10:4 The rulers of Samaria were terrified. "How can we oppose Jehu," they said, "when neither King Joram nor King Ahaziah could?"

2Ki 10:5 So the officer in charge of the palace and the official in charge of the city, together with the leading citizens and the guardians, sent this message to Jehu: "We are your servants, and we are ready to do anything you say. But we will not make anyone king; do whatever you think best."

2Ki 10:6 Jehu wrote them another letter: "If you are with me and are ready to follow my orders, bring the heads of King Ahab's descendants to me at Jezreel by this time tomorrow." The seventy descendants of King Ahab were under the care of the leading citizens of Samaria, who were bringing them up.

2Ki 10:7 When Jehu's letter was received, the leaders of Samaria killed all seventy of Ahab's descendants, put their heads in baskets, and sent them to Jehu at Jezreel.

2Ki 10:8 When Jehu was told that the heads of Ahab's descendants had been brought, he ordered them to be piled up in two heaps at the city gate and to be left there until the following morning.

2Ki 10:9 In the morning he went out to the gate and said to the people who were there, "I was the one who plotted against King Joram and killed him; you are not responsible for that. But who killed all these?

2Ki 10:10 This proves that everything that the LORD said about the descendants of Ahab will come true. The LORD has done what he promised through his prophet Elijah."

2Ki 10:11 Then Jehu put to death all the other relatives of Ahab living in Jezreel, and all his officers, close friends, and priests; not one of them was left alive.

2Ki 10:12 Jehu left Jezreel to go to Samaria. On the way, at a place called "Shepherds' Camp,"

2Ki 10:13 he met some relatives of the late King Ahaziah of Judah and asked them, "Who are you?" "Ahaziah's relatives," they answered. "We are going to Jezreel to pay our respects to the children of Queen Jezebel and to the rest of the royal family."

2Ki 10:14 Jehu ordered his men, "Take them alive!" They seized them, and he put them to death near a pit there. There were forty-two people in all, and not one of them was left alive.

2Ki 10:15 Jehu started out again, and on his way he was met by Jonadab son of Rechab. Jehu greeted him and said, "You and I think alike. Will you support me?" "I will," Jonadab answered. "Give me your hand, then," Jehu replied. They clasped hands, and Jehu helped him up into the chariot, 2Ki 10:16 saying, "Come with me and see for yourself how devoted I am to the LORD." And they rode on together to Samaria.

2Ki 10:17 When they arrived there, Jehu killed all of Ahab's relatives, not sparing even one. This is what the LORD had told Elijah would happen.

Jehu Strikes Down the Prophets of Baal

2Ki 10:18 Jehu called the people of Samaria together and said, "King Ahab served the god Baal a little, but I will serve him much more.

2Ki 10:19 Call together all the prophets of Baal, all his worshipers, and all his priests. No one is excused; I am going to offer a great sacrifice to Baal, and whoever is not present will be put to death." (This was a trick on the part of Jehu by which he meant to kill all the worshipers of Baal.)

2Ki 10:20 Then Jehu ordered, "Proclaim a day of worship in honor of Baal!" The proclamation was made,

2Ki 10:21 and Jehu sent word throughout all the land of Israel. All who worshiped Baal came; not one of them failed to come. They all went into the temple of Baal, filling it from one end to the other.

2Ki 10:22 Then Jehu ordered the priest in charge of the sacred robes to bring the robes out and give them to the worshipers.

2Ki 10:23 After that, Jehu himself went into the temple with Jonadab son of Rechab and said to the people there, "Make sure that only worshipers of Baal are present and that no worshiper of the LORD has come in."

2Ki 10:24 Then he and Jonadab went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings to Baal. He had stationed eighty men outside the temple and had instructed them: "You are to kill all these people; anyone who lets one of them escape will pay for it with his life!"

2Ki 10:25 As soon as Jehu had presented the offerings, he said to the guards and officers, "Go in and kill them all; don't let anyone escape!" They went in with drawn swords, killed them all, and dragged the bodies outside. Then they went on into the inner sanctuary of the temple, 2Ki 10:26 brought out the sacred pillar that was there, and burned it.

2Ki 10:27 So they destroyed the sacred pillar and the temple, and turned the temple into a latrine—which it still is today.

Jehu Reigns in Israel

2Ki 10:28 That was how Jehu wiped out the worship of Baal in Israel.

2Ki 10:29 But he imitated the sin of King Jeroboam, who led Israel into the sin of worshiping the gold bull-calves he set up in Bethel and in Dan.

2Ki 10:30 The LORD said to Jehu, "You have done to Ahab's descendants everything I wanted you to do. So I promise you that your descendants, down to the fourth generation, will be kings of Israel."

2Ki 10:31 But Jehu did not obey with all his heart the Law of the LORD, the God of Israel; instead, he followed the example of Jeroboam, who led Israel into sin.

2Ki 10:32 At that time the LORD began to reduce the size of Israel's territory. King Hazael of Syria conquered all the Israelite territory

2Ki 10:33 east of the Jordan, as far south as the town of Aroer on the Arnon River—this included the territories of Gilead and Bashan, where the tribes of Gad, Reuben, and East Manasseh lived.

2Ki 10:34 Everything else that Jehu did, including his brave deeds, is recorded in The History of the Kings of Israel.

2Ki 10:35 He died and was buried in Samaria, and his son Jehoahaz succeeded him as king.

2Ki 10:36 Jehu had ruled in Samaria as king of Israel for twenty-eight years.

II KONINGS 10

1In Samaria was daar sewentig prinse uit Agab se geslag. Jehu het briewe geskryf en dit na Samaria toe gestuur, na die regeerders van Jisreël, na die leiers en na die opvoeders van Agab se nakomelinge. Dit het so gelui: 2As julle hierdie brief kry julle het daar by julle die prinse, die strydwaens en perde, 'n versterkte stad en wapentuig 3soek dan die beste en knapste prins uit en sit hom op die troon van sy pa. Maar julle sal moet veg vir julle koningshuis. 4Hulle het bang geword, want hulle het gedink: twee konings moes die onderspit teen hom delf, hoe sal ons ons kan handhaaf? 5Die amptenaar in beheer van die paleis en die een in beheer van die stad, die leiers en die opvoeders het vir Jehu laat weet: Ons wil u onderdane wees. Ons wil niemand koning maak nie. Alles wat u aan ons opdra, sal ons uitvoer. Doen wat u goedvind. 6Toe skryf hy vir hulle 'n tweede brief: As julle ten gunste van my is en aan my gehoorsaam wil wees, bring die koppe van die prinse môre hierdie tyd na my toe in Jisreël. Die sewentig prinse was elkeen tuis by 'n vooraanstaande persoon van die stad wat hulle moes grootmaak. 7Toe die brief by die leiers kom, het hulle die prinse gevat en al sewentig doodgemaak en hulle koppe in mandjies na Jehu toe in Jisreël gestuur. 8Die boodskapper het kom rapporteer: Hulle het die koppe van die prinse gebring. Jehu het gesê: Sit hulle tot môreoggend in twee hope neer by die ingang van die poort. 9Die volgende môre het hy uitgegaan, daar gaan staan, en vir al die mense daar gesê: Julle is onskuldig. Dit is ek wat teen die koning saamgesweer en hom vermoor het, maar wie het al hierdie mense doodgemaak? 10Erken dan dat nie 'n enkele ding wat die Here oor die huis van Agab gesê het, onvervul sal bly nie. Die Here het alles gedoen wat Hy deur sy dienaar Elia gesê het. 11Jehu het almal doodgemaak wat nog van die koningshuis van Agab in Jisreël oor was: al die vooraanstaandes, vertrouelinge, selfs priesters; hy het nie een laat wegkom nie. 12Jehu het klaargemaak en na Samaria toe vertrek. Langs die pad by Bet-Eked-Roïm 13het hy die broers van koning Ahasia van Juda teëgekom. Wie is julle? het hy gevra. Ons is Ahasia se broers, het hulle geantwoord, ons gaan kyk hoe gaan dit met die prinse en die koning se ma. 14Jehu het beveel: Vang hulle. Hulle het hulle gevang en hulle doodgemaak by die put van Bet-Eked, altesaam twee en veertig; hy het nie een van hulle laat oorbly nie. 15Toe hy daar weg is, kom hy vir Jonadab seun van Rekab op die pad teë. Nadat hy hom gegroet het, vra hy vir hom: Kan ek op jou reken soos jy op my? Jonadab het geantwoord: Ja. As dit ja is, sê Jehu, gee my jou hand. Hulle het mekaar die hand gegee en Jehu het hom by hom op die wa laat klim. 16Jehu het gesê: Kom saam met my, dan sal jy my ywer vir die Here sien. Jehu het hom saam met hom laat ry, 17en toe Jehu in Samaria kom, het hy almal van Agab wat nog in Samaria oor was, doodgemaak; hy het tot die laaste een toe om die lewe gebring, soos die Here vir Elia gesê het. 18Jehu het die hele volk bymekaar laat kom en vir hulle gesê: Agab het vir Baäl maar net 'n bietjie gedien, maar ek wat Jehu is, gaan hom baie meer dien. 19Roep nou al die profete van Baäl na my toe, al sy vereerders en al sy priesters. Nie een mag wegbly nie, want ek wil 'n groot offer aan Baäl bring. Nie een wat wegbly, sal bly leef nie. Jehu het dit met lis beplan om die vereerders van Baäl te kan vernietig. 20Jehu het beveel: Sonder vir Baäl 'n feesdag af. So 'n feesdag is uitgeroep, 21en Jehu het oral in Israel boodskappers gestuur, sodat al die vereerders van Baäl gekom het; daar was nie 'n enkele wat nie gekom het nie. Hulle het in die tempel van Baäl ingegaan, sodat die tempel naderhand van hoek tot kant vol was. 22Aan die persoon wat oor die klerekamer toesig gehou het, het hy gesê: Bring klere vir al die vereerders van Baäl. Hy het vir hulle die klere gebring. 23Jehu en Jonadab seun van Rekab het saam in die tempel van Baäl ingegaan, en Jehu het vir die vereerders van Baäl gesê: Sorg dat hier nie vereerders van die Here saam met julle is nie; net die vereerders van Baäl moet hier wees. 24Toe hulle ingaan om die brandoffers en ander diereoffers te bring, was daar buite tagtig man wat deur Jehu opgestel is met die bevel: Die persoon wat een van die manne wat ek in julle mag gee, laat wegkom, sal met sy eie lewe daarvoor boet. 25Net toe Jehu klaar die brandoffer gebring het, het hy vir die hardlopers en die adjudante gesê: Gaan in en maak hulle dood. Niemand mag daar uitkom nie. Hulle het hulle doodgesteek en die liggame uitgegooi. Hulle het in die binneste heiligdom van die Baälstempel ingedring, 26die klippilaar uit die Baälstempel uitgebring en dit in die vuur gegooi. 27Hulle het die klippilaar stukkend geslaan en die tempel van Baäl afgebreek en daarvan kleinhuisies gebou, wat dit vandag nog is. 28So het Jehu die Baäldiens uit Israel verdelg. 29Jehu het nie afgesien van die sondes wat Jerobeam seun van Nebat vir Israel laat doen het nie: die goue kalwers wat in Bet-El en in Dan was, is nog vereer. 30Die Here het vir Jehu gesê: Omdat jy gedoen het wat goed en reg is in my oë en jy die huis van Agab alles aangedoen het wat Ek My voorgeneem het, sal jou kinders tot in die vierde geslag op die troon van Israel sit. 31Maar Jehu het nie met sy hele hart die woord van die Here die God van Israel gehoorsaam nie. Hy het nie afgesien van die sondes wat Jerobeam vir Israel laat doen het nie. 32In daardie tyd het die Here begin om die gebied van Israel kleiner te maak. Oral in die grondgebied van Israel het Gasael hulle neerlae toegedien: 33van die Jordaan af ooswaarts, die hele Gilead waar die stamme Gad, Ruben en Manasse gewoon het, van Aroër af aan die Arnonrivier, Gilead sowel as Basan. 34Die ander verhale oor Jehu en alles wat hy gedoen het, al sy dapper dade, is opgeteken in die annale van die konings van Israel. [35]Jehu is oorlede, en hulle het hom begrawe in Samaria. Sy seun Joahas het hom as koning opgevolg. [36]Jehu het ag en twintig jaar in Samaria as koning oor Israel geregeer.

2Kings 11

Athaliah Reigns in Judah

2Ki 11:1 As soon as King Ahaziah's mother Athaliah learned of her son's murder, she gave orders for all the members of the royal family to be killed.

2Ki 11:2 Only Ahaziah's son Joash escaped. He was about to be killed with the others, but was rescued by his aunt Jehosheba, who was King Jehoram's daughter and Ahaziah's half sister. She took him and his nurse into a bedroom in the Temple and hid him from Athaliah, so that he was not killed.

2Ki 11:3 For six years Jehosheba took care of the boy and kept him hidden in the Temple, while Athaliah ruled as queen.

Joash Anointed King in Judah

2Ki 11:4 But in the seventh year Jehoiada the priest sent for the officers in charge of the royal bodyguard and of the palace guards, and told them to come to the Temple, where he made them agree under oath to what he planned to do. He showed them King Ahaziah's son Joash

2Ki 11:5 and gave them the following orders: "When you come on duty on the Sabbath, one third of you are to guard the palace;

2Ki 11:6 another third are to stand guard at the Sur Gate, and the other third are to stand guard at the gate behind the other guards.

2Ki 11:7 The two groups that go off duty on the Sabbath are to stand guard at the Temple to protect the king.

2Ki 11:8 You are to guard King Joash with drawn swords and stay with him wherever he goes. Anyone who comes near you is to be killed."

2Ki 11:9 The officers obeyed Jehoiada's instructions and brought their men to him—those going off duty on the Sabbath and those going on duty.

2Ki 11:10 He gave the officers the spears and shields that had belonged to King David and had been kept in the Temple, 2Ki 11:11 and he stationed the men with drawn swords all around the front of the Temple, to protect the king.

2Ki 11:12 Then Jehoiada led Joash out, placed the crown on his head, and gave him a copy of the laws governing kingship. Then Joash was anointed and proclaimed king. The people clapped their hands and shouted, "Long live the king!"

2Ki 11:13 Queen Athaliah heard the noise being made by the guards and the people, so she hurried to the Temple, where the crowd had gathered.

2Ki 11:14 There she saw the new king standing by the column at the entrance of the Temple, as was the custom. He was surrounded by the officers and the trumpeters, and the people were all shouting joyfully and blowing trumpets. Athaliah tore her clothes in distress and shouted, "Treason! Treason!"

2Ki 11:15 Jehoiada did not want Athaliah killed in the Temple area, so he ordered the army officers: "Take her out between the rows of guards, and kill anyone who tries to rescue her."

2Ki 11:16 They seized her, took her to the palace, and there at the Horse Gate they killed her.

2Ki 11:17 The priest Jehoiada had King Joash and the people make a covenant with the LORD that they would be the LORD's people; he also made a covenant between the king and the people.

2Ki 11:18 Then the people went to the temple of Baal and tore it down; they smashed the altars and the idols, and killed Mattan, the priest of Baal, in front of the altars. Jehoiada put guards on duty at the Temple, 2Ki 11:19 and then he, the officers, the royal bodyguard, and the palace guards escorted the king from the Temple to the palace, followed by all the people. Joash entered by the Guard Gate and took his place on the throne.

2Ki 11:20 All the people were filled with happiness, and the city was quiet, now that Athaliah had been killed in the palace.

Jehoash Reigns in Judah

2Ki 11:21 Joash became king of Judah at the age of seven.

1Toe Ahasia se ma Atalia hoor haar seun is dood het sy begin om die hele koningsgeslag uit te roei. 2Jehoseba, dogter van koning Joram en suster van Ahasia, het egter vir Joas, 'n seun van Ahasia, stilletjies weggevat tussen die prinse wat doodgemaak sou word. Sy het hom en sy oppasster in 'n slaapkamer weggesteek vir Atalia, sodat hy die dood vrygespring het. 3Hy is ses jaar by Jehoseba in die huis van die Here weggesteek, en in dié tyd het Atalia die land geregeer. 4In die sewende jaar het die priester Jojada boodskappe gestuur na die Kariërs se bevelhebbers oor honderd en na dié van die hardlopers, en hulle na hom toe in die huis van die Here laat kom. Daar het hy met hulle 'n verbond gesluit. Nadat hy hulle in die huis van die Here 'n eed laat aflê het, het hy hulle die koning se seun gewys. 5Hy het hulle beveel: 'n Derde van julle, van dié wat op die sabbat kom diens doen, moet wagstaan by die wagpos van die paleis. 6'n Derde moet by die Surpoort en 'n derde by die poort agter die hardlopers wagstaan. Julle moet om die beurt by die tempel wagstaan. 7Die twee afdelings van julle wat op die sabbat van diens af gaan, moet die koning in die huis van die Here bewaak. 8Julle moet rondom die koning wees, elkeen met sy wapens in die hand. Enigeen wat in julle geledere probeer inkom, moet doodgemaak word. Bly by die koning oral waar hy gaan. 9Die bevelhebbers oor honderd het alles gedoen wat die priester Jojada beveel het. Elkeen het sy manskappe gevat, dié wat op die sabbat diens moes doen, sowel as dié wat klaar was met hulle diens, en na die priester Jojada toe gekom. 10Daarna het die priester die spiese en die skilde wat nog aan koning Dawid behoort het en in die tempel was, aan die bevelvoerders uitgedeel. 11Die hardlopers het elkeen met sy wapen in die hand om die koning gaan staan, naby die altaar en die tempel, van die suidekant tot by die noordekant van die tempel. 12Toe het Jojada die jong koning vorentoe laat kom, hom gekroon en die koninklike volmag aan hom oorhandig. So het hulle hom koning gemaak. Hulle het hom gesalf, hande geklap en geroep: Lank lewe die koning! 13Atalia het die uitroepe van die hardlopers en die volk gehoor en het ook na die huis van die Here toe gegaan waar die volk bymekaar was. 14Daar sien sy toe die koning op sy plek staan soos die gebruik was, met die volksleiers en trompetblasers by hom en al die burgers van die land wat juig en trompette blaas. Toe skeur Atalia haar klere en skreeu: Verraad, verraad! 15Die priester Jojada beveel toe die bevelhebbers oor honderd wat in beheer van die manskappe was: Bring haar tussen julle uit en maak elkeen dood wat agter haar aankom. Die priester het gesê: Sy mag nie in die huis van die Here doodgemaak word nie. 16Hulle het haar gegryp en haar deur die Perdepoort na die paleis toe gevat en haar daar doodgemaak. 17Toe het Jojada 'n verbond gesluit tussen die Here, die koning en die volk, dat hulle die volk van die Here sou wees. Hy het ook tussen die koning en die volk 'n verbond tot stand laat kom. 18Daarna het al die burgers van die land na die Baälstempel toe gegaan en dit verwoes. Hulle het die altare en die beelde stukkend geslaan en vir Mattan, die Baälspriester, by die altare doodgeslaan. Die priester Jojada het opsigters oor die huis van die Here aangestel. 19Hy het die bevelhebbers oor honderd, die Kariërs, die hardlopers en al die burgers van die land geneem om die koning van die huis van die Here af deur die Hardloperspoort na die paleis toe te bring. Daar het die koning op die troon gaan sit. 20Al die burgers van die land was bly. Die stad was weer rustig. Hulle het vir Atalia in die paleis doodgemaak. 21Joas was sewe jaar toe hy koning geword het.

2Ki 12:1 In the seventh year of the reign of King Jehu of Israel, Joash became king of Judah, and he ruled in Jerusalem for forty years. His mother was Zibiah from the city of Beersheba.

2Ki 12:2 Throughout his life he did what pleased the LORD, because Jehoiada the priest instructed him.

2Ki 12:3 However, the pagan places of worship were not destroyed, and the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense there.

Jehoash Repairs the Temple

2Ki 12:4 Joash called the priests and ordered them to save up the money paid in connection with the sacrifices in the Temple, both the dues paid for the regular sacrifices and the money given as freewill gifts.

2Ki 12:5 Each priest was to be responsible for the money brought by those he served, and the money was to be used to repair the Temple, as needed.

2Ki 12:6 But by the twenty-third year of Joash's reign the priests still had not made any repairs in the Temple.

2Ki 12:7 So he called in Jehoiada and the other priests and asked them, "Why aren't you repairing the Temple? From now on you are not to keep the money you receive; you must hand it over, so that the repairs can be made."

2Ki 12:8 The priests agreed to this and also agreed not to make the repairs in the Temple.

2Ki 12:9 Then Jehoiada took a box, made a hole in the lid, and placed the box by the altar, on the right side as one enters the Temple. The priests on duty at the entrance put in the box all the money given by the worshipers.

2Ki 12:10 Whenever there was a large amount of money in the box, the royal secretary and the High Priest would come, melt down the silver, and weigh it.

2Ki 12:11 After recording the exact amount, they would hand the silver over to the men in charge of the work in the Temple, and these would pay the carpenters, the builders, 2Ki 12:12 the masons, and the stone cutters, buy the timber and the stones used in the repairs, and pay all other necessary expenses.

2Ki 12:13 None of the money, however, was used to pay for making silver cups, bowls, trumpets, or tools for tending the lamps, or any other article of silver or of gold.

2Ki 12:14 It was all used to pay the workers and to buy the materials used in the repairs.

2Ki 12:15 The men in charge of the work were thoroughly honest, so there was no need to require them to account for the funds.

2Ki 12:16 The money given for the repayment offerings and for the offerings for sin was not deposited in the box; it belonged to the priests.

2Ki 12:17 At that time King Hazael of Syria attacked the city of Gath and conquered it; then he decided to attack Jerusalem.

2Ki 12:18 King Joash of Judah took all the offerings that his predecessors Jehoshaphat, Jehoram, and Ahaziah had dedicated to the LORD, added to them his own offerings and all the gold in the treasuries of the Temple and the palace, and sent them all as a gift to King Hazael, who then led his army away from Jerusalem.

The Death of Joash

2Ki 12:19 Everything else that King Joash did is recorded in The History of the Kings of Judah.

1In die sewende regeringsjaar van Jehu het Joas koning geword, en hy het veertig jaar in Jerusalem geregeer. Sy ma was Sibja, uit Berseba. 2Al die jare wat die priester Jojada sy leermeester was, het hy gedoen wat reg is in die oë van die Here. 3Hy het net nie die hoogtes verwyder nie. Die volk het voortgegaan om daar diereoffers en wierookoffers te bring. 4Joas het vir die priesters gesê: Neem al die geld wat as gewyde gawes na die huis van die Here toe gebring word: die geld wat gekollekteer word, dié waarvoor elkeen persoonlik aangeslaan word en dié wat as vrywillige gawes na die huis van die Here toe gebring word. 5Die priesters moet die geld in ontvangs neem by dié wat dit bring, en die tempel daarmee herstel, oral waar daar bouvallige plekke is. 6In die drie en twintigste regeringsjaar van koning Joas het die priesters die bouvallige plekke in die tempel nog steeds nie herstel gehad nie. 7Toe het koning Joas vir Jojada en die ander priesters ingeroep en vir hulle gevra: Waarom herstel julle nie die bouvallige plekke in die tempel nie? Julle moenie geld aanvaar van dié wat dit bring, as julle nie daarmee vir die herstel van die bouvallige plekke betaal nie. 8Die priesters het toe onderneem om nie langer geld van die volk te aanvaar solank hulle nie die bouvallige plekke herstel nie. 9Die priester Jojada het 'n kis gevat, 'n gat in die deksel geboor en dit langs die altaar neergesit, regs van waar 'n mens die huis van die Here binnekom. Die priesters wat by die drumpel wag gestaan het, het al die geld wat na die huis van die Here toe gebring is, daarin gegooi. 10Toe hulle sien dat daar baie geld in die kis is, het die sekretaris van die koning saam met die hoëpriester na die tempel toe gegaan en die geld wat in die huis van die Here was, in 'n sak gesit en gaan tel. 11Hulle het die afgetelde geld oorbetaal aan die werksvoormanne wat vir die huis van die Here aangestel is. Dié het dit oorbetaal aan die skrynwerkers en bouers wat die werk aan die huis van die Here moes uitvoer, 12so ook aan die messelaars en die klipkappers, om hout en gekapte klip te koop om die herstelwerk aan die huis van die Here te doen, kortom, om alle uitgawes aan die herstel van die tempel te dek. 13Daar is geen silwerbakke, skêre, komme of trompette gemaak vir die huis van die Here nie; geen silwer- of goue gereedskap is gemaak van die geld wat na die huis van die Here toe gebring is nie. 14Dit moes aan die voormanne gegee word om die huis van die Here te herstel. 15Hulle het nie die manne laat boekhou van die geld wat hulle aan hulle betaal het nie. Dit is aan die voormanne gegee wat die werk eerlik uitgevoer het. 16Die geld vir skuldoffers en sondeoffers is nie in die huis van die Here gebring nie; dit was vir die priesters bestem. 17Destyds het koning Gasael van Aram na Gat toe opgeruk, dit aangeval en ingeneem. Hierna het hy na Jerusalem toe koers gekies om dit te gaan aanval. [18]Koning Joas van Juda het al die gewyde gawes wat deur sy voorvaders Josafat, Joram en Ahasia, konings van Juda, gebring is, gevat en aan koning Gasael van Aram gestuur saam met sy eie gewyde gawes en al die goud wat in die skatkamers van die huis van die Here en in die paleis te vinde was. Toe het Gasael van Jerusalem af teruggetrek. [19]Die ander verhale oor Joas en alles wat hy gedoen het, is opgeteken in die annale van die konings van Juda. [20]Sy amptenare het teen hom in opstand gekom en teen hom saamgesweer. Hulle het vir Joas doodgemaak by Bet-Millo waar 'n mens afgaan na Silla toe. [21]Dit was sy amptenare Sabad seun van Simat en Josabad seun van Somer wat hom doodgemaak het. Hy is oorlede, en hy is begrawe in die familiegraf in die Dawidstad. Sy seun Amasia het hom as koning opgevolg.

Jehoahaz Reigns in Israel

2Ki 13:1 In the twenty-third year of the reign of Joash son of Ahaziah as king of Judah, Jehoahaz son of Jehu became king of Israel, and he ruled in Samaria for seventeen years.

2Ki 13:2 Like King Jeroboam before him, he sinned against the LORD and led Israel into sin; he never gave up his evil ways.

2Ki 13:3 So the LORD was angry with Israel, and he allowed King Hazael of Syria and his son Benhadad to defeat Israel time after time.

2Ki 13:4 Then Jehoahaz prayed to the LORD, and the LORD, seeing how harshly the king of Syria was oppressing the Israelites, answered his prayer.

2Ki 13:5 The LORD sent Israel a leader, who freed them from the Syrians, and so the Israelites lived in peace, as before.

2Ki 13:6 But they still did not give up the sins into which King Jeroboam had led Israel, but kept on committing them; and the image of the goddess Asherah remained in Samaria.

2Ki 13:7 Jehoahaz had no armed forces left except fifty cavalry troops, ten chariots, and ten thousand foot soldiers, because the king of Syria had destroyed the rest, trampling them down like dust.

2Ki 13:8 Everything else that Jehoahaz did and all his brave deeds are recorded in The History of the Kings of Israel.

2Ki 13:9 He died and was buried in Samaria, and his son Jehoash succeeded him as king.

Jehoash Reigns in Israel

2Ki 13:10 In the thirty-seventh year of the reign of King Joash of Judah, Jehoash son of Jehoahaz became king of Israel, and he ruled in Samaria for sixteen years.

2Ki 13:11 He too sinned against the LORD and followed the evil example of King Jeroboam, who had led Israel into sin.

2Ki 13:12 Everything else that Jehoash did, including his bravery in the war against King Amaziah of Judah, is recorded in The History of the Kings of Israel.

2Ki 13:13 Jehoash died and was buried in the royal tombs in Samaria, and his son Jeroboam II succeeded him as king.

The Death of Elisha

2Ki 13:14 The prophet Elisha was sick with a fatal disease, and as he lay dying, King Jehoash of Israel went to visit him. "My father, my father!" he exclaimed as he wept. "You have been the mighty defender of Israel!"

2Ki 13:15 "Get a bow and some arrows," Elisha ordered him. Jehoash got them, 2Ki 13:16 and Elisha told him to get ready to shoot. The king did so, and Elisha placed his hands on the king's hands.

2Ki 13:17 Then, following the prophet's instructions, the king opened the window that faced toward Syria. "Shoot the arrow!" Elisha ordered. As soon as the king shot the arrow, the prophet exclaimed, "You are the LORD's arrow, with which he will win victory over Syria. You will fight the Syrians in Aphek until you defeat them."

2Ki 13:18 Then Elisha told the king to take the other arrows and strike the ground with them. The king struck the ground three times, and then stopped.

2Ki 13:19 This made Elisha angry, and he said to the king, "You should have struck five or six times, and then you would have won complete victory over the Syrians; but now you will defeat them only three times."

2Ki 13:20 Elisha died and was buried. Every year bands of Moabites used to invade the land of Israel.

2Ki 13:21 One time during a funeral, one of those bands was seen, and the people threw the corpse into Elisha's tomb and ran off. As soon as the body came into contact with Elisha's bones, the man came back to life and stood up.

2Ki 13:22 King Hazael of Syria oppressed the Israelites during all of Jehoahaz' reign, 2Ki 13:23 but the LORD was kind and merciful to them. He would not let them be destroyed, but helped them because of his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. He has never forgotten his people.

2Ki 13:24 At the death of King Hazael of Syria his son Benhadad became king.

2Ki 13:25 Then King Jehoash of Israel defeated Benhadad three times and recaptured the cities that had been taken by Benhadad during the reign of Jehoahaz, the father of Jehoash.

II KONINGS 13

1In die drie en twintigste regeringsjaar van koning Joas van Juda, seun van Ahasia, het Joahas seun van Jehu in Samaria koning oor Israel geword. Hy het sewentien jaar geregeer, 2en gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here. Hy het dieselfde sonde gedoen as wat Jerobeam seun van Nebat vir Israel laat doen het. Daarvan het hy nie afgewyk nie. 3Daarom het die Here toornig geword op Israel en hulle gedurende die regering van Joahas oorgegee in die mag van koning Gasael van Aram en in die mag van Ben-Hadad seun van Gasael. 4Joahas het die Here om genade gesmeek. Die Here het sy gebed verhoor, want die Here het opgemerk hoe wreed die koning van Aram hulle onderdruk het. 5Die Here het aan Israel 'n redder gegee sodat hulle bevry kon word uit die mag van Aram, en sodat die Israeliete weer soos vroeër in hulle eie huise kon woon. 6Ten spyte hiervan het hulle nie afgesien van die sonde wat die koningshuis van Jerobeam vir Israel laat doen het nie. Hulle het daarmee volhard. Selfs die Asjerabeeld het in Samaria bly staan. 7Koning Gasael van Aram het die leër van Joahas vernietig en soos stof vertrap. Gasael het vir Joahas geen manskappe laat oorbly nie, net vyftig ruiters, tien strydwaens en tien duisend voetsoldate. 8Die ander verhale oor Joahas en alles wat hy gedoen het, en oor sy dapperheid is opgeteken in die annale van die konings van Israel. 9Joahas is oorlede, en hulle het hom begrawe in Samaria. Sy seun Joas het hom as koning opgevolg. 10In die sewe en dertigste regeringsjaar van koning Joas van Juda het Joas seun van Joahas in Samaria oor Israel koning geword. Hy het sestien jaar geregeer 11en gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here. Hy het nie afgesien van enige van die sondes wat Jerobeam seun van Nebat vir Israel laat doen het nie; hy het daarmee volhard. 12Die ander verhale oor Joas en alles wat hy gedoen het, die dapperheid waarmee hy teen koning Amasia van Juda geveg het, is opgeteken in die annale van die konings van Israel. 13Toe Joas oorlede is, het Jerobeam op die troon gekom. Joas is in Samaria by die konings van Israel begrawe. 14Elisa het ernstig siek geword en op sterwe gelê. Koning Joas van Israel het hom gaan besoek en het oor hom gehuil en gesê: My vader, my vader, u was vir Israel die strydwa met sy ruiters! 15Elisa sê toe vir hom: Vat jou pyl en boog. Die koning van Israel het dit gedoen, en toe 16sê Elisa vir hom: Sit jou hand op die boog. Die koning het sy hand op die boog gesit. Elisa het toe sy eie hande op die hande van die koning gesit 17en gesê: Maak die venster aan die oostekant oop. Die koning het dit oopgemaak, en Elisa het beveel: Skiet! Toe skiet die koning, en Elisa sê: 'n Pyl van die Here se oorwinning, 'n pyl van oorwinning oor Aram! Jy sal Aram verpletterend verslaan in Afek. [18]Verder sê Elisa: Vat nou die pyle. Die koning het hulle gevat, en Elisa sê vir hom: Slaan teen die grond. Die koning het drie maal geslaan en opgehou. [19]Die man van God het baie kwaad geword vir die koning en gesê: Jy moes vyf of ses keer geslaan het, dan sou jy Aram heeltemal verslaan het, maar nou sal jy Aram net drie keer verslaan. [20]Toe het Elisa gesterf, en hulle het hom begrawe. Moabitiese bendes het elke jaar die land binnegeval. [21]Toe mense op 'n keer besig was om iemand te begrawe, sien hulle skielik so 'n bende. Hulle het die man se lyk in Elisa se graf gegooi. Toe die lyk aan Elisa se bene raak, het die man lewend geword en regop gaan staan. [22]Koning Gasael van Aram het Israel verdruk gedurende al die regeringsjare van Joahas. [23]Die Here was hulle genadig en het Hom oor hulle ontferm. Hy het Hom na hulle gewend ter wille van sy verbond met Abraham, Isak en Jakob. Hy wou hulle nie vernietig nie; Hy het hulle tot nou toe nie verwerp nie. [24]Koning Gasael van Aram is oorlede. Sy seun Ben-Hadad het hom as koning opgevolg. [25]Joas seun van Joahas het van Ben-Hadad seun van Gasael die stede teruggewen wat Ben-Hadad in die oorlog afgevat het van Joas se pa. Drie maal het Joas vir Ben-Hadad verslaan en Israel se stede herower.

Amaziah Reigns in Judah

2Ki 14:1 In the second year of the reign of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz as king of Israel, Amaziah son of Joash became king of Judah

2Ki 14:2 at the age of twenty-five, and he ruled in Jerusalem for twenty-nine years. His mother was Jehoaddin from Jerusalem.

2Ki 14:3 He did what was pleasing to the LORD, but he was not like his ancestor King David; instead, he did what his father Joash had done.

2Ki 14:4 He did not tear down the pagan places of worship, and the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense there.

2Ki 14:5 As soon as Amaziah was firmly in power, he executed the officials who had killed his father, the king.

2Ki 14:6 However, he did not kill their children but followed what the LORD had commanded in the Law of Moses: "Parents are not to be put to death for crimes committed by their children, and children are not to be put to death for crimes committed by their parents; people are to be put to death only for a crime they themselves have committed."

2Ki 14:7 Amaziah killed ten thousand Edomite soldiers in Salt Valley; he captured the city of Sela in battle and called it Joktheel, the name it still has.

2Ki 14:8 Then Amaziah sent messengers to King Jehoash of Israel, challenging him to fight.

2Ki 14:9 But King Jehoash sent back the following reply: "Once a thorn bush on the Lebanon Mountains sent a message to a cedar: 'Give your daughter in marriage to my son.' A wild animal passed by and trampled the bush down.

2Ki 14:10 Now Amaziah, you have defeated the Edomites, and you are filled with pride. Be satisfied with your fame and stay at home. Why stir up trouble that will only bring disaster on you and your people?"

2Ki 14:11 But Amaziah refused to listen, so King Jehoash marched out with his men and fought against him at Beth Shemesh in Judah.

2Ki 14:12 Amaziah's army was defeated, and all his soldiers fled to their homes.

2Ki 14:13 Jehoash took Amaziah prisoner, advanced on Jerusalem, and tore down the city wall from Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate, a distance of two hundred yards.

2Ki 14:14 He took all the silver and gold he could find, all the Temple equipment and all the palace treasures, and carried them back to Samaria. He also took hostages with him.

2Ki 14:15 Everything else that Jehoash did, including his bravery in the war against King Amaziah of Judah, is recorded in The History of the Kings of Israel.

2Ki 14:16 Jehoash died and was buried in the royal tombs in Samaria, and his son Jeroboam II succeeded him as king.

2Ki 14:17 King Amaziah of Judah lived fifteen years after the death of King Jehoash of Israel.

2Ki 14:18 Everything else that Amaziah did is recorded in The History of the Kings of Judah.

2Ki 14:19 There was a plot in Jerusalem to assassinate Amaziah, so he fled to the city of Lachish, but his enemies followed him there and killed him.

2Ki 14:20 His body was carried back to Jerusalem on a horse and was buried in the royal tombs in David's City.

2Ki 14:21 The people of Judah then crowned his sixteen-year-old son Uzziah as king.

2Ki 14:22 Uzziah reconquered and rebuilt Elath after his father's death.

Jeroboam II Reigns in Israel

2Ki 14:23 In the fifteenth year of the reign of Amaziah son of Joash as king of Judah, Jeroboam son of Jehoash became king of Israel, and he ruled in Samaria for forty-one years.

2Ki 14:24 He sinned against the LORD, following the wicked example of his predecessor King Jeroboam son of Nebat, who led Israel into sin.

2Ki 14:25 He reconquered all the territory that had belonged to Israel, from Hamath Pass in the north to the Dead Sea in the south. This was what the LORD, the God of Israel, had promised through his servant the prophet Jonah son of Amittai from Gath Hepher.

2Ki 14:26 The LORD saw the terrible suffering of the Israelites; there was no one at all to help them.

2Ki 14:27 But it was not the LORD's purpose to destroy Israel completely and forever, so he rescued them through King Jeroboam II.

2Ki 14:28 Everything else that Jeroboam II did, his brave battles, and how he restored Damascus and Hamath to Israel, are all recorded in The History of the Kings of Israel.

2Ki 14:29 Jeroboam died and was buried in the royal tombs, and his son Zechariah succeeded him as king.

II KONINGS 14

1In die tweede regeringsjaar van koning Joas van Israel, seun van Joahas, het Amasia seun van koning Joas van Juda op die troon gekom. 2Hy was vyf en twintig toe hy koning geword het en hy het nege en twintig jaar in Jerusalem geregeer. Sy ma was Jehoaddan, uit Jerusalem. 3Hy het gedoen wat reg is in die oë van die Here, maar nie heeltemal soos sy voorvader Dawid gedoen het nie; hy het alles gedoen wat Joas, sy pa, gedoen het. 4Hy het net nie van die hoogtes ontslae geraak nie: die volk het nog diereoffers en wierookoffers gebring op die hoogtes. 5Nadat hy goed gevestig was in sy koningskap, het hy die amptenare laat doodmaak deur wie sy pa, die koning, vermoor is. 6Hy het nie die kinders van die moordenaars ook laat doodmaak nie, soos dit op bevel van die Here geskrywe staan in die wetboek van Moses: Vaders mag nie oor die optrede van kinders en kinders nie oor die optrede van vaders doodgemaak word nie. Elkeen kan net vir sy eie sonde die doodstraf kry.7Hy het tien duisend Edomiete in die Soutvlakte verslaan en Sela in die oorlog verower en dit Jokteël genoem, soos dit vandag nog bekend staan. 8Amasia het 'n boodskap gestuur na koning Joas van Israel, seun van Joahas, seun van Jehu: Kom ons veg teen mekaar. 9Koning Joas van Israel het vir koning Amasia van Juda terug laat weet: Die doringbos op die Libanon laat weet vir die seder op die Libanon: Laat jou dogter met my seun trou,' en toe kom die wilde diere van die Libanon verby en trap die doringbos plat. 10Noudat jy Edom 'n groot neerlaag toegedien het, soek jy meer roem. Bly liewer by die huis. Waarom wil jy jou in die ongeluk stort en tot 'n val kom, jy en Juda saam met jou? 11Koning Amasia van Juda het nie geluister nie. Hy het teen koning Joas van Israel opgetrek en in Bet-Semes in Juda het hulle slaags geraak. 12Juda het 'n neerlaag gely teen Israel, en die manskappe het op die vlug geslaan, elkeen na sy huis toe. 13Koning Joas van Israel het vir koning Amasia van Juda, seun van Joas seun van Ahasia, gevange geneem in Bet-Semes. Toe Joas in Jerusalem kom, het hy 'n stuk muur van Jerusalem laat afbreek van die Efraimspoort af tot by die Hoekpoort, honderd en tagtig meter. 14Hy het al die goud en silwer gevat en al die ander goed wat hy in die huis van die Here en in die skatkamers van die paleis kon kry, en dit saam met gyselaars na Samaria toe gebring. 15Die ander verhale oor Joas en wat hy gedoen het, sy dapperheid en hoe hy teen koning Amasia van Juda geveg het, is opgeteken in die annale van die konings van Israel. 16Joas is oorlede, en hy is begrawe in Samaria by die ander konings van Israel. Sy seun Jerobeam het hom as koning opgevolg. 17Koning Amasia van Juda, seun van Joas, het ná die dood van koning Joas van Israel, seun van Joahas, nog vyftien jaar geleef. 18Die ander verhale oor Amasia is opgeteken in die annale van die konings van Juda. 19Toe hulle in Jerusalem teen hom saamgesweer het, het hy na Lakis toe gevlug, maar hulle het mense agter hom aan gestuur daarheen, en hulle het hom daar doodgemaak. 20Hulle het sy lyk met perde teruggebring, en hy is begrawe in sy familiegraf in die Dawidstad. 21Die hele Judese volk het vir Asarja gevat en hom in die plek van Amasia, sy pa, koning gemaak. Hy was toe sestien jaar oud 22en het Elat herbou en onder die gesag van Juda teruggebring nadat die koning van daardie gebied dood is. 23In die vyftiende regeringsjaar van koning Amasia van Juda, seun van Joas, het Jerobeam seun van koning Joas van Israel op die troon gekom. Hy het een en veertig jaar in Samaria oor Israel geregeer 24en gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here. Hy het nie afgesien van enige van die sondes wat Jerobeam seun van Nebat vir Israel laat doen het nie. 25Hy het die grense van Israel herstel, van Lebo-Hamat af tot by die see in die Jordaanvallei. Dit was in ooreenstemming met wat die Here die God van Israel gesê het deur sy dienaar Jona seun van Amittai, die profeet uit Gat-Gefer. 26Die Here het die bittere ellende van Israel raakgesien: Israel was volkome weerloos en sonder enige helper. 27Die Here het nie gesê dat Hy die naam van Israel onder die hemel sou uitwis nie, daarom het Hy hulle deur Jerobeam seun van Joas gered. 28Die ander verhale oor Jerobeam en alles wat hy gedoen het, oor hoe dapper hy geveg het en hoe hy Damaskus en Hamat weer onder die gesag van Israel gebring het, is opgeteken in die annale van die konings van Israel. 29Jerobeam is oorlede, en sy seun Sagaria het hom as koning opgevolg.

Azariah Reigns in Judah

2Ki 15:1 In the twenty-seventh year of the reign of King Jeroboam II of Israel, Uzziah son of Amaziah became king of Judah

2Ki 15:2 at the age of sixteen, and he ruled in Jerusalem for fifty-two years. His mother was Jecoliah from Jerusalem.

2Ki 15:3 Following the example of his father, he did what was pleasing to the LORD.

2Ki 15:4 But the pagan places of worship were not destroyed, and the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense there.

2Ki 15:5 The LORD struck Uzziah with a dreaded skin disease that stayed with him the rest of his life. He lived in a separate house, relieved of all duties, while his son Jotham governed the country.

2Ki 15:6 Everything else that Uzziah did is recorded in The History of the Kings of Judah.

2Ki 15:7 Uzziah died and was buried in the royal burial ground in David's City, and his son Jotham succeeded him as king.

Zechariah Reigns in Israel

2Ki 15:8 In the thirty-eighth year of the reign of King Uzziah of Judah, Zechariah son of Jeroboam II became king of Israel, and he ruled in Samaria for six months.

2Ki 15:9 He, like his predecessors, sinned against the LORD. He followed the wicked example of King Jeroboam son of Nebat, who led Israel into sin.

2Ki 15:10 Shallum son of Jabesh conspired against King Zechariah, assassinated him at Ibleam, and succeeded him as king.

2Ki 15:11 Everything else that Zechariah did is recorded in The History of the Kings of Israel.

2Ki 15:12 So the promise was fulfilled which the LORD had made to King Jehu: "Your descendants down to the fourth generation will be kings of Israel."

Shallum Reigns in Israel

2Ki 15:13 In the thirty-ninth year of the reign of King Uzziah of Judah, Shallum son of Jabesh became king of Israel, and he ruled in Samaria for one month.

2Ki 15:14 Menahem son of Gadi went from Tirzah to Samaria, assassinated Shallum, and succeeded him as king.

2Ki 15:15 Everything else that Shallum did, including an account of his conspiracy, is recorded in The History of the Kings of Israel.

2Ki 15:16 As Menahem was on his way from Tirzah, he completely destroyed the city of Tappuah, its inhabitants, and the surrounding territory, because the city did not surrender to him. He even ripped open the bellies of all the pregnant women.

Menahem Reigns in Israel

2Ki 15:17 In the thirty-ninth year of the reign of King Uzziah of Judah, Menahem son of Gadi became king of Israel, and he ruled in Samaria for ten years.

2Ki 15:18 He sinned against the LORD, for until the day of his death he followed the wicked example of King Jeroboam son of Nebat, who led Israel into sin.

2Ki 15:19 Tiglath Pileser, the emperor of Assyria, invaded Israel, and Menahem gave him thirty-eight tons of silver to gain his support in strengthening Menahem's power over the country.

2Ki 15:20 Menahem got the money from the rich men of Israel by forcing each one to contribute fifty pieces of silver. So Tiglath Pileser went back to his own country.

2Ki 15:21 Everything else that Menahem did is recorded in The History of the Kings of Israel.

2Ki 15:22 He died and was buried, and his son Pekahiah succeeded him as king.

Pekahiah Reigns in Israel

2Ki 15:23 In the fiftieth year of the reign of King Uzziah of Judah, Pekahiah son of Menahem became king of Israel, and he ruled in Samaria for two years.

2Ki 15:24 He sinned against the LORD, following the wicked example of King Jeroboam son of Nebat, who led Israel into sin.

2Ki 15:25 An officer of Pekahiah's forces, Pekah son of Remaliah, plotted with fifty men from Gilead, assassinated Pekahiah in the palace's inner fortress in Samaria, and succeeded him as king.

2Ki 15:26 Everything else that Pekahiah did is recorded in The History of the Kings of Israel.

Pekah Reigns in Israel

2Ki 15:27 In the fifty-second year of the reign of King Uzziah of Judah, Pekah son of Remaliah became king of Israel, and he ruled in Samaria for twenty years.

2Ki 15:28 He sinned against the LORD, following the wicked example of King Jeroboam son of Nebat, who led Israel into sin.

2Ki 15:29 It was while Pekah was king that Tiglath Pileser, the emperor of Assyria, captured the cities of Ijon, Abel Beth Maacah, Janoah, Kedesh, and Hazor, and the territories of Gilead, Galilee, and Naphtali, and took the people to Assyria as prisoners.

2Ki 15:30 In the twentieth year of the reign of Jotham son of Uzziah as king of Judah, Hoshea son of Elah plotted against King Pekah, assassinated him, and succeeded him as king.

2Ki 15:31 Everything else that Pekah did is recorded in The History of the Kings of Israel.

Jotham Reigns in Judah

2Ki 15:32 In the second year of the reign of Pekah son of Remaliah as king of Israel, Jotham son of Uzziah became king of Judah

2Ki 15:33 at the age of twenty-five, and he ruled in Jerusalem for sixteen years. His mother was Jerusha, the daughter of Zadok.

2Ki 15:34 Following the example of his father Uzziah, Jotham did what was pleasing to the LORD.

2Ki 15:35 But the pagan places of worship were not destroyed, and the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense there. It was Jotham who built the North Gate of the Temple.

2Ki 15:36 Everything else that Jotham did is recorded in The History of the Kings of Judah.

2Ki 15:37 It was while he was king that the LORD first sent King Rezin of Syria and King Pekah of Israel to attack Judah.

2Ki 15:38 Jotham died and was buried in the royal tombs in David's City, and his son Ahaz succeeded him as king.

II KONINGS 15

1In die sewe en twintigste regeringsjaar van koning Jerobeam van Israel het Asarja, seun van koning Amasia van Juda, op die troon gekom. 2Hy was sestien toe hy koning geword het en hy het twee en vyftig jaar in Jerusalem geregeer. Sy ma was Jekolja, uit Jerusalem. 3Hy het gedoen wat reg is in die oë van die Here en het in alles die voorbeeld van sy pa gevolg. 4Hy het net nie van die hoogtes ontslae geraak nie. Die volk het nog op die hoogtes diereoffers en wierookoffers gebring. 5Die Here het die koning met melaatsheid getref. Hy was melaats tot die dag van sy dood en het in 'n plek van afsondering gewoon. Sy seun Jotam het die paleis bestuur en oor die hele land geregeer. 6Die ander verhale oor Asarja, oor alles wat hy gedoen het, is opgeteken in die annale van die konings van Juda. 7Asarja is oorlede, en hulle het hom begrawe in die familiegraf in die Dawidstad. Sy seun Jotam het hom as koning opgevolg. 8In die ag en dertigste regeringsjaar van koning Asarja van Juda het Sagaria seun van Jerobeam oor Israel koning geword en ses maande in Samaria geregeer. 9Hy het gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here soos sy voorvaders. Hy het nie afgesien van die sondes wat Jerobeam seun van Nebat vir Israel laat doen het nie. 10Sallum seun van Jabes het teen hom saamgesweer, hom voor die oë van die volk aangeval en doodgemaak en hom toe as koning opgevolg. 11Die ander verhale oor Sagaria is opgeteken in die annale van die konings van Israel. 12Daar was 'n uitspraak van die Here waarin Hy vir Jehu gesê het: Jy sal seuns hê tot in die vierde geslag wat op die troon van Israel sal sit. So het dit ook gebeur. 13Sallum seun van Jabes het koning geword in die nege en dertigste jaar van koning Ussia van Juda. Hy het 'n maand en 'n paar dae in Samaria geregeer. 14Menahem seun van Gadi het uit Tirsa getrek en in Samaria gekom, en hy het vir Sallum seun van Jabes in Samaria aangeval, hom doodgemaak en hom as koning opgevolg. 15Die ander verhale oor Sallum en die sameswering wat hy gesmee het, is opgeteken in die annale van die konings van Israel. 16Destyds het Menahem vir Tifsag aangeval. Omdat hulle nie die poorte vir hom wou oopmaak nie, het hy al die inwoners van die stad en almal uit die omgewing van Tirsa doodgemaak. Hy het al die swanger vrouens laat oopsny. 17In die nege en dertigste regeringsjaar van koning Asarja van Juda het Menahem seun van Gadi koning oor Israel geword en hy het tien jaar in Samaria geregeer. 18Hy het gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here: hy het vir die volle duur van sy regering nie afgesien van die sondes wat Jerobeam seun van Nebat vir Israel laat doen het nie. 19Toe koning Pul van Assirië teen die land opgeruk het, het Menahem vier en dertig ton silwer betaal. Pul sou hom dan ondersteun in die handhawing van sy koningskap. [20]Menahem het elke burger in Israel 'n heffing opgelê om die koning van Assirië te kan betaal: vyf honderd en sewentig gram silwer per man. Toe het die koning van Assirië sy leër uit die land onttrek en teruggegaan. [21]Die ander verhale oor Menahem en alles wat hy gedoen het, is opgeteken in die annale van die konings van Israel. [22]Menahem is oorlede en sy seun Pekahia het hom as koning opgevolg. [23]In die vyftigste regeringsjaar van koning Asarja van Juda het Pekahia seun van Menahem koning oor Israel geword en hy het twee jaar in Samaria geregeer. [24]Hy het gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here; hy het nie afgesien van die sondes wat Jerobeam seun van Nebat vir Israel laat doen het nie. [25]Sy adjudant, Peka seun van Remalja, het teen hom saamgesweer en hom aangeval in die toring van die paleis in Samaria. Met die hulp van vyftig man uit Gilead het Peka vir Argob, Arje en die koning doodgemaak en hom as koning opgevolg. [26]Die ander verhale oor Pekahia en alles wat hy gedoen het, is opgeteken in die annale van die konings van Israel. [27]In die twee en vyftigste regeringsjaar van koning Asarja van Juda het Peka seun van Remalja koning oor Israel geword en hy het twintig jaar in Samaria geregeer. [28]Hy het gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here: hy het nie afgesien van die sondes wat Jerobeam seun van Nebat vir Israel laat doen het nie. [29]Tydens die regering van koning Peka van Israel het koning Tiglat-Pileser van Assirië die land ingeval. Hy het Ijon, Abel-Bet-Maäka, Janoag, Kedes, Hasor, Gilead en Galilea, die hele land Naftali, ingeneem en die inwoners het hy na Assirië toe weggevoer. [30]Hosea seun van Ela het teen Peka seun van Remalja saamgesweer, hom aangeval en doodgemaak en hom as koning opgevolg in die twintigste regeringsjaar van Jotam seun van Ussia . [31]Die ander verhale oor Peka en alles wat hy gedoen het, is opgeteken in die annale van die konings van Israel. [32]In die tweede regeringsjaar van koning Peka van Israel, seun van Remalja, het Jotam seun van koning Ussia van Juda op die troon gekom. [33]Hy was vyf en twintig toe hy koning geword het en hy het sestien jaar in Jerusalem geregeer. Sy ma was Jerusa, 'n dogter van Sadok. [34]Jotam het gedoen wat reg is in die oë van die Here en hy het in alles die voorbeeld van sy pa gevolg. [35]Die volk het egter nie afgesien van die hoogtes nie: hulle het nog diereoffers en wierookoffers op die hoogtes gebring. Jotam het die boonste poort van die huis van die Here laat bou. [36]Die ander verhale oor Jotam en wat hy gedoen het, is opgeteken in die annale van die konings van Juda. [37]In daardie tyd het die Here vir die eerste keer vir koning Resin van Aram en vir Peka seun van Remalja gestuur om Juda aan te val. [38]Jotam is oorlede, en hy is in die familiegraf by sy voorvaders begrawe in die Dawidstad. Sy seun Agas het hom as koning opgevolg.

Ahaz Reigns in Judah

2Ki 16:1 In the seventeenth year of the reign of Pekah son of Remaliah as king of Israel, Ahaz son of Jotham became king of Judah

2Ki 16:2 at the age of twenty, and he ruled in Jerusalem for sixteen years. He did not follow the good example of his ancestor King David; instead, he did what was not pleasing to the LORD his God

2Ki 16:3 and followed the example of the kings of Israel. He even sacrificed his own son as a burnt offering to idols, imitating the disgusting practice of the people whom the LORD had driven out of the land as the Israelites advanced.

2Ki 16:4 At the pagan places of worship, on the hills, and under every shady tree, Ahaz offered sacrifices and burned incense.

2Ki 16:5 King Rezin of Syria and King Pekah of Israel attacked Jerusalem and besieged it, but could not defeat Ahaz.

2Ki 16:6 (At the same time the king of Edom regained control of the city of Elath and drove out the Judeans who lived there. The Edomites settled in Elath and still live there.)

2Ki 16:7 Ahaz sent men to Tiglath Pileser, the emperor of Assyria, with this message: "I am your devoted servant. Come and rescue me from the kings of Syria and of Israel, who are attacking me."

2Ki 16:8 Ahaz took the silver and gold from the Temple and the palace treasury, and sent it as a present to the emperor.

2Ki 16:9 Tiglath Pileser, in answer to Ahaz' plea, marched out with his army against Damascus, captured it, killed King Rezin, and took the people to Kir as prisoners.

2Ki 16:10 When King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Emperor Tiglath Pileser, he saw the altar there and sent back to Uriah the priest an exact model of it, down to the smallest details.

2Ki 16:11 So Uriah built an altar just like it and finished it before Ahaz returned.

2Ki 16:12 On his return from Damascus, Ahaz saw that the altar was finished, 2Ki 16:13 so he burned animal sacrifices and grain offerings on it and poured a wine offering and the blood of a fellowship offering on it.

2Ki 16:14 The bronze altar dedicated to the LORD was between the new altar and the Temple, so Ahaz moved it to the north side of his new altar.

2Ki 16:15 Then he ordered Uriah: "Use this large altar of mine for the morning burnt offerings and the evening grain offerings, for the burnt offerings and grain offerings of the king and the people, and for the people's wine offerings. Pour on it the blood of all the animals that are sacrificed. But keep the bronze altar for me to use for divination."

2Ki 16:16 Uriah did as the king commanded.

2Ki 16:17 King Ahaz took apart the bronze carts used in the Temple and removed the basins that were on them. He also took the bronze tank from the backs of the twelve bronze bulls and placed it on a stone foundation.

2Ki 16:18 And in order to please the Assyrian emperor, Ahaz also removed from the Temple the platform for the royal throne and closed up the king's private entrance to the Temple.

2Ki 16:19 Everything else that King Ahaz did is recorded in The History of the Kings of Judah.

2Ki 16:20 Ahaz died and was buried in the royal tombs in David's City, and his son Hezekiah succeeded him as king.

II KONINGS 16

[1]In die sewentiende regeringsjaar van Peka seun van Remalja het Agas seun van koning Jotam van Juda op die troon gekom. [2]Agas was twintig toe hy koning geword het en hy het sestien jaar in Jerusalem geregeer. Hy het nie gedoen wat reg is in die oë van die Here sy God soos sy voorvader Dawid nie. [3]Hy het die pad geloop van die konings van Israel. Hy het selfs sy seun verbrand volgens die afskuwelike gebruike van die heidennasies wat deur die Here voor die Israeliete uit verdryf is. [4]Hy het diereoffers en wierookoffers gebring op die hoogtes en op die rante en onder elke groen boom. [5]Destyds het koning Resin van Aram en koning Peka van Israel, seun van Remalja, opgetrek om teen Jerusalem te veg. Hoewel hulle vir Agas beleër het, kon hulle nie 'n geveg afdwing nie. [6]In daardie tyd het koning Resin van Aram die stad Elat vir Aram herower en die Judeërs daaruit verdryf. Arameërs het in Elat ingetrek en woon tot vandag toe daar. [7]Toe stuur Agas 'n boodskap na koning Tiglat-Pileser van Assirië: Ek is u onderdaan en seun. Ruk op en bevry my uit die mag van die koning van Aram en van die koning van Israel, hulle val my aan. [8]Agas het die silwer en die goud wat in die huis van die Here en in die skatkamers van die paleis was, gevat en as geskenk aan die koning van Assirië gestuur. [9]Die koning van Assirië het aan sy versoek voldoen en teen Damaskus opgetrek. Hy het die stad verower en die bevolking na Kir toe weggevoer; vir Resin het hy doodgemaak. [10]Koning Agas het hierna Damaskus toe gegaan om vir koning Tiglat-Pileser van Assirië te ontmoet. Nadat Agas 'n altaar gesien het wat daar in Damaskus gestaan het, het hy aan die priester Urija 'n afbeelding en 'n model daarvan gestuur om dit getrou na te maak. [11]Die priester Urija het die altaar gebou in ooreenstemming met koning Agas se aanwysings uit Damaskus. Die priester Urija het dit presies so gemaak nog voordat die koning uit Damaskus aangekom het. [12]Toe die koning van Damaskus af kom en die altaar sien, het hy nader gegaan en op die altaar geklim. [13]Hy het sy brandoffer en sy graanoffer gebring, sy drankoffer uitgegiet en die bloed van die maaltydoffers ten behoewe van homself teen die altaar uitgegooi. [14]Die bronsaltaar ter ere van die Here het hy van die voorkant van die tempel af, tussen die altaar en die huis van die Here uit, verskuif na die noordekant van die altaar toe. [15]Koning Agas het die priester Urija beveel: Steek die oggendbrandoffer en die aandgraanoffer aan die brand op die groot altaar en ook die koning se brandoffer en graanoffer, die brandoffer van die landsburgers, hulle graanoffers en hulle drankoffers. Die bloed van elke brandoffer en van elke ander diereoffer moet julle teen die groot altaar uitgiet. Die bronsaltaar sal myne bly om die wil van God te wete te kom. [16]Die priester Urija het alles gedoen wat koning Agas hom beveel het. [17]Koning Agas het die sluitplate van die waentjies verwyder en die waskomme van hulle af geneem en die waterbak het hy opgelig van die beeste af wat van brons gemaak is, en op 'n klipvloer gesit. [18]Die oordekte gang vir die sabbat wat hulle by die tempel gebou het, en die buitenste ingang vir die koning het hy ter wille van die koning van Assirië van die huis van die Here af verwyder. [19]Die ander verhale oor Agas en wat hy gedoen het, is opgeteken in die annale van die konings van Juda. [20]Agas is oorlede, en hy is begrawe by sy voorvaders in die familiegraf in die Dawidstad. Sy seun Hiskia het hom as koning opgevolg.

Hoshea Reigns in Israel

2Ki 17:1 In the twelfth year of the reign of King Ahaz of Judah, Hoshea son of Elah became king of Israel, and he ruled in Samaria for nine years.

2Ki 17:2 He sinned against the LORD, but not as much as the kings who had ruled Israel before him.

2Ki 17:3 Emperor Shalmaneser of Assyria made war against him; Hoshea surrendered to Shalmaneser and paid him tribute every year.

2Ki 17:4 But one year Hoshea sent messengers to So, king of Egypt, asking for his help, and stopped paying the annual tribute to Assyria. When Shalmaneser learned of this, he had Hoshea arrested and put in prison.

2Ki 17:5 Then Shalmaneser invaded Israel and besieged Samaria. In the third year of the siege,

The Fall of Israel

2Ki 17:6 which was the ninth year of the reign of Hoshea, the Assyrian emperor captured Samaria, took the Israelites to Assyria as prisoners, and settled some of them in the city of Halah, some near the Habor River in the district of Gozan and some in the cities of Media.

Exile Because of Idolatry

2Ki 17:7 Samaria fell because the Israelites sinned against the LORD their God, who had rescued them from the king of Egypt and had led them out of Egypt. They worshiped other gods, 2Ki 17:8 followed the customs of the people whom the LORD had driven out as his people advanced, and adopted customs introduced by the kings of Israel.

2Ki 17:9 The Israelites did things that the LORD their God disapproved of. They built pagan places of worship in all their towns, from the smallest village to the largest city.

2Ki 17:10 On all the hills and under every shady tree they put up stone pillars and images of the goddess Asherah,

2Ki 17:11 and they burned incense on all the pagan altars, following the practice of the people whom the LORD had driven out of the land. They aroused the LORD's anger with all their wicked deeds

2Ki 17:12 and disobeyed the LORD's command not to worship idols.

2Ki 17:13 The LORD had sent his messengers and prophets to warn Israel and Judah: "Abandon your evil ways and obey my commands, which are contained in the Law I gave to your ancestors and which I handed on to you through my servants the prophets."

2Ki 17:14 But they would not obey; they were stubborn like their ancestors, who had not trusted in the LORD their God.

2Ki 17:16 They broke all the laws of the LORD their God and made two metal bull-calves to worship; they also made an image of the goddess Asherah, worshiped the stars, and served the god Baal.

2Ki 17:17 They sacrificed their sons and daughters as burnt offerings to pagan gods; they consulted mediums and fortunetellers, and they devoted themselves completely to doing what is wrong in the LORD's sight, and so aroused his anger.

2Ki 17:18 The LORD was angry with the Israelites and banished them from his sight, leaving only the kingdom of Judah.

2Ki 17:19 But even the people of Judah did not obey the laws of the LORD their God; they imitated the customs adopted by the people of Israel.

2Ki 17:20 The LORD rejected all the Israelites, punishing them and handing them over to cruel enemies until at last he had banished them from his sight.

2Ki 17:21 After the LORD had separated Israel from Judah, the Israelites made Jeroboam son of Nebat their king. Jeroboam caused them to abandon the LORD and led them into terrible sins.

2Ki 17:22 They followed Jeroboam and continued to practice all the sins he had committed,

2Ki 17:23 until at last the LORD banished them from his sight, as he had warned through his servants the prophets that he would do. So the people of Israel were taken into exile to Assyria, where they still live.

Assyria Resettles Samaria

2Ki 17:24 The emperor of Assyria took people from the cities of Babylon, Cuth, Ivvah, Hamath, and Sepharvaim, and settled them in the cities of Samaria in place of the exiled Israelites. They took possession of these cities and lived there.

2Ki 17:25 When they first settled there, they did not worship the LORD, and so he sent lions, which killed some of them.

2Ki 17:26 The emperor of Assyria was told that the people he had settled in the cities of Samaria did not know the law of the god of that land, and so the god had sent lions, which were killing them.

2Ki 17:27 So the emperor commanded: "Send back one of the priests we brought as prisoners; have him go back and live there, in order to teach the people the law of the god of that land."

2Ki 17:28 So an Israelite priest who had been deported from Samaria went and lived in Bethel, where he taught the people how to worship the LORD.

2Ki 17:29 But the people who settled in Samaria continued to make their own idols, and they placed them in the shrines that the Israelites had built. Each different group made idols in the cities they were living in:

2Ki 17:30 the people of Babylon made idols of the god Succoth Benoth; the people of Cuth, idols of Nergal; the people of Hamath, idols of Ashima;

2Ki 17:31 the people of Ivvah, idols of Nibhaz and Tartak; and the people of Sepharvaim sacrificed their children as burnt offerings to their gods Adrammelech and Anammelech.

2Ki 17:32 These people also worshiped the LORD and chose from among their own number all sorts of people to serve as priests at the pagan places of worship and to offer sacrifices for them there.

2Ki 17:33 So they worshiped the LORD, but they also worshiped their own gods according to the customs of the countries from which they had come.

2Ki 17:34 They still carry on their old customs to this day. They do not worship the LORD nor do they obey the laws and commands which he gave to the descendants of Jacob, whom he named Israel.

2Ki 17:35 The LORD had made a covenant with them and had ordered them: "Do not worship other gods; do not bow down to them or serve them or offer sacrifices to them.

2Ki 17:36 You shall obey me, the LORD, who brought you out of Egypt with great power and strength; you are to bow down to me and offer sacrifices to me.

2Ki 17:37 You shall always obey the laws and commands that I wrote for you. You shall not obey other gods, 2Ki 17:38 and you shall not forget the covenant I made with you.

2Ki 17:39 You shall obey me, the LORD your God, and I will rescue you from your enemies."

2Ki 17:40 But those people would not listen, and they continued to follow their old customs.

2Ki 17:41 So those people worshiped the LORD, but they also worshiped their idols; and to this day their descendants continue to do the same.

II KONINGS 17

1In die twaalfde regeringsjaar van koning Agas van Juda het Hosea seun van Ela koning geword en hy het nege jaar in Samaria oor Israel geregeer. 2Hy het gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here, maar hy was nie so erg soos die konings van Israel voor hom nie. 3Toe koning Salmaneser van Assirië teen hom opgeruk het, het hy hom aan die koning van Assirië onderwerp en aan hom belasting betaal. 4Die koning van Assirië het uitgevind dat Hosea teen hom saamsweer deurdat hy gesante na koning So van Egipte gestuur het en nie die jaarlikse belasting aan die koning van Assirië betaal het nie. Daarom het hy vir Hosea laat vang en hom in die tronk opgesluit, 5die hele land binnegeval en opgeruk na Samaria toe wat hy drie jaar lank beleër het. 6In die negende regeringsjaar van Hosea het die koning van Assirië Samaria ingeneem en het hy die Israeliete na Assirië toe weggevoer. Sommige het hy in die stad Galag gevestig, ander aan die Gaborrivier in Gosan, en in die stede van Medië. 7Dit het gebeur omdat die Israeliete gesondig het teen die Here hulle God wat hulle uit Egipte laat wegtrek het, onder die mag uit van die farao, koning van Egipte. Maar hulle het ander gode vereer 8en geleef volgens die gebruike van die nasies wat deur die Here verdryf is om vir die Israeliete plek te maak, gebruike wat deur die konings van Israel nagevolg is. 9Die Israeliete het die Here hulle God dinge toegedig wat nie waar is nie en toe vir hulle hoogtes gebou oral waar hulle gewoon het, van plekke af waar net 'n wagtoring was, tot in die vestingstede. 10Hulle het klippilare en gewyde pale opgerig op elke hoë rant en onder elke groen boom. 11Op elke hoogte het hulle wierookoffers gebring net soos die nasies wat deur die Here verdryf is om vir die Israeliete plek te maak. Met die verkeerde dinge wat hulle gedoen het, het hulle die Here uitgetart. 12Hulle het die stinkende afgode gedien wat die Here hulle uitdruklik verbied het. 13Die Here het Israel en Juda deur elke profeet en siener gewaarsku: Bekeer julle van julle verkeerde paaie. Kom my gebooie en voorskrifte na volgens die hele wet wat Ek julle voorvaders beveel het, wat Ek deur my dienaars die profete aan julle gegee het. 14Maar hulle wou nie luister nie; hulle was net so hardkoppig soos hulle voorvaders wat ook nie op die Here hulle God vertrou het nie. 15Hulle het sy voorskrifte en sy verbond verwerp wat Hy met hulle voorvaders gemaak het. Sy waarskuwings het hulle in die wind geslaan, hulle het agter afgode aangeloop wat niks is nie en so het hulle self niks geword. Hulle het geleef net soos die heidennasies om hulle, iets wat die Here hulle beveel het om nie te doen nie. 16Al die gebooie van die Here hulle God het hulle links laat lê: hulle het twee kalwerbeelde laat giet, 'n Asjerabeeld gemaak, voor elke hemelliggaam gebuig en vir Baäl gedien. [17]Die volk het hulle seuns en dogters as offers laat verbrand en hulleself besig gehou met waarsêery en toekomsvoorspelling. Met volkome oorgawe het hulle gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here en Hom uitgetart. [18]Die Here het so toornig op Israel geword dat Hy hulle verwerp het. Net die stam Juda het oorgebly. [19]Maar ook Juda het die gebooie van die Here hulle God nie gehou nie: hulle het die praktyke van Israel nagevolg. [20]Daarom het die Here die hele nageslag van die aartsvader Israel verwerp. Die Here het hulle verdruk deur hulle oor te gee in die mag van plunderaars totdat Hy hulle finaal verwerp het. [21]Hy het Israel afgeskeur van die koningshuis van Dawid, sodat hulle Jerobeam seun van Nebat koning gemaak het. Jerobeam het Israel van die Here losgemaak en hulle tot vreeslike sondes verlei. [22]Die Israeliete het volhard in al die sondes wat Jerobeam gedoen het; hulle het dit nie laat vaar nie. [23]Uiteindelik het die Here hulle laat vaar soos Hy hulle deur al sy dienaars, die profete, gewaarsku het. Hy het Israel uit sy land na Assirië toe laat wegvoer, waar hulle vandag nog is. [24]Die koning van Assirië het inwoners van Babel, Kuta, Awwa, Hamat en Sefarwajim af gebring, en hulle in die stede van Samaria gevestig in die plek van die Israeliete. Hierdie mense het Samaria oorgeneem en in die stede daar gaan woon. [25]Aan die begin van hulle verblyf het hulle die Here nie vereer nie, daarom het die Here leeus op hulle losgelaat wat onder hulle gemaai het. [26]Toe is die koning van Assirië meegedeel: Die nasies wat deur u weggevoer en in die stede van Samaria gevestig is, weet nie hoe hulle die God van die land moet vereer nie. Nou het Hy leeus op hulle losgelaat wat hulle doodgemaak het. Dit het gebeur net omdat hulle nie presies weet watter verering hulle aan die God van die land verskuldig is nie. [27]Toe het die koning van Assirië opdrag gegee dat hulle een van die priesters wat uit Israel weggevoer is, soontoe moet bring. Hy het soontoe gegaan en daar gaan woon om hulle die regte verering van die God van die land te leer. [28]So het een van die priesters wat uit Samaria weggevoer is, teruggekom en in Bet-El gaan bly, en hy het hulle geleer hoe hulle die Here moet vereer. [29]Tog het elke nasie nog maar sy eie afgodsbeelde gemaak en dit gaan neersit in die tempels op die hoogtes wat deur die mense van Samaria gebou is, elke nasie in die stede waar hy gewoon het. [30]Die mense van Babel het vir Sukkot-Benot gemaak, die mense van Kuta vir Nergal, die mense van Hamat vir Asima, [31]die Awwiete vir Nibgas en Tartak. Die Sefarwajiete het hulle seuns verbrand ter ere van Adrammelek en Anammelek, die gode van Sefarwajim. [32]Terselfdertyd het hulle die Here vereer en uit hulle eie geledere priesters vir die hoogtes aangewys om vir hulle diens te doen in die heiligdomme op die hoogtes. [33]Hulle het die Here vereer en ook hulle eie gode gedien volgens die gebruik van die heidennasies waaruit hulle weggevoer is. 34Tot vandag toe handhaaf hulle hulle vroeëre gebruike: hulle handel nie presies volgens die voorskrifte, die bepalings, die wet en die gebod wat die Here opgedra het aan die kinders van Jakob nie, dié Jakob aan wie Hy die naam Israel gegee het. 35Dit was met hulle dat die Here 'n verbond gesluit het, vir wie Hy beveel het: Moenie ander gode vereer nie, moenie voor hulle buig nie, moet hulle nie dien of offers vir hulle bring nie. 36Nee, net die Here wat julle uit Egipte laat trek het deur sy groot mag en krag, moet julle vereer; voor Hom moet julle buig en vir Hom offers bring. 37Julle moet altyd lewe volgens die voorskrifte, die bepalings, die wet en die gebod wat Hy vir julle neergeskryf het. Moenie ander gode dien nie. 38Die verbond wat Hy met julle gesluit het, moet julle nie verontagsaam nie. Moenie ander gode dien nie. 39Julle moet net die Here julle God dien. Hy sal julle red uit die mag van al julle vyande. 40Maar hulle was ongehoorsaam: hulle het hulle vroeëre gebruike gehandhaaf. 41Hierdie nasies het nie net die Here vereer nie, maar ook hulle eie afgodsbeelde gedien, en tot vandag toe nog volg ook hulle kinders en kleinkinders hulle voorbeeld.

Hezekiah Reigns in Judah

2Ki 18:1 In the third year of the reign of Hoshea son of Elah as king of Israel, Hezekiah son of Ahaz became king of Judah

2Ki 18:2 at the age of twenty-five, and he ruled in Jerusalem for twenty-nine years. His mother was Abijah, the daughter of Zechariah.

2Ki 18:3 Following the example of his ancestor King David, he did what was pleasing to the LORD.

2Ki 18:4 He destroyed the pagan places of worship, broke the stone pillars, and cut down the images of the goddess Asherah. He also broke in pieces the bronze snake that Moses had made, which was called Nehushtan. Up to that time the people of Israel had burned incense in its honor.

2Ki 18:5 Hezekiah trusted in the LORD, the God of Israel; Judah never had another king like him, either before or after his time.

2Ki 18:6 He was faithful to the LORD and never disobeyed him, but carefully kept all the commands that the LORD had given Moses.

2Ki 18:7 So the LORD was with him, and he was successful in everything he did. He rebelled against the emperor of Assyria and refused to submit to him.

2Ki 18:8 He defeated the Philistines and raided their settlements, from the smallest village to the largest city, including Gaza and its surrounding territory.

2Ki 18:9 In the fourth year of Hezekiah's reign—which was the seventh year of King Hoshea's reign over Israel—Emperor Shalmaneser of Assyria invaded Israel and besieged Samaria.

2Ki 18:10 In the third year of the siege Samaria fell; this was the sixth year of Hezekiah's reign and the ninth year of Hoshea's reign.

2Ki 18:11 The Assyrian emperor took the Israelites to Assyria as prisoners and settled some of them in the city of Halah, some near the Habor River in the district of Gozan, and some in the cities of Media.

2Ki 18:12 Samaria fell because the Israelites did not obey the LORD their God, but broke the covenant he had made with them and disobeyed all the laws given by Moses, the servant of the LORD. They would not listen and they would not obey.

Sennacherib Attacks Judah

2Ki 18:13 In the fourteenth year of the reign of King Hezekiah, Sennacherib, the emperor of Assyria, attacked the fortified cities of Judah and conquered them.

2Ki 18:14 Hezekiah sent a message to Sennacherib, who was in Lachish: "I have done wrong; please stop your attack, and I will pay whatever you demand." The emperor's answer was that Hezekiah should send him ten tons of silver and one ton of gold.

2Ki 18:15 Hezekiah sent him all the silver in the Temple and in the palace treasury;

2Ki 18:16 he also stripped the gold from the temple doors and the gold with which he himself had covered the doorposts, and he sent it all to Sennacherib.

2Ki 18:17 The Assyrian emperor sent a large army from Lachish to attack Hezekiah at Jerusalem; it was commanded by his three highest officials. When they arrived at Jerusalem, they occupied the road where the cloth makers work by the ditch that brings water from the upper pool.

2Ki 18:18 Then they sent for King Hezekiah, and three of his officials went out to meet them: Eliakim son of Hilkiah, who was in charge of the palace; Shebna, the court secretary; and Joah son of Asaph, who was in charge of the records.

2Ki 18:19 One of the Assyrian officials told them that the emperor wanted to know what made King Hezekiah so confident.

2Ki 18:20 He demanded, "Do you think that words can take the place of military skill and might? Who do you think will help you rebel against Assyria?

2Ki 18:21 You are expecting Egypt to help you, but that would be like using a reed as a walking stick—it would break and jab your hand. That is what the king of Egypt is like when anyone relies on him."

2Ki 18:22 The Assyrian official went on, "Or will you tell me that you are relying on the LORD your God? It was the LORD's shrines and altars that Hezekiah destroyed, when he told the people of Judah and Jerusalem to worship only at the altar in Jerusalem.

2Ki 18:23 I will make a bargain with you in the name of the emperor. I will give you two thousand horses if you can find that many men to ride them!

2Ki 18:24 You are no match for even the lowest ranking Assyrian official, and yet you expect the Egyptians to send you chariots and cavalry!

2Ki 18:25 Do you think I have attacked your country and destroyed it without the LORD's help? The LORD himself told me to attack it and destroy it."

2Ki 18:26 Then Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah told the official, "Speak Aramaic to us, sir. We understand it. Don't speak Hebrew; all the people on the wall are listening."

2Ki 18:27 He replied, "Do you think you and the king are the only ones the emperor sent me to say all these things to? No, I am also talking to the people who are sitting on the wall, who will have to eat their excrement and drink their urine, just as you will."

2Ki 18:28 Then the official stood up and shouted in Hebrew, "Listen to what the emperor of Assyria is telling you!

2Ki 18:29 He warns you not to let Hezekiah deceive you. Hezekiah can't save you.

2Ki 18:30 And don't let him persuade you to rely on the LORD. Don't think that the LORD will save you and that he will stop our Assyrian army from capturing your city.

2Ki 18:31 Don't listen to Hezekiah. The emperor of Assyria commands you to come out of the city and surrender. You will all be allowed to eat grapes from your own vines and figs from your own trees, and to drink water from your own wells—

2Ki 18:32 until the emperor resettles you in a country much like your own, where there are vineyards to give wine and there is grain for making bread; it is a land of olives, olive oil, and honey. If you do what he commands, you will not die, but live. Don't let Hezekiah fool you into thinking that the LORD will rescue you.

2Ki 18:33 Did the gods of any other nations save their countries from the emperor of Assyria?

2Ki 18:34 Where are they now, the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah? Did anyone save Samaria?

2Ki 18:35 When did any of the gods of all these countries ever save their country from our emperor? Then what makes you think the LORD can save Jerusalem?"

2Ki 18:36 The people kept quiet, just as King Hezekiah had told them to; they did not say a word.

2Ki 18:37 Then Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah tore their clothes in grief, and went and reported to the king what the Assyrian official had said.

II KONINGS 18

1In die derde regeringsjaar van koning Hosea van Israel, seun van Ela, het Hiskia seun van koning Agas van Juda op die troon gekom. 2Hy was vyf en twintig toe hy koning geword het en hy het nege en twintig jaar in Jerusalem geregeer. Sy ma was Abi, 'n dogter van Sagaria. 3Hiskia het gedoen wat reg is in die oë van die Here en het in alles die voorbeeld van sy voorvader Dawid gevolg. 4Hiskia het die hoogtes laat verwoes, die klippilare laat stukkend slaan en die gewyde pale laat afkap. Hy het ook die koperslang wat destyds deur Moses gemaak is, laat stukkend slaan, want tot nou toe het die Israeliete die koperslang met offers vereer. Die slang is Negustan genoem. 5Hiskia het op die Here die God van Israel vertrou. Nie een van al die konings van Juda voor of na Hiskia was soos hy nie. 6Hy was getrou aan die Here en het nie van Hom af weggedraai nie. Hiskia was gehoorsaam aan die gebooie wat die Here aan Moses gegee het. 7Die Here was by Hiskia, en Hiskia was voorspoedig in alles wat hy onderneem het. Hy het in opstand gekom teen die koning van Assirië en was nie meer aan hom onderdanig nie. 8Hy het die Filistyne verslaan en hulle teruggedryf, wagpos vir wagpos, vestingstad vir vestingstad, tot by Gasa en die gebied daar rondom. 9In die vierde regeringsjaar van koning Hiskia, die sewende regeringsjaar van koning Hosea van Israel, seun van Ela, het koning Salmaneser van Assirië teen Samaria opgetrek en die stad beleër. 10Hy het die stad na drie jaar ingeneem, in die sesde regeringsjaar van Hiskia. In die negende regeringsjaar van koning Hosea van Israel is Samaria verower. 11Die koning van Assirië het die inwoners van Israel as gevangenes na Assirië toe weggevoer en hulle hervestig in Galag en aan die Gaborrivier in Gosan en in die stede van Medië. 12Dit was omdat die inwoners van Israel nie gehoorsaam was aan die Here hulle God nie. Hulle het die verbondsverpligtinge wat die Here op hulle gelê het, alles wat Moses die dienaar van die Here hulle beveel het, oortree. Hulle was ongehoorsaam en het die bevele nie uitgevoer nie. 13In die veertiende regeringsjaar van koning Hiskia het koning Sanherib van Assirië al die vestingstede in Juda aangeval en verower. 14Koning Hiskia van Juda het toe vir die koning van Assirië in Lakis laat weet: Ek het verkeerd gedoen. Trek u manskappe terug, ek sal betaal wat u vra. Die Assiriese koning het koning Hiskia van Juda toe beboet met iets meer as tien ton silwer en een ton goud. 15Hiskia moes al die silwer wat in die huis van die Here en in die skatkamers van die paleis was, afgee. 16Terselfdertyd moes hy die goudbeslag wat hy self laat aanbring het, van die deure van die tempel van die Here en van die deurposte afstroop om die koning van Assirië te betaal. 17Daarna het die koning van Assirië die hoof van sy leër en sy hoofamptenaar en sy hoofadjudant met 'n groot leërmag uit Lakis na koning Hiskia toe in Jerusalem gestuur. Hulle het na Jerusalem toe opgetrek en toe hulle daar aankom, het hulle posisie ingeneem langs die kanaal van die boonste dam, langs die pad na die Bleikveld toe. 18Hulle het na die koning geroep, en toe het die paleisbestuurder Eljakim seun van Gilkija, die staatsekretaris Sebna en die hoof uitvoerende beampte Joag seun van Asaf na hulle toe gegaan. 19Toe sê die hoofadjudant vir hulle: Sê vir Hiskia: So sê die groot koning van Assirië: Waarop berus hierdie vertroue van jou? 20Jy dink woorde alleen is genoeg vir strategie en militêre mag. Op wie vertrou jy dat jy in opstand is teen my? 21Jy vertrou op Egipte, op 'n versplinterde riet wat jou in die hand steek en jou seermaak as jy op hom leun. Dit is wat die farao, die koning van Egipte, beteken vir almal wat op hom vertrou. 22En as julle vir my wil sê julle vertrou op die Here julle God, dit is mos Hy wie se hoogtes en altare Hiskia laat verwoes het toe hy vir Juda en Jerusalem gesê het: Julle moet net by hierdie altaar in Jerusalem aanbid.' 23Wil jy 'n ooreenkoms aangaan met my koning, die koning van Assirië? Ek gee jou twee duisend perde: sal jy die ruiters vir hulle kan voorsien? 24Hoe sal jy weerstand kan bied teen één goewerneur, één van my koning se onbelangrikste amptenare? En dan vertrou jy op Egipte vir strydwaens en perde! 25Buitendien, ek het nie sonder die Here opgetrek teen hierdie plek om dit te verwoes nie; die Here het vir my gesê: Trek op teen daardie land en verwoes dit. 26Toe sê Eljakim seun van Gilkija, en Sebna en Joag vir die hoofadjudant: Praat tog asseblief met ons Aramees, ons verstaan dit, maar moenie met ons Judees praat dat die manskappe op die muur dit kan verstaan nie. 27Maar die hoofadjudant sê vir hulle: Dink julle my koning het my net na julle koning en na julle toe gestuur om dié dinge te sê, en nie ook na die manne wat op die muur sit nie? Hulle sal hulle eie ontlasting moet eet en hulle eie urine moet drink, net soos julle! 28Toe gaan staan die hoofadjudant en hy skree hard in Judees: Luister wat die groot koning sê, die koning van Assirië! 29So sê die koning: Moenie dat Hiskia julle mislei nie! Hy kan julle nie uit my mag red nie. 30En moenie dat Hiskia julle op die Here laat vertrou nie. Hy sê: Die Here sal ons sekerlik red; dié stad sal nie oorgegee word in die mag van die koning van Assirië nie.' 31Moenie na Hiskia luister nie, want só sê die koning van Assirië: Maak vrede met my en kom uit na my toe, dan sal elkeen die vrugte van sy eie wingerdstok en sy eie vyeboom eet en uit sy eie put water drink 32tot ek kom en julle wegvat na 'n land toe net soos julle land. Dit is 'n land met koring en wyn, 'n land met kos en wingerde, 'n land met olyfolie en heuning. Dan sal julle lewe, julle sal nie sterwe nie. Moenie na Hiskia luister nie. Hy bedrieg julle as hy sê die Here sal julle red. 33Kon die gode van die ander nasies hulle lande red uit die mag van die koning van Assirië? [34]Waar is die gode van Hamat en Arpad? Waar is die gode van Sefarwajim, Hena en Awwa? Kon hulle Samaria uit my mag bevry? [35]Wie van al die gode van die ander lande kon sy land uit my mag red? Dan sal die Here mos nie Jerusalem uit my mag kan red nie! [36]Die manskappe het stilgebly en nie geantwoord nie, want die koning het hulle beveel om nie te antwoord nie. [37]Die paleisbestuurder Eljakim seun van Gilkija, die staatsekretaris Sebna en die hoof uitvoerende beampte Joag seun van Asaf het hulle klere geskeur en is terug na Hiskia toe om hom te vertel wat die hoofadjudant gesê het.

Isaiah Reassures Hezekiah

2Ki 19:1 As soon as King Hezekiah heard their report, he tore his clothes in grief, put on sackcloth, and went to the Temple of the LORD.

2Ki 19:2 He sent Eliakim, the official in charge of the palace, Shebna, the court secretary, and the senior priests to the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz. They also were wearing sackcloth.

2Ki 19:3 This is the message which he told them to give Isaiah: "Today is a day of suffering; we are being punished and are in disgrace. We are like a woman who is ready to give birth, but is too weak to do it.

2Ki 19:4 The Assyrian emperor has sent his chief official to insult the living God. May the LORD your God hear these insults and punish those who spoke them. So pray to God for those of our people who survive."

2Ki 19:5 When Isaiah received King Hezekiah's message,

2Ki 19:6 he sent back this answer: "The LORD tells you not to let the Assyrians frighten you with their claims that he cannot save you.

2Ki 19:7 The LORD will cause the emperor to hear a rumor that will make him go back to his own country, and the LORD will have him killed there."

Sennacherib Defies the Lord

2Ki 19:8 The Assyrian official learned that the emperor had left Lachish and was fighting against the nearby city of Libnah; so he went there to consult him.

2Ki 19:9 Word reached the Assyrians that the Egyptian army, led by King Tirhakah of Ethiopia, was coming to attack them. When the emperor heard this, he sent a letter to King Hezekiah of Judah 2Ki 19:10 to tell him, "The god you are trusting in has told you that you will not fall into my hands, but don't let that deceive you.

2Ki 19:11 You have heard what an Assyrian emperor does to any country he decides to destroy. Do you think that you can escape?

2Ki 19:12 My ancestors destroyed the cities of Gozan, Haran, and Rezeph, and killed the people of Betheden who lived in Telassar, and none of their gods could save them.

2Ki 19:13 Where are the kings of the cities of Hamath, Arpad, Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah?"

Hezekiah's Prayer

2Ki 19:14 King Hezekiah took the letter from the messengers and read it. Then he went to the Temple, placed the letter there in the presence of the LORD, 2Ki 19:15 and prayed, "O LORD, the God of Israel, seated on your throne above the winged creatures, you alone are God, ruling all the kingdoms of the world. You created the earth and the sky.

2Ki 19:16 Now, LORD, look at what is happening to us. Listen to all the things that Sennacherib is saying to insult you, the living God.

2Ki 19:17 We all know, LORD, that the emperors of Assyria have destroyed many nations, made their lands desolate, 2Ki 19:18 and burned up their gods—which were no gods at all, only images of wood and stone made by human hands.

2Ki 19:19 Now, LORD our God, rescue us from the Assyrians, so that all the nations of the world will know that only you, O LORD, are God."

Isaiah Prophesies Sennacherib's Fall

2Ki 19:20 Then Isaiah sent a message telling King Hezekiah that in answer to the king's prayer

2Ki 19:21 the LORD had said, "The city of Jerusalem laughs at you, Sennacherib, and makes fun of you.

2Ki 19:22 Whom do you think you have been insulting and ridiculing? You have been disrespectful to me, the holy God of Israel.

2Ki 19:23 You sent your messengers to boast to me that with all your chariots you had conquered the highest mountains of Lebanon. You boasted that there you cut down the tallest cedars and the finest cypress trees and that you reached the deepest parts of the forests.

2Ki 19:24 You boasted that you dug wells and drank water in foreign lands and that the feet of your soldiers tramped the Nile River dry.

2Ki 19:25 "Have you never heard that I planned all this long ago? And now I have carried it out. I gave you the power to turn fortified cities into piles of rubble.

2Ki 19:26 The people who lived there were powerless; they were frightened and stunned. They were like grass in a field or weeds growing on a roof when the hot east wind blasts them.

2Ki 19:27 "But I know everything about you, what you do and where you go. I know how you rage against me.

2Ki 19:28 I have received the report of that rage and that pride of yours, and now I will put a hook through your nose and a bit in your mouth, and take you back by the same road you came."

2Ki 19:29 Then Isaiah said to King Hezekiah, "Here is a sign of what will happen. This year and next you will have only wild grain to eat, but the following year you will be able to plant your grain and harvest it, and plant vines and eat grapes.

2Ki 19:30 Those in Judah who survive will flourish like plants that send roots deep into the ground and produce fruit.

2Ki 19:31 There will be people in Jerusalem and on Mount Zion who will survive, because the LORD is determined to make this happen.

2Ki 19:32 "And this is what the LORD has said about the Assyrian emperor: 'He will not enter this city or shoot a single arrow against it. No soldiers with shields will come near the city, and no siege mounds will be built around it.

2Ki 19:33 He will go back by the same road he came, without entering this city. I, the LORD, have spoken.

2Ki 19:34 I will defend this city and protect it, for the sake of my own honor and because of the promise I made to my servant David.' "

2Ki 19:35 That night an angel of the LORD went to the Assyrian camp and killed 185,000 soldiers. At dawn the next day there they lay, all dead!

2Ki 19:36 Then the Assyrian emperor Sennacherib withdrew and returned to Nineveh.

2Ki 19:37 One day, when he was worshiping in the temple of his god Nisroch, two of his sons, Adrammelech and Sharezer, killed him with their swords and then escaped to the land of Ararat. Another of his sons, Esarhaddon, succeeded him as emperor.

1Toe koning Hiskia dit hoor, het hy ook sy klere geskeur. Hy het rouklere aangetrek en is na die huis van die Here toe. 2Daarna stuur hy die paleisbestuurder Eljakim, die staatsekretaris Sebna en die leiers van die priesters, almal in rouklere, na die profeet Jesaja seun van Amos toe. 3Hulle het vir Jesaja gesê: So sê Hiskia: Dit is 'n dag van rou. Ons is in die moeilikheid en ons is verneder. Ons is soos vrouens wat in die kraam is, maar nie die krag daarvoor het nie. 4Miskien sal die Here u God let op die woorde van die hoofadjudant wat deur die Assiriese koning gestuur is om die lewende God te smaad, en miskien sal die Here u God hulle straf oor wat Hy moes aanhoor. Bid tog vir die klompie van ons wat nog oor is. 5Toe koning Hiskia se amptenare by Jesaja kom, 6sê hy vir hulle: Julle moet vir julle koning sê: So sê die Here: Moenie bang wees oor wat jy gehoor het, hoe die amptenare van die koning van Assirië My gelaster het nie. 7Ek gaan hom onrustig maak, sodat hy na sy land toe sal teruggaan wanneer hy daarvandaan 'n berig kry. Ek sal hom in sy eie land laat doodmaak. 8Toe die hoofadjudant hoor dat die koning van Assirië weg is van Lakis af, het hy teruggegaan. Hy het die koning aangetref waar hy met 'n aanval op Libna besig was. 9Daar het die koning van Assirië berig gekry dat koning Tirhaka van Kus op pad is om hom aan te val. Die koning van Assirië stuur toe weer gesante na Hiskia toe met die boodskap: 10Sê vir koning Hiskia van Juda: Moenie dat jou God op wie jy vertrou, jou mislei met sy versekering dat Jerusalem nie in my mag oorgegee sal word nie. 11Jy het mos gehoor hoe die konings van Assirië die een land na die ander verwoes het. Sal jý dan vrykom? 12Kon die gode van die nasies wat deur my voorgangers uitgedelg is, hulle red: Gosan, Haran, Resef, die mense van Eden in Telassar? 13Waar is die konings van Hamat en Arpad, die konings van die stede Sefarwajim, Hena en Awwa? 14Hiskia het die briewe wat die gesante gebring het, gevat en gelees. Daarna het hy na die huis van die Here toe gegaan en die briewe voor die Here oopgesprei. 15Toe het hy tot die Here gebid: Here, God van Israel, U wat oor die gerubs troon, U alleen is God oor al die koninkryke van die aarde, U het die hemel en die aarde gemaak. 16Hoor tog, Here, luister, kyk tog, Here, let tog op! Hoor tog wat Sanherib gesê het; hy het U, die lewende God, in sy boodskap beledig! 17Dit is waar, Here, die konings van Assirië het nasies met lande en al verwoes 18en hulle gode verbrand, maar dit was nie gode nie, dit was die werk van mensehande, hout en klip; daarom is hulle vernietig. 19Here, ons God, red ons tog uit die mag van die Assiriese koning. Dan sal al die koninkryke van die aarde besef dat U, Here, alleen God is. 20Jesaja seun van Amos het vir Hiskia 'n boodskap gestuur: So sê die Here die God van Israel: Ek het jou gebed oor koning Sanherib van Assirië verhoor. 21Dit is wat die Here oor Sanherib sê: Sion verag jou en lag jou uit, Jerusalem kyk jou met minagting agterna. 22Vir wie het jy beledig en belaster? Vir wie het jy geskreeu en uitgedaag? Die Heilige van Israel! 23Deur jou gesante het jy die Here geminag toe jy gesê het: Ek het met my wa teen die hoogste berge op gery, na die toppe van die Libanon toe; ek het sy hoogste seders afgekap, sy mooiste sipresse. Ek het sy verste skuilhoeke binnegedring, sy digste bosse. 24Ek het na water gegrawe in ander lande en dit gedrink, met my voetsole al die opgedamde riviere laat opdroog.' 25So sê die Here vir jou, Sanherib: Het jy dan nie gehoor nie, Ék het dit bewerk, lank gelede al, van die vroegste tye af het Ek dit voorberei en Ek het dit nóú laat gebeur: jy moes vestingstede verwoes en puinhope van hulle maak. 26Hulle inwoners was magteloos, verskrik en sonder raad, soos veldplante, soos groen gras, soos gras op 'n huis se dak: dit verskroei voor dit behoorlik staan. 27Of jy sit of gaan of kom, Ek weet dit, Ek weet hoe jy teen My te kere gegaan het. 28Omdat jy dit gedoen het, omdat Ek jou verwaande woorde moes aanhoor, sit Ek 'n haak deur jou neus en 'n stang tussen jou tande en lei Ek jou terug op die pad waarmee jy gekom het. 29Vir jou, Hiskia, gee Ek die volgende teken: vanjaar sal julle die opslag eet en volgende jaar wat dan opslaan, maar in die jaar daarna sal julle saai en oes, wingerde plant en druiwe eet. 30Dié van Juda wat die beleg oorleef het en oorgebly het, sal weer soos plante wortel skiet en vrugte dra. 31Daar sal mense oorbly en uit Jerusalem kom, daar sal mense vry van Sionsberg af uitgaan. Daarvoor sal die onverdeelde trou van die Here sorg. 32Daarom, so sê die Here oor die koning van Assirië: Hy sal nie in dié stad inkom nie, hy sal nie 'n pyl hier afskiet nie, nie 'n skild teen die stad optel nie, nie 'n beleëringswal daarteen opgooi nie. 33Met die pad wat hy gekom het, sal hy teruggaan en hy sal nie weer by dié stad kom nie. Dit is wat die Here sê. 34Ek sal dié stad beskut en hom red, om my ontwil en om my dienaar Dawid se ontwil. 35Daardie nag het 'n engel van die Here gegaan en honderd vyf en tagtig duisend man in die Assiriese kamp doodgemaak. Toe die Assiriërs die môre vroeg opstaan, lê die lyke almal daar. 36Koning Sanherib van Assirië het toe kamp afgeslaan en hy is terug Nineve toe en het daar gebly. 37Terwyl hy op 'n dag in die tempel van sy god Nisrok aanbid het, het Adrammelek en Sar-Eser hom met swaarde doodgesteek. Hulle het na Ararat toe gevlug, en Sanherib se seun Esarhaddon het hom as koning opgevolg.

Hezekiah's Illness and Recovery

2Ki 20:1 About this time King Hezekiah became sick and almost died. The prophet Isaiah son of Amoz went to see him and said to him, "The LORD tells you that you are to put everything in order, because you will not recover. Get ready to die."

2Ki 20:2 Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed:

2Ki 20:3 "Remember, LORD, that I have served you faithfully and loyally and that I have always tried to do what you wanted me to." And he began to cry bitterly.

2Ki 20:4 Isaiah left the king, but before he had passed through the central courtyard of the palace the LORD told him

2Ki 20:5 to go back to Hezekiah, ruler of the LORD's people, and say to him, "I, the LORD, the God of your ancestor David, have heard your prayer and seen your tears. I will heal you, and in three days you will go to the Temple.

2Ki 20:6 I will let you live fifteen years longer. I will rescue you and this city Jerusalem from the emperor of Assyria. I will defend this city, for the sake of my own honor and because of the promise I made to my servant David."

2Ki 20:7 Then Isaiah told the king's attendants to put on his boil a paste made of figs, and he would get well.

2Ki 20:8 King Hezekiah asked, "What is the sign to prove that the LORD will heal me and that three days later I will be able to go to the Temple?"

2Ki 20:9 Isaiah replied, "The LORD will give you a sign to prove that he will keep his promise. Now, would you prefer to have the shadow on the stairway go forward ten steps or go back ten steps?"

2Ki 20:10 Hezekiah answered, "It's easy to have the shadow go forward ten steps! Have it go back ten steps."

2Ki 20:11 Isaiah prayed to the LORD, and the LORD made the shadow go back ten steps on the stairway set up by King Ahaz.

Hezekiah and the Babylonian Envoys

2Ki 20:12 About that same time the king of Babylonia, Merodach Baladan, the son of Baladan, heard that King Hezekiah had been sick, so he sent him a letter and a present.

2Ki 20:13 Hezekiah welcomed the messengers and showed them his wealth—his silver and gold, his spices and perfumes, and all his military equipment. There was nothing in his storerooms or anywhere in his kingdom that he did not show them.

2Ki 20:14 Then the prophet Isaiah went to King Hezekiah and asked, "Where did these men come from and what did they say to you?" Hezekiah answered, "They came from a very distant country, from Babylonia."

2Ki 20:15 "What did they see in the palace?" "They saw everything. There is nothing in the storerooms that I didn't show them."

2Ki 20:16 Isaiah then told the king, "The LORD Almighty says that 2Ki 20:17 a time is coming when everything in your palace, everything that your ancestors have stored up to this day, will be carried off to Babylonia. Nothing will be left.

2Ki 20:18 Some of your own direct descendants will be taken away and made eunuchs to serve in the palace of the king of Babylonia."

2Ki 20:19 King Hezekiah understood this to mean that there would be peace and security during his lifetime, so he replied, "The message you have given me from the LORD is good."

2Ki 20:20 Everything else that King Hezekiah did, his brave deeds, and an account of how he built a reservoir and dug a tunnel to bring water into the city, are all recorded in The History of the Kings of Judah.

2Ki 20:21 Hezekiah died, and his son Manasseh succeeded him as king.

II KONINGS 20

1In dié tyd het Hiskia ernstig siek geword. Die profeet Jesaja seun van Amos het na hom toe gekom en gesê: So sê die Here: Sê vir jou gesin wat jou laaste wense is, want jy gaan sterf, jy sal nie langer lewe nie. 2Toe draai Hiskia sy gesig na die muur toe en hy bid tot die Here: 3Ag, Here, neem tog in ag dat ek voor U in trou en met volle oorgawe geleef het en dat ek gedoen het wat reg is in u oë. Hiskia het bitterlik gehuil. 4Jesaja was nog nie die binneplein van die stad oor nie toe die woord van die Here tot hom kom en sê: 5Gaan terug en sê vir Hiskia, die leier van my volk: So sê die Here, die God van jou voorvader Dawid: Ek het jou gebed verhoor, Ek het jou trane gesien. Ek gaan jou gesond maak, en jy sal oormôre weer na die huis van die Here toe kan gaan. 6Ek sal jou lewe met vyftien jaar verleng en jou en dié stad red uit die mag van die koning van Assirië. Ek sal dié stad beskerm, om my ontwil en om my dienaar Dawid se ontwil. 7Jesaja het toe opdrag gegee dat hulle 'n vyekoek moet bring en op die sweer moet sit, en die koning het beter geword. 8Toe vra Hiskia vir Jesaja: Wat is die teken dat die Here my sal gesond maak en dat ek oormôre weer na die huis van die Here toe sal gaan? 9Jesaja het geantwoord: Die Here gee jou die volgende teken dat Hy sal doen wat Hy gesê het: moet die skaduwee tien trappe vorentoe gaan of tien terugkom? 10Hiskia sê toe: Dit is maklik vir die skaduwee om tien trappe vorentoe te skuif. Nee, laat dit tien trappe terugkom. 11Die profeet Jesaja het die Here aangeroep, en Hy het die skaduwee wat reeds teen die trap van Agas afgesak het, tien trappe laat terugskuif. 12In dié tyd het koning Merodak-Baladan van Babel, seun van Baladan, briewe en geskenke na Hiskia toe gestuur omdat hy gehoor het van Hiskia se siekte. 13Hiskia het die gesante te woord gestaan en hulle daarna al sy skatkamers gewys met die silwer, die goud, die kruie en die geurige olie, sy wapenkamer en alles wat in sy voorraadkamers was. Daar was niks in sy paleis en in sy koninkryk wat Hiskia die gesante nie laat sien het nie. 14Toe kom die profeet Jesaja na koning Hiskia toe en vra vir hom: Wat het daardie mense gesê en waarvandaan kom hulle? Hiskia het geantwoord: Uit 'n ver land, uit Babel. 15Wat het hulle in jou paleis gesien? vra Jesaja. En Hiskia antwoord: Hulle het alles gesien wat in my paleis is. Daar is niks van my skatte wat hulle nie gesien het nie. 16Toe sê Jesaja vir Hiskia: Luister wat sê die Here: 17Daar kom 'n tyd dat alles wat in jou paleis is, weggedra sal word na Babel toe, al die skatte wat jou voorvaders en jy versamel het. Daar sal niks oorbly nie, sê die Here. 18Van jou eie seuns wat uit jou gebore is, sal gevat word, en hulle sal diens doen in die paleis van die koning van Babel. 19Hiskia het vir Jesaja gesê: Die woord van die Here wat jy aan my oorgedra het, is goed. Hiskia het bygevoeg: As daar maar net in my tyd vrede en veiligheid is! [20]Die ander verhale oor Hiskia, oor sy moedige optrede en oor die dam en die kanaal wat hy gebou het om die water in die stad in te bring, is opgeteken in die annale van die konings van Juda. [21]Hiskia is oorlede, en sy seun Manasse het hom as koning opgevolg.

2Kings 21

Manasseh Reigns in Judah

2Ki 21:1 Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king of Judah, and he ruled in Jerusalem for fifty-five years. His mother was Hephzibah.

2Ki 21:2 Following the disgusting practices of the nations whom the LORD had driven out of the land as his people advanced, Manasseh sinned against the LORD.

2Ki 21:3 He rebuilt the pagan places of worship that his father Hezekiah had destroyed; he built altars for the worship of Baal and made an image of the goddess Asherah, as King Ahab of Israel had done. Manasseh also worshiped the stars.

2Ki 21:4 He built pagan altars in the Temple, the place that the LORD had said was where he should be worshiped.

2Ki 21:5 In the two courtyards of the Temple he built altars for the worship of the stars.

2Ki 21:6 He sacrificed his son as a burnt offering. He practiced divination and magic and consulted fortunetellers and mediums. He sinned greatly against the LORD and stirred up his anger.

2Ki 21:7 He placed the symbol of the goddess Asherah in the Temple, the place about which the LORD had said to David and his son Solomon: "Here in Jerusalem, in this Temple, is the place that I have chosen out of all the territory of the twelve tribes of Israel as the place where I am to be worshiped.

2Ki 21:8 And if the people of Israel will obey all my commands and keep the whole Law that my servant Moses gave them, then I will not allow them to be driven out of the land that I gave to their ancestors."

2Ki 21:9 But the people of Judah did not obey the LORD, and Manasseh led them to commit even greater sins than those committed by the nations whom the LORD had driven out of the land as his people advanced.

Manasseh's Idolatry Denounced

2Ki 21:10 Through his servants the prophets the LORD said,

2Ki 21:11 "King Manasseh has done these disgusting things, things far worse than what the Canaanites did; and with his idols he has led the people of Judah into sin.

2Ki 21:12 So I, the LORD God of Israel, will bring such a disaster on Jerusalem and Judah that everyone who hears about it will be stunned.

2Ki 21:13 I will punish Jerusalem as I did Samaria, as I did King Ahab of Israel and his descendants. I will wipe Jerusalem clean of its people, as clean as a plate that has been wiped and turned upside down.

2Ki 21:14 I will abandon the people who survive, and will hand them over to their enemies, who will conquer them and plunder their land.

2Ki 21:15 I will do this to my people because they have sinned against me and have stirred up my anger from the time their ancestors came out of Egypt to this day."

2Ki 21:16 Manasseh killed so many innocent people that the streets of Jerusalem were flowing with blood; he did this in addition to leading the people of Judah into idolatry, causing them to sin against the LORD.

2Ki 21:17 Everything else that Manasseh did, including the sins he committed, is recorded in The History of the Kings of Judah.

2Ki 21:18 Manasseh died and was buried in the palace garden, the garden of Uzza, and his son Amon succeeded him as king.

Amon Reigns in Judah

2Ki 21:19 Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king of Judah, and he ruled in Jerusalem for two years. His mother was Meshullemeth, the daughter of Haruz from the town of Jotbah.

2Ki 21:20 Like his father Manasseh, he sinned against the LORD;

2Ki 21:21 he imitated his father's actions, and he worshiped the idols that his father had worshiped.

2Ki 21:22 He rejected the LORD, the God of his ancestors, and disobeyed the LORD's commands.

2Ki 21:23 Amon's officials plotted against him and assassinated him in the palace.

2Ki 21:24 The people of Judah killed Amon's assassins and made his son Josiah king.

2Ki 21:25 Everything else that Amon did is recorded in The History of the Kings of Judah.

2Ki 21:26 Amon was buried in the tomb in the garden of Uzza, and his son Josiah succeeded him as king.

II KONINGS 21

1Manasse was twaalf toe hy koning geword het, en hy het vyf en vyftig jaar in Jerusalem geregeer. Sy ma was Gefsiba. 2Hy het gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here en het die afskuwelike optrede van die heidennasies nagevolg wat deur die Here verdryf is om vir die Israeliete plek te maak. 3Hy het die hoogtes wat deur Hiskia, sy pa, verwoes is, weer opgebou, altare vir Baäl opgerig, 'n Asjerabeeld gemaak soos koning Agab van Israel gedoen het en al die hemelliggame aanbid en gedien. 4Hy het selfs afgodsaltare gebou in die huis van die Here, die plek waarvan die Here gesê het: In Jerusalem wil Ek my Naam vestig. 5In die twee voorhowe van die huis van die Here het hy altare vir al die hemelliggame gebou. 6Hy het sy eie seun as offer verbrand, hom besig gehou met goëlery, waarsêery en toordery, en meegedoen aan die oproep en raadpleging van geeste. Hy het baie verkeerde dinge gedoen in die oë van die Here en Hom uitgetart. 7Die Asjerabeeld wat hy laat maak het, het hy opgestel binne-in die tempel, die plek waarvan die Here vir Dawid en sy seun Salomo gesê het: In hierdie tempel en in Jerusalem wat Ek onder al die Israelitiese stamme uitgekies het, vestig Ek my Naam vir altyd. 8As Israel alles doen wat Ek hulle beveel het, in ooreenstemming met die hele wet wat my dienaar Moses vir hulle neergelê het, sal Ek hulle voete stewig geplant hou op die grond wat Ek aan hulle voorvaders gegee het. 9Maar hulle het nie geluister nie. Manasse het Juda die verkeerde pad laat loop, sodat hulle erger aangegaan het as die nasies wat deur die Here uitgeroei is om vir Israel plek te maak. 10Die Here het deur sy dienaars, die profete, gesê: 11Omdat koning Manasse van Juda hierdie afskuwelike dinge gedoen het en erger aangegaan het as al die Amoriete voor sy tyd, en hy ook vir Juda laat sondig het met sy stinkende afgode, 12daarom, so sê die Here die God van Israel: Ek gaan nou rampe bring oor Jerusalem en Juda wat elkeen wat daarvan hoor, se twee ore sal laat tuit. 13Ek gaan Jerusalem met dieselfde maat meet as dié waarmee Ek Samaria en die koningshuis van Agab gemeet het; Ek gaan Jerusalem skoonvee soos 'n mens 'n skottel skoonvee en dan omkeer. 14Wat oor is van die volk wat aan My behoort, gaan Ek verwerp en hulle oorgee in die mag van hulle vyande. Hulle sal deur al hulle vyande geplunder en uitgeroei word. 15Dit sal gebeur omdat hulle gedoen het wat verkeerd is in my oë en My uitgetart het van die dag af dat hulle voorvaders uit Egipte getrek het tot vandag toe. 16Behalwe die sonde wat Manasse Juda laat doen het, wat verkeerd was in die oë van die Here, het Manasse ook nog baie onskuldige mense laat doodmaak. Jerusalem was van hoek tot kant vol bloed. 17Die ander verhale oor Manasse en alles wat hy gedoen het, en die sonde wat hy gedoen het, is opgeteken in die annale van die konings van Juda. 18Manasse is oorlede, en hy is begrawe in die tuin by sy paleis, die tuin van Ussa. Sy seun Amon het hom as koning opgevolg. 19Amon was twee en twintig toe hy koning geword het, en hy het twee jaar in Jerusalem geregeer. Sy ma was Mesullemet, 'n dogter van Garus, uit Jotba. 20Amon het gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here, net soos Manasse, sy pa, gedoen het. 21Hy het in alles die voorbeeld van sy pa gevolg, die stinkende afgode gedien wat deur sy pa gedien is, en hulle aanbid. 22Hy het die Here die God van sy voorvaders verlaat en nie die wil van die Here gedoen nie. 23Amptenare van koning Amon het 'n sameswering teen hom gesmee en hom in sy paleis doodgemaak. 24Daarna het die burgers van die land almal doodgemaak wat saamgesweer het teen koning Amon, en hulle het sy seun Josia in sy plek koning gemaak. 25Die ander verhale oor Amon en wat hy gedoen het, is opgeteken in die annale van die konings van Juda. 26Hy is begrawe in sy graf in die tuin van Ussa, en sy seun Josia het hom as koning opgevolg.

Josiah Reigns in Judah

2Ki 22:1 Josiah was eight years old when he became king of Judah, and he ruled in Jerusalem for thirty-one years. His mother was Jedidah, the daughter of Adaiah from the town of Bozkath.

2Ki 22:2 Josiah did what was pleasing to the LORD; he followed the example of his ancestor King David, strictly obeying all the laws of God.

Josiah Repairs the Temple

2Ki 22:3 In the eighteenth year of his reign, King Josiah sent the court secretary Shaphan, the son of Azaliah and grandson of Meshullam, to the Temple with the order:

2Ki 22:4 "Go to the High Priest Hilkiah and get a report on the amount of money that the priests on duty at the entrance to the Temple have collected from the people.

2Ki 22:5 Tell him to give the money to the men who are in charge of the repairs in the Temple. They are to pay 2Ki 22:6 the carpenters, the builders, and the masons, and buy the timber and the stones used in the repairs.

2Ki 22:7 The men in charge of the work are thoroughly honest, so there is no need to require them to account for the funds."

Hilkiah Finds the Book of the Law

2Ki 22:8 Shaphan delivered the king's order to Hilkiah, and Hilkiah told him that he had found the book of the Law in the Temple. Hilkiah gave him the book, and Shaphan read it.

2Ki 22:9 Then he went back to the king and reported: "Your servants have taken the money that was in the Temple and have handed it over to the men in charge of the repairs."

2Ki 22:10 And then he said, "I have here a book that Hilkiah gave me." And he read it aloud to the king.

2Ki 22:11 When the king heard the book being read, he tore his clothes in dismay,

2Ki 22:12 and gave the following order to Hilkiah the priest, to Ahikam son of Shaphan, to Achbor son of Micaiah, to Shaphan, the court secretary, and to Asaiah, the king's attendant:

2Ki 22:13 "Go and consult the LORD for me and for all the people of Judah about the teachings of this book. The LORD is angry with us because our ancestors have not done what this book says must be done."

2Ki 22:14 Hilkiah, Ahikam, Achbor, Shaphan, and Asaiah went to consult a woman named Huldah, a prophet who lived in the newer part of Jerusalem. (Her husband Shallum, the son of Tikvah and grandson of Harhas, was in charge of the Temple robes.) They described to her what had happened,

2Ki 22:15 and she told them to go back to the king and give him

2Ki 22:16 the following message from the LORD: "I am going to punish Jerusalem and all its people, as written in the book that the king has read.

2Ki 22:17 They have rejected me and have offered sacrifices to other gods, and so have stirred up my anger by all they have done. My anger is aroused against Jerusalem, and it will not die down.

2Ki 22:18 As for the king himself, this is what I, the LORD God of Israel, say: You listened to what is written in the book,

2Ki 22:19 and you repented and humbled yourself before me, tearing your clothes and weeping, when you heard how I threatened to punish Jerusalem and its people. I will make it a terrifying sight, a place whose name people will use as a curse. But I have heard your prayer, 2Ki 22:20 and the punishment which I am going to bring on Jerusalem will not come until after your death. I will let you die in peace." The men returned to King Josiah with this message.

II KONINGS 22

1Josia was ag jaar toe hy koning geword het, en hy het een en dertig jaar in Jerusalem geregeer. Sy ma was Jedida, 'n dogter van Adaja uit Boskat. 2Josia het gedoen wat reg is in die oë van die Here. Hy het in alles die pad van sy voorvader Dawid geloop en daar nie links of regs van afgewyk nie. 3In die agtiende jaar van sy regering het Josia die staatsekretaris Safan, seun van Asalja seun van Mesullam, na die huis van die Here toe gestuur met die opdrag: 4Gaan na die hoëpriester Gilkija toe en laat hy die geld gereed kry wat ingebring is vir die huis van die Here, dié wat deur die drumpelwagte by die volk ingesamel is. 5Die geld moet oorhandig word aan die mense wat vir die werk aan die huis van die Here moet sorg. Hulle moet daarmee die werkers betaal wat die huis van die Here moet herstel: 6die vakmanne, die bouwerkers, die messelaars; hulle moet hout en gekapte klip koop om die tempel te herstel. 7Daar hoef nie van hulle rekenskap gevra te word van die geld wat aan hulle oorhandig word nie, want hulle is betroubaar. 8Die hoëpriester Gilkija sê toe vir die staatsekretaris Safan: Ek het die wetboek in die huis van die Here gekry. Hy het die wetboek aan Safan oorhandig, en dié het dit gelees 9en by die koning verslag gaan doen: U amptenare het die geld wat hiervoor in die tempel beskikbaar was, uitgetel en dit oorhandig aan die mense wat vir die werk aan die huis van die Here moet sorg. 10Die staatsekretaris Safan het ook aan die koning die mededeling gedoen: Die priester Gilkija het my 'n boek gegee, en Safan het vir die koning gelees wat daarin staan. 11Toe die koning hoor wat die wetboek sê, het hy sy klere geskeur 12en opdrag gegee aan die priester Gilkija, aan Agikam seun van Safan, aan Akbor seun van Miga, aan die staatsekretaris Safan en aan Asaja die hoofamptenaar van die koning: 13Gaan raadpleeg die Here namens my en namens die hele volk Juda. Raadpleeg Hom oor die inhoud van hierdie boek wat gekry is. Ons voorvaders was ongehoorsaam aan die eise van hierdie boek en het nie gehandel in ooreenstemming met alles wat daarin staan nie. Daarom is die toorn van die Here wat teen ons gaan ontvlam, groot. 14Die priester Gilkija en Agikam, Akbor, Safan en Asaja is toe na die profetes Gulda toe. Sy was die vrou van die klerebewaarder Sallum seun van Tikwa, seun van Gasra, en het in die nuwe deel van Jerusalem gewoon. Hulle het haar vertel, 15en sy het geantwoord: So sê die Here die God van Israel: Sê vir die man wat julle na my toe gestuur het: 16So sê die Here: Ek bring onheil oor hierdie plek en oor sy inwoners, al die oordele in die boek wat die koning van Juda gelees het, 17want hulle het My verlaat. Hulle het offers gebring vir ander gode en My uitgetart met allerhande maaksels van hulle eie hande.

My toorn ontvlam teen hierdie plek, die vlam sal nie geblus word nie. 18Maar sê vir die koning van Juda wat vir julle gestuur het om die Here te raadpleeg: So sê die Here die God van Israel: Ek het daarop ag geslaan dat jy in jou hart geraak is deur die woorde wat jy gehoor het en dat jy jou klere geskeur en gehuil het voor My, en dat jy berou getoon het voor My, die Here, toe jy hoor wat Ek sê oor hierdie plek en sy inwoners, naamlik dat verwoesting en straf oor hulle kom, sê die Here. 19Daarom sal Ek jou in vrede laat sterwe en in jou graf laat ingaan; jy sal niks van al die onheil wat Ek oor hierdie plek bring, self beleef nie.

Josiah's Reforms

2Ki 23:1 King Josiah summoned all the leaders of Judah and Jerusalem,

2Ki 23:2 and together they went to the Temple, accompanied by the priests and the prophets and all the rest of the people, rich and poor alike. Before them all the king read aloud the whole book of the covenant which had been found in the Temple.

2Ki 23:3 He stood by the royal column and made a covenant with the LORD to obey him, to keep his laws and commands with all his heart and soul, and to put into practice the demands attached to the covenant, as written in the book. And all the people promised to keep the covenant.

2Ki 23:4 Then Josiah ordered the High Priest Hilkiah, his assistant priests, and the guards on duty at the entrance to the Temple to bring out of the Temple all the objects used in the worship of Baal, of the goddess Asherah, and of the stars. The king burned all these objects outside the city near Kidron Valley and then had the ashes taken to Bethel.

2Ki 23:5 He removed from office the priests that the kings of Judah had ordained to offer sacrifices on the pagan altars in the cities of Judah and in places near Jerusalem—all the priests who offered sacrifices to Baal, to the sun, the moon, the planets, and the stars.

2Ki 23:6 He removed from the Temple the symbol of the goddess Asherah, took it out of the city to Kidron Valley, burned it, pounded its ashes to dust, and scattered it over the public burying ground.

2Ki 23:7 He destroyed the living quarters in the Temple occupied by the temple prostitutes. (It was there that women wove robes used in the worship of Asherah.)

2Ki 23:8 He brought to Jerusalem the priests who were in the cities of Judah, and throughout the whole country he desecrated the altars where they had offered sacrifices. He also tore down the altars dedicated to the goat demons near the gate built by Joshua, the city governor, which was to the left of the main gate as one enters the city.

2Ki 23:9 Those priests were not allowed to serve in the Temple, but they could eat the unleavened bread provided for their fellow priests.

2Ki 23:10 King Josiah also desecrated Topheth, the pagan place of worship in Hinnom Valley, so that no one could sacrifice his son or daughter as a burnt offering to the god Molech.

2Ki 23:11 He also removed the horses that the kings of Judah had dedicated to the worship of the sun, and he burned the chariots used in this worship. (These were kept in the temple courtyard, near the gate and not far from the living quarters of Nathan Melech, a high official.)

2Ki 23:13 Josiah desecrated the altars that King Solomon had built east of Jerusalem, south of the Mount of Olives, for the worship of disgusting idols—Astarte the goddess of Sidon, Chemosh the god of Moab, and Molech the god of Ammon.

2Ki 23:14 King Josiah broke the stone pillars to pieces, cut down the symbols of the goddess Asherah, and the ground where they had stood he covered with human bones.

2Ki 23:15 Josiah also tore down the place of worship in Bethel, which had been built by King Jeroboam son of Nebat, who led Israel into sin. Josiah pulled down the altar, broke its stones into pieces, and pounded them to dust; he also burned the image of Asherah.

2Ki 23:17 "Whose tomb is that?" he asked. The people of Bethel answered, "It is the tomb of the prophet who came from Judah and predicted these things that you have done to this altar."

2Ki 23:18 "Leave it as it is," Josiah ordered. "His bones are not to be moved." So his bones were not moved, neither were those of the prophet who had come from Samaria.

2Ki 23:19 In every city of Israel King Josiah tore down all the pagan places of worship which had been built by the kings of Israel, who thereby aroused the LORD's anger. He did to all those altars what he had done in Bethel.

2Ki 23:20 He killed all the pagan priests on the altars where they served, and he burned human bones on every altar. Then he returned to Jerusalem.

Josiah Restores the Passover

2Ki 23:21 King Josiah ordered the people to celebrate the Passover in honor of the LORD their God, as written in the book of the covenant.

2Ki 23:22 No Passover like this one had ever been celebrated by any of the kings of Israel or of Judah, since the time when judges ruled the nation.

2Ki 23:23 Now at last, in the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah, the Passover was celebrated in Jerusalem.

2Ki 23:24 In order to enforce the laws written in the book that the High Priest Hilkiah had found in the Temple, King Josiah removed from Jerusalem and the rest of Judah all the mediums and fortunetellers, and all the household gods, idols, and all other pagan objects of worship.

2Ki 23:25 There had never been a king like him before, who served the LORD with all his heart, mind, and strength, obeying all the Law of Moses; nor has there been a king like him since.

2Ki 23:26 But the LORD's fierce anger had been aroused against Judah by what King Manasseh had done, and even now it did not die down.

2Ki 23:27 The LORD said, "I will do to Judah what I have done to Israel: I will banish the people of Judah from my sight, and I will reject Jerusalem, the city I chose, and the Temple, the place I said was where I should be worshiped."

Josiah's Death in Battle

2Ki 23:28 Everything else that King Josiah did is recorded in The History of the Kings of Judah.

2Ki 23:29 While Josiah was king, King Neco of Egypt led an army to the Euphrates River to help the emperor of Assyria. King Josiah tried to stop the Egyptian army at Megiddo and was killed in battle.

2Ki 23:30 His officials placed his body in a chariot and took it back to Jerusalem, where he was buried in the royal tombs. The people of Judah chose Josiah's son Joahaz and anointed him king.

Jehoahaz's Reign and Captivity

2Ki 23:31 Joahaz was twenty-three years old when he became king of Judah, and he ruled in Jerusalem for three months. His mother was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah from the city of Libnah.

2Ki 23:32 Following the example of his ancestors, he sinned against the LORD.

2Ki 23:33 His reign ended when King Neco of Egypt took him prisoner in Riblah, in the land of Hamath, and made Judah pay 7,500 pounds of silver and 75 pounds of gold as tribute.

2Ki 23:34 King Neco made Josiah's son Eliakim king of Judah as successor to Josiah, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. Joahaz was taken to Egypt by King Neco, and there he died.

2Ki 23:35 King Jehoiakim collected a tax from the people in proportion to their wealth, in order to raise the amount needed to pay the tribute demanded by the king of Egypt.

Jehoiakim Reigns in Judah

2Ki 23:36 Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king of Judah, and he ruled in Jerusalem for eleven years. His mother was Zebidah, the daughter of Pedaiah from the town of Rumah.

2Ki 23:37 Following the example of his ancestors, Jehoiakim sinned against the LORD.

1Die afvaardiging het so aan die koning gerapporteer, en hy het al die leiers van Juda en Jerusalem by hom laat bymekaarkom. 2Daarna is die koning na die huis van die Here toe met al die mense van Juda by hom en ook die inwoners van Jerusalem, die priesters en die Leviete, al die mense, groot en klein. Daar het hy alles aan hulle voorgelees wat in die boek van die verbond gestaan het wat in die huis van die Here gekry is. 3Toe het die koning op sy plek gaan staan en 'n verbond met die Here gesluit en beloof om die Here te volg en sy gebooie, verordeninge en voorskrifte met sy hele hart en siel te gehoorsaam en om die bepalings van die verbond soos dit in hierdie boek vasgelê is, na te kom. Die hele volk het die verbond aanvaar. 4Koning Josia het aan die hoëpriester Gilkija, aan die priesters net onder hom en aan die drumpelwagte opdrag gegee om uit die tempel van die Here al die goed te bring wat vir Baäl en Asjera en al die hemelliggame gemaak is. Hulle moes dit verbrand buite Jerusalem op die gelyktes langs die Kedron en die as na Bet-El toe vat. 5Josia het die afgodspriesters afgesit wat deur die konings van Juda aangestel is en wat offers gebring het op die hoogtes, in die stede van Juda en in die omgewing van Jerusalem. Hy het ook 'n einde gemaak aan dié wat geoffer het vir Baäl en vir die son en die maan en die diereriem en al die ander hemelliggame. 6Hy het die Asjera uit die huis van die Here laat bring na die Kedronspruit toe buite Jerusalem, dit daar laat verbrand en laat fynstamp. Die as het hy laat weggooi op die grafte van die gewone mense. 7Hy het die manlike prostitute se kamers by die huis van die Here laat afbreek waarin die vroue klere geweef het vir die diens van Asjera. 8Verder het Josia al die priesters uit die stede van Juda laat bring en die hoogtes waarop die priesters geoffer het, laat ontwy, van Geba af tot by Berseba. Hy het die hoogtes wat by die poorte was, laat afbreek, ook die een by die poort van die stadsbevelvoerder Josua, aan die linkerkant as 'n mens die stadspoort binnegaan. 9Josia het nie die priesters wat by die hoogtes geoffer het, by die altaar van die Here in Jerusalem laat kom nie, maar hulle kon saam met hulle ampsgenote ongesuurde brood eet. 10Hy het die offerplek wat in die Ben-Hinnomdal was, laat ontwy, sodat niemand meer sy seun of dogter as offer vir Molek kon verbrand nie. 11Die perdebeelde wat deur die konings van Juda ter verering van die son opgestel is, het hy laat verwyder. Hulle het gestaan by die ingang van die huis van die Here, by die kamer van die amptenaar Netan-Melek aan die binneplein. Die sonwa het hy laat verbrand. 12Die altare wat deur die konings van Juda gebou is op die dak van die bovertrek van Agas, en die altare wat deur Manasse in die twee voorhowe van die huis van die Here

gebou is, is deur die koning afgebreek. Hy het hulle net daar laat stukkend slaan en die puin laat weggooi in die Kedronvallei. 13Verder het die koning die hoogtes laat ontwy wat oos van Jerusalem, suid van die berg van verwoesting, was en wat deur koning Salomo van Israel opgerig is vir die verering van Astarte, die veragtelike godin van die Sidoniërs, Kemos, die veragtelike god van Moab, en Milkom die afskuwelike god van die Ammoniete. 14Hy het die klippilare laat stukkend slaan, die gewyde pale laat afkap en op hulle plekke mensbene laat gooi. 15Selfs die altaar in Bet-El, die hoogte wat deur Jerobeam seun van Nebat ingerig is toe hy vir Israel laat sondig het, selfs dié altaar en dié hoogte is deur Josia laat afbreek. Hy het die hoogte laat afbrand en fynslaan en die Asjera laat verbrand. 16Toe hy omdraai, sien Josia die grafte daar teen die berg. Hy het die bene uit die grafte laat uithaal en hulle op die altaar laat verbrand. So het hy die altaar laat ontwy in ooreenstemming met die woord van die Here wat destyds deur die man van God aangekondig is.17Daarna sê Josia: Watter grafsteen sien ek daar? en die mense van die stad sê vir hom: Dit is die graf van die man van God wat uit Juda gekom en voorspel het presies wat u met die altaar van Bet-El gedoen het. 18Toe sê hy: Laat hom rus, moenie sy bene versteur nie. Hulle het toe sy bene en die bene van die profeet wat uit Samaria gekom het, met rus gelaat. 19Josia het verder al die heiligdomme wat deur die konings van Israel op die hoogtes by die stede van Samaria gebou is om die Here uit te tart, laat opruim. Hy het met hulle gemaak soos hy in Bet-El gedoen het. 20Al die priesters wat daar op die hoogtes diens gedoen het, het hy op die altare laat slag en mensbene op die altare laat verbrand. Daarna is hy terug Jerusalem toe. 21Daarna het die koning die volk beveel: Vier die paasfees tot eer van die Here julle God soos dit voorgeskryf is in hierdie boek van die verbond. 22'n Paasfees soos hierdie is nie gevier van die tyd van die leiers af wat oor Israel geregeer het nie, ook nie tydens die regering van die konings van Israel en Juda nie. 23Hierdie paasfees tot eer van die Here is in die agtiende regeringsjaar van koning Josia in Jerusalem gevier. 24Josia het ook die dodebesweerders en die waarsêers, die afgodsbeelde, al die stinkende en veragtelike afgode wat in Juda en Jerusalem te sien was, uitgeroei. So het hy voldoen aan die eise van die wet soos dit opgeteken was in die boek wat die priester Gilkija in die huis van die Here gekry het. 25Daar was nie voor hom nog so 'n koning soos hy wat hom tot die Here bekeer het met sy hele hart en siel en met al sy kragte in ooreenstemming met die hele wet van Moses nie, en ná hom was daar ook nie so 'n koning soos hy nie. 26Die Here het egter nie sy hewige toorn teen Juda laat vaar nie. Hy het toornig gebly oor Manasse se uittartende optrede teen Hom. 27Hy het gesê: Ek sal Juda ook uit my teenwoordigheid verwyder, net soos Ek Israel verwyder

het. Ek sal hierdie stad, Jerusalem, wat Ek uitverkies het, verwerp, en ook die tempel waarvan Ek gesê het: My Naam sal daar wees. 28Die ander verhale oor Josia en alles wat hy gedoen het, is opgeteken in die annale van die konings van Juda. 29In sy tyd was die farao koning Neko van Egipte op pad na die koning van Assirië toe aan die Eufraat. Koning Josia het teen die farao opgetrek, maar die farao het hom met die bymekaarkom in Megiddo doodgemaak. 30Sy lyfwagte het sy lyk op 'n wa gesit en na Jerusalem toe gebring. Daar het hulle hom in sy graf begrawe. 31Joahas was drie en twintig toe hy koning geword het en hy het drie maande in Jerusalem geregeer. Sy ma was Gamutal, 'n dogter van Jeremia uit Libna. 32Joahas het gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here en in alles die voorbeeld van sy voorvaders gevolg. 33Farao Neko het vir Joahas gevang en in Ribla, in Hamat, in die tronk gehou sodat hy nie in Jerusalem kon regeer nie. Neko het die land beboet met drie en 'n halwe ton silwer en vier en dertig kilogram goud. 34Daarna het farao Neko vir Eljakim seun van Josia koning gemaak in sy pa se plek, en sy naam verander na Jojakim. Neko het vir Joahas na Egipte toe gevat, en hy is daar dood. 35Jojakim het die goud en die silwer aan die farao betaal. Om te betaal wat die farao geëis het, moes hy die land aanslaan. Hy het die goud en die silwer van die burgers van die land geëis, van elkeen volgens sy aanslag, en dit aan farao Neko betaal. 36Jojakim was vyf en twintig toe hy koning geword het, en hy het elf jaar in Jerusalem geregeer. Sy ma was Sebida, 'n dogter van Pedaja uit Ruma. 37Jojakim het gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here en het in alles die voorbeeld van sy voorvaders gevolg.

2Ki 24:1 While Jehoiakim was king, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia invaded Judah, and for three years Jehoiakim was forced to submit to his rule; then he rebelled.

2Ki 24:2 The LORD sent armed bands of Babylonians, Syrians, Moabites, and Ammonites against Jehoiakim to destroy Judah, as the LORD had said through his servants the prophets that he would do.

2Ki 24:3 This happened at the LORD's command, in order to banish the people of Judah from his sight because of all the sins that King Manasseh had committed, 2Ki 24:4 and especially because of all the innocent people he had killed. The LORD could not forgive Manasseh for that.

2Ki 24:5 Everything that Jehoiakim did is recorded in The History of the Kings of Judah.

2Ki 24:6 Jehoiakim died, and his son Jehoiachin succeeded him as king.

2Ki 24:7 The king of Egypt and his army never marched out of Egypt again, because the king of Babylonia now controlled all the territory that had belonged to Egypt, from the Euphrates River to the northern border of Egypt.

Jehoiachin Reigns in Judah

2Ki 24:8 Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he became king of Judah, and he ruled in Jerusalem for three months. His mother was Nehushta, the daughter of Elnathan from Jerusalem.

2Ki 24:9 Following the example of his father, Jehoiachin sinned against the LORD.

Jerusalem Captured

2Ki 24:10 It was during his reign that the Babylonian army, commanded by King Nebuchadnezzar's officers, marched against Jerusalem and besieged it.

2Ki 24:11 During the siege Nebuchadnezzar himself came to Jerusalem,

2Ki 24:12 and King Jehoiachin, along with his mother, his sons, his officers, and the palace officials, surrendered to the Babylonians. In the eighth year of Nebuchadnezzar's reign he took Jehoiachin prisoner

2Ki 24:13 and carried off to Babylon all the treasures in the Temple and the palace. As the LORD had foretold, Nebuchadnezzar broke up all the gold utensils which King Solomon had made for use in the Temple.

2Ki 24:14 Nebuchadnezzar carried away as prisoners the people of Jerusalem, all the royal princes, and all the leading men, ten thousand in all. He also deported all the skilled workers, including the blacksmiths, leaving only the poorest of the people behind in Judah.

2Ki 24:15 Nebuchadnezzar took Jehoiachin to Babylon as a prisoner, together with Jehoiachin's mother, his wives, his officials, and the leading men of Judah.

2Ki 24:16 Nebuchadnezzar deported all the important men to Babylonia, seven thousand in all, and one thousand skilled workers, including the blacksmiths, all of them able-bodied men fit for military duty.

2Ki 24:17 Nebuchadnezzar made Jehoiachin's uncle Mattaniah king of Judah and changed his name to Zedekiah.

Zedekiah Reigns in Judah

2Ki 24:18 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king of Judah, and he ruled in Jerusalem for eleven years. His mother was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah from the city of Libnah.

2Ki 24:19 King Zedekiah sinned against the LORD, just as King Jehoiakim had done.

2Ki 24:20 The LORD became so angry with the people of Jerusalem and Judah that he banished them from his sight.

II KONINGS 24

1In dié tyd het koning Nebukadnesar van Babel teen Jojakim opgetrek. Jojakim was drie jaar aan hom onderhorig en daarna het hy teen Nebukadnesar in opstand gekom. 2Die Here het bendes Galdeërs, Arameërs, Moabiete en Ammoniete teen Jojakim gestuur. Hy het hulle gestuur om Juda uit te roei, in ooreenstemming met wat die Here deur sy dienaars die profete gesê het. 3Dit het met Juda gebeur op bevel van die Here, omdat Hy Juda uit sy teenwoordigheid wou verwyder oor die sonde van Manasse, oor alles wat hy gedoen het, 4ook oor die mense wat hy onskuldig laat doodmaak het. Jerusalem was vol van die bloed van onskuldige mense, en die Here wou dit nie vergewe nie. 5Die ander verhale oor Jojakim en alles wat hy gedoen het, is opgeteken in die annale van die konings van Juda. 6Jojakim is oorlede, en sy seun Jojagin het hom as koning opgevolg. 7Die koning van Egipte het nie weer 'n veldtog buite sy land aangepak nie, want die koning van Babel het die gebied van Egiptespruit af tot aan die Eufraat verower, die hele gebied wat voorheen aan die koning van Egipte behoort het. 8Jojagin was agtien toe hy koning geword het en hy het drie maande in Jerusalem geregeer. Sy ma was Negusta, 'n dogter van Elnatan uit Jerusalem. 9Jojagin het gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here en het in alles die voorbeeld van sy pa gevolg. 10In dié tyd het die leër van koning Nebukadnesar van Babel 'n aanval op Jerusalem begin en die stad beleër. 11Nebukadnesar het self na die stad toe gekom terwyl sy soldate dit beleër het. 12Koning Jojagin van Juda het hom oorgegee aan die koning van Babel, hy, sy ma, sy lyfwag, sy amptenare en sy offisiere. Jojagin is deur die koning van Babel gevange geneem in sy agste regeringsjaar. 13Nebukadnesar het, soos die Here vantevore gesê het, al die skatte van die huis van die Here en die skatte van die paleis gevat en hy het al die goue goed stukkend geslaan wat koning Salomo van Israel vir die tempel van die Here laat maak het. 14Nebukadnesar het die hele Jerusalem weggevoer: al die amptenare, al die soldate, tien duisend gevangenes, ook die vakmanne en die smede. Niemand het agtergebly nie behalwe die armstes van die landsbevolking. 15Hy het vir Jojagin na Babel toe weggevoer. Hy het ook die koninginmoeder, die vrouens van die koning, sy offisiere en die belangrikste mense in die land van Jerusalem af na Babel toe in ballingskap weggevoer. 16Die koning van Babel het al die weerbare manne gevange weggevoer na Babel toe, al die soldate, sewe duisend, en ook nog duisend vakmanne en smede. 17Hy het vir Mattanja, 'n oom van Jojagin, in sy plek koning gemaak en sy naam verander na Sedekia. 18Sedekia was een en twintig toe hy koning geword het en hy het elf jaar in Jerusalem geregeer. Sy ma was Gamutal, 'n dogter van Jeremia uit Libna. 19Sedekia het gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here en het in alles die voorbeeld van Jojakim gevolg.

Fall and Captivity of Judah

2Ki 25:1 Zedekiah rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia, and so Nebuchadnezzar came with all his army and attacked Jerusalem on the tenth day of the tenth month of the ninth year of Zedekiah's reign. They set up camp outside the city, built siege walls around it, 2Ki 25:2 and kept it under siege until Zedekiah's eleventh year.

2Ki 25:3 On the ninth day of the fourth month of that same year, when the famine was so bad that the people had nothing left to eat,

2Ki 25:4 the city walls were broken through. Although the Babylonians were surrounding the city, all the soldiers escaped during the night. They left by way of the royal garden, went through the gateway connecting the two walls, and fled in the direction of the Jordan Valley.

2Ki 25:5 But the Babylonian army pursued King Zedekiah, captured him in the plains near Jericho, and all his soldiers deserted him.

2Ki 25:6 Zedekiah was taken to King Nebuchadnezzar, who was in the city of Riblah, and there Nebuchadnezzar passed sentence on him.

2Ki 25:7 While Zedekiah was looking on, his sons were put to death; then Nebuchadnezzar had Zedekiah's eyes put out, placed him in chains, and took him to Babylon.

2Ki 25:8 On the seventh day of the fifth month of the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia, Nebuzaradan, adviser to the king and commander of his army, entered Jerusalem.

2Ki 25:9 He burned down the Temple, the palace, and the houses of all the important people in Jerusalem, 2Ki 25:10 and his soldiers tore down the city walls.

2Ki 25:11 Then Nebuzaradan took away to Babylonia the people who were left in the city, the remaining skilled workers, and those who had deserted to the Babylonians.

2Ki 25:12 But he left in Judah some of the poorest people, who owned no property, and put them to work in the vineyards and fields.

2Ki 25:13 The Babylonians broke in pieces the bronze columns and the carts that were in the Temple, together with the large bronze tank, and they took all the bronze to Babylon.

2Ki 25:14 They also took away the shovels and the ash containers used in cleaning the altar, the tools used in tending the lamps, the bowls used for catching the blood from the sacrifices, the bowls used for burning incense, and all the other bronze articles used in the Temple service.

2Ki 25:15 They took away everything that was made of gold or silver, including the small bowls and the pans used for carrying live coals.

2Ki 25:16 The bronze objects that King Solomon had made for the Temple—the two columns, the carts, and the large tank—were too heavy to weigh.

2Ki 25:17 The two columns were identical: each one was 27 feet high, with a bronze capital on top, 41/2 feet high. All around each capital was a bronze grillwork decorated with pomegranates made of bronze.

2Ki 25:18 In addition, Nebuzaradan, the commanding officer, took away as prisoners Seraiah the High Priest, Zephaniah the priest next in rank, and the three other important Temple officials.

2Ki 25:19 From the city he took the officer who had been in command of the troops, five of the king's personal advisers who were still in the city, the commander's assistant, who was in charge of military records, and sixty other important men.

2Ki 25:20 Nebuzaradan took them to the king of Babylonia, who was in the city of Riblah 2Ki 25:21 in the territory of Hamath. There the king had them beaten and put to death. So the people of Judah were carried away from their land into exile.

Gedaliah Made Governor of Judah

2Ki 25:22 King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia made Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam and grandson of Shaphan, governor of Judah, and placed him in charge of all those who had not been taken away to Babylonia.

2Ki 25:23 When the Judean officers and soldiers who had not surrendered heard about this, they joined Gedaliah at Mizpah. These officers were Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan son of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth from the town of Netophah, and Jezaniah from Maacah.

2Ki 25:24 Gedaliah said to them, "I give you my word that there is no need for you to be afraid of the Babylonian officials. Settle in this land, serve the king of Babylonia, and all will go well with you."

2Ki 25:25 But in the seventh month of that year, Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah and grandson of Elishama, a member of the royal family, went to Mizpah with ten men, attacked Gedaliah, and killed him. He also killed the Israelites and Babylonians who were there with him.

2Ki 25:26 Then all the Israelites, rich and poor alike, together with the army officers, left and went to Egypt, because they were afraid of the Babylonians.

Jehoiachin Released from Prison

2Ki 25:27 In the year that Evilmerodach became king of Babylonia, he showed kindness to King Jehoiachin of Judah by releasing him from prison. This happened on the twenty-seventh day of the twelfth month of the thirty-seventh year after Jehoiachin had been taken away as prisoner.

2Ki 25:28 Evilmerodach treated him kindly and gave him a position of greater honor than he gave the other kings who were exiles with him in Babylonia.

2Ki 25:29 So Jehoiachin was permitted to change from his prison clothes and to dine at the king's table for the rest of his life.

2Ki 25:30 Each day, for as long as he lived, he was given a regular allowance for his needs.

II KONINGS 25

1Die toorn van die Here was op Jerusalem en Juda; Hy wou hulle wegvee uit sy teenwoordigheid uit. Sedekia het in opstand gekom teen die koning van Babel, en in die negende regeringsjaar van Sedekia, op die tiende dag van die tiende maand, het koning Nebukadnesar van Babel met sy hele leër met 'n aanval op Jerusalem begin. Hy het kamp opgeslaan by die stad en 'n beleëringswal rondom die stad gebou. 2Die stad is beleër tot in die elfde regeringsjaar van koning Sedekia. 3Teen die negende dag van die vierde maand was die hongersnood in die stad so erg dat daar nie meer kos vir die bevolking was nie. 4Toe is daar 'n opening in die muur gebreek, en al die soldate het in die nag gevlug deur die poort tussen die twee mure langs die Koningstuin ten spyte daarvan dat daar Galdeërs rondom die stad was. Die soldate het in die rigting van die Jordaanvallei gevlug, 5maar die Galdese leër het die koning agtervolg en hom ingehaal op die Jerigovlakte. Sy hele leër was toe al uitmekaargejaag, weg van hom af, 6en hy is gevang en na die koning van Babel toe in Ribla gevat. Hy is verhoor, 7en toe het hulle sy seuns voor sy oë geslag, sý oë uitgesteek, hom met bronskettings geboei en na Babel toe gevat. 8In die vyfde maand, op die sewende van die maand, in die negentiende regeringsjaar van koning Nebukadnesar van Babel het Nebusaradan by Jerusalem aangekom. Hy was hoof van die lyfwag en amptenaar van die koning van Babel. 9Hy het die huis van die Here, die paleis en al die huise in Jerusalem, elke groot gebou, afgebrand. 10Al die Galdese soldate wat onder sy bevel was, het die muur om Jerusalem afgebreek. 11Die mense wat in die stad oor was, ook dié wat na die koning van Babel toe oorgeloop het, al wat van die groot stadsbevolking oorgebly het, is gevange weggevoer deur Nebusaradan die hoof van die lyfwag. 12Net die armste mense van die land het hy laat agterbly om die wingerde en die lande te bewerk. 13Die Galdeërs het die bronspilare, die waentjies en die bronswaterbak wat by die huis van die Here was, stukkend geslaan en die brons na Babel toe gevat. 14Hulle het die potte, die skoppe, die skêre en die panne saamgevat, en al die ander bronsgoed wat in die tempeldiens gebruik is. 15Die hoof van die lyfwag het ook die vuurpanne en die komme vir besprinkeling buitgemaak, alles wat goud of silwer was. 16Die brons van die twee pilare, die waterbak en die waentjies wat deur Salomo vir die huis van die Here gemaak is, was soveel dat dit nie geweeg kon word nie. 17Elke pilaar was ag meter, en die bronskapiteel bo-op was een en 'n derde meter hoog. Die rooster met die granate om die kapiteel was heeltemal van brons. Die ander pilaar en sy rooster was dieselfde. 18Die hoof van die lyfwag het die hoëpriester Seraja, die priester tweede in rang, Sefanja, en die drie drumpelwagte gevange saamgevat. 19In die stad het hy die offisier gevange geneem wat in bevel was van die soldate. Daar was ook nog vyf van die koning se vertrouelinge in die stad, die sekretaris van die hoof van die leër wat vir die oproep van die burgers verantwoordelik was, en sestig van die burgers. 20Nebusaradan, die hoof van die lyfwag, het hulle gevange geneem en hulle na die koning van Babel toe in Ribla gevat. 21Die koning van Babel het hulle laat doodmaak daar in Ribla, in Hamat. So is Juda dan uit sy land weggevoer. 22Oor die mense wat in Juda oor was, dié wat deur koning Nebukadnesar van Babel toegelaat is om daar te bly, het hy vir Gedalja, seun van Agikam seun van Safan, aangestel. 23Toe die leëraanvoerders en hulle manskappe hoor dat die koning van Babel vir Gedalja aangestel het, het hulle na hom toe gegaan in Mispa. Die aanvoerders was Ismael seun van Netanja, Joganan seun van Kareag, Seraja seun van Tangumet uit Netofa, en Jaäsanja uit Maäka. 24Gedalja het hulle en hulle manne met 'n eed verseker: Moenie bang wees vir die Galdese amptenare nie. Bly in die land en onderwerp julle aan die koning van Babel, dan sal dit goed gaan met julle. 25Maar in die sewende maand het Ismael seun van Netanja, seun van Elisama uit die koninklike familie, met tien manne by hom 'n aanslag gemaak op Gedalja en 'n klompie Judeërs en Galdeërs wat by hom in Mispa was, en hulle vermoor. 26Daarna het almal, klein en groot, saam met die leëraanvoerders na Egipte toe gevlug uit vrees vir die Galdeërs. 27In die sewe en dertigste jaar van die ballingskap van koning Jojagin van Juda, op die sewe en twintigste van die twaalfde maand, het Ewil-Merodak, wat pas koning van Babel geword het, vir koning Jojagin van Juda uit die gevangenis vrygelaat. 28So het hy hom begenadig en hom hoër status gegee as die ander konings wat by hom in Babel was. 29Jojagin kon sy gevangenisklere uittrek en het so lank as hy gelewe het, aan die koning se tafel geëet. 30Hy het van die koning 'n permanente toelae ontvang vir sy daaglikse behoeftes so lank as hy gelewe het.

1Ch 4:30 Bethuel, Hormah, Ziklag,

1Ch 4:31 Beth Marcaboth, Hazarsusim, Bethbiri, and Shaaraim.

1Ch 4:32 They also lived in five other places: Etam, Ain, Rimmon, Tochen, and Ashan, 1Ch 4:33 and the surrounding villages, as far southwest as the town of Baalath. These are the records which they kept of their families and of the places where they lived.

1Ch 4:34 (34-38) The following men were the heads of their clans: Meshobab, Jamlech, Joshah son of Amaziah, Joel, Jehu (the son of Joshibiah, the son of Seraiah, the son of Asiel), Elioenai, Jaakobah, Jeshohaiah, Asaiah, Adiel, Jesimiel, Benaiah, Ziza (the son of Shiphi, the son of Allon, a descendant of Jedaiah, Shimri, and Shemaiah). Because their families continued to grow, 1Ch 4:39 they spread out westward almost to Gerar and pastured their sheep on the eastern side of the valley in which that city is located.

1Ch 4:40 They found plenty of fertile pasture lands there in a stretch of open country that was quiet and peaceful. The people who had lived there before were Hamites.

1Ch 4:41 In the time of King Hezekiah of Judah, the men named above went to Gerar and destroyed the tents and huts of the people who lived there. They drove the people out and settled there permanently because there was plenty of pasture for their sheep.

1Ch 4:42 Five hundred other members of the tribe of Simeon went east to Edom. They were led by the sons of Ishi: Pelatiah, Neariah, Rephaiah, and Uzziel.

1Ch 4:43 There they killed the surviving Amalekites, and they have lived there ever since.

1Chronicles 5

Descendants of Reuben

1Ch 5:1 These are the descendants of Reuben, the oldest of Jacob's sons. (Because he had sex with one of his father's concubines, he lost the rights belonging to the first-born son, and those rights were given to Joseph.

1Ch 5:2 It was the tribe of Judah, however, that became the strongest and provided a ruler for all the tribes.)

1Ch 5:3 Reuben, the oldest of Jacob's sons, had four sons: Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi.

1Ch 5:4 (4-6) These are the descendants of Joel from generation to generation: Shemaiah, Gog, Shimei, Micah, Reaiah, Baal, and Beerah. The Assyrian emperor, Tiglath Pileser, captured Beerah, a leader of the tribe, and deported him.

1Ch 5:7 The family records list the following clan leaders in the tribe of Reuben: Jeiel, Zechariah, 1Ch 5:8 and Bela, the son of Azaz and grandson of Shema, of the clan of Joel. This clan lived in Aroer and in the territory from there north to Nebo and Baal Meon.

1Ch 5:9 They had large herds in the land of Gilead, and so they occupied the land as far east as the desert that stretches all the way to the Euphrates River.

1Ch 5:10 In the time of King Saul the tribe of Reuben attacked the Hagrites, killed them in battle, and occupied their land in the eastern part of Gilead.

Descendants of Gad

1Ch 5:11 The tribe of Gad lived to the north of Reuben in the land of Bashan as far east as Salecah.

1Ch 5:12 Joel was the founder of the leading clan, and Shapham of the second most important clan. Janai and Shaphat were founders of other clans in Bashan.

1Ch 5:13 The other members of the tribe belonged to the following seven clans: Michael, Meshullam, Sheba, Jorai, Jacan, Zia, and Eber.

1Ch 5:14 They were descendants of Abihail son of Huri, whose ancestors were traced back as follows: Abihail, Huri, Jaroah, Gilead, Michael, Jeshishai, Jahdo, Buz.

1Ch 5:15 Ahi, the son of Abdiel and grandson of Guni, was head of these clans.

1Ch 5:16 They lived in the territory of Bashan and Gilead, in the towns there and all over the pasture lands of Sharon.

1Ch 5:17 (These records were compiled in the days of King Jotham of Judah and King Jeroboam II of Israel.)

1Ch 5:18 In the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and East Manasseh there were 44,760 soldiers, well-trained in the use of shields, swords, and bows.

1Ch 5:19 They went to war against the Hagrite tribes of Jetur, Naphish, and Nodab.

1Ch 5:20 They put their trust in God and prayed to him for help, and God answered their prayers and made them victorious over the Hagrites and their allies.

1Ch 5:21 They captured from the enemy 50,000 camels, 250,000 sheep, and 2,000 donkeys, and took 100,000 prisoners of war.

1Ch 5:22 They killed many of the enemy, because the war was God's will. And they went on living in that territory until the exile.

The Half-Tribe of Manasseh

1Ch 5:23 The people of East Manasseh settled in the territory of Bashan as far north as Baal Hermon, Senir, and Mount Hermon, and their population increased greatly.

1Ch 5:24 The following were the heads of their clans: Epher, Ishi, Eliel, Azriel, Jeremiah, Hodaviah, and Jahdiel. They were all outstanding soldiers, well-known leaders of their clans.

1Ch 5:25 But the people were unfaithful to the God of their ancestors and deserted him to worship the gods of the nations whom God had driven out of the land.

1Ch 5:26 So God caused Emperor Pul of Assyria (also known as Tiglath Pileser) to invade their country. He deported the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and East Manasseh and settled them permanently in Halah, Habor, and Hara, and by the Gozan River.

I KRONIEKE 5

1Ruben was die oudste seun van Israel, maar omdat hy bloedskande gepleeg het met 'n vrou van sy pa, is sy rang van oudste seun oorgedra op die seuns van Josef seun van Israel, en daarom word Ruben nie as oudste in die geslagsregister opgeneem nie. 2Juda het wel oor sy broers gesag verkry, en uit hom het die koning voortgekom, maar Josef het die rang van oudste seun gehad. 3Die seuns van Ruben, oudste seun van Israel, was Ganok, Pallu, Gesron en Karmi. 4Die afstammelinge van Joël was in volgorde: Semaja, Gog, Simi, 5Miga, Reaja, Baäl 6en Beëra vir wie koning Tiglat-Pileser van Assirië gevange weggevoer het. Beëra was 'n heerser oor die stam Ruben. 7Sy broers, soos hulle naas sy geslag volgens afstamming opgeneem is in die lys, was Jeïel, die leier, en verder Sagaria 8en Bela seun van Asas, seun van Sema, seun van Joël. Hulle het gewoon in Aroër en tot by Nebo en Baäl-Meon. 9Na die oostekant toe het hulle gewoon tot teen die woestyn aan die Eufraatrivier, want hulle vee het baie geword in Gilead. 10In Saul se tyd het hulle 'n aanval gemaak op die Hagareërs, hulle verslaan en in hulle nedersettings gaan woon in die hele oostelike deel van Gilead. 11Teenoor die Rubeniete het die Gadiete in Basan gewoon, tot by Salka. 12Joël was die hoof en Safam die tweede in rang. Verder was daar in Basan ook nog Janai en Safat. 13Hulle stamgenote volgens hulle families was Migael, Mesullam, Seba, Jorai, Jakan, Sia en Eber, sewe altesaam. 14Dié was afstammelinge van Abigajil seun van Guri, seun van Jaroag, seun van Gilead, seun van Migael, seun van Jesisai, seun van Jagdo, seun van Bus. 15Agi seun van Abdiël, seun van Guni, was hulle familiehoof. 16Hulle het gewoon in Gilead, in Basan en sy voorposte en in al die veegebiede van Saron sover as wat dié gestrek het. 17Hulle is almal in die register opgeneem in die tyd van koning Jotam van Juda en koning Jerobeam van Israel. 18Van die Rubeniete, Gadiete en die halwe Manassestam was vier en veertig duisend sewe honderd en sestig weerbare manne, vegsmanne met skild en swaard gewapen, boogskutters en opgeleide vegters. 19Toe hulle die Hagareërs, en vir Jetur, Nafis en Nodab aangeval het, 20het hulle hulp ontvang en is die Hagareërs en al hulle bondgenote aan hulle onderwerp. Hulle het God in die stryd aangeroep en Hy het hulle verhoor omdat hulle hulle vertroue in Hom gestel het. 21Aan vee het hulle vyftig duisend kamele gebuit, twee honderd en vyftig duisend stuks kleinvee en twee duisend donkies, en hulle het ook nog honderd duisend gevangenes weggevoer. 22Daar het bowendien baie mense gesneuwel, want dit was 'n oorlog wat deur God gevoer is. Hulle het toe die verowerde gebied bewoon tot met die ballingskap. 23Die halwe Manassestam het gewoon in die streek van Basan af tot

by Baäl-Hermon en Senir en Hermonberg. Hulle was baie. [24]Hulle familiehoofde was die volgende: Efer, Jisi, Eliël, Asriël, Jeremia, Hodauja en Jagdiël, almal vermoënde en gesiene manne wat leiers van hulle families was. [25]Maar hierdie stamme was ontrou aan die God van hulle voorvaders en het oorgeloop na die gode van die landsbevolking wat ter wille van hulle deur God uitgeroei is. [26]Daarom het die God van Israel vir koning Pul van Assirië, dit is Tiglat-Pileser, aangehits, en dié het hulle as krygsgevangenes weggevoer. Hy het die Rubeniete, die Gadiete en die halwe Manassestam verplaas na Galag, Gabor, Hara en die Gosanrivier, waar hulle nou nog is.

Hulle het hulle dienste verrig volgens 'n vaste reëling. 33Die volgende manne het die diens verrig saam met hulle seuns: van die Kehatgroep was daar Heman die tempelsanger, seun van Joël seun van Samuel, 34wie se geslag teruggaan oor Elkana, Jerogam, Eliël, Togu, 35Suf, Elkana, Magat, Amasai, 36Elkana, Joël, Asarja, Sefanja, 37Tagat, Assir, Abiasaf, Korag, 38Jishar en Kehat tot by Levi seun van Israel. 39Heman se ampsgenoot Asaf het regs van hom gestaan. Hulle was voorheen poortwagte by die Levitiese kwartiere. 19Sallum seun van Kore, seun van Abiasaf, seun van Korag, en sy verwante uit sy familie die Koragiete was verantwoordelik vir die dienswerk van die drumpelwagte by die tent, net soos hulle vaders wagte was by die ingang tot die kamp van die volk van die Here. 20Vroeër was Pinehas seun van Eleasar hoof oor hulle. Die Here was by hom. 21Sagaria seun van Meselemja was wag by die ingang van die tent van ontmoeting. 22Dié wat as poortwagte uitgesoek is, was altesaam twee honderd en twaalf. Hulle is in die register opgeneem volgens hulle nedersettings. Dit is hulle wat nog deur Dawid en die siener Samuel in hulle amp

The Death of Saul and His Sons

1Ch 10:1 The Philistines fought a battle against the Israelites on Mount Gilboa. Many Israelites were killed there, and the rest of them, including King Saul and his sons, fled.

1Ch 10:2 But the Philistines caught up with them and killed three of Saul's sons, Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malchishua.

1Ch 10:3 The fighting was heavy around Saul, and he was hit by enemy arrows and badly wounded.

1Ch 10:4 He said to the young man carrying his weapons, "Draw your sword and kill me, to keep these godless Philistines from gloating over me." But the young man was too terrified to do it. So Saul took his own sword and threw himself on it.

1Ch 10:5 The young man saw that Saul was dead, so he too threw himself on his sword and died.

1Ch 10:6 So Saul and his three sons all died together, and none of his descendants ever ruled.

1Ch 10:7 When the Israelites who lived in Jezreel Valley heard that the army had fled and that Saul and his sons had died, they abandoned their towns and ran off. Then the Philistines came and occupied them.

1Ch 10:8 The day after the battle the Philistines went to plunder the corpses, and they found the bodies of Saul and his sons lying on Mount Gilboa.

1Ch 10:9 They cut off Saul's head, stripped off his armor, and sent messengers with them throughout Philistia to tell the good news to their idols and to their people.

1Ch 10:10 They put his weapons in one of their temples and hung his head in the temple of their god Dagon.

1Ch 10:11 When the people of Jabesh in Gilead heard what the Philistines had done to Saul, 1Ch 10:12 the bravest men went and got the bodies of Saul and his sons and took them to Jabesh. They buried them there under an oak and fasted for seven days.

1Ch 10:13 Saul died because he was unfaithful to the LORD. He disobeyed the LORD's commands; he tried to find guidance by consulting the spirits of the dead

1Ch 10:14 instead of consulting the LORD. So the LORD killed him and gave control of the kingdom to David son of Jesse.

I KRONIEKE 10

1Die Filistyne het Israel aangeval. Die Israeliete het vir hulle gevlug, en van die manskappe het op Gilboaberg gesneuwel. 2Toe het die Filistyne op Saul en sy seuns toegesak. Hulle het Saul se seuns Jonatan, Abinadab en Malkisua neergevel 3en toe die aanval op Saul toegespits. Die boogskutters het hom in die oog gekry en hy het bang vir hulle geword, 4en vir sy wapendraer gesê: Trek jou swaard en steek my daarmee dood dat daardie heidene nie kom en my in oneer laat sterf nie. Maar sy wapendraer wou nie, want hy was baie bang. Saul vat toe self die swaard en val daarin. 5Toe sy wapendraer sien Saul is dood, val hy ook in sy swaard en sterf. 6So is Saul en sy drie seuns, ja, al sy seuns, saam dood. 7Die Israeliete wat in die laagte gewoon het, het gesien dat die manskappe gevlug het en dat Saul en sy seuns dood is. Hulle het toe hulle stede verlaat en ook gevlug, en die Filistyne het die stede beset en daar gaan woon. 8Toe die Filistyne die dag na die geveg die lyke kom stroop, kry hulle Saul en sy seuns daar waar hulle op Gilboaberg geval het. 9Die Filistyne het hom ook gestroop, sy kop en sy wapens saamgevat en dié in die land van die Filistyne rondgestuur om die goeie nuus aan hulle afgode en hulle mense bekend te maak. 10Daarna het hulle sy wapenrusting in hulle tempel gesit en sy kopbeen teen die Dagonstempel vasgeslaan. 11Toe die mense van Jabes in Gilead hoor wat die Filistyne alles met Saul gedoen het, 12het die weerbare manne almal gegaan en die lyk van Saul en dié van sy seuns na Jabes toe gebring. Hulle het hulle onder 'n groot boom in Jabes begrawe en daarna sewe dae lank gevas. 13Saul is dood oor die troubreuk wat hy teenoor die Here begaan het deurdat hy aan die bevel van die Here ongehoorsaam was, en ook deurdat hy raad gevra het by 'n gees 14in plaas van die Here te raadpleeg. Daarom het die Here hom doodgemaak en sy koningskap laat oorgaan op Dawid seun van Isai.

1Chronicles 11

David Anointed King

1Ch 11:1 All the people of Israel went to David at Hebron and said to him, "We are your own flesh and blood.

1Ch 11:2 In the past, even when Saul was still our king, you led the people of Israel in battle, and the LORD your God promised you that you would lead his people and be their ruler."

1Ch 11:3 So all the leaders of Israel came to King David at Hebron. He made a sacred alliance with them, they anointed him, and he became king of Israel, just as the LORD had promised through Samuel.

David Takes Jerusalem

1Ch 11:4 King David and all the Israelites went and attacked the city of Jerusalem. It was then known as Jebus, and the Jebusites, the original inhabitants of the land, were still living there.

1Ch 11:5 The Jebusites told David he would never get inside the city, but David captured their fortress of Zion, and it became known as "David's City."

1Ch 11:6 David said, "The first man to kill a Jebusite will be commander of the army!" Joab, whose mother was Zeruiah, led the attack and became commander.

1Ch 11:7 Because David went to live in the fortress, it came to be called "David's City."

1Ch 11:8 He rebuilt the city, starting at the place where land was filled in on the east side of the hill, and Joab restored the rest of the city.

1Ch 11:9 David grew stronger and stronger, because the LORD Almighty was with him.

David's Mighty Men

1Ch 11:10 This is the list of David's famous soldiers. Together with the rest of the people of Israel, they helped him become king, as the LORD had promised, and they kept his kingdom strong.

1Ch 11:11 First was Jashobeam of the clan of Hachmon, the leader of "The Three." He fought with his spear against three hundred men and killed them all in one battle.

1Ch 11:12 Next among the famous "Three" was Eleazar son of Dodo, of the clan of Ahoh.

1Ch 11:13 He fought on David's side against the Philistines at the battle of Pas Dammim. He was in a barley field when the Israelites started to run away, 1Ch 11:14 so he and his men took a stand in the middle of the field and fought the Philistines. The LORD gave him a great victory.

1Ch 11:15 One day three of the thirty leading soldiers went to a rock where David was staying near Adullam Cave, while a band of Philistines was camping in Rephaim Valley.

1Ch 11:16 At that time David was on a fortified hill, and a group of Philistines had occupied Bethlehem.

1Ch 11:17 David got homesick and said, "How I wish someone would bring me a drink of water from the well by the gate in Bethlehem!"

1Ch 11:18 The three famous soldiers forced their way through the Philistine camp, drew some water from the well, and brought it back to David. But he would not drink it; instead he poured it out as an offering to the LORD

1Ch 11:19 and said, "I could never drink this! It would be like drinking the blood of these men who risked their lives!" So he refused to drink it. These were the brave deeds of the three famous soldiers.

1Ch 11:20 Joab's brother Abishai was the leader of "The Famous Thirty." He fought with his spear against three hundred men and killed them, and became famous among "The Thirty."

1Ch 11:21 He was the most famous of "The Thirty" and became their leader, but he was not as famous as "The Three."

1Ch 11:22 Benaiah son of Jehoiada from Kabzeel was a famous soldier; he did many brave deeds, including killing two great Moabite warriors. He once went down into a pit on a snowy day and killed a lion.

1Ch 11:23 He also killed an Egyptian, a huge man seven and a half feet tall, who was armed with a gigantic spear. Benaiah attacked him with a club, snatched the spear from the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with it.

1Ch 11:24 Those were the brave deeds of Benaiah, who was one of "The Thirty."

1Ch 11:25 He was outstanding among "The Thirty," but not as famous as "The Three." David put him in charge of his bodyguard.

1Ch 11:26 (26-47) These are the other outstanding soldiers: Asahel, Joab's brother Elhanan son of Dodo from Bethlehem Shammoth from Harod Helez from Pelet Ira son of Ikkesh from Tekoa Abiezer from Anathoth Sibbecai from Hushah Ilai from Ahoh Maharai from Netophah Heled son of Baanah from Netophah Ithai son of Ribai from Gibeah in Benjamin Benaiah from Pirathon Hurai from the valleys near Gaash Abiel from Arbah Azmaveth from Bahurum Eliahba from Shaalbon Hashem from Gizon Jonathan son of Shagee from Harar Ahiam son of Sachar from Harar Eliphal son of Ur Hepher from Mecherah Ahijah from Pelon Hezro from Carmel Naarai son of Ezbai Joel brother of Nathan Mibhar son of Hagri Zelek from Ammon Naharai, Joab's armorbearer, from Beeroth Ira and Gareb from Jattir Uriah the Hittite Zabad son of Ahlai Adina son of Shiza (a leading member of the tribe of Reuben, with his own group of thirty soldiers) Hanan son of Maacah Joshaphat from Mithan Uzzia from Ashterah Shamma and Jeiel, sons of Hotham, from Aroer Jediael and Joha, sons of Shimri, from Tiz Eliel from Mahavah Jeribai and Joshaviah, sons of Elnaam Ithmah from Moab Eliel, Obed, and Jaasiel from Zobah

1Die hele Israel het gesamentlik na Dawid toe gekom in Hebron en gesê: Ons is tog almal u eie mense! 2Selfs in die tyd toe Saul koning was, was u tog maar die een wat vir Israel in die oorlog aangevoer het. Die Here u God het vir u gesê: Jy moet vir my volk Israel 'n herder wees, ja, jy moet heerser oor my volk Israel wees. 3So het al die leiers van Israel by die koning in Hebron gekom. Toe het Dawid in Hebron in teenwoordigheid van die Here 'n verdrag met hulle gesluit. Daarna het hulle vir Dawid daar tot koning oor Israel gesalf. Dit was in ooreenstemming met die belofte van die Here deur Samuel. 4Dawid en die hele Israel het toe opgetrek teen Jerusalem, dit is Jebus. Die Jebusiete, oorspronklike inwoners van die land, het toe daar gewoon. 5Die inwoners van Jebus het vir Dawid gesê: Hier sal jy nie inkom nie. Tog het Dawid die Sionsvesting ingeneem: dié is nou die Dawidstad. 6Dawid het destyds gesê: Enigeen wat die eerste 'n Jebusiet neervel, word leier en aanvoerder! Joab seun van Seruja het toe eerste die stad ingegaan en hy het leier geword. 7Omdat Dawid toe in die vesting gaan woon het, noem hulle dit die Dawidstad. 8Hy het die stad rondom uitgebou, van die terras af verder, en Joab het die res van die stad herstel. 9Dawid het al hoe sterker geword, en die Here die Almagtige was by hom. 10Nou volg iets oor die leiers van Dawid se dapper manne. Hulle was sterk ondersteuners van sy koningskap en saam met die hele Israel het hulle hom op die troon geplaas, soos die Here aan Israel beloof het. 11Hier is 'n lys van die dapper manne: Jasobam seun van Gakmoni was hoof van die dertigtal. Hy het met sy spies drie honderd man in een veldslag laat sneuwel. 12Eleasar seun van Dodo uit Agoag was onder hom. Hy was een van die drie helde. 13Hy was by Dawid in Efes-Dammim toe die Filistyne daar vir die geveg bymekaargekom het. Daar was 'n stuk land vol gars, en toe die manskappe op die vlug slaan vir die Filistyne, 14het die drie dapper manne binne in die land stelling ingeneem en dit behou. Hulle het die Filistyne verslaan, en so het die Here vir hulle 'n groot oorwinning gegee. 15Op 'n keer het drie ander van die dertig leiers na Dawid toe gekom by die rots by die Adullamgrot. Die Filistynse kamp was in die Spooklaagte opgeslaan. 16Dawid was toe in 'n bergskuiling en die Filistyne het Betlehem beset. 17Dawid het baie dors geword en gesug: Ag, as iemand my tog net water uit die put in Betlehem se poort kon laat drink! 18Die drie het toe deur die Filistynse kamp geglip en water gaan skep uit die put in Betlehem se poort. Hulle het dit vir Dawid gebring, maar hy wou dit nie drink nie. Hy het dit as 'n offer vir die Here uitgegiet 19en gesê: Mag God my daarvan bewaar dat ek dit sou drink. Sou ek die bloed van hierdie manne ten koste van hulle lewens wou drink? Hulle het dit met lewensgevaar gebring, en ek durf dit nie drink nie. Dit is wat die drie helde gedoen het. [20]Joab se broer Abisai was die leier van hierdie drie. Hy het met sy spies drie honderd man laat sneuwel. So het hy vir hom onder die drie naam gemaak. [21]Hy het 'n ereplek gehad in die tweede drietal en was hulle aanvoerder, maar een van die driemanskap het hy nie geword nie. [22]Benaja seun van Jojada was die seun van 'n krygsman. Hy was 'n man van baie dade, afkomstig uit Kabseël. Dit is hy wat die twee sterk manne van Moab doodgemaak het, en hy wat op 'n sneeudag in 'n put afgeklim en die leeu wat daarin was, doodgemaak het. [23]Hy het ook 'n Egiptenaar wat twee en 'n kwart meter lank was, doodgemaak. Die Egiptenaar het nogal 'n spies in sy hand gehad, so dik soos die dwarsbalk van 'n weefstoel, terwyl Benaja hom net met 'n stok gepak het. Hy het die spies uit die Egiptenaar se hand geruk en hom met sy eie spies van kant gemaak. [24]Dit het Benaja seun van Jojada gedoen. So het hy vir hom onder die drie helde naam gemaak. [25]Hy het 'n hoër rang gehad as die res van die dertig, maar een van die driemanskap het hy nie geword nie. Dawid het hom oor sy lyfwag aangestel. [26]Die dapper manne was: Asael broer van Joab; Elganan seun van Dodo uit Betlehem; [27]Samma uit Garod; Geles uit Pelet; [28]Ira seun van Ikkes uit Tekoa; Abiëser uit Anatot; [29]Sibbekai uit Gusa; Ilai uit Agoag; [30]Marai uit Netofa; Geled seun van Baäna uit Netofa; [31]Ittai seun van Ribai uit Gibea in Benjamin; Benaja uit Piraton; [32]Hiddai uit Nagale-Gaäs; Abi-Albon uit Bet-Araba; [33]Asmawet uit Bagurim; Eljagba uit Saälbon, [34]die seuns van Jasen uit Gison; Jonatan seun van Sage uit Harar; [35]Agiam seun van Sarar uit Harar; Elifal seun van Ur; [36]Gefer uit Mekera; Agija uit Pelon; [37]Gesro uit Karmel; Naärai seun van Esbai; [38]Joël broer van Natan; Mibgar seun van Hagri; [39]Selek die Ammoniet; Nagrai uit Beërot, wapendraer van Joab seun van Seruja; [40]Ira uit Jeter; Gareb uit Jeter; [41]Urija die Hetiet; Sabad seun van Aglai; [42]Adina seun van Sisa uit Ruben, 'n Rubenitiese hoofman, in bevel van dertig; [43]Ganan seun van Maäka; Josafat die Mitneër; [44]Ussia uit Astarot; Sama en Jeïel, seuns van Gotam uit Aroër; [45]Jediael seun van Simri; sy broer Joga uit Tis; [46]Eliël uit Magawi; Jeribai en Josauja, seuns van Elnaäm; Jitma die Moabiet; [47]Eliël, Obed en Jaäsiël uit Soba.

1Chronicles 12

The Mighty Men Join David

1Ch 12:1 David was living in Ziklag, where he had gone to escape from King Saul. There he was joined by many experienced, reliable soldiers, 1Ch 12:2 members of the tribe of Benjamin, to which Saul belonged. They could shoot arrows and sling stones either right-handed or left-handed.

1Ch 12:3 (3-7) They were under the command of Ahiezer and Joash, sons of Shemaah, from Gibeah. These were the soldiers: Jeziel and Pelet, sons of Azmaveth Beracah and Jehu from Anathoth Ishmaiah from Gibeon, a famous soldier and one of the leaders of "The Thirty" Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johannan, and Jozabad, from Gederah Eluzai, Jerimoth, Bealiah, Shemariah, and Shephatiah, from Hariph Elkanah, Isshiah, Azarel, Joezer, and Jashobeam, of the clan of Korah Joelah and Zebadiah, sons of Jeroham, from Gedor 1Ch 12:8 These are the names of the famous, experienced soldiers from the tribe of Gad who joined David's troops when he was at the desert fort. They were experts with shields and spears, as fierce looking as lions and as quick as mountain deer.

1Ch 12:9 (9-13) They were ranked in the following order: Ezer, Obadiah, Eliab, Mishmannah, Jeremiah, Attai, Eliel, Johanan, Elzabad, Jeremiah, and Machbannai.

1Ch 12:14 Some of these men from the tribe of Gad were senior officers in command of a thousand men, and others were junior officers in command of a hundred.

1Ch 12:15 In the first month of one year, the time when the Jordan River overflowed its banks, they crossed the river, scattering the people who lived in the valleys both east and west of the river.

1Ch 12:16 Once a group of men from the tribes of Benjamin and Judah went out to the fort where David was.

1Ch 12:17 David went to meet them and said, "If you are coming as friends to help me, you are welcome here. Join us! But if you intend to betray me to my enemies, even though I have not tried to hurt you, the God of our ancestors will know it and punish you."

1Ch 12:18 God's spirit took control of one of them, Amasai, who later became the commander of "The Thirty," and he called out, "David son of Jesse, we are yours! Success to you and those who help you! God is on your side." David welcomed them and made them officers in his army.

1Ch 12:19 Some soldiers from the tribe of Manasseh went over to David's side when he was marching out with the Philistines to fight King Saul. Actually he did not help the Philistines, for their kings were afraid that he would betray them to his former master Saul, so they sent him back to Ziklag.

1Ch 12:20 These are the soldiers from Manasseh who went over to David's side when he was returning: Adnah, Jozabad, Jediael, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu, and Zillethai. In Manasseh they had all commanded units of a thousand men.

1Ch 12:21 They served David as officers over his troops, because they were all outstanding soldiers. Later they were officers in the Israelite army.

1Ch 12:22 Almost every day new men joined David's forces, so that his army was soon enormous.

1Ch 12:23 (23-37) When David was at Hebron, many trained soldiers joined his army to help make him king in place of Saul, as the LORD had promised. Their numbers were as follows: Judah: 6,800 well-equipped men, armed with shields and spears; Simeon: 7,100 well-trained men; Levi: 4,600 men; Followers of Jehoiada, descendant of Aaron: 3,700 men; Relatives of Zadok, an able young fighter: 22 leading men; Benjamin (Saul's own tribe): 3,000 men (most of the people of Benjamin had remained loyal to Saul); Ephraim: 20,800 men famous in their own clans; West Manasseh: 18,000 men chosen to go and make David king; Issachar: 200 leaders, together with the men under their command (these leaders knew what Israel should do and the best time to do it); Zebulun: 50,000 loyal and reliable men ready to fight, trained to use all kinds of weapons; Naphtali: 1,000 leaders, together with 37,000 men armed with shields and spears; Dan: 28,600 trained men; Asher: 40,000 men ready for battle; Tribes east of the Jordan—Reuben, Gad, and East Manasseh: 120,000 men trained to use all kinds of weapons.

1Ch 12:38 All these soldiers, ready for battle, went to Hebron, determined to make David king over all Israel. All the rest of the people of Israel were united in the same purpose.

1Ch 12:39 They spent three days there with David, feasting on the food and drink which their relatives had prepared for them.

1Ch 12:40 From as far away as the northern tribes of Issachar, Zebulun, and Naphtali, people came bringing donkeys, camels, mules, and oxen loaded with food—flour, figs, raisins, wine, and olive oil. They also brought cattle and sheep to kill and eat. All this was an expression of the joy that was felt throughout the whole country.

I KRONIEKE 12

1Die volgende manne het al in Siklag by Dawid aangesluit toe hy nog verban was deur Saul seun van Kis. Hulle het tot Dawid se groep dapper manne behoort en was sy strydmakkers in die oorlog. 2Hulle was bewapen met pyl en boog en kon ewe goed met die regter- as met die linkerhand slingervel gooi en boog skiet. Hulle was van Saul se stamgenote uit Benjamin. 3Die leier was Agiëser; verder was daar Joas seun van Semaä uit Gibea; Jesiël en Pelet, seuns van Asmawet; Beraka, Jehu uit Anatot, 4Jismaja uit Gibeon, 'n held onder die dertig helde en selfs beter as hulle; Jeremia, Jagasiël, Joganan, Josabad uit Gedera, 5Elusai, Jerimot, Bealja, Semarja, Sefatja uit Garif; 6Elkana, Jissija, Asarel, Joëser en Jasobam uit Korag; 7Joëla en Sebadja, seuns van Jerogam, uit Gedor. 8Daar het ook van die Gadiete oorgeloop na Dawid toe, na sy bergskuiling toe in die woestyn. Hulle was helde, krygsmanne, reg vir oorlog, bewapen met 'n groot skild en 'n spies, vreesaanjaend soos leeus en so vinnig soos wildsbokke op die berge. 9Eser was die hoof, Obadja tweede in rang, Eliab derde, 10Mismanna vierde, Jeremia vyfde, 11Attai sesde, Eliël sewende, 12Joganan agste, Elsabad negende, 13Jeremia tiende, Makbannai elfde. 14Hulle was van die mense uit Gad, hoofmanne van die leër; die kleinste van hulle kon man-alleen staan teen honderd, die grootste teen duisend. 15Dit was hulle wat in die reëntyd die Jordaan oorgesteek het toe hy vol was tot oor altwee sy walle en al die laagtes oos en wes volgestoot het. 16Toe daar van die Benjaminiete en Judeërs na Dawid toe gekom het in die bergskuiling, 17het hy na hulle toe uitgekom en geroep: As julle in vrede na my toe gekom het om my te help, is ons bondgenote en is ek bereid om julle leier te wees, maar as julle gekom het om my aan my vyande te verraai, terwyl ek geen misdaad begaan het nie, mag die God van ons voorvaders dit dan raaksien en julle straf. 18Daarna het die Gees vir Amasai, die leier van die dertig, in besit geneem, en hy het gesê: Vír u, Dawid! Bý u, seun van Isai! Vrede, vrede vir u, en vrede vir hom wat by u staan, want u God help u! Dawid het hulle toe aanvaar en hulle opgeneem onder die leiers van sy bende. 19Uit Manasse het mense na Dawid toe oorgeloop toe hy saam met die Filistyne op die veldtog teen Saul uitgetrek het. Hy het egter nie die Filistyne gehelp nie, want hulle regeerders het hom doelbewus weggestuur. Hulle het gesê: Hy sal na sy koning Saul toe oorloop met ons koppe. 20Dawid is toe na Siklag toe en daar het die volgende mense uit Manasse na hom toe oorgeloop: Adnag, Josabad, Jediael, Migael, Josabad, Elihu en Silletai, leiers van afdelings in Manasse. 21Hulle het Dawid gehelp en het aanvoerders van sy bende geword, want hulle was almal strydbare manne. 22Daar het van dag tot dag mense by Dawid aangekom om hom te help, totdat dit 'n groot leër geword het, 'n magtige leër. 23Hier volg die getalle van die hoofmanne van die gewapende mag wat in Hebron na Dawid toe gekom het om die koningskap van Saul op hom oor te dra volgens die wil van die Here: 24Judeërs, gewapen met grootskild en spies: 6 800, ten volle gewapen; 25van die Simeoniete, strydbare manne gereed vir aktiewe diens: 7 100; 26van die Leviete: 4 600; 27Ook nog Jojada, die Ääronitiese vors met 3 700 man by hom, 28en die jong Sadok, 'n strydbare man, met sy familie onder 22 aanvoerders; 29van die Benjaminiete, Saul se stamgenote: 3 000. Tot in dié stadium het die meeste van hulle trou gebly aan die huis van Saul. 30Van die Efraimiete was daar 20 800, almal strydbare manne, gesiene mense in hulle families; 31van die halwe Manassestam: 18 000 wat afgevaardig was om Dawid te kom koning maak; 32van die Issaskarstam, die mense wat die tekens van die tye verstaan het en geweet het wat Israel te doen staan: 200 van hulle hoofmanne en al hulle stamgenote onder hulle bevel; 33van Sebulon: 50 000 man wat slaggereed was en met alle wapens toegerus was vir die oorlog. Sonder om twee keer te dink, het hulle saam in 'n geveg ingestorm. 34Van Naftali was daar 1 000 aanvoerders en saam met hulle 37 000 man met grootskild en spies; 35van die Danniete: 28 600 gewapende man; 36van Aser: 40 000 man, slaggereed en gewapen; 37van oorkant die Jordaan af, van die Rubeniete, Gadiete en die halwe Manassestam: 120 000, toegerus met alle wapens. 38Al hierdie krygsmanne het saamgestaan en met volle oorgawe na Hebron toe gekom om Dawid koning oor die hele Israel te maak. Die hele res van Israel was dit daarmee eens dat Dawid koning gemaak moes word. 39Drie dae lank was hulle daar by Dawid en het hulle geëet en gedrink, want hulle volksgenote het hulle onthaal. 40Hulle verwante selfs van Issaskar, Sebulon en Naftali af het kos aangebring op donkies, kamele, muile en beeste. Daar was volop meel, vyekoeke, rosyntjiekoeke, wyn en olie, grootvee en kleinvee, want daar was groot vreugde in Israel.

The Ark Brought from Kiriath-Jearim

1Ch 13:1 King David consulted with all the officers in command of units of a thousand men and units of a hundred men.

1Ch 13:2 Then he announced to all the people of Israel, "If you give your approval and if it is the will of the LORD our God, let us send messengers to the rest of our people and to the priests and Levites in their towns, and tell them to assemble here with us.

1Ch 13:3 Then we will go and get God's Covenant Box, which was ignored while Saul was king."

1Ch 13:4 The people were pleased with the suggestion and agreed to it.

Uzzah and the Ark

1Ch 13:5 So David assembled the people of Israel from all over the country, from the Egyptian border in the south to Hamath Pass in the north, in order to bring the Covenant Box from Kiriath Jearim to Jerusalem.

1Ch 13:6 David and the people went to the city of Baalah, that is, to Kiriath Jearim, in the territory of Judah, to get the Covenant Box of God, which bears the name of the LORD enthroned above the winged creatures.

1Ch 13:7 At Abinadab's house they brought out the Covenant Box and put it on a new cart. Uzzah and Ahio guided the cart, 1Ch 13:8 while David and all the people danced with all their might to honor God. They sang and played musical instruments—harps, drums, cymbals, and trumpets.

1Ch 13:9 As they came to the threshing place of Chidon, the oxen stumbled, and Uzzah reached out and took hold of the Covenant Box.

1Ch 13:10 At once the LORD became angry with Uzzah and killed him for touching the Box. He died there in God's presence, 1Ch 13:11 and so that place has been called Perez Uzzah ever since. David was furious because the LORD had punished Uzzah in anger.

1Ch 13:12 Then David was afraid of God and said, "How can I take the Covenant Box with me now?"

1Ch 13:13 So David did not take it with him to Jerusalem. Instead, he left it at the house of a man named Obed Edom, a native of the city of Gath.

1Ch 13:14 It stayed there three months, and the LORD blessed Obed Edom's family and everything that belonged to him.

I KRONIEKE 13

1Daarna het Dawid met die aanvoerders van duisend en dié van honderd beraadslaag, met elke leier. 2Hy het vir die volle volksvergadering van Israel gesê: As julle dink dit is goed, en as die Here ons God sy goedkeuring gee, laat ons die saak nou aanpak en boodskappers stuur na ons ander volksgenote toe in al die gebiede van Israel, dat hulle, en saam met hulle die priesters en die Leviete wat in hulle dorpe met weivelde woon, hier by ons moet bymekaarkom. 3Dan bring ons die ark van ons God na ons toe terug; in Saul se tyd het ons ons nie daaroor bekommer nie. 4Die volle vergadering het hom bereid verklaar om dit te doen, want die hele volk het gedink dis reg. 5So het Dawid dan die hele Israel, van Sigorspruit aan die Egiptiese grens af tot by Lebo-Hamat, bymekaargebring om die ark van God in Kirjat-Jearim te gaan haal. 6Dawid en die hele Israel het opgetrek na Baäla toe, na Kirjat-Jearim toe wat in Juda lê, om die ark te gaan haal. Dit is die ark van die Here God wat oor die gerubs troon; sy Naam is oor die ark uitgeroep. 7Hulle het die ark van God op 'n nuwe wa vervoer van die huis van Abinadab af. Ussa en Agjo het die wa gedrywe. 8Dawid en die hele Israel het uitbundig voor die ark van God uit gedans, begelei deur liedere, liere, harpe, tamboeryne, simbale en trompette. 9Toe hulle by Nakon se dorsvloer kom, het Ussa die ark met sy hand teëgehou, want die osse het gestruikel. 10Die toorn van die Here het teen Ussa ontvlam; die Here het hom getref omdat hy met sy hand aan die ark geraak het, en hy het daar langs die ark gesterf. 11Dawid was diep ontsteld omdat die Here vir Ussa so weggeskeur het en hy het daardie plek genoem Ussa-se-Skeur. Dit is nou nog die naam. 12Dawid het daardie dag bang geword vir God en gesê: Hoe kan ek die ark van God nou na my toe bring? 13Hy het toe nie die ark na hom toe in die Dawidstad laat inkom nie en het dit laat wegdraai na die huis van Obed-Edom toe wat uit Gat afkomstig was. 14Die ark van God het drie maande in Obed-Edom se huis gestaan, en God het hom en alles wat hy gehad het, voorspoedig gemaak.

1Chronicles 14

David's Wives and Children

1Ch 14:1 King Hiram of Tyre sent a trade mission to David; he provided him with cedar logs and with stonemasons and carpenters to build a palace.

1Ch 14:2 And so David realized that the LORD had established him as king of Israel and was making his kingdom prosperous for the sake of his people.

1Ch 14:3 There in Jerusalem, David married more wives and had more sons and daughters.

1Ch 14:4 The following children were born to him in Jerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon,

1Ch 14:5 Ibhar, Elishua, Elpelet,

1Ch 14:6 Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia,

1Ch 14:7 Elishama, Beeliada, and Eliphelet.

Philistines Defeated

1Ch 14:8 When the Philistines heard that David had now been made king over the whole country of Israel, their army went out to capture him. So David marched out to meet them.

1Ch 14:9 The Philistines arrived at Rephaim Valley and began plundering.

1Ch 14:10 David asked God, "Shall I attack the Philistines? Will you give me the victory?" The LORD answered, "Yes, attack! I will give you the victory!"

1Ch 14:11 So David attacked them at Baal Perazim and defeated them. He said, "God has used me to break through the enemy army like a flood." So that place is called Baal Perazim.

1Ch 14:12 When the Philistines fled, they left their idols behind, and David gave orders for them to be burned.

1Ch 14:13 Soon the Philistines returned to the valley and started plundering it again.

1Ch 14:14 Once more David consulted God, who answered, "Don't attack them from here, but go around and get ready to attack them from the other side, near the balsam trees.

1Ch 14:15 When you hear the sound of marching in the treetops, then attack, because I will be marching ahead of you to defeat the Philistine army."

1Ch 14:16 David did what God had commanded, and so he drove the Philistines back from Gibeon all the way to Gezer.

1Ch 14:17 David's fame spread everywhere, and the LORD made every nation afraid of him.

I KRONIEKE 14

1Koning Hiram van Tirus het 'n afvaardiging na Dawid toe gestuur, en ook sederhout, geskoolde messelaars en skrynwerkers om vir hom 'n huis te bou. 2Dawid het toe besef dat die Here hom as koning oor Israel bevestig het, want sy koningskap het hoë aansien gekry ter wille van die Here se volk Israel. 3In Jerusalem het Dawid met nog vrouens getrou en het hy die vader van nog seuns en dogters geword. 4Hier is die name van die kinders wat in Jerusalem vir hom gebore is: Sima, Sobab, Natan, Salomo, 5Jibgar, Elisua, Elpelet, 6Noga, Nefeg, Jafia, 7Elisama, Eljada en Elifelet. 8Toe die Filistyne verneem dat Dawid tot koning oor die hele Israel gesalf is, het hulle almal teen hom opgetrek. Dawid het dit gehoor en hulle tegemoet getrek. 9Die Filistyne het in die Spooklaagte aangekom en daar ontplooi. 10Dawid het God geraadpleeg en gevra: Moet ek teen die Filistyne opruk? Sal U hulle in my mag oorgee? Die Here het hom geantwoord: Trek op, Ek gee hulle aan jou oor. 11Die Filistyne het toe opgetrek na 'n groot kloof en daar het Dawid hulle verslaan. Dawid het daarna gesê: God het my vyande met my hand gekloof soos water 'n wal kloof! Dit is waarom hulle daardie plek Grootkloof noem. 12Die Filistyne het in hulle haas selfs hulle gode daar gelos. Dawid het opdrag gegee dat die gode verbrand moet word, en dit is gedoen. 13Toe die Filistyne weer 'n keer in die laagte ontplooi, 14het Dawid God weer geraadpleeg. God het vir hom gesê: Moenie agter hulle aan optrek nie; maak 'n omsingelingsbeweging van hulle af weg en val hulle aan regoor die melkbosse. 15Wanneer jy 'n geritsel in die toppe van die melkbosse hoor, moet jy aanval, want dan trek God voor jou uit om die leër van die Filistyne te verslaan. 16Dawid het gemaak soos God gesê het, en hulle het die Filistyne verslaan van Gibeon af tot by Geser. 17Dawid se roem het na alle lande toe versprei, en die Here het al die nasies vir hom ontsag laat kry.

1Chronicles 15

The Ark Brought to Jerusalem

1Ch 15:1 For his own use, David built houses in David's City. He also prepared a place for God's Covenant Box and put up a tent for it.

1Ch 15:2 Then he said, "Only Levites should carry the Covenant Box, because they are the ones the LORD chose to carry it and to serve him forever."

1Ch 15:3 So David summoned all the people of Israel to Jerusalem in order to bring the Covenant Box to the place he had prepared for it.

1Ch 15:4 Next he sent for the descendants of Aaron and for the Levites.

1Ch 15:5 From the Levite clan of Kohath came Uriel, in charge of 120 members of his clan;

1Ch 15:6 from the clan of Merari came Asaiah, in charge of 220;

1Ch 15:7 from the clan of Gershon, Joel, in charge of 130;

1Ch 15:8 from the clan of Elizaphan, Shemaiah, in charge of 200;

1Ch 15:9 from the clan of Hebron, Eliel, in charge of 80;

1Ch 15:10 and from the clan of Uzziel, Amminadab, in charge of 112.

1Ch 15:11 David called in the priests Zadok and Abiathar and the six Levites, Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel, and Amminadab.

1Ch 15:12 He said to the Levites, "You are the leaders of the Levite clans. Purify yourselves and your fellow Levites, so that you can bring the Covenant Box of the LORD God of Israel to the place I have prepared for it.

1Ch 15:13 Because you were not there to carry it the first time, the LORD our God punished us for not worshiping him as we should have done."

1Ch 15:14 Then the priests and the Levites purified themselves in order to move the Covenant Box of the LORD God of Israel.

1Ch 15:15 The Levites carried it on poles on their shoulders, as the LORD had commanded through Moses.

1Ch 15:16 David commanded the leaders of the Levites to assign various Levites to sing and to play joyful music on harps and cymbals.

1Ch 15:17 (17-21) From the clans of singers they chose the following men to play the brass cymbals: Heman son of Joel, his relative Asaph son of Berechiah, and Ethan son of Kushaiah, of the clan of Merari. To assist them they chose the following Levites to play the high-pitched harps: Zechariah, Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah, and Benaiah. To play the low-pitched harps they chose the following Levites: Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Azaziah, and the Temple guards, Obed Edom and Jeiel.

1Ch 15:22 Because of his skill in music Chenaniah was chosen to be in charge of the levitical musicians.

1Ch 15:23 (23-24) Berechiah and Elkanah, along with Obed Edom and Jehiah, were chosen as guards for the Covenant Box. The priests Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah, and Eliezer were chosen to blow trumpets in front of the Covenant Box.

1Ch 15:25 So King David, the leaders of Israel, and the military commanders went to the house of Obed Edom to get the Covenant Box, and they had a great celebration.

1Ch 15:26 They sacrificed seven bulls and seven sheep, to make sure that God would help the Levites who were carrying the Covenant Box.

1Ch 15:27 David was wearing a robe made of the finest linen, and so were the musicians, Chenaniah their leader, and the Levites who carried the Box. David also wore a linen ephod.

1Ch 15:28 So all the Israelites accompanied the Covenant Box up to Jerusalem with shouts of joy, the sound of trumpets, horns, and cymbals, and the music of harps.

1Ch 15:29 As the Box was being brought into the city, Michal, Saul's daughter, looked out of the window and saw King David dancing and leaping for joy, and she was disgusted with him.

I KRONIEKE 15

1Dawid het vir hom huise opgerig in die Dawidstad. Hy het ook 'n plek vir die ark van God gereed gemaak en 'n tent daarvoor opgeslaan. 2Dit was toe dat Dawid bepaal het dat niemand behalwe die Leviete die ark van God mag dra nie, omdat die Here hulle uitgekies het om sy ark te dra en vir altyd daarby diens te doen. 3Dawid het die hele Israel in Jerusalem laat bymekaarkom om die ark van die Here na die plek toe te bring wat hy daarvoor reggemaak het. 4Hy het die Äroniete en die Leviete laat bymekaarkom: 5van die Kehatgroep was daar die leier Uriël met sy honderd en twintig ampsgenote, 6van die Merarigroep die leier Asaja met sy twee honderd en twintig, 7van die Gersongroep die leier Joël met sy honderd en dertig, 8van die Elisafangroep die leier Semaja met sy twee honderd, 9van die Hebrongroep die leier Eliël met sy tagtig, 10en van die Ussiëlgroep die leier Amminadab met sy honderd en twaalf ampsgenote. 11Toe het Dawid die priesters Sadok en Abjatar en die Leviete Uriël, Asaja, Joël, Semaja, Eliël en Amminadab geroep 12en vir hulle gesê: Julle is die familiehoofde van die Leviete. Reinig julle en julle ampsgenote en bring die ark van die Here die God van Israel na die plek toe wat ek daarvoor reggemaak het. 13Omdat julle dit nie die eerste keer al gedoen het nie, het die Here ons God iemand van ons weggeskeur, want ons het nie op die regte manier na die wil van God gevra nie. 14Die priesters en die Leviete het hulle toe gereinig om die ark van die Here die God van Israel te gaan haal. 15Die Leviete het die ark van God met draaghoute op hulle skouers gedra soos Moses beveel het in ooreenstemming met die opdrag van die Here. 16Verder het Dawid die hoofde van die Leviete beveel om hulle ampsgenote, die sangers, te laat aantree met musiekinstrumente, harpe, liere en simbale, om die feesvreugde hard te laat weergalm. 17Die Leviete het toe die volgende manne laat aantree: Heman seun van Joël; uit sy ampsgenote Asaf seun van Berekja; uit die Merarigroep hulle ampsgenoot Etan seun van Kusaja. 18Hulle is bygestaan deur hulle ampsgenote van laer rang, die poortwagte Sagaria, Jaäsiël, Semiramot, Jegiël, Unni, Eliab, Benaja, Maäseja, Mattitja, Elifele, Mikneja, Obed-Edom en Jeïel. 19Die sangers Heman, Asaf en Etan het die kopersimbale geslaan. 20Sagaria, Jaäsiël, Semiramot, Jegiël, Unni, Eliab, Maäseja en Benaja het die harpe met die hoë toon bespeel. 21Mattitja, Elifele, Mikneja, Obed-Edom, Jeïel en Asasja het die liere met die laer toon ter begeleiding bespeel. 22Kenanja was leier van die Leviete wat die drawerk gedoen het. Hy het die werk gereël, want hy het geweet hoe. 23Berekja en Elkana was poortwagte by die ark. 24Die priesters Sebanja, Josafat, Netanel, Amasai, Sagaria, Benaja en Eliëser het die trompette geblaas voor die ark van God uit. Obed-Edom en Jegija was ook poortwagte by die ark. [25]Dawid, die leiers van Israel en die aanvoerders van duisend het die verbondsark van die Here in feestelike stemming uit die huis van Obed-Edom gaan inbring. [26]Hulle het sewe bulle en sewe ramme geoffer om God se hulp te vra vir die Leviete wat die verbondsark van die Here gedra het. [27]Dawid het 'n mantel van fyn linne aangehad, so ook al die Leviete wat die ark gedra het, die sangers, en Kenanja, wat in bevel was van die sangers. Dawid het ook nog 'n linneskouerkleed gedra. [28]So het die hele Israel die verbondsark van die Here ingebring met feeskrete, ramshoring- en trompetgeskal, simbaalslae en die musiek van harpe en liere. [29]Terwyl die verbondsark van die Here die Dawidstad ingekom het, het Saul se dogter Mikal deur die venster afgekyk. Sy het koning Dawid gesien terwyl hy spring en dans, en sy het hom in stilte verag.

1Chronicles 16

The Ark Placed in a Tent

1Ch 16:1 They took the Covenant Box to the tent which David had prepared for it and put it inside. Then they offered sacrifices and fellowship offerings to God.

1Ch 16:2 After David had finished offering the sacrifices, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD

1Ch 16:3 and distributed food to them all. He gave each man and woman in Israel a loaf of bread, a piece of roasted meat, and some raisins.

1Ch 16:4 David appointed some of the Levites to lead the worship of the LORD, the God of Israel, in front of the Covenant Box, by singing and praising him.

1Ch 16:5 Asaph was appointed leader, with Zechariah as his assistant. Jeiel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, Obed Edom, and Jeiel were to play harps. Asaph was to sound the cymbals, 1Ch 16:6 and two priests, Benaiah and Jahaziel, were to blow trumpets regularly in front of the Covenant Box.

1Ch 16:7 It was then that David first gave Asaph and the other Levites the responsibility for singing praises to the LORD.

David's Song of Thanks

1Ch 16:8 Give thanks to the LORD, proclaim his greatness; tell the nations what he has done.

1Ch 16:9 Sing praise to the LORD; tell the wonderful things he has done.

1Ch 16:10 Be glad that we belong to him; let all who worship him rejoice!

1Ch 16:11 Go to the LORD for help, and worship him continually.

1Ch 16:12 (12-13) You descendants of Jacob, God's servant, descendants of Israel, whom God chose, remember the miracles that God performed and the judgments that he gave.

1Ch 16:14 The LORD is our God; his commands are for all the world.

1Ch 16:15 Never forget God's covenant, which he made to last forever, 1Ch 16:16 the covenant he made with Abraham, the promise he made to Isaac.

1Ch 16:17 The LORD made a covenant with Jacob, one that will last forever.

1Ch 16:18 "I will give you the land of Canaan," he said. "It will be your own possession."

1Ch 16:19 God's people were few in number, strangers in the land of Canaan.

1Ch 16:20 They wandered from country to country, from one kingdom to another.

1Ch 16:21 But God let no one oppress them; to protect them, he warned the kings:

1Ch 16:22 "Don't harm my chosen servants; do not touch my prophets."

1Ch 16:23 Sing to the LORD, all the world! Proclaim every day the good news that he has saved us.

1Ch 16:24 Proclaim his glory to the nations, his mighty deeds to all peoples.

1Ch 16:25 The LORD is great and is to be highly praised; he is to be honored more than all the gods.

1Ch 16:26 The gods of all other nations are only idols, but the LORD created the heavens.

1Ch 16:27 Glory and majesty surround him, power and joy fill his Temple.

1Ch 16:28 Praise the LORD, all people on earth, praise his glory and might.

1Ch 16:29 Praise the LORD's glorious name; bring an offering and come into his Temple. Bow down before the Holy One when he appears;

1Ch 16:30 tremble before him, all the earth! The earth is set firmly in place and cannot be moved.

1Ch 16:31 Be glad, earth and sky! Tell the nations that the LORD is king.

1Ch 16:32 Roar, sea, and every creature in you; be glad, fields, and everything in you!

1Ch 16:33 The trees in the woods will shout for joy when the LORD comes to rule the earth.

1Ch 16:34 Give thanks to the LORD, because he is good; his love is eternal.

1Ch 16:35 Say to him, "Save us, O God our Savior; gather us together; rescue us from the nations, so that we may be thankful and praise your holy name."

1Ch 16:36 Praise the LORD, the God of Israel! Praise him now and forever! Then all the people said, "Amen," and praised the LORD.

Worship Before the Ark

1Ch 16:37 King David put Asaph and the other Levites in permanent charge of the worship that was held at the place where the Covenant Box was kept. They were to perform their duties there day by day.

1Ch 16:38 Obed Edom son of Jeduthun and sixty-eight men of his clan were to assist them. Hosah and Obed Edom were in charge of guarding the gates.

1Ch 16:39 Zadok the priest and his fellow priests, however, were in charge of the worship of the LORD at the place of worship in Gibeon.

1Ch 16:40 Every morning and evening they were to burn sacrifices whole on the altar in accordance with what was written in the Law which the LORD gave to Israel.

1Ch 16:41 There with them were Heman and Jeduthun and the others who were specifically chosen to sing praises to the LORD for his eternal love.

1Ch 16:42 Heman and Jeduthun also had charge of the trumpets and cymbals and the other instruments which were played when the songs of praise were sung. The members of Jeduthun's clan were in charge of guarding the gates.

1Ch 16:43 Then everyone went home, and David went home to spend some time with his family.

I KRONIEKE 16

1Die Leviete het die ark van God ingebring en dit neergesit binne-in die tent wat Dawid daarvoor opgeslaan het. Daarna het hulle vir God brandoffers en maaltydoffers gebring. 2Nadat Dawid klaar 'n brandoffer en 'n maaltydoffer gebring het, het hy die volk geseën in die Naam van die Here. 3Hy het aan elke Israeliet, man en vrou, 'n ringbrood, 'n bietjie dadels en 'n tros rosyntjies laat uitdeel. 4Hy het ook van die Leviete aangewys om voor die ark van die Here diens te doen. Hulle moes die Here die God van Israel roem, loof en prys. 5Asaf was die leier, Sagaria was tweede in bevel. Verder was daar Jeïel, Semiramot, Jegiël, Mattitja, Eliab, Benaja, Obed-Edom en Jeïel, almal met harpe en liere. Asaf het die simbale geslaan. 6Die priesters Benaja en Jagasiël het aanhoudend op die trompette geblaas voor die verbondsark van God uit. 7Dit was op daardie selfde dag dat Dawid die eerste keer die Loof die Here deur Asaf en sy ampsgenote laat sing het: 8Loof die Here. Roep Hom aan! Maak aan die nasies bekend wat Hy gedoen het. 9Sing liedere, sing tot sy eer, vertel van al sy magtige dade. 10Roem sy heilige Naam, laat dié wat die teenwoordigheid van die Here soek, bly wees. 11Soek hulp en beskerming by die Here, soek gedurig sy teenwoordigheid. 12Julle moet dink aan die magtige dade wat Hy gedoen het, aan sy wonders, aan die reddingsdade op sy bevel, 13julle, nageslag van Israel, sy dienaar, nakomelinge van Jakob vir wie Hy uitverkies het. 14Hy, die Here, is ons God, sy reddingsdade strek oor die hele aarde. 15Onthou, sy verbond is vir altyd, die belofte wat Hy aan duisende geslagte toegesê het, 16die verbond wat Hy met Abraham gesluit het, sy eed aan Isak. 17Hy het dit vir Jakob bevestig as 'n vaste toesegging, vir Israel as verbond wat altyd sal bestaan. 18Hy het gesê: Ek gee Kanaän vir jou as grondgebied en eiendom, 19al is julle maar min, net 'n paar mense, en vreemdelinge in die land. 20Toe hulle van volk na volk geswerf het, van die gebied van die een volk na dié van 'n ander, 21het Hy niemand toegelaat om hulle te verdruk nie, en het Hy selfs konings ter wille van hulle gewaarsku: 22Moenie aan my gesalfdes raak nie, moenie my profete kwaad aandoen nie! 23Sing tot eer van die Here, almal op aarde! Verkondig elke dag sy reddingsdade! 24Vertel die nasies van sy mag, al die volke van sy magtige dade. 25Die Here is groot, al die lof kom Hom toe, ontsagwekkend is Hy bo alle gode. 26Al die gode van die volke is niks: dit is die Here wat die hemele gemaak het. 27Majesteit en luister straal van Hom uit, krag en vreugde vul die plek waar Hy is. 28Prys die Here, alle volke, prys die Here om sy eer en mag! 29Prys die Here om die eer van sy Naam! Kom na Hom toe, bring vir Hom offers! Buig voor die Here by sy heilige verskyning; 30betoon eerbied aan Hom, almal op aarde. Die wêreld staan vas, dit wankel nie. [31]Die hemele moet bly wees en die aarde moet juig, hulle moet onder die nasies verkondig: Die Here regeer. [32]Die see en alles daarin moet druis, die veld en alles daarop moet jubel, [33]die bome in die bos moet hulle verheug voor die Here, want Hy kom om oor die aarde te heers. [34]Loof die Here, want Hy is goed, aan sy liefde is daar geen einde nie! [35]Julle moet sê: Red ons, o God, ons Verlosser, maak ons bymekaar, red ons van die nasies, dat ons u heilige Naam kan loof en ons in u lof kan verheug. [36]Aan die Here die God van Israel kom die lof toe van ewigheid tot ewigheid! Toe het die hele volk gesê: Amen! Prys die Here! [37]Dawid het vir Asaf en sy ampsgenote daar voor die verbondsark van die Here laat bly om voltyds voor die ark diens te doen soos dit van dag tot dag nodig sou wees; [38]so ook vir Obed-Edom met sy ag en sestig ampsgenote. Obed-Edom seun van Jedutun en Gosa was poortwagte. [39]Dawid het die priester Sadok met sy ampsgenote die priesters voor die tabernakel van die Here op die hoogte in Gibeon laat bly [40]om gereeld soggens en saans vir die Here brandoffers te bring op die brandofferaltaar, soos dit voorgeskryf is in die wet van die Here wat Hy Israel beveel het. [41]Saam met hulle het hy Heman en Jedutun en die ander manne wat gekeur en by name aangewys is, daar laat bly om die Here te loof: Want aan sy liefde is daar geen einde nie.[42]Heman en Jedutun was in beheer van die trompette en simbale en die ander instrumente om die lied ter ere van God te begelei. Die volgelinge van Jedutun was by die poort. [43]Hierna is almal huis toe, en Dawid het teruggegaan om sy gesin te seën.

1Chronicles 17

The Lord's Covenant with David

1Ch 17:1 King David was now living in his palace. One day he sent for the prophet Nathan and said to him, "Here I am living in a house built of cedar, but the LORD's Covenant Box is kept in a tent!"

1Ch 17:2 Nathan answered, "Do whatever you have in mind, because God is with you."

1Ch 17:3 But that night God said to Nathan,

1Ch 17:4 "Go and tell my servant David that I say to him, 'You are not the one to build a temple for me to live in.

1Ch 17:5 From the time I rescued the people of Israel from Egypt until now I have never lived in a temple; I have always lived in tents and moved from place to place.

1Ch 17:6 In all my traveling with the people of Israel I never asked any of the leaders that I appointed why they had not built me a temple made of cedar.'

1Ch 17:7 "So tell my servant David that I, the LORD Almighty, say to him, 'I took you from looking after sheep in the fields and made you the ruler of my people Israel.

1Ch 17:8 I have been with you wherever you have gone, and I have defeated all your enemies as you advanced. I will make you as famous as the greatest leaders in the world.

1Ch 17:9 (9-10) I have chosen a place for my people Israel and have settled them there, where they will live without being oppressed any more. Ever since they entered this land they have been attacked by violent people, but this will not happen again. I promise to defeat all your enemies and to give you descendants.

1Ch 17:11 When you die and are buried with your ancestors, I will make one of your sons king and will keep his kingdom strong.

1Ch 17:12 He will be the one to build a temple for me, and I will make sure that his dynasty continues forever.

1Ch 17:13 I will be his father, and he will be my son. I will not withdraw my support from him as I did from Saul, whom I removed so that you could be king.

1Ch 17:14 I will put him in charge of my people and my kingdom forever. His dynasty will never end.' "

1Ch 17:15 Nathan told David everything that God had revealed to him.

David's Prayer

1Ch 17:16 Then King David went into the Tent of the LORD's presence, sat down, and prayed, "I am not worthy of what you have already done for me, LORD God, nor is my family.

1Ch 17:17 Yet now you are doing even more; you have made promises about my descendants in the years to come, and you, LORD God, are already treating me like someone great.

1Ch 17:18 What more can I say to you! You know me well, and yet you honor me, your servant.

1Ch 17:19 It was your will and purpose to do this for me and to show me my future greatness.

1Ch 17:20 LORD, there is none like you; we have always known that you alone are God.

1Ch 17:21 There is no other nation on earth like Israel, whom you rescued from slavery to make them your own people. The great and wonderful things you did for them spread your fame throughout the world. You rescued your people from Egypt and drove out other nations as your people advanced.

1Ch 17:22 You have made Israel your own people forever, and you, LORD, have become their God.

1Ch 17:23 "And now, O LORD, fulfill for all time the promise you made about me and my descendants, and do what you said you would.

1Ch 17:24 Your fame will be great, and people will forever say, 'The LORD Almighty is God over Israel.' And you will preserve my dynasty for all time.

1Ch 17:25 I have the courage to pray this prayer to you, my God, because you have revealed all this to me, your servant, and have told me that you will make my descendants kings.

1Ch 17:26 You, LORD, are God, and you have made this wonderful promise to me.

1Ch 17:27 I ask you to bless my descendants so that they will continue to enjoy your favor. You, LORD, have blessed them, and your blessing will rest on them forever."

1Terwyl Dawid op 'n keer in sy huis sit, sê hy vir die profeet Natan: Kyk, ek woon in 'n huis wat met sederhout versier is, maar die verbondsark van die Here staan in 'n tent. 2Natan het Dawid geantwoord: Doen gerus alles wat u in gedagte het. God is by u. 3Dieselfde nag het egter iets gebeur: die woord van God het tot Natan gekom en vir hom gesê: 4Gaan sê vir my dienaar Dawid: So sê die Here: Nie jý sal vir My die huis bou om in te woon nie. 5Van die dag af dat Ek Israel hierheen laat trek het tot vandag toe het Ek nie in 'n huis gewoon nie. Ek het van tent na tent en van woonplek na woonplek gegaan. 6Het Ek ooit terwyl Ek saam met die Israeliete rondgeswerf het, vir een van die leiers wat Ek beveel het om die leiding van my volk Israel op hom te neem, gesê: Waarom bou julle nie vir My 'n huis wat met sederhout versier is nie?' 7Nou moet jy vir my dienaar Dawid sê: So sê die Here die Almagtige: Ek het jou uit die weiveld agter die kleinvee weggevat om oor my volk Israel te heers. 8Oral waar jy gegaan het, was Ek by jou; al jou vyande het Ek voor jou oë uitgedelg. Ek het jou so beroemd gemaak soos die grotes op die aarde. 9Ek het 'n woonplek aan my volk Israel gegee en hom gevestig, sodat hy sonder vrees in sy plek kan woon. Slegte mense sal hom nie meer verdruk soos voorheen 10toe Ek leiers oor my volk Israel aangestel het nie. Ek sal al jou vyande onderwerp. Ek maak aan jou bekend dat die Here vir jou 'n koningshuis sal vestig. 11Wanneer jou tyd daar is om by jou voorvaders te rus, sal Ek een van jou nageslag, jou eie seun, koning maak en aan hom 'n bestendige koningskap gee. 12Hy sal vir My 'n huis bou en Ek sal sy troon blywend vestig. 13Ek sal vir hom 'n vader wees en hy sal vir My 'n seun wees. My trou sal Ek nie aan hom onttrek nie, soos Ek dit aan jou voorganger onttrek het. 14Ek gee hom 'n blywende plek in my huis en my koninkryk. Sy troon sal altyd voortbestaan. 15Volgens hierdie openbaring het Natan die hele boodskap aan Dawid oorgedra. 16Daarna het koning Dawid ingegaan en voor die Here gaan sit en gesê: Wie is ek, Here God, en wie is my nageslag dat U my so ver gebring het? 17Selfs dit was vir U nog nie genoeg nie, o God: U het ook nog vir die nageslag van u dienaar tot in die verre toekoms beloftes gemaak, U sien my as die man wat soos 'n duif die hoogtes bereik, Here God! 18Wat sou ek, Dawid, nog verder vir U kon sê oor die eer wat u dienaar aangedoen word? U ken immers u dienaar. 19U het hierdie groot ding gedoen, Here, ter wille van u dienaar omdat dit u besluit en wil was, en boonop het U al dié groot dinge aan u dienaar bekend gemaak. 20Daar is niemand soos U nie, Here! Buiten U is daar geen God nie, van hoeveel gode ons ook al gehoor het. 21Watter volk is soos u volk

Israel? Hulle is die een nasie op aarde wat U vir U as volk vry gemaak het. U het u Naam bekend gemaak deur aan nasies groot en vreeslike dinge te doen toe. U hulle verdryf het voor u volk wat U uit Egipte vry gemaak het. 22U het u volk Israel vir altyd u volk gemaak. En U, Here, U het hulle God geword. 23En nou, Here, wat U oor u dienaar en oor sy nageslag gesê het, staan vas vir altyd. Doen tog soos U belowe het, 24sodat dit vas kan staan en u Naam vir altyd groot kan wees as daar gesê word: Die Here die Almagtige, die God van Israel, Hy is God van Israel. Die nageslag van u dienaar Dawid bestaan voort voor U. 25My God, U het nadruklik vir u dienaar gesê dat U vir hom 'n huis sal vestig, en daarom het u dienaar die vrymoedigheid gehad om sy gebed tot U te rig. 26En nou, Here, U is God. U het hierdie goeie beloftes aan u dienaar gemaak. 27U dring daarop aan om die huis van u dienaar te seën, dat dit vir altyd in u diens sal wees. U, Here, het geseën; daarom is dit vir altyd geseën.

David Defeats His Enemies

1Ch 18:1 Some time later King David attacked the Philistines again and defeated them. He took out of their control the city of Gath and its surrounding villages.

1Ch 18:2 He also defeated the Moabites, who became his subjects and paid taxes to him.

1Ch 18:3 Next, David attacked King Hadadezer of the Syrian state of Zobah, near the territory of Hamath, because Hadadezer was trying to gain control of the territory by the upper Euphrates River.

1Ch 18:4 David captured a thousand of his chariots, seven thousand cavalry troops, and twenty thousand foot soldiers. He kept enough horses for a hundred chariots and crippled all the rest.

1Ch 18:5 When the Syrians of Damascus sent an army to help King Hadadezer, David attacked it and killed twenty-two thousand men.

1Ch 18:6 Then he set up military camps in their territory, and they became his subjects and paid taxes to him. The LORD made David victorious everywhere.

1Ch 18:7 David captured the gold shields carried by Hadadezer's officials and took them to Jerusalem.

1Ch 18:8 He also took a great quantity of bronze from Tibhath and Kun, cities ruled by Hadadezer. (Solomon later used this bronze to make the tank, the columns, and the bronze utensils for the Temple.)

1Ch 18:9 King Toi of Hamath heard that David had defeated Hadadezer's entire army.

1Ch 18:10 So he sent his son Joram to greet King David and congratulate him for his victory over Hadadezer, against whom Toi had fought many times. Joram brought David presents made of gold, silver, and bronze.

1Ch 18:11 King David dedicated them for use in worship, along with the silver and gold he took from the nations he conquered—Edom, Moab, Ammon, Philistia, and Amalek.

1Ch 18:12 Abishai, whose mother was Zeruiah, defeated the Edomites in Salt Valley and killed eighteen thousand of them.

1Ch 18:13 He set up military camps throughout Edom, and the people there became King David's subjects. The LORD made David victorious everywhere.

David's Administration

1Ch 18:14 David ruled over all Israel and made sure that his people were always treated fairly and justly.

1Ch 18:15 Abishai's brother Joab was commander of the army; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was in charge of the records;

1Ch 18:16 Zadok son of Ahitub and Ahimelech son of Abiathar were priests; Seraiah was court secretary;

1Ch 18:17 Benaiah son of Jehoiada was in charge of David's bodyguards; and King David's sons held high positions in his service.

I KRONIEKE 18

1Hierna het Dawid die Filistyne verslaan en onderwerp. Hy het Gat en sy buitedorpe afgeneem van die Filistyne. 2Hy het ook die Moabiete verslaan, sodat Moab aan Dawid onderhorig geword het en aan hom belasting moes betaal. 3Toe Dawid sy mag aan die Eufraat gaan herstel het, het hy vir koning Hadad-Eser van Soba in die rigting van Hamat verslaan. 4Van hom het Dawid 'n duisend strydwaens, sewe duisend oorlogsperde en twintig duisend voetsoldate afgevat. Hy het perde vir honderd strydwaens uitgehou en al die ander se hakskeensenings afgesny. 5Die Arameërs van Damaskus het vir koning Hadad-Eser van Soba te hulp gekom, maar Dawid het twee en twintig duisend man van Aram verslaan. 6Hy het militêre poste in die gebied Aram-Damaskus ingerig, en die Arameërs het aan hom onderhorig geword en moes aan hom belasting betaal. Die Here het Dawid die oorwinning laat behaal net waar hy gegaan het. 7Dawid het die goue skilde van Hadad-Eser se offisiere afgevat en dit na Jerusalem toe gebring. 8In Tibgat en Kun, twee stede van Hadad-Eser, het hy op 'n groot hoeveelheid brons beslag gelê. Daarvan het Salomo die bronswaterbak, pilare en bronsware gemaak. 9Toe koning Toï van Hamat verneem dat Dawid die hele leër van koning Hadad-Eser van Soba verslaan het, 10het hy sy seun Joram na koning Dawid toe gestuur. Hy moes hom sy groete oorbring en hom gelukwens met sy oorwinning oor Hadad-Eser, want Hadad-Eser het kort-kort vir Toï aangeval. Hy het allerlei artikels van goud, silwer en brons saamgestuur. 11Koning Dawid het dit alles aan die Here gewy, en so ook die silwer en goud wat hy van al die nasies weggevoer het, van Edom, Moab, die Ammoniete, die Filistyne en Amalek. 12Abisai seun van Seruja het agtien duisend man van Edom in die Soutvlakte verslaan 13en in Edom besettingsposte ingerig, sodat die hele Edom onderhorig aan Dawid geword het. Die Here het vir Dawid gehelp net waar hy gegaan het. 14Dawid was koning oor die hele Israel en hy het sy hele volk met reg en billikheid geregeer. 15Joab seun van Seruja is aangestel oor die leër, en Josafat seun van Agilud was hoof uitvoerende beampte. 16Sadok seun van Agitub, en Agimelek seun van Abjatar was priesters, en Sausa was staatsekretaris. 17Jojada se seun Benaja is aangestel oor die koning se Filistynse lyfwag. Die ouer seuns van koning Dawid was in sy persoonlike diens.

1Chronicles 19

The Ammonites Disgrace David's Men

1Ch 19:1 Some time later King Nahash of Ammon died, and his son Hanun became king.

1Ch 19:2 King David said, "I must show loyal friendship to Hanun, as his father Nahash did to me." So David sent messengers to express his sympathy. When they arrived in Ammon and called on King Hanun,

1Ch 19:3 the Ammonite leaders said to the king, "Do you think that it is in your father's honor that David has sent these men to express sympathy to you? Of course not! He has sent them here as spies to explore the land, so that he can conquer it!"

1Ch 19:4 Hanun seized David's messengers, shaved off their beards, cut off their clothes at the hips, and sent them away.

1Ch 19:5 They were too ashamed to return home. When David heard what had happened, he sent word for them to stay in Jericho and not return until their beards had grown again.

1Ch 19:6 King Hanun and the Ammonites realized that they had made David their enemy, so they paid nearly forty tons of silver to hire chariots and charioteers from Upper Mesopotamia and from the Syrian states of Maacah and Zobah.

1Ch 19:7 The thirty-two thousand chariots they hired and the army of the king of Maacah came and camped near Medeba. The Ammonites too came out from all their cities and got ready to fight.

1Ch 19:8 When David heard what was happening, he sent out Joab and the whole army.

1Ch 19:9 The Ammonites marched out and took up their position at the entrance to Rabbah, their capital city, and the kings who had come to help took up their position in the open countryside.

Ammonites and Syrians Defeated

1Ch 19:10 Joab saw that the enemy troops would attack him in front and from the rear, so he chose the best of Israel's soldiers and put them in position facing the Syrians.

1Ch 19:11 He placed the rest of his troops under the command of his brother Abishai, who put them in position facing the Ammonites.

1Ch 19:12 Joab said to him, "If you see that the Syrians are defeating me, come and help me, and if the Ammonites are defeating you, I will go and help you.

1Ch 19:13 Be strong and courageous! Let's fight hard for our people and for the cities of our God. And may the LORD's will be done."

1Ch 19:14 Joab and his men advanced to attack, and the Syrians fled.

1Ch 19:15 When the Ammonites saw the Syrians running away, they fled from Abishai and retreated into the city. Then Joab went back to Jerusalem.

1Ch 19:16 The Syrians realized that they had been defeated by the Israelites, so they brought troops from the Syrian states on the east side of the Euphrates River and placed them under the command of Shobach, commander of the army of King Hadadezer of Zobah.

1Ch 19:17 When David heard of it, he gathered the Israelite troops, crossed the Jordan River, and put them in position facing the Syrians. The fighting began, 1Ch 19:18 and the Israelites drove the Syrian army back. David and his men killed seven thousand Syrian chariot drivers and forty thousand foot soldiers. They also killed the Syrian commander, Shobach.

1Ch 19:19 When the kings who were subject to Hadadezer realized that they had been defeated by Israel, they made peace with David and became his subjects.

1Ch 19:20 The Syrians were never again willing to help the Ammonites.

I KRONIEKE 19

1Na hierdie gebeure is koning Nagas van die Ammoniete oorlede. Sy seun het hom opgevolg, 2en Dawid het gedink: ek wil met Nagas se seun Ganun op goeie voet bly, want sy pa was my goedgesind. Dawid het toe gesante gestuur om met hom deelneming te betuig oor die dood van sy pa. Toe die amptenare van Dawid in die land van die Ammoniete by Ganun kom om met hom deelneming te betuig, 3het die leiers van die Ammoniete vir Ganun gesê: Dink u werklik Dawid vereer u vader deur boodskappers te stuur om met u te simpatiseer? Het sy amptenare nie eerder na u toe gekom om die land deur te kyk en hier onrus te stook en inligting in te samel nie? 4Ganun het toe Dawid se gesante gevat, hulle kaal geskeer, hulle klere net onderkant die heupe afgesny en hulle gelos. 5Hulle is toe daar weg, en die nuus oor die manne is aan Dawid meegedeel. Hy het toe boodskappers na hulle toe gestuur, want die manne was baie skaam. Die koning het laat weet: Bly voorlopig in Jerigo totdat julle baard gegroei het en kom dan huis toe. 6Die Ammoniete het geweet dat hulle hulle by Dawid in onguns gebring het. Daarom het Ganun en die Ammoniete vier en dertig ton silwer gestuur om vir hulle by die Arameërs van Mesopotamië en by die Arameërs van Maäka en by Soba bemande strydwaens en 'n berede mag te huur. 7Hulle het vir hulle twee en dertig duisend strydwaens gehuur. Daarmee saam het die koning van Maäka en sy leërmag gekom en hulle het regoor Medeba kamp opgeslaan. Die Ammoniete het ook bymekaargekom uit hulle stede en uitgetrek vir die oorlog. 8Toe Dawid dit hoor, het hy vir Joab met die hele leër gestuur, almal dapper manne. 9Die Ammoniete het opgeruk en hulle gevegslinies voor die stad opgestel. Die konings wat hulle kom help het, was in die oop veld. 10Joab het opgemerk dat hy aan twee kante sou moes veg, voor en agter. Hy het toe 'n aantal van die beste manne uit Israel gekies en teenoor die Arameërs laat stelling inneem. 11Die res van die leër het hy onder aanvoering van sy broer Abisai geplaas en hulle teenoor die Ammoniete laat stelling inneem. 12Hy het gesê: As die Arameërs vir my te sterk is, moet jy my kom help, en as die Ammoniete vir jou te sterk is, sal ek jou kom help. 13Wees dapper, ja, laat ons almal dapper wees ter wille van ons volk en die stede van ons God. Mag die Here doen soos Hy dit goedvind. 14Joab en sy manne het opgeruk om teen die Arameërs te veg, maar hulle het vir hom gevlug. 15Toe die Ammoniete gewaar dat die Arameërs vlug, het die Ammoniete ook voor sy broer Abisai op die vlug geslaan en die stad ingegaan. Joab is toe na Jerusalem toe. 16Toe die Aramese state sien dat hulle deur die Israeliete verslaan is, het hulle afvaardigings gestuur om die Arameërs oorkant die Eufraat te laat kom, en Sobak die hoof van Hadad-Eser se leër het die leiding geneem. [17]Toe Dawid die berig kry, het hy die hele Israel bymekaargemaak en die Jordaan oorgesteek. Toe hy naby die Arameërs kom, het hy stelling ingeneem teenoor hulle. Pas het Dawid sy stellings teenoor die Arameërs reg gehad vir die geveg, of hulle val hom aan. [18]Hulle het egter vir Israel gevlug. Dawid het sewe duisend van die strydwabemanning en veertig duisend voetsoldate van Aram om die lewe gebring. Hy het verder ook vir Sobak die hoof van hulle leër doodgemaak. [19]Toe die manskappe van Hadad-Eser besef dat hulle deur Israel verslaan is, het hulle vrede gesluit met Dawid en aan hom onderhorig geword. Die Arameërs was hierna nie weer bereid om die Ammoniete te help nie.

The Capture of Rabbah

1Ch 20:1 The following spring, at the time of the year when kings usually go to war, Joab led out the army and invaded the land of Ammon; King David, however, stayed in Jerusalem. They besieged the city of Rabbah, attacked it, and destroyed it.

1Ch 20:2 The Ammonite idol Molech had a gold crown which weighed about seventy-five pounds. In it there was a jewel, which David took and put in his own crown. He also took a large amount of loot from the city.

1Ch 20:3 He took the people of the city and put them to work with saws, iron hoes, and axes. He did the same to the people of all the other towns of Ammon. Then he and his men returned to Jerusalem.

Philistine Giants Killed

1Ch 20:4 Later on, war broke out again with the Philistines at Gezer. This was when Sibbecai from Hushah killed a giant named Sippai, and the Philistines were defeated.

1Ch 20:5 There was another battle with the Philistines, and Elhanan son of Jair killed Lahmi, the brother of Goliath from Gath, whose spear had a shaft as thick as the bar on a weaver's loom.

1Ch 20:6 Another battle took place at Gath, where there was a giant with six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot. He was a descendant of the ancient giants.

1Ch 20:7 He defied the Israelites, and Jonathan, the son of David's brother Shammah, killed him.

1Ch 20:8 These three, who were killed by David and his men, were descendants of the giants at Gath.

I KRONIEKE 20

1In die lente, die tyd waarin die konings gewoonlik uittrek om oorlog te maak, het Joab die leër uitgelei en die land van die Ammoniete verwoes. Daarna het hy Rabba gaan beleër, maar Dawid het in Jerusalem agtergebly. Nadat Joab vir Rabba ingeneem en verwoes het, 2het Dawid self gekom en die Ammonitiese koning se kroon van sy kop afgehaal. Dit was van goud, met 'n kosbare steen in, en die gewig van die kroon was sowat vier en dertig kilogram. Dit het nou op Dawid se kop gekom, en hy het ook 'n groot buit uit die stad weggeneem. 3Hy het die burgers van die stad weggevoer en hulle aan die werk gesit met saag, ysterbeitel en byl. So het hy teenoor al die Ammonitiese stede opgetree. Daarna het hy en al die burgers na Jerusalem toe teruggegaan. 4Daarna het daar oorlog met die Filistyne in Geser uitgebreek. Daar het Sibbekai die Gusatiet vir Sippai, uit die Refaïetegeslag, verslaan en moes die Filistyne hulle onderwerp. 5In 'n ander geveg teen die Filistyne het Elganan seun van Jaïr vir Lagmi, die broer van Goliat uit Gat, verslaan. Sy spiessteel was so dik soos die dwarsbalk van 'n weefstoel. 6Op 'n ander keer was daar oorlog in Gat. Daar was 'n lang man met ses vingers aan elke hand en ses tone aan elke voet; saam was dit vier en twintig. Hy was ook 'n Refaïet van geboorte. 7Hy het die Israeliete getart, en toe het Jonatan, seun van Dawid se broer Samma, hom doodgemaak. 8Dit was dan die Refaïete wat in Gat gebore is. Dawid en sy manskappe het hulle laat sneuwel.

1Chronicles 21

David's Census Brings Pestilence

1Ch 21:1 Satan wanted to bring trouble on the people of Israel, so he made David decide to take a census.

1Ch 21:2 David gave orders to Joab and the other officers, "Go through Israel, from one end of the country to the other, and count the people. I want to know how many there are."

1Ch 21:3 Joab answered, "May the LORD make the people of Israel a hundred times more numerous than they are now! Your Majesty, they are all your servants. Why do you want to do this and make the whole nation guilty?"

1Ch 21:4 But the king made Joab obey the order. Joab went out, traveled through the whole country of Israel, and then returned to Jerusalem.

1Ch 21:5 He reported to King David the total number of men capable of military service: 1,100,000 in Israel and 470,000 in Judah.

1Ch 21:6 Because Joab disapproved of the king's command, he did not take any census of the tribes of Levi and Benjamin.

1Ch 21:7 God was displeased with what had been done, so he punished Israel.

1Ch 21:8 David said to God, "I have committed a terrible sin in doing this! Please forgive me. I have acted foolishly."

1Ch 21:9 Then the LORD said to Gad, David's prophet,

1Ch 21:10 "Go and tell David that I am giving him three choices. I will do whichever he chooses."

1Ch 21:11 Gad went to David, told him what the LORD had said, and asked, "Which is it to be?

1Ch 21:12 Three years of famine? Or three months of running away from the armies of your enemies? Or three days during which the LORD attacks you with his sword and sends an epidemic on your land, using his angel to bring death throughout Israel? What answer shall I give the LORD?"

1Ch 21:13 David replied to Gad, "I am in a desperate situation! But I don't want to be punished by people. Let the LORD himself be the one to punish me, because he is merciful."

1Ch 21:14 So the LORD sent an epidemic on the people of Israel, and seventy thousand of them died.

1Ch 21:15 Then he sent an angel to destroy Jerusalem, but he changed his mind and said to the angel, "Stop! That's enough!" The angel was standing by the threshing place of Araunah, a Jebusite.

1Ch 21:16 David saw the angel standing in midair, holding his sword in his hand, ready to destroy Jerusalem. Then David and the leaders of the people—all of whom were wearing sackcloth—bowed low, with their faces touching the ground.

1Ch 21:17 David prayed, "O God, I am the one who did wrong. I am the one who ordered the census. What have these poor people done? LORD, my God, punish me and my family, and spare your people."

David Builds an Altar

1Ch 21:18 The angel of the LORD told Gad to command David to go and build an altar to the LORD at Araunah's threshing place.

1Ch 21:19 David obeyed the LORD's command and went, as Gad had told him to.

1Ch 21:20 There at the threshing place Araunah and his four sons were threshing wheat, and when they saw the angel, the sons ran and hid.

1Ch 21:21 As soon as Araunah saw King David approaching, he left the threshing place and bowed low, with his face touching the ground.

1Ch 21:22 David said to him, "Sell me your threshing place, so that I can build an altar to the LORD, to stop the epidemic. I'll give you the full price."

1Ch 21:23 "Take it, Your Majesty," Araunah said, "and do whatever you wish. Here are these oxen to burn as an offering on the altar, and here are the threshing boards to use as fuel, and wheat to give as an offering. I give it all to you."

1Ch 21:24 But the king answered, "No, I will pay you the full price. I will not give as an offering to the LORD something that belongs to you, something that costs me nothing."

1Ch 21:25 And he paid Araunah six hundred gold coins for the threshing place.

1Ch 21:26 He built an altar to the LORD there and offered burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. He prayed, and the LORD answered him by sending fire from heaven to burn the sacrifices on the altar.

1Ch 21:27 The LORD told the angel to put his sword away, and the angel obeyed.

1Ch 21:28 David saw by this that the LORD had answered his prayer, so he offered sacrifices on the altar at Araunah's threshing place.

1Ch 21:29 The Tent of the LORD's presence which Moses had made in the wilderness, and the altar on which sacrifices were burned were still at the place of worship at Gibeon at this time;

1Ch 21:30 but David was not able to go there to worship God, because he was afraid of the sword of the LORD's angel.

I KRONIEKE 21

1Satan was teen Israel. Hy het Dawid aangehits om 'n sensus van Israel te hou. 2Dawid het vir Joab en die gesaghebbers van die volk gesê: Gaan maak 'n opname van Israel van die suide tot die noorde en doen aan my verslag dat ek kan weet hoeveel hulle is. 3Toe sê Joab: Selfs al sou die Here by sy volk honderd keer soveel byvoeg as wat hulle nou is, sal u mos nog koning wees! Hulle is mos almal u onderdane. Waarom wil u dit doen, U Majesteit? Waarom moet dit nou 'n sondelas op Israel word? 4Maar die koning se bevel aan Joab het bly staan. Joab het vertrek, die hele Israel deurgegaan en na Jerusalem toe teruggekom, 5waar hy die resultaat van die volkstelling aan Dawid oorhandig het. Israel was in totaal een miljoen een honderd duisend weerbare man en Juda vier honderd en sewentig duisend. 6Die Leviete en die Benjaminiete het hy nie bygereken nie, want die bevel van die koning het vir Joab 'n gruwel gebly. 7In die oë van God was die saak verkeerd en Hy het Israel dan ook daaroor swaar gestraf. 8Dawid het teenoor God bely: Ek het swaar gesondig toe ek hierdie ding gedoen het. Vergewe tog nou my oortreding! Waarlik, ek het baie dwaas opgetree. 9Die Here sê toe vir Gad, die siener van Dawid: 10Gaan sê vir Dawid: So sê die Here: Ek lê drie dinge aan jou voor. Kies vir jou een daarvan, dan sal Ek dit laat gebeur. 11Gad het toe na Dawid toe gegaan en vir hom gesê: So sê die Here: Kies 12drie jaar hongersnood, of om drie maande lank op die vlug te bly voor jou teenstanders en deur die swaard van jou vyand agterhaal te word, of drie dae waarin die swaard van die Here self en die pes in die land is en die engel van die Here dwarsoor die Israelitiese gebied verderf saai. Besluit nou watter antwoord ek moet terugbring aan Hom wat my gestuur het. 13Dawid het vir Gad geantwoord: Ek is in 'n hoek gedryf. Laat my liewer in die hand van die Here val, want sy genade is baie groot. Ek wil nie in die hand van 'n mens val nie. 14Daarna het die Here 'n pes onder Israel laat uitbreek, en daar is sewentig duisend Israeliete dood. 15God het ook 'n engel na Jerusalem toe gestuur om dié uit te delg, maar terwyl hy besig was om verderf te saai, het die Here toegekyk en besluit om die straf nie verder te voer nie. Hy het vir die engel wat die verderf aanrig, gesê: Dit is nou genoeg! Trek jou hand terug! Die engel van die Here het by die dorsvloer van Arauna die Jebusiet gestaan. 16Toe Dawid opkyk en die engel van die Here tussen hemel en aarde sien staan met sy ontblote swaard in die hand en oor Jerusalem uitgesteek, val Dawid en die leiers met rouklere aan op hulle knieë neer. 17Dawid het vir God gesê: Dit is tog ék wat opdrag gegee het om 'n sensus van die volk te hou en ék wat gesondig het. Die herder het kwaad gedoen, maar hierdie kudde, wat het húlle gedoen? Here my God, tree tog teen my en my familie op, maar nie met 'n plaag teen u volk nie. 18Die engel van die Here het toe vir Gad opdrag gegee om vir Dawid te sê hy moet vir die Here 'n altaar gaan oprig op die dorsvloer van Arauna die Jebusiet. 19Dawid het toe gegaan soos Gad hom in die Naam van die Here beveel het. 20Arauna was besig om koring uit te trap. Toe hy omdraai en die engel sien, het hy en sy vier seuns by hom weggekruip. 21Terwyl Dawid na Arauna toe kom, kyk Arauna af en sien hom. Hy het van die dorsvloer af gegaan en diep voor Dawid gebuig. 22Dawid sê toe vir hom: Laat my die plek met die dorsvloer kry. Ek wil daarop vir die Here 'n altaar bou. Laat my dit kry vir die volle waarde daarvan, dat die plaag kan wegkom van die volk af. 23Arauna het vir Dawid gesê: U kan dit gerus maar vat, U Majesteit; doen wat u goedvind. Ek gee ook nog die beeste vir die brandoffer, die dorsslee vir hout en die koring vir die graanoffer. Ek gee alles. 24Hierop het koning Dawid vir Arauna gesê: Nee, ek koop dit beslis van jou vir die volle waarde. Ek kan nie van wat joune is vir die Here bring nie. Ek bring nie 'n brandoffer wat my niks kos nie. 25Dawid het aan Arauna byna sewe kilogram goud vir die plek betaal 26en daar 'n altaar vir die Here gebou. Hy het brandoffers en maaltydoffers gebring en die Here aangeroep. Die Here het hom geantwoord deur vuur uit die hemel op die brandofferaltaar af te stuur. 27Daarna het die Here met die engel gepraat en hy het sy swaard in die skede teruggesit. 28Toe Dawid destyds gemerk het die Here antwoord hom daar op die dorsvloer van Arauna die Jebusiet, het hy daar bly offer. 29Die tabernakel van die Here wat Moses in die woestyn gemaak het en die brandofferaltaar was toe op die hoogte in Gibeon, 30maar Dawid was nie in staat om God daar te gaan raadpleeg nie, want hy is afgeskrik deur die swaard van die engel van die Here.

1Chronicles 22

1Ch 22:1 So David said, "This is where the Temple of the LORD God will be. Here is the altar where the people of Israel are to offer burnt offerings."

David Prepares for Temple Building

1Ch 22:2 King David gave orders for all the foreigners living in the land of Israel to assemble, and he put them to work. Some of them prepared stone blocks for building the Temple.

1Ch 22:3 He supplied a large amount of iron for making nails and clamps for the wooden gates, and so much bronze that no one could weigh it.

1Ch 22:4 He had the people of Tyre and Sidon bring him a large number of cedar logs.

1Ch 22:5 David thought, "The Temple that my son Solomon is to build must be splendid and world-famous. But he is young and inexperienced, so I must make preparations for it." So David got large amounts of the materials ready before he died.

Solomon Charged to Build the Temple

1Ch 22:6 He sent for his son Solomon and commanded him to build a temple for the LORD, the God of Israel.

1Ch 22:7 David said to him, "Son, I wanted to build a temple to honor the LORD my God.

1Ch 22:8 But the LORD told me that I had killed too many people and fought too many wars. And so, because of all the bloodshed I have caused, he would not let me build a temple for him.

1Ch 22:9 He did, however, make me a promise. He said, 'You will have a son who will rule in peace, because I will give him peace from all his enemies. His name will be Solomon, because during his reign I will give Israel peace and security.

1Ch 22:10 He will build a temple for me. He will be my son, and I will be his father. His dynasty will rule Israel forever.' "

1Ch 22:11 David continued, "Now, son, may the LORD your God be with you, and may he keep his promise to make you successful in building a temple for him.

1Ch 22:12 And may the LORD your God give you insight and wisdom so that you may govern Israel according to his Law.

1Ch 22:13 If you obey all the laws which the LORD gave to Moses for Israel, you will be successful. Be determined and confident, and don't let anything make you afraid.

1Ch 22:14 As for the Temple, by my efforts I have accumulated almost four thousand tons of gold and nearly forty thousand tons of silver to be used in building it. Besides that, there is an unlimited supply of bronze and iron. I also have wood and stone ready, but you must get more.

1Ch 22:15 You have many workers. There are stonecutters to work in the quarries, and there are masons and carpenters, as well as a large number of skilled workers of every sort who can work

1Ch 22:16 with gold, silver, bronze, and iron. Now begin the work, and may the LORD be with you."

1Ch 22:17 David commanded all the leaders of Israel to help Solomon.

1Ch 22:18 He said, "The LORD your God has been with you and given you peace on all sides. He let me conquer all the people who used to live in this land, and they are now subject to you and to the LORD.

1Ch 22:19 Now serve the LORD your God with all your heart and soul. Start building the Temple, so that you can place in it the Covenant Box of the LORD and all the other sacred objects used in worshiping him."

I KRONIEKE 22

1Dawid het toe gesê: Die heiligdom van God, die Here, is nou hier by die dorsvloer en hier is ook die brandofferaltaar vir Israel. 2Dawid het die vreemdelinge wat in Israel woonagtig was, bymekaar laat bring en klipkappers aan die werk gesit om messelklippe reg te kap vir die bou van die huis van God. 3Hy het 'n massa yster vir die spykers van die poortdeure en vir kramme gereed gemaak, en ook 'n massa brons, te veel om te weeg. 4Daar was soveel sederhout dat dit nie gemeet kon word nie, want die Sidoniërs en Tiriërs het sederhout in oorvloed aan Dawid gelewer. 5Dawid het gesê: My seun Salomo is nog jonk en sag, en die huis wat vir die Here gebou gaan word, moet indrukwekkend groots wees, 'n roem en 'n sieraad vir alle lande. Daarom tref ek maar vir hom die voorbereidings. So het Dawid voor sy dood 'n groot hoeveelheid materiaal gereed gemaak. 6Daarna het hy sy seun Salomo geroep en hom voorskrifte gegee oor die bou van 'n huis vir die Here die God van Israel. 7Hy het vir Salomo gesê: My seun, ek was van gedagte om 'n huis vir die Naam van die Here my God te bou, 8maar die woord van die Here het tot my gekom en gesê: Jy het bloed in strome laat vloei en groot oorloë gevoer. Jy mag nie vir my Naam 'n huis bou nie, want jy het voor my oë te veel bloed op die aarde laat vloei. 9Jy gaan 'n seun hê wat 'n man van vrede sal wees, want Ek sal hom rus gee van al sy vyande rondom hom. Daarom sal sy naam Salomo wees: Ek sal vrede en kalmte aan Israel gee tydens sy regering. 10Hy sal vir my Naam 'n huis bou. Hy sal vir My 'n seun en Ek vir hom 'n vader wees. Ek sal die troon van sy koninklike heerskappy oor Israel altyd stewig laat staan.' 11Mag die Here dan nou by jou wees, my seun, en jou voorspoed gee dat jy die huis van die Here jou God kan bou soos Hy beloof het dat jy sal doen. 12Mag die Here jou tog net verstand en insig gee en die nodige opdragte in verband met Israel, dat jy die wet van die Here jou God kan nakom. 13Jy sal voorspoed hê net as jy sorg dra dat die voorskrifte en bepalings wat die Here vir Moses in verband met Israel gegee het, nagekom word. Wees sterk en staan vas. Moenie bang wees nie en moenie besorg wees nie. 14Onder al my swaarkry het ek vir die huis van die Here drie duisend vier honderd sewe en twintig ton goud en vier en dertig duisend twee honderd en sewentig ton silwer opsy gesit, en 'n massa brons en yster, te veel om te weeg. Ek het ook hout en klip gereed gemaak, en jy kan daar nog byvoeg. 15Daar is bowendien 'n menigte arbeiders tot jou beskikking: klipkappers, vakmanne in klip en hout, en allerlei ander vakmanne, bedrewe in enige tegniek. 16Daar is goud, silwer, brons en yster in onberekenbare hoeveelhede. Pak nou die werk aan, en mag die Here by jou wees. 17Dawid het ook al die gesaghebbers van Israel beveel om sy seun Salomo te help: [18]Was die Here julle God nie by julle nie en het Hy julle nie op alle grense rus gegee nie? Hy het die inheemse bevolking van die land in my mag gegee, en die land is aan die Here en sy volk onderwerp. [19]Gee nou hart en siel daaraan om aan die Here julle God gehoorsaam te wees, en begin bou aan die heiligdom van God die Here, sodat die verbondsark van die Here en die gewyde voorwerpe van God ingebring kan word in die huis wat vir die Naam van die Here gebou sal word.

1Chronicles 23

David Organizes the Levites

1Ch 23:1 When David was very old, he made his son Solomon king of Israel.

1Ch 23:2 King David brought together all the Israelite leaders and all the priests and Levites.

1Ch 23:3 He took a census of all the male Levites aged thirty or older. The total was thirty-eight thousand.

1Ch 23:4 The king assigned twenty-four thousand to administer the work of the Temple, six thousand to keep records and decide disputes, 1Ch 23:5 four thousand to do guard duty, and four thousand to praise the LORD, using the musical instruments provided by the king for this purpose.

1Ch 23:6 David divided the Levites into three groups, according to their clans: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

1Ch 23:7 Gershon had two sons: Ladan and Shimei.

1Ch 23:8 Ladan had three sons: Jehiel, Zetham, and Joel,

1Ch 23:9 who were the heads of the clans descended from Ladan. (Shimei had three sons: Shelomoth, Haziel, and Haran.)

1Ch 23:10 (10-11) Shimei had four sons: Jahath, Zina, Jeush, and Beriah, in order of age. Jeush and Beriah did not have many descendants, so they were counted as one clan.

1Ch 23:12 Kohath had four sons: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel.

1Ch 23:13 His oldest son, Amram, was the father of Aaron and Moses. (Aaron and his descendants were set apart to be in charge of the sacred objects forever, to burn incense in the worship of the LORD, to serve him, and to bless the people in his name.

1Ch 23:14 But the sons of Moses, the man of God, were included among the Levites.)

1Ch 23:15 Moses had two sons, Gershom and Eliezer.

1Ch 23:16 The leader among Gershom's sons was Shebuel.

1Ch 23:17 Eliezer had only one son, Rehabiah, but Rehabiah had many descendants.

1Ch 23:18 Kohath's second son, Izhar, had a son, Shelomith, the head of the clan.

1Ch 23:19 Kohath's third son, Hebron, had four sons: Jeriah, Amariah, Jahaziel, and Jekameam.

1Ch 23:20 Kohath's fourth son, Uzziel, had two sons, Micah and Isshiah.

1Ch 23:21 Merari had two sons, Mahli and Mushi. Mahli also had two sons, Eleazar and Kish, 1Ch 23:22 but Eleazar died without having any sons, only daughters. His daughters married their cousins, the sons of Kish.

1Ch 23:23 Merari's second son, Mushi, had three sons: Mahli, Eder, and Jeremoth.

1Ch 23:24 These were the descendants of Levi, by clans and families, every one of them registered by name. Each of his descendants, twenty years of age or older, had a share in the work of the LORD's Temple.

1Ch 23:25 David said, "The LORD God of Israel has given peace to his people, and he himself will live in Jerusalem forever.

1Ch 23:26 So there is no longer any need for the Levites to carry the Tent of the LORD's presence and all the equipment used in worship."

1Ch 23:27 On the basis of David's final instructions all Levites were registered for service when they reached the age of twenty,

1Ch 23:28 and were assigned the following duties: to help the priests descended from Aaron with the Temple worship, to take care of its courtyards and its rooms, and to keep undefiled everything that is sacred;

1Ch 23:29 to be responsible for the bread offered to God, the flour used in offerings, the wafers made without yeast, the baked offerings, and the flour mixed with olive oil; to weigh and measure the Temple offerings;

1Ch 23:30 and to praise and glorify the LORD every morning and every evening

1Ch 23:31 and whenever offerings to the LORD are burned on the Sabbath, the New Moon Festival, and other festivals. Rules were made specifying the number of Levites assigned to do this work each time. The Levites were assigned the duty of worshiping the LORD for all time.

1Ch 23:32 They were given the responsibility of taking care of the Tent of the LORD's presence and the Temple, and of assisting their relatives, the priests descended from Aaron, in the Temple worship.

1Toe Dawid oud word en sy einde begin nader, het hy sy seun Salomo koning oor Israel gemaak. 2Hy het ook al die ampsdraers van Israel, die priesters en die Leviete laat bymekaarkom. 3Toe hulle getel is, was die Leviete, die mans van dertig jaar en ouer, altesaam ag en dertig duisend. 4Van hulle moes vier en twintig duisend sorg dra vir die werksaamhede in die huis van die Here, en ses duisend die orde en regspraak behartig; 5vier duisend was poortwagte, en vier duisend moes sorg vir die lof van die Here op die instrumente wat daarvoor vervaardig is. 6Dawid het hulle ingedeel in groepe volgens die seuns van Levi: Gerson, Kehat en Merari. 7Onder die Gersoniete is Ladan en Simi gereken. 8Die seuns van Ladan was Jegiël, die hoof, Setam en Joël, hulle drie. 9Die seuns van Simi was Selomit, Gasiël en Haran, ook drie. Hulle was die familiehoofde van Ladan.10Die seuns van Simi was Jagat, Sisa, Jeüs en Beria. Dit was die vier seuns van Simi. 11Jagat was hoof en Sisa tweede in rang. Jeüs en Beria het nie baie seuns gehad nie en vorm saam een diensgroep van die familie. 12Die seuns van Kehat was Amram, Jishar, Hebron en Ussiël, hulle vier. 13Die seuns van Amram was Aäron en Moses. Aäron is vir altyd afgesonder, hy en sy nageslag, om blywend die heilige diens in die Allerheiligste te verrig, om vir die Here wierookoffers te bring, Hom te dien en in sy Naam die seën uit te spreek. 14Wat Moses betref, die man van God, sy nageslag is by die stam Levi gereken. 15Die seuns van Moses was Gersom en Eliëser. 16Van die nageslag van Gersom was Subael die hoof. 17Van die nageslag van Eliëser was sy seun Regabja die hoof. Eliëser self het nie ander seuns gehad nie, maar Regabja het besonder baie gehad. 18Van die nageslag van Jishar was Selomit die hoof. 19Van die nageslag van Hebron was Jerija die hoof, Amarja die tweede, Jagasiël die derde en Jekamam die vierde. 20Van die nageslag van Ussiël was Miga die hoof en Jissija die tweede. 21Die seuns van Merari was Magli en Musi. Die seuns van Magli was Eleasar en Kis. 22Toe Eleasar gesterf het, het hy geen seuns gehad nie, net dogters. Hulle verwante, die seuns van Kis, het met hulle getrou. 23Die seuns van Musi was Magli, Eder en Jeremot, hulle drie. 24Dit is dan die Leviete volgens hulle families, die familiehoofde volgens hulle diensgroepe, soos hulle een vir een by name opgeneem is. Die Leviete van twintig jaar en ouer het die werksaamhede verrig in die diens van die huis van die Here. 25Dit het so gekom omdat Dawid gesê het: Die Here die God van Israel het sy volk rus geskenk en Hy wil vir altyd in Jerusalem woon. 26Die Leviete hoef nie meer die tabernakel met al die toebehore vir sy diens te vervoer nie. 27Dit is dus die getal Leviete van twintig jaar en ouer wat diens gedoen het soos Dawid dit kort voor sy dood gereël het. [28]Hulle het die Aäroniete bygestaan in die diens van die huis van die Here. Hulle was verantwoordelik vir die voorhowe, die kamers, die reiniging van al die gewyde dinge en vir die werksaamhede van die tempeldiens. [29]Hulle moes sorg vir die offerbrood, die meel vir die graanoffer, die ongesuurde brood, die bakplaat, die deegmengsel en vir elke inhouds- en lengtemaat. [30]Hulle moes ook elke môre hulle plek inneem vir die dank en lof aan die Here, en so ook saans. [31]Verder moes hulle help by die bring van al die offers vir die Here op sabbatte, nuwemaansfeeste en ander feestye. Dit moes voortdurend voor die Here geskied, volgens die reëlmaat wat daarvoor vasgestel is. [32]So moes hulle al die nodige doen by die tent van ontmoeting, by die heiligdom, en saam met hulle ampsbroers die priesters in die diens van die huis van die Here.

1Chronicles 24

David Organizes the Priests

1Ch 24:1 These are the groups to which the descendants of Aaron belong. Aaron had four sons: Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

1Ch 24:2 Nadab and Abihu died before their father did, and left no descendants, so their brothers Eleazar and Ithamar became priests.

1Ch 24:3 King David organized the descendants of Aaron into groups according to their duties. He was assisted in this by Zadok, a descendant of Eleazar, and by Ahimelech, a descendant of Ithamar.

1Ch 24:4 The descendants of Eleazar were organized into sixteen groups, while the descendants of Ithamar were organized into eight; this was done because there were more male heads of families among the descendants of Eleazar.

1Ch 24:5 Since there were Temple officials and spiritual leaders among the descendants of both Eleazar and Ithamar, assignments were made by drawing lots.

1Ch 24:6 The descendants of Eleazar and of Ithamar took turns drawing lots. Then they were registered by Shemaiah son of Nethanel, a Levite secretary. The king, his officials, the priest Zadok, Ahimelech son of Abiathar, and the heads of the priestly families and of the Levite families, were all witnesses.

1Ch 24:7 (7-18) This is the order in which the twenty-four family groups were given their assignments: 1) Jehoiarib; 2) Jedaiah; 3) Harim; 4) Seorim; 5) Malchijah; 6) Mijamin; 7) Hakkoz; 8) Abijah; 9) Jeshua; 10) Shecaniah; 11) Eliashib; 12) Jakim; 13) Huppah; 14) Jeshebeab; 15) Bilgah; 16) Immer; 17) Hezir; 18) Happizzez; 19) Pethahiah; 20) Jehezkel; 21) Jachin; 22) Gamul; 23) Delaiah; 24) Maaziah.

1Ch 24:19 These men were registered according to their assignments for going to the Temple and performing the duties established by their ancestor Aaron in obedience to the commands of the LORD God of Israel.

1Ch 24:20 These are other heads of families descended from Levi: Jehdeiah, a descendant of Amram through Shebuel;

1Ch 24:21 Isshiah, a descendant of Rehabiah;

1Ch 24:22 Jahath, a descendant of Izhar through Shelomith;

1Ch 24:23 Jeriah, Amariah, Jehaziel, and Jekameam, sons of Hebron, in order of age;

1Ch 24:24 Shamir, a descendant of Uzziel through Micah;

1Ch 24:25 Zechariah, a descendant of Uzziel through Isshiah, Micah's brother;

1Ch 24:26 Mahli, Mushi, and Jaaziah, descendants of Merari.

1Ch 24:27 Jaaziah had three sons: Shoham, Zaccur, and Ibri.

1Ch 24:28 (28-29) Mahli had two sons, Eleazar and Kish. Eleazar had no sons, but Kish had one son, Jerahmeel.

1Ch 24:30 Mushi had three sons: Mahli, Eder, and Jeremoth. These are the families of the Levites.

1Ch 24:31 The head of each family and one of his younger brothers drew lots for their assignments, just as their relatives, the priests descended from Aaron, had done. King David, Zadok, Ahimelech, and the heads of families of the priests and of the Levites were witnesses.

I KRONIEKE 24

1Wat die Aäroniete betref, hulle afdelings moes dié van die seuns van Aäron gewees het: Nadab en Abihu, Eleasar en Itamar. 2Nadab en Abihu is egter dood vóór hulle pa en hulle het nie seuns gehad nie. Daarom het net Eleasar en Itamar die priesterskap gekry. 3Dawid het hulle met behulp van Sadok, uit die nageslag van Eleasar, en Agimelek, uit die nageslag van Itamar, in diensgroepe ingedeel vir die uitvoering van hulle pligte. 4Toe hulle vind dat die nageslag van Eleasar meer manlike hoofde het as die nageslag van Itamar, het hulle die nageslag van Eleasar onder sestien familiehoofde en die nageslag van Itamar onder ag ingedeel. 5Hulle het hulle deur loting ingedeel, die een groep by die ander, sodat daar ampsdraers van die heiligdom, ampsdraers vir God, uit die Eleasargeslag én uit die Itamargeslag gekom het. 6Die administratiewe amptenaar Semaja, 'n Leviet, seun van Netanel, het hulle opgeskrywe in teenwoordigheid van die koning, die amptenare, die priester Sadok, Agimelek seun van Abjatar en die familiehoofde van die priesters en die Leviete. Telkens is twee families vir Eleasar en een vir Itamar geneem. 7Die eerste lot het op Jojarib geval, die tweede op Jedaja, 8die derde op Garim, die vierde op Seorim, 9die vyfde op Malkija, die sesde op Mijamin, 10die sewende op Kos, die agste op Abia, 11die negende op Jesua, die tiende op Sekanja, 12die elfde op Eljasib, die twaalfde op Jakim, 13die dertiende op Guppa, die veertiende op Jesebab, 14die vyftiende op Bilga, die sestiende op Immer, 15die sewentiende op Gesir, die agtiende op Pisses, 16die negentiende op Petagja, die twintigste op Esegiël, 17die een en twintigste op Jakin, die twee en twintigste op Gamul, 18die drie en twintigste op Delaja en die vier en twintigste op Maäsja. 19Dit was die diensgroepe waarvolgens hulle vir die uitvoering van hulle pligte na die huis van die Here toe gekom het. Dit moes geskied volgens die orde wat Aäron, hulle pa, neergelê het in ooreenstemming met die bevel van die Here die God van Israel. 20Wat die oorblywende Leviete betref, hulle familiehoofde was die volgende: Subael uit die nageslag van Amram, Jegdeja uit die nageslag van Subael, 21Jissija uit die nageslag van Regabja, 22Selomit uit die nageslag van Jishar, en Jagat uit die nageslag van Selomit. 23Uit die nageslag van Hebron was daar vier: Jerija, Amarja, Jagasiël en Jekamam. 24Miga was uit die nageslag van Ussiël, en Samir uit dié van Miga. 25Jissija was Miga se broer, en Sagaria was die familiehoof uit die nageslag van Jissija. 26Die seuns van Merari was Magli en Musi. Uit die nageslag van Jaäsija, 27'n seun van Merari, was Soham, Sakkur en Ibri familiehoofde. 28Uit die nageslag van Magli was daar Eleasar, maar hy het nie seuns gehad nie. 29Jeragmeël was die familiehoof uit die nageslag van Kis. 30Die seuns van Musi was Magli, Eder en Jerimot. Dit is dan die Leviete volgens hulle families. 31Hulle het ook, naas hulle broers, die nageslag van Aäron, deelgeneem aan die loting in teenwoordigheid van koning Dawid, Sadok, Agimelek en die familiehoofde van die priesters en die Leviete. Van elke familie is almal, van die hoof tot by sy jongste broer, ingereken.

David Organizes the Musicians

1Ch 25:1 King David and the leaders of the Levites chose the following Levite clans to lead the worship services: Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun. They were to proclaim God's messages, accompanied by the music of harps and cymbals. This is the list of persons chosen to lead the worship, with the type of service that each group performed:

1Ch 25:2 The four sons of Asaph: Zaccur, Joseph, Nethaniah, and Asharelah. They were under the direction of Asaph, who proclaimed God's messages whenever the king commanded.

1Ch 25:3 The six sons of Jeduthun: Gedaliah, Zeri, Jeshaiah, Shimei, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah. Under the direction of their father they proclaimed God's message, accompanied by the music of harps, and sang praise and thanks to the LORD.

1Ch 25:4 The fourteen sons of Heman: Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel, Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, Romamti Ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, and Mahazioth.

1Ch 26:12 The Temple guards were divided into groups, according to families, and they were assigned duties in the Temple, just as the other Levites were.

1Ch 26:13 Each family, regardless of size, drew lots to see which gate it would be responsible for.

1Ch 26:14 Shelemiah drew the east gate, and his son Zechariah, a man who always gave good advice, drew the north gate.

1Ch 26:15 Obed Edom was allotted the south gate, and his sons were allotted to guard the storerooms.

1Ch 26:16 Shuppim and Hosah were allotted the west gate and the Shallecheth Gate on the upper road. Guard duty was divided into assigned periods, one after another.

1Ch 26:17 On the east, six guards were on duty each day, on the north, four, and on the south, four. Four guards were stationed at the storerooms daily, two at each storeroom.

1Ch 26:18 Near the western pavilion there were four guards by the road and two at the pavilion itself.

1Ch 26:19 This is the assignment of guard duty to the clan of Korah and the clan of Merari.

1Ch 26:31 Jeriah was the leader of the descendants of Hebron. In the fortieth year that David was king, an investigation was made of the family line of Hebron's descendants, and outstanding soldiers belonging to this family were found living at Jazer in the territory of Gilead.

1Ch 26:32 King David chose twenty-seven hundred outstanding heads of families from Jeriah's relatives and put them in charge of administering all religious and civil matters in Israel east of the

I KRONIEKE 27

1Hier volg 'n opgawe van die Israelitiese familiehoofde, die aanvoerders van duisend en honderd, en die toesighoudende amptenare wat in diens van die koning gestaan het met betrekking tot alles rakende die afdelings wat deur die jaar elke maand omgeruil het. Elke afdeling het uit vier en twintig duisend man bestaan. 2Jasobam seun van Sabdiël was in bevel van die eerste afdeling, dié vir die eerste maand. 3Hy was uit die Peresgroep en was gedurende die eerste maand hoof van al die leëraanvoerders. 4Dodai uit Agoag was in bevel van die afdeling vir die tweede maand. Sy afdeling se hoofaanvoerder was Miklot. 5Benaja seun van die hoëpriester Jojada was die derde leëraanvoerder, vir die derde maand. 6Hierdie Benaja was 'n sterk leier onder die dertig dapper manne van Dawid en in bevel van die dertig. Sy seun Ammisabad was na hom in bevel van die afdeling. 7Die vierde, vir die vierde maand, was Asael broer van Joab en ná hom sy seun Sebadja. 8Die vyfde, vir die vyfde maand, was die aanvoerder Samhut, uit Jisrag. 9Die sesde, vir die sesde maand, was Ira seun van Ikkes, uit Tekoa. 10Die sewende, vir die sewende maand, was Geles, uit Pelon in Efraim. 11Die agste, vir die agste maand, was Sibbekai, van Gusa uit die Seraggroep. 12Die negende, vir die negende maand, was Abiëser, uit Anatot in Benjamin. 13Die tiende, vir die tiende maand, was Marai, van Netofa uit die Seraggroep. 14Die elfde, vir die elfde maand, was Benaja, uit Piraton in Efraim. 15Die twaalfde, vir die twaalfde maand, was Geled, van Netofa uit die Otniëlgroep. Dit was die manne in beheer van die Israelitiese stamme. 23Dawid het nie 'n opgawe van die Israeliete van twintig jaar en jonger laat maak nie, want die Here het beloof om Israel so baie soos die sterre van die hemel te maak. 24Joab seun van Seruja het begin om 'n opname te maak, maar dit nie afgehandel nie, want daardeur het die toorn van die Here teen Israel losgebreek. David's Charge to Israel

1Ch 28:1 King David commanded all the officials of Israel to assemble in Jerusalem. So all the officials of the tribes, the officials who administered the work of the kingdom, the leaders of the clans, the supervisors of the property and livestock that belonged to the king and his sons—indeed all the palace officials, leading soldiers, and important men—gathered in Jerusalem.

1Ch 28:2 David stood before them and addressed them: "My friends, listen to me. I wanted to build a permanent home for the Covenant Box, the footstool of the LORD our God. I have made preparations for building a temple to honor him, 1Ch 28:3 but he has forbidden me to do it, because I am a soldier and have shed too much blood.

1Ch 28:4 The LORD, the God of Israel, chose me and my descendants to rule Israel forever. He chose the tribe of Judah to provide leadership, and out of Judah he chose my father's family. From all that family it was his pleasure to take me and make me king over all Israel.

1Ch 28:5 He gave me many sons, and out of them all he chose Solomon to rule over Israel, the LORD's kingdom.

1Ch 28:6 "The LORD said to me, 'Your son Solomon is the one who will build my Temple. I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be his father.

1Ch 28:7 I will make his kingdom last forever if he continues to obey carefully all my laws and commands as he does now.'

1Ch 28:8 "So now, my people, in the presence of our God and of this assembly of all Israel, the LORD's people, I charge you to obey carefully everything that the LORD our God has commanded us, so that you may continue to possess this good land and so that you may hand it on to succeeding generations forever."

David's Charge to Solomon

1Ch 28:9 And to Solomon he said, "My son, I charge you to acknowledge your father's God and to serve him with an undivided heart and a willing mind. He knows all our thoughts and desires. If you go to him, he will accept you; but if you turn away from him, he will abandon you forever.

1Ch 28:10 You must realize that the LORD has chosen you to build his holy Temple. Now do it—and do it with determination."

1Ch 28:11 David gave Solomon the plans for all the Temple buildings, for the storerooms and all the other rooms, and for the Most Holy Place, where sins are forgiven.

1Ch 28:12 He also gave him the plans for all he had in mind for the courtyards and the rooms around them, and for the storerooms for the Temple equipment and the gifts dedicated to the LORD.

1Ch 28:13 David also gave him the plans for organizing the priests and Levites to perform their duties, to do the work of the Temple, and to take care of all the Temple utensils.

1Ch 28:14 He gave instructions as to how much silver and gold was to be used for making the utensils,

1Ch 28:15 for each lamp and lampstand,

1Ch 28:16 for the silver tables, and for each gold table on which were placed the loaves of bread offered to God.

1Ch 28:17 He also gave instructions as to how much pure gold was to be used in making forks, bowls, and jars, how much silver and gold in making dishes,

1Ch 28:18 and how much pure gold in making the altar on which incense was burned and in making the chariot for the winged creatures that spread their wings over the LORD's Covenant Box.

1Ch 28:19 King David said, "All this is contained in the plan written according to the instructions which the LORD himself gave me to carry out."

1Ch 28:20 King David said to his son Solomon, "Be confident and determined. Start the work and don't let anything stop you. The LORD God, whom I serve, will be with you. He will not abandon you, but he will stay with you until you finish the work to be done on his Temple.

1Ch 28:21 The priests and the Levites have been assigned duties to perform in the Temple. Workers with every kind of skill are eager to help you, and all the people and their leaders are at your command."

1Dawid het al die gesagsdraers van Israel laat bymekaarkom in Jerusalem: dié wat gesag gehad het oor die stamme, oor die afdelings in diens van die koning, oor duisend, oor honderd, oor al die koninklike besittings en vee, en verder sy seuns saam met die hoofbeamptes, die helde en al die manne van betekenis. 2Toe het koning Dawid opgestaan en gesê: My broers, my volk, luister na my! Ek was van gedagte om 'n gebou op te rig as staanplek vir die verbondsark van die Here en as rusplek vir die voete van ons God. Ek het reeds voorbereidings vir die bouwerk getref, 3maar God het vir my gesê: Jy sal nie vir my Naam 'n huis bou nie, want jy is 'n man van baie oorloë en jy het baie bloed vergiet.' 4Die Here die God van Israel het my bo my hele familie verkies om my lewe lank koning oor Israel te wees. Hy het Juda gekies as leidende stam, uit die huis van Juda my familie, en Hy het onder my vader se seuns aan my die voorkeur gegee om oor die hele Israel te regeer. 5Uit al my seuns, want die Here het my baie seuns gegee, het Hy my seun Salomo gekies om te sit op die troon van waar die Here self oor Israel regeer. 6Hy het vir my gesê: Jou seun Salomo sal vir My die tempel met sy voorhowe bou, want Ek het hom vir My as seun gekies, en Ek sal vir hom 'n vader wees. 7As hy volhou om my gebooie en bepalings na te kom soos nou, sal Ek sy koningskap sy lewe lank bevestig.' 8Daarom gebied ek, Dawid, julle nou in teenwoordigheid van die hele Israel, die gemeente van die Here, en ten aanhore van ons God: Onderhou en ondersoek al die gebooie van die Here julle God, dat julle die goeie land kan bly besit en dit as 'n blywende erfenis aan julle kinders na julle kan nalaat. 9En jy, Salomo, my seun, jy moet die God van jou vader ken en Hom dien met jou hele hart en met 'n gewillige gemoed, want die Here ondersoek alle harte en ken die bedoeling van elke gedagte. As jy na Hom vra, sal Hy Hom deur jou laat vind, maar as jy Hom verlaat, sal Hy jou vir altyd verwerp. 10Besef nou dat die Here jou gekies het om 'n gebou as heiligdom op te rig. Pak nou die werk aan en doen dit! 11Dawid het sy seun Salomo voorsien van 'n model van die voorportaal met die geboue wat daarby behoort: die voorraadkamers, soldervertrekke, binnevertrekke en die vertrek waarin die versoendeksel sou kom. 12Dit was 'n model van alles wat hy hom voorgestel het: van die voorhowe van die huis van die Here en van al die kamers rondom vir die tempelskatte en die wydingsgeskenke, 13vir die afdelings priesters en Leviete, vir al die werk verbonde aan die diens in die huis van die Here en vir al die gereedskap wat nodig was vir dié diens. 14Dawid het Salomo ook ingelig oor die presiese hoeveelheid goud wat nodig sou wees vir al die gereedskap vir elke soort diens, die presiese hoeveelheid vir al die silwergereedskap, oor al die gereedskap vir elke besondere werk, 15oor die presiese hoeveelheid vir die goue kandelaars met hulle goue lampe, die hoeveelheid wat nodig sou wees vir elke kandelaar met sy lampe, oor die silwerkandelaars, die presiese hoeveelheid vir 'n kandelaar met sy lampe al na gelang die funksie van die kandelaar, 16oor die hoeveelheid goud vir elkeen van die tafels met die offerbrood, die silwer vir die silwertafels, 17oor die vurke, komme en kanne van suiwer goud, oor die hoeveelheid vir elke goue beker en elke silwerbeker, 18oor die hoeveelheid gesuiwerde goud vir die wierookaltaar en oor die vorm van die rytuig, die gerubs van goud wat hulle vlerke moes uitsprei om die verbondsark van die Here te bedek. 19Dit alles, die hele uitvoering van die werk, het Dawid deur 'n openbaring van God te wete gekom en hy het dit op skrif gestel. 20Dawid het vir sy seun Salomo gesê: Wees sterk, staan vas, begin die werk! Moenie bang wees nie en moenie besorg wees nie, want God die Here, my God, is by jou. Hy sal jou nie aan jouself oorlaat of jou verlaat nie, sodat jy al die werk vir die diens in sy huis kan afhandel. 21Die afdelings priesters en Leviete is gereed vir die volledige tempeldiens, en daar is vakmanne tot jou beskikking wat bedrewe is in al die soorte werk vir elke diens, terwyl die amptenare en die hele volk op jou bevele wag.

1Chronicles 29

Offerings for the Temple

1Ch 29:1 King David announced to the whole assembly: "My son Solomon is the one whom God has chosen, but he is still young and lacks experience. The work to be done is tremendous, because this is not a palace for people but a temple for the LORD God.

1Ch 29:2 I have made every effort to prepare materials for the Temple—gold, silver, bronze, iron, timber, precious stones and gems, stones for mosaics, and quantities of marble.

1Ch 29:3 Over and above all this that I have provided, I have given silver and gold from my personal property because of my love for God's Temple.

1Ch 29:4 I have given 115 tons of the finest gold and 265 tons of pure silver for decorating the walls of the Temple

1Ch 29:5 and for all the objects which the skilled workers are to make. Now who else is willing to give a generous offering to the LORD?"

1Ch 29:6 Then the heads of the clans, the officials of the tribes, the commanders of the army, and the administrators of the royal property volunteered to give

1Ch 29:7 the following for the work on the Temple: 190 tons of gold, 380 tons of silver, 675 tons of bronze, and 3,750 tons of iron.

1Ch 29:8 Those who had precious stones gave them to the Temple treasury, which was administered by Jehiel of the Levite clan of Gershon.

1Ch 29:9 The people had given willingly to the LORD, and they were happy that so much had been given. King David also was extremely happy.

David Prays in the Assembly

1Ch 29:10 There in front of the whole assembly King David praised the LORD. He said, "LORD God of our ancestor Jacob, may you be praised forever and ever!

1Ch 29:11 You are great and powerful, glorious, splendid, and majestic. Everything in heaven and earth is yours, and you are king, supreme ruler over all.

1Ch 29:12 All riches and wealth come from you; you rule everything by your strength and power; and you are able to make anyone great and strong.

1Ch 29:13 Now, our God, we give you thanks, and we praise your glorious name.

1Ch 29:14 "Yet my people and I cannot really give you anything, because everything is a gift from you, and we have only given back what is yours already.

1Ch 29:15 You know, O LORD, that we pass through life like exiles and strangers, as our ancestors did. Our days are like a passing shadow, and we cannot escape death.

1Ch 29:16 O LORD, our God, we have brought together all this wealth to build a temple to honor your holy name, but it all came from you and all belongs to you.

1Ch 29:17 I know that you test everyone's heart and are pleased with people of integrity. In honesty and sincerity I have willingly given all this to you, and I have seen how your people who are gathered here have been happy to bring offerings to you.

1Ch 29:18 LORD God of our ancestors Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, keep such devotion forever strong in your people's hearts and keep them always faithful to you.

1Ch 29:19 Give my son Solomon a wholehearted desire to obey everything that you command and to build the Temple for which I have made these preparations."

1Ch 29:20 Then David commanded the people, "Praise the LORD your God!" And the whole assembly praised the LORD, the God of their ancestors, and they bowed low and gave honor to the LORD and also to the king.

1Ch 29:21 The following day they killed animals as sacrifices, dedicating them to the LORD, and then gave them to the people to eat. In addition, they sacrificed a thousand bulls, a thousand rams, and a thousand lambs, which they burned whole on the altar. They also brought the offerings of wine.

Solomon Anointed King

1Ch 29:22 So that day they were very happy as they ate and drank in the presence of the LORD. For a second time they proclaimed Solomon king. In the name of the LORD they anointed him as their ruler and Zadok as priest.

1Ch 29:23 So Solomon succeeded his father David on the throne which the LORD had established. He was a successful king, and the whole nation of Israel obeyed him.

1Ch 29:24 All the officials and soldiers, and even all of David's other sons, promised to be loyal to Solomon as king.

1Ch 29:25 The LORD made the whole nation stand in awe of Solomon, and he made him more glorious than any other king that had ruled Israel.

The Death of David

1Ch 29:26 David son of Jesse ruled over all Israel

1Ch 29:27 for forty years. He ruled in Hebron for seven years and in Jerusalem for thirty-three.

1Ch 29:28 He died at a ripe old age, wealthy and respected, and his son Solomon succeeded him as king.

1Ch 29:29 The history of King David from beginning to end is recorded in the records of the three prophets, Samuel, Nathan, and Gad.

1Ch 29:30 The records tell how he ruled, how powerful he was, and all the things that happened to him, to Israel, and to the surrounding kingdoms.

I KRONIEKE 29

1Koning Dawid het die hele vergadering soos volg toegespreek: My seun Salomo, die één wat deur God gekies is, is jonk en sag, maar die werk is groot. Hierdie paleis is nie vir 'n mens bedoel nie, maar vir God die Here. 2Met alles in my vermoë het ek vir die huis van my God materiaal gereed gebring: goud vir die goudwerk, silwer vir die silwerwerk, brons vir die bronswerk, yster vir die ysterwerk, hout vir die houtwerk, oniks met die gesteentes om daarrondom in te lê, steentjies vir mosaïekwerk, allerlei edelstene en 'n groot hoeveelheid marmer. 3Omdat die huis van my God my na aan die hart lê, skenk ek ook nog my besit aan goud en silwer bo en behalwe alles wat ek reeds vir die heiligdom gereedgebring het: 4honderd en drie ton goud, van Ofir se goud, en twee honderd en veertig ton gesuiwerde silwer om die mure van die vertrekke oor te trek 5en om die goud vir die goudwerk en die silwer vir die silwerwerk te voorsien, en vir al die werk wat deur die vakmanne gedoen moet word. Wie is nog gewillig om vandag sy hand oop te maak met 'n gawe aan die Here? 6Die familiehoofde, die stamhoofde van Israel, die aanvoerders van duisend en van honderd, en die amptenare in beheer van die koning se dienste was almal gewillig. 7Hulle het vir die tempeldiens honderd een en sewentig ton goud, drie honderd twee en veertig ton silwer, ses honderd en sestien ton brons en drie duisend vier honderd sewe en twintig ton yster bygedra. 8Wie edelstene by hom gehad het, het dit aan die Gersoniet Jegiël gegee vir die tempelskat. 9Die volk was bly oor hulle gewilligheid, want hulle het die vrywillige gawes aan die Here met hulle hele hart gegee. Koning Dawid was ook baie bly. 10Dawid het 'n lofprysing aan die Here in teenwoordigheid van die hele vergadering uitgespreek. Sy woorde was: Geloof sy U, Here, God van ons voorvader Israel, van ewigheid tot ewigheid. 11Die grootheid, Here, die krag, die glans, die roem en die majesteit behoort aan U, ja, alles in die hemel en op aarde. Aan U, Here, behoort die heerskappy; U is bo almal verhewe. 12Van U kom rykdom en eer. U heers oor alles. Mag en krag word deur U geskenk, en dit berus by U om enigiemand groot en sterk te maak. 13En nou loof ons U, ons God, ons prys u glansryke Naam, 14want wie is ek en wie is my volk dat ons die vermoë sou hê om sulke gawes te bring? Alles kom tog van U af en ons gee aan U wat ons van U gekry het. 15Net soos al ons voorvaders is ons by U sonder reg of aanspraak. Ons tyd op aarde is soos 'n skaduwee, dit gaan verby. 16Here ons God, al hierdie goed wat ons bymekaargemaak het om 'n huis vir u heilige Naam te bou, het ons van U gekry en dit behoort aan U. 17Ek weet, my God, dat U die hart ondersoek en dat U opregtheid wil hê. Ek het in opregtheid van hart al hierdie gawes gebring, en nou het ek met vreugde gesien hoe u volk wat hier teenwoordig is, sy gawes aan U bring. 18Here, God van ons voorvaders Abraham, Isak en Israel, behou vir altyd hierdie gesindheid in die gemoed van u volk. Rig hulle hart op U. 19Gee aan my seun Salomo dat hy met volle oorgawe u gebooie, u verordeninge, u voorskrifte sal hou, dat hy dit alles sal doen en die tempel wat ek beplan het, sal bou. 20Daarna het Dawid vir die volle vergadering gesê: Prys nou die Here julle God. Die volle vergadering het toe die Here die God van hulle voorvaders geprys. Daarna het hulle voor die Here en die koning gekniel en in huldebetoon neergeval. 21Die volgende dag het hulle aan die Here as brand- en ander diereoffers duisend bulle, duisend ramme en duisend lammers geoffer, saam met die drankoffers wat daarby hoort. Daar was ook nog 'n menigte offers van die hele Israel. 22Hulle het daardie dag met uitbundige vreugde geëet en gedrink voor die Here. Vir die tweede keer het hulle ook vir Salomo seun van Dawid tot koning verklaar. Hulle het hom voor die Here tot koning gesalf en vir Sadok as priester. 23Salomo het sy plek ingeneem op die troon van die Here as koning in die plek van sy pa. Salomo was voorspoedig en die hele Israel was hom onderdanig. 24Al die amptenare en die lede van die lyfwag, en ook al koning Dawid se seuns, het 'n eed van trou aan koning Salomo afgelê. 25Die Here het Salomo hoë aansien in die oë van die hele Israel laat geniet en hom 'n koninklike verhewenheid geskenk wat nie een van die Israelitiese konings voor hom gehad het nie. 26Dawid seun van Isai het oor die hele Israel geregeer. 27Hy het veertig jaar lank oor Israel geregeer. Hy was sewe jaar koning in Hebron en drie en dertig jaar in Jerusalem. 28Hy het op hoë ouderdom gesterf, na 'n vol lewe, ryk en geëerd. Sy seun Salomo het hom as koning opgevolg. 29Die geskiedenis van koning Dawid, van begin tot einde, is opgeteken in die geskrifte van die siener Samuel, dié van die profeet Natan en dié van die siener Gad, 30alles oor sy regering, sy heldedade en die tye wat oor hom, oor Israel en oor die koninkryke van die aarde heen gegaan het.

Solomon Worships at Gibeon

2Ch 1:1 Solomon, the son of King David, took firm control of the kingdom of Israel, and the LORD his God blessed him and made him very powerful.

2Ch 1:2 King Solomon gave an order to all the officers in charge of units of a thousand men and of a hundred men, all the government officials, all the heads of families, and all the rest of the people, 2Ch 1:3 commanding them to go with him to the place of worship at Gibeon. They went there because that was where the Tent of the LORD's presence was located, which Moses, the LORD's servant, had made in the wilderness.

2Ch 1:4 (The Covenant Box, however, was in Jerusalem, kept in a tent which King David had set up when he brought the Box from Kiriath Jearim.)

2Ch 1:5 The bronze altar which had been made by Bezalel, the son of Uri and grandson of Hur, was also in Gibeon in front of the Tent of the LORD's presence. King Solomon and all the people worshiped the LORD there.

2Ch 1:6 In front of the Tent the king worshiped the LORD by offering sacrifices on the bronze altar; he had a thousand animals killed and burned whole on it.

Solomon Prays for Wisdom

2Ch 1:7 That night God appeared to Solomon and asked, "What would you like me to give you?"

2Ch 1:8 Solomon answered, "You always showed great love for my father David, and now you have let me succeed him as king.

2Ch 1:9 O LORD God, fulfill the promise you made to my father. You have made me king over a people who are so many that they cannot be counted,

2Ch 1:10 so give me the wisdom and knowledge I need to rule over them. Otherwise, how would I ever be able to rule this great people of yours?"

2Ch 1:11 God replied to Solomon, "You have made the right choice. Instead of asking for wealth or treasure or fame or the death of your enemies or even for long life for yourself, you have asked for wisdom and knowledge so that you can rule my people, over whom I have made you king.

2Ch 1:12 I will give you wisdom and knowledge. And in addition, I will give you more wealth, treasure, and fame than any king has ever had before or will ever have again."

2Ch 1:13 So Solomon left the place of worship at Gibeon, where the Tent of the LORD's presence was, and returned to Jerusalem. There he ruled over Israel.

Solomon Given Wealth

2Ch 1:14 He built up a force of fourteen hundred chariots and twelve thousand cavalry horses. Some of them he kept in Jerusalem, and the rest he stationed in various other cities.

2Ch 1:15 During his reign silver and gold became as common in Jerusalem as stone, and cedar was as plentiful as ordinary sycamore in the foothills of Judah.

2Ch 1:16 The king's agents controlled the export of horses from Musri and Cilicia, 2Ch 1:17 and the export of chariots from Egypt. They supplied the Hittite and Syrian kings with horses and chariots, selling chariots for 600 pieces of silver each and horses for 150 each.

II KRONIEKE 1

1Salomo seun van Dawid het 'n stewige houvas op sy koningskap gekry. Die Here sy God was by hom en het hom groot mag gegee. 2Salomo het die hele Israel opgeroep: die bevelhebbers oor duisend en honderd, die regters, elke leiersfiguur in die hele Israel, al die familiehoofde. 3Salomo en die hele gemeente saam met hom het toe na die hoogte toe by Gibeon gegaan. Die tent van die ontmoeting met God wat Moses, die dienaar van die Here, nog in die woestyn gemaak het, was toe daar. 4Die ark van God was egter nie daar nie. Dawid het dit in sy dae uit Kirjat-Jearim laat bring na die plek toe wat hy daarvoor reggemaak het, want hy het daarvoor in Jerusalem 'n tent laat opslaan. 5Die bronsaltaar wat Besaleël seun van Uri, seun van Gur, gemaak het, was opgestel voor die tabernakel van die Here. Salomo en die gemeente het die Here gaan raadpleeg. 6Salomo het daar op die bronsaltaar offers gebring voor die Here wat in die tent van ontmoeting teenwoordig is. Hy het 'n duisend brandoffers daar gebring. 7Daardie nag het God aan Salomo verskyn en vir hom gesê: Vra wat Ek jou moet gee. 8Salomo sê toe vir God: U het groot trou aan my vader Dawid bewys en my in sy plek koning gemaak. 9Vervul nou, Here God, u belofte aan my vader Dawid, want U het my koning gemaak oor 'n volk so baie soos die stof van die aarde. 10Gee my nou wysheid en kennis dat ek hierdie volk reg kan lei, want wie kan uit homself hierdie groot volk van U regeer? 11God het vir Salomo geantwoord: Omdat jy dít besluit het en jy nie rykdom, besittings, aansien of jou vyande se lewens gevra het nie, en ook nie 'n lang leeftyd nie, maar wysheid en kennis waarmee jy my volk oor wie Ek jou koning gemaak het, kan regeer, 12daarom word die wysheid en kennis aan jou geskenk. Maar Ek gee jou bowendien rykdom, besittings en aansien soos die konings voor jou nie gehad het nie en dié ná jou ook nie sal hê nie. 13Daarna het Salomo van die hoogte in Gibeon af, van die tent van ontmoeting af, na Jerusalem toe teruggegaan. Hy was nou koning oor die hele Israel. 14Koning Salomo het 'n mag van strydwaens en perde opgebou. Hy het veertien honderd strydwaens en twaalf duisend perde besit, waarvan hy party in strydwaposte en ander by die paleis in Jerusalem gestasioneer het. 15Die koning het goud en silwer in Jerusalem so volop gemaak soos klippe, en seders so volop soos wildevyebome in die Laeveld. 16Sy perde was afkomstig uit Egipte en Kewé. Die handelaars van koning Salomo het hulle in Kewé gaan koop vir die prys waarop ooreengekom is. 17Uit Egipte is 'n strydwa vir net minder as sewe kilogram silwer ingevoer en 'n perd vir een en 'n driekwart kilogram. Dieselfde pryse is aan al die Hetitiese en Aramese konings betaal. Die invoer het deur bemiddeling van die handelaars geskied.

2Chronicles 2

Preparing to Build the Temple

2Ch 2:1 King Solomon decided to build a temple where the LORD would be worshiped, and also to build a palace for himself.

2Ch 2:2 He put 70,000 men to work transporting materials, and 80,000 to work cutting stone in the hill country. There were 3,600 others responsible for supervising the work.

2Ch 2:3 Solomon sent a message to King Hiram of Tyre: "Do business with me as you did with my father, King David, when you sold him cedar logs for building his palace.

2Ch 2:4 I am building a temple to honor the LORD my God. It will be a holy place where my people and I will worship him by burning incense of fragrant spices, where we will present offerings of sacred bread to him continuously, and where we will offer burnt offerings every morning and evening, as well as on Sabbaths, New Moon Festivals, and other holy days honoring the LORD our God. He has commanded Israel to do this forever.

2Ch 2:5 I intend to build a great temple, because our God is greater than any other god.

2Ch 2:6 Yet no one can really build a temple for God, because even all the vastness of heaven cannot contain him. How then can I build a temple that would be anything more than a place to burn incense to God?

2Ch 2:7 Now send me a man with skill in engraving, in working gold, silver, bronze, and iron, and in making blue, purple, and red cloth. He will work with the craftsmen of Judah and Jerusalem whom my father David selected.

2Ch 2:8 I know how skillful your lumbermen are, so send me cedar, cypress, and juniper logs from Lebanon. I am ready to send my men to assist yours 2Ch 2:9 in preparing large quantities of timber, because this temple I intend to build will be large and magnificent.

2Ch 2:10 As provisions for your lumbermen, I will send you 100,000 bushels of wheat, 100,000 bushels of barley, 110,000 gallons of wine, and 110,000 gallons of olive oil."

2Ch 2:11 King Hiram sent Solomon a letter in reply. He wrote, "Because the LORD loves his people, he has made you their king.

2Ch 2:12 Praise the LORD God of Israel, Creator of heaven and earth!

He has given King David a wise son, full of understanding and skill, who now plans to build a temple for the LORD and a palace for himself.

2Ch 2:13 I am sending you a wise and skillful master metalworker named Huram.

2Ch 2:15 So now send us the wheat, barley, wine, and olive oil that you promised.

2Ch 2:16 In the mountains of Lebanon we will cut down all the cedars you need, tie them together in rafts, and float them by sea as far as Joppa. From there you can take them to Jerusalem."

2Ch 2:17 King Solomon took a census of all the foreigners living in the land of Israel, similar to the census his father David had taken. There were 153,600 resident foreigners.

2Ch 2:18 He assigned 70,000 of them to transport materials and 80,000 to cut stones in the mountains, and appointed 3,600 supervisors to make sure the work was done.

II KRONIEKE 2

1Salomo was van voorneme om 'n tempel vir die Naam van die Here te bou, en 'n paleis vir homself. 2Vir dié doel het hy sewentig duisend draers en tagtig duisend klipkappers in die berge aan die werk gesit, met drie duisend ses honderd opsigters oor hulle. 3Verder het hy die volgende boodskap gestuur aan koning Hiram van Tirus: U het destyds met my vader Dawid 'n ooreenkoms aangegaan en vir hom seders gelewer om vir hom 'n paleis te bou om in te woon. 4Nou wil ek 'n tempel bou vir die Naam van my God, die Here, en dit aan Hom wy. Daar sal ons Hom eer met wierookoffers, met offerbrood wat voortdurend daar is, en met brandoffers, elke môre en elke aand, elke sabbat, elke nuwemaan en elke vasgestelde feestyd van ons God, die Here. Dit is 'n permanente verpligting wat op Israel rus. 5Die tempel wat ek wil bou, gaan groot wees, want ons God is die grootste van alle gode. 6Wie sou eintlik die vermoë hê om vir Hom 'n tempel te bou as die hemel, die hoogste hemel self, Hom nie kan bevat nie? En wie is ek eintlik dat ek, behalwe om Hom met offers te eer, vir Hom ook 'n tempel wil bou? 7Stuur nogtans vir my 'n vakman in die bewerking van goud, silwer, brons en yster en van pers, bloedrooi en blou wol. Hy moet ook vaardig wees in graveerwerk en moet saamwerk met die vakmanne hier by my in Juda en Jerusalem wat deur my vader Dawid gewerf is. 8Stuur vir my verder ook nog seder-, sipres- en jenewerhout van die Libanon af. Ek weet immers hoe vaardig u arbeiders is in die kap van Libanonbome. My eie arbeiders sal saam met u arbeiders werk. 9Hulle moet vir my groot hoeveelhede hout regmaak, want die tempel wat ek wil bou, moet groot en indrukwekkend wees. 10Vir u arbeiders, die boswerkers wat die bome moet kap, sal ek die volgende voedselvoorrade lewer: drie duisend drie honderd ton koring, twee duisend ses honderd en veertig ton gars, vier honderd en veertig kiloliter wyn en vier honderd en veertig kiloliter olie. 11Koning Hiram van Tirus het Salomo soos volg skriftelik geantwoord: Dit was 'n liefdesdaad van die Here aan sy volk dat Hy u koning oor hulle laat word het! 12Verder het Hiram geskrywe: Geloof sy die Here die God van Israel, wat die hemel en die aarde gemaak het! Hy het aan koning Dawid 'n wyse seun gegee wat die verstandigheid en insig aan die dag lê om vir die Here 'n tempel te wil bou en vir homself 'n paleis. 13Ek stuur hiermee 'n vakman met die nodige kennis, my meestervakman Hiram. 14Hy is die seun van 'n vrou uit Dan, en sy pa is uit Tirus. Hy is vaardig in die bewerking van goud, silwer, brons, yster, klip, hout, pers en blou wol, linne en bloedrooi wol. Bowendien kan hy enige graveerwerk doen en in samewerking met u en u vader Dawid se vakmanne, enige ontwerp uitvoer wat aan hom voorgelê word. 15As u nou vir ons die koring, gars, olie en wyn stuur soos u onderneem het, 16sal ons al die hout wat u nodig het, in die Libanon kap en dit in vlotte met die see langs vir u na Joppe toe bring. U kan dit dan na Jerusalem toe laat vervoer. 17Salomo het 'n opname laat maak van al die nie-Israeliete in Israel. Dit was ná die opname wat Dawid, sy pa, reeds van hulle laat maak het. Daar is gevind dat hulle een honderd drie en vyftig duisend ses honderd is. 18Hy het toe sewentig duisend van hulle as draers en tagtig duisend as klipkappers aan die gang gesit in die berge. Daar was drie duisend ses honderd opsigters om die manne aan die werk te hou.

Solomon Builds the Temple

2Ch 3:1 King David, Solomon's father, had already prepared a place for the Temple. It was in Jerusalem, on Mount Moriah, where the LORD appeared to David, at the place which Araunah the Jebusite had used as a threshing place. King Solomon began the construction 2Ch 3:2 in the second month of the fourth year that he was king.

2Ch 3:3 The Temple which King Solomon built was 90 feet long and 30 feet wide.

2Ch 3:4 The entrance room was the full width of the Temple, 30 feet, and was 180 feet high. The inside of the room was overlaid with pure gold.

2Ch 3:5 The main room was paneled with cedar and overlaid with fine gold, in which were worked designs of palm trees and chain patterns.

2Ch 3:6 The king decorated the Temple with beautiful precious stones and with gold imported from the land of Parvaim.

2Ch 3:7 He used the gold to overlay the Temple walls, the rafters, the entryways, and the doors. On the walls the workers carved designs of winged creatures.

2Ch 3:8 The inner room, called the Most Holy Place, was 30 feet long and 30 feet wide, which was the full width of the Temple. Twenty-five tons of gold were used to cover the walls of the Most Holy Place;

2Ch 3:9 twenty ounces of gold were used for making nails, and the walls of the upper rooms were also covered with gold.

2Ch 3:10 The king also had his workers make two winged creatures out of metal, cover them with gold, and place them in the Most Holy Place, 2Ch 3:11 (11-13) where they stood side by side facing the entrance. Each had two wings, each wing 71/2 feet long, which were spread out so that they touched each other in the center of the room and reached to the wall on either side of the room, stretching across the full width of 30 feet.

2Ch 3:14 A curtain for the Most Holy Place was made of linen and of other material, which was dyed blue, purple, and red, with designs of the winged creatures worked into it.

2Ch 3:15 The king had two columns made, each one 52 feet tall, and placed them in front of the Temple. Each one had a capital 71/2 feet tall.

2Ch 3:16 The tops of the columns were decorated with a design of interwoven chains and one hundred bronze pomegranates.

2Ch 3:17 The columns were set at the sides of the Temple entrance: the one on the south side was named Jachin and the one on the north side was named Boaz.

II KRONIEKE 3

1Salomo het begin bou aan die huis van die Here in Jerusalem. Dit was op Moriaberg waar die Here aan Dawid, sy pa, verskyn het, op die plek wat Dawid laat regmaak het, waar die dorsvloer van Arauna die Jebusiet was. 2Hy het begin bou op die tweede van die tweede maand, in die vierde jaar van sy regering. 3Die grondplan waarvolgens Salomo die tempel van God gebou het, was soos volg: die lengte volgens die ou maat was dertig meter, en die breedte tien meter. 4Die voorportaal aan die voorkant van die tempel was tien meter lank, net so lank as wat die tempel breed was. Die hoogte daarvan was sestig meter. Salomo het dit aan die binnekant met suiwer goud oorgetrek. 5Die groot vertrek het hy met sipreshout uitgevoer, met egte goud oorgetrek en daarop palms en kettings laat uitsny. 6Hy het die vertrek versier met kosbare edelstene. Die goud was Parwajimgoud. 7So het hy die hele vertrek met goudplaat oorgetrek, die balke, drumpels, mure en deure daarvan, en aan die mure het hy ook nog gerubs laat uitsny. 8Die Allerheiligste het hy tien meter lank gemaak, net so lank as wat die gebou breed was. Die breedte daarvan was ook tien meter. Hy het die vertrek met egte goud oorgetrek, sowat twintig ton. 9Die goue spykers het bietjie meer as 'n halwe kilogram geweeg. Ook die bovertrekke het hy met goud oorgetrek. 10In die Allerheiligste het hy twee gerubs gemaak, gegote stukke, en hulle ook met goud oorgetrek. 11Die vlerke van die gerubs was saam tien meter lank. Die een gerub se een vlerk het aan die een muur van die vertrek geraak, en sy ander vlerk aan dié van die ander gerub. 12Die een vlerk van die ander gerub het aan die ander muur van die vertrek geraak, en sy ander vlerk was vas aan die ander gerub s'n. Elke vlerk was twee en 'n half meter lank. 13Die vlerke van hierdie gerubs het dus tien meter ver gereik. Hulle het op hulle eie voetstukke gestaan met die gesigte na die groot vertrek toe. 14Die voorhangsel het hy gemaak van blou, pers en bloedrooi wol en van linne, en daarop gerubs laat uitwerk. 15Voor die tempel het hy twee pilare opgerig, sewentien en 'n half meter hoog, met 'n kapiteel van twee en 'n half meter op elkeen. 16Hy het kettings gemaak vir 'n krans en dit bo-aan die pilare aangebring. Daarna het hy honderd granate gemaak en aan die kettings vasgesit. 17Die pilare het voor die tempel gestaan, een regs en een links. Die regterkantste het hy Jakin genoem en die linkerkantste Boas.

2Chronicles 4

The Temple's Furnishings

2Ch 4:1 King Solomon had a bronze altar made, which was 30 feet square and 15 feet high.

2Ch 4:2 He also made a round tank of bronze, 71/2 feet deep, 15 feet in diameter, and 45 feet in circumference.

2Ch 4:3 All around the outer edge of the rim of the tank were two rows of decorations, one above the other. The decorations were in the shape of bulls, which had been cast all in one piece with the rest of the tank.

2Ch 4:4 The tank rested on the backs of twelve bronze bulls that faced outward, three facing in each direction.

2Ch 4:5 The sides of the tank were 3 inches thick. Its rim was like the rim of a cup, curving outward like the petals of a flower. The tank held about 15,000 gallons.

2Ch 4:6 They also made ten basins, five to be placed on the south side of the Temple and five on the north side. They were to be used to rinse the parts of the animals that were burned as sacrifices. The water in the large tank was for the priests to use for washing.

2Ch 4:7 (7-8) They made ten gold lampstands according to the usual pattern, and ten tables, and placed them in the main room of the Temple, five lampstands and five tables on each side. They also made a hundred gold bowls.

2Ch 4:9 They made an inner courtyard for the priests, and also an outer courtyard. The doors in the gates between the courtyards were covered with bronze.

2Ch 4:10 The tank was placed near the southeast corner of the Temple.

2Ch 4:11 (11-16) Huram also made pots, shovels, and bowls. He completed all the objects that he had promised King Solomon he would make for the Temple: The two columns The two bowl-shaped capitals on top of the columns The design of interwoven chains on each capital The 400 bronze pomegranates arranged in two rows around the design of each capital The ten carts The ten basins The tank The twelve bulls supporting the tank The pots, shovels, and forks Huram the master metalworker made all these objects out of polished bronze, as King Solomon had commanded, for use in the Temple of the LORD.

2Ch 4:17 The king had them all made in the foundry between Sukkoth and Zeredah in the Jordan Valley.

2Ch 4:18 So many objects were made that no one determined the total weight of the bronze used.

2Ch 4:19 King Solomon also had gold furnishings made for the Temple: the altar and the tables for the bread offered to God;

2Ch 4:20 the lampstands and the lamps of fine gold that were to burn in front of the Most Holy Place, according to plan;

2Ch 4:21 the flower decorations, the lamps, and the tongs;

2Ch 4:22 the lamp snuffers, the bowls, the dishes for incense, and the pans used for carrying live coals. All these objects were made of pure gold. The outer doors of the Temple and the doors to the Most Holy Place were overlaid with gold.

1Hy het die bronsaltaar gemaak, tien meter lank, tien meter breed en vyf meter hoog. 2Hy het ook die gegote waterbak gemaak, heeltemal rond, vyf meter in deursnee, twee en 'n half meter hoog en met 'n omtrek van vyftien meter. 3Onderom die rand van die waterbak was twee rye beeste in reliëf, tien op elke halwe meter. Die beeste is saam met die waterbak in een stuk gegiet. 4Die waterbak het gerus op twaalf gegote beeste, drie na die noorde, drie na die weste, drie na die suide en drie na die ooste gerig. Die waterbak was bo-oor hulle, en almal se agterkante was onder die bak in. 5Die waterbak was nege sentimeter dik en sy rand was soos 'n beker se rand in die vorm van die kelk van 'n lelie. Dit kon ses en sestig kiloliter bevat. 6Hy het tien waskomme gemaak en vyf aan die regterkant en vyf aan die linkerkant gesit. Daarin spoel hulle die offergereedskap af. Die waterbak is vir die priesters om in te was. 7Hy het tien goue kandelaars gemaak volgens voorskrif en hulle in die voorste heiligdom gesit, vyf aan die regterkant en vyf aan die linkerkant. 8Hy het tien tafels gemaak en in die voorste heiligdom gesit, vyf aan die regterkant en vyf aan die linkerkant. Hy het honderd goue komme vir besprinkeling gemaak. 9Hy het die voorhof van die priesters ingerig en die groot binneruimte, met deure vir die binneruimte. Albei se deure het hy met brons oorgetrek. 10Die waterbak het hy aan die regterkant, suidoos van die tempel, opgestel. 11Hiram het die potte, die skoppe en die komme vir besprinkeling gemaak. So het hy die werk afgehandel wat hy vir koning Salomo aan die tempel van God moes doen: 12die twee pilare met die komvormige skywe en die kapitele bo-aan die twee pilare, en ook die roosters om die twee skywe van die kapitele bo-aan die pilare toe te maak; 13die vier honderd granate vir die twee roosters, 'n dubbele ry granate vir elke rooster om die skywe van die kapitele bo-op die pilare toe te maak. 14Hy het ook die waentjies en die waskomme op die waentjies gemaak, 15die waterbak met die twaalf beeste daaronder, 16die potte, skoppe en vurke. Al die nodige toerusting het die meestervakman Hiram vir koning Salomo vir die huis van die Here vervaardig van gepoleerde brons. 17Die koning het hulle in die omgewing van die Jordaan, tussen Sukkot en Saretan, in kleivorms laat giet. 18Salomo het so 'n groot hoeveelheid van al hierdie goed laat maak dat die brons nie geweeg kon word nie. 19Salomo het ook al die toerusting vir die tempel van God laat maak: die goue altaar, die tafels vir die offerbrood; 20die kandelaars met die lampe wat volgens voorskrif voor die binneste heiligdom aan die brand gehou moes word, alles van suiwer goud; 21die blomkelke, die lampe en die goue pithouers, alles heeltemal van goud; [22]die skêre, die komme vir die besprinkeling, die panne en die vuurbakke, alles van suiwer goud. Ook die ingang van die tempel, sy deure, die binnekant van die Allerheiligste en die deure van die voorste heiligdom was van goud.

2Chronicles 5

2Ch 5:1 When King Solomon finished all the work on the Temple, he placed in the Temple storerooms all the things that his father David had dedicated to the LORD—the silver, gold, and other articles.

The Ark Brought to the Temple

2Ch 5:2 Then King Solomon summoned all the leaders of the tribes and clans of Israel to assemble in Jerusalem, in order to take the LORD's Covenant Box from Zion, David's City, to the Temple.

2Ch 5:3 They all assembled at the time of the Festival of Shelters.

2Ch 5:4 When all the leaders had gathered, then the Levites lifted the Covenant Box

2Ch 5:5 and carried it to the Temple. The priests and the Levites also moved the Tent of the LORD's presence and all its equipment to the Temple.

2Ch 5:6 King Solomon and all the people of Israel assembled in front of the Covenant Box and sacrificed a large number of sheep and cattle —too many to count.

2Ch 5:7 Then the priests carried the Covenant Box of the LORD into the Temple and put it in the Most Holy Place, beneath the winged creatures.

2Ch 5:8 Their outstretched wings covered the Box and the poles it was carried by.

2Ch 5:9 The ends of the poles could be seen by anyone standing directly in front of the Most Holy Place, but from nowhere else. (The poles are still there today.)

2Ch 5:10 There was nothing inside the Covenant Box except the two stone tablets which Moses had placed there at Mount Sinai, when the LORD made a covenant with the people of Israel as they were coming from Egypt.

2Ch 5:11 (11-14) All the priests present, regardless of the group to which they belonged, had consecrated themselves. And all the Levite musicians—Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun, and the members of their clans—were wearing linen clothing. The Levites stood near the east side of the altar with cymbals and harps, and with them were 120 priests playing trumpets. The singers were accompanied in perfect harmony by trumpets, cymbals, and other instruments, as they praised the LORD singing: "Praise the LORD, because he is good, And his love is eternal." As the priests were leaving the Temple, it was suddenly filled with a cloud shining with the dazzling light of the LORD's presence, and they could not continue the service of worship.

II KRONIEKE 5

1Nadat al die werk wat Salomo aan die huis van die Here gedoen het, afgehandel is, het hy die besondere wydingsgeskenke van Dawid, sy pa, ingebring. Die silwer en goud en al die toebehore het hy in die voorraadkamers van die tempel van God gesit. 2Daarna het Salomo die leiers van Israel, die stamhoofde en die Israelitiese familiehoofde in Jerusalem bymekaargeroep om die verbondsark van die Here uit Sion, die Dawidstad, te laat uitbring. 3Al die manne van Israel het by die koning bymekaargekom op die feesdag in die sewende maand. 4Nadat al die leiers van Israel gekom het, het die Leviete die ark opgetel 5en die ark, die tent van ontmoeting en al die toebehore van die heiligdom wat in die tent was, gedra. Die Levitiese priesters het dit gedra. 6Koning Salomo en die hele gemeente van Israel wat saam met hom voor die ark was, het soveel kleinvee en beeste geoffer dat dit nie getel of bereken kon word nie. 7Toe het die priesters die verbondsark van die Here na sy plek toe gebring onder die vlerke van die gerubs in die binneste heiligdom van die tempel, dit is die Allerheiligste. 8Die gerubs se vlerke was oopgesprei oor die staanplek van die ark. Hulle het die ark en sy draaghoute aan die bokant bedek. 9Die draaghoute was so lank dat hulle punte by die ark verby gesteek het aan die voorkant van die binneste heiligdom, maar hulle kon nie van buite af gesien word nie. Hulle is vandag nog daar. 10Daar was niks in die ark nie behalwe die twee plat klippe wat Moses by Horeb gemaak het toe die Here by die uittog van die Israeliete uit Egipte met hulle 'n verbond gesluit het. 11Al die aanwesige priesters het hulle gereinig, ongeag hulle diensbeurte. Toe die priesters uit die heiligdom uitkom, 12het die Levitiese sangers oos van die altaar reggestaan met simbale, harpe en liere. Hulle was almal daar: Asaf, Heman en Jedutun met hulle volgelinge en ampsgenote. Hulle het hulle linneklere aangehad, en by hulle was omtrent honderd en twintig priesters, trompetblasers. 13Presies gelyk, soos een man, het die trompetblasers en die sangers die lof en dank aan die Here laat weerklink. Die klank van trompette, simbale, allerhande instrumente en die loflied ter ere van die Here het opgeklink: Want Hy is goed, aan sy liefde is daar geen einde nie. Op daardie oomblik het 'n wolk die huis van die Here gevul. 14Daarom kon die priesters nie vir diens aantree nie. Dit was die magtige teenwoordigheid van die Here wat die tempel van God gevul het.

2Chronicles 6

Solomon Blesses the People

2Ch 6:1 Then King Solomon prayed, "LORD, you have chosen to live in clouds and darkness.

2Ch 6:2 Now I have built a majestic temple for you, a place for you to live in forever."

2Ch 6:3 All the people of Israel were standing there. The king turned to face them and asked God's blessing on them.

2Ch 6:4 He said, "Praise the LORD God of Israel! He has kept the promise he made to my father David when he said to him, 2Ch 6:5 'From the time I brought my people out of Egypt until now, I did not choose any city in the land of Israel as the place to build a temple where I would be worshiped, and I did not choose anyone to lead my people Israel.

2Ch 6:6 But now I have chosen Jerusalem as the place where I will be worshiped, and you, David, to rule my people.' "

2Ch 6:7 And Solomon continued, "My father David planned to build a temple for the worship of the LORD God of Israel,

2Ch 6:8 but the LORD said to him, 'You were right in wanting to build a temple for me,

2Ch 6:9 but you will never build it. It is your son, your own son, who will build my temple.'

2Ch 6:10 "Now the LORD has kept his promise: I have succeeded my father as king of Israel, and I have built a temple for the worship of the LORD God of Israel.

2Ch 6:11 I have placed in the Temple the Covenant Box, which contains the stone tablets of the covenant which the LORD made with the people of Israel."

Solomon's Prayer of Dedication

2Ch 6:12 Then in the presence of the people Solomon went and stood in front of the altar and raised his arms in prayer.

2Ch 6:13 (Solomon had made a bronze platform and put it in the middle of the courtyard. It was eight feet square and five feet high. He mounted this platform, knelt down where everyone could see him, and raised his hands toward heaven.)

2Ch 6:14 He prayed, " LORD God of Israel, in all heaven and earth there is no god like you. You keep your covenant with your people and show them your love when they live in wholehearted obedience to you.

2Ch 6:15 You have kept the promise you made to my father David; today every word has been fulfilled.

2Ch 6:16 Now, LORD God of Israel, keep the other promise you made to my father when you told him that there would always be one of his descendants ruling as king of Israel, provided that they carefully obeyed your Law just as he did.

2Ch 6:17 So now, LORD God of Israel, let everything come true that you promised to your servant David.

2Ch 6:18 "But can you, O God, really live on earth among men and women? Not even all of heaven is large enough to hold you, so how can this Temple that I have built be large enough?

2Ch 6:19 LORD my God, I am your servant. Listen to my prayer and grant the requests I make to you.

2Ch 6:20 Watch over this Temple day and night. You have promised that this is where you will be worshiped, so hear me when I face this Temple and pray.

2Ch 6:21 Hear my prayers and the prayers of your people Israel when they face this place and pray. In your home in heaven hear us and forgive us.

2Ch 6:22 "When people are accused of wronging others and are brought to your altar in this Temple to take an oath that they are innocent, 2Ch 6:23 O LORD, listen in heaven and judge your servants. Punish the guilty ones as they deserve and acquit the innocent.

2Ch 6:24 "When your people Israel are defeated by their enemies because they have sinned against you and then when they turn to you and come to this Temple, humbly praying to you for forgiveness,

2Ch 6:25 listen to them in heaven. Forgive the sins of your people and bring them back to the land which you gave to them and to their ancestors.

2Ch 6:26 "When you hold back the rain because your people have sinned against you and then when they repent and face this Temple, humbly praying to you,

2Ch 6:27 O LORD, listen to them in heaven and forgive the sins of your servants, the people of Israel, and teach them to do what is right. Then, O LORD, send rain on this land of yours, which you gave to your people as a permanent possession.

2Ch 6:28 "When there is famine in the land or an epidemic or the crops are destroyed by scorching winds or swarms of locusts, or when your people are attacked by their enemies, or when there is disease or sickness among them,

2Ch 6:29 listen to their prayers. If any of your people Israel, out of heartfelt sorrow, stretch out their hands in prayer toward this Temple,

2Ch 6:30 hear their prayer. Listen to them in your home in heaven and forgive them. You alone know the thoughts of the human heart. Deal with each of us as we deserve, 2Ch 6:31 so that your people may honor you and obey you all the time they live in the land which you gave to our ancestors.

2Ch 6:32 "When foreigners who live in a distant land hear how great and powerful you are and how you are always ready to act, and then they come to pray at this Temple,

2Ch 6:33 listen to their prayers. In heaven, where you live, hear them and do what they ask you to do, so that all the peoples of the world may know you and obey you, as your people Israel do. Then they will know that this Temple I have built is where you are to be worshiped.

2Ch 6:34 "When you command your people to go into battle against their enemies and they pray to you, wherever they are, facing this city which you have chosen and this Temple which I have built for you,

2Ch 6:35 listen to their prayers. Hear them in heaven and give them victory.

2Ch 6:36 "When your people sin against you—and there is no one who does not sin—and in your anger you let their enemies defeat them and take them as prisoners to some other land, even if that land is far away,

2Ch 6:37 listen to your people's prayers. If there in that land they repent and pray to you, confessing how sinful and wicked they have been, hear their prayers, O LORD.

2Ch 6:38 If in that land they truly and sincerely repent and pray to you as they face toward this land which you gave to our ancestors, this city which you have chosen, and this Temple which I have built for you, 2Ch 6:39 then listen to their prayers. In your home in heaven hear them and be merciful to them and forgive all the sins of your people.

2Ch 6:40 "Now, O my God, look on us and listen to the prayers offered in this place.

2Ch 6:41 Rise up now, LORD God, and with the Covenant Box, the symbol of your power, enter the Temple and stay here forever. Bless your priests in all they do, and may all your people be happy because of your goodness to them.

2Ch 6:42 LORD God, do not reject the king you have chosen. Remember the love you had for your servant David."

II KRONIEKE 6

1Toe het Salomo gesê: Die Here het gesê Hy wil in duisternis woon. 2Daarom het ek vir U 'n waardige huis gebou, 'n verblyf waar U altyd kan woon. 3Daarna het die koning sy gesig na die hele gemeente van Israel toe gedraai en die hele gemeente van Israel geseën terwyl hulle daar staan. 4Hy het gesê: Geloof sy die Here die God van Israel wat aan my vader Dawid 'n belofte gedoen het en dit deur sy mag vervul het. Die woorde van die Here was: 5Van die dag af dat Ek my volk uit Egipte gebring het, het Ek uit al die stamgebiede van Israel nie 'n stad gekies waar 'n tempel gebou kan word sodat my Naam daar kan wees nie en het Ek ook nie iemand gekies om heerser oor my volk Israel te wees nie, 6totdat Ek Jerusalem gekies het sodat my Naam daar kan wees, en vir Dawid sodat hy oor my volk Israel kon regeer.' 7My vader Dawid was van voorneme om 'n tempel te bou vir die Naam van die Here die God van Israel, 8maar die Here het vir my vader Dawid gesê: Dat dit jou voorneme is om 'n tempel vir my Naam te bou dit is goed dat jy die voorneme het. 9Maar nie jý sal die tempel bou nie; jou seun wat uit jou voortgekom het, hý sal die tempel vir my Naam bou.' 10Die Here het die belofte wat Hy gemaak het, nagekom. Ek het my vader Dawid se plek geneem en op die troon van Israel gekom soos die Here beloof het. Die tempel vir die Naam van die Here die God van Israel het ek gebou 11en die ark waarin die verbond van die Here is wat Hy met die Israeliete gesluit het, het ek daar gesit. 12Toe gaan staan Salomo regoor die altaar van die Here, voor die hele gemeente van Israel, en strek sy hande uit. 13Hy het op 'n bronsverhoog gestaan wat hy gemaak het en in die voorhof gesit het. Dit was twee en 'n half meter lank, twee en 'n half meter breed, een en 'n half meter hoog. Hy het daarop gaan staan en toe kniel hy voor die hele gemeente van Israel en strek sy hande uit na die hemel toe 14en sê: Here, God van Israel, in die hemel of op die aarde is daar nie nog 'n God soos U nie. U hou U aan die verbond en U bly getrou teenoor u dienaars wat met volle oorgawe voor U lewe. 15U het U gehou aan wat U u dienaar, my vader Dawid, beloof het. U het die belofte gemaak en dit so, soos dit vandag is, deur u woord en u mag vervul. 16Here, God van Israel, bly dan nou by wat U u dienaar, my vader Dawid, beloof het toe U gesê het: Ek sal sorg dat daar altyd iemand uit jou nageslag op die troon van Israel sal wees mits jou nakomelinge let op hulle optrede en volgens my woord lewe, soos jy gemaak het. 17Here, God van Israel, laat die belofte wat U aan u dienaar Dawid gedoen het, ook verder vas staan. 18Sou God werklik by die mens op die aarde woon? Die hemel, selfs die hoogste hemel, kan U nie bevat nie, hoe dan nog hierdie tempel wat ek gebou het! 19Hoor tog, Here my God, die gebed van u

dienaar, hoor sy smeking, luister na die hulpgeroep, die gebed wat u dienaar tot U rig. [20]Hou hierdie tempel dag en nag onder u sorg, die plek waarvan U gesê het dat U u Naam daar wil vestig, sodat U die gebed kan hoor wat 'n dienaar van U na hierdie plek toe bid. [21]Hoor tog die smeekbedes van u dienaar en u volk Israel wat hulle na hierdie plek toe bid, hoor dit tog uit u hemelse woonplek, en wanneer U dit hoor, vergewe tog! [22]As iemand sy naaste kwaad aandoen en dié hom 'n eedverpligting oplê om hom onder 'n vloek te plaas, en hy kom en spreek die eed uit voor u altaar in hierdie tempel, [23]luister tog uit die hemel en gryp in en vel die beslissing oor u dienaars sodat die skuldige die straf vir sy dade ondergaan en die onskuldige gelyk gegee word soos dit by sy onskuld pas. [24]As u volk Israel deur 'n vyand verslaan word omdat hulle teen U gesondig het en hulle kom tot inkeer en bely u Naam en bid tot U in hierdie huis en smeek U, [25]luister tog uit die hemel en vergeef u volk Israel se sonde en laat hulle terugkom na die land wat U aan hulle en hulle voorvaders gegee het. [26]Wanneer die hemele toegesluit bly en daar nie reën is nie omdat hulle teen U sondig, en hulle bid na hierdie plek toe en bely u Naam terwyl hulle hulle van hulle sonde bekeer en vra dat U hulle gebed sal verhoor, [27]luister tog uit die hemel en vergeef u dienaars en u volk Israel se sonde en gee reën op u land wat U aan u volk as besitting gegee het. So leer U hulle die goeie weg wat hulle moet bewandel. [28]Sou daar hongersnood in die land kom, sou daar pes uitbreek, brandkoring of roes, swerms sprinkane en voetgangers, sou dit gebeur dat die volk se vyande hom in sy stede hier in die land beleër, watter plaag of siekte hom ook al tref, [29]luister tog na elke gebed, elke smeking wat van enige mens of van u hele volk Israel mag kom soos elkeen sy plaag en sy smart te kenne gee en sy hande na hierdie tempel toe uitstrek; [30]luister tog uit die hemel, u woonplek, en vergeef en gee aan elkeen wat hy verdien soos U sy hart ken, want net U ken die mens se hart, [31]sodat hulle aan U gehoorsaam sal wees en u weg sal bewandel die hele tyd dat hulle in die land leef wat U aan ons voorvaders gegee het. [32]Luister ook na die vreemdeling wat nie uit u volk Israel is nie en, omdat hy gehoor het van u groot Naam, u mag en krag, selfs uit 'n ver land kom en na hierdie tempel toe bid. [33]Luister tog uit die hemel, u woonplek, en doen alles wat die vreemdeling U in sy gebed vra, sodat al die volke van die aarde u Naam kan ken en ook aan U gehoorsaam kan wees net soos u volk Israel, en dat hulle kan weet u Naam is uitgeroep oor hierdie tempel wat ek gebou het. [34]Sou u volk teen sy vyande uittrek in 'n oorlog wat deur U beveel is, en hulle bid tot U in die rigting van hierdie stad wat U gekies het en die huis wat ek vir u Naam gebou het, [35]luister tog uit die hemel na hulle gebed en hulle smeking en gee hulle die oorwinning. [36]Sou hulle teen U sondig, want daar is nie 'n mens wat nie sondig nie, en U in u verontwaardiging hulle aan 'n vyand oorgee sodat hulle as gevangenes weggevoer word na 'n land, ver of naby, [37]en hulle daar in dié land waar hulle gevangenes is, tot inkeer kom en hulle weer tot U wend en U daar in die land van hulle gevangenskap smekend aanroep: Ons het gesondig, ons het verkeerd gedoen, ons is skuldig', [38]en hulle tot U wend met hart en siel in die land van hulle gevangenskap en hulle bid in die rigting van hulle land wat U aan hulle voorvaders gegee het en van die stad wat deur U gekies is en die tempel wat ek vir u Naam gebou het, [39]luister tog uit die hemel, uit u woonplek, na hulle gebed en smeking en neem hulle straf weg en vergeef u volk wat teen U gesondig het. [40]My God, hou dan nou hierdie plek onder u sorg en verhoor tog elke gebed hiervandaan. [41]Kom dan nou na u rusplek toe, Here God, U en u magtige ark. Laat u priesters, Here God, onder die beskerming van u hulp lewe, en laat u troue dienaars hulle verheug in die goeie dinge. [42]Here God, hou u gesalfde onder u sorg. Dink aan wat U toegesê het aan u dienaar Dawid.

2Chronicles 7

Fire from Heaven

2Ch 7:1 When King Solomon finished his prayer, fire came down from heaven and burned up the sacrifices that had been offered, and the dazzling light of the LORD's presence filled the Temple.

2Ch 7:2 Because the Temple was full of the dazzling light, the priests could not enter it.

2Ch 7:3 When the people of Israel saw the fire fall from heaven and the light fill the Temple, they fell face downward on the pavement, worshiping God and praising him for his goodness and his eternal love.

The Dedication of the Temple

2Ch 7:4 Then Solomon and all the people offered sacrifices to the LORD.

2Ch 7:5 He sacrificed 22,000 head of cattle and 120,000 sheep as fellowship offerings. And so he and all the people dedicated the Temple.

2Ch 7:6 The priests stood in the places that were assigned to them, and facing them stood the Levites, praising the LORD with the musical instruments that King David had provided and singing the hymn, "His Love Is Eternal!" as they had been commissioned by David. The priests blew trumpets while all the people stood.

2Ch 7:7 Solomon consecrated the central part of the courtyard, the area in front of the Temple, and then offered there the sacrifices burned whole, the grain offerings, and the fat from the fellowship offerings. He did this because the bronze altar which he had made was too small for all these offerings.

2Ch 7:8 Solomon and all the people of Israel celebrated the Festival of Shelters for seven days. There was a huge crowd of people from as far away as Hamath Pass in the north and the Egyptian border in the south.

2Ch 7:9 They had spent seven days for the dedication of the altar and then seven more days for the festival. On the last day they had a closing celebration, 2Ch 7:10 and on the following day, the twenty-third day of the seventh month, Solomon sent the people home. They were happy about all the blessings that the LORD had given to his people Israel, to David, and to Solomon.

If My People Pray

2Ch 7:11 After King Solomon had finished the Temple and the palace, successfully completing all his plans for them, 2Ch 7:12 the LORD appeared to him at night. He said to him, "I have heard your prayer, and I accept this Temple as the place where sacrifices are to be offered to me.

2Ch 7:13 Whenever I hold back the rain or send locusts to eat up the crops or send an epidemic on my people, 2Ch 7:14 if they pray to me and repent and turn away from the evil they have been doing, then I will hear them in heaven, forgive their sins, and make their land prosperous again.

2Ch 7:15 I will watch over this Temple and be ready to hear all the prayers that are offered here, 2Ch 7:16 because I have chosen it and consecrated it as the place where I will be worshiped forever. I will watch over it and protect it for all time.

2Ch 7:17 If you serve me faithfully as your father David did, obeying my laws and doing everything I have commanded you, 2Ch 7:18 I will keep the promise I made to your father David when I told him that Israel would always be ruled by his descendants.

2Ch 7:19 But if you and your people ever disobey the laws and commands I have given you and worship other gods, 2Ch 7:20 then I will remove you from the land that I gave you, and I will abandon this Temple that I have consecrated as the place where I am to be worshiped. People everywhere will ridicule it and treat it with contempt.

2Ch 7:21 "The Temple is now greatly honored, but then everyone who passes by it will be amazed and will ask, 'Why did the LORD do this to this land and this Temple?'

2Ch 7:22 People will answer, 'It is because they abandoned the LORD their God, who brought their ancestors out of Egypt. They gave their allegiance to other gods and worshiped them. That is why the LORD has brought this disaster on them.' "

II KRONIEKE 7

1Toe Salomo klaar gebid het, het daar vuur uit die hemel gekom en die brandoffers en ander diereoffers verteer, en die magtige teenwoordigheid van die Here het die tempel gevul. 2Die priesters kon nie in die huis van die Here ingaan nie, so het sy magtige teenwoordigheid sy huis gevul. 3Toe al die Israeliete sien dat die vuur en die magtige teenwoordigheid van die Here op die tempel af kom, het hulle op die plaveisel gekniel. Hulle het in eerbetoon gebuig en die Here geloof: Want Hy is goed, aan sy liefde is daar geen einde nie. 4Die koning en die hele volk het vir die Here offerandes gebring. 5Koning Salomo het twee en twintig duisend beeste en honderd en twintig duisend stuks kleinvee geoffer. So het die koning en die hele volk die tempel van God ingewy. 6Die priesters het op hulle poste gestaan en so ook die Leviete met die instrumente vir die lied tot die eer van die Here. Koning Dawid het die instrumente laat maak om die Here te loof: Aan sy liefde is daar geen einde nie. So was die lofsang van Dawid in die Leviete se hande. Regoor hulle het die priesters die trompette geblaas en die hele Israel het daar gestaan. 7Salomo het die middelgedeelte van die voorhof wat reg voor die huis van die Here is, gewy, want dit is waar hy die brandoffers en die vetgedeeltes van die maaltydoffers verbrand het. Op die bronsaltaar wat hy gemaak het, was daar nie plek vir die brandoffers en die graanoffers en die vetgedeeltes nie. 8Salomo, en die hele Israel saam met hom wat gekom het uit die hele land, van Lebo-Hamat af tot by Egiptespruit, 'n baie groot gemeente, het destyds sewe dae lank fees gehou. 9Op die agste dag na die inwyding van die altaar wat sewe dae lank gevier is, het hulle 'n feestelike byeenkoms gehou. Die huttefees daarna het ook sewe dae geduur. 10Eers op die drie en twintigste van die sewende maand het Salomo die volk terug laat gaan huis toe, bly en gelukkig oor die goeie dinge wat die Here gedoen het aan Dawid, Salomo en sy volk Israel. 11So het Salomo dan die huis van die Here en die koninklike paleis voltooi. Alles wat Salomo onderneem het aan die huis van die Here en aan sy eie paleis, is voorspoedig afgehandel. 12Daarna verskyn die Here een nag aan Salomo en sê vir hom: Ek het jou gebed verhoor en hierdie plek vir My gekies as die plek waar daar vir My offerandes gebring kan word. 13As Ek die hemel gesluit hou sodat daar geen reën is nie, of as Ek die sprinkaan beveel om die land kaal te vreet, of as Ek pes onder my volk stuur, 14en my volk oor wie my Naam uitgeroep is, toon berou en bid en vra na my wil en draai terug van hulle bose weë af, sal Ek luister uit die hemel en hulle sonde vergewe en hulle land laat herstel. 15Ek sal hierdie plek nou onder my sorg neem en ontvanklik wees vir elke gebed hiervandaan. 16En nou kies Ek en heilig Ek hierdie tempel sodat my Naam altyd daar sal wees, en dit altyd my sorg en my liefde sal geniet. [17]En jy, as jy soos jou vader Dawid leef volgens my wil en alles doen wat Ek jou beveel, en my voorskrifte en bepalings nakom, [18]sal Ek jou heerskappy bestendig. So het Ek met jou vader Dawid ooreengekom: Nooit sal dit jou ontbreek aan iemand om oor Israel te regeer nie. [19]Maar as julle wegdraai en my voorskrifte en my gebooie wat Ek julle gegee het, verontagsaam en julle gaan dien ander gode en buig voor hulle, [20]sal Ek julle wegdryf uit my land wat Ek julle gegee het, en sal Ek hierdie tempel wat Ek vir my Naam geheilig het, voor My wegvee. Ek sal daarvan 'n spot en 'n skimp maak onder al die volke. [21]Ja, hoe verhewe hierdie tempel ook al was vir elke verbyganger, die verbyganger sal dan sy asem intrek en sê: Waarom het die Here dit gedoen aan dié land en dié tempel?' [22]En die mense sal sê: Omdat daardie volk vergeet het van die Here die God van hulle voorvaders, wat hulle uit Egipte gebring het. Hulle het hulle aan ander gode verbind en voor hulle gebuig en hulle gedien. Daarom het Hy al hierdie groot rampe oor sy volk gebring.

2Chronicles 8

Solomon's Accomplishments

2Ch 8:1 It took Solomon twenty years to build the Temple and his palace.

2Ch 8:2 He also rebuilt the cities that King Hiram had given him, and sent Israelites to settle in them.

2Ch 8:3 He captured the territory of Hamath and Zobah

2Ch 8:4 and fortified the city of Palmyra in the desert. He rebuilt all the cities in Hamath that were centers for storing supplies.

2Ch 8:5 Solomon also rebuilt the following cities: Upper Beth Horon and Lower Beth Horon (fortified cities with gates that could be barred), 2Ch 8:6 the city of Baalath, all the cities where he stored supplies, and the cities where his horses and chariots were stationed. He carried out all his plans for building in Jerusalem, in Lebanon, and throughout the territory that he ruled over.

2Ch 8:7 (7-8) Solomon employed at forced labor all the descendants of the people of Canaan whom the Israelites had not killed when they took possession of the land. These included Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, whose descendants continue to be slaves down to the present time.

2Ch 8:9 Israelites were not used at forced labor, but served as soldiers, officers, chariot commanders, and cavalry troops.

2Ch 8:10 There were 250 officials in charge of the forced labor working on the various building projects.

2Ch 8:11 Solomon moved his wife, the daughter of the king of Egypt, from David's City to a house he built for her. He said, "She must not live in the palace of King David of Israel, because any place where the Covenant Box has been is holy."

2Ch 8:12 Solomon offered sacrifices to the LORD on the altar which he had built in front of the Temple.

2Ch 8:13 He offered burnt offerings according to the requirements of the Law of Moses for each holy day: Sabbaths, New Moon Festivals, and the three annual festivals—the Festival of Unleavened Bread, the Harvest Festival, and the Festival of Shelters.

2Ch 8:14 Following the rules laid down by his father David, he organized the daily work of the priests and of the Levites who assisted the priests in singing hymns and in doing their work. He also organized the Temple guards in sections for performing their daily duties at each gate, in accordance with the commands of David, the man of God.

2Ch 8:15 The instructions which David had given the priests and the Levites concerning the storehouses and other matters were carried out in detail.

2Ch 8:16 By this time all of Solomon's projects had been completed. From the laying of the foundation of the LORD's Temple to its completion, all the work had been successful.

2Ch 8:17 Then Solomon went to Eziongeber and Elath, ports on the shore of the Gulf of Aqaba, in the land of Edom.

2Ch 8:18 King Hiram sent him ships under the command of his own officers and with experienced sailors. They sailed with Solomon's officers to the land of Ophir and brought back to Solomon about sixteen tons of gold.

II KRONIEKE 8

1Na afloop van die twintig jaar waarin Salomo die huis van die Here en sy eie paleis gebou het, 2het hy die stede wat Hiram aan hom oorgedra het, weer opgebou en Israeliete daar gevestig. 3Hy het na Hamat-Soba toe gegaan en dié ingeneem. 4Hy het Tadmor in die woestyn versterk, en ook al die voorraadstede wat hy in Hamat gebou het. 5Hy het Bet-Goron-Bo en Bet-Goron-Onder herbou, vestingstede met mure, poortdeure en sluitbalke; 6net so ook Baälat en al die voorraadstede wat hy besit het, die stede vir die strydwamagte en die berede magte. Verder het hy al die bouwerk waarop hy besluit het, voltooi in Jerusalem, op die Libanon en dwarsdeur die land waaroor hy geregeer het. 7Salomo het al die nie-Israeliete, die mense wat nog oor was van die Hetiete, Amoriete, Feresiete, Hewiete en Jebusiete, 8afstammelinge van dié wat nie deur die Israeliete uitgeroei is nie en nog oor was in die land, dwangarbeid laat doen. Dit is vandag nog so. 9Salomo het nie die Israeliete as arbeiders gebruik vir sy projekte nie, want hulle was die soldate en die aanvoerders van sy strydwabemannings, sy strydwamag en sy berede mag. 10Daar was ook nog die volgende getal uitvoerende beamptes oor wie koning Salomo beskik het: twee honderd en vyftig wat gesag oor die volk uitgeoefen het. 11Salomo het die dogter van die farao uit die Dawidstad laat trek na die paleis toe wat hy vir haar gebou het, want, het hy gesê, 'n vrou van my kan nie in die paleis van koning Dawid van Israel woon nie; dit is 'n heiligdom, want die ark van die Here het daar gestaan. 12Salomo het brandoffers vir die Here gebring op die altaar van die Here wat hy reg voor die voorportaal gebou het. 13Die offers is gebring soos dit van dag tot dag moes gebeur volgens die voorskrif van Moses: op die sabbatte, die nuwemaansfeeste en die feestye drie maal per jaar, naamlik die fees van die ongesuurde brood, die fees van die weke en die huttefees. 14Salomo het, volgens die orde wat sy vader Dawid vasgestel het, vir die priesterafdeling hulle dienste bepaal en vir die Leviete hulle diensbeurte met die oog op die lofsang en die bystand aan die priesters soos dit van dag tot dag nodig was; so ook vir die afdelings poortwagte by elke poort. Dit is immers hoe Dawid, die man van God, dit voorgeskryf het. 15Hulle het ook nie afgewyk van die koninklike voorskrif vir die priesters en die Leviete ten opsigte van alles in verband met die voorraadkamers nie. 16So is al Salomo se werk afgehandel, van die dag af dat die fondamente van die huis van die Here gelê is totdat Salomo die tempel voltooi het. 17Daarna is Salomo na Esjon-Geber en na Elat toe, aan die see by Edom. 18Hiram het vir hom skepe gestuur en ervare seemanne onder bevel van hulle eie offisiere. Hulle het met die manne van Salomo saamgegaan na Ofir toe en daar sowat vyftien en 'n half ton goud vir koning Salomo gaan haal.

2Chronicles 9

The Queen of Sheba

2Ch 9:1 The queen of Sheba heard of King Solomon's fame, and she traveled to Jerusalem to test him with difficult questions. She brought with her a large group of attendants, as well as camels loaded with spices, jewels, and a large amount of gold. When she and Solomon met, she asked him all the questions that she could think of.

2Ch 9:2 He answered them all; there was nothing too difficult for him to explain.

2Ch 9:3 The queen of Sheba heard Solomon's wisdom and saw the palace he had built.

2Ch 9:4 She saw the food that was served at his table, the living quarters for his officials, the organization of his palace staff and the uniforms they wore, the clothing of the servants who waited on him at feasts, and the sacrifices he offered in the Temple. It left her breathless and amazed.

2Ch 9:5 She said to the king, "What I heard in my own country about you and your wisdom is true!

2Ch 9:6 I did not believe what they told me until I came and saw for myself. I had not heard of even half your wisdom. You are even wiser than people say.

2Ch 9:7 How fortunate are those who serve you, who are always in your presence and are privileged to hear your wise sayings!

2Ch 9:8 Praise the LORD your God! He has shown how pleased he is with you by making you king, to rule in his name. Because he loves his people Israel and wants to preserve them forever, he has made you their king so that you can maintain law and justice."

2Ch 9:9 She presented to King Solomon the gifts she had brought: almost five tons of gold and a very large amount of spices and jewels. There have never been any other spices as fine as those that the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

2Ch 9:10 (The sailors of King Hiram and of King Solomon who brought gold from Ophir also brought juniper wood and jewels.

2Ch 9:11 Solomon used the wood to make stairs for the Temple and for his palace, and to make harps and lyres for the musicians. Nothing like that had ever been seen before in the land of Judah.)

2Ch 9:12 King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba everything she asked for. This was in addition to what he gave her in exchange for the gifts she brought to him. Then she and her attendants returned to the land of Sheba.

Solomon's Wealth

2Ch 9:13 Every year King Solomon received over twenty-five tons of gold, 2Ch 9:14 in addition to the taxes paid by the traders and merchants. The kings of Arabia and the governors of the Israelite districts also brought him silver and gold.

2Ch 9:15 Solomon made two hundred large shields, each of which was covered with about fifteen pounds of beaten gold, 2Ch 9:16 and three hundred smaller shields, each covered with about eight pounds of beaten gold. He had them all placed in the Hall of the Forest of Lebanon.

2Ch 9:17 The king also had a large throne made. Part of it was covered with ivory and the rest of it was covered with pure gold.

2Ch 9:18 Six steps led up to the throne, and there was a footstool attached to it, covered with gold. There were arms on each side of the throne, and the figure of a lion stood at each side.

2Ch 9:19 Twelve figures of lions were on the steps, one at either end of each step. No throne like this had ever existed in any other kingdom.

2Ch 9:20 All of King Solomon's drinking cups were made of gold, and all the utensils in the Hall of the Forest of Lebanon were of pure gold. Silver was not considered valuable in Solomon's day.

2Ch 9:21 He had a fleet of ocean-going ships sailing with King Hiram's fleet. Every three years his fleet would return, bringing gold, silver, ivory, apes, and monkeys.

2Ch 9:22 King Solomon was richer and wiser than any other king in the world.

2Ch 9:23 They all consulted him, to hear the wisdom that God had given him.

2Ch 9:24 Each of them brought Solomon gifts—articles of silver and gold, robes, weapons, spices, horses, and mules. This continued year after year.

2Ch 9:25 King Solomon also had four thousand stalls for his chariots and horses, and had twelve thousand cavalry horses. Some of them he kept in Jerusalem and the rest he stationed in various other cities.

2Ch 9:26 He was supreme ruler of all the kings in the territory from the Euphrates River to Philistia and the Egyptian border.

2Ch 9:27 During his reign silver was as common in Jerusalem as stone, and cedar was as plentiful as ordinary sycamore in the foothills of Judah.

2Ch 9:28 Solomon imported horses from Musri and from every other country.

Solomon's Death

2Ch 9:29 The rest of the history of Solomon from beginning to end is recorded in The History of Nathan the Prophet,in The Prophecy of Ahijah of Shiloh,and in The Visions of Iddo the Prophet,which also deal with the reign of King Jeroboam of Israel.

2Ch 9:30 Solomon ruled in Jerusalem over all Israel for forty years.

2Ch 9:31 He died and was buried in David's City, and his son Rehoboam succeeded him as king.

II KRONIEKE 9

1Die koningin van Skeba het gehoor wat van Salomo vertel word en sy het toe self na Jerusalem toe gekom om hom met moeilike vrae te toets. Sy het 'n baie groot gevolg saamgebring en ook kamele wat belaai was met kosbare kruie en 'n groot hoeveelheid goud en edelstene. Toe sy by Salomo kom, het sy met hom oor alles gepraat waaraan sy kon dink, 2en Salomo het vir haar 'n antwoord gehad op al haar vrae. Niks was vir Salomo onverklaarbaar nie: hy kon haar op alles antwoord. 3Die koningin van Skeba het onder die indruk gekom van Salomo se wysheid, die tempel wat hy gebou het, 4die geregte op sy tafel, die manier waarop sy amptenare aangesit het, die bediening deur sy tafelbediendes met hulle monderings, sy skinkers met hulle monderings, en van die optog wanneer hy na die huis van die Here toe opgegaan het. Haar asem het daarvan weggeslaan. 5Sy het vir die koning gesê: Wat ek in my land oor u en u wysheid gehoor het, is waar. 6Ek het nie geglo wat hulle vir my gesê het nie totdat ek gekom en myself oortuig het. Nou weet ek dat nie eers die helfte vir my vertel is oor u groot wysheid nie. U het alles wat ek gehoor het, ver oortref. 7Hoe bevoorreg is u mense en hoe bevoorreg is hierdie amptenare van u dat hulle gedurig in u diens staan en u wysheid aanhoor! 8Geloof sy u God, die Here, wat aan u soveel liefde bewys dat Hy u op sy troon gesit het, 'n koning deur u God, die Here, self aangewys! Dit is omdat u God vir Israel liefhet en die volk altyd in stand wil hou dat Hy u as koning oor hulle aangestel het om die orde en die reg te handhaaf. 9Sy het vir die koning meer as vier ton goud en 'n groot hoeveelheid kosbare kruie en edelstene gegee. Die kruie wat die koningin van Skeba vir koning Salomo gegee het, was meer as wat ooit die land ingekom het. 10Bowendien het die dienaars van Hiram en Salomo wat die goud uit Ofir gebring het, ook nog jenewerhout en edelstene gebring. 11Die koning het die jenewerhout gebruik vir relings by die huis van die Here en by die koninklike paleis, en vir die liere en harpe van die musikante. Die gelyke daarvan is tevore nie in Juda gesien nie. 12Vir die koningin van Skeba het koning Salomo alles gegee wat sy begeer en gevra het, meer selfs as wat sy vir die koning gebring het. Sy is toe terug na haar land toe, sy en haar gevolg. 13Salomo se jaarlikse inkomste aan goud het sowat drie en twintig ton beloop. 14Behalwe wat die reisigers en handelaars ingebring het, het al die konings van Arabië en die Israelitiese goewerneurs ook goud en silwer aan Salomo gelewer. 15Koning Salomo het twee honderd groot skilde van goud gemaak; hy het vir elke skild byna sewe kilogram gebruik. 16Hy het ook nog drie honderd klein skilde van goud gemaak; hier het hy sowat drie en 'n half kilogram vir elke skild gebruik. Die koning het hulle opgestel in die Libanonsbosgebou. 17Verder het die koning 'n groot ivoortroon gemaak en dit met suiwer goud oorgetrek. 18Die troon het ses trappe gehad en 'n voetbank wat met goud aan die troon vasgeheg was. Weerskante van die sitplek was daar armleunings, met 'n leeu langs elkeen. 19Twaalf leeus het op die ses trappe gestaan, ses aan elke kant. Daar is in geen ander koninkryk so iets gemaak nie. 20Al koning Salomo se drinkgerei was van goud. Alles wat in die Libanonsbosgebou gebruik is, was van fyngoud. Silwer is in Salomo se dae nie as iets besonders beskou nie. 21Die koning het 'n vloot gehad wat saam met die dienaars van Hiram na Tarsis toe gevaar het. Om die drie jaar het die Tarsisvloot teruggekom, vol goud en silwer, ivoor, ape en bobbejane. 22Koning Salomo het al die konings van die aarde oortref in rykdom en wysheid. 23Al die konings van die aarde het geprobeer om hom te sien te kry en die wysheid wat God hom gegee het, aan te hoor. 24Elkeen het sy geskenk saamgebring: silwer- en goudware, mantels, wapenrusting, kosbare kruie, perde en muile. So het dit jaar vir jaar gegaan. 25Salomo het vier duisend stalle vir perde en strydwaens gehad en twaalf duisend ruiters. Hy het hulle gestasioneer in die strydwaposte en by die paleis in Jerusalem. 26Hy was opperheerser oor al die konings, van die Eufraat af tot in die land van die Filistyne en tot aan die grens van Egipte. 27Silwer het hy in Jerusalem so alledaags soos klippe gemaak en seders soos die wildevyebome in die Laeveld. 28Perde is vir Salomo uit Egipte en al die lande ingevoer. 29Die res van die verhale oor Salomo, dié van vroeër sowel as dié van later, is opgeteken in Die Verhale van die Profeet Natan, Die Profesieë van Agija van Silo, en Die Gesigte van die Siener Jedi oor Jerobeam seun van Nebat. 30Salomo was veertig jaar koning in Jerusalem oor die hele Israel. 31Hy is oorlede, en hy is begrawe in die familiegraf in die Dawidstad. Sy seun Rehabeam het hom as koning opgevolg.

2Chronicles 10

The Revolt Against Rehoboam

2Ch 10:1 Rehoboam went to Shechem, where all the people of northern Israel had gathered to make him king.

2Ch 10:2 When Jeroboam son of Nebat, who had gone to Egypt to escape from King Solomon, heard this news, he returned home.

2Ch 10:3 The people of the northern tribes sent for him, and they all went together to Rehoboam and said to him,

2Ch 10:4 "Your father placed heavy burdens on us. If you make these burdens lighter and make life easier for us, we will be your loyal subjects."

2Ch 10:5 Rehoboam replied, "Give me three days to consider the matter. Then come back." So the people left.

2Ch 10:6 King Rehoboam consulted the older men who had served as his father Solomon's advisers. "What answer do you advise me to give these people?" he asked.

2Ch 10:7 They replied, "If you are kind to these people and try to please them by giving a considerate answer, they will always serve you loyally."

2Ch 10:8 But he ignored the advice of the older men and went instead to the young men who had grown up with him and who were now his advisers.

2Ch 10:9 "What do you advise me to do?" he asked. "What shall I say to the people who are asking me to make their burdens lighter?"

2Ch 10:10 They replied, "This is what you should tell them: 'My little finger is thicker than my father's waist.'

2Ch 10:11 Tell them, 'My father placed heavy burdens on you; I will make them even heavier. He beat you with whips; I'll flog you with bullwhips!' "

2Ch 10:12 Three days later Jeroboam and all the people returned to King Rehoboam, as he had instructed them.

2Ch 10:13 The king ignored the advice of the older men and spoke harshly to the people,

2Ch 10:14 as the younger men had advised. He said, "My father placed heavy burdens on you; I will make them even heavier. He beat you with whips; I'll flog you with bullwhips!"

2Ch 10:15 It was the will of the LORD God to bring about what he had spoken to Jeroboam son of Nebat through the prophet Ahijah from Shiloh. This is why the king did not pay any attention to the people.

2Ch 10:16 When the people saw that the king would not listen to them, they shouted, "Down with David and his family! What have they ever done for us? People of Israel, let's go home! Let Rehoboam look out for himself !" So the people of Israel rebelled, 2Ch 10:17 leaving Rehoboam as king only of the people who lived in the territory of Judah.

2Ch 10:18 Then King Rehoboam sent Adoniram, who was in charge of the forced labor, to go to the Israelites, but they stoned him to death. At this, Rehoboam hurriedly got in his chariot and escaped to Jerusalem.

2Ch 10:19 Ever since that time the people of the northern kingdom of Israel have been in rebellion against the dynasty of David.

II KRONIEKE 10

1Rehabeam het na Sigem toe gegaan omdat die hele Israel daarheen gekom het om hom tot koning te kroon. 2Jerobeam seun van Nebat was nog in Egipte, waarheen hy vir koning Salomo gevlug het, en toe hy die berig kry, het hy uit Egipte teruggekom. 3Dit was nadat hulle boodskappers gestuur en hom laat roep het. Hy en die hele Israel kom toe na Rehabeam toe en sê vir hom: 4U vader het ons 'n swaar juk laat dra. As u die verpligtinge wat u vader ons opgelê het, minder maak en so die juk ligter maak wat hy ons laat dra het, sal ons u onderdane bly. 5Rehabeam het vir hulle gesê: Kom oor drie dae na my toe terug. Nadat die volk vertrek het, 6het Rehabeam toe die raad gevra van die ouer mense wat in diens van Salomo, sy pa, was tydens dié se lewe. Wat meen julle moet ek hierdie mense antwoord? het hy gevra. 7Hulle het vir hom gesê: As u dit goed bedoel met hierdie volk en hulle tevrede stel en hulle 'n gunstige antwoord gee, sal hulle altyd u onderdane bly. 8Maar hy het die raad wat die ouer mense hom gegee het, in die wind geslaan en die raad gevra van die jonger manne wat saam met hom grootgeword het en in sy diens was: 9Wat meen júlle moet ons hierdie mense antwoord? Hulle het gevra ek moet die juk wat my pa op hulle gelê het, ligter maak. 10Die jongmanne wat saam met hom grootgeword het, het vir hom gesê: U moet die volk soos volg antwoord. Hulle het vir u gesê: U vader het ons 'n swaar juk laat dra, maak u vir ons die juk ligter.' U moet vir hulle sê: My pinkie is dikker as my pa se middellyf. 11My pa het 'n swaar juk op julle laat druk, ek gaan die juk nog swaarder maak. My pa het julle met swepe geslaan, ek sal julle met gesels slaan. 12Toe Jerobeam en die hele volk die derde dag by koning Rehabeam kom volgens sy opdrag Kom oor drie dae na my toe terug, 13het hy hulle dié harde antwoord gegee. Koning Rehabeam het die raad van die ouer mense in die wind geslaan 14en die volk geantwoord volgens die raad van die jonger manne: Ek gaan 'n swaar juk op julle lê, ek gaan dit nog swaarder maak. My pa het julle met swepe geslaan, ek sal julle met gesels slaan. 15Die koning het nie aan die versoek van die volk voldoen nie. Dit was 'n beskikking van die Here God, sodat Hy sy belofte kon hou wat Hy deur Agija van Silo aan Jerobeam seun van Nebat gegee het. 16Toe die Israeliete hoor dat die koning nie aan hulle versoek voldoen het nie, het hulle vir hom gesê: Dawid is nie deel van ons nie; ons het niks aan Isai se seun nie! Elkeen terug na sy woonplek toe, Israel! Kyk nou maar na jou eie huis, Dawid! Die hele Israel is toe terug na sy eie woongebied toe. 17Rehabeam het net koning geword oor die Israeliete wat in die stede van Juda gewoon het. 18Koning Rehabeam het vir Adoniram, wat in bevel van die dwangarbeid was, na Israel toe gestuur, maar die Israeliete het hom met klippe doodgegooi, en koning Rehabeam self het dit net-net reggekry om op sy strydwa te kom en na Jerusalem toe te vlug. [19]So het Israel in opstand gekom teen die koningshuis van Dawid, en dit is vandag nog so.

2Chronicles 11

Rehoboam Secures His Kingdom

2Ch 11:1 When King Rehoboam arrived in Jerusalem, he called together 180,000 of the best soldiers from the tribes of Benjamin and Judah. He intended to go to war and restore his control over the northern tribes of Israel.

2Ch 11:2 But the LORD told the prophet Shemaiah

2Ch 11:3 to give this message to King Rehoboam and to all the people of the tribes of Judah and Benjamin:

2Ch 11:4 "Do not attack your own relatives. Go home, all of you. What has happened is my will." They obeyed the LORD's command and did not go to fight Jeroboam.

2Ch 11:5 Rehoboam remained in Jerusalem and had fortifications built for the following cities of Judah and Benjamin:

2Ch 11:6 Bethlehem, Etam, Tekoa,

2Ch 11:7 Bethzur, Soco, Adullam,

2Ch 11:8 Gath, Mareshah, Ziph,

2Ch 11:9 Adoraim, Lachish, Azekah,

2Ch 11:10 Zorah, Aijalon, and Hebron.

2Ch 11:11 He had them strongly fortified and appointed a commander for each of them, and in each one he placed supplies of food, olive oil, and wine, 2Ch 11:12 and also shields and spears. In this way he kept Judah and Benjamin under his control.

Priests and Levites Come to Jerusalem

2Ch 11:13 From all the territory of Israel priests and Levites came south to Judah.

2Ch 11:14 The Levites abandoned their pastures and other land and moved to Judah and Jerusalem, because King Jeroboam of Israel and his successors would not let them serve as priests of the LORD.

2Ch 11:15 Jeroboam appointed priests of his own to serve at the pagan places of worship and to worship demons and the idols he made in the form of bull-calves.

2Ch 11:16 From all the tribes of Israel people who sincerely wanted to worship the LORD, the God of Israel, followed the Levites to Jerusalem, so that they could offer sacrifices to the LORD, the God of their ancestors.

2Ch 11:17 This strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and for three years they supported Rehoboam son of Solomon and lived as they had under the rule of King David and King Solomon.

Rehoboam's Family

2Ch 11:18 Rehoboam married Mahalath, whose father was Jerimoth son of David and whose mother was Abihail, the daughter of Eliab and granddaughter of Jesse.

2Ch 11:19 They had three sons, Jeush, Shemariah, and Zaham.

2Ch 11:20 Later he married Maacah, the daughter of Absalom, and they had four sons: Abijah, Attai, Ziza, and Shelomith.

2Ch 11:21 In all, Rehoboam had eighteen wives and sixty concubines, and he fathered twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters. Of all his wives and concubines he loved Maacah best, 2Ch 11:22 and he favored her son Abijah over all his other children, choosing him as the one to succeed him as king.

2Ch 11:23 Rehoboam wisely assigned responsibilities to his sons and stationed them throughout Judah and Benjamin in the fortified cities. He provided generously for them and also secured many wives for them.

II KRONIEKE 11

1Dadelik nadat Rehabeam in Jerusalem terug was, het hy honderd en tagtig duisend uitgesoekte manne uit die stamme Juda en Benjamin opgeroep om teen Israel te veg en die koningskap vir hom terug te wen. 2Maar die woord van die Here het tot Semaja, die man van God, gekom en gesê: 3Sê vir Rehabeam seun van Salomo, koning van Juda, en vir al die Israeliete in Juda en Benjamin: 4So sê die Here: Moenie optrek en teen julle broers veg nie. Gaan terug, elkeen na sy huis toe, want wat gebeur het, kom van My af. Hulle het geluister na die woorde van die Here en die veldtog teen Jerobeam laat vaar. 5Rehabeam het in Jerusalem gewoon. Vir die beveiliging van Juda het hy 'n aantal stede herbou. 6Hy het die volgende vestingstede in Juda en Benjamin herbou: Betlehem, Etam, Tekoa, 7Bet-Sur, Soko, Adullam, 8Gat, Maresa, Sif, 9Adorajim, Lakis, Aseka, 10Sora, Ajalon en Hebron. 11Hy het die vestings versterk, bevelhebbers oor hulle aangestel en daar voorrade kos, olie en wyn gehou. 12In elke stad was daar ook skilde en spiese. So het hy die vestings baie goed versterk en beheer gehad oor Juda en Benjamin. 13Die priesters en die Leviete wat oral in Israel gewoon het, het uit al hulle gebiede gekom en in Rehabeam se gebied kom woon. 14Die Leviete moes hulle weivelde en besittings verlaat en na Juda en Jerusalem toe kom omdat Jerobeam en sy opvolgers hulle nie meer toegelaat het om priesters vir die Here te wees nie. 15Jerobeam het sy eie priesters aangestel vir die hoogtes en die veldgode en die kalwerbeelde wat hy gemaak het. 16In navolging van die Leviete het mense wat die Here die God van Israel wou dien, uit al die Israelitiese stamme na Jerusalem toe gekom om daar offerandes te bring aan die Here die God van hulle voorvaders. 17So het hulle die koninkryk van Juda verder versterk en drie jaar by Rehabeam seun van Salomo gestaan. Hulle het dié drie jaar in die spore van Dawid en Salomo gevolg. 18Rehabeam was getroud met Magalat. Haar pa was Jerimot seun van Dawid en haar ma was Abihajil dogter van Eliab, seun van Isai. 19Magalat het vir hom die seuns Jeüs, Semarja en Saham in die wêreld gebring. 20Later is Rehabeam ook getroud met Maäka dogter van Abisalom en by haar het hy vier seuns gehad: Abia, Attai, Sisa en Selomit. 21Rehabeam het vir Maäka dogter van Abisalom liewer gehad as vir al sy ander vrouens en byvrouens. Hy het altesaam agtien vrouens en sestig byvrouens gehad en was die pa van ag en twintig seuns en sestig dogters. 22Hy het vir Abia seun van Maäka as die eerste in rang aangestel en hom die gesag oor sy broers gegee met die oog op die koninklike opvolging. 23Verder het Rehabeam die slim beleid gevolg om sy seuns oral in die versterkte stede van Juda en Benjamin te laat woon. Hy het gesorg dat hulle van 'n oorvloed lewensmiddele voorsien is en het deur onderhandeling vir hulle 'n menigte vrouens verkry.

2Chronicles 12

Egypt Plunders Jerusalem

2Ch 12:1 As soon as Rehoboam had established his authority as king, he and all his people abandoned the Law of the LORD.

2Ch 12:2 In the fifth year of Rehoboam's reign their disloyalty to the LORD was punished. King Shishak of Egypt attacked Jerusalem

2Ch 12:3 with an army of twelve hundred chariots, sixty thousand cavalry, and more soldiers than could be counted, including Libyan, Sukkite, and Ethiopian troops.

2Ch 12:4 He captured the fortified cities of Judah and advanced as far as Jerusalem.

2Ch 12:5 Shemaiah the prophet went to King Rehoboam and the Judean leaders who had gathered in Jerusalem to escape Shishak. He said to them, "This is the LORD's message to you: 'You have abandoned me, so now I have abandoned you to Shishak.' "

2Ch 12:6 The king and the leaders admitted that they had sinned, and they said, "What the LORD is doing is just."

2Ch 12:7 When the LORD saw this, he spoke again to Shemaiah and said to him, "Because they admit their sin, I will not destroy them. But when Shishak attacks, they will barely survive. Jerusalem will not feel the full force of my anger, 2Ch 12:8 but Shishak will conquer them, and they will learn the difference between serving me and serving earthly rulers."

2Ch 12:9 King Shishak came to Jerusalem and took the treasures from the Temple and from the palace. He took everything, including the gold shields that King Solomon had made.

2Ch 12:10 To replace them, Rehoboam made bronze shields and entrusted them to the officers responsible for guarding the palace gates.

2Ch 12:11 Every time the king went to the Temple, the guards carried the shields and then returned them to the guardroom.

2Ch 12:12 Because he submitted to the LORD, the LORD's anger did not completely destroy him, and things went well for Judah.

2Ch 12:13 Rehoboam ruled in Jerusalem and increased his power as king. He was forty-one years old when he became king, and he ruled for seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD had chosen from all the territory of Israel as the place where he was to be worshiped. Rehoboam's mother was Naamah, from the land of Ammon.

2Ch 12:14 He did what was evil, because he did not try to find the LORD's will.

2Ch 12:15 Rehoboam's acts from beginning to end and his family records are found in The History of Shemaiah the Prophet and The History of Iddo the Prophet.Rehoboam and Jeroboam were constantly at war with each other.

2Ch 12:16 Rehoboam died and was buried in the royal tombs in David's City and his son Abijah succeeded him as king.

II KRONIEKE 12

1Rehabeam was nouliks goed gevestig in sy koningskap en seker van sy mag, of hy en die hele Israel saam met hom het die woord van die Here verontagsaam. 2Hulle was ontrou aan die Here, en daarom het Hy vir koning Sisak van Egipte teen Jerusalem laat optrek. Dit was in die vyfde jaar van Rehabeam se regering. 3Sisak het twaalf honderd strydwaens en 'n berede mag van sestig duisend man gehad, terwyl die ander soldate wat saam met hom uit Egipte gekom het, te veel was om te tel. Daar was Libiërs, Sukkeërs en Kussiete. 4Nadat Sisak die vestingstede in Juda verower het, het hy in die rigting van Jerusalem getrek. 5Die profeet Semaja kom toe na Rehabeam en die leiers van Juda toe wat in Jerusalem saamgetrek het uit vrees vir Sisak, en sê vir hulle: So sê die Here: Julle het My verlaat, en nou het Ek julle verlaat en is julle in Sisak se mag. 6Die leiers van Israel en die koning het hulle verootmoedig en het gesê: Die Here doen reg. 7Toe die Here hulle berou sien, kom sy woord weer tot Semaja en sê: Hulle is vol berou. Ek sal hulle nie uitroei nie. Ek sal hulle gou uit die greep van Sisak laat vrykom en my toorn oor Jerusalem nie deur Sisak laat losbreek nie. 8Maar hulle sal aan hom onderhorig word, en hulle sal agterkom wat dit is om My te dien en wat dit is om die konings van ander lande te dien. 9Koning Sisak van Egipte het teen Jerusalem opgetrek en beslag gelê op die skatte in die huis van die Here en die paleis. Hy het alles gevat, ook die goue skilde wat Salomo laat maak het. 10Koning Rehabeam het toe bronsskilde in die ander se plek laat maak en dié oorhandig aan die offisiere van die wag wat by die ingang van die paleis diens gedoen het. 11Elke keer wanneer die koning na die huis van die Here toe gegaan het, het die wag die skilde gedra, en daarna het hulle die skilde teruggebring na die wagte se kamer toe. 12Omdat die koning berou gehad het, het die toorn van die Here nie op hom bly rus nie en het dit hom nie heeltemal vernietig nie. Daar was trouens nog iets goeds in Juda. 13Koning Rehabeam het 'n stewige houvas op die koningskap in Jerusalem gehad en het aangehou regeer. Hy was een en veertig toe hy koning geword het en was sewentien jaar lank koning in Jerusalem, die stad wat deur die Here onder al die Israelitiese stamme gekies is om sy Naam daar te vestig. Rehabeam se ma was Naäma, 'n Ammonitiese vrou. 14Hy het gedoen wat verkeerd is en hy het hom nie daarop toegelê om na die wil van die Here te vra nie. 15Die verhale oor Rehabeam, dié van vroeër sowel as dié van later, is opgeteken in Die Verhale van die Profeet Semaja en die Siener Iddo, wat oor die geslagsregister handel. Daar was deurentyd oorlog tussen Rehabeam en Jerobeam. 16Rehabeam is oorlede, en hy is begrawe in die familiegraf in die Dawidstad. Sy seun Abia het hom as koning opgevolg.

2Chronicles 13

Abijah Reigns in Judah

2Ch 13:1 In the eighteenth year of the reign of King Jeroboam of Israel, Abijah became king of Judah, 2Ch 13:2 and he ruled three years in Jerusalem. His mother was Micaiah daughter of Uriel, from the city of Gibeah. War broke out between Abijah and Jeroboam.

2Ch 13:3 Abijah raised an army of 400,000 soldiers, and Jeroboam opposed him with an army of 800,000.

2Ch 13:4 The armies met in the hill country of Ephraim. King Abijah went up Mount Zemaraim and called out to Jeroboam and the Israelites: "Listen to me!" he said.

2Ch 13:5 "Don't you know that the LORD, the God of Israel, made an unbreakable covenant with David, giving him and his descendants kingship over Israel forever?

2Ch 13:6 Jeroboam son of Nebat rebelled against Solomon, his king.

2Ch 13:7 Later he gathered together a group of worthless scoundrels, and they forced their will on Rehoboam son of Solomon, who was too young and inexperienced to resist them.

2Ch 13:8 Now you propose to fight against the royal authority that the LORD gave to David's descendants. You have a huge army and have with you the gold bull-calves that Jeroboam made to be your gods.

2Ch 13:9 You drove out the LORD's priests, the descendants of Aaron, and you drove out the Levites. In their place you appointed priests in the same way that other nations do. Anybody who comes along with a bull or seven sheep can get himself consecrated as a priest of those so-called gods of yours.

2Ch 13:10 "But we still serve the LORD our God and have not abandoned him. Priests descended from Aaron perform their duties, and Levites assist them.

2Ch 13:11 Every morning and every evening they offer him incense and animal sacrifices burned whole. They present the offerings of bread on a table that is ritually clean, and every evening they light the lamps on the gold lampstand. We do what the LORD has commanded, but you have abandoned him.

2Ch 13:12 God himself is our leader and his priests are here with trumpets, ready to blow them and call us to battle against you. People of Israel, don't fight against the LORD, the God of your ancestors! You can't win!"

2Ch 13:13 Meanwhile Jeroboam had sent some of his troops to ambush the Judean army from the rear, while the rest faced them from the front.

2Ch 13:14 The Judeans looked around and saw that they were surrounded. They cried to the LORD for help, and the priests blew the trumpets.

2Ch 13:15 The Judeans gave a loud shout, and led by Abijah, they attacked; God defeated Jeroboam and the Israelite army.

2Ch 13:16 The Israelites fled from the Judeans, and God let the Judeans overpower them.

2Ch 13:17 Abijah and his army dealt the Israelites a crushing defeat —half a million of Israel's best soldiers were killed.

2Ch 13:18 And so the people of Judah were victorious over Israel, because they relied on the LORD, the God of their ancestors.

2Ch 13:19 Abijah pursued Jeroboam's army and occupied some of his cities: Bethel, Jeshanah, and Ephron, and the villages near each of these cities.

2Ch 13:20 Jeroboam never regained his power during Abijah's reign. Finally the LORD struck him down, and he died.

2Ch 13:21 Abijah, however, grew more powerful. He had fourteen wives and fathered twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters.

2Ch 13:22 The rest of the history of Abijah, what he said and what he did, is written in The History of Iddo the Prophet.

II KRONIEKE 13

1In die agtiende regeringsjaar van koning Jerobeam het Abia koning oor Juda geword, 2en hy het drie jaar in Jerusalem geregeer. Sy ma was Miga 'n dogter van Uriël, uit Gibea. Daar het oorlog tussen Abia en Jerobeam uitgebreek. 3Abia het die oorlog begin met 'n mag van vier honderd duisend uitgesoekte soldate, en Jerobeam het hom teengestaan met ag honderd duisend man, ook uitgesoekte soldate. 4Abia was op Semarajimberg in die Efraimsberge en hy het daarvandaan geroep: Luister, Jerobeam en al julle Israeliete! 5Julle weet tog dat die Here die God van Israel die koningskap oor Israel vir altyd aan Dawid en sy nageslag gegee het. Dit is 'n onverbreekbare verbond. 6Jerobeam seun van Nebat en amptenaar van Salomo seun van Dawid het teen sy koning in opstand gekom, 7en 'n klomp roekelose boewe het om hom saamgekoek. Hulle was te sterk vir Rehabeam seun van Salomo, want hy was nog jonk en sag en kon hom nie teen hulle handhaaf nie. 8Nou wil julle die koninklike mag van die Here weerstaan wat Hy aan die nageslag van Dawid toevertrou het. Júlle is baie en julle het die goue kalwerbeelde by julle wat Jerobeam vir julle vir gode gemaak het. 9Julle het die priesters van die Here, die nageslag van Aäron, en ook die Leviete verdryf en vir julle priesters aangestel soos die volke in ander lande doen: elkeen wat 'n bul of sewe skape gebring het, het priester geword vir daardie afgode van julle. 10Óns dien die Here ons God; óns het Hom nie verlaat nie. Die priesters wat die diens van die Here verrig, is uit die geslag van Aäron, en die Leviete staan hulle by. 11Hulle bring elke môre en elke aand vir die Here brandoffers en geurige wierookoffers, hulle sit gereeld die offerbrood op 'n rein tafel en steek elke aand die goue kandelaar se lampe op. Ons onderhou nog die diens van die Here ons God, maar júlle het Hom verlaat. 12Ons het die Here self by ons as leier, en sy priesters staan reg om die trompette te blaas dat die stryd teen julle kan begin. Israeliete, moenie teen die Here, die God van julle voorvaders, veg nie. Julle kan nie wen nie! 13Jerobeam het van sy manskappe om die linies van Juda gestuur om 'n hinderlaag agter hulle op te stel. Daar was dus 'n hinderlaag agter die Judeërs, en Jerobeam en die ander troepe was voor hulle. 14Toe die Judeërs omkyk en sien hulle word van voor en van agter bedreig, het hulle na die Here om hulp geroep en het die priesters die trompette geblaas. 15Die manskappe van Juda het die oorlogskreet aangehef, en God het Jerobeam en die hele Israel 'n neerlaag laat ly teen Abia en Juda. 16Die Israeliete het vir Juda gevlug, want God het Israel in die mag van Juda oorgegee. 17Abia en sy manne het 'n groot slagting onder hulle aangerig. Vyf honderd duisend van Israel se uitgesoekte manne het gesneuwel. [18]So is die Israeliete destyds 'n vernederende neerlaag toegedien, en het Juda die oorhand gekry omdat hulle gesteun het op die Here, die God van hulle voorvaders. [19]Abia het sy oorwinning oor Jerobeam opgevolg met die besetting van verskeie van Jerobeam se stede: Bet-El, Jesana en Efron, elkeen met sy voorposte. [20]Gedurende die regeringstyd van Abia kon Jerobeam nie sy mag herwin nie. Die Here het hom onverwags laat sterf. [21]Abia se mag het toegeneem. Hy het veertien vrouens gehad en was die pa van twee en twintig seuns en sestien dogters. [22]Die res van die verhale oor Abia, wat hy gedoen en gesê het, is opgeteken in Die Kommentaar van die Profeet Iddo.

2Chronicles 14

Asa Reigns in Judah

2Ch 14:1 King Abijah died and was buried in the royal tombs in David's City. His son Asa succeeded him as king, and under Asa the land enjoyed peace for ten years.

2Ch 14:2 Asa pleased the LORD, his God, by doing what was right and good.

2Ch 14:3 He removed the foreign altars and the pagan places of worship, broke down the sacred stone columns, and cut down the symbols of the goddess Asherah.

2Ch 14:4 He commanded the people of Judah to do the will of the LORD, the God of their ancestors, and to obey his teachings and commands.

2Ch 14:5 Because he abolished the pagan places of worship and the incense altars from all the cities of Judah, the kingdom was at peace under his rule.

2Ch 14:6 He built fortifications for the cities of Judah during this time, and for several years there was no war, because the LORD gave him peace.

2Ch 14:7 He told the people of Judah, "Let us fortify the cities by building walls and towers, and gates that can be shut and barred. We have control of the land because we have done the will of the LORD our God. He has protected us and given us security on every side." And so they built and prospered.

2Ch 14:8 King Asa had an army of 300,000 men from Judah, armed with shields and spears, and 280,000 men from Benjamin, armed with shields and bows. All of them were brave, well-trained men.

2Ch 14:9 An Ethiopian named Zerah invaded Judah with an army of a million men and three hundred chariots and advanced as far as Mareshah.

2Ch 14:10 Asa went out to fight him, and both sides took up their positions at Zephathah Valley near Mareshah.

2Ch 14:11 Asa prayed to the LORD his God, "O LORD, you can help a weak army as easily as a powerful one. Help us now, O LORD our God, because we are relying on you, and in your name we have come out to fight against this huge army. LORD, you are our God; no one can hope to defeat you."

2Ch 14:12 The LORD defeated the Ethiopian army when Asa and the Judean army attacked them. They fled,

2Ch 14:13 and Asa and his troops pursued them as far as Gerar. So many of the Ethiopians were killed that the army was unable to rally and fight. They were overpowered by the LORD and his army, and the army took large amounts of loot.

2Ch 14:14 Then they were able to destroy the cities in the area around Gerar, because the people there were terrified of the LORD. The army plundered all those cities and captured large amounts of loot.

2Ch 14:15 They also attacked the camps of some shepherds, capturing large numbers of sheep and camels. Then they returned to Jerusalem.

II KRONIEKE 14

1Abia is oorlede, en hy is begrawe in die familiegraf in die Dawidstad. Sy seun Asa het hom as koning opgevolg en in dié se tyd het die land tien jaar lank vrede gehad. 2Asa het gedoen wat goed en reg is in die oë van die Here sy God. 3Hy het die altare van vreemde gode en die hoogtes laat verwoes, die klippilare laat stukkend slaan en die gewyde pale laat afkap. 4Hy het bevel gegee dat Juda aan die Here, die God van hulle voorvaders, gehoorsaam moet wees deur sy wil te doen en sy gebooie na te kom. 5Hy het die hoogtes en die wierookaltare in al die stede van Juda laat verwoes. Onder hom het die land vrede gehad. 6Omdat die land vrede gehad het, en Asa nie oorlog moes voer nie, het hy in dié jare vestingstede in Juda gebou. Die Here het hom rus gegee, 7en daarom het hy vir Juda gesê: Laat ons dié stede versterk met mure en torings, poorte en sluitbalke. Die land is nog ons s'n, want ons is gehoorsaam aan die Here ons God, en Hy het ons na alle kante toe rus gegee. Hulle was dan ook voorspoedig met die bouwerk. 8Asa se leër het bestaan uit drie honderd duisend weerbare man uit Juda wat met skild en spies bewapen was, en twee honderd en tagtig duisend uit Benjamin, gewapen met skild en pyl en boog, almal dapper manne. 9Die Kussiet Serag het Juda binnegeval met 'n leër van 'n miljoen man en met drie honderd strydwaens. Hy het deurgedring tot by Maresa, 10en daar het Asa hom tegemoet getrek. Die Kussiete was opgestel in die Sefatalaagte by Maresa. 11Asa het die Here sy God aangeroep en gesê: Here, net U kan die swakke teen 'n oormag help. Help ons, Here ons God! Ons steun op U, en in u Naam trek ons teen dié menigte op. U is ons God, Here; moenie dat 'n méns teen U seëvier nie. 12Die Here het die Kussiete die onderspit laat delf teen Asa en Juda. Toe die Kussiete op die vlug slaan, 13het Asa en die manne by hom hulle agtervolg tot by Gerar, en daar het soveel Kussiete gesneuwel dat hulle leër nie kon herstel nie. Hulle is deur die Here en sy leër uitmekaargeslaan. Die Judeërs het 'n groot hoeveelheid buit gekry. 14Hulle het toe al die stede in die omgewing van Gerar ingeneem en geplunder, want die stede was van skrik bevange vir die Here. Daar was ook baie buit. 15Daarna het hulle die kampe van die veewagters aangeval en baie kleinvee en kamele gebuit en na Jerusalem toe saamgevat.

2Chronicles 15

Asa's Religious Reforms

2Ch 15:1 The spirit of God came upon Azariah son of Oded,

2Ch 15:2 and he went to meet King Asa. He called out, "Listen to me, King Asa, and all you people of Judah and Benjamin! The LORD is with you as long as you are with him. If you look for him, he will let you find him, but if you turn away, he will abandon you.

2Ch 15:3 For a long time Israel lived without the true God, without priests to teach them, and without a law.

2Ch 15:4 But when trouble came, they turned to the LORD, the God of Israel. They searched for him and found him.

2Ch 15:5 In those days no one could come and go in safety, because there was trouble and disorder in every land.

2Ch 15:6 One nation oppressed another nation, and one city oppressed another city, because God was bringing trouble and distress on them.

2Ch 15:7 But you must be strong and not be discouraged. The work that you do will be rewarded."

2Ch 15:8 When Asa heard the prophecy that Azariah son of Oded had spoken, he was encouraged. He did away with all the idols in the land of Judah and Benjamin and all the idols in the cities he had captured in the hill country of Ephraim. He also repaired the altar of the LORD that stood in the Temple courtyard.

2Ch 15:9 Many people had come over to Asa's side from Ephraim, Manasseh, and Simeon, and were living in his kingdom, because they had seen that the LORD was with him. Asa summoned all of them and the people of Judah and Benjamin.

2Ch 15:10 They assembled in Jerusalem in the third month of the fifteenth year that Asa was king.

2Ch 15:11 On that day they offered sacrifices to the LORD from the loot they had brought back: seven hundred head of cattle and seven thousand sheep.

2Ch 15:12 They made a covenant in which they agreed to worship the LORD, the God of their ancestors, with all their heart and soul.

2Ch 15:13 Anyone, young or old, male or female, who did not worship him was to be put to death.

2Ch 15:14 In a loud voice they took an oath in the LORD's name that they would keep the covenant, and then they shouted and blew trumpets.

2Ch 15:15 All the people of Judah were happy because they had made this covenant with all their heart. They took delight in worshiping the LORD, and he accepted them and gave them peace on every side.

2Ch 15:16 King Asa removed his grandmother Maacah from her position as queen mother, because she had made an obscene idol of the fertility goddess Asherah. Asa cut down the idol, chopped it up, and burned the pieces in Kidron Valley.

2Ch 15:17 Even though Asa did not destroy all the pagan places of worship in the land, he remained faithful to the LORD all his life.

2Ch 15:18 He placed in the Temple all the objects his father Abijah had dedicated to God, as well as the gold and silver objects that he himself dedicated.

2Ch 15:19 There was no more war until the thirty-fifth year of his reign.

II KRONIEKE 15

1Die Gees van God het oor Asarja seun van Oded gekom. 2Hy het Asa tegemoet gegaan en vir hom gesê: Luister na my, Asa en alle manne van Juda en Benjamin: As julle by die Here is, sal Hy by julle wees; as julle na Hom vra, sal Hy Hom deur julle laat vind; maar as julle Hom verlaat, sal Hy julle verlaat. 3Israel was lank sonder die ware God, sonder 'n priester wat die wil van God bekend kon maak, en sonder die woord van God. 4Toe Israel hom in sy nood tot die Here sy God bekeer het en na Hom gevra het, het die Here Hom deur hulle laat vind. 5In daardie tyd kon niemand veilig kom of gaan nie, want daar was groot onrus in al die lande. 6Volk het teen volk gebots, stad teen stad, want God het onrus en nood oor hulle gebring. 7Maar julle moet vasstaan en nie moedeloos word nie, want julle sal die beloning vir julle optrede ontvang. 8Toe Asa hoor wat die profeet, die seun van Oded, aankondig, het hy moed geskep en die afgodsbeelde uit die hele gebied van Juda en Benjamin laat verwyder, en ook uit die stede wat hy in die Efraimsberge verower het. Hy het ook die altaar van die Here wat voor die ingangsportaal van die tempel was, laat regmaak. 9Deur hierdie optrede het hy die hele Juda en Benjamin om hom saamgetrek, en ook talle immigrante uit Efraim en Manasse en uit Simeon, wat uit Israel na hom toe oorgeloop het toe hulle sien die Here sy God is by hom. 10In die derde maand van die vyftiende regeringsjaar van Asa het hulle almal in Jerusalem bymekaargekom 11en op dié bepaalde dag vir die Here offerandes gebring uit die buit wat hulle saamgebring het: sewe honderd beeste en sewe duisend stuks kleinvee. 12Hulle het ook 'n verbond gesluit om aan die Here die God van hulle voorvaders gehoorsaam te wees met hulle hele hart en siel. 13Elkeen wat ongehoorsaam was aan die Here die God van Israel, moes doodgemaak word, klein en groot, man en vrou. 14Hulle het die eed aan die Here hardop afgelê onder begeleiding van jubelroepe, trompetgeskal en die klank van die ramshoring. 15Die hele Juda het hulle verheug oor die eed, want hulle het dit met hulle hele hart afgelê. Dit was vir hulle 'n vreugde om na die Here te vra, en Hy het Hom deur hulle laat vind en hulle rus gegee na alle kante toe. 16Koning Asa het vir Maäka, sy ouma, as koninginmoeder afgesit omdat sy 'n Asjerabeeld, 'n walglike ding, laat maak het. Asa het die ding stukkend gekap, dit fyngemaal en in die Kedrondal in die vuur gegooi. 17Die hoogtes het wel nie heeltemal uit Israel verdwyn nie, maar Asa was sy lewe lank getrou aan die Here. 18Hy het die wydingsgeskenke van sy pa, en ook sy eie, in die tempel van God gebring: silwer, goud en offergereedskap. 19Tot sy vyf en dertigste regeringsjaar was daar nie oorlog nie.

2Chronicles 16

Asa's Last Years

2Ch 16:1 In the thirty-sixth year of the reign of King Asa of Judah, King Baasha of Israel invaded Judah and started to fortify Ramah in order to cut off all traffic in and out of Judah.

2Ch 16:2 So Asa took silver and gold from the treasuries of the Temple and the palace and sent it to Damascus, to King Benhadad of Syria, with this message:

2Ch 16:3 "Let us be allies, as our fathers were. This silver and gold is a present for you. Now break your alliance with King Baasha of Israel so that he will have to pull his troops out of my territory."

2Ch 16:4 Benhadad agreed to Asa's proposal and sent his commanding officers and their armies to attack the cities of Israel. They captured Ijon, Dan, Abel Beth Maacah, and all the cities of Naphtali where supplies were stored.

2Ch 16:5 When King Baasha heard what was happening, he stopped fortifying Ramah and abandoned the work.

2Ch 16:6 Then King Asa gathered men from throughout Judah and had them carry off the stones and timbers that Baasha had been using at Ramah, and they used them to fortify the cities of Geba and Mizpah.

2Ch 16:7 At that time the prophet Hanani went to King Asa and said, "Because you relied on the king of Syria instead of relying on the LORD your God, the army of the king of Israel has escaped from you.

2Ch 16:8 Didn't the Ethiopians and the Libyans have large armies with many chariots and cavalry troops? But because you relied on the LORD, he gave you victory over them.

2Ch 16:9 The LORD keeps close watch over the whole world, to give strength to those whose hearts are loyal to him. You have acted foolishly, and so from now on you will always be at war."

2Ch 16:10 This made Asa so angry with the prophet that he had him put in chains. It was at this same time that Asa began treating some of the people cruelly.

2Ch 16:11 All the events of Asa's reign from beginning to end are recorded in The History of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

2Ch 16:12 In the thirty-ninth year that Asa was king, he was crippled by a severe foot disease; but even then he did not turn to the LORD for help, but to doctors.

2Ch 16:13 Two years later he died

2Ch 16:14 and was buried in the rock tomb which he had carved out for himself in David's City. They used spices and perfumed oils to prepare his body for burial, and they built a huge bonfire to mourn his death.

II KRONIEKE 16

1In die ses en dertigste regeringsjaar van Asa het koning Baesa van Israel met 'n veldtog teen Juda begin. Hy het die stad Rama in 'n vesting omskep om te verhoed dat mense heen en weer beweeg na en van koning Asa van Juda. 2Asa het toe silwer en goud uit die skatkamers van die huis van die Here en die paleis gevat en dit vir koning Ben-Hadad van die Arameërs in Damaskus gestuur met die boodskap: 3Daar is 'n verdrag tussen u en my en daar was al een tussen ons vaders. Ek stuur vir u silwer en goud. Breek u verdrag met koning Baesa van Israel dat hy uit my land kan terugtrek. 4Ben-Hadad het voldoen aan die versoek van koning Asa. Hy het sy leëraanvoerders gestuur om die stede van Israel aan te val, en hulle het Ijon, Dan, Abel-Majim en al die voorraadstede in Naftali verower. 5Toe Baesa dit hoor, het hy die bouwerk by Rama gestaak en die hele onderneming laat vaar. 6Koning Asa het die hele Juda saam gevat en hulle die klip en hout wat Baesa vir die bouwerk by Rama gebruik het, laat wegdra. Hulle het dié gebruik vir bouwerk by Geba en Mispa. 7In dié tyd het die siener Ganani na koning Asa van Juda toe gekom en vir hom gesê: Jy het gesteun op die koning van Aram, jy het nie op die Here jou God gesteun nie. Daarom het die leër van die koning van Aram jou ontglip. 8Die Kussiete en die Libiërs was 'n groot leërmag met 'n magtige getal strydwaens en ruiters, maar jy het gesteun op die Here, en Hy het hulle aan jou oorgegee. 9Die Here het sy oë oral op die aarde sodat Hy dié kan help wat met hulle hele hart op Hom vertrou. Maar nou het jy dwaas opgetree en daarom sal jy van nou af oorlog hê. 10Asa was so kwaad vir die siener dat hy hom in die tronk laat sit het. Hy was woedend oor wat die siener gesê het. In dié tyd het Asa ook begin om sommige mense sleg te behandel. 11Die verhale oor Asa, dié van vroeër sowel as dié van later, is opgeteken in die annale van die konings van Juda en Israel. 12In sy nege en dertigste regeringsjaar het Asa 'n uiters ernstige siekte aan sy voete opgedoen, maar selfs in dié siekte het hy nie die Here geraadpleeg nie, wel die dokters. 13Hy is oorlede in die een en veertigste jaar van sy regering. 14Hulle het hom begrawe in die graf wat hy vir hom in die Dawidstad laat uitkap het, en hulle het sy liggaam neergelê op die plek wat hy met balsem en allerlei speserymengsels laat bedek het. Hulle het ook ter ere van hom 'n groot vuur aangesteek.

Jehoshaphat Reigns in Judah

2Ch 17:1 Jehoshaphat succeeded his father Asa as king and strengthened his position against Israel.

2Ch 17:2 He stationed troops in the fortified cities of Judah, in the Judean countryside, and in the cities which Asa had captured in the territory of Ephraim.

2Ch 17:3 The LORD blessed Jehoshaphat because he followed the example of his father's early life and did not worship Baal.

2Ch 17:4 He served his father's God, obeyed God's commands, and did not act the way the kings of Israel did.

2Ch 17:5 The LORD gave Jehoshaphat firm control over the kingdom of Judah, and all the people brought him gifts, so that he became wealthy and highly honored.

2Ch 17:6 He took pride in serving the LORD and destroyed all the pagan places of worship and the symbols of the goddess Asherah in Judah.

2Ch 17:7 In the third year of his reign he sent out the following officials to teach in the cities of Judah: Benhail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethanel, and Micaiah.

2Ch 17:8 They were accompanied by nine Levites and two priests. The Levites were Shemaiah, Nethaniah, Zebadiah, Asahel, Shemiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonijah, Tobijah, and Tobadonijah; and the priests were Elishama and Jehoram.

2Ch 17:9 They took the book of the Law of the LORD and went through all the towns of Judah, teaching it to the people.

2Ch 17:10 The LORD made all the surrounding kingdoms afraid to go to war against King Jehoshaphat.

2Ch 17:11 Some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat a large amount of silver and other gifts, and some Arabs brought him 7,700 sheep and 7,700 goats.

2Ch 17:12 So Jehoshaphat continued to grow more and more powerful. Throughout Judah he built fortifications and cities,

2Ch 17:13 where supplies were stored in huge amounts. In Jerusalem he stationed outstanding officers,

2Ch 17:14 according to their clans. Adnah was the commander of the troops from the clans of Judah, and he had 300,000 soldiers under him.

2Ch 17:15 Second in rank was Jehohanan, with 280,000 soldiers,

2Ch 17:16 and third was Amasiah son of Zichri, with 200,000. (Amasiah had volunteered to serve the LORD.)

2Ch 17:17 The commander of the troops from the clans of Benjamin was Eliada, an outstanding soldier, in command of 200,000 men armed with shields and bows.

2Ch 17:18 His second in command was Jehozabad with 180,000 men, well-equipped for battle.

2Ch 17:19 These soldiers served the king in Jerusalem, and in addition he stationed others in the other fortified cities of Judah.

II KRONIEKE 17

1Sy seun Josafat het hom as koning opgevolg. Josafat het die land teen Israel beveilig 2deur soldate te stasioneer in al die vestingstede van Juda en deur wagposte te plaas in Juda sowel as in die stede wat Asa, sy pa, in Efraim verower het. 3Die Here was by Josafat, want hy het sy voorvader Dawid se vroeëre lewe nagevolg. Hy het nie die Baäls gedien nie, 4maar die God van sy vader. Hy het die gebooie van God gehoorsaam en nie gemaak soos Israel nie. 5Daarom het die Here Josafat se koningskap bevestig. Die hele Juda het vir Josafat geskenke gebring, en hy het ryk geword en groot aansien geniet. 6Hy het sy eer daarin gestel om te leef soos die Here dit wil en het die vernietiging van die hoogtes en gewyde pale in Juda voortgesit. 7In die derde jaar van sy regering het hy van sy beste amptenare uitgestuur om oral in die stede van Juda onderrig te gee: Obadja, Sagaria, Netanel en Miga. 8Daar was Leviete saam met hulle: Semaja, Netanja, Sebadja, Asael, Semiramot, Jonatan, Adonia, Tobija en Tob-Adonija. Hulle was die Leviete; en verder was die priesters Elisama en Joram by hulle. 9Hulle het onderrig gegee in Juda. Hulle het die wetboek van die Here saamgeneem, die rondte gedoen in al die stede van Juda, en die volk in die wet onderrig. 10Al die lande rondom Juda was van skrik bevange vir die Here; hulle het Josafat nie aangeval nie. 11Selfs van die Filistyne af is daar vir Josafat geskenke en 'n groot hoeveelheid silwer gebring, en die Arabiere het vir hom kleinvee gebring, sewe duisend sewe honderd skaapramme en sewe duisend sewe honderd bokramme. 12So het Josafat steeds magtiger geword. Hy het forte en voorraadstede in Juda gebou 13en in elke stad van Juda groot bedrywigheid aan die gang gesit. In Jerusalem het hy sy beste soldate gehad. 14Hulle is familiegewys georganiseer. Uit Juda was daar die volgende bevelvoerders oor duisend: die bevelvoerder Adna met drie honderd duisend weerbare man by hom, 15naas hom die bevelvoerder Joganan met twee honderd en tagtig duisend, 16naas hom Amasja seun van Sikri, wat hom met 'n vrywillige eed aan die Here gewy het, met twee honderd duisend weerbare man. 17Uit Benjamin was daar die krygsman Eljada met twee honderd duisend man by hom, gewapen met pyl en boog en skild, 18en naas hom Josabad met honderd en tagtig duisend by hom, ten volle toegerus vir oorlog. 19Dit is die manne wat tot die koning se beskikking was, afgesien van dié wat hy in die vestingstede oral in Juda geplaas het.

2Chronicles 18

Jehoshaphat Allies with Ahab

2Ch 18:1 When King Jehoshaphat of Judah became rich and famous, he arranged a marriage between a member of his family and the family of King Ahab of Israel.

2Ch 18:2 A number of years later Jehoshaphat went to the city of Samaria to visit Ahab. To honor Jehoshaphat and those with him, Ahab had a large number of sheep and cattle slaughtered for a feast. He tried to persuade Jehoshaphat to join him in attacking the city of Ramoth in Gilead.

2Ch 18:3 He asked, "Will you go with me to attack Ramoth?" Jehoshaphat replied, "I am ready when you are, and so is my army. We will join you."

2Ch 18:4 Then he added, "But first let's consult the LORD."

2Ch 18:5 So Ahab called in the prophets, about four hundred of them, and asked them, "Should I go and attack Ramoth, or not?" "Attack it," they answered. "God will give you victory."

2Ch 18:6 But Jehoshaphat asked, "Isn't there another prophet through whom we can consult the LORD?"

2Ch 18:7 Ahab answered, "There is one more, Micaiah son of Imlah. But I hate him because he never prophesies anything good for me; it's always something bad." "You shouldn't say that!" Jehoshaphat replied.

2Ch 18:8 So King Ahab called in a court official and told him to go and get Micaiah at once.

2Ch 18:9 The two kings, dressed in their royal robes, were sitting on their thrones at the threshing place just outside the gate of Samaria, and all the prophets were prophesying in front of them.

2Ch 18:10 One of them, Zedekiah son of Chenaanah, made iron horns and said to Ahab, "This is what the LORD says, 'With these you will fight the Syrians and totally defeat them.' "

2Ch 18:11 All the other prophets said the same thing. "March against Ramoth and you will win," they said. "The LORD will give you victory."

2Ch 18:12 Meanwhile, the official who had gone to get Micaiah said to him, "All the other prophets have prophesied success for the king, and you had better do the same."

2Ch 18:13 But Micaiah answered, "By the living LORD I will say what my God tells me to!"

2Ch 18:14 When he appeared before King Ahab, the king asked him, "Micaiah, should King Jehoshaphat and I go and attack Ramoth, or not?" "Attack!" Micaiah answered. "Of course you'll win. The LORD will give you victory."

2Ch 18:15 But Ahab replied, "When you speak to me in the name of the LORD, tell the truth! How many times do I have to tell you that?"

2Ch 18:16 Micaiah answered, "I can see the army of Israel scattered over the hills like sheep without a shepherd. And the LORD said, 'These men have no leader; let them go home in peace.' "

2Ch 18:17 Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "I told you that he never prophesies anything good for me; it's always something bad!"

2Ch 18:18 Micaiah went on: "Now listen to what the LORD says! I saw the LORD sitting on his throne in heaven, with all his angels standing beside him.

2Ch 18:19 The LORD asked, 'Who will deceive Ahab so that he will go and get killed at Ramoth?' Some of the angels said one thing, and others said something else, 2Ch 18:20 until a spirit stepped forward, approached the LORD, and said, 'I will deceive him.' 'How?' the LORD asked.

2Ch 18:21 The spirit replied, 'I will go and make all of Ahab's prophets tell lies.' The LORD said, 'Go and deceive him. You will succeed.' "

2Ch 18:22 And Micaiah concluded: "This is what has happened. The LORD has made these prophets of yours lie to you. But he himself has decreed that you will meet with disaster!"

2Ch 18:23 Then the prophet Zedekiah went up to Micaiah, slapped his face, and asked, "Since when did the LORD's spirit leave me and speak to you?"

2Ch 18:24 "You will find out when you go into some back room to hide," Micaiah replied.

2Ch 18:25 Then King Ahab ordered one of his officers, "Arrest Micaiah and take him to Amon, the governor of the city, and to Prince Joash.

2Ch 18:26 Tell them to throw him in prison and to put him on bread and water until I return safely."

2Ch 18:27 "If you return safely," Micaiah exclaimed, "then the LORD has not spoken through me!" And he added, "Listen, everyone, to what I have said!"

The Defeat and Death of Ahab

2Ch 18:28 Then King Ahab of Israel and King Jehoshaphat of Judah went to attack the city of Ramoth in Gilead.

2Ch 18:29 Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "As we go into battle, I will disguise myself, but you wear your royal garments." So the king of Israel went into battle in disguise.

2Ch 18:30 The king of Syria had ordered his chariot commanders to attack no one else except the king of Israel.

2Ch 18:31 So when they saw King Jehoshaphat, they all thought that he was the king of Israel, and they turned to attack him. But Jehoshaphat gave a shout, and the LORD God rescued him and turned the attack away from him.

2Ch 18:32 The chariot commanders saw that he was not the king of Israel, so they stopped pursuing him.

2Ch 18:33 By chance, however, a Syrian soldier shot an arrow which struck King Ahab between the joints of his armor. "I'm wounded!" he cried out to his chariot driver. "Turn around and pull out of the battle!"

2Ch 18:34 While the battle raged on, King Ahab remained propped up in his chariot, facing the Syrians. At sunset he died.

1Toe Josafat ryk geword het en groot aansien geniet het, het hy 'n huwelik tussen 'n lid van sy familie en een uit die familie van Agab gereël. 2Na 'n paar jaar het hy vir Agab in Samaria gaan besoek. Agab het ter ere van Josafat en sy gevolg 'n groot aantal skape en beeste geslag en hom ook probeer omhaal om 'n veldtog teen Ramot in Gilead te begin. 3Koning Agab van Israel het vir koning Josafat van Juda gesê: Sal jy met my saamgaan na Ramot in Gilead toe? Josafat het geantwoord: Ek en jy is een, en ons leërs is een. Ons is saam met jou in dié oorlog, 4maar, het Josafat verder vir die koning van Israel gesê, vind nou eers uit wat sê die Here. 5Die koning van Israel het toe vier honderd profete bymekaargeroep en vir hulle gevra: Moet ons teen Ramot in Gilead gaan veg? Of moet ek dit laat staan? Hulle antwoord was: Gaan gerus. God gee die stad aan die koning oor. 6Toe sê Josafat: Is hier nie nóg 'n profeet van die Here dat ons hom ook kan raadpleeg nie? 7Hier is nog een man deur wie ons die Here kan raadpleeg, het die koning van Israel vir Josafat gesê, maar ek haat hom, want hy voorspel vir my nooit iets goeds nie, net altyd die slegste. Dit is Miga seun van Jimla. Josafat sê toe: Die koning moenie so praat nie! 8Die koning van Israel roep toe 'n paleisamptenaar en sê: Gaan haal gou vir Miga seun van Jimla. 9Die koning van Israel en koning Josafat van Juda het elkeen in sy koninklike gewaad op sy troon gesit by die dorsvloer voor die poort van Samaria. Voor hulle was al die profete besig met hulle voorspellings. 10Sedekia seun van Kenaäna het vir hom 'n paar horings van yster gemaak en gesê: So sê die Here: Met hierdie horings sal u die Arameërs stoot tot dit klaar is met hulle. 11So het al die profete voorspel. Hulle uitspraak was: Trek op teen Ramot in Gilead. U sal wen. Die Here gee die stad aan die koning oor. 12Die boodskapper wat vir Miga gaan roep het, het vir hom gesê: Kyk, die uitspraak van die profete was eenstemmig gunstig vir die koning. Laat joune nou tog dieselfde wees. Sê iets goeds! 13Maar Miga sê: So seker as die Here leef, wat my God vir my sê, dit sal ek sê! 14Toe hy by die koning kom, sê dié vir hom: Miga, moet ons teen Ramot in Gilead gaan veg? Of moet ek dit laat staan? Gaan gerus, antwoord Miga, en mag dit goed gaan, mag die stad aan u oorgegee word. 15Maar die koning sê vir hom: Hoeveel keer moet ek nog by jou daarop aandring dat jy vir my niks anders as die waarheid in die Naam van die Here moet sê nie! 16Toe sê Miga: Ek het die hele Israel verstrooi op die berge gesien soos skape wat nie 'n wagter het nie. Die Here het gesê: Hulle het nie 'n koning nie, laat hulle maar in vrede teruggaan, elkeen na sy huis toe. 17Die koning van Israel sê toe vir Josafat: Ek het jou mos gesê hy voorspel vir my nie iets wat goed is nie, net die slegste. [18]En Miga praat verder: Hoor die woord van die Here! Ek het die Here op sy troon sien sit met die hele hemelse leërmag wat weerskante van Hom staan. [19]En die Here het gesê: Wie sal vir Agab koning van Israel so ver kry dat hy na Ramot in Gilead gaan en daar sneuwel?' Die een het toe dit gesê en die ander dat, [20]totdat die gees vorentoe gekom en voor die Here gaan staan en gesê het: Ek sal hom so ver kry.' En toe die Here vir hom vra: Hoe?' [21]sê die gees: Ek sal uitgaan en 'n leuengees word in die mond van al sy profete.' Toe sê die Here: Jy sal hom so ver kry. Gaan doen dit, jy sal dit regkry.' [22]So het die Here 'n leuengees in die mond van hierdie profete van u laat kom, maar Hy het in werklikheid vir u 'n ramp aangekondig. [23]Toe kom Sedekia seun van Kenaäna nader en hy slaan vir Miga op die kakebeen en sê: Met watter pad is die Gees van die Here van my af weg om met jou te praat? [24]En Miga antwoord: Dit sal jy sien die dag as jy in een donker kamer na die ander probeer wegkruip. [25]Die koning van Israel het toe beveel: Vat vir Miga en bring hom na Amon, die stadsbevelvoerder, en na prins Joas toe. [26]Sê vir hulle die koning sê hulle moet hierdie man in die tronk sit en hom 'n skraal rantsoen kos en water gee tot ek behoue terugkom. [27]Maar Miga het gesê: As u behoue terugkom, het die Here nie deur my gepraat nie. Verder het hy gesê: Hoor dit, alle manskappe! [28]Die koning van Israel en koning Josafat van Juda is toe na Ramot in Gilead toe. [29]Die koning van Israel het vir Josafat gesê: Ek gaan my vermom voor ek in die geveg betrokke raak. Hou jy jou koninklike gewaad aan. Die koning van Israel het hom toe vermom en so die geveg ingegaan. [30]Die Aramese koning het die aanvoerders van sy strydwaens opdrag gegee: Spits die geveg toe op die koning van Israel, moenie aan die ander aandag gee nie, klein of groot. [31]Toe die aanvoerders van sy strydwaens vir Josafat sien, sê hulle: Daar is die koning van Israel! en hulle het op hom toegesak. Josafat het om hulp geroep, en die Here het hom gehelp. God het die aanval van Josafat af weggekeer. [32]Die aanvoerders van die strydwaens het gesien dit is nie die koning van Israel nie en het die agtervolging gestaak. [33]Iemand het egter losweg 'n pyl afgeskiet, en dié het die koning van Israel getref tussen die skubbe van sy harnas en die borsplaat. Hy sê toe vir sy drywer: Ruk die perde om en bring my uit die geveg uit. Ek is gewond. [34]Die geveg was dié dag egter so hewig dat die koning van Israel tot die aand toe op sy strydwa moes bly staan in die geveg teen die Arameërs. Teen laatmiddag is hy dood.

2Chronicles 19

Jehoshaphat's Reforms

2Ch 19:1 King Jehoshaphat of Judah returned safely to his palace in Jerusalem.

2Ch 19:2 A prophet, Jehu son of Hanani, went to meet the king and said to him, "Do you think it is right to help those who are wicked and to take the side of those who hate the LORD? What you have done has brought the LORD's anger on you.

2Ch 19:3 But even so, there is some good in you. You have removed all the symbols of the goddess Asherah which people worshiped, and you have tried to follow God's will."

2Ch 19:4 Even though King Jehoshaphat lived in Jerusalem, he traveled regularly among the people, from Beersheba in the south to the edge of the hill country of Ephraim in the north, in order to call the people back to the LORD, the God of their ancestors.

2Ch 19:5 He appointed judges in each of the fortified cities of Judah

2Ch 19:6 and instructed them: "Be careful in pronouncing judgment; you are not acting on human authority, but on the authority of the LORD, and he is with you when you pass sentence.

2Ch 19:7 Honor the LORD and act carefully, because the LORD our God does not tolerate fraud or partiality or the taking of bribes."

2Ch 19:8 In Jerusalem Jehoshaphat appointed Levites, priests, and some of the leading citizens as judges in cases involving a violation of the Law of the LORD or legal disputes between inhabitants of the city.

2Ch 19:9 He gave them the following instructions: "You must perform your duties in reverence for the LORD, faithfully obeying him in everything you do.

2Ch 19:10 Whenever your fellow citizens from any of the cities bring before you a case of homicide or any other violation of a law or commandment, you must instruct them carefully how to conduct themselves during the trial, so that they do not become guilty of sinning against the LORD. Unless you do, you and your fellow citizens will feel the force of the LORD's anger. But if you do your duty, you will not be guilty.

2Ch 19:11 Amariah the High Priest will have final authority in all religious cases, and Zebadiah son of Ishmael, governor of Judah, will have final authority in all civil cases. The Levites have the responsibility of seeing that the decisions of the courts are carried out. Be courageous and carry out these instructions, and may the LORD be on the side of the right!"

II KRONIEKE 19

1Koning Josafat van Juda het behoue tuis gekom in Jerusalem. 2Daar het die siener Jehu seun van Ganani hom voorgestaan en vir koning Josafat gesê: Wou u 'n goddelose help en aan 'n hater van die Here liefde betoon? Met hierdie optrede van u het u die toorn van die Here op u laat kom. 3Tog, daar is ook goeie dinge by u te vinde: u het die gewyde pale in die land verbrand en u daarop ingestel om na die wil van God te vra. 4Nadat Josafat 'n tyd in Jerusalem gebly het, het hy weer 'n keer sy mense besoek, van Berseba af tot in die Efraimsberge, en die volk laat terugkom na die Here, die God van hulle voorvaders. 5Van stad tot stad, in al die vestingstede van Juda, het hy regters in die land aangestel 6en hulle opdrag gegee: Let goed op wat julle doen, want julle oefen die regspraak uit nie vir mense nie, maar vir die Here. Die verantwoordelikheid vir die reg rus op julle. 7Mag die vrees vir die Here julle bybly! Wees versigtig en doen julle plig. By die Here ons God is daar nie onreg en bevoordeling en korrupsie nie. 8Ook in Jerusalem het Josafat persone aangestel vir die regspraak van die Here en vir die beslegting van gedinge tussen inwoners van die stad. Die regters is aangestel uit die Leviete en die priesters en die familiehoofde van Israel. 9Hy het hulle beveel: Julle moet julle opdrag uitvoer in eerbied vir die Here, in trou en in volkome onpartydigheid. 10In elke saak wat aan julle voorgelê word deur julle volksgenote wat oral in julle stede woon, of dit nou gaan om doodslag of om 'n oortreding van die wet, die gebod, die voorskrifte en die bepalings, moet julle julle volksgenote behoorlik waarsku dat hulle hulle nie skuldig maak aan 'n misdaad teen die Here en daardeur die toorn van die Here oor julle en oor hulle laat kom nie. As julle dit so doen, sal julle julle nie skuldig maak aan 'n misdaad teen die Here nie. 11Die hoëpriester Amarja is die hoogste gesag oor julle vir alle sake van die Here, en Sebadja seun van Ismael en hoof van die stam Juda vir alle sake van die koning. Die Levitiese regsbeamptes is tot julle beskikking. Staan sterk en doen julle plig. Die Here is aan die kant van die goeie.

2Chronicles 20

Jehoshaphat's Prayer

2Ch 20:1 Some time later the armies of Moab and Ammon, together with their allies, the Meunites, invaded Judah.

2Ch 20:2 Some messengers came and announced to King Jehoshaphat: "A large army from Edom has come from the other side of the Dead Sea to attack you. They have already captured Hazazon Tamar." (This is another name for Engedi.)

2Ch 20:3 Jehoshaphat was frightened and prayed to the LORD for guidance. Then he gave orders for a fast to be observed throughout the country.

2Ch 20:4 From every city of Judah people hurried to Jerusalem to ask the LORD for guidance,

2Ch 20:5 and they and the people of Jerusalem gathered in the new courtyard of the Temple. King Jehoshaphat went and stood before them

2Ch 20:6 and prayed aloud, "O LORD God of our ancestors, you rule in heaven over all the nations of the world. You are powerful and mighty, and no one can oppose you.

2Ch 20:7 You are our God. When your people Israel moved into this land, you drove out the people who were living here and gave the land to the descendants of Abraham, your friend, to be theirs forever.

2Ch 20:8 They have lived here and have built a temple to honor you, knowing 2Ch 20:9 that if any disaster struck them to punish them—a war, an epidemic, or a famine—then they could come and stand in front of this Temple where you are worshiped. They could pray to you in their trouble, and you would hear them and rescue them.

2Ch 20:10 "Now the people of Ammon, Moab, and Edom have attacked us. When our ancestors came out of Egypt, you did not allow them to enter those lands, so our ancestors went around them and did not destroy them.

2Ch 20:11 This is how they repay us—they come to drive us out of the land that you gave us.

2Ch 20:12 You are our God! Punish them, for we are helpless in the face of this large army that is attacking us. We do not know what to do, but we look to you for help."

2Ch 20:13 All the men of Judah, with their wives and children, were standing there at the Temple.

2Ch 20:14 The spirit of the LORD came upon a Levite who was present in the crowd. His name was Jahaziel son of Zechariah; he was a member of the clan of Asaph and was descended from Asaph through Mattaniah, Jeiel, and Benaiah.

2Ch 20:15 Jahaziel said, "Your Majesty and all you people of Judah and Jerusalem, the LORD says that you must not be discouraged or be afraid to face this large army. The battle depends on God, not on you.

2Ch 20:16 Attack them tomorrow as they come up the pass at Ziz. You will meet them at the end of the valley that leads to the wild country near Jeruel.

2Ch 20:17 You will not have to fight this battle. Just take up your positions and wait; you will see the LORD give you victory. People of Judah and Jerusalem, do not hesitate or be afraid. Go out to battle, and the LORD will be with you!"

2Ch 20:18 Then King Jehoshaphat bowed low, with his face touching the ground, and all the people bowed with him and worshiped the LORD.

2Ch 20:19 The members of the Levite clans of Kohath and Korah stood up and with a loud shout praised the LORD, the God of Israel.

2Ch 20:20 Early the next morning the people went out to the wild country near Tekoa. As they were starting out, Jehoshaphat addressed them with these words: "People of Judah and Jerusalem! Put your trust in the LORD your God, and you will stand your ground. Believe what his prophets tell you, and you will succeed."

2Ch 20:21 After consulting with the people, the king ordered some musicians to put on the robes they wore on sacred occasions and to march ahead of the army, singing: "Praise the LORD! His love is eternal!"

2Ch 20:22 When they began to sing, the LORD threw the invading armies into a panic.

2Ch 20:23 The Ammonites and the Moabites attacked the Edomite army and completely destroyed it, and then they turned on each other in savage fighting.

The Lord Delivers Judah

2Ch 20:24 When the Judean army reached a tower that was in the desert, they looked toward the enemy and saw that they were all lying on the ground dead. Not one had escaped.

2Ch 20:25 Jehoshaphat and his troops moved in to take the loot, and they found many cattle, supplies, clothing, and other valuable objects. They spent three days gathering the loot, but there was so much that they could not take everything.

2Ch 20:26 On the fourth day they assembled in Beracah Valley and praised the LORD for all he had done. That is why the valley is called "Beracah."

2Ch 20:27 Jehoshaphat led his troops back to Jerusalem in triumph, because the LORD had defeated their enemies.

2Ch 20:28 When they reached the city, they marched to the Temple to the music of harps and trumpets.

2Ch 20:29 Every nation that heard how the LORD had defeated Israel's enemies was terrified, 2Ch 20:30 so Jehoshaphat ruled in peace, and God gave him security on every side.

2Ch 20:31 Jehoshaphat had become king of Judah at the age of thirty-five and had ruled in Jerusalem for twenty-five years. His mother was Azubah, the daughter of Shilhi.

2Ch 20:32 Like his father Asa before him, he did what was right in the sight of the LORD;

2Ch 20:33 but the pagan places of worship were not destroyed. The people still did not turn wholeheartedly to the worship of the God of their ancestors.

2Ch 20:34 Everything else that Jehoshaphat did, from the beginning of his reign to its end, is recorded in The History of Jehu Son of Hanani,which is a part of The History of the Kings of Israel.

The End of Jehoshaphat's Reign

2Ch 20:35 At one time King Jehoshaphat of Judah made an alliance with King Ahaziah of Israel, who did many wicked things.

2Ch 20:36 At the port of Eziongeber they built ocean-going ships.

2Ch 20:37 But Eliezer son of Dodavahu, from the town of Mareshah, warned Jehoshaphat, "Because you have made an alliance with Ahaziah, the LORD will destroy what you have built." And the ships were wrecked and never sailed.

II KRONIEKE 20

1Later het die Moabiete en die Ammoniete, en saam met hulle 'n groep Meüniete , 'n veldtog teen Josafat begin. 2Josafat het berig gekry: 'n Groot menigte van oorkant die Dooie See, van Edom af, het teen u opgetrek. Hulle is al by Gaseson-Tamar, dit is En-Gedi. 3Josafat was bang en het by die Here hulp gesoek. Hy het 'n vasdag in die hele Juda uitgeroep, 4en die Judeërs het bymekaargekom om die hulp van die Here te vra. Uit al die stede van Juda het hulle gekom om die Here se hulp te vra. 5Josafat het opgestaan in die gemeente van Juda en Jerusalem, in die tempel reg voor die nuwe voorhof, 6en gebid: Here, God van ons voorvaders, U is God. U heers uit die hemel oor al die koninkryke van die nasies. Uit u hand kom die mag en die krag. Niemand kan teen U stand hou nie. 7Dit is U, ons God, wat die vroeëre inwoners van hierdie land voor u volk Israel uit verdryf het en die land aan die nageslag van u vriend Abraham as 'n blywende besitting gegee het. 8Hulle het hulle hier gevestig en hier vir u Naam 'n heiligdom gebou en gesê: 9As U 'n ramp oor ons bring, of 'n oorlog om ons te straf, of pes, of hongersnood, sal ons voor hierdie tempel kom staan, voor U, want u Naam is in hierdie tempel, en ons sal na U om hulp roep uit ons nood. Hoor dan en help ons!' 10Nou het die mense van Ammon en Moab en die Seïrberge gekom. U het Israel met sy trek uit Egipte nie toegelaat om in hulle gebied te kom nie. Die Israeliete het daardie mense vermy en hulle nie uitgeroei nie. 11Maar nou vergoed hulle ons deur te kom en ons uit u besitting te wil verdryf wat U aan ons gegee het. 12Ons God, sal U hulle nie straf nie, want ons het nie die krag om hierdie groot menigte wat teen ons optrek, te weerstaan nie. Ons weet nie wat om te doen nie. Ons oë is op U gerig. 13Die hele Juda en hulle afhanklikes, vrouens en kinders, het daar voor die Here gestaan. 14Toe kom die Gees van die Here daar in die gemeente oor die Leviet Jagasiël seun van Sagaria, seun van Benaja, seun van Jeïel, seun van Mattanja, uit die nageslag van Asaf, 15en sê: Luister, mense van Juda, inwoners van Jerusalem en koning Josafat! So sê die Here vir julle: Moenie vrees nie, moenie bang wees vir hierdie groot menigte nie, want hierdie oorlog is nie 'n saak vir julle nie, maar vir God. 16Trek hulle môre tegemoet wanneer hulle in die Bloeiselpas opkom. Julle sal hulle aantref by die punt van die vallei wat in die Jeruelwoestyn uitloop. 17Julle hoef nie te veg nie, neem net posisie in en staan en kyk na die oorwinning van die Here vir julle. Moenie vrees nie, Juda en Jerusalem, moenie bang wees nie. Trek hulle môre tegemoet. Die Here sal by julle wees. 18Toe kniel Josafat, en al die mense van Juda en Jerusalem het voor die Here gebuig en Hom eer betoon. 19Daarna het die Leviete van die Kehat- en die

Koraggroepe opgestaan en die Here die God van Israel uit volle bors geprys. [20]Josafat-hulle is die volgende môre vroeg uit na die Tekoawoestyn toe. Terwyl die manne vertrek, het Josafat daar gestaan en hulle toegespreek: Luister na my, Juda en inwoners van Jerusalem! Stel julle vertroue in die Here julle God, en julle sal vas staan. Stel julle vertroue in sy profete, en dit sal goed gaan met julle. [21]Josafat het met die volk oorleg gepleeg en toe sangers laat plek neem voor die gewapende manne. Hulle het vooruit geloop in hulle gewyde klere en die Here geloof met die woorde: Loof die Here, aan sy liefde is daar geen einde nie.[22]Juis toe, toe die sangers met die lofprysing en gebed begin, het die Here onverwagte aanvalle bewerk op die Ammoniete, die Moabiete en die mense van die Seïrberge wat teen Juda opgetrek het, en hulle het die een neerlaag na die ander gely. [23]Toe val die Ammoniete en die Moabiete die inwoners van die Seïrberge aan en spaar niemand nie en roei hulle uit. En toe hulle klaar was met die inwoners van Seïr, het hulle mekaar begin uitdelg. [24]Toe die Judeërs by die uitkykpos teenaan die woestyn kom en na die magtige vyand soek, lê daar net lyke op die grond. Daar was nie een oorlewende nie. [25]Josafat en sy manskappe het die buit bymekaar kom maak en 'n groot hoeveelheid gekry: persoonlike besittings aan die lyke en allerlei kosbare goed. Hulle het soveel gekry dat hulle dit nie kon dra nie. Drie dae lank was hulle besig om die buit bymekaar te maak, soveel was dit. [26]Op die vierde dag het hulle 'n samekoms gehou in die Lofdal. Hulle het die Here daar geloof, daarom noem hulle dié plek tot vandag toe die Lofdal. [27]Al die manne van Juda en Jerusalem, met Josafat aan die hoof, is toe met groot blydskap terug Jerusalem toe. Die Here het hulle bly gemaak oor hulle vyande. [28]Hulle is terug na Jerusalem, na die huis van die Here toe, met harpe, liere en trompette. [29]Al die koninkryke was van skrik bevange vir God toe hulle hoor dat die Here oorlog gevoer het teen die vyande van Israel. [30]Die heerskappy van Josafat het rustig voortgegaan, en sy God het hom na alle kante toe rus gegee. [31]Josafat het oor Juda geregeer. Hy was vyf en dertig toe hy koning geword het en het vyf en twintig jaar lank in Jerusalem geregeer. Sy ma was Asuba 'n dogter van Silgi. [32]Hy het die pad van Asa, sy pa, geloop en daar nie van afgewyk nie. Hy het gedoen wat reg is in die oë van die Here. [33]Die hoogtes het egter nie verdwyn nie, en die volk het hulle hart nog nie voluit op die God van hulle voorvaders gerig nie. [34]Die ander verhale oor Josafat, dié van vroeër en dié van later, is opgeteken in Die Verhale van Jehu Seun van Ganani, wat opgeneem is in die annale van die konings van Israel. [35]Later het koning Josafat van Juda 'n vennootskap aangegaan met koning Ahasia van Israel, 'n goddelose man. [36]Josafat het die vennootskap met hom aangegaan om skepe te bou wat na Tarsis toe kon vaar. Hulle het die skepe gebou in Esjon-Geber. [37]Eliëser seun van Dodawa, uit Maresa, het 'n profesie teen Josafat uitgespreek en gesê: Omdat jy 'n vennootskap met Ahasia aangegaan het, sal die Here hierdie onderneming van jou laat misluk. Die skepe het vergaan en het Tarsis nie bereik nie.

2Chronicles 21

Jehoram Reigns in Judah

2Ch 21:1 Jehoshaphat died and was buried in the royal tombs in David's City and his son Jehoram succeeded him as king.

2Ch 21:2 Jehoram son of King Jehoshaphat of Judah had six brothers: Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, Azariahu, Michael, and Shephatiah.

2Ch 21:3 Their father gave them large amounts of gold, silver, and other valuable possessions, and placed each one in charge of one of the fortified cities of Judah. But because Jehoram was the oldest, Jehoshaphat made him his successor.

2Ch 21:4 When Jehoram was in firm control of the kingdom, he had all his brothers killed, and also some Israelite officials.

2Ch 21:5 Jehoram became king at the age of thirty-two, and he ruled in Jerusalem for eight years.

2Ch 21:6 He followed the wicked example of King Ahab and the other kings of Israel, because he had married one of Ahab's daughters. He sinned against the LORD, 2Ch 21:7 but the LORD was not willing to destroy the dynasty of David, because he had made a covenant with David and promised that his descendants would always continue to rule.

2Ch 21:8 During Jehoram's reign Edom revolted against Judah and became an independent kingdom.

2Ch 21:9 So Jehoram and his officers set out with chariots and invaded Edom. There the Edomite army surrounded them, but during the night they managed to break out and escape.

2Ch 21:10 Edom has been independent of Judah ever since. During this same period the city of Libnah also revolted, because Jehoram had abandoned the LORD, the God of his ancestors.

2Ch 21:11 He even built pagan places of worship in the Judean highlands and led the people of Judah and Jerusalem to sin against the LORD.

2Ch 21:12 The prophet Elijah sent Jehoram a letter, which read as follows: "The LORD, the God of your ancestor David, condemns you, because you did not follow the example of your father, King Jehoshaphat, or that of your grandfather, King Asa.

2Ch 21:13 Instead, you have followed the example of the kings of Israel and have led the people of Judah and Jerusalem into being unfaithful to God, just as Ahab and his successors led Israel into unfaithfulness. You even murdered your brothers, who were better men than you are.

2Ch 21:14 As a result, the LORD will severely punish your people, your children, and your wives, and will destroy your possessions.

2Ch 21:15 You yourself will suffer a painful intestinal disease that will grow worse day by day."

2Ch 21:16 Some Philistines and Arabs lived near where some Ethiopians had settled along the coast. The LORD caused them to go to war against Jehoram.

2Ch 21:17 They invaded Judah, looted the royal palace, and carried off as prisoners all the king's wives and sons except Ahaziah, his youngest son.

2Ch 21:18 Then after all this, the LORD brought on the king a painful disease of the intestines.

2Ch 21:19 For almost two years it grew steadily worse until finally the king died in agony. His subjects did not light a bonfire in mourning for him as had been done for his ancestors.

2Ch 21:20 Jehoram had become king at the age of thirty-two and had ruled in Jerusalem for eight years. Nobody was sorry when he died. They buried him in David's City, but not in the royal tombs.

II KRONIEKE 21

1Josafat is oorlede, en hy is begrawe in die familiegraf in die Dawidstad. Sy seun Joram het hom as koning opgevolg. 2Joram het 'n hele paar broers gehad: Asarja, Jegiël, Sagaria, Asarja, Migael en Sefatja. Hulle was almal seuns van koning Josafat van Juda . 3Hulle pa het vir hulle groot geskenke gegee, silwer, goud en ander kosbaarhede en ook vestingstede in Juda, maar die koningskap het hy aan Joram gegee, want dié was die oudste. 4Nadat Joram die koningskap van sy pa oorgeneem het en seker van sy saak was, het hy al sy broers en ook van die Israelitiese leiers laat vermoor. 5Hy was twee en dertig toe hy koning geword het en het ag jaar lank in Jerusalem geregeer. 6Hy het die pad van die konings van Israel geloop soos die koningshuis van Agab gedoen het, want hy was getroud met 'n dogter van Agab. Hy het gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here. 7Die Here wou egter nie die koningshuis van Dawid uitroei nie, want Hy het met Dawid 'n verbond gesluit en het belowe om vir Dawid en sy nageslag die troon vir altyd te verseker. 8In die tyd van Joram het die Edomiete teen Juda gerebelleer en 'n eie koning oor hulle aangestel. 9Joram het met sy offisiere en sy hele strydwamag uitgetrek en het in die nag 'n aanval gemaak op die Edomiete wat hom en sy strydwaoffisiere omsingel het. 10Die Edomiete het egter tog onafhanklik geword, en is dit vandag nog. In dié tyd het ook Libna teen die gesag van Joram in opstand gekom. Dit was omdat Joram nie die Here die God van sy voorvaders gedien het nie. 11Bowendien het Joram hoogtes ingerig in die berge van Juda, die inwoners van Jerusalem tot ontrou verlei en Juda 'n verkeerde pad laat loop. 12Daar het vir hom 'n brief van die profeet Elia af gekom wat soos volg gelui het: So sê die Here die God van jou voorvader Dawid: Omdat jy nie die pad van jou vader Josafat en van koning Asa van Juda loop nie, 13maar dié van die konings van Israel, en jy Juda en die inwoners van Jerusalem net so ontrou laat word het as die familie van Agab, en jy jou familie, jou eie broers, beter mense as jy, laat vermoor het, 14daarom sal die Here 'n groot ramp bring oor jou volk, jou kinders, jou vrouens en al wat jy besit. 15Jy self sal 'n ernstige siekte opdoen, 'n slepende siekte aan jou ingewande, so erg dat jou ingewande sal uitkom. 16Die Here het toe die Filistyne en die Arabiere wat bure van die Kussiete was, vyande van Joram laat word. 17Hulle het 'n inval in Juda gemaak en al die koninklike besittings in die paleis geroof, en ook sy seuns en sy vrouens. Al seun wat hulle vir hom laat oorbly het, was Joahas , sy jongste. 18Daarna het die Here vir Joram getref met 'n ongeneeslike siekte in sy ingewande. 19Mettertyd, na omtrent twee jaar, het sy ingewande uitgekom as gevolg van die siekte, en hy het 'n pynlike dood gesterf. Sy volk het nie met sy dood vure aangesteek soos hulle dit vir sy voorvaders gedoen het nie. [20]Joram was twee en dertig toe hy koning geword het en hy het ag jaar lank in Jerusalem geregeer. Sy heengaan is nie betreur nie. Hy is in die Dawidstad begrawe, maar nie in 'n koningsgraf nie.

2Chronicles 22

Ahaziah Reigns in Judah

2Ch 22:1 Some Arabs had led a raid and killed all of King Jehoram's sons except Ahaziah, the youngest. So now the people of Jerusalem made Ahaziah king as his father's successor.

2Ch 22:2 (2-3) Ahaziah became king at the age of twenty-two, and he ruled in Jerusalem for one year. Ahaziah also followed the example of King Ahab's family, since his mother Athaliah—the daughter of King Ahab and granddaughter of King Omri of Israel—gave him advice that led him into evil.

2Ch 22:4 He sinned against the LORD, because after his father's death other members of King Ahab's family became his advisers, and they led to his downfall.

2Ch 22:5 Following their advice, he joined King Joram of Israel in a war against King Hazael of Syria. The armies clashed at Ramoth in Gilead, and Joram was wounded in battle.

2Ch 22:6 He returned to the city of Jezreel to recover from his wounds, and Ahaziah went there to visit him.

2Ch 22:7 God used this visit to Joram to bring about Ahaziah's downfall. While Ahaziah was there, he and Joram were confronted by a man named Jehu son of Nimshi, whom the LORD had chosen to destroy the dynasty of Ahab.

2Ch 22:8 As Jehu was carrying out God's sentence on the dynasty, he came across a group made up of Judean leaders and of Ahaziah's nephews that had accompanied Ahaziah on his visit. Jehu killed them all.

2Ch 22:9 A search was made for Ahaziah, and he was found hiding in Samaria. They took him to Jehu and put him to death. But they did bury his body out of respect for his grandfather King Jehoshaphat, who had done all he could to serve the LORD. No member of Ahaziah's family was left who could rule the kingdom.

Athaliah Reigns in Judah

2Ch 22:10 As soon as King Ahaziah's mother Athaliah learned of her son's murder, she gave orders for all the members of the royal family of Judah to be killed.

2Ch 22:11 Ahaziah had a half sister, Jehosheba, who was married to a priest named Jehoiada. She secretly rescued one of Ahaziah's sons, Joash, took him away from the other princes who were about to be murdered and hid him and a nurse in a bedroom at the Temple. By keeping him hidden, she saved him from death at the hands of Athaliah.

2Ch 22:12 For six years he remained there in hiding, while Athaliah ruled as queen.

II KRONIEKE 22

1Die inwoners van Jerusalem het vir Ahasia, die jongste seun van Joram, koning gemaak in sy pa se plek. Die ouer seuns is dood toe die bende Arabiere die inval gemaak het. So het Ahasia seun van koning Joram van Juda aan die bewind gekom. 2Hy was twee en veertig toe hy koning geword het en was 'n jaar lank koning in Jerusalem. Sy ma was Atalia, 'n dogter van Omri. 3Ook hy het die pad van die koningshuis van Agab geloop; sy ma was die een wat hom die raad gegee het om so verkeerd op te tree. 4Hy het gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here, net soos die koningshuis van Agab, want na sy pa se dood was hulle sy raadgewers, en dit het sy ondergang beteken. 5Dit was ook op hulle advies dat hy saam met Joram seun van koning Agab van Israel betrokke geraak het in 'n oorlog teen koning Gasael van die Arameërs in Ramot in Gilead. Joram is deur die Arameërs gewond 6en is terug na Jisreël toe om te genees van die wonde wat hy in Ramot opgedoen het toe hy teen die Aramese koning Gasael geveg het. Koning Asarja van Juda, seun van Joram, het vir Joram seun van Agab in Jisreël gaan besoek, want Joram was siek. 7Ahasia se ondergang met sy besoek aan Joram is deur God beskik. Na sy aankoms het hy saam met Joram opgetrek teen Jehu seun van Nimsi. Die Here het vir Jehu aangewys om die koningshuis van Agab uit te roei, 8en Jehu was toe juis besig om die straf van God oor die koningshuis van Agab te voltrek. Hy het die amptenare van Juda en die seuns van Ahasia se broers wat in Ahasia se gevolg was, raakgeloop en hulle doodgemaak. 9Daarna het hy na Ahasia gesoek. Ahasia is gevang waar hy in Samaria probeer wegkruip het, en na Jehu toe gebring, waar hy ook doodgemaak is. Ahasia is behoorlik begrawe, want die mense het gesê: Hy is die kleinseun van Josafat, en Josafat het die Here met sy hele hart gedien. In dié stadium was daar niemand uit die koningshuis van Ahasia wat die regering kon oorneem nie. 10Toe Ahasia se ma, Atalia, hoor haar seun is dood, het sy al die aanspraakmakers op die troon van Juda uit die weg geruim. 11Een van die prinsesse, Jehoseba, het egter vir Joas, 'n seun van Ahasia, gegryp en hom stilletjies weggevat tussen die prinse wat doodgemaak sou word. Sy het hom en sy oppasster na 'n slaapkamer toe geneem en hom daar weggesteek sodat Atalia hom nie kon kry om hom te laat doodmaak nie. Jehoseba was 'n dogter van koning Joram en 'n suster van Ahasia. Sy was getroud met die priester Jojada. 12Joas is ses jaar by hulle in die tempel versteek, en in dié tyd het Atalia die land geregeer.

2Chronicles 23

Joash Made King

2Ch 23:1 After waiting six years Jehoiada the priest decided that it was time to take action. He made a pact with five army officers: Azariah son of Jeroham, Ishmael son of Jehohanan, Azariah son of Obed, Maaseiah son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat son of Zichri.

2Ch 23:2 They traveled to all the cities of Judah and brought back with them to Jerusalem the Levites and all the heads of the clans.

2Ch 23:3 They all gathered in the Temple, and there they made a covenant with Joash, the king's son. Jehoiada said to them, "Here is the son of the late king. He is now to be king, as the LORD promised that King David's descendants would be.

2Ch 23:4 This is what we will do. When the priests and Levites come on duty on the Sabbath, one third of them will guard the Temple gates, 2Ch 23:5 another third will guard the royal palace, and the rest will be stationed at the Foundation Gate. All the people will assemble in the Temple courtyard.

2Ch 23:6 No one is to enter the Temple buildings except the priests and the Levites who are on duty. They may enter, because they are consecrated, but the rest of the people must obey the LORD's instructions and stay outside.

2Ch 23:7 The Levites are to stand guard around the king, with their swords drawn, and are to stay with the king wherever he goes. Anyone who tries to enter the Temple is to be killed."

2Ch 23:8 The Levites and the people of Judah carried out Jehoiada's instructions. The men were not dismissed when they went off duty on the Sabbath, so the commanders had available both those coming on duty and those going off.

2Ch 23:9 Jehoiada gave the officers the spears and shields that had belonged to King David and had been kept in the Temple.

2Ch 23:10 He stationed the men with drawn swords all around the front of the Temple, to protect the king.

2Ch 23:11 Then Jehoiada led Joash out, placed the crown on his head, and gave him a copy of the laws governing kingship. And so he was made king. Jehoiada the priest and his sons anointed Joash, and everyone shouted, "Long live the king!"

Athaliah Executed

2Ch 23:12 Athaliah heard the people cheering for the king, so she hurried to the Temple, where the crowd had gathered.

2Ch 23:13 There she saw the new king at the Temple entrance, standing by the column reserved for kings and surrounded by the army officers and the trumpeters. All the people were shouting joyfully and blowing trumpets, and the Temple musicians with their instruments were leading the celebration. She tore her clothes in distress and shouted, "Treason! Treason!"

2Ch 23:14 Jehoiada did not want Athaliah killed in the Temple area, so he called out the army officers and said, "Take her out between the rows of guards, and kill anyone who tries to rescue her."

2Ch 23:15 They seized her, took her to the palace, and there at the Horse Gate they killed her.

Jehoiada's Reforms

2Ch 23:16 The priest Jehoiada had King Joash and the people join him in making a covenant that they would be the LORD's people.

2Ch 23:17 Then they all went to the temple of Baal and tore it down. They smashed the altars and idols there and killed Mattan, the priest of Baal, in front of the altars.

2Ch 23:18 Jehoiada put the priests and Levites in charge of the work of the Temple. They were to carry out the duties assigned to them by King David and to burn the sacrifices offered to the LORD in accordance with the Law of Moses. They were also in charge of the music and the celebrations.

2Ch 23:19 Jehoiada also put guards on duty at the Temple gates to keep out anyone who was ritually unclean.

2Ch 23:20 The army officers, the leading citizens, the officials, and all the rest of the people joined Jehoiada in a procession that brought the king from the Temple to the palace. They entered by the main gate, and the king took his place on the throne.

2Ch 23:21 All the people were filled with happiness, and the city was quiet, now that Athaliah had been killed.

II KRONIEKE 23

1In die sewende jaar het Jojada besluit om op te tree. Hy het 'n paar bevelhebbers oor honderd in sy vertroue geneem: Asarja seun van Jerogam, Ismael seun van Joganan, Asarja seun van Obed, Maäseja seun van Adaja, en Elisafat seun van Sikri. 2Hulle het in Juda rondgegaan en die Leviete uit al die stede van Juda bymekaargemaak, en ook die familiehoofde van Israel. Almal is na Jerusalem toe, 3en daar het die hele gemeente in die tempel 'n verbond met koning Joas gesluit. Jojada het vir hulle gesê: Die seun van koning Ahasia moet koning word volgens die belofte van die Here oor die nageslag van Dawid. 4Dit is julle opdragte: 'n derde van julle, van dié wat op die sabbat diens doen as priesters en Leviete, moet drumpelwagte wees; 5'n derde moet by die paleis wees, en die ander derde by die Fondamentpoort. Al die ander mense moet in die voorhof van die huis van die Here wees. 6Niemand mag in die huis van die Here ingaan nie behalwe die priesters en die Leviete wat daar diens doen. Húlle kan ingaan, want hulle is daartoe gewy. Al die ander mense moet hulle aan die bepalings van die Here hou. 7Die Leviete moet om die koning wees, elkeen met sy wapen in sy hand. Enigiemand anders wat in die tempel wil ingaan, moet doodgemaak word. Bly by die koning, oral waar hy gaan. 8Die Leviete en die hele Juda het alles gedoen wat die priester Jojada beveel het. Elkeen het sy manne geneem, dié wat op die sabbat diens moes doen sowel as dié wat klaar was met hulle diens, want die priester Jojada het nie die priesterafdelings laat verdaag nie. 9Daarna het Jojada die spiese en die groot skilde en die klein ronde skilde wat nog aan koning Dawid behoort het en in die tempel van God was, aan die bevelhebbers oor honderd uitgedeel. 10Hy het al die manne, elkeen met sy spies in die hand, om die koning laat staan, naby die altaar en die tempel, van die suidekant tot by die noordekant van die tempel. 11Toe bring hulle die seun van die koning vorentoe en kroon hom en oorhandig aan hom die koninklike volmag. So het hulle hom koning gemaak. Jojada en sy seuns het hom gesalf en geroep: Lank lewe die koning! 12Atalia het gehoor hoe die mense hardloop en die koning huldig, en het ook na die huis van die Here toe gegaan waar hulle was. 13Daar sien sy toe die koning staan op sy plek by die ingang, en die volksleiers en die trompetblasers by hom, en al die burgers van die land wat juig en trompette blaas, en die sangers met hulle musiekinstrumente wat die jubelsang lei. Toe skeur Atalia haar klere en skreeu: Verraad! Verraad! 14Die priester Jojada stuur toe die bevelhebbers oor honderd wat in beheer van die manskappe was, en sê vir hulle: Bring haar uit die tempel uit! Elkeen wat agter haar aan gaan, moet doodgemaak word. Sy mag nie in die huis van die Here sterf nie. [15]Hulle het haar gegryp en haar na die Perdepoort by die paleis gevat en haar daar doodgemaak. [16]Jojada het met die volk en die koning 'n verbond gemaak dat hulle 'n volk sal wees wat die Here dien. [17]Daarna het die hele volk na die Baälstempel toe gegaan en dit verwoes. Hulle het die altare en die beelde stukkend geslaan en vir Mattan, die Baälspriester, by die altare doodgeslaan. [18]Jojada het die toesig oor die huis van die Here weer toevertrou aan die priesters en die Leviete wat deur Dawid daarvoor aangewys is. Hulle moes die brandoffers vir die Here bring soos dit voorgeskryf is in die wet van Moses, met gejuig en met sang soos Dawid dit gereël het. [19]Hy het ook wagte by die poorte van die huis van die Here geplaas sodat niemand kon inkom wat op die een of ander wyse onrein was nie. [20]Daarna het Jojada die bevelhebbers oor honderd, die hooggeplaastes, die hoë regeringsamptenare en al die burgers van die land met hom saamgeneem en die koning uit die huis van die Here gebring. Hulle het deur die Boonste Poort na die paleis toe gegaan, en daar het hulle die koning sy plek op die troon laat inneem. [21]Al die burgers van die land was bly. Die stad was rustig. Atalia was dood.

Joash Repairs the Temple

2Ch 24:1 Joash became king of Judah at the age of seven, and he ruled in Jerusalem for forty years. His mother was Zibiah from the city of Beersheba.

2Ch 24:2 He did what was pleasing to the LORD as long as Jehoiada the priest was alive.

2Ch 24:3 Jehoiada chose two wives for King Joash, and they bore him sons and daughters.

2Ch 24:4 After he had been king for a while, Joash decided to have the Temple repaired.

2Ch 24:5 He ordered the priests and the Levites to go to the cities of Judah and collect from all the people enough money to make the annual repairs on the Temple. He told them to act promptly, but the Levites delayed,

2Ch 24:6 so he called in Jehoiada, their leader, and demanded, "Why haven't you seen to it that the Levites collect from Judah and Jerusalem the tax which Moses, the servant of the LORD, required the people to pay for support of the Tent of the LORD's presence?"

2Ch 24:7 (The followers of Athaliah, that corrupt woman, had damaged the Temple and had used many of the sacred objects in the worship of Baal.)

2Ch 24:8 The king ordered the Levites to make a box for contributions and to place it at the Temple gate.

2Ch 24:9 They sent word throughout Jerusalem and Judah for everyone to bring to the LORD the tax which Moses, God's servant, had first collected in the wilderness.

2Ch 24:10 This pleased the people and their leaders, and they brought their tax money and filled the box with it.

2Ch 24:11 Every day the Levites would take the box to the royal official who was in charge of it. Whenever it was full, the royal secretary and the High Priest's representative would take the money out and return the box to its place. And so they collected a large sum of money.

2Ch 24:12 The king and Jehoiada would give the money to those who were in charge of repairing the Temple, and they hired stonemasons, carpenters, and metalworkers to make the repairs.

2Ch 24:13 All of them worked hard, and they restored the Temple to its original condition, as solid as ever.

2Ch 24:14 When the repairs were finished, the remaining gold and silver was given to the king and Jehoiada, who used it to have bowls and other utensils made for the Temple. As long as Jehoiada was alive, sacrifices were offered regularly at the Temple.

2Ch 24:15 After reaching the very old age of a hundred and thirty, he died.

2Ch 24:16 They buried him in the royal tombs in David's City in recognition of the service he had done for the people of Israel, for God, and for the Temple.

2Ch 24:17 But once Jehoiada was dead, the leaders of Judah persuaded King Joash to listen to them instead.

2Ch 24:18 And so the people stopped worshiping in the Temple of the LORD, the God of their ancestors, and began to worship idols and the images of the goddess Asherah. Their guilt for these sins brought the LORD's anger on Judah and Jerusalem.

2Ch 24:19 The LORD sent prophets to warn them to return to him, but the people refused to listen.

Joash's Treachery

2Ch 24:20 Then the spirit of God took control of Zechariah son of Jehoiada the priest. He stood where the people could see him and called out, "The LORD God asks why you have disobeyed his commands and are bringing disaster on yourselves! You abandoned him, so he has abandoned you!"

2Ch 24:21 King Joash joined in a conspiracy against Zechariah, and on the king's orders the people stoned Zechariah in the Temple courtyard.

2Ch 24:22 The king forgot about the loyal service that Zechariah's father Jehoiada had given him, and he had Zechariah killed. As Zechariah was dying, he called out, "May the LORD see what you are doing and punish you!"

Joash Assassinated

2Ch 24:23 When autumn came that year, the Syrian army attacked Judah and Jerusalem, killed all the leaders, and took large amounts of loot back to Damascus.

2Ch 24:24 The Syrian army was small, but the LORD let them defeat a much larger Judean army because the people had abandoned him, the LORD God of their ancestors. In this way King Joash was punished.

2Ch 24:25 He was severely wounded, and when the enemy withdrew, two of his officials plotted against him and killed him in his bed to avenge the murder of the son of Jehoiada the priest. He was buried in David's City, but not in the royal tombs.

2Ch 24:26 (Those who plotted against him were Zabad, the son of an Ammonite woman named Shimeath, and Jehozabad, the son of a Moabite woman named Shimrith.)

2Ch 24:27 The Commentary on the Book of Kings contains the stories of the sons of Joash, the prophecies spoken against him, and the record of how he rebuilt the Temple. His son Amaziah succeeded him as king.

II KRONIEKE 24

1Joas was sewe toe hy koning geword het en hy het veertig jaar in Jerusalem geregeer. Sy ma was Sibja, uit Berseba. 2Solank die priester Jojada geleef het, het Joas gedoen wat reg is in die oë van die Here. 3Jojada het vir Joas twee vrouens gekies, en Joas het seuns en dogters gehad. 4Joas het besluit om herstelwerk aan die huis van die Here te doen. 5Hy het die priesters en die Leviete bymekaar laat kom en vir hulle gesê: Gaan die stede van Juda deur en samel by al die Israeliete geld in om die huis van julle God te herstel soos dit van jaar tot jaar nodig mag wees. Doen dit dadelik. Die Leviete het die opdrag egter nie dadelik uitgevoer nie, 6en die koning het die hoëpriester Jojada laat roep en vir hom gevra: Waarom het jy nie toegesien dat die Leviete die bydraes uit Juda en Jerusalem inbring nie? Dit is tog die bydraes wat Moses, die dienaar van die Here, van die gemeente van Israel gevra het vir die tent met die getuienis! 7Dit was die goddelose Atalia en haar volgelinge wat die tempel in verval laat raak het. Hulle het selfs die wydingsgeskenke van die huis van die Here vir die Baäls gebruik. 8In opdrag van die koning is daar toe 'n kis gemaak en voor die tempelpoort gesit, 9en in Juda en in Jerusalem is aangekondig dat die bydraes wat Moses, die dienaar van die Here, in die woestyn al van Israel gevra het, vir die Here gebring moes word. 10Al die leiers en die hele volk het die geld met blymoedigheid gebring en in die kis gegooi. So het al die bydraes ingekom. 11Telkens wanneer die kis na die Leviete toe gebring is vir kontrole namens die koning, en hulle vasgestel het dat daar baie geld in is, het die sekretaris van die koning en 'n beampte van die hoëpriester gekom en die kis leeggemaak. Dit is dan weer op sy plek terug gesit. So het hulle elke keer gedoen, en daar is baie geld ingesamel. 12Die koning en Jojada het die geld oorhandig aan die mense wat vir die instandhouding van die huis van die Here moes sorg, en dié het klipkappers en ander vakmanne in diens geneem om die huis van die Here te herstel, en ook vakmanne in yster en brons vir die opknapwerk. 13Die werkers het gewerk en die herstelwerk het vinnig gevorder. Hulle het die tempel herbou sodat dit weer was soos vroeër; hulle het dit weer sterk gemaak. 14Nadat die werk afgehandel is, is die geld wat oorgebly het, aan die koning en Jojada oorhandig, wat daarmee tempelgereedskap laat maak het: gereedskap vir die tempeldiens en die offers, panne, en ook goue en silwergereedskap. Solank Jojada geleef het, is daar voortdurend brandoffers by die tempel gebring. 15Jojada het 'n hoë ouderdom bereik. Hy is dood toe hy honderd en dertig jaar was. 16Hy is in die Dawidstad begrawe, by die konings, omdat hy goeie werk gedoen het vir Israel, vir God en sy tempel. 17Na die dood van Jojada het die leiers van Juda die koning kom ophemel, en hy het hom dit laat geval. 18Toe het hulle die huis van die Here die God van hulle voorvaders verlaat en gewyde pale en afgodsbeelde gaan dien. Met dié sondige optrede van hulle het Juda en Jerusalem die toorn van die Here op hulle gehaal. 19Die Here het profete na hulle toe gestuur om hulle na Hom toe terug te bring, en die profete het hulle gewaarsku, maar hulle het nie geluister nie. 20Die Gees van God het vir Sagaria seun van die priester Jojada in besit geneem. Sagaria het voor die volk gaan staan en vir hulle gesê: So sê God: Waarom oortree julle die gebooie van die Here? Dit sal nie met julle goed gaan nie. Omdat julle die Here verlaat het, sal Hy julle verlaat. 21Maar hulle het 'n vals aanklag teen Sagaria bedink en hom op bevel van die koning met klippe doodgegooi in die voorhof van die huis van die Here. 22Koning Joas het nie gedink aan die liefde wat sy pleegvader Jojada aan hom bewys het nie. Hy het Jojada se seun vermoor. Sagaria het, toe hy sterf, gesê: Die Here sien dit, Hy sal julle straf! 23Met die wisseling van die jaar het die leër van die Arameërs 'n aanval op Joas gemaak. Hulle het Juda en Jerusalem binnegedring, al die leiers van die volk doodgemaak en die buit wat hulle gemaak het, vir die koning van Damaskus gestuur. 24Die Aramese leër het met 'n klein klompie manskappe gekom, en die Here het 'n baie groot leër in hulle mag oorgegee. Dit was omdat die volk die Here die God van hulle voorvaders verlaat het. Die Arameërs het die straf van God oor Joas voltrek. 25Toe hulle weggaan, het hulle hom swaar gewond agtergelaat, en sy eie amptenare het teen hom saamgesweer en hom in sy bed vermoor. Dit was omdat hy die seun van die priester Jojada laat doodmaak het. So is Joas dood. Hy is in die Dawidstad begrawe, maar nie in 'n koningsgraf nie. 26Die manne wat teen hom saamgesweer het, was die Ammoniet Sabad seun van Simat en die Moabiet Josabad seun van Somer. 27Die gegewens oor sy seuns, oor die grootte van die afkoopsom wat hy moes betaal, en oor die herbou van die tempel, is opgeneem in Die Kommentaar op die Boek van die Konings. Sy seun Amasia het hom as koning opgevolg.

Amaziah Reigns in Judah

2Ch 25:1 Amaziah became king at the age of twenty-five, and he ruled in Jerusalem for twenty-nine years. His mother was Jehoaddin from Jerusalem.

2Ch 25:2 He did what was pleasing to the LORD, but did it reluctantly.

2Ch 25:3 As soon as he was firmly in power, he executed the officials who had murdered his father.

2Ch 25:4 He did not, however, execute their children, but followed what the LORD had commanded in the Law of Moses: "Parents are not to be put to death for crimes committed by their children, and children are not to be put to death for crimes committed by their parents; people are to be put to death only for crimes they themselves have committed."

Amaziah's Victories

2Ch 25:5 King Amaziah organized all the men of the tribes of Judah and Benjamin into army units, according to the clans they belonged to, and placed officers in command of units of a thousand and units of a hundred. This included all men twenty years of age or older, 300,000 in all. They were picked troops, ready for battle, skilled in using spears and shields.

2Ch 25:6 In addition, he hired 100,000 soldiers from Israel at a cost of about four tons of silver.

2Ch 25:7 But a prophet went to the king and said to him, "Don't take these Israelite soldiers with you. The LORD is not with these people from the Northern Kingdom.

2Ch 25:8 You may think that they will make you stronger in battle, but it is God who has the power to give victory or defeat, and he will let your enemies defeat you."

2Ch 25:9 Amaziah asked the prophet, "But what about all that silver I have already paid for them?" The prophet replied, "The LORD can give you back more than that!"

2Ch 25:10 So Amaziah sent the hired troops away and told them to go home. At this they went home, bitterly angry with the people of Judah.

2Ch 25:11 Amaziah summoned up his courage and led his army to Salt Valley. There they fought and killed ten thousand Edomite soldiers 2Ch 25:12 and captured another ten thousand. They took the prisoners to the top of the cliff at the city of Sela and threw them off, so that they were killed on the rocks below.

2Ch 25:13 Meanwhile the Israelite soldiers that Amaziah had not allowed to go into battle with him attacked the Judean cities between Samaria and Beth Horon, killed three thousand men, and captured quantities of loot.

Amaziah's Idolatry

2Ch 25:14 When Amaziah returned from defeating the Edomites, he brought their idols back with him, set them up, worshiped them, and burned incense to them.

2Ch 25:15 This made the LORD angry, so he sent a prophet to Amaziah. The prophet demanded, "Why have you worshiped foreign gods that could not even save their own people from your power?"

2Ch 25:16 "Since when," Amaziah interrupted, "have we made you adviser to the king? Stop talking, or I'll have you killed!" The prophet stopped, but not before saying, "Now I know that God has decided to destroy you because you have done all this and have ignored my advice."

Israel Defeats Amaziah

2Ch 25:17 King Amaziah of Judah and his advisers plotted against Israel. He then sent a message to King Jehoash of Israel, who was the son of Jehoahaz and grandson of Jehu, challenging him to fight.

2Ch 25:18 Jehoash sent this answer to Amaziah: "Once a thorn bush in the Lebanon Mountains sent a message to a cedar: 'Give your daughter in marriage to my son.' A wild animal passed by and trampled the bush down.

2Ch 25:19 Now Amaziah, you boast that you have defeated the Edomites, but I advise you to stay at home. Why stir up trouble that will only bring disaster on you and your people?"

2Ch 25:20 But Amaziah refused to listen. It was God's will for Amaziah to be defeated, because he had worshiped the Edomite idols.

2Ch 25:21 So King Jehoash of Israel went into battle against King Amaziah of Judah. They met at Beth Shemesh in Judah, 2Ch 25:22 the Judean army was defeated, and the soldiers fled to their homes.

2Ch 25:23 Jehoash captured Amaziah and took him to Jerusalem. There he tore down the city wall from Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate, a distance of two hundred yards.

2Ch 25:24 He took back to Samaria as loot all the gold and silver in the Temple, the Temple equipment guarded by the descendants of Obed Edom, and the palace treasures. He also took hostages with him.

2Ch 25:25 King Amaziah of Judah outlived King Jehoash of Israel by fifteen years.

2Ch 25:26 All the other things that Amaziah did from the beginning to the end of his reign are recorded in The History of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

2Ch 25:27 Ever since the time when he rebelled against the LORD, there had been a plot against him in Jerusalem. Finally he fled to the city of Lachish, but his enemies followed him there and killed him.

2Ch 25:28 His body was carried to Jerusalem on a horse, and he was buried in the royal tombs in David's City.

II KRONIEKE 25

1Amasia het koning geword toe hy vyf en twintig was en hy het nege en twintig jaar in Jerusalem geregeer. Sy ma was Jehoaddan, uit Jerusalem. 2Hy het gedoen wat reg is in die oë van die Here, maar nie met sy hele hart nie. 3Nadat hy goed gevestig was in sy koningskap, het hy die amptenare deur wie sy pa, die koning, vermoor is, laat doodmaak. 4Hy het nie hulle kinders ook laat doodmaak nie, want, soos op bevel van die Here geskrywe staan in die wet, in die boek van Moses: Vaders mag nie oor die optrede van kinders en kinders nie oor die optrede van vaders doodgemaak word nie. Elkeen kan net vir sy eie sonde die doodstraf kry.5Amasia het die manskappe van Juda bymekaar laat kom en hulle familiegewys ingedeel onder bevelhebbers oor duisend en oor honderd die hele Juda, en ook Benjamin. Hy het dié van twintig jaar en ouer laat tel, en daar is gevind dat hulle drie honderd duisend was, geskik vir militêre diens en gewapen met spies en skild. 6Vir sowat drie en 'n halwe ton silwer het hy uit Israel nog honderd duisend soldate gehuur. 7Toe kom daar 'n man van God na hom toe en sê: Moenie die leër van Israel met u laat saamgaan nie, want die Here is nie by Israel, by die Efraimiete, nie. 8As u dit tog doen, doen dit dan, maar dan sal u krag nodig hê vir die stryd, want God sal u dan voor die vyand laat swig. God het die mag om te help of om te laat swig. 9Maar Amasia vra vir die man van God: En wat dan van die drie en 'n halwe ton silwer wat ek vir die Israelitiese leërafdeling betaal het? En die man van God antwoord: Die Here kan u meer as dit gee. 10Amasia het toe die leërafdeling wat uit Efraim by hom aangesluit het, ontslaan en huis toe laat gaan. Hulle was bitter kwaad vir Juda en is woedend terug huis toe. 11Daarna het Amasia die nodige moed bymekaargeskraap en sy manne na die Soutvlakte toe gelei waar hy tien duisend Edomiete verslaan het. 12Bowendien het die manne van Juda nog tien duisend lewendig gevange geneem, hulle bo op 'n krans gebring en hulle daar afgegooi. Almal het hulle te pletter geval. 13Intussen het die lede van die leërafdeling wat deur Amasia teruggestuur is sodat hulle nie saam met hom op die veldtog kon gaan nie, 'n strooptog teen die stede van Juda gemaak, van Samaria af tot by Bet-Goron. Hulle het drie duisend mense doodgemaak en baie buit weggedra. 14Toe Amasia van sy oorwinning oor die Edomiete af terugkom, het hy hulle afgodsbeelde saamgebring en die beelde vir homself opgestel as gode. Hy het hulle vereer en vir hulle offerandes gebring. 15Hieroor het die toorn van die Here teen Amasia ontvlam. Die Here het 'n profeet na hom toe gestuur en vir hom gesê: Waarom dien jy gode wat nie hulle eie volk uit jou hande kon red nie? 16Maar Amasia het die profeet in die rede geval:

Is jy aangestel as raadgewer van die koning? Bly stil. Soek jy jou dood? Die profeet het dit toe daargelaat en gesê: Ek weet nou dat God besluit het om u te vernietig. U maak daarna en u wil nie na my raad luister nie. 17Koning Amasia van Juda het op advies van sy raadgewers 'n boodskap gestuur na koning Joas van Israel, seun van Joahas: Kom ons veg teen mekaar. 18Koning Joas van Israel het vir koning Amasia van Juda terug laat weet: Die doringbos op die Libanon laat weet vir die seder op die Libanon: Laat jou dogter met my seun trou,' en toe kom die wilde diere van die Libanon verby en trap die doringbos plat. 19Jy dink noudat jy vir Edom verslaan het, kan jy meer roem soek. Bly liewer by die huis. Waarom wil jy jou in die ongeluk stort en tot 'n val kom, jy en Juda saam met jou? 20Amasia het hom nie laat waarsku nie, want God het dit so bewerk om hom in Joas se mag oor te gee. Dit was omdat Amasia-hulle die gode van Edom gedien het. 21Koning Joas van Israel het toe opgetrek en hy en koning Amasia van Juda het slaags geraak in Bet-Semes in Juda. 22Juda het 'n neerlaag gely teen Israel, en die manskappe het op die vlug geslaan, elkeen na sy huis toe. 23Koning Joas van Israel het vir koning Amasia van Juda, seun van Joas seun van Joahas, gevange geneem in Bet-Semes en hom na Jerusalem toe gebring. Daar het Joas 'n stuk muur van Jerusalem laat afbreek, van die Efraimspoort af tot by die Hoekpoort, honderd en tagtig meter. 24Hy het al die goud en silwer gevat, al die tempelgereedskap wat destyds in die tempel by Obed-Edom was, die koninklike skat, en ook nog gyselaars, en toe is hy terug Samaria toe. 25Amasia seun van koning Joas van Juda het ná die dood van koning Joas van Israel, seun van Joahas, nog vyftien jaar geleef. 26Die ander verhale oor Amasia, dié van vroeër sowel as dié van later, is opgeteken in die annale van die konings van Juda en Israel. 27Van die tyd dat Amasia van die Here af weggedraai het, was daar in Jerusalem sameswerings teen hom. Hy het na Lakis toe gevlug, maar hulle het mense agter hom aan gestuur daarheen en hulle het hom daar doodgemaak. 28Hulle het sy lyk met perde teruggebring, en hom in sy familiegraf in die hoofstad van Juda begrawe.

2Chronicles 26

Uzziah Reigns in Judah

2Ch 26:1 All the people of Judah chose Amaziah's sixteen-year-old son Uzziah to succeed his father as king.

2Ch 26:2 (It was after the death of Amaziah that Uzziah recaptured Elath and rebuilt the city.)

2Ch 26:3 Uzziah became king at the age of sixteen, and he ruled in Jerusalem for fifty-two years. His mother was Jecoliah from Jerusalem.

2Ch 26:4 Following the example of his father, he did what was pleasing to the LORD.

2Ch 26:5 As long as Zechariah, his religious adviser, was living, he served the LORD faithfully, and God blessed him.

2Ch 26:6 Uzziah went to war against the Philistines. He tore down the walls of the cities of Gath, Jamnia, and Ashdod, and built fortified cities near Ashdod and in the rest of Philistia.

2Ch 26:7 God helped him defeat the Philistines, the Arabs living at Gurbaal, and the Meunites.

2Ch 26:8 The Ammonites paid tribute to Uzziah, and he became so powerful that his fame spread even to Egypt.

2Ch 26:9 Uzziah strengthened the fortifications of Jerusalem by building towers at the Corner Gate, at the Valley Gate, and where the wall turned.

2Ch 26:10 He also built fortified towers in the open country and dug many cisterns, because he had large herds of livestock in the western foothills and plains. Because he loved farming, he encouraged the people to plant vineyards in the hill country and to farm the fertile land.

2Ch 26:11 He had a large army ready for battle. Its records were kept by his secretaries Jeiel and Maaseiah under the supervision of Hananiah, a member of the king's staff.

2Ch 26:12 The army was commanded by 2,600 officers.

2Ch 26:13 Under them were 307,500 soldiers able to fight effectively for the king against his enemies.

2Ch 26:14 Uzziah supplied the army with shields, spears, helmets, coats of armor, bows and arrows, and stones for slinging.

2Ch 26:15 In Jerusalem his inventors made equipment for shooting arrows and for throwing large stones from the towers and corners of the city wall. His fame spread everywhere, and he became very powerful because of the help he received from God.

Uzziah's Pride and Punishment

2Ch 26:16 But when King Uzziah became strong, he grew arrogant, and that led to his downfall. He defied the LORD his God by going into the Temple to burn incense on the altar of incense.

2Ch 26:17 Azariah the priest, accompanied by eighty strong and courageous priests, followed the king

2Ch 26:18 to resist him. They said, "Uzziah! You have no right to burn incense to the LORD. Only the priests who are descended from Aaron have been consecrated to do this. Leave this holy place. You have offended the LORD God, and you no longer have his blessing."

2Ch 26:19 Uzziah was standing there in the Temple beside the incense altar and was holding an incense burner. He became angry with the priests, and immediately a dreaded skin disease broke out on his forehead.

2Ch 26:20 Azariah and the other priests stared at the king's forehead in horror and then forced him to leave the Temple. He hurried to get out, because the LORD had punished him.

2Ch 26:21 For the rest of his life King Uzziah was ritually unclean because of his disease. Unable to enter the Temple again, he lived in his own house, relieved of all duties, while his son Jotham governed the country.

2Ch 26:22 The prophet Isaiah son of Amoz recorded all the other things that King Uzziah did during his reign.

2Ch 26:23 Uzziah died and was buried in the royal burial ground, but because of his disease he was not buried in the royal tombs. His son Jotham succeeded him as king.

II KRONIEKE 26

1Die bevolking van Juda het vir Ussia gevat en hom in Amasia, sy pa, se plek koning gemaak. Hy was toe sestien jaar oud 2en het Elat herbou en onder die gesag van Juda teruggebring nadat die koning van daardie gebied dood is. 3Ussia was sestien toe hy koning geword het en hy het twee en vyftig jaar lank in Jerusalem geregeer. Sy ma was Jekolja, uit Jerusalem. 4Hy het gedoen wat reg is in die oë van die Here en in alles die voorbeeld van sy pa gevolg. 5Hy het na die wil van God gevra gedurende die hele lewe van Sagaria, wat insig in die openbaring van God gehad het. In die tyd dat Ussia na die wil van die Here gevra het, het God dit goed laat gaan met hom. 6Hy het 'n veldtog onderneem teen die Filistyne, en hy het die mure om Gat, Jabne en Asdod afgebreek en stede gebou in die omgewing van Asdod en in die res van die Filistynse gebied. 7God het hom gehelp teen die Filistyne, teen die Arabiere wat in Gur-Baäl gewoon het, en teen die Meüniete. 8Die Ammoniete het vir Ussia geskenke gebring, en sy naam het tot by Egipte bekend geword, so het sy mag toegeneem. 9Ussia het in Jerusalem stewige forte gebou by die Hoekpoort, by die Dalpoort en by die draai in die muur. 10Ook in die weiveld het hy forte gebou en baie putte laat grawe, want hy het baie vee gehad, in die Laeveld en op Platorand. In die berge en op die Karmel het hy mense gehad wat sy lande en sy wingerde bewerk het. Hy was lief vir die grond. 11Ussia het 'n leër gehad wat in afdelings uitgetrek het. Die telling en indeling is gedoen deur die sekretaris Jeïel en die amptenaar Maäseja, onder toesig van Gananja, 'n beampte van die koning. 12Daar was altesaam twee duisend ses honderd familiehoofde in bevel van die soldate. 13Die leër onder hulle bevel was drie honderd en sewe duisend vyf honderd, kragtige vegters op wie die koning kon reken teen 'n vyand. 14Ussia het hulle, die hele leër, uitgerus met skilde, spiese, helms, harnasse, pyle en boë, en klippe vir hulle slingervelle. 15In Jerusalem het hy uitvindsels gehad wat deur slim mense ontwerp is en wat bo van die forte en van die hoeke af pyle en groot klippe kon afskiet. Sy roem het wyd gestrek. Hy het op 'n wonderbare wyse hulp ontvang en hy het 'n magtige man geword. 16Maar toe hy eenmaal die mag het, het Ussia ingenome geword met homself, en dit was die begin van sy einde. Hy het aanmatigend teenoor die Here sy God opgetree: hy het in die tempel van die Here ingegaan om wierookoffers op die wierookaltaar te bring. 17Die priester Asarja, met tagtig priestersoldate by hom, het agter koning Ussia aan gegaan 18en hom probeer keer en vir hom gesê: Dit kom u nie toe om vir die Here wierookoffers te bring nie, Ussia! Om wierookoffers te bring, is die voorreg van die priesters, die nageslag van Aäron. Hulle is daartoe gewy. Gaan liewer uit die heiligdom uit. U matig u dinge aan, en u sal daarvoor geen waardering kry van God die Here nie. 19Ussia het al die wierookpan in sy hand gehad om die offer te bring, en hy het briesend geword. Maar terwyl hy teen die priesters uitvaar, breek daar melaatsheid op sy voorkop uit voor die oë van die priesters daar in die huis van die Here, by die wierookaltaar. 20Toe die hoëpriester Asarja en al die ander priesters na hom kyk, is hy melaats op sy voorkop. Hulle het hom daar uitgedrywe, en hy was self haastig om weg te kom; die Here het hom met dié ramp getref. 21Koning Ussia was melaats tot die dag van sy dood. Hy het in 'n plek van afsondering gaan woon, melaats en verban uit die huis van die Here. Sy seun Jotam het die paleis bestuur en oor die mense van die land geregeer. 22Die ander verhale oor Ussia, dié van vroeër en dié van later, is neergeskryf deur die profeet Jesaja seun van Amos. 23Ussia is oorlede, en hy is begrawe in die begraafplaas van die konings, maar nie in die familiegraf nie, want die mense het gesê: Hy was melaats. Sy seun Jotam het hom as koning opgevolg.

2Chronicles 27

Jotham Reigns in Judah

2Ch 27:1 Jotham became king at the age of twenty-five, and he ruled in Jerusalem for sixteen years. His mother was Jerushah, the daughter of Zadok.

2Ch 27:2 He did what was pleasing to the LORD, just as his father had done; but unlike his father he did not sin by burning incense in the Temple. The people, however, went on sinning.

2Ch 27:3 It was Jotham who built the North Gate of the Temple and did extensive work on the city wall in the area of Jerusalem called Ophel.

2Ch 27:4 In the mountains of Judah he built cities, and in the forests he built forts and towers.

2Ch 27:5 He fought against the king of Ammon and his army and defeated them. Then he forced the Ammonites to pay him the following tribute each year for three years: four tons of silver, fifty thousand bushels of wheat, and fifty thousand bushels of barley.

2Ch 27:6 Jotham grew powerful because he faithfully obeyed the LORD his God.

2Ch 27:7 The other events of Jotham's reign, his wars, and his policies, are all recorded in The History of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

2Ch 27:8 Jotham was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he ruled in Jerusalem for sixteen years.

2Ch 27:9 He died and was buried in David's City and his son Ahaz succeeded him as king.

II KRONIEKE 27

1Jotam was vyf en twintig toe hy koning geword het en hy het sestien jaar in Jerusalem geregeer. Sy ma was Jerusa, 'n dogter van Sadok. 2Jotam het gedoen wat reg is in die oë van die Here en in alles die voorbeeld van Ussia, sy pa, gevolg, met dié verskil dat hy nie in die tempel van die Here oortree het nie. Die volk het egter met hulle afgodsdiens voortgegaan. 3Jotam het die boonste poort van die tempel laat bou en baie bouwerk gedoen aan die Ofelmuur. 4In die Judaberge het hy stede laat bou, en in die bosse skanse en forte. 5Hy het in 'n oorlog teen die koning van die Ammoniete die oorwinning behaal, en die Ammoniete moes daardie jaar aan hom byna drie en 'n halwe ton silwer, sestien honderd en vyftig ton koring en dertien honderd en twintig ton gars betaal. Hulle moes dieselfde hoeveelhede die volgende en die daaropvolgende jaar betaal. 6Jotam het magtig geword, want hy het sy pad reg gehou voor die Here sy God. 7Die ander verhale oor Jotam, al sy oorloë en sy lewensloop, is opgeteken in die annale van die konings van Israel en Juda. 8Hy was vyf en twintig toe hy koning geword het en hy het sestien jaar in Jerusalem geregeer. 9Jotam is oorlede, en hy is begrawe in die familiegraf in die Dawidstad. Sy seun Agas het hom as koning opgevolg.

2Chronicles 28

Ahaz Reigns in Judah

2Ch 28:1 Ahaz became king at the age of twenty, and he ruled in Jerusalem for sixteen years. He did not follow the good example of his ancestor King David; instead, he did what was not pleasing to the LORD

2Ch 28:2 and followed the example of the kings of Israel. He had metal images of Baal made,

2Ch 28:3 burned incense in Hinnom Valley, and even sacrificed his own sons as burnt offerings to idols, imitating the disgusting practice of the people whom the LORD had driven out of the land as the Israelites advanced.

2Ch 28:4 At the pagan places of worship, on the hills, and under every shady tree Ahaz offered sacrifices and burned incense.

Judah Defeated

2Ch 28:5 (5-6) Because King Ahaz sinned, the LORD his God let the king of Syria defeat him and take a large number of Judeans back to Damascus as prisoners. The LORD also let the king of Israel, Pekah son of Remaliah, defeat Ahaz and kill 120,000 of the bravest Judean soldiers in one day. The LORD, the God of their ancestors, permitted this to happen, because the people of Judah had abandoned him.

2Ch 28:7 An Israelite soldier named Zichri killed King Ahaz' son Maaseiah, the palace administrator Azrikam, and Elkanah, who was second in command to the king.

2Ch 28:8 Even though the Judeans were their own relatives, the Israelite army captured 200,000 women and children as prisoners and took them back to Samaria, along with large amounts of loot.

2Ch 28:9 A man named Oded, a prophet of the LORD, lived in the city of Samaria. He met the returning Israelite army with its Judean prisoners as it was about to enter the city, and he said, "The LORD God of your ancestors was angry with Judah and let you defeat them, but now he has heard of the vicious way you slaughtered them.

2Ch 28:10 And now you intend to make the men and women of Jerusalem and Judah your slaves. Don't you know that you also have committed sins against the LORD your God?

2Ch 28:11 Listen to me! These prisoners are your brothers and sisters. Let them go, or the LORD will punish you in his anger."

2Ch 28:12 Four of the leading men of the Northern Kingdom, Azariah son of Jehohanan, Berechiah son of Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah son of Shallum, and Amasa son of Hadlai also opposed the actions of the army.

2Ch 28:13 They said, "Don't bring those prisoners here! We have already sinned against the LORD and made him angry enough to punish us. Now you want to do something that will increase our guilt."

2Ch 28:14 So then the army handed the prisoners and the loot over to the people and their leaders, 2Ch 28:15 and the four men were appointed to provide the prisoners with clothing from the captured loot. They gave them clothes and sandals to wear, gave them enough to eat and drink, and put olive oil on their wounds. Those who were too weak to walk were put on donkeys, and all the prisoners were taken back to Judean territory at Jericho, the city of palm trees. Then the Israelites returned home to Samaria.

2Ch 28:16 (16-17) The Edomites began to raid Judah again and captured many prisoners, so King Ahaz asked Tiglath Pileser, the emperor of Assyria, to send help.

2Ch 28:18 At this same time the Philistines were raiding the towns in the western foothills and in southern Judah. They captured the cities of Beth Shemesh, Aijalon, and Gederoth, and the cities of Soco, Timnah, and Gimzo with their villages, and settled there permanently.

2Ch 28:19 Because King Ahaz of Judah had violated the rights of his people and had defied the LORD, the LORD brought troubles on Judah.

2Ch 28:20 The Assyrian emperor, instead of helping Ahaz, opposed him and caused him trouble.

2Ch 28:21 So Ahaz took the gold from the Temple, the palace, and the homes of the leaders of the people, and gave it to the emperor, but even this did not help.

Ahaz's Idolatry

2Ch 28:22 When his troubles were at their worst, that man Ahaz sinned against the LORD more than ever.

2Ch 28:23 He offered sacrifices to the gods of the Syrians, who had defeated him. He said, "The Syrian gods helped the kings of Syria, so if I sacrifice to them, they may help me too." This brought disaster on him and on his nation.

2Ch 28:24 In addition, he took all the Temple equipment and broke it in pieces. He closed the Temple and set up altars in every part of Jerusalem.

2Ch 28:25 In every city and town in Judah he built pagan places of worship, where incense was to be burned to foreign gods. In this way he brought on himself the anger of the LORD, the God of his ancestors.

2Ch 28:26 All the other events of his reign, from beginning to end, are recorded in The History of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

2Ch 28:27 King Ahaz died and was buried in Jerusalem, but not in the royal tombs. His son Hezekiah succeeded him as king.

II KRONIEKE 28

1Agas was twintig toe hy koning geword het, en hy het sestien jaar in Jerusalem geregeer. Hy het nie gedoen wat reg is in die oë van die Here soos sy voorvader Dawid nie. 2Hy het die pad geloop van die konings van Israel en hy het selfs beelde van die Baäls laat giet. 3Hy het in die Ben-Hinnomdal offerandes gebring en van sy kinders daar verbrand volgens die afskuwelike gebruik van die heidennasies wat deur die Here voor die Israeliete uit verdryf is. 4Hy het diereoffers en wierookoffers gebring op die hoogtes en op die rante en onder elke groot boom. 5Daarom het die Here sy God hom oorgegee in die mag van die koning van Aram. Dié het hom verslaan en 'n groot klomp van sy mense krygsgevangenes gemaak en hulle na Damaskus toe weggevoer. Agas is ook oorgegee in die mag van die koning van Israel wat hom 'n verpletterende neerlaag toegedien het. 6Peka seun van Remalja het in Juda op een dag honderd en twintig duisend man, almal soldate, doodgemaak, omdat hulle die Here die God van hulle voorvaders verlaat het. 7Sikri, 'n krygsman uit Efraim, het die prins Maäseja, die paleisbestuurder Asrikam en die onderkoning Elkana doodgemaak. 8Die Israeliete het van hulle broedervolk twee honderd duisend vrouens, seuns en dogters gevange geneem en boonop 'n groot hoeveelheid buit geneem en na Samaria toe saamgevat. 9Daar was in Samaria 'n profeet van die Here met die naam Oded. Hy het die leër wat in Samaria teruggekom het, voorgestaan en vir hulle gesê: In sy toorn teen Juda het die Here, die God van julle voorvaders, hulle in julle mag gegee, en julle het onder hulle 'n slagting aangerig met 'n woede wat ten hemel skrei. 10Nou sê julle julle wil van dié mense van Juda en Jerusalem julle slawe en slavinne maak. Maar julle, is alles wat julle doen nie ook misdade teen die Here julle God nie? 11Luister nou en vat die gevangenes wat julle uit julle broedervolk weggevoer het, terug, want die toorn van die Here hang oor julle. 12'n Paar van die leiers van die Efraimiete, Asarja seun van Joganan, Berekja seun van Mesillemot, Hiskia seun van Sallu, en Amasa seun van Gadlai, het toe kant gekies teen dié wat van die oorlog af teruggekom het 13en vir hulle gesê: Julle bring nie die gevangenes hier in nie. Wat julle wil doen, is 'n misdaad teen die Here en sal ons sondes en misdade teen Hom groter maak. Dit is alreeds groot, en sy toorn hang oor Israel. 14Die manskappe het toe afstand gedoen van die gevangenes en die buit, met die leiers en die hele volk as getuies. 15Die manne wie se name genoem is, het toe die gevangenes onder hulle sorg geneem. Hulle het uit die buit klere geneem vir almal wat nie klere gehad het nie, die gevangenes voorsien van klere, skoene, kos en water, salf aan hulle wonde gesmeer, almal wat nie kon loop nie, op donkies gehelp en hulle weggebring na Jerigo die palmstad toe, by hulle volksgenote. Daarna is die manne terug Samaria toe. 16In dié tyd het koning Agas laat hulp vra by die konings van Assirië. 17Die Edomiete het weer gekom en Juda verslaan en gevangenes weggevoer. 18Die Filistyne het deur die Laeveld en die Suidland van Juda 'n strooptog gemaak en selfs stede beset en daar gaan woon: Bet-Semes, Ajalon, Gederot, Soko met sy buitedorpe, Timna met sy buitedorpe, Gimso met sy buitedorpe. 19Dit was oor koning Agas van Juda dat die Here Juda dié vernedering aangedoen het, want Agas het die verdorwenheid in Juda vrye teuels gegee en hy was ontrou teenoor die Here. 20Koning Tiglat-Pileser van Assirië het opgetrek, maar téén Agas. Hy het Agas nie kom help nie, maar sake vir hom nog moeiliker gemaak. 21Agas het van die huis van die Here, die paleis en die amptenare goud gevat en dit vir die koning van Assirië gegee, maar dit het hom niks gehelp nie. 22Toe dit so sleg met hom gaan, was hy, dié koning Agas, nog verder ontrou teenoor die Here. 23Hy het offerandes gebring vir die gode van Damaskus wat hom verslaan het, met die redenasie: Die gode van Aramese konings het hulle gehelp; nou bring ek vir daardie gode offerandes dat hulle my ook kan help. Maar dié gode het sy val en dié van die hele Israel verhaas. 24Agas het die goed wat in die tempel gebruik is, weggevat en stukkend geslaan, die deure van die huis van die Here gesluit en op elke hoek in Jerusalem altare gebou. 25In elke stad van Juda het hy hoogtes ingerig om vreemde gode met offerandes te vereer. So het hy die Here, die God van sy voorvaders, uitgetart. 26Die ander verhale oor Agas en sy hele lewensloop, dié van vroeër en dié van later, is opgeteken in die annale van die konings van Juda en Israel. 27Agas is oorlede, en hy is begrawe in die stad, in Jerusalem. Hulle het hom nie in die begraafplaas van die konings van Israel begrawe nie. Sy seun Hiskia het hom as koning opgevolg.

2Chronicles 29

Hezekiah Reigns in Judah

2Ch 29:1 Hezekiah became king of Judah at the age of twenty-five, and he ruled in Jerusalem for twenty-nine years. His mother was Abijah, the daughter of Zechariah.

2Ch 29:2 Following the example of his ancestor King David, he did what was pleasing to the LORD.

Hezekiah Cleanses the Temple

2Ch 29:3 In the first month of the year after Hezekiah became king, he reopened the gates of the Temple and had them repaired.

2Ch 29:4 He assembled a group of priests and Levites in the east courtyard of the Temple

2Ch 29:5 and spoke to them there. He said, "You Levites are to consecrate yourselves and purify the Temple of the LORD, the God of your ancestors. Remove from the Temple everything that defiles it.

2Ch 29:6 Our ancestors were unfaithful to the LORD our God and did what was displeasing to him. They abandoned him and turned their backs on the place where he dwells.

2Ch 29:7 They closed the doors of the Temple, let the lamps go out, and failed to burn incense or offer burnt offerings in the Temple of the God of Israel.

2Ch 29:8 Because of this the LORD has been angry with Judah and Jerusalem, and what he has done to them has shocked and frightened everyone. You know this very well.

2Ch 29:9 Our fathers were killed in battle, and our wives and children have been taken away as prisoners.

2Ch 29:10 "I have now decided to make a covenant with the LORD, the God of Israel, so that he will no longer be angry with us.

2Ch 29:11 My sons, do not lose any time. You are the ones that the LORD has chosen to burn incense to him and to lead the people in worshiping him."

2Ch 29:12 (12-14) The following Levites were there: From the clan of Kohath, Mahath son of Amasai and Joel son of Azariah From the clan of Merari, Kish son of Abdi and Azariah son of Jehallelel From the clan of Gershon, Joah son of Zimmah and Eden son of Joah From the clan of Elizaphan, Shimri and Jeuel From the clan of Asaph, Zechariah and Mattaniah From the clan of Heman, Jehuel and Shimei From the clan of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel

2Ch 29:15 These men assembled their fellow Levites, and they all made themselves ritually clean. Then, as the king had commanded them to do, they began to make the Temple ritually clean, according to the Law of the LORD.

2Ch 29:16 The priests went inside the Temple to purify it, and they carried out into the Temple courtyard everything that was ritually unclean. From there the Levites took it all outside the city to Kidron Valley.

2Ch 29:17 The work was begun on the first day of the first month, and by the eighth day they had finished it all, including the entrance room to the Temple. Then they worked for the next eight days, until the sixteenth of the month, preparing the Temple for worship.

2Ch 29:18 The Levites made the following report to King Hezekiah: "We have completed the ritual purification of the whole Temple, including the altar for burnt offerings, the table for the sacred bread, and all their equipment.

2Ch 29:19 We have also brought back all the equipment which King Ahaz took away during those years he was unfaithful to God, and we have rededicated it. It is all in front of the LORD's altar."

Hezekiah Restores Temple Worship

2Ch 29:20 Without delay King Hezekiah assembled the leading men of the city, and together they went to the Temple.

2Ch 29:21 As an offering to take away the sins of the royal family and of the people of Judah and to purify the Temple, they took seven bulls, seven sheep, seven lambs, and seven goats. The king told the priests, who were descendants of Aaron, to offer the animals as sacrifices on the altar.

2Ch 29:22 The priests killed the bulls first, then the sheep, and then the lambs, and sprinkled the blood of each sacrifice on the altar.

2Ch 29:23 Finally they took the goats to the king and to the other worshipers, who laid their hands on them.

2Ch 29:24 Then the priests killed the goats and poured their blood on the altar as a sacrifice to take away the sin of all the people, for the king had commanded that burnt offerings and sin offerings be made for all Israel.

2Ch 29:25 The king followed the instructions that the LORD had given to King David through Gad, the king's prophet, and through the prophet Nathan; he stationed Levites in the Temple, with harps and cymbals, 2Ch 29:26 instruments like those that King David had used. The priests also stood there with trumpets.

2Ch 29:27 Hezekiah gave the order for the burnt offering to be presented; and as the offering began, the people sang praise to the LORD, and the musicians began to play the trumpets and all the other instruments.

2Ch 29:28 Everyone who was there joined in worship, and the singing and the rest of the music continued until all the sacrifices had been burned.

2Ch 29:29 Then King Hezekiah and all the people knelt down and worshiped God.

2Ch 29:30 The king and the leaders of the nation told the Levites to sing to the LORD the songs of praise that were written by David and by Asaph the prophet. So everyone sang with great joy as they knelt and worshiped God.

2Ch 29:31 Hezekiah said to the people, "Now that you are ritually clean, bring sacrifices as offerings of thanksgiving to the LORD." They obeyed, and some of them also voluntarily brought animals to be sacrificed as burnt offerings.

2Ch 29:32 They brought 70 bulls, 100 sheep, and 200 lambs as burnt offerings for the LORD;

2Ch 29:33 they also brought 600 bulls and 3,000 sheep as sacrifices for the people to eat.

2Ch 29:34 Since there were not enough priests to kill all these animals, the Levites helped them until the work was finished. By then more priests had made themselves ritually clean. (The Levites were more faithful in keeping ritually clean than the priests were.)

2Ch 29:35 In addition to offering the sacrifices that were burned whole, the priests were responsible for burning the fat that was offered from the sacrifices which the people ate, and for pouring out the wine that was presented with the burnt offerings. And so worship in the Temple was begun again.

2Ch 29:36 King Hezekiah and the people were happy, because God had helped them to do all this so quickly.

[1]Hiskia het koning geword toe hy vyf en twintig was en hy het nege en twintig jaar in Jerusalem geregeer. Sy ma was Abi, 'n dogter van Sagaria. [2]Hiskia het gedoen wat reg is in die oë van die Here en het in alles die voorbeeld van sy voorvader Dawid gevolg. [3]Hy het in die eerste jaar van sy regering, in die eerste maand, die deure van die huis van die Here oopgemaak en hulle herstel. [4]Daarna het hy die priesters en die Leviete laat kom en hulle op die Oosplein bymekaargebring [5]en toegespreek: Luister na my, Leviete! Reinig julle en reinig die huis van die Here, die God van julle voorvaders. Vat die vuilgoed uit die heiligdom uit. [6]Ons voorvaders was ontrou en het gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here ons God. Hulle het Hom verlaat, die woning van die Here nie versorg nie en dit die rug toegekeer. [7]Hulle het boonop die deure van die ingangsportaal gesluit, die lampe laat doodgaan en geen wierookoffer of brandoffer vir die God van Israel gebring in die heiligdom nie. [8]Daarom het die toorn van die Here oor Juda en Jerusalem gekom, en Hy het van hulle iets gemaak waaroor mense net met afgryse vervul kan word en die hande van verbasing inmekaar kan slaan en kan fluit, soos julle met julle eie oë sien. [9]Ons vaders het gesneuwel, ons seuns en ons dogters en ons vrouens het gevangenes geword deur dié dinge. [10]En nou het ek my voorgeneem om 'n verbond te sluit met die Here die God van Israel, sodat die gloed van sy toorn van ons weggeneem sal word. [11]Spring nou aan die werk, my seuns, want die Here het julle gekies om voor Hom diens te doen en sy dienaars te wees wat vir Hom offerandes moet bring. [12]Toe het die volgende Leviete na vore getree: uit die Kehatgroep Magat seun van Amasai, en Joël seun van Asarja; uit die Merarigroep Kis seun van Abdi, en Asarja seun van Jehallelel; uit die Gersongroep Joag seun van Simma, en Eden seun van Joag; [13]uit die Elisafangroep Simri en Jeïel; uit die Asafgroep Sagaria en Mattanja; [14]uit die Hemangroep Jegiël en Simi; en uit die Jedutungroep Semaja en Ussiël. [15]Hulle het hulle ampsgenote bymekaargeroep, almal het hulle gereinig en het toe die huis van die Here gaan skoonmaak soos die koning beveel het in ooreenstemming met die voorskrifte van die Here. [16]Die priesters het die huis van die Here binne gaan skoonmaak. Hulle het alles wat nie rein was nie, wat hulle in die tempel van die Here gekry het, na die voorhof toe uitgebring, en die Leviete het dit gevat en dit buite in die Kedrondal gaan weggooi. [17]Hulle het met die reiniging begin op die eerste dag van die eerste maand, en op die agste dag van die maand het hulle by die ingangsportaal van die Here uitgekom. Daarna het dit hulle nog ag dae gekos om die huis van die Here te reinig. Op die sestiende dag van die eerste maand was hulle klaar. 18Toe het hulle by koning Hiskia in die paleis verslag gaan doen: Ons het die hele huis van die Here gereinig, ook die brandofferaltaar met sy toebehore en die tafel vir die offerbrood met sy toebehore, 19en ons het verder al die goed wat koning Agas in sy regeringstyd ontwy laat raak het deur sy troueloosheid, in hulle oorspronklike staat herstel en gewy. Hulle is daar voor die altaar van die Here. 20Die volgende môre vroeg het koning Hiskia al die stadsamptenare laat bymekaarkom en is hy na die huis van die Here toe. 21Hulle het sewe jong bulle, sewe skaapramme, sewe lammers en sewe bokramme gebring as sondeoffers vir die koningskap, die heiligdom en Juda. Die koning het die priesters uit die geslag van Aäron beveel om die offerandes op die altaar van die Here te sit. 22Die priesters het die beeste geslag, die bloed opgevang en dit oor die altaar gesprinkel. Daarna het hulle die skape geslag en die bloed oor die altaar gesprinkel. Daarna het hulle die lammers geslag en die bloed ook oor die altaar gesprinkel. 23Toe het hulle die sondeofferbokke voor die koning en die gemeente gebring en hulle hande op die diere gelê, 24en daarna het die priesters hulle geslag en die bloed as 'n sondeoffer uitgegiet op die altaar om vir die hele Israel versoening te doen. Die koning het bepaal dat die brandoffer en die sondeoffer vir die hele Israel moes wees. 25Die koning het die Leviete plek laat neem met simbale, harpe en liere in die huis van die Here volgens die opdrag van Dawid en van Gad, die siener van koning Dawid, en van die profeet Natan, want dit was 'n opdrag wat van die Here self gekom het deur middel van sy profete. 26Die Leviete het reggestaan met die instrumente van Dawid, en die priesters met trompette. 27Hiskia het opdrag gegee dat die brandoffer op die altaar gesit moet word, en die oomblik toe die offer begin, het die lied van die Here begin, die trompette geblaas en die musiekinstrumente van Dawid koning van Israel gespeel. 28Terwyl die sang weerklink en die trompette skal, het die hele gemeente in aanbidding gebuig. Dit het alles aangehou tot die offer afgehandel was. 29Toe die offer afgehandel was, het die koning en almal wat by hom was, gekniel en gebuig. 30Hy en die amptenare het toe die Leviete beveel om die Here te loof met die liedere van Dawid en die siener Asaf. Die Leviete het die lofliedere vol vreugde gesing en op hulle knieë geval en vooroor gebuig. 31Hiskia het weer die woord geneem en vir die volk gesê: Julle is nou aan die Here gewy. Bring nou julle diereoffers en julle dankoffers vir die huis van die Here. Die gemeente het toe diereoffers en dankoffers gebring en elkeen wat wou, het vrywillig ook nog brandoffers gebring. 32Die getal brandoffers wat die gemeente gebring het, was sewentig beeste, honderd ramme en twee honderd lammers, alles brandoffers vir die Here. 33Die wydingsgeskenke was ses honderd beeste en drie duisend stuks kleinvee. 34Maar daar was te min priesters en hulle kon nie alleen al die offerdiere slag nie. Toe het hulle ampsgenote, die Leviete, hulle gehelp tot die werk klaar was en al die priesters hulleself gewy het, want die Leviete was pligsgetrouer met die wyding as die priesters. [35]Daar was boonop nog 'n groot aantal brandoffers en die vetgedeeltes van die maaltydoffers en die drankoffers wat by die brandoffers gebring moes word. So is die tempeldiens weer gevestig. [36]Hiskia en al die mense was bly oor wat God vir die volk beskik het, want die hele saak is vinnig afgehandel.

2Chronicles 30

Passover Celebrated

2Ch 30:1 (1-3) The people had not been able to celebrate the Passover Festival at the proper time in the first month, because not enough priests were ritually clean and not many people had assembled in Jerusalem. So King Hezekiah, his officials, and the people of Jerusalem agreed to celebrate it in the second month, and the king sent word to all the people of Israel and Judah. He took special care to send letters to the tribes of Ephraim and Manasseh, inviting them to come to the Temple in Jerusalem to celebrate the Passover in honor of the LORD, the God of Israel.

2Ch 30:4 The king and the people were pleased with their plan,

2Ch 30:5 so they invited all the Israelites, from Dan in the north to Beersheba in the south, to come together in Jerusalem and celebrate the Passover according to the Law, in larger numbers than ever before.

2Ch 30:6 Messengers went out at the command of the king and his officials through all Judah and Israel with the following invitation: "People of Israel, you have survived the Assyrian conquest of the land. Now return to the LORD, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and he will return to you.

2Ch 30:7 Do not be like your ancestors and your Israelite relatives who were unfaithful to the LORD their God. As you can see, he punished them severely.

2Ch 30:8 Do not be stubborn as they were, but obey the LORD. Come to the Temple in Jerusalem, which the LORD your God has made holy forever, and worship him so that he will no longer be angry with you.

2Ch 30:9 If you return to the LORD, then those who have taken your relatives away as prisoners will take pity on them and let them come back home. The LORD your God is kind and merciful, and if you return to him, he will accept you."

2Ch 30:10 The messengers went to every city in the territory of the tribes of Ephraim and Manasseh, and as far north as the tribe of Zebulun, but people laughed at them and made fun of them.

2Ch 30:11 Still, there were some from the tribes of Asher, Manasseh, and Zebulun who were willing to come to Jerusalem.

2Ch 30:12 God was also at work in Judah and united the people in their determination to obey his will by following the commands of the king and his officials.

2Ch 30:13 A great number of people gathered in Jerusalem in the second month to celebrate the Festival of Unleavened Bread.

2Ch 30:14 They took all the altars that had been used in Jerusalem for offering sacrifices and burning incense and threw them into Kidron Valley.

2Ch 30:15 And on the fourteenth day of the month they killed the lambs for the Passover sacrifice. The priests and Levites who were not ritually clean became so ashamed that they dedicated themselves to the LORD, and now they could sacrifice burnt offerings in the Temple.

2Ch 30:16 They took their places in the Temple according to the instructions in the Law of Moses, the man of God. The Levites gave the blood of the sacrifices to the priests, who sprinkled it on the altar.

2Ch 30:17 Because many of the people were not ritually clean, they could not kill the Passover lambs, so the Levites did it for them and dedicated the lambs to the LORD.

2Ch 30:18 In addition, many of those who had come from the tribes of Ephraim, Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun had not performed the ritual of purification, and so they were observing Passover improperly. King Hezekiah offered this prayer for them:

2Ch 30:19 "O LORD, the God of our ancestors, in your goodness forgive those who are worshiping you with all their heart, even though they are not ritually clean."

2Ch 30:20 The LORD answered Hezekiah's prayer; he forgave the people and did not harm them.

2Ch 30:21 For seven days the people who had gathered in Jerusalem celebrated the Festival of Unleavened Bread with great joy, and day after day the Levites and the priests praised the LORD with all their strength.

2Ch 30:22 Hezekiah praised the Levites for their skill in conducting the worship of the LORD. After the seven days during which they offered sacrifices in praise of the LORD, the God of their ancestors, 2Ch 30:23 they all decided to celebrate for another seven days. So they celebrated with joy.

2Ch 30:24 King Hezekiah contributed 1,000 bulls and 7,000 sheep for the people to kill and eat, and the officials gave them another 1,000 bulls and 10,000 sheep. A large number of priests went through the ritual of purification.

2Ch 30:25 So everyone was happy—the people of Judah, the priests, the Levites, the people who had come from the north, and the foreigners who had settled permanently in Israel and Judah.

2Ch 30:26 The city of Jerusalem was filled with joy, because nothing like this had happened since the days of King Solomon, the son of David.

2Ch 30:27 The priests and the Levites asked the LORD's blessing on the people. In his home in heaven God heard their prayers and accepted them.

1Hiskia het boodskappers gestuur oor die hele Israel en Juda en ook briewe geskryf aan Efraim en Manasse met 'n oproep om na die huis van die Here in Jerusalem te kom om die paasfees vir die Here die God van Israel te vier. 2Dit was nadat die koning met sy amptenare en die hele gemeente van Jerusalem daaroor beraadslaag het of hulle die paasfees in die tweede maand kon vier. 3Hulle kon dit nie op die vasgestelde tyd vier nie omdat daar nie genoeg priesters gewy was nie en die volk nie in Jerusalem bymekaar was nie. 4Die koning en die hele gemeente het dit goedgevind om dit so te doen. 5Hulle het besluit om 'n oproep te laat uitgaan in die hele Israel, van Berseba af tot by Dan, om die paasfees vir die Here die God van Israel in Jerusalem te kom vier, want daar was in dié tyd nie 'n groot gesamentlike fees soos dit destyds voorgeskryf is nie. 6Die hardlopers is toe op bevel van die koning die hele Israel en Juda deur met die briewe van die koning en sy amptenare, wat soos volg gelui het: Israeliete, kom terug na die Here, na die God van Abraham, Isak en Israel, dan sal Hy ook terugkom na julle wat vrygekom het en oorgebly het van die oorheersing deur die konings van Assirië. 7Moenie soos julle vaders en julle broers maak nie wat ontrou was teenoor die Here, die God van hulle voorvaders, sodat Hy van hulle iets gemaak het waaroor mense net die hande van verbasing inmekaar kan slaan, soos julle kan sien. 8Moenie hardkoppig wees soos julle vaders nie, onderwerp julle aan die Here, en kom na sy heiligdom toe wat Hy vir altyd geheilig het. Dien die Here julle God, dan sal sy toorngloed van julle af weggaan. 9As julle terugkom na die Here toe, sal julle broers en julle seuns medelye vind by dié wat hulle gevange weggevoer het en sal hulle na hierdie land toe terugkom. Die Here julle God is genadig en barmhartig. Hy sal nie afsydig staan as julle na Hom toe terugkom nie. 10Die hardlopers het in die gebied van Efraim en Manasse en tot in Sebulon van stad tot stad gegaan, maar die mense het hulle uitgelag en gespot. 11Tog het mense in Aser, Manasse en Sebulon berou gekry en na Jerusalem toe gekom. 12Ook in Juda was die hand van God werksaam. Hy het hulle die koning en die amptenare se bevel wat op sy opdrag berus het, eendragtig laat gehoorsaam. 13Baie mense het in Jerusalem byeengekom, 'n baie groot gemeente, om die fees van die ongesuurde brood in die tweede maand te vier. 14Die mense het die altare wat oral in Jerusalem was, afgebreek, ook al die wierookaltare, en dit in die Kedrondal gegooi. 15Hulle het die paaslam geslag op die veertiende van die tweede maand. Die priesters en die Leviete het skaam gekry en hulle gewy en die brandoffers geoffer in die huis van die Here. 16Hulle het hulle plekke ingeneem volgens die orde wat vir hulle neergelê is in ooreenstemming met die wet van Moses, die man van God. Die priesters het die bloed gesprinkel wat die Leviete vir hulle aangegee het. 17In die gemeente was daar baie mense wat hulle nie gewy het nie, en die Leviete moes toe die paaslammers slag vir almal wat nie rein was nie, sodat ook húlle paaslammers aan die Here gewy kon wees. 18Die meeste van die baie mense uit Efraim, Manasse, Issaskar en Sebulon het hulle nie gereinig nie en het die paaslam geëet in stryd met wat voorgeskryf is. Maar Hiskia het vir hulle gebid: Mag die Here in sy goedheid versoening doen vir 19elkeen wat aan God, die Here, die God van sy voorvaders, gehoorsaam wil wees, al is dit nie volgens die reinheidsvoorskrifte van die heiligdom nie. 20Die Here het Hiskia se gebed verhoor en die volk nie gestraf nie. 21Die Israeliete wat in Jerusalem was, het die fees van die ongesuurde brood met groot vreugde sewe dae lank gevier. Die Leviete en die priesters het elke dag die mag van die Here geloof met begeleiding van musiek, 22en Hiskia het die Leviete geprys oor die bekwaamheid waarmee hulle dié kuns voor die Here beoefen het. Die fees is sewe dae lank gevier. Daar is maaltydoffers gebring en die Israeliete het die Here die God van hulle voorvaders geloof. 23Toe het die hele gemeente besluit om die fees met 'n week te verleng, en hulle het nog sewe dae met vreugde feesgevier. 24Koning Hiskia van Juda het duisend jong bulle en sewe duisend stuks kleinvee tot beskikking van die gemeente gestel, en die amptenare het nog duisend jong bulle en tien duisend stuks kleinvee bygesit. 'n Groot aantal priesters het hulleself gereinig. 25Daar was vreugde in die hele gemeente van Juda, onder die priesters en die Leviete, in die hele gemeente wat uit Israel gekom het, en ook onder die immigrante wat uit die land Israel gekom het en nou in Juda gewoon het. 26In Jerusalem was daar groot vreugde, want so iets was daar nie in Jerusalem van die tyd van koning Salomo van Israel, seun van Dawid, af nie. 27Toe die priesters en die Leviete opstaan en die seën uitspreek oor die volk, het God dit gehoor: hulle gebed het die heilige woning van God in die hemel bereik.

2Chronicles 31

Hezekiah Organizes the Priests

2Ch 31:1 After the festival ended, all the people of Israel went to every city in Judah and broke the stone pillars, cut down the symbols of the goddess Asherah, and destroyed the altars and the pagan places of worship. They did the same thing throughout the rest of Judah, and the territories of Benjamin, Ephraim, and Manasseh; then they all returned home.

2Ch 31:2 King Hezekiah reestablished the organization of the priests and Levites, under which they each had specific duties. These included offering the burnt offerings and the fellowship offerings, taking part in the Temple worship, and giving praise and thanks in the various parts of the Temple.

2Ch 31:3 From his own flocks and herds he provided animals for the burnt offerings each morning and evening, and for those offered on the Sabbath, at the New Moon Festival, and at the other festivals which are required by the Law of the LORD.

2Ch 31:4 In addition, the king told the people of Jerusalem to bring the offerings to which the priests and the Levites were entitled, so that they could give all their time to the requirements of the Law of the LORD.

2Ch 31:5 As soon as the order was given, the people of Israel brought gifts of their finest grain, wine, olive oil, honey, and other farm produce, and they also brought the tithes of everything they had.

2Ch 31:6 All the people who lived in the cities of Judah brought tithes of their cattle and sheep, and they also brought large quantities of gifts which they dedicated to the LORD their God.

2Ch 31:7 The gifts started arriving in the third month and continued to pile up for the next four months.

2Ch 31:8 When King Hezekiah and his officials saw how much had been given, they praised the LORD and praised his people Israel.

2Ch 31:9 The king spoke to the priests and the Levites about these gifts,

2Ch 31:10 and Azariah the High Priest, a descendant of Zadok, said to him, "Since the people started bringing their gifts to the Temple, there has been enough to eat and a large surplus besides. We have all this because the LORD has blessed his people."

2Ch 31:11 On the king's orders they prepared storerooms in the Temple area

2Ch 31:12 and put all the gifts and tithes in them for safekeeping. They placed a Levite named Conaniah in charge and made his brother Shimei his assistant.

2Ch 31:13 Ten Levites were assigned to work under them: Jehiel, Azaziah, Nahath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismachiah, Mahath, and Benaiah. All this was done under the authority of King Hezekiah and Azariah the High Priest.

2Ch 31:14 Kore son of Imnah, a Levite who was chief guard at the East Gate of the Temple, was in charge of receiving the gifts offered to the LORD and of distributing them.

2Ch 31:15 In the other cities where priests lived, he was faithfully assisted in this by other Levites: Eden, Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah. They distributed the food equally to their fellow Levites according to what their duties were, 2Ch 31:16 and not by clans. They gave a share to all males thirty years of age or older who had daily responsibilities in the Temple in accordance with their positions.

2Ch 31:17 The priests were assigned their duties by clans, and the Levites twenty years of age or older were assigned theirs by work groups.

2Ch 31:18 They were all registered together with their wives, children, and other dependents, because they were required to be ready to perform their sacred duties at any time.

2Ch 31:19 Among the priests who lived in the cities assigned to Aaron's descendants or in the pasture lands belonging to these cities, there were responsible men who distributed the food to all the males in the priestly families and to everyone who was on the rolls of the Levite clans.

2Ch 31:20 Throughout all Judah, King Hezekiah did what was right and what was pleasing to the LORD his God.

2Ch 31:21 He was successful, because everything he did for the Temple or in observance of the Law, he did in a spirit of complete loyalty and devotion to his God.

II KRONIEKE 31

1Toe alles verby was, is al die Israeliete uit na die stede van Juda toe, almal wat by die fees was. Hulle het in die hele Juda en Benjamin en ook in Efraim en Manasse die klippilare afgebreek, die gewyde pale afgekap en die hoogtes en altare verwoes. Eers nadat alles vernietig is, is die Israeliete terug na hulle stede toe, elkeen na sy eie stukkie grond toe. 2Hiskia het ook die pligte van die afdelings priesters en Leviete bepaal. Die priesters sowel as die Leviete moes afdelingsgewys, elkeen volgens die aard van sy dienswerk, sorg dra vir die brandoffers, die maaltydoffers, die algemene diens, die belydenis en die lofprysing in die poorte van die woning van die Here. 3Soos dit in die voorskrifte van die Here vasgelê is, het die koning uit sy persoonlike besit sy deel gedoen vir die brandoffer, die môre- en aandoffers, die offers op die sabbat, die nuwemaansfees en die vasgestelde feestye. 4Die volk, die inwoners van Jerusalem, moes op bevel van die koning sorg vir die onderhoud van die priesters en die Leviete, sodat dié hulle aandag kon gee aan die uitleg van die wet van die Here. 5Namate die bevel bekend geword het, het die Israeliete die eerste opbrengste aan koring, wyn, olie, heuning en alles wat die land opgelewer het, ingebring, en ook die tiendes van alles, in groot hoeveelhede. 6Ook die Israeliete wat in die stede van Juda gewoon het, en die mense van Juda self, het hulle tiendes uit die groot- en kleinvee ingebring en hulle het die gawes wat aan die Here hulle God gewy was, kom neersit, hope en hope. 7Hulle het in die derde maand daarmee begin, en die goed het bly ophoop tot die sewende maand toe. 8Toe Hiskia en die amptenare kom en die hope sien, het hulle die Here en sy volk Israel geprys. 9Hiskia het by die priesters en die Leviete navraag gedoen oor die hope goed, 10en Asarja die hoëpriester uit die huis van Sadok het vir hom gesê: Vandat die offergawes by die huis van die Here begin inkom het, is hier meer as genoeg om te eet en daar bly baie oor. Die Here het sy volk geseën, daarom is daar so 'n massa goed oor. 11Hiskia het toe opdrag gegee dat daar kamers aan die tempel aangebou word, en dit is gedoen. 12Die offergawes, die tiendes en die gewyde gawes het getrou ingekom. Die Leviet Kenanja moes daaroor toesig hou, en sy ampsgenoot Simi was tweede in bevel. 13Die amptenare tot beskikking van Kenanja en sy ampsgenoot Simi was Jegiël, Asasja, Nagat, Asael, Jerimot, Josabad, Eliël, Jismakja, Magat en Benaja. So het koning Hiskia en die hoof van die tempel, Asarja, dit gereël. 14Die toesig oor die vrywillige gawes aan God en oor die uitdeling van die offergawes van die Here en van die besondere gewyde gawes was in die hande van die Leviet Kore seun van Jimna, die wag by die Oospoort. 15Hy is bygestaan deur Eden, Minjamin, Jesua, Semaja, Amarja en Sekanja, en hulle moes in die priesterkwartiere op 'n billike wyse die toewysings aan hulle ampsgenote in die afdelings doen, aan groot en klein. [16]Daarnaas het hulle ook toewysings gedoen aan die seuntjies van drie jaar en ouer wat in die register opgeneem is, almal wat een of ander tyd in die tempel sou kom vir die tempeldiens en die wagbeurte binne hulle afdelings, soos dit van dag tot dag nodig sou wees. [17]Die priesters is familiegewys in die register opgeneem, en van die Leviete dié van twintig jaar en ouer volgens diensbeurt en afdeling. [18]Al hulle afhanklikes is ook in die register opgeneem: die vrouens, die seuns en die dogters van die hele tempelgemeenskap. Die priesters en die Leviete het hulle getrou gereinig met die oog op die diens in die heiligdom. [19]Ook die Aäronitiese priesters in die weigebiede van die stede is versorg. In elke stad is mense by die naam aangewys om al die manlike lede van die priesterfamilies en al die Leviete wat in die register opgeneem was, hulle deel te laat kry. [20]So het Hiskia dwarsdeur Juda gedoen. Hy het gedoen wat goed en reg en eerbaar is in die oë van die Here sy God. [21]In alles wat hy onderneem het ter bevordering van die tempeldiens en die gehoorsaamheid aan wet en gebod, het hy met sy hele hart gevra na die wil van sy God, en daarom was hy voorspoedig.

2Chronicles 32

Sennacherib Invades Judah

2Ch 32:1 After these events, in which King Hezekiah served the LORD faithfully, Sennacherib, the emperor of Assyria, invaded Judah. He besieged the fortified cities and gave orders for his army to break their way through the walls.

2Ch 32:2 When Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib intended to attack Jerusalem also, 2Ch 32:3 (3-4) he and his officials decided to cut off the supply of water outside the city in order to keep the Assyrians from having any water when they got near Jerusalem. The officials led a large number of people out and stopped up all the springs, so that no more water flowed out of them.

2Ch 32:5 The king strengthened the city's defenses by repairing the wall, building towers on it, and building an outer wall. In addition, he repaired the defenses built on the land that was filled in on the east side of the old part of Jerusalem. He also had a large number of spears and shields made.

2Ch 32:6 He placed all the men in the city under the command of army officers and had them assemble in the open square at the city gate. He said to them, 2Ch 32:7 "Be determined and confident, and don't be afraid of the Assyrian emperor or of the army he is leading. We have more power on our side than he has on his.

2Ch 32:8 He has human power, but we have the LORD our God to help us and to fight our battles." The people were encouraged by these words of their king.

Sennacherib Blasphemes

2Ch 32:9 Some time later, while Sennacherib and his army were still at Lachish, he sent the following message to Hezekiah and the people of Judah who were with him in Jerusalem:

2Ch 32:10 "I, Sennacherib, Emperor of Assyria, ask what gives you people the confidence to remain in Jerusalem under siege.

2Ch 32:11 Hezekiah tells you that the LORD your God will save you from our power, but Hezekiah is deceiving you and will let you die of hunger and thirst.

2Ch 32:12 He is the one who destroyed the LORD's shrines and altars and then told the people of Judah and Jerusalem to worship and burn incense at one altar only.

2Ch 32:13 Don't you know what my ancestors and I have done to the people of other nations? Did the gods of any other nation save their people from the emperor of Assyria?

2Ch 32:14 When did any of the gods of all those countries ever save their country from us? Then what makes you think that your god can save you?

2Ch 32:15 Now don't let Hezekiah deceive you or mislead you like that. Don't believe him! No god of any nation has ever been able to save his people from any Assyrian emperor. So certainly this god of yours can't save you!"

2Ch 32:16 The Assyrian officials said even worse things about the LORD God and Hezekiah, the LORD's servant.

2Ch 32:17 The letter that the emperor wrote defied the LORD, the God of Israel. It said, "The gods of the nations have not saved their people from my power, and neither will Hezekiah's god save his people from me."

2Ch 32:18 The officials shouted this in Hebrew in order to frighten and discourage the people of Jerusalem who were on the city wall, so that it would be easier to capture the city.

2Ch 32:19 They talked about the God of Jerusalem in the same way that they talked about the gods of the other peoples, idols made by human hands.

The Lord Delivers Jerusalem

2Ch 32:20 Then King Hezekiah and the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz prayed to God and cried out to him for help.

2Ch 32:21 The LORD sent an angel that killed the soldiers and officers of the Assyrian army. So the emperor went back to Assyria disgraced. One day when he was in the temple of his god, some of his sons killed him with their swords.

2Ch 32:22 In this way the LORD rescued King Hezekiah and the people of Jerusalem from the power of Sennacherib, the emperor of Assyria, and also from their other enemies. He let the people live in peace with all the neighboring countries.

2Ch 32:23 Many people came to Jerusalem, bringing offerings to the LORD and gifts to Hezekiah, so that from then on all the nations held Hezekiah in honor.

Hezekiah's Pride and Achievements

2Ch 32:24 About this time King Hezekiah became sick and almost died. He prayed, and the LORD gave him a sign that he would recover.

2Ch 32:25 But Hezekiah was too proud to show gratitude for what the LORD had done for him, and Judah and Jerusalem suffered for it.

2Ch 32:26 Finally, however, Hezekiah and the people of Jerusalem humbled themselves, and so the LORD did not punish the people until after Hezekiah's death.

2Ch 32:27 King Hezekiah became very wealthy, and everyone held him in honor. He had storerooms built for his gold, silver, precious stones, spices, shields, and other valuable objects.

2Ch 32:28 In addition, he had storehouses built for his grain, wine, and olive oil; barns for his cattle; and pens for his sheep.

2Ch 32:29 Besides all this, God gave him sheep and cattle and so much other wealth that he built many cities.

2Ch 32:30 It was King Hezekiah who blocked the outlet for Gihon Spring and channeled the water to flow through a tunnel to a point inside the walls of Jerusalem. Hezekiah succeeded in everything he did, 2Ch 32:31 and even when the Babylonian ambassadors came to inquire about the unusual event that had happened in the land, God let Hezekiah go his own way only in order to test his character.

2Ch 32:32 Everything else that King Hezekiah did and his devotion to the LORD are recorded in The Vision of the Prophet Isaiah Son of Amoz and in The History of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

2Ch 32:33 Hezekiah died and was buried in the upper section of the royal tombs. All the people of Judah and Jerusalem paid him great honor at his death. His son Manasseh succeeded him as king.

II KRONIEKE 32

[1]Na dié gebeure, waarin Hiskia sy trou betoon het, het koning Sanherib van Assirië op die toneel gekom. Hy het Juda ingeval en die vestingstede beleër met die bedoeling om deur hulle verdediging te breek. [2]Toe Hiskia hoor van die koms van Sanherib en dat hy op oorlog teen Jerusalem uit is, [3]het hy in oorleg met sy amptenare en offisiere besluit om die water van die fonteine wat buite die stad was, af te sny. Hulle het met hom saamgestem, [4]en 'n groot klomp mense het bymekaargekom en al die fonteine en ook die watervoor wat deur die omgewing geloop het, toegegooi. Hulle het gesê: Hoekom moet die konings van Assirië baie water kry as hulle hier kom? [5]Hiskia het al die mure wat afgebreek was, herbou, die forte hoër gebou, nog 'n muur buite-om opgetrek en die terras by die Dawidstad laat versterk. Hy het ook 'n groot klomp spiese en skilde laat maak. [6]Nadat hy bevelhebbers oor die volksleër aangewys het, het hy hulle by hom laat bymekaarkom op die plein by die stadspoort en hulle moed ingepraat: [7]Wees sterk, wees dapper, moenie bang wees nie, moenie skrik vir die koning van Assirië en die menigte by hom nie. By ons is meer as by hom. [8]By hom is menslike mag, by ons is die Here ons God wat ons sal help en ons oorlog sal veg. Die manskappe was bemoedig deur dié woorde van koning Hiskia van Juda. [9]'n Tyd daarna het koning Sanherib van Assirië, wat toe met sy hele krygsmag by Lakis was, van sy ondergeskiktes na Jerusalem toe gestuur met 'n boodskap vir koning Hiskia van Juda, en vir al die mense van Juda in Jerusalem. Die boodskap het gelui: [10]So sê koning Sanherib van Assirië: Op wie steun julle dat julle in Jerusalem in die vesting bly? [11]Hiskia sê: Ons God sal ons red van die koning van Assirië,' maar mislei hy julle nie, sodat julle van honger en dors sal sterwe? [12]Dit is mos dié Hiskia wat die hoogtes en die altare van julle God verwyder het en vir Juda en Jerusalem gesê het: Julle moet by net een altaar aanbid en offers bring.' [13]Julle weet mos wat ek en my voorvaders aan al die volke in ander lande gedoen het. Kon die gode van die nasies in daardie lande hulle lande red uit my mag? [14]Wie van al die gode van daardie nasies wat al deur my voorvaders uitgeroei is, kon sy volk red uit my mag? Kan júlle God julle dan red uit my mag? [15]Moet dan nou nie dat Hiskia julle so bedrieg en julle mislei nie. Moet hom nie glo nie. Geen god van enige nasie of koninkryk kon sy volk red uit my mag of uit dié van my voorvaders nie. Júlle God sal julle ook nie red uit my mag nie. [16]Die boodskappers het nóg dinge gesê teen God die Here en teen sy dienaar Hiskia. [17]Sanherib het ook briewe geskryf waarin hy die Here die God van Israel gehoon het en dinge teen Hom gesê het. Hy het geskryf: Soos die gode van die nasies van ander lande hulle volke nie kon red uit my mag nie, so sal die God van Hiskia sy volk nie red uit my mag nie. 18Om die mense van Jerusalem wat op die mure was, bang te maak en hulle die skrik op die lyf te ja sodat die Assiriërs die stad kon inneem, het die boodskappers hard in die Judese taal geroep 19en oor die God van Jerusalem gepraat soos oor die gode van die volke van ander lande, gode wat die werk van mensehande is. 20Koning Hiskia en die profeet Jesaja seun van Amos het daarom gebid en na die hemel geroep. 21Toe stuur die Here 'n engel, en dié het elke soldaat en leier en offisier in die kamp van die koning van Assirië doodgemaak. Hy moes beskaamd die aftog blaas terug na sy land toe. Toe hy daar in die tempel van sy god ingaan, het van sy eie seuns hom vermoor. 22So het die Here vir Hiskia en die inwoners van Jerusalem gered uit die mag van koning Sanherib van Assirië en uit die mag van almal by hom. Die Here het sy volk aan alle kante beskerm. 23Baie mense het vir die Here in Jerusalem offers gebring en kosbare geskenke vir koning Hiskia van Juda, wie se aansien onder die nasies hoog gestyg het ná dié gebeure. 24Dié tyd het Hiskia ernstig siek geword. Hy het tot die Here gebid, en die Here het met hom gepraat en met hom 'n wonder laat gebeur. 25Hiskia het egter nie dankbaarheid betoon vir dié weldaad nie. Hy het ingenome geword met homself, en dit het die toorn van die Here oor hom en oor Juda en Jerusalem gebring. 26Hy en die inwoners van Jerusalem het egter berou gekry oor die selfingenomenheid, en die toorn van die Here het toe nie in die tyd van Hiskia oor hulle gekom nie. 27Hiskia was ryk en het groot aansien geniet. Hy het vir hom skatkamers laat bou vir silwer, goud, edelstene, kosbare kruie, skilde en allerlei waardevolle goed. 28Hy het opslagplekke laat bou vir die koring, wyn en olie wat aan hom gelewer is, en krale en stalle vir sy beeste en kleinveekuddes. 29Hy het vir hom stede laat bou en het groot troppe kleinvee en grootvee gehad. God het hom 'n baie groot persoonlike besit laat opbou. 30Dit was Hiskia wat die boonste uitloop van die Gihonfontein afgesny en die water reguit na die westekant van die Dawidstad toe gelei het. Hy was voorspoedig met alles wat hy gedoen het. 31Maar toe die regeerders van Babel woordvoerders na hom toe gestuur het om navraag te doen oor die wonder wat in sy land gebeur het, het God hom verlaat. Dit was om hom te toets en hom sy eie hart te laat ken. 32Die ander verhale oor Hiskia en sy troue optrede is opgeteken in Die Gesig van die Profeet Jesaja seun van Amos en in Die Boek van die Konings van Juda en Israel. 33Hiskia is oorlede, en hy is begrawe teen die skuinste waar die grafte van die nakomelinge van Dawid is. Die hele Juda en die inwoners van Jerusalem het aan hom eer bewys met sy dood. Sy seun Manasse het hom as koning opgevolg.

2Chronicles 33

Manasseh Reigns in Judah

2Ch 33:1 Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king of Judah, and he ruled in Jerusalem for fifty-five years.

2Ch 33:2 Following the disgusting practices of the nations whom the LORD had driven out of the land as his people advanced, Manasseh sinned against the LORD.

2Ch 33:3 He rebuilt the pagan places of worship that his father Hezekiah had destroyed. He built altars for the worship of Baal, made images of the goddess Asherah, and worshiped the stars.

2Ch 33:4 He built pagan altars in the Temple, the place that the LORD had said was where he should be worshiped forever.

2Ch 33:5 In the two courtyards of the Temple he built altars for the worship of the stars.

2Ch 33:6 He sacrificed his sons in Hinnom Valley as burnt offerings. He practiced divination and magic and consulted fortunetellers and mediums. He sinned greatly against the LORD and stirred up his anger.

2Ch 33:7 He placed an image in the Temple, the place about which God had said to David and his son Solomon: "Here in Jerusalem, in this Temple, is the place that I have chosen out of all the territory of the twelve tribes of Israel as the place where I am to be worshiped.

2Ch 33:8 And if the people of Israel will obey all my commands and keep the whole Law that my servant Moses gave them, then I will not allow them to be driven out of the land that I gave to their ancestors."

2Ch 33:9 Manasseh led the people of Judah to commit even greater sins than those committed by the nations whom the LORD had driven out of the land as his people advanced.

Manasseh's Repentance

2Ch 33:10 Although the LORD warned Manasseh and his people, they refused to listen.

2Ch 33:11 So the LORD let the commanders of the Assyrian army invade Judah. They captured Manasseh, stuck hooks in him, put him in chains, and took him to Babylon.

2Ch 33:12 In his suffering he became humble, turned to the LORD his God, and begged him for help.

2Ch 33:13 God accepted Manasseh's prayer and answered it by letting him go back to Jerusalem and rule again. This convinced Manasseh that the LORD was God.

2Ch 33:14 After this, Manasseh increased the height of the outer wall on the east side of David's City, from a point in the valley near Gihon Spring north to the Fish Gate and the area of the city called Ophel. He also stationed an army officer in command of a unit of troops in each of the fortified cities of Judah.

2Ch 33:15 He removed from the Temple the foreign gods and the image that he had placed there, and the pagan altars that were on the hill where the Temple stood and in other places in Jerusalem; he took all these things outside the city and threw them away.

2Ch 33:16 He also repaired the altar where the LORD was worshiped, and he sacrificed fellowship offerings and thanksgiving offerings on it. He commanded all the people of Judah to worship the LORD, the God of Israel.

2Ch 33:17 Although the people continued to offer sacrifices at other places of worship, they offered them only to the LORD.

2Ch 33:18 Everything else that Manasseh did, the prayer he made to his God, and the messages of the prophets who spoke to him in the name of the LORD, the God of Israel, are all recorded in The History of the Kings of Israel.

2Ch 33:19 The king's prayer and God's answer to it, and an account of the sins he committed before he repented—the evil he did, the pagan places of worship and the symbols of the goddess Asherah that he made and the idols that he worshiped—are all recorded in The History of the Prophets.

2Ch 33:20 Manasseh died and was buried at the palace, and his son Amon succeeded him as king.

Amon's Reign and Death

2Ch 33:21 Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king of Judah, and he ruled in Jerusalem for two years.

2Ch 33:22 Like his father Manasseh, he sinned against the LORD, and he worshiped the idols that his father had worshiped.

2Ch 33:23 But unlike his father, he did not become humble and turn to the LORD; he was even more sinful than his father had been.

2Ch 33:24 Amon's officials plotted against him and assassinated him in the palace.

2Ch 33:25 The people of Judah killed Amon's assassins and made his son Josiah king.

II KRONIEKE 33

[1]Manasse was twaalf toe hy koning geword het en het vyf en vyftig jaar in Jerusalem geregeer. [2]Hy het gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here en het die afskuwelike optrede van die heidennasies nagevolg wat deur die Here verdryf is om vir die Israeliete plek te maak. [3]Hy het die hoogtes wat deur Hiskia, sy pa, verwoes is, weer opgebou, altare vir die Baäls opgerig, gewyde pale gemaak, voor al die hemelliggame gebuig en hulle gedien. [4]Hy het selfs afgodsaltare gebou in die huis van die Here, die plek waarvan die Here gesê het: My Naam sal altyd in Jerusalem wees. [5]In die twee voorhowe van die huis van die Here het hy altare vir al die hemelliggame gebou. [6]Hy het sy eie seuns in die Ben-Hinnomdal as offers verbrand, hom besig gehou met goëlery, waarsêery en toordery, en meegedoen aan die oproep en raadpleging van geeste. Hy het gruwelik verkeerd gedoen in die oë van die Here en Hom uitgetart. [7]Die afgodsbeeld wat hy laat maak het, het hy opgestel binne-in die tempel, die plek waarvan God vir Dawid en sy seun Salomo gesê het: In hierdie huis en in Jerusalem wat Ek onder al die Israelitiese stamme uitgekies het, vestig Ek my Naam vir altyd. [8]As Israel alles doen wat Ek hulle beveel het, in ooreenstemming met die hele wet en die voorskrifte en bepalings wat deur bemiddeling van Moses gegee is, sal Ek hulle voete stewig geplant hou op die grond wat Ek aan hulle voorvaders toegeken het. [9]Maar Manasse het Juda en die inwoners van Jerusalem die verkeerde pad laat loop, sodat hulle erger aangegaan het as die nasies wat deur die Here uitgeroei is om vir Israel plek te maak. [10]Die Here het Manasse en sy volk aangespreek, maar hulle het daar geen ag op geslaan nie. [11]Toe het die Here die leëraanvoerders van die koning van Assirië laat kom, en hulle het Manasse gevange geneem, hake deur sy neus gesteek, hom geboei met bronskettings en hom na Babel toe gevat. [12]Toe dit met hom so sleg gaan, het hy die Here sy God om genade gesmeek, groot berou getoon voor die God van sy voorvaders, [13]en gebid. Die Here was hom genadig en het sy smeekbede verhoor en hom laat terugkom na Jerusalem, na sy koningskap toe. Toe het Manasse geweet dat die Here God is. [14]Manasse het later die buitemuur van die Dawidstad wes van die Gihon, in die dal, by die ingang van die Vispoort en rondom die Ofel herbou. Hy het die muur baie hoër gemaak as wat dit was. In al die vestingstede van Juda het hy bevelvoerders geplaas. [15]Verder het hy die vreemde gode en die afgodsbeeld uit die huis van die Here verwyder en buitekant die stad weggegooi, en so ook al die altare wat hy op die tempelberg en in Jerusalem gebou het. [16]Hy het die altaar van die Here herstel en daarop maaltyd- en dankoffers gebring. Hy het opdrag gegee dat Juda die Here die God van Israel moet dien. [17]Die volk het wel nog op die hoogtes offerandes gebring, maar nou vir die Here hulle God. [18]Die ander verhale oor Manasse, sy gebed tot sy God en die verhale oor die sieners wat hom aangespreek het in die Naam van die Here die God van Israel, staan in Die Verhale van die Konings van Israel. [19]Sy gebed en die verhoring daarvan, al sy sonde en sy selfverheffing, en die plekke waar hy hoogtes gebou het en gewyde pale en afgodsbeelde opgerig het voordat hy berou gekry het, staan opgeteken in Die Verhale van die Sieners. [20]Manasse is oorlede, en hy is begrawe in sy huis. Sy seun Amon het hom as koning opgevolg. [21]Amon was twee en twintig toe hy koning geword het en het twee jaar in Jerusalem geregeer. [22]Hy het gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here, net soos Manasse, sy pa, gedoen het. Vir al die beelde wat Manasse, sy pa, gemaak het, het Amon offerandes gebring. Hy het hulle gedien [23]en nie voor die Here berou getoon soos sy pa nie. Hy het nog meer misdade teen God begaan. [24]Sy amptenare het 'n sameswering teen hom gesmee en hom in sy paleis doodgemaak. [25]Daarna het die burgers van die land die samesweerders almal doodgemaak en Amon se seun Josia in sy plek koning gemaak.

2Chronicles 34

Josiah Reigns in Judah

2Ch 34:1 Josiah was eight years old when he became king of Judah, and he ruled in Jerusalem for thirty-one years.

2Ch 34:2 He did what was pleasing to the LORD; he followed the example of his ancestor King David, strictly obeying all the laws of God.

2Ch 34:3 In the eighth year that Josiah was king, while he was still very young, he began to worship the God of his ancestor King David. Four years later he began to destroy the pagan places of worship, the symbols of the goddess Asherah, and all the other idols.

2Ch 34:4 Under his direction the altars where Baal was worshiped were smashed, and the incense altars near them were torn down. They ground to dust the images of Asherah and all the other idols and then scattered the dust on the graves of the people who had sacrificed to them.

2Ch 34:5 He burned the bones of the pagan priests on the altars where they had worshiped. By doing all this, he made Judah and Jerusalem ritually clean again.

2Ch 34:6 He did the same thing in the cities and the devastated areas of Manasseh, Ephraim, and Simeon, and as far north as Naphtali.

2Ch 34:7 Throughout the territory of the Northern Kingdom he smashed the altars and the symbols of Asherah, ground the idols to dust, and broke into bits all the incense altars. Then he returned to Jerusalem.

The Book of the Law Found

2Ch 34:8 In the eighteenth year of his reign, after he had purified the land and the Temple by ending pagan worship, King Josiah sent three men to repair the Temple of the LORD God: Shaphan son of Azaliah, Maaseiah, the governor of Jerusalem, and Joah son of Joahaz, a high official.

2Ch 34:9 The money that the Levite guards had collected in the Temple was turned over to Hilkiah the High Priest. (It had been collected from the people of Ephraim and Manasseh and the rest of the Northern Kingdom, and from the people of Judah, Benjamin, and Jerusalem.)

2Ch 34:10 This money was then handed over to the three men in charge of the Temple repairs, and they gave it to 2Ch 34:11 the carpenters and the builders to buy the stones and the timber used to repair the buildings that the kings of Judah had allowed to decay.

2Ch 34:12 The men who did the work were thoroughly honest. They were supervised by four Levites: Jahath and Obadiah of the clan of Merari, and Zechariah and Meshullam of the clan of Kohath. (The Levites were all skillful musicians.)

2Ch 34:13 Other Levites were in charge of transporting materials and supervising the workers on various jobs, and others kept records or served as guards.

2Ch 34:14 While the money was being taken out of the storeroom, Hilkiah found the book of the Law of the LORD, the Law that God had given to Moses.

2Ch 34:15 He said to Shaphan, "I have found the book of the Law here in the Temple." He gave Shaphan the book, 2Ch 34:16 and Shaphan took it to the king. He reported, "We have done everything that you commanded.

2Ch 34:17 We have taken the money that was kept in the Temple and handed it over to the workers and their supervisors."

2Ch 34:18 Then he added, "I have here a book that Hilkiah gave me." And he read it aloud to the king.

2Ch 34:19 When the king heard the book being read, he tore his clothes in dismay

2Ch 34:20 and gave the following order to Hilkiah, to Ahikam son of Shaphan, to Abdon son of Micaiah, to Shaphan, the court secretary, and to Asaiah, the king's attendant:

2Ch 34:21 "Go and consult the LORD for me and for the people who still remain in Israel and Judah. Find out about the teachings of this book. The LORD is angry with us because our ancestors have not obeyed the word of the LORD and have not done what this book says must be done."

Huldah Prophesies Disaster

2Ch 34:22 At the king's command, Hilkiah and the others went to consult a woman named Huldah, a prophet who lived in the newer part of Jerusalem. (Her husband Shallum, the son of Tikvah and grandson of Harhas, was in charge of the Temple robes.) They described to her what had happened,

2Ch 34:23 and she told them to go back to the king and give him

2Ch 34:24 the following message from the LORD: "I am going to punish Jerusalem and all its people with the curses written in the book that was read to the king.

2Ch 34:25 They have rejected me and have offered sacrifices to other gods, and so have stirred up my anger by all they have done. My anger is aroused against Jerusalem, and it will not die down.

2Ch 34:26 As for the king himself, this is what I, the LORD God of Israel, say: You listened to what is written in the book,

2Ch 34:27 and you repented and humbled yourself before me, tearing your clothes and weeping, when you heard how I threatened to punish Jerusalem and its people. I have heard your prayer, 2Ch 34:28 and the punishment which I am going to bring on Jerusalem will not come until after your death. I will let you die in peace." The men returned to King Josiah with this message.

2Ch 34:29 King Josiah summoned all the leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, 2Ch 34:30 and together they went to the Temple, accompanied by the priests and the Levites and all the rest of the people, rich and poor alike. Before them all the king read aloud the whole book of the covenant, which had been found in the Temple.

2Ch 34:31 He stood by the royal column and made a covenant with the LORD to obey him, to keep his laws and commands with all his heart and soul, and to put into practice the demands attached to the covenant, as written in the book.

2Ch 34:32 He made the people of Benjamin and everyone else present in Jerusalem promise to keep the covenant. And so the people of Jerusalem obeyed the requirements of the covenant they had made with the God of their ancestors.

2Ch 34:33 King Josiah destroyed all the disgusting idols that were in the territory belonging to the people of Israel, and as long as he lived, he required the people to serve the LORD, the God of their ancestors.

II KRONIEKE 34

1Josia was ag toe hy koning geword het en het een en dertig jaar in Jerusalem geregeer. 2Hy het gedoen wat reg is in die oë van die Here. Hy het die pad van sy voorvader Dawid geloop en daar nie links of regs van afgewyk nie. 3In die agste jaar van sy regering, toe hy nog 'n jong man was, het hy begin om die God van sy voorvader Dawid te dien, en in die twaalfde jaar het hy begin om Juda en Jerusalem te suiwer van hoogtes, gewyde pale, gesnede en gegote beelde. 4Hy het persoonlik toegesien dat die altare van die Baäls verwoes word en het die wierookaltare wat bokant die Baälsaltare gestaan het, laat stukkend slaan. Die gewyde pale en die gesnede en gegote beelde het hy stukkend gebreek, fyngemaal en oor die grafte van dié wat vir hulle offerandes gebring het, gestrooi. 5Die bene van die afgodspriesters het hy op hulle eie altare laat verbrand. So het hy Juda en Jerusalem skoongemaak, 6en ook die stede van Manasse, Efraim en Simeon, tot by Naftali, en ook die ruïnes van die omgewing. 7Hy het dwarsoor die gebied van Israel altare afgebreek, gewyde pale en beelde in stukkies gekap en al die wierookaltare stukkend gebreek. Daarna is hy terug Jerusalem toe. 8In die agtiende jaar van sy regering, toe hy nog besig was om die land en die tempel skoon te maak, het Josia vir Safan seun van Asalja, die stadsbevelvoerder Maäseja en die hoof uitvoerende beampte Joag seun van Joahas gestuur om die huis van die Here sy God te herstel. 9Hulle het die geld wat deur die Levitiese drumpelwagte vir die tempel ingesamel is in Manasse en Efraim en oral in Israel, Juda en Benjamin en by die inwoners van Jerusalem, aan die hoëpriester Gilkija gaan oorhandig. 10Die geld is toe gegee aan die mense wat vir die werk aan die tempel moes sorg en dié het dit gebruik vir die heropbou en herstel van die gebou. 11Hulle het die geld vir die vakmanne en bouwerkers gegee om gekapte klip en balke te koop en die vertrekke wat onder die konings van Juda in verval geraak het, weer op te bou. 12Die manne het die werk met groot sorg uitgevoer. Die opsigters oor hulle was die Leviete Jagat en Obadja uit die Merarigroep, en Sagaria en Mesullam uit die Kehatgroep. Die Leviete was mense wat almal bedrewe was in die speel van musiekinstrumente, 13maar hulle het ook toesig gehou oor die draers en het leiding gegee aan elkeen wat 'n taak moes uitvoer, in watter soort werk ook al. Ook die administratiewe amptenare, die regsbeamptes en die poortwagte was Leviete. 14Terwyl hulle die geld wat vir die huis van die Here ingebring is, uitgehaal het, het die priester Gilkija die boek gekry met die wet van die Here wat deur bemiddeling van Moses aan Israel gegee is. 15Gilkija het toe vir die staatsekretaris Safan gesê: Ek het die wetboek in die tempel gekry. Hy het die wetboek aan Safan oorhandig, [16]en Safan het dit na die koning toe geneem en ook aan die koning verslag gedoen: Alles wat aan u amptenare opgedra is, is gedoen; [17]die geld wat in die tempel beskikbaar was, is uitgetel en oorhandig aan die opsigters en aan die mense wat die werk moet uitvoer. [18]Die staatsekretaris Safan het ook aan die koning die mededeling gedoen: Die priester Gilkija het my 'n boek gegee, en Safan het vir die koning gelees wat daarin staan. [19]Toe die koning hoor wat die wet sê, het hy sy klere geskeur [20]en opdrag gegee aan Gilkija, aan Agikam seun van Safan, aan Akbor seun van Miga, aan die staatsekretaris Safan en aan Asaja, die hoofamptenaar van die koning: [21]Gaan raadpleeg die Here namens my en namens almal wat nog oor is van Israel en Juda. Raadpleeg Hom oor die inhoud van die boek wat gekry is. Ons voorvaders was ongehoorsaam aan die woord van die Here en het nie gehandel in ooreenstemming met alles wat in hierdie boek staan nie. Daarom is die toorn van die Here wat op ons uitgestort gaan word, groot. [22]Gilkija en die manne van die koning is toe na die profetes Gulda toe. Sy was die vrou van die klerebewaarder Sallum seun van Tikwa, seun van Gasra, en het in die nuwe deel van Jerusalem gewoon. Hulle het haar vertel waarom hulle gekom het, [23]en sy het geantwoord: Ek het 'n boodskap van die Here die God van Israel. Sê vir die man wat julle na my toe gestuur het: [24]So sê die Here: Ek bring onheil oor hierdie plek en oor sy inwoners, die volle straf soos dit opgeteken staan in die boek wat aan die koning van Juda voorgelees is, [25]want hulle het My verlaat. Hulle het offerandes gebring vir ander gode en My uitgetart met allerhande maaksels van hulle eie hande. My toorn word op hierdie plek uitgestort, die vlam van my toorn sal nie geblus word nie. [26]Maar sê vir die koning van Juda wat vir julle gestuur het om die Here te raadpleeg: So sê die Here die God van Israel: Ek het daarop ag geslaan dat jy in jou hart geraak is deur die woorde wat jy gehoor het en dat jy berou getoon het voor God toe jy hoor wat Hy sê oor hierdie plek en sy inwoners, en dat jy jou klere geskeur het en gehuil het en voor My berou getoon het, sê die Here. [27]Ek sal jou in vrede laat sterwe en in jou graf laat ingaan; jy sal niks van al die onheil wat Ek oor hierdie plek en sy inwoners bring, self beleef nie. Die afvaardiging het so aan die koning gerapporteer, [28]en hy het al die leiers van Juda en Jerusalem bymekaar laat kom. [29]Daarna is die koning na die huis van die Here toe met al die mense van Juda by hom en ook die inwoners van Jerusalem, die priesters en die Leviete, al die mense, groot en klein. Daar het hy alles aan hulle voorgelees wat in die boek van die verbond gestaan het wat in die huis van die Here gevind is. [30]Toe het die koning op sy plek gaan staan en 'n verbond met die Here gesluit en beloof om die Here te volg en sy gebooie, verordeninge en voorskrifte met sy hele hart en siel te gehoorsaam en om die bepalings van die verbond soos dit in hierdie boek vasgelê is, na te kom. 31Hy het almal wat in Jerusalem en Benjamin was, in die verbond ingesluit. Die inwoners van Jerusalem het gedoen wat die verbond van God, die God van hulle voorvaders, vereis. 32Josia het alles wat vir God afskuwelik is, verwyder uit die hele Israelitiese gebied en almal in Israel verplig om die Here hulle God te dien. So lank hy geleef het, het hulle nie weggedraai van die Here, die God van hulle voorvaders, af nie.

2Chronicles 35

Josiah Keeps the Passover

2Ch 35:1 King Josiah celebrated the Passover at Jerusalem in honor of the LORD; on the fourteenth day of the first month they killed the animals for the festival.

2Ch 35:2 He assigned to the priests the duties they were to perform in the Temple and encouraged them to do them well.

2Ch 35:3 He also gave these instructions to the Levites, the teachers of Israel, who were dedicated to the LORD: "Put the sacred Covenant Box in the Temple that King Solomon, the son of David, built. You are no longer to carry it from place to place, but you are to serve the LORD your God and his people Israel.

2Ch 35:4 Take your places in the Temple by clans, according to the responsibilities assigned to you by King David and his son King Solomon, 2Ch 35:5 and arrange yourselves so that some of you will be available to help each family of the people of Israel.

2Ch 35:6 You are to kill the Passover lambs and goats. Now make yourselves ritually clean and prepare the sacrifices in order that your fellow Israelites may follow the instructions which the LORD gave through Moses."

2Ch 35:7 For the use of the people at the Passover, King Josiah contributed from his own herds and flocks 30,000 sheep, lambs, and young goats, and 3,000 bulls.

2Ch 35:8 His officials also made contributions for the people, the priests, and the Levites to use. And the officials in charge of the Temple—Hilkiah, the High Priest, Zechariah, and Jehiel—gave the priests 2,600 lambs and young goats and 300 bulls for sacrifices during the festival.

2Ch 35:9 The leaders of the Levites—Conaniah, Shemaiah and his brother Nethanel, Hashabiah, Jeiel, and Jozabad—contributed 5,000 lambs and young goats and 500 bulls for the Levites to offer as sacrifices.

2Ch 35:10 When everything was arranged for the Passover, the priests and the Levites took their posts, as commanded by the king.

2Ch 35:11 After the lambs and goats had been killed, the Levites skinned them, and the priests sprinkled the blood on the altar.

2Ch 35:12 Then they divided among the people, by family groups, the animals for burnt offerings, so that they could offer them according to the instructions in the Law of Moses.

2Ch 35:13 The Levites roasted the Passover sacrifices over the fire, according to the regulations, and boiled the sacred offerings in pots, kettles, and pans, and quickly distributed the meat to the people.

2Ch 35:14 After this was done, the Levites provided meat for themselves and for the priests descended from Aaron, for the priests were kept busy until night, burning the animals that were burned whole and the fat of the sacrifices.

2Ch 35:15 The following musicians of the Levite clan of Asaph were in the places assigned to them by King David's instructions: Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun, the king's prophet. The guards at the Temple gates did not need to leave their posts, because the other Levites prepared the Passover for them.

2Ch 35:16 So, as King Josiah had commanded, everything was done that day for the worship of the LORD, the keeping of the Passover Festival, and the offering of burnt offerings on the altar.

2Ch 35:17 For seven days all the people of Israel who were present celebrated the Passover and the Festival of Unleavened Bread.

2Ch 35:18 Since the days of the prophet Samuel, the Passover had never been celebrated like this. None of the former kings had ever celebrated a Passover like this one celebrated by King Josiah, the priests, the Levites, and the people of Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem 2Ch 35:19 in the eighteenth year of Josiah's reign.

Josiah Killed in Battle

2Ch 35:20 After King Josiah had done all this for the Temple, King Neco of Egypt led an army to fight at Carchemish on the Euphrates River. Josiah tried to stop him,

2Ch 35:21 but Neco sent Josiah this message: "This war I am fighting does not concern you, King of Judah. I have not come to fight you, but to fight my enemies, and God has told me to hurry. God is on my side, so don't oppose me, or he will destroy you."

2Ch 35:22 But Josiah was determined to fight. He refused to listen to what God was saying through King Neco, so he disguised himself and went into battle on the plain of Megiddo.

2Ch 35:23 During the battle King Josiah was struck by Egyptian arrows. He ordered his servants, "Take me away; I'm badly hurt!"

2Ch 35:24 They lifted him out of his chariot, placed him in a second chariot which he had there, and took him to Jerusalem. There he died and was buried in the royal tombs. All the people of Judah and Jerusalem mourned his death.

2Ch 35:25 The prophet Jeremiah composed a lament for King Josiah. It has become a custom in Israel for the singers, both men and women, to use this song when they mourn for him. The song is found in the collection of laments.

2Ch 35:26 Everything that Josiah did—his devotion to the LORD, his obedience to the Law, 2Ch 35:27 and his history from beginning to end—is all recorded in The History of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

II KRONIEKE 35

1Josia het die paasfees van die Here in Jerusalem gevier. Hulle het die paaslam geslag op die veertiende van die eerste maand. 2Die koning het aan die priesters hulle diensbeurte toegewys en hulle moed ingepraat vir die tempeldiens. 3Daarna het hy die Leviete wat vir die onderrig van die hele Israel verantwoordelik was en aan die Here gewy was, beveel: Sit die heilige ark in die tempel wat koning Salomo van Israel, seun van Dawid, gebou het. Julle hoef dit nie meer op die skouers te dra nie. Doen nou julle werk vir die Here julle God en vir sy volk Israel. 4Orden julleself familiegewys volgens afdelings soos dit bepaal is in die handleidings van koning Dawid van Israel en sy seun Salomo. 5Neem dan julle plek in die heiligdom in: vir elke familiegroep van julle volksgenote moet daar 'n familieafdeling Leviete wees. 6Slag die paaslam, reinig julle, en berei julle volksgenote voor om uitvoering te gee aan die opdrag van die Here wat deur bemiddeling van Moses aan Israel gegee is. 7Josia het self die kleinvee, die skaaplammers en boklammers, dertig duisend stuks, vir die lede van die volk voorsien, die paasoffers vir almal wat daar was, en ook nog drie duisend beeste. Dit het gekom uit die persoonlike besit van die koning. 8Sy amptenare het vrywillig voorsiening help maak vir die volk, die priesters en die Leviete. Gilkija, Sagaria en Jegiël, die hoofde van die tempel, het as paasoffers vir die priesters twee duisend ses honderd lammers en drie honderd beeste geskenk. 9Kenanja en sy ampsgenote Semaja en Netanel, en Gasabja, Jeïel en Josabad, die leiers van die Leviete, het as paasoffers vir die Leviete vyf duisend lammers en vyf honderd beeste geskenk. 10Toe die diens gereël is, die priesters op hulle plekke staan en die Leviete in hulle afdelings soos die koning beveel het, 11is die paaslam geslag. Die priesters het die bloed gesprinkel wat vir hulle gegee is, en die Leviete het geslag. 12Die brandoffers is eenkant gehou om aan die familiegroepe uit die volk te gee sodat hulle dit kon offer aan die Here soos die boek van Moses dit voorskryf. Dit is ook met die beeste gedoen. 13Die paaslammers is volgens voorskrif oor die vuur gebraai, maar die gewyde offergawes is in potte, kastrolle en skottels gekook en vinnig vir die lede van die volk geneem. 14Daarna het die Leviete vir hulleself en die priesters vleis gaargemaak, want die priesters uit die nageslag van Aäron was tot die nag toe besig om die brandoffers en die vetgedeeltes as offers te verbrand. Die Leviete moes dus vir hulleself en vir die Aäronitiese priesters vleis gaarmaak. 15Die sangers van die Asafgroep was op hulle pos volgens die voorskrif van Dawid, en ook Asaf self, Heman en Jedutun, die siener van die koning. Die poortwagte was elkeen by die poort waar hy moes wees. Hulle het nie nodig gehad om hulle poste te verlaat nie, want hulle ampsgenote, die Leviete, het vir hulle gesorg. 16So het die diens van die Here daardie dag verloop. Die paasfees is gevier en die brandoffers op die altaar van die Here gebring soos koning Josia beveel het. 17Die Israeliete wat daar was, het destyds die paasfees gevier en die sewedaagse fees van die ongesuurde brood. 18Van die tyd van die profeet Samuel af is daar nie so 'n groot paasfees in Israel gevier nie. Nie een van die konings van Israel het so paasfees gevier soos Josia, die priesters en die Leviete, die hele Juda, die Israeliete wat daar was, en die inwoners van Jerusalem dit gevier het nie. 19Dié paasfees is gevier in die agtiende regeringsjaar van koning Josia. 20Alles wat Josia aan die tempel laat doen het, was afgehandel. Toe het koning Neko van Egipte opgetrek om in Karkemis, aan die Eufraat, te gaan oorlog maak. Josia het teen hom opgetrek, 21en Neko het met boodskappers vir hom laat weet: Ons het niks teen mekaar nie, koning van Juda! My veldtog is dié keer nie teen jou nie, maar teen 'n vyand. God het gesê ek moet gou maak. Moenie in God se pad kom nie. Hy is by my en Hy sal jou vernietig. 22Josia het Neko egter nie met rus gelaat nie. Hy het hom vermom met die oog op die geveg en nie geluister na wat Neko op bevel van God self gesê het nie. Hy het vir Neko in die Megiddovlakte gaan aanval. 23Die boogskutters het koning Josia raakgeskiet, en hy het vir sy lyfwagte gesê: Bring my uit, ek is swaar gewond. 24Hulle het hom van die strydwa afgehaal, hom op 'n ander wa gesit en hom na Jerusalem toe gebring. Hy is oorlede, en hy is begrawe in die familiegraf. Die hele Juda en Jerusalem het oor Josia getreur. 25Jeremia het 'n treurlied oor Josia gedig, en al die sangers en sangeresse het oor Josia gesing in hulle treurliedere. Dit word nou nog gedoen, dit het 'n gebruik in Israel geword. Die liedere is opgeteken in Die Treurliedere. 26Die ander verhale oor Josia, sy dade van trou in ooreenstemming met wat in die wet van die Here geskryf staan, 27die verhale van vroeër en dié van later, is opgeteken in Die Boek van die Konings van Israel en Juda.

2Chronicles 36

Judah's Decline

2Ch 36:1 The people of Judah chose Josiah's son Joahaz and anointed him king in Jerusalem.

2Ch 36:2 Joahaz was twenty-three years old when he became king of Judah, and he ruled in Jerusalem for three months.

2Ch 36:3 King Neco of Egypt took him prisoner and made Judah pay 7,500 pounds of silver and 75 pounds of gold as tribute.

2Ch 36:4 Neco made Joahaz' brother Eliakim king of Judah and changed his name to Jehoiakim. Joahaz was taken to Egypt by Neco.

2Ch 36:5 Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king of Judah, and he ruled in Jerusalem for eleven years. He sinned against the LORD his God.

2Ch 36:6 King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia invaded Judah, captured Jehoiakim, and took him to Babylonia in chains.

2Ch 36:7 Nebuchadnezzar carried off some of the treasures of the Temple and put them in his palace in Babylon.

2Ch 36:8 Everything that Jehoiakim did, including his disgusting practices and the evil he committed, is recorded in The History of the Kings of Israel and Judah.His son Jehoiachin succeeded him as king.

2Ch 36:9 Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he became king of Judah, and he ruled in Jerusalem for three months and ten days. He too sinned against the LORD.

2Ch 36:10 When spring came, King Nebuchadnezzar took Jehoiachin to Babylonia as a prisoner and carried off the treasures of the Temple. Then Nebuchadnezzar made Jehoiachin's uncle Zedekiah king of Judah and Jerusalem.

2Ch 36:11 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king of Judah, and he ruled in Jerusalem for eleven years.

2Ch 36:12 He sinned against the LORD and did not listen humbly to the prophet Jeremiah, who spoke the word of the LORD.

2Ch 36:13 Zedekiah rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar, who had forced him to swear in God's name that he would be loyal. He stubbornly refused to repent and return to the LORD, the God of Israel.

2Ch 36:14 In addition, the leaders of Judah, the priests, and the people followed the sinful example of the nations around them in worshiping idols, and so they defiled the Temple, which the LORD himself had made holy.

2Ch 36:15 The LORD, the God of their ancestors, had continued to send prophets to warn his people, because he wanted to spare them and the Temple.

2Ch 36:16 But they made fun of God's messengers, ignoring his words and laughing at his prophets, until at last the LORD's anger against his people was so great that there was no escape.

Jerusalem Captured and Burned

2Ch 36:17 So the LORD brought the king of Babylonia to attack them. The king killed the young men of Judah even in the Temple. He had no mercy on anyone, young or old, man or woman, sick or healthy. God handed them all over to him.

2Ch 36:18 The king of Babylonia looted the Temple, the Temple treasury, and the wealth of the king and his officials, and took everything back to Babylon.

2Ch 36:19 He burned down the Temple and the city, with all its palaces and its wealth, and broke down the city wall.

2Ch 36:20 He took all the survivors to Babylonia, where they served him and his descendants as slaves until the rise of the Persian Empire.

2Ch 36:21 And so what the LORD had foretold through the prophet Jeremiah was fulfilled: "The land will lie desolate for seventy years, to make up for the Sabbath rest that has not been observed."

The Proclamation of Cyrus

2Ch 36:22 In the first year that Cyrus of Persia was emperor, the LORD made what he had said through the prophet Jeremiah come true. He prompted Cyrus to issue the following command and send it out in writing to be read aloud everywhere in his empire:

2Ch 36:23 "This is the command of Cyrus, Emperor of Persia. The LORD, the God of Heaven, has made me ruler over the whole world and has given me the responsibility of building a temple for him in Jerusalem in Judah. Now, all of you who are God's people, go there, and may the LORD your God be with you."

II KRONIEKE 36

1Die burgers van die land het Josia se seun Joahas geneem en hom koning in Jerusalem gemaak in sy pa se plek. 2Joahas was drie en twintig toe hy koning geword het en het drie maande in Jerusalem geregeer. 3Die koning van Egipte het vir Joahas afgesit as koning in Jerusalem en die land beboet met drie en 'n halwe ton silwer en vier en dertig kilogram goud. 4Daarna het die Egiptiese koning vir Eljakim, Joahas se broer, koning gemaak oor Juda en Jerusalem, en sy naam verander na Jojakim. Neko het vir Joahas, Jojakim se broer, saamgevat Egipte toe. 5Jojakim was vyf en twintig toe hy koning geword het en het elf jaar in Jerusalem geregeer. Hy het gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here sy God. 6Koning Nebukadnesar van Babel het vir Jojakim aangeval en hom geboei met bronskettings om hom na Babel toe te vat. 7Nebukadnesar het van die goed in die huis van die Here ook na Babel toe gevat en dit in sy tempel in Babel gesit. 8Die ander verhale oor Jojakim, die afskuwelike dinge wat hy gedoen het en wat met hom gebeur het, is opgeteken in Die Boek van die Konings van Israel en Juda. Sy seun Jojagin het hom as koning opgevolg. 9Jojagin was agtien jaar toe hy koning geword het en het drie maande en tien dae in Jerusalem geregeer. Hy het gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here. 10Met die wisseling van die jaar het koning Nebukadnesar hom na Babel toe laat haal saam met die kosbare goed in die huis van die Here, en sy broer Sedekia koning oor Juda in Jerusalem gemaak. 11Sedekia was een en twintig toe hy koning geword het en het elf jaar in Jerusalem geregeer. 12Hy het gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here sy God. Hy het nie berou getoon toe die profeet Jeremia hom op bevel van die Here aangespreek het nie. 13Ook teen koning Nebukadnesar, aan wie hy voor God trou gesweer het, het hy hom verset. Hy was koppig en onversetlik in sy weiering om hom tot die Here die God van Israel te bekeer. 14Al die leiers van die priesters en die volk het ook weer in groot troueloosheid verval na die voorbeeld van die afskuwelike optrede van die heidennasies, en hulle het die huis van die Here wat Hy in Jerusalem geheilig het, ontwy. 15Die Here die God van hulle voorvaders het voortdurend aan hulle sy wil bekend gemaak deur middel van sy boodskappers, want Hy was begaan oor sy volk en sy woning, 16maar hulle het die boodskappers van God uitgelag, sy woorde geminag en sy profete gespot totdat die toorn van die Here oor sy volk losgebreek het. Die straf was onherroeplik. 17Die Here het die koning van die Galdeërs teen hulle laat optrek, en dié het die jongmanne van Juda doodgemaak binne in die heiligdom en nie jongman of meisie, grysaard of invalide ontsien nie. Die Here het almal in die mag van die koning van Babel gegee. 18Alles wat in die tempel was, of dit groot was of klein, die skatte van die huis van die Here, van die koning en sy amptenare, alles het hy na Babel toe gevat. 19Daarna het hulle die tempel afgebrand, die muur van Jerusalem afgebreek, al die beste huise afgebrand en alles wat van waarde was, verwoes. 20Almal wat nie doodgemaak is nie, is na Babel toe weggevoer, waar hulle die koning van Babel en sy seuns se onderdane was totdat die Perse die bewind oorgeneem het. 21So is die woord van die Here vervul wat deur middel van Jeremia gekom het. Die ballingskap het aangehou totdat die land vir sy sabbatsjare vergoed is. Die hele tyd dat die land woes gelê het, het dit 'n sabbatsrus geniet, 'n volle sewentig jaar. 22In die eerste regeringsjaar van koning Kores van Persië is die belofte vervul wat die Here by monde van Jeremia gegee het: die Here het dit bewerk dat koning Kores van Persië besluit het om dwarsoor sy ryk 'n proklamasie te laat afkondig. Die proklamasie, wat ook skriftelik was, het soos volg gelui: 23Koning Kores van Persië maak bekend: Die Here, die God van die hemel, het al die koninkryke van die aarde aan my gegee. Hy het my beveel om vir Hom 'n tempel in Jerusalem in Juda te bou. Enigeen onder julle wat aan sy volk behoort, kan teruggaan, en mag die Here sy God by hom wees.

Ezra 1

The Proclamation of Cyrus

Ezr 1:1 In the first year that Cyrus of Persia was emperor, the LORD made what he had said through the prophet Jeremiah come true. He prompted Cyrus to issue the following command and send it out in writing to be read aloud everywhere in his empire:

Ezr 1:2 "This is the command of Cyrus, Emperor of Persia. The LORD, the God of Heaven, has made me ruler over the whole world and has given me the responsibility of building a temple for him in Jerusalem in Judah.

Ezr 1:3 May God be with all of you who are his people. You are to go to Jerusalem and rebuild the Temple of the LORD, the God of Israel, the God who is worshiped in Jerusalem.

Ezr 1:4 If any of his people in exile need help to return, their neighbors are to give them this help. They are to provide them with silver and gold, supplies and pack animals, as well as offerings to present in the Temple of God in Jerusalem."

Ezr 1:5 Then the heads of the clans of the tribes of Judah and Benjamin, the priests and Levites, and everyone else whose heart God had moved got ready to go and rebuild the LORD's Temple in Jerusalem.

Ezr 1:6 All their neighbors helped them by giving them many things: silver utensils, gold, supplies, pack animals, other valuables, and offerings for the Temple.

Ezr 1:7 Emperor Cyrus gave them back the bowls and cups that King Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the Temple in Jerusalem and had put in the temple of his gods.

Ezr 1:8 He handed them over to Mithredath, chief of the royal treasury, who made an inventory of them for Sheshbazzar, the governor of Judah,

Ezr 1:9 (9-10) as follows:

- gold bowls for offerings - 30
- silver bowls for offerings - 1,000
- other bowls - 29
- small gold bowls - 30
- small silver bowls - 410
- other utensils - 1,000

Ezr 1:11 In all there were 5,400 gold and silver bowls and other articles which Sheshbazzar took with him when he and the other exiles went from Babylon to Jerusalem.

ESRA 1

1In die eerste regeringsjaar van koning Kores van Persië is die belofte vervul wat die Here by monde van Jeremia uitgespreek het: die Here het koning Kores van Persië laat besluit om dwarsoor sy ryk 'n proklamasie te laat afkondig. Die proklamasie, wat ook skriftelik was, het soos volg gelui: 2Koning Kores van Persië maak bekend: Die Here die God van die hemel het al die koninkryke van die aarde aan my gegee. Hy het my beveel om vir Hom 'n tempel in Jerusalem in Juda te bou. 3Enigiemand onder julle wat aan sy volk behoort mag sy God by hom wees mag na Jerusalem in Juda toe gaan en die tempel gaan bou vir die Here die God van Israel. Hy is God in Jerusalem. 4Elkeen wat van dié volk nog oor is, waar hy ook al tydelik gewoon het, moet deur die mense van sy omgewing voorsien word van die nodige silwer, goud, gebruiksgoed en vee, tesame met 'n vrywillige gawe vir die tempel van God in Jerusalem. 5Die familiehoofde van Juda en Benjamin, asook die priesters en die Leviete, elkeen in wie God die voorneme gegee het, het toe klaargemaak om die huis van die Here in Jerusalem te gaan bou. 6Al hulle bure het hulle hande gesterk deur silwerware en goud, gebruiksgoed, vee en allerlei kosbaarhede te gee, bo en behalwe al die vrywillige gawes. 7Koning Kores het ook die goed laat haal wat in die huis van die Here was en wat Nebukadnesar uit Jerusalem weggevat en in die tempel van sy god gesit het. 8Koning Kores van Persië het dit aan Mitredat, die sekretaris van die tesourie, laat oorhandig, en dié het 'n lys daarvan gemaak vir Sesbassar, hoof van die stam Juda. 9Die volgende stukke was op die lys: 30 goue bakke, 1 000 silwerbakke, en toe dit weer getel is nog 29 by, 1030 goue komme, 410 silwerkomme na hertelling, en 'n 1 000 ander stukke. 11Daar was altesame 5 400 stukke goud en silwer. Sesbassar het alles saamgevat toe hy die ballinge van Babel af na Jerusalem toe gebring het.

Ezra 3

Rebuilding the Altar

Ezr 3:1 By the seventh month the people of Israel were all settled in their towns. Then they all assembled in Jerusalem,

Ezr 3:2 and Joshua son of Jehozadak, his fellow priests, and Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, together with his relatives, rebuilt the altar of the God of Israel, so that they could burn sacrifices on it according to the instructions written in the Law of Moses, the man of God.

Ezr 3:3 Even though the returning exiles were afraid of the people who were living in the land, they rebuilt the altar where it had stood before. Then they began once again to burn on it the regular morning and evening sacrifices.

Ezr 3:4 They celebrated the Festival of Shelters according to the regulations; each day they offered the sacrifices required for that day;

Ezr 3:5 and in addition they offered the regular sacrifices to be burned whole and those to be offered at the New Moon Festival and at all the other regular assemblies at which the LORD is worshiped, as well as all the offerings that were given to the LORD voluntarily.

Ezr 3:6 Although the people had not yet started to rebuild the Temple, they began on the first day of the seventh month to burn sacrifices to the LORD.

Ezr 3:7 The people gave money to pay the stonemasons and the carpenters and gave food, drink, and olive oil to be sent to the cities of Tyre and Sidon in exchange for cedar trees from Lebanon, which were to be brought by sea to Joppa. All this was done with the permission of Emperor Cyrus of Persia.

Rebuilding the Temple

Ezr 3:8 So in the second month of the year after they came back to the site of the Temple in Jerusalem, they began work. Zerubbabel, Joshua, and the rest of their people, the priests, and the Levites, in fact all the exiles who had come back to Jerusalem, joined in the work. All the Levites twenty years of age or older were put in charge of the work of rebuilding the Temple.

Ezr 3:9 The Levite Jeshua and his sons and relatives, and Kadmiel and his sons (the clan of Hodaviah) joined together in taking charge of the rebuilding of the Temple. (They were helped by the Levites of the clan of Henadad.)

Ezr 3:10 When the builders started to lay the foundation of the Temple, the priests in their robes took their places with trumpets in their hands, and the Levites of the clan of Asaph stood there with cymbals. They praised the LORD according to the instructions handed down from the time of King David.

Ezr 3:11 They sang the LORD's praises, repeating the refrain: "The LORD is good, and his love for Israel is eternal." Everyone shouted with all their might, praising the LORD, because the work on the foundation of the Temple had been started.

Ezr 3:12 Many of the older priests, Levites, and heads of clans had seen the first Temple, and as they watched the foundation of this Temple being laid, they cried and wailed. But the others who were there shouted for joy.

Ezr 3:13 No one could distinguish between the joyful shouts and the crying, because the noise they made was so loud that it could be heard for miles.

ESRA 3

1Toe die sewende maand aanbreek, was die Israeliete dus oral in die stede. Hulle het egter soos een man in Jerusalem bymekaargekom, 2en daar het Jesua seun van Josadak en sy ampsgenote die priesters, en Serubbabel seun van Sealtiël en sy helpers die altaar van die God van Israel weer opgebou. Die altaar was bedoel vir die brandoffers soos dit voorgeskryf is in die wet van Moses, die man van God. 3Ten spyte van hulle vrees vir die ander bevolkingsgroepe in die land het hulle die altaar op sy oorspronklike plek opgerig en daarop brandoffers vir die Here gebring, soggens en saans. 4Hulle het ook die huttefees gevier soos dit voorgeskryf is en elke dag die vasgestelde hoeveelheid brandoffers gebring. 5Behalwe die gereelde brandoffers het hulle van toe af ook die offers by die nuwemaansfeeste en al die vasgestelde gewyde feeste van die Here gebring, en ook elkeen se vrywillige offers aan die Here. 6Hulle het brandoffers vir die Here begin bring op die eerste dag van die sewende maand. Die fondamente van die tempel van die Here was nog nie gelê nie. 7Hulle het toe klipkappers en ander vakmanne gehuur en die Sidoniërs en Tiriërs met kos, drank en olie betaal om uit die Libanon sederhout met die see langs na Joppe toe te bring. Dit was in ooreenstemming met die vergunning van koning Kores van Persië. 8In die tweede jaar na hulle aankoms by die tempelterrein in Jerusalem, in die tweede maand, het Serubbabel seun van Sealtiël, Jesua seun van Josadak, en hulle helpers, die priesters, die Leviete en almal wat uit die ballingskap na Jerusalem toe teruggekom het, met die werk begin. Hulle het die Leviete van twintig jaar en ouer aangestel om toesig te hou oor die werk aan die huis van die Here. 9Jesua, sy seuns, sy ampsgenote, die Judeërs Kadmiël en sy seuns, en ook die Leviete uit die nageslag van Genadad met hulle seuns en ampsgenote was saam in bevel van die mense wat die werk aan die tempel moes uitvoer. 10Toe die bouers die fondamente van die tempel van die Here klaar gelê het, het die priesters in ampsdrag reggestaan met trompette, en die Leviete van die Asafgroep met simbale, om die Here te loof soos koning Dawid van Israel bepaal het. 11Hulle het die Here begin loof en dank: Want Hy is goed, aan sy liefde vir Israel is daar geen einde nie. Die hele volk het dit tot lof van die Here uitgejubel, want die fondamente van die huis van die Here was gelê. 12Baie van die oueres onder die priesters, die Leviete en die familiehoofde wat nog die eerste tempel geken het, het hardop aan die huil gegaan toe hulle sien hoe die fondamente van hierdie tempel gelê word. Baie ander het luidkeels van vreugde gejubel. 13Niemand kon die gehuil tussen die blye gejubel deur hoor nie, so hard het die mense gejubel. Dit kon van ver af gehoor word.

Ezra 4

Adversaries Oppose the Rebuilding

Ezr 4:1 The enemies of the people of Judah and Benjamin heard that those who had returned from exile were rebuilding the Temple of the LORD, the God of Israel.

Ezr 4:2 So they went to see Zerubbabel and the heads of the clans and said, "Let us join you in building the Temple. We worship the same God you worship, and we have been offering sacrifices to him ever since Emperor Esarhaddon of Assyria sent us here to live."

Ezr 4:3 Zerubbabel, Joshua, and the heads of the clans told them, "We don't need your help to build a temple for the LORD our God. We will build it ourselves, just as Emperor Cyrus of Persia commanded us."

Ezr 4:4 Then the people who had been living in the land tried to discourage and frighten the Jews and keep them from building.

Ezr 4:5 They also bribed Persian government officials to work against them. They kept on doing this throughout the reign of Emperor Cyrus and into the reign of Emperor Darius.

Ezr 4:6 At the beginning of the reign of Emperor Xerxes, the enemies of the people living in Judah and Jerusalem brought written charges against them.

The Letter to King Artaxerxes

Ezr 4:7 Again in the reign of Emperor Artaxerxes of Persia, Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and their associates wrote a letter to the emperor. The letter was written in Aramaic and was to be translated when read.

Ezr 4:8 Also Rehum, the governor, and Shimshai, the secretary of the province, wrote the following letter to Emperor Artaxerxes about Jerusalem:

Ezr 4:9 "From Rehum, the governor, from Shimshai, secretary of the province, from their associates, the judges, and from all the other officials, who are originally from Erech, Babylon, and Susa in the land of Elam, Ezr 4:10 together with the other peoples whom the great and powerful Ashurbanipal moved from their homes and settled in the city of Samaria and elsewhere in West-of-Euphrates Province."

Ezr 4:11 This is the text of the letter: "To Emperor Artaxerxes from his servants who live in West-of-Euphrates.

Ezr 4:12 "We want Your Majesty to know that the Jews who came here from your other territories have settled in Jerusalem and are rebuilding that evil and rebellious city. They have begun to rebuild the walls and will soon finish them.

Ezr 4:13 Your Majesty, if this city is rebuilt and its walls are completed, the people will stop paying taxes, and your royal revenues will decrease.

Ezr 4:14 Now, because we are under obligation to Your Majesty, we do not want to see this happen, and so we suggest Ezr 4:15 that you order a search to be made in the records your ancestors kept. If you do, you will discover that this city has always been rebellious and that from ancient times it has given trouble to kings and to rulers of provinces. Its people have always been hard to govern. This is why the city was destroyed.

Ezr 4:16 We therefore are convinced that if this city is rebuilt and its walls are completed, Your Majesty will no longer be able to control West-of-Euphrates Province."

The King Orders the Work to Cease

Ezr 4:17 The emperor sent this answer: "To Rehum, the governor, to Shimshai, secretary of the province, and to their associates who live in Samaria and in the rest of West-of-Euphrates, greetings.

Ezr 4:18 "The letter which you sent has been translated and read to me.

Ezr 4:19 I gave orders for an investigation to be made, and it has indeed been found that from ancient times Jerusalem has revolted against royal authority and that it has been full of rebels and troublemakers.

Ezr 4:20 Powerful kings have reigned there and have ruled over the entire province of West-of-Euphrates, collecting taxes and revenue.

Ezr 4:21 Therefore you are to issue orders that those men are to stop rebuilding the city until I give further commands.

Ezr 4:22 Do this at once, so that no more harm may be done to my interests."

Ezr 4:23 As soon as this letter from Emperor Artaxerxes was read to Rehum, Shimshai, and their associates, they hurried to Jerusalem and forced the Jews to stop rebuilding the city.

Ezr 4:24 Work on the Temple had been stopped and had remained at a standstill until the second year of the reign of Emperor Darius of Persia.

ESRA 4

[1]Vyande van Juda en Benjamin het gehoor dat die ballinge besig is om 'n tempel te bou vir die Here die God van Israel. [2]Hulle kom toe na Serubbabel en die familiehoofde toe en sê vir hulle: Laat ons saam met julle bou. Ons vereer dieselfde God as julle. Ons bring vir Hom offers van die tyd van koning Esarhaddon van Assirië af deur wie ons hiernatoe gebring is. [3]Maar Serubbabel en Jesua en die ander familiehoofde van Israel het vir hulle gesê: Julle bou nie saam met ons aan die tempel van ons God nie. Ons alleen sal vir die Here die God van Israel bou. Ons het die opdrag van die koning self gekry, koning Kores van Persië. [4]Die nie-Israelitiese inwoners van die omgewing het toe die volk van Juda probeer moedeloos en bang maak om met die bouwerk aan te gaan. [5]Hulle het selfs amptenare omgekoop om die bouplanne in die wiele te ry. Dit het aangehou van die tyd van koning Kores van Persië af tot die regeringstyd van koning Darius van Persië. [6]Aan die begin van die regering van Ahasveros het hulle selfs 'n geskrewe klag teen die inwoners van Juda en Jerusalem ingedien. [7]In die regeringstyd van koning Artasasta van Persië het Bislam saam met Mitredat, Tabeël en sy ander bondgenote 'n brief aan die koning geskrywe. Die dokument was in die Aramese skrif en in die Aramese taal. [8]Later het die hoofamptenaar Regum en die sekretaris Simsai 'n skrywe teen Jerusalem aan koning Artasasta gerig. [9]Die skrywe was in die naam van die hoofamptenaar Regum, die sekretaris Simsai en die res van hulle bondgenote, die regters, die goewerneurs, die amptenare uit Persië, Erek, Babel en Susan, dit is Elam, [10]en die mense van die ander volke wat deur die groot en beroemde Asenappar weggevoer is en gevestig is in die stede van Samaria en in die res van Wes-Eufraat. [11]Hier is 'n afskrif van die brief wat hulle aan die koning gestuur het: Aan koning Artasasta. Van u onderdane, die mense van Wes-Eufraat. [12]Ons bring tot die koning se kennis dat die Judeërs wat daar van u af na ons toe getrek het, nouliks in Jerusalem aangekom het of hulle het begin om dié rebelse, slegte stad te herbou. Hulle is besig om die mure op te bou. Die fondamente is klaar gelê. [13]Nou moet die koning daarvan kennis neem dat as hierdie stad herbou en sy mure herstel is, hulle nie belasting, heffing of tol sal betaal nie. Die koning sal skade ly aan inkomste. [14]Ons het 'n plig teenoor die paleis en dit pas ons nie om toe te sien dat die koning in sy eer aangetas word nie. Daarom laat ons die koning weet [15]dat as u in die annale van u voorgangers laat soek, u daar sal vind dat hierdie stad 'n rebelse stad was wat konings en provinsiale owerhede skade laat ly het. Van ouds af is daar revolusie gestook. Dit is waarom die stad verwoes is. [16]Ons bring tot die koning se kennis dat as dié stad herbou en sy mure herstel word, daar vir u in Wes-Eufraat niks sal oorbly nie. [17]Die koning het soos volg geantwoord: Aan die hoofamptenaar Regum, die sekretaris Simsai en hulle bondgenote wat in Samaria en die res van Wes-Eufraat woon: Voorspoed! [18]Die skrywe wat julle aan ons gestuur het, is vertaal en aan my voorgelees. [19]Op my bevel is daar ondersoek gedoen en gevind dat daardie stad van ouds af teen konings in opstand was. Daar is voortdurend rebellie en revolusie gestook. [20]Magtige konings het oor Jerusalem geregeer en gesag uitgeoefen oor die hele Wes-Eufraat. Daar is belasting, heffing en tol aan hulle betaal. [21]Gee dus opdrag dat daardie manne gekeer word. Daardie stad mag nie herbou word voor ek opdrag gee nie. [22]Sorg dat julle nie nalatig is in dié saak nie, sodat die koningshuis nie nog groter skade ly nie. [23]Toe 'n afskrif van die brief van koning Artasasta voorgelees is aan Regum en aan die sekretaris Simsai en hulle bondgenote, is hulle haastig Jerusalem toe, na die Judeërs toe, en het hulle die werk met mag en geweld tot stilstand gebring. [24]Die werk aan die tempel in Jerusalem is gestaak, en dit het bly lê tot die tweede regeringsjaar van koning Darius van Persië.

Ezra 5

Rebuilding Begins Anew

Ezr 5:1 At that time two prophets, Haggai and Zechariah son of Iddo, began to speak in the name of the God of Israel to the Jews who lived in Judah and Jerusalem.

Ezr 5:2 When Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and Joshua son of Jehozadak heard their messages, they began to rebuild the Temple in Jerusalem, and the two prophets helped them.

Ezr 5:3 Almost at once Governor Tattenai of West-of-Euphrates, Shethar Bozenai, and their fellow officials came to Jerusalem and demanded: "Who gave you orders to build this Temple and equip it?"

Ezr 5:4 They also asked for the names of all the men who were helping build the Temple.

Ezr 5:5 But God was watching over the Jewish leaders, and the Persian officials decided to take no action until they could write to Emperor Darius and receive a reply.

Tattenai's Letter to King Darius

Ezr 5:6 This is the report that they sent to the emperor:

Ezr 5:7 "To Emperor Darius, may you rule in peace.

Ezr 5:8 "Your Majesty should know that we went to the province of Judah and found that the Temple of the great God is being rebuilt with large stone blocks and with wooden beams set in the wall. The work is being done with great care and is moving ahead steadily.

Ezr 5:9 "We then asked the leaders of the people to tell us who had given them authority to rebuild the Temple and to equip it.

Ezr 5:10 We also asked them their names so that we could inform you who the leaders of this work are.

Ezr 5:11 "They answered, 'We are servants of the God of heaven and earth, and we are rebuilding the Temple which was originally built and equipped many years ago by a powerful king of Israel.

Ezr 5:12 But because our ancestors made the God of Heaven angry, he let them be conquered by King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia, a king of the Chaldean dynasty. The Temple was destroyed, and the people were taken into exile in Babylonia.

Ezr 5:13 Then in the first year of the reign of King Cyrus as emperor of Babylonia, Cyrus issued orders for the Temple to be rebuilt.

Ezr 5:14 He restored the gold and silver Temple utensils which Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the Temple in Jerusalem and had placed in the temple in Babylon. Emperor Cyrus turned these utensils over to a man named Sheshbazzar, whom he appointed governor of Judah.

Ezr 5:15 The emperor told him to take them and return them to the Temple in Jerusalem, and to rebuild the Temple where it had stood before.

Ezr 5:16 So Sheshbazzar came and laid its foundation; construction has continued from then until the present, but it is still not finished.'

Ezr 5:17 "Now, if it please Your Majesty, have a search made in the royal records in Babylon to find whether or not Emperor Cyrus gave orders for this Temple in Jerusalem to be rebuilt, and then inform us what your will is in this matter."

ESRA 5

1In dié tyd het twee profete opgetree, Haggai en Sagaria seun van Iddo. Hulle het die Judeërs in Juda en Jerusalem aangespreek in die Naam van die God van Israel. 2Daarna het Serubbabel seun van Sealtiël, en Jesua seun van Josadak weer begin bou aan die tempel in Jerusalem. Die profete van God het hulle bygestaan en hulle ondersteun. 3Toe het goewerneur Tattenai van Wes-Eufraat, Setar-Bosnai en hulle bondgenote na die Judeërs toe gekom en vir hulle gevra: Van wie het julle opdrag gekry om dié tempel te herbou en sy timmerasie op te sit? 4Verder wou hulle weet: Wat is die name van die manne wat dié gebou herstel? 5Maar God het 'n oog gehou oor die Judese leiers, en die werk is toegelaat om aan te gaan tot tyd en wyl daar aan Darius verslag gedoen is en daar van hom 'n beslissing oor die saak ontvang is. 6Hier volg nou 'n afskrif van die brief wat goewerneur Tattenai van Wes-Eufraat, Setar-Bosnai en hulle ampsgenote, die goewerneurs in Wes-Eufraat, aan koning Darius gestuur het. 7Hulle het aan hom verslag gedoen en soos volg geskryf: Aan koning Darius. Alle voorspoed! 8Ons bring tot die koning se kennis dat ons na die provinsie Juda toe gegaan het en daar by 'n groot tempel uitgekom het. Dit word gebou van gekapte klip en die balke word al op die mure gelê. Die werk word met ywer gedoen en vorder vinnig. 9Ons het toe by die mense wat die leiding neem, navraag gedoen. Ons het vir hulle gesê: Van wie het julle opdrag gekry om dié tempel te bou en sy timmerasie op te sit?' 10Ons het ook hulle name gevra om vir u inligting op skrif te stel watter manne hulle leiers is. 11Hulle het ons soos volg geantwoord: Ons is dienaars van die God van die hemel en die aarde. Ons is besig om die tempel te herbou wat vroeër baie jare hier gestaan het. Dit is deur 'n groot koning van Israel opgerig en voltooi. 12Maar ons voorvaders het die toorn van die God van die hemel op hulle laat kom, en Hy het hulle oorgegee in die mag van die Galdeër koning Nebukadnesar van Babel wat die tempel verwoes het en die volk na Babel toe weggevoer het. 13Koning Kores van Babel het egter in sy eerste regeringsjaar opdrag gegee dat die tempel herbou moet word. 14Koning Kores het ook die goue en die silwergoed wat aan die tempel behoort en wat Nebukadnesar uit die tempel in Jerusalem verwyder en in die tempel van Babel laat sit het, weer uit die tempel in Babel laat haal en dit aan Sesbassar oorhandig, die man wat hy as goewerneur aangestel het. 15Sy opdrag aan Sesbassar was: Vat hierdie goed terug na die tempel toe in Jerusalem en bou die tempel weer op sy oorspronklike plek.' 16Dié Sesbassar het toe gekom en die fondamente van die tempel in Jerusalem gelê. Van daardie tyd af tot nou toe word daar gebou, maar dit is nog nie klaar nie. [17]As die koning dit dan nou goedvind, laat ondersoek doen in die koninklike argief daar in Babel en stel vas of dit so is dat koning Kores opdrag gegee het dat hierdie tempel in Jerusalem weer gebou moet word. Laat ons dan weet wat die koning se beslissing is.

Ezra 6

The Decree of Darius

Ezr 6:1 So Emperor Darius issued orders for a search to be made in the royal records that were kept in Babylon.

Ezr 6:2 But it was in the city of Ecbatana in the province of Media that a scroll was found, containing the following record:

Ezr 6:3 "In the first year of his reign Emperor Cyrus commanded that the Temple in Jerusalem be rebuilt as a place where sacrifices are made and offerings are burned. The Temple is to be ninety feet high and ninety feet wide.

Ezr 6:4 The walls are to be built with one layer of wood on top of each three layers of stone. All expenses are to be paid by the royal treasury.

Ezr 6:5 Also the gold and silver utensils which King Nebuchadnezzar brought to Babylon from the Temple in Jerusalem are to be returned to their proper place in the Jerusalem Temple."

Ezr 6:6 Then Emperor Darius sent the following reply: "To Tattenai, governor of West-of-Euphrates, Shethar Bozenai, and your fellow officials in West-of-Euphrates. "Stay away from the Temple

Ezr 6:7 and do not interfere with its construction. Let the governor of Judah and the Jewish leaders rebuild the Temple of God where it stood before.

Ezr 6:8 I hereby command you to help them rebuild it. Their expenses are to be paid promptly out of the royal funds received from taxes in West-of-Euphrates, so that the work is not interrupted.

Ezr 6:9 Day by day, without fail, you are to give the priests in Jerusalem whatever they tell you they need: young bulls, sheep, or lambs to be burned as offerings to the God of Heaven, or wheat, salt, wine, or olive oil.

Ezr 6:10 This is to be done so that they can offer sacrifices that are acceptable to the God of Heaven and pray for his blessing on me and my sons.

Ezr 6:11 I further command that if any disobey this order, a wooden beam is to be torn out of their houses, sharpened on one end, and then driven through their bodies. And their houses are to be made a rubbish heap.

Ezr 6:12 May the God who chose Jerusalem as the place where he is to be worshiped overthrow any king or nation that defies this command and tries to destroy the Temple there. I, Darius, have commanded. My command is to be fully obeyed."

The Temple Finished and Dedicated

Ezr 6:13 Then Governor Tattenai, Shethar Bozenai, and their fellow officials did exactly as the emperor had commanded.

Ezr 6:14 The Jewish leaders made good progress with the building of the Temple, encouraged by the prophets Haggai and Zechariah. They completed the Temple as they had been commanded by the God of Israel and by Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerxes, emperors of Persia.

Ezr 6:15 They finished the Temple on the third day of the month Adar in the sixth year of the reign of Emperor Darius.

Ezr 6:16 Then the people of Israel—the priests, the Levites, and all the others who had returned from exile—joyfully dedicated the Temple.

Ezr 6:17 For the dedication they offered 100 bulls, 200 sheep, and 400 lambs as sacrifices, and 12 goats as offerings for sin, one for each tribe of Israel.

Ezr 6:18 They also organized the priests and the Levites for the Temple services in Jerusalem, according to the instructions contained in the book of Moses.

Passover Celebrated

Ezr 6:19 The people who had returned from exile celebrated Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month of the following year.

Ezr 6:20 All the priests and the Levites had purified themselves and were ritually clean. The Levites killed the animals for the Passover sacrifices for all the people who had returned, for the priests, and for themselves.

Ezr 6:21 The sacrifices were eaten by all the Israelites who had returned from exile and by all those who had given up the pagan ways of the other people who were living in the land and who had come to worship the LORD God of Israel.

Ezr 6:22 For seven days they joyfully celebrated the Festival of Unleavened Bread. They were full of joy because the LORD had made the emperor of Assyria favorable to them, so that he supported them in their work of rebuilding the Temple of the God of Israel.

ESRA 6

[1]In opdrag van koning Darius is daar toe ondersoek gedoen in die argiewe in Babel waar die dokumente gebêre word, [2]en in Agmeta die hoofstad van die provinsie Medië is daar so 'n geskrif gevind. Daarin het gestaan: Proklamasie: [3]In sy eerste regeringsjaar het koning Kores 'n bevel uitgevaardig in verband met die tempel in Jerusalem. Die tempel moet herbou word as 'n plek waar offers gebring word. Die fondamente moet versterk word en die gebou moet dertig meter hoog en dertig meter breed wees, [4]met telkens drie lae gekapte klip en een laag hout. Die koste moet gedra word deur die koninklike skatkis. [5]Die goue en die silwergoed wat aan die tempel behoort en wat Nebukadnesar uit die tempel in Jerusalem verwyder en na Babel toe gebring het, moet teruggegee word. Dit moet teruggevat word na die tempel toe in Jerusalem waar dit hoort en daar in die tempel gesit word. [6]Koning Darius het toe soos volg laat skryf: Aan goewerneur Tattenai van Wes-Eufraat, Setar-Bosnai en hulle ampsgenote, die goewerneurs in Wes-Eufraat. Julle moet daar wegbly. [7]Laat die werk aan daardie tempel ongehinderd voortgaan. Laat die goewerneur van die Judeërs en hulle leiers die tempel bou waar hy moet wees. [8]Ek gee hiermee ook opdrag wat julle moet doen om daardie Judese leiers te help met die bou van die tempel: Sonder versuim en nougeset moet die koste aan daardie manne uitbetaal word uit die koninklike fondse, die belasting van Wes-Eufraat. [9]Wat ook al nodig is volgens die priesters in Jerusalem, moet aan hulle gegee word: jong bulle, ramme en lammers vir die offers aan die God van die hemel, koring, sout, wyn en olie. Dit moet elke dag gedoen word, sonder om oor te slaan, [10]sodat hulle vir die God van die hemel offers kan bring wat vir Hom aanneemlik is en kan bid dat die lewens van die koning en sy seuns gespaar mag word. [11]Ek beveel verder dat enigiemand wat hierdie opdrag oortree, deurboor sal word met 'n balk wat uit sy eie huis geruk is, en dat sy huis afgebreek moet word. [12]Mag die God wat sy Naam op daardie plek laat woon, elke koning en elke volk tot 'n val bring wat hierdie bevel oortree of 'n hand lig om daardie tempel in Jerusalem te beskadig. Ek, Darius, het opdrag gegee. Dit moet presies so uitgevoer word! [13]Goewerneur Tattenai van Wes-Eufraat, Setar-Bosnai en hulle ampsgenote het toe gedoen presies wat koning Darius hulle beveel het. [14]Die Judese leiers het met die bouwerk aangegaan. Danksy die optrede van die profete Haggai en Sagaria seun van Iddo het hulle goed gevorder. So kon hulle die gebou klaar maak soos die God van Israel hulle dit opgedra het en soos konings Kores, Darius en Artasasta van Persië beveel het. [15]Die tempel is voltooi op die derde dag van die maand Adar, in die sesde jaar van die regering van koning

Darius. [16]Die Israeliete, die priesters, die Leviete en die ander wat uit die ballingskap teruggekom het, het die inwyding van die tempel met vreugde gevier. [17]Hulle het met die inwyding van die tempel honderd bulle, twee honderd ramme en vier honderd lammers geoffer, en as sondeoffer vir die hele Israel ook nog twaalf bokramme, een vir elke stam van Israel. [18]Hulle het die priesters ingedeel in afdelings en die Leviete in diensgroepe vir die diens van God in Jerusalem soos dit in die boek van Moses voorgeskryf is. [19]Die ballinge wat teruggekom het, het die paasfees gevier op die veertiende van die eerste maand. [20]Die priesters en die Leviete het hulle sonder uitsondering gereinig en almal was rein. Die Leviete het die paaslam geslag vir almal wat uit die ballingskap teruggekom het en vir hulle ampsgenote die priesters en vir hulleself. [21]Die paaslam is geëet deur die Israeliete wat uit die ballingskap teruggekom het en deur elkeen wat hom van die onreinheid van die heidene in die land afgeskei het om die Here die God van Israel te dien. [22]Hulle het die fees van die ongesuurde brood sewe dae met vreugde gevier. Die Here het hulle dié vreugde geskenk toe Hy die gesindheid van die koning van Assirië teenoor hulle verander het, en dié hulle hande gesterk het in die werk aan die tempel van die God van Israel.

Ezra 7

Ezra Sent to Teach the People

Ezr 7:1 Many years later, when Artaxerxes was emperor of Persia, there was a man named Ezra. He traced his ancestors back to Aaron, the High Priest, as follows: Ezra was the son of Seraiah, son of Azariah, son of Hilkiah,

Ezr 7:2 son of Shallum, son of Zadok, son of Ahitub,

Ezr 7:3 son of Amariah, son of Azariah, son of Meraioth,

Ezr 7:4 son of Zerahiah, son of Uzzi, son of Bukki,

Ezr 7:5 son of Abishua, son of Phinehas, son of Eleazar, son of Aaron.

Ezr 7:6 (6-7) Ezra was a scholar with a thorough knowledge of the Law which the LORD, the God of Israel, had given to Moses. Because Ezra had the blessing of the LORD his God, the emperor gave him everything he asked for. In the seventh year of the reign of Artaxerxes, Ezra set out from Babylonia for Jerusalem with a group of Israelites which included priests, Levites, Temple musicians, Temple guards, and workers.

Ezr 7:8 (8-9) They left Babylonia on the first day of the first month, and with God's help they arrived in Jerusalem on the first day of the fifth month.

Ezr 7:10 Ezra had devoted his life to studying the Law of the LORD, to practicing it, and to teaching all its laws and regulations to the people of Israel.

Ezr 7:11 Emperor Artaxerxes gave the following document to Ezra, the priest and scholar, who had a thorough knowledge of the laws and commands which the LORD had given to Israel:

Ezr 7:12 "From Emperor Artaxerxes to the priest Ezra, scholar in the Law of the God of Heaven.

Ezr 7:13 "I command that throughout my empire all the Israelite people, priests, and Levites that so desire be permitted to go with you to Jerusalem.

Ezr 7:14 I, together with my seven counselors, send you to investigate the conditions in Jerusalem and Judah in order to see how well the Law of your God, which has been entrusted to you, is being obeyed.

Ezr 7:15 You are to take with you the gold and silver offerings which I and my counselors desire to give to the God of Israel, whose Temple is in Jerusalem.

Ezr 7:16 You are also to take all the silver and gold which you collect throughout the province of Babylon and the offerings which the Israelite people and their priests give for the Temple of their God in Jerusalem.

Ezr 7:17 "You are to spend this money carefully and buy bulls, rams, lambs, grain, and wine and offer them on the altar of the Temple in Jerusalem.

Ezr 7:18 You may use the silver and gold that is left over for whatever you and your people desire, in accordance with the will of your God.

Ezr 7:19 You are to present to God in Jerusalem all the utensils that have been given to you for use in the Temple services.

Ezr 7:20 And anything else which you need for the Temple, you may get from the royal treasury.

Ezr 7:21 "I command all the treasury officials in West-of-Euphrates Province to provide promptly for Ezra, the priest and scholar in the Law of the God of Heaven, everything he asks you for,

Ezr 7:22 up to a limit of 7,500 pounds of silver, 500 bushels of wheat, 550 gallons of wine, 550 gallons of olive oil, and as much salt as needed.

Ezr 7:23 You must be careful to provide everything which the God of Heaven requires for his Temple, and so make sure that he is never angry with me or with those who reign after me.

Ezr 7:24 You are forbidden to collect any taxes from the priests, Levites, musicians, guards, workers, or anyone else connected with this Temple.

Ezr 7:25 "You, Ezra, using the wisdom which your God has given you, are to appoint administrators and judges to govern all the people in West-of-Euphrates who live by the Law of your God. You must teach that Law to anyone who does not know it.

Ezr 7:26 If any disobey the laws of your God or the laws of the empire, they are to be punished promptly: by death or by exile or by confiscation of their property or by imprisonment."

Ezr 7:27 Ezra said, "Praise the LORD, the God of our ancestors! He has made the emperor willing to honor in this way the Temple of the LORD in Jerusalem.

Ezr 7:28 By God's grace I have won the favor of the emperor, of his counselors, and of all his powerful officials; the LORD my God has given me courage, and I have been able to persuade many of the heads of the clans of Israel to return with me."

ESRA 7

1Dit was ná hierdie gebeurtenisse en in die regeringstyd van koning Artasasta van Persië dat Esra op die toneel gekom het. Hy was 'n seun van Seraja, en sy afstamming is teruggevoer oor Asarja, Gilkija, 2Sallum, Sadok, Agitub, 3Amarja, Asarja, Merajot, 4Seragja, Ussi, Bukki, 5Abisua, Pinehas en Eleasar tot by die hoëpriester Aäron. 6Hierdie Esra het uit Babel gekom en hy was 'n geleerde man, kundig in die wet van Moses wat deur die Here die God van Israel gegee is. Omdat die Here sy hand oor Esra gehou het, het die koning hom alles gegee wat hy van hom gevra het. 7In die sewende regeringsjaar van koning Artasasta het Esra en 'n aantal Israeliete, priesters, Leviete, tempelsangers, poortwagte en tempelslawe na Jerusalem toe teruggegaan. 8Esra het in Jerusalem aangekom in die vyfde maand, in die sewende regeringsjaar van die koning. 9Die vertrek uit Babel was vasgestel vir die eerste van die eerste maand, en op die eerste van die vyfde maand het Esra in Jerusalem aangekom. Sy God het hom beskerm. 10Esra het hom gewy aan die wet van die Here. Hy wou dit in die praktyk toepas en Israel elke voorskrif en bepaling leer. 11Hier volg 'n afskrif van die volmag wat koning Artasasta verleen het aan die geleerde priester Esra, wat op hoogte was van alles in verband met die gebod van die Here en met sy voorskrifte aan Israel: 12Artasasta, koning oor ander konings, aan die priester Esra, die skrifgeleerde in die wet van die God van die hemel. 13Ek gee hiermee opdrag dat enigiemand in my ryk wat tot die volk Israel, sy priesters of sy Leviete behoort en wat wil gaan, met jou saam na Jerusalem toe kan gaan. 14Jy word deur die koning en sy sewe adviseurs afgevaardig om aan die hand van die wet van jou God waarin jy onderleg is, vas te stel hoe sake in Juda en Jerusalem staan. 15Jy moet ook die silwer en die goud wegbring wat die koning en sy adviseurs as 'n vrywillige gawe gee aan die God van Israel wat sy woning in Jerusalem het. 16Verder moet jy al die silwer en die goud saamneem wat jy dwarsoor die provinsie Babel kan bekom, en ook die vrywillige gawes wat die volk en die priesters vir die tempel van hulle God in Jerusalem gee. 17Van dié geld moet jy met oorleg gebruik om bulle, ramme en lammers te koop, met die bybehorende graan- en drankoffers, en dan moet jy dit op die altaar van die tempel van julle God in Jerusalem offer. 18Die silwer en die goud wat oorbly, moet jy gebruik soos jy en jou ampsgenote dit goedvind volgens die wil van julle God. 19Die goed wat vir gebruik in die tempel van jou God bestem en aan jou oorhandig is, moet jy as geskenk aan God in Jerusalem gaan gee. 20Enigiets anders wat vir die tempel van jou God nodig mag wees, en wat jy moet voorsien, mag jy uit die koninklike skatkis vat. 21Ek, koning Artasasta, beveel al die beamptes in beheer van die skatkis in Wes-Eufraat: Alles wat die priester Esra, skrifgeleerde in die wet van die God van die hemel, van julle vra, moet julle dadelik lewer, 22tot soveel as drie en 'n half ton silwer, sestien en 'n half ton koring, twee duisend twee honderd liter wyn, net soveel olie, en soveel sout as wat nodig is. 23Wat die God van die hemel ook al vir sy tempel vereis, moet met toewyding gedoen word, sodat sy toorn nie oor die ryk van die koning en sy seuns kom nie. 24Neem ook kennis dat julle nie gemagtig is om belasting, heffing of tol te eis van enige priester, Leviet, tempelsanger, poortwag, tempelslaaf of enigeen wat in die tempel van hierdie God werk nie. 25Jy, Esra, moet volgens die wysheid waaroor jy beskik soos dit jou deur jou God gegee word, regeerders en regters aanstel wat die regspraak kan behartig vir al die mense in Wes-Eufraat, vir almal wat die wet van jou God ken. Vir dié wat dit nie ken nie, moet julle dit leer. 26Enigeen wat hom nie hou aan die wet van jou God en die wet van die koning nie, moet streng gestraf word, met die dood of met verbanning of met 'n boete of met gevangenisstraf. 27Esra het toe gesê: Geloof sy die Here, die God van ons voorvaders! Hy het die koning die besluit laat neem om die tempel in Jerusalem so goed toe te rus, 28en Hy het my die goedgesindheid van die koning, van sy adviseurs en van al sy magtige amptenare laat geniet. Ek was vol moed. Die Here my God het sy hand oor my gehou. Ek het toe die leiers onder die Israeliete bymekaar laat kom om saam met my te trek.

- Zechariah son of Bebai, of the clan of Bebai, with 28 men
- Johanan son of Hakkatan, of the clan of Azgad, with 110 men
- Eliphelet, Jeuel, and Shemaiah, of the clan of Adonikam, with 60 men (they returned at a later date)
- Uthai and Zaccur, of the clan of Bigvai, with 70 men

Ezra Sends for Levites

Ezr 8:15 I assembled the entire group by the canal that runs to the town of Ahava, and we camped there three days. I found that there were priests in the group, but no Levites.

Ezr 8:16 I sent for nine of the leaders: Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah, and Meshullam, and for two teachers, Joiarib and Elnathan.

Ezr 8:17 I sent them to Iddo, head of the community at Casiphia, to ask him and his associates, the Temple workers, to send us people to serve God in the Temple.

Ezr 8:18 Through God's grace they sent us Sherebiah, an able man, a Levite from the clan of Mahli; and eighteen of his sons and brothers came with him.

Ezr 8:19 They also sent Hashabiah and Jeshaiah of the clan of Merari, with twenty of their relatives.

Ezr 8:20 In addition there were 220 Temple workers whose ancestors had been designated by King David and his officials to assist the Levites. They were all listed by name.

Fasting and Prayer for Protection

Ezr 8:21 There by the Ahava Canal I gave orders for us all to fast and humble ourselves before our God and to ask him to lead us on our journey and protect us and our children and all our possessions.

Ezr 8:22 I would have been ashamed to ask the emperor for a troop of cavalry to guard us from any enemies during our journey, because I had told him that our God blesses everyone who trusts him, but that he is displeased with and punishes anyone who turns away from him.

Ezr 8:23 So we fasted and prayed for God to protect us, and he answered our prayers.

Priests to Guard Offerings

Ezr 8:24 From among the leading priests I chose Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten others.

Ezr 8:25 Then I weighed out the silver, the gold, and the utensils which the emperor, his advisers and officials, and the people of Israel had given to be used in the Temple, and I gave it to the priests.

Ezr 8:26 (26-27) This is what I gave them:

- silver - 25 tons
- 100 silver utensils - 150 pounds
- gold - 7,500 pounds
- 20 gold bowls - 270 ounces
- fine bronze bowls, equal in value to gold bowls

Ezr 8:28 I said to them, "You are sacred to the LORD, the God of your ancestors, and so are all the silver and gold utensils brought to him as freewill offerings.

Ezr 8:29 Guard them carefully until you reach the Temple. There in the priests' rooms weigh them and turn them over to the leaders of the priests and of the Levites, and to the leaders of the people of Israel in Jerusalem."

Ezr 8:30 So the priests and the Levites took charge of the silver, the gold, and the utensils, to take them to the Temple in Jerusalem.

Ezr 8:31 It was on the twelfth day of the first month that we left the Ahava Canal to go to Jerusalem. Our God was with us and protected us from enemy attacks and from ambush as we traveled.

Ezr 8:32 When we reached Jerusalem, we rested three days.

Ezr 8:33 Then on the fourth day we went to the Temple, weighed the silver, the gold, and the utensils, and turned them over to Meremoth the priest, son of Uriah. With him were Eleazar son of Phinehas and two Levites, Jozabad son of Jeshua and Noadiah son of Binnui.

Ezr 8:34 Everything was counted and weighed, and a complete record was made at the same time.

Ezr 8:35 All those who had returned from exile then brought offerings to be burned as sacrifices to the God of Israel. They offered 12 bulls for all Israel, 96 rams, and 77 lambs; they also offered 12 goats to purify themselves from sin. All these animals were burned as sacrifices to the LORD.

Ezr 8:36 They also took the document the emperor had given them and gave it to the governors and officials of West-of-Euphrates Province, who then gave their support to the people and the Temple worship.

ESRA 8

1Die volgende familiehoofde het saam met my uit Babel vertrek tydens die regering van koning Artasasta. Hulle afstamming word ook aangegee: 2Gersom uit die nageslag van Pinehas; Daniël uit die nageslag van Itamar; Gattus seun van Sekanja uit die nageslag van Dawid; 3Sagaria uit die nageslag van Paros, en saam met hom 150 man wat in die register opgeneem was; 4Eljehoënai seun van Seragja uit die nageslag van Pagat-Moab, en saam met hom 200 man; 5Sekanja seun van Jagasiël uit die nageslag van Sattu , en saam met hom 300 man; 6Ebed seun van Jonatan uit die nageslag van Adin, en saam met hom 50 man; 7Jesaja seun van Atalia uit die nageslag van Elam, en saam met hom 70 man; 8Sebadja seun van Migael uit die nageslag van Sefatja, en saam met hom 80 man; 9Obadja seun van Jegiël uit die nageslag van Joab, en saam met hom 218 man; 10Selomit seun van Josifja uit die nageslag van Bani , en saam met hom 160 man; 11Sagaria seun van Bebai uit die nageslag van Bebai, en saam met hom 28 man; 12Joganan seun van Katan uit die nageslag van Asgad, en saam met hom 110 man; 13dié uit die nageslag van Adonika was van die laastes; hulle was Elifelet, Jeïel en Semaja, en daar was 60 man saam met hulle; 14verder was daar Utai en Sabud uit die nageslag van Bigwai, en saam met hulle 70 man. 15Ek het hulle laat bymekaarkom by die rivier wat by Ahawa verby loop. Ons het daar drie dae gekampeer, en ek het vasgestel dat daar priesters onder die mense was, maar ek kon geen Leviete vind nie. 16Ek het toe vir Eliëser, Ariël, Semaja, Elnatan, Jarib, Elnatan, Natan, Sagaria en Mesullam laat roep, almal leiers, en ook vir Jojarib en Elnatan, twee verstandige manne. 17Ek het hulle na Iddo, die leier in Kasifja, toe gestuur, en hulle gesê wat om vir Iddo en sy ampsgenote en vir die tempelslawe in Kasifja te sê sodat Iddo-hulle mense vir ons kon stuur wat in die tempel van ons God kon diens doen. 18Deur die goeie beskikking van ons God het hulle toe ook vir ons 'n verstandige man gestuur uit die nageslag van Magli seun van Levi, seun van Israel. Dit was Serebja, met sy seuns en sy ampsgenote, agtien altesaam. 19Verder het hulle ook vir Gasabja gestuur en saam met hom Jesaja uit die nageslag van Merari, met sy ampsgenote en hulle seuns, twintig altesaam. 20Van die tempelslawe wat nog deur Dawid en sy amptenare geskenk is om die Leviete van diens te wees, het daar twee honderd en twintig man gekom. Almal se name is opgeteken. 21Ek het daar by die Ahawarivier 'n vasdag uitgeroep om ons voor ons God te verootmoedig en Hom te bid om 'n voorspoedige reis vir onsself, ons afhanklikes en al wat ons besit het. 22Ek was skaam om vir die koning soldate en ruiters te vra om ons teen vyande langs die pad te help. Ons het vir die koning gesê ons God sorg goed vir almal wat Hom dien en Hy straf almal swaar wat Hom verlaat. 23Ons het dus gevas en die hulp van ons God gevra vir die onderneming, en Hy het ons gebede verhoor. 24Daarna het ek twaalf van die priesters se leiers uitgesoek, Serebja en Gasabja en tien van hulle ampsgenote saam met hulle, 25en toe die silwer en die goud en die tempelgereedskap volgens gewig onder hulle verdeel. Dit was die wydingsgeskenke vir die tempel van ons God wat geskenk is deur die koning en sy adviseurs en amptenare en deur al die Israeliete wat hulle nog in ballingskap bevind het. 26Ek het alles geweeg en aan hulle oorhandig: twee en twintig ton silwer, honderd stukke silwerware met 'n gesamentlike gewig van ag en sestig kilogram, drie en 'n half ton goud, 27twintig komme van goud met 'n gesamentlike gewig van ag en 'n half kilogram, en twee stukke van fyn gepoleerde brons, so kosbaar soos goud. 28Daarna het ek vir die twaalf priesters gesê: Julle is aan die Here gewy, hierdie goed is ook aan Hom gewy. Die silwer en die goud is vrywillige gawes aan die Here die God van julle voorvaders. 29Wees wakker, pas dit op totdat julle dit uitweeg voor die hoofde van die priesters en die Leviete en voor die familiehoofde van Israel in Jerusalem binne in die tempelvertrekke. 30Die priesters en die Leviete het toe die silwer, die goud en die tempelgereedskap wat afgeweeg is, in ontvangs geneem om dit na Jerusalem toe te vat, na die tempel van ons God toe. 31Ons het van die Ahawarivier af vertrek op die twaalfde van die eerste maand, op pad Jerusalem toe. Ons God het sy hand oor ons gehou en ons nie in die mag laat val van vyande en rowers langs die pad nie. 32Ons het in Jerusalem aangekom en daar drie dae gerus. 33Die vierde dag het ons die silwer en die goud en die tempelgereedskap gaan weeg in die tempel van ons God en dit aan die priester Meremot seun van Urija oorhandig in die teenwoordigheid van Eleasar seun van Pinehas. Die Leviete Josabad seun van Jesua, en Noadja seun van Binnuï was by hulle. 34Alles was daar en die gewig was reg, en die gewig is dié dag noukeurig opgeskryf. 35Die mense wat uit die ballingskap teruggekom het, het toe aan die God van Israel brandoffers gebring: twaalf bulle vir die hele Israel, ses en negentig ramme, sewe en sewentig lammers en twaalf bokke as 'n sondeoffer. Alles was brandoffers aan die Here. 36Die opdragte van die koning is aan die gevolmagtigde verteenwoordigers van die koning en aan die goewerneurs van Wes-Eufraat oorhandig, en hulle het van toe af bystand verleen aan die volk en aan die tempel.

Ezra 9

Ezra Prays About Intermarriage

Ezr 9:1 After all this had been done, some of the leaders of the people of Israel came and told me that the people, the priests, and the Levites had not kept themselves separate from the people in the neighboring countries of Ammon, Moab, and Egypt or from the Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Jebusites, and Amorites. They were doing the same disgusting things which these people did.

Ezr 9:2 Jewish men were marrying foreign women, and so God's holy people had become contaminated. The leaders and officials were the chief offenders.

Ezr 9:3 When I heard this, I tore my clothes in despair, tore my hair and my beard, and sat down crushed with grief.

Ezr 9:4 I sat there grieving until the time for the evening sacrifice to be offered, and people began to gather around me—all those who were frightened because of what the God of Israel had said about the sins of those who had returned from exile.

Ezr 9:5 When the time came for the evening sacrifice, I got up from where I had been grieving, and still wearing my torn clothes, I knelt in prayer and stretched out my hands to the LORD my God.

Ezr 9:6 I said, "O God, I am too ashamed to raise my head in your presence. Our sins pile up higher than our heads; they reach as high as the heavens.

Ezr 9:7 From the days of our ancestors until now, we, your people, have sinned greatly. Because of our sins we, our kings, and our priests have fallen into the hands of foreign kings, and we have been slaughtered, robbed, and carried away as prisoners. We have been totally disgraced, as we still are today.

Ezr 9:8 Now for a short time, O LORD our God, you have been gracious to us and have let some of us escape from slavery and live in safety in this holy place. You have let us escape from slavery and have given us new life.

Ezr 9:9 We were slaves, but you did not leave us in slavery. You made the emperors of Persia favor us and permit us to go on living and to rebuild your Temple, which was in ruins, and to find safety here in Judah and Jerusalem.

Ezr 9:10 "But now, O God, what can we say after all that has happened? We have again disobeyed the commands

Ezr 9:11 that you gave us through your servants, the prophets. They told us that the land we were going to occupy was an impure land because the people who lived in it filled it from one end to the other with disgusting, filthy actions.

Ezr 9:12 They told us that we were never to intermarry with those people and never to help them prosper or succeed if we wanted to enjoy the land and pass it on to our descendants forever.

Ezr 9:13 Even after everything that has happened to us in punishment for our sins and wrongs, we know that you, our God, have punished us less than we deserve and have allowed us to survive.

Ezr 9:14 Then how can we ignore your commandments again and intermarry with these wicked people? If we do, you will be so angry that you will destroy us completely and let no one survive.

Ezr 9:15 LORD God of Israel, you are just, but you have let us survive. We confess our guilt to you; we have no right to come into your presence."

ESRA 9

1Nadat dié dinge gedoen is, het die leiers van die gemeente vir my kom sê: Die mense van Israel en die priesters en die Leviete het hulle nie afgesonder van die nie-Joodse bevolking met sy afskuwelike gebruike nie, en dié is nog dieselfde as dié van die Kanaäniete, Hetiete, Feresiete, Jebusiete, Ammoniete, Moabiete, Egiptenaars en Amoriete. 2Ons mense en hulle seuns het getrou met nie-Joodse vrouens; hulle het hierdie volk hom laat vermeng met heidene. Leiers en ampsdraers het die voortou geneem in dié trouelose optrede. 3Toe ek dit hoor, het ek my klere geskeur, my hare en my baard uitgetrek en verslae gaan sit. 4Almal wat by die gedagte aan die opdragte van die God van Israel vreesbevange was oor dié troueloosheid van die mense uit die ballingskap, het by my kom staan. Ek het maar net verslae daar gesit, tot die tyd van die aandoffer toe. 5Maar teen die tyd van die aandoffer het ek daar opgestaan waar ek my met my geskeurde klere verootmoedig het, op my knieë geval en my hande in gebed uitgestrek na die Here my God. 6Ek het gebid: My God, ek is te skaam, ek het nie die vrymoedigheid om my kop voor U op te tel nie. Ons sonde is hoog opgestapel, ons misdade staan hemelhoog. 7Van die tyd van ons voorvaders af tot vandag toe is ons bestaan vol oortredings teen U. Dit was deur ons sondes dat ons, ons konings en ons priesters in die mag van heidenkonings oorgegee is. Ons is doodgemaak, gevange geneem, geplunder; smaad het oor ons gekom en dit is nou nog daar. 8Nou, 'n kort oomblikkie, het daar vir ons genade gekom van die Here ons God. Hy het die klompie van ons laat vrykom en ons hier in sy heilige plek vastigheid gegee. Ons God het ons weer laat lewe, ons 'n oomblik laat asem skep na ons slawerny. 9Ons was slawe, maar ons God het ons nie slawe laat bly nie. Hy het die Persiese konings goedgesind gemaak teenoor ons, en hulle het ons die kans gegee: ons kon die tempel van ons God opbou, ons kon hom uit sy ruïnes laat herrys, ons het 'n toevlug gekry hier in Juda en Jerusalem. 10Maar wat kan ons nou sê, ons God, na dié dinge? Ons het u gebooie oortree. 11U het ons deur u dienaars, die profete, beveel: Die land wat julle in besit gaan neem, is 'n onrein land. Die heidennasies het dit onrein gemaak. Hulle het dit van kant tot kant besmet met hulle afskuwelike, onrein optrede. 12Moenie julle dogters vir hulle seuns gee nie, moenie hulle dogters met julle seuns laat trou nie. Moet die heidennasies nooit vrede of voorspoed gun nie. Dan sal julle sterk staan en die goeie van die land geniet en dit as 'n blywende besitting aan julle kinders oordra. 13Wat oor ons gekom het, het gekom deur ons slegte dade en ons baie oortredings teen U. Ons God, U was spaarsaam met die straf op ons sonde, U het van ons laat oorbly. [14]En na alles wat oor ons gekom het, kom ons en steur ons ons weer nie aan u gebooie nie! Ons ondertrou met hierdie nasies wat so afskuwelik leef! Moet u toorn ons dan nie heeltemal vernietig nie, sodat niemand oorbly, niemand vrykom nie? [15]Here God van Israel, U is regverdig. U het die klompie van ons laat vrykom, so soos dit vandag is. Hier is ons voor U met ons oortredings, maar so kan niemand voor U staan nie.

Ezra 10

The People Confess Their Sin

Ezr 10:1 While Ezra was bowing in prayer in front of the Temple, weeping and confessing these sins, a large group of Israelites—men, women, and children—gathered around him, weeping bitterly.

Ezr 10:2 Then Shecaniah son of Jehiel, of the clan of Elam, said to Ezra, "We have broken faith with God by marrying foreign women, but even so there is still hope for Israel.

Ezr 10:3 Now we must make a solemn promise to our God that we will send these women and their children away. We will do what you and the others who honor God's commands advise us to do. We will do what God's Law demands.

Ezr 10:4 It is your responsibility to act. We are behind you, so go ahead and get it done."

Ezr 10:5 So Ezra began by making the leaders of the priests, of the Levites, and of the rest of the people take an oath that they would do what Shecaniah had proposed.

Ezr 10:6 Then he went from in front of the Temple into the living quarters of Jehohanan son of Eliashib, and spent the night there grieving over the unfaithfulness of the exiles. He did not eat or drink anything.

Ezr 10:7 A message was sent throughout Jerusalem and Judah that all those who had returned from exile were to meet in Jerusalem

Ezr 10:8 by order of the leaders of the people. If any failed to come within three days, all their property would be confiscated, and they would lose their right to be members of the community.

Ezr 10:9 Within the three days, on the twentieth day of the ninth month, all the men living in the territory of Judah and Benjamin came to Jerusalem and assembled in the Temple square. It was raining hard, and because of the weather and the importance of the meeting everyone was trembling.

Ezr 10:10 Ezra the priest stood up and spoke to them. He said, "You have been faithless and have brought guilt on Israel by marrying foreign women.

Ezr 10:11 Now then, confess your sins to the LORD, the God of your ancestors, and do what pleases him. Separate yourselves from the foreigners living in our land and get rid of your foreign wives."

Ezr 10:12 The people shouted in answer, "We will do whatever you say."

Ezr 10:13 But they added, "The crowd is too big, and it's raining hard. We can't stand here in the open like this. This isn't something that can be done in one or two days, because so many of us are involved in this sin.

Ezr 10:14 Let our officials stay in Jerusalem and take charge of the matter. Then let anyone who has a foreign wife come at a set time, together with the leaders and the judges of his city. In this way God's anger over this situation will be turned away."

Ezr 10:15 No one was opposed to the plan except Jonathan son of Asahel and Jahzeiah son of Tikvah, who had the support of Meshullam and of Shabbethai, a Levite.

Ezr 10:16 The returned exiles accepted the plan, so Ezra the priest appointed men from among the heads of the clans and recorded their names. On the first day of the tenth month they began their investigation,

Ezr 10:17 and within the next three months they investigated all the cases of men with foreign wives.

ESRA 10

1Terwyl Esra voor die tempel gekniel en gebid en belydenis gedoen het, het 'n groot aantal Israeliete rondom hom kom staan, mans, vrouens en kinders. Hy het gehuil en die mense het ook hard gehuil. 2Sekanja seun van Jegiël, uit die nageslag van Elam, het toe begin praat. Hy het vir Esra gesê: Ons het troueloos gehandel teen ons God, ons het met vreemde vroue getrou, vroue uit die heidennasies. Tog is daar nog hoop vir Israel. 3Kom ons maak 'n plegtige onderneming teenoor ons God dat ons al dié vrouens en hulle kinders sal wegstuur. Laat ons doen wat u en dié wat vir die gebod van ons God eerbied het, ons aanraai in ooreenstemming met die wet. 4Die saak is in u hande. Ons ondersteun u. Staan op, pak dit aan en doen dit. 5Esra het toe opgestaan en die leiers van die priesters en die Leviete en ook die hele Israel 'n eed laat aflê dat hulle dit sou doen. Hulle het die eed afgelê, 6en Esra is toe van die tempel af na die kamer van Joganan seun van Eljasib toe. Hy het daarheen gegaan maar niks geëet of gedrink nie, want hy was besig om te rou oor die troueloosheid van die ballinge wat teruggekom het. 7Al hierdie ballinge in Juda en Jerusalem is toe opgeroep vir 'n byeenkoms in Jerusalem. 8Die ampsdraers en die leiers het besluit dat al die besittings van enigiemand wat nie binne drie dae daar was nie, gekonfiskeer sou word en dat hy self afgesny sou word van die gemeente van ballinge wat teruggekom het. 9Die manne van Juda en Benjamin het almal binne die drie dae in Jerusalem bymekaargekom. In die negende maand, op die twintigste van die maand, was al die mense op die tempelplein. Dit het gereën, en hulle het gebewe van die koue, maar ook van die spanning. 10Toe staan die priester Esra op en sê vir hulle: Julle het troueloos opgetree. Julle het met vreemde vrouens getrou en daardeur die oortredings van Israel teen God nog meer gemaak. 11Doen belydenis voor die Here die God van julle voorvaders en doen wat Hy wil hê: skei julle af van die heidennasies en die vreemde vrouens. 12Die gemeente het eenparig hardop geantwoord: Alles wat u sê, moet ons doen. 13Maar ons is baie mense, en dit is reëntyd. Ons kan nie hier onder die blote hemel bly staan nie. Dit is nie 'n werk van een of twee dae nie, want baie van ons het dié sonde begaan. 14Laat ons leiers namens die hele gemeente optree. Dan kan elkeen wat met 'n vreemde vrou getroud is, op 'n vasgestelde tyd uit ons stede kom saam met die gesagsdraers en die regters van die betrokke stad en die saak afhandel. So kan ons dan die toorn van ons God van ons af wegkeer. 15Net Jonatan seun van Asael, en Jagseja seun van Tikwa, gesteun deur Mesullam en die Leviet Sabbetai, was teen die gedagte. 16Die ballinge wat teruggekom het, het die plan aanvaar. Die priester Esra het manne by die naam aangewys, die hoofde van al die families. Hulle het op die eerste dag van die tiende maand sitting geneem vir die ondersoek [17]en het al die sake van die manne wat met vreemde vrouens getrou het, afgehandel gehad op die eerste dag van die eerste maand. [18]Daar is gevind dat die volgende priesters met vreemde vrouens getroud is: Uit die familie van Jesua seun van Josadak en sy ampsgenote was daar Maäseja, Eliëser, Jarib en Gedalja; [19]hulle het onderneem om van hulle vrouens te skei en het 'n ram as versoeningsoffer vir hulle misdaad teen God geoffer. [20]Uit die familie van Immer was daar Ganani en Sebadja. [21]Uit die familie van Garim was daar Maäseja, Elia, Semaja, Jegiël en Usija. [22]Uit die familie van Pasgur was daar Eljoënai, Maäseja, Ismael, Netanel, Josabad en Elasa. [23]Uit die Leviete was daar Josabad, Simeï, Kelaja, ook Kelita genoem, Petagja, Juda en Eliëser. [24]Uit die sangers was daar Eljasib, en uit die poortwagte Sallum, Telem en Uri. [25]Verder was daar die volgende Israeliete: uit die Parosfamilie: Ramja, Jissija, Malkija, Mijamin, Eleasar, Malkija en Benaja; [26]uit die Elamfamilie: Mattanja, Sagaria, Jegiël, Abdi, Jeremot en Elia; [27]uit die Sattufamilie: Eljoënai, Eljasib, Mattanja, Jeremot, Sabad en Asisa; [28]uit die Bebaifamilie: Joganan, Gananja, Sabbai en Atlai; [29]uit die Banifamilie: Mesullam, Malluk, Adaja, Jasub en Seal-Jeremot; [30]uit die Pagat-Moabfamilie: Adna, Kelal, Benaja, Maäseja, Mattanja, Besaleël, Binnuï en Manasse; [31]uit die Garimfamilie: Eliëser, Jissija, Malkija, Semaja, Simon, [32]Benjamin, Malluk en Semarja; [33]uit die Gasumfamilie: Mattenai, Mattatta, Sabad, Elifelet, Jeremai, Manasse en Simi; [34]uit die Banifamilie: Maädai, Amram, Uel, [35]Benaja, Bedja, Keluhi, [36]Wanja, Meremot, Eljasib, [37]Mattanja, Mattenai en Jaäsai; [38]uit die Binnuïfamilie: Simi, [39]Selemja, Natan, Adaja, [40]Maknadbai, Sasai, Sarai, [41]Asarel, Selemja, Semarja, [42]Sallum, Amarja en Josef; [43]uit die Nebofamilie: Jeïel, Mattitja, Sabad, Sebina, Jaddai, Joël en Benaja. [44]Al dié mense was met vreemde vrouens getroud, maar hulle het van die vrouens geskei en hulle kinders saam weggestuur.

Nehemiah 1

Report from Jerusalem

Neh 1:1 This is the account of what Nehemiah son of Hacaliah accomplished. In the month of Kislev in the twentieth year that Artaxerxes was emperor of Persia, I, Nehemiah, was in Susa, the capital city.

Neh 1:2 Hanani, one of my brothers, arrived from Judah with another group, and I asked them about Jerusalem and about the other Jews who had returned from exile in Babylonia.

Neh 1:3 They told me that those who had survived and were back in the homeland were in great difficulty and that the foreigners who lived nearby looked down on them. They also told me that the walls of Jerusalem were still broken down and that the gates had not been restored since the time they were burned.

Nehemiah's Prayer

Neh 1:4 When I heard all this, I sat down and wept. For several days I mourned and did not eat. I prayed to God, Neh 1:5 " LORD God of Heaven! You are great, and we stand in fear of you. You faithfully keep your covenant with those who love you and do what you command.

Neh 1:6 Look at me, LORD, and hear my prayer, as I pray day and night for your servants, the people of Israel. I confess that we, the people of Israel, have sinned. My ancestors and I have sinned.

Neh 1:7 We have acted wickedly against you and have not done what you commanded. We have not kept the laws which you gave us through Moses, your servant.

Neh 1:8 Remember now what you told Moses: 'If you people of Israel are unfaithful to me, I will scatter you among the other nations.

Neh 1:9 But then if you turn back to me and do what I have commanded you, I will bring you back to the place where I have chosen to be worshiped, even though you are scattered to the ends of the earth.'

Neh 1:10 "Lord, these are your servants, your own people. You rescued them by your great power and strength.

Neh 1:11 Listen now to my prayer and to the prayers of all your other servants who want to honor you. Give me success today and make the emperor merciful to me." In those days I was the emperor's wine steward.

NEHEMÍA 1

1Die verhaal van Nehemia seun van Gakalja. Dit was in die maand Kislef, die twintigste jaar. Ek was in die vestingstad Susan. 2Ganani, een van my medeamptenare, het daar aangekom uit Juda, hy en 'n paar ander manne. Ek het by hulle navraag gedoen oor die Judeërs wat uit die ballingskap vrygelaat is en teruggegaan het, en oor Jerusalem, 3en hulle het vir my gesê: Die ballinge wat teruggegaan het, beleef daar in die provinsie Juda groot ellende en smaad. Die muur van Jerusalem lê om, en die stadspoorte is verbrand. 4By die aanhoor van dié woorde het ek gaan sit en gehuil en dae lank getreur. Ek het gevas en tot die God van die hemel gebid. 5Ek het gesê: Ag, Here, God van die hemel, groot en ontsagwekkende God wat u verbond en u troue liefde handhaaf teenoor dié wat vir U liefhet en u gebooie gehoorsaam, 6luister tog, gee tog ag op die gebed wat ek, u dienaar, sonder ophou tot U bid. Ek bid vir u dienaars, die Israeliete, ek doen belydenis van die sondes wat ons teen U begaan het. Ook ek en my familie het gesondig. 7Ons het U nie geëer nie, ons was ongehoorsaam aan die gebooie, die voorskrifte, die bepalings wat U aan u dienaar Moses gegee het. 8Dink tog aan die belofte wat U aan u dienaar Moses gemaak het: As julle ontrou is, sal Ek julle onder die volke verstrooi, 9maar as julle julle tot My bekeer en my gebooie gehoorsaam en nakom, sal Ek julle weer bymekaarmaak, al is julle oor die hele aarde versprei. Ek sal julle terugbring na die plek toe wat Ek gekies het om my Naam daar te laat woon.'10Hulle is u dienaars, u volk vir wie U met u groot mag en krag gered het. 11Ag, Here, luister tog na die gebed van u dienaar en na die gebed van u dienaars, hulle vir wie dit 'n vreugde is om u Naam te eer. Laat my tog voorspoedig wees met wat ek vandag wil doen. Laat hierdie man my simpatiek gesind wees. Ek was die koning se skinker.

Nehemiah 2

Nehemiah Sent to Judah

Neh 2:1 One day four months later, when Emperor Artaxerxes was dining, I took the wine to him. He had never seen me look sad before,

Neh 2:2 so he asked, "Why are you looking so sad? You aren't sick, so it must be that you're unhappy." I was startled

Neh 2:3 and answered, "May Your Majesty live forever! How can I keep from looking sad when the city where my ancestors are buried is in ruins and its gates have been destroyed by fire?"

Neh 2:4 The emperor asked, "What is it that you want?" I prayed to the God of Heaven,

Neh 2:5 and then I said to the emperor, "If Your Majesty is pleased with me and is willing to grant my request, let me go to the land of Judah, to the city where my ancestors are buried, so that I can rebuild the city."

Neh 2:6 The emperor, with the empress sitting at his side, approved my request. He asked me how long I would be gone and when I would return, and I told him.

Neh 2:7 Then I asked him to grant me the favor of giving me letters to the governors of West-of-Euphrates Province, instructing them to let me travel to Judah.

Neh 2:8 I asked also for a letter to Asaph, keeper of the royal forests, instructing him to supply me with timber for the gates of the fort that guards the Temple, for the city walls, and for the house I was to live in. The emperor gave me all I asked for, because God was with me.

Nehemiah Inspects Jerusalem's Walls

Neh 2:9 The emperor sent some army officers and a troop of cavalry with me, and I made the journey to West-of-Euphrates. There I gave the emperor's letters to the governors.

Neh 2:10 But Sanballat, from the town of Beth Horon, and Tobiah, an official in the province of Ammon, heard that someone had come to work for the good of the people of Israel, and they were highly indignant.

Neh 2:11 I went on to Jerusalem, and for three days

Neh 2:12 I did not tell anyone what God had inspired me to do for Jerusalem. Then in the middle of the night I got up and went out, taking a few of my companions with me. The only animal we took was the donkey that I rode on.

Neh 2:13 It was still night as I left the city through the Valley Gate on the west and went south past Dragon's Fountain to the Rubbish Gate. As I went, I inspected the broken walls of the city and the gates that had been destroyed by fire.

Neh 2:14 Then on the east side of the city I went north to the Fountain Gate and the King's Pool. The donkey I was riding could not find any path through the rubble, Neh 2:15 so I went down into Kidron Valley and rode along, looking at the wall. Then I returned the way I had come and went back into the city through the Valley Gate.

Neh 2:16 None of the local officials knew where I had gone or what I had been doing. So far I had not said anything to any of the other Jews—the priests, the leaders, the officials, or anyone else who would be taking part in the work.

Neh 2:17 But now I said to them, "See what trouble we are in because Jerusalem is in ruins and its gates are destroyed! Let's rebuild the city walls and put an end to our disgrace."

Neh 2:18 And I told them how God had been with me and helped me, and what the emperor had said to me. They responded, "Let's start rebuilding!" And they got ready to start the work.

Neh 2:19 When Sanballat, Tobiah, and an Arab named Geshem heard what we were planning to do, they laughed at us and said, "What do you think you're doing? Are you going to rebel against the emperor?"

Neh 2:20 I answered, "The God of Heaven will give us success. We are his servants, and we are going to start building. But you have no right to any property in Jerusalem, and you have no share in its traditions."

NEHEMÍA 2

1Dit was in die maand Nisan, die twintigste jaar van koning Artasasta. Die wyn was voor hom, en ek moes dit optel en aan hom gee. Ek was nooit bedruk voor hom nie, 2maar dié dag sê die koning vir my: Hoekom lyk jy so bedruk? Is jy dalk siek? Nie? Hartseer dan? Ek was baie bang, 3maar ek het vir die koning gesê: Mag die koning baie lank lewe! Hoe sal ek dan nie bedruk lyk as die stad waar my voorvaders begrawe is, in puin lê en sy poorte verbrand is nie? 4Toe sê die koning vir my: Is daar iets wat jy my wil vra? Ek het 'n skietgebed opgestuur na die God van die hemel 5en toe vir die koning gesê: As die koning dit goedvind, as u dienaar op u goedgesindheid mag reken, stuur my na Juda toe, na die stad waar my voorvaders begrawe is, sodat ek die stad kan herbou. 6Die koningin het langs die koning gesit. Hy het vir my gevra: Hoe lank sal jou reis duur en wanneer sal jy terug wees? Hy was die saak dus goedgesind, hy het my die opdrag gegee. Ek het vir hom 'n tyd aangedui 7en toe vir hom gevra: As die koning dit goedvind, laat ek briewe kry aan die goewerneurs in Wes-Eufraat, sodat hulle my vrye deurgang kan gee tot ek in Juda aankom. 8Ek het ook 'n brief aan Asaf nodig, die opsigter oor die staatsbos, dat hy my kan voorsien van hout om die poorte van die vesting by die tempel te maak, en vir die stadsmuur en vir die huis wat ek sal bewoon. My God het sy goeie hand oor my gehou, en die koning het my versoek toegestaan. 9Ek het by die goewerneurs in Wes-Eufraat gekom en die briewe van die koning aan hulle oorhandig. Die koning het offisiere en ruiters met my saamgestuur. 10Toe Sanballat die Goroniet en Tobija die Ammonitiese amptenaar dit hoor, was dit vir hulle slegte nuus. Hulle het dit as 'n groot ramp beskou dat daar iemand gekom het wat iets goeds vir die Israeliete wou doen. 11Ek het in Jerusalem aangekom, en na ek drie dae daar was, 12is ek die nag stilletjies uit met 'n paar man by my. Ek het vir niemand gesê wat my God my in die hart gegee het om vir Jerusalem te doen nie. Behalwe my rydier het ek geen diere by my gehad nie. 13Ek is dié nag deur die Dalpoort na die Jakkalsfontein en die Vullispoort toe en het die mure van Jerusalem nagegaan waar hulle afgebreek was en ook die poorte wat verbrand was. 14Toe ek by die Fonteinpoort en die Koningsdam kom, was daar nie plek vir my rydier om verby te kom nie, 15en moes ek in die nag met die vallei op boontoe sodat ek die muur kon nagaan. Daarna het ek omgedraai en is ek weer deur die Dalpoort en terug huis toe. 16Die ampsdraers het nie geweet waarheen ek was en wat ek gedoen het nie. Tot dusver het ek niks laat blyk teenoor die Judeërs, die priesters, die vooraanstaande burgers, die ampsdraers of die ander wat die werk moes doen nie. 17Maar toe sê ek vir hulle: Julle sien self die benarde toestand waarin ons sit. Jerusalem lê in puin en sy poorte is verbrand. Kom ons herbou die muur van Jerusalem, dat dié vernedering nie langer op ons rus nie. [18]Ek het hulle toe vertel hoe my God sy goeie hand oor my gehou het en wat die koning vir my gesê het. Hulle het gesê: Kom ons bou! en hulle het die goeie werk aangepak. [19]Maar toe Sanballat die Goroniet, Tobija die Ammonitiese amptenaar en Gesem die Arabier hoor wat ons doen, het hulle ons uitgelag en smalend gevra: Wat vir 'n ding is dit waarmee julle besig is? Wil julle in opstand kom teen die koning? [20]Ek het hulle geantwoord en vir hulle gesê: Die God van die hemel sal ons laat slaag in wat ons doen. Ons, sy dienaars, gaan bou. Julle het nóg aandeel nóg reg in Jerusalem, en geen historiese band met hom nie.

Nehemiah 4

Opposition to the Work

Neh 4:1 When Sanballat heard that we Jews had begun rebuilding the wall, he became furious and began to ridicule us.

Neh 4:2 In front of his companions and the Samaritan troops he said, "What do these miserable Jews think they're doing? Do they intend to rebuild the city? Do they think that by offering sacrifices they can finish the work in one day? Can they make building stones out of heaps of burnt rubble?"

Neh 4:3 Tobiah was standing there beside him, and he added, "What kind of wall could they ever build? Even a fox could knock it down!"

Neh 4:4 I prayed, "Hear how they make fun of us, O God! Let their ridicule fall on their own heads. Let them be robbed of everything they have, and let them be taken as prisoners to a foreign land.

Neh 4:5 Don't forgive the evil they do and don't forget their sins, for they have insulted us who are building."

Neh 4:6 So we went on rebuilding the wall, and soon it was half its full height, because the people were eager to work.

Neh 4:7 Sanballat, Tobiah, and the people of Arabia, Ammon, and Ashdod heard that we were making progress in rebuilding the wall of Jerusalem and that the gaps in the wall were being closed, and they became very angry.

Neh 4:8 So they all plotted together to come and attack Jerusalem and create confusion,

Neh 4:9 but we prayed to our God and kept men on guard against them day and night.

Neh 4:10 The people of Judah had a song they sang: "We grow weak carrying burdens; There's so much rubble to take away. How can we build the wall today?"

Neh 4:11 Our enemies thought we would not see them or know what was happening until they were already upon us, killing us and putting an end to our work.

Neh 4:12 But time after time Jews who were living among our enemies came to warn us of the plans our enemies were making against us.

Neh 4:13 So I armed the people with swords, spears, and bows, and stationed them by clans behind the wall, wherever it was still unfinished.

Neh 4:14 I saw that the people were worried, so I said to them and to their leaders and officials, "Don't be afraid of our enemies. Remember how great and terrifying the Lord is, and fight for your relatives, your children, your wives, and your homes."

The Work Resumes

Neh 4:15 Our enemies heard that we had found out what they were plotting, and they realized that God had defeated their plans. Then all of us went back to rebuilding the wall.

Neh 4:16 From then on half of my men worked and half stood guard, wearing coats of armor and armed with spears, shields, and bows. And our leaders gave their full support to the people

Neh 4:17 who were rebuilding the wall. Even those who carried building materials worked with one hand and kept a weapon in the other,

Neh 4:18 and everyone who was building kept a sword strapped to their waist. The man who was to sound the alarm on the bugle stayed with me.

Neh 4:19 I told the people and their officials and leaders, "The work is spread out over such a distance that we are widely separated from one another on the wall.

Neh 4:20 If you hear the bugle, gather around me. Our God will fight for us."

Neh 4:21 So every day, from dawn until the stars came out at night, half of us worked on the wall, while the other half stood guard with spears.

Neh 4:22 During this time I told the men in charge that they and all their helpers had to stay in Jerusalem at night, so that we could guard the city at night as well as work in the daytime.

Neh 4:23 I didn't take off my clothes even at night, neither did any of my companions nor my servants nor my bodyguards. And we all kept our weapons at hand.

1Toe Sanballat hoor ons bou die muur, was hy woedend. Hy het met groot ergernis smalend teen die Judeërs uitgevaar 2en vir sy medeamptenare en vir die soldate in Samaria gesê: Waarmee is die arme Judeërs besig? Wil hulle vir hulle 'n stadsmuur bou? Wil hulle offerandes bring en in een dag klaarmaak? Wil hulle die klippe laat herleef uit daardie hope stof en as? 3Tobija die Ammoniet het langs Sanballat gestaan en hy het gesê: Laat hulle bou! Daardie klipmuur van hulle sal omval as 'n jakkals daarteen spring! 4Hoor dit, ons God! Ons word bespotlik gemaak! Laat dié smaad op hulle eie kop afkom, laat hulle gevangenes word in 'n land van ballingskap! 5Moenie hulle oortreding vergewe nie, moenie dat hulle sonde ooit voor U uitgewis word nie! Hulle het die bouers beledig! 6Ons het bly bou aan die muur. Die hele muur was al halfpad opgebou. Die mense se hart was in die werk. 7Sanballat, Tobija, die Arabiere, die Ammoniete en die mense van Asdod was hewig ontsteld toe hulle hoor die herstel aan Jerusalem se mure vorder en die afgebreekte gedeeltes is byna klaar opgebou. 8Hulle het saamgesweer om Jerusalem te kom aanval en verwarring te stig. 9Ons het tot ons God gebid en dag en nag wagte teen hulle uitgesit. 10Die Judeërs het begin kla: Die draers se kragte gee in, die puin is te veel. Ons gaan dit nie regkry om die muur klaar te bou nie. 11Ons teenstanders het gedink: hulle sal niks weet of sien voor ons tussen hulle is en hulle doodmaak en die werk tot stilstand bring nie. 12Ons is egter keer op keer gewaarsku deur Judeërs wat naby ons vyande gewoon het en van oral af na ons toe gekom het. 13Ek het die volk, gewapen met swaarde, spiese en pyle en boë, familiegewys ingedeel en hulle stelling laat inneem agter die muur onderkant elke plek waar die muur nog nie hoog genoeg was nie. 14Daarna, toe ek agterkom dit is nodig, het ek die vooraanstaande burgers, die ampsdraers en die res van die volk toegespreek: Moenie vir hulle bang wees nie. Dink aan die Here, groot en ontsagwekkend, en veg vir julle broers, julle seuns en julle dogters, julle vrouens en julle huise. 15Ons vyande het gehoor dat ons van hulle planne weet en dat God dit verydel het, en ons kon almal teruggaan muur toe, elkeen na sy werk toe. 16Van daardie dag af was een helfte van my manne aan die werk en het die ander helfte die spiese, skilde, pyle en boë en harnasse gereed gehou. Die gesagvoerders het plek ingeneem agter elke familiegroep Judeërs 17wat aan die muur gebou het. Dié wat boumateriaal moes aandra, het met een hand die werk gedoen en met die ander hand 'n wapen vasgehou. 18Die bouers het elkeen sy swaard om die heupe vasgegord gehad. Die ramshoringblaser het naby my gebly. 19Ek het vir die vooraanstaande burgers, die ampsdraers en die res van die volk gesê: Die werk is groot en uitgestrek, en ons is oor die hele muur uitgesprei, elkeen ver van die naaste man af. [20]Waar julle ook al die ramshoring hoor blaas, daar moet julle by ons saamtrek. Ons God sal vir ons die stryd voer. [21]Ons het met die werk aangegaan, die helfte van die manne met spiese in die hand, van dagbreek af tot die sterre uitgekom het. [22]Ek het dié tyd ook vir die volk gesê: Elke man met sy handlanger moet in Jerusalem oornag, sodat hulle snags vir wagdiens en bedags vir die werk beskikbaar is. [23]Nie ek of my medeamptenare of my dienaars of die wagte by my het kans gekry om ons klere uit te trek nie en selfs by die water het ons ons wapens gereed gehou.

Nehemiah 5

Nehemiah Stops Oppression of the Poor

Neh 5:1 Some time later many of the people, both men and women, began to complain against the other Jews.

Neh 5:2 Some said, "We have large families, we need grain to keep us alive."

Neh 5:3 Others said, "We have had to mortgage our fields and vineyards and houses to get enough grain to keep us from starving."

Neh 5:4 Still others said, "We had to borrow money to pay the royal tax on our fields and vineyards.

Neh 5:5 We are of the same race as the other Jews. Aren't our children just as good as theirs? But we have to make slaves of our children. Some of our daughters have already been sold as slaves. We are helpless because our fields and vineyards have been taken away from us."

Neh 5:6 When I heard their complaints, I grew angry

Neh 5:7 and decided to act. I denounced the leaders and officials of the people and told them, "You are oppressing your own relatives!" I called a public assembly to deal with the problem

Neh 5:8 and said, "As far as we have been able, we have been buying back our Jewish relatives who had to sell themselves to foreigners. Now you are forcing your own relatives to sell themselves to you, their own people!" The leaders were silent and could find nothing to say.

Neh 5:9 Then I said, "What you are doing is wrong! You ought to obey God and do what's right. Then you would not give our enemies, the Gentiles, any reason to ridicule us.

Neh 5:10 I have let the people borrow money and grain from me, and so have my companions and those who work for me. Now let's give up all our claims to repayment.

Neh 5:11 Cancel all the debts they owe you—money or grain or wine or olive oil. And give them back their fields, vineyards, olive groves, and houses right now!"

Neh 5:12 The leaders replied, "We'll do as you say. We'll give the property back and not try to collect the debts." I called in the priests and made the leaders swear in front of them to keep the promise they had just made.

Neh 5:13 Then I took off the sash I was wearing around my waist and shook it out. "This is how God will shake any of you who don't keep your promise," I said. "God will take away your houses and everything you own, and will leave you with nothing." Everyone who was present said, "Amen!" and praised the LORD. And the leaders kept their promise.

Nehemiah's Generosity

Neh 5:14 During all the twelve years that I was governor of the land of Judah, from the twentieth year that Artaxerxes was emperor until his thirty-second year, neither my relatives nor I ate the food I was entitled to have as governor.

Neh 5:15 Every governor who had been in office before me had been a burden to the people and had demanded forty silver coins a day for food and wine. Even their servants had oppressed the people. But I acted differently, because I honored God.

Neh 5:16 I put all my energy into rebuilding the wall and did not acquire any property. Everyone who worked for me joined in the rebuilding.

Neh 5:17 I regularly fed at my table a hundred and fifty of the Jewish people and their leaders, besides all the people who came to me from the surrounding nations.

Neh 5:18 Every day I served one beef, six of the best sheep, and many chickens, and every ten days I provided a fresh supply of wine. But I knew what heavy burdens the people had to bear, and so I did not claim the allowance that the governor is entitled to.

Neh 5:19 I pray you, O God, remember to my credit everything that I have done for this people.

NEHEMÍA 5

1Sekere mense en hulle vrouens het 'n ernstige klag teen hulle Judese volksgenote ingebring. 2Party het gesê: Ons, ons seuns en ons dogters is baie. Ons moet koring in die hande kry om te eet en te lewe. 3Party het gesê: Ons moes vanweë die hongersnood ons lande, ons wingerde en ons huise verpand om koring in die hande te kry. 4Party het gesê: Ons moes geld leen om aan die koning die belasting op ons lande en ons wingerde te betaal. 5Ons en ons volksgenote, hulle seuns en ons seuns, is tog één, maar óns moet van ons seuns en ons dogters laat slawe word. Van ons dogters is al klaar slawe, en ons kan daar niks aan doen nie, want ons lande en ons wingerde is in ander se hande. 6Ek was hewig ontsteld toe ek dié klag en dié beskuldigings hoor. 7Na ek dit oorweeg het, het ek die skuld op die vooraanstaande burgers en die ampsdraers gelê en vir hulle gesê: Julle is besig om julle volksgenote uit te buit! Ek het bowendien 'n groot volksvergadering belê om hulle aan die man te bring 8en daar vir hulle gesê: Ons het ons Judese volksgenote wat aan heidene verkoop was, teruggekoop sover dit vir ons moontlik was. Nou verkoop júlle julle volksgenote, en moet ons hulle ook uiteindelik terugkoop! Die manne het stilgebly; ek kon nie 'n woord uit hulle kry nie. 9Toe sê ek verder: Dit is nie 'n goeie ding wat julle besig is om te doen nie. Julle moet tog eerbied vir ons God hê in julle optrede en nie ons vyande, die heidene, minagting vir ons laat kry nie! 10Ek, my medeamptenare en my helpers moes ook aan dié mense geld en koring leen. Maar laat ons tog die uitbuiting staak. 11Gee vandag nog hulle lande, wingerde, olyfboorde en huise vir hulle terug en skeld hulle ook nog een persent kwyt van die geld, die koring, die wyn en die olie wat julle aan hulle geleen het. 12Hulle het gesê: Ons sal dit teruggee en niks meer van hulle eis nie. Ons sal maak soos u gesê het. Ek het toe die priesters geroep en die burgers en amptenare onder eed laat onderneem om hiervolgens te handel. 13Self het ek my sakke uitgeskud en gesê: Mag God elkeen wat nie woord hou nie, so uit sy huis en sy besittings uitskud, dat hy net so kaal uitgeskud en leeg is. Die hele vergadering het gesê: Amen! en hulle het die Here geprys. Die mense het toe gedoen wat ek gevra het. 14Van die dag af dat ek aangestel is as goewerneur in Juda, van die twintigste jaar af tot die twee en dertigste jaar van koning Artasasta, twaalf jaar lank, het ek en my medeamptenare nie aanspraak gemaak op die goewerneurstoelae nie. 15Die vroeëre goewerneurs, almal voor my, het swaar eise aan die volk gestel. Hulle het behalwe brood en wyn elke dag ook nog vier honderd en sestig gram silwer geëis. Hulle amptenare het ook baas gespeel oor die volk. Ek het nie so gemaak nie, uit eerbied vir God. 16Ek het my volle gewig ingegooi by die werk aan hierdie muur, ek het nie lande gekoop nie, en al my helpers was hier by die werk saamgetrek. [17]Honderd en vyftig man van die Judeërs en die amptenare en boonop die mense wat van die heidennasies rondom ons na ons toe gekom het, het aan my tafel geëet. [18]Daar moes elke dag 'n bees, ses slagskape en 'n klomp voëls vir my gaargemaak word, en om die tien dae moes daar 'n groot hoeveelheid wyn vir die menigte kom. Nogtans het ek nie die goewerneurstoelae geëis nie, want die werk was alreeds 'n swaar las op hierdie volk. [19]Onthou tog, my God, tot my voordeel, alles wat ek vir hierdie volk gedoen het!

Nehemiah 6

Conspiracy Against Nehemiah

Neh 6:1 Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem, and the rest of our enemies heard that we had finished building the wall and that there were no gaps left in it, although we still had not set up the gates in the gateways.

Neh 6:2 So Sanballat and Geshem sent me a message, suggesting that I meet with them in one of the villages in the Plain of Ono. This was a trick of theirs to try to harm me.

Neh 6:3 I sent messengers to say to them, "I am doing important work and can't go down there. I am not going to let the work stop just to go and see you."

Neh 6:4 They sent me the same message four times, and each time I sent them the same reply.

Neh 6:5 Then Sanballat sent one of his servants to me with a fifth message, this one in the form of an unsealed letter.

Neh 6:6 It read: "Geshem tells me that a rumor is going around among the neighboring peoples that you and the Jewish people intend to revolt and that this is why you are rebuilding the wall. He also says you plan to make yourself king Neh 6:7 and that you have arranged for some prophets to proclaim in Jerusalem that you are the king of Judah. His Majesty is certain to hear about this, so I suggest that you and I meet to talk the situation over."

Neh 6:8 I sent a reply to him: "Nothing of what you are saying is true. You have made it all up yourself."

Neh 6:9 They were trying to frighten us into stopping work. I prayed, "But now, God, make me strong!"

Neh 6:10 About this time I went to visit Shemaiah, the son of Delaiah and grandson of Mehetabel, who was unable to leave his house. He said to me, "You and I must go and hide together in the Holy Place of the Temple and lock the doors, because they are coming to kill you. Any night now they will come to kill you."

Neh 6:11 I answered, "I'm not the kind of person that runs and hides. Do you think I would try to save my life by hiding in the Temple? I won't do it."

Neh 6:12 When I thought it over, I realized that God had not spoken to Shemaiah, but that Tobiah and Sanballat had bribed him to give me this warning.

Neh 6:13 They hired him to frighten me into sinning, so that they could ruin my reputation and humiliate me.

Neh 6:14 I prayed, "God, remember what Tobiah and Sanballat have done and punish them. Remember that woman Noadiah and all the other prophets who tried to frighten me."

The Wall Is Finished

Neh 6:15 After fifty-two days of work the entire wall was finished on the twenty-fifth day of the month of Elul.

Neh 6:16 When our enemies in the surrounding nations heard this, they realized that they had lost face, since everyone knew that the work had been done with God's help.

Neh 6:17 During all this time the Jewish leaders had been in correspondence with Tobiah.

Neh 6:18 Many people in Judah were on his side because of his Jewish father-in-law, Shecaniah son of Arah. In addition, his son Jehohanan had married the daughter of Meshullam son of Berechiah.

Neh 6:19 People would talk in front of me about all the good deeds Tobiah had done and would tell him everything I said. And he kept sending me letters to try to frighten me.

NEHEMÍA 6

1Sanballat, Tobija, die Arabier Gesem en die res van ons vyande het berig gekry dat ek die muur klaar gebou het en dat dit nêrens meer vervalle was nie. In dié stadium was die poortdeure egter nog nie gehang nie. 2Sanballat en Gesem laat my toe weet: Kan ons mekaar in Kefirim, in die Onolaagte, ontmoet? Hulle plan was om my by te kom. 3Ek stuur toe boodskappers na hulle toe en sê: Ek is besig met 'n groot werk. Ek kan nie kom nie. Hoekom moet die werk stilstaan terwyl ek dit laat lê om na julle toe te kom? 4Hulle het dieselfde boodskap vier keer gestuur, en elke keer het ek dieselfde antwoord teruggestuur. 5Die vyfde keer stuur Sanballat toe 'n amptenaar na my toe met dieselfde boodskap, maar ook met 'n brief wat nie verseël was nie. 6Daarin was geskrywe: Onder die nasies word 'n gerug versprei, en Gesem bevestig dit, dat jy en die Judeërs 'n opstand beplan. Daarom bou jy die muur. Volgens die gerug wil jy koning word oor hulle, 7en jy het ook al profete aangestel om jou in Jerusalem tot koning oor Juda uit te roep. Die gerug wil dat die koning van Persië hiervan te hore sal kom. Kom nou, kom ons praat. 8Ek het hom terug laat weet: Niks van wat jy sê, is waar nie. Jy suig dit uit jou duim. 9Hulle het almal geprobeer om ons die skrik op die lyf te ja, met die gedagte: Hulle sal die werk laat staan en dit sal nie klaarkom nie. Sterk tog my hande, o God! 10Ek het by Semaja seun van Delaja, seun van Mehetabel, gekom waar hy homself in sy huis toegesluit het. Hy het vir my gesê: Kom ons ontmoet mekaar in die huis van God, binne-in die tempel, en laat ons dan die deure van die tempel sluit, want daar kom mense om jou dood te maak, hulle kom vannag om jou dood te maak. 11Ek het gesê: Sal 'n man soos ek vlug, iemand soos ek tempel toe gaan om te kan bly lewe? Ek sal nie gaan nie! 12Ek het toe geweet dat God hom nie gestuur het nie, maar dat hy dié voorspelling teen my gemaak het omdat Tobija en Sanballat hom omgekoop het. 13Hy is omgekoop om my bang te maak sodat ek 'n misstap sou begaan en hulle die geleentheid gee om my te beskinder en my naam sleg te maak. 14My God, onthou wat Tobija en Sanballat gedoen het, en ook die profetes Noadja en die ander profete wat my wou bang maak. 15Die muur is voltooi op die vyf en twintigste van die maand Elul, binne twee en vyftig dae. 16Toe al ons vyande dit hoor, en die nasies rondom ons dit sien, was hulle selfversekerdheid daarmee heen. Hulle het toe geweet ons doen hierdie werk met die hulp van ons God. 17In daardie selfde tyd het daar baie briewe van vooraanstaande Judese burgers na Tobija toe gegaan en briewe van hom af na hulle toe gekom. 18Baie Judeërs het noue bande met hom gehad, want hy was die skoonseun van Sekanja seun van Arag, en sy seun Joganan was getroud met 'n dogter van Mesullam seun van Berekja. [19]Hulle het gedurig voor my gepraat van Tobija se goeie hoedanighede, en alles wat ek gesê het, aan hom oorgedra. Dan het hy briewe gestuur en my probeer bang praat.

Nehemiah 7

Neh 7:1 And now the wall had been rebuilt, the gates had all been put in place, and the Temple guards, the members of the sacred choir, and the other Levites had been assigned their work.

Neh 7:2 I put two men in charge of governing the city of Jerusalem: my brother Hanani and Hananiah, commanding officer of the fortress. Hananiah was a reliable and God-fearing man without equal.

Neh 7:3 I told them not to have the gates of Jerusalem opened in the morning until well after sunrise and to have them closed and barred before the guards went off duty at sunset. I also told them to appoint guards from among the people who lived in Jerusalem and to assign some of them to specific posts and others to patrol the area around their own houses.

Neh 7:4 Jerusalem was a large city, but not many people were living in it, and not many houses had been built yet.

Lists of Returned Exiles

Neh 7:5 God inspired me to assemble the people and their leaders and officials and to check their family records. I located the records of those who had first returned from captivity, and this is the information I found:

Neh 7:6 Many of the exiles left the province of Babylon and returned to Jerusalem and Judah, each to his own hometown. Their families had been living in exile in Babylonia ever since King Nebuchadnezzar had taken them there as prisoners.

Neh 7:7 Their leaders were Zerubbabel, Joshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, and Baanah.

Neh 7:61 (61-62) There were 642 belonging to the clans of Delaiah, Tobiah, and Nekoda who returned from the towns of Tel Melah, Tel

Harsha, Cherub, Addon, and Immer; but they could not prove that they were descendants of Israelites.

Neh 7:63 (63-64) The following priestly clans could find no record to prove their ancestry: Hobaiah, Hakkoz, and Barzillai. (The ancestor of the priestly clan of Barzillai had married a woman from the clan of Barzillai of Gilead and taken the name of his father-in-law's clan.) Since they were unable to prove who their ancestors were, they were not accepted as priests.

NEHEMÍA 7

[1]Toe die muur voltooi is, het ek die deure gehang en poortwagte, sangers en Leviete aangestel. [2]Ek het Ganani, my ampsgenoot, en Gananja, die bevelhebber van die vesting, in bevel van Jerusalem geplaas. Gananja was 'n betroubare man wat eerbied vir God gehad het, meer as baie ander. [3]Ek het hulle beveel: Moenie die poorte van Jerusalem oopmaak voor die son warm is nie en maak die deure weer toe en grendel hulle terwyl die poortwagte nog op hulle pos is. Stel ook wagte aan uit die inwoners van Jerusalem, party op die wagposte en party voor hulle huise. [4]Die stad was uitgestrek en groot, met min mense daarin, en daar was nog nie genoeg huise gebou nie. [5]My God het my die besluit laat neem om die vooraanstaande burgers, die amptenare en die ander mense te laat bymekaarkom vir opname in die familieregister. Ek het die register van dié wat eerste teruggekom het, in die hande gekry, en daarin die volgende opgeskryf gevind: [6]Hier volg 'n opgawe van die mense uit die provinsie Juda wat uit die ballingskap teruggekom het na Jerusalem en Juda toe, elkeen na sy eie stad toe. Hulle is weggevoer deur koning Nebukadnesar van Babel, [7]en hulle het teruggekom saam met Serubbabel, Josua, Nehemia, Asarja, Raämja, Nagamani, Mordegai, Bilsan, Mispar, Bigwai, Regum en Baäna. Die getalle van die mense van die volk Israel: Ingedeel volgens families: [8]Paros 2 172 [9]Sefatja 372, [10]Arag 652, [11]Pagat-Moab, uit die families van Josua en Joab, 2 818, [12]Elam 1 254, [13]Sattu 845, [14]Sakkai 760, [15]Bani 648, [16]Bebai 628, [17]Asgad 2 322, [18]Adonikam 667, [19]Bigwai 2 067, [20]Adin 655, [21]Ater, uit die familie van Hiskia, 98, [22]Gasum 328, [23]Besai 324, [24]Garif 112. [60]Al die tempelslawe en die nakomelinge van die amptenare van Salomo was saam 392. [61]Uit Tel-Melag, Tel-Garsa, Kerub-Addan en Immer het mense teruggekom wat nie uit hulle familieverband en afstamming kon aantoon dat hulle deel van Israel is nie. [62]Dit was die families van Delaja, Tobija en Nekoda, altesaam 642 mense. [63]Van die priesterfamilies was daar ook nog dié van Gabaja, Kos en Barsillai, dié Barsillai wat getroud is met 'n dogter van die Gileadiet Barsillai en toe na hom vernoem is. [64]Hierdie families het probeer vasstel of hulle in die registers opgeneem is, maar daar kon niks gevind word nie, en hulle is uit die priesterskap onthef. [65]Die amptenaar wat met dié saak belas was, het beslis dat hulle nie van die gewyde gawes mag eet voordat 'n priester uitsluitsel gegee het met die urim en die tummim nie. [66]Die hele groep was in totaal 42 360, [67]afgesien van hulle slawe en slavinne; dié was 7 337. Dan was daar ook nog 245 sangers en sangeresse,[68]asook 435 kamele en 6 720 donkies. [69]Party familiehoofde het bydraes gegee vir die werk. Die goewerneur het vir die fonds ag en 'n half kilogram goud, vyftig komme en vyf honderd en dertig stelle priesterklere gegee. [70]Van die familiehoofde het vir die werkfonds honderd ag en sestig kilogram goud en een en 'n kwart ton silwer bygedra. [71]Die res van die mense het honderd ag en sestig kilogram goud, meer as 'n ton silwer en sewe en sestig stelle priesterklere gegee. [72]Die priesters, die Leviete, die poortwagte, die sangers, 'n deel van die volk, en die tempelslawe het hulle gevestig in die stede waar hulle vandaan gekom het. Dit het die hele Israel gedoen.

Nehemiah 8

Ezra Reads the Law

Neh 8:1 By the seventh month the people of Israel were all settled in their towns. On the first day of that month they all assembled in Jerusalem, in the square just inside the Water Gate. They asked Ezra, the priest and scholar of the Law which the LORD had given Israel through Moses, to get the book of the Law.

Neh 8:2 So Ezra brought it to the place where the people had gathered—men, women, and the children who were old enough to understand.

Neh 8:3 There in the square by the gate he read the Law to them from dawn until noon, and they all listened attentively.

Neh 8:4 Ezra was standing on a wooden platform that had been built for the occasion. The following men stood at his right: Mattithiah, Shema, Anaiah, Uriah, Hilkiah, and Maaseiah; and the following stood at his left: Pedaiah, Mishael, Malchijah, Hashum, Hashbaddanah, Zechariah, and Meshullam.

Neh 8:5 As Ezra stood there on the platform high above the people, they all kept their eyes fixed on him. As soon as he opened the book, they all stood up.

Neh 8:6 Ezra said, "Praise the LORD, the great God!" All the people raised their arms in the air and answered, "Amen! Amen!" They knelt in worship, with their faces to the ground.

Neh 8:7 Then they rose and stood in their places, and the following Levites explained the Law to them: Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, and Pelaiah.

Neh 8:8 They gave an oral translation of God's Law and explained it so that the people could understand it.

This Day Is Holy

Neh 8:9 When the people heard what the Law required, they were so moved that they began to cry. So Nehemiah, who was the governor, Ezra, the priest and scholar of the Law, and the Levites who were explaining the Law told all the people, "This day is holy to the LORD your God, so you are not to mourn or cry.

Neh 8:10 Now go home and have a feast. Share your food and wine with those who don't have enough. Today is holy to our Lord, so don't be sad. The joy that the LORD gives you will make you strong."

Neh 8:11 The Levites went around calming the people and telling them not to be sad on such a holy day.

Neh 8:12 So all the people went home and ate and drank joyfully and shared what they had with others, because they understood what had been read to them.

Feast of Booths Celebrated

Neh 8:13 The next day the heads of the clans, together with the priests and the Levites, went to Ezra to study the teachings of the Law.

Neh 8:14 They discovered that the Law, which the LORD gave through Moses, ordered the people of Israel to live in temporary shelters during the Festival of Shelters.

Neh 8:15 So they gave the following instructions and sent them all through Jerusalem and the other cities and towns: "Go out to the hills and get branches from pines, olives, myrtles, palms, and other trees to make shelters according to the instructions written in the Law."

Neh 8:16 So the people got branches and built shelters on the flat roofs of their houses, in their yards, in the Temple courtyard, and in the public squares by the Water Gate and by the Ephraim Gate.

Neh 8:17 All the people who had come back from captivity built shelters and lived in them. This was the first time it had been done since the days of Joshua son of Nun, and everybody was excited and happy.

Neh 8:18 From the first day of the festival to the last they read a part of God's Law every day. They celebrated for seven days, and on the eighth day there was a closing ceremony, as required in the Law.

NEHEMÍA 8

1Toe die sewende maand aanbreek, was die Israeliete dus oral in die stede. 2Die hele volk het soos een man bymekaargekom op die plein voor die Waterpoort en vir Esra die skrifgeleerde gevra om die wetboek van Moses waarin die bevele van die Here aan Israel opgeteken is, te bring. 3Die priester Esra het toe die wet voor die gemeente gebring, man en vrou, elkeen wat kon verstaan. Dit was op die eerste dag van die sewende maand. 4Hy het daaruit voorgelees op die plein voor die Waterpoort van ligdag af tot die middel van die dag ten aanhore van mans, vrouens en elkeen wat kon verstaan. Die aandag van die hele gemeente was by die wetboek. 5Esra die skrifgeleerde het op 'n houtverhoog gestaan wat vir dié doel gemaak was; regs langs hom het Mattitja, Sema, Anaja, Urija, Gilkija en Maäseja gestaan, en links van hom Pedaja, Misael, Malkija, Gasum, Gasbaddana, Sagaria en Mesullam. 6Esra het hoër gestaan as die hele gemeente en het die boek voor almal se oë oopgemaak. Toe hy dit oopmaak, het die hele gemeente opgestaan. 7Esra het die Here, die grote God, geprys en die hele gemeente het met die hande omhoog geantwoord: Amen, amen. Toe kniel hulle en buig diep voor die Here. 8Die Leviete Jesua, Bani, Serebja, Jamin, Akkub, Sabbetai, Hodija, Maäseja, Kelita, Asarja, Josabad, Ganan en Pelaja het die wet aan die gemeente verduidelik terwyl die volk daar staan. 9Die Leviete het uit die boek, uit die wet van God, voorgelees en dit uitgelê. Hulle het die betekenis weergegee sodat die mense kon verstaan wat gelees word. 10Nehemia die goewerneur, die skrifgeleerde priester Esra en die Leviete wat die gemeente onderrig het, het vir die hele gemeente gesê: Hierdie dag word gewy aan die Here julle God. Moenie treurig wees nie, moenie huil nie. Dit was omdat die hele gemeente gehuil het by die aanhoor van die wet. 11Nehemia het verder gesê: Gaan vier fees, eet en drink, en deel uit aan dié wat niks voorberei het nie. Hierdie dag word gewy aan ons Here. Moenie bedroef wees nie; as julle die Here met blydskap dien, sal Hy julle beskerm. 12Die Leviete het al die mense gekalmeer met die woorde: Wees rustig. Dit is 'n gewyde dag, moenie bedroef wees nie. 13Die hele gemeente het toe gaan eet, lekkernye uitgedeel en groot fees gevier. Hulle het goed begryp wat vir hulle gesê is. 14Die volgende dag het die familiehoofde van die hele gemeente en die priesters en Leviete by Esra die skrifgeleerde bymekaargekom om die inhoud van die wet te bestudeer. 15Hulle vind toe in die wet geskrywe dat die Here deur Moses opdrag gegee het dat die Israeliete in hutte moet woon vir die duur van die fees in die sewende maand, 16en dat hulle die oproep moet maak en dit in al die stede en in Jerusalem moet laat afkondig: Gaan na die berge toe en bring olyftakke, olientakke, mirtetakke, palmtakke, takke met digte blare om hutte te maak soos dit voorgeskryf is. 17Die mense het die takke gaan haal, en elkeen het vir hom 'n hut gebou, op die dak van sy huis of in sy binneplaas of in die voorhof van die tempel of op die plein by die Waterpoort of op die plein by die Efraimspoort. 18Die hele gemeente, die mense wat uit die ballingskap teruggekom het, het hutte gebou en daarin gaan woon. So het die Israeliete dit nie gedoen van die tyd van Josua seun van Nun af tot dié dag toe nie. Daar was baie groot vreugde. 19Van die eerste tot die laaste dag van die fees het hulle elke dag uit die wetboek van God voorgelees. Hulle het sewe dae lank feesgevier, en op die agste dag was daar die gebruiklike samekoms.

Nehemiah 9

The People of Israel Confess Their Sin

Neh 9:1 (1-2) On the twenty-fourth day of the same month the people of Israel gathered to fast in order to show sorrow for their sins. They had already separated themselves from all foreigners. They wore sackcloth and put dust on their heads as signs of grief. Then they stood and began to confess the sins that they and their ancestors had committed.

Neh 9:3 For about three hours the Law of the LORD their God was read to them, and for the next three hours they confessed their sins and worshiped the LORD their God.

Neh 9:4 There was a platform for the Levites, and on it stood Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani. They prayed aloud to the LORD their God.

Neh 9:5 The following Levites gave a call to worship: Jeshua, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah. They said: "Stand up and praise the LORD your God; praise him forever and ever! Let everyone praise his glorious name, although no human praise is great enough."

Neh 9:6 And then the people of Israel prayed this prayer: "You, LORD, you alone are LORD; you made the heavens and the stars of the sky. You made land and sea and everything in them; you gave life to all. The heavenly powers bow down and worship you.

Neh 9:7 You, LORD God, chose Abram and led him out of Ur in Babylonia; you changed his name to Abraham.

Neh 9:8 You found that he was faithful to you, and you made a covenant with him. You promised to give him the land of the Canaanites, the land of the Hittites and the Amorites, the land of the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Girgashites, to be a land where his descendants would live. You kept your promise, because you are faithful.

Neh 9:9 "You saw how our ancestors suffered in Egypt; you heard their call for help at the Red Sea.

Neh 9:10 You worked amazing miracles against the king, against his officials and the people of his land, because you knew how they oppressed your people. You won then the fame you still have today.

Neh 9:11 Through the sea you made a path for your people and led them through on dry ground. Those who pursued them drowned in deep water, as a stone sinks in the raging sea.

Neh 9:12 With a cloud you led them in daytime, and at night you lighted their way with fire.

Neh 9:13 At Mount Sinai you came down from heaven; you spoke to your people and gave them good laws and sound teachings.

Neh 9:14 You taught them to keep your Sabbaths holy, and through your servant Moses you gave them your laws.

Neh 9:15 "When they were hungry, you gave them bread from heaven, and water from a rock when they were thirsty. You told them to take control of the land which you had promised to give them.

Neh 9:16 But our ancestors grew proud and stubborn and refused to obey your commands.

Neh 9:17 They refused to obey; they forgot all you did; they forgot the miracles you had performed. In their pride they chose a leader to take them back to slavery in Egypt. But you are a God who forgives; you are gracious and loving, slow to be angry. Your mercy is great; you did not forsake them.

Neh 9:18 They made an idol in the shape of a bull-calf and said it was the god who led them from Egypt! How much they insulted you, LORD!

Neh 9:19 But you did not abandon them there in the desert, for your mercy is great. You did not take away the cloud or the fire that showed them the path by day and night.

Neh 9:20 In your goodness you told them what they should do; you fed them manna and gave them water to drink.

Neh 9:21 Through forty years in the desert you provided all that they needed; their clothing never wore out, and their feet were not swollen with pain.

Neh 9:22 "You let them conquer nations and kingdoms, lands that bordered their own. They conquered the land of Heshbon, where Sihon ruled, and the land of Bashan, where Og was king.

Neh 9:23 You gave them as many children as there are stars in the sky, and let them conquer and live in the land that you had promised their ancestors to give them.

Neh 9:24 They conquered the land of Canaan; you overcame the people living there. You gave your people the power to do as they pleased with the people and kings of Canaan.

Neh 9:25 Your people captured fortified cities, fertile land, houses full of wealth, cisterns already dug, olive trees, fruit trees, and vineyards. They ate all they wanted and grew fat; they enjoyed all the good things you gave them.

Neh 9:26 "But your people rebelled and disobeyed you; they turned their backs on your Law. They killed the prophets who warned them, who told them to turn back to you. They insulted you time after time,

Neh 9:27 so you let their enemies conquer and rule them. In their trouble they called to you for help, and you answered them from heaven. In your great mercy you sent them leaders who rescued them from their foes.

Neh 9:28 When peace returned, they sinned again, and again you let their enemies conquer them. Yet when they repented and asked you to save them, in heaven you heard, and time after time you rescued them in your great mercy.

Neh 9:29 You warned them to obey your teachings, but in pride they rejected your laws, although keeping your Law is the way to life. Hard-headed and stubborn, they refused to obey.

Neh 9:30 Year after year you patiently warned them. You inspired your prophets to speak, but your people were deaf, so you let them be conquered by other nations.

Neh 9:31 And yet, because your mercy is great, you did not forsake or destroy them. You are a gracious and merciful God!

Neh 9:32 "O God, our God, how great you are! How terrifying, how powerful! You faithfully keep your covenant promises. From the time when Assyrian kings oppressed us, even till now, how much we have suffered! Our kings, our leaders, our priests and prophets, our ancestors, and all our people have suffered. Remember how much we have suffered!

Neh 9:33 You have done right to punish us; you have been faithful, even though we have sinned.

Neh 9:34 Our ancestors, our kings, leaders, and priests have not kept your Law. They did not listen to your commands and warnings.

Neh 9:35 With your blessing, kings ruled your people when they lived in the broad, fertile land you gave them; but they failed to turn from sin and serve you.

Neh 9:36 And now we are slaves in the land that you gave us, this fertile land which gives us food.

Neh 9:37 What the land produces goes to the kings that you put over us because we sinned. They do as they please with us and our livestock, and we are in deep distress!"

Neh 9:38 Because of all that has happened, we, the people of Israel, hereby make a solemn written agreement, and our leaders, our Levites, and our priests put their seals to it.

NEHEMÍA 9

[1]Op die vier en twintigste dag van dié maand het die Israeliete vir 'n vasdag bymekaargekom. Hulle het rouklere aangehad en daar was grond op hulle koppe. [2]Die nakomelinge van Israel het hulleself afgeskei van alle nie-Israeliete en toe hulle plekke ingeneem en belydenis gedoen van hulle sonde en van die oortredings van hulle voorvaders. [3]Hulle het op hulle plekke bly staan en het 'n kwart dag lank voorgelees uit die wetboek van die Here hulle God. Nog 'n kwart dag lank het hulle belydenis gedoen en voor die Here hulle God gebuig. [4]Die Leviete Jesua, Bani, Kadmiël, Sebanja, Bunni, Serebja, Bani en Kenani het op die verhoog gaan staan en die Here hulle God hard om hulp aangeroep. [5]Daarna het die Leviete Jesua, Kadmiël, Bani, Gasabneja, Serebja, Hodija, Sebanja en Petagja gesê: Kom, prys die Here julle God! Hy is van ewigheid tot ewigheid. Toe het hulle u magtige Naam geprys verhewe bo alle lof en roem. [6]Dit is U! U alleen is Here! U het die hemel gemaak, die hoogste hemel en sy hele leërmag, die aarde en alles daarop, die oseane en alles daarin. U laat hulle almal lewe; die hemelse leërmag buig voor U. [7]U is die Here, die God wat vir Abram gekies het, hom uit Ur van die Galdeërs gebring het en sy naam Abraham gemaak het.[8]U het hom getrou teenoor U bevind, met hom 'n verbond gesluit dat U die land van die Kanaäniete, die Hetiete en Amoriete, die Feresiete, Jebusiete en Girgasiete, aan sy nageslag sou gee, en U het u belofte nagekom; U is betroubaar. [9]U het die nood van ons voorvaders in Egipte gesien, gehoor toe hulle by die Rietsee om hulp geroep het, [10]en groot, magtige dade gedoen, teen die farao, teen sy amptenare en teen die mense in sy land, want U het geweet dat hulle u volk met minagting behandel het. U het die roem van u Naam groot gemaak, so soos dit vandag nog is. [11]U het die see gekloof voor hulle, hulle kon op droë grond daardeur trek; maar U het hulle agtervolgers in die vloedwaters gegooi soos 'n klip in magtige waters. [12]Met 'n wolkkolom het U hulle bedags gelei, met 'n vuurkolom snags om vir hulle lig te maak op die pad waar hulle langs moes trek. [13]U het op Sinaiberg afgekom, met hulle uit die hemel gepraat en vir hulle bepalings vasgestel wat billik is, wette wat vas staan, voorskrifte en gebooie wat goed is. [14]U het hulle geleer van u gewyde sabbat en aan hulle gebooie, voorskrifte en 'n wet gegee deur Moses, u dienaar. [15]U het vir hulle brood gegee uit die hemel toe hulle honger was, vir hulle water uit 'n rots laat stroom toe hulle dors was. U het gesê hulle kan die land in besit kom neem wat U met 'n eed beloof het om aan hulle te gee. [16]Maar hulle, ons voorvaders, was vermetel, hulle koppe was hard, hulle het nie u gebooie gehoorsaam nie. [17]Hulle het geweier om te luister, hulle het nie die wonderdade onthou wat U vir hulle gedoen het nie. Hulle koppe was hard, hulle het in verset gekom en wou in hulle koppigheid terug na hulle slawerny. Maar U is 'n God wat vergewe, genadig, barmhartig, lankmoedig, vol liefde. U het hulle nie verlaat nie. [18]Ook toe hulle vir hulle die kalfsbeeld gegiet het en gesê het: Hier is jou God wat jou uit Egipte gebring het, en toe hulle skandelike dinge gedoen het, [19]het U in u groot barmhartigheid hulle nie in die woestyn gelos nie. Die wolkkolom het bedags nie van hulle af weggedraai nie maar hulle op die pad bly lei; die vuurkolom was snags daar om vir hulle lig te maak op die pad waar hulle langs moes trek. [20]U het u goeie Gees gegee om hulle te onderrig, U het u manna nie van hulle teruggehou nie, U het vir hulle water gegee vir hulle dors. [21]Veertig jaar lank het U vir hulle gesorg, hulle het niks kortgekom in die woestyn nie. Hulle klere het nie verslyt nie, hulle voete het nie geswel nie. [22]U het koninkryke, volke, aan hulle gegee, gebiede aan hulle toegewys: hulle het die land van Sihon in besit geneem, die land van die koning van Gesbon, en die land van koning Og van Basan. [23]U het hulle nageslag so baie laat word soos die sterre aan die hemel. U het hulle gebring na die land waarvan U aan hulle voorvaders gesê het dat hulle dit in besit sal kom neem. [24]Hulle kinders het gekom en die land in besit geneem. U het die inwoners van die land, die Kanaäniete, voor u volk laat buig en hulle oorgegee in die mag van u volk. U volk kon doen wat hulle wou met die konings en die volke in die land. [25]U volk het vestingstede beset en vrugbare grond. Hulle het beslag gelê op huise vol kosbare goed, putte wat klaar gegrawe was, wingerde en olyfboorde, vrugtebome in oorvloed. Hulle het geëet, meer as genoeg, vet geword, en hulle verlustig in u groot goedheid. [26]Maar hulle het opstandig geword en teen U in verset gekom, hulle het u wet verwerp en u profete doodgemaak wat hulle gewaarsku het om na U terug te kom. Hulle het skandelike dinge gedoen. [27]Toe het U hulle oorgegee in die mag van hulle teëstanders, dat dié hulle verdruk. Toe dit sleg met hulle gaan, het hulle na U geroep om hulp, en U het uit die hemel hulle gebed verhoor. In u groot barmhartigheid het U aan hulle redders gegee, en dié het hulle gered uit die mag van hulle teëstanders. [28]Maar toe hulle rus kry, het hulle weer teen U oortree, en U het hulle in die mag van hulle vyande gelos dat dié oor hulle kon heers. Hulle het weer na U om hulp geroep, en U het uit die hemel hulle gebed verhoor en in u barmhartigheid het U hulle gered, keer op keer. [29]U het hulle gewaarsku om terug te kom na u wet, maar hulle was vermetel, ongehoorsaam aan u gebooie. Hulle het gesondig teen u bepalings wat 'n mens laat lewe as hy hulle nakom. Hulle was moedswillig, hulle koppe was hard, hulle was ongehoorsaam. [30]U was geduldig met hulle, baie jare lank, U het hulle gewaarsku deur u Gees, deur middel van u profete, maar hulle het nie geluister nie. Toe het U hulle oorgegee in die mag van heidenvolke, [31]maar in u groot barmhartigheid het U hulle nie heeltemal uitgewis nie, hulle nie verlaat nie. U is 'n genadige, 'n barmhartige God. [32]En nou, ons God, grote God, magtig en ontsagwekkend, U wat die verbond en die troue liefde in stand hou, moet tog nie al dié ellende gering ag nie, die ellende wat ons, ons konings, ons amptenare, ons priesters, ons profete, ons voorvaders, u hele volk, getref het van die tyd van die Assiriese konings af tot vandag toe. [33]In alles wat oor ons gekom het, was U regverdig; U het reg gedoen, ons verkeerd. [34]Ons konings, ons amptenare, ons priesters, ons voorvaders het nie u wet gehoorsaam nie, nie gelet op u gebooie, u verordeninge waarmee U hulle gewaarsku het nie. [35]Hulle konings het nog geregeer en hulle het nog u groot goedheid geniet wat U hulle gegee het en in die wye, vrugbare land gewoon wat U aan hulle gegee het; al het hulle U nie gedien nie en hulle nie bekeer van hulle slegte dade nie. [36]Hier is ons vandag slawe, ons is slawe in hierdie land, die land wat U aan ons voorvaders gegee het dat hulle die vrug daarvan en die goeie dinge daarin kan geniet. [37]Sy ryke opbrengs behoort aan die konings wat U oor ons aangestel het as gevolg van ons sondes; die konings maak met ons en ons vee soos hulle wil. Ons verkeer in groot nood. [38]Daarom gaan ons 'n skriftelike onderneming aan. Op die verseëlde dokument teken ons leiers, ons Leviete en ons priesters hulle name.

Nehemiah 12

Priests and Levites

Neh 12:1 The following is a list of the priests and Levites who returned from exile with Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and with the High Priest Joshua:

Neh 12:2 (2-7) Priests: Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra, Amariah, Malluch, Hattush, Shecaniah, Rehum, Meremoth, Iddo, Ginnethoi, Abijah, Mijamin, Maadiah, Bilgah, Shemaiah, Joiarib, Jedaiah, Sallu, Amok, Hilkiah, and Jedaiah. These men were leaders among all their fellow priests in the days of Joshua.

Neh 12:8 Levites: The following were in charge of the singing of hymns of thanksgiving: Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and Mattaniah.

Neh 12:9 The following formed the choir that sang the responses: Bakbukiah, Unno, and their fellow Levites.

Neh 12:10 Joshua was the father of Joiakim; Joiakim was the father of Eliashib; Eliashib was the father of Joiada;

Neh 12:11 Joiada was the father of Jonathan; and Jonathan was the father of Jaddua.

Neh 12:12 (12-21) When Joiakim was High Priest, the following priests were the heads of the priestly clans:

Clan / Priest
Seraiah / Meraiah
Jeremiah / Hananiah
Ezra / Meshullam
Amariah / Jehohanan
Malluch / Jonathan
Shebaniah / Joseph
Harim / Adna
Meremoth / Helkai
Iddo / Zechariah
Ginnethon / Meshullam
Abijah / Zichri
Miniamin
Moadiah / Piltai
Bilgah / Shammua
Shemaiah / Jehonathan
Joiarib / Mattenai
Jedaiah / Uzzi

Sallai Kallai
Amok Eber
Hilkiah Hashabiah
Jedaiah Nethanel

Neh 12:22 A record was kept of the heads of the Levite families and of the priestly families during the lifetimes of the following High Priests: Eliashib, Joiada, Jonathan, and Jaddua. This record was finished when Darius was emperor of Persia.

Neh 12:23 The heads of the Levite families, however, were recorded in the official records only until the time of Jonathan, the grandson of Eliashib.

Neh 12:24 Under the direction of Hashabiah, Sherebiah, Jeshua, Binnui, and Kadmiel, the Levites were organized into groups. Two groups at a time praised God responsively and gave thanks to him, in accordance with the instructions given by King David, the man of God.

Neh 12:25 The following Temple guards were in charge of guarding the storerooms by the gates to the Temple: Mattaniah, Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, and Akkub.

Neh 12:26 These people lived during the time of Joiakim, the son of Joshua and grandson of Jehozadak, and the time of Nehemiah the governor, and the time of Ezra, the priest who was a scholar of the Law.

Dedication of the Wall

Neh 12:27 When the city wall of Jerusalem was dedicated, the Levites were brought in from wherever they were living, so that they could join in celebrating the dedication with songs of thanksgiving and with the music of cymbals and harps.

Neh 12:28 The Levite families of singers gathered from the area where they had settled around Jerusalem and from the towns around Netophah, Neh 12:29 and from Bethgilgal, Geba, and Azmaveth.

Neh 12:30 The priests and the Levites performed ritual purification for themselves, the people, the gates, and the city wall.

Neh 12:31 I assembled the leaders of Judah on top of the wall and put them in charge of two large groups to march around the city, giving thanks to God. The first group went to the right on top of the wall toward the Rubbish Gate.

Neh 12:32 Hoshaiah marched behind the singers, followed by half the leaders of Judah.

Neh 12:33 (33-35) The following priests, blowing trumpets, marched next: Azariah, Ezra, Meshullam, Judah, Benjamin, Shemaiah, and Jeremiah. Next came Zechariah, the son of Jonathan and grandson of Shemaiah. (His ancestors also included Mattaniah, Micaiah, and Zaccur, of the clan of Asaph.)

Neh 12:36 He was followed by other members of his clan—Shemaiah, Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel, Judah, and Hanani—all of whom carried musical instruments of the kind played by King David, the man of God. Ezra the scholar led this group in the procession.

Neh 12:37 At the Fountain Gate they went up the steps that led to David's City, past David's palace, and back to the wall at the Water Gate, on the east side of the city.

Neh 12:38 The other group of those who gave thanks went to the left along the top of the wall, and I followed with half of the people. We marched past the Tower of the Ovens to the Broad Wall, Neh 12:39 and from there we went past Ephraim Gate, Jeshanah Gate, the Fish Gate, the Tower of Hananel, and the Tower of the Hundred, to the Sheep Gate. We ended our march near the gate to the Temple.

Neh 12:40 So both the groups that were giving thanks to God reached the Temple area. In addition to the leaders who were with me,

Neh 12:41 my group included the following priests, blowing trumpets: Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah;

Neh 12:42 and they were followed by Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malchijah, Elam, and Ezer. The singers, led by Jezrahiah, sang at the top of their voices.

Neh 12:43 That day many sacrifices were offered, and the people were full of joy because God had made them very happy. The women and the children joined in the celebration, and the noise they all made could be heard for miles.

Service at the Temple

Neh 12:44 At that time men were put in charge of the storerooms where contributions for the Temple were kept, including the tithes and the first grain and fruit that ripened each year. These men were responsible for collecting from the farms near the various cities the contributions for the priests and the Levites which the Law required. All the people of Judah were pleased with the priests and the Levites, Neh 12:45 because they performed the ceremonies of purification and the other rituals that God had commanded. The Temple musicians and the Temple guards also performed their duties in accordance with the regulations made by King David and his son Solomon.

Neh 12:46 From the time of King David and the musician Asaph long ago, the musicians have led songs of praise and thanksgiving to God.

Neh 12:47 In the time of Zerubbabel and also in the time of Nehemiah, all the people of Israel gave daily gifts for the support of the Temple musicians and the Temple guards. The people gave a sacred offering to the Levites, and the Levites gave the required portion to the priests.

Hulle moes die inwyding feestelik vier met lofliedere en met die musiek van simbale, harpe en liere. 28Die sangers is bymekaargebring uit die omgewing van Jerusalem, uit die Netofanedersettings, 29uit Bet-Gilgal en uit die boerderygebiede van Geba en Bet-Asmawet. Die sangers se nedersettings was almal om Jerusalem gebou. 30Die priesters en die Leviete het eers hulleself gereinig en daarna die volk, die poorte en die muur. 31Ek het die leiers van Juda op die muur laat klim en toe twee groot kore saamgestel. Die een het ek suid op die muur langs laat gaan tot by die Vullispoort. 32Agter hulle het Hosaja en die helfte van die gesagvoerders van Juda geloop, 33en verder Asarja, Esra, Mesullam, 34Juda en Benjamin, Semaja en Jeremia, 35'n aantal priesters met trompette, Sagaria seun van Jonatan, seun van Semaja, seun van Mattanja, seun van Miga, seun van Sakkur, seun van Asaf, 36en sy ampsgenote Semaja, Asarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maäi, Netanel, Juda en Ganani met die musiekinstrumente van Dawid, die man van God. Die priesters en die Leviete wat diens gedoen het, het voordeel getrek uit die blydskap van Juda. 45Die priesters en die Leviete het die diensbeurte ter verering van hulle God en die diensbeurte om die reiniging te doen, waargeneem. Die werk van die sangers en die poortwagte is gereël volgens die voorskrif van Dawid en sy seun Salomo. 46Daar was reeds in die ou tyd, in die tyd van Dawid en Asaf, leiers van die sangers met die oog op die lof- en dankliedere ter ere van God. 47In die tyd van Serubbabel en Nehemia het die hele Israel vir die sangers en die poortwagte se onderhoud gesorg soos dit elke dag nodig was. Hulle het ook die offergawes vir die Leviete opsy gesit en die Leviete het dan weer dié van die priesters opsy gesit.

Nehemiah 13

Nehemiah's Final Reforms

Neh 13:1 When the Law of Moses was being read aloud to the people, they came to the passage that said that no Ammonite or Moabite was ever to be permitted to join God's people.

Neh 13:2 This was because the people of Ammon and Moab did not give food and water to the Israelites on their way out of Egypt. Instead, they paid money to Balaam to curse Israel, but our God turned the curse into a blessing.

Neh 13:3 When the people of Israel heard this law read, they excluded all foreigners from the community.

Neh 13:4 The priest Eliashib, who was in charge of the Temple storerooms, had for a long time been on good terms with Tobiah.

Neh 13:5 He allowed Tobiah to use a large room that was intended only for storing offerings of grain and incense, the equipment used in the Temple, the offerings for the priests, and the tithes of grain, wine, and olive oil given to the Levites, to the Temple musicians, and to the Temple guards.

Neh 13:6 While this was going on, I was not in Jerusalem, because in the thirty-second year that Artaxerxes was king of Babylon I had gone back to report to him. After some time I received his permission Neh 13:7 and returned to Jerusalem. There I was shocked to find that Eliashib had allowed Tobiah to use a room in the Temple.

Neh 13:8 I was furious and threw out all of Tobiah's belongings.

Neh 13:9 I gave orders for the rooms to be ritually purified and for the Temple equipment, grain offerings, and incense to be put back.

Neh 13:10 I also learned that the Temple musicians and other Levites had left Jerusalem and gone back to their farms, because the people had not been giving them enough to live on.

Neh 13:11 I reprimanded the officials for letting the Temple be neglected. And I brought the Levites and musicians back to the Temple and put them to work again.

Neh 13:12 Then all the people of Israel again started bringing to the Temple storerooms their tithes of grain, wine, and olive oil.

Neh 13:13 I put the following men in charge of the storerooms: Shelemiah, a priest; Zadok, a scholar of the Law; and Pedaiah, a Levite. Hanan, the son of Zaccur and grandson of Mattaniah, was to be their assistant. I knew I could trust these men to be honest in distributing the supplies to the other workers.

Neh 13:14 Remember, my God, all these things that I have done for your Temple and its worship.

Neh 13:15 At that time I saw people in Judah pressing juice from grapes on the Sabbath. Others were loading grain, wine, grapes, figs, and other things on their donkeys and taking them into Jerusalem; I warned them not to sell anything on the Sabbath.

Neh 13:16 Some people from the city of Tyre were living in Jerusalem, and they brought fish and all kinds of goods into the city to sell to our people on the Sabbath.

Neh 13:17 I reprimanded the Jewish leaders and told them, "Look at the evil you're doing! You're making the Sabbath unholy.

Neh 13:18 This is exactly why God punished your ancestors when he brought destruction on this city. And yet you insist on bringing more of God's anger down on Israel by profaning the Sabbath."

Neh 13:19 So I gave orders for the city gates to be shut at the beginning of every Sabbath, as soon as evening began to fall, and not to be opened again until the Sabbath was over. I stationed some of my men at the gates to make sure that nothing was brought into the city on the Sabbath.

Neh 13:20 Once or twice merchants who sold all kinds of goods spent Friday night outside the city walls.

Neh 13:21 I warned them, "It's no use waiting out there for morning to come. If you try this again, I'll use force on you." From then on they did not come back on the Sabbath.

Neh 13:22 I ordered the Levites to purify themselves and to go and guard the gates to make sure that the Sabbath was kept holy. Remember me, O God, for this also, and spare me because of your great love.

Neh 13:23 At that time I also discovered that many of the Jewish men had married women from Ashdod, Ammon, and Moab.

Neh 13:24 Half of their children spoke the language of Ashdod or some other language and didn't know how to speak our language.

Neh 13:25 I reprimanded the men, called down curses on them, beat them, and pulled out their hair. Then I made them take an oath in God's name that never again would they or their children intermarry with foreigners.

Neh 13:26 I told them, "It was foreign women that made King Solomon sin. Here was a man who was greater than any of the kings of other nations. God loved him and made him king over all of Israel, and yet he fell into this sin.

Neh 13:27 Are we then to follow your example and disobey our God by marrying foreign women?"

Neh 13:28 Joiada was the son of Eliashib the High Priest, but one of Joiada's sons married the daughter of Sanballat, from the town of Beth Horon, so I made Joiada leave Jerusalem.

Neh 13:29 Remember, God, how those people defiled both the office of priest and the covenant you made with the priests and the Levites.

Neh 13:30 I purified the people from everything foreign; I prepared regulations for the priests and the Levites so that all of them would know their duties;

Neh 13:31 I arranged for the wood used for burning the offerings to be brought at the proper times, and for the people to bring their offerings of the first grain and the first fruits that ripened. Remember all this, O God, and give me credit for it.

1Daardie dag is daar ten aanhore van die volk voorgelees uit die boek van Moses, en daar is geskryf gevind dat 'n Ammoniet of Moabiet nooit in die gemeente van God mag kom nie. 2Dit was omdat hulle nie brood en water aan die Israeliete wou gee nie en vir Bileam gehuur het om 'n vloek oor Israel uit te spreek. Ons God het die vloek in seën laat verander. 3Toe die volk dié wet hoor, het hulle almal wat van gemengde herkoms was, van Israel afgeskei. 4Tevore het die priester Eljasib, wat in beheer was van die opslagplek by die huis van ons God en familie van Tobija was, 5vir Tobija 'n groot kamer ingerig wat tevore gebruik was vir die graanoffer, die wierook, die offergereedskap, die tiendes van koring, wyn en olie, die aandeel van die Leviete, die sangers en die poortwagte, en die offergawe vir die priesters. 6Ek was nie in Jerusalem toe dit alles gebeur het nie, want in die twee en dertigste regeringsjaar van koning Artasasta van Babel is ek terug na die koning toe. Ek kon eers met verloop van tyd van die koning verlof vra 7en na Jerusalem toe kom. Toe ek uitvind watter verkeerde ding Eljasib gedoen het deur vir Tobija 'n kamer in die voorhof van die tempel in te rig, 8was ek baie kwaad. Ek het al Tobija se huisraad uit die kamer gegooi 9en opdrag gegee dat die kamer gereinig moet word. Daarna het ek die goed wat in die tempel gebruik is, en die graanoffer en die wierook daar teruggesit. 10Verder het ek uitgevind dat die Leviete nie hulle aandeel aan onderhoud ontvang het nie, en dat hulle en die sangers wat dienswerk moes doen, weg is, elkeen na sy eie grond toe. 11Ek het die ampsdraers sterk aangespreek en gesê: Waarom is die tempel verwaarloos? Daarna het ek die Leviete weer bymekaargemaak en in hulle poste teruggeplaas. 12Die hele Juda het daarna die tiendes van koring, wyn en olie ingebring na die voorraadkamers toe. 13Ek het die priester Selemja, die sekretaris Sadok en die Leviet Pedaja in beheer van die voorraadkamers geplaas, en hulle is bygestaan deur Ganan seun van Sakkur, seun van Mattanja. Hulle is as betroubaar beskou, en dit was hulle taak om die uitdeling aan hulle ampsgenote te doen. 14Onthou tog wat ek gedoen het, my God! Moet tog nie dat my liefdesdade wat ek vir die huis van my God en vir sy diens gedoen het, vergeet raak nie. 15Daardie tyd het ek in Juda gesien dat mense die wynpers op die sabbat trap, en vragte koring en ook wyn, druiwe, vye en allerhande pakke op donkies laai en in Jerusalem inbring op die sabbat. Ek het hulle gewaarsku om nie op dié dag kos te verkoop nie. 16Die Tiriërs wat in Jerusalem gewoon het, het vis en allerhande koopware ingebring en op die sabbat aan die Judeërs en in Jerusalem verkoop. 17Ek het die vooraanstaande burgers van Juda sterk aangespreek en vir hulle gesê: Hoe kan julle so

'n verkeerde ding doen dat julle die sabbat ontheilig? [18]Dit is presies wat julle voorvaders gedoen het, sodat ons God al hierdie onheil oor ons en oor hierdie stad gebring het! Nou vererger julle die toorn wat op Israel rus deur die sabbat te ontheilig! [19]Ek het toe opdrag gegee dat die poorte van Jerusalem gesluit moes word sodra dit daar begin donker word op die aand voor die sabbat en dat die poorte nie oopgesluit moes word voor ná die sabbat nie. Ek het van my eie dienaars by die poorte geplaas, sodat daar geen vrag op die sabbat sou inkom nie. [20]Toe het die handelaars en smouse 'n keer of twee net buite Jerusalem geslaap. [21]Ek het hulle gewaarsku en vir hulle gesê: Waarom slaap julle hier teen die muur? As julle dit weer doen, sal ek julle straf. Daarna het hulle nie weer op die sabbat gekom nie. [22]Ek het die Leviete opdrag gegee om hulle te reinig en die poorte te kom bewaak sodat die sabbatdag heilig gehou sou word. Onthou tog ook dit, my God, ontferm U oor my in u groot liefde! [23]Daardie tyd het ek ook nog Judeërs gesien wat getroud was met vrouens uit Asdod en met Ammonitiese en Moabitiese vrouens. [24]Van hulle kinders het die helfte Asdods gepraat of die taal van 'n ander volk. Judees kon hulle nie praat nie. [25]Ek het met die mense geraas, hulle vervloek, party van hulle geslaan, hulle hare uitgetrek en hulle voor God 'n eed laat aflê: Julle sal julle dogters nie laat trou met die heidene se seuns nie en hulle dogters nie met julle seuns of met julleself nie. [26]Dit was tog hiermee dat koning Salomo van Israel gesondig het! Onder die groot nasies was daar nie 'n koning soos hy nie. Sy God het hom liefgehad en hom koning laat word oor die hele Israel, maar vreemde vrouens het ook vir hom laat sondig. [27]En nou moet ons hoor dat julle hierdie groot kwaad begaan het en ontrou aan ons God geword het deur vreemde vrouens te trou! [28]'n Seun van Jojada seun van die hoëpriester Eljasib was die skoonseun van Sanballat die Goroniet. Ek het hom van my af weggejaag. [29]Onthou hulle, my God; hulle het die priesterskap en die plegtige onderneming van die priesters en die Leviete besoedel. [30]Ek het hulle gesuiwer van al wat vreemd was en diensbeurte vir die priesters en Leviete vasgestel, elkeen vir sy werk, [31]en ook die heffings van hout op die vasgestelde tye, en die eerstelinge. Onthou dit tot my voordeel, my God!

Esther 1

The King's Banquets

Est 1:1 (1-2) From his royal throne in Persia's capital city of Susa, King Xerxes ruled 127 provinces, all the way from India to Ethiopia.

Est 1:3 In the third year of his reign he gave a banquet for all his officials and administrators. The armies of Persia and Media were present, as well as the governors and noblemen of the provinces.

Est 1:4 For six whole months he made a show of the riches of the imperial court with all its splendor and majesty.

Est 1:5 After that, the king gave a banquet for all the people in the capital city of Susa, rich and poor alike. It lasted a whole week and was held in the gardens of the royal palace.

Est 1:6 The courtyard there was decorated with blue and white cotton curtains, tied by cords of fine purple linen to silver rings on marble columns. Couches made of gold and silver had been placed in the courtyard, which was paved with white marble, red feldspar, shining mother-of-pearl, and blue turquoise.

Est 1:7 Drinks were served in gold cups, no two of them alike, and the king was generous with the royal wine.

Est 1:8 There were no limits on the drinks; the king had given orders to the palace servants that everyone could have as much as they wanted.

Est 1:9 Meanwhile, inside the royal palace Queen Vashti was giving a banquet for the women.

Queen Vashti's Refusal

Est 1:10 On the seventh day of his banquet the king was drinking and feeling happy, so he called in the seven eunuchs who were his personal servants, Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar, and Carkas.

Est 1:11 He ordered them to bring in Queen Vashti, wearing her royal crown. The queen was a beautiful woman, and the king wanted to show off her beauty to the officials and all his guests.

Est 1:12 But when the servants told Queen Vashti of the king's command, she refused to come. This made the king furious.

Est 1:13 Now it was the king's custom to ask for expert opinion on questions of law and order, so he called for his advisers, who would know what should be done.

Est 1:14 Those he most often turned to for advice were Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan—seven officials of Persia and Media who held the highest offices in the kingdom.

Est 1:15 He said to these men, "I, King Xerxes, sent my servants to Queen Vashti with a command, and she refused to obey it! What does the law say that we should do with her?"

Est 1:16 Then Memucan declared to the king and his officials: "Queen Vashti has insulted not only the king but also his officials—in fact, every man in the empire!

Est 1:17 Every woman in the empire will start looking down on her husband as soon as she hears what the queen has done. They'll say, 'King Xerxes commanded Queen Vashti to come to him, and she refused.'

Est 1:18 When the wives of the royal officials of Persia and Media hear about the queen's behavior, they will be telling their husbands about it before the day is out. Wives everywhere will have no respect for their husbands, and husbands will be angry with their wives.

Est 1:19 If it please Your Majesty, issue a royal proclamation that Vashti may never again appear before the king. Have it written into the laws of Persia and Media, so that it can never be changed. Then give her place as queen to some better woman.

Est 1:20 When your proclamation is made known all over this huge empire, every woman will treat her husband with proper respect, whether he's rich or poor."

Est 1:21 The king and his officials liked this idea, and the king did what Memucan suggested.

Est 1:22 To each of the royal provinces he sent a message in the language and the system of writing of that province, saying that every husband should be the master of his home and speak with final authority.

ESTER 1

1Dit was in die tyd van Ahasveros. Hy het geregeer oor 'n ryk van honderd sewe en twintig provinsies wat gestrek het van Indië af tot by Kus. 2In die tyd toe sy troon in die vestingstad Susan was, 3in die derde jaar van sy regering, het hy 'n onthaal gegee vir al sy hoë amptenare en ander in sy diens. Die leëroffisiere van Persië en Medië, die vername mense en die hoë amptenare van die provinsies was teenwoordig. 4By dié geleentheid het die koning al die rykdom waarmee sy koninkryk kon spog, al die prag en praal daarvan, honderd en tagtig dae lank vertoon. 5Daarna het die koning almal in die stad Susan, groot en klein, 'n week lank in die paleistuin onthaal. 6Daar het wit en bloedrooi linnedoeke gehang wat met pers linnetoue vas was aan silwerringe aan marmerpilare. Verder was daar silwer- en goue rusbanke op 'n plaveisel van vier soorte kosbare klip. 7Wyn is bedien in goue bekers van verskillende ontwerpe en daar was 'n oorvloed koninklike wyn soos 'n mens van 'n koning kon verwag. 8Op bevel van die koning is niemand gedwing om te drink nie. Hy het al sy paleisbediendes beveel om na elkeen se wens te handel. 9Koningin Vasti het intussen ook die vrouens onthaal in die paleis van koning Ahasveros. 10Op die sewende dag, toe die koning baie vrolik was van die wyn, het hy sewe paleisbeamptes geroep: Mehuman, Bisseta, Garbona, Bigta, Abagta, Setar en Karkas. 11Hy het hulle beveel om koningin Vasti, met haar kroon op, na hom toe te laat kom sodat hy vir al die mense, al die hoë amptenare, kon wys hoe mooi sy is. Sy was 'n baie mooi vrou. 12Koningin Vasti het egter geweier om te kom soos die koning haar deur sy paleisbeamptes beveel het. Toe het die koning baie kwaad geword. Hy was woedend 13en het raad gevra by sy adviseurs wat geweet het hoe en wanneer om op te tree, want dit was gebruiklik dat die koning die kenners van wet en reg sou raadpleeg. 14Karsena, Setar, Admata, Tarsis, Meres, Marsena en Memukan was by die koning. Hulle was die sewe hoofamptenare van Persië en Medië wat direkte toegang tot die koning gehad het en die hoogste poste in die koninkryk beklee het. 15Hy vra hulle toe: Wat moet volgens wet gedoen word met koningin Vasti wat nie gehoorsaam was aan die bevel van die koning deur sy paleisbeamptes nie? 16Toe sê Memukan vir die koning en die hoë amptenare: Koningin Vasti het nie net teen die koning verkeerd opgetree nie, maar ook teen al die hoë amptenare en al die mense in al die provinsies van die koning. 17Haar optrede sal bekend word by al die vrouens en sal daartoe lei dat hulle geen ontsag meer vir hulle mans het nie. Hulle sal sê: Koning Ahasveros het beveel dat koningin Vasti voor hom moet verskyn, maar sy het nie gekom nie.' 18Die vooraanstaande vrouens van Persië en Medië wat van die koningin se optrede gehoor het, sal dit vandag nog aan hulle mans vertel en hulle met minagting behandel. Dit sal die mans woedend maak. 19As u dit goedvind, vaardig 'n koninklike bevel uit en laat geskryf word in die wette van Persië en Medië, wat nie herroep kan word nie, dat Vasti nie meer voor koning Ahasveros mag verskyn nie en dat hy haar as koningin vervang met iemand wat haar beter sal gedra as sy. 20As die bevel wat die koning uitvaardig, bekend word oor sy uitgestrekte koninkryk sal elke vrou haar man, belangrik of onbelangrik, met eerbied behandel. 21Die koning en sy hoë amptenare het hierdie voorstel goedgevind, en die koning het gedoen wat Memukan gesê het 22en briewe gestuur na al die provinsies, na elke provinsie in sy eie skrif en na elke volk in sy eie taal. Hierin het gestaan dat elke man baas moet wees in sy eie huis en moet optree volgens die gebruik van sy volk.

Esther 2

Esther Chosen Queen

Est 2:1 Later, even after the king's anger had cooled down, he kept thinking about what Vashti had done and about his proclamation against her.

Est 2:2 So some of the king's advisers who were close to him suggested, "Why don't you make a search to find some beautiful young virgins?

Est 2:3 You can appoint officials in every province of the empire and have them bring all these beautiful young women to your harem here in Susa, the capital city. Put them in the care of Hegai, the eunuch who is in charge of your women, and let them be given a beauty treatment.

Est 2:4 Then take the young woman you like best and make her queen in Vashti's place." The king thought this was good advice, so he followed it.

Est 2:5 There in Susa lived a Jew named Mordecai son of Jair; he was from the tribe of Benjamin and was a descendant of Kish and Shimei.

Est 2:6 When King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon took King Jehoiachin of Judah into exile from Jerusalem, along with a group of captives, Mordecai was among them.

Est 2:7 He had a cousin, Esther, whose Hebrew name was Hadassah; she was a beautiful young woman, and had a good figure. At the death of her parents, Mordecai had adopted her and brought her up as his own daughter.

Est 2:8 When the king had issued his new proclamation and many young women were being brought to Susa, Esther was among them. She too was put in the royal palace in the care of Hegai, who had charge of the harem.

Est 2:9 Hegai liked Esther, and she won his favor. He lost no time in beginning her beauty treatment of massage and special diet. He gave her the best place in the harem and assigned seven young women specially chosen from the royal palace to serve her.

Est 2:10 Now, on the advice of Mordecai, Esther had kept it secret that she was Jewish.

Est 2:11 Every day Mordecai would walk back and forth in front of the courtyard of the harem, in order to find out how she was getting along and what was going to happen to her.

Est 2:12 The regular beauty treatment for the women lasted a year—massages with oil of myrrh for six months and with oil of balsam for six more. After that, each woman would be taken in turn to King Xerxes.

Est 2:13 When she went from the harem to the palace, she could wear whatever she wanted.

Est 2:14 She would go there in the evening, and the next morning she would be taken to another harem and put in the care of Shaashgaz, the eunuch in charge of the king's concubines. She would not go to the king again unless he liked her enough to ask for her by name.

Est 2:15 The time came for Esther to go to the king. Esther—the daughter of Abihail and the cousin of Mordecai, who had adopted her as his daughter; Esther—admired by everyone who saw her. When her turn came, she wore just what Hegai, the eunuch in charge of the harem, advised her to wear.

Est 2:16 So in Xerxes' seventh year as king, in the tenth month, the month of Tebeth, Esther was brought to King Xerxes in the royal palace.

Est 2:17 The king liked her more than any of the other women, and more than any of the others she won his favor and affection. He placed the royal crown on her head and made her queen in place of Vashti.

Est 2:18 Then the king gave a great banquet in Esther's honor and invited all his officials and administrators. He proclaimed a holiday for the whole empire and distributed gifts worthy of a king.

Mordecai Discovers a Plot

Est 2:19 Meanwhile Mordecai had been appointed by the king to an administrative position.

Est 2:20 As for Esther, she had still not let it be known that she was Jewish. Mordecai had told her not to tell anyone, and she obeyed him in this, just as she had obeyed him when she was a little girl under his care.

Est 2:21 During the time that Mordecai held office in the palace, Bigthana and Teresh, two of the palace eunuchs who guarded the entrance to the king's rooms, became hostile to King Xerxes and plotted to assassinate him.

Est 2:22 Mordecai learned about it and told Queen Esther, who then told the king what Mordecai had found out.

Est 2:23 There was an investigation, and it was discovered that the report was true, so both men were hanged on the gallows. The king ordered an account of this to be written down in the official records of the empire.

ESTER 2

1Later, toe die woede van koning Ahasveros bedaar het, het hy nog altyd aan Vasti gedink en aan wat sy gedoen het en wat oor haar besluit is. 2Toe sê die amptenare wat in die koning se persoonlike diens was: Die koning moet vir hom mooi meisies laat soek. 3Hy moet amptenare aanstel in al die provinsies van sy koninkryk sodat hulle al die mooi meisies bymekaar kan laat kom in die vestingstad Susan in die vrouekwartiere onder die sorg van Hegai, die paleisbeampte wat oor die koning se vrouens toesig hou. Hulle moet skoonheidsbehandeling ontvang, 4en die meisie van wie die koning die meeste hou, moet in die plek van Vasti koningin word. Die koning het dit 'n goeie voorstel gevind en so gemaak. 5In die stad Susan was daar 'n Jood met die naam Mordegai. Hy was uit die stam Benjamin en was 'n seun van Jaïr seun van Simi, seun van Kis. 6Hy was onder die ballinge wat saam met koning Jojagin van Juda uit Jerusalem weggevoer is deur koning Nebukadnesar van Babel. 7Mordegai het as voog opgetree vir Hadassa, dit is Ester, die dogter van sy oom, want sy was 'n weeskind. Dié meisie was mooi, sy was baie mooi. Ná die dood van haar pa en ma het Mordegai haar as dogter aangeneem. 8Toe die besluit en bevel van die koning bekend gemaak is, is 'n groot aantal meisies in die stad Susan bymekaargebring onder die sorg van Hegai. Ester is ook na die paleis van die koning toe geneem onder die sorg van Hegai wat oor die koning se vrouens toesig gehou het. 9Die meisie was vir hom mooi en hy het van haar gehou. Hy het haar dadelik die nodige skoonheidsbehandeling gegee en haar die regte dieet laat volg. Ook het hy die sewe bestes van die paleis se kamerpersoneel tot haar beskikking gestel en haar en haar kamerpersoneel na die beste deel van die vrouekwartiere verskuif. 10Ester het nie haar volksverband en afkoms bekend gemaak nie, want Mordegai het haar belet om dit te doen. 11Mordegai het elke dag voor die voorhof van die vrouekwartiere heen en weer geloop om agter te kom hoe dit met Ester gaan en wat met haar gaan gebeur. 12Die skoonheidsbehandeling waaraan die meisies hulle volgens die gebruik moes onderwerp, het twaalf maande lank geduur: behandeling met mirre-olie ses maande, en met lekkerruik-kruie en ander skoonheidsmiddels ses maande. Daarna het elke meisie 'n beurt gekry om na koning Ahasveros toe te gaan. 13Wanneer sy uit die vrouekwartiere na die koning se paleis toe gaan, kon elke meisie alles saamvat wat sy wou. 14Sy het in die aand in die paleis ingegaan en in die oggend is sy na die tweede stel vrouekwartiere toe onder die sorg van Saäsgas, die paleisbeampte wat oor die koning se byvrouens toesig gehou het. Sy kon nie weer na die koning toe gaan nie, behalwe as hy baie van haar gehou het en sy geroep word. [15]Ester was die dogter van Abigajil, 'n oom van Mordegai wat haar as sy dogter aangeneem het. Toe haar beurt kom om na die koning toe te gaan, het sy niks meer gevra as wat Hegai, die paleisbeampte wat oor die koning se vrouens toesig gehou het, vir haar aanbeveel het nie. Sy het 'n goeie indruk gemaak op almal wat haar gesien het. [16]Ester is na koning Ahasveros toe in die paleis geneem in die tiende maand, die maand Tebet, in die sewende regeringsjaar van die koning. [17]Die koning het meer van Ester gehou as van enigeen van die ander vrouens en hy was meer in sy skik met haar as met enige ander jongmeisie. Hy het toe die kroon op haar kop gesit en haar koningin gemaak in die plek van Vasti. [18]Die koning het toe 'n groot onthaal gegee vir al sy hoë amptenare en almal wat in sy diens was, 'n onthaal ter ere van Ester. Hy het die verpligtinge van sy onderdane in al die provinsies verminder en geskenke uitgedeel met koninklike vrygewigheid. [19]In die tyd toe die jongmeisies daar bymekaar was, het nog iets gebeur: Mordegai het in die poort van die koning se paleis gesit, [20]en Ester het in dié stadium nog nie haar afkoms en haar volksverband bekend gemaak nie, soos Mordegai haar beveel het; sy het Mordegai se opdrag uitgevoer soos toe sy nog onder sy sorg was. [21]In dié tyd, terwyl Mordegai in die poort van die paleis gesit het, het Bigtan en Teres, twee paleisbeamptes van die koning wat poortwagte was, verbitter geraak en saamgesweer om koning Ahasveros te vermoor. [22]Mordegai het dit te wete gekom en dit aan koningin Ester meegedeel. Ester het dit toe namens Mordegai aan die koning vertel. [23]Die saak is ondersoek en die berig is waar bevind, en die twee manne is aan 'n galg opgehang. Hierdie gebeurtenis is in die annale opgeteken in teenwoordigheid van die koning.

Esther 3

Haman Plots Against the Jews

Est 3:1 Some time later King Xerxes promoted a man named Haman to the position of prime minister. Haman was the son of Hammedatha, a descendant of Agag.

Est 3:2 The king ordered all the officials in his service to show their respect for Haman by kneeling and bowing to him. They all did so, except for Mordecai, who refused to do it.

Est 3:3 The other officials in the royal service asked him why he was disobeying the king's command;

Est 3:4 day after day they urged him to give in, but he would not listen to them. "I am a Jew," he explained, "and I cannot bow to Haman." So they told Haman about this, wondering if he would tolerate Mordecai's conduct.

Est 3:5 Haman was furious when he realized that Mordecai was not going to kneel and bow to him,

Est 3:6 and when he learned that Mordecai was a Jew, he decided to do more than punish Mordecai alone. He made plans to kill every Jew in the whole Persian Empire.

Est 3:7 In the twelfth year of King Xerxes' rule, in the first month, the month of Nisan, Haman ordered the lots to be cast ("purim," they were called) to find out the right day and month to carry out his plot. The thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar, was decided on.

Est 3:8 So Haman told the king, "There is a certain race of people scattered all over your empire and found in every province. They observe customs that are not like those of any other people. Moreover, they do not obey the laws of the empire, so it is not in your best interests to tolerate them.

Est 3:9 If it please Your Majesty, issue a decree that they are to be put to death. If you do, I guarantee that I will be able to put 375 tons of silver into the royal treasury for the administration of the empire."

Est 3:10 The king took off his ring, which was used to stamp proclamations and make them official, and gave it to the enemy of the Jewish people, Haman son of Hammedatha, the descendant of Agag.

Est 3:11 The king told him, "The people and their money are yours; do as you like with them."

Est 3:12 So on the thirteenth day of the first month Haman called the king's secretaries and dictated a proclamation to be translated into every language and system of writing used in the empire and to be sent to all the rulers, governors, and officials. It was issued in the name of King Xerxes and stamped with his ring.

Est 3:13 Runners took this proclamation to every province of the empire. It contained the instructions that on a single day, the thirteenth day of Adar, all Jews—young and old, women and children—were to be killed. They were to be slaughtered without mercy and their belongings were to be taken.

Est 3:14 The contents of the proclamation were to be made public in every province, so that everyone would be prepared when that day came.

Est 3:15 At the king's command the decree was made public in the capital city of Susa, and runners carried the news to the provinces. The king and Haman sat down and had a drink while the city of Susa was being thrown into confusion.

ESTER 3

1'n Tyd daarna het koning Ahasveros vir Haman seun van Hammedata die Agagiet vereer en hom bevorder. Hy het hom oor al sy ander amptenare aangestel. 2Op bevel van die koning moes al die dienaars van die koning wat in die poort van sy paleis was, kniel en aan Haman eer bewys. Mordegai het egter nie gekniel en aan hom eer bewys nie. 3Die dienaars van die koning wat in die poort van die paleis was, het vir Mordegai gevra: Waarom oortree jy die bevel van die koning? 4Toe hulle dit dag vir dag vir hom vra, en hy hom nie aan hulle steur nie, het hulle dit vir Haman vertel, want hulle wou kyk of Mordegai sou volhard in sy houding. Hy het hulle naamlik laat verstaan dat hy 'n Jood is. 5Toe Haman sien dat Mordegai nie kniel en aan hom eer bewys nie, was hy woedend. 6Hy het ook gehoor wat Mordegai se volksverband is, en dit was vir hom nie genoeg om vir Mordegai alleen dood te maak nie: Haman het na 'n manier gesoek om al die Jode, die volk van Mordegai, in die hele koninkryk van Ahasveros uit te roei. 7In die eerste maand, die maand Nisan, in die twaalfde regeringsjaar van koning Ahasveros, is met die Pur, dit is met die lot, in die teenwoordigheid van Haman beslis om 'n geskikte datum te kry om die Jode uit te roei. Die lot het geval op die twaalfde maand, die maand Adar. 8Toe sê Haman vir koning Ahasveros: Daar is 'n volk wat versprei is oor al die provinsies van u koninkryk en wat hulle self apart hou van die ander volke. Hulle gebruike verskil van al die ander nasies s'n en hulle gehoorsaam nie die wette van die koning nie. Dit is nie in die koning se belang om hulle te laat begaan nie. 9As u dit goedvind, vaardig 'n proklamasie uit om hulle uit te roei. Ek sal dan drie honderd twee en veertig ton silwer lewer aan u ontvangers van inkomste om dit in die skatkis te plaas. 10Toe haal die koning sy seëlring van sy vinger af en gee dit vir die vyand van die Jode, vir Haman seun van Hammedata die Agagiet, 11en sê vir hom: Die silwer kan jy maar hou en met die volk kan jy maak wat jy wil. 12Op die dertiende van die eerste maand is die koning se skrywers ontbied en het hulle alles geskryf wat Haman die verteenwoordigers van die koning, die goewerneurs van elke provinsie en die leiers van elke volk beveel het: aan elke provinsie in sy eie skrif en aan elke volk in sy eie taal. Die proklamasie is geskryf in die naam van koning Ahasveros en verseël met sy ring. 13Briewe is met boodskappers gestuur na al die provinsies van die koning met die opdrag dat al die Jode voor die voet uitgeroei moet word, klein en groot, kind en vrou. Dit moes plaasvind op één bepaalde dag, die dertiende van die twaalfde maand, die maand Adar. Verder moes daar op hulle besittings beslag gelê word. 14Die proklamasie moes in elke provinsie as wet afgekondig word en moes aan alle mense bekend wees sodat hulle op dié bepaalde dag gereed kon wees. [15]Die boodskappers het toe haastig vertrek ooreenkomstig die koninklike bevel. Die proklamasie is uitgevaardig in die vestingstad Susan. Die koning en Haman het toe gaan sit en drink, maar die stad self was in beroering.

Esther 4

Esther Agrees to Help the Jews

Est 4:1 When Mordecai learned of all that had been done, he tore his clothes in anguish. Then he dressed in sackcloth, covered his head with ashes, and walked through the city, wailing loudly and bitterly,

Est 4:2 until he came to the entrance of the palace. He did not go in because no one wearing sackcloth was allowed inside.

Est 4:3 Throughout all the provinces, wherever the king's proclamation was made known, there was loud mourning among the Jews. They fasted, wept, wailed, and most of them put on sackcloth and lay in ashes.

Est 4:4 When Esther's servant women and eunuchs told her what Mordecai was doing, she was deeply disturbed. She sent Mordecai some clothes to put on instead of the sackcloth, but he would not accept them.

Est 4:5 Then she called Hathach, one of the palace eunuchs appointed as her servant by the king, and told him to go to Mordecai and find out what was happening and why.

Est 4:6 Hathach went to Mordecai in the city square at the entrance of the palace.

Est 4:7 Mordecai told him everything that had happened to him and just how much money Haman had promised to put into the royal treasury if all the Jews were killed.

Est 4:8 He gave Hathach a copy of the proclamation that had been issued in Susa, ordering the destruction of the Jews. Mordecai asked him to take it to Esther, explain the situation to her, and have her go and plead with the king and beg him to have mercy on her people.

Est 4:9 Hathach did this,

Est 4:10 and Esther gave him this message to take back to Mordecai:

Est 4:11 "If anyone, man or woman, goes to the inner courtyard and sees the king without being summoned, that person must die. That is the law; everyone, from the king's advisers to the people in the provinces, knows that. There is only one way to get around this law: if the king holds out his gold scepter to someone, then that person's life is spared. But it has been a month since the king sent for me."

Est 4:12 When Mordecai received Esther's message,

Est 4:13 he sent her this warning: "Don't imagine that you are safer than any other Jew just because you are in the royal palace.

Est 4:14 If you keep quiet at a time like this, help will come from heaven to the Jews, and they will be saved, but you will die and your father's family will come to an end. Yet who knows—maybe it was for a time like this that you were made queen!"

Est 4:15 Esther sent Mordecai this reply:

Est 4:16 "Go and get all the Jews in Susa together; hold a fast and pray for me. Don't eat or drink anything for three days and nights. My servant women and I will be doing the same. After that, I will go to the king, even though it is against the law. If I must die for doing it, I will die."

Est 4:17 Mordecai then left and did everything that Esther had told him to do.

ESTER 4

1Toe Mordegai hoor wat gebeur het, het hy sy klere geskeur en rouklere aangetrek en as op sy kop gegooi. Hy het deur die stad geloop en hard en bitterlik gekerm. 2So het hy tot by die poort van die paleis gegaan. Niemand kon met rouklere aan by die poort ingaan nie. 3In al die provinsies waar die besluit en die proklamasie van die koning bekend geword het, was daar groot smart onder die Jode. Hulle het gevas en gehuil en gekerm, en baie het rouklere aangetrek en in die as gaan lê. 4Toe koningin Ester se kamerpersoneel en haar paleisbeamptes haar van Mordegai kom vertel, was sy baie ontsteld. Sy het vir hom klere gestuur om aan te trek in die plek van sy rouklere, maar hy wou dit nie vat nie. 5Ester roep toe vir Hatak, een van die koning se paleisbeamptes wat in haar diens was, en beveel hom om na Mordegai toe te gaan en uit te vind wat aangaan en waarom hy so maak. 6Hatak het na Mordegai toe gegaan op die stadsplein voor die poort van die paleis. 7Mordegai het hom alles vertel wat gebeur het, selfs van die presiese hoeveelheid silwer wat Haman onderneem het om aan die skatkis van die koning te lewer as hy die Jode mag doodmaak. 8Hy het ook vir Hatak 'n afskrif gegee van die proklamasie wat in Susan uitgevaardig is en waarvolgens die Jode doodgemaak moes word. Hatak moes dit aan Ester wys, haar alles vertel en haar versoek om na die koning toe te gaan. Sy moes hom om genade smeek en vir haar volk intree. 9Hatak is toe terug na Ester toe en het Mordegai se woorde aan haar oorgedra. 10Sy het toe vir Hatak beveel om vir Mordegai te sê: 11Al die amptenare van die koning en die mense in die provinsies van die koning weet dat daar net een wet is vir enigeen, man of vrou, wat na die koning toe in die binneste voorhof gaan as hy nie ontbied is nie: hy word sonder meer doodgemaak. Die enigste uitsondering is dat die koning sy goue septer na so 'n persoon toe uitsteek; dan bly hy lewe. En dit is nou al dertig dae dat ek nie na die koning toe ontbied is nie. 12Die boodskap van Ester is aan Mordegai oorgedra, 13en hy het haar geantwoord: Moenie dink net jy van al die Jode sal vrykom omdat jy in die koning se paleis is nie. 14As jy nóú swyg en daar kom van 'n ander kant af uitkoms en redding vir die Jode, sal jy en jou familie omkom. Wie weet, miskien is dit juis met die oog op 'n tyd soos hierdie dat jy koningin geword het! 15Ester het toe vir Mordegai laat weet: 16Gaan maak al die Jode wat in Susan is, bymekaar en vas ter wille van my. Julle moet drie dae, dag en nag, niks eet en drink nie. Ek en my kamerpersoneel sal ook vas. Daarna sal ek na die koning toe gaan, al is dit teen die wet. As ek moet omkom, moet ek maar omkom. 17Mordegai is toe weg en het alles gedoen wat Ester hom beveel het.

Esther 5

Esther Prepares a Banquet

Est 5:1 On the third day of her fast Esther put on her royal robes and went and stood in the inner courtyard of the palace, facing the throne room. The king was inside, seated on the royal throne, facing the entrance.

Est 5:2 When the king saw Queen Esther standing outside, she won his favor, and he held out to her the gold scepter. She then came up and touched the tip of it.

Est 5:3 "What is it, Queen Esther?" the king asked. "Tell me what you want, and you shall have it—even if it is half my empire."

Est 5:4 Esther replied, "If it please Your Majesty, I would like you and Haman to be my guests tonight at a banquet I am preparing for you."

Est 5:5 The king then ordered Haman to come quickly, so that they could be Esther's guests. So the king and Haman went to Esther's banquet.

Est 5:6 Over the wine the king asked her, "Tell me what you want, and you shall have it. I will grant your request, even if you ask for half my empire."

Est 5:7 Esther replied,

Est 5:8 "If Your Majesty is kind enough to grant my request, I would like you and Haman to be my guests tomorrow at another banquet that I will prepare for you. At that time I will tell you what I want."

Haman Plans to Hang Mordecai

Est 5:9 When Haman left the banquet he was happy and in a good mood. But then he saw Mordecai at the entrance of the palace, and when Mordecai did not rise or show any sign of respect as he passed, Haman was furious with him.

Est 5:10 But he controlled himself and went on home. Then he invited his friends to his house and asked his wife Zeresh to join them.

Est 5:11 He boasted to them about how rich he was, how many sons he had, how the king had promoted him to high office, and how much more important he was than any of the king's other officials.

Est 5:12 "What is more," Haman went on, "Queen Esther gave a banquet for no one but the king and me, and we are invited back tomorrow.

Est 5:13 But none of this means a thing to me as long as I see that Jew Mordecai sitting at the entrance of the palace."

Est 5:14 So his wife and all his friends suggested, "Why don't you have a gallows built, seventy-five feet tall? Tomorrow morning you can ask the king to have Mordecai hanged on it, and then you can go to the banquet happy." Haman thought this was a good idea, so he had the gallows built.

ESTER 5

1Op die derde dag het Ester haar koninklike klere aangetrek en in die binneste voorhof van die paleis gaan staan, regoor die ontvangsaal van die koning. Die koning was op die troon in die ontvangsaal regoor die ingang. 2Toe hy koningin Ester in die voorhof sien staan, het sy hom so bekoor dat hy die goue septer wat in sy hand was, na haar toe uitgesteek het. Ester het nader gekom en die punt van die septer aangeraak. 3Die koning sê toe vir haar: Wat kan ek vir jou doen, koningin Ester? Wat is jou versoek? Al is dit ook die helfte van my koninkryk, dit sal vir jou gegee word. 4Toe sê Ester: As u dit goedvind, kom dan vandag saam met Haman na 'n maaltyd toe wat ek vir u voorberei het. 5Die koning beveel toe: Bring gou vir Haman dat ons kan doen wat Ester vra. Die koning en Haman is toe na die maaltyd toe wat Ester voorberei het. 6Terwyl hulle wyn drink, vra die koning vir Ester: Wat is dit wat jy wil vra? Dit sal vir jou gegee word. Wat is jou versoek? Al is dit ook die helfte van my koninkryk, dit sal toegestaan word. 7Ester het geantwoord: My wens en my versoek is soos volg: 8as die koning my goedgesind is, en as die koning dit goedvind om aan my wens te voldoen en my versoek toe te staan, kom dan môre saam met Haman na die maaltyd toe wat ek vir u sal berei. Dán sal ek my wens aan die koning bekend maak. 9Haman het dié dag bly en opgeruimd weggegaan, maar toe hy vir Mordegai in die poort van die paleis sien sit, en Mordegai staan weer nie op om aan hom eer te bewys nie, was hy woedend vir Mordegai. 10Haman het egter sy humeur beteuel en huis toe gegaan. Toe het hy sy vriende en sy vrou Seres laat haal 11en by hulle gespog oor sy groot rykdom en sy baie seuns, oor al die maniere waarop die koning hom vereer het en oor hoe die koning hom bevorder het bo al die ander hoë amptenare en onderdane van die koning. 12Verder het Haman gesê: En dit is nie al nie, koningin Ester het selfs niemand behalwe vir my saam met die koning uitgenooi na die maaltyd wat sy voorberei het nie. Ek is ook vir môre saam met die koning deur haar uitgenooi. 13En tog bevredig dit alles my nie so lank ek die Jood Mordegai in die poort van die paleis sien sit nie. 14Toe sê sy vrou Seres en al sy vriende: Laat 'n galg van drie en twintig meter hoog bou en beveel môre by die koning aan dat hulle vir Mordegai daaraan moet ophang. Dan kan jy saam met die koning na die maaltyd toe gaan sonder dat iets jou hinder. Haman het dit 'n goeie voorstel gevind en hy het die galg laat bou.

Esther 6

The King Honors Mordecai

Est 6:1 That same night the king could not get to sleep, so he had the official records of the empire brought and read to him.

Est 6:2 The part they read included the account of how Mordecai had uncovered a plot to assassinate the king—the plot made by Bigthana and Teresh, the two palace eunuchs who had guarded the king's rooms.

Est 6:3 The king asked, "How have we honored and rewarded Mordecai for this?" His servants answered, "Nothing has been done for him."

Est 6:4 "Are any of my officials in the palace?" the king asked. Now Haman had just entered the courtyard; he had come to ask the king to have Mordecai hanged on the gallows that was now ready.

Est 6:5 So the servants answered, "Haman is here, waiting to see you." "Show him in," said the king.

Est 6:6 So Haman came in, and the king said to him, "There is someone I wish very much to honor. What should I do for this man?" Haman thought to himself, "Now who could the king want to honor so much? Me, of course."

Est 6:7 (7-8) So he answered the king, "Have royal robes brought for this man—robes that you yourself wear. Have a royal ornament put on your own horse.

Est 6:9 Then have one of your highest noblemen dress the man in these robes and lead him, mounted on the horse, through the city square. Have the nobleman announce as they go: 'See how the king rewards someone he wishes to honor!' "

Est 6:10 Then the king said to Haman, "Hurry and get the robes and the horse, and provide these honors for Mordecai the Jew. Do everything for him that you have suggested. You will find him sitting at the entrance of the palace."

Est 6:11 So Haman got the robes and the horse, and he put the robes on Mordecai. Mordecai got on the horse, and Haman led him through the city square, announcing to the people as they went: "See how the king rewards a man he wishes to honor!"

Est 6:12 Mordecai then went back to the palace entrance while Haman hurried home, covering his face in embarrassment.

Est 6:13 He told his wife and all his friends everything that had happened to him. Then she and those wise friends of his told him, "You are beginning to lose power to Mordecai. He is a Jew, and you cannot overcome him. He will certainly defeat you."

Esther Reveals Haman's Plot

Est 6:14 While they were still talking, the palace eunuchs arrived in a hurry to take Haman to Esther's banquet.

ESTER 6

1Daardie nag kon die koning nie slaap nie en het hy opdrag gegee dat die annale gebring en aan hom voorgelees moet word. 2Daarin is toe opgeteken gevind dat dit Mordegai was wat vir Bigtan en Teres ontmasker het, twee paleisbeamptes van die koning wat poortwagte was en wat saamgesweer het om koning Ahasveros te vermoor. 3Toe vra die koning: Watter eerbewys en erkenning het Mordegai hiervoor ontvang? Die kamerpersoneel van die koning het geantwoord: Hy het niks ontvang nie. 4Toe vra die koning: Wie is in die voorhof? Net toe kom Haman aan in die buitenste voorhof van die paleis om by die koning aan te beveel dat Mordegai opgehang moet word aan die galg wat Haman vir hom opgerig het. 5Die dienaars van die koning sê toe vir hom: Haman staan in die voorhof. Toe sê die koning: Laat hy inkom! 6Haman het binnegekom en die koning het hom gevra: Wat moet gedoen word met iemand aan wie die koning baie graag eer wil bewys? Haman het gedink: aan wie anders as aan my sou die koning eer wou bewys? 7Toe antwoord hy die koning: Met die man aan wie die koning graag eer wil bewys, moet soos volg gehandel word: 8daar moet 'n koninklike kleed gebring word wat die koning self aangehad het en 'n perd waarop die koning self gery het, 'n perd met die koninklike embleem op sy kop. 9Die kleed en die perd moet oorhandig word aan een van die hoogste amptenare van die koning, en dié moet die kleed aantrek vir die man aan wie die koning graag eer wil bewys. Die amptenare moet die man dan op die perd oor die stadsplein laat ry en voor hom uitroep: So word gemaak met iemand aan wie die koning graag eer wil bewys! 10Toe sê die koning vir Haman: Vat dadelik die kleed en die perd en maak soos jy voorgestel het met die Jood Mordegai wat in die poort van die paleis sit. Jy moet niks nalaat van wat jy voorgestel het nie. 11Haman het toe die kleed en die perd gevat, die kleed vir Mordegai aangetrek, hom oor die stadsplein laat ry en voor hom uitgeroep: So word gemaak met iemand aan wie die koning graag eer wil bewys! 12Daarna is Mordegai terug na die poort van die paleis toe, maar Haman is haastig huis toe, ontnugter en skaam. 13Hy het vir sy vrou Seres en al sy vriende alles vertel wat met hom gebeur het. Sy raadgewers en sy vrou Seres sê toe: As dit so is dat Mordegai, voor wie jy hierdie eerste vernedering ondergaan het, tot die Joodse volk behoort, sal jy nie kan standhou voor hom nie. Voor hom sal jy heeltemal ondergaan. 14Terwyl hulle nog met hom praat, kom die paleisbeamptes van die koning en neem vir Haman vinnig na die onthaal toe wat Ester voorberei het.

Esther 7

Est 7:1 And so the king and Haman went to eat with Esther

Est 7:2 for a second time. Over the wine the king asked her again, "Now, Queen Esther, what do you want? Tell me and you shall have it. I'll even give you half the empire."

Est 7:3 Queen Esther answered, "If it please Your Majesty to grant my humble request, my wish is that I may live and that my people may live.

Est 7:4 My people and I have been sold for slaughter. If it were nothing more serious than being sold into slavery, I would have kept quiet and not bothered you about it; but we are about to be destroyed—exterminated!"

Est 7:5 Then King Xerxes asked Queen Esther, "Who dares to do such a thing? Where is this man?"

Est 7:6 Esther answered, "Our enemy, our persecutor, is this evil man Haman!" Haman faced the king and queen with terror.

Haman Is Hanged

Est 7:7 The king got up in a fury, left the room, and went outside to the palace gardens. Haman could see that the king was determined to punish him for this, so he stayed behind to beg Queen Esther for his life.

Est 7:8 He had just thrown himself down on Esther's couch to beg for mercy, when the king came back into the room from the gardens. Seeing this, the king cried out, "Is this man going to rape the queen right here in front of me, in my own palace?" The king had no sooner said this than the eunuchs covered Haman's head.

Est 7:9 Then one of them, who was named Harbonah, said, "Haman even went so far as to build a gallows at his house so that he could hang Mordecai, who saved Your Majesty's life. And it's seventy-five feet tall!" "Hang Haman on it!" the king commanded.

Est 7:10 So Haman was hanged on the gallows that he had built for Mordecai. Then the king's anger cooled down.

ESTER 7

1Die koning en Haman het by koningin Ester gekom om saam met haar te eet. 2Terwyl hulle by hierdie tweede geleentheid besig was om wyn te drink, vra die koning weer vir Ester: Wat is dit wat jy wil vra? Dit sal vir jou gegee word. Wat is jou versoek? Al is dit ook die helfte van die koninkryk, dit sal toegestaan word. 3Koningin Ester antwoord toe: As die koning my goedgesind is, en die koning dit goedvind, laat my en my volk toe om te bly lewe. Dit is my wens en my versoek. 4Ek vra dit, want ons, ek en my volk, is verkoop om voor die voet uitgeroei te word. Was ons maar net as slawe en slavinne verkoop, sou ek stilgebly het, want dan sou die ramp nie soveel skade aan die koning se belange veroorsaak het nie. 5Toe vra koning Ahasveros vir koningin Ester: Wie is dit wat so iets beplan, en waar is hy? 6en Ester antwoord: Die teëstander en vyand is hierdie lae mens, hierdie Haman. Haman het groot geskrik daar in teenwoordigheid van die koning en koningin. 7Die koning het woedend van die ete af opgestaan en na die tuin van die paleis toe gegaan. Haman het egter bly staan om by koningin Ester om sy lewe te smeek, want hy het gesien dat die koning klaar oor sy ondergang besluit het. 8Net toe Haman neerval op die rusbank waarop Ester sit, kom die koning uit die tuin van die paleis terug in die saal waar die maaltyd gegee is. Toe sê die koning: Wil jy nou ook nog die koningin hier by my in die paleis aanrand? Skaars het die koning dit gesê, of sy dienaars het vir Haman kom blinddoek. 9Garbona, een van die koning se paleisbeamptes, sê toe: Daar is mos reeds by Haman se huis 'n galg van drie en twintig meter hoog wat hy laat oprig het vir Mordegai wat destyds in belang van die koning gepraat het. Toe sê die koning: Hang hom daaraan op! 10Hulle het Haman toe opgehang aan die galg wat hy vir Mordegai laat bou het. Daarna het die woede van die koning bedaar.

Esther 8

Esther Saves the Jews

Est 8:1 That same day King Xerxes gave Queen Esther all the property of Haman, the enemy of the Jews. Esther told the king that Mordecai was related to her, and from then on Mordecai was allowed to enter the king's presence.

Est 8:2 The king took off his ring with his seal on it (which he had taken back from Haman) and gave it to Mordecai. Esther put Mordecai in charge of Haman's property.

Est 8:3 Then Esther spoke to the king again, throwing herself at his feet and crying. She begged him to do something to stop the evil plot that Haman, the descendant of Agag, had made against the Jews.

Est 8:4 The king held out the gold scepter to her, so she stood up and said,

Est 8:5 "If it please Your Majesty, and if you care about me and if it seems right to you, please issue a proclamation to keep Haman's orders from being carried out—those orders that the son of Hammedatha the descendant of Agag gave for the destruction of all the Jews in the empire.

Est 8:6 How can I endure it if this disaster comes on my people, and my own relatives are killed?"

Est 8:7 King Xerxes then said to Queen Esther and Mordecai, the Jew, "Look, I have hanged Haman for his plot against the Jews, and I have given Esther his property.

Est 8:8 But a proclamation issued in the king's name and stamped with the royal seal cannot be revoked. You may, however, write to the Jews whatever you like; and you may write it in my name and stamp it with the royal seal."

Est 8:9 This happened on the twenty-third day of the third month, the month of Sivan. Mordecai called the king's secretaries and dictated letters to the Jews and to the governors, administrators, and officials of all the 127 provinces from India to Ethiopia. The letters were written to each province in its own language and system of writing and to the Jews in their language and system of writing.

Est 8:10 Mordecai had the letters written in the name of King Xerxes, and he stamped them with the royal seal. They were delivered by riders mounted on fast horses from the royal stables.

Est 8:11 These letters explained that the king would allow the Jews in every city to organize for self-defense. If armed men of any nationality in any province attacked the Jewish men, their children, or their women, the Jews could fight back and destroy the attackers; they could slaughter them to the last man and take their possessions.

Est 8:12 This decree was to take effect throughout the Persian Empire on the day set for the slaughter of the Jews, the thirteenth of Adar, the twelfth month.

Est 8:13 It was to be proclaimed as law and made known to everyone in every province, so that the Jews would be ready to take revenge on their enemies when that day came.

Est 8:14 At the king's command the riders mounted royal horses and rode off at top speed. The decree was also made public in Susa, the capital city.

Est 8:15 Mordecai left the palace, wearing royal robes of blue and white, a cloak of fine purple linen, and a magnificent gold crown. Then the streets of Susa rang with cheers and joyful shouts.

Est 8:16 For the Jews there was joy and relief, happiness and a sense of victory.

Est 8:17 In every city and province, wherever the king's proclamation was read, the Jews held a joyful holiday with feasting and happiness. In fact, many other people became Jews, because they were afraid of them now.

ESTER 8

1Dieselfde dag het koning Ahasveros die eiendom van Haman, die vyand van die Jode, vir koningin Ester gegee. Ester het aan die koning vertel hoe Mordegai aan haar verwant is, en hy het toe voor die koning verskyn. 2Die koning het sy seëlring afgehaal wat hy by Haman teruggevat het, en dit aan Mordegai gegee. Ester het toe vir Mordegai oor die eiendom van Haman aangestel. 3Ester het weer met die koning gepraat. Sy het voor hom gekniel, gehuil en hom om genade gesmeek. Sy het hom gevra om die bose plan wat Haman die Agagiet teen die Jode beraam het, ongedaan te maak. 4Die koning het die goue septer na Ester toe uitgesteek, en sy het voor hom gaan staan 5en gesê: As die koning dit goedvind, as u my goedgesind is, en as dit vir u reg lyk en u van my hou, laat skryf dan ander briewe om die briewe met die plan van Haman seun van Hammedata die Agagiet te herroep. Hy het daarin geskrywe dat die Jode in al die provinsies van u ryk uitgeroei moet word. 6Hoe sou ek kon toekyk as my volk deur so 'n ramp getref word? Hoe sou ek kon toekyk as my familie uitgeroei word? 7Koning Ahasveros het toe vir koningin Ester en vir die Jood Mordegai gesê: Kyk, ek het Haman se eiendom vir Ester gegee en hom laat ophang aan die galg omdat hy die Jode wou uitroei. 8Skryf julle dan nou maar wat julle goeddink aan die Jode. Skryf dit in my naam en verseël dit met my seëlring. 'n Proklamasie wat in die naam van die koning geskryf is en met sy seëlring verseël is, kan egter nie herroep word nie. 9Toe is die skrywers van die koning dadelik ontbied. Dit was op die drie en twintigste van die derde maand, die maand Siwan. Hulle het alles neergeskryf wat Mordegai die Jode, die verteenwoordigers van die koning, die goewerneurs en die leiers in die honderd sewe en twintig provinsies van Indië af tot by Kus wou beveel. Hulle het aan elke provinsie in sy eie skrif geskryf en aan elke volk in sy eie taal. Ook aan die Jode het hulle in hulle eie skrif en taal geskryf. 10Mordegai het geskryf in die naam van koning Ahasveros en die briewe verseël met die seëlring van die koning. Die briewe is uitgestuur met boodskappers op resiesperde uit die koninklike stalle. 11Die briewe het gelui dat die koning aan die Jode in alle stede die reg gee om bymekaar te kom en hulle te verdedig. Hulle kon enige gewapende mag van enige volk of provinsie deur wie hulle bedreig word, voor die voet uitroei, ook kinders en vrouens, en op almal se besittings beslag lê. 12Dit alles kon hulle doen in al die provinsies van koning Ahasveros op één bepaalde dag, die dertiende van die twaalfde maand, die maand Adar. 13Die proklamasie moes in elke provinsie as wet afgekondig word en moes aan alle mense bekend wees, sodat die Jode op dié bepaalde dag gereed kon wees om hulle op hulle vyande te wreek. [14]Die boodskappers op die perde uit die koninklike stalle het toe baie haastig vertrek ooreenkomstig die koninklike bevel. Die proklamasie is uitgevaardig in die vestingstad Susan. [15]Mordegai het van die koning af weggegaan in 'n koninklike kleed van blou en wit linne, met 'n groot goue kroon op, en 'n mantel van fyn linne en pers stof aan. Die stad Susan het gejubel en gejuig. [16]Vir die Jode was daar weer lig en vreugde en blydskap en 'n gevoel van eiewaarde. [17]In elke provinsie en in elke stad, orals waar die besluit en proklamasie van die koning bekend geword het, was daar vreugde en blydskap onder die Jode. Hulle het maaltye gehou en feesgevier. Ook het baie mense uit die ander volksgroepe Jode geword omdat hulle skrikbevange was vir die Jode.

Esther 9

The Jews Destroy Their Enemies

Est 9:1 The thirteenth day of Adar came, the day on which the royal proclamation was to take effect, the day when the enemies of the Jews were hoping to get them in their power. But instead, the Jews triumphed over them.

Est 9:2 In the Jewish quarter of every city in the empire the Jews organized to attack anyone who tried to harm them. People everywhere were afraid of them, and no one could stand against them.

Est 9:3 In fact, all the provincial officials—governors, administrators, and royal representatives—helped the Jews because they were all afraid of Mordecai.

Est 9:4 It was well-known throughout the empire that Mordecai was now a powerful man in the palace and was growing more powerful.

Est 9:5 So the Jews could do what they wanted with their enemies. They attacked them with swords and slaughtered them.

Est 9:6 In Susa, the capital city itself, the Jews killed five hundred people.

Est 9:7 (7-10) Among them were the ten sons of Haman son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews: Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha, Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha, Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai, and Vaizatha. However, there was no looting.

Est 9:11 That same day the number of people killed in Susa was reported to the king.

Est 9:12 He then said to Queen Esther, "In Susa alone the Jews have killed five hundred people, including Haman's ten sons. What must they have done out in the provinces! What do you want now? You shall have it. Tell me what else you want, and you shall have it."

Est 9:13 Esther answered, "If it please Your Majesty, let the Jews in Susa do again tomorrow what they were allowed to do today. And have the bodies of Haman's ten sons hung from the gallows."

Est 9:14 The king ordered this to be done, and the proclamation was issued in Susa. The bodies of Haman's ten sons were publicly displayed.

Est 9:15 On the fourteenth day of Adar the Jews of Susa got together again and killed three hundred more people in the city. But again, they did no looting.

Est 9:16 The Jews in the provinces also organized and defended themselves. They rid themselves of their enemies by killing seventy-five thousand people who hated them. But they did no looting.

Est 9:17 This was on the thirteenth day of Adar. On the next day, the fourteenth, there was no more killing, and they made it a joyful day of feasting.

Est 9:18 The Jews of Susa, however, made the fifteenth a holiday, since they had slaughtered their enemies on the thirteenth and fourteenth and then stopped on the fifteenth.

Est 9:19 This is why Jews who live in small towns observe the fourteenth day of the month of Adar as a joyous holiday, a time for feasting and giving gifts of food to one another.

The Feast of Purim Inaugurated

Est 9:20 Mordecai had these events written down and sent letters to all the Jews, near and far, throughout the Persian Empire,

Est 9:21 telling them to observe the fourteenth and fifteenth days of Adar as holidays every year.

Est 9:22 These were the days on which the Jews had rid themselves of their enemies; this was a month that had been turned from a time of grief and despair into a time of joy and happiness. They were told to observe these days with feasts and parties, giving gifts of food to one another and to the poor.

Est 9:23 So the Jews followed Mordecai's instructions, and the celebration became an annual custom.

Est 9:24 Haman son of Hammedatha—the descendant of Agag and the enemy of the Jewish people—had cast lots ("purim," they were called) to determine the day for destroying the Jews; he had planned to wipe them out.

Est 9:25 But Esther went to the king, and the king issued written orders with the result that Haman suffered the fate he had planned for the Jews—he and his sons were hanged from the gallows.

Est 9:26 That is why the holidays are called Purim. Because of Mordecai's letter and because of all that had happened to them,

Est 9:27 the Jews made it a rule for themselves, their descendants, and anyone who might become a Jew, that at the proper time each year these two days would be regularly observed according to Mordecai's instructions.

Est 9:28 It was resolved that every Jewish family of every future generation in every province and every city should remember and observe the days of Purim for all time to come.

Est 9:29 Then Queen Esther, the daughter of Abihail, along with Mordecai, also wrote a letter, putting her full authority behind the letter about Purim, which Mordecai had written earlier.

Est 9:30 The letter was addressed to all the Jews, and copies were sent to all the 127 provinces of the Persian Empire. It wished the Jews peace and security

Est 9:31 and directed them and their descendants to observe the days of Purim at the proper time, just as they had adopted rules for the observance of fasts and times of mourning. This was commanded by both Mordecai and Queen Esther.

Est 9:32 Esther's command, confirming the rules for Purim, was written down on a scroll.

ESTER 9

1Die dertiende van die twaalfde maand, die maand Adar, het aangebreek. Dit was die dag waarop die besluit en proklamasie van die koning moes uitgevoer word, die dag waarop die vyande van die Jode gehoop het om hulle te oorweldig. Die omgekeerde het egter gebeur: die Jode het hulle vyande oorweldig. 2Die Jode het bymekaargekom in hulle stede in al die provinsies van koning Ahasveros om hulle te verdedig teen almal wat hulle ondergang soek. Niemand kon voor hulle standhou nie, al die volke was skrikbevange vir hulle. 3Al die leiers in die provinsies, die verteenwoordigers van die koning, die goewerneurs en die ander in diens van die koning het die Jode gesteun omdat hulle bang was vir Mordegai, 4want hy het 'n hoë posisie aan die hof beklee. Dit het deur al die provinsies bekend geword dat hierdie Mordegai al hoe meer mag gekry het. 5Die Jode het onder al hulle vyande 'n groot slagting met die swaard aangerig, hulle het hulle doodgemaak en uitgeroei. Hulle het met almal wat vir hulle haat, gemaak wat hulle wou. 6In die vestingstad Susan het die Jode vyf honderd man doodgemaak. 7Hulle het ook vir Parsandata, Dalfon, Aspata, 8Porata, Adalja, Aridata, 9Parmasta, Arisai, Aridai en Wajesata, 10die tien seuns van Haman, seun van Hammedata en vyand van die Jode, doodgemaak. Op hulle besittings het hulle egter nie beslag gelê nie. 11Dieselfde dag nog het die koning berig gekry van die getal mense wat in die stad Susan doodgemaak is. 12Hy sê toe vir koningin Ester: In die stad Susan het die Jode vyf honderd man doodgemaak, en ook die tien seuns van Haman. Wat sou hulle nog in die ander provinsies van my ryk gedoen het! Is daar iets wat jy nog wil vra? Dit sal aan jou gegee word. Het jy 'n verdere versoek? Dit sal uitgevoer word. 13Ester sê toe: As die koning dit goedvind, laat die Jode in Susan toe om ook môre te doen wat hulle vandag kon doen. En laat die lyke van die tien seuns van Haman aan die galg ophang. 14Die koning het bevel gegee dat dit gedoen moet word, en so 'n proklamasie is in Susan uitgevaardig. Ook is die lyke van die tien seuns van Haman opgehang. 15Die Jode in Susan het toe ook op die veertiende van die maand Adar bymekaargekom. Hulle het in Susan nog drie honderd man doodgemaak, maar nie op hulle besittings beslag gelê nie. 16Die Jode in die ander provinsies van die ryk het intussen bymekaargekom en hulle verdedig. Hulle het die bedreiging deur hulle vyande afgeweer en van hulle haters vyf en sewentig duisend man doodgemaak, maar nie op hulle besittings beslag gelê nie. 17Dit het gebeur op die dertiende van die maand Adar. Op die veertiende van die maand het hulle gerus en dit 'n dag van feesviering en vreugde gemaak. 18Die Jode in Susan het egter op die dertiende én op die veertiende van die maand bymekaargekom. Hulle het eers op die vyftiende van die maand gerus en dit 'n dag van feesviering en vreugde gemaak. 19Daarom maak die Jode op die platteland en dié wat in die klein dorpies woon, die veertiende van die maand Adar 'n dag van vreugde en feesviering, 'n feesdag waarop hulle aan mekaar eetgoed stuur. 20Mordegai het hierdie gebeure laat neerskryf en briewe gestuur aan al die Jode in al die provinsies van koning Ahasveros, naby en ver, 21en die Jode gelas om voortaan elke jaar die veertiende en die vyftiende van die maand Adar te vier 22as dae waarop die Jode die bedreiging deur hulle vyande afgeweer het. Dit is die maand waarin hulle angs in blydskap verander het en hulle rou in feestelikheid. Hulle moes dit dae van feesviering en vreugde maak en aan mekaar eetgoed en aan die armes geskenke stuur. 23So het die Jode na aanleiding van Mordegai se brief aan hulle die gebruik waarmee hulle begin het, as 'n vaste gebruik aanvaar. 24Haman seun van Hammedata die Agagiet en vyand van al die Jode, het naamlik planne gemaak om die Jode uit te roei, en hy het met die Pur, dit is met die lot, beslis om 'n geskikte dag te kry waarop hy verskrikking oor hulle sou bring en hulle sou uitroei. 25Toe dit egter aan die koning bekend word, het hy skriftelik opdrag gegee dat Haman self die slagoffer moet word van die bose plan wat hy teen die Jode beraam het. Hy en sy seuns is aan die galg opgehang. 26Dit is waarom hierdie feesdae Purim genoem word, na die woord Pur. Na aanleiding van alles wat in daardie brief van Mordegai geskryf is en wat hulle self van die gebeure gesien en belewe het, 27het die Jode dit op hulle geneem en hulle en hulle nakomelinge en almal wat by hulle sou aansluit, onherroeplik verbind om voortaan elke jaar hierdie twee dae te vier. Dit moes telkens op die voorgeskrewe wyse en op die voorgeskrewe tyd plaasvind. 28Hierdie dae moes herdenk en gevier word in elke geslag en in elke familie, in elke provinsie en in elke stad. Hierdie dae van die Purim mag nie afgeskaf word onder die Jode nie en hulle nakomelinge mag nooit daarvan vergeet nie. 29Koningin Ester, dogter van Abigajil, en die Jood Mordegai het met hulle volle gesag in 'n tweede brief die reëlings oor die Purim bevestig. 30Mordegai het briewe gestuur aan al die Jode in die honderd sewe en twintig provinsies van koning Ahasveros, hulle voorspoed toegewens en hulle van sy goeie trou verseker. 31Hy het hulle gelas om hierdie dae van die Purim op die vasgestelde tyd te hou, soos hy, die Jood Mordegai, en koningin Ester dit vir hulle bepaal het, en soos hulle hulleself en hulle nakomelinge daartoe verbind het. Daar was ook voorskrifte oor hoe hulle moes vas en na God om hulp moes roep. 32Dit was op Ester se bevel dat die voorskrifte vir hierdie Purimdae vasgestel is. Dit is toe in 'n boek neergeskryf.

Esther 10

The Greatness of Mordecai

Est 10:1 King Xerxes imposed forced labor on the people of the coastal regions of his empire as well as on those of the interior.

Est 10:2 All the great and wonderful things he did, as well as the whole story of how he promoted Mordecai to high office, are recorded in the official records of the kings of Persia and Media.

Est 10:3 Mordecai the Jew was second in rank only to King Xerxes himself. He was honored and well-liked by his fellow Jews. He worked for the good of his people and for the security of all their descendants.

ESTER 10

[1]Koning Ahasveros het die vasteland sowel as die eilande dwangarbeid laat doen. [2]Al die groot en magtige dinge wat hy gedoen het en die volle verhaal oor die hoë pos waarin hy vir Mordegai bevorder het, is opgeteken in die annale van die konings van Medië en Persië. [3]Die Jood Mordegai was tweede in bevel onder koning Ahasveros. Hy was hoog in aansien by die Jode en gewild by al sy volksgenote. Hy het hom vir die welvaart van sy mense beywer en die veiligheid van al hulle nakomelinge verseker.

Job 1

Job's Character and Wealth

Job 1:1 There was a man named Job, living in the land of Uz, who worshiped God and was faithful to him. He was a good man, careful not to do anything evil.

Job 1:2 He had seven sons and three daughters,

Job 1:3 and owned seven thousand sheep, three thousand camels, one thousand head of cattle, and five hundred donkeys. He also had a large number of servants and was the richest man in the East.

Job 1:4 Job's sons used to take turns giving a feast, to which all the others would come, and they always invited their three sisters to join them.

Job 1:5 The morning after each feast, Job would get up early and offer sacrifices for each of his children in order to purify them. He always did this because he thought that one of them might have sinned by insulting God unintentionally.

Satan Allowed to Test Job

Job 1:6 When the day came for the heavenly beings to appear before the LORD, Satan was there among them.

Job 1:7 The LORD asked him, "What have you been doing?" Satan answered, "I have been walking here and there, roaming around the earth."

Job 1:8 "Did you notice my servant Job?" the LORD asked. "There is no one on earth as faithful and good as he is. He worships me and is careful not to do anything evil."

Job 1:9 Satan replied, "Would Job worship you if he got nothing out of it?

Job 1:10 You have always protected him and his family and everything he owns. You bless everything he does, and you have given him enough cattle to fill the whole country.

Job 1:11 But now suppose you take away everything he has—he will curse you to your face!"

Job 1:12 "All right," the LORD said to Satan, "everything he has is in your power, but you must not hurt Job himself." So Satan left.

Satan Takes Job's Property and Children

Job 1:13 One day when Job's children were having a feast at the home of their oldest brother, Job 1:14 a messenger came running to Job. "We were plowing the fields with the oxen," he said, "and the donkeys were in a nearby pasture.

Job 1:15 Suddenly the Sabeans attacked and stole them all. They killed every one of your servants except me. I am the only one who escaped to tell you."

Job 1:16 Before he had finished speaking, another servant came and said, "Lightning struck the sheep and the shepherds and killed them all. I am the only one who escaped to tell you."

Job 1:17 Before he had finished speaking, another servant came and said, "Three bands of Chaldean raiders attacked us, took away the camels, and killed all your servants except me. I am the only one who escaped to tell you."

Job 1:18 Before he had finished speaking, another servant came and said, "Your children were having a feast at the home of your oldest son, Job 1:19 when a storm swept in from the desert. It blew the house down and killed them all. I am the only one who escaped to tell you."

Job 1:20 Then Job got up and tore his clothes in grief. He shaved his head and threw himself face downward on the ground.

Job 1:21 He said, "I was born with nothing, and I will die with nothing. The LORD gave, and now he has taken away. May his name be praised!"

Job 1:22 In spite of everything that had happened, Job did not sin by blaming God.

JOB 1

1In die land Us was daar 'n man met die naam Job. Hy was vroom en opreg en het God gedien en die kwaad vermy. 2Hy het sewe seuns en drie dogters gehad 3en was ook die eienaar van sewe duisend stuks kleinvee, drie duisend kamele, vyf honderd paar trekosse, vyf honderd donkies en baie slawe. Onder die mense in die ooste was hy die belangrikste man. 4Sy seuns het om die beurt partytjies gehou in mekaar se huise. By sulke geleenthede het hulle dan hulle drie susters genooi om saam met hulle fees te vier. 5Ná so 'n reeks partytjies het Job dan sy seuns en dogters beveel om hulle vir die bring van offers te reinig, en vroeg die môre het hy vir hulle almal 'n brandoffer gebring, want, het Job gesê: miskien het my kinders gesondig en God in hulle gedagtes gevloek. Job het dit elke keer gedoen. 6Op 'n dag het die hemelwesens voor die Here kom staan, en die Satan was ook onder hulle. 7Toe vra die Here vir hom: Waar kom jy vandaan? En die Satan antwoord die Here: Ek het die wêreld deurkruis. 8Die Here vra toe vir die Satan: En my dienaar Job, het jy hom raakgesien? Sy gelyke kry jy nie op aarde nie: hy is vroom en opreg, hy dien My en vermy die kwaad. 9Toe antwoord die Satan die Here: Dit is nie sonder rede dat Job U dien nie! 10U beskerm hom dan, en sy huis en al sy goed. U maak alles wat hy doen, voorspoedig. Selfs sy vee teel vinnig aan. 11Maar raak nou net aan sy besittings en kyk of hy U nie in u gesig vervloek nie. 12Toe sê die Here vir die Satan: Alles wat hy het, gee Ek in jou mag oor. Net aan hom self mag jy nie raak nie. Die Satan het daarna van die Here af weggegaan. 13En eendag, toe Job se seuns en dogters besig was om te eet en wyn te drink in hulle oudste broer se huis, 14kom 'n boodskapper by Job met die nuus: Die osse was aan die ploeg, en die donkies het langsaan gewei. 15Toe oorval mense uit Skeba ons en hulle roof alles en maak die slawe dood. Net ek het weggekom om dit vir u te vertel. 16Hy was nog aan die praat, toe kom daar nog een met die nuus: Weerlig het die kleinvee en hulle wagters doodgeslaan en verbrand. Net ek het weggekom om dit vir u te vertel. 17Hy was nog aan die praat, toe kom daar nog een met die nuus: Drie groepe Galdeërs het die kamele geroof en is daarmee weg nadat hulle die slawe doodgemaak het. Net ek het weggekom om dit vir u te vertel. 18Hy was nog aan die praat, toe kom daar nog een met die nuus: U seuns en dogters was besig om te eet en wyn te drink in die huis van hulle oudste broer. 19Meteens het daar 'n sterk wind van die woestyn se kant af opgekom en die huis van al vier kante af op u kinders omgewaai. Almal is dood. Net ek het weggekom om dit vir u te vertel. 20Toe het Job opgestaan en sy klere geskeur. Hy het ook sy hare afgeskeer. Daarna het hy op die grond gaan lê en gesê: 21Sonder iets het ek in die wêreld gekom en sonder iets gaan ek daaruit. Die Here het gegee en die Here het geneem. Prys die Naam van die Here. 22Onder alles het Job nie gesondig of God iets verwyt nie.

Job 2

Satan Attacks Job's Health

Job 2:1 When the day came for the heavenly beings to appear before the LORD again, Satan was there among them.

Job 2:2 The LORD asked him, "Where have you been?" Satan answered, "I have been walking here and there, roaming around the earth."

Job 2:3 "Did you notice my servant Job?" the LORD asked. "There is no one on earth as faithful and good as he is. He worships me and is careful not to do anything evil. You persuaded me to let you attack him for no reason at all, but Job is still as faithful as ever."

Job 2:4 Satan replied, "A person will give up everything in order to stay alive.

Job 2:5 But now suppose you hurt his body—he will curse you to your face!"

Job 2:6 So the LORD said to Satan, "All right, he is in your power, but you are not to kill him."

Job 2:7 Then Satan left the LORD's presence and made sores break out all over Job's body.

Job 2:8 Job went and sat by the garbage dump and took a piece of broken pottery to scrape his sores.

Job 2:9 His wife said to him, "You are still as faithful as ever, aren't you? Why don't you curse God and die?"

Job 2:10 Job answered, "You are talking nonsense! When God sends us something good, we welcome it. How can we complain when he sends us trouble?" Even in all this suffering Job said nothing against God.

Job's Three Friends

Job 2:11 Three of Job's friends were Eliphaz, from the city of Teman, Bildad, from the land of Shuah, and Zophar, from the land of Naamah. When they heard how much Job had been suffering, they decided to go and comfort him.

Job 2:12 While they were still a long way off they saw Job, but did not recognize him. When they did, they began to weep and wail, tearing their clothes in grief and throwing dust into the air and on their heads.

Job 2:13 Then they sat there on the ground with him for seven days and nights without saying a word, because they saw how much he was suffering.

JOB 2

1Toe die hemelwesens weer op 'n dag voor die Here kom staan, het die Satan ook tussen hulle voor die Here kom staan. 2Toe vra die Here vir hom: Waar kom jy vandaan? En die Satan antwoord die Here: Ek het die wêreld deurkruis. 3Die Here vra toe vir die Satan: En my dienaar Job, het jy hom nou gesien? Sy gelyke kry jy nie op aarde nie: hy is vroom en opreg, hy dien My en vermy die kwaad. Hy het vroom gebly, al het jy My daartoe gebring om hom sonder rede te ruïneer. 4Die Satan sê toe vir die Here: Dit bewys nog niks. 'n Man sal mos alles gee wat hy het, as hy net kan bly lewe. 5Maar raak nou net aan sy liggaam en kyk of hy U dan nie in u gesig vervloek nie. 6Toe sê die Here vir die Satan: Goed, hy is in jou mag. Net sy lewe mag jy nie neem nie. 7Die Satan het van die Here af weggegaan en vir Job met pynlike swere getref, van sy kop tot sy tone. 8Job het op 'n ashoop gaan sit en hy het 'n potskerf gevat en hom daarmee gekrap. 9En sy vrou het vir hom gesê: Bly jy nog steeds vroom? Vervloek God en sterf! 10Toe sê hy vir haar: Jy praat nou soos 'n vroumens sonder verstand. As ons die goeie van God aanvaar, moet ons nie ook die slegte aanvaar nie? Onder alles het Job met geen woord gesondig nie. 11Drie van Job se vriende het verneem van al die rampe wat hom oorgekom het. Hulle het elkeen van sy eie plek af gekom, Elifas uit Teman, Bildad uit Suag en Sofar uit Naäma. Hulle het afgespreek om deelneming met hom te betuig en hom te troos. 12Toe hulle hom op 'n afstand sien, het hulle hom eers nie herken nie. Daarna het hulle hardop begin huil, hulle klere geskeur en stof in die lug en op hulle koppe gegooi. 13Sewe dae en sewe nagte lank het hulle op die grond by hom gesit sonder om 'n woord met hom te praat, want hulle het gesien dat sy smart baie groot is.

Job 3

Job Laments His Birth

Job 3:1 Finally Job broke the silence and cursed the day on which he had been born.

Job 3:2 (2-3) O God, put a curse on the day I was born; put a curse on the night when I was conceived!

Job 3:4 Turn that day into darkness, God. Never again remember that day; never again let light shine on it.

Job 3:5 Make it a day of gloom and thick darkness; cover it with clouds, and blot out the sun.

Job 3:6 Blot that night out of the year, and never let it be counted again;

Job 3:7 make it a barren, joyless night.

Job 3:8 Tell the sorcerers to curse that day, those who know how to control Leviathan.

Job 3:9 Keep the morning star from shining; give that night no hope of dawn.

Job 3:10 Curse that night for letting me be born, for exposing me to trouble and grief.

Job 3:11 I wish I had died in my mother's womb or died the moment I was born.

Job 3:12 Why did my mother hold me on her knees? Why did she feed me at her breast?

Job 3:13 If I had died then, I would be at rest now,

Job 3:14 sleeping like the kings and rulers who rebuilt ancient palaces.

Job 3:15 Then I would be sleeping like princes who filled their houses with gold and silver, Job 3:16 or sleeping like a stillborn child.

Job 3:17 In the grave wicked people stop their evil, and tired workers find rest at last.

Job 3:18 Even prisoners enjoy peace, free from shouts and harsh commands.

Job 3:19 Everyone is there, the famous and the unknown, and slaves at last are free.

Job 3:20 Why let people go on living in misery? Why give light to those in grief ?

Job 3:21 They wait for death, but it never comes; they prefer a grave to any treasure.

Job 3:22 They are not happy till they are dead and buried;

Job 3:23 God keeps their future hidden and hems them in on every side.

Job 3:24 Instead of eating, I mourn, and I can never stop groaning.

Job 3:25 Everything I fear and dread comes true.

Job 3:26 I have no peace, no rest, and my troubles never end.

JOB 3

1Toe het Job begin praat en sy geboortedag vervloek. 2Hy het gesê: 3Die dag waarop ek gebore is, moes nooit aangebreek het nie, die nag toe gesê is 'n seuntjie het in die wêreld gekom. 4Daardie dag moes net donkerte gewees het; God daarbo moes dit nie eens raakgesien het nie; geen lig moes dié dag deurgebreek het nie. 5Donkerte en duisternis moes dit opgeëis het, wolke moes daaroor toegetrek het, sonsverduistering moes dit oorval het. 6Die donkerte moes daardie nag ingesluk het, dit moes nooit ingereken gewees het by die dae van die jaar nie, dit moes nooit bygevoeg gewees het by die berekening van die maande nie. 7Ja, daardie nag moes niemand gebore gewees het nie, daar moes geen blydskap gewees het nie. 8Wie dae vervloek, moes ook dié dag vervloek het, hulle moes die Leviatan aangehits het om dit te vernietig. 9Die môrester moes verduister gewees het, hy moes tevergeefs gewag het op die lig en nooit die dag sien breek het nie, 10want hy het nie gekeer dat ek gebore word nie, my hierdie smart nie gespaar nie. 11Waarom het ek nie by my geboorte gesterf nie, net toe ek gebore is, my laaste asem uitgeblaas nie? 12Waarom was daar knieë om my op neer te sit, borste om my te voed? 13Anders kon ek nou stil in die graf gelê het, rustig in die dood geslaap het 14saam met konings en hulle raadgewers wat puinhope herbou het, 15of saam met vorste wat goud besit het, wat hulle huise vol silwer gemaak het. 16Waarom was ek nie maar 'n misgeboorte wat sonder meer begrawe is nie, 'n doodgebore kind wat nooit die daglig gesien het nie? 17Dan sou ek daar gewees het waar die goddeloses nie meer kwaad stook nie, waar dié wat gedaan is, rus vind, 18waar die gevangenes saam rus geniet en nie meer die stem van die slawedrywer hoor nie; 19daar waar klein en groot saam is, waar die slaaf vry is van sy eienaar. 20Waarom moes God dan die lewenslig gee aan 'n man wat net swaar kry, waarom moes Hy lewe gee aan 'n man wat so bitter ly, 21aan iemand wat tevergeefs hunker na die dood, wat daarna soek soos na 'n verborge skat, 22wat maar te bly sou wees om in 'n graf te kom en daaroor sou jubel? 23Waarom die lewenslig gee aan 'n man wat vir hom geen pad vorentoe sien nie, 'n man vir wie God van alles afgesny het? 24Ek kan nie eet van die pyn nie, ek kan nie ophou kreun nie. 25Wat ek gevrees het, het oor my gekom; waarvoor ek bang was, het my getref. 26Ek het geen rus en geen vrede nie, geen verposing nie, net angs.

Job 4

Eliphaz Speaks: The Innocent Prosper

Job 4:1 (1-2) Job, will you be annoyed if I speak? I can't keep quiet any longer.

Job 4:3 You have taught many people and given strength to feeble hands.

Job 4:4 When someone stumbled, weak and tired, your words encouraged him to stand.

Job 4:5 Now it's your turn to be in trouble, and you are too stunned to face it.

Job 4:6 You worshiped God, and your life was blameless; and so you should have confidence and hope.

Job 4:7 Think back now. Name a single case where someone righteous met with disaster.

Job 4:8 I have seen people plow fields of evil and plant wickedness like seed; now they harvest wickedness and evil.

Job 4:9 Like a storm, God destroys them in his anger.

Job 4:10 The wicked roar and growl like lions, but God silences them and breaks their teeth.

Job 4:11 Like lions with nothing to kill and eat, they die, and all their children are scattered.

Job 4:12 Once a message came quietly, so quietly I could hardly hear it.

Job 4:13 Like a nightmare it disturbed my sleep.

Job 4:14 I trembled and shuddered; my whole body shook with fear.

Job 4:15 A light breeze touched my face, and my skin crawled with fright.

Job 4:16 I could see something standing there; I stared, but couldn't tell what it was. Then I heard a voice out of the silence:

Job 4:17 "Can anyone be righteous in the sight of God or be pure before his Creator?

Job 4:18 God does not trust his heavenly servants; he finds fault even with his angels.

Job 4:19 Do you think he will trust a creature of clay, a thing of dust that can be crushed like a moth?

Job 4:20 We may be alive in the morning, but die unnoticed before evening comes.

Job 4:21 All that we have is taken away; we die, still lacking wisdom."

JOB 4

1Toe sê Elifas die Temaniet: 2Sal dit jou vermoei as iemand met jou redeneer? Ek kan nie stilbly nie. 3Jy het self baie mense reggehelp en dié wat moed verloor het, het jy weer moed ingepraat. 4Jou woorde het dié wat struikel, opgebeur, dié wat wou val, het jy weer opgehelp. 5Nou het die ramp jou getref, en jy is platgeslaan; dit het jou oorgekom, en jy is verslae. 6Beteken dit dan vir jou niks dat jy God gedien het nie, gee jou vrome lewe jou geen hoop nie? 7Dink daaroor na: het iemand ooit onskuldig te gronde gegaan? Waar is regverdiges ooit uitgewis? 8Ek het ondervind: dié wat onreg plant en moeilikheid saai, oes dit ook. 9Deur die toorn van God gaan hulle te gronde, deur sy woede gaan hulle tot niet. 10Hulle is soos leeus, maar hoe 'n leeu ook al brul of grom, as sy tande uitgebreek word, 11gaan selfs die sterkste leeu dood van die honger en kom sy kleintjies om. 12'n Woord het geheimsinnig by my gekom, my oor het die fluistering daarvan opgevang. 13In die tyd wanneer ander diep slaap, is ek ontstel deur 'n gesig in die nag. 14Vrees en angs het my oorval, my liggaam het verskriklik gebewe. 15'n Gees het voor my verby gesweef, en my hare het orent gaan staan. 16Die gees het stil gaan staan. Hoe hy lyk, kon ek nie sien nie, daar was net 'n gedaante voor my. Dit was stil en toe hoor ek 'n stem: 17Kan 'n mens ooit onskuldig wees in die oë van God en sonder blaam voor sy Maker staan? 18In sy hemelse dienaars stel Hy geen vertroue nie, voor Hom is selfs sy engele vol gebreke, 19hoeveel te meer hulle wat in huise van klei woon, mense wat uit stof opgebou is, mense wat soos 'n mot pap gedruk kan word. 20Tussen oggend en aand word hulle vernietig, hulle verdwyn vir altyd en word vergeet, 21hulle gaan tot niet, hulle sterf sonder dat hulle wysheid verwerf het.'

Job 5

Job 5:1 Call out, Job. See if anyone answers. Is there any angel to whom you can turn?

Job 5:2 To worry yourself to death with resentment would be a foolish, senseless thing to do.

Job 5:3 I have seen fools who looked secure, but I called down a sudden curse on their homes.

Job 5:4 Their children can never find safety; no one stands up to defend them in court.

Job 5:5 Hungry people will eat the fool's crops—even the grain growing among thorns—and thirsty people will envy his wealth.

Job 5:6 Evil does not grow in the soil, nor does trouble grow out of the ground.

Job 5:7 No indeed! We bring trouble on ourselves, as surely as sparks fly up from a fire.

Job 5:8 If I were you, I would turn to God and present my case to him.

Job 5:9 We cannot understand the great things he does, and to his miracles there is no end.

Job 5:10 He sends rain on the land and he waters the fields.

Job 5:11 Yes, it is God who raises the humble and gives joy to all who mourn.

Job 5:12 (12-13) He upsets the plans of cunning people, and traps the wise in their own schemes, so that nothing they do succeeds;

Job 5:14 even at noon they grope in darkness.

Job 5:15 But God saves the poor from death; he saves the needy from oppression.

Job 5:16 He gives hope to the poor and silences the wicked.

Job 5:17 Happy is the person whom God corrects! Do not resent it when he rebukes you.

Job 5:18 God bandages the wounds he makes; his hand hurts you, and his hand heals.

Job 5:19 Time after time he will save you from harm;

Job 5:20 when famine comes, he will keep you alive, and in war protect you from death.

Job 5:21 God will rescue you from slander; he will save you when destruction comes.

Job 5:22 You will laugh at violence and hunger and not be afraid of wild animals.

Job 5:23 The fields you plow will be free of rocks; wild animals will never attack you.

Job 5:24 Then you will live at peace in your tent; when you look at your sheep, you will find them safe.

Job 5:25 You will have as many children as there are blades of grass in a pasture.

Job 5:26 Like wheat that ripens till harvest time, you will live to a ripe old age.

Job 5:27 Job, we have learned this by long study. It is true, so now accept it.

JOB 5

1Roep maar! Niemand sal jou antwoord nie. Is daar selfs 'n engel na wie jy jou sou kon wend om hulp? 2Verbitterdheid maak 'n dwaas dood, onbeheerstheid vernietig 'n onverstandige. 3Ek het gesien dat 'n dwaas wortel skiet, maar skielik tref 'n ramp sy huis 4en daar is geen hulp vir sy kinders nie; hulle word veronreg in die hof en niemand behartig hulle saak nie. 5Wat 'n dwaas geoes het, word deur honger mense opgeëet; hulle haal dit uit selfs waar dit tussen die dorings weggepak is. Dié wat niks het nie, gryp gretig na sy besittings. 6Ellende kom nie sommerso uit die grond uit op nie, swaarkry skiet nie sommer uit die aarde uit op nie. 7Die mens is vir swaarkry gebore, en sy lewe is kortstondig soos 'n vonk wat opskiet. 8As ek jý was, sou ek my tot God wend en my saak aan Hom voorlê. 9Wat God doen, is groot en ondeurgrondelik, wonder op wonder. 10Dit is Hy wat reën op die aarde gee, wat water oor die veld uitgiet. 11Dit is Hy wat die vertraptes weer optel, wat uitkoms gee aan dié wat ly. 12Dit is Hy wat die planne van slinkse mense verydel sodat hulle niks blywends tot stand bring nie. 13Hy vang die slimmes met hulle eie slinkse planne; wat geslepe mense besluit, maak Hy gou tot niet. 14Helder oordag oorval die donkerte hulle, in die middel van die dag tas hulle rond asof dit nag is. 15Dit is God wat die arm mens red van hulle vals beskuldigings en uit die mag van die sterkes. 16So is daar hoop vir die behoeftige en kom die onreg tot 'n einde. 17Dit gaan goed met die mens wat deur God tereggewys word. Jy moet nie die bestraffing van die Almagtige verontagsaam nie. 18Dit is Hy wat wonde toedien, maar Hy verbind hulle weer, wat seer slaan, maar Hy maak weer met sy eie hand gesond. 19Al tref 'n ramp jou ses of sewe keer, Hy sal jou red, selfs 'n hoeveelste keer sal dit jou geen kwaad aandoen nie. 20In hongersnood sal Hy jou red van die dood, in oorlog sal Hy jou red van die swaard. 21Jy sal beskerm word teen venynige tonge; en as daar rampe kom, hoef jy nie bang te wees nie. 22Onder rampe en in hongersnood sal jy opgewek bly, en vir die wilde diere hoef jy nie bang te wees nie. 23Van die klippe in die veld sal jy geen las hê nie, en met die wilde diere sal jy in vrede leef. 24Jy sal ondervind dat jou woonplek veilig is, en jy sal jou weiveld besoek en niks mis nie. 25Jy sal 'n groot nageslag hê, jou nakomelinge sal so veel wees soos die gras in die veld. 26Jy sal op rype ouderdom die graf ingaan soos 'n gerf wat op sy tyd na die dorsvloer toe gebring word. 27Kyk, dit het ons ontdek, so is dit, luister daarna en neem dit ter harte.

Job 6

Job Replies: My Complaint Is Just

Job 6:1 (1-2) If my troubles and griefs were weighed on scales,

Job 6:3 they would weigh more than the sands of the sea, so my wild words should not surprise you.

Job 6:4 Almighty God has shot me with arrows, and their poison spreads through my body. God has lined up his terrors against me.

Job 6:5 A donkey is content when eating grass, and a cow is quiet when eating hay.

Job 6:6 But who can eat flat, unsalted food? What taste is there in the white of an egg?

Job 6:7 I have no appetite for food like that, and everything I eat makes me sick.

Job 6:8 Why won't God give me what I ask? Why won't he answer my prayer?

Job 6:9 If only he would go ahead and kill me!

Job 6:10 If I knew he would, I would leap for joy, no matter how great my pain. I know that God is holy; I have never opposed what he commands.

Job 6:11 What strength do I have to keep on living? Why go on living when I have no hope?

Job 6:12 Am I made of stone? Is my body bronze?

Job 6:13 I have no strength left to save myself; there is nowhere I can turn for help.

Job 6:14 In trouble like this I need loyal friends—whether I've forsaken God or not.

Job 6:15 But you, my friends, you deceive me like streams that go dry when no rain comes.

Job 6:16 The streams are choked with snow and ice,

Job 6:17 but in the heat they disappear, and the stream beds lie bare and dry.

Job 6:18 Caravans get lost looking for water; they wander and die in the desert.

Job 6:19 Caravans from Sheba and Tema search,

Job 6:20 but their hope dies beside dry streams.

Job 6:21 You are like those streams to me, you see my fate and draw back in fear.

Job 6:22 Have I asked you to give me a gift or to bribe someone on my behalf

Job 6:23 or to save me from some enemy or tyrant?

Job 6:24 All right, teach me; tell me my faults. I will be quiet and listen to you.

Job 6:25 Honest words are convincing, but you are talking nonsense.

Job 6:26 You think I am talking nothing but wind; then why do you answer my words of despair?

Job 6:27 You would even roll dice for orphan slaves and make yourselves rich off your closest friends!

Job 6:28 Look me in the face. I won't lie.

Job 6:29 You have gone far enough. Stop being unjust. Don't condemn me. I'm in the right.

Job 6:30 But you think I am lying—you think I can't tell right from wrong.

JOB 6

[1]Toe het Job weer gepraat: [2]As my bittere ellende maar geweeg kon word, as die ongeluk wat my getref het, op 'n skaal gesit kon word, [3]sou dit swaarder weeg as die sand van die see. Daarom het ek nie gedink wat ek sê nie. [4]Die pyle van die Almagtige deurboor my, ek word geleidelik deur hulle vergiftig. Verskrikkinge van God bedreig my. [5]Balk 'n wildedonkie as hy by gras kom? Bulk 'n bees by sy voer? [6]Eet 'n mens smaaklose kos, kos sonder sout? Het die wit van 'n eier enige smaak? [7]Ek raak nie aan sulke kos nie, dit maak my siek. [8]Ag, mag my gebed verhoor word, mag God vir my gee wat ek begeer: [9]mag Hy dit goeddink om my te vernietig, om my lewe met sy hand af te kap! [10]Dan sou ek nog dié troos hê, die vreugde in die pyn wat Hy my nie gespaar het nie: dat ek die woorde van die Heilige nie geminag het nie. [11]Het ek nog die krag om dit uit te hou? Kan ek nog geduldig op my einde wag? [12]Is ek dan so sterk soos klip, is ek van brons gemaak? [13]Self is ek tot niks in staat nie. Ek weet nie meer raad nie. [14]Wie medelye met 'n vriend beskou as 'n las, het die eerbied vir die Almagtige verwerp. [15]My vriende is so onbetroubaar soos die water van 'n spruit, soos 'n droë loop waarin vloedwaters afkom, [16]vol modder en hael, met sneeu wat bo-op dryf, [17]maar wat na 'n tyd afloop en verdwyn en wegraak as dit warm word. [18]Reisigers draai af na die spruit toe, maar beland in 'n droë wêreld en kom om. [19]Reisigers van Tema af is op die uitkyk na water, dié wat van Skeba af kom, vestig hulle hoop daarop, [20]maar hulle hoop word beskaam, hulle kom by die spruit, en daar is niks. [21]Só het julle vir my geword. Julle het skaars my treurige toestand gesien of julle skrik. [22]Het ek ooit vir julle gesê: Gee vir my iets of koop iemand vir my om met julle geld, [23]red my van 'n vyand of koop my los uit die mag van verdrukkers'? [24]Help my om te verstaan, dan sal ek stilbly, sê my waar ek verkeerd gedoen het. [25]Opregte woorde maak nie seer nie, maar 'n bestraffing deur júlle is geen bestraffing nie. [26]Wil julle my bestraf oor wat ek gesê het, beskou julle die woorde van 'n wanhopige as blote wind? [27]Julle trek lootjies selfs oor 'n weeskind en verkwansel julle vriend vir wins. [28]Maar kyk nou na my geval, ek sal tog nie in julle gesig vir julle lieg nie. [29]Besin julle, moenie dat daar onreg geskied nie, besin julle, my saak is reg. [30]Het ek onreg gepleeg met wat ek gesê het, weet ek nie wat 'n ramp is nie?

Job 7

Job Continues: My Life Has No Hope

Job 7:1 Human life is like forced army service, like a life of hard manual labor,

Job 7:2 like a slave longing for cool shade; like a worker waiting to be paid.

Job 7:3 Month after month I have nothing to live for; night after night brings me grief.

Job 7:4 When I lie down to sleep, the hours drag; I toss all night and long for dawn.

Job 7:5 My body is full of worms; it is covered with scabs; pus runs out of my sores.

Job 7:6 My days pass by without hope, pass faster than a weaver's shuttle.

Job 7:7 Remember, O God, my life is only a breath; my happiness has already ended.

Job 7:8 You see me now, but never again. If you look for me, I'll be gone.

Job 7:9 (9-10) Like a cloud that fades and is gone, we humans die and never return; we are forgotten by all who knew us.

Job 7:11 No! I can't be quiet! I am angry and bitter. I have to speak.

Job 7:12 Why do you keep me under guard? Do you think I am a sea monster?

Job 7:13 I lie down and try to rest; I look for relief from my pain.

Job 7:14 But you—you terrify me with dreams; you send me visions and nightmares

Job 7:15 until I would rather be strangled than live in this miserable body.

Job 7:16 I give up; I am tired of living. Leave me alone. My life makes no sense.

Job 7:17 Why are people so important to you? Why pay attention to what they do?

Job 7:18 You inspect them every morning and test them every minute.

Job 7:19 Won't you look away long enough for me to swallow my spit?

Job 7:20 Are you harmed by my sin, you jailer? Why use me for your target practice? Am I so great a burden to you?

Job 7:21 Can't you ever forgive my sin? Can't you pardon the wrong I do? Soon I will be in my grave, and I'll be gone when you look for me.

JOB 7

1Is 'n mens se lewe op aarde nie maar harde arbeid nie, en sy dae soos dié van 'n dagloner nie? 2Sy lewe is soos dié van 'n slaaf wat smag na koelte, soos dié van 'n dagloner wat verlang na betaaltyd. 3So bring ek my maande deur met swaarkry, my nagte is net smart. 4As ek gaan slaap, dink ek: wanneer kan ek opstaan? Maar die nag sleep stadig verby en ek rol rusteloos rond tot dagbreek toe. 5My liggaam is oortrek van wurms, vol rowe en stof, my vel is vol barste en dit etter aanhoudend. 6My dae loop vinnig soos 'n wewerspoel, die draad raak gou op. 7Dink daaraan, o God, dat my lewe maar net 'n asempie is; ek sal nooit weer voorspoed beleef nie. 8Die oë wat my nou sien, sal my nie weer sien nie: U sal nog so na my kyk, dan is ek nie meer daar nie. 9Soos 'n wolk weggaan en verdwyn, so gaan 'n mens dood en kom nie terug nie, 10hy kom nooit terug na sy huis toe nie, en sy plek is vir altyd leeg. 11Nee, ek kan nie stilbly nie, in my beproewing wil ek praat, in my bitter lyding wil ek kla. 12Is ek dan die see dat U my aan bande wil lê, of 'n seemonster dat U my laat bewaak? 13As ek dink dat my bed my sal troos of dat ek verligting van die pyn sal kry as ek lê, 14dan verskrik U my in my drome, en oorval U my met nagmerries, 15sodat ek eerder verwurg en dood sou wou wees as om te lewe. 16Ek wil nie meer nie, ek sal tog nie vir altyd lewe nie; laat my staan; my lewe is niks meer werd nie. 17Wat is die mens dat U soveel van hom maak, dat U hom so op die hart dra, 18dat U hom van dag tot dag toets, hom van oomblik tot oomblik op die proef stel? 19Wil U nie van my af wegkyk en my 'n oomblikkie laat asem skep nie? 20As ek gesondig het, wat kan ek teen U uitrig, U wat die mens gedurig oppas? Waarom het U my u teiken gemaak? Waarom moet ek vir U 'n las wees? 21Waarom vergewe U dan nie my sonde en vergeet wat ek verkeerd gedoen het nie? Binnekort sal ek in die graf lê, U sal my soek, maar ek sal nie meer lewe nie.

Job 8

Bildad Speaks: Job Should Repent

Job 8:1 (1-2) Are you finally through with your windy speech?

Job 8:3 God never twists justice; he never fails to do what is right.

Job 8:4 Your children must have sinned against God, and so he punished them as they deserved.

Job 8:5 But turn now and plead with Almighty God;

Job 8:6 if you are so honest and pure, then God will come and help you and restore your household as your reward.

Job 8:7 All the wealth you lost will be nothing compared with what God will give you then.

Job 8:8 Look for a moment at ancient wisdom; consider the truths our ancestors learned.

Job 8:9 Our life is short, we know nothing at all; we pass like shadows across the earth.

Job 8:10 But let the ancient wise people teach you; listen to what they had to say:

Job 8:11 "Reeds can't grow where there is no water; they are never found outside a swamp.

Job 8:12 If the water dries up, they are the first to wither, while still too small to be cut and used.

Job 8:13 Godless people are like those reeds; their hope is gone, once God is forgotten.

Job 8:14 They trust a thread—a spider's web.

Job 8:15 If they lean on a web, will it hold them up? If they grab for a thread, will it help them stand?"

Job 8:16 Evil people sprout like weeds in the sun, like weeds that spread all through the garden.

Job 8:17 Their roots wrap around the stones and hold fast to every rock.

Job 8:18 But then pull them up—no one will ever know they were there.

Job 8:19 Yes, that's all the joy evil people have; others now come and take their places.

Job 8:20 But God will never abandon the faithful or ever give help to evil people.

Job 8:21 He will let you laugh and shout again,

Job 8:22 but he will bring disgrace on those who hate you, and the homes of the wicked will vanish.

JOB 8

1Toe sê Bildad die Suagiet: 2Hoe lank gaan jy nog so praat? Jou woorde kom soos 'n orkaan. 3Sal God die reg verdraai, sal die Almagtige verdraai wat reg is? 4As jou kinders teen Hom gesondig het, het Hy hulle vir hulle oortredings gestraf. 5As jy na die wil van God vra en die Almagtige om genade smeek, 6as jy vlekkeloos is en reg het, sal Hy jou weer in sy sorg neem en jou gesond in jou huis terugbring. 7Die vermoë wat jy besit het, sal niks wees teen die rykdom wat jy later sal besit nie. 8Vra na die bevindings van die voorgeslagte, rig jou na die insigte van die voorvaders, 9want ons is maar net van gister, ons weet niks, ons dae is so vlugtig soos 'n skaduwee op die grond. 10Leer uit wat jou voorgeslag gesê het. Hulle het met insig verklaar: 11Groei riet waar daar nie 'n moeras is nie, vleigras waar daar nie water is nie? 12Dit spruit wel uit, maar dit is nog nie eers afgesny nie, dan verdroog dit al vinniger as enige ander soort gras.' 13So gaan dit met hulle wat vir God vergeet. Daar is geen hoop vir die godlose nie. 14Hy vertrou op 'n dun draadjie, hy maak op 'n spinnerak staat. 15As hy teen sy huis leun, val dit om, hy gryp daarna, maar dit bly nie staan nie. 16Hy is soos 'n welige plant in die son: hy rank oral oor die tuin, 17hy vleg sy wortels om die klippe, en klou vas aan die klipmuur. 18Maar as iemand hom uitroei, is daar niks van hom oor nie. 19So kom hy tot sy einde en in sy plek kom daar 'n ander. 20God verwerp nooit die opregte nie en staan ook nie dié by wat onreg doen nie. 21Hy sal jou weer vreugde gee, jou van blydskap laat jubel. 22Dié wat jou haat, sal met smaad bedek word; van die goddeloses bly daar niks oor nie.

Job 9

Job Replies: There Is No Arbiter

Job 9:1 (1-2) Yes, I've heard all that before. But how can a human being win a case against God?

Job 9:3 How can anyone argue with him? He can ask a thousand questions that no one could ever answer.

Job 9:4 God is so wise and powerful; no one can stand up against him.

Job 9:5 Without warning he moves mountains and in anger he destroys them.

Job 9:6 God sends earthquakes and shakes the ground; he rocks the pillars that support the earth.

Job 9:7 He can keep the sun from rising, and the stars from shining at night.

Job 9:8 No one helped God spread out the heavens or trample the sea monster's back.

Job 9:9 God hung the stars in the sky—the Dipper, Orion, the Pleiades, and the stars of the south.

Job 9:10 We cannot understand the great things he does, and to his miracles there is no end.

Job 9:11 God passes by, but I cannot see him.

Job 9:12 He takes what he wants, and no one can stop him; no one dares ask him, "What are you doing?"

Job 9:13 God's anger is constant. He crushed his enemies who helped Rahab, the sea monster, oppose him.

Job 9:14 So how can I find words to answer God?

Job 9:15 Though I am innocent, all I can do is beg for mercy from God my judge.

Job 9:16 Yet even then, if he lets me speak, I can't believe he would listen to me.

Job 9:17 He sends storms to batter and bruise me without any reason at all.

Job 9:18 He won't let me catch my breath; he has filled my life with bitterness.

Job 9:19 Should I try force? Try force on God? Should I take him to court? Could anyone make him go?

Job 9:20 I am innocent and faithful, but my words sound guilty, and everything I say seems to condemn me.

Job 9:21 (21-22) I am innocent, but I no longer care. I am sick of living. Nothing matters; innocent or guilty, God will destroy us.

Job 9:23 When an innocent person suddenly dies, God laughs.

Job 9:24 God gave the world to the wicked. He made all the judges blind. And if God didn't do it, who did?

Job 9:25 My days race by, not one of them good.

Job 9:26 My life passes like the swiftest boat, as fast as an eagle swooping down on a rabbit.

Job 9:27 (27-28) If I smile and try to forget my pain, all my suffering comes back to haunt me; I know that God does hold me guilty.

Job 9:29 Since I am held guilty, why should I bother?

Job 9:30 No soap can wash away my sins.

Job 9:31 God throws me into a pit with filth, and even my clothes are ashamed of me.

Job 9:32 If God were human, I could answer him; we could go to court to decide our quarrel.

Job 9:33 But there is no one to step between us—no one to judge both God and me.

Job 9:34 Stop punishing me, God! Keep your terrors away!

Job 9:35 I am not afraid. I am going to talk because I know my own heart.

JOB 9

1Toe het Job weer gepraat: 2Ek weet dit is soos jy sê: Wie kan sy saak teen God wen? 3As jy 'n saak teen Hom sou wou voer, sou jy Hom nie eers op een vraag uit duisend kon antwoord nie. 4Die wysheid en krag van God is groot: wie kan Hom teëstaan en niks oorkom nie? 5Hy verskuif berge sonder dat hulle dit self agterkom; in sy toorn maak Hy hulle tot niet. 6Hy laat die aarde ruk, weg van sy fondamente af, en sy pilare bewe. 7Hy gee opdrag aan die son en dit kom nie op nie, Hy verseël die sterre en hulle skyn nie. 8Hy het die hemel soos 'n tent gespan, Hy alleen, en Hy hou die golwe van die see in bedwang. 9Hy het die Beer en Orion gemaak, die Sewester en die sterrebeelde in die suide. 10Wat Hy doen, is groot en ondeurgrondelik, wonder op wonder. 11As Hy by my verbygaan, gewaar ek Hom nie, Hy sweef verby, maar ek kom dit nie agter nie. 12As Hy op iets beslag wil lê, wie sal Hom keer? Wie sal vir Hom sê: Wat doen U?' 13God hou sy toorn nie terug nie: Rahab se helpers lê platgeslaan voor Hom. 14Sou ek kon antwoord op wat Hy vra? Hoe sou ek my woorde teen Hom kies? 15Al was my saak reg, sou ek nog nie kon antwoord op wat Hy vra nie, ek sou Hom, my Regter, net om genade kon smeek. 16As ek na Hom sou roep en Hy my sou antwoord, sou ek nie kon glo dat Hy my gehoor het nie, 17want dit is Hý wat my met 'n stormwind pynig, wat my baie wonde slaan sonder dat ek dit verdien, 18wat my nie 'n kans gun om asem te skep nie, maar my deurdrenk met bitter lyding. 19As dit gaan oor krag, is Hý die sterke, as dit gaan oor reg, wie anders as Hý kan 'n klag teen my inbring? 20Al is my saak reg, my woorde sou my skuldig maak; al is ek ook onskuldig, ek sou oor my woorde veroordeel word. 21Ek ís onskuldig! Ek gee nie meer om vir my lewe nie, ek wil nie meer lewe nie. 22Eintlik is dit om 't ewe, daarom dink ek: of 'n mens skuldig is of onskuldig, God vernietig jou tog. 23As 'n vloedramp skielik die dood bring, lag God oor die wanhoop van die onskuldiges. 24Hy gee die wêreld oor in die mag van die goddelose, en Hy maak die regters partydig. As dit nie Hy is wat dit doen nie, wie dan? 25My dae skiet vinniger as 'n naelloper verby, hulle vlieg verby sonder dat ek iets goeds beleef, 26hulle gaan vinnig by my verby soos papirusbote, soos 'n arend wat afskiet op sy prooi. 27As ek sou dink: ek wil ophou kla, ek wil my houding verander en vrolik wees, 28dan word ek bang dat ek nog swaarder sal kry, omdat ek weet dat God my nie onskuldig gaan bevind nie. 29Aangesien ek tóg skuldig bevind sal word, waarom sou ek my moeg maak? 30Al sou ek my was met sneeu, al sou ek my hande skoon was met seep, 31God sou my weer in 'n modderpoel gooi, sodat my klere my tot 'n aanstoot maak. 32Hy is nie 'n mens soos ek dat ek op sy vrae sou kon antwoord nie, dat ons in 'n hofsaak teen mekaar betrokke sou kon raak nie. [33]As daar maar iemand was wat in die saak tussen ons kon oordeel, wat oor ons albei onpartydig kon regspreek, [34]as daar maar iemand was wat God se straf van my kon wegneem, sodat sy verskrikking my nie skielik oorval nie, [35]dan sou ek sonder vrees kon praat. Maar soos sake nou met my staan, kan ek nie.

Job 10

Job Continues: A Plea to God

Job 10:1 I am tired of living. Listen to my bitter complaint.

Job 10:2 Don't condemn me, God. Tell me! What is the charge against me?

Job 10:3 Is it right for you to be so cruel? To despise what you yourself have made? And then to smile on the schemes of wicked people?

Job 10:4 Do you see things as we do?

Job 10:5 Is your life as short as ours?

Job 10:6 Then why do you track down all my sins and hunt down every fault I have?

Job 10:7 You know that I am not guilty, that no one can save me from you.

Job 10:8 Your hands formed and shaped me, and now those same hands destroy me.

Job 10:9 Remember that you made me from clay; are you going to crush me back to dust?

Job 10:10 You gave my father strength to beget me; you made me grow in my mother's womb.

Job 10:11 You formed my body with bones and sinews and covered the bones with muscles and skin.

Job 10:12 You have given me life and constant love, and your care has kept me alive.

Job 10:13 But now I know that all that time you were secretly planning to harm me.

Job 10:14 You were watching to see if I would sin, so that you could refuse to forgive me.

Job 10:15 As soon as I sin, I'm in trouble with you, but when I do right, I get no credit. I am miserable and covered with shame.

Job 10:16 If I have any success at all, you hunt me down like a lion; to hurt me you even work miracles.

Job 10:17 You always have some witness against me; your anger toward me grows and grows; you always plan some new attack.

Job 10:18 Why, God, did you let me be born? I should have died before anyone saw me.

Job 10:19 To go from the womb straight to the grave would have been as good as never existing.

Job 10:20 Isn't my life almost over? Leave me alone! Let me enjoy the time I have left.

Job 10:21 I am going soon and will never come back—going to a land that is dark and gloomy,

Job 10:22 a land of darkness, shadows, and confusion, where the light itself is darkness.

JOB 10

1My hele lewe walg my, daarom wil ek aan my klag vrye teuels gee en in my bitterheid praat. 2Ek wil vir God sê: Moet my tog nie skuldig verklaar nie, maak aan my bekend waarom voer U hierdie stryd teen my. 3Vind U dit goed om my te laat swaar kry, om wat U gemaak het, met veragting te behandel, maar die planne van die goddeloses met sukses te bekroon? 4Kyk U met die oë van 'n mens? Sien U dinge soos 'n mens hulle sien? 5Gaan u dae verby soos dié van 'n mens, u jare soos sý jare, 6dat U rekenskap eis vir my oortredinge, dat U verantwoording vra vir my sonde? 7U weet dat ek nie skuldig is nie, maar niemand kan my uit u hand red nie. 8U hande het my gevorm, my gemaak. Gaan U my nou heeltemal vernietig? 9Dink daaraan dat U my soos klei gevorm het. Gaan U my nou weer stof laat word? 10Het U my nie soos botter berei, soos kaas gevorm nie? 11U het vir my vel en vleis gegee, U het my bene en senings aanmekaargeweef. 12U het my die lewe gegee en my met liefde versorg, met sorg het U oor my gewaak. 13Maar wat deur U verberg is, wat ek weet U in gedagte gehad het, is dit: 14as ek sonde doen, sou U dit raaksien, van my oortredinge sou U my nie vryspreek nie. 15As ek skuldig is, wag daar ellende vir my, as ek onskuldig is, is daar vir my geen vreugde nie, want ek is oorlaai met smaad en ek beleef net ellende. 16Sou ek moed skep, maak U soos 'n leeu jag op my en staan U my weer voor in u onbegryplike mag. 17U roep nuwe getuies in teen my, u woede laai op teen my; aanslag op aanslag tref my. 18Waarom het U my in die wêreld laat kom? Ek moes liewer gesterf het voordat 'n oog my kon sien. 19Dan sou ek gewees het asof ek nooit bestaan het nie en is ek by geboorte al graf toe gedra. 20My lewensdae is min genoeg, laat my tog met rus dat ek darem 'n bietjie vreugde kan hê 21voordat ek weggaan na die stikdonker land toe en nooit terugkeer nie, 22na die land van die donker nag met sy diep duisternis waar niks georden is nie, waar die lig self donker is.

Job 11

Zophar Speaks: You Deserve Worse

Job 11:1 (1-2) Will no one answer all this nonsense? Does talking so much put you in the right?

Job 11:3 Job, do you think we can't answer you? That your mocking words will leave us speechless?

Job 11:4 You claim that what you say is true; you claim you are pure in the sight of God.

Job 11:5 How I wish God would answer you!

Job 11:6 He would tell you there are many sides to wisdom; there are things too deep for human knowledge. God is punishing you less than you deserve.

Job 11:7 Can you discover the limits and bounds of the greatness and power of God?

Job 11:8 The sky is no limit for God, but it lies beyond your reach. God knows the world of the dead, but you do not know it.

Job 11:9 God's greatness is broader than the earth, wider than the sea.

Job 11:10 If God arrests you and brings you to trial, who is there to stop him?

Job 11:11 God knows which people are worthless; he sees all their evil deeds.

Job 11:12 Stupid people will start being wise when wild donkeys are born tame.

Job 11:13 Put your heart right, Job. Reach out to God.

Job 11:14 Put away evil and wrong from your home.

Job 11:15 Then face the world again, firm and courageous.

Job 11:16 Then all your troubles will fade from your memory, like floods that are past and remembered no more.

Job 11:17 Your life will be brighter than sunshine at noon, and life's darkest hours will shine like the dawn.

Job 11:18 You will live secure and full of hope; God will protect you and give you rest.

Job 11:19 You won't be afraid of your enemies; many people will ask you for help.

Job 11:20 But the wicked will look around in despair and find that there is no way to escape. Their one hope is that death will come.

JOB 11

1Toe sê Sofar die Naämatiet vir Job: 2Moet al die baie woorde onbeantwoord bly? Kan 'n mens homself met praat regverdig? 3Moet mense stilbly vir jou praatjies? Wil jy bly laster sonder dat iemand jou bestraf? 4Jy sê vir God: Wat ek dink, is reg, ek is onskuldig voor U.' 5As God maar wou begin praat en jou wou weerspreek, 6jou wou vertel hoe ingewikkeld die wysheid is, en hoeveel dit vra om iets blywends tot stand te bring! Dan sou jy weet dat God jou nog nie eers vir ál jou sondes straf nie. 7Kan jy begryp wie God werklik is? Kan jy die Almagtige ten volle verstaan? 8Dit is kennis wat hoër is as die hemele. Hoe kan jý daarby uitkom? Dit is kennis wat dieper is as die doderyk. Hoe kan jy dit bereik? 9Dit strek verder as die aarde, wyer as die see. 10As God in die verbygaan iemand gevange neem en voor die gereg bring, wie sal Hom keer? 11God ken skynheilige mense, Hy sien die sonde raak, sonder nader ondersoek. 12'n Idioot kan nie verstand kry nie, net so min as wat 'n wildedonkievul 'n mens is as hy gebore word. 13Maar jy, as jy jou verstand reg wil gebruik en jou hande in gebed na God toe uitsteek, 14as jy jou sonde van jou af sou verwyder en nie toelaat dat onreg in jou woon nie, 15kan jy jou kop sonder skaamte oplig en in die nood kom sonder om bang te wees, 16kan jy jou swaarkry vergeet en daaraan dink asof dit water is wat weggeloop het. 17Jou lewe sal meer lig hê as die helder middag, jou donker sal lig word soos die môre. 18Jy sal gerus wees omdat daar vir jou vooruitsigte is, jy sal jou lêplek regmaak en rustig slaap. 19Jy sal gaan lê en vir niemand bang wees nie, en baie mense sal jou guns soek. 20Maar die oë van die goddeloses sal toegaan, daar is geen uitkoms vir hulle nie: al vooruitsig wat hulle het, is om die laaste asem uit te blaas.

Job 12

Job Replies: The Lord Has Done This

Job 12:1 (1-2) Yes, you are the voice of the people. When you die, wisdom will die with you.

Job 12:3 But I have as much sense as you have; I am in no way inferior to you; everyone knows all that you have said.

Job 12:4 Even my friends laugh at me now; they laugh, although I am righteous and blameless; but there was a time when God answered my prayers.

Job 12:5 You have no troubles, and yet you make fun of me; you hit someone who is about to fall.

Job 12:6 But thieves and godless people live in peace, though their only god is their own strength.

Job 12:7 Even birds and animals have much they could teach you;

Job 12:8 ask the creatures of earth and sea for their wisdom.

Job 12:9 All of them know that the LORD's hand made them.

Job 12:10 It is God who directs the lives of his creatures; everyone's life is in his power.

Job 12:11 But just as your tongue enjoys tasting food, your ears enjoy hearing words.

Job 12:12 (12-13) Old people have wisdom, but God has wisdom and power. Old people have insight; God has insight and power to act.

Job 12:14 When God tears down, who can rebuild, and who can free those God imprisons?

Job 12:15 Drought comes when God withholds rain; floods come when he turns water loose.

Job 12:16 God is strong and always victorious; both deceived and deceiver are in his power.

Job 12:17 He takes away the wisdom of rulers and makes leaders act like fools.

Job 12:18 He dethrones kings and makes them prisoners;

Job 12:19 he humbles priests and men of power.

Job 12:20 He silences those who are trusted, and takes the wisdom of old people away.

Job 12:21 He disgraces those in power and puts an end to the strength of rulers.

Job 12:22 He sends light to places dark as death.

Job 12:23 He makes nations strong and great, but then he defeats and destroys them.

Job 12:24 He makes their leaders foolish and lets them wander confused and lost;

Job 12:25 they grope in the dark and stagger like drunkards.

JOB 12

[1]Toe het Job weer gepraat: [2]Werklik, julle is die enigste mense wat iets weet! Met julle sterf die wysheid uit! [3]Ek het ook verstand, net soos julle, ek staan nie vir julle terug nie. Wie weet nie al dié dinge nie? [4]Ek is 'n grap vir my vriende, en dít iemand wat tot God roep en van Hom antwoord kry. 'n Regverdige, 'n vrome wat 'n grap is! [5]Vir dié wat geen kommer ken nie, pas ongeluk en smaad bymekaar, by dié wat struikel, pas 'n skop. [6]In die huise van die rowers is daar rus, en dié wat God se toorn verwek, is veilig, dié wat meen dat hulle vir God in hulle mag het. [7]Miskien moet jy die diere vra om jou te leer, die voëls daarbo om jou te vertel, [8]of praat met die aarde dat dit jou leer en met die visse in die see dat hulle dit vir jou sê. [9]Wie van hulle weet nie almal dat die hand van die Here alles gemaak het nie? [10]Hy het al wat lewe, in sy mag, die asem van elke mens. [11]Moet die oor nie woorde toets soos die verhemelte kos proe nie? [12]Wysheid kom in die gryse ouderdom en insig na baie jare. [13]By God is wysheid en krag, by Hom is raad en insig. [14]As Hy afbreek, kan niemand opbou nie, as Hy gevange neem, kan niemand vrylaat nie. [15]As Hy die water terughou, verdroog alles, as Hy dit laat losbreek, vernietig dit die aarde. [16]By Hom is daar mag en oorwinning, wie bedrieg en wie bedrieg word, is albei Syne. [17]Hy laat raadgewers van konings kaalvoet loop en maak van regeerders gekke. [18]Hy vernietig die gesag van konings en laat hulle slaweklere dra. [19]Hy laat priesters kaalvoet loop en laat dié wat die mag het, ondergaan. [20]Hy laat die betroubares swyg en verydel die goeie raad van leiers. [21]Hy laat smaad afkom op die koppe van die vernames en Hy neem die mag van sterkes weg. [22]Hy gee lig in donker dieptes, Hy maak donker plekke lig. [23]Hy maak nasies groot en Hy vernietig hulle, Hy laat nasies uitbrei en laat hulle tot niet gaan. [24]Hy ontneem wêreldleiers hulle verstand en laat hulle ronddwaal in 'n wilde wêreld sonder pad. [25]Hulle tas in die donker rond sonder lig, Hy laat hulle ronddwaal soos dronkmense.

Job 13

Job Continues: Still I Will Hope in God

Job 13:1 (1-2) Everything you say, I have heard before. I understand it all; I know as much as you do. I'm not your inferior.

Job 13:3 But my dispute is with God, not you; I want to argue my case with him.

Job 13:4 You cover up your ignorance with lies; you are like doctors who can't heal anyone.

Job 13:5 Say nothing, and someone may think you are wise!

Job 13:6 Listen while I state my case.

Job 13:7 Why are you lying? Do you think your lies will benefit God?

Job 13:8 Are you trying to defend him? Are you going to argue his case in court?

Job 13:9 If God looks at you closely, will he find anything good? Do you think you can fool God the way you fool others?

Job 13:10 Even though your prejudice is hidden, he will reprimand you,

Job 13:11 and his power will fill you with terror.

Job 13:12 Your proverbs are as useless as ashes; your arguments are as weak as clay.

Job 13:13 Be quiet and give me a chance to speak, and let the results be what they will.

Job 13:14 I am ready to risk my life.

Job 13:15 I've lost all hope, so what if God kills me? I am going to state my case to him.

Job 13:16 It may even be that my boldness will save me, since no wicked person would dare to face God.

Job 13:17 Now listen to my words of explanation.

Job 13:18 I am ready to state my case, because I know I am in the right.

Job 13:19 Are you coming to accuse me, God? If you do, I am ready to be silent and die.

Job 13:20 Let me ask for two things; agree to them, and I will not try to hide from you:

Job 13:21 stop punishing me, and don't crush me with terror.

Job 13:22 Speak first, O God, and I will answer. Or let me speak, and you answer me.

Job 13:23 What are my sins? What wrongs have I done? What crimes am I charged with?

Job 13:24 Why do you avoid me? Why do you treat me like an enemy?

Job 13:25 Are you trying to frighten me? I'm nothing but a leaf; you are attacking a piece of dry straw.

Job 13:26 You bring bitter charges against me, even for what I did when I was young.

Job 13:27 You bind chains on my feet; you watch every step I take, and even examine my footprints.

Job 13:28 As a result, I crumble like rotten wood, like a moth-eaten coat.

JOB 13

1Ek het dit alles met my eie oë gesien en met my eie ore gehoor en ek het dit verstaan. 2Wat julle weet, weet ek ook, ek staan nie vir julle terug nie. 3Maar ek wil eintlik met die Almagtige praat, ek wil my saak aan God stel. 4Julle stapel die een leuen op die ander, julle is kwaksalwers, julle almal. 5As julle maar liewer net wou stilbly, sou dit vir julle tot wysheid gereken kon word. 6Luister na my kant van die saak, neem my argumente in ag: 7Wil julle vir God intree met onreg en sy saak bepleit met leuens? 8Wil julle vir Hom partydig wees? Wil julle God se saak verdedig? 9As Hy julle sou ondersoek, sou dit vir julle goed verloop? Sou julle Hom kon bedrieg soos julle mense bedrieg? 10Hy sal julle swaar straf as julle in die geheim partydig is. 11Sy verhewe mag sal julle met skrik vervul, skrik vir Hom sal julle oorval. 12Julle beroep op die voorgeslag is wind, julle verweer sê niks. 13Bly liewer stil, ek wil praat, en laat dan kom wat wil. 14Waarom waag ek my lewe en neem ek dit in my hand? 15Al sou God my doodmaak, ek kan nie wag nie, ek moet my saak vir Hom stel. 16Dit kan selfs my redding wees, want geen godlose durf voor Hom kom nie. 17Luister goed na my woorde, neem ter harte wat ek te sê het: 18Kyk, ek het my regsaak voorberei, ek weet dat ek reg het. 19As iemand 'n saak teen my het, sou ek swyg en sterf. 20U, my God, moet net twee dinge vir my doen, dan sal ek nie vir U wegkruip nie: 21neem u straf van my af weg en moenie dat die skrik vir U my oorval nie. 22Roep my, en ek sal antwoord, of anders, laat ék praat en antwoord U my: 23Hoeveel misdade en sondes het ek begaan? Wys my wat my oortredings en my sondes is! 24Waarom vermy U my en beskou U my as u vyand? 25Wil U 'n verwaaide blaar skrikmaak, 'n droë stoppel agtervolg 26dat U so 'n bitter lyding vir my beskik en my laat boet vir die sondes van my jeug? 27U bind 'n blok aan my voete, U hou elke voetstap van my dop, U merk my, waar ek ook al gaan. 28En dít 'n mens wat vergaan soos iets wat verrot, soos 'n stuk klere wat deur motte gevreet is.

Job 14

Job Continues: Death Comes Soon to All

Job 14:1 We are all born weak and helpless. All lead the same short, troubled life.

Job 14:2 We grow and wither as quickly as flowers; we disappear like shadows.

Job 14:3 Will you even look at me, God, or put me on trial and judge me?

Job 14:4 Nothing clean can ever come from anything as unclean as human beings.

Job 14:5 The length of our lives is decided beforehand—the number of months we will live. You have settled it, and it can't be changed.

Job 14:6 Look away from us and leave us alone; let us enjoy our hard life—if we can.

Job 14:7 There is hope for a tree that has been cut down; it can come back to life and sprout.

Job 14:8 Even though its roots grow old, and its stump dies in the ground,

Job 14:9 with water it will sprout like a young plant.

Job 14:10 But we die, and that is the end of us; we die, and where are we then?

Job 14:11 Like rivers that stop running, and lakes that go dry,

Job 14:12 people die, never to rise. They will never wake up while the sky endures; they will never stir from their sleep.

Job 14:13 I wish you would hide me in the world of the dead; let me be hidden until your anger is over, and then set a time to remember me.

Job 14:14 If a man dies, can he come back to life? But I will wait for better times, wait till this time of trouble is ended.

Job 14:15 Then you will call, and I will answer, and you will be pleased with me, your creature.

Job 14:16 Then you will watch every step I take, but you will not keep track of my sins.

Job 14:17 You will forgive them and put them away; you will wipe out all the wrongs I have done.

Job 14:18 There comes a time when mountains fall and solid cliffs are moved away.

Job 14:19 Water will wear down rocks, and heavy rain will wash away the soil; so you destroy our hope for life.

Job 14:20 You overpower us and send us away forever; our faces are twisted in death.

Job 14:21 Our children win honor, but we never know it, nor are we told when they are disgraced.

Job 14:22 We feel only the pain of our own bodies and the grief of our own minds.

JOB 14

1Die mens, uit 'n vrou gebore, se lewe is kort en vol onrus. 2Hy is soos 'n blom wat oopgaan en dan verlep, 'n skaduwee wat verbygaan en nie stilstaan nie. 3Dit is so 'n mens vir wie U in die oog hou, vir wie U in 'n regsgeding met U wil betrek. 4Wie kan rein uit onrein laat voortkom? Niemand nie! 5Die mens se dae is vasgestel, U het die getal van sy jare bepaal, U het dit neergelê, en hy kan dit nie oorskry nie. 6U moet van hom af wegkyk en hom met rus laat totdat hy soos 'n huurling sy dagtaak afgehandel het. 7Vir 'n boom is daar nog hoop; al is dit afgekap, kan dit weer uitloop, en sy lote sal aanhou groei. 8Al word sy wortels oud in die aarde en al gaan sy stam dood in die grond, 9spruit hy weer uit as hy net water ruik, en groei sy takke asof hy pas geplant is. 10Maar die mens sterf en verdwyn, hy blaas sy laaste asem uit, en waar is hy? 11Soos water uit die see verdamp, en 'n rivier opdroog, 12so ontslaap die mens en staan nie weer op nie; totdat die hemel nie meer daar is nie, sal hy nie wakker skrik nie, nie weer wakker gemaak word nie. 13As U my maar liewer in die doderyk wou wegsteek, my daar wou hou tot u toorn afgekoel het, as U maar liewer 'n tyd vir my wou vasstel en dan weer aan my wou dink! 14As 'n mens sterf, sal hy weer lewe? Dan sou ek al die dae van my swaarkry kon wag tot daar vir my nuwe lewe kom. 15Dan sou U my roep en ek U antwoord en sou U graag weer die maaksel van u hande wou sien. 16Dan sou U elke tree tel wat ek gee, maar nie ag gee op my sonde nie. 17Dan sou U my oortreding in 'n sak verseël en my sonde toemaak. 18Maar soos 'n berg in stukke breek en 'n rots uit sy plek losgeruk word, 19soos water klippe verweer, 'n wolkbreuk die grond wegspoel, so vernietig U die hoop van die mens. 20U oorweldig hom vir altyd en hy verdwyn, hy kom te sterwe, U neem hom weg. 21Sy seuns word vereer, maar hy weet dit nie, hulle word verkleineer, maar hy is nie daarvan bewus nie. 22Hy voel net die pyn aan sy eie liggaam, die smart wat aan hom bly vreet.

Job 15

Eliphaz Accuses: Job Does Not Fear God

Job 15:1 (1-2) Empty words, Job! Empty words!

Job 15:3 No one who is wise would talk the way you do or defend himself with such meaningless words.

Job 15:4 If you had your way, no one would fear God; no one would pray to him.

Job 15:5 Your wickedness is evident by what you say; you are trying to hide behind clever words.

Job 15:6 There is no need for me to condemn you; you are condemned by every word you speak.

Job 15:7 Do you think you were the first person born? Were you there when God made the mountains?

Job 15:8 Did you overhear the plans God made? Does human wisdom belong to you alone?

Job 15:9 There is nothing you know that we don't know.

Job 15:10 We learned our wisdom from gray-haired people—those born before your father.

Job 15:11 God offers you comfort; why still reject it? We have spoken for him with calm, even words.

Job 15:12 But you are excited and glare at us in anger.

Job 15:13 You are angry with God and denounce him.

Job 15:14 Can any human being be really pure? Can anyone be right with God?

Job 15:15 Why, God does not trust even his angels; even they are not pure in his sight.

Job 15:16 And we drink evil as if it were water; yes, we are corrupt; we are worthless.

Job 15:17 Now listen, Job, to what I know.

Job 15:18 Those who are wise have taught me truths which they learned from their ancestors, and they kept no secrets hidden.

Job 15:19 Their land was free from foreigners; there was no one to lead them away from God.

Job 15:20 The wicked who oppress others will be in torment as long as they live.

Job 15:21 Voices of terror will scream in their ears, and robbers attack when they think they are safe.

Job 15:22 They have no hope of escaping from darkness, for somewhere a sword is waiting to kill them,

Job 15:23 and vultures are waiting to eat their corpses. They know their future is dark;

Job 15:24 disaster, like a powerful king, is waiting to attack them.

Job 15:25 That is the fate of those who shake their fists at God and defy the Almighty.

Job 15:26 (26-27) They are proud and rebellious; they stubbornly hold up their shields and rush to fight against God.

Job 15:28 They are the ones who captured cities and seized houses whose owners had fled, but war will destroy those cities and houses.

Job 15:29 They will not remain rich for long; nothing they own will last. Even their shadows will vanish,

Job 15:30 and they will not escape from darkness. They will be like trees whose branches are burned by fire, whose blossoms are blown away by the wind.

Job 15:31 If they are foolish enough to trust in evil, then evil will be their reward.

Job 15:32 Before their time is up they will wither, wither like a branch and never be green again.

Job 15:33 They will be like vines that lose their unripe grapes; like olive trees that drop their blossoms.

Job 15:34 There will be no descendants for godless people, and fire will destroy the homes built by bribery.

Job 15:35 These are the ones who plan trouble and do evil; their hearts are always full of deceit.

JOB 15

[1]Toe sê Elifas die Temaniet: [2]Kan 'n verstandige man soveel onsin praat, so vol wind wees? [3]Kan hy hom verdedig met woorde wat niks sê nie, met 'n pratery wat niks beteken nie? [4]Maar jy maak selfs die eerbied vir God nutteloos, jy maak dit onmoontlik om iets in sy teenwoordigheid te sê. [5]Dit is jou sonde wat jou die woorde in die mond lê; daarom kies jy sulke slinkse woorde. [6]Nie ek nie, jou eie mond veroordeel jou, alles wat jy sê, getuig teen jou. [7]Is jy die eerste mens wat gebore is? Het jy vóór die berge in die wêreld gekom? [8]Het jy in die raadsvergadering van God gesit en luister? Het jy die alleenreg op die wysheid? [9]Wat weet jy wat ons nie weet nie? Wat verstaan jy wat ons nie ook verstaan nie? [10]Ook onder ons is daar ou manne en grysaards, manne selfs ouer as jou pa. [11]Beteken die troos wat van God kom, vir jou niks, die woorde wat met soveel deernis tot jou gerig is? [12]Waarom het jou gevoel met jou op loop gesit, waarom blits jou oë so? [13]Wil jy jou woede op God koel dat daar sulke woorde uit jou mond kom? [14]Hoe kan 'n mens rein wees? Hoe kan 'n sterfling onskuldig wees? [15]As God nie eers die hemelwesens vertrou nie en selfs die hemel nie rein is in sy oë nie, [16]hoeveel minder 'n onrein, verdorwe mens wat boosheid indrink soos water? [17]Luister na my, ek wil jou iets vertel; wat ek ervaar het, wil ek jou meedeel. [18]Dit is die woorde van wyse mense. Hulle hou niks terug van wat hulle vaders hulle vertel het nie. [19]Dit kom uit die tyd toe hulle die land net vir hulleself ontvang het en daar geen vreemdeling onder hulle beweeg het nie. [20]Hulle sê: Sy lewe lank word die goddelose, die geweldenaar, deur angs geteister, al die jare wat vir hom afgemeet is. [21]Angswekkende krete klink in sy ore; terwyl alles veilig lyk, storm rowers op hom af. [22]Hy twyfel of hy die dood sal vryspring, hy weet hy kan nie aan die swaard ontkom nie. [23]As hy vlug, word hy kos vir die aasvoëls, hy weet die dood wag op hom. [24]Soos 'n koning wat aanval, storm swaarkry en lyding op hom af; dit oorweldig hom, [25]want hy daag God uit en verset hom teen die Almagtige: [26]in sy oormoed storm hy op God af met sy dik, sterk skild, [27]met sy ronde, vet gesig en sy onderlyf dik van die vet. [28]Hy sal in verwoeste stede moet woon, in onbewoonbare huise, huise wat dreig om bouvalle te word. [29]Hy sal nie ryk bly nie, sy rykdom sal nie hou nie, sy besittings op die aarde sal nie meer word nie. [30]Hy sal die dood nie vryspring nie, sy nakomelinge sal deur vuur verteer word, sy woorde in die wind verdwyn. [31]'n Mens moenie vertrou op wat niks is nie. Dit bring hom nêrens nie, in ruil daarvoor kry hy ook niks nie. [32]Voor sy tyd gekom het, is sy groeikrag daarmee heen. [33]Hy is soos 'n wingerdstok wat sy trosse verloor voor dit ryp is, soos 'n olyfboom wat sy bloeisels afgooi voor daar vrugte is.' [34]Die hele bende godloses sal sonder iets wees, vuur sal die huise van die omkopers verteer. [35]Dit is hulle wat swanger is van die kwaad, wat onreg voortbring en aan bedrog die lewe skenk.

Job 16

Job Replies: Miserable Comforters Are You

Job 16:1 (1-2) I have heard words like that before; the comfort you give is only torment.

Job 16:3 Are you going to keep on talking forever? Do you always have to have the last word?

Job 16:4 If you were in my place and I in yours, I could say everything you are saying. I could shake my head wisely and drown you with a flood of words.

Job 16:5 I could strengthen you with advice and keep talking to comfort you.

Job 16:6 But nothing I say helps, and being silent does not calm my pain.

Job 16:7 You have worn me out, God; you have let my family be killed.

Job 16:8 You have seized me; you are my enemy. I am skin and bones, and people take that as proof of my guilt.

Job 16:9 In anger God tears me limb from limb; he glares at me with hate.

Job 16:10 People sneer at me; they crowd around me and slap my face.

Job 16:11 God has handed me over to evil people.

Job 16:12 I was living in peace, but God took me by the throat and battered me and crushed me. God uses me for target practice

Job 16:13 and shoots arrows at me from every side—arrows that pierce and wound me; and even then he shows no pity.

Job 16:14 He wounds me again and again; he attacks like a soldier gone mad with hate.

Job 16:15 I mourn and wear clothes made of sackcloth, and I sit here in the dust defeated.

Job 16:16 I have cried until my face is red, and my eyes are swollen and circled with shadows,

Job 16:17 but I am not guilty of any violence, and my prayer to God is sincere.

Job 16:18 O Earth, don't hide the wrongs done to me! Don't let my call for justice be silenced!

Job 16:19 There is someone in heaven to stand up for me and take my side.

Job 16:20 My friends scorn me; my eyes pour out tears to God.

Job 16:21 I want someone to plead with God for me, as one pleads for a friend.

Job 16:22 My years are passing now, and I walk the road of no return.

JOB 16

1Toe het Job weer gepraat: 2Hierdie soort argument het ek al baie gehoor. Julle is almal maar hopelose troosters. 3Kom daar dan geen einde aan julle sinlose gepraat nie? Wat pla julle dat julle die laaste woord wil hê? 4Ek sou ook soos julle kon praat as julle sou ly wat ek te ly het. Dan kon ek medelye met julle betoon en my kop meewarig oor julle skud. 5Ek sou julle kon bemoedig met my woorde, maar niksseggende woorde sou ek terughou. 6Maar my pyn sal nie ophou as ek praat nie, dit sal ook nie verdwyn as ek ophou praat nie. 7Nou het God my afgetakel, Hy het my hele gesin uitgewis. 8Hy het my beetgepak, en dít dien as getuienis teen my; my vervalle toestand staan op en getuig teen my. 9God het my in sy toorn verskeur en vervolg, in sy woede het Hy my lewe bedreig, Hy, my Teëstander, deurboor my met sy oë. 10Mense rek hulle monde oor my, hulle beledig my, hulle sak op my toe. 11God het my oorgelewer aan slegte mense, Hy het my in die hande van goddeloses laat val. 12Ek het rustig gelewe, toe versteur God my rus, Hy het my aan die nek beetgepak en my vergruis. Hy het van my 'n teiken gemaak: 13sy pyle tref my hele liggaam, meedoënloos deurboor Hy my niere en my gal loop uit op die grond. 14Wond op wond dien Hy my toe, soos 'n soldaat storm Hy op my af. 15Ek het vir my 'n roukleed gemaak, my eer het in die stof verdwyn. 16Ek het my oë rooi gehuil, daar is swart kringe onder my oë. 17Tog is ek nie skuldig aan geweld nie en is my gebed opreg. 18Moenie die onreg teen my verberg nie, aarde, moenie dat my noodkrete tot rus kom nie. 19Selfs nou nog het ek 'n getuie in die hemel, Hy wat vir my getuig, is daar bo. 20My vriende het my bespotters geword, daarom pleit ek met trane by God 21dat Hy uitspraak lewer in die saak tussen 'n mens en Hom soos in 'n saak tussen 'n man en sy vriend, 22want my jare is min en gaan verby, en ek gaan na die plek toe waarvandaan niemand terugkom nie.

Job 17

Job Continues: Where Then Is My Hope?

Job 17:1 The end of my life is near. I can hardly breathe; there is nothing left for me but the grave.

Job 17:2 I watch how bitterly everyone mocks me.

Job 17:3 I am being honest, God. Accept my word. There is no one else to support what I say.

Job 17:4 You have closed their minds to reason; don't let them triumph over me now.

Job 17:5 In the old proverb someone betrays his friends for money, and his children suffer for it.

Job 17:6 And now people use this proverb against me; they come and spit in my face.

Job 17:7 My grief has almost made me blind; my arms and legs are as thin as shadows.

Job 17:8 Those who claim to be honest are shocked, and they all condemn me as godless.

Job 17:9 Those who claim to be respectable are more and more convinced they are right.

Job 17:10 But if all of them came and stood before me, I would not find even one of them wise.

Job 17:11 My days have passed; my plans have failed; my hope is gone.

Job 17:12 But my friends say night is daylight; they say that light is near, but I know I remain in darkness.

Job 17:13 My only hope is the world of the dead, where I will lie down to sleep in the dark.

Job 17:14 I will call the grave my father, and the worms that eat me I will call my mother and my sisters.

Job 17:15 Where is there any hope for me? Who sees any?

Job 17:16 Hope will not go with me when I go down to the world of the dead.

JOB 17

1Ek is gedaan, my tyd is verby, net die graf bly vir my oor. 2Al wat ek hoor, is bespotting; my oë is dof van my bitter lyding. 3Wees tog vir my 'n borg, o God! Wie anders kan vir my instaan? 4U het die verstand van my vriende vir rede gesluit, moenie dat hulle seëvier nie. 5Sou iemand sy besittings met sy vriende deel, terwyl sy eie kinders gebrek ly? 6God het my tot 'n bespotting van mense gemaak; hulle spoeg in my gesig. 7My oë het swak geword van die swaarkry, my liggaam is net 'n skaduwee. 8Die opregtes slaan die hande saam daaroor en die onskuldiges kom in opstand oor die godlose mense. 9Wie reg het, loop sy pad, wie rein voor God is, neem toe in krag. 10Al kom julle almal elke keer weer terug, kry ek nie een onder julle wat verstandig is nie. 11My dae is verby, dis klaar met wat ek beplan en begeer het. 12My vriende maak mos of die nag dag is, of die lig naby is omdat dit donker is. 13As ek my hoop vir 'n huis op die doderyk sou vestig, sy donkerte my bed sou maak, 14as ek vir die graf sou sê: Jy is my vader,' en vir die wurms: Julle is my moeder en my susters,' 15watter hoop sou ek dan hê en wie sou vir my enige hoop kon gee? 16Sou die hoop dan saam met my na die doderyk toe afgaan? Sou ons saam in die stof kon rus?

Job 18

Bildad Speaks: God Punishes the Wicked

Job 18:1 (1-2) Job, can't people like you ever be quiet? If you stopped to listen, we could talk to you.

Job 18:3 What makes you think we are as stupid as cattle?

Job 18:4 You are only hurting yourself with your anger. Will the earth be deserted because you are angry? Will God move mountains to satisfy you?

Job 18:5 The light of the wicked will still be put out; its flame will never burn again.

Job 18:6 The lamp in their tents will be darkened.

Job 18:7 Their steps were firm, but now they stumble; they fall—victims of their own advice.

Job 18:8 They walk into a net, and their feet are caught;

Job 18:9 a trap catches their heels and holds them.

Job 18:10 On the ground a snare is hidden; a trap has been set in their path.

Job 18:11 All around them terror is waiting; it follows them at every step.

Job 18:12 They used to be rich, but now they go hungry; disaster stands and waits at their side.

Job 18:13 A deadly disease spreads over their bodies and causes their arms and legs to rot.

Job 18:14 They are torn from the tents where they lived secure, and are dragged off to face King Death.

Job 18:15 Now anyone may live in their tents—after sulfur is sprinkled to disinfect them!

Job 18:16 Their roots and branches are withered and dry.

Job 18:17 Their fame is ended at home and abroad; no one remembers them any more.

Job 18:18 They will be driven out of the land of the living, driven from light into darkness.

Job 18:19 They have no descendants, no survivors.

Job 18:20 From east to west, all who hear of their fate shudder and tremble with fear.

Job 18:21 That is the fate of evil people, the fate of those who care nothing for God.

JOB 18

1Toe sê Bildad die Suagiet vir Job: 2Hoe lank gaan jy nog aanhou praat? Kom eers tot ander insigte dan kan ons verder praat. 3Waarom word ons as diere beskou? Is ons dan so dom in jou oë? 4Jy is soos iemand wat homself in sy woede verskeur. Moet alle mense van die wêreld af verdwyn om jou tevrede te stel? Moet die rotse uit hulle plek losgeruk word? 5Die goddelose se lig sal beslis uitgedoof word, die vlam van sy vuur sal ophou brand, 6die lig in sy huis sal doodgemaak word en die lamp langs hom uitgedoof word. 7Sy kragtige treë sal al onsekerder word, sy slim planne sal hom tot 'n val bring. 8Hy sal aan sy voete gevang word deur 'n strik, hy sal in 'n valstrik inloop. 9'n Wip sal hom aan die hakskeen vang, 'n vangnet sal hom vasgryp. 10'n Lus is vir hom op die grond weggesteek, daar is 'n vanggat op sy pad. 11Hy word van alle kante af met gevaar bedreig, dit volg hom net waar hy gaan. 12Die onheil wag hom gretig in, die ongeluk wag vir hom. 13'n Dodelike siekte sal sy vel wegvreet en sy liggaamsdele verteer. 14Hy sal uitgeruk word uit sy veilige huis, hy sal weggelei word na waar die groot vrees heers. 15Niks wat hy het, sal in sy woning oorbly nie, oor sy woonplek sal brandende swael gestrooi word. 16Sy wortels sal van onder af verdroog en sy blare bo verlep. 17Elke herinnering aan hom sal van die aarde af verdwyn, sy naam sal nêrens meer bekend wees nie. 18Hy sal uit die lig die duisternis in gestoot word, hy sal uit die bewoonde wêreld verjaag word. 19Hy sal geen kind of nakomeling onder sy mense hê nie, en daar sal niemand in sy woonplek oorbly nie. 20Oor sy lot sal die mense van die ooste en die weste die hande van verbasing saamslaan en met vrees vervul wees. 21Só sal dit gaan met die huis van die slegte mens, só sal die plek lyk van iemand wat nie vir God erken nie.

Job 19

Job Replies: My Redeemer Lives

Job 19:1 (1-2) Why do you keep tormenting me with words?

Job 19:3 Time after time you insult me and show no shame for the way you abuse me.

Job 19:4 Even if I have done wrong, how does that hurt you?

Job 19:5 You think you are better than I am, and regard my troubles as proof of my guilt.

Job 19:6 Can't you see it is God who has done this? He has set a trap to catch me.

Job 19:7 I protest his violence, but no one is listening; no one hears my cry for justice.

Job 19:8 God has blocked the way, and I can't get through; he has hidden my path in darkness.

Job 19:9 He has taken away all my wealth and destroyed my reputation.

Job 19:10 He batters me from every side. He uproots my hope and leaves me to wither and die.

Job 19:11 God is angry and rages against me; he treats me like his worst enemy.

Job 19:12 He sends his army to attack me; they dig trenches and lay siege to my tent.

Job 19:13 God has made my own family forsake me; I am a stranger to those who knew me;

Job 19:14 my relatives and friends are gone.

Job 19:15 Those who were guests in my house have forgotten me; my servant women treat me like a stranger and a foreigner.

Job 19:16 When I call a servant, he doesn't answer—even when I beg him to help me.

Job 19:17 My wife can't stand the smell of my breath, and my own brothers won't come near me.

Job 19:18 Children despise me and laugh when they see me.

Job 19:19 My closest friends look at me with disgust; those I loved most have turned against me.

Job 19:20 My skin hangs loose on my bones; I have barely escaped with my life.

Job 19:21 You are my friends! Take pity on me! The hand of God has struck me down.

Job 19:22 Why must you persecute me the way God does? Haven't you tormented me enough?

Job 19:23 How I wish that someone would remember my words and record them in a book!

Job 19:24 Or with a chisel carve my words in stone and write them so that they would last forever.

Job 19:25 But I know there is someone in heaven who will come at last to my defense.

Job 19:26 Even after my skin is eaten by disease, while still in this body I will see God.

Job 19:27 I will see him with my own eyes, and he will not be a stranger. My courage failed because you said, Job 19:28 "How can we torment him?" You looked for some excuse to attack me.

Job 19:29 But now, be afraid of the sword—the sword that brings God's wrath on sin, so that you will know there is one who judges.

JOB 19

1Toe het Job weer gepraat: 2Hoe lank gaan julle my bly pynig en my met woorde striem? 3Dit is die soveelste keer dat julle my beledig en my sleg behandel sonder om julle te skaam. 4As ek werklik gedwaal het, is my dwaling my eie saak. 5Maar as julle julle teen my aanstel en my veroordeel oor die smaad wat oor my gekom het, 6weet dan dat dit God is wat my die onreg aandoen en my in sy net gevange hou. 7Ek skreeu: Geweld!' maar kry geen reaksie nie, ek roep om hulp maar daar word nie aan my reg gedoen nie. 8Hy het my pad versper, ek kan nie verder nie. Hy het die donker laat toesak oor my pad. 9Hy het my eer van my af weggestroop, my aansien van my af weggeneem. 10Aan alle kante breek Hy my af, sodat ek moet sterf, Hy laat my hoop verdwyn soos 'n boom wat uitgeruk word. 11Hy laat sy woede teen my losbreek, Hy behandel my as vyand. 12Sy magte het saam op my afgestorm, hulle beleër my en omsingel my huis. 13My broers het Hy van my verwyder, my bloedverwante is van my vervreem, 14my familie het my verlaat, my bloedverwante het my vergeet. 15My huismense en my slavinne beskou my as 'n vreemdeling, ek het vir hulle soos 'n uitlander geword. 16Ek roep my slaaf, maar hy antwoord my nie, selfs al smeek ek hom. 17My asem walg my vrou, ek ruik sleg vir my eie broers. 18Selfs kindertjies minag my, as ek wil opstaan, spot hulle my. 19Al my vertrouelinge verafsku my, dié wat ek liefhet, het teen my gedraai. 20Ek is net vel en been, al my tande het uitgeval. 21Kry my tog jammer, my vriende, kry my tog jammer! Die hand van God het my swaar getref. 22Waarom vervolg ook julle my soos God dit doen? Kry julle nie genoeg nie? 23Mag my woorde tog opgeskryf word, mag dit ingegraveer word op 'n monument 24met 'n ysterpen en lood, vir altyd in 'n rots uitgekap. 25Ek weet dat my Losser leef, uiteindelik sal Hy op die aarde triomfeer! 26Selfs nadat hierdie siekte my vel weggevreet het, sal ek nog lewe en God sien. 27Ek sal Hóm sien, met my eie oë sal ek Hom sien, Hom en niemand anders nie. Ek smag daarna met my hele lewe. 28As julle dan sê julle wil my vervolg, die wortel van die kwaad by my opspoor, 29moet júlle die swaard vrees, want in sy toorn straf God die sonde met die swaard. Dan sal julle weet dat daar 'n regter is.

Job 20

Zophar Speaks: The Wicked Will Suffer

Job 20:1 (1-2) Job, you upset me. Now I'm impatient to answer.

Job 20:3 What you have said is an insult, but I know how to reply to you.

Job 20:4 Surely you know that from ancient times, when we humans were first placed on earth,

Job 20:5 no wicked people have been happy for long.

Job 20:6 They may grow great, towering to the sky, so great that their heads reach the clouds,

Job 20:7 but they will be blown away like dust. Those who used to know them will wonder where they have gone.

Job 20:8 They will vanish like a dream, like a vision at night, and never be seen again.

Job 20:9 The wicked will disappear from the place where they used to live;

Job 20:10 and their children will make good what they stole from the poor.

Job 20:11 Their bodies used to be young and vigorous, but soon they will turn to dust.

Job 20:12 (12-13) Evil tastes so good to them that they keep some in their mouths to enjoy its flavor.

Job 20:14 But in their stomachs the food turns bitter, as bitter as any poison could be.

Job 20:15 The wicked vomit up the wealth they stole; God takes it back, even out of their stomachs.

Job 20:16 What the evil people swallow is like poison; it kills them like the bite of a deadly snake.

Job 20:17 They will not live to see rivers of olive oil or streams that flow with milk and honey.

Job 20:18 They will have to give up all they have worked for; they will have no chance to enjoy their wealth,

Job 20:19 because they oppressed and neglected the poor and seized houses someone else had built.

Job 20:20 Their greed is never satisfied.

Job 20:21 When they eat, there is nothing left over, but now their prosperity comes to an end.

Job 20:22 At the height of their success all the weight of misery will crush them.

Job 20:23 Let them eat all they want! God will punish them in fury and anger.

Job 20:24 When they try to escape from an iron sword, a bronze bow will shoot them down.

Job 20:25 Arrows stick through their bodies; the shiny points drip with their blood, and terror grips their hearts.

Job 20:26 Everything they have saved is destroyed; a fire not lit by human hands burns them and all their family.

Job 20:27 Heaven reveals their sin, and the earth gives testimony against them.

Job 20:28 All their wealth will be destroyed in the flood of God's anger.

Job 20:29 This is the fate of wicked people, the fate that God assigns to them.

JOB 20

1Toe sê Sofar die Naämatiet vir Job: 2Ontsteltenis dwing my om te antwoord, dit maak my haastig om te praat. 3Ek hoor 'n teregwysing wat my beledig, maar ek wil verstandig daarop antwoord: 4Weet jy wat vroeër gebeur het, van die tyd af toe die mens op die aarde geplaas is? 5Jy weet tog dat die vreugde van die goddelose van korte duur is, dat die blydskap van die godlose net 'n oomblik duur? 6Al sou sy trots tot in die hemel reik en sy kop aan die wolke raak, 7sal hy soos sy eie uitwerpsel vir altyd vergaan. Dié wat hom geken het, sal vra: Waar is hy?' 8Hy verdwyn soos 'n droom, hy is nêrens te vind nie, hy raak weg soos 'n gesig in die nag. 9Die oog wat hom gesien het, sal hom nie weer sien nie, sy plek is vir altyd leeg. 10Sy kinders sal die armes moet vergoed, met sy eie hande sal hy sy rykdom moet teruggee. 11Die jeugdige krag van sy liggaam gaan saam met hom die graf in. 12Hoewel die onreg soet smaak in sy mond en hy dit wegsteek onder sy tong, 13dit opgaar en nie wil laat vaar nie, dit teen sy verhemelte vasdruk, 14gaan sy kos omdraai in sy maag en in hom word soos die gif van 'n slang. 15Die ryk kos wat hy verslind het, gaan hy opgooi; God sal hom dit laat opbring. 16Wat hy drink, is soos slanggif, dit maak hom dood soos die pik van 'n adder. 17Hy sal nie die strome water geniet nie, nie die strome heuning en dikmelk nie. 18Wat hy met moeite verwerf het, moet hy teruggee, hy kan dit nie geniet nie, hy sal hom nie verlustig aan die weelde wat hy deur sy besigheid verkry het nie. 19Hy verdruk mos die armes en los hulle net so, hy vat sommer vir hom 'n huis, hy bou dit nie self nie. 20Daar is geen einde aan sy gulsigheid nie, hy kom nie vry van sy hebsug nie. 21Niks ontsnap sy vraatsug nie, daarom hou sy voorspoed nie stand nie. 22Met sy oorvloed en al tref 'n ramp hom, kom die swaarkry met volle krag op hom af. 23Terwyl hy hom nog so vol eet, laat God die woede van sy toorn oor hom losbreek, oorval God hom met oorlog. 24Hy vlug nog vir 'n ysterwapen, dan deurboor 'n bronspyl hom. 25Terwyl hy dit uit sy rug uit trek, die glansende punt uit sy gal, oorval die doodsvrees hom. 26Al sy skatte is bestem om vernietig te word, 'n vuur verteer hom, selfs al word dit nie aangeblaas nie. Dit verbrand wat in sy huis oorbly. 27Die hemel ontbloot sy sonde, die aarde kom teen hom in opstand. 28Vloedwater spoel sy huis weg, waterstrome op die dag van God se toorn. 29Dit is die lot van die mens wat skuldig is voor God, die deel van die een wat hom teen God verset.

Job 21

Job Replies: The Wicked Do Prosper

Job 21:1 (1-2) Listen to what I am saying; that is all the comfort I ask from you.

Job 21:3 Give me a chance to speak and then, when I am through, sneer if you like.

Job 21:4 My quarrel is not with mortals; I have good reason to be impatient.

Job 21:5 Look at me. Isn't that enough to make you stare in shocked silence?

Job 21:6 When I think of what has happened to me, I am stunned, and I tremble and shake.

Job 21:7 Why does God let evil people live, let them grow old and prosper?

Job 21:8 They have children and grandchildren, and live to watch them all grow up.

Job 21:9 God does not bring disaster on their homes; they never have to live in terror.

Job 21:10 Yes, all their cattle breed and give birth without trouble.

Job 21:11 Their children run and play like lambs

Job 21:12 and dance to the music of harps and flutes.

Job 21:13 They live out their lives in peace and quietly die without suffering.

Job 21:14 The wicked tell God to leave them alone; they don't want to know his will for their lives.

Job 21:15 They think there is no need to serve God nor any advantage in praying to him.

Job 21:16 They claim they succeed by their own strength, but their way of thinking I can't accept.

Job 21:17 Was a wicked person's light ever put out? Did one of them ever meet with disaster? Did God ever punish the wicked in anger

Job 21:18 and blow them away like straw in the wind, or like dust carried away in a storm?

Job 21:19 You claim God punishes a child for the sins of his father. No! Let God punish the sinners themselves; let him show that he does it because of their sins.

Job 21:20 Let sinners bear their own punishment; let them feel the wrath of Almighty God.

Job 21:21 When our lives are over, do we really care whether our children are happy?

Job 21:22 Can anyone teach God, who judges even those in high places?

Job 21:23 (23-24) Some people stay healthy till the day they die; they die happy and at ease, their bodies well-nourished.

Job 21:25 Others have no happiness at all; they live and die with bitter hearts.

Job 21:26 But all alike die and are buried; they all are covered with worms.

Job 21:27 I know what spiteful thoughts you have.

Job 21:28 You ask, "Where are the homes of great people now, those who practiced evil?"

Job 21:29 Haven't you talked with people who travel? Don't you know the reports they bring back?

Job 21:30 On the day God is angry and punishes, it is the wicked who are always spared.

Job 21:31 There is no one to accuse the wicked or pay them back for all they have done.

Job 21:32 When they are carried to the graveyard, to their well-guarded tombs,

Job 21:33 thousands join the funeral procession, and even the earth lies gently on their bodies.

Job 21:34 And you! You try to comfort me with nonsense! Every answer you give is a lie!

JOB 21

1Toe het Job weer gepraat: 2Luister goed na my woorde; so sal julle my die beste troos. 3Verdra my terwyl ek praat, en as ek klaar gepraat het, kan julle my verder bespot. 4My klag is nie teen mense nie. Waarom mag ek dan nie ongeduldig word nie? 5Kyk na my, dan sal julle verstom staan en van verbasing die hand op die mond lê. 6As ek hieraan dink, skrik ek, gaan ek aan die bewe: 7Waarom bly die goddeloses aan die lewe, word hulle oud en ryk en vernaam? 8Hulle kinders raak gevestig rondom hulle, hulle sien hulle nageslagte. 9Daar is vrede in hulle huise, geen vrees nie, die straf van God tref hulle nie. 10Hulle bulle dek die koeie en slaan nie een oor nie, hulle koeie kalf en het geen misgeboorte nie. 11Hulle laat hulle kindertjies los rondloop soos kleinvee, hulle kleintjies baljaar vrolik rond. 12Hulle sing met begeleiding van die tamboeryn en die lier, hulle is vrolik by die geluid van die fluit. 13Hulle slyt hulle lewens in voorspoed, hulle gaan in vrede die doderyk binne. 14Maar tog is dit hulle wat vir God sê: Laat staan ons, ons weier om u wil te ken. 15Wat is die Almagtige dat ons Hom sou dien? Watter nut het dit om Hom te aanbid?' 16Maar hulle voorspoed is nie in hulle eie hande nie, daarom bly ek weg van die raad wat van goddeloses af kom. 17Hoe dikwels word die lewenslamp van die goddeloses uitgedoof, kom 'n ramp oor hulle, laat God in sy toorn onheil oor hulle kom? 18Hoe dikwels is hulle soos kaf voor die wind, soos stoppels wat weggewaai word deur die stormwind? 19Spaar God dan sy rampe op vir die goddelose se kinders? God moet hom tog straf dat hy dit self weet! 20Hy moet sy ondergang met sy eie oë sien, hy moet self die toorn van die Almagtige ondervind. 21Wat kan sy familie hom skeel na sy dood, as sy lewensdraad afgeknip is? 22Sou iemand vir God iets kon leer, vir Hom wat selfs die sterkstes regeer? 23Die een mens sterf in sy volle krag terwyl hy heeltemal tevrede en rustig leef, 24terwyl hy blakend gesond is en volop murg in sy bene het. 25Die ander sterf in bitterheid sonder dat hy voorspoed gesmaak het. 26Saam lê hulle in die graf, altwee oortrek van die wurms. 27Ek ken julle gedagtes, die slim argumente waarmee julle my wil veronreg. 28Julle sê: Wat word van die huis van 'n belangrike man, van die wonings van goddeloses?' 29Het julle nie dié wat baie rondgaan, gevra nie, het julle nie ag geslaan op wat hulle vertel nie? 30Hulle sê 'n slegte man word op die dag van onheil gered, hy word op die dag van toorn verskoon. 31Wie spreek hom in sy gesig aan oor sy slegte gedrag, wie vergeld hom vir wat hy gedoen het? 32Hy word na die graf gedra, en by die hopie grond word daar wag gehou. 33Die kluite van die graf pla hom nie. Alle mense volg hom daarheen, en voor hom is mense sonder tal daarnatoe. [34]Hoe kan julle my dan met sinlose praatjies probeer troos? Julle argumente is niks anders as bedrog nie.

Job 22

Eliphaz Speaks: Job's Wickedness Is Great

Job 22:1 (1-2) Is there anyone, even the wisest, who could ever be of use to God?

Job 22:3 Does your doing right benefit God, or does your being good help him at all?

Job 22:4 It is not because you stand in awe of God that he reprimands you and brings you to trial.

Job 22:5 No, it's because you have sinned so much; it's because of all the evil you do.

Job 22:6 To make a brother repay you the money he owed, you took away his clothes and left him nothing to wear.

Job 22:7 You refused water to those who were tired, and refused to feed those who were hungry.

Job 22:8 You used your power and your position to take over the whole land.

Job 22:9 You not only refused to help widows, but you also robbed and mistreated orphans.

Job 22:10 So now there are pitfalls all around you, and suddenly you are full of fear.

Job 22:11 It has grown so dark that you cannot see, and a flood overwhelms you.

Job 22:12 Doesn't God live in the highest heavens and look down on the stars, even though they are high?

Job 22:13 And yet you ask, "What does God know? He is hidden by clouds—how can he judge us?"

Job 22:14 You think the thick clouds keep him from seeing, as he walks on the dome of the sky.

Job 22:15 Are you determined to walk in the paths that evil people have always followed?

Job 22:16 Even before their time had come, they were washed away by a flood.

Job 22:17 These are the ones who rejected God and believed that he could do nothing to them.

Job 22:18 And yet it was God who made them prosperous—I can't understand the thoughts of the wicked.

Job 22:19 Good people are glad and the innocent laugh when they see the wicked punished.

Job 22:20 All that the wicked own is destroyed, and fire burns up anything that is left.

Job 22:21 Now, Job, make peace with God and stop treating him like an enemy; if you do, then he will bless you.

Job 22:22 Accept the teaching he gives; keep his words in your heart.

Job 22:23 Yes, you must humbly return to God and put an end to all the evil that is done in your house.

Job 22:24 Throw away your gold; dump your finest gold in the dry stream bed.

Job 22:25 Let Almighty God be your gold, and let him be silver, piled high for you.

Job 22:26 Then you will always trust in God and find that he is the source of your joy.

Job 22:27 When you pray, he will answer you, and you will keep the vows you made.

Job 22:28 You will succeed in all you do, and light will shine on your path.

Job 22:29 God brings down the proud and saves the humble.

Job 22:30 He will rescue you if you are innocent, if what you do is right.

JOB 22

1Toe sê Elifas die Temaniet vir Job: 2Kan 'n mens vir God tot nut wees? Nee, die verstandige is vir homself tot nut. 3Watter belang het die Almagtige daarby dat jy reg het, watter voordeel het dit vir Hom dat jou lewenswandel vroom is? 4Is dit oor jou diens aan Hom dat Hy jou straf, dat Hy 'n saak teen jou het? 5Is jou verkeerde dade dan nie baie nie? Daar is geen einde aan al jou sondes nie. 6Sonder regverdiging het jy van jou eie familie goed in pand gevat, jy het die klere van dié wat niks het nie, van hulle afgestroop. 7Jy het vir dié wat uitgeput was, nie water gegee nie en geweier om vir dié wat honger was, kos te gee. 8Jy, 'n ryk man, het grond in besit gekry, jy, 'n man van aansien, woon daarop. 9Maar jy het weduwees met leë hande van jou af weggestuur en weeskinders sonder heenkome gelaat. 10Daarom is daar net vangstrikke rondom jou en het angs jou skielik oorval. 11Daarom is dit so donker dat jy nie kan sien nie en verswelg vloedwaters jou. 12Is God dan nie hoog in die hemel nie? Kyk net hoe hoog sit die sterre! 13Jy dink dalk: wat weet God? Hy regeer uit die donkerte uit. 14Daar is wolke rondom Hom, Hy kan nie sien terwyl Hy daar bo in die hemelgewelf wandel nie. 15Wil jy op die ou pad hou wat deur sondige mense uitgetrap is? 16Hulle is weggeruk vóór hulle tyd: die dinge waarop hulle gebou het, is deur 'n stroom meegesleur. 17Hulle het vir God gesê: Laat staan ons. Wat kan die Almagtige aan ons doen?' 18En dit terwyl dit Hý is wat hulle huise met rykdom vul! Daarom bly ek weg van die raad wat van goddeloses af kom. 19Dié wat reg doen, sien die ondergang van die goddeloses en is bly, die onskuldiges spot met hulle: 20Ons vyande is daarmee heen, vuur het hulle besittings verteer. 21Onderwerp jou aan God, dan sal jy in vrede leef, en so sal jy voorspoed hê. 22Laat Hy jou leer en neem sy woorde ter harte. 23As jy terugkom na die Almagtige toe, sal jy herstel word. As jy die kwaad ver van jou woonplek af hou, 24jou goud as nikswerd beskou, die goud uit Ofir as so min werd as 'n klip in die spruit, 25sal die Almagtige jou goud wees, jou skat aan silwer. 26Dan sal jy jou in die Almagtige verlustig en jou weer tot God wend. 27Jy sal tot Hom bid, en Hy sal jou gebed verhoor, die beloftes wat jy gemaak het, sal jy nakom. 28Wat jy besluit, sal uitgevoer word, dit sal voorspoedig gaan met jou. 29Wanneer mense val en jy vra dat hulle opgetel word, sal God hulle, die ootmoediges, red. 30Hy sal die skuldiges laat vrykom, en hulle sal vrykom deur jou onskuld.

Job 23

Job Replies: Where Is God?

Job 23:1 (1-2) I still rebel and complain against God; I cannot keep from groaning.

Job 23:3 How I wish I knew where to find him, and knew how to go where he is.

Job 23:4 I would state my case before him and present all the arguments in my favor.

Job 23:5 I want to know what he would say and how he would answer me.

Job 23:6 Would God use all his strength against me? No, he would listen as I spoke.

Job 23:7 I am honest; I could reason with God; he would declare me innocent once and for all.

Job 23:8 I have searched in the East, but God is not there; I have not found him when I searched in the West.

Job 23:9 God has been at work in the North and the South, but still I have not seen him.

Job 23:10 Yet God knows every step I take; if he tests me, he will find me pure.

Job 23:11 I follow faithfully the road he chooses, and never wander to either side.

Job 23:12 I always do what God commands; I follow his will, not my own desires.

Job 23:13 He never changes. No one can oppose him or stop him from doing what he wants to do.

Job 23:14 He will fulfill what he has planned for me; that plan is just one of the many he has;

Job 23:15 I tremble with fear before him.

Job 23:16 (16-17) Almighty God has destroyed my courage. It is God, not the dark, that makes me afraid—even though the darkness has made me blind.

JOB 23

1Toe het Job weer gepraat: 2Ek kla nog steeds uit opstandigheid, ek kan nie ophou kla nie. 3As ek maar geweet het waar om God te vind, sou ek na sy woonplek toe gaan 4en my saak voor Hom lê, my pleidooie aan Hom stel. 5Ek sou van Hom antwoord probeer kry, probeer verstaan wat Hy vir my wil sê. 6Hy sal tog nie met sy groot krag teen my 'n saak voer nie; Hy sal my dit nie aandoen nie, 7want dit sou 'n opregte mens wees wat daar voor Hom pleit en ek sou vir altyd deur my Regter vrygespreek word. 8Maar gaan ek na die ooste toe, Hy is nie daar nie, na die weste, ek kry Hom nie. 9Sou Hy in die noorde aan die werk wees, ek vind Hom nie daar nie, sou Hy na die suide toe draai, ek sien Hom nie. 10Hy ken my pad; as Hy my toets, is ek suiwer soos goud. 11Ek volg Hom waar Hy gaan, ek hou op sy pad en draai nie af nie. 12Sy bevel verontagsaam ek nie, ek heg meer waarde aan sy woorde as aan my eie begeertes. 13Hy bly dieselfde, wie kan Hom teenstaan? Wat Hy wil, doen Hy. 14Wat Hy oor my besluit het, sal Hy doen, wat sy planne met my ook al is. 15Daarom staan ek vreesbevange voor Hom, ek probeer verstaan, maar ek bly Hom vrees. 16God het my weerstand afgebreek, die Almagtige het my met angs vervul. 17Maar in hierdie donkerte het ek nie stilgebly nie, in hierdie duisternis wat my oorval het.

Job 24

Job 24:1 Why doesn't God set a time for judging, a day of justice for those who serve him?

Job 24:2 People move property lines to get more land; they steal sheep and put them with their own flocks.

Job 24:3 They take donkeys that belong to orphans, and keep a widow's ox till she pays her debts.

Job 24:4 They prevent the poor from getting their rights and force the needy to run and hide.

Job 24:5 So the poor, like wild donkeys, search for food in the dry wilderness; nowhere else can they find food for their children.

Job 24:6 They have to harvest fields they don't own, and gather grapes in vineyards of the wicked.

Job 24:7 At night they sleep with nothing to cover them, nothing to keep them from the cold.

Job 24:8 They are drenched by the rain that falls on the mountains, and they huddle beside the rocks for shelter.

Job 24:9 Evil people make slaves of fatherless infants and take the children of the poor in payment for debts.

Job 24:10 But the poor must go out with no clothes to protect them; they must go hungry while harvesting wheat.

Job 24:11 They press olives for oil, and grapes for wine, but they themselves are thirsty.

Job 24:12 In the cities the wounded and dying cry out, but God ignores their prayers.

Job 24:13 There are those who reject the light; they don't understand it or go where it leads.

Job 24:14 At dawn the murderer gets up and goes out to kill the poor, and at night he steals.

Job 24:15 The adulterer waits for twilight to come; he covers his face so that no one can see him.

Job 24:16 At night thieves break into houses, but by day they hide and avoid the light.

Job 24:17 They fear the light of day, but darkness holds no terror for them.

Job 24:18 The wicked are swept away by floods, and the land they own is under God's curse; they no longer go to work in their vineyards.

Job 24:19 As snow vanishes in heat and drought, so sinners vanish from the land of the living.

Job 24:20 Not even their mothers remember them now; they are eaten by worms and destroyed like fallen trees.

Job 24:21 That happens because they mistreated widows and showed no kindness to childless women.

Job 24:22 God, in his strength, destroys the mighty; God acts—and the wicked die.

Job 24:23 God may let them live secure, but keeps an eye on them all the time.

Job 24:24 For a while the wicked prosper, but then they wither like weeds, like stalks of grain that have been cut down.

Job 24:25 Can anyone deny that this is so? Can anyone prove that my words are not true?

JOB 24

1Waarom stel die Almagtige nie tye vas vir afrekening nie? Waarom moet dié wat Hom ken, tevergeefs uitsien na sulke dae? 2Mense verskuif grenslyne, hulle steel troppe vee en laat hulle by hulle eie vee wei, 3hulle vat die weeskind se donkie en lê beslag op die bees van die weduwee, 4hulle druk die armes van die pad af; die behoeftiges van die land moet wegkruip. 5Soos wildedonkies moet die armes in die woestyn gaan kos soek, die dorre wêreld moet vir hulle kinders kos voorsien. 6Hulle oes veevoer op die land om dit self te eet, hulle soek oorskiettrossies in die wingerde van die goddeloses. 7Hulle moet die nag kaal deurbring, sonder klere, hulle het geen beskutting teen die koue nie. 8Hulle is deurnat van die reëns in die berge, daar is geen skuiling nie, hulle hurk agter die rotse. 9Die weeskind word weggeruk van die bors waaraan hy drink, die armes word vir skuld verpand. 10Hulle loop kaal rond, sonder klere, hulle dra gerwe uit, maar ly honger, 11hulle trek die olyfpers, hulle trap die parskuipe, maar bly dors. 12In die stad kerm die sterwendes, dié wat aangerand is, roep om hulp, maar God slaan nie ag op die onreg nie. 13Daar is mense wat nie die daglig verdra nie, wat niks te doen wil hê met wat in die dag gebeur nie, wat nie van die dag se paaie hou nie: 14die moordenaar staan op net voor ligdag, hy vermoor die weerlose en die arme, in die nag steel hy; 15die egbreker wag vir die donker, hy dink geen oog sal hom sien nie, hy vermom homself; 16die dief breek by huise in as dit donker is, bedags kruip hy weg, hy wil niks met die lig te doen hê nie. 17Vir elkeen van hulle is die donker soos die oggend, hulle is tuis by die verskrikkings van die donker. 18Maar hulle spoel vinnig weg op die water; wat hulle besit, staan onder 'n vloek, niemand werk meer in hulle wingerde nie. 19Soos droogte en hitte sneeu wegsmelt, so maak die graf 'n einde aan die sondaar. 20Sy eie ma vergeet hom, hy is kos vir die wurms, daar word nie meer aan hom gedink nie. Wie onreg doen, word soos 'n stuk hout gebreek. 21Hy het die kinderlose vrou geplunder en nooit goed gedoen aan 'n weduwee nie. 22Maar God onderwerp die sterkes deur sy mag; as Hy optree, het hulle geen sekerheid meer in die lewe nie. 23Hy gee miskien vir hulle 'n gevoel van sekerheid waarop hulle kan steun, maar Hy hou dop wat hulle doen. 24Net 'n kort tydjie is hulle belangrik, dan is daar niks van hulle oor nie, hulle stort inmekaar en sterf soos almal, hulle word soos koringare afgesny. 25Is dit nie so nie? Wie kan my tot leuenaar maak? Wie kan my woorde weerlê?

Job 25

Bildad Speaks: Man Cannot Be Righteous

Job 25:1 (1-2) God is powerful; all must stand in awe of him; he keeps his heavenly kingdom in peace.

Job 25:3 Can anyone count the angels who serve him? Is there any place where God's light does not shine?

Job 25:4 Can anyone be righteous or pure in God's sight?

Job 25:5 In his eyes even the moon is not bright, or the stars pure.

Job 25:6 Then what about a human being, that worm, that insect? What is a human life worth in God's eyes?

JOB 25

1Toe sê Bildad die Suagiet vir Job: 2Die heerskappy en die vrees kom God toe. Uit sy hoë hemel gee Hy vrede. 3Kan die magte waaroor Hy beskik, bereken word? Oor wie skyn sy lig nie? 4Hoe kan 'n mens reg hê voor God? Hoe kan iemand wat uit 'n vrou gebore is, onskuldig wees? 5As vir God selfs die maan nie helder is nie en die sterre nie blink genoeg nie, 6hoeveel te minder 'n mens, 'n blote wurm, 'n mensekind, wat maar net 'n ruspe is?

Job 26

Job Replies: God's Majesty Is Unsearchable

Job 26:1 (1-2) What a big help you are to me—poor, weak man that I am!

Job 26:3 You give such good advice and share your knowledge with a fool like me!

Job 26:4 Who do you think will hear all your words? Who inspired you to speak like this?

Job 26:5 The spirits of the dead tremble in the waters under the earth.

Job 26:6 The world of the dead lies open to God; no covering shields it from his sight.

Job 26:7 God stretched out the northern sky and hung the earth in empty space.

Job 26:8 It is God who fills the clouds with water and keeps them from bursting with the weight.

Job 26:9 He hides the full moon behind a cloud.

Job 26:10 He divided light from darkness by a circle drawn on the face of the sea.

Job 26:11 When he threatens the pillars that hold up the sky, they shake and tremble with fear.

Job 26:12 It is his strength that conquered the sea; by his skill he destroyed the monster Rahab.

Job 26:13 It is his breath that made the sky clear, and his hand that killed the escaping monster.

Job 26:14 But these are only hints of his power, only the whispers that we have heard. Who can know how truly great God is?

JOB 26

1Toe het Job weer gepraat: 2Het jy nou dié een gehelp wat nie krag het nie? Het jy nou dié een bygestaan wat nie sterk is nie? 3Het jy nou raad gegee aan een wat nie wysheid het nie? Het jy groot insig laat blyk? 4Met wie se hulp het jy gepraat? By wie het jy gehoor wat jy gesê het? 5Dié wat reeds dood is, bewe, die doderyk en al sy bewoners. 6Die plek van die dood lê oop voor God, niks bedek die doderyk vir Hom nie. 7God sprei die hemel uit oor die leë ruimte, Hy laat die aarde hang waar niks is nie. 8Hy versamel die water in die wolke, en hulle skeur nie onder die las nie. 9Hy bedek sy troon, Hy sprei wolke daaroor uit. 10Hy plaas die horison op die see, 'n grens tussen lig en donker. 11Die pilare van die hemel skud, hulle sidder vir sy dreigende woede. 12Deur sy krag bring Hy die see tot rus, deur sy insig verpletter Hy vir Rahab! 13Met die wind waai Hy die lug skoon, met sy krag deurboor Hy die seemonster. 14Dit is maar die begin van sy dade, ons hoor net die gefluister van sy woorde. Maar die volle krag van sy dade, wie kan dit verstaan?

Job 27

Job Continues: I Will Maintain My Integrity

Job 27:1 (1-2) I swear by the living Almighty God, who refuses me justice and makes my life bitter—

Job 27:3 as long as God gives me breath,

Job 27:4 my lips will never say anything evil, my tongue will never tell a lie.

Job 27:5 I will never say that you men are right; I will insist on my innocence to my dying day.

Job 27:6 I will never give up my claim to be right; my conscience is clear.

Job 27:7 May all who oppose me and fight against me be punished like the wicked and the unrighteous.

Job 27:8 What hope is there for the godless in the hour when God demands their life?

Job 27:9 When trouble comes, will God hear their cries?

Job 27:10 They should have desired the joy he gives; they should have constantly prayed to him.

Job 27:11 Let me teach you how great is God's power, and explain what Almighty God has planned.

Job 27:12 But no, after all, you have seen for yourselves; so why do you talk such nonsense?

Job 27:13 This is how Almighty God punishes wicked, violent people.

Job 27:14 They may have many sons, but all will be killed in war; their children never have enough to eat.

Job 27:15 Those who survive will die from disease, and even their widows will not mourn their death.

Job 27:16 The wicked may have too much silver to count and more clothes than anyone needs;

Job 27:17 but some good person will wear the clothes, and someone honest will get the silver.

Job 27:18 The wicked build houses like a spider's web or like the hut of a slave guarding the fields.

Job 27:19 One last time they will lie down rich, and when they wake up, they will find their wealth gone.

Job 27:20 Terror will strike like a sudden flood; a wind in the night will blow them away;

Job 27:21 the east wind will sweep them from their homes;

Job 27:22 it will blow down on them without pity while they try their best to escape.

Job 27:23 The wind howls at them as they run, frightening them with destructive power.

JOB 27

1Job het voortgegaan en gesê: 2So seker as God leef, Hy wat my reg van my af weggeneem het, die Almagtige wat my die bitter lyding aangedoen het: 3so lank as daar lewe in my is, so lank as die asem van God in my is, 4sal ek niks sê wat verkeerd is nie en sal daar geen onwaarheid uit my mond kom nie. 5Daarom kan ek nooit toegee dat julle reg het nie: tot my dood toe sal ek volhou dat ek onskuldig is. 6Ek bly daarby dat ek reg het, ek sal daarvan nie afsien en my my lewe lank daaroor verwyt nie. 7Mag dit met my vyande gaan soos met die goddeloses, met my teëstanders soos met dié wat onreg doen. 8Watter hoop het die godlose as sy lewe afgesny word, as God sy lewe opeis? 9Sal God sy hulpgeroep hoor as rampe hom oorval? 10Vind hy vreugde in die Almagtige? Roep hy God altyd weer aan? 11Ek wil julle iets leer oor die mag van God; wat by die Almagtige is, sal ek nie verberg nie. 12Julle het dit tog almal al gesien, waarom dan die sinlose gepraat? 13Dit is die lot wat God uitmeet vir die goddeloses, dit is wat die geweldenaars ontvang van die Almagtige. 14Hoe baie hulle kinders ook al is, hulle is vir die swaard bestem, hulle nakomelinge sal altyd honger ly. 15Dié wat van hulle oorbly, sal deur die pes verteer word, en hulle weduwees sal nie oor hulle treur nie. 16Al hoop hulle hulle geld op soos stof, en al is hulle klere so volop soos klei, 17wat hulle bymekaargemaak het, sal deur die regverdiges gedra word, en onskuldiges sal die goddeloses se geld onder mekaar verdeel. 18Die goddelose se huis is tydelik, soos 'n kokon vir 'n mot, soos 'n skerm wat deur 'n wagter gebou is. 19Die goddelose gaan slaap as ryk man, maar hy doen dit nie weer nie: as hy sy oë oopmaak, is alles weg. 20Die angs oorval hom soos 'n vloed, 'n orkaan voer hom weg in die nag. 21Die oostewind lig hom op, en weg is hy, dit waai hom weg uit sy plek. 22Dit storm op hom af sonder genade, hy moet vlug vir die geweld van die wind. 23Die wind klap sy hande van blydskap terwyl hy die goddelose uit sy plek wegblaas.

Job 28

Job Continues: Where Is Wisdom?

Job 28:1 There are mines where silver is dug; There are places where gold is refined.

Job 28:2 We dig iron out of the ground And melt copper out of the stones.

Job 28:3 Miners explore the deepest darkness. They search the depths of the earth And dig for rocks in the darkness.

Job 28:4 Far from where anyone lives Or human feet ever travel, They dig the shafts of mines. There they work in loneliness, Clinging to ropes in the pits.

Job 28:5 Food grows out of the earth, But underneath the same earth All is torn up and crushed.

Job 28:6 The stones of the earth contain sapphires, And its dust contains gold.

Job 28:7 No hawk sees the roads to the mines, And no vulture ever flies over them.

Job 28:8 No lion or other fierce beast Ever travels those lonely roads.

Job 28:9 Miners dig the hardest rocks, Dig mountains away at their base.

Job 28:10 As they tunnel through the rocks, They discover precious stones.

Job 28:11 They dig to the sources of rivers And bring to light what is hidden.

Job 28:12 But where can wisdom be found? Where can we learn to understand?

Job 28:13 Wisdom is not to be found among mortals; No one knows its true value.

Job 28:14 The depths of the oceans and seas Say that wisdom is not found there.

Job 28:15 It cannot be bought with silver or gold.

Job 28:16 The finest gold and jewels Cannot equal its value.

Job 28:17 It is worth more than gold, Than a gold vase or finest glass.

Job 28:18 The value of wisdom is more Than coral or crystal or rubies.

Job 28:19 The finest topaz and the purest gold Cannot compare with the value of wisdom.

Job 28:20 Where, then, is the source of wisdom? Where can we learn to understand?

Job 28:21 No living creature can see it, Not even a bird in flight.

Job 28:22 Even death and destruction Admit they have heard only rumors.

Job 28:23 God alone knows the way, Knows the place where wisdom is found, Job 28:24 Because he sees the ends of the earth, Sees everything under the sky.

Job 28:25 When God gave the wind its power And determined the size of the sea;

Job 28:26 When God decided where the rain would fall, And the path that the thunderclouds travel;

Job 28:27 It was then he saw wisdom and tested its worth—He gave it his approval.

Job 28:28 God said to us humans, "To be wise, you must have reverence for the Lord. To understand, you must turn from evil."

JOB 28

1Daar is 'n plek waar silwer uitgehaal word, 'n plek waar goud gesmelt word. 2Yster word uit die grond gehaal en koper word uit erts gesmelt. 3Die mens maak 'n einde aan die donker, hy soek erts in die diepste plekke, in die donkerste hoeke. 4Hy grawe 'n skag waar niemand woon nie, op plekke waar niemand kom nie, ver van mense af hang hy en swaai hy. 5Die aarde waaruit die voedsel kom, word daar onder oopgebreek met vuur. 6Uit die klip van die aarde kom saffier, ook korreltjies goud. 7Geen roofvoël ken daardie pad nie, die oog van 'n valk kan dit nie sien nie, 8roofdiere loop nie daar nie, die leeu gaan nie daarlangs nie. 9Die mens bewerk die harde rots met sy hande, hy keer die dieptes van die berge om, 10hy grawe gange deur die rots, sy oog sien al die skatte, 11hy stop waterare toe en bring verborge dinge aan die lig. 12Maar die wysheid, waar word dié gevind, waar is die woonplek van die insig? 13Die mens ken nie die waarde daarvan nie, en dit word nie in die land van die lewendes gevind nie. 14Die diep waters sê: Dit is nie in my nie,' die see sê: By my is dit nie!' 15Goud kan dit nie koop nie, sy waarde kan nie in silwer afgeweeg word nie. 16Daarvoor kan nie betaal word met die goud van Ofir of met kosbare oniks en saffier nie; 17goud en glas kom nie daarby in waarde nie, vir voorwerpe van fyn goud kan 'n mens dit nie ruil nie. 18Koraal en kristal word nie eers gereken nie, wysheid is baie meer werd as pêrels. 19Topaas uit Kus kom nie daarby in waarde nie, selfs met suiwer goud kan jy nie daarvoor betaal nie. 20Die wysheid, waar kom dit vandaan? Waar is die woonplek van die insig? 21Dit is verborge vir al wat lewe, weggesteek selfs vir die voëls in die lug. 22Die onderwêreld en die dood sê: Ons het maar net 'n gerug daaroor gehoor.' 23Net God weet hoe die pad daarheen loop, net Hy ken die woonplek van die wysheid, 24want Hy sien die verste eindes van die aarde, Hy aanskou alles onder die hemel. 25Toe Hy die krag van die wind bepaal het en die waters uitgemeet het, 26toe Hy vir die reën reëls gemaak het en 'n pad vir die weerlig aangewys het, 27toe het Hy die wysheid gesien en daarvan vertel, toe het Hy dit vasgestel en deurvors. 28En Hy het vir die mens gesê: Om die Here te dien, dit is wysheid, om die kwaad te vermy, dit is insig.

Job 29

Job's Summary Defense

Job 29:1 Job began speaking again.

Job 29:2 If only my life could once again be as it was when God watched over me.

Job 29:3 God was always with me then and gave me light as I walked through the darkness.

Job 29:4 Those were the days when I was prosperous, and the friendship of God protected my home.

Job 29:5 Almighty God was with me then, and I was surrounded by all my children.

Job 29:6 My cows and goats gave plenty of milk, and my olive trees grew in the rockiest soil.

Job 29:7 Whenever the city elders met and I took my place among them,

Job 29:8 young men stepped aside as soon as they saw me, and old men stood up to show me respect.

Job 29:9 The leaders of the people would stop talking;

Job 29:10 even the most important men kept silent.

Job 29:11 Everyone who saw me or heard of me had good things to say about what I had done.

Job 29:12 When the poor cried out, I helped them; I gave help to orphans who had nowhere to turn.

Job 29:13 People who were in deepest misery praised me, and I helped widows find security.

Job 29:14 I have always acted justly and fairly.

Job 29:15 I was eyes for the blind, and feet for the lame.

Job 29:16 I was like a father to the poor and took the side of strangers in trouble.

Job 29:17 I destroyed the power of cruel men and rescued their victims.

Job 29:18 I always expected to live a long life and to die at home in comfort.

Job 29:19 I was like a tree whose roots always have water and whose branches are wet with dew.

Job 29:20 Everyone was always praising me, and my strength never failed me.

Job 29:21 When I gave advice, people were silent and listened carefully to what I said;

Job 29:22 they had nothing to add when I had finished. My words sank in like drops of rain;

Job 29:23 everyone welcomed them just as farmers welcome rain in spring.

Job 29:24 I smiled on them when they had lost confidence; my cheerful face encouraged them.

Job 29:25 I took charge and made the decisions; I led them as a king leads his troops, and gave them comfort in their despair.

JOB 29

1Daarna het Job voortgegaan om sy saak te stel: 2Kon dit maar weer met my gaan soos lank gelede, soos in die dae toe God nog sy hand oor my gehou het, 3toe sy lig beskermend oor my geskyn het en my pad in die donker verlig het. 4Dit was die beste jare van my lewe toe ek nog 'n vertroueling van God was. 5Toe was die Almagtige by my en my kinders rondom my. 6Ek het oral voorspoed geniet: volop dikmelk en strome olyfolie. 7Wanneer ek na die stadspoort toe gegaan het, my plek op die stadsplein gaan inneem het, 8het die jongmanne opsy gestaan as hulle my sien, het die ou manne eerbiedig opgestaan. 9Die leiers het stilgebly, hulle het nie gepraat nie. 10Die vernames het nie 'n woord gesê nie, hulle het uit eerbied geswyg. 11Dié wat van my gehoor het, het goed van my gepraat, dié wat my gesien het, het my geprys 12omdat ek die armes gered het wat om hulp roep, die weeskind en dié wat geen helper het nie. 13Die man wat met ondergang bedreig was, het my vir sy redding gedank, en ek het die hart van die weduwee bly gemaak. 14Ek het reg en geregtigheid laat geskied; vir my was dit vanselfsprekend, so vanselfsprekend as om klere aan te trek. 15Ek was oë vir die blindes en voete vir die kreupeles, 16ek was 'n vader vir die armes, ek het selfs onbekendes se regsaak behartig. 17Ek het die mag van dié wat onreg doen, gebreek, ek het die prooi uit hulle tande weggeruk. 18Daarom het ek gedink: ek sal eendag sonder sorge sterf in my eie huis, my lewensdae sal meer wees as wat daar sand is, 19ek sal wees soos 'n boom met sy wortels by die water en elke môre dou op sy takke, 20ek sal altyd nuwe krag hê, ek sal my man kan staan. 21Mense het vol verwagting na my geluister, hulle het in spanning gewag op my raad. 22Nadat ek gepraat het, het hulle niks gesê nie, hulle het my woorde ingedrink, 23hulle het daarop gewag soos op 'n reënbui, hulle het daarna gesmag soos na die laat reëns. 24Ek was vriendelik met hulle toe hulle geen hoop meer gehad het nie, my goedgesindheid het verhoed dat hulle ondergaan. 25Ek het hulle die koers gewys, ek was hulle leier, ek was tussen hulle soos 'n koning tussen sy soldate, soos een wat treurendes troos.

Job 30

Job 30:1 But men younger than I am make fun of me now! Their fathers have always been so worthless that I wouldn't let them help my dogs guard sheep.

Job 30:2 They were a bunch of worn-out men, too weak to do any work for me.

Job 30:3 They were so poor and hungry that they would gnaw dry roots—at night, in wild, desolate places.

Job 30:4 They pulled up the plants of the desert and ate them, even the tasteless roots of the broom tree!

Job 30:5 Everyone drove them away with shouts, as if they were shouting at thieves.

Job 30:6 They had to live in caves, in holes dug in the sides of cliffs.

Job 30:7 Out in the wilds they howled like animals and huddled together under the bushes.

Job 30:8 A worthless bunch of nameless nobodies! They were driven out of the land.

Job 30:9 Now they come and laugh at me; I am nothing but a joke to them.

Job 30:10 They treat me with disgust; they think they are too good for me, and even come and spit in my face.

Job 30:11 Because God has made me weak and helpless, they turn against me with all their fury.

Job 30:12 This mob attacks me head-on; they send me running; they prepare their final assault.

Job 30:13 They cut off my escape and try to destroy me; and there is no one to stop them.

Job 30:14 They pour through the holes in my defenses and come crashing down on top of me;

Job 30:15 I am overcome with terror; my dignity is gone like a puff of wind, and my prosperity like a cloud.

Job 30:16 Now I am about to die; there is no relief for my suffering.

Job 30:17 At night my bones all ache; the pain that gnaws me never stops.

Job 30:18 God seizes me by my collar and twists my clothes out of shape.

Job 30:19 He throws me down in the mud; I am no better than dirt.

Job 30:20 I call to you, O God, but you never answer; and when I pray, you pay no attention.

Job 30:21 You are treating me cruelly; you persecute me with all your power.

Job 30:22 You let the wind blow me away; you toss me about in a raging storm.

Job 30:23 I know you are taking me off to my death, to the fate in store for everyone.

Job 30:24 Why do you attack a ruined man, one who can do nothing but beg for pity?

Job 30:25 Didn't I weep with people in trouble and feel sorry for those in need?

Job 30:26 I hoped for happiness and light, but trouble and darkness came instead.

Job 30:27 I am torn apart by worry and pain; I have had day after day of suffering.

Job 30:28 I go about in gloom, without any sunshine; I stand up in public and plead for help.

Job 30:29 My voice is as sad and lonely as the cries of a jackal or an ostrich.

Job 30:30 My skin has turned dark; I am burning with fever.

Job 30:31 Where once I heard joyful music, now I hear only mourning and weeping.

JOB 30

1Maar nou lag hulle vir my, mense wat jonger is as ek, mense wie se vaders ek nie werd geag het om saam met die honde my kleinvee op te pas nie. 2Buitendien, wat sou hulle vir my kon beteken? Hulle is tot niks in staat nie: 3hulle is uitgeteer deur gebrek en honger, hulle kou snags aan droë stokke in die dorre woestyn; 4hulle pluk aan brakbossies en struike, die wortels van die besembos is vir hulle kos; 5hulle is uitgestoot uit die gemeenskap, daar word op hulle geskel soos op diewe; 6hulle woon in die beddings van spruite, in gate in die grond en tussen die rotse; 7hulle balk soos wildedonkies tussen die struike, hulle soek skuiling in die bossies; 8hulle is mense sonder verstand, sonder eer, uitgedryf uit die land. 9En nou sing hulle liedjies oor my en word ek deur hulle bespot. 10Hulle verafsku my en wil niks met my te doen hê nie, dit is vir hulle niks om my in die gesig te spoeg nie. 11God het my weerloos gemaak, hulpeloos; mense behandel my nie meer met eerbied nie. 12Die gespuis val my goedsmoeds aan, hulle stamp my onderstebo, hulle bewerk my ondergang, 13hulle breek my lewenspad op, hulle kry dit reg om my te vernietig sonder dat iemand hulle help. 14Soos deur 'n wye bres kom hulle aan, kom hulle tussen die puinhope deur aangestorm, 15en ek word deur angs oorval; my aansien het soos wind weggewaai, my hoop op uitkoms het soos 'n wolk verdwyn. 16Nou is daar geen hoop meer vir my nie, ondergang staar my elke dag in die gesig. 17Elke nag skiet pyne deur my liggaam, knaagpyne wat nie end kry nie. 18Deur die groot geweld van God hang my klere vormloos aan my, word ek gewurg soos deur 'n boordjie om my nek. 19Hy gooi my in die modder asof ek stof en as is. 20Ek roep na U om hulp, maar U antwoord my nie. Hier staan ek, maar U steur U nie aan my nie. 21U draai U teen my met u geweld, U val my aan met mag. 22U tel my op en laat die wind my wegwaai, U ruk my heen en weer in u stormwind. 23Ek weet dat U my bestem vir die dood, die plek waar alle mense saamkom. 24Sal ek hier van my puinhoop af dan nie my hand uitsteek om hulp nie? Sal ek in my ondergang nie om hulp roep nie? 25Het ek nie trane gestort vir dié wat swaarkry nie, het ek nie meegevoel betoon met die armes nie? 26Ek het toe die goeie verwag, maar rampe het my getref, ek het uitgesien na lig, maar donker het my oorval. 27Dit kook in my, ek kom nie tot rus nie, dae vol swaarkry bly my inwag. 28Ek het swart geword, maar nie van sonbrand nie. So staan ek hier tussen julle en roep om hulp. 29Al broers wat ek het, is die jakkalse; al vriende wat ek het, volstruise. 30Oor my hele lyf het my vel swart geword, ek gloei van die koors. 31Al wat vir my oorbly, is 'n treurlied op die lier, 'n lied van trane op die fluit.

Job 31

Job's Final Appeal

Job 31:1 I have made a solemn promise never to look with lust at a woman.

Job 31:2 What does Almighty God do to us? How does he repay human deeds?

Job 31:3 He sends disaster and ruin to those who do wrong.

Job 31:4 God knows everything I do; he sees every step I take.

Job 31:5 I swear I have never acted wickedly and never tried to deceive others.

Job 31:6 Let God weigh me on honest scales, and he will see how innocent I am.

Job 31:7 If I have turned from the right path or let myself be attracted to evil, if my hands are stained with sin,

Job 31:8 then let my crops be destroyed, or let others eat the food I grow.

Job 31:9 If I have been attracted to my neighbor's wife, and waited, hidden, outside her door,

Job 31:10 then let my wife cook another man's food and sleep in another man's bed.

Job 31:11 Such wickedness should be punished by death.

Job 31:12 It would be like a destructive, hellish fire, consuming everything I have.

Job 31:13 When any of my servants complained against me, I would listen and treat them fairly.

Job 31:14 If I did not, how could I then face God? What could I say when God came to judge me?

Job 31:15 The same God who created me created my servants also.

Job 31:16 I have never refused to help the poor; never have I let widows live in despair

Job 31:17 or let orphans go hungry while I ate.

Job 31:18 All my life I have taken care of them.

Job 31:19 When I found someone in need, too poor to buy clothes,

Job 31:20 I would give him clothing made of wool that had come from my own flock of sheep. Then he would praise me with all his heart.

Job 31:21 If I have ever cheated an orphan, knowing I could win in court,

Job 31:22 then may my arms be broken; may they be torn from my shoulders.

Job 31:23 Because I fear God's punishment, I could never do such a thing.

Job 31:24 I have never trusted in riches

Job 31:25 or taken pride in my wealth.

Job 31:26 I have never worshiped the sun in its brightness or the moon in all its beauty.

Job 31:27 I have not been led astray to honor them by kissing my hand in reverence to them.

Job 31:28 Such a sin should be punished by death; it denies Almighty God.

Job 31:29 I have never been glad when my enemies suffered, or pleased when they met with disaster;

Job 31:30 I never sinned by praying for their death.

Job 31:31 All those who work for me know that I have always welcomed strangers.

Job 31:32 I invited travelers into my home and never let them sleep in the streets.

Job 31:33 Others try to hide their sins, but I have never concealed mine.

Job 31:34 I have never feared what people would say; I have never kept quiet or stayed indoors because I feared their scorn.

Job 31:35 Will no one listen to what I am saying? I swear that every word is true. Let Almighty God answer me. If the charges my opponent brings against me were written down so that I could see them, Job 31:36 I would wear them proudly on my shoulder and place them on my head like a crown.

Job 31:37 I would tell God everything I have done, and hold my head high in his presence.

Job 31:38 If I have stolen the land I farm and taken it from its rightful owners—

Job 31:39 if I have eaten the food that grew there but let the farmers that grew it starve—

Job 31:40 then instead of wheat and barley, may weeds and thistles grow. The words of Job are ended.

JOB 31

1Ek het my plegtig verbind om nie na 'n meisie te kyk en haar te begeer nie. 2Wat kom 'n mens toe van God in die hemel, wat gee die Almagtige daar van bo af? 3Vernietiging tref immers die bóósdoener, 'n ongeluk dié wat onreg doen. 4God hou my paaie dop en tel elke tree wat ek gee. 5As ek my sou opgehou het met valsheid, agter bedrog sou aangehardloop het, 6laat God my dan weeg op 'n betroubare skaal dat Hy kan weet dat ek onskuldig is. 7As ek die spoor byster geraak het, my deur my begeerte laat lei het en my hande besoedel het, 8laat ander mense eet wat ek gesaai het, of laat my gesaaides uitgeruk word. 9As ek my deur 'n ander se vrou laat verlei het en gretig geloer het na my buurman se deur, 10laat mý vrou dan vir 'n ander man koring maal, laat ander by haar slaap. 11As ek so iets gedoen het, sou dit 'n skande gewees het, 'n misdaad vir regters om te straf. 12Dit sou 'n vuur gewees het wat alles vernietig en al my besittings verteer. 13As ek nie reg gedoen het aan my slawe en slavinne toe hulle 'n grief teen my gehad het nie, 14wat sou ek kon doen as God van my rekenskap eis, hoe sou ek my kon verweer as Hy my tot verantwoording roep? 15Het Hy wat my in die moederskoot gemaak het, hulle nie ook gemaak nie? Het Hy ons nie almal gevorm nie? 16Het ek armes geweier wat hulle gevra het en weduwees van honger laat vergaan? 17Het ek my stukkie kos alleen geëet en die weeskind nie ook daarvan laat eet nie? 18Inteendeel, van my jeug af was ek vir die weeskind 'n pa, van my kindsdae af het ek vir die weduwee gesorg. 19Het ek 'n arme sonder klere sien rondswerwe en hom nie iets gegee om aan te trek nie? 20Het hulle my nie juis geprys omdat my skape se wol hulle warm gehou het nie? 21Het ek my hand teen 'n weeskind opgelig omdat ek kon reken op die partydigheid van die regters? 22As ek aan iets hiervan skuldig is, mag my bo-arm afgeskeur word van my skouer af, mag my arm afgebreek word. 23Maar vir die ramp wat God nou gestuur het, is ek bang, teen sy majesteit kan ek niks doen nie. 24Het ek op goud my vertroue geplaas, het ek gedink fyn goud sal my sekerheid gee? 25Het ek al my vreugde gevind in my groot rykdom, in die besittings wat ek bymekaargemaak het? 26Het ek die son sien skyn, die maan in sy prag sien beweeg, 27en my laat verlei om hulle te vereer met 'n soen op my hand? 28Dit sou 'n sonde wees wat gestraf moes word, want dan sou ek God daarbo verloën het. 29Het ek my verheug oor die ongeluk van my vyand, was ek bly as 'n ramp hom tref? 30Nee, ek het nie met 'n enkele woord gesondig en hom dood gewens nie. 31Het die mense in my diens ooit gesê: By Job het ons nie genoeg gekry om te eet nie'? 32Selfs 'n vreemde het nooit by my buite geslaap nie, vir 'n reisiger het my deure altyd oopgestaan. [33]Het ek soos ander my oortredinge weggesteek en my sonde vir myself gehou [34]omdat ek vir die mense bang was en die minagting van die familie gevrees het? Het ek stilgebly en dit nie buite gewaag nie? [35]Is daar dan niemand wat na my luister nie! My saak het ek gestel: nou moet die Almagtige my antwoord. As iemand wat 'n klag teen my het, dit op skrif sou stel, [36]sou ek dit sonder meer bekend maak, dit sal nie vir my 'n skande wees nie. [37]Ek kan rekenskap gee van elke tree wat ek gegee het, ek kan my teëstander met vrymoedigheid tegemoet gaan. [38]As die grond wat ek bewerk, 'n klag teen my het en sy ploegvore saam sou protesteer, [39]as ek sy opbrengs verteer het sonder vergoeding aan sy eienaars en hulle van honger laat vergaan het, [40]mag daar dan dorings groei in plaas van koring, onkruid in plaas van gars. Dit is die einde van Job se woorde.

Job 32

Elihu Rebukes Job's Three Friends

Job 32:1 Because Job was convinced of his own innocence, the three men gave up trying to answer him.

Job 32:2 But a bystander named Elihu could not control his anger any longer, because Job was justifying himself and blaming God. (Elihu was the son of Barakel, a descendant of Buz, and belonged to the clan of Ram.)

Job 32:3 He was also angry with Job's three friends. They could not find any way to answer Job, and this made it appear that God was in the wrong.

Job 32:4 Because Elihu was the youngest one there, he had waited until everyone finished speaking.

Job 32:5 When he saw that the three men could not answer Job, he was angry

Job 32:6 and began to speak. I am young, and you are old, so I was afraid to tell you what I think.

Job 32:7 I told myself that you ought to speak, that you older men should share your wisdom.

Job 32:8 But it is the spirit of Almighty God that comes to us and gives us wisdom.

Job 32:9 It is not growing old that makes us wise or helps us to know what is right.

Job 32:10 So now I want you to listen to me; let me tell you what I think.

Job 32:11 I listened patiently while you were speaking and waited while you searched for wise phrases.

Job 32:12 I paid close attention and heard you fail; you have not disproved what Job has said.

Job 32:13 How can you claim you have discovered wisdom? God must answer Job, for you have failed.

Job 32:14 Job was speaking to you, not to me, but I would never answer the way you did.

Job 32:15 Words have failed them, Job; they have no answer for you.

Job 32:16 Shall I go on waiting when they are silent? They stand there with nothing more to say.

Job 32:17 No, I will give my own answer now and tell you what I think.

Job 32:18 I can hardly wait to speak. I can't hold back the words.

Job 32:19 If I don't get a chance to speak, I will burst like a wineskin full of new wine.

Job 32:20 I can't stand it; I have to speak.

Job 32:21 I will not take sides in this debate; I am not going to flatter anyone.

Job 32:22 I don't know how to flatter, and God would quickly punish me if I did.

JOB 32

1Toe die drie vriende ophou om Job te antwoord omdat hy volgehou het dat hy onskuldig is, 2het Elihu seun van Barakel, 'n Bussiet uit die familie van Ram, kwaad geword vir Job. Elihu het kwaad geword omdat Job volgehou het dat hy reg het, nie God nie. 3Elihu was ook kwaad vir die drie vriende van Job omdat hulle Job nie reg geantwoord het nie en nie aangetoon het dat hy skuldig is nie. 4Terwyl die vriende met Job aan die praat was, het Elihu stilgebly, want hulle was ouer as hy. 5Maar toe hy merk dat die drie manne Job nie verder antwoord nie, het hy kwaad geword. 6Elihu seun van Barakel die Bussiet het begin praat: Ek is jonk, en julle is grysaards. Daarom was ek huiwerig, ek was bang om vir julle te sê wat ek weet. 7Ek het gedink: laat die ouderdom praat, laat die ervaring sy wysheid meedeel. 8Maar dit is die gees in die mens wat die mens insig gee, die gees wat van die Almagtige af kom. 9Dit is nie die baie jare wat verstandig maak en aan oumense insig gee in wat reg is nie. 10Daarom sê ek: Luister na my, ek sal ook sê wat ek weet. 11Ek het julle laat praat, ek het geluister na julle argumente om te kyk of julle by die regte antwoord uitkom. 12My aandag was op julle toegespits, maar nie een van julle het vir Job behoorlik berispe of sy argumente weerlê nie. 13Moet nou net nie sê: Ons het die wysheid gevind; God, nie 'n mens nie, sal met Job afreken' nie. 14Met my het Job nog nie geargumenteer nie, en met júlle argumente sal ék hom nie pak nie. 15As die vriende verslae staan, as hulle niks meer het om te sê nie, as woorde hulle ontbreek, 16as hulle nie praat nie, as hulle daar staan en verder niks sê nie, moet ek nog langer stilbly? 17Ek wil ook 'n beurt hê om te praat, ek wil ook sê wat ek weet. 18Ek het baie om te sê, my gees dwing my om te praat. 19Dit kook in my soos wanneer wyn nie klaar gegis het nie en selfs nuwe wynsakke wil laat oopbars. 20Ek moet praat, ek moet my gemoed lug, ek moet vir Job begin antwoord. 21Ek sal niemand voortrek nie, ek sal vir niemand partydig wees nie. 22Partydig wees kan ek nie, want dan sou my Maker my in 'n oogwink laat verdwyn.

Job 33

Elihu Rebukes Job

Job 33:1 And now, Job, listen carefully to all that I have to say.

Job 33:2 I am ready to say what's on my mind.

Job 33:3 All my words are sincere, and I am speaking the truth.

Job 33:4 God's spirit made me and gave me life.

Job 33:5 Answer me if you can. Prepare your arguments.

Job 33:6 You and I are the same in God's sight, both of us were formed from clay.

Job 33:7 So you have no reason to fear me; I will not overpower you.

Job 33:8 Now this is what I heard you say:

Job 33:9 "I am not guilty; I have done nothing wrong. I am innocent and free from sin.

Job 33:10 But God finds excuses for attacking me and treats me like an enemy.

Job 33:11 He binds chains on my feet; he watches every move I make."

Job 33:12 But I tell you, Job, you are wrong. God is greater than any human being.

Job 33:13 Why do you accuse God of never answering our complaints?

Job 33:14 Although God speaks again and again, no one pays attention to what he says.

Job 33:15 At night when people are asleep, God speaks in dreams and visions.

Job 33:16 He makes them listen to what he says, and they are frightened at his warnings.

Job 33:17 God speaks to make them stop their sinning and to save them from becoming proud.

Job 33:18 He will not let them be destroyed; he saves them from death itself.

Job 33:19 God corrects us by sending sickness and filling our bodies with pain.

Job 33:20 Those who are sick lose their appetites, and even the finest food looks revolting.

Job 33:21 Their bodies waste away to nothing; you can see all their bones;

Job 33:22 they are about to go to the world of the dead.

Job 33:23 Perhaps an angel may come to their aid—one of God's thousands of angels, who remind us of our duty.

Job 33:24 In mercy the angel will say, "Release them! They are not to go down to the world of the dead. Here is the ransom to set them free."

Job 33:25 Their bodies will grow young and strong again;

Job 33:26 when they pray, God will answer; they will worship God with joy; God will set things right for them again.

Job 33:27 Each one will say in public, "I have sinned. I have not done right, but God spared me.

Job 33:28 He kept me from going to the world of the dead, and I am still alive."

Job 33:29 God does all this again and again;

Job 33:30 each one saves a person's life, and gives him the joy of living.

Job 33:31 Now, Job, listen to what I am saying; be quiet and let me speak.

Job 33:32 But if you have something to say, let me hear it; I would gladly admit you are in the right.

Job 33:33 But if not, be quiet and listen to me, and I will teach you how to be wise.

JOB 33

1Luister nou na my, Job, luister wat ek sê. 2Ek gaan nou praat, my woorde lê al op my tong. 3Ek gaan reguit praat, ek gaan eerlik sê wat ek weet. 4Die Gees van God het my gemaak, die asem van die Almagtige het my die lewe gegee. 5Antwoord my as jy kan, maak jou klaar om my teë te staan. 6Voor God is ek en jy gelyk, ook ék is maar net uit klei gevorm. 7Ek wil jou nie die skrik op die lyf ja nie, ek sal dit nie vir jou moeilik maak nie. 8Ek het jou met my eie ore hoor sê, hier waar ek dit gehoor het, het jy gesê: 9Ek is onskuldig, ek het nie oortree nie, ek is rein, ek het nie gesondig nie. 10Tog soek God fout by my, beskou Hy my as sy vyand. 11Hy behandel my as 'n gevangene, Hy hou elke voetstap van my dop.' 12Ek sê vir jou: Hierin is jy verkeerd; God is meer as die mens. 13Waarom beskuldig jy vir God? Hy hoef nie vir jou rekenskap te gee van sy dade nie. 14God spreek die mens aan, Hy huiwer nie om dit op meer as een manier te doen nie. 15Hy praat met die mens in 'n droom, in 'n gesig in die nag, wanneer die mens diep slaap, wanneer hy vas slaap op sy bed. 16Dan openbaar God Hom aan die mens en dreig dat Hy hom sal straf 17om hom van verkeerde dade af weg te hou en hom van hoogmoed te weerhou. 18God wil die mens nie die graf laat ingaan nie, Hy wil hom nie laat sterf nie. 19Of Hy spreek die mens aan met ernstige siekte, met pyn wat aan sy liggaam knaag, 20sodat alle kos hom walg, selfs die lekkerste ete. 21Die vleis aan sy liggaam is so weggevreet dat jy dit nie meer kan sien nie, jy sien nou net been. 22Hy is op pad na sy graf toe, na dié toe wat klaar dood is. 23As daar dan 'n engel by hom sou wees, een uit duisende, wat vir hom pleit, en vir hom sê wat sy plig is, 24wat hom jammer kry en sê: Red hom dat hy nie sterf nie, ek het 'n losprys vir hom,' 25dan sal sy liggaam weer jonk word, weer word soos in die dae van sy jeug. 26Hy sal tot God bid, God sal sy gebed verhoor, hom met vreugde laat bid, hom 'n mens maak wat weer reg leef voor God. 27Dan getuig hy voor die mense: Ek het gesondig, my nie gesteur aan wat reg is nie, en tog het God my nie gestraf soos ek verdien nie. 28Hy het my gered, ek het nie gesterf nie, nou lewe ek weer.' 29Dit alles doen God met die mens, selfs meer as een keer. 30So keer God die mens weg van die graf af en laat Hy hom weer lewe. 31Luister, Job, luister na my, bly stil, ek wil praat. 32Of as jy tog iets vir my wil sê, sê dit dan, praat, ek sal jou graag gelyk wil gee. 33Maar as jy niks het om te sê nie, luister na my, bly stil, laat ek jou leer wat wysheid is.

Job 34

Elihu Asserts God's Justice

Job 34:1 (1-2) You men are so wise, so clever; listen now to what I am saying.

Job 34:3 You know good food when you taste it, but not wise words when you hear them.

Job 34:4 It is up to us to decide the case.

Job 34:5 Job claims that he is innocent, that God refuses to give him justice.

Job 34:6 He asks, "How could I lie and say I am wrong? I am fatally wounded, but I am sinless."

Job 34:7 Have you ever seen anyone like this man Job? He never shows respect for God.

Job 34:8 He likes the company of evil people and goes around with sinners.

Job 34:9 He says that it never does any good to try to follow God's will.

Job 34:10 Listen to me, you men who understand! Will Almighty God do what is wrong?

Job 34:11 He rewards people for what they do and treats them as they deserve.

Job 34:12 Almighty God does not do evil; he is never unjust to anyone.

Job 34:13 Did God get his power from someone else? Did someone put him in charge of the world?

Job 34:14 If God took back the breath of life,

Job 34:15 then everyone living would die and turn into dust again.

Job 34:16 Now listen to me, if you are wise.

Job 34:17 Are you condemning the righteous God? Do you think that he hates justice?

Job 34:18 God condemns kings and rulers when they are worthless or wicked.

Job 34:19 He does not take the side of rulers nor favor the rich over the poor, for he created everyone.

Job 34:20 We may suddenly die at night. God strikes us down and we perish; he kills the mighty with no effort at all.

Job 34:21 He watches every step we take.

Job 34:22 There is no darkness dark enough to hide a sinner from God.

Job 34:23 God does not need to set a time for us to go and be judged by him.

Job 34:24 He does not need an investigation to remove leaders and replace them with others.

Job 34:25 Because he knows what they do; he overthrows them and crushes them by night.

Job 34:26 He punishes sinners where all can see it,

Job 34:27 because they have stopped following him and ignored all his commands.

Job 34:28 They forced the poor to cry out to God, and he heard their calls for help.

Job 34:29 If God decided to do nothing at all, no one could criticize him. If he hid his face, we would be helpless.

Job 34:30 There would be nothing that nations could do to keep godless oppressors from ruling them.

Job 34:31 Job, have you confessed your sins to God and promised not to sin again?

Job 34:32 Have you asked God to show you your faults, and have you agreed to stop doing evil?

Job 34:33 Since you object to what God does, can you expect him to do what you want? The decision is yours, not mine; tell us now what you think.

Job 34:34 Any sensible person will surely agree; and the wise who hear me will say

Job 34:35 that Job is speaking from ignorance and that nothing he says makes sense.

Job 34:36 Think through everything that Job says; you will see that he talks like an evil man.

Job 34:37 To his sins he adds rebellion; in front of us all he mocks God.

JOB 34

1Elihu het voortgegaan: 2Hoor wat ek te sê het, julle wat die wysheid het, luister na my, julle wat die kennis het. 3Die oor toets woorde soos die verhemelte kos proe. 4Laat ons uitmaak wat reg is, self vasstel wat goed is. 5Job het gesê: Ek is onskuldig, maar God laat nie aan my reg geskied nie. 6Al het ek die reg aan my kant, word ek vir 'n leuenaar gehou. Al is ek nie skuldig nie, is ek dodelik getref.' 7Is daar nog 'n mens soos Job vir wie laster is soos water drink? 8Hy maak vriende met dié wat onreg doen, hy gaan om met die goddeloses. 9Hy het beweer: Dit baat 'n mens nie om die wil van God te doen nie.' 10Maar luister na my, julle wat alles verstaan! God doen nie verkeerd nie, die Almagtige begaan nie 'n onreg nie. 11Hy straf die mens net vir wat hy doen, Hy laat hom maar net kry wat hy verdien. 12Dit is vir God werklik onmoontlik om verkeerd te doen, vir die Almagtige om die reg te verdraai. 13Het iemand die aarde aan God toevertrou? Het iemand Hom oor die hele wêreld aangestel? 14As Hy sou besluit om sy gees, sy asem, na Hom toe terug te neem, 15dan sou al wat leef, sterf, en die mens weer stof word. 16As jy verstand het, luister hierna, hoor wat ek te sê het. 17Iemand wat die reg haat, durf tog nie regeer nie. Kan jy vir God wat regverdig en magtig is, skuldig vind? 18Hy sê selfs vir 'n koning: Jy is niks werd nie' en vir vername mense: Julle is sleg.' 19Hy is nie partydig vir leiers nie, Hy bevoordeel die ryke nie bo die arme nie, want Hy het hulle almal gemaak. 20In 'n oogwink sterf hulle, in die middel van die nag oorval die doodsvrees hulle, hulle sterf, selfs die sterkes verdwyn sonder toedoen van mense. 21Hy hou die pad van die mens dop en sien elke tree wat hy gee. 22Daar is nie 'n donkerte of duisternis waar dié wat onreg doen, kan wegkruip nie. 23God hoef nie verder navraag te doen wanneer 'n mens voor Hom verskyn vir die oordeel nie. 24Hy hoef nie vooraf ondersoek in te stel voor Hy sterkes vernietig en ander in hulle plek aanstel nie. 25Hy sien alles raak wat hulle doen en oornag maak Hy dit tot niet. 26Waar almal dit kan sien, straf Hy hulle vir hulle goddeloosheid, 27want hulle het Hom nie bly dien nie en hulle nie aan sy wil gesteur nie: 28die armes moes na Hom om hulp roep, Hy moes luister na die hulpgeroep van mense in nood. 29As Hy stilbly, wie kan Hom veroordeel? As Hy Hom verberg, wie kan Hom sien? Hy alleen heers oor volke en mense. 30Hy wil nie dat 'n godlose oor mense regeer en hulle ondergang bewerk nie. 31As jy vir God sou sê: Ek het my teen U verhef, maar ek sal nie weer oortree nie; 32leer U my wat ek self nie weet nie; as ek verkeerd gedoen het, sal ek dit nie weer doen nie,' 33sal God jou dan nog straf omdat jy Hom geminag het? Jý moet kies, nie ék nie, jy weet hoe sake staan. Praat! 34Mense met insig, enige verstandige mens wat my hoor, sal sê: [35]Job praat sonder kennis, sy woorde is sonder insig.' [36]Maar Job moet end-uit getoets word, want sy argumente is dié van die goddelose mense. [37]Hy hoop sonde op sonde, hier tussen ons verlustig hy hom daarin, hou hy aan met praat teen God.

Job 35

Elihu Condemns Job

Job 35:1 (1-2) It is not right, Job, for you to say that you are innocent in God's sight,

Job 35:3 or to ask God, "How does my sin affect you? What have I gained by not sinning?"

Job 35:4 I am going to answer you and your friends too.

Job 35:5 Look at the sky! See how high the clouds are!

Job 35:6 If you sin, that does no harm to God. If you do wrong many times, does that affect him?

Job 35:7 Do you help God by being so righteous? There is nothing God needs from you.

Job 35:8 Others suffer from your sins, and the good you do helps them.

Job 35:9 When people are oppressed, they groan; they cry for someone to save them.

Job 35:10 But they don't turn to God, their Creator, who gives them hope in their darkest hours.

Job 35:11 They don't turn to God, who makes us wise, wiser than any animal or bird.

Job 35:12 They cry for help, but God doesn't answer, for they are proud and evil.

Job 35:13 It is useless for them to cry out; Almighty God does not see or hear them.

Job 35:14 Job, you say you can't see God; but wait patiently—your case is before him.

Job 35:15 You think that God does not punish, that he pays little attention to sin.

Job 35:16 It is useless for you to go on talking; it is clear you don't know what you are saying.

JOB 35

1Elihu het voortgegaan: 2Dink jy dit handel die saak af as jy sê: Ek sal my reg van God ontvang' 3en dan aanhou om te sê: Wat baat dit my, wat kan ek wen as ek nie sondig nie?' 4Daarop sal ek jou en ook jou vriende by jou antwoord. 5Kyk op, kyk na die hemel, kyk na die wolke hoog bokant jou: 6as jy sondig, wat doen dit aan God, as jy baie keer oortree, hoe raak dit Hom, 7as jy sonder sonde is, wat baat dit Hom, wat kry Hy van jou? 8Jou sonde raak jou medemens en jou onskuld raak jou medemens. 9Mense roep om hulp onder hulle swaar verdrukking, hulle soek hulp teen die geweld van mense met mag. 10Maar hulle vra nie na God, hulle Maker, na Hom wat selfs in die nag 'n lied kan laat sing nie, 11na Hom wat aan ons meer verstand gegee het as aan die diere, meer insig as aan die voëls. 12Mense roep om hulp, maar Hy antwoord nie, want hulle is vol hoogmoed en boosheid. 13God luister nie na hol woorde nie, die Almagtige slaan daar geen ag op nie, 14ook nie as jy sê dat jy Hom nie sien nie, dat jou saak voor Hom is, dat jy op Hom wag nie, 15as jy sê Hy straf nie in sy toorn nie, Hy dra geen kennis van die sonde nie. 16Job, wat jy praat, is wind, jy praat en praat, maar sonder kennis.

Job 36

Elihu Extols God's Greatness

Job 36:1 (1-2) Be patient and listen a little longer to what I am saying on God's behalf.

Job 36:3 My knowledge is wide; I will use what I know to show that God, my Creator, is just.

Job 36:4 Nothing I say to you is false; you see before you a truly wise man.

Job 36:5 How strong God is! He despises no one; there is nothing he doesn't understand.

Job 36:6 He does not let sinners live on, and he always treats the poor with justice.

Job 36:7 He protects those who are righteous; he allows them to rule like kings and lets them be honored forever.

Job 36:8 But if people are bound in chains, suffering for what they have done,

Job 36:9 God shows them their sins and their pride.

Job 36:10 He makes them listen to his warning to turn away from evil.

Job 36:11 If they obey God and serve him, they live out their lives in peace and prosperity.

Job 36:12 But if not, they will die in ignorance and cross the stream into the world of the dead.

Job 36:13 Those who are godless keep on being angry, and even when punished, they don't pray for help.

Job 36:14 They die while they are still young, worn out by a life of disgrace.

Job 36:15 But God teaches people through suffering and uses distress to open their eyes.

Job 36:16 God brought you out of trouble, and let you enjoy security; your table was piled high with food.

Job 36:17 But now you are being punished as you deserve.

Job 36:18 Be careful not to let bribes deceive you, or riches lead you astray.

Job 36:19 It will do you no good to cry out for help; all your strength can't help you now.

Job 36:20 Don't wish for night to come, the time when nations will perish.

Job 36:21 Be careful not to turn to evil; your suffering was sent to keep you from it.

Job 36:22 Remember how great is God's power; he is the greatest teacher of all.

Job 36:23 No one can tell God what to do or accuse him of doing evil.

Job 36:24 He has always been praised for what he does; you also must praise him.

Job 36:25 Everyone has seen what he has done; but we can only watch from a distance.

Job 36:26 We cannot fully know his greatness or count the number of his years.

Job 36:27 It is God who takes water from the earth and turns it into drops of rain.

Job 36:28 He lets the rain pour from the clouds in showers for all human beings.

Job 36:29 No one knows how the clouds move or how the thunder roars through the sky, where God dwells.

Job 36:30 He sends lightning through all the sky, but the depths of the sea remain dark.

Job 36:31 This is how he feeds the people and provides an abundance of food.

Job 36:32 He seizes the lightning with his hands and commands it to hit the mark.

Job 36:33 Thunder announces the approaching storm, and the cattle know it is coming.

JOB 36

[1]Elihu het voortgegaan: [2]Wag nog 'n bietjie, laat ek verder met jou praat, daar is nog argumente vir God se saak. [3]My kennis kom van ver af, ek wil aantoon dat my Maker regverdig is. [4]Wat ek sê, is nie versinsels nie, ek weet wat ek praat. [5]God is magtig maar Hy sien op niemand neer nie; Hy is magtig en sy wysheid is groot. [6]Hy laat die goddeloses nie in die lewe bly nie, Hy laat reg geskied aan die verdruktes, [7]Hy sorg vir die regverdiges. Hy laat konings regeer, selfs baie lank. Maar as hulle hulle verhef, [8]word hulle gevangenes, vasgevang in boeie, geknel deur swaarkry. [9]So laat God hulle besef wat hulle gedoen het, hoe hulle gesondig het toe hulle hoogmoedig geword het. [10]Hy laat hulle ag gee op sy bestraffing, Hy vermaan hulle om hulle van die sonde te bekeer. [11]As hulle luister en Hom dien, sal hulle hulle dae in voorspoed deurbring, hulle jare in welvaart. [12]As hulle nie luister nie, sal hulle sterf, sal hulle doodgaan omdat hulle nie tot insig wou kom nie. [13]Die godloses hoop die toorn van God nog meer teen hulle op, hulle roep selfs nie om hulp as God hulle in boeie laat vasvang nie. [14]Hulle gaan jonk dood, hulle skandelike lewe is gou verby. [15]Maar God bevry die mense in nood uit hulle ellende, Hy laat hulle op Hom ag gee in hulle verdrukking. [16]God het jou na Hom toe getrek, weg van gevaar af, Hy het jou veilig laat lewe, dit was rustig aan jou tafels vol oorvloed. [17]Maar nou het die oordeel wat die goddelose toekom, jou voluit getref, oordeel en straf het jou ingehaal. [18]Moenie dat jou grief jou tot uittarting verlei nie, moenie jou saak wil regstel met 'n groot omkoopgeskenk nie. [19]Kan hulpgeroep jou help? Nie in jou ellende nie! Ook nie al roep jy met al die krag waaroor jy beskik nie. [20]Moenie smag na die donker van die nag, die tyd wanneer mense sterf nie. [21]Moet ook nie jou toevlug neem tot sonde nie, jy verkies dit immers bo swaarkry. [22]Die mag van God is groot, wie kan 'n mens tot insig bring soos Hy? [23]Wie kan van Hom rekenskap eis oor sy dade? Wie kan sê: U het verkeerd gedoen'? [24]Dink liewer daaraan om sy werk te roem, sy werk wat deur mense besing moet word. [25]Alle mense kan dit sien, al neem hulle dit net van ver af waar. [26]God is groot, ons kan sy grootheid nie begryp nie, sy jare kan nie bereken word nie. [27]Hy trek vog op uit die see, Hy haal reën uit die groot waters uit, [28]dan giet die wolke water uit, laat hulle dit op al die baie mense val. [29]Kan iemand verstaan hoe die wolke beweeg en hoe die weer dreun daar in die woonplek van God? [30]Hy versprei die weerlig deur die lug, en bedek die bodem van die see. [31]So regeer Hy oor die volke en gee Hy kos in oorvloed. [32]Hy vat die weerlig in sy hand en stuur dit op die doelwit af. [33]Die onweer kondig aan dat die storm kom, die vee snuif die lug op voor die storm losbreek.

Job 37

Elihu Proclaims God's Majesty

Job 37:1 The storm makes my heart beat wildly.

Job 37:2 Listen, all of you, to the voice of God, to the thunder that comes from his mouth.

Job 37:3 He sends the lightning across the sky, from one end of the earth to the other.

Job 37:4 Then the roar of his voice is heard, the majestic sound of thunder, and all the while the lightning flashes.

Job 37:5 At God's command amazing things happen, wonderful things that we can't understand.

Job 37:6 He commands snow to fall on the earth, and sends torrents of drenching rain.

Job 37:7 He brings our work to a stop; he shows us what he can do.

Job 37:8 The wild animals go to their dens.

Job 37:9 The storm winds come from the south, and the biting cold from the north.

Job 37:10 The breath of God freezes the waters, and turns them to solid ice.

Job 37:11 Lightning flashes from the clouds,

Job 37:12 as they move at God's will. They do all that God commands, everywhere throughout the world.

Job 37:13 God sends rain to water the earth; he may send it to punish us, or to show us his favor.

Job 37:14 Pause a moment, Job, and listen; consider the wonderful things God does.

Job 37:15 Do you know how God gives the command and makes lightning flash from the clouds?

Job 37:16 Do you know how clouds float in the sky, the work of God's amazing skill?

Job 37:17 No, you can only suffer in the heat when the south wind oppresses the land.

Job 37:18 Can you help God stretch out the sky and make it as hard as polished metal?

Job 37:19 Teach us what to say to God; our minds are blank; we have nothing to say.

Job 37:20 I won't ask to speak with God; why should I give him a chance to destroy me?

Job 37:21 And now the light in the sky is dazzling, too bright for us to look at it; and the sky has been swept clean by the wind.

Job 37:22 A golden glow is seen in the north, and the glory of God fills us with awe.

Job 37:23 God's power is so great that we cannot come near him; he is righteous and just in his dealings with us.

Job 37:24 No wonder, then, that everyone is awed by him, and that he ignores those who claim to be wise.

JOB 37

1Dan begin ek bewe en gaan my hart aan die ruk. 2Hoor hoe bulder die stem van God, hoe dreun dit uit sy mond! 3Hy laat dit losbreek in die hemelruim, Hy laat dit blits tot by die uithoeke van die wêreld, 4en dan kom die donderslag. God laat sy magtige stem hoor, Hy stuur die onweer in volle krag wanneer Hy sy stem laat hoor. 5Met sy stem laat God magtige dinge gebeur. Hy doen groot dade en ons begryp dit nie. 6Hy beveel die sneeu om op die aarde te val; die reëns val, stortreëns wat getuig van sy krag. 7Hy laat alle mensewerk tot stilstand kom sodat alle mense sy werk kan leer ken. 8Die diere soek skuiling en bly in hulle skuilplekke. 9Die stormwind kom uit sy blyplek, die yswinde wat koue bring. 10As God die wind laat waai, ys dit en vries die groot waters. 11Hy laat die wolke swaar word van vog, Hy stuur sy weerligte in die wolke in. 12Hy laat die wolke in die rondte maal, hulle doen wat Hy bepaal, hulle gehoorsaam sy bevele die wêreld oor. 13God stuur die storm óf om te straf óf om vir die aarde te sorg óf om sy liefde te toon. 14Luister hierna, Job, staan stil en dink na oor die wonderdade van God. 15Weet jy hoe Hy dit alles voorberei, hoe Hy die lig deur die wolke laat breek? 16Weet jy hoe die wolke sweef? Dit is die wonderlike werk van Hom wie se kennis volmaak is. 17Jy wat jou nie eens met klere kan beskerm teen die hitte wanneer die aarde gloei onder die woestynwind nie, 18kan jy saam met Hom die hemelruim oopspan, stewig soos 'n spieël wat gegiet is? 19Sê jý dan vir ons wat ons vir God moet sê. In ons onkunde kan óns Hom nie antwoord nie. 20Moet aan Hom vertel word wat ek sê? Moet aan Hom meegedeel word wanneer 'n mens praat? 21Niemand kon die lig sien nie, die wolke het dit donker gemaak. Maar die wind het gekom en hulle weggewaai. 22Uit die noorde kom die goudglans, die majesteit van God is ontsagwekkend. 23Ons kan by die Almagtige nie kom nie, sy krag is groot. Hy laat reg en geregtigheid geskied, Hy verdruk niemand nie. 24Daarom dien die mense Hom, en sien Hy nie dié raak wat dink dat hulle wysheid het nie.

Job 38

The Lord Answers Job

Job 38:1 Then out of the storm the LORD spoke to Job.

Job 38:2 Who are you to question my wisdom with your ignorant, empty words?

Job 38:3 Now stand up straight and answer the questions I ask you.

Job 38:4 Were you there when I made the world? If you know so much, tell me about it.

Job 38:5 Who decided how large it would be? Who stretched the measuring line over it? Do you know all the answers?

Job 38:6 What holds up the pillars that support the earth? Who laid the cornerstone of the world?

Job 38:7 In the dawn of that day the stars sang together, and the heavenly beings shouted for joy.

Job 38:8 Who closed the gates to hold back the sea when it burst from the womb of the earth?

Job 38:9 It was I who covered the sea with clouds and wrapped it in darkness.

Job 38:10 I marked a boundary for the sea and kept it behind bolted gates.

Job 38:11 I told it, "So far and no farther! Here your powerful waves must stop."

Job 38:12 Job, have you ever in all your life commanded a day to dawn?

Job 38:13 Have you ordered the dawn to seize the earth and shake the wicked from their hiding places?

Job 38:14 Daylight makes the hills and valleys stand out like the folds of a garment, clear as the imprint of a seal on clay.

Job 38:15 The light of day is too bright for the wicked and restrains them from doing violence.

Job 38:16 Have you been to the springs in the depths of the sea? Have you walked on the floor of the ocean?

Job 38:17 Has anyone ever shown you the gates that guard the dark world of the dead?

Job 38:18 Have you any idea how big the world is? Answer me if you know.

Job 38:19 Do you know where the light comes from or what the source of darkness is?

Job 38:20 Can you show them how far to go, or send them back again?

Job 38:21 I am sure you can, because you're so old and were there when the world was made!

Job 38:22 Have you ever visited the storerooms, where I keep the snow and the hail?

Job 38:23 I keep them ready for times of trouble, for days of battle and war.

Job 38:24 Have you been to the place where the sun comes up, or the place from which the east wind blows?

Job 38:25 Who dug a channel for the pouring rain and cleared the way for the thunderstorm?

Job 38:26 Who makes rain fall where no one lives?

Job 38:27 Who waters the dry and thirsty land, so that grass springs up?

Job 38:28 Does either the rain or the dew have a father?

Job 38:29 Who is the mother of the ice and the frost,

Job 38:30 which turn the waters to stone and freeze the face of the sea?

Job 38:31 Can you tie the Pleiades together or loosen the bonds that hold Orion?

Job 38:32 Can you guide the stars season by season and direct the Big and the Little Dipper?

Job 38:33 Do you know the laws that govern the skies, and can you make them apply to the earth?

Job 38:34 Can you shout orders to the clouds and make them drench you with rain?

Job 38:35 And if you command the lightning to flash, will it come to you and say, "At your service"?

Job 38:36 Who tells the ibis when the Nile will flood, or who tells the rooster that rain will fall?

Job 38:37 Who is wise enough to count the clouds and tilt them over to pour out the rain,

Job 38:38 rain that hardens the dust into lumps?

Job 38:39 Do you find food for lions to eat, and satisfy hungry young lions Job 38:40 when they hide in their caves, or lie in wait in their dens?

Job 38:41 Who is it that feeds the ravens when they wander about hungry, when their young cry to me for food?

JOB 38

1Toe het die Here vir Job aangespreek uit 'n stormwind uit: 2Wie is dit wat besig is om my bedoelinge te dwarsboom met woorde wat getuig dat hy geen insig het nie? 3Maak jou reg vir die stryd: Ek sal vra, antwoord jy My. 4Waar was jy toe Ek die aarde se fondamente gelê het? Praat as jy die antwoord het. 5Wie het die aarde afgemeet? Weet jy dit? Wie het 'n maatlyn oor hom gespan? 6Waarop is sy voetstukke neergesit? Wie het hom aanmekaargesit 7daardie oggend toe die sterre saamgesing het en al die hemelinge gejubel het? 8Wie het die see opgedam toe hy begin uitborrel het? 9Ek het hom met wolke bedek, hom met donkerte toegemaak. 10Ek het vir hom perke gestel, hom agter slot en grendel gesit. 11Ek het gesê: Tot hiertoe mag jy kom, nie verder nie; hier is die grens van jou magtige golwe.' 12Het jy, Job, in jou tyd die môre beveel om te kom? Weet jy waar die daeraad vandaan kom, 13die daeraad wat lig oor die hele aarde bring sodat die goddeloses nie in die donker kan bly skuil nie? 14Met die daeraad word die vorm van die aarde sigbaar, dit neem vorm aan soos klere wat aangetrek word. 15Dan word die goddeloses hulle bestaan ontneem en word hulle geweld beëindig. 16Het jy, Job, al gekom by die plek waar die seewater uitborrel, en rondgestap op die bodem van die diepsee? 17Het jy die ingang van die doderyk gesien, die plek van donkerte al bekyk? 18Kan jy 'n beeld vorm van die groot wye wêreld? Praat as jy iets daarvan weet. 19Hoe loop die pad na die plek waar die lig woon? En die donkerte, waar is sy woonplek? 20Kan jy die donkerte na sy gebied toe terugvat? Ken jy die paaie na sy woongebied toe? 21Jy moet dit weet, jy wat maak of jy toe al gebore was, of jy 'n lang lewe agter die rug het. 22Was jy al by die plek waar die sneeu gebêre word? Het jy al die plek gesien waar die hael gebêre word, 23wat Ek opgegaar het vir 'n tyd van rampe, vir die dag as Ek wil oorlog voer? 24Hoe loop die pad na die plek toe waar die lig sy oorsprong het en die oostewind oor die aarde begin waai? 25Wie het vir die stortreën 'n pad oopgekap en vir die donderwolke hulle koers bepaal 26sodat dit reën in 'n land waar nie mense is nie, in 'n woestyn waar niemand woon nie 27en 'n droë, dor land deurnat word, sodat daar groen gras uitspruit? 28Het die reën 'n vader? Wie het die doudruppels in die wêreld gebring? 29Wie bring die ys te voorskyn? Wie bring die ryp in die wêreld? 30Die water word so hard soos klip, selfs die oppervlakte van die diepsee verys. 31Sou jy die Sewester met 'n band kon vasknoop of die band van Orion kon losmaak? 32Kan jy die sterre op hulle tyd laat opkom, kan jy die Beer met sy kleintjies laat uitkom? 33Weet jy hoe die hemelliggame werk? Stel jy hulle invloed op die aarde vas? 34Kan jy jou stem tot by die wolke hoorbaar maak sodat stortreën jou oordek? [35]Kan jy weerligstrale uitstuur dat hulle vir jou kom sê: Hier is ons'? [36]Wie gee verstand aan die ibis om teen die vloed te waarsku of wie gee insig aan die haan om die dag aan te kondig? [37]Wie het die kennis om genoeg wolke bymekaar te bring, om hierdie waterkruike van die hemel om te keer [38]wanneer die grond kliphard is en daar net groot kluite lê?

Job 39

Job 39:1 Do you know when mountain goats are born? Have you watched wild deer give birth?

Job 39:2 Do you know how long they carry their young? Do you know the time for their birth?

Job 39:3 Do you know when they will crouch down and bring their young into the world?

Job 39:4 In the wilds their young grow strong; they go away and don't come back.

Job 39:5 Who gave the wild donkeys their freedom? Who turned them loose and let them roam?

Job 39:6 I gave them the desert to be their home, and let them live on the salt plains.

Job 39:7 They keep far away from the noisy cities, and no one can tame them and make them work.

Job 39:8 The mountains are the pastures where they feed, where they search for anything green to eat.

Job 39:9 Will a wild ox work for you? Is he willing to spend the night in your stable?

Job 39:10 Can you hold one with a rope and make him plow? Or make him pull a harrow in your fields?

Job 39:11 Can you rely on his great strength and expect him to do your heavy work?

Job 39:12 Do you expect him to bring in your harvest and gather the grain from your threshing place?

Job 39:13 How fast the wings of an ostrich beat! But no ostrich can fly like a stork.

Job 39:14 The ostrich leaves her eggs on the ground for the heat in the soil to warm them.

Job 39:15 She is unaware that a foot may crush them or a wild animal break them.

Job 39:16 She acts as if the eggs were not hers, and is unconcerned that her efforts were wasted.

Job 39:17 It was I who made her foolish and did not give her wisdom.

Job 39:18 But when she begins to run, she can laugh at any horse and rider.

Job 39:19 Was it you, Job, who made horses so strong and gave them their flowing manes?

Job 39:20 Did you make them leap like locusts and frighten people with their snorting?

Job 39:21 They eagerly paw the ground in the valley; they rush into battle with all their strength.

Job 39:22 They do not know the meaning of fear, and no sword can turn them back.

Job 39:23 The weapons which their riders carry rattle and flash in the sun.

Job 39:24 Trembling with excitement, the horses race ahead; when the trumpet blows, they can't stand still.

Job 39:25 At each blast of the trumpet they snort; they can smell a battle before they get near, and they hear the officers shouting commands.

Job 39:26 Does a hawk learn from you how to fly when it spreads its wings toward the south?

Job 39:27 Does an eagle wait for your command to build its nest high in the mountains?

Job 39:28 It makes its home on the highest rocks and makes the sharp peaks its fortress.

Job 39:29 From there it watches near and far for something to kill and eat.

Job 39:30 Around dead bodies the eagles gather, and the young eagles drink the blood.

JOB 39

1Kan jy vir 'n leeu sy prooi vang? Kan jy vir hom genoeg gee om te eet 2wanneer hy in sy skuilplek gereed lê, op die loer lê agter 'n bos? 3Wie gee vir 'n kraai die kos wat hy nodig het wanneer sy kleintjies om hulp roep na God, rondskarrel vir iets om te eet? 4Ken jy die tyd wanneer die klipspringers lam? Staan jy en kyk waar die wildsbokke kleintjies kry? 5Kan jy vir hulle die draagtyd bepaal, weet jy presies wanneer hulle moet lam? 6Hulle trek inmekaar, die bokkies word gebore, die geboortepyne is gou verby. 7Die lammers groei en word groot in die veld, hulle gaan weg en kom nie na die ooie toe terug nie. 8Wie gee aan die wildedonkie sy vryheid en laat hom ongebonde vryloop? 9Ek het vir hom die oop veld gegee om in te bly die brakbossies om in te wei. 10Hy bekommer hom nie oor die gewoel in die stad nie, hy hoef nie te luister na die geskreeu van 'n drywer nie. 11Hy deurkruis die berge vir weiding, hy snuffel elke groen sprietjie uit. 12Sal die buffel gewillig wees om vir jou te werk? Sal hy deur die nag by jou krip bly staan? 13Kan jy hom inspan en ploegvore met hom trek? Kan jy hom lei om die land agter jou te eg? 14Sal jy jou op hom verlaat vir sy reusekrag? Sal jy dit aan hom oorlaat om vir jou 'n oes te lewer? 15Sal jy op hom vertrou om jou graan te oes en op jou dorsvloer bymekaar te bring? 16Die vlerke van die volstruis klap vrolik net soos dié van die ooievaar en die valk, 17maar sy lê haar eiers op die grond en broei hulle uit op die sand. 18Sy dink nie daaraan dat hulle stukkend getrap kan word nie, dat wilde diere haar eiers kan breek nie. 19Sy maak haar kuikens hard groot, asof hulle nie haar eie is nie; as haar moeite dan tevergeefs was, skrik dit haar nie af nie. 20God het nie vir haar wysheid gegee nie, sy het geen verstand nie, 21maar wanneer sy met vlerke omhoog hardloop, lag sy die perd en sy ruiter uit. 22Gee jý vir die perd sy krag, sit jý vir hom maanhare aan? 23Het jý gemaak dat hy kan spring soos 'n sprinkaan, dat hy almal bang maak met sy trotse gesnork? 24Hy kap die grond met sy pote en trippel rond, met krag skiet hy vorentoe, die geveg in. 25Bang wees bestaan vir hom nie, hy skrik nie, hy deins nie terug vir oorlog nie. 26In die koker aan sy sy ratel die pyle, die spies en die swaard blink in die son. 27Opgewonde en oorgehaal kap-kap hy die grond, hy kan nie wag vir die blaas van die trompet nie. 28By die blaas van die trompet runnik hy, hy weet die geveg kom, hy ken die offisiere se bevele en hulle krygskrete. 29Is dit deur jou insig dat 'n valk vlieg, dat hy sy vlerke na die suide toe span? 30Is dit op jou bevel dat 'n aasvoël hoog opvlieg en sy nes in die hoogte gaan bou? 31Hy woon op die rotse, hy bly daar, op die spits en die kranse. 32Van daar af soek sy oë na kos, van ver af sien hy dit. 33Sy kuikens vreet bloederige vleis, en waar iets doodgaan, is hy. [34]Die Here het verder vir Job gesê: [35]Wil jy 'n saak maak teen die Almagtige en Hom bestraf? Wil jy vir God teregwys? Antwoord Hom dan! [36]Job het toe vir die Here gesê: [37]Ek is nie opgewasse teen U nie. Hoe sou ek U kon antwoord? Ek sal liewer stilbly. [38]Ek het gepraat, maar ek kon nie 'n antwoord vind nie, ek het weer geprobeer, maar nou sal ek stilbly.

Job 40

Job 40:1 (1-2) Job, you challenged Almighty God; will you give up now, or will you answer?

Job Promises Silence

Job 40:3 (3-4) I spoke foolishly, LORD. What can I answer? I will not try to say anything else.

Job 40:5 I have already said more than I should.

The Lord Challenges Job

Job 40:6 Then out of the storm the LORD spoke to Job once again.

Job 40:7 Now stand up straight and answer my questions.

Job 40:8 Are you trying to prove that I am unjust—to put me in the wrong and yourself in the right?

Job 40:9 Are you as strong as I am? Can your voice thunder as loud as mine?

Job 40:10 If so, stand up in your honor and pride; clothe yourself with majesty and glory.

Job 40:11 Look at those who are proud; pour out your anger and humble them.

Job 40:12 Yes, look at them and bring them down; crush the wicked where they stand.

Job 40:13 Bury them all in the ground; bind them in the world of the dead.

Job 40:14 Then I will be the first to praise you and admit that you won the victory yourself.

Job 40:15 Look at the monster Behemoth; I created him and I created you. He eats grass like a cow, Job 40:16 but what strength there is in his body, and what power there is in his muscles!

Job 40:17 His tail stands up like a cedar, and the muscles in his legs are strong.

Job 40:18 His bones are as strong as bronze, and his legs are like iron bars.

Job 40:19 The most amazing of all my creatures! Only his Creator can defeat him.

Job 40:20 Grass to feed him grows on the hills where wild beasts play.

Job 40:21 He lies down under the thorn bushes, and hides among the reeds in the swamp.

Job 40:22 The thorn bushes and the willows by the stream give him shelter in their shade.

Job 40:23 He is not afraid of a rushing river; he is calm when the Jordan dashes in his face.

Job 40:24 Who can blind his eyes and capture him? Or who can catch his snout in a trap?

JOB 40

1Die Here het weer vir Job aangespreek uit die stormwind uit: 2Maak jou reg vir die stryd: Ek sal vra, antwoord jy My. 3Wil jy my beslissing tot niet maak? Wil jy My skuldig verklaar sodat jy vrygespreek kan word? 4Het jy die mag wat Ek het? Kan jy jou stem uit die onweer laat hoor soos Ek? 5Tree dan op met jou trots en jou groot mag, handel in jou majesteit en heerlikheid. 6Laat brand dan jou gloeiende toorn, sien elke trotsaard raak en sit hom op sy plek, 7sien elke trotsaard raak en verneder hom, trap die goddeloses plat. 8Begrawe hulle almal, lê hulle weg in die graf. 9Dan sal Ek teenoor jou erken dat jy jou deur jou eie mag kan red. 10Kyk die seekoei: Ek het hom gemaak toe Ek jou gemaak het, hy vreet gras soos 'n bees. 11Daar is krag in sy liggaam, die spiere in sy lyf is sterk. 12Sy stert is so reguit soos 'n seder. Sy boudspiere is inmekaar gevleg. 13Die bene in sy lyf is soos bronspype, soos stukke yster. 14Onder alles wat Ek gemaak het, staan hy eerste, net sy Maker kan hom verslaan. 15Die berge lewer vir hom die water en al die wilde diere speel daar. 16Hy lê tussen waterplante, hy skuil tussen die riete in die moeras. 17Die skaduwee van die waterplante is sy skuiling, rondom hom is rivierpopuliere. 18As die rivier sterk word, skrik dit hom nie af nie, hy bly rustig al styg die Jordaan hoe hoog. 19Wie kan hom van voor af pak, wie kan 'n vangtou aan sy neus sit? 20Kan jy 'n krokodil met 'n hoek vang of hom 'n tou in die bek sit? 21Kan jy 'n lyn deur sy neus steek of sy kakebene met 'n hoek vastrek? 22Sal hy jou soebat om genade of by jou mooipraat? 23Sal hy 'n ooreenkoms met jou aangaan om vir altyd jou slaaf te wees? 24Sal jy hom kan mak maak soos 'n voëltjie of kan jy hom met 'n lyn vasmaak vir jou dogtertjies? 25Sal handelaars oor 'n prys vir hom kan kibbel? Sal hy onder kopers verdeel kan word? 26Sal jy harpoene deur sy vel kan gooi of hom met 'n haak aan die kop kan vang? 27Pak hom gerus met kaal hande: jy sal die geveg onthou, jy sal nie weer probeer nie. 28Jy sal die slegste daarvan afkom. Wanneer jy hom sien, is jy al klaar oorweldig.

Job 41

Job 41:1 Can you catch Leviathan with a fishhook or tie his tongue down with a rope?

Job 41:2 Can you put a rope through his snout or put a hook through his jaws?

Job 41:3 Will he beg you to let him go? Will he plead with you for mercy?

Job 41:4 Will he make an agreement with you and promise to serve you forever?

Job 41:5 Will you tie him like a pet bird, like something to amuse your servant women?

Job 41:6 Will fishermen bargain over him? Will merchants cut him up to sell?

Job 41:7 Can you fill his hide with fishing spears or pierce his head with a harpoon?

Job 41:8 Touch him once and you'll never try it again; you'll never forget the fight!

Job 41:9 Anyone who sees Leviathan loses courage and falls to the ground.

Job 41:10 When he is aroused, he is fierce; no one would dare to stand before him.

Job 41:11 Who can attack him and still be safe? No one in all the world can do it.

Job 41:12 Let me tell you about Leviathan's legs and describe how great and strong he is.

Job 41:13 No one can tear off his outer coat or pierce the armor he wears.

Job 41:14 Who can make him open his jaws, ringed with those terrifying teeth?

Job 41:15 His back is made of rows of shields, fastened together and hard as stone.

Job 41:16 Each one is joined so tight to the next, not even a breath can come between.

Job 41:17 They all are fastened so firmly together that nothing can ever pull them apart.

Job 41:18 Light flashes when he sneezes, and his eyes glow like the rising sun.

Job 41:19 Flames blaze from his mouth, and streams of sparks fly out.

Job 41:20 Smoke comes pouring out of his nose, like smoke from weeds burning under a pot.

Job 41:21 His breath starts fires burning; flames leap out of his mouth.

Job 41:22 His neck is so powerful that all who meet him are terrified.

Job 41:23 There is not a weak spot in his skin; it is as hard and unyielding as iron.

Job 41:24 His stony heart is without fear, as unyielding and hard as a millstone.

Job 41:25 When he rises up, even the strongest are frightened; they are helpless with fear.

Job 41:26 There is no sword that can wound him; no spear or arrow or lance that can harm him.

Job 41:27 For him iron is as flimsy as straw, and bronze as soft as rotten wood.

Job 41:28 There is no arrow that can make him run; rocks thrown at him are like bits of straw.

Job 41:29 To him a club is a piece of straw, and he laughs when men throw spears.

Job 41:30 The scales on his belly are like jagged pieces of pottery; they tear up the muddy ground like a threshing sledge.

Job 41:31 He churns up the sea like boiling water and makes it bubble like a pot of oil.

Job 41:32 He leaves a shining path behind him and turns the sea to white foam.

Job 41:33 There is nothing on earth to compare with him; he is a creature that has no fear.

Job 41:34 He looks down on even the proudest animals; he is king of all wild beasts.

JOB 41

1Hy is wreed as jy hom wakker maak. Wie wil dan nog teen Mý standhou? 2Wie wil aan Mý eise stel dat Ek iets aan hom verskuldig is? Alles onder die hemel behoort aan My. 3Ek wil nog verder praat oor die krokodil, oor sy krag en sy liggaamsbou. 4Wie kan sy bek oopmaak? Wie kan met 'n toom naby sy tande kom? 5Wie kan sy kakebene oopbreek, sy kakebene met die verskriklike tande? 6Op sy rug lê die skubbe in rye vas aan mekaar gesluit: 7die een so teen die ander dat die wind nie daardeur kan waai nie; 8die een is vas aan die ander, hulle kleef aan mekaar en kan nie geskei word nie. 9As hy nies, spat die vonke, sy oë is so rooi soos die daeraad. 10Daar kom vuur uit sy bek, die vonke waai deur die lug. 11Daar trek rook uit sy neusgate, soos uit 'n kokende pot op 'n vuur. 12Sy asem steek vure aan, daar skiet vlamme uit sy bek. 13Daar is groot krag in sy nek; wie hom sien, word deur angs oorval. 14Sy vleis is saamgepak asof dit aan hom gegiet is, dit gee nie mee nie. 15Sy hart is so hard soos klip, so hard soos 'n maalklip. 16Sterkes vlug as hy die water roer. By die eerste rimpeling gee hulle pad. 17Wie hom met die swaard steek, rig niks uit nie, ook nie met 'n spies, 'n pyl of 'n assegaai nie. 18Yster is vir hom soos strooi, brons soos vrot hout. 19Met pyl en boog jaag jy hom nie op die vlug nie, klippe uit 'n slingervel is vir hom niks nie. 20Aan 'n knopkierie steur hy hom nie, hy lag as 'n swaard op hom afkom. 21Die skubbe aan sy onderkant het punte soos potskerwe, soos 'n dorsslee maak dit merke op die modder. 22Hy laat die diep water kook soos in 'n pot, hy laat die water van die meer skuim. 23Agter hom lê 'n blink streep op die water, lê die diep water wit van die skuim. 24Op die grond is niemand sy gelyke nie, hy is 'n ondier sonder vrees. 25Hy kyk met minagting na diere groter as hy, hy is baas selfs oor al die groot diere.

Job 42

Job's Confession and Repentance

Job 42:1 Then Job answered the LORD.

Job 42:2 I know, LORD, that you are all-powerful; that you can do everything you want.

Job 42:3 You ask how I dare question your wisdom when I am so very ignorant. I talked about things I did not understand, about marvels too great for me to know.

Job 42:4 You told me to listen while you spoke and to try to answer your questions.

Job 42:5 In the past I knew only what others had told me, but now I have seen you with my own eyes.

Job 42:6 So I am ashamed of all I have said and repent in dust and ashes.

The Lord Rebukes Job's Friends

Job 42:7 After the LORD had finished speaking to Job, he said to Eliphaz, "I am angry with you and your two friends, because you did not speak the truth about me, the way my servant Job did.

Job 42:8 Now take seven bulls and seven rams to Job and offer them as a sacrifice for yourselves. Job will pray for you, and I will answer his prayer and not disgrace you the way you deserve. You did not speak the truth about me as he did."

Job 42:9 Eliphaz, Bildad, and Zophar did what the LORD had told them to do, and the LORD answered Job's prayer.

The Lord Restores Job's Fortunes

Job 42:10 Then, after Job had prayed for his three friends, the LORD made him prosperous again and gave him twice as much as he had had before.

Job 42:11 All Job's brothers and sisters and former friends came to visit him and feasted with him in his house. They expressed their sympathy and comforted him for all the troubles the LORD had brought on him. Each of them gave him some money and a gold ring.

Job 42:12 The LORD blessed the last part of Job's life even more than he had blessed the first. Job owned fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, two thousand head of cattle, and one thousand donkeys.

Job 42:13 He was the father of seven sons and three daughters.

Job 42:14 He called the oldest daughter Jemimah, the second Keziah, and the youngest Keren Happuch.

Job 42:15 There were no other women in the whole world as beautiful as Job's daughters. Their father gave them a share of the inheritance along with their brothers.

Job 42:16 Job lived a hundred and forty years after this, long enough to see his grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Job 42:17 And then he died at a very great age.

JOB 42

[1]Daarna het Job vir die Here gesê: [2]Nou weet ek dat U tot alles in staat is en dat U kan uitvoer wat U besluit. [3]Wie is dit wat u bedoelinge wou dwarsboom sonder dat hy die insig gehad het? Ek het oor dinge gepraat wat ek nie begryp het nie: u wonderdade was te groot vir my, ek het dit nie verstaan nie. [4]U het mos gesê: Luister terwyl Ek praat, Ek sal vra, antwoord jy My. [5]Tot nou toe het ek net gehoor wat mense van U sê, maar nou het ek U self gesien, [6]en nou verag ek myself, nou sit ek vol berou, in sak en as. [7]Nadat Hy met Job gepraat het, het die Here vir Elifas die Temaniet gesê: Ek is kwaad vir jou en jou twee vriende, want julle het nie die waarheid oor My gepraat soos my dienaar Job nie. [8]Vat sewe bulle en sewe ramme en gaan na my dienaar Job toe en offer dit as 'n brandoffer vir julleself. My dienaar Job sal vir julle bid, en Ek sal sy gebed verhoor en julle nie straf vir julle dwaasheid nie. Julle het nie die waarheid oor My gepraat soos my dienaar Job nie. [9]Elifas die Temaniet, Bildad die Suagiet en Sofar die Naämatiet het gedoen wat die Here gesê het, en die Here het Job se gebed verhoor. [10]Nadat Job vir sy vriende gebid het, het die Here die omstandighede van Job verander en hom twee keer soveel gegee as wat hy gehad het. [11]Al sy broers en susters en sy vriende wat hom vroeër geken het, het gekom en saam met hom in sy huis geëet. Hulle het hulle medelye kom betoon en hom getroos oor al die rampe wat die Here oor hom gebring het. Elkeen het vir hom 'n stuk silwer en 'n goue ring gegee. [12]Die Here het die laaste deel van Job se lewe voorspoediger gemaak as die eerste: hy het veertien duisend stuks kleinvee, ses duisend kamele, twee duisend beeste en 'n duisend donkies gekry, [13]en ook sewe seuns en drie dogters. [14]Die oudste dogter het hy Jemima genoem, die tweede Kesia en die derde Keren-Puk. [15]Nêrens in die land was daar vroue so mooi soos Job se dogters nie. Hulle pa het hulle saam met hulle broers laat erf. [16]Job het nog honderd en veertig jaar gelewe. Hy het sy kinders en kindskinders tot in die vierde geslag gesien. [17]Job het toe gesterf. Hy was oud en het 'n vol lewe gehad.

Psalms 1

The Way of the Righteous and the Wicked

Psa 1:1 Happy are those who reject the advice of evil people, who do not follow the example of sinners or join those who have no use for God.

Psa 1:2 Instead, they find joy in obeying the Law of the LORD, and they study it day and night.

Psa 1:3 They are like trees that grow beside a stream, that bear fruit at the right time, and whose leaves do not dry up. They succeed in everything they do.

Psa 1:4 But evil people are not like this at all; they are like straw that the wind blows away.

Psa 1:5 Sinners will be condemned by God and kept apart from God's own people.

Psa 1:6 The righteous are guided and protected by the LORD, but the evil are on the way to their doom.

PSALMS 1

1Dit gaan goed met die mens wat nie die raad van goddeloses volg nie, nie met sondaars omgaan en met ligsinniges saamspan nie, 2maar wat in die woord van die Here sy vreugde vind, dit dag en nag oordink. 3Hy is soos 'n boom wat by waterstrome geplant is, wat op die regte tyd vrugte dra en waarvan die blare nie verdroog nie. Hy is voorspoedig in alles wat hy aanpak. 4So is die goddeloses nie. Hulle is soos kaf wat deur die wind uitmekaar gewaai word. 5Daarom sal goddeloses hulle nie kan handhaaf wanneer die Here oor hulle oordeel nie en sondaars nie 'n plek hê in die vergadering van regverdiges nie. 6Waarlik, die Here lei die regverdiges op hulle pad, maar die pad van die goddeloses lei tot ondergang.

Psalms 2

The Reign of the Lord's Anointed

Psa 2:1 Why do the nations plan rebellion? Why do people make their useless plots?

Psa 2:2 Their kings revolt, their rulers plot together against the LORD and against the king he chose.

Psa 2:3 "Let us free ourselves from their rule," they say; "let us throw off their control."

Psa 2:4 From his throne in heaven the Lord laughs and mocks their feeble plans.

Psa 2:5 Then he warns them in anger and terrifies them with his fury.

Psa 2:6 "On Zion, my sacred hill," he says, "I have installed my king."

Psa 2:7 "I will announce," says the king, "what the LORD has declared. He said to me: 'You are my son; today I have become your father.

Psa 2:8 Ask, and I will give you all the nations; the whole earth will be yours.

Psa 2:9 You will break them with an iron rod; you will shatter them in pieces like a clay pot.' "

Psa 2:10 Now listen to this warning, you kings; learn this lesson, you rulers of the world:

Psa 2:11 Serve the LORD with fear; tremble

Psa 2:12 and bow down to him; or else his anger will be quickly aroused, and you will suddenly die. Happy are all who go to him for protection.

PSALMS 2

1Waarom is daar onrus onder die volke, waarom smee die nasies planne en dit tevergeefs? 2Die konings van die aarde is in opstand, die leiers span saam teen die Here en teen sy gesalfde en sê: 3Kom ons maak ons vry en gooi hulle juk af! 4Hy wat in die hemel woon, lag hulle uit, die Here spot met hulle. 5Hy spreek hulle aan in sy toorn, in sy gramskap jaag Hy hulle op loop: 6Dit is Ek wat hom as my koning gesalf het op Sion, my heilige berg. 7Ek wil vertel wat die Here aangekondig het. Hy het vir my gesê: Jy is my seun, van vandag af is Ek jou Vader. 8Vra My, en Ek gee volke vir jou as eiendom, die hele aarde as jou besitting. 9Jy sal hulle verpletter met jou ystersepter, hulle flenters slaan soos 'n kleipot. 10Wees dan nou verstandig, konings, wees gewaarsku, regeerders van die aarde! 11Julle moet die Here met ontsag dien, Hom met vrees en bewing toejuig 12en Hom onderdanig wees, sodat Hy nie toornig word en julle op die pad omkom nie, want sy toorn ontvlam gou. Dit gaan goed met almal wat by Hom skuiling soek.

Psalms 3

Save Me, O My God

Psa 3:1 I have so many enemies, LORD, so many who turn against me!

Psa 3:2 They talk about me and say, "God will not help him."

Psa 3:3 But you, O LORD, are always my shield from danger; you give me victory and restore my courage.

Psa 3:4 I call to the LORD for help, and from his sacred hill he answers me.

Psa 3:5 I lie down and sleep, and all night long the LORD protects me.

Psa 3:6 I am not afraid of the thousands of enemies who surround me on every side.

Psa 3:7 Come, LORD! Save me, my God! You punish all my enemies and leave them powerless to harm me.

Psa 3:8 Victory comes from the LORD—may he bless his people.

PSALMS 3

1'n Psalm van Dawid toe hy vir sy seun Absalom gevlug het. 2Ek het so baie vyande, Here! Baie kom in opstand teen my. 3Daar is talle wat van my sê: Van God kom daar vir hom geen hulp nie! Sela 4Maar U, Here, beskerm my aan alle kante, U herstel my eer en aansien. 5As ek na die Here roep, antwoord Hy my van sy heilige berg af. Sela 6As ek gaan lê, slaap ek goed; ek word ook weer wakker, want die Here sorg vir my. 7Ek is nie bang vir tienduisende mense wat van alle kante af op my toesak nie. 8Kom tog, Here, help my, my God! U het nog altyd my vyande se mag verbreek, U het die aanval van die goddeloses afgeslaan. 9Hulp kom net van die Here af. U laat dit goed gaan met u volk.Sela

Psalms 4

Answer Me When I Call

Psa 4:1 Answer me when I pray, O God, my defender! When I was in trouble, you helped me. Be kind to me now and hear my prayer.

Psa 4:2 How long will you people insult me? How long will you love what is worthless and go after what is false?

Psa 4:3 Remember that the LORD has chosen the righteous for his own, and he hears me when I call to him.

Psa 4:4 Tremble with fear and stop sinning; think deeply about this, when you lie in silence on your beds.

Psa 4:5 Offer the right sacrifices to the LORD, and put your trust in him.

Psa 4:6 There are many who pray: "Give us more blessings, O LORD. Look on us with kindness!"

Psa 4:7 But the joy that you have given me is more than they will ever have with all their grain and wine.

Psa 4:8 When I lie down, I go to sleep in peace; you alone, O LORD, keep me perfectly safe.

PSALMS 4

1Vir die koorleier: met snarespel. 'n Psalm van Dawid. 2O God wat aan my reg verskaf, antwoord my as ek roep. Toe ek in die nood was, het U my bevry. Wees my ook nou genadig en hoor my gebed! 3Hoe lank gaan julle my eer nog skend, mense, gaan julle valsheid liefhê en voorkeur gee aan leuens? Sela 4Besef tog dat die Here wonders gedoen het vir dié wat aan Hom getrou is. Die Here hoor as ek na Hom roep. 5As jy ontsteld raak, moenie sondig nie; dink in stilte daaroor na as jy gaan lê, en laat dit daarby! Sela 6Julle moet die offers bring wat aan julle voorgeskryf is, en julle moet op die Here vertrou. 7Daar is baie wat sê: Wie sal dit weer met ons goed laat gaan? Wees ons tog weer goedgesind, Here, help ons! 8U het my reeds groter vreugde laat belewe as wat daar is by mense wat koring en wyn in oorvloed het. 9Nou sal ek onbesorg gaan lê en dadelik aan die slaap raak, want, Here, U alleen laat my veilig woon.

Psalms 5

Lead Me in Your Righteousness

Psa 5:1 Listen to my words, O LORD, and hear my sighs.

Psa 5:2 Listen to my cry for help, my God and king! I pray to you, O LORD;

Psa 5:3 you hear my voice in the morning; at sunrise I offer my prayer and wait for your answer.

Psa 5:4 You are not a God who is pleased with wrongdoing; you allow no evil in your presence.

Psa 5:5 You cannot stand the sight of the proud; you hate all wicked people.

Psa 5:6 You destroy all liars and despise violent, deceitful people.

Psa 5:7 But because of your great love I can come into your house; I can worship in your holy Temple and bow down to you in reverence.

Psa 5:8 LORD, I have so many enemies! Lead me to do your will; make your way plain for me to follow.

Psa 5:9 What my enemies say can never be trusted; they only want to destroy. Their words are flattering and smooth, but full of deadly deceit.

Psa 5:10 Condemn and punish them, O God; may their own plots cause their ruin. Drive them out of your presence because of their many sins and their rebellion against you.

Psa 5:11 But all who find safety in you will rejoice; they can always sing for joy. Protect those who love you; because of you they are truly happy.

Psa 5:12 You bless those who obey you, LORD; your love protects them like a shield.

PSALMS 5

[1]Vir die koorleier: met fluitspel. 'n Psalm van Dawid. [2]Luister tog na my woorde, Here, hoor hoe ek sug. [3]Gee tog aandag aan my hulpgeroep, my Koning en my God, want tot U bid ek. [4]U luister na my stem in die môre, Here, in die môre terwyl ek voor U verskyn en op U wag. [5]U is nie 'n God wat onreg verdra nie, die kwaad het by U geen plek nie. [6]Hooghartiges durf nie voor U kom nie. U haat almal wat onreg doen, [7]U roei alle leuenaars uit. Die Here verafsku moordenaars en bedrieërs. [8]Maar ek, ek mag deur u groot liefde in u huis ingaan en in u heilige tempel buig met die eerbied wat aan U verskuldig is. [9]Omdat ek vyande het, Here, leer my tog wat reg is en help my om u wil te doen. [10]Niks wat hulle sê, is waar nie; al waaraan hulle dink, is my ondergang; hulle vlei my, maar hulle wil my in die graf laat beland. [11]Laat hulle daarvoor boet, o God, laat hulle deur hulle eie planne tot niet gaan. Dryf hulle weg oor hulle baie sondes, want hulle is opstandig teen U. [12]Maar laat almal wat by U skuil, bly wees, laat hulle altyd jubel. U beskerm dié wat u Naam liefhet, en hulle juig oor U. [13]U laat dit goed gaan met die regverdige, Here, u goedheid beskerm hom soos 'n skild.

Psalms 6

O Lord, Deliver My Life

Psa 6:1 LORD, don't be angry and rebuke me! Don't punish me in your anger!

Psa 6:2 I am worn out, O LORD; have pity on me! Give me strength; I am completely exhausted

Psa 6:3 and my whole being is deeply troubled. How long, O LORD, will you wait to help me?

Psa 6:4 Come and save me, LORD; in your mercy rescue me from death.

Psa 6:5 In the world of the dead you are not remembered; no one can praise you there.

Psa 6:6 I am worn out with grief; every night my bed is damp from my weeping; my pillow is soaked with tears.

Psa 6:7 I can hardly see; my eyes are so swollen from the weeping caused by my enemies.

Psa 6:8 Keep away from me, you evil people! The LORD hears my weeping;

Psa 6:9 he listens to my cry for help and will answer my prayer.

Psa 6:10 My enemies will know the bitter shame of defeat; in sudden confusion they will be driven away.

PSALMS 6

[1]Vir die koorleier: met snarespel; met basstem. 'n Psalm van Dawid. [2]Moet my tog nie in u toorn straf nie, Here, en my in u gramskap tugtig nie. [3]Ontferm U oor my, Here, want ek kwyn weg, maak my gesond, Here, want my liggaam is uitgeteer. [4]Ek is heeltemal gedaan. Hoe lank nog, Here, voordat U uitkoms gee? [5]Neem my weer onder u sorg, Here, en red my lewe. Help my, want U is getrou. [6]Iemand wat dood is, kan tog nie u Naam bely nie. Kan iemand in die doderyk U prys? [7]Ek is uitgeput van verdriet, ek huil die hele nag deur, ek deurweek my bed met trane. [8]My oë het dof geword van verdriet, verswak deur wat my teëstanders my aandoen. [9]Gee pad van my af, julle almal wat onreg doen, want die Here het ag geslaan op my geroep om hulp, [10]die Here het geluister na my smeking, die Here het my gebed aangeneem. [11]Al my vyande sal beskaamd daarvan afkom, hulle sal verslae staan; in 'n oogwink sal hulle beskaamd moet padgee.

Psalms 7

In You Do I Take Refuge

Psa 7:1 O LORD, my God, I come to you for protection; rescue me and save me from all who pursue me,

Psa 7:2 or else like a lion they will carry me off where no one can save me, and there they will tear me to pieces.

Psa 7:3 (3-4) O LORD, my God, if I have wronged anyone, if I have betrayed a friend or without cause done violence to my enemy—if I have done any of these things—

Psa 7:5 then let my enemies pursue me and catch me, let them cut me down and kill me and leave me lifeless on the ground!

Psa 7:6 Rise in your anger, O LORD! Stand up against the fury of my enemies; rouse yourself and help me! Justice is what you demand, Psa 7:7 so bring together all the peoples around you, and rule over them from above.

Psa 7:8 You are the judge of all people. Judge in my favor, O LORD; you know that I am innocent.

Psa 7:9 You are a righteous God and judge our thoughts and desires. Stop the wickedness of evildoers and reward those who are good.

Psa 7:10 God is my protector; he saves those who obey him.

Psa 7:11 God is a righteous judge and always condemns the wicked.

Psa 7:12 If they do not change their ways, God will sharpen his sword. He bends his bow and makes it ready;

Psa 7:13 he takes up his deadly weapons and aims his burning arrows.

Psa 7:14 See how wicked people think up evil; they plan trouble and practice deception.

Psa 7:15 But in the traps they set for others, they themselves get caught.

Psa 7:16 So they are punished by their own evil and are hurt by their own violence.

Psa 7:17 I thank the LORD for his justice; I sing praises to the LORD, the Most High.

PSALMS 7

1'n Klaaglied van Dawid wat hy vir die Here gesing het na aanleiding van die dade van Kus, 'n Benjaminiet. 2By U soek ek beskerming, Here my God. Help my, red my van almal wat my vervolg, 3sodat hulle my nie verskeur soos 'n leeu sy prooi nie, my nie uitmekaar skeur sonder hoop op redding nie. 4As ek iets verkeerds gedoen het, Here my God, as daar onreg aan my hande kleef, 5as ek 'n vriend van my kwaad aangedoen het, as ek 'n teëstander van my sommer goedsmoeds kaalgestroop het, 6mag die vyand my dan agtervolg en inhaal, my in die grond in trap, my tot in die stof in verneder. Sela 7Kom tog, Here, in u toorn, tree op teen die verwoede aanslag van my teëstanders. Kom my te hulp, U wat bepaal het dat reg sal geskied. 8Laat al die volke rondom U kom staan; neem hoog bo hulle u plek in op u regterstoel! 9U wat regspreek oor die volke, Here, bevind tog dat ek reg het, Here, dat ek onskuldig is. 10Maak 'n end aan al die bose dade van die goddelose mense. Stel tog die onskuldige in die gelyk. U wat die mens deur en deur toets, U is die regverdige God. 11God wat die opregtes help, is my beskermer. 12God is 'n betroubare regter, 'n God wat altyd die skuldiges straf. 13Hy maak sy swaard elke keer weer skerp, Hy span sy boog en lê aan. 14Hy hou dodelike wapens gereed en maak vir Hom brandpyle. 15Die skuldige is soos iemand wat swanger geraak het van onreg, swanger is van kwaad en leuens voortbring. 16Hy grawe 'n diep gat en val self daarin. 17Sy boosheid tref homself, en die geweld wat hy beplan het, kom op sy eie kop af. 18Ek wil die Here prys omdat Hy reg laat geskied. Die Naam van die Here, die Allerhoogste, wil ek besing.

Psalms 8

How Majestic Is Your Name

Psa 8:1 O LORD,our Lord, your greatness is seen in all the world! Your praise reaches up to the heavens;

Psa 8:2 it is sung by children and babies. You are safe and secure from all your enemies; you stop anyone who opposes you.

Psa 8:3 When I look at the sky, which you have made, at the moon and the stars, which you set in their places—

Psa 8:4 what are human beings, that you think of them; mere mortals, that you care for them?

Psa 8:5 Yet you made them inferior only to yourself; you crowned them with glory and honor.

Psa 8:6 You appointed them rulers over everything you made; you placed them over all creation:

Psa 8:7 sheep and cattle, and the wild animals too;

Psa 8:8 the birds and the fish and the creatures in the seas.

Psa 8:9 O LORD, our Lord, your greatness is seen in all the world!

PSALMS 8

1Vir die koorleier: met musiek. 'n Psalm van Dawid. 2Here, ons Here, hoe wonderbaar is u Naam oor die hele aarde, hoe glansryk alles wat U in die hemelruim geplaas het! 3Kinders en suigelinge besing die magtige werk wat U tot stand gebring het. So word u teëstanders, die vyande en wraakgieriges, tot swye gebring. 4As ek u hemel aanskou, die werk van u vingers, die maan en die sterre waaraan U 'n plek gegee het, 5wat is die mens dan dat U aan hom dink, die mensekind dat U na hom omsien? 6U het hom net 'n bietjie minder as 'n hemelse wese gemaak en hom met aansien en eer gekroon, 7U laat hom heers oor die werk van u hande, U het alles aan hom onderwerp: 8skape en beeste, alles; selfs die diere in die veld, 9die voëls in die lug, en die visse in die see wat die oseane deurkruis. 10Here, ons Here, hoe wonderbaar is u Naam oor die hele aarde!

Psalms 9

I Will Recount Your Wonderful Deeds

Psa 9:1 I will praise you, LORD, with all my heart; I will tell of all the wonderful things you have done.

Psa 9:2 I will sing with joy because of you. I will sing praise to you, Almighty God.

Psa 9:3 My enemies turn back when you appear; they fall down and die.

Psa 9:4 You are fair and honest in your judgments, and you have judged in my favor.

Psa 9:5 You have condemned the heathen and destroyed the wicked; they will be remembered no more.

Psa 9:6 Our enemies are finished forever; you have destroyed their cities, and they are completely forgotten.

Psa 9:7 But the LORD is king forever; he has set up his throne for judgment.

Psa 9:8 He rules the world with righteousness; he judges the nations with justice.

Psa 9:9 The LORD is a refuge for the oppressed, a place of safety in times of trouble.

Psa 9:10 Those who know you, LORD, will trust you; you do not abandon anyone who comes to you.

Psa 9:11 Sing praise to the LORD, who rules in Zion! Tell every nation what he has done!

Psa 9:12 God remembers those who suffer; he does not forget their cry, and he punishes those who wrong them.

Psa 9:13 Be merciful to me, O LORD! See the sufferings my enemies cause me! Rescue me from death, O LORD, Psa 9:14 that I may stand before the people of Jerusalem and tell them all the things for which I praise you. I will rejoice because you saved me.

Psa 9:15 The heathen have dug a pit and fallen in; they have been caught in their own trap.

Psa 9:16 The LORD has revealed himself by his righteous judgments, and the wicked are trapped by their own deeds.

Psa 9:17 Death is the destiny of all the wicked, of all those who reject

God.

Psa 9:18 The needy will not always be neglected; the hope of the poor will not be crushed forever.

Psa 9:19 Come, LORD! Do not let anyone defy you! Bring the heathen before you and pronounce judgment on them.

Psa 9:20 Make them afraid, O LORD; make them know that they are only mortal beings.

PSALMS 9

[1]Vir die koorleier: op die wysie van By die dood van die seun. 'n Psalm van Dawid. [2]Met my hele hart wil ek U prys, Here, wil ek van u magtige reddingsdade vertel. [3]Oor U wil ek my verbly en vrolik wees, u Naam wil ek besing, o Allerhoogste. [4]Toe U verskyn het, het my vyande gevlug, hulle het gestruikel en omgekom. [5]Toe U op die troon gaan sit het as betroubare regter, het U aan my reg laat geskied. [6]U het die nasies met vernietiging gedreig, die skuldiges laat omkom, hulle naam vir altyd uitgewis. [7]Dit is klaar met die vyand, daar bly net puinhope oor. U het hulle stede verwoes, niemand dink eers meer aan hulle nie. [8]Die Here is altyd op sy troon; op sy regterstoel is Hy steeds gereed vir die regspraak. [9]Hy lewer 'n regverdige uitspraak oor alle mense, Hy vel 'n billike vonnis oor die nasies. [10]Vir die mens wat in gevaar verkeer, is die Here 'n toevlug, 'n skuilplek in tye van nood. [11]Daarom vertrou almal wat u Naam bely, op U, want U, Here, laat dié wat vra na u wil, nie in die steek nie. [12]Sing tot eer van die Here wat op Sion woon, vertel die volke van sy dade! [13]Hy dink aan die onskuldiges en wreek hulle dood, Hy verontagsaam nie die geroep van dié wat in nood verkeer nie. [14]Wees my genadig, Here, aanskou die ellende wat my haters my aangedoen het, U wat my terugruk uit die poorte van die dood. [15]Dan kan ek van al u roemryke dade vertel, in die poorte van Sion kan ek juig oor die uitkoms wat U gegee het. [16]Die nasies het in die gat geval wat hulle gegrawe het, hulle voete is vasgevang in die net wat hulle gespan het. [17]So het die Here Hom bekend gemaak, Hy het reg laat geskied, en die skuldige is deur sy eie handewerk gevang. Higgajon Sela [18]Die doderyk is die bestemming van die skuldiges, van al die nasies wat aan God nie dink nie. [19]Waarlik, die behoeftiges word nie vir altyd vergeet nie, nie vir ewig sal die verwagting van dié wat in nood is, vrugteloos wees nie. [20]Gryp tog in, Here, sodat die mens hom nie verhef nie. Laat die nasies voor U teregstaan. [21]Vervul hulle so met vrees, Here, dat hulle erken dat hulle net mense is. Sela

Psalms 10

Why Do You Hide Yourself?

Psa 10:1 Why are you so far away, O LORD? Why do you hide yourself when we are in trouble?

Psa 10:2 The wicked are proud and persecute the poor; catch them in the traps they have made.

Psa 10:3 The wicked are proud of their evil desires; the greedy curse and reject the LORD.

Psa 10:4 The wicked do not care about the LORD; in their pride they think that God doesn't matter.

Psa 10:5 The wicked succeed in everything. They cannot understand God's judgments; they sneer at their enemies.

Psa 10:6 They say to themselves, "We will never fail; we will never be in trouble."

Psa 10:7 Their speech is filled with curses, lies, and threats; they are quick to speak hateful, evil words.

Psa 10:8 They hide themselves in the villages, waiting to murder innocent people. They spy on their helpless victims;

Psa 10:9 they wait in their hiding place like lions. They lie in wait for the poor; they catch them in their traps and drag them away.

Psa 10:10 The helpless victims lie crushed; brute strength has defeated them.

Psa 10:11 The wicked say to themselves, "God doesn't care! He has closed his eyes and will never see me!"

Psa 10:12 O LORD, punish those wicked people! Remember those who are suffering!

Psa 10:13 How can the wicked despise God and say to themselves, "He will not punish me"?

Psa 10:14 But you do see; you take notice of trouble and suffering and are always ready to help. The helpless commit themselves to you; you have always helped the needy.

Psa 10:15 Break the power of wicked and evil people; punish them for the wrong they have done until they do it no more.

Psa 10:16 The LORD is king forever and ever. Those who worship other gods will vanish from his land.

Psa 10:17 You will listen, O LORD, to the prayers of the lowly; you will give them courage.

Psa 10:18 You will hear the cries of the oppressed and the orphans; you will judge in their favor, so that mortal men may cause terror no more.

PSALMS 10

1Waarom staan U so ver weg, Here? Waarom trek U U terug in tye van nood? 2Die goddeloses is vol van hulleself, hulle vervolg 'n hulpelose man. Laat hulle gevang word deur die sluwe planne wat hulle self uitgedink het. 3Die goddelose verlustig hom nou al in wat hy hoop om in die hande te kry. Die een wat hom wil verryk ten koste van 'n ander, wens homself by voorbaat geluk. Hy verag die Here. 4Neus in die lug sê hy: God vra tog geen rekenskap nie! In al sy planne is daar geen plek vir God nie. 5Dit gaan mos altyd goed met wat hy aanpak. U oordele is vir hom te ver weg, buite sy gesigsveld. Hy snork met veragting oor al sy vyande. 6Hy dink: ek sal nie wankel nie en die ongeluk sal my nooit tref nie. 7Hy lê 'n vloek op almal, hy onderdruk en bedrieg, hy bedink onheil en onreg. 8Hy lê onskuldiges voor agter die heinings en vermoor hulle in die geheim. Hy loer rond in die donker. 9Hy lê op die loer in 'n wegkruipplek soos 'n leeu agter 'n bos, hy lê op die loer om die hulpelose te vang. Hy vang hom en trek hom vas in sy net, 10hy slaan hom dat hy inmekaar sak. So kry hy die arme mens in die hande. 11Hy sê vir homself: God steur Hom nie daaraan nie, Hy kyk weg, Hy sal dit nooit raaksien nie. 12Kom tog, Here! Toon u mag, o God! Moet die hulpeloses tog nie vergeet nie. 13Hoe durf die goddeloses God verag en reken Hy sal hulle nie uitvind nie? 14En die hele tyd het U dit gesien, die lyding en verdriet. U let daarop en maak daar 'n einde aan. Op U verlaat die ongelukkige hom, ook vir die weeskind is U 'n helper. 15Verbreek tog die magsgreep van die goddelose en van die misdadiger, straf sy misdade! Moenie een enkele van sy misdade verskoon nie. 16Die Here bly altyd koning, die vyande is uit sy land verdryf. 17U het die gesmeek van die hulpeloses gehoor, Here. U gee hulle nuwe moed. U verhoor hulle gebed. 18U behartig die regsaak van die weeskind en van die mens in nood, sodat niemand op aarde langer in vrees hoef te lewe nie.

Psalms 11

The Lord Is in His Holy Temple

Psa 11:1 I trust in the LORD for safety. How foolish of you to say to me, "Fly away like a bird to the mountains,

Psa 11:2 because the wicked have drawn their bows and aimed their arrows to shoot from the shadows at good people.

Psa 11:3 There is nothing a good person can do when everything falls apart."

Psa 11:4 The LORD is in his holy temple; he has his throne in heaven. He watches people everywhere and knows what they are doing.

Psa 11:5 He examines the good and the wicked alike; the lawless he hates with all his heart.

Psa 11:6 He sends down flaming coals and burning sulfur on the wicked; he punishes them with scorching winds.

Psa 11:7 The LORD is righteous and loves good deeds; those who do them will live in his presence.

PSALMS 11

1Vir die koorleier. Van Dawid. Ek skuil by die Here. Hoe durf julle vir my sê: Vlug na die berge toe soos 'n voël! 2Kyk, die goddeloses span hulle boë, en hulle lê aan met die pyl op die snaar; hulle staan reg om uit die donker die opregtes van hart te tref. 3As die fondamente ondermyn word, wat kan die regverdige daaraan doen? 4Die Here is in sy heilige tempel! Die Here is op sy troon in die hemel! Sy oë is oop, sy oë keur die mensekinders. 5Die Here onderskei tussen regverdige en goddelose. Wie geweld liefhet, haat Hy. 6Hy laat vuur en swael reën op die goddeloses, 'n skroeiende wind: dit is die beker wat hulle sal drink. 7Die Here is regverdig. Hy het die mense lief wat regverdig en opreg handel, en Hy sal by hulle wees.

Psalms 12

The Faithful Have Vanished

Psa 12:1 Help us, LORD! There is not a good person left; honest people can no longer be found.

Psa 12:2 All of them lie to one another; they deceive each other with flattery.

Psa 12:3 Silence those flattering tongues, O LORD! Close those boastful mouths that say,

Psa 12:4 "With our words we get what we want. We will say what we wish, and no one can stop us."

Psa 12:5 "But now I will come," says the LORD, "because the needy are oppressed and the persecuted groan in pain. I will give them the security they long for."

Psa 12:6 The promises of the LORD can be trusted; they are as genuine as silver refined seven times in the furnace.

Psa 12:7 (7-8) The wicked are everywhere, and everyone praises what is evil. Keep us always safe, O LORD, and preserve us from such people.

PSALMS 12

1Vir die koorleier: met basstem. 'n Psalm van Dawid. 2Help tog, Here, want daar is geen vrome meer nie, daar is geen betroubare mens meer oor nie. 3Die mense bedrieg mekaar; hulle mislei mekaar met vleitaal. 4Die Here sal al die vleitaal uitroei en die grootpratery van die mense 5wat sê: In ons tong lê ons krag. Ons lippe help ons. Ons buig vir niemand nie. 6Maar die Here sê: Die swakkes word mishandel en die armes kla. Daarom gryp Ek nou in en gee uitkoms aan dié wat daarna smag. 7Daar is niks vals in wat die Here sê nie. Sy woorde is soos silwer wat oor en oor in 'n oond gesuiwer is. 8U, Here, hou oor ons wag. U sal ons vir altyd teen sulke mense beskerm, 9selfs al pronk goddeloses nog rond en al heers die gemeenheid nog tussen die mense.

Psalms 13

How Long, O Lord?

Psa 13:1 How much longer will you forget me, LORD? Forever? How much longer will you hide yourself from me?

Psa 13:2 How long must I endure trouble? How long will sorrow fill my heart day and night? How long will my enemies triumph over me?

Psa 13:3 Look at me, O LORD my God, and answer me. Restore my strength; don't let me die.

Psa 13:4 Don't let my enemies say, "We have defeated him." Don't let them gloat over my downfall.

Psa 13:5 I rely on your constant love; I will be glad, because you will rescue me.

Psa 13:6 I will sing to you, O LORD, because you have been good to me.

PSALMS 13

1Vir die koorleier. 'n Psalm van Dawid. 2Hoe lank gaan U my nog bly vergeet, Here? Vir altyd? Hoe lank gaan U nog van my af weg kyk? 3Hoe lank moet ek nog my eie planne maak en my dae met kommer deurbring? Hoe lank sal die vyand my nog oorheers? 4Luister tog en antwoord my, Here my God! Gee my tog nuwe lewenskrag. Ek wil nie sterwe nie, 5anders sê my vyand hy het my oorwin en juig my verdrukkers oor my ondergang. 6Ek hou vas aan u troue liefde, oor die uitkoms wat U gee, juig my hart. Ek wil sing tot eer van die Here, omdat Hy aan my goed gedoen het.

Psalms 14

The Fool Says, There Is No God

Psa 14:1 Fools say to themselves, "There is no God!" They are all corrupt, and they have done terrible things; there is no one who does what is right.

Psa 14:2 The LORD looks down from heaven at us humans to see if there are any who are wise, any who worship him.

Psa 14:3 But they have all gone wrong; they are all equally bad. Not one of them does what is right, not a single one.

Psa 14:4 "Don't they know?" asks the LORD. "Are all these evildoers ignorant? They live by robbing my people, and they never pray to me."

Psa 14:5 But then they will be terrified, for God is with those who obey him.

Psa 14:6 Evildoers frustrate the plans of the humble, but the LORD is their protection.

Psa 14:7 How I pray that victory will come to Israel from Zion. How happy the people of Israel will be when the LORD makes them prosperous again!

PSALMS 14

1Vir die koorleier. Van Dawid. Die dwaas dink daar is geen God nie. Dwase mense vernietig alles; wat hulle doen, is 'n gruwel vir die Here. Daar is nie een wat goed doen nie. 2Van die hemel af kyk die Here die mense deur om te sien of daar één verstandige is, één wat na die wil van God vra. 3Almal het afgedwaal, die laaste een het ontaard; daar is niemand wat goed doen nie, selfs nie één nie. 4Julle almal wat onreg pleeg, wat my volk opeet asof julle brood eet en wat weier om die Here te dien weet julle dan nie 5dat daar iets vreesliks met julle gaan gebeur nie? Omdat God aan die kant van die regverdiges is, 6sal daar niks kom van julle planne teen die hulpelose nie: die Here bly sy toevlug. 7Ag, mag daar tog uit Sion vir Israel redding kom! Wanneer die Here die lot van sy volk verander, sal Jakob juig, sal Israel bly wees.

Psalms 15

Who Shall Dwell on Your Holy Hill?

Psa 15:1 LORD, who may enter your Temple? Who may worship on Zion, your sacred hill?

Psa 15:2 Those who obey God in everything and always do what is right, whose words are true and sincere,

Psa 15:3 and who do not slander others. They do no wrong to their friends nor spread rumors about their neighbors.

Psa 15:4 They despise those whom God rejects, but honor those who obey the LORD. They always do what they promise, no matter how much it may cost.

Psa 15:5 They make loans without charging interest and cannot be bribed to testify against the innocent. Whoever does these things will always be secure.

PSALMS 15

1'n Psalm van Dawid. Wie het die reg om in u woonplek te kom, Here? Wie mag op u heilige berg vertoef? 2Hy wat onberispelik wandel en doen wat reg is, wat met sy hele hart die waarheid praat, 3nie kwaad praat nie, sy medemens nie kwaad aandoen nie en niemand beledig nie; 4hy wat dié verag wat deur God verwerp is, maar almal eer wat die Here dien; wat sy woord hou, selfs tot sy eie skade, 5sy geld nie op rente uitleen nie en hom nie laat omkoop om die onskuldige te kort te doen nie. Wie hom hieraan hou, sal nooit wankel nie.

Psalms 16

You Will Not Abandon My Soul

Psa 16:1 Protect me, O God; I trust in you for safety.

Psa 16:2 I say to the LORD, "You are my Lord; all the good things I have come from you."

Psa 16:3 How excellent are the LORD's faithful people! My greatest pleasure is to be with them.

Psa 16:4 Those who rush to other gods bring many troubles on themselves. I will not take part in their sacrifices; I will not worship their gods.

Psa 16:5 You, LORD, are all I have, and you give me all I need; my future is in your hands.

Psa 16:6 How wonderful are your gifts to me; how good they are!

Psa 16:7 I praise the LORD, because he guides me, and in the night my conscience warns me.

Psa 16:8 I am always aware of the LORD's presence; he is near, and nothing can shake me.

Psa 16:9 And so I am thankful and glad, and I feel completely secure,

Psa 16:10 because you protect me from the power of death. I have served you faithfully, and you will not abandon me to the world of the dead.

Psa 16:11 You will show me the path that leads to life; your presence fills me with joy and brings me pleasure forever.

PSALMS 16

1'n Gedig van Dawid. Neem my in beskerming, o God; ek soek skuiling by U. 2Ek het vir die Here gesê: Ek behoort aan U, daar is vir my niks goeds nie behalwe by U. 3Die afgode in die land, so aantreklik vir baie met hulle wil ek niks te doen hê nie. 4Mag elkeen wat 'n ander god vereer, baie smart beleef. Vir afgode sal ek nie bloedoffers uitgiet nie, hulle name sal ek nie op my lippe neem nie. 5Here, U is my lewe, U sorg vir my. Wat ek ontvang, kom alles van U af. 6'n Pragtige deel is vir my afgemeet, ja, wat ek ontvang het, is vir my mooi. 7Ek sal die Here loof wat my tot die regte insig gebring het; selfs in die nag bly ek bewus van wat Hy my leer. 8Ek het die Here altyd by my: omdat Hy by my is, sal ek nie struikel nie. 9Daarom is ek bly en juig ek en voel ek my veilig. 10U gee my nie oor aan die dood nie. U laat u troue dienaar nie in die graf kom nie. 11U leer my hoe om te lewe. By U is daar oorvloedige blydskap. Uit u hand kom net wat mooi is.

Psalms 17

In the Shadow of Your Wings

Psa 17:1 Listen, O LORD, to my plea for justice; pay attention to my cry for help! Listen to my honest prayer.

Psa 17:2 You will judge in my favor, because you know what is right.

Psa 17:3 You know my heart. You have come to me at night; you have examined me completely and found no evil desire in me. I speak no evil,

Psa 17:4 as others do; I have obeyed your command and have not followed paths of violence.

Psa 17:5 I have always walked in your way and have never strayed from it.

Psa 17:6 I pray to you, O God, because you answer me; so turn to me and listen to my words.

Psa 17:7 Reveal your wonderful love and save me; at your side I am safe from my enemies.

Psa 17:8 Protect me as you would your very eyes; hide me in the shadow of your wings

Psa 17:9 from the attacks of the wicked. Deadly enemies surround me;

Psa 17:10 they have no pity and speak proudly.

Psa 17:11 They are around me now, wherever I turn, watching for a chance to pull me down.

Psa 17:12 They are like lions, waiting for me, wanting to tear me to pieces.

Psa 17:13 Come, LORD! Oppose my enemies and defeat them! Save me from the wicked by your sword;

Psa 17:14 save me from those who in this life have all they want. Punish them with the sufferings you have stored up for them; may there be enough for their children and some left over for their children's children!

Psa 17:15 But I will see you, because I have done no wrong; and when I awake, your presence will fill me with joy.

PSALMS 17

1'n Gebed van Dawid. Luister tog, Here, na my regverdige saak, let op my hulpgeroep. Hoor tog die gebed wat ek in alle opregtheid bid. 2U sal uitspraak lewer in my guns: u oë sien immers self wat reg is. 3As U my sou toets, my selfs in my slaap sou ondersoek, my deeglik sou keur, sou U niks verkeerds vind nie. 4Oor die doen en late van mense het ek niks verkeerds gesê nie: ek het my aan u bevel gehou. 5Elke stap van my was vas op die koers wat U aangewys het. My voete het nie daarvan afgewyk nie. 6Ek roep U aan, want U sal my antwoord, my God! Luister tog na my en hoor wat ek sê. 7Toon u wonderlike trou, U wat almal help wat vir hulle vyande by U skuil. 8Beskerm my soos die appel van u oog, steek my weg in die skaduwee van u vleuels 9vir die goddeloses wat my wil oorweldig, die doodsvyande wat my omsingel. 10Sonder enige meegevoel, met monde wat aanmatigende dinge sê, omsingel hulle my 11waar ek ook gaan. Hulle soek my ondergang. 12Hulle is soos leeus, oorgehaal om te verskeur, soos jong leeus wat iets voorlê. 13Kom tog, Here, staan hulle voor, dwing hulle op die knieë. Red my met u swaard uit die mag van die goddeloses, 14met u eie hand, Here, van hierdie mense. Laat hulle ontydig omkom, sny hulle lewens af; laat hulle hulle vol eet aan die onheil wat U vir hulle gereed hou; laat daar oorgenoeg wees vir hulle kinders en laat daar nog oorbly vir die kindskinders. 15Maar wat my betref, omdat die reg aan my kant is, sal ek weer voor U staan. As ek wakker word, sal ek my verbly in u teenwoordigheid.

Psalms 18

The Lord Is My Rock and My Fortress

Psa 18:1 How I love you, LORD! You are my defender.

Psa 18:2 The LORD is my protector; he is my strong fortress. My God is my protection, and with him I am safe. He protects me like a shield; he defends me and keeps me safe.

Psa 18:3 I call to the LORD, and he saves me from my enemies. Praise the LORD!

Psa 18:4 The danger of death was all around me; the waves of destruction rolled over me.

Psa 18:5 The danger of death was around me, and the grave set its trap for me.

Psa 18:6 In my trouble I called to the LORD; I called to my God for help. In his temple he heard my voice; he listened to my cry for help.

Psa 18:7 Then the earth trembled and shook; the foundations of the mountains rocked and quivered, because God was angry.

Psa 18:8 Smoke poured out of his nostrils, a consuming flame and burning coals from his mouth.

Psa 18:9 He tore the sky open and came down with a dark cloud under his feet.

Psa 18:10 He flew swiftly on his winged creature; he traveled on the wings of the wind.

Psa 18:11 He covered himself with darkness; thick clouds, full of water, surrounded him.

Psa 18:12 Hailstones and flashes of fire came from the lightning before him and broke through the dark clouds.

Psa 18:13 Then the LORD thundered from the sky; and the voice of the Most High was heard.

Psa 18:14 He shot his arrows and scattered his enemies; with flashes of lightning he sent them running.

Psa 18:15 The floor of the ocean was laid bare, and the foundations of the earth were uncovered, when you rebuked your enemies, LORD, and roared at them in anger.

Psa 18:16 The LORD reached down from above and took hold of me; he pulled me out of the deep waters.

Psa 18:17 He rescued me from my powerful enemies and from all those who hate me—they were too strong for me.

Psa 18:18 When I was in trouble, they attacked me, but the LORD protected me.

Psa 18:19 He helped me out of danger; he saved me because he was pleased with me.

Psa 18:20 The LORD rewards me because I do what is right; he blesses me because I am innocent.

Psa 18:21 I have obeyed the law of the LORD; I have not turned away from my God.

Psa 18:22 I have observed all his laws; I have not disobeyed his commands.

Psa 18:23 He knows that I am faultless, that I have kept myself from doing wrong.

Psa 18:24 And so he rewards me because I do what is right, because he knows that I am innocent.

Psa 18:25 O LORD, you are faithful to those who are faithful to you; completely good to those who are perfect.

Psa 18:26 You are pure to those who are pure, but hostile to those who are wicked.

Psa 18:27 You save those who are humble, but you humble those who are proud.

Psa 18:28 O LORD, you give me light; you dispel my darkness.

Psa 18:29 You give me strength to attack my enemies and power to overcome their defenses.

Psa 18:30 This God—how perfect are his deeds! How dependable his words! He is like a shield for all who seek his protection.

Psa 18:31 The LORD alone is God; God alone is our defense.

Psa 18:32 He is the God who makes me strong, who makes my pathway safe.

Psa 18:33 He makes me sure-footed as a deer; he keeps me safe on the mountains.

Psa 18:34 He trains me for battle, so that I can use the strongest bow.

Psa 18:35 O LORD, you protect me and save me; your care has made me great, and your power has kept me safe.

Psa 18:36 You have kept me from being captured, and I have never fallen.

Psa 18:37 I pursue my enemies and catch them; I do not stop until I destroy them.

Psa 18:38 I strike them down, and they cannot rise; they lie defeated before me.

Psa 18:39 You give me strength for the battle and victory over my enemies.

Psa 18:40 You make my enemies run from me; I destroy those who hate me.

Psa 18:41 They cry for help, but no one saves them; they call to the LORD, but he does not answer.

Psa 18:42 I crush them, so that they become like dust which the wind blows away. I trample on them like mud in the streets.

Psa 18:43 You saved me from a rebellious people and made me ruler over the nations; people I did not know have now become my subjects.

Psa 18:44 Foreigners bow before me; when they hear me, they obey.

Psa 18:45 They lose their courage and come trembling from their fortresses.

Psa 18:46 The LORD lives! Praise my defender! Proclaim the greatness of the God who saves me.

Psa 18:47 He gives me victory over my enemies; he subdues the nations under me

Psa 18:48 and saves me from my foes. O LORD, you give me victory over my enemies and protect me from violent people.

Psa 18:49 And so I praise you among the nations; I sing praises to you.

Psa 18:50 God gives great victories to his king; he shows constant love to the one he has chosen, to David and his descendants forever.

PSALMS 18

1Vir die koorleier. 'n Lied van Dawid, die dienaar van die Here. Hy het dié woorde tot die Here gerig op die dag toe die Here hom gered het uit die mag van al sy vyande en uit die mag van Saul. 2Hy het gesê: Ek het U baie lief, Here, my Sterkte. 3Die Here is my rots, my skuilplek en my redder, my God, my rots, by wie ek skuil, my skild en sterk verlosser, my veilige vesting. 4Onder bespotting roep ek na die Here, dan word ek van my vyande verlos. 5Bande van die dood het my omsluit, strome van onheil het my verskrik. 6Bande van die doderyk het my vasgetrek, strikke van die dood het my bedreig. 7In my nood roep ek na die Here, ja, ek roep om hulp na my God. In sy paleis hoor Hy my geroep. Ek roep na Hom om hulp, en Hy luister na my. 8Die aarde het geskud en gebewe, die fondamente van die berge het getril en geskud, want Hy was vertoorn. 9Rook het uit sy neus getrek, vuur uit sy mond het alles verteer, gloeiende kole uit sy binneste. 10Hy het die hemel afgebuig en afgekom, onder sy voete was duisternis. 11Hy het op 'n gerub geklim en gevlieg; op die vleuels van die wind het Hy nadergesweef. 12Hy het Hom in donkerte gehul, donker waters en wolkemassas was sy bedekking. 13Uit die gloed voor Hom het wolke getrek, hael en weerligstrale. 14Die Here het dit uit die hemel laat dreun, die Allerhoogste het sy stem laat hoor in hael en weerligstrale. 15Hy het sy pyle afgeskiet en die vyand uitmekaar gejaag, hulle met 'n menigte weerligstrale op loop gejaag. 16Die seebodem het sigbaar geword, die fondamente van die aarde is blootgelê deurdat U, Here, op hulle gebulder het met die orkaan van u toorn. 17Van bo af het Hy sy hand uitgestrek en my gegryp, my uit geweldige waters uitgelig. 18Hy het my gered van my vyand wat sterk was, van my haters toe hulle vir my te magtig was. 19Die dag toe hulle my aangeval het, was my ondergang naby, maar die Here het my daarvan bewaar. 20Hy het my in vryheid laat uitgaan, my gered omdat Hy my liefhet. 21Die Here het aan my reg laat geskied, Hy het my onskuld aanvaar, 22want ek het die wil van die Here gehoorsaam en my nie teenoor my God skuldig gemaak nie; 23ek het my deur al sy bepalings laat lei en nie van sy voorskrifte afgewyk nie. 24Ek was opreg voor Hom, ek was op my hoede teen enige ongeregtigheid. 25Die Here het aan my reg laat geskied, want ek was onskuldig in sy oë. 26U betoon U getrou teenoor die getroue, opreg teenoor die opregte, 27rein teenoor die reine, maar U verwerp die huigelaar. 28U red die verdrukte volk, U verneder die trotses. 29U, Here, laat my lamp helder skyn; my God gee lig as dit donker is om my. 30Met u hulp loop ek 'n oormag storm, met my God by my is geen stadsmuur vir my te hoog nie. 31Wat God doen, is volmaak; wat die Here sê, is suiwer. Elkeen wat by Hom skuiling soek, beskerm Hy. [32]Waarlik, wie anders as die Here is God? Ja, wie anders as ons God is 'n rots? [33]God omgord my met krag; Hy maak my pad voorspoedig. [34]Hy maak my voete soos dié van 'n ribbok; op hoë plekke laat Hy my stewig staan. [35]Hy leer my hande om oorlog te maak, my arms om selfs die stramste boog te span. [36]Die redding wat U gebring het, was vir my 'n beskerming, u regterhand het my ondersteun, deur u hulp het ek sterk geword. [37]U het my ruim vastrapplek gegee, my enkels het nie geswik nie. [38]Ek het my vyande agtervolg en ingehaal, ek het nie omgedraai voordat hulle uitgewis was nie. [39]Ja, ek het hulle verpletter, sodat hulle nie weer kon opstaan nie. Hulle het voor my voete gesneuwel. [40]U het my met krag omgord vir die stryd, U het my teëstanders voor my laat swig. [41]U het my vyande voor my laat vlug en ek kon my haters uitwis. [42]Hulle roep om hulp en daar is niemand wat help nie; hulle roep selfs na die Here, maar Hy antwoord hulle nie. [43]Ek maak hulle fyn soos stof in die wind, ek laat hulle wegspat soos modder in die strate, ja, ek vermorsel hulle. [44]U het my gered van opstandige mense, my as hoof van vreemde nasies aangestel. 'n Volk wat ek nie geken het nie, is my onderdane. [45]Wie ook al van my verneem, gehoorsaam my. Vreemde volke kruip voor my. [46]Hulle skrik en kom bewend uit hulle forte uit. [47]Die Here leef! Ek loof Hom wat my rots is. Ek prys my God wat my gered het. [48]Dit is God wat my die oorwinning gee, wat volke aan my onderwerp. [49]Hy red my van my vyande. Ja, U stel my buite bereik van my teëstanders, U bevry my van geweldenaars. [50]Daarvoor sal ek U loof voor die nasies, Here, tot eer van u Naam 'n lofpsalm sing! [51]Dit is Hy wat aan sy koning groot oorwinnings gee en trou aan sy gesalfde betoon, aan Dawid en sy nageslag vir altyd!

Psalms 19

The Law of the Lord Is Perfect

Psa 19:1 How clearly the sky reveals God's glory! How plainly it shows what he has done!

Psa 19:2 Each day announces it to the following day; each night repeats it to the next.

Psa 19:3 No speech or words are used, no sound is heard;

Psa 19:4 yet their message goes out to all the world and is heard to the ends of the earth. God made a home in the sky for the sun;

Psa 19:5 it comes out in the morning like a happy bridegroom, like an athlete eager to run a race.

Psa 19:6 It starts at one end of the sky and goes across to the other. Nothing can hide from its heat.

Psa 19:7 The law of the LORD is perfect; it gives new strength. The commands of the LORD are trustworthy, giving wisdom to those who lack it.

Psa 19:8 The laws of the LORD are right, and those who obey them are happy. The commands of the LORD are just and give understanding to the mind.

Psa 19:9 Reverence for the LORD is good; it will continue forever. The judgments of the LORD are just; they are always fair.

Psa 19:10 They are more desirable than the finest gold; they are sweeter than the purest honey.

Psa 19:11 They give knowledge to me, your servant; I am rewarded for obeying them.

Psa 19:12 None of us can see our own errors; deliver me, LORD, from hidden faults!

Psa 19:13 Keep me safe, also, from willful sins; don't let them rule over me. Then I shall be perfect and free from the evil of sin.

Psa 19:14 May my words and my thoughts be acceptable to you, O LORD, my refuge and my redeemer!

PSALMS 19

[1]Vir die koorleier. 'n Psalm van Dawid. [2]Die hemel getuig van die mag van God, die uitspansel maak die werk van sy hande bekend. [3]Die een dag gee die berig deur aan die ander en die een nag deel die kennis aan die volgende mee. [4]Sonder spraak en sonder woorde, onhoorbaar is hulle stem. [5]Tog gaan daarvan 'n boodskap uit oor die hele wêreld en hulle taal bereik die uithoeke van die aarde. Vir die son is daar in die hemel 'n tent opgeslaan. [6]As hy stralend begin om sy baan te volg, is hy soos 'n bruidegom wat uit sy slaapkamer kom. [7]Aan die een kant van die hemel kom hy op en aan die ander kant gaan hy onder, en niks ontkom aan sy gloed nie. [8]Die woord van die Here is volmaak: dit gee lewe. Die onderwysing van die Here is betroubaar: dit gee wysheid aan dié wat nog onervare is. [9]Die bevele van die Here dui die regte koers aan: dit bring blydskap. Die gebod van die Here is helder: dit gee insig. [10]Die eise van die Here vir sy diens is goed: dit staan altyd vas. Die bepalings van die Here is reg: elkeen van hulle is regverdig. [11]Hulle is kosbaarder as goud, selfs as baie goud, soeter as heuning, as druppels uit 'n heuningkoek. [12]U dienaar laat hom daardeur leer. Wie dit alles onderhou, groot is sy beloning. [13]Wie sien sy eie dwalinge raak? Moet my tog nie straf vir sondes wat ek onwetend gedoen het nie. [14]Weerhou my van opsetlike sondes, laat hulle nie oor my heers nie. Dan sal ek onberispelik wees en vry van hierdie groot sonde. [15]Mag wat ek sê en wat ek dink tog vir U aanneemlik wees, Here, my Rots en my Verlosser.

Psalms 20

Trust in the Name of the Lord Our God

Psa 20:1 May the LORD answer you when you are in trouble! May the God of Jacob protect you!

Psa 20:2 May he send you help from his Temple and give you aid from Mount Zion.

Psa 20:3 May he accept all your offerings and be pleased with all your sacrifices.

Psa 20:4 May he give you what you desire and make all your plans succeed.

Psa 20:5 Then we will shout for joy over your victory and celebrate your triumph by praising our God. May the LORD answer all your requests.

Psa 20:6 Now I know that the LORD gives victory to his chosen king; he answers him from his holy heaven and by his power gives him great victories.

Psa 20:7 Some trust in their war chariots and others in their horses, but we trust in the power of the LORD our God.

Psa 20:8 Such people will stumble and fall, but we will rise and stand firm.

Psa 20:9 Give victory to the king, O LORD; answer us when we call.

PSALMS 20

1Vir die koorleier. 'n Psalm van Dawid. 2Mag die Here u gebed verhoor op die dag van nood, mag die Naam van die God van Jakob u beskerm. 3Mag Hy u te hulp kom uit die heiligdom, u bystaan uit Sion. 4Mag Hy al u graanoffers onthou en u brandoffers aanneemlik vind. Sela 5Mag Hy u gee wat u hart begeer en al u voornemens laat geluk. 6Ons sal juig oor u oorwinning en in die Naam van ons God die vaandels ontplooi. Mag die Here alles gee wat u vra. 7Dit weet ek: die Here sal aan sy gesalfde die oorwinning gee! Uit die heilige hemel verhoor die Here sy gebed; die Here gee deur sy groot mag aan hom die oorwinning. 8Sommige vertrou op strydwaens en ander op perde, maar óns, ons vertrou op die Naam van die Here ons God. 9Húlle sal struikel en val, maar óns sal regop en vas bly staan. 10Here, gee tog aan die koning die oorwinning. Mag die Here ons gebed verhoor wanneer ons na Hom roep.

Psalms 21

The King Rejoices in the Lord's Strength

Psa 21:1 The king is glad, O LORD, because you gave him strength; he rejoices because you made him victorious.

Psa 21:2 You have given him his heart's desire; you have answered his request.

Psa 21:3 You came to him with great blessings and set a crown of gold on his head.

Psa 21:4 He asked for life, and you gave it, a long and lasting life.

Psa 21:5 His glory is great because of your help; you have given him fame and majesty.

Psa 21:6 Your blessings are with him forever, and your presence fills him with joy.

Psa 21:7 The king trusts in the LORD Almighty; and because of the LORD's constant love he will always be secure.

Psa 21:8 The king will capture all his enemies; he will capture everyone who hates him.

Psa 21:9 He will destroy them like a blazing fire when he appears. The LORD will devour them in his anger, and fire will consume them.

Psa 21:10 None of their descendants will survive; the king will kill them all.

Psa 21:11 They make their plans, and plot against him, but they will not succeed.

Psa 21:12 He will shoot his arrows at them and make them turn and run.

Psa 21:13 We praise you, LORD, for your great strength! We will sing and praise your power.

PSALMS 21

[1]Vir die koorleier. 'n Psalm van Dawid. [2]Here, dit is oor die openbaring van u mag dat die koning so bly is, dit is oor die oorwinning wat U hom gegee het, dat hy so jubel en juig. [3]Die wens van sy hart het U vervul. Wat hy gevra het, het U hom nie geweier nie. Sela [4]U skenk hom voorspoed en geluk, U plaas 'n goue kroon op sy kop. [5]Lewe het hy van U gevra; U het hom dit gegee 'n lang, lang lewe. [6]Omdat U uitkoms gegee het, is hy hoog in aansien, met roem en eer het U hom oorlaai. [7]U maak hom altyd voorspoedig, U skenk hom oorvloedige blydskap deur u nabyheid. [8]Die koning vertrou op die Here en deur die trou van die Allerhoogste struikel hy nie. [9]U hand sal al u vyande vind, u regterhand sal u haters tref. [10]Wanneer U verskyn, Here, sal U hulle verteer soos in 'n oond. In u toorn sal U hulle vernietig, en die vuur sal hulle verteer. [11]U sal hulle kinders van die aarde af verdelg en die mensheid verlos van hulle nageslag. [12]As hulle kwaad teen U beraam, bose planne uitdink, sal hulle niks uitrig nie. [13]Wanneer U met die boog na hulle mik, slaan hulle op die vlug. [14]Laat u mag seëvier, Here, dan sal ons u krag besing en daaroor roem.

Psalms 22

Why Have You Forsaken Me?

Psa 22:1 My God, my God, why have you abandoned me? I have cried desperately for help, but still it does not come.

Psa 22:2 During the day I call to you, my God, but you do not answer; I call at night, but get no rest.

Psa 22:3 But you are enthroned as the Holy One, the one whom Israel praises.

Psa 22:4 Our ancestors put their trust in you; they trusted you, and you saved them.

Psa 22:5 They called to you and escaped from danger; they trusted you and were not disappointed.

Psa 22:6 But I am no longer a human being; I am a worm, despised and scorned by everyone!

Psa 22:7 All who see me make fun of me; they stick out their tongues and shake their heads.

Psa 22:8 "You relied on the LORD," they say. "Why doesn't he save you? If the LORD likes you, why doesn't he help you?"

Psa 22:9 It was you who brought me safely through birth, and when I was a baby, you kept me safe.

Psa 22:10 I have relied on you since the day I was born, and you have always been my God.

Psa 22:11 Do not stay away from me! Trouble is near, and there is no one to help.

Psa 22:12 Many enemies surround me like bulls; they are all around me, like fierce bulls from the land of Bashan.

Psa 22:13 They open their mouths like lions, roaring and tearing at me.

Psa 22:14 My strength is gone, gone like water spilled on the ground. All my bones are out of joint; my heart is like melted wax.

Psa 22:15 My throat is as dry as dust, and my tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth. You have left me for dead in the dust.

Psa 22:16 An evil gang is around me; like a pack of dogs they close in on me; they tear at my hands and feet.

Psa 22:17 All my bones can be seen. My enemies look at me and stare.

Psa 22:18 They gamble for my clothes and divide them among themselves.

Psa 22:19 O LORD, don't stay away from me! Come quickly to my rescue!

Psa 22:20 Save me from the sword; save my life from these dogs.

Psa 22:21 Rescue me from these lions; I am helpless before these wild bulls.

Psa 22:22 I will tell my people what you have done; I will praise you in their assembly:

Psa 22:23 "Praise him, you servants of the LORD! Honor him, you descendants of Jacob! Worship him, you people of Israel!

Psa 22:24 He does not neglect the poor or ignore their suffering; he does not turn away from them, but answers when they call for help."

Psa 22:25 In the full assembly I will praise you for what you have done; in the presence of those who worship you I will offer the sacrifices I promised.

Psa 22:26 The poor will eat as much as they want; those who come to the LORD will praise him. May they prosper forever!

Psa 22:27 All nations will remember the LORD. From every part of the world they will turn to him; all races will worship him.

Psa 22:28 The LORD is king, and he rules the nations.

Psa 22:29 All proud people will bow down to him; all mortals will bow down before him.

Psa 22:30 Future generations will serve him; they will speak of the Lord to the coming generation.

Psa 22:31 People not yet born will be told: "The Lord saved his people."

PSALMS 22

[1]Vir die koorleier: op die wysie van Die wildsbok van die daeraad. 'n Psalm van Dawid. [2]My God, my God, waarom het U my verlaat en bly U ver as ek om hulp roep? [3]My God, ek roep bedags en U antwoord nie, ook snags, maar ek kry geen rus nie. [4]U is tog die Heilige wat woon waar die lofsange van Israel weerklink! [5]Op U het ons voorvaders vertrou. Hulle het vertrou en U het hulle gered. [6]Hulle het na U om hulp geroep en hulle is bevry; op U het hulle vertrou en hulle is nie beskaam nie. [7]Maar ek is 'n wurm, nie 'n mens nie. Ek word deur die mense bespot en deur die volk verag. [8]Almal wat my sien, spot my, hulle steek vir my tong uit en knik met voldoening die kop en sê: [9]Laat dit aan die Here oor! Laat Hý hom red, laat Hý hom bevry as Hy dan so baie van hom hou. [10]U het my die eerste lewenslig laat sien, my veilig laat rus aan die bors van my moeder. [11]Van my geboorte af is ek onder u sorg, van die begin van my lewe af is U my God. [12]Moet tog nie so ver van my af weg bly nie, want die nood is naby en daar is niemand wat help nie. [13]'n Wreedaardige klomp mense het my omsingel, soos beeste uit Basan staan hulle my toe. [14]Soos verskeurende, brullende leeus storm hulle met oop bekke op my af. [15]Ek is soos uitgestorte water, al my bene het uitmekaar geval, my hart het soos was geword, dit smelt weg in my. [16]Ek is so min werd soos 'n potskerf, my tong kleef aan my verhemelte, U laat lê my asof ek dood is. [17]Soos honde omsingel hulle my, die bende misdadigers sak op my toe, hulle bind my hande en voete vas. [18]Al wat been in my is, kan ek tel; hulle kyk na my met leedvermaak. [19]Hulle verdeel my klere onder mekaar en trek lootjies oor my mantel. [20]En U, Here moet tog nie so ver bly nie, Bron van my krag, help my tog gou! [21]Red my van die swaard, my kosbare lewe uit die mag van die honde. [22]Red my uit die bek van die leeu en tussen die horings van die wilde beeste uit. U het my gebed verhoor! [23]Ek sal tot eer van u Naam getuig in die gemeente, U in die volle vergadering prys. [24]Julle wat die Here dien, prys Hom! Vereer Hom, nageslag van Jakob! Betoon Hom eerbied, nageslag van Israel! [25]Die nood van die hulpelose het Hy nie verontagsaam en gering geskat nie, Hom daarvan nie teruggetrek nie, maar die hulpgeroep na Hom het Hy gehoor. [26]My loflied in die volle vergadering kom van Hom af, my geloftes sal ek nakom voor die mense wat Hom dien. [27]By dié offermaaltyd sal die armes genoeg hê om te eet, en sal dié wat na die wil van die Here vra, Hom prys. Mag hulle lank en gelukkig lewe. [28]Mense oor die hele wêreld sal die Here erken en hulle tot Hom bekeer. Alle volke sal Hom as koning erken, [29]want die koningskap behoort aan die Here; Hy heers oor die volke. [30]Al die rykes van die wêreld sal ook aan dié maaltyd deelneem en Hom as koning erken, ja, alle mense, sterflik en verganklik, sal voor Hom kniel. 31Die nageslag sal Hom dien, en hulle sal van die Here vertel aan die volgende geslag. 32Dié sal dan aan die volk wat nog gebore moet word van hierdie verlossingsdaad getuig: die Here het dit gedoen.

Psalms 23

The Lord Is My Shepherd

Psa 23:1 The LORD is my shepherd; I have everything I need.

Psa 23:2 He lets me rest in fields of green grass and leads me to quiet pools of fresh water.

Psa 23:3 He gives me new strength. He guides me in the right paths, as he has promised.

Psa 23:4 Even if I go through the deepest darkness, I will not be afraid, LORD, for you are with me. Your shepherd's rod and staff protect me.

Psa 23:5 You prepare a banquet for me, where all my enemies can see me; you welcome me as an honored guest and fill my cup to the brim.

Psa 23:6 I know that your goodness and love will be with me all my life; and your house will be my home as long as I live.

PSALMS 23

1'n Psalm van Dawid. Die Here is my herder, ek kom niks kort nie. 2Hy laat my rus in groen weivelde. Hy bring my by waters waar daar vrede is. 3Hy gee my nuwe krag. Hy lei my op die regte paaie tot die eer van sy Naam. 4Selfs al gaan ek deur donker dieptes, sal ek nie bang wees nie, want U is by my. In u hande is ek veilig. 5U laat my by 'n feesmaal aansit, terwyl my teëstanders moet toekyk. U ontvang my soos 'n eregas, ek word oorlaai met hartlikheid. 6U goedheid en liefde sal my lewe lank by my bly en ek sal tuis wees in die huis van die Here tot in lengte van dae.

Psalms 24

The King of Glory

Psa 24:1 The world and all that is in it belong to the LORD; the earth and all who live on it are his.

Psa 24:2 He built it on the deep waters beneath the earth and laid its foundations in the ocean depths.

Psa 24:3 Who has the right to go up the LORD's hill? Who may enter his holy Temple?

Psa 24:4 Those who are pure in act and in thought, who do not worship idols or make false promises.

Psa 24:5 The LORD will bless them and save them; God will declare them innocent.

Psa 24:6 Such are the people who come to God, who come into the presence of the God of Jacob.

Psa 24:7 Fling wide the gates, open the ancient doors, and the great king will come in.

Psa 24:8 Who is this great king? He is the LORD, strong and mighty, the LORD, victorious in battle.

Psa 24:9 Fling wide the gates, open the ancient doors, and the great king will come in.

Psa 24:10 Who is this great king? The triumphant LORD—he is the great king!

PSALMS 24

1'n Psalm van Dawid. Die aarde en alles wat daarop is, die wêreld en dié wat daar woon, alles behoort aan die Here, 2want Hy het die fondamente daarvan in die see gelê en dit stewig gevestig in die waters. 3Wie mag die berg van die Here opgaan en wie mag in sy heiligdom gaan staan? 4Dié een wie se hande rein en wie se hart suiwer is, wat alle bedrog vermy. en geen vals eed aflê nie. 5So iemand sal van die Here seën ontvang, en God, sy redder, sal reg aan hom laat geskied. 6Die mense wat na sy wil vra en Hom dien, is die geslag van Jakob. Sela 7Verbly julle, poorte, wees bly, eeue-oue deure, want die magtige Koning wil ingaan! 8Wie is hierdie magtige Koning? Die Here, sterk en geweldig, die Here, oorwinnaar in elke stryd. 9Verbly julle, poorte, wees bly, eeue-oue deure, want die magtige Koning wil ingaan! 10Wie is Hy, hierdie magtige Koning? Die Here, die Almagtige, Hy is die magtige Koning. Sela

Psalms 25

Teach Me Your Paths

Psa 25:1 To you, O LORD, I offer my prayer;

Psa 25:2 in you, my God, I trust. Save me from the shame of defeat; don't let my enemies gloat over me!

Psa 25:3 Defeat does not come to those who trust in you, but to those who are quick to rebel against you.

Psa 25:4 Teach me your ways, O LORD; make them known to me.

Psa 25:5 Teach me to live according to your truth, for you are my God, who saves me. I always trust in you.

Psa 25:6 Remember, O LORD, your kindness and constant love which you have shown from long ago.

Psa 25:7 Forgive the sins and errors of my youth. In your constant love and goodness, remember me, LORD!

Psa 25:8 Because the LORD is righteous and good, he teaches sinners the path they should follow.

Psa 25:9 He leads the humble in the right way and teaches them his will.

Psa 25:10 With faithfulness and love he leads all who keep his covenant and obey his commands.

Psa 25:11 Keep your promise, LORD, and forgive my sins, for they are many.

Psa 25:12 Those who have reverence for the LORD will learn from him the path they should follow.

Psa 25:13 They will always be prosperous, and their children will possess the land.

Psa 25:14 The LORD is the friend of those who obey him and he affirms his covenant with them.

Psa 25:15 I look to the LORD for help at all times, and he rescues me from danger.

Psa 25:16 Turn to me, LORD, and be merciful to me, because I am lonely and weak.

Psa 25:17 Relieve me of my worries and save me from all my troubles.

Psa 25:18 Consider my distress and suffering and forgive all my sins.

Psa 25:19 See how many enemies I have; see how much they hate me.

Psa 25:20 Protect me and save me; keep me from defeat. I come to you for safety.

Psa 25:21 May my goodness and honesty preserve me, because I trust in you.

Psa 25:22 From all their troubles, O God, save your people Israel!

PSALMS 25

1Van Dawid Tot U, Here, rig ek my, 2my God, op U vertrou ek. Laat my vertroue tog nie tevergeefs wees nie, laat my vyande nie juig oor wat met my gebeur nie. 3Niemand wat sy verwagting in U stel, sal beskaam word nie. Dié wat nie op U vertrou nie, hulle kom in die skande. 4Maak my u wil bekend, Here, leer my u paaie. 5Laat u waarheid my lei en onderrig my daarin, want U is God, my redder. In U stel ek elke dag my verwagting. 6Dink aan die liefde en trou, Here, wat U van altyd af betoon het. 7Moet tog nie dink aan die sondes en oortredinge van my jeug nie. Dink aan my in u trou, Here, omdat U goed is. 8Die Here is goed en regverdig: Hy wys selfs vir sondaars die pad aan, 9Hy laat aan hulpeloses reg geskied en Hy leer hulle sy pad. 10Liefde en trou is die paaie wat die Here bewandel met dié wat sy verbond en verordeninge bewaar. 11Ter wille van u Naam, Here, vergewe my my sonde, want dit is groot. 12As iemand die Here dien, leer Hy hom watter pad hy moet kies, 13sodat hy voorspoed sal geniet en sy nageslag die land sal bly bewoon. 14Die Here neem dié wat Hom dien, in sy vertroue en maak sy verbond aan hulle bekend. 15My oë is altyd op die Here gerig, want dit is Hy wat my voete uit die vangnet sal hou. 16Sien my in genade aan, Here, want ek is eensaam en verstote. 17Ek verkeer in die allergrootste nood; bevry my tog uit my ellende. 18Kyk hoe sleg gaan dit met my en hoe swaar kry ek. Vergewe tog al my sondes. 19Kyk hoe baie vyande het ek en hoe fel haat hulle my. 20Beskerm my en red my, laat my nie beskaamd staan nie, want by U skuil ek. 21Laat onskuld en opregtheid oor my die wag hou, want op U vertrou ek. 22O God, red Israel uit al sy nood.

Psalms 26

I Will Bless the Lord

Psa 26:1 Declare me innocent, O LORD, because I do what is right and trust you completely.

Psa 26:2 Examine me and test me, LORD; judge my desires and thoughts.

Psa 26:3 Your constant love is my guide; your faithfulness always leads me.

Psa 26:4 I do not keep company with worthless people; I have nothing to do with hypocrites.

Psa 26:5 I hate the company of the evil and avoid the wicked.

Psa 26:6 LORD, I wash my hands to show that I am innocent and march in worship around your altar.

Psa 26:7 I sing a hymn of thanksgiving and tell of all your wonderful deeds.

Psa 26:8 I love the house where you live, O LORD, the place where your glory dwells.

Psa 26:9 Do not destroy me with the sinners; spare me from the fate of murderers—

Psa 26:10 those who do evil all the time and are always ready to take bribes.

Psa 26:11 As for me, I do what is right; be merciful to me and save me!

Psa 26:12 I am safe from all dangers; in the assembly of his people I praise the LORD.

PSALMS 26

1Van Dawid. Laat reg aan my geskied, Here, want ek is onskuldig. Ek het op die Here vertrou en nie getwyfel nie. 2Toets my, Here, keur my, ondersoek my deur en deur. 3Ek laat my deur u liefde lei en ek lewe deur u trou. 4Ek hou my nie op met bedrieërs nie en met agterbakse mense gaan ek nie om nie. 5Ek vermy die geselskap van misdadigers en hou my nie op met goddeloses nie. 6As 'n onskuldige, Here, was ek my hande en draai ek na u altaar toe 7om my loflied te sing en van al u wonders te vertel. 8Here, u woonplek, die tuiste van u heerlikheid, het ek lief. 9Moet my tog nie saam met die sondaars, met die moordenaars laat omkom nie. 10Daar is bedrog in hulle hande, hulle regterhande is vol omkoopgeld. 11Maar ek is onskuldig. Red my en wees my genadig; 12dan is my pad vorentoe gelyk en sal ek die Here prys in die samekoms van die gemeente.

Psalms 27

The Lord Is My Light and My Salvation

Psa 27:1 The LORD is my light and my salvation; I will fear no one. The LORD protects me from all danger; I will never be afraid.

Psa 27:2 When evil people attack me and try to kill me, they stumble and fall.

Psa 27:3 Even if a whole army surrounds me, I will not be afraid; even if enemies attack me, I will still trust God.

Psa 27:4 I have asked the LORD for one thing; one thing only do I want: to live in the LORD's house all my life, to marvel there at his goodness, and to ask for his guidance.

Psa 27:5 In times of trouble he will shelter me; he will keep me safe in his Temple and make me secure on a high rock.

Psa 27:6 So I will triumph over my enemies around me. With shouts of joy I will offer sacrifices in his Temple; I will sing, I will praise the LORD.

Psa 27:7 Hear me, LORD, when I call to you! Be merciful and answer me!

Psa 27:8 When you said, "Come worship me," I answered, "I will come, LORD."

Psa 27:9 Don't hide yourself from me! Don't be angry with me; don't turn your servant away. You have been my help; don't leave me, don't abandon me, O God, my savior.

Psa 27:10 My father and mother may abandon me, but the LORD will take care of me.

Psa 27:11 Teach me, LORD, what you want me to do, and lead me along a safe path, because I have many enemies.

Psa 27:12 Don't abandon me to my enemies, who attack me with lies and threats.

Psa 27:13 I know that I will live to see the LORD's goodness in this present life.

Psa 27:14 Trust in the LORD. Have faith, do not despair. Trust in the LORD.

PSALMS 27

1Van Dawid. Die Here is my lig en my redder, vir wie sou ek bang wees? Die Here is my toevlug, vir wie sou ek vrees? 2As misdadigers op my afstorm om my dood te maak, my teëstanders en my vyande, dan is dit juis húlle wat struikel en val. 3Al sou 'n leër teen my stelling inneem, sal ek nie bang word nie. Selfs al sou die aanval op my begin, sal ek nog steeds vertroue hê. 4Net een ding het ek van die Here gevra en dit sal ek najaag: dat ek my hele lewe lank in sy huis mag woon om sy goedheid te belewe en daaroor na te dink in sy tempel. 5Op die dag van gevaar sal die Here my wegsteek in sy huis, my veilig laat skuil in sy woonplek, my hoog op 'n rots laat staan; 6ek sal in sy woonplek onder trompetgeklank my offers bring, ek sal 'n lied sing, ek sal sing tot die eer van die Here terwyl ek neerkyk op die vyande rondom my. 7Luister tog na my, Here, as ek roep; wees my genadig en verhoor my gebed. 8Ek onthou wat U gesê het: Julle moet My kom dien! Ek is hier om U te dien, Here. 9Moet U tog nie vir my verberg nie, moet my tog nie wegstuur terwyl U toornig is nie, want U was nog altyd my hulp. Moet my tog nie verstoot en verlaat nie, want U alleen is die God wat my red. 10Al sou my vader en my moeder my verlaat, die Here sal my onder sy sorg neem. 11Leer my u wil, Here, en lei my op 'n gelyk pad sodat my vyande nie hulle sin kry nie. 12Moet my tog nie oorgee aan die venyn van my teëstanders nie, want daar staan vals getuies teenoor my en hulle blaas geweld teen my aan. 13As ek darem nie geglo het dat ek die goedheid van die Here sal sien in die land van die lewendes nie ...! 14Vertrou op die Here! Wees sterk en hou goeie moed! Ja, vertrou op die Here!

Psalms 28

The Lord Is My Strength and My Shield

Psa 28:1 O LORD, my defender, I call to you. Listen to my cry! If you do not answer me, I will be among those who go down to the world of the dead.

Psa 28:2 Hear me when I cry to you for help, when I lift my hands toward your holy Temple.

Psa 28:3 Do not condemn me with the wicked, with those who do evil—those whose words are friendly, but who have hatred in their hearts.

Psa 28:4 Punish them for what they have done, for the evil they have committed. Punish them for all their deeds; give them what they deserve!

Psa 28:5 They take no notice of what the LORD has done or of what he has made; so he will punish them and destroy them forever.

Psa 28:6 Give praise to the LORD; he has heard my cry for help.

Psa 28:7 The LORD protects and defends me; I trust in him. He gives me help and makes me glad; I praise him with joyful songs.

Psa 28:8 The LORD protects his people; he defends and saves his chosen king.

Psa 28:9 Save your people, LORD, and bless those who are yours. Be their shepherd, and take care of them forever.

PSALMS 28

1Van Dawid. Ek roep na U, Here, my Rots, moet tog nie doof wees vir my nie. As U bly swyg, sal ek wees soos 'n sterwende. 2Hoor my smeekstem as ek na U roep om hulp, as ek my hande in gebed uitsteek na die allerheiligste deel van u tempel. 3Moet my tog nie uitroei saam met die goddeloses, die mense wat onreg doen nie. Hulle praat vriendelik met hulle bure, maar daar is kwaadwilligheid in hulle harte. 4Vergeld hulle volgens hulle dade en volgens hulle skandelike gedrag. Vergeld hulle volgens die werk van hulle hande en laat hulle kry wat hulle verdien, 5want hulle let nie op die dade van die Here en op die werk van sy hande nie. Daarom sal Hy hulle afbreek en nooit weer opbou nie. 6Aan die Here kom die lof toe, want Hy het my smeekstem gehoor. 7Die Here is my sterkte en my beskermer, op Hom het ek vertrou. Hy het my gehelp. Daarom is ek bly en wil ek Hom loof met my lied. 8Die Here is 'n sterkte vir sy volk, 'n veilige beskutting vir sy gesalfde. 9Red u volk en seën dié wat aan U behoort; wees vir hulle 'n herder en sorg altyd vir hulle.

Psalms 29

Ascribe to the Lord Glory

Psa 29:1 Praise the LORD, you heavenly beings; praise his glory and power.

Psa 29:2 Praise the LORD's glorious name; bow down before the Holy One when he appears.

Psa 29:3 The voice of the LORD is heard on the seas; the glorious God thunders, and his voice echoes over the ocean.

Psa 29:4 The voice of the LORD is heard in all its might and majesty.

Psa 29:5 The voice of the LORD breaks the cedars, even the cedars of Lebanon.

Psa 29:6 He makes the mountains of Lebanon jump like calves and makes Mount Hermon leap like a young bull.

Psa 29:7 The voice of the LORD makes the lightning flash.

Psa 29:8 His voice makes the desert shake; he shakes the desert of Kadesh.

Psa 29:9 The LORD's voice shakes the oaks and strips the leaves from the trees while everyone in his Temple shouts, "Glory to God!"

Psa 29:10 The LORD rules over the deep waters; he rules as king forever.

Psa 29:11 The LORD gives strength to his people and blesses them with peace.

PSALMS 29

1'n Psalm van Dawid. Prys die Here, julle hemelinge! Prys die Here om sy eer en mag! 2Prys die Here om die eer van sy Naam! Buig voor die Here by sy heilige verskyning! 3Die stem van die Here weerklink oor die waters. Dit is die magtige God wat die weer laat dreun; die Here self is op die groot waters! 4Die stem van die Here is magtig, die stem van die Here is vol majesteit. 5Die stem van die Here kloof die seders van die Libanon oop. 6Hy laat die Libanon bokspring soos 'n kalf en die Sirjon soos 'n jong bees. 7Die stem van die Here laat weerlig uitslaan. 8Die stem van die Here laat die woestyn bewe. Die Here laat die Kadeswoestyn bewe. 9Die stem van die Here laat die wildsbokke ruk van skrik; dit stroop die bosse kaal. In sy paleis roep almal uit: Hoe geweldig! 10Die Here heers oor die watermassas, Hy heers vir altyd as koning. 11Die Here gee krag aan sy volk; die Here seën sy volk met oorvloed.

Psalms 30

Joy Comes with the Morning

Psa 30:1 I praise you, LORD, because you have saved me and kept my enemies from gloating over me.

Psa 30:2 I cried to you for help, O LORD my God, and you healed me;

Psa 30:3 you kept me from the grave. I was on my way to the depths below, but you restored my life.

Psa 30:4 Sing praise to the LORD, all his faithful people! Remember what the Holy One has done, and give him thanks!

Psa 30:5 His anger lasts only a moment, his goodness for a lifetime. Tears may flow in the night, but joy comes in the morning.

Psa 30:6 I felt secure and said to myself, "I will never be defeated."

Psa 30:7 You were good to me, LORD; you protected me like a mountain fortress. But then you hid yourself from me, and I was afraid.

Psa 30:8 I called to you, LORD; I begged for your help:

Psa 30:9 "What will you gain from my death? What profit from my going to the grave? Are dead people able to praise you? Can they proclaim your unfailing goodness?

Psa 30:10 Hear me, LORD, and be merciful! Help me, LORD!"

Psa 30:11 You have changed my sadness into a joyful dance; you have taken away my sorrow and surrounded me with joy.

Psa 30:12 So I will not be silent; I will sing praise to you. LORD, you are my God; I will give you thanks forever.

PSALMS 30

[1]'n Psalm. 'n Lied vir die inwyding van die tempel. Van Dawid. [2]Ek wil u lof verkondig, Here, want U het my gered en my vyande nie laat bly wees oor my nie. [3]Here my God, ek het na U geroep om hulp en U het my gesond gemaak. [4]Here, U het my gered van die doderyk, my aan die lewe gehou toe ek al op pad was na die dood toe. [5]Sing tot eer van die Here, julle wat Hom getrou dien, loof sy heilige Naam! [6]Waarlik, sy toorn duur net 'n oomblik, maar sy goedheid lewenslank. Gisteraand was daar nog trane en vanmôre lag ek al weer. [7]Toe dit goed gegaan het, het ek wel gesê: Niks sal my ooit laat wankel nie. [8]Deur u goedheid het U my op 'n veilige berg laat staan, Here. Maar toe U U aan my onttrek het, het ek baie bang geword. [9]Ek het na U geroep, Here. Ek het U om genade gesmeek: [10]Watter voordeel is daar in my ondergang as ek die graf moet ingaan? Kan stof U loof? Kan dit u trou verkondig? [11]Luister, Here, en wees my genadig! Help my, Here! [12]Ek was in die rou, maar U het my van vreugde laat dans. U het my rouklere uitgetrek en vir my feesklere aangetrek. [13]Daarom sal ek sing tot u eer; ek sal nie stilbly nie. Here my God, vir altyd sal ek U loof!

Psalms 31

Into Your Hand I Commit My Spirit

Psa 31:1 I come to you, LORD, for protection; never let me be defeated. You are a righteous God; save me, I pray!

Psa 31:2 Hear me! Save me now! Be my refuge to protect me; my defense to save me.

Psa 31:3 You are my refuge and defense; guide me and lead me as you have promised.

Psa 31:4 Keep me safe from the trap that has been set for me; shelter me from danger.

Psa 31:5 I place myself in your care. You will save me, LORD; you are a faithful God.

Psa 31:6 You hate those who worship false gods, but I trust in you.

Psa 31:7 I will be glad and rejoice because of your constant love. You see my suffering; you know my trouble.

Psa 31:8 You have not let my enemies capture me; you have given me freedom to go where I wish.

Psa 31:9 Be merciful to me, LORD, for I am in trouble; my eyes are tired from so much crying; I am completely worn out.

Psa 31:10 I am exhausted by sorrow, and weeping has shortened my life. I am weak from all my troubles; even my bones are wasting away.

Psa 31:11 All my enemies, and especially my neighbors, treat me with contempt. Those who know me are afraid of me; when they see me in the street, they run away.

Psa 31:12 Everyone has forgotten me, as though I were dead; I am like something thrown away.

Psa 31:13 I hear many enemies whispering; terror is all around me. They are making plans against me, plotting to kill me.

Psa 31:14 But my trust is in you, O LORD; you are my God.

Psa 31:15 I am always in your care; save me from my enemies, from those who persecute me.

Psa 31:16 Look on your servant with kindness; save me in your constant love.

Psa 31:17 I call to you, LORD; don't let me be disgraced. May the wicked be disgraced; may they go silently down to the world of the dead.

Psa 31:18 Silence those liars—all the proud and arrogant who speak with contempt about the righteous.

Psa 31:19 How wonderful are the good things you keep for those who honor you! Everyone knows how good you are, how securely you protect those who trust you.

Psa 31:20 You hide them in the safety of your presence from the plots of others; in a safe shelter you hide them from the insults of their enemies.

Psa 31:21 Praise the LORD! How wonderfully he showed his love for me when I was surrounded and attacked!

Psa 31:22 I was afraid and thought that he had driven me out of his presence. But he heard my cry, when I called to him for help.

Psa 31:23 Love the LORD, all his faithful people. The LORD protects the faithful, but punishes the proud as they deserve.

Psa 31:24 Be strong, be courageous, all you that hope in the LORD.

PSALMS 31

1Vir die koorleier. 'n Psalm van Dawid. 2By U, Here, skuil ek. Laat my tog nooit teleurgestel staan nie! Bevry my, want U is getrou. 3Luister na my, red my tog gou. Wees vir my 'n rots om na toe te vlug, 'n bergvesting om my te red. 4Ja, U is my rots en my bergvesting, ter wille van u Naam sal U my voorgaan en my lei. 5Bevry my uit die vangnet wat hulle vir my gestel het, want U is my toevlug. 6In u hande gee ek my lewe oor, want, Here, troue God, U het my vrygemaak. 7Ek haat mense wat waarde heg aan die nikswerd afgode; my vertroue stel ek in die Here. 8Ek wil jubel en juig oor u troue liefde: U was nie onverskillig teenoor my ellende nie; U het die bedreiging van my lewe raakgesien 9en my nie aan die mag van die vyand oorgelewer nie; U het my 'n veilige staanplek gegee. 10Wees my genadig, Here, want ek is in die nood; van verdriet het my oë swak geword, ja, alles in my. 11My lewe vergaan van kommer en my jare van swaarkry; deur my ellende word my krag geknak en teer my liggaam uit. 12Ek is die spot van al my teëstanders, veral van my bure, 'n verskrikking vir al my bekendes. Dié wat my op straat sien, vlug vir my. 13Ek is vergeet soos iemand wat lankal dood is, ek het geword soos 'n ding wat lê en vergaan. 14Ek hoor dreigemente van baie; dit dreig van alle kante af. Baie span teen my saam en smee planne om my lewe te neem. 15Maar ek vertrou op U, Here, ek sê: U is my God. 16My tye is in u hand. Red my uit die hande van my vyande en vervolgers! 17Verskyn tog tot my redding, red my deur u onfeilbare liefde. 18Here, laat my nie teleurgestel staan in my verwagting as ek U aanroep nie. Laat die goddelose teleurgestel staan in hulle verwagting, laat hulle die stilte van die doderyk ingaan. 19Bring die leuenaars tot swye, dié wat vol is van hulleself en in hoogmoed en veragting teen die regverdige praat. 20Hoe groot is u goedheid: dit is altyd daar vir dié wat U dien, U bewys dit voor die oë van die mense aan dié wat by U skuil. 21Deur u teenwoordigheid beskerm U hulle teen die sameswering van mense. U steek hulle weg vir dié wat vir hulle beskuldig. 22Aan die Here kom die lof toe, want Hy het sy trou op wonderbaarlike wyse aan my betoon toe ek beleër was. 23Ek het in my angs gedink: Dit is klaar met my, selfs U het my verwerp. Tog, U het geluister na my gesmeek toe ek na U om hulp geroep het. 24Betuig julle liefde vir Hom, julle almal wat die guns van die Here geniet. Die Here beskerm dié wat aan Hom getrou is, maar dié wat teen Hom opstandig is, straf Hy swaar. 25Wees dus sterk en hou goeie moed, julle almal wat julle vertroue in die Here stel.

Psalms 32

Blessed Are the Forgiven

Psa 32:1 Happy are those whose sins are forgiven, whose wrongs are pardoned.

Psa 32:2 Happy is the one whom the LORD does not accuse of doing wrong and who is free from all deceit.

Psa 32:3 When I did not confess my sins, I was worn out from crying all day long.

Psa 32:4 Day and night you punished me, LORD; my strength was completely drained, as moisture is dried up by the summer heat.

Psa 32:5 Then I confessed my sins to you; I did not conceal my wrongdoings. I decided to confess them to you, and you forgave all my sins.

Psa 32:6 So all your loyal people should pray to you in times of need; when a great flood of trouble comes rushing in, it will not reach them.

Psa 32:7 You are my hiding place; you will save me from trouble. I sing aloud of your salvation, because you protect me.

Psa 32:8 The LORD says, "I will teach you the way you should go; I will instruct you and advise you.

Psa 32:9 Don't be stupid like a horse or a mule, which must be controlled with a bit and bridle to make it submit."

Psa 32:10 The wicked will have to suffer, but those who trust in the LORD are protected by his constant love.

Psa 32:11 You that are righteous, be glad and rejoice because of what the LORD has done. You that obey him, shout for joy!

PSALMS 32

1'n Gedig van Dawid. Dit gaan goed met die mens wie se oortredings nie gestraf word nie, wie se sonde vergewe word. 2Dit gaan goed met die mens vir wie die Here die oortreding nie toereken nie en in wie se gees daar geen valsheid is nie. 3Toe ek oor my sonde geswyg het, het my liggaam uitgeteer soos ek heeldag om hulp geroep het. 4U hand het dag en nag swaar op my gedruk, my krag het opgedroog soos water in somerhitte. Sela 5Toe het ek my sonde bely, my oortreding nie weggesteek nie. Ek het gesê: Voor die Here bely ek my opstandigheid; en U het my skuld vergewe. Sela 6Dit is waarom elke gelowige in 'n tyd van nood tot U bid; selfs vloedwaters sal hom nie skielik oorval nie. 7U is vir my 'n skuilplek, U beskerm my teen aanvalle, U laat my oorwinningsliedere sing. Sela 8Ek wil jou onderrig en jou die pad leer wat jy moet volg. Ek wil jou raad gee en my oog oor jou hou. 9Moenie onverstandig wees nie, soos 'n perd of 'n muil wat met 'n stang in die bek beteuel moet word as jy hom wil lei. 10Die goddelose het baie smarte, maar wie op die Here vertrou, dié omvou Hy met sy liefde. 11Verbly julle in die Here en juig, regverdiges, jubel, alle opregtes.

Psalms 33

The Steadfast Love of the Lord

Psa 33:1 All you that are righteous, shout for joy for what the LORD has done; praise him, all you that obey him.

Psa 33:2 Give thanks to the LORD with harps, sing to him with stringed instruments.

Psa 33:3 Sing a new song to him, play the harp with skill, and shout for joy!

Psa 33:4 The words of the LORD are true, and all his works are dependable.

Psa 33:5 The LORD loves what is righteous and just; his constant love fills the earth.

Psa 33:6 The LORD created the heavens by his command, the sun, moon, and stars by his spoken word.

Psa 33:7 He gathered all the seas into one place; he shut up the ocean depths in storerooms.

Psa 33:8 Worship the LORD, all the earth! Honor him, all peoples of the world!

Psa 33:9 When he spoke, the world was created; at his command everything appeared.

Psa 33:10 The LORD frustrates the purposes of the nations; he keeps them from carrying out their plans.

Psa 33:11 But his plans endure forever; his purposes last eternally.

Psa 33:12 Happy is the nation whose God is the LORD; happy are the people he has chosen for his own!

Psa 33:13 The LORD looks down from heaven and sees all of us humans.

Psa 33:14 From where he rules, he looks down on all who live on earth.

Psa 33:15 He forms all their thoughts and knows everything they do.

Psa 33:16 A king does not win because of his powerful army; a soldier does not triumph because of his strength.

Psa 33:17 War horses are useless for victory; their great strength cannot save.

Psa 33:18 The LORD watches over those who obey him, those who trust in his constant love.

Psa 33:19 He saves them from death; he keeps them alive in times of famine.

Psa 33:20 We put our hope in the LORD; he is our protector and our help.

Psa 33:21 We are glad because of him; we trust in his holy name.

Psa 33:22 May your constant love be with us, LORD, as we put our hope in you.

PSALMS 33

1Jubel in die Here, regverdiges, sing 'n loflied, opregtes! 2Loof die Here met die lier, speel vir Hom op die harp! 3Sing vir Hom 'n nuwe lied, speel met volle oorgawe, jubel dit uit! 4Wat die Here sê, gebeur, alles wat Hy doen, staan vas. 5Hy het geregtigheid en reg lief, die hele wêreld is vol van die Here se troue liefde. 6Deur die woord van die Here is die hemele gemaak, deur sy bevel al die hemelliggame. 7Hy het die seewater laat saamkom soos in 'n dam, die groot waters op een plek opgegaar. 8Die hele aarde moet die Here vrees, al die bewoners van die wêreld moet vir Hom ontsag hê, 9want Hy het gepraat en dit was so, Hy het beveel en dit was daar. 10Die Here verydel die planne van die nasies, Hy laat hulle besluite op niks uitloop. 11Maar die planne van die Here staan vir altyd vas, sy besluite van geslag tot geslag. 12Dit gaan goed met die nasie wie se God die Here is, met die volk wat Hy vir Hom as sy eie gekies het. 13Die Here kyk uit die hemel en sien al die mense. 14Van die plek waar Hy as koning sit, sien Hy almal wat onder op die aarde woon. 15Dit is Hy wat hulle verstand gevorm het, wat al hulle werk deurgrond. 16Dit is nie deur 'n groot leër dat 'n koning wen nie, en nie deur groot krag dat 'n held behoue uitkom nie. 17Dit is nie waar dat die perd die oorwinning gee en dat sy groot krag redding bring nie. 18Dit is die Here wat sorg vir dié wat Hom eer, vir dié wat op sy mag vertrou 19om hulle van die dood te red en hulle in die lewe te hou in hongersnood. 20Ons vertrou op die Here: Hy is ons hulp en ons beskermer. 21Ja, in Hom is ons hart bly, op sy heilige Naam vertrou ons. 22Hou u liefde oor ons, Here, want ons stel ons vertroue in U.

Psalms 34

Taste and See That the Lord Is Good

Psa 34:1 I will always thank the LORD; I will never stop praising him.

Psa 34:2 I will praise him for what he has done; may all who are oppressed listen and be glad!

Psa 34:3 Proclaim with me the LORD's greatness; let us praise his name together!

Psa 34:4 I prayed to the LORD, and he answered me; he freed me from all my fears.

Psa 34:5 The oppressed look to him and are glad; they will never be disappointed.

Psa 34:6 The helpless call to him, and he answers; he saves them from all their troubles.

Psa 34:7 His angel guards those who honor the LORD and rescues them from danger.

Psa 34:8 Find out for yourself how good the LORD is. Happy are those who find safety with him.

Psa 34:9 Honor the LORD, all his people; those who obey him have all they need.

Psa 34:10 Even lions go hungry for lack of food, but those who obey the LORD lack nothing good.

Psa 34:11 Come, my young friends, and listen to me, and I will teach you to honor the LORD.

Psa 34:12 Would you like to enjoy life? Do you want long life and happiness?

Psa 34:13 Then keep from speaking evil and from telling lies.

Psa 34:14 Turn away from evil and do good; strive for peace with all your heart.

Psa 34:15 The LORD watches over the righteous and listens to their cries;

Psa 34:16 but he opposes those who do evil, so that when they die, they are soon forgotten.

Psa 34:17 The righteous call to the LORD, and he listens; he rescues them from all their troubles.

Psa 34:18 The LORD is near to those who are discouraged; he saves those who have lost all hope.

Psa 34:19 Good people suffer many troubles, but the LORD saves them from them all;

Psa 34:20 the LORD preserves them completely; not one of their bones is broken.

Psa 34:21 Evil will kill the wicked; those who hate the righteous will be punished.

Psa 34:22 The LORD will save his people; those who go to him for protection will be spared.

PSALMS 34

1'n Lied van Dawid. Hy het hom kranksinnig gehou by Abimelek. Dié het hom weggejaag en hy het padgegee. 2Ek sal die Here altyd weer prys, sy lof sal altyd op my lippe wees. 3Ek sal die roem van die Here sing; dié wat swaar kry, sal dit hoor en daaroor bly wees. 4Sing saam met my oor die grootheid van die Here en laat ons saam sy Naam prys. 5Ek het die Here aangeroep en Hy het my geantwoord, Hy het my gered uit alle doodsgevare. 6Dié wat swaar kry, sien op na Hom en straal van blydskap, hulle word nie teleurgestel in hulle verwagting nie. 7Ek is een van die ellendiges wat geroep het. Die Here het gehoor, uit al my benoudhede het Hy my gered. 8Die Engel van die Here slaan sy laer op rondom dié wat die Here dien, en red hulle. 9Kom ondervind en sien self dat die Here goed is! Dit gaan goed met die mens wat by Hom skuil. 10Julle wat aan die Here behoort, dien Hom! Wie Hom dien, het geen gebrek nie. 11Selfs leeus ly gebrek en kry honger, maar wie die Here se hulp vra, kom niks kort van al die goeie dinge nie. 12Kom, kinders, luister na my! Ek wil julle leer hoe om die Here te dien. 13As iemand die lewe liefhet en 'n lang lewe begeer om die goeie te geniet, 14moet hy sy tong weerhou van kwaadpraat en sy lippe van leuens. 15Bly weg van die kwaad af en doen wat goed is, soek vrede en jaag dit na! 16Die Here sorg vir die regverdiges en luister na hulle hulpgeroep. 17Maar Hy tree op teen dié wat kwaad doen en vee selfs die herinnering aan hulle van die aarde af. 18As die regverdiges om hulp roep, hoor die Here hulle en red Hy hulle uit al hulle benoudhede. 19Die Here is naby die gebrokenes, Hy help die moedeloses. 20Al word die regverdige ook deur hoeveel rampe getref, die Here red hom uit almal. 21Die Here sorg vir die hele liggaam van die regverdige: geen been word gebreek nie. 22Die kwaad wat die goddelose doen, bewerk sy eie ondergang: vir sy vyandskap teen die regverdige sal hy boet. 23Die Here maak sy dienaars vry. Wie by Hom skuil, sal nie as skuldige behandel word nie.

Psalms 35

Great Is the Lord

Psa 35:1 Oppose those who oppose me, LORD, and fight those who fight against me!

Psa 35:2 Take your shield and armor and come to my rescue.

Psa 35:3 Lift up your spear and war ax against those who pursue me. Promise that you will save me.

Psa 35:4 May those who try to kill me be defeated and disgraced! May those who plot against me be turned back and confused!

Psa 35:5 May they be like straw blown by the wind as the angel of the LORD pursues them!

Psa 35:6 May their path be dark and slippery while the angel of the LORD strikes them down!

Psa 35:7 Without any reason they laid a trap for me and dug a deep hole to catch me.

Psa 35:8 But destruction will catch them before they know it; they will be caught in their own trap and fall to their destruction!

Psa 35:9 Then I will be glad because of the LORD; I will be happy because he saved me.

Psa 35:10 With all my heart I will say to the LORD, "There is no one like you. You protect the weak from the strong, the poor from the oppressor."

Psa 35:11 Evil people testify against me and accuse me of crimes I know nothing about.

Psa 35:12 They pay me back evil for good, and I sink in despair.

Psa 35:13 But when they were sick, I dressed in mourning; I deprived myself of food; I prayed with my head bowed low, Psa 35:14 as I would pray for a friend or a brother. I went around bent over in mourning, as one who mourns for his mother.

Psa 35:15 But when I was in trouble, they were all glad and gathered around to make fun of me; strangers beat me and kept striking me.

Psa 35:16 Like those who would mock a cripple, they glared at me with hate.

Psa 35:17 How much longer, Lord, will you just look on? Rescue me from their attacks; save my life from these lions!

Psa 35:18 Then I will thank you in the assembly of your people; I will praise you before them all.

Psa 35:19 Don't let my enemies, those liars, gloat over my defeat. Don't let those who hate me for no reason smirk with delight over my sorrow.

Psa 35:20 They do not speak in a friendly way; instead they invent all kinds of lies about peace-loving people.

Psa 35:21 They accuse me, shouting, "We saw what you did!"

Psa 35:22 But you, O LORD, have seen this. So don't be silent, Lord; don't keep yourself far away!

Psa 35:23 Rouse yourself, O Lord, and defend me; rise up, my God, and plead my cause.

Psa 35:24 You are righteous, O LORD, so declare me innocent; don't let my enemies gloat over me.

Psa 35:25 Don't let them say to themselves, "We are rid of him! That's just what we wanted!"

Psa 35:26 May those who gloat over my suffering be completely defeated and confused; may those who claim to be better than I am be covered with shame and disgrace.

Psa 35:27 May those who want to see me acquitted shout for joy and say again and again, "How great is the LORD! He is pleased with the success of his servant."

Psa 35:28 Then I will proclaim your righteousness, and I will praise you all day long.

PSALMS 35

1Van Dawid. Behartig my saak teen dié wat my aankla, Here, tree op teen my vyande, 2gryp die skilde en kom help my. 3Vat die spies en keer my vervolgers. Laat ek U hoor sê: Ek red jou! 4Laat hulle wat my lewe soek, die slegste daarvan afkom en beskaamd staan. Laat hulle wat my ondergang soek, op die vlug slaan, teleurgestel in hulle verwagting. 5Laat die Engel van die Here hulle jaag soos kaf voor die wind. 6Maak hulle pad donker en glibberig en laat die Engel van die Here hulle agtervolg, 7want hulle het nie rede gehad om vir my 'n strik te stel en vir my 'n gat te grawe nie. 8Laat hulle einde skielik kom! Laat hulle in hulle eie strik beland! Laat hulle self in die gat val wat hulle gegrawe het! 9Maar ek sal juig in die Here, ek sal jubel oor die redding wat Hy bring. 10My hele wese sê: Here, wie is soos U wat die swakke bevry van dié wat sterker is, die swakke en die arme van dié wat hom beroof? 11Dit is kwaadwillige getuies wat teen my optree. Hulle beskuldig my van dinge waarvan ek niks weet nie. 12Hulle vergeld my kwaad vir goed, hulle gebruik elke geleentheid om my by te kom. 13En tog, toe húlle siek was, het ek getreur soos oor 'n sterfgeval: rouklere aangetrek en myself gekasty deur nie te eet nie. Ek het sonder ophou vir hulle gebid 14soos vir 'n vriend of 'n broer. Ek het rondgeloop soos een wat oor sy moeder treur, krom en in die rou. 15Maar nou dat ek in die moeilikheid is, is dit vir hulle lekker en span hulle saam teen my. Sonder dat ek weet waaroor, skeur hierdie skoorsoekers my uitmekaar en hulle kry nie end nie. 16Nou dat ek struikel, lag hulle daaroor; nou kom dreig hulle my. 17Hoe lank, Here, sal U dit duld? Red my kosbare lewe van die aanslag van hierdie mense wat my soos leeus bedreig. 18Dan sal ek U in 'n volle vergadering dank en voor die hele gemeente prys. 19Moenie dat hulle wat sonder rede my vyande is, hulle verlustig in my leed nie. Moenie dat dié wat my sonder aanleiding haat, hulle verlustig in my leed nie. 20Hulle wil nie vrede hê nie, hulle kom met vals beskuldigings teen vredeliewende mense. 21Hulle rek hulle monde teen my oop en sê: Ja, ons het dit self gesien. 22Maar U het gesien dit is nie so nie, Here. Moet tog nie swyg nie. Moenie ver van my af bly nie, Here. 23Tree tog vir my in, my God. Doen tog iets aan my saak, Here. 24U is regverdig, Here my God, laat reg aan my geskied, sodat hulle hulle nie in my leed verlustig nie. 25Moenie dat hulle vir hulleself sê: Dis mos wat ons wou gehad het nie. Moenie dat hulle sê: Ons het hom vernietig nie. 26Laat almal wat bly is oor my ellende, teleurgestel word in hulle verwagting en self in die ellende beland. Laat oor hulle wat op my neersien, skande en smaad kom. 27Maar dié wat wil hê ek moet vrygespreek word, laat hulle juig en bly wees, laat hulle altyd weer sê:

Die Here is groot. Hy sorg dat sy dienaar vrede het. [28]My tong sal nie stil word oor u trou nie, dag vir dag sal ek U loof.

Psalms 36

How Precious Is Your Steadfast Love

Psa 36:1 Sin speaks to the wicked deep in their hearts; they reject God and do not have reverence for him.

Psa 36:2 Because they think so highly of themselves, they think that God will not discover their sin and condemn it.

Psa 36:3 Their speech is wicked and full of lies; they no longer do what is wise and good.

Psa 36:4 They make evil plans as they lie in bed; nothing they do is good, and they never reject anything evil.

Psa 36:5 LORD, your constant love reaches the heavens; your faithfulness extends to the skies.

Psa 36:6 Your righteousness is towering like the mountains; your justice is like the depths of the sea. People and animals are in your care.

Psa 36:7 How precious, O God, is your constant love! We find protection under the shadow of your wings.

Psa 36:8 We feast on the abundant food you provide; you let us drink from the river of your goodness.

Psa 36:9 You are the source of all life, and because of your light we see the light.

Psa 36:10 Continue to love those who know you and to do good to those who are righteous.

Psa 36:11 Do not let proud people attack me or the wicked make me run away.

Psa 36:12 See where evil people have fallen. There they lie, unable to rise.

PSALMS 36

1Vir die koorleier. Van Dawid, die dienaar van die Here. 2In die hart van die goddelose het die opstand teen God die laaste woord. Die goddelose het geen vrees vir God nie 3en praat net goed oor homself. Hy is altyd daarop uit om kwaad te doen en om te haat. 4As hy praat, is dit kwaadwillig en vals; verstandig wees en goed doen bestaan nie vir hom nie. 5Selfs as hy gaan lê, dink hy net kwaad uit; hy bly op 'n pad wat nie reg is nie; wat sleg is, verwerp hy nie. 6Here, u liefde reik tot in die hemel, u trou tot in die wolke, 7u geregtigheid tot op die hoogste berge, die reg wat U spreek, tot in die dieptes van die see. U sorg vir mens en dier, o Here. 8Hoe kosbaar is u trou, o God! U beskerm die mense wat by U skuil. 9In u huis geniet hulle oorvloed, U laat hulle drink uit die strome van u goedheid. 10U is die bron van die lewe, deur u lig lewe ons. 11Laat u liefde bly by dié wat U erken en u trou by dié wat opreg is. 12Laat my nie onder die voete van eiegeregtige mense beland nie, moenie dat goddeloses my hier wegdryf nie! 13Dié wat altyd onreg doen, val net daar waar hulle is; hulle word platgeslaan en kan nie weer opstaan nie.

Psalms 37

He Will Not Forsake His Saints

Psa 37:1 Don't be worried on account of the wicked; don't be jealous of those who do wrong.

Psa 37:2 They will soon disappear like grass that dries up; they will die like plants that wither.

Psa 37:3 Trust in the LORD and do good; live in the land and be safe.

Psa 37:4 Seek your happiness in the LORD, and he will give you your heart's desire.

Psa 37:5 Give yourself to the LORD; trust in him, and he will help you;

Psa 37:6 he will make your righteousness shine like the noonday sun.

Psa 37:7 Be patient and wait for the LORD to act; don't be worried about those who prosper or those who succeed in their evil plans.

Psa 37:8 Don't give in to worry or anger; it only leads to trouble.

Psa 37:9 Those who trust in the LORD will possess the land, but the wicked will be driven out.

Psa 37:10 Soon the wicked will disappear; you may look for them, but you won't find them;

Psa 37:11 but the humble will possess the land and enjoy prosperity and peace.

Psa 37:12 The wicked plot against good people and glare at them with hate.

Psa 37:13 But the Lord laughs at wicked people, because he knows they will soon be destroyed.

Psa 37:14 The wicked draw their swords and bend their bows to kill the poor and needy, to slaughter those who do what is right;

Psa 37:15 but they will be killed by their own swords, and their bows will be smashed.

Psa 37:16 The little that a good person owns is worth more than the wealth of all the wicked,

Psa 37:17 because the LORD will take away the strength of the wicked, but protect those who are good.

Psa 37:18 The LORD takes care of those who obey him, and the land will be theirs forever.

Psa 37:19 They will not suffer when times are bad; they will have enough in time of famine.

Psa 37:20 But the wicked will die; the enemies of the LORD will vanish like wild flowers; they will disappear like smoke.

Psa 37:21 The wicked borrow and never pay back, but good people are generous with their gifts.

Psa 37:22 Those who are blessed by the LORD will possess the land, but those who are cursed by him will be driven out.

Psa 37:23 The LORD guides us in the way we should go and protects those who please him.

Psa 37:24 If they fall, they will not stay down, because the LORD will help them up.

Psa 37:25 I am old now; I have lived a long time, but I have never seen good people abandoned by the LORD or their children begging for food.

Psa 37:26 At all times they give freely and lend to others, and their children are a blessing.

Psa 37:27 Turn away from evil and do good, and your descendants will always live in the land;

Psa 37:28 for the LORD loves what is right and does not abandon his faithful people. He protects them forever, but the descendants of the wicked will be driven out.

Psa 37:29 The righteous will possess the land and live in it forever.

Psa 37:30 The words of good people are wise, and they are always fair.

Psa 37:31 They keep the law of their God in their hearts and never depart from it.

Psa 37:32 Wicked people watch good people and try to kill them;

Psa 37:33 but the LORD will not abandon them to their enemy's power or let them be condemned when they are on trial.

Psa 37:34 Put your hope in the LORD and obey his commands; he will honor you by giving you the land, and you will see the wicked driven out.

Psa 37:35 I once knew someone wicked who was a tyrant; he towered over everyone like a cedar of Lebanon;

Psa 37:36 but later I passed by, and he wasn't there; I looked for him, but couldn't find him.

Psa 37:37 Notice good people, observe the righteous; peaceful people have descendants,

Psa 37:38 but sinners are completely destroyed, and their descendants are wiped out.

Psa 37:39 The LORD saves the righteous and protects them in times of trouble.

Psa 37:40 He helps them and rescues them; he saves them from the wicked, because they go to him for protection.

PSALMS 37

1Van Dawid. Moet jou nie ontstel oor skelms en jou kwel oor skurke nie, 2want soos gras vergaan hulle gou en soos groenigheid verdwyn hulle sommer. 3Vertrou liewer op die Here en doen wat goed is, woon en werk rustig voort. 4Vind jou vreugde in die Here, en Hy sal jou gee wat jou hart begeer. 5Laat jou lewe aan die Here oor en vertrou op Hom; Hy sal sorg. 6Hy sal jou onskuld laat deurbreek soos die son, jou reg soos die helder lig van die middag. 7Daarom moet jy in stilte op die Here vertrou en jou nie ontstel oor die voorspoedige lewe van 'n skelm nie. 8Moenie kwaad word nie, laat staan die woede, moet jou nie ontstel nie: dit bring net ellende. 9Die skelms sal uitgeroei word, maar dié wat hulle vertroue in die Here stel, sal in besit bly van die land. 10Nog 'n rukkie en daar sal geen goddelose meer wees nie; 'n mens sal hom soek waar hy was, maar hy sal nie daar wees nie. 11Dié wat nou verdruk word, sal die land besit en hulle verlustig in hulle welvaart. 12Die goddelose soek die ondergang van die regverdige en bedreig sy lewe. 13Die Here lag vir die goddeloses, want Hy sien hulle dag kom. 14Die goddeloses trek die swaard en span die boog om die hulpelose en die arme dood te maak, om dié wat die regte pad loop, te vermoor. 15Die goddeloses se swaarde sal hulle eie harte tref en hulle boë sal stukkend gebreek word. 16Die bietjie van die regverdige is beter as die rykdom van talle goddeloses, 17want die mag van die goddeloses sal verbreek word, maar die Here sal die hulp wees van die regverdiges. 18Die Here sorg vir die lewe van die opregtes, en wat hulle besit, sal hulle behou so lank hulle lewe. 19In tyd van nood sal hulle nie verleë staan nie, in tyd van gebrek sal hulle genoeg hê. 20Die goddeloses sal te gronde gaan, die vyande van die Here sal tot niet gaan; soos mooi weivelde wat in vlamme opgaan, so sal hulle verdwyn. 21Die goddelose leen en betaal nie terug nie, die regverdige kry jammer en help. 22Dié wat deur die Here geseën word, sal die land besit; maar dié wat deur Hom vervloek is, sal uitgeroei word. 23Die Here bepaal die koers van die mens met wie se pad Hy tevrede is, en Hy ondersteun hom. 24As so iemand val, bly hy nie lê nie, want die Here help hom op. 25Ek was jonk en ek het oud geword, maar nooit het ek 'n regverdige verlate gesien of dat sy nageslag brood soek nie. 26Hy is altyd vrygewig, hy leen uit sonder rente: met sy nageslag sal dit goed gaan. 27Bly weg van die kwaad af en doen wat goed is, dan sal jy die land altyd bewoon, 28want die Here het die reg lief en sy troue dienaars verlaat Hy nie. Hulle sal altyd behoue bly, maar die nageslag van die goddeloses sal uitgeroei word. 29Die regverdiges sal die land besit en altyd daarin woon. 30Wat die regverdige praat, is wysheid, wat hy sê, stem ooreen met die reg. 31Die openbaring van sy

God is in sy hart, sy koers is nie onseker nie. 32Die goddelose lê die regverdige voor en soek 'n kans om hom dood te maak, 33maar die Here los hom nie in die mag van die goddelose nie en laat nie toe dat hy veroordeel word as hy voor die regbank staan nie. 34Vertrou op die Here en bly op sy weë; Hy sal jou weer laat opstaan om die land te besit, en jy sal die ondergang van die goddeloses aanskou. 35Ek het al gesien dat 'n slegte, roekelose mens geil opskiet soos 'n plant, 36en toe ek weer verbykom, was hy nie meer daar nie; ek het hom gesoek en hy was nêrens nie. 37Maar let nou op die eerbare mens, kyk na die opregte: die regskape man, vir hom is daar 'n toekoms. 38Dié wat hulle teen die Here verset, word voor die voet uitgewis, die toekoms van die goddeloses word afgesny, 39maar die regverdiges word deur die Here gered. Hy is hulle toevlug in tyd van nood. 40Die Here help hulle en Hy bevry hulle, Hy bevry hulle van die slegte mense en red hulle, want hulle skuil by Hom.

Psalms 38

Do Not Forsake Me, O Lord

Psa 38:1 O LORD, don't punish me in your anger!

Psa 38:2 You have wounded me with your arrows; you have struck me down.

Psa 38:3 Because of your anger, I am in great pain; my whole body is diseased because of my sins.

Psa 38:4 I am drowning in the flood of my sins; they are a burden too heavy to bear.

Psa 38:5 Because I have been foolish, my sores stink and rot.

Psa 38:6 I am bent over, I am crushed; I mourn all day long.

Psa 38:7 I am burning with fever and I am near death.

Psa 38:8 I am worn out and utterly crushed; my heart is troubled, and I groan with pain.

Psa 38:9 O Lord, you know what I long for; you hear all my groans.

Psa 38:10 My heart is pounding, my strength is gone, and my eyes have lost their brightness.

Psa 38:11 My friends and neighbors will not come near me, because of my sores; even my family keeps away from me.

Psa 38:12 Those who want to kill me lay traps for me, and those who want to hurt me threaten to ruin me; they never stop plotting against me.

Psa 38:13 I am like the deaf and cannot hear, like the dumb and cannot speak.

Psa 38:14 I am like those who do not answer, because they cannot hear.

Psa 38:15 But I trust in you, O LORD; and you, O Lord my God, will answer me.

Psa 38:16 Don't let my enemies gloat over my distress; don't let them boast about my downfall!

Psa 38:17 I am about to fall and am in constant pain.

Psa 38:18 I confess my sins; they fill me with anxiety.

Psa 38:19 My enemies are healthy and strong; there are many who hate me for no reason.

Psa 38:20 Those who pay back evil for good are against me because I try to do right.

Psa 38:21 Do not abandon me, O LORD; do not stay away, my God!

Psa 38:22 Help me now, O Lord my savior!

PSALMS 38

1'n Psalm van Dawid. 'n Herinnering. 2Moet my tog nie in u toorn bly straf nie, Here, en my langer in u gramskap tugtig nie. 3U pyle het my getref, u hand lê swaar op my. 4Deur u toorn is daar nie meer 'n gesonde plek aan my liggaam nie, deur my sonde is daar nie meer 'n heel plek aan my lyf nie. 5Ja, my ongeregtighede het my oorweldig soos 'n las wat vir my te swaar is. 6My wonde stink en sweer, en dít deur my eie dwaasheid. 7Ek is krom en inmekaar getrek, ek loop die hele dag en treur, 8want my lyf brand van die koors en daar is nie meer 'n gesonde plek aan my liggaam nie. 9Ek is gedaan en heeltemal platgeslaan, my hart jaag en ek brul van die pyn. 10U weet waarna ek smag, Here, my gesmeek is vir U geen geheim nie. 11My hart jaag, my krag het ingegee, ek kan nie eers meer sien nie. 12My siekte hou my familie en my vriende ver van my af, en my bure kom nie naby my nie. 13Dié wat my lewe soek, stel vir my strikke, dié wat daarop uit is om my kwaad aan te doen, praat al klaar van my ondergang; die hele dag deur dink hulle vals beskuldigings teen my uit. 14Maar ek hou my doof, ek hoor niks, ek hou my stom, ek maak my mond nie oop nie. 15Ek het geword soos 'n man wat niks hoor nie en wat niks het om te antwoord nie. 16Ek vertrou op U, Here, U sal antwoord, Here my God. 17Ek vra U: Moenie dat hulle hulle verlustig in my leed en hulle groot hou as die lyding vir my te veel word nie. 18Ek kan dit byna nie meer uithou nie, ek is nooit sonder pyn nie. 19Ek bely my ongeregtigheid, my sonde kwel my. 20My vyande is vol lewenskrag en daar is so baie wat my sonder rede haat, 21wat my kwaad vir goed vergeld en teen my is omdat ek die goeie najaag. 22Moet my tog nie verlaat nie, Here, my God, moenie ver van my af bly nie! 23Maak tog gou om my te help, Here, my Redder!

Psalms 39

What Is the Measure of My Days?

Psa 39:1 I said, "I will be careful about what I do and will not let my tongue make me sin; I will not say anything while evil people are near."

Psa 39:2 I kept quiet, not saying a word, not even about anything good! But my suffering only grew worse,

Psa 39:3 and I was overcome with anxiety. The more I thought, the more troubled I became; I could not keep from asking:

Psa 39:4 " LORD, how long will I live? When will I die? Tell me how soon my life will end."

Psa 39:5 How short you have made my life! In your sight my lifetime seems nothing. Indeed every living being is no more than a puff of wind, Psa 39:6 no more than a shadow. All we do is for nothing; we gather wealth, but don't know who will get it.

Psa 39:7 What, then, can I hope for, Lord? I put my hope in you.

Psa 39:8 Save me from all my sins, and don't let fools make fun of me.

Psa 39:9 I will keep quiet, I will not say a word, for you are the one who made me suffer like this.

Psa 39:10 Don't punish me any more! I am about to die from your blows.

Psa 39:11 You punish our sins by your rebukes, and like a moth you destroy what we love. Indeed we are no more than a puff of wind!

Psa 39:12 Hear my prayer, LORD, and listen to my cry; come to my aid when I weep. Like all my ancestors I am only your guest for a little while.

Psa 39:13 Leave me alone so that I may have some happiness before I go away and am no more.

PSALMS 39

1Vir die koorleier. 'n Belydenis. 'n Psalm van Dawid. 2Ek het gesê: Ek wil sorgvuldig let op my lewe en nie sondig met wat ek sê nie. Ek wil nie 'n woord praat as 'n slegte mens my teëstaan nie. 3Ek was stom en sprakeloos, ek het geswyg, nie gepraat nie, maar my smart het al hoe groter geword. 4Daar was 'n brandpyn in my, my smart het 'n vuur in my geword. Toe móés ek praat. 5Maak tog aan my bekend wanneer my einde sal wees, Here, en hoeveel dae daar vir my oor is, sodat ek sal weet wanneer my lewe verby is. 6Kyk, U het bepaal dat my dae min sal wees, in u oë is my lewensduur byna niks. Ag, alle mense is maar verganklik. Sela 7Die mens leef soos in 'n droom en hy sloof hom af vir niks. Hy gaar op, maar weet nie wie dit sal kry nie. 8Is daar nog hoop vir my, Here? U is my enigste hoop. 9Red my van al my teëstanders, laat my nie die spot van dwase word nie. 10Ek kla nie, ek maak my mond nie oop nie, want U het dit oor my gebring. 11Neem tog weg die smart waarmee U my getref het. Die las wat U my opgelê het, laat my krag ingee. 12As U 'n mens die straf oplê wat sy sonde verdien, verteer U hom soos 'n mot 'n kleed. Ag, alle mense is verganklik. Sela 13Hoor tog my gebed, Here, luister na my hulpgeroep; moet tog nie koud staan teenoor my trane nie, want ek is net op u beskerming aangewese; U alleen sorg vir my, soos vir al my voorvaders. 14Neem tog u straf van my weg, dat ek weer bly kan wees voordat ek heengaan en nie meer daar is nie.

Psalms 40

My Help and My Deliverer

Psa 40:1 I waited patiently for the LORD's help; then he listened to me and heard my cry.

Psa 40:2 He pulled me out of a dangerous pit, out of the deadly quicksand. He set me safely on a rock and made me secure.

Psa 40:3 He taught me to sing a new song, a song of praise to our God. Many who see this will take warning and will put their trust in the LORD.

Psa 40:4 Happy are those who trust the LORD, who do not turn to idols or join those who worship false gods.

Psa 40:5 You have done many things for us, O LORD our God; there is no one like you! You have made many wonderful plans for us. I could never speak of them all—their number is so great!

Psa 40:6 You do not want sacrifices and offerings; you do not ask for animals burned whole on the altar or for sacrifices to take away sins. Instead, you have given me ears to hear you, Psa 40:7 and so I answered, "Here I am; your instructions for me are in the book of the Law.

Psa 40:8 How I love to do your will, my God! I keep your teaching in my heart."

Psa 40:9 In the assembly of all your people, LORD, I told the good news that you save us. You know that I will never stop telling it.

Psa 40:10 I have not kept the news of salvation to myself; I have always spoken of your faithfulness and help. In the assembly of all your people I have not been silent about your loyalty and constant love.

Psa 40:11 LORD, I know you will never stop being merciful to me. Your love and loyalty will always keep me safe.

Psa 40:12 I am surrounded by many troubles—too many to count! My sins have caught up with me, and I can no longer see; they are more than the hairs of my head, and I have lost my courage.

Psa 40:13 Save me, LORD! Help me now!

Psa 40:14 May those who try to kill me be completely defeated and confused. May those who are happy because of my troubles be turned back and disgraced.

Psa 40:15 May those who make fun of me be dismayed by their defeat.

Psa 40:16 May all who come to you be glad and joyful. May all who are thankful for your salvation always say, "How great is the LORD!"

Psa 40:17 I am weak and poor, O Lord, but you have not forgotten me. You are my savior and my God—hurry to my aid!

PSALMS 40

1Vir die koorleier. Van Dawid. 'n Psalm. 2Ek het gesmag na die hulp van die Here. Hy het na my toe afgebuig en my hulpgeroep gehoor. 3Hy het my uitgetrek uit die put van die dood, uit die slymerige modder, my op 'n rots laat staan en my weer op vaste grond laat loop. 4Hy het my 'n nuwe lied in die mond gelê, 'n loflied vir ons God. Baie sal daarvan hoor en Hom die eer toebring, hulle sal op die Here vertrou! 5Dit gaan goed met die mens wat sy vertroue in die Here stel en hom nie wend tot duister magte en tot mense wat hulle met skyngode ophou nie. 6Here my God, U het baie wonderlike dinge gedoen; U dink altyd aan ons; daar is niemand soos U nie. Ek sou daarvan wou vertel en daaroor praat, maar dit is te veel om op te noem. 7Dit is nie diereoffers of graanoffers wat U wil hê nie, nie brandoffers of sondeoffers wat U vra nie; U wil gehoorsaamheid hê. 8Daarom het ek gesê: Hier het ek gekom soos dit in die boekrol vir my voorgeskrywe is. 9Om u wil te doen, my God, is my een begeerte, u woord is my hele lewe. 10Met blydskap het ek aan die gemeente vertel U het my verlos. Ek het nie stilgebly nie, Here, U weet dit! 11Dat U verlos, het ek nie vir myself gehou nie, ek het gepraat oor u trou en u hulp. Oor u goedheid en u trou het ek in die gemeente nie stilgebly nie. 12Moet my tog nie uitsluit van u ontferming nie, Here, laat u liefde en trou my voortdurend bewaak, 13want ramp op ramp het my oorval, my ongeregtighede het my ingehaal; ek weet nie meer waarheen nie. Hulle is meer as die hare op my kop; ek is moedeloos. 14Here, red my tog asseblief! Here, kom my tog gou te hulp! 15Laat dié wat my lewe wil neem, self in die ellende beland, teleurgestel in hulle verwagting; laat dié wat graag my ondergang wil sien, op die vlug slaan en beskaamd staan. 16Laat dié wat my spot, verbysterd staan omdat hulle self in die ellende beland het. 17Laat almal wat by U hulp soek, jubel en bly wees oor U, laat dié wat op u hulp staat maak, altyddeur sê: Die Here is groot! 18Ek is hulpeloos en arm, maar die Here dink aan my. U is my hulp en my redder; my God, moet tog nie talm nie!

Psalms 41

O Lord, Be Gracious to Me

Psa 41:1 Happy are those who are concerned for the poor; the LORD will help them when they are in trouble.

Psa 41:2 The LORD will protect them and preserve their lives; he will make them happy in the land; he will not abandon them to the power of their enemies.

Psa 41:3 The LORD will help them when they are sick and will restore them to health.

Psa 41:4 I said, "I have sinned against you, LORD; be merciful to me and heal me."

Psa 41:5 My enemies say cruel things about me. They want me to die and be forgotten.

Psa 41:6 Those who come to see me are not sincere; they gather bad news about me and then go out and tell it everywhere.

Psa 41:7 All who hate me whisper to each other about me, they imagine the worst about me.

Psa 41:8 They say, "He is fatally ill; he will never leave his bed again."

Psa 41:9 Even my best friend, the one I trusted most, the one who shared my food, has turned against me.

Psa 41:10 Be merciful to me, LORD, and restore my health, and I will pay my enemies back.

Psa 41:11 They will not triumph over me, and I will know that you are pleased with me.

Psa 41:12 You will help me, because I do what is right; you will keep me in your presence forever.

Psa 41:13 Praise the LORD, the God of Israel! Praise him now and forever! Amen! Amen!

PSALMS 41

1Vir die koorleier. 'n Psalm van Dawid. 2Dit gaan goed met die mens wat omsien na die swakke. Die Here sal hom red op die dag van nood, 3die Here sal hom beskerm en in die lewe hou; die hele land sal praat oor hoe goed dit met hom gaan. U sal hom nie uitlewer aan die wraaksug van sy vyande nie. 4Die Here sal hom bystaan in sy siekte. As hy siek is, sal U hom genees. 5Ek het gesê: Wees my genadig, Here! Maak my tog gesond; ek het teen U gesondig. 6My vyande wens my net die ergste toe: Wanneer gaan hy dood en verdwyn sy naam? 7As iemand na my kom kyk, dink hy dis klaar met my. Hy kom kyk hoe sleg dit gaan en gaan vertel dit buite rond. 8Almal wat my haat, staan en fluister oor my, hulle wens my net die ergste toe: 9dis 'n dodelike siekte wat hom getref het, waar hy nou daar lê, sal hy nie weer opstaan nie! 10Selfs my boesemvriend op wie ek vertrou het, wat altyd by my geëet het, het my in die rug gesteek. 11Wees U my genadig, Here, en laat my hier opstaan, dat ek aan hulle kan doen wat hulle aan my gedoen het. 12Dit weet ek: U het my lief, my vyand sal nie oor my triomfeer nie. 13Ek is onskuldig, U hou my vas en laat my altyd by U bly. 14Aan die Here, die God van Israel, kom die lof toe tot in die allerverste toekoms. Amen, ja, amen.

Psalms 42

Why Are You Cast Down, O My Soul?

Psa 42:1 As a deer longs for a stream of cool water, so I long for you, O God.

Psa 42:2 I thirst for you, the living God. When can I go and worship in your presence?

Psa 42:3 Day and night I cry, and tears are my only food; all the time my enemies ask me, "Where is your God?"

Psa 42:4 My heart breaks when I remember the past, when I went with the crowds to the house of God and led them as they walked along, a happy crowd, singing and shouting praise to God.

Psa 42:5 Why am I so sad? Why am I so troubled? I will put my hope in God, and once again I will praise him, my savior and my God.

Psa 42:6 (6-7) Here in exile my heart is breaking, and so I turn my thoughts to him. He has sent waves of sorrow over my soul; chaos roars at me like a flood, like waterfalls thundering down to the Jordan from Mount Hermon and Mount Mizar.

Psa 42:8 May the LORD show his constant love during the day, so that I may have a song at night, a prayer to the God of my life.

Psa 42:9 To God, my defender, I say, "Why have you forgotten me? Why must I go on suffering from the cruelty of my enemies?"

Psa 42:10 I am crushed by their insults, as they keep on asking me, "Where is your God?"

Psa 42:11 Why am I so sad? Why am I so troubled? I will put my hope in God, and once again I will praise him, my savior and my God.

PSALMS 42

1Vir die koorleier. 'n Gedig van die Koragiete. 2Soos 'n wildsbok smag na waterstrome, so smag ek na U, o God. 3Ek dors na God, na die lewende God. Wanneer kan ek gaan en voor God verskyn? 4Dag en nag is ek in trane, want sonder ophou sê hulle vir my: En waar is jou God nou? 5As ek my lewe voor my laat verbygaan, dink ek daaraan hoe ek opgetrek het na die woonplek van God, voor 'n skare uit na sy huis toe geloop het met gejuig en lofsang 'n skare wat feesvier. 6Waarom is ek so in vertwyfeling en waarom kerm ek so? Vertrou op God! Ja, ek sal weer vir Hom 'n loflied sing. Hy is my helper 7en my God! Uit my vertwyfeling roep ek na U hier van die Jordaangebied, van Hermonberg, van die Kleinberg af 8waar die waters teen mekaar raas en u waterstrome bruis. U het golf na golf oor my laat slaan. 9Tog sal die Here weer op 'n dag sy trou laat blyk en sal ek selfs in die nag 'n lied vir Hom sing, 'n gebed tot die God van my lewe. 10Ek wil vir God sê: My Rots, waarom het U my vergeet? Waarom moet ek gebuk gaan onder die smaad van die vyand? 11Dit sny deur my hele wese as my teëstanders my spot en dag na dag vir my sê: En waar is jou God nou? 12Waarom is ek so in vertwyfeling en waarom kerm ek so? Vertrou op God! Ja, ek sal weer vir Hom 'n loflied sing. Hy is my helper en my God!

Psalms 43

Send Out Your Light and Your Truth

Psa 43:1 O God, declare me innocent, and defend my cause against the ungodly; deliver me from lying and evil people!

Psa 43:2 You are my protector; why have you abandoned me? Why must I go on suffering from the cruelty of my enemies?

Psa 43:3 Send your light and your truth; may they lead me and bring me back to Zion, your sacred hill, and to your Temple, where you live.

Psa 43:4 Then I will go to your altar, O God; you are the source of my happiness. I will play my harp and sing praise to you, O God, my God.

Psa 43:5 Why am I so sad? Why am I so troubled? I will put my hope in God, and once again I will praise him, my savior and my God.

PSALMS 43

1Laat tog reg aan my geskied, o God, behartig tog my saak teen 'n godlose bende, red my van vals en misdadige mense. 2Net U is my skuiling, my God; waarom verstoot U my dan? Waarom moet ek gebuk gaan onder die smaad van die vyand? 3Stuur u lig en u waarheid dat dié my lei en my bring na u heilige berg, na u woning! 4Laat my ingaan na die altaar van God, die God oor wie ek wil jubel en juig, dat ek U kan loof met die lier, o God, my God! 5Waarom is ek so in vertwyfeling en waarom kerm ek so? Vertrou op God! Ja, ek sal weer vir Hom 'n loflied sing. Hy is my helper en my God!

Psalms 44

Come to Our Help

Psa 44:1 With our own ears we have heard it, O God—our ancestors have told us about it, about the great things you did in their time, in the days of long ago:

Psa 44:2 how you yourself drove out the heathen and established your people in their land; how you punished the other nations and caused your own to prosper.

Psa 44:3 Your people did not conquer the land with their swords; they did not win it by their own power; it was by your power and your strength, by the assurance of your presence, which showed that you loved them.

Psa 44:4 You are my king and my God; you give victory to your people, Psa 44:5 and by your power we defeat our enemies.

Psa 44:6 I do not trust in my bow or in my sword to save me;

Psa 44:7 but you have saved us from our enemies and defeated those who hate us.

Psa 44:8 We will always praise you and give thanks to you forever.

Psa 44:9 But now you have rejected us and let us be defeated; you no longer march out with our armies.

Psa 44:10 You made us run from our enemies, and they took for themselves what was ours.

Psa 44:11 You allowed us to be slaughtered like sheep; you scattered us in foreign countries.

Psa 44:12 You sold your own people for a small price as though they had little value.

Psa 44:13 Our neighbors see what you did to us, and they mock us and laugh at us.

Psa 44:14 You have made us a joke among the nations; they shake their heads at us in scorn.

Psa 44:15 I am always in disgrace; I am covered with shame

Psa 44:16 from hearing the sneers and insults of my enemies and those who hate me.

Psa 44:17 All this has happened to us, even though we have not forgotten you or broken the covenant you made with us.

Psa 44:18 We have not been disloyal to you; we have not disobeyed your commands.

Psa 44:19 Yet you left us helpless among wild animals; you abandoned us in deepest darkness.

Psa 44:20 If we had stopped worshiping our God and prayed to a foreign god, Psa 44:21 you would surely have discovered it, because you know our secret thoughts.

Psa 44:22 But it is on your account that we are being killed all the time, that we are treated like sheep to be slaughtered.

Psa 44:23 Wake up, Lord! Why are you asleep? Rouse yourself ! Don't reject us forever!

Psa 44:24 Why are you hiding from us? Don't forget our suffering and trouble!

Psa 44:25 We fall crushed to the ground; we lie defeated in the dust.

Psa 44:26 Come to our aid! Because of your constant love save us!

PSALMS 44

1Vir die koorleier. Van die Koragiete. 'n Gedig. 2Met ons eie ore het ons gehoor, o God, ons vaders het ons dit vertel, dat U in die ou dae, in die gryse verlede, 'n groot daad gedoen het. 3U het nasies met u eie hand verdryf, maar u volk 'n vaste woonplek gegee. U het nasies se mag verbreek om aan u volk vryheid te gee. 4Dit is nie met die swaard dat u volk die land in besit geneem het nie, nie deur hulle eie mag dat hulle die oorwinning behaal het nie, maar deur u krag, u mag en u teenwoordigheid, omdat U hulle liefgehad het. 5U is my koning, o God; gee tog aan Jakob se nageslag die oorwinning. 6Met u hulp sal ons ons teëstanders verslaan, in u Naam sal ons dié oorwin wat teen ons opstaan. 7Op my boog vertrou ek nie en my swaard sal my die oorwinning nie gee nie, 8want dit is U wat ons die oorwinning oor ons teëstanders gegee het en ons vyande die aftog laat blaas het. 9Ons het God die hele dag deur geprys en sy Naam altyddeur geloof. Sela 10Tog het U ons nou verstoot en ons in die skande laat kom. U trek nie meer saam met ons leërs uit nie. 11U laat ons vlug voor ons teëstanders; ons vyande plunder na hartelus; 12U lewer ons uit: ons is soos slagskape. U verstrooi ons onder die nasies; 13U gee u volk sommerso weg, vir niks; daar steek geen voordeel vir U in nie. 14U stel ons bloot aan die veragting van ons bure, aan die spot en beskimping van almal rondom ons. 15U maak ons tot 'n bespotting onder die nasies, 'n minagting onder die mense. 16Ek gaan dag vir dag gebuk onder die skande, en die smaad is op my gesig te lees, 17want ek hoor net die spottaal van die vyand en die godslastering van dié wat op wraak uit is. 18Al hierdie dinge het oor ons gekom, hoewel ons U nie vergeet het nie en aan u verbond nie ontrou was nie. 19Ons het nie afvallig geword nie en van u pad nie afgewyk nie. 20Tog het U ons verwoes; ons land het 'n puinhoop geword; U het die donker oor ons laat toesak. 21As ons die Naam van ons God nie aangeroep het nie en 'n vreemde god om hulp gevra het, 22sou God dit dan nie kon vasstel nie? Hy ken immers die geheime van die hart. 23Dit is oor U dat die dood ons gedurig tref, dat ons soos slagskape behandel word. 24Kom ons te hulp! Waarom slaap U, Here? Word tog wakker! Moet ons nie vir altyd verstoot nie! 25Waarom draai U u rug vir ons? Waarom steur U U nie aan ons ellende en smaad nie? 26Ons is tot in die stof verneder, ons is teen die grond. 27Kom ons tog te hulp en bevry ons, dat so u troue liefde blyk.

Psalms 45

Your Throne, O God, Is Forever

Psa 45:1 Beautiful words fill my mind, as I compose this song for the king. Like the pen of a good writer my tongue is ready with a poem.

Psa 45:2 You are the most handsome of men; you are an eloquent speaker. God has always blessed you.

Psa 45:3 Buckle on your sword, mighty king; you are glorious and majestic.

Psa 45:4 Ride on in majesty to victory for the defense of truth and justice! Your strength will win you great victories!

Psa 45:5 Your arrows are sharp, they pierce the hearts of your enemies; nations fall down at your feet.

Psa 45:6 The kingdom that God has given you will last forever and ever. You rule over your people with justice;

Psa 45:7 you love what is right and hate what is evil. That is why God, your God, has chosen you and has poured out more happiness on you than on any other king.

Psa 45:8 The perfume of myrrh and aloes is on your clothes; musicians entertain you in palaces decorated with ivory.

Psa 45:9 Among the women of your court are daughters of kings, and at the right of your throne stands the queen, wearing ornaments of finest gold.

Psa 45:10 Bride of the king, listen to what I say—forget your people and your relatives.

Psa 45:11 Your beauty will make the king desire you; he is your master, so you must obey him.

Psa 45:12 The people of Tyre will bring you gifts; rich people will try to win your favor.

Psa 45:13 The princess is in the palace—how beautiful she is! Her gown is made of gold thread.

Psa 45:14 In her colorful gown she is led to the king, followed by her bridesmaids, and they also are brought to him.

Psa 45:15 With joy and gladness they come and enter the king's palace.

Psa 45:16 You, my king, will have many sons to succeed your ancestors as kings, and you will make them rulers over the whole earth.

Psa 45:17 My song will keep your fame alive forever, and everyone will praise you for all time to come.

PSALMS 45

1Vir die koorleier: op die wysie van Lelies. Van die Koragiete. 'n Gedig. 'n Lied van die liefde. 2Mooi woorde roer in my hart; ek dra my gedig voor aan die koning; my tong is soos die pen van 'n vaardige skrywer. 3U is mooier as alle mense; oor u lippe vloei net vriendelike woorde, want u hele lewe lank seën God u. 4Kom, held, maak u reg vir die stryd, kom in u koninklike luister. 5Mag u oorwin! Knoop die stryd aan vir die waarheid en vir die reg van die hulpelose! U is geroepe tot magtige dade. 6U skerp pyle laat volke voor u voete val; hulle deurboor die hart van die koning se vyande. 7U troon, verhewe wese, staan vir altyd vas, met u koninklike septer laat u geregtigheid geskied. 8U het die reg lief en u haat die onreg, want, verhewe wese, onder groot vreugde het u God u bo u tydgenote tot koning gesalf. 9Die geur van mirre, aalwyn en kaneel deurtrek al u klere; musiek uit u ivoorversierde paleis maak u bly. 10Voor u staan prinsesse, getooi met u juwele, en aan u regterhand die koningin, versier met goud van Ofir. 11Luister, dogter, luister goed: neem afskeid van u volk en u familie, 12want u skoonheid bekoor die koning. U behoort aan hom, u moet hom eer. 13Dogter van Tirus, die rykes van die volk sal u guns soek met geskenke. 14In louter prag staan die koningin daar in haar kleed van goudbrokaat; 15in haar veelkleurige rok word sy na die koning toe gelei; sy en haar gevolg van jong meisies, haar vriendinne, word na u toe gebring. 16Onder uitbundige vreugde word hulle ingelei, betree hulle die paleis van die koning! 17Mag u seuns hê om u geslag voort te sit dat u hulle kan aanstel as regeerders in die hele land! 18Mag deur my lied die roem van u naam oor geslagte strek, sodat volke u vir altyd sal prys.

Psalms 46

God Is Our Fortress

Psa 46:1 God is our shelter and strength, always ready to help in times of trouble.

Psa 46:2 So we will not be afraid, even if the earth is shaken and mountains fall into the ocean depths;

Psa 46:3 even if the seas roar and rage, and the hills are shaken by the violence.

Psa 46:4 There is a river that brings joy to the city of God, to the sacred house of the Most High.

Psa 46:5 God is in that city, and it will never be destroyed; at early dawn he will come to its aid.

Psa 46:6 Nations are terrified, kingdoms are shaken; God thunders, and the earth dissolves.

Psa 46:7 The LORD Almighty is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge.

Psa 46:8 Come and see what the LORD has done. See what amazing things he has done on earth.

Psa 46:9 He stops wars all over the world; he breaks bows, destroys spears, and sets shields on fire.

Psa 46:10 "Stop fighting," he says, "and know that I am God, supreme among the nations, supreme over the world."

Psa 46:11 The LORD Almighty is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge.

PSALMS 46

1Vir die koorleier. Van die Koragiete. Op die wysie van Jong Vroue. 'n Lied. 2God is vir ons 'n toevlug en 'n beskerming; Hy was nog altyd bereid om te help in nood. 3Daarom is ons nie bang nie, al gee die aarde pad, al skuif die berge tot in die dieptes van die see, 4al druis en skuim die waters van die see, al skud die berge deur sy onstuimigheid. Sela 5Oor die strome van die rivier is daar blydskap in die Godstad, in die heilige woning van die Allerhoogste. 6God is daar; die stad sal nie wankel nie. God sal hom help nog voor die môre kom. 7Nasies kan raas en koninkryke wankel, maar as God sy stem laat hoor, smelt die aarde weg. 8Die Here, die Almagtige, is by ons, die God van Jakob is vir ons 'n beskutting. Sela 9Kom kyk wat die Here gedoen het, watter ontsettende dinge Hy op die aarde tot stand bring: 10die oorloë oor die hele aarde laat Hy ophou, pyle en boë verbreek Hy, spiese slaan Hy stukkend, oorlogswaens verbrand Hy met vuur. 11Bedaar en erken dat Ek God is, hoog bo die nasies, hoog bo die aarde. 12Die Here, die Almagtige, is by ons, die God van Jakob is vir ons 'n beskutting. Sela

Psalms 47

God Is King over All the Earth

Psa 47:1 Clap your hands for joy, all peoples! Praise God with loud songs!

Psa 47:2 The LORD, the Most High, is to be feared; he is a great king, ruling over all the world.

Psa 47:3 He gave us victory over the peoples; he made us rule over the nations.

Psa 47:4 He chose for us the land where we live, the proud possession of his people, whom he loves.

Psa 47:5 God goes up to his throne. There are shouts of joy and the blast of trumpets, as the LORD goes up.

Psa 47:6 Sing praise to God; sing praise to our king!

Psa 47:7 God is king over all the world; praise him with songs!

Psa 47:8 God sits on his sacred throne; he rules over the nations.

Psa 47:9 The rulers of the nations assemble with the people of the God of Abraham. More powerful than all armies is he; he rules supreme.

PSALMS 47

1Vir die koorleier. Van die Koragiete. 'n Psalm. 2Al julle volke, klap julle hande; juig tot eer van God met 'n jubelende stem, 3want aan die Here, die Allerhoogste, kom eerbied toe; Hy is die Groot Koning oor die hele aarde: 4Hy het volke aan ons onderwerp en nasies aan ons onderhorig gemaak; 5Hy het ons besitting vir ons uitgekies, die pragtige land van Jakob, wat Hy liefhet. Sela 6God gaan op na sy tempel toe onder gejubel, die Here gaan op terwyl die ramshorings blaas. 7Prys God, prys Hom met psalms, prys ons Koning, prys Hom met psalms! 8God is koning oor die hele aarde; sing vir Hom 'n lied. 9God is koning oor die nasies, God is op sy heilige troon. 10Die leiers uit elke volk sal hulle verenig met die volk van die God van Abraham. Die heersers van die aarde is onderworpe aan God, Hy is bo almal verhewe.

Psalms 48

Zion, the City of Our God

Psa 48:1 The LORD is great and is to be highly praised in the city of our God, on his sacred hill.

Psa 48:2 Zion, the mountain of God, is high and beautiful; the city of the great king brings joy to all the world.

Psa 48:3 God has shown that there is safety with him inside the fortresses of the city.

Psa 48:4 The kings gathered together and came to attack Mount Zion.

Psa 48:5 But when they saw it, they were amazed; they were afraid and ran away.

Psa 48:6 There they were seized with fear and anguish, like a woman about to bear a child,

Psa 48:7 like ships tossing in a furious storm.

Psa 48:8 We have heard what God has done, and now we have seen it in the city of our God, the LORD Almighty; he will keep the city safe forever.

Psa 48:9 Inside your Temple, O God, we think of your constant love.

Psa 48:10 You are praised by people everywhere, and your fame extends over all the earth. You rule with justice;

Psa 48:11 let the people of Zion be glad! You give right judgments; let there be joy in the cities of Judah!

Psa 48:12 People of God, walk around Zion and count the towers;

Psa 48:13 take notice of the walls and examine the fortresses, so that you may tell the next generation:

Psa 48:14 "This God is our God forever and ever; he will lead us for all time to come."

PSALMS 48

1'n Lied. 'n Psalm van die Koragiete. 2Die Here is groot! Aan Hom kom al die lof toe hier in die stad van ons God, hier op sy heilige berg, 3mooi, hoog geleë, en 'n vreugde vir die hele aarde, Sionsberg teen die noorde, die stad van die Groot Koning. 4In hierdie goed versterkte stad het God Hom as beskermer geopenbaar. 5Konings het bymekaargekom en as een mag opgetrek, 6maar skaars het hulle die stad gesien of hulle het bang geword en verskrik op die vlug geslaan. 7Angs het hulle daar beetgepak, vrees soos dié van 'n vrou wat 'n kind in die wêreld bring, 8angs soos toe U met die oostewind die skepe van Tarsis verpletter het. 9Soos ons daarvan gehoor het, het ons dit self ervaar hier in die stad van die Here, die Almagtige, in die stad van ons God, die stad wat Hy vir altyd vas laat staan. Sela 10Hier in u tempel oordink ons u trou, o God. 11Net soos u Naam, o God, so strek u lof oor die hele aarde. U mag het groot redding gebring. 12Sionsberg moet bly wees, die stede van Juda moet oor u reddingsdade juig! 13Gaan om Sion, trek reg rondom, tel sy torings, 14bewonder sy mure, bekyk sy versterkings, sodat julle dit aan 'n volgende geslag kan vertel! 15Dié God is ons God vir altyd; Hy sal ons altyd lei.

Psalms 49

Why Should I Fear in Times of Trouble?

Psa 49:1 Hear this, everyone! Listen, all people everywhere,

Psa 49:2 great and small alike, rich and poor together.

Psa 49:3 My thoughts will be clear; I will speak words of wisdom.

Psa 49:4 I will turn my attention to proverbs and explain their meaning as I play the harp.

Psa 49:5 I am not afraid in times of danger when I am surrounded by enemies, Psa 49:6 by evil people who trust in their riches and boast of their great wealth.

Psa 49:7 We can never redeem ourselves; we cannot pay God the price for our lives,

Psa 49:8 because the payment for a human life is too great. What we could pay would never be enough

Psa 49:9 to keep us from the grave, to let us live forever.

Psa 49:10 Anyone can see that even the wise die, as well as the foolish and stupid. They all leave their riches to their descendants.

Psa 49:11 Their graves are their homes forever; there they stay for all time, though they once had lands of their own.

Psa 49:12 Our greatness cannot keep us from death; we will still die like the animals.

Psa 49:13 See what happens to those who trust in themselves, the fate of those who are satisfied with their wealth—

Psa 49:14 they are doomed to die like sheep, and Death will be their shepherd. The righteous will triumph over them, as their bodies quickly decay in the world of the dead far from their homes.

Psa 49:15 But God will rescue me; he will save me from the power of death.

Psa 49:16 Don't be upset when someone becomes rich, when his wealth grows even greater;

Psa 49:17 he cannot take it with him when he dies; his wealth will not go with him to the grave.

Psa 49:18 Even if someone is satisfied with this life and is praised because he is successful,

Psa 49:19 he will join all his ancestors in death, where the darkness lasts forever.

Psa 49:20 Our greatness cannot keep us from death; we will still die like the animals.

PSALMS 49

1Vir die koorleier. Van die Koragiete. 'n Psalm. 2Luister hierna, al julle volke, gee aandag, julle almal wat die wêreld bewoon, 3elke mens, sonder uitsondering, ryk en arm! 4My mond gaan suiwer wysheid praat; wat ek gaan sê, sal van insig getuig, 5want ek hoor 'n woord wat my wysheid gee en terwyl ek op die lier speel, wil ek 'n geheimenis verklaar. 6Waarom sou ek my in moeilike tye kwel as ek bedreig word deur die onreg van bedrieërs, 7van mense wat net op hulle besittings vertrou en met hulle groot rykdom spog? 8Een mens kan tog nie 'n ander loskoop van die dood en aan God 'n losprys vir hom betaal nie? 9Die prys vir 'n mens se lewe is te hoog. Wat hy kan betaal, sal nooit genoeg wees 10dat hy vir altyd sal lewe en die dood nooit sal smaak nie. 11Elkeen sien dit tog: wyse mense sterwe net soos dwase en sotte, en laat hulle besittings aan ander na. 12Die graf is vir altyd hulle tuiste; van geslag tot geslag is dit hulle woonplek, al het hulle eenmaal grond op hulle naam gehad. 13Met weelde en al leef die mens nie vir altyd nie; soos die diere, so kom die mens ook tot 'n einde. 14Dit is die lot ook van mense wat op hulleself vertrou, die uiteinde van dié wat ingenome is met hulleself. Sela 15Soos skape is hulle bestem om te sterwe; die dood is hulle wagter. Sonder meer daal hulle in die graf in; in die doderyk verdwyn alles waarop hulle vertrou het; vir hulle bestaan dit nie meer nie. 16Maar vir my sal God loskoop uit die mag van die dood; ek sal aan Hom behoort. Sela 17Moet jou nie daaroor kwel dat mense ryk word, dat hulle besittings baie word nie, 18want as hulle sterf, neem hulle niks saam nie; hulle besittings sal hulle nie volg nie. 19Al verlustig 'n mens hom in 'n voorspoedige lewe, en al prys die mense hom omdat dit met hom goed gaan, 20soos sy voorvaders sal ook hy moet sterwe en hy sal die lig nooit weer sien nie. 21Die mens wat met weelde en al 'n dwaas bly, is soos 'n dier wat vergaan.

Psalms 50

God Himself Is Judge

Psa 50:1 The Almighty God, the LORD, speaks; he calls to the whole earth from east to west.

Psa 50:2 God shines from Zion, the city perfect in its beauty.

Psa 50:3 Our God is coming, but not in silence; a raging fire is in front of him, a furious storm around him.

Psa 50:4 He calls heaven and earth as witnesses to see him judge his people.

Psa 50:5 He says, "Gather my faithful people to me, those who made a covenant with me by offering a sacrifice."

Psa 50:6 The heavens proclaim that God is righteous, that he himself is judge.

Psa 50:7 "Listen, my people, and I will speak; I will testify against you, Israel. I am God, your God.

Psa 50:8 I do not reprimand you because of your sacrifices and the burnt offerings you always bring me.

Psa 50:9 And yet I do not need bulls from your farms or goats from your flocks;

Psa 50:10 all the animals in the forest are mine and the cattle on thousands of hills.

Psa 50:11 All the wild birds are mine and all living things in the fields.

Psa 50:12 "If I were hungry, I would not ask you for food, for the world and everything in it is mine.

Psa 50:13 Do I eat the flesh of bulls or drink the blood of goats?

Psa 50:14 Let the giving of thanks be your sacrifice to God, and give the Almighty all that you promised.

Psa 50:15 Call to me when trouble comes; I will save you, and you will praise me."

Psa 50:16 But God says to the wicked, "Why should you recite my commandments? Why should you talk about my covenant?

Psa 50:17 You refuse to let me correct you; you reject my commands.

Psa 50:18 You become the friend of every thief you see, and you associate with adulterers.

Psa 50:19 "You are always ready to speak evil; you never hesitate to tell lies.

Psa 50:20 You are ready to accuse your own relatives and to find fault with them.

Psa 50:21 You have done all this, and I have said nothing, so you thought that I am like you. But now I reprimand you and make the matter plain to you.

Psa 50:22 "Listen to this, you that ignore me, or I will destroy you, and there will be no one to save you.

Psa 50:23 Giving thanks is the sacrifice that honors me, and I will surely save all who obey me."

PSALMS 50

1'n Psalm van Asaf. Die Here is God, Hy alleen is God. Hy spreek, Hy roep die hele wêreld op, van waar die son opkom tot waar hy ondergaan. 2Uit Sion, stad van volmaakte prag, verskyn God in glans. 3Ons God kom, Hy bly nie stil nie. Voor Hom uit brand 'n vuur, rondom Hom woed 'n storm. 4Hy roep die hemel en die aarde op vir die saak teen sy volk: 5Maak bymekaar dié wat aan My getrou is en met 'n offer 'n verbond met My gesluit het. 6Die hemel getuig: God is regverdig, en Hý is die regter. Sela 7Luister, my volk, Ek wil my saak stel, Ek wil teen jou getuig, Israel. Ek is God, Ek is jou God! 8Dit is nie omdat jy nie offer dat Ek rekenskap van jou eis nie; jou brandoffers is immers gedurig voor My. 9Ek wil geen jong bul uit jou stal hê of bokke uit jou krale nie, 10want al die diere in die bos is Myne, die wild op duisende berge. 11Ek ken al die voëls van die berge; al wat roer op die veld, is Myne. 12Ek sou jou nie vra as Ek honger sou kry nie, want die aarde en alles wat daarop is, behoort aan My. 13Eet Ek miskien die vleis van die bulle wat julle offer, of drink Ek die bloed van bokke? 14Lof is die offer wat jy aan God moet bring. Betaal jou geloftes aan die Allerhoogste. 15Roep My aan in die dag van benoudheid: Ek sal jou uithelp en jy sal My eer. 16Maar vir die goddelose sê God: Waarom sê jy my voorskrifte een vir een op en beroep jy jou op my verbond, 17jy wat 'n afkeer het van wat Ek jou leer en jou nie steur aan wat Ek sê nie? 18As jy 'n dief raakloop, breek jy saam met hom in, en as jy die kans kry, pleeg jy egbreuk. 19As jy jou mond oopmaak, praat jy kwaad; jou tong ryg bedrog aanmekaar. 20Jy sit en praat teen jou broer, jou eie broer beswadder jy. 21Moet Ek stil bly as jy sulke dinge doen? Dan sal jy dink Ek het soos jy geword! Nee, Ek eis rekenskap van jou, Ek kla jou aan! 22Julle moet luister na hierdie waarskuwing, julle wat nie met God rekening hou nie, anders verskeur Ek julle sonder dat iemand kan red. 23Die mens wat My eer, is die een wat lof as 'n offer bring. Hy wat reg lewe, vir hom sal Ek red.

Psalms 51

Create in Me a Clean Heart, O God

Psa 51:1 Be merciful to me, O God, because of your constant love. Because of your great mercy wipe away my sins!

Psa 51:2 Wash away all my evil and make me clean from my sin!

Psa 51:3 I recognize my faults; I am always conscious of my sins.

Psa 51:4 I have sinned against you—only against you—and done what you consider evil. So you are right in judging me; you are justified in condemning me.

Psa 51:5 I have been evil from the day I was born; from the time I was conceived, I have been sinful.

Psa 51:6 Sincerity and truth are what you require; fill my mind with your wisdom.

Psa 51:7 Remove my sin, and I will be clean; wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.

Psa 51:8 Let me hear the sounds of joy and gladness; and though you have crushed me and broken me, I will be happy once again.

Psa 51:9 Close your eyes to my sins and wipe out all my evil.

Psa 51:10 Create a pure heart in me, O God, and put a new and loyal spirit in me.

Psa 51:11 Do not banish me from your presence; do not take your holy spirit away from me.

Psa 51:12 Give me again the joy that comes from your salvation, and make me willing to obey you.

Psa 51:13 Then I will teach sinners your commands, and they will turn back to you.

Psa 51:14 Spare my life, O God, and save me, and I will gladly proclaim your righteousness.

Psa 51:15 Help me to speak, Lord, and I will praise you.

Psa 51:16 You do not want sacrifices, or I would offer them; you are not pleased with burnt offerings.

Psa 51:17 My sacrifice is a humble spirit, O God; you will not reject a humble and repentant heart.

Psa 51:18 O God, be kind to Zion and help her; rebuild the walls of Jerusalem.

Psa 51:19 Then you will be pleased with proper sacrifices and with our burnt offerings; and bulls will be sacrificed on your altar.

PSALMS 51

1Vir die koorleier. 'n Psalm van Dawid, na aanleiding daarvan 2dat die profeet Natan na hom toe gekom het oor sy owerspel met Batseba. 3Wees my genadig, o God, in u troue liefde, wis my oortredings uit in u groot barmhartigheid! 4Was my skoon van my skuld, reinig my van my sonde! 5Ja, my oortredings ken ek en van my sonde bly ek altyd bewus. 6Teen U alleen het ek gesondig, ek het gedoen wat verkeerd is in u oë. U uitspraak is dus reg en u oordeel regverdig. 7Ek was al skuldig toe ek gebore is, met sonde belaai toe my moeder swanger geword het. 8Maar U verwag opregtheid diep in 'n mens se hart: laat ek dan diep in my binneste weet hoe U wil dat ek moet lewe. 9Neem tog my sonde weg dat ek rein kan wees, was my dat ek witter as sneeu kan wees. 10Laat my weer blydskap en vreugde belewe. U het my verbrysel; laat my weer jubel. 11Moet tog nie ag slaan op my sondes nie, wis al my skuld uit! 12Skep vir my 'n rein hart, o God, vernuwe my gees en maak my standvastig. 13Moet my tog nie van U af wegdryf en u Heilige Gees van my af wegneem nie! 14Laat my weer die blydskap ervaar van iemand wat deur U verlos is, laat my U weer met toewyding dien. 15Dan sal ek oortreders leer wat U van 'n mens verwag; dat die sondaars hulle tot U sal bekeer. 16Red my van ondergang, o God, my Redder, dat ek kan jubel oor u verlossingsdaad. 17Here, gee my die woorde om u lof te verkondig. 18'n Offer vra U nie, anders sou ek dit bring; 'n brandoffer wil U nie hê nie. 19Die offer wat U wil hê, o God, is verootmoediging: U sal 'n hart vol ootmoed en berou nie gering ag nie, o God. 20Laat Sion u liefde en u goedheid ondervind: herbou tog die mure van Jerusalem. 21Dan sal die offers wat voorgeskryf is, weer vir U aanneemlik wees: offerdiere wat heeltemal verbrand word. Dan sal hulle weer bulle op u altare offer.

Psalms 52

The Steadfast Love of God Endures

Psa 52:1 Why do you boast, great one, of your evil? God's faithfulness is eternal.

Psa 52:2 You make plans to ruin others; your tongue is like a sharp razor. You are always inventing lies.

Psa 52:3 You love evil more than good and falsehood more than truth.

Psa 52:4 You love to hurt people with your words, you liar!

Psa 52:5 So God will ruin you forever; he will take hold of you and snatch you from your home; he will remove you from the world of the living.

Psa 52:6 Righteous people will see this and be afraid; then they will laugh at you and say,

Psa 52:7 "Look, here is someone who did not depend on God for safety, but trusted instead in great wealth and looked for security in being wicked."

Psa 52:8 But I am like an olive tree growing in the house of God; I trust in his constant love forever and ever.

Psa 52:9 I will always thank you, God, for what you have done; in the presence of your people I will proclaim that you are good.

PSALMS 52

1Vir die koorleier. 'n Gedig van Dawid, 2na aanleiding daarvan dat die Edomiet Doëg gekom en aan Saul vertel het: Dawid was in die huis van Agimelek. 3Jy wat jou groot hou, jy spog verniet oor jou slegte dade! Onthou, God sorg altyd vir my. 4Jy wil ander se ondergang bewerk, met jou vlymskerp tong pleeg jy bedrog. 5Jy het die kwaad liewer as die goeie, en die leuen liewer as die waarheid. Sela 6Jy saai graag verwarring met jou leuens! 7Maar God sal jou vir altyd vernietig. Hy sal jou uitruk en wegsleep uit jou woonplek, Hy sal jou wegruk uit die land van die lewendes. Sela 8As die regverdiges dit sien, sal hulle met ontsag vervul word en smalend van jou sê: 9Dis nou die man wat nie op God se krag wou steun nie, maar op sy eie rykdom vertrou het en hom sterk wou maak deur inhaligheid. 10Maar ek staan sterk soos 'n welige olyfboom; ek is in die huis van God en ek steun altyd daarop dat Hy vir my sorg. 11Ek sal U altyd loof vir wat U gedoen het. Voor u dienaars sal ek u Naam prys, want U is goed.

Psalms 53

There Is None Who Does Good

Psa 53:1 Fools say to themselves, "There is no God." They are all corrupt, and they have done terrible things; there is no one who does what is right.

Psa 53:2 God looks down from heaven at people to see if there are any who are wise, any who worship him.

Psa 53:3 But they have all turned away; they are all equally bad. Not one of them does what is right, not a single one.

Psa 53:4 "Don't they know?" God asks. "Are these evildoers ignorant? They live by robbing my people, and they never pray to me."

Psa 53:5 But then they will become terrified, as they have never been before, for God will scatter the bones of the enemies of his people. God has rejected them, and so Israel will totally defeat them.

Psa 53:6 How I pray that victory will come to Israel from Zion. How happy the people of Israel will be when God makes them prosperous again!

PSALMS 53

1Vir die koorleier: met fluitspel. 'n Gedig van Dawid. 2Die dwaas dink daar is geen God nie. Dwase mense vernietig alles; wat hulle doen, is 'n gruwel vir God. Daar is nie een wat goed doen nie. 3Van die hemel af kyk God die mense deur om te sien of daar één verstandige is, één wat na die wil van God vra. 4Almal het afgedwaal, die laaste een het ontaard, daar is niemand wat goed doen nie, selfs nie één nie. 5Julle wat onreg pleeg, wat my volk opeet asof julle brood eet, en wat weier om God te dien weet julle dan nie 6dat daar iets vreesliks met julle gaan gebeur, so vreeslik soos nooit tevore nie? God sal die bene van dié wat teen sy volk wil veg, op die slagveld verstrooi. Sy volk sal hulle op die vlug laat slaan, want God het hulle verwerp. 7Ag, mag daar tog uit Sion vir Israel redding kom! Wanneer God die lot van sy volk verander, sal Jakob juig, sal Israel bly wees.

Psalms 54

The Lord Upholds My Life

Psa 54:1 Save me by your power, O God; set me free by your might!

Psa 54:2 Hear my prayer, O God; listen to my words!

Psa 54:3 Proud people are coming to attack me; cruel people are trying to kill me—those who do not care about God.

Psa 54:4 But God is my helper. The Lord is my defender.

Psa 54:5 May God use their own evil to punish my enemies. He will destroy them because he is faithful.

Psa 54:6 I will gladly offer you a sacrifice, O LORD; I will give you thanks because you are good.

Psa 54:7 You have rescued me from all my troubles, and I have seen my enemies defeated.

PSALMS 54

1Vir die koorleier: met snarespel. 'n Gedig van Dawid, 2na aanleiding daarvan dat die Siffiete gekom en vir Saul gesê het: Dawid kruip by ons weg. 3Red my deur u mag, o God, laat aan my reg geskied deur u krag. 4Hoor my gebed, o God, luister na my woorde, 5want vyande staan teen my op, geweldenaars soek my lewe, hulle hou geen rekening met God nie. Sela 6Maar vir my help God altyd, die Here hou my lewe in stand. 7Laat die onheil wat my teëstanders beplan, op hulleself neerkom. U is getrou: vernietig hulle. 8Dan sal ek offers aan U bring, selfs meer as wat U vra, ek sal u Naam loof, Here, want U is goed, 9U het my uit elke benoudheid gered en my oor my vyande laat triomfeer.

Psalms 55

Cast Your Burden on the Lord

Psa 55:1 Hear my prayer, O God; don't turn away from my plea!

Psa 55:2 Listen to me and answer me; I am worn out by my worries.

Psa 55:3 I am terrified by the threats of my enemies, crushed by the oppression of the wicked. They bring trouble on me; they are angry with me and hate me.

Psa 55:4 I am terrified, and the terrors of death crush me.

Psa 55:5 I am gripped by fear and trembling; I am overcome with horror.

Psa 55:6 I wish I had wings like a dove. I would fly away and find rest.

Psa 55:7 I would fly far away and make my home in the desert.

Psa 55:8 I would hurry and find myself a shelter from the raging wind and the storm.

Psa 55:9 Confuse the speech of my enemies, O Lord! I see violence and riots in the city, Psa 55:10 surrounding it day and night, filling it with crime and trouble.

Psa 55:11 There is destruction everywhere; the streets are full of oppression and fraud.

Psa 55:12 If it were an enemy making fun of me, I could endure it; if it were an opponent boasting over me, I could hide myself from him.

Psa 55:13 But it is you, my companion, my colleague and close friend.

Psa 55:14 We had intimate talks with each other and worshiped together in the Temple.

Psa 55:15 May my enemies die before their time; may they go down alive into the world of the dead! Evil is in their homes and in their hearts.

Psa 55:16 But I call to the LORD God for help, and he will save me.

Psa 55:17 Morning, noon, and night my complaints and groans go up to him, and he will hear my voice.

Psa 55:18 He will bring me safely back from the battles that I fight against so many enemies.

Psa 55:19 God, who has ruled from eternity, will hear me and defeat them; for they refuse to change, and they do not fear him.

Psa 55:20 My former companion attacked his friends; he broke his promises.

Psa 55:21 His words were smoother than cream, but there was hatred in his heart; his words were as soothing as oil, but they cut like sharp swords.

Psa 55:22 Leave your troubles with the LORD, and he will defend you; he never lets honest people be defeated.

Psa 55:23 But you, O God, will bring those murderers and liars to their graves before half their life is over. As for me, I will trust in you.

PSALMS 55

1Vir die koorleier: met snarespel. 'n Gedig van Dawid. 2Hoor my gebed, o God, moet tog nie onverskillig staan teenoor my smeking nie. 3Luister na my gebed en antwoord my: my sorge gee my geen rus nie. Ek is hewig ontsteld 4oor die dreigemente van my vyande en oor die druk van slegte mense op my. Hulle wil my met onreg breek; verwoed stook hulle vyandskap teen my. 5My hart krimp inmekaar in my, doodsangs oorval my, 6vrees en skrik oorweldig my, my hele liggaam bewe. 7Ek het gedink: ag, as ek maar vlerke soos 'n duif gehad het, sou ek wegvlieg en 'n woonplek soek; 8ek sou ver wegvlieg en in die woestyn gaan bly; Sela 9ek sou haastig probeer wegkom van hierdie onstuimige wind, van hierdie storm af. 10Dryf hulle uitmekaar, Here, maak hulle taal onverstaanbaar vir mekaar. Ek sien geweld en oproer in die stad; 11dag en nag maal hulle rond op sy mure; daarbinne is onreg en onheil. 12Daar heers wanorde in die stad, op sy pleine is daar net verdrukking en bedrog. 13As dit nog my vyand was wat my smaad aangedoen het, sou ek dit kon verdra; as dit 'n teëstander was wat my wou verneder, sou ek hom kon probeer vermy. 14Maar nou is dit jy, 'n man soos ek, my maat en my goeie vriend. 15Ons was so nou aan mekaar verbonde; opgewonde het ons saam na die huis van God toe gegaan. 16Mag die dood my vyande oorval! Mag hulle onverwags neerdaal na die doderyk, want in hulle huise en harte heers daar boosheid. 17Maar ek roep na God, na die Here wat my sal red. 18In die aand, in die môre en in die middag, heeldag kla en sug ek, en Hy hoor my roep. 19Hy sal my lewe red en my die oorwinning gee, al is daar so baie teen wie ek moet veg. 20God, wat van ewigheid af regeer, sal hoor en hulle verneder omdat hulle hulle nie bekeer nie en Hom nie dien nie. 21My vyand het skaars 'n ooreenkoms gesluit of hy verbreek sy beloftes van trou. 22Sy tong is gladder as botter, maar daar is oorlog in sy hart; sy woorde is so strelend soos olie, maar hulle is swaarde wat reg is om te steek. 23Laat jou sorge aan die Here oor, Hy sal vir jou sorg. Hy sal die regverdige nie in die steek laat nie. 24Maar daardie mense, o God, U sal hulle in die graf in laat neerdaal. Sulke moordenaars en bedrieërs sal in die fleur van hulle lewe sterf. Maar ek, op U vertrou ek.

Psalms 56

In God I Trust

Psa 56:1 Be merciful to me, O God, because I am under attack; my enemies persecute me all the time.

Psa 56:2 All day long my opponents attack me. There are so many who fight against me.

Psa 56:3 When I am afraid, O LORD Almighty, I put my trust in you.

Psa 56:4 I trust in God and am not afraid; I praise him for what he has promised. What can a mere human being do to me?

Psa 56:5 My enemies make trouble for me all day long; they are always thinking up some way to hurt me!

Psa 56:6 They gather in hiding places and watch everything I do, hoping to kill me.

Psa 56:7 Punish them, O God, for their evil; defeat those people in your anger!

Psa 56:8 You know how troubled I am; you have kept a record of my tears. Aren't they listed in your book?

Psa 56:9 The day I call to you, my enemies will be turned back. I know this: God is on my side—

Psa 56:10 the LORD, whose promises I praise.

Psa 56:11 In him I trust, and I will not be afraid. What can a mere human being do to me?

Psa 56:12 O God, I will offer you what I have promised; I will give you my offering of thanksgiving, Psa 56:13 because you have rescued me from death and kept me from defeat. And so I walk in the presence of God, in the light that shines on the living.

PSALMS 56

1Vir die koorleier: op die wysie van Die duif in die hoë bome. Van Dawid. 'n Gedig, na aanleiding daarvan dat die Filistyne hom in Gat gevange geneem het. 2Wees my genadig, o God, want daar is mense wat my jaag, vyande wat my vervolg van die môre tot die aand. 3Vroeg en laat jaag my teëstanders my, en ek het baie vyande, o Allerhoogste. 4Die dag as ek bang word, vertrou ek net op U. 5In God, wie se woord ek prys, in God stel ek my vertroue, ek is nie bang nie. Wat kan 'n blote mens aan my doen? 6Hulle vergal my lewe gedurig met beskuldigings teen my, al hulle bose planne is teen my gerig. 7Hulle lê op die loer en hou my dop, hulle bly op my hakke, so gretig wag hulle op my dood. 8Moenie dat hulle ongestraf bly vir hierdie vyandigheid nie! Laat u toorn hulle vernietig, o God! 9My ellende het nie ongemerk by U verbygegaan nie, U het op my trane gelet. In u boek staan hulle opgeteken. 10Die dag wanneer ek na U roep om hulp, val my vyande terug. Dít weet ek: God is aan my kant. 11In God, wie se woord ek prys, in die Here, wie se woord ek prys, 12in God stel ek my vertroue, ek is nie bang nie. Wat kan 'n mens aan my doen? 13Ek moet my geloftes aan U nakom, o God, ek wil U met dankoffers betaal, 14want U het my van die dood gered, my voet nie laat struikel nie, en met God by my kon ek my pad aanhou loop en die lewenslig bly sien.

Psalms 57

Let Your Glory Be over All the Earth

Psa 57:1 Be merciful to me, O God, be merciful, because I come to you for safety. In the shadow of your wings I find protection until the raging storms are over.

Psa 57:2 I call to God, the Most High, to God, who supplies my every need.

Psa 57:3 He will answer from heaven and save me; he will defeat my oppressors. God will show me his constant love and faithfulness.

Psa 57:4 I am surrounded by enemies, who are like lions hungry for human flesh. Their teeth are like spears and arrows; their tongues are like sharp swords.

Psa 57:5 Show your greatness in the sky, O God, and your glory over all the earth.

Psa 57:6 My enemies have spread a net to catch me; I am overcome with distress. They dug a pit in my path, but fell into it themselves.

Psa 57:7 I have complete confidence, O God; I will sing and praise you!

Psa 57:8 Wake up, my soul! Wake up, my harp and lyre! I will wake up the sun.

Psa 57:9 I will thank you, O Lord, among the nations. I will praise you among the peoples.

Psa 57:10 Your constant love reaches the heavens; your faithfulness touches the skies.

Psa 57:11 Show your greatness in the sky, O God, and your glory over all the earth.

PSALMS 57

1Vir die koorleier: op die wysie van Moet dit nie verwoes nie! Van Dawid. 'n Gedig, na aanleiding daarvan dat hy vir Saul in die grot in gevlug het. 2Wees my genadig, o God! Wees my genadig, want by U soek ek skuiling. Onder u vleuels sal ek skuil tot die bedreiging verby is. 3Ek roep na God, die Allerhoogste, na God wat my sal help. 4Hy sal uit die hemel antwoord en my red, Hy sal dié wat my jaag, die stryd laat verloor. Sela God sal antwoord in sy liefde en trou. 5Ek is hier tussen leeus, tussen mense wat my wil verskeur. Hulle tande is spiese en pyle, hulle tonge is skerp swaarde. 6Toon u grootheid, o God, hoog bo die hemel, u mag hoog bo die aarde. 7Hulle het 'n strik vir my voete gespan, hulle wou my breek, hulle het 'n gat vir my gegrawe, maar self daarin geval. Sela 8Ek voel weer veilig, o God! Ek voel weer veilig! Ek wil 'n lied sing, ja, ek wil sing. 9Ek wil vroeg opstaan, met harp en lier wil ek die rooidag wakker maak! 10Onder die volke wil ek U loof, Here, onder die nasies u lof besing, 11want u liefde reik tot in die hemel, u trou tot in die wolke! 12Toon u grootheid, o God, hoog bo die hemel, hoog bo die aarde u mag.

Psalms 58

God Who Judges the Earth

Psa 58:1 Do you rulers ever give a just decision? Do you judge everyone fairly?

Psa 58:2 No! You think only of the evil you can do, and commit crimes of violence in the land.

Psa 58:3 Evildoers go wrong all their lives; they tell lies from the day they are born.

Psa 58:4 They are full of poison like snakes; they stop up their ears like a deaf cobra,

Psa 58:5 which does not hear the voice of the snake charmer, or the chant of the clever magician.

Psa 58:6 Break the teeth of these fierce lions, O God.

Psa 58:7 May they disappear like water draining away; may they be crushed like weeds on a path.

Psa 58:8 May they be like snails that dissolve into slime; may they be like a baby born dead that never sees the light.

Psa 58:9 Before they know it, they are cut down like weeds; in his fierce anger God will blow them away while they are still living.

Psa 58:10 The righteous will be glad when they see sinners punished; they will wade through the blood of the wicked.

Psa 58:11 People will say, "The righteous are indeed rewarded; there is indeed a God who judges the world."

PSALMS 58

1Vir die koorleier: op die wysie van Moet dit nie verwoes nie! Van Dawid. 'n Gedig. 2Julle wat mag besit, is julle uitsprake werklik regverdig? Is julle beslissings in die sake tussen mense billik? 3Nee, julle optrede in die land is die ene korrupsie, met geweld gaan julle deur die lewe. 4Slegte mense loop van hulle geboorte af 'n verkeerde pad, vandat hulle in die wêreld gekom het, dwaal hierdie bedrieërs af. 5Hulle is soos giftige slange, soos adders wat hulle doof hou, 6wat hulle nie steur aan die stem van die slangbesweerder nie, hoe vernuftig hy ook mag wees. 7Ruk hulle tande uit hulle mond uit, o God! Slaan dié leeus se slagtande uit, Here! 8Laat hulle verdwyn soos water wat wegsyfer, laat hulle fyngetrap word soos droë gras. 9Laat hulle wegraak soos slakke wat net slym agterlaat, laat hulle word soos misgeboortes, sonder lewe. 10Laat hulle, voor hulle dit weet, uitgeroei wees soos onkruid, laat 'n gloeiende wind hulle wegwaai in die fleur van hulle lewe. 11Die regverdige sal bly wees as hy sien daar is vergelding, as die bloed van die goddeloses oor sy voete loop. 12Die mense sal sê: Daar is tóg 'n beloning vir die regverdige, daar is tóg 'n God wat reg op die aarde laat geskied!

Psalms 59

Deliver Me from My Enemies

Psa 59:1 Save me from my enemies, my God; protect me from those who attack me!

Psa 59:2 Save me from those evil people; rescue me from those murderers!

Psa 59:3 Look! They are waiting to kill me; cruel people are gathering against me. It is not because of any sin or wrong I have done, Psa 59:4 nor because of any fault of mine, O LORD, that they hurry to their places.

Psa 59:5 Rise, LORD God Almighty, and come to my aid; see for yourself, God of Israel! Wake up and punish the heathen; show no mercy to evil traitors!

Psa 59:6 They come back in the evening, snarling like dogs as they go about the city.

Psa 59:7 Listen to their insults and threats. Their tongues are like swords in their mouths, yet they think that no one hears them.

Psa 59:8 But you laugh at them, LORD; you mock all the heathen.

Psa 59:9 I have confidence in your strength; you are my refuge, O God.

Psa 59:10 My God loves me and will come to me; he will let me see my enemies defeated.

Psa 59:11 Do not kill them, O God, or my people may forget. Scatter them by your strength and defeat them, O Lord, our protector.

Psa 59:12 Sin is on their lips; all their words are sinful; may they be caught in their pride! Because they curse and lie, Psa 59:13 destroy them in your anger; destroy them completely. Then everyone will know that God rules in Israel, that his rule extends over all the earth.

Psa 59:14 My enemies come back in the evening, snarling like dogs as they go about the city,

Psa 59:15 like dogs roaming about for food and growling if they do not find enough.

Psa 59:16 But I will sing about your strength; every morning I will sing aloud of your constant love. You have been a refuge for me, a shelter in my time of trouble.

Psa 59:17 I will praise you, my defender. My refuge is God, the God who loves me.

PSALMS 59

1Vir die koorleier: op die wysie van Moet dit nie verwoes nie! Van Dawid. 'n Gedig, na aanleiding daarvan dat hulle, in opdrag van Saul, Dawid se huis omsingel het om hom dood te maak. 2Red my van my vyande, my God, beskerm my teen my teëstanders, 3red my van die mense wat onreg doen, bevry my van hierdie moordenaars! 4Die geweldenaars lê my voor om my dood te maak, hulle wil my aanval. Maar ek het nie gesondig nie, ek het nie oortree nie, Here! 5Ek is onskuldig en tog bestorm hulle my en val hulle my aan. Kom help my tog! Kyk wat doen hulle! 6U is die Here God, die Almagtige, die God van Israel! Gryp tog in en straf al hierdie vyandige nasies! Moenie genade betoon aan sulke lae verraaiers nie. Sela 7Hulle kom altyd in die aand terug, hulle grom soos honde en loop in die stad rond. 8Die skuim staan om hulle bekke, en hulle wys hulle tande, want hulle dink niemand hoor hulle nie. 9Maar U, Here, U lag hulle uit, U spot met al die nasies! 10Ek wil my hoop op U gevestig hou, U, my Sterkte, want U is my veilige vesting! 11My God sal my te hulp kom in sy trou, God sal my laat neersien op my teëstanders. 12Moet hulle nie nou al doodmaak nie, sodat hulle straf nie ongemerk aan my volk verbygaan nie. Breek hulle stadig af deur u mag en laat hulle ondergaan, Here, ons Beskermer, 13oor hulle woorde, die sonde uit hulle mond. Laat hulle gevang word deur hulle hoogmoed, deur die vervloekings wat hulle uitspreek, en die leuens wat hulle praat. 14Vernietig hulle in u toorn, wis hulle heeltemal uit. Dan sal almal weet dat God oor sy volk Jakob en oor die hele aarde regeer. Sela 15Hulle kom altyd in die aand terug, hulle grom soos honde en loop in die stad rond. 16Hulle dwaal rond agter prooi aan en as hulle nie genoeg kry nie, tjank hulle. 17Maar ék sal sing van u mag, elke môre sal ek jubel oor u trou, want U is vir my 'n veilige vesting, 'n skuilplek in tyd van nood. 18Tot u eer wil ek sing, U, my Sterkte, want U is my veilige vesting, U is my troue God.

Psalms 60

He Will Tread Down Our Foes

Psa 60:1 You have rejected us, God, and defeated us; you have been angry with us—but now turn back to us.

Psa 60:2 You have made the land tremble, and you have cut it open; now heal its wounds, because it is falling apart.

Psa 60:3 You have made your people suffer greatly; we stagger around as though we were drunk.

Psa 60:4 You have warned those who have reverence for you, so that they might escape destruction.

Psa 60:5 Save us by your might; answer our prayer, so that the people you love may be rescued.

Psa 60:6 From his sanctuary God has said, "In triumph I will divide Shechem and distribute Sukkoth Valley to my people.

Psa 60:7 Gilead is mine, and Manasseh too; Ephraim is my helmet and Judah my royal scepter.

Psa 60:8 But I will use Moab as my washbowl, and I will throw my sandals on Edom, as a sign that I own it. Did the Philistines think they would shout in triumph over me?"

Psa 60:9 Who, O God, will take me into the fortified city? Who will lead me to Edom?

Psa 60:10 Have you really rejected us? Aren't you going to march out with our armies?

Psa 60:11 Help us against the enemy; human help is worthless.

Psa 60:12 With God on our side we will win; he will defeat our enemies.

PSALMS 60

1Vir die koorleier: op die wysie van Die lelie. 'n Getuienis. 'n Gedig van Dawid, vir onderwys bedoel, 2na aanleiding van sy geveg teen die Arameërs van Mesopotamië en die Arameërs van Soba toe Joab twaalf duisend Edomiete in die Soutvlakte verslaan het. 3U het ons verstoot, o God, ons uitmekaar geskeur. U was kwaad vir ons. Laat dit tog weer met ons goed gaan. 4U het die land laat bewe en dit oopgekloof. Genees tog die wonde, want ons gaan tot niet. 5U het 'n ramp oor u volk gebring, U het ons wyn laat drink wat ons laat steier het. 6Trek tog u dienaars saam onder u vaandel dat hulle veilig kan wees teen die boog van die vyand. Sela 7Red ons deur u groot mag, en help ons, sodat hulle vir wie U liefhet, gered kan word. 8God het in sy heilige woning gesê: As oorwinnaar sal Ek Sigem verdeel en die Sukkotlaagte uitdeel! 9Aan My behoort Gilead, aan My behoort Manasse! Efraim is my vernaamste vesting, Juda my koninklike gebied. 10Moab is tot my beskikking, Edom neem Ek in besit, oor Filistea juig Ek as oorwinnaar. 11Wie sal ons na Edom toe lei, ons bring na sy versterkte stad? 12U het ons verstoot, o God, U trek nie saam met ons leërs uit nie, o God! 13Help U ons tog teen die vyand, want die hulp van mense dit is niks. 14Met God aan ons kant sal ons oorwin, Hy self sal ons vyande vertrap.

Psalms 61

Lead Me to the Rock

Psa 61:1 Hear my cry, O God; listen to my prayer!

Psa 61:2 In despair and far from home I call to you! Take me to a safe refuge, Psa 61:3 for you are my protector, my strong defense against my enemies.

Psa 61:4 Let me live in your sanctuary all my life; let me find safety under your wings.

Psa 61:5 You have heard my promises, O God, and you have given me what belongs to those who honor you.

Psa 61:6 Add many years to the king's life; let him live on and on!

Psa 61:7 May he rule forever in your presence, O God; protect him with your constant love and faithfulness.

Psa 61:8 So I will always sing praises to you, as I offer you daily what I have promised.

PSALMS 61

1Vir die koorleier: met snarespel. Van Dawid. 2Hoor tog my hulpgeroep, o God, slaan tog ag op my gebed. 3Ver uit die vreemde uit, in wanhoop, roep ek na U. Bring my op 'n rots waar ek veilig sal wees. 4U is vir my 'n toevlug, 'n sterk vesting buite bereik van die vyand. 5Laat my by U 'n blywende tuiste vind. Laat my skuil onder u vleuels. Sela 6U, o God, hoor my geloftes, U vervul die wens van hulle wat u Naam eer. 7Laat die koning lank lewe, laat sy lewensjare oor geslagte strek. 8Mag hy sy lewe lank regeer voor God, mag u liefde en trou hom bewaar! 9Dan sal ek u Naam altyd besing en dag na dag my geloftes betaal.

Psalms 62

My Soul Waits for God Alone

Psa 62:1 I wait patiently for God to save me; I depend on him alone.

Psa 62:2 He alone protects and saves me; he is my defender, and I shall never be defeated.

Psa 62:3 How much longer will all of you attack someone who is no stronger than a broken-down fence?

Psa 62:4 You only want to bring him down from his place of honor; you take pleasure in lies. You speak words of blessing, but in your heart you curse him.

Psa 62:5 I depend on God alone; I put my hope in him.

Psa 62:6 He alone protects and saves me; he is my defender, and I shall never be defeated.

Psa 62:7 My salvation and honor depend on God; he is my strong protector; he is my shelter.

Psa 62:8 Trust in God at all times, my people. Tell him all your troubles, for he is our refuge.

Psa 62:9 Human beings are all like a puff of breath; great and small alike are worthless. Put them on the scales, and they weigh nothing; they are lighter than a mere breath.

Psa 62:10 Don't put your trust in violence; don't hope to gain anything by robbery; even if your riches increase, don't depend on them.

Psa 62:11 More than once I have heard God say that power belongs to him

Psa 62:12 and that his love is constant. You yourself, O Lord, reward everyone according to their deeds.

PSALMS 62

1Vir die koorleier. 'n Belydenis. 'n Psalm van Dawid. 2Net by God vind ek rus, van Hom kom my redding. 3Net Hy is my rots en my redding, my veilige vesting, sodat ek vas en stewig staan. 4Hoe lank wil julle almal nog beskuldigings bly slinger en my probeer doodmaak, 'n man wat reeds is soos 'n muur wat wil omval, 'n klipmuur wat omgestoot word? 5Hulle probeer my uitwerk; hulle skep behae in leuens; met die mond seën hulle, in die hart vervloek hulle. Sela 6Net by God vind ek rus, want op Hom vertrou ek. 7Net Hy is my rots en my redding, my veilige vesting, sodat ek stewig staan. 8God is my redding en my krag. Hy is my rots, my sterkte, God is my toevlug. 9Vertrou altyd op Hom, my volk, stort julle hart voor Hom uit! God is vir ons 'n toevlug. Sela 10Mense is verganklik, mense is niks: op 'n skaal wys hulle geen gewig nie, saam is hulle minder as niks. 11Moenie op geweld vertrou nie; roof sal jou niks in die sak bring nie. As jou rykdom toeneem, moenie dat dit jou te na aan die hart lê nie. 12Een ding het ek God hoor sê, nee, twee: dat net God mag het 13en 'n mens net op U, Here, kan vertrou, en dat U met elkeen handel volgens sy verdienste.

Psalms 63

My Soul Thirsts for You

Psa 63:1 O God, you are my God, and I long for you. My whole being desires you; like a dry, worn-out, and waterless land, my soul is thirsty for you.

Psa 63:2 Let me see you in the sanctuary; let me see how mighty and glorious you are.

Psa 63:3 Your constant love is better than life itself, and so I will praise you.

Psa 63:4 I will give you thanks as long as I live; I will raise my hands to you in prayer.

Psa 63:5 My soul will feast and be satisfied, and I will sing glad songs of praise to you.

Psa 63:6 As I lie in bed, I remember you; all night long I think of you, Psa 63:7 because you have always been my help. In the shadow of your wings I sing for joy.

Psa 63:8 I cling to you, and your hand keeps me safe.

Psa 63:9 Those who are trying to kill me will go down into the world of the dead.

Psa 63:10 They will be killed in battle, and their bodies eaten by wolves.

Psa 63:11 Because God gives him victory, the king will rejoice. Those who make promises in God's name will praise him, but the mouths of liars will be shut.

PSALMS 63

1'n Psalm van Dawid, na aanleiding van sy verblyf in die Judawoestyn. 2Ek soek U, o God, my God, ek dors na U; ek smag na U soos in 'n dor en droë land, 'n land sonder water. 3Ek wil by U in die heiligdom wees om daar u mag en grootheid te ondervind. 4U troue liefde is meer werd as die lewe; daarom sal ek U prys. 5Ek sal U my lewe lank loof, my hande ophef om u Naam te prys. 6Soos elke keer wanneer ek u goeie gawes geniet, sal ek U altyd roem met jubelende mond. 7As ek aan U dink op my bed, oor U peins in die nag, dan weet ek: 8U is vir my 'n hulp, en dan juig ek oor die beskerming onder u vleuels. 9Ek bly altyd naby U, u hand ondersteun my. 10Maar hierdie mense wat my ondergang soek, mag hulle wegsink in die dieptes van die aarde! 11Mag hulle aan die swaard oorgegee word en aas vir die jakkalse word! 12Laat die koning hom in God verbly, laat elkeen wat hom op God verlaat, Hom prys. Die mond van die vals mens word toegestop.

Psalms 64

Hide Me from the Wicked

Psa 64:1 I am in trouble, God—listen to my prayer! I am afraid of my enemies—save my life!

Psa 64:2 Protect me from the plots of the wicked, from mobs of evil people.

Psa 64:3 They sharpen their tongues like swords and aim cruel words like arrows.

Psa 64:4 They are quick to spread their shameless lies; they destroy good people with cowardly slander.

Psa 64:5 They encourage each other in their evil plots; they talk about where they will place their traps. "No one can see them," they say.

Psa 64:6 They make evil plans and say, "We have planned a perfect crime." The human heart and mind are a mystery.

Psa 64:7 But God shoots his arrows at them, and suddenly they are wounded.

Psa 64:8 He will destroy them because of those words; all who see them will shake their heads.

Psa 64:9 They will all be afraid; they will think about what God has done and tell about his deeds.

Psa 64:10 All righteous people will rejoice because of what the LORD has done. They will find safety in him; all good people will praise him.

PSALMS 64

1Vir die koorleier. 'n Psalm van Dawid. 2Hoor my as ek kla, o God, beskerm my lewe teen die bedreiging van die vyand! 3Bewaar my van die komplotte van kwaadwilliges, van die kwaadstokery van mense wat onreg doen, 4wat met skerp tonge vir swaarde en giftige woorde vir pyle 5uit hinderlae lostrek op 'n onskuldige mens. Uit die bloute trek hulle selfversekerd op hom los. 6Hulle smee bose planne en kom ooreen om strikke te stel. Hulle dink niemand sien hulle nie. 7Hulle beplan skelmstukke en sê: Ons het 'n volmaakte komplot gesmee, want wat binne in 'n mens is, wat hy uitgedink het, is 'n geheim. 8Dan tref God hulle met 'n pyl, en meteens is hulle daarmee heen: 9hulle eie tonge het hulle tot 'n val gebring! Elkeen wat dit sien, knik met voldoening die kop. 10Met groot ontsag getuig almal dan van die dade van God omdat hulle insig gekry het in wat Hy doen. 11Laat die regverdige hom in die Here verbly en sy toevlug by Hom soek, laat al die opregtes Hom prys.

Psalms 65

O God of Our Salvation

Psa 65:1 O God, it is right for us to praise you in Zion and keep our promises to you,

Psa 65:2 because you answer prayers. People everywhere will come to you

Psa 65:3 on account of their sins. Our faults defeat us, but you forgive them.

Psa 65:4 Happy are those whom you choose, whom you bring to live in your sanctuary. We shall be satisfied with the good things of your house, the blessings of your sacred Temple.

Psa 65:5 You answer us by giving us victory, and you do wonderful things to save us. People all over the world and across the distant seas trust in you.

Psa 65:6 You set the mountains in place by your strength, showing your mighty power.

Psa 65:7 You calm the roar of the seas and the noise of the waves; you calm the uproar of the peoples.

Psa 65:8 The whole world stands in awe of the great things that you have done. Your deeds bring shouts of joy from one end of the earth to the other.

Psa 65:9 You show your care for the land by sending rain; you make it rich and fertile. You fill the streams with water; you provide the earth with crops. This is how you do it:

Psa 65:10 you send abundant rain on the plowed fields and soak them with water; you soften the soil with showers and cause the young plants to grow.

Psa 65:11 What a rich harvest your goodness provides! Wherever you go there is plenty.

Psa 65:12 The pastures are filled with flocks; the hillsides are full of joy.

Psa 65:13 The fields are covered with sheep; the valleys are full of wheat. Everything shouts and sings for joy.

PSALMS 65

1Vir die koorleier. 'n Psalm van Dawid. 'n Lied. 2Aan U, o God, kom 'n lofsang toe in Sion: geloftes moet betaal word 3aan U wat die gebed verhoor. Na U toe sal alle mense kom 4om hulle skuld te bely. Ons sondes het ons ingehaal, maar U maak ons daarvan vry. 5Dit gaan goed met die mens vir wie U uitkies en laat naderkom om in u tempel te bly. Laat ons die goeie dinge in u huis in oorvloed geniet, die goeie dinge in u heilige woning. 6In u trou antwoord U ons met kragtige dade, o God, ons Verlosser, op wie ook die mense in afgeleë lande en op verre seë vertrou. 7U is met mag omgewe, U laat deur u krag die berge vas bly staan; 8U laat die gedruis van die see, die geraas van die golwe, die rumoer van die nasies bedaar, 9sodat ook die mense in afgeleë lande ontsag kry vir die tekens van u mag; in die ooste en in die weste laat U die mense juig. 10U sorg vir die land en gee oorvloed, U maak dit baie vrugbaar. Die groot riviere is vol water, U laat die koring welig staan. Alles is u werk! 11U maak die ploegvore vol water en die kluite nat, U laat hulle sag word van die reëns, U laat alles welig groei. 12U kroon die jaar met u goeie gawes. Waar U ook gaan, is daar oorvloed! 13Daar is volop weiding in die woestyn; die bulte juig, 14die velde wemel van die kleinvee, die vlaktes staan vol koring; hulle juig en hulle sing.

Psalms 66

How Awesome Are Your Deeds

Psa 66:1 Praise God with shouts of joy, all people!

Psa 66:2 Sing to the glory of his name; offer him glorious praise!

Psa 66:3 Say to God, "How wonderful are the things you do! Your power is so great that your enemies bow down in fear before you.

Psa 66:4 Everyone on earth worships you; they sing praises to you, they sing praises to your name."

Psa 66:5 Come and see what God has done, his wonderful acts among people.

Psa 66:6 He changed the sea into dry land; our ancestors crossed the river on foot. There we rejoiced because of what he did.

Psa 66:7 He rules forever by his might and keeps his eyes on the nations. Let no rebels rise against him.

Psa 66:8 Praise our God, all nations; let your praise be heard.

Psa 66:9 He has kept us alive and has not allowed us to fall.

Psa 66:10 You have put us to the test, God; as silver is purified by fire, so you have tested us.

Psa 66:11 You let us fall into a trap and placed heavy burdens on our backs.

Psa 66:12 You let our enemies trample us; we went through fire and flood, but now you have brought us to a place of safety.

Psa 66:13 I will bring burnt offerings to your house; I will offer you what I promised.

Psa 66:14 I will give you what I said I would when I was in trouble.

Psa 66:15 I will offer sheep to be burned on the altar; I will sacrifice bulls and goats, and the smoke will go up to the sky.

Psa 66:16 Come and listen, all who honor God, and I will tell you what he has done for me.

Psa 66:17 I cried to him for help; I praised him with songs.

Psa 66:18 If I had ignored my sins, the Lord would not have listened to me.

Psa 66:19 But God has indeed heard me; he has listened to my prayer.

Psa 66:20 I praise God, because he did not reject my prayer or keep back his constant love from me.

PSALMS 66

1Vir die koorleier. 'n Lied. 'n Psalm. Juig tot eer van God, almal op aarde! 2Sing tot roem van sy Naam, gee Hom die eer wat Hom toekom! 3Bely voor God: Hoe ontsagwekkend is u werk! U mag is groot, u vyande kruip voor U. 4Alle mense moet voor U buig, hulle moet sing tot u eer, hulle moet sing tot eer van u Naam. Sela 5Kom hoor wat God gedoen het, kom hoor van sy magtige dade onder die mense: 6Hy het die see in droë land verander; sy volk het droogvoets deur die rivier getrek. Toe het ons gejubel oor Hom 7wat ewig heers deur sy mag en die nasies in die oog hou. Die vyande moet hulle nie teen God verset nie! Sela 8Prys ons God, alle volke, laat sy lof weerklink! 9Dit is Hy wat ons die lewe gee en nie toelaat dat ons struikel nie! 10U het ons beproef, o God, ons gelouter soos silwer; 11U het ons in 'n net gevang, 'n swaar las op ons gelê; 12U het ons deur mense laat vertrap, ons het deur vuur en water gegaan; maar toe het U ons uitgelei na oorvloed toe. 13Ek sal u huis betree met brandoffers en aan U die geloftes betaal 14wat ek gedoen het, wat ek afgelê het toe ek in nood was. 15Ek bring vir U vet skape as brandoffers, ramme as wierookoffers, ek offer beeste en bokke. Sela 16Kom luister, alle dienaars van God, ek wil vertel wat Hy vir my gedoen het: 17Skaars het ek na Hom geroep, of daar was reeds 'n loflied op my lippe. 18As daar sonde in my hart was, sou die Here nie geluister het nie. 19Maar God hét geluister, Hy hét my gebed verhoor! 20Die lof kom God toe wat my gebed nie afgewys en sy trou nie van my weerhou het nie.

Psalms 67

Make Your Face Shine upon Us

Psa 67:1 God, be merciful to us and bless us; look on us with kindness,

Psa 67:2 so that the whole world may know your will; so that all nations may know your salvation.

Psa 67:3 May the peoples praise you, O God; may all the peoples praise you!

Psa 67:4 May the nations be glad and sing for joy, because you judge the peoples with justice and guide every nation on earth.

Psa 67:5 May the peoples praise you, O God; may all the peoples praise you!

Psa 67:6 The land has produced its harvest; God, our God, has blessed us.

Psa 67:7 God has blessed us; may all people everywhere honor him.

PSALMS 67

1Vir die koorleier: met snarespel. 'n Psalm. 'n Lied. 2Mag God ons genadig wees en ons seën, mag Hy tot ons redding verskyn, Sela 3sodat sy dade oor die wêreld heen bekend mag word, sy reddende krag onder alle nasies. 4Mag die volke U loof, o God, mag al die volke U loof! 5Mag die nasies bly wees en jubel omdat U hulle regverdig regeer en hulle op die aarde lei. Sela 6Mag die volke U loof, o God, mag al die volke U loof! 7Die land het sy oes gelewer. God, ons God, het ons geseën. 8God het ons geseën. Die mense op die hele aarde moet Hom eer.

Psalms 68

God Shall Scatter His Enemies

Psa 68:1 God rises up and scatters his enemies. Those who hate him run away in defeat.

Psa 68:2 As smoke is blown away, so he drives them off; as wax melts in front of the fire, so do the wicked perish in God's presence.

Psa 68:3 But the righteous are glad and rejoice in his presence; they are happy and shout for joy.

Psa 68:4 Sing to God, sing praises to his name; prepare a way for him who rides on the clouds. His name is the LORD—be glad in his presence!

Psa 68:5 God, who lives in his sacred Temple, cares for orphans and protects widows.

Psa 68:6 He gives the lonely a home to live in and leads prisoners out into happy freedom, but rebels will have to live in a desolate land.

Psa 68:7 O God, when you led your people, when you marched across the desert,

Psa 68:8 the earth shook, and the sky poured down rain, because of the coming of the God of Sinai, the coming of the God of Israel.

Psa 68:9 You caused abundant rain to fall and restored your worn-out land;

Psa 68:10 your people made their home there; in your goodness you provided for the poor.

Psa 68:11 The Lord gave the command, and many women carried the news:

Psa 68:12 "Kings and their armies are running away!" The women at home divided what was captured:

Psa 68:13 figures of doves covered with silver, whose wings glittered with fine gold. (Why did some of you stay among the sheep pens on the day of battle?)

Psa 68:14 When Almighty God scattered the kings on Mount Zalmon, he caused snow to fall there.

Psa 68:15 What a mighty mountain is Bashan, a mountain of many peaks!

Psa 68:16 Why from your mighty peaks do you look with scorn on the mountain on which God chose to live? The LORD will live there forever!

Psa 68:17 With his many thousands of mighty chariots the Lord comes from Sinai into the holy place.

Psa 68:18 He goes up to the heights, taking many captives with him; he receives gifts from rebellious people. The LORD God will live there.

Psa 68:19 Praise the Lord, who carries our burdens day after day; he is the God who saves us.

Psa 68:20 Our God is a God who saves; he is the LORD, our Lord, who rescues us from death.

Psa 68:21 God will surely break the heads of his enemies, of those who persist in their sinful ways.

Psa 68:22 The Lord has said, "I will bring your enemies back from Bashan; I will bring them back from the depths of the ocean, Psa 68:23 so that you may wade in their blood, and your dogs may lap up as much as they want."

Psa 68:24 O God, your march of triumph is seen by all, the procession of God, my king, into his sanctuary.

Psa 68:25 The singers are in front, the musicians are behind, in between are the young women beating the tambourines.

Psa 68:26 "Praise God in the meeting of his people; praise the LORD, all you descendants of Jacob!"

Psa 68:27 First comes Benjamin, the smallest tribe, then the leaders of Judah with their group, followed by the leaders of Zebulun and Naphtali.

Psa 68:28 Show your power, O God, the power you have used on our behalf Psa 68:29 from your Temple in Jerusalem, where kings bring gifts to you.

Psa 68:30 Rebuke Egypt, that wild animal in the reeds; rebuke the nations, that herd of bulls with their calves, until they all bow down and offer you their silver. Scatter those people who love to make war!

Psa 68:31 Ambassadors will come from Egypt; the Ethiopians will raise their hands in prayer to God.

Psa 68:32 Sing to God, kingdoms of the world, sing praise to the Lord, Psa 68:33 to him who rides in the sky, the ancient sky. Listen to him shout with a mighty roar.

Psa 68:34 Proclaim God's power; his majesty is over Israel, his might is in the skies.

Psa 68:35 How awesome is God as he comes from his sanctuary—the God of Israel! He gives strength and power to his people. Praise God!

PSALMS 68

1Vir die koorleier. Van Dawid. 'n Psalm. 'n Lied. 2As God verskyn, spat sy vyande uitmekaar, en dié wat Hom haat, vlug vir Hom. 3Soos rook wegwaai, so dryf U hulle weg; soos was in vuur smelt, so gaan die goddeloses tot niet as God verskyn. 4Maar vir die regverdiges sal daar blydskap wees, hulle sal juig voor God, hulle sal vrolik en bly wees. 5Sing 'n lied tot eer van God, sing tot eer van sy Naam, maak 'n pad vir Hom wat op die wolke ry, en jubel voor Hom wie se Naam Here is. 6'n Vader vir weeskinders en 'n beskermer van die reg van weduwees is God in sy heilige woning. 7God laat eensames in 'n huisgesin woon en lei gevangenes uit na vryheid, maar wie teen God in opstand is, woon in 'n kaal woestyn. 8Toe U u volk uitgelei het, o God, toe U deur die woestyn gestap het, Sela 9het die aarde gebewe en het die hemel dit laat reën voor U uit, daar by Sinai, voor God, die God van Israel. 10U het oorvloedige reëns laat uitsak, o God, U het u verdorde land weer lewe gegee. 11U eie volk het daar gaan woon. In u goedheid, o God, het U dit vir u hulpelose volk bestem. 12Die Here het bekend gemaak: Daar is goeie nuus: 'n groot leër, 13magtige konings, het gevlug, hulle het gevlug. Terwyl die manskappe nog tussen die saalsakke gelê en rus het, was die vroue tuis al besig om die buit te verdeel: beeldjies van duiwe waarvan die vlerke oorgetrek is met silwer en die vlerkpunte met glinsterende goud. 14Dit het gesneeu op Salmonsberg toe die Almagtige die konings daar uitmekaargejaag het. 15Basansberg, ontsaglike berg, Basansberg, berg met hoë kruine, 16waarom, berg met jou hoë kruine, kyk jy met afguns na die berg wat God as sy woning verkies het, waar die Here vir ewig woon? 17Die skitterende strydwaens van God was duisende, duisende der duisende, toe die Here van Sinai af die heiligdom betree het. 18U het krygsgevangenes weggevoer, mense het vir U geskenke gebring, selfs dié wat teen U in opstand was. Toe het U opgegaan na die hoogte om daar te woon, Here God! 19Geloof sy die Here! Dag na dag dra Hy ons! God is ons hulp! Sela 20God is vir ons die God wat ons red, die Here ons God deur wie ons bewaar word in doodsgevaar. 21God verpletter die kop van sy vyande, die kop van dié wat in hulle sonde volhard. 22Die Here het gesê: Uit Basan bring Ek my vyande, Ek bring hulle uit die dieptes van die see. 23Julle sal hulle bloed van julle voete afwas, die honde sal die bloed van julle vyande oplek. 24Die mense sien u feesoptog, o God, die feesoptog van my God, my Koning, na sy heiligdom: 25vooraan die sangers, agteraan dié wat snaarinstrumente speel, en tussenin, meisies wat tamboeryne slaan. 26Hulle loof God in kore, die nasate van Israel loof die Here. 27Dáár is Benjamin, die jongste, hulle aanvoerder, dáár is die baie leiers van Juda, dié van Sebulon, dié van Naftali! [28]Toon die mag, o God, waarmee U ons gered het, toon u mag, o God, [29]hier uit u tempel in Jerusalem waar konings aan U geskenke bring. [30]Tree op teen Egipte, daardie ondier tussen die riete, die magtige volk, die sterkste onder die volke, wat ander vertrap vir geld, wat volke uitmekaarjaag en hou van oorlog maak. [31]Uit daardie selfde Egipte sal geskenke kom, en die Kussiete sal hulle hande smekend na God toe uitsteek. [32]Koninkryke van die aarde, hef 'n lied aan tot eer van God, sing tot eer van die Here, Sela [33]tot eer van Hom wat ry deur die hemele, die hemele wat van die begin af daar is! Hy laat sy stem, sy magtige stem, weerklink! [34]Erken dat God magtig is! Hy heers oor Israel, Hy het mag oor die wolke! [35]God wek ontsag wanneer Hy uit sy heiligdom kom. Hy is die God van Israel, Hy gee krag en sterkte aan sy volk. Aan God kom die lof toe.

Psalms 69

Save Me, O God

Psa 69:1 Save me, O God! The water is up to my neck;

Psa 69:2 I am sinking in deep mud, and there is no solid ground; I am out in deep water, and the waves are about to drown me.

Psa 69:3 I am worn out from calling for help, and my throat is aching. I have strained my eyes, looking for your help.

Psa 69:4 Those who hate me for no reason are more numerous than the hairs of my head. My enemies tell lies against me; they are strong and want to kill me. They made me give back things I did not steal.

Psa 69:5 My sins, O God, are not hidden from you; you know how foolish I have been.

Psa 69:6 Don't let me bring shame on those who trust in you, Sovereign LORD Almighty! Don't let me bring disgrace to those who worship you, O God of Israel!

Psa 69:7 It is for your sake that I have been insulted and that I am covered with shame.

Psa 69:8 I am like a stranger to my relatives, like a foreigner to my family.

Psa 69:9 My devotion to your Temple burns in me like a fire; the insults which are hurled at you fall on me.

Psa 69:10 I humble myself by fasting, and people insult me;

Psa 69:11 I dress myself in clothes of mourning, and they laugh at me.

Psa 69:12 They talk about me in the streets, and drunkards make up songs about me.

Psa 69:13 But as for me, I will pray to you, LORD; answer me, God, at a time you choose. Answer me because of your great love, because you keep your promise to save.

Psa 69:14 Save me from sinking in the mud; keep me safe from my enemies, safe from the deep water.

Psa 69:15 Don't let the flood come over me; don't let me drown in the depths or sink into the grave.

Psa 69:16 Answer me, LORD, in the goodness of your constant love; in your great compassion turn to me!

Psa 69:17 Don't hide yourself from your servant; I am in great trouble

—answer me now!

Psa 69:18 Come to me and save me; rescue me from my enemies.

Psa 69:19 You know how I am insulted, how I am disgraced and dishonored; you see all my enemies.

Psa 69:20 Insults have broken my heart, and I am in despair. I had hoped for sympathy, but there was none; for comfort, but I found none.

Psa 69:21 When I was hungry, they gave me poison; when I was thirsty, they offered me vinegar.

Psa 69:22 May their banquets cause their ruin; may their sacred feasts cause their downfall.

Psa 69:23 Strike them with blindness! Make their backs always weak!

Psa 69:24 Pour out your anger on them; let your indignation overtake them.

Psa 69:25 May their camps be left deserted; may no one be left alive in their tents.

Psa 69:26 They persecute those whom you have punished; they talk about the sufferings of those you have wounded.

Psa 69:27 Keep a record of all their sins; don't let them have any part in your salvation.

Psa 69:28 May their names be erased from the book of the living; may they not be included in the list of your people.

Psa 69:29 But I am in pain and despair; lift me up, O God, and save me!

Psa 69:30 I will praise God with a song; I will proclaim his greatness by giving him thanks.

Psa 69:31 This will please the LORD more than offering him cattle, more than sacrificing a full-grown bull.

Psa 69:32 When the oppressed see this, they will be glad; those who worship God will be encouraged.

Psa 69:33 The LORD listens to those in need and does not forget his people in prison.

Psa 69:34 Praise God, O heaven and earth, seas and all creatures in them.

Psa 69:35 He will save Jerusalem and rebuild the towns of Judah. His people will live there and possess the land;

Psa 69:36 the descendants of his servants will inherit it, and those who love him will live there.

PSALMS 69

1Vir die koorleier: op die wysie van Lelies. Van Dawid. 2Red my, o God, want die water het tot by my keel gekom. 3Ek het weggesak in diep modder waarin ek nie kan staan nie. Ek het in diep waters beland waarin die stroom my meegesleur het. 4Ek het my moeg geroep om hulp, my keel is hees geroep, selfs my oë het ingegee soos ek vir my God gewag het. 5Dié wat my sonder rede haat, is meer as die hare op my kop. Dié wat my vir altyd wil stilmaak, is sterk. My vyande dwing my met vals beskuldigings om af te gee wat ek nie geroof het nie. 6U weet hoe sondig ek is, o God, my verkeerde dade kan ek tog nie vir U wegsteek nie. 7Here, almagtige God, moenie dat dié wat op U vertrou, deur my toedoen teleurgestel word nie. God van Israel, moenie dat dié wat by U hulp soek, deur my toedoen beskaam word nie. 8Omdat ek op U vertrou, word ek beledig en verkleineer. 9Ek het vreemd geword vir my broers, my familie wil my nie meer ken nie. 10Omdat ek u huis liefhet, moet ek ly; die beledigings teen U het ook vir my getref. 11Ek het gevas en gehuil en daarvoor net beledigings gekry. 12Ek het rouklere aangetrek, maar hulle het met my gespot. 13Die leeglêers in die stadspoort maak praatjies oor my, en dronklappe maak liedjies oor my. 14My gebed is tot U gerig, Here, antwoord my tog gou, Here, antwoord my in u groot liefde, o God; u hulp staan vas. 15Red my uit die modder, dat ek nie wegsak nie, laat my wegkom van my vyande af, weg uit die diep waters. 16Moenie dat die stroom my meesleur en die diep water my insluk nie, en moenie dat hierdie put toegaan bokant my nie. 17Antwoord my, Here, in u wonderlike liefde, verhoor my in u groot barmhartigheid! 18Moet tog nie u dienaar alleen laat nie! Ek is in groot gevaar, antwoord my tog gou! 19Kom red my lewe, bevry my van my vyande. 20U weet hoe ek beledig en verkleineer is, hoe sleg ek daarvan afgekom het voor al my vyande. 21Beledigings het my gebreek, ek is gedaan. Ek het gehoop op meegevoel, maar tevergeefs, op mense om my te troos, maar daar was nie een nie. 22Toe ek honger was, het hulle my gif aangebied, toe ek dors was, wou hulle my asyn laat drink. 23Laat hulle feeste hulle tot 'n val bring en hulle offermaaltye hulle ondergang wees. 24Laat hulle stokblind word, laat hulle gebreklik word. 25Laat u straf hulle tref en die vlam van u toorn hulle oorval. 26Laat hulle blyplekke verwoes word sodat daar niemand oor is in hulle wonings nie, 27want hulle vervolg hom wat swaar deur U getref is en verlustig hulle in die pyn van hom wat deur U deurboor is. 28Reken ook dít by hulle skuld sodat hulle nie vrygespreek word nie! 29Skrap hulle name uit die boek van die lewe dat dit nie saam met dié van die regverdiges opgeskryf staan nie! 30Ek is 'n hulpelose mens, vol pyn, maar U, o God, sal my red en my beskerm. 31Dan sal ek die Naam van God besing, Hom met 'n danklied prys. 32So 'n offer is vir die Here verkiesliker as selfs 'n volmaakte offerdier. 33Die verdruktes sal my lied hoor en bly wees, dié wat by God hulp soek, sal moed skep, 34want die Here slaan ag op die armes, Hy vergeet nie sy mense wat gevangenes is nie. 35Laat hemel en aarde Hom prys, die see met alles wat daarin wemel. 36God sal Sion red en die stede van Juda herbou. Sy volk sal daarin woon en die land besit. 37Die nasate van God se dienaars sal dit erf en dié wat sy Naam liefhet, sal daarin woon.

Psalms 70

O Lord, Do Not Delay

Psa 70:1 Save me, O God! LORD, help me now!

Psa 70:2 May those who try to kill me be defeated and confused. May those who are happy because of my troubles be turned back and disgraced.

Psa 70:3 May those who make fun of me be dismayed by their defeat.

Psa 70:4 May all who come to you be glad and joyful. May all who are thankful for your salvation always say, "How great is God!"

Psa 70:5 I am weak and poor; come to me quickly, O God. You are my savior and my LORD—hurry to my aid!

PSALMS 70

1Vir die koorleier. Van Dawid. Ter herinnering. 2Red my tog, o God, Here, kom my tog gou te hulp! 3Laat dié wat my lewe wil neem, self in die ellende beland, teleurgestel in hulle verwagting. Laat dié wat graag my ondergang wil sien, op die vlug slaan en beskaamd staan. 4Laat dié wat my spot, padgee omdat hulle self in die ellende beland het. 5Laat almal wat by U hulp soek, jubel en bly wees oor U, laat dié wat op u hulp staat maak, altyddeur sê: God is groot! 6Ek is hulpeloos en arm; kom tog gou na my toe, o God. U is my hulp en my redder, Here, moet tog nie talm nie!

Psalms 71

Forsake Me Not When My Strength Is Spent

Psa 71:1 LORD, I have come to you for protection; never let me be defeated!

Psa 71:2 Because you are righteous, help me and rescue me. Listen to me and save me!

Psa 71:3 Be my secure shelter and a strong fortress to protect me; you are my refuge and defense.

Psa 71:4 My God, rescue me from wicked people, from the power of cruel and evil people.

Psa 71:5 Sovereign LORD, I put my hope in you; I have trusted in you since I was young.

Psa 71:6 I have relied on you all my life; you have protected me since the day I was born. I will always praise you.

Psa 71:7 My life has been an example to many, because you have been my strong defender.

Psa 71:8 All day long I praise you and proclaim your glory.

Psa 71:9 Do not reject me now that I am old; do not abandon me now that I am feeble.

Psa 71:10 My enemies want to kill me; they talk and plot against me.

Psa 71:11 They say, "God has abandoned him; let's go after him and catch him; there is no one to rescue him."

Psa 71:12 Don't stay so far away, O God; my God, hurry to my aid!

Psa 71:13 May those who attack me be defeated and destroyed. May those who try to hurt me be shamed and disgraced.

Psa 71:14 I will always put my hope in you; I will praise you more and more.

Psa 71:15 I will tell of your goodness; all day long I will speak of your salvation, though it is more than I can understand.

Psa 71:16 I will go in the strength of the LORD God; I will proclaim your goodness, yours alone.

Psa 71:17 You have taught me ever since I was young, and I still tell of your wonderful acts.

Psa 71:18 Now that I am old and my hair is gray, do not abandon me,

O God! Be with me while I proclaim your power and might to all generations to come.

Psa 71:19 Your righteousness, God, reaches the skies. You have done great things; there is no one like you.

Psa 71:20 You have sent troubles and suffering on me, but you will restore my strength; you will keep me from the grave.

Psa 71:21 You will make me greater than ever; you will comfort me again.

Psa 71:22 I will indeed praise you with the harp; I will praise your faithfulness, my God. On my harp I will play hymns to you, the Holy One of Israel.

Psa 71:23 I will shout for joy as I play for you; with my whole being I will sing because you have saved me.

Psa 71:24 I will speak of your righteousness all day long, because those who tried to harm me have been defeated and disgraced.

PSALMS 71

1By U, Here, skuil ek, laat my tog nooit teleurgestel staan nie! 2Red my en bevry my, want U is getrou. Luister tog na my en help my! 3Wees vir my 'n rots om na toe te vlug, waar ek altyd die veiligheid mag vind wat U tot my redding beskik het, want U is my rots en my vesting. 4My God, bevry my uit die hand van goddeloses, uit die greep van skurke en verdrukkers, 5want U, Here, U is my hoop, op U, Here, het ek van jongs af vertrou. 6U is my hulp van my geboorte af, reeds voor ek in die wêreld gekom het, het U my beskerm. U loof ek gedurigdeur. 7Ek is vir baie 'n wonder, want U is my veilige toevlug. 8Ek besing u lof en u roem gedurigdeur. 9Moet my tog nie verwerp nou dat ek oud geword het nie, moet my tog nie alleen laat nou dat my kragte ingegee het nie. 10My vyande sweer saam teen my, dié wat my lewe soek, smee 'n komplot teen my. 11Hulle sê: God het hom alleen gelaat! Agtervolg hom en gryp hom, want daar is niemand om hom te red nie! 12Moet tog nie ver van my af bly nie, o God, kom my tog gou te hulp, my God! 13Laat dié wat my vals beskuldig, self in die ellende beland en vernietig word. Laat oor dié wat my ondergang soek, net skande en mislukking kom. 14Ek, ek sal gedurigdeur bly hoop, ek sal U altyd weer loof. 15Sonder ophou sal ek van u verlossingswerk, van u reddingsdade bly praat, want hulle is meer as wat ek kan tel. 16Ek kom om u magtige dade te prys, Here my God, die verlossingswerk wat net U kan doen. 17U het my van jongs af onderrig, o God, en ek getuig nou nog van u kragtige dade. 18Nou dat ek oud en grys geword het, moet U my tog nie alleen laat nie, o God, dat ek nog aan die geslagte wat kom, kan vertel van u werk en u mag. 19U verlossingswerk, o God, is oneindig groot; groot is die dinge wat U gedoen het! Wie is soos U, o God? 20U het talle benoude ervaringe oor my gebring, maar elke keer weer my lewe gered, my elke keer weer weggeruk uit die mag van die dood. 21Herstel my tog in my eer, gee tog uitkoms! 22Dan sal ek U met die harp loof vir u getrouheid, my God, saam met die lier sal ek sing tot u eer, Heilige van Israel. 23Ek sal jubel as ek tot u eer sing, omdat U my gered het. 24Ek sal die hele dag deur praat van u verlossingswerk, want dié wat my ondergang soek, staan teleurgestel in hulle verwagting; hulle beland self in die ellende.

Psalms 72

Give the King Your Justice

Psa 72:1 Teach the king to judge with your righteousness, O God; share with him your own justice,

Psa 72:2 so that he will rule over your people with justice and govern the oppressed with righteousness.

Psa 72:3 May the land enjoy prosperity; may it experience righteousness.

Psa 72:4 May the king judge the poor fairly; may he help the needy and defeat their oppressors.

Psa 72:5 May your people worship you as long as the sun shines, as long as the moon gives light, for ages to come.

Psa 72:6 May the king be like rain on the fields, like showers falling on the land.

Psa 72:7 May righteousness flourish in his lifetime, and may prosperity last as long as the moon gives light.

Psa 72:8 His kingdom will reach from sea to sea, from the Euphrates to the ends of the earth.

Psa 72:9 The peoples of the desert will bow down before him; his enemies will throw themselves to the ground.

Psa 72:10 The kings of Spain and of the islands will offer him gifts; the kings of Sheba and Seba will bring him offerings.

Psa 72:11 All kings will bow down before him; all nations will serve him.

Psa 72:12 He rescues the poor who call to him, and those who are needy and neglected.

Psa 72:13 He has pity on the weak and poor; he saves the lives of those in need.

Psa 72:14 He rescues them from oppression and violence; their lives are precious to him.

Psa 72:15 Long live the king! May he be given gold from Sheba; may prayers be said for him at all times; may God's blessings be on him always!

Psa 72:16 May there be plenty of grain in the land; may the hills be covered with crops, as fruitful as those of Lebanon. May the cities be filled with people, like fields full of grass.

Psa 72:17 May the king's name never be forgotten; may his fame last as long as the sun. May all nations ask God to bless them as he has blessed the king.

Psa 72:18 Praise the LORD, the God of Israel! He alone does these wonderful things.

Psa 72:19 Praise his glorious name forever! May his glory fill the whole world. Amen! Amen!

Psa 72:20 This is the end of the prayers of David son of Jesse.

PSALMS 72

[1]Van Salomo. Leer tog die koning, o God, om te regeer volgens u wil, leer die koning om die reg te handhaaf soos U dit wil, [2]sodat hy regverdige beslissings oor u volk sal vel en aan die verdruktes reg laat geskied. [3]Laat berge en rante hulle verbly oor die vrede en reg vir die volk. [4]Laat die koning die reg van die verdruktes onder die volk beskerm, laat hy armes te hulp kom en verdrukkers verbrysel, [5]sodat die mense U kan dien so lank as die son en die maan daar is, van geslag tot geslag. [6]Mag die koning vir sy mense wees soos die reën vir die plante, soos swaar reëns wat die aarde deurdrenk. [7]Mag die reg onder sy regering floreer en mag daar vir altyd groot voorspoed wees. [8]Mag hy heers van see tot see, van die Eufraat af tot in verre lande. [9]Mag die woestynbewoners voor hom kniel en sy vyande voor hom in die stof kruip. [10]Mag die konings van Tarsis en die kuslande geskenke bring, die konings van Skeba en Seba aan hom belasting betaal. [11]Mag alle konings voor hom buig en al die nasies hom dien. [12]Hy sal die arme red wat om hulp roep, die verdrukte en dié wat geen helper het nie; [13]hy sal hom oor die swakke en die behoeftige ontferm, die lewens van die arm mense beskerm. [14]Hy sal hulle van onderdrukking en geweld bevry; hulle lewens sal kosbaar wees in sy oë. [15]Mag die koning lank lewe, mag daar vir hom goud uit Skeba gebring word; mag die mense gedurig vir hom bid en die hele dag seënbedes vir hom uitspreek. [16]Mag daar volop graan in die land wees, mag dit selfs bo-op die bergtoppe wuif, mag die oes so welig wees soos die Libanon, die graan so geil opskiet soos gras in die veld. [17]Mag die koning se naam altyd onthou word, mag sy roem duur so lank as die son daar is, sodat al die nasies hulle in sy regering verlustig en hom prys! [18]Geloof sy God die Here, die God van Israel. Dit is net Hy wat magtige dade doen! [19]Mag sy verhewe Naam vir altyd geloof word, mag die hele wêreld vol wees van sy majesteit. Amen, ja, amen. [20]Hier eindig die gebede van Dawid, seun van Isai.

Psalms 73

God Is My Strength and Portion Forever

Psa 73:1 God is indeed good to Israel, to those who have pure hearts.

Psa 73:2 But I had nearly lost confidence; my faith was almost gone

Psa 73:3 because I was jealous of the proud when I saw that things go well for the wicked.

Psa 73:4 They do not suffer pain; they are strong and healthy.

Psa 73:5 They do not suffer as other people do; they do not have the troubles that others have.

Psa 73:6 And so they wear pride like a necklace and violence like a robe;

Psa 73:7 their hearts pour out evil, and their minds are busy with wicked schemes.

Psa 73:8 They laugh at other people and speak of evil things; they are proud and make plans to oppress others.

Psa 73:9 They speak evil of God in heaven and give arrogant orders to everyone on earth,

Psa 73:10 so that even God's people turn to them and eagerly believe whatever they say.

Psa 73:11 They say, "God will not know; the Most High will not find out."

Psa 73:12 That is what the wicked are like. They have plenty and are always getting more.

Psa 73:13 Is it for nothing, then, that I have kept myself pure and have not committed sin?

Psa 73:14 O God, you have made me suffer all day long; every morning you have punished me.

Psa 73:15 If I had said such things, I would not be acting as one of your people.

Psa 73:16 I tried to think this problem through, but it was too difficult for me

Psa 73:17 until I went into your Temple. Then I understood what will happen to the wicked.

Psa 73:18 You will put them in slippery places and make them fall to destruction!

Psa 73:19 They are instantly destroyed; they go down to a horrible end.

Psa 73:20 They are like a dream that goes away in the morning; when you rouse yourself, O Lord, they disappear.

Psa 73:21 When my thoughts were bitter and my feelings were hurt,

Psa 73:22 I was as stupid as an animal; I did not understand you.

Psa 73:23 Yet I always stay close to you, and you hold me by the hand.

Psa 73:24 You guide me with your instruction and at the end you will receive me with honor.

Psa 73:25 What else do I have in heaven but you? Since I have you, what else could I want on earth?

Psa 73:26 My mind and my body may grow weak, but God is my strength; he is all I ever need.

Psa 73:27 Those who abandon you will certainly perish; you will destroy those who are unfaithful to you.

Psa 73:28 But as for me, how wonderful to be near God, to find protection with the Sovereign LORD and to proclaim all that he has done!

PSALMS 73

1'n Psalm van Asaf. God is vir Israel baie goed, vir dié wat rein van hart is. 2Tog het ek daaraan begin twyfel, ek het byna koers verloor, 3want ek het die hooghartige goddeloses met afguns bejeën toe ek hulle voorspoed sien. 4Hulle het geen kwellings nie, hulle is sterk en gesond, 5hulle het nie sorge soos ander mense nie, hulle het nie teëspoed soos ander nie. 6Daarom hang die trots aan hulle soos 'n halssnoer en kleef geweld aan hulle soos 'n kleed. 7In die weelde van hulle voorspoed matig hulle hulle enigiets aan; 8smalend stook hulle kwaad, hooghartig dreig hulle met geweld. 9Hulle laster teen die hemel en beledig links en regs op die aarde. 10Tog hang die volk hulle aan en drink gretig hulle woorde in. 11Hulle vra: Hoe sal God dit uitvind? Hoe sal die Allerhoogste dit weet? 12Dit is hoe die goddelose mense is! So gaan hulle ongehinderd voort om rykdom op te hoop! 13Dat ek die kwaad vermy het en met 'n eed my onskuld verklaar het, het dus niks gehelp nie, 14want elke nuwe dag het vir my teenslae gebring en elke nuwe môre straf. 15Maar as ek so sou aanhou praat, sou ek dié verloën wat aan U behoort. 16Daarom het ek diep nagedink om dit te verstaan en was dit vir my bitter moeilik 17totdat ek in die heiligdom van God ingegaan en besef het wat die uiteinde van die goddeloses is. 18U laat hulle op gladde plekke loop, U laat hulle ondergaan deur hulle eie geknoei. 19In 'n oogwink word hulle iets afgrysliks, gaan hulle te gronde, tref 'n verskriklike einde hulle. 20Net soos 'n droom wat ophou as 'n mens wakker word, so verdwyn hulle, Here, as U ingryp. 21Toe ek verbitter was en veronreg gevoel het, 22was ek dom en sonder insig; soos 'n redelose dier het ek my teenoor U gedra. 23Tog was ek nog altyd by U, want U vat my aan die hand. 24U lei my met u raad en aan die einde sal U my in ere by U opneem. 25Daar is niks in die hemel of op die aarde wat vir my meer beteken as U nie. 26Al is ek afgetakel na liggaam en gees, God is my sterkte; aan Hom behoort ek vir altyd. 27Dié wat ver van U af is, gaan verlore, U vernietig dié wat aan U ontrou is. 28Maar wat my aangaan, dit is vir my goed om naby God te wees. Ek het die Here my God gekies as my toevlug! Ek sal van al u werke bly vertel.

Psalms 74

Arise, O God, Defend Your Cause

Psa 74:1 Why have you abandoned us like this, O God? Will you be angry with your own people forever?

Psa 74:2 Remember your people, whom you chose for yourself long ago, whom you brought out of slavery to be your own tribe. Remember Mount Zion, where once you lived.

Psa 74:3 Walk over these total ruins; our enemies have destroyed everything in the Temple.

Psa 74:4 Your enemies have shouted in triumph in your Temple; they have placed their flags there as signs of victory.

Psa 74:5 They looked like woodsmen cutting down trees with their axes.

Psa 74:6 They smashed all the wooden panels with their axes and sledge hammers.

Psa 74:7 They wrecked your Temple and set it on fire; they desecrated the place where you are worshiped.

Psa 74:8 They wanted to crush us completely; they burned down every holy place in the land.

Psa 74:9 All our sacred symbols are gone; there are no prophets left, and no one knows how long this will last.

Psa 74:10 How long, O God, will our enemies laugh at you? Will they insult your name forever?

Psa 74:11 Why have you refused to help us? Why do you keep your hands behind you?

Psa 74:12 But you have been our king from the beginning, O God; you have saved us many times.

Psa 74:13 With your mighty strength you divided the sea and smashed the heads of the sea monsters;

Psa 74:14 you crushed the heads of the monster Leviathan and fed his body to desert animals.

Psa 74:15 You made springs and fountains flow; you dried up large rivers.

Psa 74:16 You created the day and the night; you set the sun and the moon in their places;

Psa 74:17 you set the limits of the earth; you made summer and winter.

Psa 74:18 But remember, O LORD, that your enemies laugh at you, that they are godless and despise you.

Psa 74:19 Don't abandon your helpless people to their cruel enemies; don't forget your persecuted people!

Psa 74:20 Remember the covenant you made with us. There is violence in every dark corner of the land.

Psa 74:21 Don't let the oppressed be put to shame; let those poor and needy people praise you.
